Third Series of Speeches

Eliphaz Speaks

22 Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:

- 2 Can a man be of [any] use to God?
Can even a wise man be of use to Him?
- 3 Does it delight the •Almighty if you are righteous?
Does He profit if you perfect
your behavior?
- 4 Does He correct you and take you to court
because of your piety?
- 5 Isn't your wickedness abundant and aren't your iniquities endless?
- 6 For you took collateral from your brothers
without cause,
stripping off their clothes
and leaving them naked.
- 7 You gave no water to the thirsty
and withheld food from the famished,

- 8 while the land belonged to a powerful man
and an influential man lived on it.
- 9 You sent widows away empty-handed,
and the strength of the fatherless was^c crushed.
- 10 Therefore snares surround you,
and sudden dread terrifies you,
or darkness, so you cannot see,
and a flood of water covers you.
- 12 Isn't God as high as the heavens?
And look at the highest stars—how lofty they are!
- 13 Yet you say: "What does God know?
Can He judge through thick darkness?
Clouds veil Him so that He cannot see,
as He walks on the circle of the sky."
- 15 Will you continue on the ancient path that wicked men have walked?
- 16 They were snatched away
before their time,
and their foundations were washed away
by a river.
- 17 They were the ones who said to God,
"Leave us alone!"
and "What can the Almighty do to us?"^d
- 18 But it was He who filled their houses
with good things.
The counsel of the wicked is far from me!
- 19 The righteous see [this] and rejoice;
the innocent mock them, [saying],
- 20 "Surely our opponents are destroyed,
and fire has consumed
what they left behind."
- 21 Come to terms with God and be at peace;
in this way^e good will come to you.
- 22 Receive instruction from His mouth,
and place His sayings in your heart.
- 23 If you return to the Almighty, you will be renewed.
If you banish injustice from your tent
and consign your gold to the dust,
[the gold of] Ophir to the stones
in the •wadis,
- 25 the Almighty will be your gold
and your finest silver.
- 26 Then you will delight in the Almighty
and lift up your face to God.
- 27 You will pray to Him, and He will hear you,
and you will fulfill your vows.

- 28 When you make a decision, it will be carried out,^a and light will shine on your ways.
 29 When others are humiliated and you say, "Lift [them] up," God will save the humble.^b
 30 He will [even] rescue the guilty one, who will be rescued by the purity of your hands.

Job's Reply to Eliphaz

23 Then Job answered:

- 2 Today also my complaint is bitter:^c His^d hand is heavy despite my groaning.
 3 If only I knew how to find Him, so that I could go to His throne.
 4 I would plead my case before Him and fill my mouth with arguments.
 5 I would learn how^e He would answer me; and understand what He would say to me.
 6 Would He prosecute me forcefully? No, He will certainly pay attention to me.
 7 There an upright man could reason with Him, and I would escape from my Judge forever.
 8 If I go east, He is not there, and if I go west, I cannot perceive Him.
 9 When He is at work to the north, I cannot see Him; when He turns south, I cannot find Him.
 10 Yet He knows the way I have taken;^f when He has tested me, I will emerge as pure gold.
 11 My feet have followed in His tracks; I have kept to His way and not turned aside.
 12 I have not departed from the commands of His lips; I have treasured^g the words of His mouth more than my daily food.
 13 But He is unchangeable; who can oppose Him? He does what He desires.
 14 He will certainly accomplish what He has decreed for me, and He has many more things like these in mind.^h

- 15 Therefore I am terrified in His presence; when I consider [this], I am afraid of Him.
 16 God has made my heart faint; the •Almighty has terrified me.
 17 Yet I am not destroyedⁱ by the darkness, by the thick darkness that covers my face.

- 24 Why does the •Almighty not reserve times for judgment?
 Why do those who know Him never see His days?
 2 The wicked displace boundary markers. They steal a flock and provide pasture for [it].
 3 They drive away the donkeys [owned] by the fatherless and take the widow's ox as collateral.
 4 They push the needy off the road; the poor of the land are forced into hiding.
 5 Like wild donkeys in the desert, the poor go out to their task of foraging for food; the wilderness provides nourishment for their children.
 6 They gather their fodder in the field and glean the vineyards of the wicked.
 7 Without clothing, they spend the night naked, having no covering against the cold.
 8 Drenched by mountain rains, they huddle against^j the rocks, shelterless.
 9 The fatherless infant is snatched from the breast; the nursing child of the poor is seized as collateral.^k
 10 Without clothing, they wander about naked. They carry sheaves but go hungry.
 11 They crush olives in their presses;^l they tread the winepresses, but go thirsty.
 12 From the city, men^m groan; the mortally wounded cry for help, yet God pays no attention to this crime.
 13 The wicked are those who rebel against the light. They do not recognize its ways or stay on its paths.
 14 The murderer rises at dawn to kill the poor and needy, and by night he becomes a thief.

- 15 The adulterer's eye watches for twilight,
thinking: No eye will see me,
he covers [his] face.
- 16 In the dark they break^a into houses;
by day they lock themselves in,^b never experiencing the light.
- 17 For the morning is like death's shadow
to them.
Surely they are familiar with the terrors of death's shadow!
- 18 They float^c on the surface of the water.
Their section of the land is cursed,
so that they never go to [their] vineyards.
- 19 As dry ground and heat snatch away
the melted snow,
so •Sheol [steals] those who have sinned.
- 20 The womb forgets them;
worms feed on them;
they are remembered no more.
So injustice is broken like a tree.
- 21 They prey on^d the barren, childless woman
and do not deal kindly with the widow.
- 22 Yet God drags away^e the mighty
by His power;
when He rises up, they have no assurance
of life.
- 23 He gives them a sense of security, so they can rely [on it],
but His eyes [watch] over their ways.
- 24 They are exalted for a moment, then they
are gone;
they are brought low and shrivel up like everything else.^f
They wither like heads of grain.
- 25 If this is not true, then who can prove me
a liar
and show that my speech is worthless?

Bildad Speaks

25 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:

- 2 Dominion and dread belong to Him,
the One who establishes harmony
in the heavens.^g
- 3 Can His troops be numbered?
Does His light not shine on everyone?
- 4 How can a person be justified before God?
How can one born of woman be pure?
- 5 If even the moon does not shine
and the stars are not pure in His sight,

- 6 how much less man, who is a maggot,
and the son of man, who is a worm!

Job's Reply to Bildad

26 Then Job answered:

- 2 How you have helped the powerless
and delivered the arm that is weak!
- 3 How you have counseled the unwise
and thoroughly explained
[the path to] success!
- 4 Who did you speak these words to?
Whose breath came out of your [mouth]?
- 5 The departed spirits tremble

- 6 •Sheol is naked before God,

He hangs the earth on nothing.
- 8 He enfolds the waters in His clouds,
yet the clouds do not burst

- 9 He obscures the view of [His] throne,
spreading His cloud over it.
- 10 He laid out the horizon on the surface
of the waters
at the boundary between light and darkness.
- 11 The pillars [that hold up] the sky tremble,
astounded at His rebuke.
- 12 By His power He stirred the sea,
and by His understanding
He crushed •Rahab.
- 13 By His breath the heavens gained
their beauty;
His hand pierced the fleeing serpent.^h
- 14 These are but the fringes of His ways;
how faint is the word we hear of Him!
Who can understand His mighty thunder?

27 Job continued his discourse, saying:

- 2 As God lives, who has deprived me
of justice,

- 6 I will cling to my righteousness
and never let it go.
My conscience will not accuse [me]
as long as I live!
- 7 May my enemy be like the wicked
and my opponent like the unjust.
- 8 For what hope does the godless man have
when he is cut off,
when God takes away his life?
- 9 Will God hear his cry

- 10 Will he delight in the Almighty?
Will he call on God at all times?
- 11 I will teach you about God's power.
I will not conceal what the Almighty

- 12 All of you have seen [this] for yourselves,
why do you keep up this empty talk?
- 13 This is a wicked man's lot from God,
the inheritance the ruthless receive
from the Almighty.
- 14 Even if his children increase,
they are destined for the sword;
his descendants will never have enough food.
- 15 Those who survive him will be buried
by the plague,
yet their widows will not weep [for them].
- 16 Though he piles up silver like dust
and heaps up a wardrobe like clay—
he may heap [it] up, but the righteous will wear [it],
and the innocent will divide up his silver.
- 18 The house he built is like a moth's [cocoon]
or a booth set up by a watchman.
- 19 He lies down wealthy, but will do so
no more;
when he opens his eyes, it is gone.
- 20 Terrors overtake him like a flood;
a storm wind sweeps him away at night.
- 21 An east wind picks him up,
and he is gone;
it carries him away from his place.
- 22 It blasts at him without mercy,
while he flees desperately from its grasp.
- 23 It claps its hands at him
and scorns him from its place.

Job's Hymn to Wisdom

- 28 Surely there is a mine for silver and a place where gold is refined.
- 2 Iron is taken from the ground,
and copper is smelted from ore.
- 3 A miner puts an end to the darkness;
he probes^c the deepest recesses
for ore in the gloomy darkness.
- 4 He cuts a shaft far from human habitation,
[in places] unknown to those who walk above ground.^d
Suspended far away from people,
the miners swing back and forth.
- 5 Food may come from the earth,
but below the surface the earth is transformed as by fire.
- 6 Its rocks are a source of sapphire,^e containing flecks of gold.
- 7 No bird of prey knows that path;
no falcon's eye has seen it.
- 8 Proud beasts have never walked on it;
no lion has ever prowled over it.
- 9 The miner strikes the flint and transforms the mountains
at [their] foundations.
- 10 He cuts out channels in the rocks,
and his eyes spot every treasure.
- 11 He dams up the streams from flowing^f
so that he may bring to light
what is hidden.
- 12 But where can wisdom be found,
and where is understanding located?
- 13 No man can know its value,^g
since it cannot be found in the land of the living.
- 14 The ocean depths say, "It's not in me,"
while the sea declares, "I don't have it."
- 15 Gold cannot be exchanged for it,
and silver cannot be weighed out
for its price.
- 16 Wisdom cannot be valued in the gold
of Ophir,
in precious onyx or sapphire.^e
- 17 Gold and glass do not compare with it,
and articles of fine gold cannot be exchanged for it.
- 18 Coral and quartz are not worth mentioning.
The price of wisdom is beyond pearls.
- 19 Topaz from •Cush cannot compare with it,
and it cannot be valued in pure gold.

- 20 Where then does wisdom come from,
and where is understanding located?
21 It is hidden from the eyes of every living thing
and concealed from the birds of the sky.
22 •Abaddon and Death say,
“We have heard news of it with our ears.”
23 But God understands the way to wisdom,
and He knows its location.
24 For He looks to the ends of the earth and sees everything under the heavens.
25 When God fixed the weight of the wind and limited the water by measure, 26 when He established a limit^a for the rain
and a path for the lightning, 27 He considered wisdom and evaluated it;
He established it and examined it.
28 He said to mankind, “Look! The •fear of the Lord—that is wisdom,
and to turn from evil is understanding.”

Job's Final Claim of Innocence

29 Job continued his discourse, saying:

- 2 If only I could be as in months gone by,
in the days when God watched over me,
3 when His lamp shone above my head,
and I walked through darkness
by His light!
4 [I would be] as I was in the days of my youth
when God's friendship rested
on my tent,
5 when the •Almighty was still with me and my children were around me, 6 when my feet were bathed in cream and the rock poured out streams of oil
for me!
7 When I went out to the city •gate
and took my seat in the town square, 8 the young men saw me and withdrew,
while older men stood to their feet.
9 City officials stopped talking and covered their mouths
with [their] hands.
10 The noblemen's voices were hushed,
and their tongues stuck to the roof
of their mouths.
11 When they heard me, they blessed me,
and when they saw me, they spoke well
of me.^b
- 12 For I rescued the poor man who cried out
for help,
and the fatherless child who had no one
to support him.
13 The dying man blessed me,
and I made the widow's heart rejoice.
14 I clothed myself in righteousness, and it enveloped me;
my just decisions were like a robe
and a turban.
15 I was eyes to the blind
and feet to the lame.
16 I was a father to the needy,
and I examined the case of the stranger.
17 I shattered the fangs of the unjust and snatched the prey from his teeth.
18 So I thought: I will die in my own nest and multiply [my] days as the sand.^c 19 My roots will have access to water, and the dew will rest on my branches
all night.
20 My strength will be refreshed within me,
and my bow will be renewed in my hand.
21 Men listened to me with expectation, waiting silently for my advice.
22 After a word from me they did not speak again;
my speech settled on them [like dew].
23 They waited for me as for the rain and opened their mouths as for spring showers.
24 If I smiled at them, they couldn't believe [it];
they were thrilled at^d the light
of my countenance.
25 I directed their course and presided
as chief.
I lived as a king among his troops,
like one who comforts those who mourn.

- 30 But now they mock me,
men younger than I am,
whose fathers I would have refused to put
with my sheep dogs.
2 What use to me was the strength
of their hands?
Their vigor had left them.
3 Emaciated from poverty and hunger,
they gnawed the dry land,
the desolate wasteland by night.
4 They plucked mallow^e among the shrubs,

- 7 They bray among the shrubs; they huddle beneath the thistles.
- 8 Foolish men, without even a name! They were forced to leave the land.
- 9 Now I am mocked by their songs; I have become an object of scorn to them.
- 10 They despise me and keep their distance from me; they do not hesitate to spit in my face.
- 11 Because God has loosened my^a bowstring and oppressed me, they have cast off restraint in my presence.
- 12 The rabble^b rise up at my right; they trap^c my feet and construct their siege ramp^d against me.
- 13 They tear up my path; they contribute to my destruction, without anyone to help them.
- 14 They advance as through a gaping breach; they keep rolling in through the ruins.
- 15 Terrors are turned loose against me; they chase my dignity away like the wind, and my prosperity has passed by like a cloud.
- 16 Now my life is poured out before my [eyes], and days of suffering have seized me.
- 17 Night pierces my bones, and my gnawing pains never abate.
- 18 My clothing is distorted with great force; He chokes me by the neck of my garment.^b
- 19 He throws me into the mud, and I have become like dust and ashes.
- 20 I cry out to You for help, but You do not answer me; when I stand up, You [merely] look at me.
- 21 You have turned against me with cruelty; You harass me with Your strong hand.
- 22 You lift me up on the wind and make me ride [it]; You scatter me in the storm.
- 23 Yes, I know that You will lead me to death—the place appointed for all who live.
- 24 Yet no one would stretch out [his] hand against a ruined man^e when he cries out to him for help because of his distress.
- 25 Have I not wept for those who have fallen on hard times? Has my soul not grieved for the needy? But when I hoped for good, evil came; when I looked for light, darkness came.
- 27 I am churning within^f and cannot rest; days of suffering confront me.
- 28 I walk about blackened, but not by the sun.^g I stood in the assembly and cried out for help.
- 29 I have become a brother to jackals and a companion of ostriches.
- 30 My skin blackens and flakes off,^h and my bones burn with fever.
- 31 My lyre is [used] for mourning and my flute for the sound of weeping.
- 31 I have made a covenant with my eyes. How then could I look at a young woman?ⁱ
- 2 For what portion [would I have] from God above, or [what] inheritance from the •Almighty on high?
- 3 Doesn't disaster come to the wicked and misfortune to evildoers?
- 4 Does He not see my ways and number all my steps?
- 5 If I have walked in falsehood or my foot has rushed to deceit,
- 6 let God weigh me with an accurate balance, and He will recognize my integrity.
- 7 If my step has turned from the way, my heart has followed my eyes, or impurity has stained my hands,

 12 For it is a fire that consumes down

 it would destroy my entire harvest.
- 13 If I have dismissed the case of my male or female servants
 when they made a complaint against me,
 14 what could I do when God stands up

 How should I answer Him
 when He calls [me] to account?
 15 Did not the One who made me

 Did not the same God form us both

- 16 If I have refused the wishes of the poor

 22 then let my shoulder blade fall
 from my back,
 and my arm be pulled from its socket.
 23 For disaster from God terrifies me,
 and because of His majesty I could not do [these things].
- 24 If I placed my confidence in gold or called fine gold my trust, 25 if I have rejoiced because my wealth
 is great

- or because my own hand has acquired

 26 if I have gazed at the sun when it was shining
 or at the moon moving in splendor, 27 so that my heart was secretly enticed and I threw them a kiss,^f 28 this would also be a crime deserving punishment,
 for I would have denied God above.
- 29 Have I rejoiced over my enemy's distress,
 or become excited when trouble came
 his way?
 30 I have not allowed my mouth to sin
 by asking for his life with a curse.
 31 Haven't the members of my household said,
 "Who is there who has not had enough to eat at Job's table?"
 32 No stranger had to spend the night
 on the street,
 for I opened my door to the traveler.
 33 Have I covered my transgressions
 as others do^g
 by hiding my guilt in my heart, 34 because I greatly feared the crowds,
 and the contempt of the clans
 terrified me,
 so I grew silent and would not go outside?
- 35 If only I had someone to hear
 my [case]!
 Here is my signature; let the Almighty
 answer me.
 Let my Opponent compose
 [His] indictment.
 36 I would surely carry it on my shoulder
 and wear it like a crown.
 37 I would give Him an account of all my steps;
 I would approach Him like a prince.

Elihu's Angry Response

32 So these three men quit answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes. ² Then Elihu son of Barachel the Buzite from the family of Ram became angry. He was angry at Job because he had justified himself rather than God. ³ He was also angry at Job's three friends because they had failed to refute [him], and yet had condemned him.

⁴ Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job because they were [all] older than he. ⁵ But when he saw that the three men could not answer Job, he became angry.

⁶ So Elihu son of Barachel the Buzite replied:

- I am young in years,
while you are old;
therefore I was timid and afraid
to tell you what I know.
- ⁷ I thought that age should speak
and maturity should teach wisdom.
- ⁸ But it is a spirit in man^a
and the breath of the •Almighty
that give him understanding.
- ⁹ It is not [only] the old who are wise
or the elderly who understand how to judge.
- ¹⁰ Therefore I say, "Listen to me.
I too will declare what I know."
- ¹¹ Look, I waited for your conclusions;
I listened to your insights
as you sought for words.
- ¹² I paid close attention to you.
Yet no one proved Job wrong;
not one of you refuted his arguments.
- ¹³ So do not claim, "We have found wisdom;
let God deal with him, not man."
- ¹⁴ But Job has not directed his argument
to me,
and I will not respond to him
with your arguments.
- ¹⁵ Job's friends are dismayed and can no longer answer;
words have left them.
- ¹⁶ Should I continue to wait now that they are silent,
now that they stand [there]
and no longer answer?
- ¹⁷ I too will answer;^b
yes, I will tell what I know.
- ¹⁸ For I am full of words,
and my spirit^c compels me [to speak].

- ¹⁹ My heart^d is like unvented wine;
it is about to burst like new wineskins.
- ²⁰ I must speak so that I can find relief;
I must open my lips and respond.
- ²¹ I will be partial to no one,
and I will not give anyone an [undeserved] title.
- ²² For I do not know how to give [such] titles;
otherwise, my Maker would remove me
in an instant.

Elihu Confronts Job

- 33 But now, Job, pay attention
to my speech,
and listen to all my words.
- ² I am going to open my mouth;
my tongue will form words on my palate.
- ³ My words [come from] my upright heart,
and my lips speak what they know
with sincerity.
- ⁴ The Spirit of God has made me,
and the breath of the •Almighty
gives me life.
- ⁵ Refute me if you can.
Prepare your case against me;
take your stand.
- ⁶ I am just like you before God;
I was also pinched off
from [a piece of] clay.
- ⁷ Fear of me should not terrify you;
the pressure I exert^e against you will be light.
- ⁸ Surely you have spoken in my hearing,
and I have heard these very^f words:
- ⁹ "I am pure, without transgression;
I am clean and have no guilt.
- ¹⁰ But He finds reasons to oppose me;
He regards me as his enemy.
- ¹¹ He puts my feet in the stocks;
He stands watch over all my paths."
- ¹² But I tell you that you are wrong
in this [matter],
since God is greater than man.
- ¹³ Why do you take Him to court for not answering anything
a person asks?^g
- ¹⁴ For God speaks time and again,
but a person may not notice it.
- ¹⁵ In a dream, a vision in the night,
when deep sleep falls on people
as they slumber on [their] beds,

^a32:8 Or is the Spirit in a person ^b32:17 Lit answer my part ^c32:18 Lit and the spirit of my belly ^d32:19 Lit belly
^e33:7 Lit you; my pressure ^f33:8 Lit heard a sound of ^g33:13 Lit court, for he does not answer all his words

16 He uncovers their ears at that time and terrifies them^a with warnings, 17 in order to turn a person [from his] actions and suppress his pride.^b 18 God spares his soul from the •Pit,
 his life from crossing the river [of death].^c 19 A person may be disciplined on his bed with pain
 and constant distress in his bones, 20 so that he detests bread,
 and his soul [despises his] favorite food.
 21 His flesh wastes away to nothing,^d
 and his unseen bones stick out.
 22 He draws near the Pit,
 and his life to the executioners.
 23 If there is an angel on his side,
 one mediator out of a thousand,
 to tell a person what is right for him^e
 and to be gracious to him and say, 24 “Spare him from going down to the Pit;
 I have found a ransom,” 25 then his flesh will be healthier^f than
 in his youth,
 and he will return to the days
 of his youthful vigor.
 26 He will pray to God, and God will delight
 in him.
 That man will behold His face
 with a shout of joy,
 and God will restore his righteousness
 to him.
 27 He will look at men and say,
 “I have sinned and perverted
 what was right;
 yet I did not get what I deserved.^g 28 He redeemed my soul from going down
 to the Pit,
 and I will continue to see the light.”
 29 God certainly does all these things
 two or three times to a man 30 in order to turn him back from the Pit,
 so he may shine with the light of life.
 31 Pay attention, Job, and listen to me.
 Be quiet, and I will speak.
 32 But if you have something to say,^h
 answer me;
 speak, for I would like to justify you.
 33 If not, then listen to me;
 be quiet, and I will teach you wisdom.

34 Then Elihu continued,ⁱ saying:

² Hear my words, you wise men,

and listen to me,
 you knowledgeable ones.
 3 Doesn't the ear test words
 as the palate tastes food?
 4 Let us judge for ourselves what is right;
 let us decide together what is good.
 5 For Job has declared, “I am righteous,
 yet God has deprived me of justice.
 6 Would I lie about my case?
 My wound^j is incurable,
 though I am without transgression.”
 7 What man is like Job?
 He drinks derision like water.
 8 He keeps company with evildoers and walks with wicked men.
 9 For he has said, “A man gains nothing
 when he becomes God's friend.” 10 Therefore listen to me, you men of understanding.
 It is impossible for God [to do] wrong,
 and [for] the •Almighty [to act] unjustly.
 11 For He repays a person [according to] his deeds,
 and He bring his ways on him.
 12 Indeed, it is true that God does not act wickedly
 and the Almighty does not pervert justice.
 13 Who gave Him authority over the earth?
 Who put Him in charge of the entire world?
 14 If He put His mind to it and withdrew the spirit and breath
 He [gave],
 15 every living thing would perish together
 and mankind would return to the dust.
 16 If you [have] understanding, hear this;
 listen to what I have to say.
 17 Could one who hates justice govern [the world]?
 Will you condemn the mighty Righteous One,
 18 who says to a king, “Worthless man!”
 and to nobles, “Wicked men!”?
 19 God is not partial to princes and does not favor the rich over the poor, for they are all the work of His hands.
 20 They die suddenly in the middle of the night;
 people shudder, then pass away.
 Even the mighty are removed without effort.

21 For His eyes [watch] over a man's ways,
 and He observes all his steps.
 22 There is no darkness, no deep darkness,
 where evildoers can hide themselves.
 23 God does not [need to] examine a person further,
 that one should^a approach Him in court.
 24 He shatters the mighty without an investigation and sets others in their place.
 25 Therefore, He recognizes their deeds and overthrows [them] by night, and they are crushed.
 26 In full view of the public,^b
 He strikes them for their wickedness, 27 because they turned aside from following Him
 and did not understand any of His ways
 but caused the poor to cry out to Him,
 and He heard the outcry of the afflicted.
 29 But when God is silent, who can declare [Him] guilty?
 When He hides [His] face, who can see Him?
 Yet He [watches] over both individuals
 and nations, 30 so that godless men should not rule or ensnare the people.
 31 Suppose someone says to God,
 "I have endured [my punishment];
 I will no [longer] act wickedly.
 32 Teach me what I cannot see;
 if I have done wrong, I won't do it again."
 33 Should God repay [you] on your terms
 when you have rejected [His]?
 You must choose, not I!
 So declare what you know.
 34 Reasonable men will say to me,
 along with the wise men who hear me, 35 "Job speaks without knowledge;
 his words are without insight."
 36 If only Job were tested to the limit, because [his] answers are [like] those of wicked men.
 37 For he adds rebellion to his sin;
 he [scornfully] claps in our presence,
 while multiplying his words against God.

35 Then Elihu continued, saying:

² Do you think it is just when you say,
 "I am righteous before God"?

3 For you ask, "What does it profit You,^c
 and what benefit comes to me, if I do not sin?"
 4 I will answer you and your friends with you.
 5 Look at the heavens and see;
 gaze at the clouds high above you.
 6 If you sin, how does it affect God?
 If you multiply your transgressions,
 what does it do to Him?
 7 If you are righteous, what do you give Him,
 or what does He receive from your hand?
 8 Your wickedness [affects] a person
 like yourself,
 and your righteousness [another]
 human being.
 9 People cry out because of severe oppression;
 they shout for help from the arm of the mighty.
 10 But no one asks, "Where is God
 my Maker,
 who provides [us] with songs in the night, 11 who gives us more understanding than the animals of the earth and makes us wiser than the birds of the sky?"
 12 There they cry out,
 but He does not answer,
 because of the pride of evil men.
 13 Indeed, God does not listen to empty [cries],
 and the •Almighty does not take note
 of it—14 how much less when^d you complain^e
 that you do not see Him, [that your] case is before Him
 and you are waiting for Him.
 15 But now, because God's anger does not punish and He does not pay attention to transgression,^f 16 Job opens his mouth in vain and multiplies words without knowledge.

36 Then Elihu continued, saying:

² Be patient with me a little longer,
 and I will inform you,
 for there is still more to be said
 on God's behalf.

[no one];
He understands all things.^b
- 6 He does not keep the wicked alive,
but He gives justice to the afflicted.
- 7 He does not remove His gaze
from the righteous,
but He seats them forever
with enthroned kings,
and they are exalted.
- 8 If people are bound with chains
and trapped by the cords of affliction,

and how arrogantly
they have transgressed.
- 10 He opens their ears to correction
and insists they repent from iniquity.
- 11 If they serve Him obediently,
they will end their days in prosperity
and their years in happiness.
- 12 But if they do not obey,
they will cross the river [of death]^c

- 13 Those who have a godless heart

even when God binds them,
they do not cry for help.
- 14 They die in their youth;

- 15 God rescues the afflicted by afflicting them;
He instructs them by means of their torment.
- 16 Indeed, He lured you from the jaws^d
of distress
to a spacious and unconfined place.
Your table was spread with choice food.
- 17 Yet [now] you are obsessed with the judgment due the wicked;
judgment and justice have seized you.
- 18 Be careful that no one lures you with riches;^e
do not let a large ransom^f lead you astray.
- 19 Can your wealth^g or all [your] physical exertion
keep [you] from distress?
- 20 Do not long for the night
when nations will disappear
from their places.
- 21 Be careful that you do not turn
to iniquity,
for that is why you have been tested
by^h affliction.
- 22 Look, God shows Himself exalted
by His power.
Who is a teacher like Him?
- 23 Who has appointed His way for Him,
and who has declared, "You have done wrong"?
- 24 Remember that you should praise
His work,
which people have sung about.
- 25 All mankind has seen it;
people have looked at it from a distance.
- 26 Look, God is exalted beyond our knowledge;
the number of His years
cannot be counted.
- 27 For He makes waterdrops evaporate;ⁱ
they distill the rain into its^j mist, which the clouds pour out
and shower abundantly on mankind.
- 29 Can anyone understand how the clouds spread out or how the thunder roars
from God's pavilion?
- 30 Look, He spreads His lightning
around Him
and covers the depths of the sea.
- 31 For He judges the nations with these;
He gives food in abundance.
- 32 He covers [His] hands with lightning and commands it to hit its mark.
- 33 The^k thunder declares His presence;^l
the cattle also, the approaching [storm].
- 37 My heart pounds at this

- 17 You whose clothes get hot when the south wind brings calm to the land, 18 can you help God spread out the skies
as hard as a cast metal mirror?
- 19 Teach us what we should say to Him;
we cannot prepare [our case] because of our darkness.
- 20 Should He be told that I want to speak?
Can a man speak when he is confused?
- 21 Now men cannot [even] look at the sun
when it is in the skies,
after a wind has swept through and cleared them away.
- 22 Yet out of the north He comes, [shrouded]
in a golden [glow];
awesome majesty surrounds Him.

- 23 The •Almighty—we cannot reach Him—
He is exalted in power!
In His justice and righteousness,
He will not oppress.

The LORD Speaks

- 38 Then the LORD answered Job from the

- 2 Who is this who obscures [My] counsel

- 3 Get ready to answer Me like a man;

- 4 Where were you when I established

40 The LORD answered Job:

- 2 Will the one who contends

³ Then Job answered the LORD:

- 4 I am so insignificant. How can I solid as metal^m and immovable.

24 His heart is as hard as a rock,
as hard as a lower millstone!
25 When Leviathan rises, the mightyⁿ are terrified;
they withdraw because of [his] thrashing.
26 The sword that reaches him will have no effect,
nor will a spear, dart, or arrow.
27 He regards iron as straw,
and bronze as rotten wood.
28 No arrow can make him flee;
slingstones become like stubble to him.
29 A club is regarded as stubble,
and he laughs at the whirring of a javelin.
30 His undersides are jagged potsherds,
spreading the mud like a threshing sledge.
31 He makes the depths seethe
like a caldron;
he makes the sea like an ointment jar.
32 He leaves a shining wake behind him;^o
one would think the deep had white hair!
33 He has no equal on earth—
a creature devoid of fear!
34 He surveys everything that is haughty;
he is king over all the proud beasts.^p

Job Replies to the LORD

42 Then Job replied to the LORD:

- 2 I^q know that You can do anything
and no plan of Yours can be thwarted.
3 [You asked,] “Who is this who conceals
[My] counsel with ignorance?”
Surely I spoke about things I did not understand,
things too wonderful for me to^r know.
4 [You said,] “Listen now, and I will speak.
When I question you, you will inform Me.”
5 I had heard rumors about You,

but now my eyes have seen You.

- ⁶ Therefore I take back [my words] and repent in dust and ashes.^a ⁷ After the LORD had finished speaking^b to Job, He said to Eliphaz the Temanite: “I am angry with you and your two friends, for you have not spoken the truth about Me, as My servant Job has.” ⁸ Now take seven bulls and seven rams, go to My servant Job, and offer a burnt offering for yourselves. Then My servant Job will pray for you. I will surely accept his [prayer] and not deal with you as your folly deserves. For you have not spoken the truth about Me, as My servant Job has.” ⁹ Then Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as the LORD had told them, and the LORD accepted Job’s [prayer].

God Restores Job

¹⁰ After Job had prayed for his friends, the LORD restored his prosperity and doubled his [previous] possessions. ¹¹ All his brothers, sisters, and former acquaintances came to his house and dined with him in his house. They offered him sympathy and comfort concerning all the adversity the LORD had brought on him. Each one gave him a qesitah,^c and a gold earring.

¹² So the LORD blessed the latter part of Job’s life more than the earlier. He owned 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 1,000 yoke of oxen, and 1,000 female donkeys. ¹³ He also had seven sons and three daughters. ¹⁴ He named his first [daughter] Jemimah, his second Keziah, and his third Keren-happuch. ¹⁵ No women as beautiful as Job’s daughters could be found in all the land, and their father granted them an inheritance with their brothers.

¹⁶ Job lived 140 years after this and saw his children and their children to the fourth generation. ¹⁷ Then Job died, old and full of days.

PSALMS

BOOK I

(Psalms 1–41)

Psalm 1

The Two Ways

- ¹ How happy is the man who does not follow^d the advice of the wicked, or take^e the path of sinners, or join a group^f of mockers!
- ² Instead, his delight is in the LORD’s instruction, and he meditates on it day and night.
- ³ He is like a tree planted beside streams of water^g that bears its fruit in season^h and whose leaf does not wither. Whatever he does prospers.
- ⁴ The wicked are not like this; instead, they are like chaff that the wind blows away.

- ⁵ Therefore the wicked will not survive^e the judgment, and sinners will not be in the community of the righteous.

- ⁶ For the LORD watches over the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked leads to ruin.

Psalm 2

Coronation of the Son

- ¹ Why do the nations rebelⁱ and the peoples plot in vain?
- ² The kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers conspire together against the LORD and His Anointed One:^j
- ³ “Let us tear off their chains and free ourselves from their restraints.”^k
- ⁴ The One enthroned^l in heaven laughs; the Lord ridicules them.
- ⁵ Then He speaks to them in His anger and terrifies them in His wrath:

^c42:11 The value of the currency is unknown; Gn 33:19; Jos 24:32 ^d1:1 Lit not walk in ^e1:1,5 Lit stand in ^f1:1 Or or sit in the seat ^g1:3 Or beside irrigation canals ^h1:3 Lit in its season ⁱ2:1 Or conspire, or rage ^j2:2 Or anointed one ^k2:3 Lit and throw their ropes from us ^l2:4 Lit who sits

- 6 "I have consecrated My King^a on Zion, My holy mountain."
- 7 I will declare the LORD's decree:
He said to Me, "You are My Son;^b today I have become Your^c Father.
- 8 Ask of Me,
and I will make the nations
Your^b inheritance
and the ends of the earth
Your^b possession.
- 9 You will break^d them with a rod of iron;
You^e will shatter them like pottery."^f
- 10 So now, kings, be wise;
receive instruction, you judges of the earth.
- 11 Serve the LORD with reverential awe,
and rejoice with trembling.
- 12 Pay homage to^g the Son, or He^h
will be angry,
and you will perish in your rebellion,ⁱ
for His^j anger may ignite at any moment.
All those who take refuge in Him^k are happy.

Psalm 3

Confidence in Troubled Times

A psalm of David when he fled from his son Absalom.

- 1 LORD, how my foes increase!
There are many who attack me.
- 2 Many say about me,
"There is no help for him in God."
• Selah
- 3 But You, LORD, are a shield around me,
my glory, and the One who lifts up my head.
- 4 I cry aloud to the LORD,
and He answers me
from His holy mountain. Selah
- 5 I lie down and sleep;
I wake again because the LORD sustains me.
- 6 I am not afraid of the thousands of people who have taken their stand against me
on every side.
- 7 Rise up, LORD!
Save me, my God!
You strike all my enemies on the cheek;
You break the teeth of the wicked.
- 8 Salvation belongs to the LORD;
may Your blessing be on Your people.

Psalm 4

A Night Prayer

For the choir director:
with stringed instruments. A Davidic psalm.

- 1 Answer me when I call,
God, who vindicates me.¹
You freed me from affliction;
be gracious to me and hear my prayer.
- 2 How long, exalted men, will my honor
be insulted?
[How long] will you love
what is worthless
and pursue a lie? • Selah
- 3 Know that the LORD has set apart
the faithful for Himself;
the LORD will hear when I call to Him.
- 4 Be angry^m and do not sin;
on your bed, reflect in your heart and be still. Selah
- 5 Offer sacrifices in righteousnessⁿ
and trust in the LORD.
- 6 Many are saying, "Who can show us anything good?"
Look on us with favor, LORD.
- 7 You have put more joy in my heart
than they have when their grain and new wine abound.
- 8 I will both lie down and sleep in peace,
for You alone, LORD, make me live
in safety.

Psalm 5

The Refuge of the Righteous

For the choir director: with the flutes.
A Davidic psalm.

- 1 Listen to my words, LORD;
consider my sighing.
- 2 Pay attention to the sound of my cry,
my King and my God,
for I pray to You.
- 3 At daybreak, LORD, You hear my voice;
at daybreak I plead my case to You and watch expectantly.
- 4 For You are not a God who delights
in wickedness;
evil cannot lodge with You.
- 5 The boastful cannot stand

You hate all evildoers.

- 6 You destroy those who tell lies;
the LORD abhors a man of bloodshed and treachery.
- 7 But I enter Your house
by the abundance of Your faithful love;
I bow down toward Your holy temple
in reverential awe of You.
- 8 LORD, lead me in Your righteousness,
because of my adversaries;^a make Your way straight before me.
- 9 For there is nothing reliable in what they say;^b
destruction is within them;
their throat is an open grave;
they flatter with their tongues.
- 10 Punish them, God;
let them fall by their own schemes.
Drive them out because of their many crimes,
for they rebel against You.
- 11 But let all who take refuge in You rejoice;
let them shout for joy forever.
May You shelter them,
and may those who love Your name boast about You.
- 12 For You, LORD, bless the righteous one;
You surround him with favor like a shield.

Psalm 6

A Prayer for Mercy

For the choir director:
with stringed instruments,
according to •Sheminith. A Davidic psalm.

- 1 LORD, do not rebuke me in Your anger;
do not discipline me in Your wrath.
- 2 Be gracious to me, LORD, for I am weak;^c heal me, LORD, for my bones are shaking;
- 3 my whole being is shaken with terror.
And You, LORD—how long?
- 4 Turn, LORD! Rescue me;
save me because of Your faithful love.
- 5 For there is no remembrance of You
in death;
who can thank You in •Sheol?
- 6 I am weary from my groaning;
with my tears I dampen my pillow^d

and drench my bed every night.

- 7 My eyes are swollen from grief;
they^e grow old because of all my enemies.
- 8 Depart from me, all evildoers,
for the LORD has heard the sound of my weeping.
- 9 The LORD has heard my plea for help;
the LORD accepts my prayer.
- 10 All my enemies will be ashamed and shake with terror;
they will turn back and suddenly be disgraced.

Psalm 7

Prayer for Justice

A Shiggaion^f of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning the words of •Cush,^g a Benjaminite.

- 1 LORD my God, I seek refuge in You;
save me from all my pursuers
and rescue me,
- 2 or they^h will tear me like a lion, ripping me apart, with no one to rescue me.ⁱ
- 3 LORD my God, if I have done this,
if there is injustice on my hands,
- 4 if I have done harm to one at peace
with me
or have plundered^j my adversary
without cause,
- 5 may an enemy pursue and overtake me;
may he trample me to the ground and leave my honor in the dust. •Selah
- 6 Rise up, LORD, in Your anger;
lift Yourself up against the fury
of my adversaries;
awake for me;^k
You have ordained^l a judgment.
- 7 Let the assembly of peoples gather around You;
take Your seat^m on high over it.

Psalm 8

God's Glory, Man's Dignity

For the choir director: on the •Gittith.
A Davidic psalm.

- 1 LORD, our Lord,
how magnificent is Your name
throughout the earth!
- You have covered the heavens
with Your majesty.^e
- 2 Because of Your adversaries,
You have established a stronghold^f
from the mouths of children
and nursing infants,
to silence the enemy and the avenger.
- 3 When I observe Your heavens,
the work of Your fingers,
the moon and the stars,
which You set in place,
- 4 what is man that You remember him,
the son of man that You look after him?
- 5 You made him little less than God^g ^h and crowned him with glory and honor.

- 6 You made him lord over the works
of Your hands;
You put everything under his feet:ⁱ
- 7 all the sheep and oxen,
as well as animals in the wild,
8 birds of the sky,
and fish of the sea
passing through the currents of the seas.
- 9 LORD, our Lord,
how magnificent is Your name
throughout the earth!

Psalm 9

Celebration of God's Justice

For the choir director:
according to Muth-labben.^j A Davidic psalm.

- 1 I will thank the LORD with all my heart;
I will declare all Your wonderful works.
- 2 I will rejoice and boast about You;
I will sing about Your name, •Most High.
- 3 When my enemies retreat,
they stumble and perish before You.
- 4 For You have upheld my just cause;^k
You are seated on Your throne
as a righteous judge.
- 5 You have rebuked the nations:
You have destroyed the wicked;
You have erased their name forever
and ever.
- 6 The enemy has come to eternal ruin;
You have uprooted the cities,
and the very memory of them has perished.
- 7 But the LORD sits enthroned forever;
He has established His throne
for judgment.
- 8 He judges the world with righteousness;
He executes judgment on the peoples with fairness.
- 9 The LORD is a refuge for the oppressed,
a refuge in times of trouble.
- 10 Those who know Your name trust in You because You have not abandoned
those who seek You, LORD.
- 11 Sing to the LORD, who dwells in Zion;
proclaim His deeds among the peoples.

Psalm 10

- 1 LORD,^e why do You stand so far away?
Why do You hide in times of trouble?
- 2 In arrogance the wicked relentlessly pursue the afflicted;
let them be caught in the schemes
they have devised.
- 3 For the wicked one boasts about his own cravings;
the one who is greedy curses^f and despises
the LORD.
- 4 In all his scheming,
the wicked arrogantly thinks:^g
“There is no accountability, [since] God does not exist.”
- 5 His ways are always secure;^h
Your lofty judgments are beyond his sight;
he scoffs at all his adversaries.

- 6 He says to himself, “I will never be moved—
from generation to generation without calamity.”
- 7 Cursing, deceit, and violence fill his mouth;
trouble and malice are under his tongue.
- 8 He waits in ambush near the villages;
he kills the innocent in secret places;
his eyes are on the lookout
for the helpless.
- 9 He lurks in secret like a lion in a thicket.
He lurks in order to seize the afflicted.
He seizes the afflicted and drags him in his net.
- 10 He crouches and bends down;
the helpless fall because of his strength.
- 11 He says to himself, “God has forgotten;
He hides His face and will never see.”
- 12 Rise up, LORD God! Lift up Your hand.
Do not forget the afflicted.
- 13 Why has the wicked despised God?
He says to himself, “You will not demand an account.”
- 14 But You Yourself have seen trouble
and grief,
observing it in order to take the matter
into Your hands.
The helpless entrusts himself to You;
You are a helper of the fatherless.
- 15 Break the arm of the wicked
and evil person;
call his wickedness into account
until nothing remains of it.ⁱ
- 16 The LORD is King forever and ever;
the nations will perish from His land.
- 17 LORD, You have heard the desire of the humble;^j
You will strengthen their hearts.
You will listen carefully,
18 doing justice for the fatherless
and the oppressed,
so that men of the earth
may terrify [them] no more.

- "Escape to the mountain like a bird!^a
- 2 For look, the wicked string the bow; they put the^b arrow on the bowstring to shoot from the shadows at the upright in heart.
- 3 When the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do?"
- 4 The LORD is in His holy temple; the LORD's throne is in heaven. His eyes watch; He examines^c •everyone.
- 5 The LORD examines the righteous and the wicked. He hates the lover of violence.
- 6 He will rain burning coals and sulfur^d on the wicked; a scorching wind will be their portion.^e
- 7 For the LORD is righteous; He loves righteous deeds. The upright will see His face.

Psalm 12

Oppression by the Wicked

For the choir director: according to •Sheminith.
A Davidic psalm.

- 1 Help, LORD, for no faithful one remains; the loyal have disappeared from the •human race.
- 2 They lie to one another; they speak with flattering lips and deceptive hearts.
- 3 May the LORD cut off all flattering lips and the tongue that speaks boastfully.
- 4 They say, "Through our tongues we have power;^f our lips are our own—who can be our master?"
- 5 "Because of the oppression of the afflicted and the groaning of the poor, I will now rise up," says the LORD. "I will put in a safe place the one who longs for it."
- 6 The words of the LORD are pure words, like silver refined in an earthen furnace, purified seven times.
- 7 You, LORD, will guard us;^g You will protect us^h from this generation forever.

- 8 The wicked wanderⁱ everywhere, and what is worthless is exalted by the human race.

Psalm 13

A Plea for Deliverance

For the choir director. A Davidic psalm.

- 1 LORD, how long will You continually forget me?
How long will You hide Your face from me?
- 2 How long will I store up anxious concerns^j within me, agony in my mind every day?
How long will my enemy dominate me?
- 3 Consider me and answer, LORD, my God. Restore brightness to my eyes; otherwise, I will sleep in death,
- 4 my enemy will say, "I have triumphed over him," and my foes will rejoice because I am shaken.
- 5 But I have trusted in Your faithful love; my heart will rejoice in Your deliverance.
- 6 I will sing to the LORD because He has treated me generously.

Psalm 14

A Portrait of Sinners

For the choir director. Davidic.

- 1 The fool says in his heart, "God does not exist."
They are corrupt; their actions are revolting. There is no one who does good.
- 2 The LORD looks down from heaven on the •human race to see if there is one who is wise, one who seeks God.
- 3 All have turned away; all alike have become corrupt. There is no one who does good, not even one.^k
- 4 Will evildoers never understand? They consume my people as they consume bread; they do not call on the LORD.
- 5 Then^l they will be filled with terror,

- 6 You [sinners] frustrate the plans of the afflicted,
but the LORD is his refuge.
- 7 Oh, that Israel's deliverance would come
from Zion!
When the LORD restores
His captive people,
Jacob will rejoice; Israel will be glad.^b

Psalm 15

A Description of the Godly

A Davidic psalm.

- 1 LORD, who can dwell in Your tent?
Who can live on Your holy mountain?
- 2 The one who lives honestly,
practices righteousness,
and acknowledges the truth in his heart—
- 3 who does not slander with his tongue,
who does not harm his friend
or discredit his neighbor,
- 4 who despises the one rejected
by the LORD,^c
but honors those who •fear the LORD,
who keeps his word whatever the cost,
- 5 who does not lend his money at interest or take a bribe against the innocent—
the one who does these things will never be moved.

Psalm 16

Confidence in the LORD

A Davidic •Miktam.

- 1 Protect me, God, for I take refuge in You.
- 2 I^d said to the LORD, "You are my Lord;
I have no good besides You."^e
- 3 As for the holy people who are in the land,
they are the noble ones in whom is all my delight.
- 4 The sorrows of those who take another [god]
for themselves multiply;
I will not pour out their drink offerings
of blood,
and I will not speak their names
with my lips.
- 5 LORD, You are my portion^f

and my cup [of blessing];
You hold my future.

- 6 The boundary lines have fallen for me
in pleasant places;
indeed, I have a beautiful inheritance.
- 7 I will praise the LORD who counsels me—
even at night my conscience instructs me.
- 8 I keep the LORD in mind^g always.
Because He is at my right hand,
I will not be shaken.
- 9 Therefore my heart is glad,
and my spirit rejoices;
my body also rests securely.
- 10 For You will not abandon me to •Sheol;
You will not allow Your Faithful One to see the •Pit.^h
- 11 You reveal the path of life to me;
in Your presence is abundant joy;
in Your right hand are eternal pleasures.

 their sons are satisfied,
 and they leave their surplus
 to their children.
- 15 But I will see Your face in righteousness;
 when I awake, I will be satisfied with Your presence.^g

Psalm 18

Praise for Deliverance

For the choir director. Of the servant of the LORD, David, who spoke the words of this song to the LORD on the day the LORD rescued him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. He said:

- 1 I love You, LORD, my strength.
 2 The LORD is my rock,
 my fortress, and my deliverer,
 my God, my mountain
 where I seek refuge,
 my shield and the •horn of my salvation,
 my stronghold.
- 3 I called to the LORD, who is worthy of praise,
 and I was saved from my enemies.
- 4 The ropes of death were wrapped
 around me;

- the torrents of destruction terrified me.
- 5 The ropes of •Sheol entangled me;
 the snares of death confronted me.
- 6 I called to the LORD in my distress,
 and I cried to my God for help.
 From His temple He heard my voice,
 and my cry to Him reached His ears.
- 7 Then the earth shook and quaked;
 the foundations of the mountains
 trembled;
 they shook because He burned
 with anger.
- 8 Smoke rose from His nostrils,
 and consuming fire [came]
 from His mouth;
 coals were set ablaze by it.^h
- 9 He parted the heavens and came down,
 a dark cloud beneath His feet.
- 10 He rode on a cherub and flew,
 soaring on the wings of the wind.
- 11 He made darkness His hiding place,
 dark storm clouds His canopy
 around Him.
- 12 From the radiance of His presence,
 His clouds swept onward with hail and blazing coals.
- 13 The LORD thundered fromⁱ heaven;
 the •Most High projected His voice.^j
- 14 He shot His arrows and scattered them;
 He hurled^k lightning bolts
 and routed them.
- 15 The depths of the sea became visible,
 the foundations of the world
 were exposed,
 at Your rebuke, LORD,
 at the blast of the breath of Your nostrils.
- 16 He reached down from on high
 and took hold of me;
 He pulled me out of deep waters.
- 17 He rescued me
 from my powerful enemy
 and from those who hated me,
 for they were too strong for me.
- 18 They confronted me in the day
 of my distress,
 but the LORD was my support.
- 19 He brought me out to a wide-open place;
 He rescued me because He delighted in me.

20 The LORD rewarded me
according to my righteousness;
He repaid me
according to the cleanness of my hands.
21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD and have not turned from my God to wickedness.
22 Indeed, I have kept all His ordinances in mind^a
and have not disregarded His statutes.
23 I was blameless toward Him
and kept myself from sinning.
24 So the LORD repaid me
according to my righteousness,
according to the cleanness of my hands
in His sight.
25 With the faithful
You prove Yourself faithful;
with the blameless man
You prove Yourself blameless;
26 with the pure
You prove Yourself pure,
but with the crooked
You prove Yourself shrewd.
27 For You rescue an afflicted people,
but You humble those with haughty eyes.
28 LORD, You light my lamp;
my God illuminates my darkness.
29 With You I can attack a barrier,^b and with my God I can leap over a wall.
30 God—His way is perfect;
the word of the LORD is pure.
He is a shield to all who take refuge
in Him.
31 For who is God besides the LORD?
And who is a rock? Only our God.
32 God—He clothes me with strength and makes my way perfect.
33 He makes my feet like the feet of a deer and sets me securely on the heights.^c 34 He trains my hands for war;
my arms can bend a bow of bronze.
35 You have given me the shield
of Your salvation;
Your right hand upholds me,
and Your humility exalts me.
36 You widen [a place] beneath me
for my steps,
and my ankles do not give way.
37 I pursue my enemies and overtake them;

I do not turn back until they are wiped out.
38 I crush them, and they cannot get up;
they fall beneath my feet.
39 You have clothed me with strength
for battle;
You subdue my adversaries
beneath me.
40 You have made my enemies retreat
before me;^d
I annihilate those who hate me.
41 They cry for help, but there is no one
to save [them]—
[they cry] to the LORD, but He does not answer them.
42 I pulverize them like dust
before the wind;
I trample them^e like mud in the streets.
43 You have freed me from the feuds
among the people;
You have appointed me the head
of nations;
a people I had not known serve me.
44 Foreigners submit to me grudgingly;
as soon as they hear,^f they obey me.
45 Foreigners lose heart and come trembling
from their fortifications.
46 The LORD lives—may my rock
be praised!
The God of my salvation is exalted.
47 God—He gives me vengeance
and subdues peoples under me.
48 He frees me from my enemies.
You exalt me above my adversaries;
You rescue me from violent men.
49 Therefore I will praise You, LORD,
among the nations;
I will sing about Your name.
50 He gives great victories to His king;
He shows loyalty to His anointed,
to David and his descendants forever.

Psalm 19

The Witness of Creation and Scripture

For the choir director. A Davidic psalm.

- 1 The heavens declare the glory of God,
and the sky^g proclaims the work
of His hands.
- 2 Day after day they pour out speech;

^a18:22 Lit Indeed, all His ordinances have been in front of me ^b18:29 Or ridge ^c18:33 Or on my high places

night after night they communicate knowledge.^a

3 There is no speech; there are no words; their voice is not heard.

4 Their message^b has gone out to all the earth, and their words to the ends of the inhabited world.

In the heavens^c He has pitched a tent for the sun.

5 It is like a groom coming from the^d bridal chamber; it rejoices like an athlete running a course.

6 It rises from one end of the heavens and circles^e to their other end; nothing is hidden from its heat.

7 The instruction of the LORD is perfect, reviving the soul; the •testimony of the LORD is trustworthy, making the inexperienced wise.

8 The precepts of the LORD are right, making the heart glad; the commandment of the LORD is radiant, making the eyes light up.

9 The •fear of the LORD is pure, enduring forever; the ordinances of the LORD are reliable and altogether righteous.

10 They are more desirable than gold—than an abundance of pure gold; and sweeter than honey—than honey dripping from the comb.

11 In addition, Your servant is warned by them; there is great reward in keeping them.

12 Who perceives his unintentional sins? Cleanse me from my hidden faults.

13 Moreover, keep Your servant from willful sins; do not let them rule over me. Then I will be innocent, and cleansed from blatant rebellion.

14 May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable to You, LORD, my rock and my Redeemer.

Psalm 20

Deliverance in Battle

For the choir director. A Davidic psalm.

1 May the LORD answer you in a day of trouble;

may the name of Jacob's God protect you.

2 May He send you help from the sanctuary and sustain you from Zion.

3 May He remember all your offerings and accept your •burnt offering. •Selah

4 May He give you what your heart desires and fulfill your whole purpose.

5 Let us shout for joy at your victory and lift the banner in the name of our God.

May the LORD fulfill all your requests.

6 Now I know that the LORD gives victory to His anointed; He will answer him from His holy heaven with mighty victories from^f His right hand.

7 Some take pride in a chariot, and others in horses, but we take pride in the name of the LORD our God.

8 They collapse and fall, but we rise and stand firm.

9 LORD, give victory to the king! May He^g answer us on the day that we call.

Psalm 21

The King's Victory

For the choir director. A Davidic psalm.

1 LORD, the king finds joy in Your strength. How greatly he rejoices in Your victory!

2 You have given him his heart's desire and have not denied the request of his lips. •Selah

3 For You meet him with rich blessings; You place a crown of pure gold on his head.

4 He asked You for life, and You gave it to him—length of days forever and ever.

5 His glory is great through Your victory; You confer majesty and splendor on him.

6 You give him blessings forever; You cheer him with joy in Your presence.

7 For the king relies on the LORD; through the faithful love of the •Most High he is not shaken.

Psalm 22

From Suffering to Praise

For the choir director: according to “The Deer
of the Dawn.”^c A Davidic psalm.

- 1 My God, my God, why have You forsaken me?
[Why are You] so far from my deliverance
and from my words of groaning?^d
- 2 My God, I cry by day, but You do not answer,
by night, yet I have no rest.
- 3 But You are holy,
enthroned on the praises of Israel.
- 4 Our fathers trusted in You;
they trusted, and You rescued them.
- 5 They cried to You and were set free;
they trusted in You
and were not disgraced.
- 6 But I am a worm and not a man,
scorned by men and despised by people.
- 7 Everyone who sees me mocks me;
they sneer^e and shake their heads:
- 8 “He relies on^f the LORD;
let Him rescue him;
let the LORD^g deliver him,
since He takes pleasure in him.”
- 9 You took me from the womb, making me secure
while at my mother’s breast.
- 10 I was given over to You at birth;^h

You have been my God
from my mother’s womb.

- 11 Do not be far from me, because distress
is near
and there is no one to help.
- 12 Many bulls surround me;
strong ones of Bashan encircle me.
- 13 They open their mouths against me—
lions, mauling and roaring.
- 14 I am poured out like water,
and all my bones are disjointed;
my heart is like wax,
melting within me.
- 15 My strength is dried up like baked clay;
my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth.
You put me into the dust of death.
- 16 For dogs have surrounded me;
a gang of evildoers has closed in on me;
they piercedⁱ my hands and my feet.
- 17 I can count all my bones;
people look and stare at me.
- 18 They divided my garments
among themselves,
and they cast lots for my clothing.
- 19 But You, LORD, don’t be far away.
My strength, come quickly to help me.
- 20 Deliver my life from the sword,
my very life^k from the power of the dog.
- 21 Save me from the mouth of the lion!
You have rescued^l me
from the horns of the wild oxen.
- 22 I will proclaim Your name to my brothers;
I will praise You in the congregation.
- 23 You who •fear the LORD, praise Him!
All you descendants of Jacob, honor Him!
All you descendants of Israel,
revere Him!
- 24 For He has not despised or detested
the torment of the afflicted.
He did not hide His face from him,
but listened when he cried to Him
for help.
- 25 I will give praise^m
in the great congregation
because of You;
I will fulfill my vows
before those who fear You.ⁿ

- 27 All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to the LORD.
All the families of the nations
will bow down before You, 28 for kingship belongs to the LORD;
He rules over the nations.
- 29 All who prosper on earth will eat
and bow down;
all those who go down to the dust

Psalm 23

The Good Shepherd

A Davidic psalm.

- 1 The LORD is my shepherd;
there is nothing I lack.
- 2 He lets me lie down in green pastures;
He leads me beside quiet waters.
- 3 He renews my life;
He leads me along the right paths^b
for His name's sake.
- 4 Even when I go through the darkest valley,^c
I fear [no] danger,
for You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff^d —
they comfort me.
- 5 You prepare a table before me
in the presence of my enemies;
You anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.
- 6 Only goodness and faithful love will pursue me
all the days of my life,
and I will dwell in^e the house of the LORD
as long as I live.^f

Psalm 24

The King of Glory

A Davidic psalm.

- 1 The earth and everything in it,
the world and its inhabitants,
belong to the LORD;
- 2 for He laid its foundation on the seas
and established it on the rivers.
- 3 Who may ascend the mountain
of the LORD?
Who may stand in His holy place?
- 4 The one who has clean hands
and a pure heart,
who has not set his mind^g on what is false,
and who has not sworn deceitfully.
- 5 He will receive blessing from the LORD,
and righteousness from the God
of his salvation.
- 6 Such is the generation of those who seek Him,
who seek the face of the God of Jacob.^h
- Selah
- 7 Lift up your heads, you gates!
Rise up, ancient doors!
Then the King of glory will come in.
- 8 Who is this King of glory?
The LORD, strong and mighty,
the LORD, mighty in battle.
- 9 Lift up your heads, you gates!
Rise up, ancient doors!
Then the King of glory will come in.

- 6 Remember, LORD, Your compassion
and Your faithful love,
for they [have existed] from antiquity.^a
- 7 Do not remember the sins of my youth
or my acts of rebellion;
in keeping with Your faithful love,

- 12 Who is the person who •fears
the LORD?
He will show him the way
he should choose.
- 13 He will live a good life,
and his descendants will inherit
the land.^b
- 14 The secret counsel of the LORD
is for those who fear Him,
and He reveals His covenant to them.
- 15 My eyes are always on the LORD,
for He will pull my feet out of the net.
- 16 Turn to me and be gracious to me,
for I am alone and afflicted.
- 17 The distresses of my heart increase;^c
bring me out of my sufferings.
- 18 Consider my affliction and trouble,
and take away all my sins.
- 19 Consider my enemies;
they are numerous,
and they hate me violently.
- 20 Guard me and deliver me;
do not let me be put to shame,
for I take refuge in You.
- 21 May integrity and uprightness keep me,
for I wait for You.
- 22 God, redeem Israel, from all its distresses.

Psalm 26*Prayer for Vindication*

Davidic.

- 1 Vindicate me, LORD,
because I have lived with integrity and have trusted in the LORD without wavering.
- 2 Test me, LORD, and try me;
examine my heart and mind.
- 3 For Your faithful love is before my eyes,
and I live by Your truth.
- 4 I do not sit with the worthless
or associate with hypocrites.
- 5 I hate a crowd of evildoers,
and I do not sit with the wicked.
- 6 I wash my hands^d in innocence
and go around Your altar, LORD, raising my voice in thanksgiving
and telling about Your wonderful works.
- 8 LORD, I love the house where You dwell,
the place where Your glory resides.
- 9 Do not destroy me along with sinners,
or my life along with men of bloodshed
- 10 in whose hands are evil schemes,
and whose right hands are filled with bribes.
- 11 But I live with integrity;
redeem me and be gracious to me.
- 12 My foot stands on level ground;
I will praise the LORD in the assemblies.

Psalm 27*My Stronghold*

Davidic.

- 1 The LORD is my light and my salvation—
whom should I fear?
The LORD is the stronghold of my life—
of whom should I be afraid?
- 2 When evildoers came against me
to devour my flesh,
my foes and my enemies stumbled
and fell.
- 3 Though an army deploy against me,
my heart is not afraid;
though war break out against me,
still I am confident.

He will set me high on a rock.
- 6 Then my head will be high above my enemies around me;
I will offer sacrifices in His tent
with shouts of joy.
I will sing and make music to the LORD.
- 7 LORD, hear my voice when I call;

Psalm 28
My Strength

Davidic.

- 1 LORD, I call to You;
my rock, do not be deaf to me.
If You remain silent to me,
I will be like those going down
to the •Pit.
- 2 Listen to the sound of my pleading

- when I cry to You for help,
when I lift up my hands
toward Your holy sanctuary.
- 3 Do not drag me away with the wicked,
with the evildoers,
who speak in friendly ways
with their neighbors,
while malice is in their hearts.
- 4 Repay them according to what they have done—
according to the evil of their deeds.
Repay them according to the work
of their hands;
give them back what they deserve.
- 5 Because they do not consider what the LORD has done
or the work of His hands,
He will tear them down and not rebuild them.
- 6 May the LORD be praised,
for He has heard the sound of my pleading.
- 7 The LORD is my strength and my shield;
my heart trusts in Him, and I am helped.
Therefore my heart rejoices,
and I praise Him with my song.
- 8 The LORD is the strength of His people;^a
He is a stronghold of salvation
for His anointed.
- 9 Save Your people, bless Your possession,
shepherd them, and carry them forever.

Psalm 29

The Voice of the LORD

A Davidic psalm.

- 1 Give the LORD—you heavenly beings^b —
give the LORD glory and strength.
- 2 Give the LORD the glory due His name;
worship the LORD
in the splendor of [His] holiness.^c
- 3 The voice of the LORD is above the waters.
The God of glory thunders—
the LORD, above vast waters,
- 4 the voice of the LORD in power,
the voice of the LORD in splendor.
- 5 The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars;
the LORD shatters the cedars of Lebanon.
- 6 He makes Lebanon skip like a calf,
and Sirion,^d like a young wild ox.

the LORD shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
- 9 The voice of the LORD makes the deer give birth^a
and strips the woodlands bare.
- In His temple all cry, “Glory!”
- 10 The LORD sat enthroned at the flood;
the LORD sits enthroned, King forever.
- 11 The LORD gives His people strength;
the LORD blesses His people with peace.

Psalm 30*Joy in the Morning*

A psalm; a dedication song for the house.
Davidic.

- 1 I will exalt You, LORD,
because You have lifted me up and have not allowed my enemies to triumph over me.
- 2 LORD my God,
I cried to You for help,
and You healed me.
- 3 LORD, You brought me up from •Sheol;
You spared me from among those going down^b to the •Pit.
- 4 Sing to the LORD, you His faithful ones,
and praise His holy name.
- 5 For His anger lasts only a moment,
but His favor, a lifetime.
Weeping may spend the night,
but there is joy in the morning.
- 6 When I was secure, I said,
“I will never be shaken.”
- 7 LORD, when You showed Your favor,
You made me stand
like a strong mountain;
when You hid Your face, I was terrified.
- 8 LORD, I called to You;
I sought favor from my Lord:
- 9 “What gain is there in my death,
in my descending to the Pit?
Will the dust praise You?
Will it proclaim Your truth?”
- 10 LORD, listen and be gracious to me;
LORD, be my helper.”

- 11 You turned my lament into dancing;
You removed my •sackcloth
and clothed me with gladness,
- 12 so that I can sing to You and not be silent.
LORD my God, I will praise You forever.

Psalm 31*A Plea for Protection*

For the choir director. A Davidic psalm.

- 1 LORD, I seek refuge in You;
let me never be disgraced.
Save me by Your righteousness.
- 2 Listen closely to me; rescue me quickly.
Be a rock of refuge for me,
a mountain fortress to save me.
- 3 For You are my rock and my fortress;
You lead and guide me
because of Your name.
- 4 You will free me from the net
that is secretly set for me,
for You are my refuge.
- 5 Into Your hand I entrust my spirit;
You redeem^c me, LORD, God of truth.
- 6 I^d hate those who are devoted to worthless idols,
but I trust in the LORD.
- 7 I will rejoice and be glad in Your faithful love
because You have seen my affliction.
You have known the troubles of my life
- 8 and have not handed me over to the enemy.
You have set my feet in a spacious place.
- 9 Be gracious to me, LORD,
because I am in distress;

deliver me from the power of my enemies
and from my persecutors.
- 16 Show Your favor to Your servant;
save me by Your faithful love.
- 17 LORD, do not let me be disgraced
when I call on You.
Let the wicked be disgraced;
let them be silent^{a b} in •Sheol.
- 18 Let lying lips be quieted;
they speak arrogantly
against the righteous
with pride and contempt.
- 19 How great is Your goodness that You have stored up for those who •fear You,
and accomplished in the sight
of •everyone
for those who take refuge in You.
- 20 You hide them in the protection
of Your presence;
You conceal them in a shelter^c
from the schemes of men,
from quarrelsome tongues.
- 21 May the LORD be praised,
for He has wonderfully shown His faithful love to me in a city under siege.^d
- 22 In my alarm I had said,
“I am cut off from Your sight.”
But You heard the sound of my pleading
when I cried to You for help.
- 23 Love the LORD, all His faithful ones.
The LORD protects the loyal,
but fully repays the arrogant.
- 24 Be strong and courageous,
all you who put your hope in the LORD.

Psalm 32

The Joy of Forgiveness

Davidic. A •Maskil.

- 1 How happy is the one whose transgression is forgiven,

- whose sin is covered!
- 2 How happy is the man
the LORD does not charge with sin,
and in whose spirit is no deceit!
- 3 When I kept silent,^e my bones became brittle
from my groaning all day long.
- 4 For day and night Your hand was heavy
on me;
my strength was drained^f
as in the summer’s heat. •Selah
- 5 Then I acknowledged my sin to You and did not conceal my iniquity.
I said,
“I will confess my transgressions
to the LORD,”
and You took away the guilt of my sin. Selah
- 6 Therefore let everyone who is faithful pray to You
at a time that You may be found.^g
When great floodwaters come,
they will not reach him.
- 7 You are my hiding place;
You protect me from trouble.
You surround me with joyful shouts of deliverance. Selah
- 8 I will instruct you and show you the way to go;
with My eye on you, I will give counsel.
- 9 Do not be like a horse or mule,
without understanding,
that must be controlled with bit
and bridle,
or else it will not come near you.
- 10 Many pains come to the wicked,
but the one who trusts in the LORD will have faithful love surrounding him.
- 11 Be glad in the LORD and rejoice,
you righteous ones;
shout for joy,
all you upright in heart.

Psalm 33

Praise to the Creator

- 1 Rejoice in the LORD, you righteous ones;
praise from the upright is beautiful.
- 2 Praise the LORD with the lyre;
make music to Him
with a ten-stringed harp.

^a31:17 LXX reads brought down ^b31:17 Or them perish or wail ^c31:20 Lit canopy ^d31:21 Or a fortified city ^e32:3 Probably a reference to a refusal to confess sin ^f32:4 Hb obscure ^g32:6 Lit time of finding

- 3 Sing a new song to Him;
play skillfully on the strings,
with a joyful shout.
- 4 For the word of the LORD is right,
and all His work is trustworthy.
- 5 He loves righteousness and justice;
the earth is full of the LORD's unfailing love.
- 6 The heavens were made by the word
of the LORD,
and all the stars, by the breath
of His mouth.
- 7 He gathers the waters of the sea
into a heap;^a
He puts the depths into storehouses.
- 8 Let the whole earth tremble
before the LORD;
let all the inhabitants of the world
stand in awe of Him.
- 9 For He spoke, and it came into being;
He commanded, and it came into existence.
- 10 The LORD frustrates the counsel
of the nations;
He thwarts the plans of the peoples.
- 11 The counsel of the LORD
stands forever,
the plans of His heart from generation
to generation.
- 12 Happy is the nation whose God is
the LORD—
the people He has chosen to be His own possession!
- 13 The LORD looks down from heaven;
He observes everyone.
- 14 He gazes on all the inhabitants
of the earth
from His dwelling place.
- 15 He alone crafts their hearts;
He considers all their works.
- 16 A king is not saved by a large army;
a warrior will not be delivered by great strength.
- 17 The horse is a false hope for safety;
it provides no escape by its great power.
- 18 Now the eye of the LORD is on those who •fear Him—
those who depend on His faithful love
- 19 to deliver them from death
and to keep them alive in famine.

- 20 We wait for the LORD;
He is our help and shield.
- 21 For our hearts rejoice in Him,
because we trust in His holy name.
- 22 May Your faithful love rest on us, LORD,
for we put our hope in You.

Psalm 34

The LORD Delivers the Righteous

Concerning David, when he pretended to be insane in the presence of Abimelech,^b who drove him out, and he departed.

- 1 I^c will praise the LORD at all times;
His praise will always be on my lips.
- 2 I will boast in the LORD;
the humble will hear and be glad.
- 3 Proclaim with me the LORD's greatness;
let us exalt His name together.
- 4 I sought the LORD, and He answered me
and delivered me from all my fears.
- 5 Those who look to Him are^d radiant with joy;
their faces will never be ashamed.
- 6 This poor man cried, and the LORD
heard [him]
and saved him from all his troubles.
- 7 The angel of the LORD encamps and rescues them.

- 8 Taste and see that the LORD is good.
How happy is the man who takes refuge
in Him!
- 9 Fear the LORD, you His saints,
for those who fear Him lack nothing.
- 10 Young lions^e lack food and go hungry,
but those who seek the LORD
will not lack any good thing.
- 11 Come, children, listen to me;
I will teach you the fear of the LORD.
- 12 Who is the man who delights in life,
loving a long life to enjoy what is good?
- 13 Keep your tongue from evil
and your lips from deceitful speech.
- 14 Turn away from evil and do what is good;
seek peace and pursue it.
- 15 The eyes of the LORD are on the righteous,
and His ears are open to their cry for help.

Psalm 35

Prayer for Victory

Davidic.

- 1 Oppose my opponents, LORD;
fight those who fight me.
- 2 Take Your shields—large and small—
and come to my aid.
- 3 Draw the spear and javelin
against my pursuers,
and assure me: “I am your deliverance.”
- 4 Let those who seek to kill me
be disgraced and humiliated;
let those who plan to harm me
be turned back and ashamed.
- 5 Let them be like husks in the wind,
with the angel of the LORD
driving them away.
- 6 Let their way be dark and slippery,
with the angel of the LORD
pursuing them.
- 7 They hid their net for me without cause;
they dug a pit for me without cause.
- 8 Let ruin come on him unexpectedly,
and let the net that he hid ensnare him;
let him fall into it—to his ruin.
- 9 Then I will rejoice in the LORD;
I will delight in His deliverance.
- 10 My very bones will say, “LORD, who is like You, rescuing the poor from one too strong
for him,
- the poor or the needy from one who robs him?”
- 11 Malicious witnesses come forward;
they question me about things
I do not know.
- 12 They repay me evil for good,
making me desolate.
- 13 Yet when they were sick,
my clothing was •sackcloth;
I humbled myself with fasting,
and my prayer was genuine.^b
- 14 I went about [grieving] as if for my friend
or brother;
I was bowed down with grief,
like one mourning a mother.
- 15 But when I stumbled, they gathered in glee;
they gathered against me.
Assailants I did not know tore at me and did not stop.
- 16 With godless mockery^c
they gnashed their teeth at me.
- 17 Lord, how long will You look on?
Rescue my life from their ravages,
my very life^d from the young lions.
- 18 I will praise You in the great congregation;
I will exalt You among many people.
- 19 Do not let my deceitful enemies rejoice
over me;
do not let those who hate me
without cause
look at me maliciously.
- 20 For they do not speak in friendly ways,
but contrive deceitful schemes^e against those who live peacefully
in the land.
- 21 They open their mouths wide against me
and say,
“Aha, aha! We saw it!”^f
- 22 You saw it, LORD; do not be silent.
Lord, do not be far from me.
- 23 Wake up and rise to my defense,
to my cause, my God and my LORD!
- 24 Vindicate me, LORD, my God,
in keeping with Your righteousness,
and do not let them rejoice over me.
- 25 Do not let them say in their hearts,
“Aha! Just what we wanted.”
Do not let them say,
“We have swallowed him up!”
- 26 Let those who rejoice at my misfortune

be disgraced and humiliated;
let those who exalt themselves over me
be clothed with shame and reproach.

- 27 Let those who want my vindication
shout for joy and be glad;
let them continually say,
“The LORD be exalted,
who wants His servant’s well-being.”
28 And my tongue will proclaim
Your righteousness,
Your praise all day long.

Psalm 36

Human Wickedness and God’s Love

For the choir director. [A psalm] of David,
the LORD’s servant.

- 1 An oracle within my heart concerning the transgression
of the wicked:
There is no dread of God before his eyes,
2 for in his own eyes he flatters himself [too much]
to discover and hate his sin.
3 The words of his mouth are malicious and deceptive;
he has stopped acting wisely
and doing good.
4 Even on his bed he makes malicious plans.
He sets himself on a path that is not good
and does not reject evil.
5 LORD, Your faithful love [reaches]
to heaven,
Your faithfulness to the skies.
6 Your righteousness is like the highest mountain;
Your judgments, like the deepest sea.
LORD, You preserve man and beast.
7 God, Your faithful love is so valuable that •people take refuge in the shadow of Your wings.
8 They are filled from the abundance of Your house;
You let them drink
from Your refreshing stream, 9 for with You is life’s fountain.
In Your light we will see light.
10 Spread Your faithful love over those who know You,
and Your righteousness over the upright
in heart.

- 11 Do not let the foot of the arrogant
come near me
or the hand of the wicked drive me away.
12 There the evildoers fall;
they have been thrown down
and cannot rise.

Psalm 37

Instruction in Wisdom

Davidic.

- 1 Do^a not be agitated by evildoers;
do not envy those who do wrong.
2 For they wither quickly like grass and wilt like tender green plants.
3 Trust in the LORD and do what is good;
dwell in the land and live securely.^b 4 Take delight in the LORD,
and He will give you your heart’s desires.
5 Commit your way to the LORD;
trust in Him, and He will act, 6 making your righteousness shine
like the dawn,
your justice like the noonday.
7 Be silent before the LORD and wait
expectantly for Him;
do not be agitated by one who prospers
in his way,
by the man who carries out evil plans.
8 Refrain from anger and give up [your] rage;
do not be agitated—it can only bring harm.
9 For evildoers will be destroyed,
but those who put their hope in the LORD will inherit the land.^c 10 A little while, and the wicked will be
no more;
though you look for him, he will not be there.
11 But the humble will inherit the land^c
and will enjoy abundant prosperity.
12 The wicked schemes
against the righteous
and gnashes his teeth at him.
13 The Lord laughs at him
because He sees that his day is coming.
14 The wicked have drawn the sword and strung the^d bow
to bring down the afflicted and needy

- and to slaughter those whose way is upright.
- 15 Their swords will enter their own hearts,
and their bows will be broken.
- 16 Better the little that the righteous man has
than the abundance of many wicked people.
- 17 For the arms^a of the wicked
will be broken,
but the LORD supports the righteous.
- 18 The LORD watches over the blameless
all their days,
and their inheritance will last forever.
- 19 They will not be disgraced in times
of adversity;
they will be satisfied in days of hunger.
- 20 But the wicked will perish;
the LORD's enemies, like the glory of the pastures,
will fade away—
they will fade away like smoke.
- 21 The wicked borrows and does not repay,
but the righteous is gracious and giving.
- 22 Those who are blessed by Him will inherit
the land,^b
but those cursed by Him
will be destroyed.
- 23 A man's steps are established by the LORD,
and He takes pleasure in his way.
- 24 Though he falls, he will not be overwhelmed,
because the LORD holds his hand.^c
- 25 I have been young and now I am old,
yet I have not seen
the righteous abandoned
or his children begging bread.
- 26 He is always generous, always lending,
and his children are a blessing.
- 27 Turn away from evil and do what is good,
and dwell there^d forever.
- 28 For the LORD loves justice
and will not abandon His faithful ones.
They are kept safe forever,
but the children of the wicked
will be destroyed.
- 29 The righteous will inherit the land^b and dwell in it permanently.
- 30 The mouth of the righteous
utters wisdom;
his tongue speaks what is just.
- 31 The instruction of his God is in his heart;
his steps do not falter.
- 32 The wicked lies in wait for the righteous
and seeks to kill him;
- 33 the LORD will not leave him in his hand^a or allow him to be condemned
when he is judged.
- 34 Wait for the LORD and keep His way,
and He will exalt you to inherit the land.
You will watch when the wicked
are destroyed.
- 35 I have seen a wicked, violent man
well-rooted^e like a flourishing native tree.
- 36 Then I passed by and^f noticed
he was gone;
I searched for him, but he could not be found.
- 37 Watch the blameless and observe the upright,
for the man of peace will have a future.^g
- 38 But transgressors will all be eliminated;
the future^g of the wicked
will be destroyed.
- 39 The salvation of the righteous is
from the LORD,
their refuge in a time of distress.
- 40 The LORD helps and delivers them;
He will deliver them from the wicked and will save them
because they take refuge in Him.

Psalm 38

Prayer of a Suffering Sinner

A Davidic psalm for remembrance.

- 1 LORD, do not punish me in Your anger
or discipline me in Your wrath.
- 2 For Your arrows have sunk into me,
and Your hand has pressed down on me.
- 3 There is no soundness in my body

 6 I am bent over and brought low; all day long I go around in mourning.
 7 For my loins are full of burning pain, and there is no health in my body.
 8 I am faint and severely crushed; I groan because of the anguish of my heart.
 9 Lord, my every desire is known to^a You; my sighing is not hidden from You.
 10 My heart races, my strength leaves me, and even the light of my eyes has faded.^b
 11 My loved ones and friends stand back from my affliction, and my relatives stand at a distance.
 12 Those who seek my life set traps, and those who want to harm me threaten to destroy me; they plot treachery all day long.
 13 I am like a deaf person; I do not hear. I am like a speechless person who does not open his mouth.
 14 I am like a man who does not hear and has no arguments in his mouth.
 15 I put my hope in You, LORD; You will answer, Lord my God.
 16 For I said, "Don't let them rejoice over me—those who are arrogant toward me when I stumble."
 17 For I am about to fall, and my pain is constantly with me.
 18 So I confess my guilt; I am anxious because of my sin.
 19 But my enemies are vigorous and powerful;^c many hate me for no reason.

Psalm 39

The Fleeting Nature of Life

For the choir director, for Jeduthun.
 A Davidic psalm.

- ¹ I said, "I will guard my ways so that I may not sin with my tongue; I will guard my mouth with a muzzle

as long as the wicked are in my presence."

- ² I was speechless and quiet; I kept silent, even from [speaking] good, and my pain intensified.
³ My heart grew hot within me; as I mused, a fire burned. I spoke with my tongue:
⁴ "LORD, reveal to me the end of my life and the number of my days. Let me know how transitory I am.
⁵ You, indeed, have made my days short in length, and my life span as nothing in Your sight. Yes, every mortal man is only a vapor. •Selah
⁶ Certainly, man walks about like a mere shadow. Indeed, they frantically rush around in vain, gathering possessions without knowing who will get them.
⁷ "Now, Lord, what do I wait for? My hope is in You.
⁸ Deliver me from all my transgressions; do not make me the taunt of fools.
⁹ I am speechless; I do not open my mouth because of what You have done.
¹⁰ Remove Your torment from me; I fade away because of the force of Your hand.
¹¹ You discipline a man with punishment for sin, consuming like a moth what is precious to him; every man is a mere vapor. Selah
¹² "Hear my prayer, LORD, and listen to my cry for help; do not be silent at my tears. For I am a foreigner residing with You, a sojourner like all my fathers.
¹³ Turn Your angry gaze from me so that I may be cheered up before I die and am gone."

Many will see and fear,
and put their trust in the LORD.
- 4 How happy is the man who has put his trust in the LORD and has not turned to the proud or to those who run after lies!
- 5 LORD my God, You have done
many things—
Your wonderful works and Your plans
for us;
none can compare with You.

they are more than can be told.

- 10 I did not hide Your righteousness
in my heart;
I spoke about Your faithfulness
and salvation;
I did not conceal Your constant love
and truth
from the great assembly.
- 11 LORD, do not withhold Your compassion
from me;
Your constant love and truth will always guard me.
- 12 For troubles without number have surrounded me;
my sins have overtaken me; I am unable to see.
They are more than the hairs of my head,
and my courage leaves me.

- 13 LORD, be pleased to deliver me;
hurry to help me, LORD.
- 14 Let those who seek to take my life
be disgraced and confounded.
Let those who wish me harm
be driven back and humiliated.
- 15 Let those who say to me, “Aha, aha!”
be horrified because of their shame.
- 16 Let all who seek You rejoice and be glad
in You;
let those who love Your salvation
continually say,
“The LORD is great!”
- 17 I am afflicted and needy;
the Lord thinks of me.
You are my help and my deliverer;
my God, do not delay.

BOOK II

(Psalms 42–72)

Psalm 42

Longing for God

For the choir director.

A •Maskil of the sons of Korah.

- 1 As a deer longs for streams of water,
so I long for You, God.
- 2 I thirst for God, the living God.
When can I come and appear before God?
- 3 My tears have been my food
day and night,
while all day long people say to me,
“Where is your God?”
- 4 I remember this as I pour out my heart:
how I walked with many,
leading the festive procession to the house
of God,
with joyful and thankful shouts.
- 5 Why am I so depressed?
Why this turmoil within me?
Put your hope in God, for I will
still praise Him,
my Savior and my God.
- 6 I^a am deeply depressed;
therefore I remember You from the land of Jordan
and the peaks of Hermon,
from Mount Mizar.
- 7 Deep calls to deep in the roar
of Your waterfalls;
all Your breakers and Your billows
have swept over me.
- 8 The LORD will send His faithful love
by day;

His song will be with me in the night—
a prayer to the God of my life.

- 9 I will say to God, my rock, “Why have You forgotten me?
Why must I go about in sorrow
because of the enemy’s oppression?”
- 10 My adversaries taunt me,
as if crushing my bones,
while all day long they say to me,
“Where is your God?”
- 11 Why am I so depressed?
Why this turmoil within me?
Put your hope in God, for I will
still praise Him,
my Savior and my God.

Psalm 43^b

- 1 Vindicate me, God, and defend my cause against an ungodly nation;
rescue me from the deceitful
and unjust man.
- 2 For You are the God of my refuge.
Why have You rejected me?
Why must I go about in sorrow
because of the enemy’s oppression?
- 3 Send Your light and Your truth; let them
lead me.
Let them bring me to Your holy mountain,
to Your dwelling place.
- 4 Then I will come to the altar of God,
to God, my greatest joy.
I will praise You with the lyre,
God, my God.
- 5 Why am I so depressed?
Why this turmoil within me?
Put your hope in God, for I will
still praise Him,
my Savior and my God.

Israel’s Complaint

For the choir director.

A •Maskil of the sons of Korah.

- 1 God, we have heard with our ears—
our forefathers have told us—
the work You accomplished in their days,
in days long ago:

You drove out the nations
with Your hand;

- You crushed the peoples.
 3 For they did not take the land
 by their sword—
 their arm did not bring them victory—
 but by Your right hand, Your arm,
 and the light of Your face,
 for You were pleased with them.
 4 You are my King, my God,
 who ordains^a victories for Jacob.
 5 Through You we drive back our foes;
 through Your name we trample
 our enemies.
 6 For I do not trust in my bow,
 and my sword does not bring me victory.
 7 But You give us victory over our foes
 and let those who hate us be disgraced.
 8 We boast in God all day long;
 we will praise Your name forever. •Selah
 9 But You have rejected and humiliated us;
 You do not march out with our armies.
 10 You make us retreat from the foe,
 and those who hate us
 have taken plunder for themselves.
 11 You hand us over to be eaten like sheep
 and scatter us among the nations.
 12 You sell Your people for nothing;
 You make no profit from selling them.
 13 You make us an object of reproach
 to our neighbors,
 a source of mockery and ridicule to those around us.
 14 You make us a joke among the nations,
 a laughingstock^b among the peoples.
 15 My disgrace is before me all day long,
 and shame has covered my face,
 16 because of the voice of the scorner
 and reviler,
 because of the enemy and avenger.
 17 All this has happened to us, but we have not forgotten You or betrayed Your covenant.
 18 Our hearts have not turned back;
 our steps have not strayed from Your path.
 19 But You have crushed us in a haunt of jackals
 and have covered us
 with deepest darkness.
 20 If we had forgotten the name of our God
 and spread out our hands to a foreign god, 21 wouldn't God have found this out,
 since He knows the secrets of the heart?

- 22 Because of You we are slain all day long;
 we are counted as sheep
 to be slaughtered.
 23 Wake up, LORD! Why are You sleeping?
 Get up! Don't reject us forever!
 24 Why do You hide Yourself and forget our affliction and oppression?
 25 For we have sunk down to the dust;
 our bodies cling to the ground.
 26 Rise up! Help us!
 Redeem us because of Your faithful love.

Psalm 45

A Royal Wedding Song

For the choir director: according to "The Lilies."^c
 A •Maskil of the sons of Korah. A love song.

- 1 My heart is moved by a noble theme
 as I recite my verses to the king;
 my tongue is the pen of a skillful writer.
 2 You are the most handsome of •men;
 grace flows from your lips.
 Therefore God has blessed you forever.
 3 Mighty warrior, strap your sword
 at your side.
 In your majesty and splendor—
 4 in your splendor ride triumphantly in the cause of truth, humility, and justice.
 May your right hand show
 your awe-inspiring deeds.
 5 Your arrows pierce the hearts of the king's enemies;
 the peoples fall under you.
 6 Your throne, God, is^d forever and ever;
 the scepter of Your^e kingdom is a scepter
 of justice.
 7 You love righteousness
 and hate wickedness;
 therefore God, your God,
 has anointed you,
 more than your companions, with the oil
 of joy.
 8 Myrrh, aloes, and cassia [perfume]
 all your garments;
 from ivory palaces harps bring you joy.
 9 Kings' daughters are among your honored women;
 the queen, adorned with gold from Ophir,
 stands at your right hand.
 10 Listen, daughter, pay attention and consider:

^a44:4 LXX, Syr, Aq; MT reads King, God; ordain ^b44:14 Lit shaking of the head ^cApparently a hymn tune; compare Pss 60; 69; 80 ^d45:6 Or Your divine throne is, or Your throne is God's ^e45:6 Or your

- forget your people
and your father's house,
11 and the king will desire your beauty.
Bow down to him, for he is your lord.
12 The daughter of Tyre, the wealthy people,
will seek your favor with gifts.
13 In [her chamber], the royal daughter is all glorious,
her clothing embroidered with gold.
14 In colorful garments she is led to the king;
after her, the virgins, her companions,
are brought to you.
15 They are led in with gladness
and rejoicing;
they enter the king's palace.
16 Your sons will succeed your ancestors;
you will make them princes
throughout the land.
17 I will cause your name to be remembered
for all generations;
therefore the peoples will praise you
forever and ever.

Psalm 46*God Our Refuge*

For the choir director. A song of the sons of Korah. According to Alamoth.^a

- 1 God is our refuge and strength,
a helper who is always found in times of trouble.
2 Therefore we will not be afraid, though the earth trembles
and the mountains topple
into the depths of the seas,
3 though its waters roar and foam
and the mountains quake with its turmoil.
•Selah
4 [There is] a river—
its streams delight the city of God,
the holy dwelling place
of the •Most High.
5 God is within her; she will not be toppled.
God will help her
when the morning dawns.
6 Nations rage, kingdoms topple;
the earth melts when He lifts His voice.
7 The LORD of •Hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our stronghold. Selah
8 Come, see the works of the LORD, who brings devastation on the earth.

- 9 He makes wars cease
throughout the earth.
He shatters bows and cuts spears
to pieces;
He burns up the chariots.^b 10 “Stop [your fighting]—and know that I am God,
exalted among the nations,
exalted on the earth.”
11 The LORD of •Hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our stronghold. Selah

Psalm 47*God Our King*

For the choir director.

A psalm of the sons of Korah.

- 1 Clap your hands, all you peoples;
shout to God with a jubilant cry.
2 For the LORD •Most High is awe-inspiring,
a great King over all the earth.
3 He subdues peoples under us
and nations under our feet.
4 He chooses for us our inheritance—
the pride of Jacob, whom He loves. •Selah 5 God ascends amid shouts of joy,
the LORD, amid the sound of trumpets.
6 Sing praise to God, sing praise;
sing praise to our King, sing praise!
7 Sing a song of instruction,^c
for God is King of all the earth.
8 God reigns over the nations;
God is seated on His holy throne.
9 The nobles of the peoples have assembled
[with] the people of the God of Abraham.
For the leaders^d of the earth
belong to God;
He is greatly exalted.

Psalm 48*Zion Exalted*

A song. A psalm of the sons of Korah.

- 1 The LORD is great and is highly praised
in the city of our God.
His holy mountain, ² rising splendidly,
is the joy of the whole earth.
Mount Zion on the slopes of the north is the city of the great King.
3 God is known as a stronghold
in its citadels.
4 Look! The kings assembled;

^aThis notation may refer to a high pitch, perhaps a tune sung by soprano voices; the Hb word means “young women.”

^b46:9 Lit chariots with fire ^c47:7 Hb a Maskil ^d47:9 Lit shields

they advanced together.

5 They looked, and froze with fear;
they fled in terror.

6 Trembling seized them there,
agony like that of a woman in labor,
7 as You wrecked the ships of Tarshish
with the east wind.

8 Just as we heard, so we have seen in the city of the LORD of •Hosts,
in the city of our God;
God will establish it forever. •Selah

9 God, within Your temple,
we contemplate Your faithful love.
10 Your name, God, like Your praise, reaches to the ends of the earth;
Your right hand is filled with justice.

11 Mount Zion is glad.
The towns^a of Judah rejoice
because of Your judgments.

12 Go around Zion, encircle it;
count its towers,
13 note its ramparts; tour its citadels
so that you can tell a future generation:
14 “This God, our God forever and ever—
He will lead us eternally.”^b

Psalm 49

Misplaced Trust in Wealth

For the choir director. A psalm of the sons of Korah.

1 Hear this, all you peoples;
listen, all who inhabit the world,
2 both low and high,^c
rich and poor together.
3 My mouth speaks wisdom;
my heart's meditation [brings] understanding.
4 I turn my ear to a proverb;
I explain my riddle with a lyre.
5 Why should I fear in times of trouble?
The iniquity of my foes surrounds me.
6 They trust in their wealth and boast of their abundant riches.
7 Yet these cannot redeem a person^d or pay his ransom to God—8 since the price of redeeming him is too costly,
one should forever stop trying^e —

9 so that he may live forever and not see the •Pit.

10 For one can see that wise men die;
the foolish and the senseless also pass away.

Then they leave their wealth to others.

11 Their graves are their eternal homes,^f their homes from generation
to generation,
though they have named estates
after themselves.

12 But despite [his] assets,^g man will not last;
he is like the animals that perish.

13 This is the way of those who are arrogant,
and of their followers,
who approve of their words.^h •Selah

14 Like sheep they are headed for •Sheol;
Death will shepherd them.
The upright will rule over them

in the morning,
and their form will waste away in Sheol,
far from their lofty abode.

15 But God will redeem my life
from the power of Sheol,
for He will take me. Selah

16 Do not be afraid when a man gets rich, when the wealthⁱ
of his house increases.

17 For when he dies, he will take nothing at all;
his wealthⁱ will not follow him down.

18 Though he praises himself during his lifetime—
and people praise you when you do well
for yourself—

19 he will go to the generation of his fathers;
they will never see the light.

20 A man with valuable possessions^j
but without understanding is like the animals that perish.

Psalm 50

God as Judge

A psalm of •Asaph.

1 God, the LORD God^k speaks;
He summons the earth from east to west.^l
2 From Zion, the perfection of beauty,

^a48:11 Lit daughters ^b48:14 Some Hb mss, LXX; other Hb mss read over death ^c49:2 Lit both sons of Adam and sons of man ^d49:7 Or Certainly he cannot redeem himself, or Yet he cannot redeem a brother ^e49:8 Or costly, it will cease forever ^f49:11 LXX, Syr, Tg; MT reads Their inner thought is that their houses are eternal ^g49:12 Or honor ^h49:13 Lit and after them with their mouth they were pleased ⁱ49:16,17 Or glory ^j49:20 Or with honor ^k50:1 Or The Mighty One, God, the LORD, or The God of gods, the LORD ^l50:1 Lit from the rising of the sun to its setting

God appears in radiance.^a

3 Our God is coming; He will not be silent!
Devouring fire precedes Him,
and a storm rages around Him.

4 On high, He summons heaven and earth
in order to judge His people.

5 “Gather My faithful ones to Me,
those who made a covenant with Me
by sacrifice.”

6 The heavens proclaim His righteousness,
for God is the judge. •Selah

7 “Listen, My people, and I will speak;
I will testify against you, Israel.
I am God, your God.

8 I do not rebuke you for your sacrifices or for your •burnt offerings,
which are continually before Me.

9 I will not accept a bull from your household
or male goats from your pens,

10 for every animal of the forest is Mine,
the cattle on a thousand hills.

11 I know every bird of the mountains,^b and the creatures of the field are Mine.

12 If I were hungry, I would not tell you,
for the world and everything in it is Mine.

13 Do I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of goats?

14 Sacrifice a thank offering to God,
and pay your vows to the •Most High.

15 Call on Me in a day of trouble;
I will rescue you,
and you will honor Me.”

16 But God says to the wicked:
“What right do you have to recite
My statutes
and to take My covenant on your lips?

17 You hate instruction and turn your back on My words.^c

18 When you see a thief,
you make friends with him,
and you associate with adulterers.

19 You unleash your mouth for evil
and harness your tongue for deceit.

20 You sit, maligning your brother, slandering your mother's son.

21 You have done these things,
and I kept silent;
you thought I was just like you.

But I will rebuke you and lay out the case before you.^d

22 “Understand this, you who forget God,
or I will tear you apart,
and there will be no rescuer.

23 Whoever sacrifices a thank offering honors Me,
and whoever orders his conduct,
I will show him the salvation of God.”

Psalm 51

A Prayer for Restoration

For the choir director. A Davidic psalm, when Nathan the prophet came to him after he had gone to Bathsheba.

1 Be gracious to me, God,
according to Your faithful love;
according to Your abundant compassion,
blot out my rebellion.
2 Wash away my guilt,
and cleanse me from my sin.
3 For I am conscious of my rebellion,
and my sin is always before me.
4 Against You—You alone—I have sinned
and done this evil in Your sight.
So You are right when You pass sentence;
You are blameless when You judge.
5 Indeed, I was guilty [when I] was born;
I was sinful when my mother conceived me.

6 Surely You desire integrity
in the inner self,
and You teach me wisdom deep within.
7 Purify me with hyssop,
and I will be clean;
wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
8 Let me hear joy and gladness;
let the bones You have crushed rejoice.
9 Turn Your face away^e from my sins
and blot out all my guilt.

10 God, create a clean heart for me and renew a steadfast^f spirit within me.
11 Do not banish me from Your presence or take Your Holy Spirit from me.
12 Restore the joy of Your salvation to me,
and give me a willing spirit.^g
13 Then I will teach the rebellious
Your ways,
and sinners will return to You.
14 Save me from the guilt of bloodshed, God,
the God of my salvation,

^a50:2 Or God shines forth ^b50:11 LXX, Syr, Tg read heavens ^c50:17 Or and cast My words behind you ^d50:21 Lit out before your eyes ^e51:9 Lit Hide Your face ^f51:10 Or right ^g51:12 Or and sustain me with a noble spirit and my tongue will sing of Your righteousness.

- 15 Lord, open my lips,
and my mouth will declare Your praise.
- 16 You do not want a sacrifice,
or I would give it;
You are not pleased with a •burnt offering.
- 17 The sacrifice pleasing to God is^a
a broken spirit.
God, You will not despise a broken and humbled heart.
- 18 In Your good pleasure, cause Zion
to prosper;
build^b the walls of Jerusalem.
- 19 Then You will delight
in righteous sacrifices,
whole burnt offerings;
then bulls will be offered on Your altar.

Psalm 52

God Judges the Proud

For the choir director. A Davidic •Maskil. When Doeg the Edomite went and reported to Saul, telling him, "David went to Ahimelech's house."

- 1 Why brag about evil, you hero!
God's faithful love is constant.
- 2 Like a sharpened razor,
your tongue devises destruction,
working treachery.
- 3 You love evil instead of good,
lying instead of speaking truthfully. •Selah
- 4 You love any words that destroy,
you treacherous tongue!
- 5 This is why God will bring you down forever.
He will take you, ripping you out of your tent;
He will uproot you from the land of the living. Selah
- 6 The righteous will look on with awe
and will ridicule him:
- 7 "Here is the man
who would not make God his refuge, but trusted in the abundance of his riches,
taking refuge
in his destructive behavior."^c
- 8 But I am like a flourishing olive tree
in the house of God;

I trust in God's faithful love
forever and ever.

- 9 I will praise You forever for what
You have done.
In the presence of Your faithful people,
I will put my hope in Your name,
for it is good.

Psalm 53

A Portrait of Sinners

For the choir director: on Mahalath.^d
A Davidic •Maskil.

- 1 The fool says in his heart,
"God does not exist."
They are corrupt, and they do vile deeds.
There is no one who does good.
- 2 God looks down from heaven
on the •human race
to see if there is one who is wise
and who seeks God.
- 3 Everyone has turned aside;
they have all become corrupt.
There is no one who does good,
not even one.
- 4 Will evildoers never understand?
They consume My people
as they consume bread;
they do not call on God.
- 5 Then they will be filled with terror—terror like no other—because God will scatter
the bones of those who besiege you.
You will put them to shame,
for God has rejected them.
- 6 Oh, that Israel's deliverance would come
from Zion!
When God restores His captive people,
Jacob will rejoice; Israel will be glad.

Psalm 54

Prayer for Deliverance

For the choir director:
with stringed instruments. A Davidic •Maskil.
When the Ziphites went and said to Saul, "Is David not hiding among us?"

- 1 God, save me by Your name,
and vindicate me by Your might!
- 2 God, hear my prayer;
listen to the words of my mouth.
- 3 For strangers rise up against me,

^a51:17 Lit The sacrifices of God are ^b51:18 Or rebuild ^c52:7 Or riches, and grew strong in his evil desire; lit his destruction ^dPerhaps a song tune, a musical instrument, or a dance; may be related to Hb for "sickness"

and violent men seek my life.
They have no regard for God.^a •Selah

- 4 God is my helper;
the Lord is the sustainer of my life.^b 5 He will repay my adversaries for [their] evil.
Because of Your faithfulness,
annihilate them.
6 I will sacrifice a freewill offering to You.
I will praise Your name, LORD,
because it is good.
7 For He has delivered me from every trouble, and my eye has looked down on my enemies.

Psalm 55

Betrayal by a Friend

For the choir director:
with stringed instruments. A Davidic •Maskil.

- 1 God, listen to my prayer
and do not ignore^c my plea for help.
2 Pay attention to me and answer me.
I am restless and in turmoil
with my complaint,
3 because of the enemy's voice,
because of the pressure^d of the wicked.
For they bring down disaster on me^e
and harass me in anger.
4 My heart shudders within me;
terrors of death sweep over me.
5 Fear and trembling grip me;
horror has overwhelmed me.
6 I said, "If only I had^f wings like a dove!
I would fly away and find rest.
7 How far away I would flee;
I would stay in the wilderness. •Selah
8 I would hurry to my shelter from the raging wind and the storm." 9 Lord, confuse^g and confound their speech,^h
for I see violence and strife in the city;
10 day and night they make the rounds
on its walls.
Crime and trouble are within it;
11 destruction is inside it;
oppression and deceit never leave
its marketplace.
12 Now, it is not an enemy who insults me—

- otherwise I could bear it;
it is not a foe who rises up against me—
otherwise I could hide from him.
13 But it is you, a man who is my peer,
my companion and good friend!
14 We used to have close fellowship;
we walked with the crowd into the house
of God.
15 Let death take them by surprise;
let them go down to •Sheol alive,
because evil is in their homes and within them.
16 But I call to God,
and the LORD will save me.
17 I complain and groan morning, noon,
and night,
and He hears my voice.
18 Though many are against me,
He will redeem me
from my battle unharmed.
19 God, the One enthroned from long ago,
will hear, and will humiliate them •Selah
because they do not change and do not •fear God.
20 Heⁱ acts violently against those at peace with him;
he violates his covenant.
21 His buttery words are smooth,^j
but war is in his heart.
His words are softer than oil,
but they are drawn swords.
22 Cast your burden on the LORD,
and He will support you;
He will never allow the righteous
to be shaken.
23 You, God, will bring them down to the pit of destruction;
men of bloodshed and treachery
will not live out half their days.
But I will trust in You.

Psalm 56

A Call for God's Protection

For the choir director: according to
"A Silent Dove Far Away."^k A Davidic •Miktam.
When the Philistines seized him in Gath.

- 1 Be gracious to me, God,
for man tramples me;

^a54:3 Lit They do not set God before them ^b54:4 Or is with those who sustain my life ^c55:1 Lit hide Yourself from ^d55:3 Or threat, or oppression ^e55:3 LXX, Syr, Sym; MT reads they cause me to totter ^f55:6 Lit "Who will give to me . . . dove? (as a question) ^g55:9 Or destroy ^h55:9 Lit and divide their tongue ⁱ55:20 The evil man ^j55:21 Other Hb mss, Sym, Syr, Tg, Jer read His speech is smoother than butter ^kPossibly a song tune

- he fights and oppresses me all day long.
 2 My adversaries trample me all day,
 for many arrogantly fight against me.^a 3 When I am afraid,
 I will trust in You.
 4 In God, whose word I praise,
 in God I trust; I will not fear.
 What can man do to me?
 5 They twist my words all day long;
 all their thoughts are against me for evil.
 6 They stir up strife,^b they lurk;
 they watch my steps
 while they wait to take my life.
 7 Will they escape in spite of such sin?
 God, bring down the nations in wrath.
 8 You Yourself have recorded my wanderings.^c
 Put my tears in Your bottle.
 Are they not in Your records?
 9 Then my enemies will retreat on the day when I call.
 This I know: God is for me.
 10 In God, whose word I praise,
 in the LORD, whose word I praise,
 11 in God I trust; I will not fear.
 What can man do to me?
 12 I am obligated by vows^d to You, God;
 I will make my thank offerings to You.
 13 For You delivered me from death,
 even my feet from stumbling,
 to walk before God in the light of life.

Psalm 57

Praise for God's Protection

For the choir director: "Do Not Destroy."^e
 A Davidic •Mik̄tam. When he fled before Saul into the cave.

- 1 Be gracious to me, God, be gracious to me,
 for I take refuge in You.
 I will seek refuge in the shadow
 of Your wings
 until danger passes.
 2 I call to God •Most High,
 to God who fulfills [His purpose] for me.^f 3 He reaches down from heaven and saves me,
 challenging the one who tramples me. •Selah

- God sends His faithful love and truth.
 4 I am in the midst of lions;
 I lie down with those who devour •men.
 Their teeth are spears and arrows;
 their tongues are sharp swords.
 5 God, be exalted above the heavens;
 let Your glory be above the whole earth.
 6 They prepared a net for my steps;
 I was downcast.
 They dug a pit ahead of me,
 but they fell into it! Selah 7 My heart is confident, God, my heart is confident.
 I will sing; I will sing praises.
 8 Wake up, my soul!^g
 Wake up, harp and lyre!
 I will wake up the dawn.
 9 I will praise You, Lord,
 among the peoples;
 I will sing praises to You
 among the nations.
 10 For Your faithful love is as high as
 the heavens;
 Your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.
 11 God, be exalted above the heavens;
 let Your glory be over the whole earth.

Psalm 58

A Cry against Injustice

For the choir director: "Do Not Destroy."^e
 A Davidic •Mik̄tam.

- 1 Do you really speak righteously,
 you mighty ones?^h
 Do you judge •people fairly?
 2 No, you practice injustice in your hearts;
 with your hands you weigh out violence
 in the land.
 3 The wicked go astray from the womb;
 liars err from birth.
 4 They have venom like the venom
 of a snake,
 like the deaf cobra that stops up its ears,
 5 that does not listen to the sound of the charmers
 who skillfully weave spells.
 6 God, knock the teeth out of their mouths;
 LORD, tear out the young lions' fangs.
 7 They will vanish like water that flows by;

^a56:2 Or many fight against me, O exalted One, or many fight against me from the heights ^b56:6 Or They attack

^c56:8 Or misery ^d56:12 Lit Upon me the vows ^ePossibly a song tune ^f57:2 Or who avenges me ^g57:8 Lit glory ^h58:1 Or Can you really speak righteousness in silence?

- they will aim their useless arrows.^{a b}
- 8 Like a slug that moves along in slime,
like a woman's miscarried [child],
they will not see the sun.
- 9 Before your pots can feel the heat of the thorns—
whether green or burning—
He will sweep them away.^c
- 10 The righteous will rejoice
when he sees the retribution;
he will wash his feet in the blood
of the wicked.
- 11 Then people will say,
“Yes, there is a reward for the righteous!
There is a God who judges on earth!”

Psalm 59

God Our Stronghold

For the choir director: “Do Not Destroy.”^d

A Davidic •Miktam. When Saul sent [agents] to watch the house and kill him.

- 1 Deliver me from my enemies, my God;
protect me from those who rise up against me.
- 2 Deliver me from those who practice sin,
and save me from men of bloodshed.
- 3 LORD, look! They set an ambush for me.
Powerful men attack me,
but not because of any sin or rebellion
of mine.
- 4 For no fault of mine,
they run and take up a position.
Awake to help me, and take notice.
- 5 You, LORD God of •Hosts, God of Israel,
rise up to punish all the nations;
do not show grace to any wicked traitors.
•Selah
- 6 They return at evening, snarling like dogs
and prowling around the city.
- 7 Look, they spew from their mouths—
sharp words from^e their lips.
“For who,” [they say,] “will hear?”
- 8 But You laugh at them, LORD;
You ridicule all the nations.
- 9 I will keep watch for You, my^f strength,
because God is my stronghold.
- 10 My faithful God^g will come to meet me;
God will let me look down on my adversaries.

- 11 Do not kill them; otherwise, my people will forget.
By Your power, make them homeless wanderers
and bring them down,
Lord, our shield.
- 12 The sin of their mouths is the word
of their lips,
so let them be caught in their pride.
They utter curses and lies.
- 13 Consume [them] in rage;
consume [them] until they are gone.
Then they will know to the ends of the earth
that God rules over Jacob. Selah
- 14 And they return at evening, snarling like dogs
and prowling around the city.
- 15 They scavenge for food;
they growl if they are not satisfied.
- 16 But I will sing of Your strength and will joyfully proclaim
Your faithful love in the morning.
For You have been a stronghold for me,
a refuge in my day of trouble.
- 17 To You, my strength, I sing praises,
because God is my stronghold—
my faithful God.

Psalm 60

Prayer in Difficult Times

For the choir director: according to

“The Lily of Testimony.”^d A Davidic •Miktam
for teaching. When he fought with Aramnaharaim and Aram-zobah, and Joab returned and struck Edom in the Valley of Salt, [killing] 12,000.

- 1 God, You have rejected us;
You have broken out^h against us;
You have been angry. Restore us!ⁱ
- 2 You have shaken the land
and split it open.
Heal its fissures, for it shudders.
- 3 You have made Your people suffer hardship;
You have given us a wine to drink
that made us stagger.
- 4 You have given a signal flag to those
who •fear You,
so that they can flee
before the archers.^j •Selah

- 12 With God we will perform valiantly;
He will trample our foes.

Psalm 61*Security in God*

For the choir director: on stringed instruments.
Davidic.

- 1 God, hear my cry;
pay attention to my prayer.
- 2 I call to You from the ends of the earth
when my heart is without strength.
Lead me to a rock that is high above me,
3 for You have been a refuge for me,
a strong tower in the face of the enemy.
- 4 I will live in Your tent forever and take refuge under the shelter of Your wings. •Selah
- 5 God, You have heard my vows;
You have given a heritage
to those who fear Your name.
- 6 Add days to the king's life;
may his years span many generations.
- 7 May he sit enthroned before God forever;
appoint faithful love and truth to guard him.
- 8 Then I will continually sing of Your name,
fulfilling my vows day by day.

Psalm 62*Trust in God Alone*

For the choir director:
according to Jeduthun. A Davidic psalm.

- 1 I am at rest in God alone;
my salvation comes from Him.

- 2 He alone is my rock and my salvation,
my stronghold; I will never be shaken.
- 3 How long will you threaten a man?
Will all of you attack^b
as if he were a leaning wall or a tottering stone fence?
- 4 They only plan to bring him down
from his high position.
They take pleasure in lying;
they bless with their mouths,
but they curse inwardly. •Selah
- 5 Rest in God alone, my soul,
for my hope comes from Him.
- 6 He alone is my rock and my salvation,
my stronghold; I will not be shaken.
- 7 My salvation and glory depend on God;
my strong rock, my refuge, is in God.
- 8 Trust in Him at all times, you people;
pour out your hearts before Him.
God is our refuge. Selah
- 9 •Men are only a vapor;
exalted men, an illusion.
On a balance scale, they go up;
together they [weigh] less than a vapor.
- 10 Place no trust in oppression,
or false hope in robbery.
If wealth increases,
pay no attention to it.^c
- 11 God has spoken once;
I have heard this twice:
strength belongs to God,
12 and faithful love belongs to You, LORD.
For You repay each according to his works.

Psalm 63*Praise God Who Satisfies*

A Davidic psalm.
When he was in the Wilderness of Judah.

- 1 God, You are my God;
I eagerly seek You.
I thirst for You;
my body faints for You
in a land that is dry, desolate,
and without water.
- 2 So I gaze on You in the sanctuary
to see Your strength and Your glory.
- 3 My lips will glorify You because Your faithful love is better than life.

^a60:6 Or has promised by His holy nature ^b62:3 Other Hb mss read you be struck down ^c62:10 Lit increases, do not set heart

- 4 So I will praise You as long as I live;
at Your name, I will lift up my hands.
- 5 You satisfy me as with rich food;^a my mouth will praise You with joyful lips.
- 6 When, on my bed, I think of You,
I meditate on You
during the night watches
- 7 because You are my help;
I will rejoice in the shadow of Your wings.
- 8 I follow close to You;
Your right hand holds on to me.
- 9 But those who seek to destroy my life
will go into the depths of the earth.
- 10 They will be given over to the power of the sword;
they will become the jackals' prey.
- 11 But the king will rejoice in God;
all who swear by Him^b will boast,
for the mouths of liars will be shut.

Psalm 64

Protection from Evildoers

For the choir director. A Davidic psalm.

- 1 God, hear my voice when I complain.
Protect my life from the terror
of the enemy.
- 2 Hide me from the scheming
of the wicked,
from the mob of evildoers,
3 who sharpen their tongues like swords
and aim bitter words like arrows, 4 shooting from concealed places
at the innocent.
They shoot at him suddenly
and are not afraid.
- 5 They encourage each other
in an evil plan;^c ^d
they talk about hiding traps and say, “Who will see them?”^e
- 6 They devise crimes [and say,]
“We have perfected a secret plan.”
The inner man and the heart are mysterious.
- 7 But God will shoot them with arrows;
suddenly, they will be wounded.
- 8 They will be made to stumble;
their own tongues work against them.
All who see them will shake their heads.
- 9 Then everyone will fear and will tell about God's work, for they will understand what He has done.

- 10 The righteous rejoice in the LORD
and take refuge in Him;
all the upright in heart offer praise.

Psalm 65

God's Care for the Earth

For the choir director. A Davidic psalm. A song.

- 1 Praise is rightfully Yours,^f

Praise for God's Mighty Acts

For the choir director. A song. A psalm.

- 1 Shout joyfully to God, all the earth!
2 Sing the glory of His name;
make His praise glorious.
3 Say to God, "How awe-inspiring are Your works!
Your enemies will cringe before You because of Your great strength.
4 All the earth will worship You and sing praise to You.
They will sing praise to Your name." •Selah
- 5 Come and see the works of God;
His acts toward •mankind
are awe-inspiring.
6 He turned the sea into dry land,
and they crossed the river on foot.
There we rejoiced in Him.
7 He rules forever by His might;
He keeps His eye on the nations.
The rebellious should not exalt themselves. Selah
- 8 Praise our God, you peoples;
let the sound of His praise be heard.
9 He keeps us alive^a
and does not allow our feet to slip.
- 10 For You, God, tested us;
You refined us as silver is refined.
11 You lured us into a trap;
You placed burdens on our backs.
12 You let men ride over our heads;
we went through fire and water,
but You brought us out to abundance.^b
- 13 I will enter Your house
with •burnt offerings;
I will pay You my vows
14 that my lips promised
and my mouth spoke during my distress.
15 I will offer You fattened sheep
as burnt offerings,
with the fragrant smoke of rams;
I will sacrifice oxen with goats. Selah

- 16 Come and listen, all who •fear God,
and I will tell what He has done for me.
17 I cried out to Him with my mouth,
and praise was on my tongue.
18 If I had been aware of malice in my heart,
the Lord would not have listened.
19 However, God has listened;
He has paid attention to the sound of my prayer.
20 May God be praised!
He has not turned away my prayer
or turned His faithful love from me.

A Plea for Rescue

For the choir director: according to
"The Lilies."^d Davidic.

- 1 Save me, God,
for the water has risen to my neck.
- 2 I have sunk in deep mud, and there is no footing;
I have come into deep waters,
and a flood sweeps over me.
- 3 I am weary from my crying;
my throat is parched.
My eyes fail, looking for my God.
- 4 Those who hate me without cause
are more numerous than the hairs
of my head;
my deceitful enemies, who would destroy me,
are powerful.
Though I did not steal, I must repay.
- 5 God, You know my foolishness,
and my guilty acts are not hidden
from You.
- 6 Do not let those who put their hope
in You
be disgraced because of me,
Lord GOD of •Hosts;
do not let those who seek You
be humiliated because of me, God of Israel.
- 7 For I have endured insults
because of You,

- and shame has covered my face.
- 8 I have become a stranger to my brothers and a foreigner to my mother's sons
- 9 because zeal for Your house
has consumed me,
and the insults of those who insult You have fallen on me.
- 10 I mourned and fasted,
but it brought me insults.
- 11 I wore •sackcloth as my clothing,
and I was a joke to them.
- 12 Those who sit at the city •gate
talk about me,
and drunkards make up songs about me.
- 13 But as for me, LORD,
my prayer to You is for a time of favor.
In Your abundant, faithful love, God,
answer me with Your sure salvation.
- 14 Rescue me from the miry mud;
don't let me sink.
Let me be rescued from those
who hate me,
and from the deep waters.
- 15 Don't let the floodwaters sweep over me
or the deep swallow me up;
don't let the •Pit close its mouth over me.
- 16 Answer me, LORD,
for Your faithful love is good;
in keeping with Your great compassion,
turn to me.
- 17 Don't hide Your face from Your servant,
for I am in distress.
Answer me quickly!
- 18 Draw near to me and redeem me;
ransom me because of my enemies.
- 19 You know the insults I endure—
my shame and disgrace.
You are aware of all my adversaries.
- 20 Insults have broken my heart,
and I am in despair.
I waited for sympathy,
but there was none;
for comforters, but found no one.
- 21 Instead, they gave me gall^e for my food,
and for my thirst
they gave me vinegar to drink.
- 22 Let their table set before them be a snare,
and let it be a trap for [their] allies.
- 23 Let their eyes grow too dim to see,
and let their loins continually shake.

 25 Make their fortification desolate;
 may no one live in their tents.
 26 For they persecute the one You struck and talk about the pain of those You wounded.
 27 Add guilt to their guilt;
 do not let them share
 in Your righteousness.
 28 Let them be erased from the book of life
 and not be recorded with the righteous.
 29 But as for me—poor and in pain—
 let Your salvation protect me, God.
 30 I will praise God's name with song and exalt Him with thanksgiving.
 31 That will please the LORD more than an ox,
 more than a bull with horns and hooves.
 32 The humble will see it and rejoice.
 You who seek God, take heart!
 33 For the LORD listens to the needy and does not despise
 His own who are prisoners.
 34 Let heaven and earth praise Him,
 the seas and everything that moves in them,
 35 for God will save Zion
 and build up^a the cities of Judah.
 They will live there and possess it.
 36 The descendants of His servants will inherit it,
 and those who love His name will live
 in it.

Psalm 70*A Call for Deliverance*

For the choir director. Davidic.
 To bring remembrance.

- 1 God, deliver me.
 Hurry to help me, LORD!
 2 Let those who seek my life
 be disgraced and confounded;
 let those who wish me harm
 be driven back and humiliated.
 3 Let those who say, "Aha, aha!"
 retreat because of their shame.
 4 Let all who seek You rejoice and be glad
 in You;
 let those who love Your salvation
 continually say, "God is great!"
 5 I am afflicted and needy;

hurry to me, God.
 You are my help and my deliverer;
 LORD, do not delay.

Psalm 71*God's Help in Old Age*

- 1 LORD, I seek refuge in You;
 never let me be disgraced.
 2 In Your justice, rescue and deliver me;
 listen closely to me and save me.
 3 Be a rock of refuge for me,
 where I can always go.
 Give the command to save me,
 for You are my rock and fortress.
 4 Deliver me, my God, from the hand
 of the wicked,
 from the grasp of the unjust
 and oppressive.
 5 For You are my hope, Lord GOD,
 my confidence from my youth.
 6 I have leaned on You from birth;
 You took me from my mother's womb.
 My praise is always about You.
 7 I have become an ominous sign to many,
 but You are my strong refuge.
 8 My mouth is full of praise and honor to You all day long.
 9 Don't discard me in my old age:
 as my strength fails, do not abandon me.
 10 For my enemies talk about me,
 and those who spy on me plot together,
 saying, "God has abandoned him;
 chase him and catch him,
 for there is no one to rescue [him]." 12 God, do not be far from me;
 my God, hurry to help me.
 13 May my adversaries be disgraced
 and confounded;
 may those who seek my harm
 be covered with disgrace and humiliation.
 14 But I will hope continually and will praise You more and more.
 15 My mouth will tell about Your righteousness
 and Your salvation all day long,
 though I cannot sum them up.
 16 I come because of the mighty acts
 of the Lord GOD;
 I will proclaim Your righteousness,
 Yours alone.
 17 God, You have taught me from my youth,
 and I still proclaim Your wonderful works.

^a69:35 Or and rebuild

- 18 Even when I am old and gray,
God, do not abandon me.
Then I will^a proclaim Your power to [another] generation,
Your strength to all who are to come.
- 19 Your righteousness reaches heaven, God,
You who have done great things;
God, who is like You?
- 20 You caused me to experience
many troubles and misfortunes,
but You will revive me again.
You will bring me up again,
even from the depths of the earth.
- 21 You will increase my honor and comfort me once again.
- 22 Therefore, with a lute I will praise You for Your faithfulness, my God;
I will sing to You with a harp,
Holy One of Israel.
- 23 My lips will shout for joy
when I sing praise to You,
because You have redeemed me.
- 24 Therefore, my tongue will proclaim Your righteousness all day long,
for those who seek my harm
will be disgraced and confounded.

Psalm 72

A Prayer for the King

Solomonic.

- 1 God, give Your justice to the king and Your righteousness to the king's son.
- 2 He will judge Your people
with righteousness
and Your afflicted ones with justice.
- 3 May the mountains bring prosperity^b
to the people,
and the hills, righteousness.
- 4 May he vindicate the afflicted
among the people,
help the poor,
and crush the oppressor.
- 5 May he continue^c
while the sun endures,
and as long as the moon,
throughout all generations.
- 6 May he be like rain that falls
on the cut grass,
like spring showers that water the earth.
- 7 May the righteous^d flourish in his days,
and prosperity^b abound
until the moon is no more.

- 8 And may he rule from sea to sea and from the Euphrates
to the ends of the earth.
- 9 May desert tribes kneel before him
and his enemies lick the dust.
- 10 May the kings of Tarshish
and the coasts and islands bring tribute,
the kings of Sheba and Seba offer gifts.
- 11 And let all kings bow down to him,
all nations serve him.
- 12 For he will rescue the poor who cry out and the afflicted who have no helper.
- 13 He will have pity on the poor and helpless
and save the lives of the poor.
- 14 He will redeem them from oppression
and violence,
for their lives are precious^e in his sight.
- 15 May he live long!
May gold from Sheba be given to him.
May prayer be offered for him continually,
and may he be blessed all day long.
- 16 May there be plenty of grain in the land;
may it wave on the tops of the mountains.
May its crops be like Lebanon.
May people flourish in the cities
like the grass of the field.
- 17 May his name endure forever;
as long as the sun shines,
may his fame increase.
May all nations be blessed by him
and call him blessed.
- 18 May the LORD God, the God of Israel,
be praised,
who alone does wonders.
- 19 May His glorious name
be praised forever;
the whole earth is filled with His glory.
•Amen and amen.
- 20 The prayers of David son of Jesse
are concluded.

BOOK III

(Psalms 73–89)

Psalm 73

God's Ways Vindicated

A psalm of •Asaph.

- 1 God is indeed good to Israel,
to the pure in heart.
- 2 But as for me, my feet almost slipped;

^a71:18 Lit me until I ^b72:3,7 Or peace ^c72:5 LXX; MT reads May they fear you ^d72:7 Some Hb mss, LXX, Syr, Jer read May righteousness ^e72:14 Or valuable

- my steps nearly went astray.
 3 For I envied the arrogant;
 I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
 4 They have an easy time until they die,^a and their bodies are well-fed.^b 5 They are not in trouble like others;
 they are not afflicted like most people.
 6 Therefore, pride is their necklace,
 and violence covers them like a garment.
 7 Their eyes bulge out from fatness;
 the imaginations of their hearts run wild.
 8 They mock, and they speak maliciously;
 they arrogantly threaten oppression.
 9 They set their mouths against heaven,
 and their tongues strut across the earth.
 10 Therefore His people turn to them^c and drink in their overflowing waters.^d 11 They say, "How can God know?
 Does the •Most High know everything?"
 12 Look at them—the wicked!
 They are always at ease,
 and they increase their wealth.
 13 Did I purify my heart and wash my hands in innocence
 for nothing?
 14 For I am afflicted all day long,
 and punished every morning.
 15 If I had decided to say
 these things [aloud],
 I would have betrayed Your people.^e 16 When I tried to understand all this,
 it seemed hopeless!
 17 until I entered God's sanctuary.
 Then I understood their destiny.
 18 Indeed You put them in slippery places;
 You make them fall into ruin.
 19 How suddenly they become a desolation!
 They come to an end, swept away
 by terrors.
 20 Like one waking from a dream,
 Lord, when arising, You will despise their image.
 21 When I became embittered
 and my innermost being^f was wounded, 22 I was a fool and didn't understand;
 I was an unthinking animal toward You.
 23 Yet I am always with You;
 You hold my right hand.
 24 You guide me with Your counsel,

- and afterwards You will take me up
 in glory.^h
 25 Whom do I have in heaven but You?
 And I desire nothing on earth but You.
 26 My flesh and my heart may fail,
 but God is the strengthⁱ of my heart,
 my portion forever.
 27 Those far from You will certainly perish;
 You destroy all who are unfaithful to You.
 28 But as for me, God's presence is my good.
 I have made the Lord GOD my refuge,
 so I can tell about all You do.

Psalm 74

Prayer for Israel

A •Maskil of •Asaph.

- 1 Why have You rejected [us] forever, God?
 Why does Your anger burn
 against the sheep of Your pasture?
 2 Remember Your congregation, which You purchased long ago
 and redeemed as the tribe
 for Your own possession.
 [Remember] Mount Zion
 where You dwell.
 3 Make Your way^j to the everlasting ruins,
 to all that the enemy has destroyed
 in the sanctuary.
 4 Your adversaries roared in the meeting place
 where You met with us.^k
 They set up their emblems as signs.
 5 It was like men in a thicket of trees,
 wielding axes,
 6 then smashing all the carvings
 with hatchets and picks.
 7 They set Your sanctuary on fire;
 they utterly^l desecrated
 the dwelling place of Your name.
 8 They said in their hearts,
 "Let us oppress them relentlessly."
 They burned down every place
 throughout the land
 where God met with us.^m 9 We don't see any signs for us.
 There is no longer a prophet.
 And none of us knows how long this will last.

- Will the enemy insult Your name forever?
 11 Why do You hold back Your hand?
 Stretch out^a Your right hand
 and destroy [them]!
- 12 God my king is from ancient times,
 performing saving acts on the earth.
 13 You divided the sea with Your strength;
 You smashed the heads of the sea monsters
 in the waters;
 14 You crushed the heads of •Leviathan;
 You fed him to the creatures
 of the desert.
 15 You opened up springs and streams;
 You dried up ever-flowing rivers.
 16 The day is Yours, also the night;
 You established the moon and the sun.
 17 You set all the boundaries of the earth;
 You made summer and winter.
 18 Remember this: the enemy has mocked
 the LORD,
 and a foolish people has insulted
 Your name.
 19 Do not give the life of Your dove to beasts;^b
 do not forget the lives of Your poor people forever.
 20 Consider the covenant,
 for the dark places of the land
 are full of violence.
 21 Do not let the oppressed turn away
 in shame;
 let the poor and needy praise Your name.
 22 Arise, God, defend Your cause!
 Remember the insults
 that fools bring against You all day long.
 23 Do not forget the clamor
 of Your adversaries,
 the tumult of Your opponents that goes up constantly.

Psalm 75

God Judges the Wicked

For the choir director: "Do Not Destroy."^c
 A psalm of •Asaph. A song.

- 1 We give thanks to You, God;
 we give thanks to You, for Your name
 is near.
 People tell about Your wonderful works.
- 2 "When I choose a time,
 I will judge fairly.

- 3 When the earth and all its inhabitants shake,
 I am the One who steadies
 its pillars. •Selah
- 4 I say to the boastful, 'Do not boast,'
 and to the wicked, 'Do not lift up your •horn.
 5 Do not lift up your horn against heaven or speak arrogantly.'"
- 6 Exaltation does not come from the east, the west, or the desert,
 7 for God is the judge:
 He brings down one and exalts another.
 8 For there is a cup in the LORD's hand,
 full of wine blended with spices,
 and He pours from it.
 All the wicked of the earth will drink,
 draining it to the dregs.
- 9 As for me, I will tell about Him forever;
 I will sing praise to the God of Jacob.
- 10 "I will cut off all the horns of the wicked,
 but the horns of the righteous will be lifted up."

Psalm 76

God, the Powerful Judge

For the choir director: with stringed instruments.
 A psalm of •Asaph. A song.

- 1 God is known in Judah;
 His name is great in Israel.
 2 His tent is in Salem,^d
 His dwelling place in Zion.
 3 There He shatters the bow's flaming arrows,
 the shield, the sword, and the weapons
 of war. •Selah
- 4 You are resplendent and majestic [coming down] from the mountains of prey.
 5 The brave-hearted have been plundered;
 they have slipped into their [final] sleep.
 None of the warriors was able to lift
 a hand.
- 6 At Your rebuke, God of Jacob,
 both chariot and horse lay still.
- 7 And You—You are to be •feared.^e
 When You are angry,
 who can stand before You?
- 8 From heaven You pronounced judgment.
 The earth feared and grew quiet

Psalms 77*Confidence in a Time of Crisis*

For the choir director: according to Jeduthun.
Of •Asaph. A psalm.

- 1 I cry aloud to God,
aloud to God, and He will hear me.
- 2 In my day of trouble I sought the Lord.
My hands were lifted up all night long;
I refused to be comforted.
- 3 I think of God; I groan;
I meditate; my spirit becomes weak.
•Selah
- 4 You have kept me from closing my eyes;
I am troubled and cannot speak.
- 5 I consider days of old,
years long past.
- 6 At night I remember my music;
I meditate in my heart,
and my spirit ponders.
- 7 “Will the Lord reject forever
and never again show favor?
- 8 Has His faithful love ceased forever?
Is [His] promise at an end
for all generations?
- 9 Has God forgotten to be gracious?
Has He in anger
withheld His compassion?” Selah
- 10 So I say, “It is my sorrow^c that the right hand of the •Most High has changed.”
- 11 I will remember the LORD’s works;
yes, I will remember
Your ancient wonders.
- 12 I will reflect on all You have done
and meditate on Your actions.
- 13 God, Your way is holy.
What god is great like God?

- 14 You are the God who works wonders;
You revealed Your strength
among the peoples.
- 15 With power You redeemed Your people,
the descendants of Jacob and Joseph.
Selah
- 16 The waters saw You, God.
The waters saw You; they trembled.
Even the depths shook.
- 17 The clouds poured down water.
The storm clouds thundered;
Your arrows flashed back and forth.
- 18 The sound of Your thunder was in the whirlwind;
lightning lit up the world.
The earth shook and quaked.
- 19 Your way went through the sea,
and Your path through the great waters,
but Your footprints were unseen.
- 20 You led Your people like a flock
by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psalms 78*Lessons from Israel’s Past*

A •Maskil of •Asaph.

- 1 My people, hear my instruction;
listen to what I say.
- 2 I will declare wise sayings;
I will speak mysteries from the past—
- 3 things we have heard and known and that our fathers have passed down to us.
- 4 We must not hide them
from their children,
but must tell a future generation
the praises of the LORD,
His might, and the wonderful works
He has performed.
- 5 He established a •testimony in Jacob
and set up a law in Israel, which He commanded our fathers to teach to their children
- 6 so that a future generation—
children yet to be born—might know.
They were to rise and tell their children
- 7 so that they might put their confidence in God
and not forget God’s works,
but keep His commandments.
- 8 Then they would not be
like their fathers,
a stubborn and rebellious generation,

^a76:10 Hb obscure ^b76:11 Or tribute with awe ^c77:10 Lit “My piercing

- a generation whose heart was not loyal and whose spirit was not faithful to God.
- 9 The Ephraimite archers turned back on the day of battle.
- 10 They did not keep God's covenant
and refused to live by His law.
- 11 They forgot what He had done,
the wonderful works
He had shown them.
- 12 He worked wonders in the sight
of their fathers,
in the land of Egypt, the region of Zoan.
- 13 He split the sea and brought them across;
the water stood firm like a wall.
- 14 He led them with a cloud by day and with a fiery light
throughout the night.
- 15 He split rocks in the wilderness
and gave them drink as abundant as the depths.
- 16 He brought streams out of the stone
and made water flow down like rivers.
- 17 But they continued to sin against Him, rebellious in the desert
against the •Most High.
- 18 They deliberately^a tested God,
demanding the food they craved.
- 19 They spoke against God, saying,
"Is God able to provide food
in the wilderness?"
- 20 Look! He struck the rock and water gushed out;
torrents overflowed.
But can He also provide bread or furnish meat for His people?"
- 21 Therefore, the LORD heard and became furious;
then fire broke out against Jacob,
and anger flared up against Israel
because they did not believe God or rely on His salvation.
- 23 He gave a command to the clouds above
and opened the doors of heaven.
- 24 He rained manna for them to eat;
He gave them grain from heaven.
- 25 People^b ate the bread of angels.^c
He sent them an abundant supply of food.
- 26 He made the east wind blow in the skies and drove the south wind by His might.
- 27 He rained meat on them like dust,
and winged birds like the sand of the seas.
- 28 He made [them] fall in His camp,
all around His tent.^{d e}
- 29 They ate and were completely satisfied,
for He gave them what they craved.
- 30 Before they had satisfied their desire,
while the food was still in their mouths,
God's anger flared up against them,
and He killed some of their best men.
He struck down Israel's choice young men.
- 32 Despite all this, they kept sinning
and did not believe His wonderful works.
- 33 He made their days end in futility,
their years in sudden disaster.
- 34 When He killed [some of] them,
[the rest] began to seek Him;
they repented and searched for God.
- 35 They remembered that God was their rock,
the Most High God, their Redeemer.
- 36 But they deceived Him with their mouths,
they lied to Him with their tongues,
their hearts were insincere toward Him,
and they were unfaithful to His covenant.
- 38 Yet He was compassionate;
He •atoned for^f [their] guilt
and did not destroy [them].
He often turned His anger aside and did not unleash^g all His wrath.
- 39 He remembered that they were [only] flesh,
a wind that passes and does not return.
- 40 How often they rebelled against Him
in the wilderness
and grieved Him in the desert.
- 41 They constantly tested God
and provoked the Holy One of Israel.
- 42 They did not remember His power [shown] on the day He redeemed them
from the foe,
- 43 when He performed His miraculous signs
in Egypt
and His marvels in the region of Zoan.
- 44 He turned their rivers into blood,
and they could not drink
from their streams.
- 45 He sent among them swarms of flies,
which fed on them,
and frogs, which devastated them.
- 46 He gave their crops to the caterpillar
and the fruit of their labor to the locust.

47 He killed their vines with hail and their sycamore-fig trees with a flood.
 48 He handed over their livestock to hail and their cattle to lightning bolts.
 49 He sent His burning anger against them:
 fury, indignation, and calamity—
 a band of deadly messengers.^a 50 He cleared a path for His anger.
 He did not spare them from death,
 but delivered their lives to the plague.
 51 He struck all the firstborn in Egypt,
 the first progeny of the tents of Ham.^b 52 He led His people out like sheep and guided them like a flock
 in the wilderness.
 53 He led them safely,
 and they were not afraid;
 but the sea covered their enemies.
 54 He brought them to His holy land,
 to the mountain His right hand acquired.
 55 He drove out nations before them.
 He apportioned their inheritance by lot and settled the tribes of Israel
 in their tents.
 56 But they rebelliously tested
 the Most High God,
 for they did not keep His decrees.
 57 They treacherously turned away
 like their fathers;
 they became warped like a faulty bow.
 58 They enraged Him with their •high places and provoked His jealousy
 with their carved images.
 59 God heard and became furious;
 He completely rejected Israel.
 60 He abandoned the tabernacle at Shiloh,
 the tent where He resided among men.^c 61 He gave up His strength^d to captivity and His splendor to the hand of a foe.
 62 He surrendered His people to the sword because He was enraged
 with His heritage.
 63 Fire consumed His chosen young men, and His young women
 had no wedding songs.^e 64 His priests fell by the sword,
 but the^f widows could not lament.^g 65 Then the Lord awoke as if from sleep,
 like a warrior from the effects of wine.
 66 He beat back His foes;

He gave them lasting shame.
 67 He rejected the tent of Joseph and did not choose the tribe of Ephraim.
 68 He chose instead the tribe of Judah,
 Mount Zion, which He loved.
 69 He built His sanctuary like the heights,^h
 like the earth that He established forever.
 70 He chose David His servant
 and took him from the sheepfolds;
 71 He brought him from tending ewes to be shepherd over His people Jacob—over Israel, His inheritance.
 72 He shepherded them with a pure heart and guided them with his skillful hands.

Psalms 79

Faith amid Confusion

A psalm of •Asaph.

1 God, the nations have invaded
 Your inheritance,
 desecrated Your holy temple,
 and turned Jerusalem into ruins.
 2 They gave the corpses of Your servants to the birds of the sky for food,
 the flesh of Your godly ones
 to the beasts of the earth.
 3 They poured out their blood
 like water all around Jerusalem,
 and there was no one to bury [them].
 4 We have become an object of reproach
 to our neighbors,
 a source of mockery and ridicule
 to those around us.
 5 How long, LORD? Will You be angry forever?
 Will Your jealousy keep burning
 like fire?
 6 Pour out Your wrath on the nations
 that don't acknowledge You, on the kingdoms that don't call on
 Your name,
 7 for they have devoured Jacob and devastated his homeland.
 8 Do not hold past sinsⁱ against us;
 let Your compassion come to us quickly,
 for we have become weak.
 9 God of our salvation, help us—
 for the glory of Your name.
 Deliver us and •atone for^j our sins,
 because of Your name.

- 11 Let the groans of the prisoners reach You;

A Prayer for Restoration

For the choir director: according to “The Lilies.”^a A testimony of •Asaph. A psalm.

- 1 Listen, Shepherd of Israel,
who guides Joseph like a flock;
You who sit enthroned [on] the •cherubim,
rise up
- 2 at the head of Ephraim,
Benjamin, and Manasse.^b
Rally Your power and come to save us.
- 3 Restore us, God;
look [on us] with favor,
and we will be saved.
- 4 LORD God of •Hosts,
how long will You be angry
with Your people’s prayers?
- 5 You fed them the bread of tears and gave them a full measure^c
of tears to drink.
- 6 You set us at strife with our neighbors;
our enemies make fun of us.
- 7 Restore us, God of Hosts;
look [on us] with favor,
and we will be saved.
- 8 You uprooted a vine from Egypt;
You drove out the nations and planted it.
- 9 You cleared [a place] for it;
it took root and filled the land.
- 10 The mountains were covered by its shade,
and the mighty cedars^d with its branches.

- 11 It sent out sprouts toward the Sea^e
and shoots toward the River.^f
- 12 Why have You broken down its walls
so that all who pass by pick its fruit?
- 13 The boar from the forest gnaws at it,
and creatures of the field feed on it.
- 14 Return, God of Hosts.
Look down from heaven and see;
take care of this vine,
the root^g Your right hand has planted,
the shoot^h that You made strong
for Yourself.
- 15 It was cut down and burned up;ⁱ
they^j perish at the rebuke of Your countenance.
- 17 Let Your hand be with the man
at Your right hand,
with the son of man
You have made strong for Yourself.
- 18 Then we will not turn away from You;
revive us, and we will call on Your name.
- 19 Restore us, LORD God of Hosts; look [on us] with favor, and we will be saved.

Prayer against Enemies

A song. A psalm of •Asaph.

- 1 God, do not keep silent.
Do not be deaf, God; do not be idle.
- 2 See how Your enemies make an uproar;
those who hate You have acted arrogantly.^c
- 3 They devise clever schemes
against Your people;
they conspire against Your treasured ones.
- 4 They say, “Come, let us wipe them out as a nation
so that Israel’s name will no longer

for ourselves.”
- 13 Make them like tumbleweed, my God,
like straw before the wind.
- 14 As fire burns a forest,
as a flame blazes through mountains,
so pursue them with Your tempest

Longing for God's House

For the choir director: on the •Gittith.

A psalm of the sons of Korah.

- 1 How lovely is Your dwelling place,
LORD of •Hosts.
- 2 I long and yearn
for the courts of the LORD;
my heart and flesh cry out for^a the living God.
- 3 Even a sparrow finds a home,
and a swallow, a nest for herself
where she places her young—near Your altars, LORD of Hosts,
my King and my God.
- 4 How happy are those who reside
in Your house,
who praise You continually. •Selah
- 5 Happy are the people whose strength is
in You,
whose hearts are set on pilgrimage.
- 6 As they pass through the Valley of Baca,^b
they make it a source of springwater;
even the autumn rain will cover it with blessings.^c
- 7 They go from strength to strength;
each appears before God in Zion.
- 8 LORD God of Hosts, hear my prayer;
listen, God of Jacob. •Selah
- 9 Consider our shield,^d God;
look on the face of Your anointed one.
- 10 Better a day in Your courts
than a thousand [anywhere else].
I would rather be at the door of the house of my God
than to live in the tents of the wicked.
- 11 For the LORD God is a sun and shield.
The LORD gives grace and glory;
He does not withhold the good from those who live with integrity.
- 12 LORD of Hosts,
happy is the person who trusts
in You!

Psalm 85

Restoration of Favor

For the choir director. A psalm of the sons
of Korah.

- 1 LORD, You showed favor to Your land;
You restored Jacob's prosperity.^e
- 2 You took away Your people's guilt;
You covered all their sin. •Selah
- 3 You withdrew all Your fury;
You turned from Your burning anger.
- 4 Return to us, God of our salvation,
and abandon Your displeasure with us.
- 5 Will You be angry with us forever?
Will You prolong Your anger for all generations?
- 6 Will You not revive us again
so that Your people may rejoice in You?
- 7 Show us Your faithful love, LORD,
and give us Your salvation.
- 8 I will listen to what God will say;
surely the LORD will declare peace
to His people, His godly ones,
and not let them go back to foolish ways.
- 9 His salvation is very near
those who fear Him,
so that glory may dwell in our land.
- 10 Faithful love and truth will join together;
righteousness and peace will embrace.
- 11 Truth will spring up from the earth,
and righteousness will look down from heaven.
- 12 Also, the LORD will provide what is good,
and our land will yield its crops.
- 13 Righteousness will go before Him
to prepare the way for His steps.

Give me an undivided mind to fear
Your name.
- 12 I will praise You with all my heart,
Lord my God,
and will honor Your name forever.
- 13 For Your faithful love for me is great,
and You deliver my life from the depths
of •Sheol.
- 14 God, arrogant people have attacked me;
a gang of ruthless men seeks my life.
They have no regard for You.
- 15 But You, Lord, are a compassionate and gracious God,
slow to anger and abundant
in faithful love and truth.
- 16 Turn to me and be gracious to me.
Give Your strength to Your servant;
save the son of Your female servant.
- 17 Show me a sign of Your goodness;
my enemies will see and be put
to shame
because You, LORD, have helped and comforted me.

Psalm 87

Zion, the City of God

A psalm of the sons of Korah. A song.

- 1 His foundation is on the holy mountains.
- 2 The LORD loves the gates of Zion
more than all the dwellings of Jacob.^a
- 3 Glorious things are said about you,
city of God. •Selah

- 4 “I will mention those who know Me:
•Rahab, Babylon, Philistia, Tyre, and •Cush^b — each one was born there.”
- 5 And it will be said of Zion,
“This one and that one were born in her.”
The •Most High Himself
will establish her.
- 6 When He registers the peoples,
the LORD will record,
“This one was born there.” Selah
- 7 Singers and dancers alike [will say],
“All my springs are in you.”

Psalm 88

A Cry of Desperation

A song. A psalm of the sons of Korah.

For the choir director: according to Mahalath Leannoth. A •Maskil of Heman the Ezrahite.

- 1 LORD, God of my salvation,
I cry out before You day and night.
- 2 May my prayer reach Your presence;
listen to my cry.
- 3 For I have had enough troubles,
and my life is near •Sheol.
- 4 I am counted among those going down
to the •Pit.
I am like a man without strength,
abandoned^c among the dead.
I am like the slain lying in the grave,
whom You no longer remember,
and who are cut off from Your care.^d
- 6 You have put me in the lowest part of the Pit,
in the darkest places, in the depths.
- 7 Your wrath weighs heavily on me;
You have overwhelmed me with all Your waves. •Selah
- 8 You have distanced my friends
from me;
You have made me repulsive to them.
I am shut in and cannot go out.
- 9 My eyes are worn out from crying.
LORD, I cry out to You all day long;
I spread out my hands to You.
- 10 Do You work wonders for the dead?
Do departed spirits rise up to praise You? Selah
- 11 Will Your faithful love be declared
in the grave,
Your faithfulness in •Abaddon?

- 12 Will Your wonders be known in the darkness,
or Your righteousness in the land
of oblivion?
- 13 But I call to You for help, LORD;
in the morning my prayer meets You.
- 14 LORD, why do You reject me?
Why do You hide Your face from me?
- 15 From my youth,
I have been afflicted and near death.
I suffer Your horrors; I am desperate.
- 16 Your wrath sweeps over me;
Your terrors destroy me.
- 17 They surround me like water all day long;
they close in on me from every side.
- 18 You have distanced loved one
and neighbor from me;
darkness is my [only] friend.^a

Psalm 89

Perplexity about God's Promises

A •Maskil of Ethan the Ezrahite.

- 1 I will sing about the LORD's faithful love forever;
with my mouth
I will proclaim Your faithfulness to all generations.
- 2 For I will declare,
"Faithful love is built up forever;
You establish Your faithfulness
in the heavens."
- 3 [The LORD said,]
"I have made a covenant
with My chosen one;
I have sworn an oath to David
My servant:
- 4 'I will establish your offspring forever and build up your throne
for all generations.'"^{•Selah}
- 5 LORD, the heavens praise Your wonders—
Your faithfulness also—in the assembly of the holy ones.
- 6 For who in the skies can compare with the LORD?
Who among the heavenly beings^b is like the LORD?
- 7 God is greatly feared in the council of the holy ones,
more awe-inspiring than^c all who surround Him.

- 8 LORD God of •Hosts,
who is strong like You, LORD?
Your faithfulness surrounds You.
- 9 You rule the raging sea;
when its waves surge, You still them.
- 10 You crushed •Rahab like one who is slain;
You scattered Your enemies
with Your powerful arm.
- 11 The heavens are Yours; the earth also is Yours.
The world and everything in it—
You founded them.
- 12 North and south—You created them.
Tabor and Hermon shout for joy
at Your name.
- 13 You have a mighty arm;
Your hand is powerful;
Your right hand is lifted high.
- 14 Righteousness and justice are
the foundation of Your throne;
faithful love and truth go before You.
- 15 Happy are the people who know
the joyful shout;
LORD, they walk in the light
of Your presence.
- 16 They rejoice in Your name all day long,
and they are exalted
by Your righteousness.
- 17 For You are their magnificent strength;
by Your favor our •horn is exalted.
- 18 Surely our shield^d belongs to the LORD,
our king to the Holy One of Israel.
- 19 You once spoke in a vision to Your loyal ones
and said: "I have granted help
to a warrior;
I have exalted one chosen^e
from the people.
- 20 I have found David My servant;
I have anointed him with My sacred oil.
- 21 My hand will always be with him,
and My arm will strengthen him.
- 22 The enemy will not afflict^f him;
no wicked man will oppress him.
- 23 I will crush his foes before him
and strike those who hate him.
- 24 My faithfulness and love will be with him,
and through My name
his horn will be exalted.
- 25 I will extend his power to the sea
and his right hand to the rivers.

^a88:18 Or from me, my friends. Oh darkness! ^b89:6 Or the angels, or the sons of the mighty ^c89:7 Or ones, revered by ^d89:18 The king ^e89:19 Or exalted a young man ^f89:22 Or not exact tribute from

26 He will call to Me, ‘You are my Father,
 my God, the rock of my salvation.’
 27 I will also make him My firstborn, greatest of the kings of the earth.
 28 I will always preserve My faithful love
 for him,
 and My covenant with him will endure.
 29 I will establish his line forever,
 his throne as long as heaven lasts.^a 30 If his sons forsake My instruction and do not live by My ordinances, 31 if they dishonor My statutes
 and do not keep My commandments, 32 then I will call their rebellion
 to account with the rod,
 their sin with blows.
 33 But I will not withdraw My faithful love from him or betray My faithfulness.
 34 I will not violate My covenant or change what My lips have said.
 35 Once and for all
 I have sworn an oath by My holiness;
 I will not lie to David.
 36 His offspring will continue forever,
 his throne like the sun before Me, 37 like the moon, established forever,
 a faithful witness in the sky.” Selah
 38 But You have spurned and rejected him;
 You have become enraged
 with Your anointed.
 39 You have repudiated the covenant
 with Your servant;
 You have completely dishonored
 his crown.^b
 40 You have broken down all his walls;
 You have reduced his fortified cities
 to ruins.
 41 All who pass by plunder him;
 he has become a joke to his neighbors.
 42 You have lifted high the right hand
 of his foes;
 You have made all his enemies rejoice.
 43 You have also turned back his sharp sword
 and have not let him stand in battle.
 44 You have made his splendor^c cease
 and have overturned his throne.
 45 You have shortened the days
 of his youth;
 You have covered him with shame. Selah

46 How long, LORD? Will You hide Yourself forever?
 Will Your anger keep burning like fire?
 47 Remember how short my life is.
 Have You created •everyone for nothing?
 48 What man can live and never see death?
 Who can save himself from the power of •Sheol? Selah
 49 Lord, where are the former acts of Your faithful love that You swore to David in Your faithfulness?
 50 Remember, Lord, the ridicule against Your servants—
 in my heart I carry [abuse] from all the peoples—
 51 how Your enemies have ridiculed, LORD, how they have ridiculed every step of Your anointed.
 52 May the LORD be praised forever.
 •Amen and amen.

BOOK IV

(Psalms 90–106)

Psalm 90

Eternal God and Mortal Man

A prayer of Moses the man of God.

1 Lord, You have been our refuge^d
 in every generation.
 2 Before the mountains were born,
 before You gave birth to the earth
 and the world,
 from eternity to eternity, You are God.
 3 You return mankind to the dust, saying, “Return, descendants of Adam.”
 4 For in Your sight a thousand years are like yesterday that passes by,
 like a few hours of the night.
 5 You end their life;^e they sleep.
 They are like grass that grows
 in the morning—
 6 in the morning it sprouts and grows;
 by evening it withers and dries up.
 7 For we are consumed by Your anger;
 we are terrified by Your wrath.
 8 You have set our unjust ways before You,
 our secret sins in the light
 of Your presence.

^a89:29 Lit as days of heaven ^b89:39 Lit have dishonored his crown to the ground ^c89:44 Hb obscure ^d90:1 A few Hb mss, LXX; MT reads dwelling place ^e90:5 Or You overwhelm them; Hb uncertain

- 9 For all our days ebb away
under Your wrath;
we end our years like a sigh.
- 10 Our lives last^a seventy years
or, if we are strong, eighty years.
Even the best of them are^b struggle
and sorrow;
indeed, they pass quickly and we fly away.
- 11 Who understands the power of Your anger?
Your wrath matches the fear that is due You.
- 12 Teach us to number our days carefully
so that we may develop wisdom in our hearts.^c
- 13 LORD—how long?
Turn and have compassion
on Your servants.
- 14 Satisfy us in the morning with Your faithful love
so that we may shout with joy and be glad all our days.
- 15 Make us rejoice for as many days
as You have humbled us,
for as many years as we have seen adversity.
- 16 Let Your work be seen by Your servants,
and Your splendor by their children.
- 17 Let the favor of the Lord our God be
on us;
establish for us the work of our hands—
establish the work of our hands!
- 7 Though a thousand fall at your side
and ten thousand at your right hand,
the pestilence will not reach you.
- 8 You will only see it with your eyes and witness the punishment
of the wicked.
- 9 Because you have made the LORD—
my refuge,
the Most High—your dwelling place,
no harm will come to you;
no plague will come near your tent.
- 10 For He will give His angels orders
concerning you,
to protect you in all your ways.
- 11 They will support you with their hands
so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.
- 12 You will tread on the lion and the cobra;
you will trample the young lion
and the serpent.
- 13 Because he is lovingly devoted to Me,
I will deliver him;
I will exalt him because he knows
My name.
- 14 When he calls out to Me,
I will answer him;
I will be with him in trouble.
I will rescue him and give him honor.
- 15 I will satisfy him with a long life
and show him My salvation.

Psalm 91

The Protection of the Most High

- 1 The one who lives under the protection
of the •Most High
dwells in the shadow of the •Almighty.
- 2 I will say^d to the LORD, “My refuge and my fortress,
my God, in whom I trust.”
- 3 He Himself will deliver you from the hunter’s net,
from the destructive plague.
- 4 He will cover you with His feathers;
you will take refuge under His wings.
His faithfulness will be a protective shield.
- 5 You will not fear the terror of the night,
the arrow that flies by day,
the plague that stalks in darkness,
or the pestilence that ravages at noon.

Psalm 92

God’s Love and Faithfulness

A psalm. A song for the Sabbath day.

- 1 It is good to praise the LORD,
to sing praise to Your name, •Most High,
2 to declare Your faithful love
in the morning
and Your faithfulness at night,
3 with a ten-stringed harp
and the music of a lyre.
- 4 For You have made me rejoice, LORD,
by what You have done;
I will shout for joy
because of the works of Your hands.
- 5 How magnificent are Your works, LORD,
how profound Your thoughts!
- 6 A stupid person does not know,
a fool does not understand this:
7 though the wicked sprout like grass

^a90:10 Lit The days of our years in them ^b90:10 LXX, Tg, Syr, Vg read Even their span is; Hb obscure ^c90:12 Or develop a heart of wisdom ^d91:1–2 LXX, Syr, Jer read Almighty, saying, or Almighty, he will say

- and all evildoers flourish,
they will be eternally destroyed.
8 But You, LORD, are exalted forever.
9 For indeed, LORD, Your enemies—
indeed, Your enemies will perish;
all evildoers will be scattered.
10 You have lifted up my •horn
like that of a wild ox;
I have been anointed^a with oil.
11 My eyes look down on my enemies;
my ears hear evildoers
when they attack me.
12 The righteous thrive like a palm tree
and grow like a cedar tree in Lebanon.
13 Planted in the house of the LORD,
they thrive in the courtyards of our God.
14 They will still bear fruit in old age,
healthy and green, 15 to declare: “The LORD is just;
He is my rock,
and there is no unrighteousness in Him.”

Psalm 93

God's Eternal Reign

- 1 The LORD reigns! He is robed in majesty;
The LORD is robed, enveloped in strength.
The world is firmly established;
it cannot be shaken.
2 Your throne has been established from the beginning;^b
You are from eternity.
3 The floods have lifted up, LORD,
the floods have lifted up their voice;
the floods lift up their pounding waves.
4 Greater than the roar of many waters—
the mighty breakers of the sea—
the LORD on high is majestic.
5 LORD, Your testimonies are completely reliable;
holiness is the beauty of^c Your house
for all the days to come.

Psalm 94

The Just Judge

- 1 LORD, God of vengeance—
God of vengeance, appear.
2 Rise up, Judge of the earth;
repay the proud what they deserve.
3 LORD, how long will the wicked—
how long will the wicked gloat?
4 They pour out arrogant words;

- all the evildoers boast.
5 LORD, they crush Your people;
they afflict Your heritage.
6 They kill the widow and the foreigner and murder the fatherless.
7 They say, “The LORD doesn’t see it.
The God of Jacob doesn’t pay attention.”
8 Pay attention, you stupid people!
Fools, when will you be wise?
9 Can the One who shaped the ear not hear,
the One who formed the eye not see?
10 The One who instructs nations,
the One who teaches man knowledge—
does He not discipline?
11 The LORD knows man’s thoughts;
they are meaningless.^d 12 LORD, happy is the man You discipline and teach from Your law
to give him relief from troubled times
until a pit is dug for the wicked.
14 The LORD will not forsake His people or abandon His heritage, 15 for justice will again be righteous,
and all the upright in heart will follow^e it.
16 Who stands up for me against the wicked?
Who takes a stand for me
against evildoers?
17 If the LORD had not been my help,
I would soon rest in the silence [of death].
18 If I say, “My foot is slipping,”
Your faithful love will support me, LORD.
19 When I am filled with cares,
Your comfort brings me joy.
20 Can a corrupt throne—
one that creates trouble by law—
become Your ally?
21 They band together against the life of the righteous
and condemn the innocent to death.
22 But the LORD is my refuge;
my God is the rock of my protection.
23 He will pay them back for their sins
and destroy them for their evil.
The LORD our God will destroy them.

Psalm 95

Worship and Warning

- 1 Come, let us shout joyfully to the LORD, shout triumphantly to the rock
of our salvation!

^a92:10 Syr reads You have anointed me ^b93:2 Lit from then ^c93:5 Or holiness characterizes ^d94:11 Or futile
^e94:15 Or heart will support; lit heart after

- 2 Let us enter His presence
with thanksgiving;
let us shout triumphantly to Him in song.
- 3 For the LORD is a great God,
a great King above all gods.
- 4 The depths of the earth are in His hand,
and the mountain peaks are His.
- 5 The sea is His; He made it.
His hands formed the dry land.
- 6 Come, let us worship and bow down;
let us kneel before the LORD our Maker.
- 7 For He is our God,
and we are the people of His pasture,
the sheep under His care.^a

Today, if you hear His voice:

- 8 “Do not harden your hearts as at Meribah,
as on that day at Massah in the wilderness
- 9 where your fathers tested Me;
they tried Me, though they had seen
what I did.
- 10 For 40 years I was disgusted
with that generation;
I said, ‘They are a people whose hearts
go astray;
they do not know My ways.’
- 11 So I swore in My anger,
‘They will not enter My rest.’”

Psalm 96

King of the Earth

- 1 Sing a new song to the LORD;
sing to the LORD, all the earth.
- 2 Sing to the LORD, praise His name;
proclaim His salvation from day to day.
- 3 Declare His glory among the nations,
His wonderful works among all peoples.
- 4 For the LORD is great and is highly praised;
He is feared above all gods.
- 5 For all the gods of the peoples are idols,
but the LORD made the heavens.
- 6 Splendor and majesty are before Him;
strength and beauty are in His sanctuary.
- 7 Ascribe to the LORD, you families
of the peoples,
ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
- 8 Ascribe to the LORD the glory of His name;
bring an offering and enter His courts.
- 9 Worship the LORD in the splendor
of [His] holiness;
tremble before Him, all the earth.

- 10 Say among the nations: “The LORD reigns.
The world is firmly established; it cannot be shaken.
He judges the peoples fairly.”
- 11 Let the heavens be glad
and the earth rejoice;
let the sea and all that fills it resound.
- 12 Let the fields and everything in them exult.
Then all the trees of the forest will shout
for joy
- 13 before the LORD, for He is coming—
for He is coming to judge the earth.
He will judge the world with righteousness
and the peoples with His faithfulness.

Psalm 97

The Majestic King

- 1 The LORD reigns! Let the earth rejoice;
let the many coasts and islands be glad.
- 2 Clouds and thick darkness
surround Him;
righteousness and justice are
the foundation of His throne.
- 3 Fire goes before Him
and burns up His foes on every side.
- 4 His lightning lights up the world;
the earth sees and trembles.
- 5 The mountains melt like wax
at the presence of the LORD—
at the presence of the Lord of all the earth.
- 6 The heavens proclaim
His righteousness;
all the peoples see His glory.
- 7 All who serve carved images,
those who boast in idols, will be put to shame.
All the gods^b must worship Him.
- 8 Zion hears and is glad,
and the towns^c of Judah rejoice
because of Your judgments, LORD.
- 9 For You, LORD,
are the •Most High over all the earth;
You are exalted above all the gods.
- 10 You who love the LORD, hate evil!
He protects the lives of His godly ones;
He rescues them from the hand
of the wicked.
- 11 Light dawns^{d e} for the righteous,
gladness for the upright in heart.

- 12 Be glad in the LORD, you righteous ones,
and praise His holy name.^a

Psalm 98

Praise the King

A psalm.

- 1 Sing a new song to the LORD,
for He has performed wonders;
His right hand and holy arm
have won Him victory.
- 2 The LORD has made His victory known;
He has revealed His righteousness
in the sight of the nations.
- 3 He has remembered His love and faithfulness to the house of Israel;
all the ends of the earth
have seen our God's victory.
- 4 Shout to the LORD, all the earth;
be jubilant, shout for joy, and sing.
- 5 Sing to the LORD with the lyre,
with the lyre and melodious song.
- 6 With trumpets and the blast
of the ram's horn
shout triumphantly
in the presence of the LORD, our King.
- 7 Let the sea and all that fills it,
the world and those who live in it,
resound.
- 8 Let the rivers clap their hands;
let the mountains shout together for joy
- 9 before the LORD,
for He is coming to judge the earth.
He will judge the world righteously
and the peoples fairly.

Psalm 99

The King Is Holy

- 1 The LORD reigns! Let the peoples tremble.
He is enthroned above the •cherubim.
Let the earth quake.
- 2 The LORD is great in Zion;
He is exalted above all the peoples.
- 3 Let them praise Your great and awe-inspiring name.
He is holy.
- 4 The mighty King loves justice.
You have established fairness;
You have administered justice and righteousness in Jacob.
- 5 Exalt the LORD our God;

bow in worship at His footstool.
He is holy.

- 6 Moses and Aaron were among His priests;
Samuel also was among those calling on
His name.
They called to the LORD,
and He answered them.
- 7 He spoke to them in a pillar of cloud;
they kept His decrees and the statutes
He gave them.
- 8 LORD our God, You answered them.
You were a God who forgave them,
but punished^b their misdeeds.^c
- 9 Exalt the LORD our God;
bow in worship at His holy mountain,
for the LORD our God is holy.

Psalm 100

Be Thankful

A psalm of thanksgiving.

- 1 Shout triumphantly to the LORD,
all the earth.
- 2 Serve the LORD with gladness;
come before Him with joyful songs.
- 3 Acknowledge that the LORD is God.
He made us, and we are His^d —
His people, the sheep of His pasture.
- 4 Enter His gates with thanksgiving
and His courts with praise.
Give thanks to Him and praise
His name.
- 5 For the LORD is good, and His love
is eternal;
His faithfulness endures
through all generations.

Psalm 101

A Vow of Integrity

A Davidic psalm.

- 1 I will sing of faithful love and justice;
I will sing praise to You, LORD.
- 2 I will pay attention to the way
of integrity.
When will You come to me?
I will live with integrity of heart
in my house.
- 3 I will not set anything godless
before my eyes.
I hate the doing of transgression;
it will not cling to me.

^a97:12 Lit praise the mention, or memory, of His holiness ^b99:8 Lit avenged ^c99:8 Or but avenged misdeeds done against them ^d100:3 Alt Hb tradition, other Hb mss, LXX, Syr, Vg read and not we ourselves

- 4 A devious heart will be far from me;
I will not be involved with^a evil.
- 5 I will destroy anyone who secretly slanders his neighbor;
I cannot tolerate anyone
with haughty eyes or an arrogant heart.
- 6 My eyes [favor] the faithful of the land
so that they may sit down with me.
The one who follows the way
of integrity
may serve me.
- 7 No one who acts deceitfully
will live in my palace;
no one who tells lies
will remain in my presence.^b
- 8 Every morning I will destroy all the wicked of the land, eliminating all evildoers
from the LORD's city.

Psalm 102

Affliction in Light of Eternity

A prayer of an afflicted person who is weak and pours out his lament before the LORD.

- 1 LORD, hear my prayer;
let my cry for help come before You.
- 2 Do not hide Your face from me in my day
of trouble.
Listen closely to me;
answer me quickly when I call.
- 3 For my days vanish like smoke,
and my bones burn like a furnace.
- 4 My heart is afflicted, withered like grass;
I even forget to eat my food.
- 5 Because of the sound of my groaning,
my flesh sticks to my bones.
- 6 I am like a desert owl,^c
like an owl among the ruins.
- 7 I stay awake;
I am like a solitary bird on a roof.
- 8 My enemies taunt me all day long;
they ridicule and curse me.
- 9 I eat ashes like bread and mingle my drinks with tears
- 10 because of Your indignation and wrath;
for You have picked me up and thrown me aside.
- 11 My days are like a lengthening shadow,
and I wither away like grass.
- 12 But You, LORD, are enthroned forever;
- Your fame [endures] to all generations.
- 13 You will arise and have compassion
on Zion,
for it is time to show favor to her—
the appointed time has come.
- 14 For Your servants take delight in its stones
and favor its dust.
- 15 Then the nations will fear the name
of the LORD,
and all the kings of the earth Your glory,
for the LORD will rebuild Zion;
He will appear in His glory.
- 17 He will pay attention to the prayer of the destitute
and will not despise their prayer.
- 18 This will be written for a later generation,
and a newly created people will praise
the LORD:
- 19 He looked down from His holy heights—
the LORD gazed out from heaven to earth—
- 20 to hear a prisoner's groaning, to set free those condemned to die,^d
- 21 so that they might declare the name of the LORD in Zion
and His praise in Jerusalem,
- 22 when peoples and kingdoms
are assembled
to serve the LORD.
- 23 He has broken my^e strength
in midcourse;
He has shortened my days.
- 24 I say: "My God, do not take me
in the middle of my life!^f
Your years continue
through all generations.
- 25 Long ago You established the earth,
and the heavens are the work
of Your hands.
- 26 They will perish, but You will endure;
all of them will wear out like clothing.
You will change them like a garment,
and they will pass away.
- 27 But You are the same,
and Your years will never end.
- 28 Your servants' children will dwell [securely],
and their offspring will be established
before You."

Psalm 103*The Forgiving God*

Davidic.

- 1 My soul, praise the LORD,
and all that is within me, praise
His holy name.
- 2 My soul, praise the LORD,
and do not forget all His benefits.
- 3 He forgives all your sin;
He heals all your diseases.
- 4 He redeems your life from the [•]Pit;
He crowns you with faithful love
and compassion.
- 5 He satisfies you^a with goodness;
your youth is renewed like the eagle.
- 6 The LORD executes acts of righteousness and justice for all the oppressed.
- 7 He revealed His ways to Moses,
His deeds to the people of Israel.
- 8 The LORD is compassionate and gracious,
slow to anger and full of faithful love.
- 9 He will not always accuse [us]
or be angry forever.
- 10 He has not dealt with us as our sins deserve
or repaid us according to our offenses.
- 11 For as high as the heavens are above
the earth,
so great is His faithful love toward those who fear Him.
- 12 As far as the east is from the west,
so far has He removed
our transgressions from us.
- 13 As a father has compassion
on his children,
so the LORD has compassion on those
who fear Him.
- 14 For He knows what we are made of,
remembering that we are dust.
- 15 As for man, his days are like grass—
he blooms like a flower of the field;
when the wind passes over it, it vanishes,
and its place is no longer known.^b
- 17 But from eternity to eternity
the LORD's faithful love is toward
those who fear Him,
and His righteousness
toward the grandchildren
- 18 of those who keep His covenant,

who remember to observe
His instructions.

- 19 The LORD has established His throne
in heaven,
and His kingdom rules over all.
- 20 Praise the LORD,
[all] His angels of great strength,
who do His word,
obedient to His command.
- 21 Praise the LORD, all His armies,
His servants who do His will.
- 22 Praise the LORD, all His works
in all the places where He rules.
My soul, praise the LORD!

Psalm 104*God the Creator*

- 1 My soul, praise the LORD!
LORD my God, You are very great;
You are clothed with majesty and splendor.
- 2 He wraps Himself in light as if it were a robe,
spreading out the sky like a canopy,
- 3 laying the beams of His palace
on the waters [above],
making the clouds His chariot,
walking on the wings of the wind,
- 4 and making the winds His messengers,^c
flames of fire His servants.
- 5 He established the earth
on its foundations;
it will never be shaken.
- 6 You covered it with the deep
as if it were a garment;
the waters stood above the mountains.
- 7 At Your rebuke the waters fled;
at the sound of Your thunder
they hurried away—
- 8 mountains rose and valleys sank^d —
to the place You established for them.
- 9 You set a boundary they cannot cross;
they will never cover the earth again.
- 10 He causes the springs to gush
into the valleys;
they flow between the mountains.
- 11 They supply water for every wild beast;
the wild donkeys quench their thirst.
- 12 The birds of the sky live beside [the springs];
they sing among the foliage.

- 13 He waters the mountains from His palace;
the earth is satisfied by the fruit of Your labor.
- 14 He causes grass to grow for the livestock
and [provides] crops for man to cultivate,
producing food from the earth,
- 15 wine that makes man's heart glad—making his face shine with oil—
and bread that sustains man's heart.
- 16 The trees of the LORD flourish,^a
the cedars of Lebanon that He planted.
- 17 There the birds make their nests;
the stork makes its home
in the pine trees.
- 18 The high mountains are
for the wild goats;
the cliffs are a refuge for hyraxes.
- 19 He made the moon to mark the^b seasons;
the sun knows when to set.
- 20 You bring darkness, and it becomes night,
when all the forest animals stir.
- 21 The young lions roar for their prey
and seek their food from God.
- 22 The sun rises; they go back and lie down in their dens.
- 23 Man goes out to his work
and to his labor until evening.
- 24 How countless are Your works, LORD!
In wisdom You have made them all;
the earth is full of Your creatures.^c
- 25 Here is the sea, vast and wide, teeming with creatures beyond number—living things both large and small.
- 26 There the ships move about,
and •Leviathan, which You formed to play there.
- 27 All of them wait for You to give them their food at the right time.
- 28 When You give it to them,
they gather it;
when You open Your hand,
they are satisfied with good things.
- 29 When You hide Your face,
they are terrified;
when You take away their breath,
they die and return to the dust.
- 30 When You send Your breath,^d
they are created,
and You renew the face of the earth.
- 31 May the glory of the LORD endure forever;
may the LORD rejoice in His works.
- 32 He looks at the earth, and it trembles;
He touches the mountains,
and they pour out smoke.
- 33 I will sing to the LORD all my life;
I will sing praise to my God while I live.
- 34 May my meditation be pleasing to Him;
I will rejoice in the LORD.
- 35 May sinners vanish from the earth
and the wicked be no more.
My soul, praise the LORD!

Psalm 105

God's Faithfulness to His People

- 1 Give thanks to the LORD, call on His name;
proclaim His deeds among the peoples.
- 2 Sing to Him, sing praise to Him;
tell about all His wonderful works!
- 3 Honor His holy name;
let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.
- 4 Search for the LORD and for His strength;
seek His face always.
- 5 Remember the wonderful works
He has done,
His wonders,
and the judgments He has pronounced,^e
- 6 You offspring of Abraham His servant,
Jacob's descendants—His chosen ones.
- 7 He is the LORD our God;
His judgments [govern] the whole earth.
- 8 He forever remembers His covenant,
the promise He ordained for a thousand generations—
- 9 [the covenant] He made with Abraham,
swore^f to Isaac,
- 10 and confirmed to Jacob as a decree
and to Israel as an everlasting covenant:
- 11 "I will give the land of Canaan to you as your inherited portion."
- 12 When they were few in number,
very few indeed,
and temporary residents in Canaan,
- 13 wandering from nation to nation
and from one kingdom to another,
- 14 He allowed no one to oppress them;
He rebuked kings on their behalf:
- 15 "Do not touch My anointed ones,
or harm My prophets."

16 He called down famine against the land and destroyed the entire food supply.
 17 He had sent a man ahead of them—
 Joseph, who was sold as a slave.
 18 They hurt his feet with shackles;
 his neck was put in an iron collar.
 19 Until the time his prediction came true,
 the word of the LORD tested him.
 20 The king sent [for him] and released him;
 the ruler of peoples set him free.
 21 He made him master of his household,
 ruler over all his possessions—22 binding^a his officials at will and instructing his elders.
 23 Then Israel went to Egypt; Jacob lived as a foreigner in the land of Ham.^b
 24 The LORD^c made His people very fruitful;
 He made them more numerous than their foes,
 25 whose hearts He turned to hate
 His people
 and to deal deceptively with His servants.
 26 He sent Moses His servant,
 and Aaron, whom He had chosen.
 27 They performed His miraculous signs
 among them,
 and wonders in the land of Ham.^b 28 He sent darkness, and it became dark—
 for did they^d not defy His commands?
 29 He turned their waters into blood and caused their fish to die.
 30 Their land was overrun with frogs,
 even in their kings' chambers.
 31 He spoke, and insects came—gnats throughout their country.
 32 He gave them hail for rain,
 and lightning throughout their land.
 33 He struck their vines and fig trees
 and shattered the trees of their territory.
 34 He spoke and locusts came—young locusts without number.
 35 They devoured all the vegetation
 in their land
 and consumed the produce of their soil.
 36 He struck all the firstborn in their land,
 all their first progeny.
 37 Then He brought Israel out with silver
 and gold,
 and no one among His tribes stumbled.
 38 Egypt was glad when they left,

for dread of Israel^e had fallen on them.
 39 He spread a cloud as a covering and [gave] a fire to light up the night.
 40 They asked, and He brought quail and satisfied them with bread
 from heaven.
 41 He opened a rock, and water gushed out;
 it flowed like a stream in the desert.
 42 For He remembered His holy promise to Abraham His servant.
 43 He brought His people out with rejoicing,
 His chosen ones with shouts of joy.
 44 He gave them the lands of the nations,
 and they inherited
 what other peoples had worked for.
 45 [All this happened]
 so that they might keep His statutes and obey His laws.

Israel's Unfaithfulness to God

1 •Hallelujah!
 Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good;
 His faithful love endures forever.
 2 Who can declare the LORD's mighty acts or proclaim all the praise due Him?
 3 How happy are those who uphold justice,
 who practice righteousness at all times.
 4 Remember me, LORD,
 when You show favor to Your people.
 Come to me with Your salvation
 so that I may enjoy the prosperity of Your chosen ones,
 rejoice in the joy of Your nation,
 and boast about Your heritage.
 6 Both we and our fathers have sinned;
 we have gone astray
 and have acted wickedly.
 7 Our fathers in Egypt did not grasp
 [the significance of] Your wonderful works or remember Your many acts of faithful love;
 instead, they rebelled by the sea—
 the •Red Sea.
 8 Yet He saved them because of His name,
 to make His power known.
 9 He rebuked the Red Sea, and it dried up;
 He led them through the depths
 as through a desert.

- 10 He saved them from the hand
of the adversary;
He redeemed them from the hand
of the enemy.
- 11 Water covered their foes;
not one of them remained.
- 12 Then they believed His promises and sang His praise.
- 13 They soon forgot His works
and would not wait for His counsel.
- 14 They were seized with craving
in the wilderness
and tested God in the desert.
- 15 He gave them what they asked for,
but sent a wasting disease among them.
- 16 In the camp they were envious of Moses and of Aaron, the LORD's holy one.
- 17 The earth opened up and swallowed Dathan;
it covered the assembly of Abiram.
- 18 Fire blazed throughout their assembly;
flames consumed the wicked.
- 19 At Horeb they made a calf
and worshiped the cast metal image.
- 20 They exchanged their glory^a for the image of a grass-eating ox.
- 21 They forgot God their Savior,
who did great things in Egypt,
- 22 wonderful works in the land of Ham,^b
awe-inspiring deeds at the Red Sea.
- 23 So He said
He would have destroyed them—
if Moses His chosen one had not stood before Him in the breach to turn His wrath away
from destroying [them].
- 24 They despised the pleasant land
and did not believe His promise.
- 25 They grumbled in their tents
and did not listen to the LORD's voice.
- 26 So He raised His hand against them [with an oath]
that He would make them fall
in the desert
- 27 and would disperse their descendants^c
among the nations,
scattering them throughout the lands.
- 28 They aligned themselves with •Baal
of Peor
and ate sacrifices offered to lifeless gods.^d
- 29 They provoked the LORD with their deeds,
and a plague broke out against them.
- 30 But Phinehas stood up and intervened,
and the plague was stopped.
- 31 It was credited to him as righteousness throughout all generations to come.
- 32 They angered [the LORD] at the waters of Meribah,
and Moses suffered^e because of them;
- 33 for they embittered his spirit,^f
and he spoke rashly with his lips.
- 34 They did not destroy the peoples
as the LORD had commanded them, 35 but mingled with the nations and adopted their ways.
- 36 They served their idols,
which became a snare to them.
- 37 They sacrificed their sons and daughters to demons.
- 38 They shed innocent blood—
the blood of their sons and daughters
whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan;
so the land became polluted with blood.
- 39 They defiled themselves by their actions and prostituted themselves by their deeds.
- 40 Therefore the LORD's anger burned
against His people,
and He abhorred His own inheritance.
- 41 He handed them over to the nations;
those who hated them ruled them.
- 42 Their enemies oppressed them,
and they were subdued
under their power.
- 43 He rescued them many times,
but they continued to rebel deliberately
and were beaten down by their sin.
- 44 When He heard their cry,
He took note of their distress,
- 45 remembered His covenant with them,
and relented according to the abundance of His faithful love.
- 46 He caused them to be pitied
before all their captors.
- 47 Save us, LORD our God,
and gather us from the nations,
so that we may give thanks to Your holy name
and rejoice in Your praise.

Psalm 107

Thanksgiving for God's Deliverance

- 1 Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good;
His faithful love endures forever.
- 2 Let the redeemed of the LORD proclaim that He has redeemed them from the hand of the foe
- 3 and has gathered them from the lands—
from the east and the west,
from the north and the south.
- 4 Some^a wandered
in the desolate wilderness, finding no way to a city
where they could live.
- 5 They were hungry and thirsty;
their spirits failed^b within them.
- 6 Then they cried out to the LORD
in their trouble;
He rescued them from their distress.
- 7 He led them by the right path
to go to a city where they could live.
- 8 Let them give thanks to the LORD
for His faithful love
and His wonderful works
for the •human race.
- 9 For He has satisfied the thirsty
and filled the hungry with good things.
- 10 Others^a sat in darkness and gloom^c — prisoners in cruel chains—11 because they rebelled against God's commands and despised the counsel
of the •Most High.
- 12 He broke their spirits^d
with hard labor;
they stumbled, and there was no one
to help.
- 13 Then they cried out to the LORD
in their trouble;
He saved them from their distress.
- 14 He brought them out of darkness and gloom^c
and broke their chains apart.
- 15 Let them give thanks to the LORD
for His faithful love
and His wonderful works
for the human race.
- 16 For He has broken down
the bronze gates
and cut through the iron bars.
- 17 Fools suffered affliction
because of their rebellious ways and their sins.
- 18 They loathed all food
and came near the gates of death.
- 19 Then they cried out to the LORD
in their trouble;
He saved them from their distress.
- 20 He sent His word and healed them;
He rescued them from the •Pit.
- 21 Let them give thanks to the LORD
for His faithful love
and His wonderful works
for the human race.
- 22 Let them offer sacrifices of thanksgiving
and announce His works with shouts
of joy.
- 23 Others^a went to sea in ships,
conducting trade on the vast waters.
- 24 They saw the LORD's works,
His wonderful works in the deep.
- 25 He spoke and raised a tempest that stirred up the waves of the sea.^e
- 26 Rising up to the sky, sinking down to the depths,
their courage^f melting away in anguish, 27 they reeled and staggered like drunken men,
and all their skill was useless.
- 28 Then they cried out to the LORD
in their trouble,
and He brought them out of their distress.
- 29 He stilled the storm to a murmur,
and the waves of the sea^g were hushed.
- 30 They rejoiced when the waves^h grew quiet.
Then He guided them to the harbor
they longed for.

springs of water into thirsty ground, 34 and fruitful land into salty wasteland,
because of the wickedness
of its inhabitants.
- 35 He turns a desert into a pool of water,
dry land into springs of water.
- 36 He causes the hungry to settle there,
and they establish a city
where they can live.
- 37 They sow fields and plant vineyards
that yield a fruitful harvest.
- 38 He blesses them,
and they multiply greatly;
He does not let their livestock decrease.
- 39 When they are diminished and are humbled
by cruel oppression and sorrow, 40 He pours contempt on nobles and makes them wander
in trackless wastelands.
- 41 But He lifts the needy out of their suffering
and makes their families [multiply]

with the whole of my being.^c
- 2 Wake up, harp and lyre!
I will wake up the dawn.
- 3 I will praise You, LORD,

I will sing praises to You
among the nations.

- 4 For Your faithful love is higher than the heavens;
Your faithfulness reaches the clouds.
- 5 God, be exalted above the heavens;
let Your glory be over the whole earth.
- 6 Save with Your right hand and answer me
so that those You love may be rescued.
- 7 God has spoken in His sanctuary:^d
"I will triumph!
I will divide up Shechem.
I will apportion the Valley of Succoth.
- 8 Gilead is Mine, Manasseh is Mine,
and Ephraim is My helmet; Judah is My scepter.
- 9 Moab is My washbasin;
on Edom I throw My sandal.
Over Philistia I shout in triumph."
- 10 Who will bring me to the fortified city?
Who will lead me to Edom?
- 11 Have You not rejected us, God?
God, You do not march out with our armies.
- 12 Give us aid against the foe,
for human help is worthless.
- 13 With God we will perform valiantly;
He will trample our foes.

- 4 The mountains skipped like rams,
the hills, like lambs.
5 Why was it, sea, that you fled?
Jordan, that you turned back?
6 Mountains, that you skipped like rams?
Hills, like lambs?
7 Tremble, earth, at the presence
of the Lord,
at the presence of the God of Jacob,
8 who turned the rock into a pool of water,
the flint into a spring of water.

Psalm 115

Glory to God Alone

- 1 Not to us, LORD, not to us,
but to Your name give glory
because of Your faithful love, because of Your truth.
2 Why should the nations say,
“Where is their God?”
3 Our God is in heaven and does whatever He pleases.
4 Their idols are silver and gold,
made by human hands.
5 They have mouths, but cannot speak,
eyes, but cannot see.
6 They have ears, but cannot hear,
noses, but cannot smell.
7 They have hands, but cannot feel,
feet, but cannot walk.
They cannot make a sound
with their throats.
8 Those who make them are^a just like them,
as are all who trust in them.
9 Israel,^b trust in the LORD!
He is their help and shield.
10 House of Aaron, trust in the LORD!
He is their help and shield.
11 You who •fear the LORD,
trust in the LORD!
He is their help and shield.
12 The LORD remembers us
and will bless [us].
He will bless the house of Israel;
He will bless the house of Aaron;
13 He will bless those who fear the LORD—
small and great alike.
14 May the LORD add to [your numbers],
both yours and your children’s.
15 May you be blessed by the LORD,

the Maker of heaven and earth.

- 16 The heavens are the LORD’s,^c
but the earth He has given to the •human race.
17 It is not the dead who praise the LORD, nor any of those descending
into the silence [of death].
18 But we will praise the LORD,
both now and forever.
•Hallelujah!

Psalm 116

Thanks to God for Deliverance

- 1 I love the LORD because He has heard
my appeal for mercy.
2 Because He has turned His ear to me,
I will call [out to Him] as long as I live.
3 The ropes of death were wrapped
around me,
and the torments of •Sheol overcame me;
I encountered trouble and sorrow.
4 Then I called on the name of the LORD:
“LORD, save me!”
5 The LORD is gracious and righteous;
our God is compassionate.
6 The LORD guards the inexperienced;
I was helpless, and He saved me.
7 Return to your rest, my soul,
for the LORD has been good to you.
8 For You, [LORD,] rescued me from death,
my eyes from tears,
my feet from stumbling.
9 I will walk before the LORD
in the land of the living.
10 I believed, even when I said,
“I am severely afflicted.”
11 In my alarm I said,
“Everyone is a liar.”
12 How can I repay the LORD
all the good He has done for me?
13 I will take the cup of salvation
and worship^d the LORD.
14 I will fulfill my vows to the LORD
in the presence of all His people.
15 The death of His faithful ones is valuable in the LORD’s sight.
16 LORD, I am indeed Your servant;
I am Your servant, the son of Your female servant.
You have loosened my bonds.

Universal Call to Praise

- 1 Praise the LORD, all nations!
Glorify Him, all peoples!
2 For great is His faithful love to us;
the LORD's faithfulness endures forever.

Psalm 118

Thanksgiving for Victory

- 1 Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good;
His faithful love endures forever.
2 Let Israel say,
"His faithful love endures forever."
3 Let the house of Aaron say,
"His faithful love endures forever."
4 Let those who fear the LORD say,
"His faithful love endures forever."
5 I called to the LORD in distress;
the LORD answered me
[and put me] in a spacious place.^b
6 The LORD is for me; I will not be afraid.
What can man do to me?
7 With the LORD for me as my helper,
I will look in triumph on those
who hate me.
8 It is better to take refuge in the LORD
than to trust in man.
9 It is better to take refuge in the LORD
than to trust in nobles.
10 All the nations surrounded me;
in the name of the LORD
I destroyed them.
11 They surrounded me, yes,
they surrounded me;
in the name of the LORD
I destroyed them.
12 They surrounded me like bees;
they were extinguished like a fire
among thorns;
in the name of the LORD I destroyed them.
13 You^c pushed me^d hard to make me fall,
but the LORD helped me.

- 14 The LORD is my strength and my song;
He has become my salvation.
15 There are shouts of joy and victory in the tents of the righteous:
"The LORD's right hand strikes
with power!
16 The LORD's right hand is raised!
The LORD's right hand strikes
with power!"
17 I will not die, but I will live and proclaim what the LORD has done.
18 The LORD disciplined me severely
but did not give me over to death.
19 Open the gates of righteousness for me;
I will enter through them
and give thanks to the LORD.
20 This is the gate of the LORD;
the righteous will enter through it.
21 I will give thanks to You because You have answered me
and have become my salvation.
22 The stone that the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone.
23 This came from the LORD;
it is wonderful in our eyes.
24 This is the day the LORD has made;
let us rejoice and be glad in it.
25 LORD, save us!
LORD, please grant us success!
26 Blessed is he who comes
in the name of the LORD.
From the house of the LORD we bless you.
27 The LORD is God and has given us light.
Bind the festival sacrifice with cords
to the horns of the altar.
28 You are my God, and I will give You thanks.
[You are] my God; I will exalt You.
29 Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good;
His faithful love endures forever.

Delight in God's Word

✠ Alef

- 1 How^e happy are those whose way
is blameless,
who live according to the law
of the LORD!
2 Happy are those who keep His decrees
and seek Him with all their heart.

- 3 They do nothing wrong;
they follow His ways.
4 You have commanded that Your precepts be diligently kept.
5 If only my ways were committed to keeping Your statutes!
6 Then I would not be ashamed
when I think about all Your commands.
7 I will praise You with a sincere heart
when I learn Your righteous judgments.
8 I will keep Your statutes;

□ Bet

- 9 How can a young man keep his way
pure?
By keeping Your^a word.
10 I have sought You with all my heart;
don't let me wander
from Your commands.
11 I have treasured Your word in my heart
so that I may not sin against You.
12 LORD, may You be praised;
teach me Your statutes.
13 With my lips I proclaim
all the judgments from Your mouth.
14 I rejoice in the way [revealed by]
Your decrees
as much as in all riches.
15 I will meditate on Your precepts and think about Your ways.
16 I will delight in Your statutes;
I will not forget Your word.

◌ Gimel

- 17 Deal generously with Your servant
so that I might live;
then I will keep Your word.
18 Open my eyes so that I may see

19 I am a stranger on earth;
do not hide Your commands from me.
20 I am continually overcome
by longing for Your judgments.
21 You rebuke the proud, the accursed,
who wander from Your commands.
22 Take insult and contempt away from me,
for I have kept Your decrees.
23 Though princes sit together speaking
against me,
Your servant will think about Your statutes;

- 24 Your decrees are my delight
and my counselors.

◌ Dalet

- 25 My life is down in the dust;
give me life through Your word.
26 I told You about my life,
and You listened to me;

27 Help me understand the meaning of Your precepts
so that I can meditate on Your wonders.
28 I am weary^b from grief;
strengthen me through Your word.
29 Keep me from the way of deceit,
and graciously give me Your instruction.
30 I have chosen the way of truth;
I have set Your ordinances [before me].
31 I cling to Your decrees;
LORD, do not put me to shame.
32 I pursue the way of Your commands,
for You broaden my understanding.^c

◌ He

- 33 Teach me, LORD, the meaning of Your statutes,
and I will always keep them.^d 34 Help me understand Your instruction, and I will obey it
and follow it with all my heart.
35 Help me stay on the path of Your commands,
for I take pleasure in it.
36 Turn my heart to Your decrees
and not to material gain.
37 Turn my eyes
from looking at what is worthless;
give me life in Your ways.^e 38 Confirm what You said to Your servant,
for it produces reverence for You.
39 Turn away the disgrace I dread;
indeed, Your judgments are good.
40 How I long for Your precepts!
Give me life through
Your righteousness.

- 3 Sons are indeed a heritage from the LORD,
children, a reward.
4 Like arrows in the hand of a warrior
are the sons born in one's youth.
5 Happy is the man who has filled his quiver with them.
Such men will never be put to shame
when they speak with [their] enemies
at the city •gate.

Psalm 128*Blessings for Those Who Fear God*

A •song of ascents.

- 1 How happy is everyone who •fears
the LORD,
who walks in His ways!
2 You will surely eat
what your hands have worked for.
You will be happy,
and it will go well for you.
3 Your wife will be like a fruitful vine
within your house,
your sons, like young olive trees
around your table.
4 In this very way
the man who fears the LORD will be blessed.
5 May the LORD bless you from Zion, so that you will see the prosperity
of Jerusalem
all the days of your life,
6 and will see your children's children!
Peace be with Israel.

Psalm 129*Protection of the Oppressed*

A •song of ascents.

- 1 Since my youth they have often
attacked me—
let Israel say—
2 Since my youth they have often
attacked me,
but they have not prevailed against me.
3 Plowmen plowed over my back;
they made their furrows long.
4 The LORD is righteous;
He has cut the ropes of the wicked.
5 Let all who hate Zion
be driven back in disgrace.
6 Let them be like grass on the rooftops, which withers before it grows up^a

- 7 and can't even fill the hands of the reaper
or the arms of the one who binds sheaves.
8 Then none who pass by will say,
"May the LORD's blessing be on you."
We bless you in the name of the LORD.

Psalm 130*Awaiting Redemption*

A •song of ascents.

- 1 Out of the depths I call to You, LORD!
2 Lord, listen to my voice;
let Your ears be attentive
to my cry for help.
3 LORD, if You considered sins,
Lord, who could stand?
4 But with You there is forgiveness,
so that You may be revered.
5 I wait for the LORD; I wait,
and put my hope in His word.
6 I [wait] for the Lord
more than watchmen for the morning—
more than watchmen for the morning.
7 Israel, put your hope in the LORD.
For there is faithful love with the LORD,
and with Him is redemption
in abundance.
8 And He will redeem Israel
from all its sins.

Psalm 131*A Childlike Spirit*

A Davidic •song of ascents.

- 1 LORD, my heart is not proud;
my eyes are not haughty.
I do not get involved with things too great or too difficult for me.
2 Instead, I have calmed and quieted myself
like a little weaned child with its mother;
I am like a little child.
3 Israel, put your hope in the LORD,
both now and forever.

Psalm 132*David and Zion Chosen*

A •song of ascents.

- 1 LORD, remember David
and all the hardships he endured,
2 and how he swore an oath to the LORD,

^a129:6 Or it can be pulled out making a vow to the Mighty One

of Jacob:

- 3 “I will not enter my house^a
or get into my bed,^b
- 4 I will not allow my eyes to sleep
or my eyelids to slumber
- 5 until I find a place for the LORD,
a dwelling for the Mighty One of Jacob.”
- 6 We heard of [the ark] in Ephrathah;^c
we found it in the fields of Jaar.^d
- 7 Let us go to His dwelling place;
let us worship at His footstool.
- 8 Arise, LORD, come to Your resting place,
You and the ark [that shows]
Your strength.
- 9 May Your priests be clothed
with righteousness,
and may Your godly people shout for joy.
- 10 Because of Your servant David,
do not reject Your anointed one.^e
- 11 The LORD swore an oath to David,
a promise He will not abandon:
“I will set one of your descendants^f
on your throne.
- 12 If your sons keep My covenant
and My decrees that I will teach them, their sons will also sit on your throne, forever.”
- 13 For the LORD has chosen Zion;
He has desired it for His home:
- 14 “This is My resting place forever; I will make My home here because I have desired it.
- 15 I will abundantly bless its food;
I will satisfy its needy with bread.
- 16 I will clothe its priests with salvation,
and its godly people will shout for joy.
- 17 There I will make a •horn grow for David;
I have prepared a lamp for My anointed one.
- 18 I will clothe his enemies with shame,
but the crown he wears^g will be glorious.”

Psalm 133

Living in Harmony

A Davidic •song of ascents.

- 1 How good and pleasant it is when brothers can live together!
- 2 It is like fine oil on the head,
running down on the beard,

running down Aaron's beard,
on his robes.

- 3 It is like the dew of Hermon^h
falling on the mountains of Zion.
For there the LORD has appointed the blessing—
life forevermore.

Psalm 134

Call to Evening Worship

A •song of ascents.

- 1 Now praise the LORD,
all you servants of the LORD
who stand in the LORD's house at night!
- 2 Lift up your hands in the holy place,
and praise the LORD!
- 3 May the LORD,
Maker of heaven and earth,
bless you from Zion.

Psalm 135

The LORD Is Great

- 1 •Hallelujah!
Praise the name of the LORD.
Give praise, you servants of the LORD
who stand in the house of the LORD,
in the courts of the house of our God.
- 3 Praise the LORD, for the LORD is good;
sing praise to His name, for it is delightful.
- 4 For the LORD has chosen Jacob
for Himself,
Israel as His treasured possession.
- 5 For I know that the LORD is great;
our Lord is greater than all gods.
- 6 The LORD does whatever He pleases
in heaven and on earth,
in the seas and all the depths.
- 7 He causes the clouds to rise from the ends
of the earth.
He makes lightning for the rain
and brings the wind from His storehouses.
- 8 He struck down the firstborn of Egypt,
both people and animals.
- 9 He sent signs and wonders
against you, Egypt,
against Pharaoh and all his officials.
- 10 He struck down many nations
and slaughtered mighty kings:
- 11 Sihon king of the Amorites,
Og king of Bashan,

^a132:3 Lit enter the tent of my house ^b132:3 Lit into the couch of my bed ^c132:6 Bethlehem or the district around it; Gn 35:19 ^d132:6 Kiriath-jearim; 1 Sm 7:1-2 ^e132:10 The king ^f132:11 Lit set the fruit of your womb ^g132:18 Lit but on him his crown ^h133:3 The tallest mountain in the region, noted for its abundant precipitation

- and all the kings of Canaan.
 12 He gave their land as an inheritance,
 an inheritance to His people Israel.
 13 LORD, Your name [endures] forever,
 Your reputation, LORD,
 through all generations.
 14 For the LORD will judge His people and have compassion on His servants.
 15 The idols of the nations are of silver
 and gold,
 made by human hands.
 16 They have mouths, but cannot speak,
 eyes, but cannot see.
 17 They have ears, but cannot hear;
 indeed, there is no breath in their mouths.
 18 Those who make them are just like them,
 as are all who trust in them.
 19 House of Israel, praise the LORD!
 House of Aaron, praise the LORD!
 20 House of Levi, praise the LORD!
 You who revere the LORD,
 praise the LORD!
 21 May the LORD be praised from Zion;
 He dwells in Jerusalem.
 Hallelujah!

Psalms 136*God's Love Is Eternal*

- 1 Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good.
His love is eternal.
 2 Give thanks to the God of gods.
His love is eternal.
 3 Give thanks to the Lord of lords.
His love is eternal.
 4 He alone does great wonders.
His love is eternal.
 5 He made the heavens skillfully.
His love is eternal.
 6 He spread the land on the waters.
His love is eternal.
 7 He made the great lights:
His love is eternal.
 8 the sun to rule by day,
His love is eternal.
 9 the moon and stars to rule by night.
His love is eternal.
 10 He struck the firstborn of the Egyptians
His love is eternal.
 11 and brought Israel out from among them
His love is eternal.
 12 with a strong hand and outstretched arm.
His love is eternal.

- 13 He divided the •Red Sea
His love is eternal.
 14 and led Israel through,
His love is eternal.
 15 but hurled Pharaoh and his army
 into the Red Sea.
His love is eternal.
 16 He led His people in the wilderness.
His love is eternal.
 17 He struck down great kings
His love is eternal.
 18 and slaughtered famous kings—
His love is eternal.
 19 Sihon king of the Amorites
His love is eternal.
 20 and Og king of Bashan—
His love is eternal.
 21 and gave their land as an inheritance,
His love is eternal.
 22 an inheritance to Israel His servant.
His love is eternal.
 23 He remembered us in our humiliation
His love is eternal.
 24 and rescued us from our foes.
His love is eternal.
 25 He gives food to every creature.
His love is eternal.
 26 Give thanks to the God of heaven!
His love is eternal.

Psalms 137*Lament of the Exiles*

- 1 By the rivers of Babylon—
 there we sat down and wept
 when we remembered Zion.
 2 There we hung up our lyres
 on the poplar trees,
 3 for our captors there asked us for songs,
 and our tormentors, for rejoicing:
 “Sing us one of the songs of Zion.”
 4 How can we sing the LORD’s song on foreign soil?
 5 If I forget you, Jerusalem,
 may my right hand forget [its skill].
 6 May my tongue stick to the roof
 of my mouth
 if I do not remember you,
 if I do not exalt Jerusalem
 as my greatest joy!
 7 Remember, LORD,
 [what] the Edomites said
 that day^a at Jerusalem:

^a137:7 The day Jerusalem fell to the Babylonians in 586 B.C.

“Destroy it! Destroy it down to its foundations!”

- 8 Daughter Babylon, doomed to destruction,
happy is the one who pays you back
what you have done to us.
9 Happy is he who takes your little ones and dashes them against the rocks.

Psalm 138

A Thankful Heart

Davidic.

- 1 I will give You thanks with all my heart;
I will sing Your praise
before the heavenly beings.^a 2 I will bow down toward Your holy temple and give thanks to Your name for Your constant love and faithfulness.
You have exalted Your name
and Your promise above everything else.
3 On the day I called, You answered me;
You increased strength within me.^b 4 All the kings on earth will give You thanks, LORD, when they hear
what You have promised.^c 5 They will sing of the LORD's ways,
for the LORD's glory is great.
6 Though the LORD is exalted,
He takes note of the humble;
but He knows the haughty from afar.
7 If I walk in the thick of danger,
You will preserve my life
from the anger of my enemies.
You will extend Your hand;
Your right hand will save me.
8 The LORD will fulfill [His purpose] for me.
LORD, Your love is eternal;
do not abandon the work of Your hands.

Psalm 139

The All-Knowing, Ever-Present God

For the choir director. A Davidic psalm.

- 1 LORD, You have searched me
and known me.
2 You know when I sit down and when I stand up;
You understand my thoughts
from far away.

- 3 You observe my travels and my rest;
You are aware of all my ways.
4 Before a word is on my tongue,
You know all about it, LORD.
5 You have encircled me;
You have placed Your hand on me.
6 [This] extraordinary knowledge is beyond me.
It is lofty; I am unable to [reach] it.
7 Where can I go to escape Your Spirit?
Where can I flee from Your presence?
8 If I go up to heaven, You are there;
if I make my bed in •Sheol, You are there.
9 If I live at the eastern horizon
[or] settle at the western limits,^d
10 even there Your hand will lead me;
Your right hand will hold on to me.
11 If I say, “Surely the darkness will hide me,
and the light around me
will become night”—
12 even the darkness is not dark to You.
The night shines like the day;
darkness and light are alike to You.
13 For it was You who created my inward parts;^e
You knit me together
in my mother's womb.
14 I will praise You, because I have been remarkably and wonderfully made.^f ^g
Your works are wonderful,
and I know [this] very well.
15 My bones were not hidden from You when I was made in secret,
when I was formed in the depths
of the earth.
16 Your eyes saw me when I was formless;
all [my] days were written in Your book and planned
before a single one of them began.
17 God, how difficult^h Your thoughts are for me [to comprehend];
how vast their sum is!
18 If I counted them,
they would outnumber the grains of sand;
when I wake up,^h I am still with You.
19 God, if only You would kill the wicked—
you bloodthirsty men, stay away
from me—

Psalm 140*Prayer for Rescue*

For the choir director. A Davidic psalm.

- 1 Rescue me, LORD, from evil men.
Keep me safe from violent men
2 who plan evil in their hearts.
They stir up wars all day long.
3 They make their tongues
as sharp as a snake's bite;
viper's venom is under their lips. • Selah
4 Protect me, LORD,
from the clutches of the wicked.
Keep me safe from violent men
who plan to make me stumble.^b 5 The proud hide a trap with ropes for me;
they spread a net along the path
and set snares for me. Selah
6 I say to the LORD, "You are my God."
Listen, LORD, to my cry for help.
7 Lord GOD, my strong Savior,
You shield my head on the day of battle.
8 LORD, do not grant the desires of the wicked;
do not let them achieve their goals.
[Otherwise,] they will become proud. Selah
9 As for the heads of those who surround me,
let the trouble their lips cause
overwhelm [them].
10 Let hot coals fall on them.
Let them be thrown into the fire,
into the abyss, never again to rise.
11 Do not let a slanderer stay in the land.
Let evil relentlessly^c hunt down
a violent man.
12 I^d know that the LORD upholds
the just cause of the poor,
justice for the needy.

- 13 Surely the righteous will praise Your name;
the upright will live in Your presence.

Psalm 141*Protection from Sin and Sinners*

A Davidic psalm.

- 1 LORD, I call on You; hurry to [help] me.
Listen to my voice when I call on You.
2 May my prayer be set before You
as incense,
the raising of my hands
as the evening offering.
3 LORD, set up a guard for my mouth;
keep watch at the door of my lips.
4 Do not let my heart turn to any evil thing or wickedly perform reckless acts with men who commit sin.
Do not let me feast on their delicacies.
5 Let the righteous one strike me—
it is [an act of] faithful love; let him rebuke me—
it is oil for my head;
let me^e not refuse it.
Even now my prayer is against the evil acts of the wicked.^f 6 When their rulers^g will be thrown off
the sides of a cliff,
the people^h will listen to my words,
for they are pleasing.
7 As when one plows and breaks up
the soil,
[turning up rocks],
so ourⁱ bones have been scattered
at the mouth of •Sheol.
8 But my eyes [look] to You, Lord GOD.
I seek refuge in You; do not let me die.^j 9 Protect me from^k the trap they have set
for me,
and from the snares of evildoers.
10 Let the wicked fall into their own nets,
while I pass [safely] by.

because You deal generously with me.

Psalm 143

A Cry for Help

A Davidic psalm.

- 1 LORD, hear my prayer.
In Your faithfulness listen to my plea,
and in Your righteousness answer me.
2 Do not bring Your servant into judgment,
for no one alive is righteous in Your sight.
3 For the enemy has pursued me,
crushing me to the ground,
making me live in darkness
like those long dead.
4 My spirit is weak within me;
my heart is overcome with dismay.
5 I remember the days of old;
I meditate on all You have done;
I reflect on the work of Your hands.
6 I spread out my hands to You;
I am like parched land before You. •Selah
7 Answer me quickly, LORD;
my spirit fails.
Don't hide Your face from me,
or I will be like those going down to the •Pit.
8 Let me experience
Your faithful love in the morning,
for I trust in You.

Reveal to me the way I should go,
because I long for You.

- 9 Rescue me from my enemies, LORD;
I come to You for protection.^b 10 Teach me to do Your will,
for You are my God.
May Your gracious Spirit
lead me on level ground.
11 Because of Your name, •Yahweh,
let me live.
In Your righteousness deliver me
from trouble,
12 and in Your faithful love
destroy my enemies.
Wipe out all those who attack me,
for I am Your servant.

Psalm 144

A King's Prayer

Davidic.

- 1 May the LORD my rock be praised,
who trains my hands for battle
and my fingers for warfare.
2 He is my faithful love and my fortress,
my stronghold and my deliverer.
He is my shield, and I take refuge in Him;
He subdues my people^c under me.
3 LORD, what is man, that You care for him,
the son of man, that You think of him?
4 Man is like a breath;
his days are like a passing shadow.
5 LORD, part Your heavens and come down.
Touch the mountains,
and they will smoke.
6 Flash [Your] lightning and scatter
the foe;^d
shoot Your arrows and rout them.
7 Reach down^e from on high;
rescue me from deep water,
and set me free
from the grasp of foreigners 8 whose mouths speak lies,
whose right hands are deceptive.
9 God, I will sing a new song to You;
I will play on a ten-stringed harp
for You—
10 the One who gives victory to kings, who frees His servant David from the deadly sword.

Psalm 145

Praising God's Greatness

A Davidic hymn.

- 1 I^c exalt You, my God the King,
and praise Your name forever and ever.
- 2 I will praise You every day;
I will honor Your name forever and ever.
- 3 •Yahweh is great and is highly praised;

The LORD is faithful in all His words and gracious in all His actions.^j
- 14 The LORD helps all who fall;
He raises up all who are oppressed.^k
- 15 All eyes look to You, and You give them their food in due time.
- 16 You open Your hand
and satisfy the desire of every living thing.
- 17 The LORD is righteous in all His ways
and gracious in all His acts.
- 18 The LORD is near all who call out to Him,
all who call out to Him with integrity.
- 19 He fulfills the desires of those
who •fear Him;
He hears their cry for help

Psalm 147

God Restores Jerusalem

- 1 •Hallelujah!
 How good it is to sing to our God,
 for praise is pleasant and lovely.
 2 The LORD rebuilds Jerusalem;
 He gathers Israel's exiled people.
 3 He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.
 4 He counts the number of the stars;
 He gives names to all of them.
 5 Our Lord is great, vast in power;
 His understanding is infinite.^b
 6 The LORD helps the afflicted
 but brings the wicked to the ground.
 7 Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving;
 play the lyre to our God,
 8 who covers the sky with clouds,
 prepares rain for the earth,
 and causes grass to grow on the hills.
 9 He provides the animals with their food,
 and the young ravens, what they cry for.
 10 He is not impressed by the strength of a horse;
 He does not value the power^c of a man.
 11 The LORD values those who fear Him,
 those who put their hope
 in His faithful love.
 12 Exalt the LORD, Jerusalem;
 praise your God, Zion!
 13 For He strengthens the bars of your gates and blesses your children within you.
 14 He endows your territory with prosperity;^d
 He satisfies you with the finest wheat.

- 15 He sends His command
 throughout the earth;
 His word runs swiftly.
 16 He spreads snow like wool;
 He scatters frost like ashes;
 17 He throws His hailstones like crumbs.
 Who can withstand His cold?
 18 He sends His word and melts them;
 He unleashes His winds,^e
 and the waters flow.
 19 He declares His word to Jacob,
 His statutes and judgments to Israel.
 20 He has not done this for any nation;
 they do not know^f [His] judgments.

 praise Him, all His •hosts.
 3 Praise Him, sun and moon;
 praise Him, all you shining stars.
 4 Praise Him, highest heavens,
 and you waters above the heavens.
 5 Let them praise the name of the LORD,
 for He commanded,
 and they were created.
 6 He set them in position
 forever and ever;
 He gave an order that will never
 pass away.
 7 Praise the LORD from the earth,
 all sea monsters and ocean depths, 8 lightnings and hail, snow and cloud, powerful wind that executes
 His command,
 9 mountains and all hills,
 fruit trees and all cedars, 10 wild animals and all cattle,
 creatures that crawl and flying birds, 11 kings of the earth and all peoples,
 princes and all judges of the earth, 12 young men as well as young women,
 old and young together.
 13 Let them praise the name of the LORD,
 for His name alone is exalted.
 His majesty covers heaven and earth.

Psalm 149

Praise for God's Triumph

- 1 •Hallelujah!
Sing to the LORD a new song,
His praise in the assembly of the godly.
- 2 Let Israel celebrate its Maker;
let the children of Zion rejoice
in their King.
- 3 Let them praise His name with dancing and make music to Him with tambourine and lyre.
- 4 For the LORD takes pleasure in His people;
He adorns the humble with salvation.
- 5 Let the godly celebrate in triumphal glory;
let them shout for joy on their beds.
- 6 Let the exaltation of God be in their mouths^a
and a two-edged sword in their hands,
- 7 inflicting vengeance on the nations
and punishment on the peoples,

- 8 binding their kings with chains
and their dignitaries with iron shackles,
- 9 carrying out the judgment
decreed against them.
This honor is for all His godly people.
Hallelujah!

Psalm 150

Praise the LORD

- 1 •Hallelujah!
Praise God in His sanctuary.
Praise Him in His mighty heavens.
- 2 Praise Him for His powerful acts;
praise Him for His abundant greatness.
- 3 Praise Him with trumpet blast;
praise Him with harp and lyre.
- 4 Praise Him with tambourine and dance;
praise Him with flute and strings.
- 5 Praise Him with resounding cymbals;
praise Him with clashing cymbals.
- 6 Let everything that breathes
praise the LORD.
Hallelujah!

PROVERBS

The Purpose of Proverbs

- 1 The proverbs of Solomon son of David,
king of Israel:
- 2 For gaining wisdom and being instructed;
for understanding insightful sayings;
- 3 for receiving wise instruction
[in] righteousness, justice, and integrity;
- 4 for teaching shrewdness
to the inexperienced,^b knowledge and discretion
to a young man—
- 5 a wise man will listen and increase
his learning,
and a discerning man
will obtain guidance—
- 6 for understanding a proverb
or a parable,^c
the words of the wise, and their riddles.
- 7 The •fear of the LORD

is the beginning of knowledge;
fools despise wisdom and instruction.^d

Avoid the Path of the Violent

- 8 Listen, my son,
to your father's instruction,
and don't reject your mother's teaching,
- 9 for they will be a garland of grace
on your head
and a [gold] chain around your neck.
- 10 My son, if sinners entice you,
don't be persuaded.
- 11 If they say—"Come with us!
Let's set an ambush and kill someone.^e
Let's attack some innocent person
just for fun!^f
- 12 Let's swallow them alive, like •Sheol,
still healthy as they go down to the •Pit.
- 13 We'll find all kinds of valuable property
and fill our houses with plunder.
- 14 Throw in your lot with us,

^a149:6 Lit throat ^b1:4 Or simple, or gullible ^c1:6 Or an enigma
Let's ambush for blood ^f1:11 Lit person for no reason

^d1:7 This verse states the theme of Pr. ^e1:11 Lit

- and we'll all share our money"^a — 15 my son, don't travel that road with them or set foot on their path, 16 because their feet run toward trouble and they hurry to commit murder.^b 17 It is foolish to spread a net
 where any bird can see it, 18 but they set an ambush to kill themselves;^c
 they attack their own lives.
 19 Such are the paths of all who pursue gain dishonestly;
 it takes the lives of those who profit
 from it.^d

Wisdom's Plea

- 20 Wisdom calls out in the street;
 she raises her voice in the public squares.
 21 She cries out above^e the commotion;
 she speaks at the entrance of the city •gates:
 22 "How long, foolish ones, will you love ignorance?
 [How long] will [you] mockers
 enjoy mocking
 and [you] fools hate knowledge?
 23 If you turn to my discipline,^f
 then I will pour out my spirit on you and teach you my words.
 24 Since I called out and you refused, extended my hand and no one paid attention,
 25 since you neglected all my counsel
 and did not accept my correction,
 26 I, in turn, will laugh at your calamity.
 I will mock when terror strikes you,
 27 when terror strikes you like a storm and your calamity comes
 like a whirlwind,
 when trouble and stress overcome you.
 28 Then they will call me,
 but I won't answer;
 they will search for me, but won't find me.
 29 Because they hated knowledge,
 didn't choose to fear the LORD, 30 were not interested in my counsel,
 and rejected all my correction, 31 they will eat the fruit of their way
 and be glutted with their own schemes.
 32 For the waywardness
 of the inexperienced will kill them,

- and the complacency of fools
 will destroy them.
 33 But whoever listens to me
 will live securely
 and be free from the fear of danger."

Wisdom's Worth

- 2 My son, if you accept my words
 and store up my commands within you, 2 listening closely^g to wisdom
 and directing your heart to understanding;
 3 furthermore, if you call out to insight and lift your voice to understanding, 4 if you seek it like silver and search for it like hidden treasure, 5 then you will understand the •fear
 of the LORD
 and discover the knowledge of God.
 6 For the LORD gives wisdom;
 from His mouth come knowledge and understanding.
 7 He stores up success^h for the upright;
 He is a shield for those who live
 with integrity
 8 so that He may guard the paths of justice and protect the way of His loyal followers.
 9 Then you will understand righteousness,
 justice,
 and integrity—every good path.
 10 For wisdom will enter your mind,
 and knowledge will delight your heart.
 11 Discretion will watch over you,
 and understanding will guard you, 12 rescuing you from the way of evil—
 from the one who says perverse things, 13 [from] those who abandon the right paths
 to walk in ways of darkness, 14 [from] those who enjoy doing evil
 and celebrate perversity, 15 whose paths are crooked,
 and whose ways are devious.
 16 It will rescue you
 from a forbidden woman,
 from a strangerⁱ with her flattering talk, 17 who abandons the companion
 of her youth
 and forgets the covenant of her God; 18 for her house sinks down to death and her ways to the land of the departed spirits.
 19 None return who go to her;
 none reach the paths of life.

^a1:14 Lit us; one bag will be for all of us ^b1:16 Lit to shed blood ^c1:18 Lit they ambush for their blood ^d1:19 Lit takes the life of its masters ^e1:21 Lit at the head of ^f1:23 Lit back to my reprimands ^g2:2 Lit you, stretching out your ear ^h2:7 Or resourcefulness ⁱ2:16 Or foreign woman

- 20 So follow the way of good people,
and keep to the paths of the righteous.
21 For the upright will inhabit the land,
and those of integrity will remain in it;
22 but the wicked will be cut off
from the land,
and the treacherous uprooted from it.

Trust the LORD

- 3 My son, don't forget my teaching,
but let your heart keep my commands;
2 for they will bring you many days, a full life,^a and well-being.
3 Never let loyalty and faithfulness
leave you.
Tie them around your neck;
write them on the tablet of your heart.
4 Then you will find favor and high regard in the sight of God and man.
5 Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not rely on your own understanding;
6 think about Him in all your ways,
and He will guide you on the right paths.
7 Don't consider yourself to be wise;
•fear the LORD and turn away from evil.
8 This will be healing for your body^b and strengthening for your bones.
9 Honor the LORD with your possessions and with the first produce of your entire harvest;
10 then your barns will be completely filled,
and your vats will overflow
with new wine.
11 Do not despise the LORD's instruction,
my son,
and do not loathe His discipline;
12 for the LORD disciplines the one He loves,
just as a father, the son he delights in.

Wisdom Brings Happiness

- 13 Happy is a man who finds wisdom
and who acquires understanding, 14 for she is more profitable than silver,
and her revenue is better than gold.
15 She is more precious than jewels;
nothing you desire compares with her.
16 Long life^c is in her right hand;
in her left, riches and honor.
17 Her ways are pleasant,
and all her paths, peaceful.

- 18 She is a tree of life to those who embrace her,
and those who hold on to her are happy.
19 The LORD founded the earth by wisdom and established the heavens
by understanding.
20 By His knowledge the watery depths broke open,
and the clouds dripped with dew.
21 Maintain [your] competence and discretion.
My son, don't lose sight of them.
22 They will be life for you^d
and adornment^e for your neck.
23 Then you will go safely on your way;
your foot will not stumble.
24 When you lie^f down, you will not be afraid;
you will lie down, and your sleep
will be pleasant.
25 Don't fear sudden danger or the ruin of the wicked
when it comes,
26 for the LORD will be your confidence^g
and will keep your foot from a snare.

Treat Others Fairly

- 27 When it is in your power,^h
don't withhold good from the one to whom it is due.
28 Don't say to your neighbor, "Go away!
Come back later.
I'll give it tomorrow"—when it is there
with you.
29 Don't plan any harm
against your neighbor,
for he trusts you and lives near you.
30 Don't accuse anyone without cause,
when he has done you no harm.
31 Don't envy a violent man or choose any of his ways;
32 for the devious are detestable
to the LORD,
but He is a friendⁱ to the upright.
33 The LORD's curse is on the household
of the wicked,
but He blesses the home of the righteous;
34 He mocks those who mock,
but gives grace to the humble.
35 The wise will inherit honor,
but He holds up fools to dishonor.^j

^a3:2 Lit days, years of life ^b3:8 Lit navel ^c3:16 Lit Length of days ^d3:22 Or be your throat; Hb nephesh can mean throat, soul, or life. ^e3:22 Or grace ^f3:24 LXX reads sit ^g3:26 Or be at your side ^h3:27 Lit in the power of your hands ⁱ3:32 Or confidential counsel ^j3:35 Or but haughty fools dishonor, or but fools exalt dishonor

A Father's Example

- 4 Listen, [my] sons, to a father's discipline, and pay attention so that you may gain understanding,
for I am giving you good instruction.
Don't abandon my teaching.
When I was a son with my father,
tender and precious to my mother,
he taught me and said:
"Your heart must hold on to my words.
Keep my commands and live.
Get wisdom, get understanding;
don't forget or turn away from the words
of my mouth.
Don't abandon wisdom, and she will
watch over you;
love her, and she will guard you.
Wisdom is supreme—so get wisdom.
And whatever else you get,
get understanding.
Cherish her, and she will exalt you;
if you embrace her, she will honor you.
She will place a garland of grace
on your head;
she will give you a crown of beauty."

Two Ways of Life

- 10 Listen, my son. Accept my words, and you will live many years.
11 I am teaching you the way of wisdom;
I am guiding you on straight paths.
12 When you walk, your steps will not be hindered;
when you run, you will not stumble.
13 Hold on to instruction; don't let go.
Guard it, for it is your life.
14 Don't set foot on the path of the wicked;
don't proceed in the way of evil ones.
15 Avoid it; don't travel on it.
Turn away from it, and pass it by.
16 For they can't sleep
unless they have done what is evil;
they are robbed of sleep unless they make someone stumble.
17 They eat the bread of wickedness
and drink the wine of violence.
18 The path of the righteous is like the light of dawn,
shining brighter and brighter
until midday.
19 But the way of the wicked is like the darkest gloom;

they don't know what makes them stumble.

The Straight Path

- 20 My son, pay attention to my words;
listen closely to my sayings.
21 Don't lose sight of them;
keep them within your heart.
22 For they are life to those who find them,
and health to one's whole body.
23 Guard your heart above all else,^a
for it is the source of life.
24 Don't let your mouth speak dishonestly,
and don't let your lips talk deviously.
25 Let your eyes look forward;
fix your gaze^b straight ahead.
26 Carefully consider the path^c for your feet,
and all your ways will be established.
27 Don't turn to the right or to the left;
keep your feet away from evil.

Avoid Seduction

- 5 My son, pay attention to my wisdom;
listen closely^d to my understanding
so that [you] may maintain discretion and your lips safeguard knowledge.
3 Though the lips of the forbidden woman drip honey
and her words are^e smoother than oil, 4 in the end she's as bitter as •wormwood
and as sharp as a double-edged sword.
5 Her feet go down to death;
her steps head straight for •Sheol.
6 She doesn't consider the path of life;
she doesn't know that her ways
are unstable.
7 So now, [my] sons, listen to me,
and don't turn away from the words
of my mouth.
8 Keep your way far from her.
Don't go near the door of her house.
9 Otherwise, you will give up your vitality
to others
and your years to someone cruel;
10 strangers will drain your resources,
and your earnings will end up in a foreigner's house.
11 At the end of your life, you will lament
when your physical body
has been consumed,
12 and you will say, "How I hated discipline,
and how my heart despised correction.

^a4:23 Or heart with all diligence ^b4:25 Lit eyelids ^c4:26 Or Clear a path ^d5:1 Lit wisdom; stretch out your ear

^e5:3 Lit her palate is

- 13 I didn't obey my teachers
or listen closely^a to my mentors.
14 I was on the verge of complete ruin
before the entire community."

Enjoy Marriage

- 15 Drink water from your own cistern,
water flowing from your own well.
16 Should your springs flow in the streets,
streams of water in the public squares?
17 They should be for you alone and not for you [to share] with strangers.
18 Let your fountain be blessed,
and take pleasure in the wife
of your youth.
19 A loving doe, a graceful fawn—
let her breasts always satisfy you;
be lost in her love forever.
20 Why, my son, would you be infatuated with a forbidden woman or embrace the breast of a stranger?
21 For a man's ways are before the LORD's eyes,
and He considers all his paths.
22 A wicked man's iniquities entrap him;
he is entangled in the ropes
of his own sin.
23 He will die because there is no instruction,
and be lost because of his great stupidity.

Financial Entanglements

- 6 My son, if you have put up security for your neighbor^b or entered into an agreement with^c a stranger,^d 2 you have been trapped by the words of your lips^e —
ensnared by the words of your mouth.
3 Do this, then, my son, and free yourself,
for you have put yourself
in your neighbor's power:
Go, humble yourself, and plead with your neighbor.
4 Don't give sleep to your eyes
or slumber to your eyelids.
5 Escape like a gazelle from a hunter,^f
like a bird from a fowler's trap.^f

Laziness

- ⁶ Go to the ant, you slacker!
Observe its ways and become wise.

- 7 Without leader, administrator, or ruler,
8 it prepares its provisions in summer;
it gathers its food during harvest.
9 How long will you stay in bed,
you slacker?
When will you get up from your sleep?
10 A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the arms to rest, 11 and your poverty will come like a robber,
your need, like a bandit.

The Malicious Man

- 12 A worthless person, a wicked man,
who goes around speaking dishonestly, 13 who winks his eyes, signals with his feet,
and gestures with his fingers, 14 who plots evil with perversity
in his heart—
he stirs up trouble constantly.
15 Therefore calamity
will strike him suddenly;
he will be shattered instantly—
beyond recovery.

What the LORD Hates

- 16 Six things the LORD hates;
in fact, seven are detestable to Him:
17 arrogant eyes, a lying tongue,
hands that shed innocent blood, 18 a heart that plots wicked schemes,
feet eager to run to evil, 19 a lying witness who gives false testimony,
and one who stirs up trouble
among brothers.

Warning against Adultery

- 20 My son, keep your father's command,
and don't reject your mother's teaching.
21 Always bind them to your heart;
tie them around your neck.
22 When you walk here and there, they will guide you;
when you lie down, they will
watch over you;
when you wake up, they will talk to you.
23 For a commandment is a lamp,
teaching is a light,
and corrective instructions are the way
to life.
24 They will protect you from an evil woman,^g
from the flattering^h tongue of a stranger.

^a5:13 Lit or turn my ear ^b6:1 Or friend ^c6:1 Lit or shaken hands for or with ^d6:1 The Hb word for stranger can refer to a foreigner, an Israelite outside one's family, or simply to another person. ^e6:2 Lit mouth ^f6:5 Lit hand ^g6:24 LXX reads from a married woman ^h6:24 Lit smooth

- 25 Don't lust in your heart for her beauty or let her captivate you with her eyelashes.
- 26 For a prostitute's fee is only a loaf of bread,^a
but an adulteress^b goes after [your] very life.
- 27 Can a man embrace fire^c
and his clothes not be burned?
- 28 Can a man walk on coals
without scorching his feet?
- 29 So it is with the one who sleeps with another man's wife;
no one who touches her
will go unpunished.
- 30 People don't despise the thief if he steals to satisfy himself when he is hungry.
- 31 Still, if caught, he must pay seven times
as much;
he must give up all the wealth in his house.
- 32 The one who commits adultery^d
lacks sense;
whoever does so destroys himself.
- 33 He will get a beating^e and dishonor,
and his disgrace will never be removed.
- 34 For jealousy enrages a husband,
and he will show no mercy
when he takes revenge.
- 35 He will not be appeased by anything or be persuaded by lavish gifts.
- 7 My son, obey my words,
and treasure my commands.
- 2 Keep my commands and live;
protect my teachings
as you would the pupil of your eye.
- 3 Tie them to your fingers;
write them on the tablet of your heart.
- 4 Say to wisdom, "You are my sister,"
and call understanding [your] relative.
- 5 She will keep you
from a forbidden woman,
a stranger with her flattering talk.
- A Story of Seduction
- 6 At the window of my house
I looked through my lattice.
- 7 I saw among the inexperienced,^f
I noticed among the youths,
a young man lacking sense.
- 8 Crossing the street near her corner,
he strolled down the road to her house
at twilight, in the evening, in the dark of the night.
- 9 A woman came to meet him,
dressed like a prostitute, having a hidden agenda.^g
- 10 She is loud and defiant;
her feet do not stay at home.
- 11 Now in the street, now in the squares,
she lurks at every corner.
- 12 She grabs him and kisses him;
she brazenly says^h to him,
- 13 "I've made •fellowship offerings;ⁱ
today I've fulfilled my vows.
- 14 So I came out to meet you,
to search for you, and I've found you.
- 15 I've spread coverings on my bed—
richly colored linen from Egypt.
- 16 I've perfumed my bed
with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
- 17 Come, let's drink deeply of lovemaking until morning.
Let's feast on each other's love!
- 18 My husband isn't home;
he went on a long journey.
- 19 He took a bag of money with him
and will come home at the time of the full moon."
- 20 She seduces him
with her persistent pleading;
she lures with her flattering^j talk.
- 21 He follows her impulsively
like an ox going to the slaughter,
like a deer bounding toward a trap^k
- 22 until an arrow pierces its^l liver,
like a bird darting into a snare—
he doesn't know it will cost him
his life.
- 23 Now, [my] sons, listen to me,
and pay attention to the words
of my mouth.
- 24 Don't let your heart turn aside
to her ways;
don't stray onto her paths.
- 25 For she has brought many down to death;
her victims are countless.^m

Wisdom's Appeal

8 Doesn't Wisdom call out?
Doesn't Understanding make her voice heard?
2 At the heights overlooking the road,
at the crossroads, she takes her stand.
3 Beside the gates at the entry to^a the city,
at the main entrance, she cries out:
4 "People, I call out to you;
my cry is to mankind.
5 Learn to be shrewd,
you who are inexperienced;
develop common sense,
you who are foolish.
6 Listen, for I speak of noble things,
and what my lips say is right.
7 For my mouth tells the truth,
and wickedness is detestable to my lips.
8 All the words of my mouth are righteous;
none of them are deceptive or perverse.
9 All of them are clear to the perceptive, and right to those who discover knowledge.
10 Accept my instruction instead of silver,
and knowledge rather than pure gold.
11 For wisdom is better than precious stones,
and nothing desirable can compare with it.
12 I, Wisdom, share a home with shrewdness
and have knowledge and discretion.
13 To •fear the LORD is to hate evil.
I hate arrogant pride, evil conduct,
and perverse speech.
14 I possess good advice and competence;^b
I have understanding and strength.
15 It is by me that kings reign
and rulers enact just law;
16 by me, princes lead,
as do nobles [and] all righteous judges.^c 17 I love those who love me,
and those who search for me find me.
18 With me are riches and honor,
lasting wealth and righteousness.
19 My fruit is better than solid gold,
and my harvest than pure silver.
20 I walk in the way of righteousness,
along the paths of justice, 21 giving wealth as an inheritance to those who love me,
and filling their treasuries.
22 The LORD made^d me at the beginning of His creation,^e

before His works of long ago.
23 I was formed before ancient times,
from the beginning,
before the earth began.
24 I was brought forth
when there were no watery depths
and no springs filled with water.
25 I was brought forth
before the mountains and hills
were established, 26 before He made the land, the fields,
or the first soil on earth.
27 I was there when He established
the heavens,
when He laid out the horizon
on the surface of the ocean, 28 when He placed the skies above,
when the fountains of the ocean
gushed forth,
29 when He set a limit for the sea
so that the waters would not violate
His command,
when He laid out the foundations
of the earth.
30 I was a skilled craftsman^f beside Him.
I was His^g delight every day,
always rejoicing before Him.
31 I was rejoicing in His inhabited world,
delighting in the •human race.
32 And now, [my] sons, listen to me;
those who keep my ways are happy.
33 Listen to instruction and be wise;
don't ignore it.
34 Anyone who listens to me is happy,
watching at my doors every day,
waiting by the posts of my doorway.
35 For the one who finds me finds life
and obtains favor from the LORD, 36 but the one who sins against me
harms himself;
all who hate me love death."

Wisdom versus Foolishness

9 Wisdom has built her house;
she has carved out her seven pillars.
2 She has prepared her meat; she has mixed her wine;
she has also set her table.
3 She has sent out her servants;
she calls out from the highest points
of the city:

^a8:3 Lit the mouth of ^b8:14 Or resourcefulness ^c8:16 Some Hb mss, LXX read nobles who judge the earth ^d8:22 Or possessed, or begot ^e8:22 Lit way ^f8:30 Or a confidante, or a child ^g8:30 LXX; Hb omits His

- 4 “Whoever is inexperienced, enter here!”
To the one who lacks sense, she says,
5 “Come, eat my bread,
and drink the wine I have mixed.
6 Leave inexperience behind,
and you will live;
pursue the way of understanding.
7 The one who corrects a mocker will bring dishonor on himself;
the one who rebukes a wicked man will get hurt.^a 8 Don’t rebuke a mocker, or he will hate you;
rebuke a wise man, and he will love you.
9 Instruct a wise man, and he will be wiser still;
teach a righteous man, and he will learn more.
- 10 The •fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom,
and the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
11 For by Wisdom your days will be many,
and years will be added to your life.
12 If you are wise, you are wise
for your own benefit;
if you mock, you alone will bear
[the consequences].”
13 The woman Folly is rowdy;
she is gullible and knows nothing.
14 She sits by the doorway of her house,
on a seat at the highest point of the city, 15 calling to those who pass by,
who go straight ahead on their paths:
16 “Whoever is inexperienced, enter here!”
To the one who lacks sense, she says,
17 “Stolen water is sweet,
and bread [eaten] secretly is tasty!” 18 But he doesn’t know that the departed spirits are there,
that her guests are in the depths
of •Sheol.

A Collection of Solomon’s Proverbs

10

Solomon’s proverbs:

A wise son brings joy to his father,
but a foolish son, heartache to his mother.

- 2 Ill-gotten gains do not profit anyone,
but righteousness rescues from death.
3 The LORD will not let the righteous go hungry,

but He denies the wicked
what they crave.

- 4 Idle hands make one poor,
but diligent hands bring riches.
5 The son who gathers during summer
is prudent;
the son who sleeps during harvest
is disgraceful.
6 Blessings are on the head of the righteous,
but the mouth of the wicked
conceals violence.
7 The remembrance of the righteous is a blessing,
but the name of the wicked will rot.
8 A wise heart accepts commands,
but foolish lips will be destroyed.
9 The one who lives with integrity
lives securely,
but whoever perverts his ways will be found out.
10 A sly wink of the eye causes grief,
and foolish lips will be destroyed.
11 The mouth of the righteous is a fountain
of life,
but the mouth of the wicked
conceals violence.
12 Hatred stirs up conflicts,
but love covers all offenses.
13 Wisdom is found on the lips of the discerning,
but a rod is for the back of the one who lacks sense.
14 The wise store up knowledge,
but the mouth of the fool
hastens destruction.
15 A rich man’s wealth is his fortified city;
the poverty of the poor is their destruction.
16 The labor of the righteous leads to life;
the activity of the wicked leads to sin.
17 The one who follows instruction is on the path to life,
but the one who rejects correction
goes astray.
18 The one who conceals hatred has lying lips,
and whoever spreads slander is a fool.

^a9:7 Lit man his blemish

- 19 When there are many words,
sin is unavoidable,
but the one who controls his lips is wise.
 - 20 The tongue of the righteous is pure silver;
the heart of the wicked is of little value.
 - 21 The lips of the righteous feed many,
but fools die for lack of sense.
 - 22 The LORD's blessing enriches, and struggle adds nothing to it.^a
 - 23 As shameful conduct is pleasure for a fool,
so wisdom is for a man of understanding.
 - 24 What the wicked dreads will come
to him,
but what the righteous desires
will be given to him.
 - 25 When the whirlwind passes,
the wicked are no more,
but the righteous are secure forever.
 - 26 Like vinegar to the teeth and smoke
to the eyes,
so the slacker is to the one who sends him [on an errand].
 - 27 The •fear of the LORD prolongs life,^b
but the years of the wicked are cut short.
 - 28 The hope of the righteous is joy,
but the expectation of the wicked comes to nothing.
 - 29 The way of the LORD is a stronghold
for the honorable,
but destruction awaits the malicious.
 - 30 The righteous will never be shaken,
but the wicked will not remain
on the earth.
 - 31 The mouth of the righteous
produces wisdom,
but a perverse tongue will be cut out.
 - 32 The lips of the righteous know what is appropriate,
but the mouth of the wicked,
[only] what is perverse.
- 11 Dishonest scales are detestable
to the LORD,
but an accurate weight is His delight.
- 2 When pride comes, disgrace follows,
but with humility comes wisdom.
 - 3 The integrity of the upright guides them,
but the perversity of the treacherous destroys them.
 - 4 Wealth is not profitable on a day
of wrath,
but righteousness rescues from death.
 - 5 The righteousness of the blameless
clears his path,
but the wicked person will fall because of his wickedness.
 - 6 The righteousness of the upright
rescues them,
but the treacherous are trapped
by their own desires.
 - 7 When the wicked dies,
his expectation comes to nothing,
and hope placed in wealth^{c d} vanishes.
 - 8 The righteous is rescued from trouble;
in his place, the wicked goes in.
 - 9 With his mouth the ungodly
destroys his neighbor,
but through knowledge the righteous
are rescued.
 - 10 When the righteous thrive,
a city rejoices,
and when the wicked die, there is joyful shouting.
 - 11 A city is built up by the blessing
of the upright,
but it is torn down by the mouth
of the wicked.
 - 12 Whoever shows contempt
for his neighbor lacks sense, but a man with understanding keeps silent.
 - 13 A gossip goes around revealing a secret,
but the trustworthy keeps a confidence.
 - 14 Without guidance, people fall,
but with many counselors
there is deliverance.
 - 15 If someone puts up security for a stranger,
he will suffer for it,
but the one who hates such agreements
is protected.
 - 16 A gracious woman gains honor,
but violent^e men gain [only] riches.

^a10:22 Or and He adds no trouble to it ^b10:27 Lit LORD adds to days ^c11:7 LXX reads hope of the ungodly
^d11:7 Or strength ^e11:16 Or ruthless

- 17 A kind man benefits himself,
but a cruel man brings disaster on himself.
- 18 The wicked man earns an empty wage,
but the one who sows righteousness,
a true reward.
- 19 Genuine righteousness [leads] to life,
but pursuing evil [leads] to death.
- 20 Those with twisted minds are detestable
to the LORD,
but those with blameless conduct are His delight.
- 21 Be assured^a that the wicked
will not go unpunished,
but the offspring of the righteous
will escape.
- 22 A beautiful woman who rejects good sense
is like a gold ring in a pig's snout.
- 23 The desire of the righteous [turns out] well,
but the hope of the wicked [leads to] wrath.
- 24 One person gives freely,
yet gains more;
another withholds what is right,
only to become poor.
- 25 A generous person will be enriched,
and the one who gives a drink of water will receive water.
- 26 People will curse anyone who hoards grain,
but a blessing will come to the one who sells it.
- 27 The one who searches for what is good finds favor,
but if someone looks for trouble,
it will come to him.
- 28 Anyone trusting in his riches will fall,
but the righteous will flourish like foliage.
- 29 The one who brings ruin on his household will inherit the wind,
and a fool will be a slave
to someone whose heart is wise.
- 30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life,
but violence^b takes lives.
- 31 If the righteous will be repaid on earth,
how much more the wicked and sinful.
- 12 Whoever loves instruction
loves knowledge,
but one who hates correction is stupid.
- 2 The good obtain favor from the LORD,
but He condemns a man who schemes.
- 3 Man cannot be made secure
by wickedness,
but the root of the righteous
is immovable.
- 4 A capable wife^c is her husband's crown,
but a wife who causes shame
is like rotteness in his bones.
- 5 The thoughts of the righteous [are] just,
but guidance from the wicked [leads to] deceit.
- 6 The words of the wicked are a deadly ambush,
but the speech of the upright
rescues them.
- 7 The wicked are overthrown and perish,
but the house of the righteous will stand.
- 8 A man is praised for his insight,
but a twisted mind is despised.
- 9 Better to be dishonored, yet have
a servant,
than to act important but have no food.
- 10 A righteous man cares about his animal's health,
but [even] the merciful acts of the wicked
are cruel.
- 11 The one who works his land will have plenty of food,
but whoever chases fantasies lacks sense.
- 12 The wicked desire what evil men have,^d
but the root of the righteous
produces [fruit].
- 13 An evil man is trapped
by [his] rebellious speech,
but the righteous escapes from trouble.
- 14 A man will be satisfied with good
by the words of his mouth,
and the work of a man's hands
will reward him.

^a11:21 Lit Hand to hand ^b11:30 LXX, Syr; MT reads but a wise one ^c12:4 Or A wife of quality, or A wife of good character ^d12:12 Or desire a stronghold of evil

- 15 A fool's way is right in his own eyes,
but whoever listens to counsel is wise.
- 16 A fool's displeasure is known at once,
but whoever ignores an insult is sensible.
- 17 Whoever speaks the truth declares
what is right,
but a false witness, deceit.
- 18 There is one who speaks rashly,
like a piercing sword;
but the tongue of the wise [brings] healing.
- 19 Truthful lips endure forever,
but a lying tongue, only a moment.
- 20 Deceit is in the hearts of those who plot evil,
but those who promote peace have joy.
- 21 No disaster [overcomes] the righteous,
but the wicked are full of misery.
- 22 Lying lips are detestable to the LORD,
but faithful people are His delight.
- 23 A shrewd person conceals knowledge,
but a foolish heart publicizes stupidity.
- 24 The diligent hand will rule,
but laziness will lead to forced labor.
- 25 Anxiety in a man's heart weighs it down,
but a good word cheers it up.
- 26 A righteous man is careful in dealing with his neighbor,^a but the ways of wicked men lead them astray.
- 27 A lazy man doesn't roast his game,
but to a diligent man, his wealth
is precious.
- 28 There is life in the path of righteousness,
but another path leads to death.^b
- 13 A wise son [hears his] father's instruction,
but a mocker doesn't listen to rebuke.
- 2 From the words of his mouth,
a man will enjoy good things,
but treacherous people have an appetite for violence.
- 3 The one who guards his mouth protects
his life;
- the one who opens his lips invites his own ruin.
- 4 The slacker craves, yet has nothing,
but the diligent is fully satisfied.
- 5 The righteous hate lying,
but the wicked act disgustingly
and disgracefully.
- 6 Righteousness guards people of integrity,^c
but wickedness undermines the sinner.
- 7 One man pretends to be rich
but has nothing;
another pretends to be poor but has great wealth.
- 8 Riches are a ransom for a man's life,
but a poor man hears no threat.
- 9 The light of the righteous shines brightly,
but the lamp of the wicked
is extinguished.
- 10 Arrogance leads to nothing but strife,
but wisdom is gained by those who take advice.
- 11 Wealth obtained by fraud will dwindle,
but whoever earns it through labor^d will multiply it.
- 12 Delayed hope makes the heart sick,
but fulfilled desire is a tree of life.
- 13 The one who has contempt for instruction
will pay the penalty,
but the one who respects a command
will be rewarded.
- 14 A wise man's instruction is a fountain
of life,
turning people away from the snares
of death.
- 15 Good sense wins favor,
but the way of the treacherous never changes.^e
- 16 Every sensible person acts knowledgeably,
but a fool displays his stupidity.
- 17 A wicked messenger falls into trouble,
but a trustworthy courier [brings] healing.
- 18 Poverty and disgrace [come to] those who ignore instruction,
but the one who accepts rebuke
will be honored.

^a12:26 Or man guides his neighbor ^b12:28 Or righteousness, and in its path there is no death ^c13:6 Lit guards integrity of way ^d13:11 Lit whoever gathers upon (his) hand ^e13:15 LXX, Syr, Tg read treacherous will perish

- 19 Desire fulfilled is sweet to the taste,
but fools hate to turn from evil.
- 20 The one who walks with the wise
will become wise,
but a companion of fools will suffer harm.
- 21 Disaster pursues sinners,
but good rewards the righteous.
- 22 A good man leaves an inheritance
to his^a grandchildren,
but the sinner's wealth is stored up for the righteous.
- 23 The field of the poor yields abundant food,
but without justice, it is swept away.
- 24 The one who will not use the rod hates
his son,
but the one who loves him disciplines
him diligently.
- 25 A righteous man eats until he is satisfied,
but the stomach of the wicked is empty.
- 14 Every wise woman builds her house,
but a foolish one tears it down
with her own hands.
- 2 Whoever lives with integrity
•fears the LORD,
but the one who is devious in his ways
despises Him.
- 3 The proud speech of a fool [brings] a rod [of discipline],^b
but the lips of the wise protect them.
- 4 Where there are no oxen, the feedingtrough is empty,^c
but an abundant harvest [comes] through the strength of an ox.
- 5 An honest witness does not deceive,
but a dishonest witness utters lies.
- 6 A mocker seeks wisdom
and doesn't find it,
but knowledge [comes] easily
to the perceptive.
- 7 Stay away from a foolish man;
you will gain no knowledge
from his speech.
- 8 The sensible man's wisdom is to consider
his way,
but the stupidity of fools deceives [them].
- 9 Fools mock at making restitution,^d
but there is goodwill among the upright.
- 10 The heart knows its own bitterness,
and no outsider shares in its joy.
- 11 The house of the wicked
will be destroyed,
but the tent of the upright will stand.^e
- 12 There is a way that seems right to a man,
but its end is the way^f to death.
- 13 Even in laughter a heart may be sad,
and joy may end in grief.
- 14 The disloyal will get what their conduct deserves,
and a good man,
what his [deeds deserve].
- 15 The inexperienced believe anything,
but the sensible watch^g their steps.
- 16 A wise man is cautious and turns
from evil,
but a fool is easily angered
and is careless.^h
- 17 A quick-tempered man acts foolishly,
and a man who schemes is hated.
- 18 The gullible inherit foolishness,
but the sensible are crowned with knowledge.
- 19 The evil bow before those who are good,
the wicked, at the gates of the righteous.
- 20 A poor man is hated even
by his neighbor,
but there are many who love the rich.
- 21 The one who despises his neighbor sins,
but whoever shows kindness to the poor
will be happy.
- 22 Don't those who plan evil go astray?
But those who plan good find loyalty and faithfulness.
- 23 There is profit in all hard work,
but endless talkⁱ leads only to poverty.
- 24 The crown of the wise is their wealth,
but the foolishness of fools produces foolishness.
- 25 A truthful witness rescues lives,
but one who utters lies is deceitful.

- 26 In the fear of the LORD one has strong confidence and his children have a refuge.
 - 27 The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, turning people from the snares of death.
 - 28 A large population is a king's splendor, but a shortage of people is a ruler's devastation.
 - 29 A patient person [shows] great understanding, but a quick-tempered one promotes foolishness.
 - 30 A tranquil heart is life to the body, but jealousy is rottenness to the bones.
 - 31 The one who oppresses the poor insults their Maker, but one who is kind to the needy honors Him.
 - 32 The wicked are thrown down by their own sin, but the righteous have a refuge when they die.
 - 33 Wisdom resides in the heart of the discerning; she is known^a even among fools.
 - 34 Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a disgrace to any people.
 - 35 A king favors a wise servant, but his anger falls on a disgraceful one.
- 15 A gentle answer turns away anger, but a harsh word stirs up wrath.
- 2 The tongue of the wise makes knowledge attractive, but the mouth of fools blurts out foolishness.
 - 3 The eyes of the LORD are everywhere, observing the wicked and the good.
 - 4 The tongue that heals is a tree of life, but a devious tongue^b breaks the spirit.
 - 5 A fool despises his father's instruction, but a person who heeds correction is sensible.
 - 6 The house of the righteous has great wealth, but trouble accompanies the income of the wicked.
 - 7 The lips of the wise broadcast knowledge, but not so the heart of fools.
 - 8 The sacrifice of the wicked is detestable to the LORD, but the prayer of the upright is His delight.
 - 9 The LORD detests the way of the wicked, but He loves the one who pursues righteousness.
 - 10 Discipline is harsh for the one who leaves the path; the one who hates correction will die.
 - 11 •Sheol and •Abaddon lie open before the LORD—how much more, human hearts.
 - 12 A mocker doesn't love one who corrects him; he will not consult the wise.
 - 13 A joyful heart makes a face cheerful, but a sad heart [produces] a broken spirit.
 - 14 A discerning mind seeks knowledge, but the mouth of fools feeds on foolishness.
 - 15 All the days of the oppressed are miserable, but a cheerful heart has a continual feast.
 - 16 Better a little with the •fear of the LORD than great treasure with turmoil.
 - 17 Better a meal of vegetables where there is love than a fattened calf with hatred.
 - 18 A hot-tempered man stirs up conflict, but a man slow to anger calms strife.
 - 19 A slacker's way is like a thorny hedge, but the path of the upright is a highway.
 - 20 A wise son brings joy to his father, but a foolish one despises his mother.
 - 21 Foolishness brings joy to one without sense, but a man with understanding walks a straight path.
 - 22 Plans fail when there is no counsel, but with many advisers they succeed.
 - 23 A man takes joy in giving an answer;^c and a timely word—how good that is!

^a14:33 LXX reads unknown ^b15:4 Lit but crookedness in it ^c15:23 Lit in an answer of his mouth

- 24 For the discerning the path of life leads upward, so that he may avoid going down to Sheol.
- 25 The LORD destroys the house of the proud, but He protects the widow's territory.
- 26 The LORD detests the plans of an evil man, but pleasant words are pure.
- 27 The one who profits dishonestly troubles his household, but the one who hates bribes will live.
- 28 The mind of the righteous person thinks before answering, but the mouth of the wicked blurts out evil things.
- 29 The LORD is far from the wicked, but He hears the prayer of the righteous.
- 30 Bright eyes cheer the heart; good news strengthens^a the bones.
- 31 An ear that listens to life-giving rebukes will be at home among the wise.
- 32 Anyone who ignores instruction despises himself, but whoever listens to correction acquires good sense.^b
- 33 The fear of the LORD is wisdom's instruction, and humility comes before honor.
- 16 The reflections of the heart belong to man, but the answer of the tongue is from the LORD.
- 2 All a man's ways seem right in his own eyes, but the LORD weighs the motives.^c
- 3 Commit your activities to the LORD and your plans will be achieved.
- 4 The LORD has prepared everything for His purpose—even the wicked for the day of disaster.
- 5 Everyone with a proud heart is detestable to the LORD; be assured,^d he will not go unpunished.
- 6 Wickedness is •atoned for by loyalty and faithfulness, and one turns from evil by the •fear of the LORD.
- 7 When a man's ways please the LORD, He^e makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.
- 8 Better a little with righteousness than great income with injustice.
- 9 A man's heart plans his way, but the LORD determines his steps.
- 10 God's verdict is on the lips of a king;^f his mouth should not err in judgment.
- 11 Honest balances and scales are the LORD's; all the weights in the bag^g are His concern.
- 12 Wicked behavior^h is detestable to kings, since a throne is established through righteousness.
- 13 Righteous lips are a king's delight, and he loves one who speaks honestly.
- 14 A king's fury is a messenger of death, but a wise man appeases it.
- 15 When a king's face lights up, there is life; his favor is like a cloud with spring rain.
- 16 Acquire wisdom—how much better it is than gold! And acquire understanding—it is preferable to silver.
- 17 The highway of the upright avoids evil; the one who guards his way protects his life.
- 18 Pride comes before destruction, and an arrogant spirit before a fall.
- 19 Better to be lowly of spirit with the humbleⁱ than to divide plunder with the proud.
- 20 The one who understands a matter finds success, and the one who trusts in the LORD will be happy.
- 21 Anyone with a wise heart is called discerning, and pleasant speech^j increases learning.

- 22 Insight is a fountain of life for its possessor,
but folly is the instruction of fools.
- 23 A wise heart instructs its mouth and increases learning with its speech.^a
- 24 Pleasant words are a honeycomb:
sweet to the taste^b and health
to the body.^c
- 25 There is a way that seems right to a man,
but in the end it is the way of death.
- 26 A worker's appetite works for him because his hunger^d urges him on.
- 27 A worthless man digs up evil,
and his speech is like a scorching fire.
- 28 A contrary man spreads conflict,
and a gossip separates friends.
- 29 A violent man lures his neighbor,
leading him in a way that is not good.
- 30 The one who narrows his eyes
is planning deceptions;
the one who compresses his lips brings about evil.
- 31 Gray hair is a glorious crown;
it is found in the way of righteousness.
- 32 Patience is better than power,
and controlling one's temper,^e than capturing a city.
- 33 The lot is cast into the lap,
but its every decision is from the LORD.
- 17 Better a dry crust with peace
than a house full of feasting with strife.
- 2 A wise servant will rule over a disgraceful son
and share an inheritance among brothers.
- 3 A crucible is for silver and a smelter
for gold,
but the LORD is a tester of hearts.
- 4 A wicked person listens to malicious talk;^f
a liar pays attention to a destructive tongue.
- 5 The one who mocks the poor insults
his Maker,
and one who rejoices over disaster
will not go unpunished.
- 6 Grandchildren are the crown of the elderly,
and the pride of sons is their fathers.
- 7 Excessive speech is not appropriate
on a fool's lips;
how much worse are lies for a ruler.
- 8 A bribe seems like a magic stone
to its owner;
wherever he turns, he succeeds.
- 9 Whoever conceals an offense promotes love,
but whoever gossips about it separates friends.
- 10 A rebuke cuts into a perceptive person
more than a hundred lashes into a fool.
- 11 An evil man seeks only rebellion;
a cruel messenger^g will be sent
against him.
- 12 Better for a man to meet a bear robbed
of her cubs
than a fool in his foolishness.
- 13 If anyone returns evil for good,
evil will never depart from his house.
- 14 To start a conflict is to release a flood;
stop the dispute before it breaks out.
- 15 Acquitting the guilty and condemning the just—
both are detestable to the LORD.
- 16 Why does a fool have money in his hand
with no intention of buying wisdom?
- 17 A friend loves at all times,
and a brother is born for a difficult time.
- 18 One without sense enters an agreement^h and puts up security for his friend.
- 19 One who loves to offend loves strife;
one who builds a high threshold invites injury.
- 20 One with a twisted mind
will not succeed,
and one with deceitful speech will fall into ruin.
- 21 A man fathers a fool to his own sorrow;
the father of a fool has no joy.
- 22 A joyful heart is good medicine,
but a broken spirit dries up the bones.

- 23 A wicked man secretly takes a bribe
to subvert the course of justice.
- 24 Wisdom is the focus of the perceptive,
but a fool's eyes roam to the ends
of the earth.
- 25 A foolish son is grief to his father and bitterness to the one who bore him.
- 26 It is certainly not good to fine
an innocent person,
or to beat a noble for his honesty.^a
- 27 The intelligent person restrains his words, and one who keeps a cool head^b
is a man of understanding.
- 28 Even a fool is considered wise
when he keeps silent,
discerning, when he seals his lips.
- 18 One who isolates himself pursues [selfish] desires;
he rebels against all sound judgment.
- 2 A fool does not delight in understanding, but only wants to show off his opinions.^c
- 3 When a wicked man comes,
shame does also,
and along with dishonor, disgrace.
- 4 The words of a man's mouth
are deep waters,
a flowing river, a fountain of wisdom.
- 5 It is not good to show partiality
to the guilty
by perverting the justice
due the innocent.
- 6 A fool's lips lead to strife,
and his mouth provokes a beating.
- 7 A fool's mouth is his devastation,
and his lips are a trap for his life.
- 8 A gossip's words are like choice food that goes down to one's innermost being.^d
- 9 The one who is truly lazy in his work is brother to a vandal.^e
- 10 The name of the LORD is a strong tower;
the righteous run to it and are protected.^f
- 11 A rich man's wealth is his fortified city;
in his imagination it is like a high wall.
- 12 Before his downfall a man's heart
is proud,
but before honor comes humility.
- 13 The one who gives an answer
before he listens—
this is foolishness and disgrace for him.
- 14 A man's spirit can endure sickness,
but who can survive a broken spirit?
- 15 The mind of the discerning acquires knowledge,
and the ear of the wise seeks it.
- 16 A gift opens doors^g for a man and brings him before the great.
- 17 The first to state his case seems right
until another comes and cross-examines him.
- 18 [Casting] the lot ends quarrels and separates powerful opponents.
- 19 An offended brother is [harder to reach]^h
than a fortified city,
and quarrels are like the bars of a fortress.
- 20 From the fruit of his mouth
a man's stomach is satisfied;
he is filled with the product of his lips.
- 21 Life and death are in the power of the tongue,
and those who love it will eat its fruit.
- 22 A man who finds a wife finds a good thing
and obtains favor from the LORD.
- 23 The poor man pleads,
but the rich one answers roughly.
- 24 A man with many friends
may be harmed,ⁱ
but there is a friend who stays closer than a brother.
- 19 Better a poor man who walks in integrity than someone who has deceitful lips and is a fool.

- 21 An inheritance gained prematurely will not be blessed ultimately.
- 22 Don’t say, “I will avenge this evil!” Wait on the LORD, and He will rescue you.
- 23 Differing weights^d are detestable to the LORD, and dishonest scales are unfair.
- 24 A man’s steps are determined by the LORD, so how can anyone understand his own way?
- 25 It is a trap for anyone to dedicate something rashly and later to reconsider his vows.
- 26 A wise king separates out the wicked and drives the threshing wheel over them.
- 27 A person’s breath is the lamp of the LORD, searching the innermost parts.^e
- 28 Loyalty and faithfulness deliver a king; through loyalty he maintains his throne.
- 29 The glory of young men is their strength, and the splendor of old men is gray hair.
- 30 Lashes and wounds purge away evil, and beatings cleanse the innermost parts.^f
- 21 A king’s heart is a water channel in the LORD’s hand: He directs it wherever He chooses.
- 2 All the ways of a man seem right to him, but the LORD evaluates the motives.
- 3 Doing what is righteous and just is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.
- 4 The lamp^g that guides the wicked— haughty eyes and an arrogant heart— is sin.
- 5 The plans of the diligent certainly lead to profit, but anyone who is reckless only becomes poor.

18 The wicked are a ransom for the righteous, and the treacherous, for^c the upright.

19 Better to live in a wilderness than with a nagging
and hot-tempered wife.

20 Precious treasure and oil are in the dwelling of the wise,
but a foolish man consumes them.^d

21 The one who pursues righteousness and faithful love
will find life, righteousness, and honor.

22 The wise conquer a city of warriors
and bring down its mighty fortress.

23 The one who guards his mouth and tongue
keeps himself out of trouble.

24 The proud and arrogant person, named “Mocker,”
acts with excessive pride.

25 A slacker’s craving will kill him
because his hands refuse to work.

26 He is filled with craving^e all day long,
but the righteous give and don’t hold back.

27 The sacrifice of a wicked person is detestable—
how much more so
when he brings it with ulterior motives!

28 A lying witness will perish, but the one who listens
will speak successfully.

29 A wicked man puts on a bold face,
but the upright man considers his way.

30 No wisdom, no understanding,

Words of the Wise

- 17 Listen closely,^b pay attention to the words of the wise,
and apply your mind to my knowledge.
- 18 For it is pleasing if you keep them within you
and if^c they are constantly on your lips.
- 19 I have instructed you today—even you—
so that your confidence may be in the LORD.
- 20 Haven't I written for you thirty sayings^d
about counsel and knowledge, 21 in order to teach you true
and reliable words,
so that you may give a dependable report^e
to those who sent you?
- 22 Don't rob a poor man because he is poor,
and don't crush the oppressed
at the [•]gate,
23 for the LORD will take up their case
and will plunder those who plunder them.

- 24 Don't make friends with an angry man,^f
and don't be a companion
of a hot-tempered man, 25 or you will learn his ways
and entangle yourself in a snare.
- 26 Don't be one of those who enter agreements,^g
who put up security for loans.
- 27 If you have no money to pay,
even your bed will be taken from under you.
- 28 Don't move an ancient property line
that your fathers set up.
- 29 Do you see a man skilled in his work?
He will stand in the presence of kings.
He will not stand in the presence of unknown men.

- 23 When you sit down to dine
with a ruler,
consider carefully what^h is before you,
2 and stick a knife in your throat
if you have a big appetite;
3 don't desire his choice food,
for that food is deceptive.
- 4 Don't wear yourself out to get rich;
stop giving your attention to it.
- 5 As soon as your eyes fly to it, it disappears,
for it makes wings for itself
and flies like an eagle to the sky.
- 6 Don't eat a stingy person's bread,ⁱ
and don't desire his choice food, 7 for as he thinks within himself, so he is.
"Eat and drink," he says to you,
but his heart is not with you.
- 8 You will vomit the little you've eaten
and waste your pleasant words.
- 9 Don't speak to^k a fool,
for he will despise the insight of your words.
- 10 Don't move an ancient property line,
and don't encroach on the fields

Hezekiah's Collection

- 25 These too are proverbs of Solomon,
which the men of Hezekiah,
king of Judah, copied.
- 2 It is the glory of God to conceal a matter
and the glory of kings to investigate
a matter.
- 3 As the heaven is high and the earth
is deep,
so the hearts of kings cannot be investigated.
- 4 Remove impurities from silver,
and a vessel will be produced^c
for a silversmith.
- 5 Remove the wicked
from the king's presence,
and his throne will be established in righteousness.
- 6 Don't brag about yourself
before the king,
and don't stand in the place of the great;
- 7 for it is better for him to say to you,
"Come up here!"
than to demote you in plain view of a noble.^d
- 8 Don't take a matter to court hastily.
Otherwise, what will you do afterwards
if your opponent^e humiliates you?
- 9 Make your case with your opponent^e without revealing another's secret;
otherwise, the one who hears
will disgrace you,
and you'll never live it down.^f
- 11 A word spoken at the right time with a nagging wife.

- 25 Good news from a distant land is like cold water to a parched throat.^b
- 26 A righteous person who yields to the wicked
is like a muddied spring
or a polluted well.
- 27 It is not good to eat too much honey,
or to seek glory after glory.
- 28 A man who does not control his temper
is like a city whose wall is broken down.

26 Like snow in summer and rain
at harvest,
honor is inappropriate for a fool.

- 2 Like a flitting sparrow
or a fluttering swallow,
an undeserved curse goes nowhere.
- 3 A whip for the horse, a bridle
for the donkey,
and a rod for the backs of fools.
- 4 Don't answer a fool according to his foolishness,
or you'll be like him yourself.
- 5 Answer a fool according to his foolishness,
or he'll become wise in his own eyes.
- 6 The one who sends a message
by a fool's hand
cuts off his own feet and drinks violence.
- 7 A proverb in the mouth of a fool
is like lame legs that hang limp.
- 8 Giving honor to a fool
is like binding a stone in a sling.^c
- 9 A proverb in the mouth of a fool
is like a stick with thorns, brandished by^d the hand of a drunkard.
- 10 The one who hires a fool, or who hires
those passing by,

- 4 Fury is cruel, and anger is a flood, but who can withstand jealousy?
- 5 Better an open reprimand than concealed love.
- 6 The wounds of a friend are trustworthy, but the kisses of an enemy are excessive.
- 7 A person who is full tramples on a honeycomb, but to a hungry person, any bitter thing is sweet.
- 8 A man wandering from his home is like a bird wandering from its nest.
- 9 Oil and incense bring joy to the heart, and the sweetness of a friend is better than self-counsel.^c
- 10 Don't abandon your friend or your father's friend, and don't go to your brother's house in your time of calamity; better a neighbor nearby than a brother far away.
- 11 Be wise, my son, and bring my heart joy, so that I can answer anyone who taunts me.
- 12 The sensible see danger and take cover; the foolish keep going and are punished.
- 13 Take his garment,^d for he has put up security for a stranger; get collateral if it is for foreigners.^e
- 14 If one blesses his neighbor with a loud voice early in the morning, it will be counted as a curse to him.
- 15 An endless dripping on a rainy day and a nagging wife are alike.
- 16 The one who controls her controls the wind and grasps oil with his right hand.
- 17 Iron sharpens iron, and one man sharpens another.^f

- 21 Silver is [tested] in a crucible, gold in a smelter, and a man, by the praise he receives.^g
- 22 Though you grind a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with grain, you will not separate his foolishness from him.
- 23 Know well the condition of your flock, and pay attention to your herds,

28 The wicked flee when no one is pursuing [them],
but the righteous are as bold as a lion.

2 When a land is in rebellion, it has many rulers,
but with a discerning
and knowledgeable person, it endures.

3 A destitute leader^a who oppresses
the poor
is like a driving rain that leaves no food.

4 Those who reject the law
praise the wicked,
but those who keep the law battle
against them.

5 Evil men do not understand justice,
but those who seek the LORD
understand everything.

6 Better a poor man who lives with integrity than a rich man who distorts right and wrong.^b

7 A discerning son keeps the law,
but a companion of gluttons humiliates
his father.

8 Whoever increases his wealth
through excessive interest
collects it for one who is kind to the poor.

9 Anyone who turns his ear away from hearing the law—
even his prayer is detestable.

10 The one who leads the upright into an evil way
will fall into his own pit,
but the blameless will inherit
what is good.

11 A rich man is wise in his own eyes,
but a poor man who has discernment sees through him.

12 When the righteous triumph,
there is great rejoicing,^c
but when the wicked come to power,
people hide themselves.

13 The one who conceals his sins
will not prosper,
but whoever confesses
and renounces them
will find mercy.

14 Happy is the one who is always reverent,
but one who hardens his heart falls into trouble.

15 A wicked ruler over a helpless people is like a roaring lion or a charging bear.

16 A leader who lacks understanding is very oppressive,
but one who hates unjust gain
prolongs his life.

17 A man burdened by bloodguilt^d will be a fugitive until death.
Let no one help him.

18 The one who lives with integrity
will be helped,
but one who distorts right and wrong^e
will suddenly fall.

19 The one who works his land
will have plenty of food,
but whoever chases fantasies
will have his fill of poverty.

20 A faithful man will have many blessings, but one in a hurry to get rich
will not go unpunished.

21 It is not good to show partiality—
yet a man may sin for a piece of bread.

22 A greedy man^f is in a hurry for wealth;
he doesn't know that poverty will come
to him.

23 One who rebukes a person will later find more favor
than one who flatters^g with his tongue.

24 The one who robs his father or mother and says, "That's no sin,"
is a companion to a man who destroys.

25 A greedy person provokes conflict, but whoever trusts in the LORD will prosper.

26 The one who trusts in himself^h is a fool,
but one who walks in wisdom
will be safe.

The Words of Agur

The oracle.^a

The man's oration to Ithiel, to Ithiel and Ucal:^b

- 2 I am the least intelligent of men,^c
and I lack man's ability to understand.
- 3 I have not gained wisdom,
and I have no knowledge of the Holy One.
- 4 Who has gone up to heaven
and come down?
Who has gathered the wind
in His hands?
Who has bound up the waters in a cloak?
Who has established all the ends
of the earth?
What is His name,
and what is the name of His Son—
if you know?
- 5 Every word of God is pure;^d
He is a shield to those who take refuge
in Him.
- 6 Don't add to His words,
or He will rebuke you, and you will be proved a liar.
- 7 Two things I ask of You;
don't deny them to me before I die:
- 8 Keep falsehood and deceitful words
far from me.
Give me neither poverty nor wealth;
feed me with the food I need.
- 9 Otherwise, I might have too much and deny You, saying,
"Who is the LORD?"
or I might have nothing and steal,
profaning^e the name of my God.
- 10 Don't slander a servant to his master, or he will curse you, and you will become guilty.
- 11 There is a generation that curses its father and does not bless its mother.
- 12 There is a generation that is pure
in its own eyes,
yet is not washed from its filth.
- 13 There is a generation—how haughty its eyes and pretentious its looks.^f

- 14 There is a generation whose teeth are swords,
whose fangs are knives, devouring the oppressed from the land and the needy from among mankind.
- 15 The leech has two daughters: Give, Give.
Three things are never satisfied;
four never say, "Enough!":
- 16 •Sheol; a barren womb;

and fire, which never says, "Enough!"
- 17 As for the eye that ridicules a father and despises obedience to a mother,

and young vultures eat it.
- 18 Three things are beyond me;
four I can't understand:
- 19 the way of an eagle in the sky,
the way of a snake on a rock,
the way of a ship at sea,
and the way of a man with a young woman.
- 20 This is the way of an adulteress:
she eats and wipes her mouth
and says, "I've done nothing wrong."
- 21 The earth trembles under three things;
it cannot bear up under four:
- 22 a servant when he becomes king,
a fool when he is stuffed with food,
- 23 an unloved woman when she marries,
and a serving girl when she ousts
her lady.
- 24 Four things on earth are small,
yet they are extremely wise:
- 25 the ants are not a strong people,
yet they store up their food
in the summer;
- 26 hyraxes are not a mighty people,
yet they make their homes in the cliffs;
- 27 locusts have no king,
yet all of them march in ranks;
- 28 a lizard^g can be caught in your hands,
yet it lives in kings' palaces.
- 29 Three things are stately in their stride,
even four are stately in their walk:

The Words of Lemuel

31 The words of King Lemuel,
an oracle^c that his mother taught him:

- 2 What [should I say], my son?
What, son of my womb?
What, son of my vows?
- 3 Don't spend your energy on women or your efforts on those who destroy kings.
- 4 It is not for kings, Lemuel,
it is not for kings to drink wine
or for rulers [to desire] beer.
- 5 Otherwise, they^d will drink, forget what is decreed,
and pervert justice for all the oppressed.^e
- 6 Give beer to one who is dying,
and wine to one whose life is bitter.
- 7 Let him drink so that he can forget his poverty
and remember his trouble no more.

ECCLESIASTES

Everything is Futile

1 The words of the Teacher,^a son of David, king in Jerusalem.

2 “Absolute futility,” says the Teacher.

“Absolute futility. Everything is futile.”

3 What does a man gain for all his efforts he labors at under the sun?

4 A generation goes and a generation comes,
but the earth remains forever.

5 The sun rises and the sun sets;
panting, [it returns] to its place
where it rises.

6 Gusting to the south,
turning to the north,
turning, turning, goes the wind,
and the wind returns in its cycles.

7 All the streams flow to the sea,
yet the sea is never full.
The streams are flowing to the place,
and they flow there again.

8 All things^b are wearisome;
man is unable to speak.
The eye is not satisfied by seeing or the ear filled with hearing.

9 What has been is what will be,
and what has been done is what will be done;
there is nothing new under the sun.

10 Can one say about anything, “Look, this is new”?
It has already existed in the ages
before us.

11 There is no memory of those who^c came before;
and of those who^c will come after there will also be no memory
among those who follow [them].

The Limitations of Wisdom

¹²I, the Teacher, have been^d king over Israel in Jerusalem. ¹³I applied my mind to seek and explore through wisdom all that is done under heaven. God has given •people this miserable task to keep them occupied. ¹⁴I have seen all the things that are done under the sun and have found everything to be futile, a pursuit of the wind.^e

15 What is crooked cannot be straightened;
what is lacking cannot be counted.

¹⁶I said to myself,^f “Look, I have amassed wisdom far beyond all those who were over Jerusalem before me, and my mind has thoroughly grasped^g wisdom and knowledge.” ¹⁷I applied my mind to know wisdom and knowledge, madness and folly; I learned that this too is a pursuit of the wind.^e

18 For with much wisdom is much sorrow;
as knowledge increases, grief increases.

The Emptiness of Pleasure

2 I said to myself, “Go ahead, I will test you with pleasure and enjoy what is good.” But it turned out to be futile. ²I said about laughter, “It is madness,” and about pleasure, “What does this accomplish?” ³I explored with my mind how to let my body enjoy life^h with wine and how to grasp folly—my mind still guiding me with wisdom—until I could see what is good for •people to do under heavenⁱ during the few days of their lives.

The Emptiness of Possessions

⁴I increased my achievements. I built houses and planted vineyards for myself. ⁵I made gardens and parks for myself and planted every kind of fruit tree in them. ⁶I constructed reservoirs of water for myself from which to irrigate a grove of flourishing trees. ⁷I acquired male and female servants and had slaves who were born in my house. I also owned many herds of cattle and flocks, more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. ⁸I also amassed silver and gold for myself, and the treasure of kings and provinces. I gathered male and female singers for myself, and many concubines, the delights of men.^j ⁹Thus, I became great and surpassed all who were before me in Jerusalem; my wisdom also remained with me. ¹⁰All that my eyes desired, I did not deny them. I did not refuse myself any pleasure, for I took pleasure in all my struggles. This was my reward for all my struggles. ¹¹ When I considered all that I had accomplished^a and what I had labored to achieve, I found everything to be futile and a pursuit of the wind. There was nothing to be gained under the sun.

The Relative Value of Wisdom

¹² Then I turned to consider wisdom, madness, and folly, for what will the man be like who comes after the king? He^b will do what has already been done. ¹³ And I realized that there is an advantage to wisdom over folly, like the advantage of light over darkness.

¹⁴ The wise man has eyes in his head,
but the fool walks in darkness.

Yet I also knew that one fate comes to them both. ¹⁵ So I said to myself, "What happens to the fool will also happen to me. Why then have I been overly wise?" And I said to myself that this is also futile. ¹⁶ For, just like the fool, there is no lasting remembrance of the wise man, since in the days to come both will be forgotten. How is it that the wise man dies just like the fool? ¹⁷ Therefore, I hated life because the work that was done under the sun was distressing to me. For everything is futile and a pursuit of the wind.

The Emptiness of Work

¹⁸ I hated all my work at which I labored under the sun because I must leave it to the man who comes after me. ¹⁹ And who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will take over all my work that I labored at skillfully under the sun. This too is futile. ²⁰ So I began to give myself over^c to despair concerning all my work I had labored at under the sun. ²¹ For there is a man whose work was done with wisdom, knowledge, and skill, but he must give his portion to a man who has not worked for it. This too is futile and a great wrong. ²² For what does a man get with all his work and all his efforts that he labors with under the sun? ²³ For all his days are filled with grief, and his occupation is sorrowful; even at night, his mind does not rest. This too is futile.

²⁴ There is nothing better for man than to eat, drink, and to enjoy^d e his work. I have seen that even this is from God's hand. ²⁵ For who can eat and who can enjoy life^f apart from Him?^g ²⁶ For to the man who is pleasing in His sight, He gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy, but to the sinner He gives the task of gathering and accumulating in order to give to the one who is pleasing in God's sight. This too is futile and a pursuit of the wind.

The Mystery of Time

3 There is an occasion for everything, and a time for every activity
under heaven:
² a time to give birth and a time to die;
a time to plant and a time to uproot;^h ³ a time to kill and a time to heal;
a time to tear down and a time to build;
⁴ a time to weep and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn and a time to dance; ⁵ a time to throw stones and a time to gather stones;
a time to embrace and a time
to avoid embracing;
⁶ a time to search and a time to count
as lost;
a time to keep and a time to throw away;
⁷ a time to tear and a time to sew;
a time to be silent and a time to speak;
⁸ a time to love and a time to hate;
a time for war and a time for peace.

⁹ What does the worker gain from his struggles? ¹⁰ I have seen the task that God has given •people to keep them occupied. ¹¹ He has made everything appropriateⁱ in its time. He has also put eternity in their hearts,^j but man cannot discover the work God has done from beginning to end. ¹² I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice and enjoy the^k good life. ¹³ It is also the gift of God whenever anyone eats, drinks, and enjoys all his efforts. ¹⁴ I know that all God does will last forever; there is no adding to it or taking from it. God works so that people will be in awe of Him. ¹⁵ Whatever is, has already been, and whatever will be, already is. God repeats what has passed.^l

The Mystery of Injustice and Death

¹⁶ I also observed under the sun: there is wickedness at the place of judgment and there is wickedness at the place of righteousness. ¹⁷ I

^a2:11 Lit all my works that my hands had done ^b2:12 Other Hb mss read They ^c2:20 Lit And I turned to cause my heart ^d2:24 Syr, Tg; MT reads There is no good in man who eats and drinks and enjoys ^e2:24 Lit and his soul sees good ^f2:25 LXX, Theod. said to myself, “God will judge the righteous and the wicked, since there is a time for every activity and every work.” ¹⁸ I said to myself, “This happens concerning people, so that God may test them and they may see for themselves that they are like animals.” ¹⁹ For the fate of people and the fate of animals is the same. As one dies, so dies the other; they all have the same breath. People have no advantage over animals, for everything is futile. ²⁰ All are going to the same place; all come from dust, and all return to dust. ²¹ Who knows if the spirit of people rises upward and the spirit of animals goes downward to the earth? ²² I have seen that there is nothing better than for a person to enjoy his activities, because that is his reward. For who can enable him to see what will happen after he dies?^a

4 Again, I observed all the acts of oppression being done under the sun. Look at the tears of those who are oppressed; they have no one to comfort them. Power is with those who oppress them; they have no one to comfort them. ² So I admired the dead, who have already died, more than the living, who are still alive. ³ But better than either of them is the one who has not yet existed, who has not seen the evil activity that is done under the sun.

The Loneliness of Wealth

⁴ I saw that all labor and all skillful work is due to a man's jealousy of his friend. This too is futile and a pursuit of the wind.

⁵ The fool folds his arms and consumes his own flesh.

⁶ Better one handful with rest, than two handfuls with effort and pursuit of the wind.

⁷ Again, I saw futility under the sun: ⁸ There is a person without a companion,^b without even a son or brother, and though there is no end to all his struggles, his eyes are still not content with riches. “So who am I struggling for,” [he asks,] “and depriving myself from good?” This too is futile and a miserable task.

⁹ Two are better than one because they have a good reward for their efforts. ¹⁰ For if either falls, his companion can lift him up; but pity the one who falls without another to lift him up. ¹¹ Also, if two lie down together, they can keep warm; but how can one person alone keep warm? ¹² And if somebody overpowers one person, two can resist him. A cord of three strands is not easily broken.

¹³ Better is a poor but wise youth than an old but foolish king who no longer pays attention to warnings. ¹⁴ For he came from prison to be king, even though he was born poor in his kingdom. ¹⁵ I saw all the living who move about under the sun follow^c a second youth who succeeds him. ¹⁶ There is no limit to all the •people who were before them, yet those who come later will not rejoice in him. This too is futile and a pursuit of the wind.

Caution in God's Presence

5^d Guard your step when you go to the house of God. Better to draw near in obedience than to offer the sacrifice as fools do, for they are ignorant and do wrong. ^{2e} Do not be hasty to speak, and do not be impulsive to make a speech before God. God is in heaven and you are on earth, so let your words be few. ³ For dreams result from much work and a fool's voice from many words. ⁴ When you make a vow to God, don't delay fulfilling it, because He does not delight in fools. Fulfill what you vow. ⁵ Better that you do not vow than that you vow and not fulfill it. ⁶ Do not let your mouth bring guilt on you, and do not say in the presence of the messenger that it was a mistake. Why should God be angry with your words and destroy the work of your hands? ⁷ For many dreams bring futility, also many words. So, •fear God.

The Realities of Wealth

¹³ There is a sickening tragedy I have seen under the sun: wealth kept by its owner to his harm. ¹⁴ That wealth was lost in a bad venture,

^a3:22 Lit after him ^b4:8 Lit person, but there is not a second, ^c4:15 Lit with ^d5:1 Ec 4:17 in Hb ^e5:2 Ec 5:1 in Hb ^f5:9 Or An advantage for the land in every respect is a king for a cultivated field; Hb obscure

so when he fathered a son, he was empty-handed.¹⁵ As he came from his mother's womb, so he will go again, naked as he came; he will take nothing for his efforts that he can carry in his hands.¹⁶ This too is a sickening tragedy: exactly as he comes, so he will go. What does he gain who struggles for the wind? ¹⁷ What is more, he eats in darkness all his days, with much sorrow, sickness, and anger.

¹⁸ Here is what I have seen to be good: it is appropriate to eat, drink, and experience good in all the labor one does under the sun during the few days of his life God has given him, because that is his reward.¹⁹ God has also given riches and wealth to every man, and He has allowed him to enjoy them, take his reward, and rejoice in his labor. This is a gift of God,²⁰ for he does not often consider the days of his life because God keeps him occupied with the joy of his heart.

6 Here is a tragedy I have observed under the sun, and it weighs heavily on humanity:^a ² God gives a man riches, wealth, and honor so that he lacks nothing of all he desires for himself, but God does not allow him to enjoy them. Instead, a stranger will enjoy them. This is futile and a sickening tragedy.³ A man may father a hundred children and live many years. No matter how long he lives,^b if he is not satisfied by good things and does not even have a proper burial, I say that a stillborn child is better off than he.⁴ For he comes in futility and he goes in darkness, and his name is shrouded in darkness.⁵ Though a stillborn child does not see the sun and is not conscious, it has more rest than he.⁶ And if he lives a thousand years twice, but does not experience happiness, do not both go to the same place?

⁷ All man's labor is for his stomach,^c yet the appetite is never satisfied.

⁸ What advantage then does the wise man have over the fool? What [advantage] is there for the poor person who knows how to conduct himself before others? ⁹ Better what the eyes see than wandering desire. This too is futile and a pursuit of the wind.

¹⁰ Whatever exists was given its name long ago,^d and who man is, is known. But he is not able to contend with the One stronger than he.¹¹ For when there are many words, they increase futility. What is the advantage for man? ¹² For who knows what is good for man in life, in the few days of his futile life that he spends like a shadow? Who can tell man what will happen after him under the sun?

Wise Sayings

- 7 A good name is better than fine perfume, and the day of one's death than the day of one's birth.
- ² It is better to go to a house of mourning than to go to a house of feasting, since that is the end of all mankind, and the living should take it to heart.
- ³ Grief is better than laughter, for when a face is sad, a heart may be glad.
- ⁴ The heart of the wise is in a house of mourning, but the heart of fools is in a house of pleasure.
- ⁵ It is better to listen to rebuke from a wise person than to listen to the song of fools.
- ⁶ For like the crackling of [burning] thorns under the pot, so is the laughter of the fool. This too is futile.
- ⁷ Surely, the practice of extortion turns a wise person into a fool, and a bribe destroys the mind.
- ⁸ The end of a matter is better than its beginning; a patient spirit is better than a proud spirit.
- ⁹ Don't let your spirit rush to be angry, for anger abides in the heart of fools.
- ¹⁰ Don't say, "Why were the former days better than these?" For it is not wise of you to ask this.
- ¹¹ Wisdom is as good as an inheritance, and an advantage to those who see the sun.
- ¹² For wisdom is protection as money is protection, and the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the life of its owner.
- ¹³ Consider the work of God; for who can straighten out what He has made crooked?

¹⁴ In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity, consider: without question, God has made the one as well as the other, so that man cannot discover anything that will come after him.

^a6:1 Or it is common among men ^b6:3 Lit how many years ^c6:7 Lit mouth ^d6:10 Lit name already

Avoiding Extremes

¹⁵ In my futile life^a I have seen everything: there is a righteous man who perishes in spite of his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who lives long in spite of his evil. ¹⁶ Don't be excessively righteous, and don't be overly wise. Why should you destroy yourself? ¹⁷ Don't be excessively wicked, and don't be foolish. Why should you die before your time? ¹⁸ It is good that you grasp the one and do not let the other slip from your hand. For the one who •fears God will end up with both of them.

¹⁹ Wisdom makes the wise man stronger than ten rulers of a city.

²⁰ There is certainly no righteous man on the earth who does good and never sins.

²¹ Don't pay attention^b to everything •people say, or you may hear your servant cursing you; ²² for you know that many times you yourself have cursed others.

What the Teacher Found

²³ I have tested all this by wisdom. I resolved, "I will be wise," but it was beyond me. ²⁴ What exists is beyond [reach] and very deep. Who can discover it? ²⁵ I turned my thoughts to know, explore, and seek wisdom and an explanation [for things], and to know that wickedness is stupidity and folly is madness. ²⁶ And I find more bitter than death the woman who is a trap, her heart a net, and her hands chains. The one who pleases God will escape her, but the sinner will be captured by her. ²⁷ "Look," says the Teacher, "this I have discovered, by adding one thing to another to find out the explanation, ²⁸ which my soul continually searches for but does not find: among a thousand [people] I have found one [true] man, but among all these I have not found a true woman. ²⁹ Only see this: I have discovered that God made people upright, but they pursued many schemes."

Wisdom, Authorities, and Inequities

8 Who is like the wise person, and who knows the interpretation of a matter? A man's wisdom brightens his face, and the sternness of his face is changed.

² Keep^c the king's command. Concerning an oath by God, ³ do not be in a hurry. Leave his presence, and don't persist in a bad cause, since he will do whatever he wants. ⁴ For the king's word is authoritative, and who can say to him, "What are you doing?" ⁵ The one who keeps a command will not experience anything harmful, and a wise heart knows the right time and procedure. ⁶ For every activity there is a right time and procedure, even though man's troubles are heavy on him. ⁷ Yet no one knows what will happen, because who can tell him what will happen? ⁸ No one has authority over the wind^d to restrain it, and there is no authority over the day of death; there is no furlough in battle, and wickedness will not allow those who practice it to escape. ⁹ All this I have seen, applying my mind to all the work that is done under the sun, at a time when one man has authority over another to his harm.

¹⁰ In such circumstances, I saw the wicked buried. They came and went from the holy place, and they were praised^e in the city where they did so. This too is futile. ¹¹ Because the sentence against a criminal act is not carried out quickly, therefore the heart of •people is filled [with the desire] to commit crime. ¹² Although a sinner commits crime a hundred times and prolongs his life, yet I also know that it will go well with God-fearing people, for they are reverent before Him. ¹³ However, it will not go well with the wicked, and they will not lengthen their days like a shadow, for they are not reverent before God.

¹⁴ There is a futility that is done on the earth: there are righteous people who get what the actions of the wicked deserve, and there are wicked people who get what the actions of the righteous deserve. I say that this too is futile. ¹⁵ So I commended enjoyment, because there is nothing better for man under the sun except to eat, drink, and enjoy himself, for this will accompany him in his labor during the years of his days that God gives him under the sun.

¹⁶ When I applied my mind to know wisdom and to observe the activity that is done on the earth (even though one's eyes do not close in sleep day or night), ¹⁷ I observed all the work of God [and concluded] that man is unable to discover the work that is done under the sun. Even though a man labors hard to explore it, he cannot find it; even if the wise man claims to know it, he is unable to discover it.

Enjoy Life Despite Death

9 Indeed, I took all this to heart and explained it all: the righteous, the wise, and their

^a7:15 Lit days ^b7:21 Lit Don't give your heart ^c8:2 Some Hb mss, LXX, Vg, Tg, Syr; other Hb mss read I, keep ^d8:8 Or life-breath ^e8:10 Some Hb mss, LXX, Aq, Theod, Sym; other Hb mss read forgotten

works are in God's hands. •People don't know whether [to expect] love or hate. Everything lies ahead of them. ²Everything is the same for everyone: there is one fate for the righteous and the wicked, for the good and the bad,^a for the clean and the unclean, for the one who sacrifices and the one who does not sacrifice. As it is for the good, so it is for the sinner, as for the one who takes an oath, so for the one who fears an oath. ³This is an evil in all that is done under the sun: there is one fate for everyone. In addition, the hearts of people are full of evil, and madness is in their hearts while they live—after that they go to the dead. ⁴But there is hope for whoever is joined^b with all the living, since a live dog is better than a dead lion. ⁵For the living know that they will die, but the dead don't know anything. There is no longer a reward for them because the memory of them is forgotten. ⁶Their love, their hate, and their envy have already disappeared, and there is no longer a portion for them in all that is done under the sun.

⁷Go, eat your bread with pleasure, and drink your wine with a cheerful heart, for God has already accepted your works. ⁸Let your clothes be white all the time, and never let oil be lacking on your head. ⁹Enjoy life with the wife you love all the days of your fleeting^c life, which has been given to you under the sun, all your fleeting days. For that is your portion in life and in your struggle under the sun. ¹⁰Whatever your hands find to do, do with [all] your strength, because there is no work, planning, knowledge, or wisdom in •Sheol where you are going.

¹¹Again I saw under the sun that the race is not to the swift, or the battle to the strong, or bread to the wise, or riches to the discerning, or favor to the skillful; rather, time and chance happen to all of them. ¹²For man certainly does not know his time: like fish caught in a cruel net, or like birds caught in a trap, so people are trapped in an evil time, as it suddenly falls on them.

¹³I have observed that this also is wisdom under the sun, and it is significant to me: ¹⁴There was a small city with few men in it. A great king came against it, surrounded it, and built large siege works against it. ¹⁵Now a poor wise man was found in the city, and he delivered the city by his wisdom. Yet no one remembered that poor man. ¹⁶And I said, "Wisdom is better than strength, but the wisdom of the poor man is despised, and his words are not heeded."

- ¹⁷ The calm words of the wise are heeded more than the shouts of a ruler over fools.
- ¹⁸ Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but one sinner can destroy much good.

The Burden of Folly

10 Dead flies make a perfumer's oil ferment and stink; so a little folly outweighs wisdom and honor.

- ² A wise man's heart [goes] to the^d right, but a fool's heart to the^d left.
- ³ Even when the fool walks along the road, his heart lacks sense, and he shows everyone he is a fool.
- ⁴ If the ruler's anger rises against you, don't leave your place, for calmness puts great offenses to rest.

⁵ There is an evil I have seen under the sun, an error proceeding from the presence of the ruler:

- ⁶ The fool is appointed to great heights, but the rich remain in lowly positions.
- ⁷ I have seen slaves on horses, but princes walking on the ground like slaves.

⁸ The one who digs a pit may fall into it, and the one who breaks through a wall may be bitten by a snake.

⁹ The one who quarries stones may be hurt by them; the one who splits trees may be endangered by them.

¹⁰ If the ax is dull, and one does not sharpen its edge, then one must exert more strength; however, the advantage of wisdom is that it brings success.

¹¹ If the snake bites before it is charmed, then there is no advantage for the charmer.^e

¹² The words from the mouth of a wise man are gracious, but the lips of a fool consume him.

¹³ The beginning of the words of his mouth is folly, but the end of his speaking is evil madness.

¹⁴ Yet the fool multiplies words. No one knows what will happen,

- 15 The struggles of fools weary them,
for they don't know how to go to the city.

and your princes feast in the morning.
- 17 Blessed are you, land, when your king is

Invest in Life

- 11 Send your bread on the surface
of the waters,
for after many days you may find it.
- 2 Give a portion to seven or even to eight,
for you don't know what disaster
may happen on earth.
- 3 If the clouds are full, they will pour out
rain on the earth;
whether a tree falls to the south
or the north,
the place where the tree falls,
there it will lie.
- 4 One who watches the wind will not sow,
and the one who looks at the clouds
will not reap.
- 5 Just as you don't know the path
of the wind,
or how bones [develop] in^a the womb
of a pregnant woman,
so you don't know the work of God who makes everything.
- 6 In the morning sow your seed,
and at evening do not let your hand rest,
because you don't know
which will succeed,

- whether one or the other,
or if both of them will be equally good.
- 7 Light is sweet,
and it is pleasing for the eyes to see
the sun.
- 8 For if a man should live many years,
let him rejoice in them all,
and let him remember the days
of darkness, since they will be many.
All that comes is futile.
- 9 Rejoice, young man, while you are young,
and let your heart be glad in the days
of your youth.
And walk in the ways of your heart
and in the sights of your eyes;
but know that for all of these things
God will bring you to judgment.
- 10 Remove sorrow from your heart,
and put away pain from your flesh,
because youth and the prime of life are fleeting.

The Twilight of Life

- 12 So remember your Creator in the days of your youth:
- Before the days of adversity come,
and the years approach when you will say,
“I have no delight in them”;
- 2 before the sun and the light are darkened,
and the moon and the stars,
and the clouds return after^b the rain;
- 3 on the day when the guardians
of the house tremble,
and the strong men stoop,
the women who grind cease because they are few,
and the ones who watch
through the windows see dimly,
- 4 and the doors at the street are shut
while the sound of the mill fades;
when one rises at the sound of a bird,
and all the daughters of song grow faint.
- 5 Also, they are afraid of heights
and dangers on the road;
the almond tree blossoms,
the grasshopper loses its spring,^c
and the caper berry has no effect;
for man is headed to his eternal home,
and mourners will walk around
in the street;
- 6 before the silver cord is snapped,^d
and the golden bowl is broken,

^a11:5 Or know how the life-breath comes to the bones in ^b12:2 Or with ^c12:5 Or grasshopper is weighed down, or grasshopper drags itself along ^d12:6 Alt Hb tradition reads removed and the jar is shattered at the spring,

and the wheel is broken into the well;

- 7 and the dust returns to the earth
as it once was,
and the spirit returns to God who gave it.

8 “Absolute futility,” says the Teacher. “Everything is futile.”

The Teacher's Objectives and Conclusion

9 In addition to the Teacher being a wise man, he constantly taught the people knowledge; he weighed, explored, and arranged many proverbs. 10 The Teacher sought to find delightful sayings and to accurately write words of truth. 11 The sayings of the wise are like goads, and those from masters of collections are like firmly embedded nails. The sayings are given by one Shepherd.^a 12 But beyond these, my son, be warned: there is no end to the making of many books, and much study wearies the body. 13 When all has been heard, the conclusion of the matter is: •fear God and keep His commands, because this [is for] all humanity. 14 For God will bring every act to judgment, including every hidden thing, whether good or evil.

How can I put it back on?
I have washed my feet.
How can I get them dirty?
- 4 My love thrust his hand
through the opening,
and my feelings were stirred for him.
- 5 I rose to open for my love.
My hands dripped with myrrh,
my fingers with flowing myrrh
on the handles of the bolt.
- 6 I opened to my love,
but my love had turned and gone away.
I was crushed^e that he had left.^f
I sought him, but did not find him.
I called him, but he did not answer.
- 7 The guards who go about the city
found me.
They beat and wounded me;
they took my cloak^g from me—
the guardians of the walls.
- 8 Young women of Jerusalem, I charge you:
if you find my love,
tell him that I am lovesick.

Where has your love gone,
most beautiful of women?
Which way has he^c turned?
We will seek him with you.

each one having a twin,
and not one missing.^e
7 Behind your veil,
your brow^f is like a slice of pomegranate.
8 There are 60 queens
and 80 concubines
and young women^g without number.
9 But my dove, my virtuous one,
is unique;
she is the favorite of her mother,
perfect to the one who gave her birth.

Women see her and declare her fortunate;
queens and concubines also, and they sing
her praises:

ISAIAH

1 The vision concerning Judah and Jerusalem that Isaiah son of Amoz saw during the reigns^b c of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

Judah on Trial

- 2 Listen, heavens, and pay attention, earth,
 for the LORD has spoken:
 “I have raised children^d
 and brought them up,
 but they have rebelled against Me.
 3 The ox knows its owner,
 and the donkey
 its master’s feeding-trough,
 [but] Israel does not know;
 My people do not understand.”
 4 Oh—sinful nation,
 people weighed down with iniquity,
 brood of evildoers,
 depraved children!^d
 They have abandoned the LORD;
 they have despised the Holy One
 of Israel;
 they have turned their backs [on Him].
 5 Why do you want more beatings?
 Why do you keep on rebelling?
 The whole head is hurt,
 and the whole heart is sick.
 6 From the sole of the foot
 even to the head,
 no spot is uninjured—
 wounds, welts, and festering sores
 not cleansed, bandaged,
 or soothed with oil.
 7 Your land is desolate,
 your cities burned with fire;
 before your very eyes foreigners devour your fields—
 a desolation overthrown by foreigners.
 8 Daughter Zion is abandoned

- like a shelter in a vineyard,
 like a shack in a cucumber field,
 like a besieged city.
 9 If the LORD of •Hosts
 had not left us a few survivors,
 we would be like Sodom,
 we would resemble Gomorrah.
 10 Hear the word of the LORD,
 you rulers of Sodom!
 Listen to the instruction of our God,
 you people of Gomorrah!
 11 “What are all your sacrifices to Me?”
 asks the LORD.
 “I have had enough of •burnt offerings and rams
 and the fat of well-fed cattle;
 I have no desire for the blood of bulls,
 lambs, or male goats.
 12 When you come to appear before Me,
 who requires this from you—
 [this] trampling of My courts?
 13 Stop bringing useless offerings.
 I despise [your] incense.
 New Moons and Sabbaths,
 and the calling of solemn assemblies—
 I cannot stand iniquity with a festival.
 14 I hate your New Moons
 and prescribed festivals.
 They have become a burden to Me;
 I am tired of putting up with [them].
 15 When you lift up your hands [in prayer],
 I will refuse to look at you;
 even if you offer countless prayers,
 I will not listen.
 Your hands are covered with blood.

Purification of Jerusalem

- 16 “Wash yourselves. Cleanse yourselves.
 Remove your evil deeds from My sight.
 Stop doing evil.
 17 Learn to do what is good.

^a8:13 You is feminine in Hb. ^b1:1 Lit saw in the days ^c1:1 c. 792–686 B.C. ^d1:2,4 Or sons Seek justice.

Correct the oppressor.^a Defend the rights of the fatherless.
Plead the widow's cause.

- 18 "Come, let us discuss this,"
says the LORD.
"Though your sins are like scarlet,
they will be as white as snow;
though they are as red as crimson,
they will be like wool.
19 If you are willing and obedient,
you will eat the good things of the land.
20 But if you refuse and rebel,
you will be devoured by the sword."
For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

- 21 The faithful city—
what an adulteress she has become!
She was once full of justice.
Righteousness once dwelt in her—
but now, murderers!
22 Your silver has become dross,^b
your beer^c is diluted with water.
23 Your rulers are rebels,
friends of thieves.
They all love graft
and chase after bribes.
They do not defend the rights of the fatherless,
and the widow's case never comes before them."
24 Therefore the Lord GOD of Hosts,
the Mighty One of Israel, declares:
"Ah, I will gain satisfaction
against My foes;
I will take revenge against My enemies.
25 I will turn My hand against you and will burn away
your dross^b completely;^d
I will remove all your impurities.
26 I will restore your judges to what they once were,^e
and your advisers to their former state.^f Afterwards you will be called the Righteous City,
a Faithful City."
27 Zion will be redeemed by justice,
her repentant ones by righteousness.
28 But both rebels and sinners
will be destroyed,

and those who abandon the LORD
will perish.

- 29 Indeed, they^g will be ashamed of the sacred trees
you desired,
and you will be embarrassed because of the gardens
you have chosen.
30 For you will become like an oak whose leaves are withered,
and like a garden without water.
31 The strong one will become tinder,
and his work a spark;
both will burn together,
with no one to quench [the flames].

The City of Peace

2 The vision that Isaiah son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem:

- 2 In the last days
the mountain of the LORD's house
will be established
at the top of the mountains
and will be raised above the hills.
All nations will stream to it,
3 and many peoples will come and say,
"Come, let us go up to the mountain
of the LORD,
to the house of the God of Jacob.
He will teach us about His ways
so that we may walk in His paths."
For instruction will go out of Zion
and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
4 He will settle disputes among the nations
and provide arbitration for many peoples.
They will turn their swords into plows
and their spears into pruning knives.
Nations will not take up the sword against [other] nations,
and they will never again train for war.

The Day of the LORD

- 5 House of Jacob,
come and let us walk in the LORD's light.
6 For You have abandoned Your people,
the house of Jacob,
because they are full of [•divination] _J
from the East
and of fortune-tellers like the Philistines.
They are in league^h with foreigners.

- and there is no limit to their treasures;
 their land is full of horses,
 and there is no limit to their chariots.
- 8 Their land is full of idols;
 they bow down to the work of their hands,
 to what their fingers have made.
- 9 So humanity is brought low,
 and man is humbled.
 Do not forgive them!
- 10 Go into the rocks
 and hide in the dust
 from the terror of the LORD
 and from His majestic splendor.
- 11 Human pride^a will be humbled,
 and the loftiness of men will be brought low;
 the LORD alone will be exalted
 on that day.
- 12 For a day belonging to the LORD of •Hosts
 is [coming]
 against all that is proud and lofty, against all that is lifted up—it will be humbled—
- 13 against all the cedars of Lebanon,
 lofty and lifted up,
 against all the oaks of Bashan,
 against all the high mountains,
 against all the lofty hills,
 against every high tower,
 against every fortified wall,
 against every ship of Tarshish,
 and against every splendid sea vessel.
- 16 So human pride will be brought low,
 and the loftiness of men will be humbled;
 the LORD alone will be exalted on that day.
- 18 The idols will vanish completely.
- 19 People will go into caves in the rocks
 and holes in the ground,
 away from the terror of the LORD
 and from His majestic splendor,
 when He rises to terrify the earth.
- 20 On that day people will throw their silver and gold idols,
 which they made to worship,
 to the moles and the bats.
- 21 They will go into the caves of the rocks
 and the crevices in the cliffs,
 away from the terror of the LORD
 and from His majestic splendor,
 when He rises to terrify the earth.
- 22 Put no more trust in man,
 who has only the breath in his nostrils.
 What is he really worth?

Judah's Leaders Judged

- 3 Observe this: The Lord GOD of •Hosts
 is about to remove from Jerusalem and from Judah
 every kind of security:
 the entire supply of bread and water,
 the hero and warrior,
 the judge and prophet,
 the fortune-teller and elder,
 the commander of 50 and the dignitary,
 the counselor, cunning magician,^b and necromancer.^c
- 4 “I will make youths their leaders,
 and the unstable^d will govern them.”
- 5 The people will oppress one another, man against man, neighbor
 against neighbor;
 the youth will act arrogantly
 toward the elder,
 and the worthless toward the honorable.
- 6 A man will even seize his brother
 in his father's house, [saying:] “You have a cloak—you be our leader!
 This heap of rubble will be under your control.”
- 7 On that day he will cry out, saying:
 “I'm not a healer.
 I don't even have food or clothing
 in my house.
 Don't make me the leader of the people!”
- 8 For Jerusalem has stumbled and Judah has fallen because they have spoken and acted
 against the LORD,
 defying His glorious presence.
- 9 The look on their faces testifies
 against them,
 and like Sodom, they flaunt their sin.
 They do not conceal it.
 Woe to them!
 For they have brought evil
 on themselves.
- 10 Tell the righteous that it will go well
 [for them],
 for they will eat the fruit of their deeds.
- 11 Woe to the wicked—[it will go] badly
 [for them],
 for what they have done will be done
 to them.
- 12 Youths oppress My people,
 and women rule over them.
 My people, your leaders mislead you;
 they confuse the direction of your paths.

- 13 The LORD rises to argue the case and stands to judge the people.
 14 The LORD brings [this] charge against the elders and leaders of His people:
 “You have devastated the vineyard. The plunder from the poor is in your houses.
 15 Why do you crush My people and grind the faces of the poor?” says the Lord GOD of Hosts.

Jerusalem's Women Judged

- 16 The LORD also says:

Because the daughters of Zion are haughty,

walking with heads held high and seductive eyes, going along with prancing steps, jingling their ankle bracelets,

- 17 the Lord will put scabs on the heads of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will shave their foreheads bare.

18 On that day the Lord will strip their finery: ankle bracelets, headbands, crescents, 19 pendants, bracelets, veils, 20 headdresses, ankle jewelry, sashes, perfume bottles, amulets, 21 signet rings, nose rings, 22 festive robes, capes, cloaks, purses, 23 garments, linen clothes, turbans, and veils.

- 24 Instead of perfume there will be a stench; instead of a belt, a rope; instead of beautifully styled hair, baldness; instead of fine clothes, •sackcloth; instead of beauty, branding.^a

- 25 Your men will fall by the sword, your warriors in battle.

- 26 Then her gates will lament and mourn; deserted, she will sit on the ground.

4 On that day seven women will seize one man, saying, “We will eat our own bread and provide our own clothing. Just let us be called by your name. Take away our disgrace.”

Zion's Future Glory

2 On that day the branch of the LORD will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be the pride and glory of Israel's survivors.

3 Whoever remains in Zion and whoever is left in Jerusalem will be called holy—all in Jerusalem who are destined to live— 4 when the Lord has washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion and cleansed the bloodguilt from the heart of Jerusalem by a spirit of judgment and a spirit of burning. 5 Then the LORD will create a cloud of smoke by day and a glowing flame of fire by night over the entire site of Mount Zion and over its assemblies. For there will be a canopy over all the glory,^b 6 and there will be a booth for shade from heat by day, and a refuge and shelter from storm and rain.

Song of the Vineyard

5 I will sing about the one I love, a song about my loved one's vineyard: The one I love had a vineyard on a very fertile hill.

- 2 He broke up the soil, cleared it of stones, and planted it with the finest vines. He built a tower in the middle of it and even hewed out a winepress there. He expected it to yield good grapes, but it yielded worthless grapes.

- 3 So now, residents of Jerusalem and men of Judah, please judge between Me and My vineyard.

- 4 What more could I have done for My vineyard than I did?

Why, when I expected a yield of good grapes, did it yield worthless grapes?

- 5 Now I will tell you what I am about to do to My vineyard:

I will remove its hedge, and it will be consumed; I will tear down its wall, and it will be trampled.

- 6 I will make it a wasteland. It will not be pruned or weeded; thorns and briars will grow up. I will also give orders to the clouds that rain should not fall on it.

- 7 For the vineyard of the LORD of •Hosts is the house of Israel, and the men^c of Judah, the plant He delighted in. He looked for justice but saw injustice, for righteousness, but heard cries of wretchedness.

Judah's Sins Denounced

8 Woe to those who add house to house and join field to field until there is no more room
and you alone are left in the land.

9 In my hearing the LORD of Hosts [has taken an oath]:

Indeed, many houses will become desolate,
grand and lovely ones without inhabitants.

10 For a ten-acre^a vineyard will yield only six gallons,^b and 10 bushels^c of seed will yield
only [one] bushel.^d

11 Woe to those who rise early in the morning
in pursuit of beer,
who linger into the evening,
inflamed by wine.

12 At their feasts they have lyre, harp,
tambourine, flute, and wine.
They do not perceive the LORD's actions,
and they do not see the work
of His hands.

13 Therefore My people go into exile
because they lack knowledge;
the^e dignitaries are starving,
and the^e masses are parched with thirst.

14 Therefore •Sheol enlarges its throat and opens wide its enormous jaws,
and down go Zion's dignitaries,
her masses,
her crowds, and those who carouse
in her!

15 Humanity is brought low,
man is humbled,
and haughty eyes are humbled.

16 But the LORD of Hosts is exalted
by His justice,
and the holy God is distinguished by righteousness.

17 Lambs will graze
as [if in]^f their own pastures,
and strangers^g will eat
[among] the ruins of the rich.

18 Woe to those who drag wickedness with cords of deceit
and [pull] sin along with cart ropes,

19 to those who say:
"Let Him hurry up and do
His work quickly

so that we can see it!

Let the plan of the Holy One of Israel take place

so that we can know it!"

20 Woe to those who call evil good and good evil,
who substitute darkness for light
and light for darkness,
who substitute bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter.

21 Woe to those who are wise
in their own opinion and clever in their own sight.^h

22 Woe to those who are heroes
at drinking wine,
who are fearless at mixing beer, 23 who acquit the guilty for a bribe
and deprive the innocent of justice.

24 Therefore, as a tongue of fire consumes straw
and as dry grass shrivels in the flame, so their roots will become like something rotten and their blossoms will blow away
like dust,

for they have rejected
the instruction of the LORD of Hosts, and they have despised
the word of the Holy One of Israel.

25 Therefore the LORD's anger burns
against His people.
He raised His hand against them
and struck them;
the mountains quaked,
and their corpses were like garbage
in the streets.
In all this, His anger is not removed,
and His hand is still raised [to strike].

26 He raises a signal flag for the distant nations and whistles for them from the ends
of the earth.
Look—how quickly and swiftly
they come!

27 None of them grows weary or stumbles;
no one slumbers or sleeps.
No belt is loose,
and no sandal strap broken.

28 Their arrows are sharpened,
and all their bows strung.
Their horses' hooves are like flint;

- their [chariot] wheels are
like a whirlwind.
- 29 Their roaring is like a lion's;
they roar like young lions;
they growl and seize their prey
and carry [it] off,
and no one can rescue [it].
- 30 On that day they will roar over it,
like the roaring of the sea.
When one looks at the land,
there will be darkness and distress;
light will be obscured by clouds.^a

Isaiah's Call and Mission

6 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a high and lofty throne, and His robe^b filled the temple. ² Seraphim^c were standing above Him; each one had six wings: with two he covered his face, with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. ³ And one called to another:

Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of •Hosts;
His glory fills the whole earth.

⁴ The foundations of the doorways shook at the sound of their voices, and the temple was filled with smoke.

⁵ Then I said:

Woe is me, for I am ruined,
because I am a man of unclean lips
and live among a people of unclean lips, [and] because my eyes have seen
the King,
the LORD of Hosts.

⁶ Then one of the seraphim flew to me, and in his hand was a glowing coal that he had taken from the altar with tongs. ⁷ He touched my mouth [with it] and said:

Now that this has touched your lips,
your wickedness is removed,
and your sin is atoned for.

⁸ Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying:

Who should I send?
Who will go for Us?

I said:

Here I am. Send me.

⁹ And He replied:

Go! Say to these people:

- Keep listening, but do not understand;
keep looking, but do not perceive.
10 Dull the minds^d of the people;
deafen their ears and blind their eyes;
otherwise they might see with their eyes
and hear with their ears,
understand with their minds,
turn back, and be healed.

¹¹ Then I said, "Until when, Lord?" And He replied:

- Until cities lie in ruins without inhabitants,
houses are without people,
the land is ruined and desolate, 12 and the LORD drives the people far away,
leaving great emptiness in the land.
13 Though a tenth will remain in the land,
it will be burned again.
Like the terebinth or the oak,
which leaves a stump when felled,

The Message to Ahaz

7 This took place during the reign of Ahaz, son of Jotham, son of Uzziah king of Judah: Rezin king of Aram, along with Pekah, son of Remaliah, king of Israel, waged war against Jerusalem, but he could not succeed. ² When it became known to the house of David that Aram had occupied Ephraim, the heart of Ahaz^e and the hearts of his people trembled like trees of a forest shaking in a wind.

³ Then the LORD said to Isaiah, "Go out with your son Shear-jashub to meet Ahaz at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, by the road to the Fuller's Field. ⁴ Say to him: Calm down and be quiet. Don't be afraid or fainthearted because of these two smoldering stubs of firebrands, Rezin of Aram, and the son of Remaliah. ⁵ For Aram, along with Ephraim and the son of Remaliah, has plotted harm against you. They say: ⁶ Let us go up against Judah, terrorize it, and conquer it for ourselves. Then we can install Tabeel's son as king in it."

⁷ This is what the Lord GOD says:

It will not happen; it will not occur.

- ⁸ The^f head of Aram is Damascus,
the head of Damascus is Rezin (within 65 years
Ephraim will be too shattered to be a people),

⁹ the head of Ephraim is Samaria,

^a5:30 Lit its clouds ^b6:1 Lit seam ^c6:2 = heavenly beings ^d6:10 Lit hearts ^e7:2 Lit Aram has rested upon Ephraim, his heart ^f7:8 Lit For the

and the head of Samaria is the son of Remaliah.
If you do not stand firm in your faith,
then you will not stand at all.

The Immanuel Prophecy

¹⁰ Then the LORD spoke again to Ahaz:
¹¹ “Ask for a sign from the LORD your God—
from the depths of [•]Sheol to the heights of heaven.”

¹² But Ahaz replied, “I will not ask. I will not test the LORD.”

¹³ Isaiah said, “Listen, house of David! Is it not enough for you to try the patience of men? Will you also try the patience of my God? ¹⁴ Therefore, the Lord Himself will give you^a a sign: The virgin will conceive,^b have a son, and name him Immanuel.^c ¹⁵ By the time he learns to reject what is bad and choose what is good, he will be eating butter^d and honey. ¹⁶ For before the boy knows to reject what is bad and choose what is good, the land of the two kings you dread will be abandoned. ¹⁷ The LORD will bring on you, your people, and the house of your father, such a time as has never been since Ephraim separated from Judah—the king of Assyria [is coming].

¹⁸ On that day
the LORD will whistle to the fly that is at the farthest streams of the Nile
and to the bee that is in the land
of Assyria.

¹⁹ All of them will come and settle in the steep ravines, in the clefts
of the rocks,
in all the thornbushes, and in all the water holes.

²⁰ On that day the Lord will use a razor hired from beyond the Euphrates River—the king of Assyria—to shave the head, the hair on the legs,
and to remove the beard as well.

²¹ On that day
a man will raise a young cow
and two sheep,
²² and from the abundant milk they give
he will eat butter,
for every survivor in the land
will eat butter and honey.

²³ And on that day

every place where there were 1,000 vines,
worth 1,000 pieces of silver,
will become thorns and briers.

²⁴ A man will go there with bow and arrows
because the whole land will be thorns and briers.

²⁵ You will not go to all the hills
that were once tilled with a hoe,
for fear of the thorns and briers.
[Those hills] will be places for oxen to graze
and for sheep to trample.

The Coming Assyrian Invasion

8 Then the LORD said to me, “Take a large piece of parchment^e and write on it with an ordinary pen:^f Maher-shalal-hash-baz.^g ² I have appointed^h trustworthy witnesses—Uriah
the priest and Zechariah son of Jeberechiah.”

³ I was then intimate with the prophetess, and she conceived and gave birth to a son. The LORD said to me, “Name him Maher-shalal-hash-baz, ⁴ for before the boy knows how to call out father or mother, the wealth of Damascus and the spoils of Samaria will be carried off to the king of Assyria.”

⁵ The LORD spoke to me again:

⁶ Because these people rejected the slowly flowing waters of Shiloah and rejoiced withⁱ Rezin
and the son of Remaliah, ⁷ the Lord will certainly bring against them
the mighty rushing waters of the Euphrates River—
the king of Assyria and all his glory.
It will overflow its channels
and spill over all its banks.

⁸ It will pour into Judah, flood over it, and sweep through,
reaching up to the neck;
and its spreading streams^j
will fill your entire land, Immanuel!

⁹ Band together, peoples, and be broken;
pay attention, all you distant lands;
prepare for war, and be broken;
prepare for war, and be broken.

¹⁰ Devise a plan; it will fail.
Make a prediction; it will not happen.

The LORD of Hosts, the Only Refuge

¹¹ For this is what the LORD said to me with great power, to keep^a me from going the way of this people:

- ¹² Do not call everything an alliance these people say is an alliance. Do not fear what they fear; do not be terrified.
- ¹³ You are to regard only the LORD of •Hosts as holy. Only He should be •feared; only He should be held in awe.
- ¹⁴ He will be a sanctuary; but for the two houses of Israel, He will be a stone to stumble over and a rock to trip over, and a trap and a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
- ¹⁵ Many will stumble over these; they will fall and be broken; they will be snared and captured.
- ¹⁶ Bind up the •testimony. Seal up the instruction among my disciples.
- ¹⁷ I will wait for the LORD, who is hiding His face from the house of Jacob. I will wait for Him.

¹⁸ Here I am with the children the LORD has given me to be signs and wonders in Israel from the LORD of Hosts who dwells on Mount Zion. ¹⁹ When they say to you, “Consult the spirits of the dead and the spiritists who chirp and mutter,” shouldn’t a people consult their God?^b [Should they consult] the dead on behalf of the living? ²⁰ To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, there will be no dawn for them.

²¹ They will wander through the land, dejected and hungry. When they are famished, they will become enraged, and, looking upward, will curse their king and their God. ²² They will look toward the earth and see only distress, darkness, and the gloom of affliction, and they will be driven into thick darkness.

Birth of the Prince of Peace

⁹^c Nevertheless, the gloom of the distressed land will not be like that of the former times when He humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali. But in the future He will bring honor to the Way of the Sea, to the land east of the Jordan, and to Galilee of the nations.

- ^{2d} The people walking in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of darkness, a light has dawned.
- ³ You have enlarged the nation and increased its joy.^e [The people] have rejoiced before You as they rejoice at harvest time and as they rejoice when dividing spoils.
- ⁴ For You have shattered their burdensome yoke and the rod on their shoulders, the staff of their oppressor, just as [You did] on the day of Midian.
- ⁵ For the trampling boot of battle and the bloodied garments of war will be burned as fuel for the fire.
- ⁶ For a child will be born for us, a son will be given to us, and the government will be on His shoulders. He will be named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Eternal Father, Prince of Peace.
- ⁷ The dominion will be vast, and its prosperity will never end. He will reign on the throne of David and over his kingdom, to establish and sustain it with justice and righteousness from now on and forever. The zeal of the LORD of •Hosts will accomplish this.

The Hand Raised against Israel

- ⁸ The Lord sent a message against Jacob; it came against Israel.
- ⁹ All the people—Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria—will know it. They will say with pride and arrogance:
- ¹⁰ “The bricks have fallen, but we will rebuild with cut stones; the sycamores have been cut down, but we will replace them with cedars.”
- ¹¹ The LORD has raised up Rezin’s adversaries against him and stirred up his enemies.
- ¹² Aram from the east and Philistia from the west

^a8:11 Or instruct ^b8:19 Or gods ^c9:1 Is 8:23 in Hb ^d9:2 Is 9:1 in Hb ^e9:3 Alt Hb tradition reads have not increased joy

have consumed Israel with open mouths.
In all this, His anger is not removed,
and His hand is still raised [to strike].

- 13 The people did not turn to Him
who struck them;
they did not seek the LORD of Hosts.
14 So the LORD cut off Israel's head and tail,
palm branch and reed in a single day.
15 The head is the elder, the honored one;
the tail is the prophet, the lying teacher.
16 The leaders of the people mislead [them],
and those they mislead
are swallowed up.^a 17 Therefore the Lord does not rejoice over^b Israel's young men and has no compassion
on its fatherless and widows,
for everyone is a godless evildoer,
and every mouth speaks folly.
In all this, His anger is not removed,
and His hand is still raised [to strike].
18 For wickedness burns like a fire that consumes thorns and briars
and kindles the forest thickets
so that they go up in a column of smoke.
19 The land is scorched
by the wrath of the LORD of Hosts,
and the people are like fuel for the fire.
No one has compassion on his brother.
20 They carve [meat] on the right,
but they are [still] hungry;
they have eaten on the left,
but they are [still] not satisfied.
Each one eats the flesh of his own arm.
21 Manasseh is with Ephraim,
and Ephraim with Manasseh;
together, both are against Judah.
In all this, His anger is not removed,
and His hand is still raised [to strike].

- 10 Woe to those enacting crooked statutes and writing oppressive laws
2 to keep the poor from getting a fair trial and to deprive the afflicted
among my people of justice,
so that widows can be their spoil
and they can plunder the fatherless.
3 What will you do on the day of punishment
when devastation comes from far away?
Who will you run to for help?
Where will you leave your wealth?

- 4 [There will be nothing to do] except crouch among the prisoners or fall among the slain.
In all this, His anger is not removed,
and His hand is still raised [to strike].

Assyria, the Instrument of Wrath

- 5 Woe to Assyria, the rod of My anger—
the staff in their hands is My wrath.
6 I will send him against a godless nation;
I will command him [to go] against a people destined for My rage,
to take spoils, to plunder,
and to trample them down like clay
in the streets.
7 But this is not what he intends;
this is not what he plans.
It is his intent to destroy
and to cut off many nations.
8 For he says:
Aren't all my commanders kings?
9 Isn't Calno like Carchemish?
Isn't Hamath like Arpad?
Isn't Samaria like Damascus?^d
10 As my hand seized the idolatrous kingdoms, whose idols exceeded those of Jerusalem
and Samaria,
11 and as I did to Samaria and its idols will I not also do to Jerusalem and its idols?

Judgment on Assyria

12 But when the Lord finishes all His work against Mount Zion and Jerusalem, [He will say,] “[I] will punish the king of Assyria for his arrogant acts and the proud look in his eyes.”¹³ For he said:

- I have done [this] by my own strength
and wisdom, for I am clever.
I abolished the borders of nations and plundered their treasures;
like a mighty warrior, I subjugated
the inhabitants.^f
14 My hand has reached out, as if into a nest,
to seize the wealth of the nations.
Like one gathering abandoned eggs,
I gathered the whole earth.
No wing fluttered;
no beak opened or chirped.
15 Does an ax exalt itself above the one who chops with it?
Does a saw magnify itself

^a9:16 Or are confused ^b9:17 DSS read not spare ^c9:17 Lit its ^d10:9 Cities conquered by Assyria ^e10:12 LXX reads Jerusalem, He ^f10:13 Or I brought down their kings above the one who saws with it?

 As if a staff could wave those who lift^a it!
 As if a rod could lift what isn't wood!^b

- 16 Therefore the Lord GOD of •Hosts
 will inflict an emaciating disease
 on the well-fed of Assyria, and He will kindle a burning fire
 under its glory.
 17 Israel's Light will become a fire,
 and its Holy One, a flame.
 In one day it will burn up Assyria's thorns and thistles.
 18 He will completely destroy the glory of its forests and orchards
 as a sickness consumes a person.
 19 The remaining trees of its forest will be so few in number that a child could count them.

The Remnant Will Return

²⁰ On that day the remnant of Israel and the survivors of the house of Jacob will no longer depend on the one who struck them, but they will faithfully depend on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

- 21 The remnant will return, the remnant
 of Jacob,
 to the Mighty God.
 22 Israel, even if your people were as numerous
 as the sand of the sea,
 [only] a remnant of them will return.
 Destruction has been decreed;
 justice overflows.
 23 For throughout the land
 the Lord GOD of Hosts
 is carrying out a destruction
 that was decreed.

²⁴ Therefore, the Lord GOD of Hosts says this:
 "My people who dwell in Zion, do not fear Assyria, though he strikes you with a rod and raises his staff over you as the Egyptians did.
²⁵ In just a little while My wrath will be spent and My anger will turn to their destruction."
²⁶ And the LORD of Hosts will brandish a whip against him as [He did when He] struck Midian
 at the rock of Oreb; and He will raise His staff
 over the sea as [He did] in Egypt.

God Will Judge Assyria

- ²⁷ On that day
 his burden will fall from your shoulders,

and his yoke from your neck.
 The yoke will be broken because of [his] fatness.^c

- 28 Assyria has come to Aiath
 and has gone through Migron, storing his equipment at Michmash.
 29 They crossed over at the ford, saying,
 "We will spend the night at Geba."
 The people of Ramah are trembling;
 those at Gibeah of Saul have fled.
 30 Cry aloud, daughter of Gallim!
 Listen, Laishah!
 Anathoth is miserable.
 31 Madmenah has fled.
 The inhabitants of Gebim
 have sought refuge.
 32 Today he will stand at Nob, shaking his fist at the mountain
 of Daughter Zion,
 the hill of Jerusalem.
 33 Look, the Lord GOD of Hosts will chop off the branches
 with terrifying power,
 and the tall [trees] will be cut down,
 the high [trees] felled.
 34 He is clearing the thickets of the forest with an ax,
 and Lebanon with its majesty will fall.

Reign of the Davidic King

- 11 Then a shoot will grow from the stump
 of Jesse,
 and a branch from his roots will bear fruit.
 2 The Spirit of the LORD will rest on Him—
 a Spirit of wisdom and understanding,
 a Spirit of counsel and strength,
 a Spirit of knowledge and of the •fear
 of the LORD.
 3 His delight will be in the fear of the LORD.
 He will not judge
 by what He sees with His eyes,
 He will not execute justice
 by what He hears with His ears, 4 but He will judge the poor righteously and execute justice for the oppressed
 of the land.
 He will strike the land
 with discipline^d from His mouth, and He will kill the wicked
 with a command^e from His lips.
 5 Righteousness and faithfulness
 will be a belt around His waist.

their young ones will lie down together,
and the lion will eat straw like an ox.
- 8 An infant will play beside the cobra's pit,
and a toddler will put his hand
into a snake's den.
- 9 No one will harm or destroy
on My entire holy mountain,
for the land will be as full of the knowledge of the LORD
as the sea is filled with water.

Israel Regathered

- 10 On that day the root of Jesse will stand as a banner for the peoples.
The nations will seek Him,
and His resting place will be glorious.
- 11 On that day the Lord will [extend] His hand
a second time to recover—from Assyria, Egypt, Pathros, •Cush, Elam, •Shinar, Hamath, and the coasts and islands of the west—the remnant of His people who survive.
- 12 He will lift up a banner for the nations
and gather the dispersed of Israel;
He will collect the scattered of Judah
from the four corners of the earth.
- 13 Ephraim's envy will cease;
Judah's harassment will end.
Ephraim will no longer be envious of Judah,
and Judah will not harass Ephraim.
- 14 But they will swoop down on the Philistine flank to the west.
Together they will plunder the people of the east.
They will extend their power over Edom
and Moab,
and the Ammonites will be their subjects.
- 15 The LORD will divide^a the Gulf of Suez.^b
He will wave His hand over the Euphrates with His mighty wind
and will split it into seven streams, letting people walk through on foot.
- 16 There will be a highway for the remnant of His people
who will survive from Assyria,
as there was for Israel
when they came up from the land of Egypt.

A Song of Praise

- 12 On that day you will say:
“I will praise You, LORD,
although You were angry with me.
Your anger has turned away,
and You have had compassion on me.
- 2 Indeed, God is my salvation.
I will trust [Him] and not be afraid.
Because •Yah, the LORD,
is my strength and my song,
He has become my salvation.”
- 3 You will joyfully draw water from the springs of salvation,
and on that day you will say:
“Give thanks to the LORD;
proclaim His name!
Celebrate His deeds among the peoples.
Declare that His name is exalted.
- 5 Sing to the LORD, for He has done glorious things.
Let this be known throughout the earth.
- 6 Cry out and sing, citizen of Zion,
for the Holy One of Israel is among you in [His] greatness.”

An Oracle against Babylon

- 13 An •oracle against Babylon that Isaiah son of Amoz saw:
- 2 Lift up a banner on a barren mountain.
Call out to them.
Wave your hand, and they will go through the gates of the nobles.
- 3 I have commanded My chosen ones;
I have also called My warriors,
who exult in My triumph,
to execute My wrath.
- 4 Listen, a tumult on the mountains,
like that of a mighty people!
Listen, an uproar among the kingdoms,
like nations being gathered together!
The LORD of •Hosts is mobilizing an army
for war.
- 5 They are coming from a far land,
from the distant horizon—
the LORD and the weapons of His wrath—
to destroy the whole country.^c
- 6 Wail! For the day of the LORD is near.
It will come like destruction
from the •Almighty.
- 7 Therefore everyone's hands
will become weak,

^a11:15 Or destroy, or dry up (text emended) ^b11:15 Lit the Sea of Egypt ^c13:5 Or earth

- and every man's heart will melt.
 8 They will be horrified;
 pain and agony will seize [them];
 they will be in anguish like a woman
 in labor.
 They will look at each other,
 their faces flushed with fear.
 9 Look, the day of the LORD is coming—cruel, with rage and burning anger—
 to make the earth a desolation
 and to destroy the sinners on it.
 10 Indeed, the stars of the sky and its constellations^a will not give their light.
 The sun will be dark when it rises,
 and the moon will not shine.
 11 I will bring disaster on the world,
 and their [own] iniquity, on the wicked.
 I will put an end to the pride
 of the arrogant
 and humiliate the insolence of tyrants.
 12 I will make man scarcer than gold,
 and mankind more rare than the gold
 of Ophir.
 13 Therefore I will make the heavens tremble,
 and the earth will shake
 from its foundations
 at the wrath of the LORD of Hosts,
 on the day of His burning anger.
 14 Like wandering gazelles
 and like sheep without a shepherd,
 each one will turn to his own people,
 each one will flee to his own land.
 15 Whoever is found will be stabbed,
 and whoever is caught will die
 by the sword.
 16 Their children will be smashed [to death]
 before their eyes;
 their houses will be looted,
 and their wives raped.
 17 Look! I am stirring up the Medes
 against them,
 who cannot be bought off with^b silver
 and who have no desire for gold.
 18 [Their] bows will cut young men
 to pieces.
 They will have no compassion
 on little ones;
 they will not look with pity on children.
 19 And Babylon, the jewel of the kingdoms,
 the glory of the pride of the Chaldeans,
 will be like Sodom and Gomorrah

when God overthrew them.

- 20 It will never be inhabited
 or lived in from generation to generation;
 a nomad will not pitch his tent there,
 and shepherds will not let [their flocks]
 rest there.
 21 But wild animals will lie down there,
 and owls will fill the houses.
 Ostriches will dwell there,
 and wild goats will leap about.
 22 Hyenas will howl in the fortresses,
 and jackals, in the luxurious palaces.
 Babylon's time is almost up;
 her days are almost over.

Israel's Return

14 For the LORD will have compassion on Jacob and will choose Israel again. He will settle them on their own land. The foreigner will join them and be united with the house of Jacob. ²The nations will escort Israel and bring it to its homeland. Then the house of Israel will possess them as male and female slaves in the LORD's land. They will make captives of their captors and will rule over their oppressors.

Downfall of the King of Babylon

³When the LORD gives you rest from your pain, torment, and the hard labor you were forced to do, ⁴you will sing this song [of contempt] about the king of Babylon and say:

How the oppressor has quieted down,
 and how the raging^c has become quiet!

- 5 The LORD has broken the staff
 of the wicked,
 the scepter of the rulers.
 6 It struck the peoples in anger
 with unceasing blows.
 It subdued the nations in rage
 with relentless persecution.
 7 All the earth is calm and at rest;
 people shout with a ringing cry.
 8 Even the cypresses and the cedars
 of Lebanon
 rejoice over you:
 "Since you have been laid low,
 no woodcutter has come against us."
 9 •Sheol below is eager to greet your coming.
 He stirs up the spirits of the departed
 for you—

all the rulers^a of the earth.
He makes all the kings of the nations rise from their thrones.

- 10 They all respond to you, saying:
“You too have become as weak as we are;
you have become like us!

- 11 Your splendor has been brought down
to •Sheol,
[along with] the music of your harps.
Maggots are spread out under you,
and worms cover you.”

- 12 Shining morning star,^b
how you have fallen from the heavens!
You destroyer of nations,
you have been cut down to the ground.

- 13 You said to yourself:
“I will ascend to the heavens;
I will set up my throne
above the stars of God.
I will sit on the mount
of the [gods'] assembly,
in the remotest parts of the North.^c

- 14 I will ascend above the highest clouds;
I will make myself like the •Most High.”
15 But you will be brought down to Sheol into the deepest regions of the •Pit.

- 16 Those who see you will stare at you;
they will look closely at you:
“Is this the man who caused the earth to tremble,
who shook the kingdoms,
17 who turned the world into a wilderness,
who trampled its cities
and would not release the prisoners to return home?”

- 18 All the kings of the nations
lie in splendor, each in his own tomb.
19 But you are thrown out without a grave,
like a worthless branch,
covered by those slain with the sword and dumped into a rocky pit
like a trampled corpse.

- 20 You will not join them in burial,
because you destroyed your land
and slaughtered your own people.
The offspring of evildoers
will never be remembered.

- 21 Prepare a place of slaughter for his sons,
because of the iniquity of their fathers.
They never rise up to possess a land or fill the surface of the earth with cities.

22 “I will rise up against them”—the declaration of the LORD of •Hosts—“and I will cut off from Babylon her reputation, remnant, offspring, and posterity”—the LORD’s declaration. 23 “I will make her a swampland and a region for wild animals,^d and I will sweep her away with a broom of destruction.”

[This is] the declaration of the LORD of Hosts.

Assyria to Be Destroyed

- 24 The LORD of Hosts has sworn:

As I have planned, so it will be;
as I have purposed it, so it will happen.

- 25 I will break Assyria in My land;
I will tread him down on My mountain.
Then his yoke will be taken from them,
and his burden will be removed from their shoulders.

- 26 This is the plan prepared for the whole earth,
and this is the hand stretched out
against all the nations.

- 27 The LORD of Hosts Himself has planned it;
therefore, who can stand in its way?
It is His hand that is outstretched,
so who can turn it back?

An Oracle against Philistia

28 In the year that King Ahaz died, this •oracle came:

- 29 Don’t rejoice, all of you [in] Philistia, because the rod of the one who struck you is broken.
For a viper will come out of the root^e
of a snake,
and from its egg comes a flying serpent.

- 30 Then the firstborn of the poor will be well fed,
and the impoverished will lie down
in safety,
but I will kill your root with hunger,
and your remnant will be slain.^f

- 31 Wail, you gates! Cry out, city!
Tremble with fear, all Philistia!
For a cloud of dust is coming from the north,
and there is no one missing from [the invader’s] ranks.

An Oracle against Moab

15 An •oracle against Moab:

Ar in Moab is devastated,
destroyed in a night.

Kir in Moab is devastated,
destroyed in a night.

² Dibon went up to its temple
to weep at its •high places.
Moab wails on Nebo and at^a Medeba.
Every head is shaved;
every beard is cut off.

³ In its streets they wear •sackcloth;
on its rooftops and in its public squares
everyone wails,
falling down and weeping.

⁴ Heshbon and Elealeh cry out;
their voices are heard as far away as Jahaz.
Therefore the soldiers of Moab cry out,
and they tremble.^b

⁵ My heart cries out over Moab, whose fugitives [flee] as far as Zoar,
to Eglath-shelishiyah;
they go up the slope of Luhith weeping;
they raise a cry of destruction
on the road to Horonaim.

⁶ The waters of Nimrim are desolate;
the grass is withered, the foliage is gone,
and the vegetation has vanished.

⁷ So they carry their wealth and belongings
over the •Wadi of the Willows.

⁸ For their cry echoes
throughout the territory of Moab.
Their wailing reaches Eglaim;
their wailing reaches Beer-elim.

⁹ The waters of Dibon^c are full of blood,
but I will bring on Dibon^c even more [than this]—
a lion for those who escape from Moab,
and for the survivors in the land.

16 Send lambs to the ruler of the land,
from Sela in the desert
to the mountain of Daughter Zion.

² Like a bird fleeing,
forced from the nest,
the daughters of Moab
will be at the fords of the Arnon.

³ Give us counsel and make a decision.
[Shelter us] at noonday

with shade that is as dark as night.
Hide the refugee;
do not betray the one who flees.

⁴ Let my refugees stay with you;
be a refuge for Moab^d
from the aggressor.

When the oppressor has gone,
destruction has ended,
and marauders have vanished
from the land.

⁵ Then in the tent of David a throne will be established by faithful love.
A judge who seeks what is right and is quick to execute justice will sit on the throne forever.

⁶ We have heard of Moab's pride—how very proud he is—his haughtiness, his pride,
his arrogance,
and his empty boasting.

⁷ Therefore let Moab wail;
let every one of them wail for Moab.
Mourn, you who are completely devastated,
for the raisin cakes of Kir-hareseth.

⁸ For Heshbon's terraced vineyards and the grapevines of Sibmah
have withered.

The rulers of the nations have trampled its choice vines that reached as far as Jazer
and spread to the desert.
Their shoots spread out and reached the Dead Sea.

⁹ So I join with Jazer
to weep for the vines of Sibmah;
I drench Heshbon and Elealeh
with my tears.

Triumphant shouts have fallen silent^e over your summer [fruit]
and your harvest.

¹⁰ Joy and rejoicing have been removed from the orchard;
no one is singing or shouting for joy
in the vineyards.
No one tramples grapes^f
in the winepresses.
I have put an end to the shouting.
¹¹ Therefore I moan like [the sound of] a lyre
for Moab,
[as does] my innermost being for Kir-heres.

it will do him no good.

¹³ This is the message that the LORD previously announced about Moab. ¹⁴ And now the LORD says, “In three years, as a hired worker counts years, Moab’s splendor will become an object of contempt, in spite of a very large population. And those who are left will be few and weak.”

An Oracle against Damascus

17 An •oracle against Damascus:

Look, Damascus is no longer a city.
It has become a ruined heap.

- 2 The cities of Aroer are forsaken;
they will be [places] for flocks.
They will lie down without fear.

- 3 The fortress disappears from Ephraim,
and a kingdom from Damascus.
The remnant of Aram will be like the splendor of the Israelites.

[This is] the declaration
of the LORD of •Hosts.

Judgment against Israel

- 4 On that day
the splendor of Jacob will fade, and his healthy body^b
will become emaciated.
- 5 It will be as if a reaper had gathered standing grain—
his arm harvesting the heads of grain—and as if one had gleaned heads of grain in the valley of Rephaim.

- 6 Only gleanings will be left in Israel,
as if an olive tree had been beaten—
two or three berries at the very top of the tree,
four or five on its fruitful branches.

[This is] the declaration of the LORD,
the God of Israel.

⁷ On that day people will look to their Maker
and will turn their eyes to the Holy One of Israel.
⁸ They will not look to the altars they made with their hands or to the •Asherahs and incense altars they made with their fingers.

- 9 On that day their strong cities will be like the abandoned woods and mountaintops^c

that were abandoned because of the Israelites;
there will be desolation.

- 10 For you have forgotten the God
of your salvation,
and you have failed to remember
the rock of your strength;
therefore you will plant beautiful plants
and set out cuttings from exotic vines.
- 11 On the day that you plant,
you will help them to grow,
and in the morning
you will help your seed to sprout, [but] the harvest will vanish
on the day of disease and incurable pain.

Judgment against the Nations

- 12 Ah! The roar of many peoples—they roar like the roaring of the seas.
The raging of the nations—
they rage like the raging of mighty waters.
- 13 The nations rage like the raging
of many waters.
He rebukes them, and they flee far away,
driven before the wind like chaff
on the hills
and like dead thistles before a gale.
- 14 In the evening—sudden terror!
Before morning—it is gone!
This is the fate of those who plunder us and the lot of those who ravage us.

The LORD’s Message to Cush

- 18 Ah! The land of buzzing insect wings^d beyond the rivers of •Cush 2 sends envoys by sea,
in reed vessels on the waters.

Go, swift messengers,
to a nation tall and smooth-skinned,
to a people feared near and far,
a powerful nation

with a strange language,^e
whose land is divided by rivers.

- 3 All you inhabitants of the world
and you who live on the earth,
when a banner is raised on the mountains, look!
When a trumpet sounds, listen!

- 4 For, the LORD said to me:

I will quietly look out from My place,
like shimmering heat in sunshine,

^a16:12 DSS read place, he will tire ^b17:4 Lit and the fat of his flesh ^c17:9 LXX reads like the Amorites and the Hivites; some Hb mss read like the Horesh and the Amir ^d18:1 Or of sailing ships ^e18:2 Hb obscure like a rain cloud in harvest heat.

- 5 For before the harvest,
when the blossoming is over and the blossom becomes a ripening grape,
He will cut off the shoots
with a pruning knife,
and tear away and remove the branches.
- 6 They will all be left for the birds of prey
on the hills
and for the wild animals of the land.
The birds will spend the summer
on them,
and all the animals, the winter on them.

7 At that time a gift will be brought to the LORD of •Hosts from^a a people tall and smooth-skinned, a people feared near and far, a powerful nation with a strange language, whose land is divided by rivers—to Mount Zion, the place of the name of the LORD of Hosts.

An Oracle against Egypt

19 An •oracle against Egypt:

- Look, the LORD rides on a swift cloud
and is coming to Egypt.
Egypt's idols will tremble before Him,
and Egypt's heart will melt within it.
- 2 I will provoke Egypt against Egypt;
each will fight against his brother
and each against his friend,
city against city,
kingdom against kingdom.
 - 3 Egypt's spirit will be disturbed within it,
and I will frustrate its plans.
Then they will seek idols, ghosts,
spirits of the dead, and spiritists.
 - 4 I will deliver Egypt into the hands
of harsh masters,
and a strong king will rule it.
[This is] the declaration
of the Lord GOD of •Hosts.
 - 5 The waters of the sea will dry up,
and the river will be parched and dry.
 - 6 The channels will stink;
they will dwindle, and Egypt's canals
will be parched.
Reed and rush will die.^b
 - 7 The reeds by the Nile, by the mouth of the river,
and all the cultivated areas of the Nile

will wither, blow away, and vanish.

- 8 Then the fishermen will mourn.
All those who cast hooks into the Nile
will lament,
and those who spread nets on the water will shrivel up.
- 9 Those who work with flax
will be dismayed;
the combers and weavers will turn pale.^c
- 10 [Egypt's] weavers^d will be dejected;
all her wage earners will be demoralized.
- 11 The princes of Zoan are complete fools; Pharaoh's wisest advisers
give stupid advice!
How can you say to Pharaoh,
"I am one^e of the wise,
a student of eastern^f kings."
- 12 Where then are your wise men?
Let them tell you and reveal what the LORD of Hosts has planned against Egypt.
- 13 The princes of Zoan have been fools;
the princes of Memphis are deceived.
Her tribal chieftains have led Egypt astray.
- 14 The LORD has mixed within her a spirit of confusion.
[The leaders] have made Egypt stagger
in all she does,
as a drunkard staggers in his vomit.
- 15 No head or tail, palm or reed,
will be able to do anything for Egypt.

Egypt Will Know the LORD

¹⁶ On that day Egypt will be like women. She will tremble with fear because of the threatening hand of the LORD of Hosts when He raises it against her. ¹⁷ The land of Judah will terrify Egypt; whenever Judah is mentioned, Egypt will tremble because of what the LORD of Hosts has planned against it.

¹⁸ On that day five cities in the land of Egypt will speak the language of Canaan and swear loyalty to the LORD of Hosts. One of the cities will be called the City of the Sun.^{g h}

¹⁹ On that day there will be an altar to the LORD in the center of the land of Egypt and a pillar to the LORD near her border. ²⁰ It will be a sign and witness to the LORD of Hosts in the land of Egypt. When they cry out to the LORD because of their oppressors, He will send them a savior and leader, and he will rescue them. ²¹ The

They will offer sacrifices and offerings; they will make vows to the LORD and fulfill them. ²² The LORD will strike Egypt, striking and healing. Then they will return to the LORD and He will hear their prayers and heal them.

²³ On that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria. Assyria will go to Egypt, Egypt to Assyria, and Egypt will worship with Assyria.

²⁴ On that day Israel will form a triple [alliance] with Egypt and Assyria—a blessing within the land. ²⁵ The LORD of Hosts will bless them, saying, “Blessed be Egypt My people, Assyria My handiwork, and Israel My inheritance.”

No Help from Cush or Egypt

20 In the year that the commander-in-chief, sent by Sargon king of Assyria, came to Ashdod and attacked and captured it—² during that time the LORD had spoken through Isaiah son of Amoz, saying, “Go, take off your •sackcloth^a and remove the sandals from your feet,” and he did so, going naked and barefoot—³ the LORD said, “As My servant Isaiah has gone naked and barefoot three years as a sign and omen against Egypt and •Cush, ⁴ so the king of Assyria will lead the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Cush, young and old alike, naked and barefoot, with bared buttocks, to Egypt’s shame. ⁵ Those who made Cush their hope and Egypt their boast will be dismayed and ashamed. ⁶ And the inhabitants of this coastland will say on that day: Look, this is what has happened to those we relied on and fled to for help to rescue [us] from the king of Assyria! Now, how will we escape?”

A Judgment on Babylon

21 An •oracle against the desert by the sea: Like storms that pass over the •Negev, it comes from the desert, from the land of terror.

² A troubling vision is declared to me: “The treacherous one acts treacherously, and the destroyer destroys. Advance, Elam! Lay siege, you Medes! I will put an end to all her groaning.”

³ Therefore I am^b filled with anguish. Pain grips me, like the pain of a woman in labor.

I am too perplexed to hear, too dismayed to see.

⁴ My heart staggers; horror terrifies me. He has turned my last glimmer of hope^c into sheer terror.

⁵ Prepare a table, and spread out a carpet! Eat and drink! Rise up, you princes, and oil the shields!

⁶ For the Lord has said to me, “Go, post a lookout; let him report what he sees.

⁷ When he sees riders—pairs of horsemen, riders on donkeys, riders on camels—pay close attention.”

⁸ Then the lookout^d reported, “Lord, I stand on the watchtower all day, and I stay at my post all night.

⁹ Look, riders come—horsemen in pairs.” And he answered, saying, “Babylon has fallen, has fallen. All the idols of her gods have been shattered on the ground.”

¹⁰ My downtrodden and threshed people, I have declared to you what I have heard from the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel.

An Oracle against Dumah

¹¹ An oracle against Dumah:^e

One calls to me from Seir, “Watchman, what is [left] of the night? Watchman, what is [left] of the night?”

An Oracle against Arabia

¹³ An oracle against Arabia:

You will camp for the night in the scrublands of the desert,^f you caravans of Dedanites.

and from the bent bow,
from the stress of battle.

¹⁶ For the Lord said this to me: “Within one year, as a hired worker counts years, all the glory of Kedar will be gone. ¹⁷ The remaining Kedarite archers will be few in number.” For the LORD, the God of Israel, has spoken.

An Oracle against Jerusalem

22 An •oracle against the Valley of Vision:

What’s the matter with you?
Why have all of you gone up to the rooftops?

- ² The noisy city, the jubilant town,
is filled with revelry.
Your dead did not die by the sword;
they were not killed in battle.
- ³ All your rulers have fled together,
captured without a bow.
All your fugitives
were captured together;
they had fled far away.
- ⁴ Therefore I said,
“Look away from me!
Let me weep bitterly!
Do not try to comfort me
about the destruction of my dear^a people.”
- ⁵ For the Lord GOD of •Hosts
had a day of tumult, trampling, and bewilderment
in the Valley of Vision—people shouting^b and crying
to the mountains;
- ⁶ Elam took up a quiver
with chariots and horsemen,^c
and Kir uncovered the shield.
- ⁷ Your best valleys were full of chariots,
and horsemen were positioned
at the gates.
- ⁸ He removed the defenses of Judah.

On that day you looked to the weapons in the House of the Forest. ⁹ You saw that there were many breaches in [the walls of] the city of David. You collected water from the lower pool. ¹⁰ You counted the houses of Jerusalem so that you could tear them down to fortify the wall. ¹¹ You made a reservoir between the walls for the waters of the ancient pool, but you did not look to the One who made it, or consider the One who created it long ago.

- ¹² On that day the Lord GOD of Hosts called for weeping, for wailing,
for shaven heads,
and for the wearing of •sackcloth.
- ¹³ But look: joy and gladness,
butchering of cattle,
slaughtering of sheep,
eating of meat, and drinking of wine—“Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow
we die!”
- ¹⁴ The LORD of Hosts has revealed [this]
in my hearing:
“This sin of yours will never^d be wiped out.”
The Lord GOD of Hosts has spoken.

An Oracle against Shebna

¹⁵ The Lord GOD of Hosts said: “Go to Shebna, that steward who is in charge of the palace, [and say to him:] ¹⁶ What are you doing here? Who authorized you to carve out a tomb for yourself here, carving your tomb on the height and cutting a crypt for yourself out of rock? ¹⁷ Look, young man! The LORD is about to shake you violently. He will take hold of you, ¹⁸ wind you up into a ball, and sling you into a wide land.^e There you will die, and there your glorious chariots will be—a disgrace to the house of your lord. ¹⁹ I will remove you from your office; you will be ousted from your position.

²⁰ “On that day I will call for my servant, Eliakim son of Hilkiah. ²¹ I will clothe him with your robe and tie your sash around him. I will put your authority into his hand, and he will be like a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the House of Judah. ²² I will place the key of the House of David on his shoulder; what he opens, no one can close; what he closes, no one can open. ²³ I will drive him, like a peg, into a firm place. He will be a throne of honor for his father’s house. ²⁴ They will hang on him the whole burden of his father’s house: the descendants and the offshoots—all the small vessels, from bowls to every kind of jar. ²⁵ On that day”—the declaration of the LORD of Hosts—“the peg that was driven into a firm place will give way, be cut off, and fall, and the load on it will be destroyed.” Indeed, the LORD has spoken.

- Word has reached them from the land of Cyprus.^a
- 2 Mourn, inhabitants of the coastland,
you merchants of Sidon;
your agents^b have crossed the sea
3 on many waters.
Tyre's revenue was the grain
from Shihor—
the harvest of the Nile.
She was the merchant
among the nations.
- 4 Be ashamed Sidon, the stronghold
of the sea,
for the sea has spoken:
"I have not been in labor or given birth.
I have not raised young men [or] brought up young women."
5 When the news reaches Egypt, they will be in anguish over the news about Tyre.
- 6 Cross over to Tarshish;
wail, inhabitants of the coastland!
- 7 Is this your jubilant [city],
whose origin was in ancient times,
whose feet have taken her
to settle far away?
- 8 Who planned this against Tyre,
the bestower of crowns,
whose traders are princes,
whose merchants are the honored ones
of the earth?
- 9 The LORD of •Hosts planned it,
to desecrate all [its] glorious beauty,
to disgrace all the honored ones
of the earth.
- 10 Overflow^c your land like the Nile,
daughter of Tarshish;
there is no longer anything to restrain [you].^d
- 11 He stretched out His hand over the sea;
He made kingdoms tremble.
The LORD has commanded that the Canaanite fortresses be destroyed.
- 12 He said,
"You will not rejoice any more,
ravished young woman,
daughter of Sidon.
Get up and cross over to Cyprus—
even there you will have no rest!"
- 13 Look at the land of Chaldeans—
a people who no longer exist.
Assyria destined it for wild beasts.

They set up their siege towers
and stripped its palaces.
They made it a ruin.

- 14 Wail, ships of Tarshish,
because your fortress is destroyed!

15 On that day Tyre will be forgotten for 70 years—the life span of one king. At the end of 70 years, what the song [says] about the prostitute
will happen to Tyre:

- 16 Pick up [your] harp,
stroll through the city,
prostitute forgotten [by men].
Play skillfully,
sing many a song,
and you will be thought of again.

17 And at the end of the 70 years, the LORD will restore Tyre and she will go back into business, prostituting herself with all the kingdoms of the world on the face of the earth. 18 But her profits and wages will be dedicated to the LORD. They will not be stored or saved, for her profit will go to those who live in the LORD's presence, to provide them with ample food and sacred clothing.

The Earth Judged

24 Look, the LORD is stripping the earth bare

and making it desolate.
He will twist its surface and scatter
its inhabitants:

- 2 people and priest alike,
servant and master,
female servant and mistress,
buyer and seller,
lender and borrower,
creditor and debtor.
- 3 The earth will be stripped completely bare
and will be totally plundered,
for the LORD has spoken this message.
- 4 The earth mourns and withers;
the world wastes away and withers;
the exalted people of the earth waste away.
- 5 The earth is polluted by its inhabitants,
for they have transgressed teachings,
overstepped decrees,
and broken the everlasting covenant.
- 6 Therefore a curse has consumed
the earth,
and its inhabitants have become guilty;

^a23:1 Hb Kittim ^b23:2 DSS; MT reads Sidon, whom the seafarers have filled ^c23:10 DSS, LXX read Work

^d23:10 Or longer any harbor

- the earth's inhabitants have been burned,
and only a few survive.
- 7 The new wine mourns;
the vine withers.
All the carousers now groan.
- 8 The joyful tambourines have ceased.
The noise of the jubilant has stopped.
The joyful lyre has ceased.
- 9 They no longer sing and drink wine;
beer is bitter to those who drink it.
- 10 The city of chaos is shattered;
every house is closed to entry.
- 11 In the streets they cry^a for wine.
All joy grows dark;
earth's rejoicing goes into exile.
- 12 Only desolation remains in the city;
its gate has collapsed in ruins.
- 13 For this is how it will be on earth
among the nations:
like a harvested olive tree,
like a gleaner after a grape harvest.
- 14 They raise their voices, they sing out;
they proclaim in the west
the majesty of the LORD.
- 15 Therefore in the east honor the LORD!
In the islands of the west [honor]
the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.
- 16 From the ends of the earth we hear songs:
The Splendor of the Righteous One.
- But I said, "I waste away! I waste away!^b Woe is me."
The treacherous act treacherously;
the treacherous deal very treacherously.
- 17 Terror, pit, and snare [await] you who dwell on the earth.
- 18 Whoever flees at the sound of terror
will fall into a pit,
and whoever escapes from the pit
will be caught in a snare.
For the windows are opened from above,
and the foundations of the earth are shaken.
- 19 The earth is completely devastated;
the earth is split open;
the earth is violently shaken.
- 20 The earth staggers like a drunkard and sways like a hut.
Earth's rebellion weighs it down,
and it falls, never to rise again.
- 21 On that day the LORD will punish the host of heaven above

- and kings of the earth below.
- 22 They will be gathered together
like prisoners in a pit.
They will be confined to a dungeon;
after many days they will be punished.
- 23 The moon will be put to shame
and the sun disgraced,
because the LORD of •Hosts will reign
as king
on Mount Zion in Jerusalem, and He will [display His] glory
in the presence of His elders.

Salvation and Judgment on That Day

- 25 LORD, You are my God;
I will exalt You. I will praise Your name, for You have accomplished wonders,
plans [formed] long ago,
with perfect faithfulness.
- 2 For You have turned the city into a pile of rubble,
a fortified city, into a ruin;
the fortress of barbarians is no longer
a city;
it will never be rebuilt.
- 3 Therefore, a strong people will honor You.
A city of violent people^c will •fear You.
- 4 For You have been a stronghold
for the poor,
a stronghold for the humble person
in his distress,
a refuge from the rain, a shade
from the heat.
When the breath of the violent
is like rain [against] a wall,
- 5 like heat in a dry land,
You subdue the uproar of barbarians.
As^d the shade of a cloud [cools] the heat of the day,
[so] He stills the song of the violent.
- 6 The LORD of •Hosts will prepare a feast
for all the peoples on this mountain^e — a feast of aged wine, choice meat,^f finely aged wine.
- 7 On this mountain
[He] will destroy the [burial] shroud,
the shroud over all the peoples,
the sheet covering all the nations;
- 8 He will destroy death forever.
The Lord GOD will wipe away the tears
from every face
and remove His people's disgrace

Let us rejoice and be glad in His salvation.”
- 10 For the LORD’s power will rest
on this mountain.

But Moab will be trampled in his place^a as straw is trampled in a dung pile.

of it,
as a swimmer spreads out [his arms]
to swim.
His pride will be brought low,
along with the trickery of his hands.

will be brought down,
thrown to the ground, to the dust.

The Song of Judah

26 On that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah:

We have a strong city.
Salvation is established as walls and ramparts.

- 2 Open the gates
so a righteous nation can come in—one that remains faithful.
- 3 You will keep in perfect peace
the mind [that is] dependent [on You],
for it is trusting in You.
- 4 Trust in the LORD forever,
because in •Yah, the LORD, is an everlasting rock!
- 5 For He has humbled those who live in lofty places—
an inaccessible city.
He brings it down; He brings it down
to the ground;
He throws it to the dust.
- 6 Feet trample it,
the feet of the humble,
the steps of the poor.

God’s People Vindicated

- 7 The path of the righteous is level;
You clear a straight path for the righteous.
- 8 Yes, LORD, we wait for You in the path of Your judgments.

Our desire is for Your name and renown.

- 9 I long for You in the night;
yes, my spirit within me
diligently seeks You,
for when Your judgments are [in] the land,
the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.
- 10 [But if] the wicked is shown favor,
he does not learn righteousness.
In a righteous land he acts unjustly and does not see the majesty of the LORD.
- 11 LORD, Your hand is lifted up [to take action],
but they do not see it.
They will see [Your] zeal for [Your] people,
and they will be put to shame.
The fire for Your adversaries will consume them!
- 12 LORD, You will establish peace for us,
for You have also done all our work for us.
- 13 LORD, our God, other lords than You have ruled over us,
but we remember Your name alone.
- 14 The dead do not live;
departed spirits do not rise up.
Indeed, You have visited
and destroyed them;
You have wiped out all memory of them.
- 15 You have added to the nation, LORD.
You have added to the nation;
You are honored.
You have expanded all the borders
of the land.
- 16 LORD, they went to You in their distress;
they poured out whispered [prayers

writhes and cries out in her pains,
so we were before You, LORD.
- 18 We became pregnant, we writhed in pain;
we gave birth to wind.
We have won no victories on earth,
and the earth’s inhabitants
have not fallen.

and close your doors behind you.
Hide for a little while until the wrath
has passed.
- 21 For look, the LORD is coming from His place
to punish the inhabitants of the earth
for their iniquity.
The earth will reveal the blood shed on it and will no longer conceal her slain.

Leviathan Slain

27 On that day the LORD with His harsh, great, and strong sword, will bring judgment on •Leviathan, the fleeing serpent—Leviathan, the twisting serpent. He will slay the monster that is in the sea.

The LORD's Vineyard

- 2 On that day
sing about a desirable vineyard:
- 3 I, the LORD, watch over it;
I water it regularly.
I guard it night and day
so that no one disturbs it.
- 4 I am not angry,
but if it produces thorns and briers for Me,
I will fight against it, trample it,
and burn it to the ground.
- 5 Or let it take hold of My strength;
let it make peace with Me—
make peace with Me.
- 6 In days to come, Jacob will take root.
Israel will blossom and bloom
and fill the whole world with fruit.
- 7 Did the LORD strike Israel
as He struck the one who struck Israel?
Was he killed like those killed by Him?
- 8 You disputed with her
by banishing and driving her away.^a He removed [her] with His severe storm
on the day of the east wind.
- 9 Therefore Jacob's iniquity will be purged
in this way,
and the result of the removal of his sin
will be this:
when he makes all the altar stones
like crushed bits of chalk,
no •Asherah poles or incense altars
will remain standing.

- 10 For the fortified city will be deserted, pastures abandoned and forsaken like a wilderness.
Calves will graze there,
and there they will spread out and strip
its branches.
- 11 When its branches dry out, they will be broken off.
Women will come and make fires
with them,
for they are not a people
with understanding.
Therefore their Maker will not have compassion on them,
and their Creator will not be gracious
to them.
- 12 On that day
the LORD will thresh grain
from the Euphrates River
as far as the •Wadi of Egypt, and you Israelites will be gathered one by one.
- 13 On that day
a great trumpet will be blown,
and those lost in the land of Assyria
will come,
as well as those dispersed in the land
of Egypt;
and they will worship the LORD
at Jerusalem on the holy mountain.

Woe to Samaria

- 28 Woe to the majestic crown
of Ephraim's drunkards,
and to the fading flower
of its beautiful splendor, which is on the summit above
the rich valley.
[Woe] to those overcome with wine.
- 2 Look, the Lord has a strong and mighty one—
like a devastating hail storm,
like a storm with strong flooding waters.
He will bring it across the land with [His] hand.
- 3 The majestic crown
of Ephraim's drunkards
will be trampled underfoot.
- 4 The fading flower
of his beautiful splendor, which is on the summit
above the rich valley,

^a27:8 Hb obscure

- will be like a ripe fig
before the summer harvest.
Whoever sees it will swallow it while it is still in his hand.
- 5 On that day
the LORD of •Hosts will become a crown of beauty
and a diadem of splendor
to the remnant of His people,
- 6 a spirit of justice
to the one who sits in judgment, and strength
to those who turn back the battle
at the gate.
- 7 These also stagger because of wine
and stumble under the influence of beer:
priest and prophet stagger because of beer,
they are confused by wine.
They stumble because of beer,
they are muddled in [their] visions,
they stumble in [their] judgments.
- 8 Indeed, all their tables are covered with vomit;
there is no place without a stench.
- 9 Who is he^a trying to teach?
Who is he^a trying to instruct?
Infants^b [just] weaned from milk?
Babies^b removed from the breast?
- 10 For [he says]: “Law after law,
law after law,
line after line, line after line,
a little here, a little there.”^c
- 11 So He will speak to this people with stammering speech
and in a foreign language.
- 12 He had said to them:
“This is the place of rest,
let the weary rest;
this is the place of repose.”^d
But they would not listen.
- 13 Then the word of the LORD came to them:
“Law after law, law after law,
line after line, line after line,
a little here, a little there,”^d
so they go stumbling backwards,
to be broken, trapped, and captured.
- 15 For you said, “We have cut a deal with Death,
and we have made an agreement with •Sheol;
when the overwhelming scourge
passes through,
it will not touch us,
because we have made falsehood
our refuge
and have hidden behind treachery.”
- 16 Therefore the Lord GOD said:
“Look, I have laid a stone in Zion,
a tested stone,
a precious cornerstone,
a sure foundation;
the one who believes will be unshakable.”^e
- 17 And I will make justice the measuring line and righteousness the mason’s level.”
Hail will sweep away the false refuge,
and water will flood your hiding place.
- 18 Your deal with Death will be dissolved, and your agreement with Sheol
will not last.
When the overwhelming scourge
passes through,
you will be trampled.
- 19 Every time it passes through,
it will carry you away;
it will pass through every morning—
every day and every night.
Only terror will cause you to understand the message.^f
- 20 Indeed, the bed is too short to stretch out on,
and its cover too small to wrap up in.
- 21 For the LORD will rise up as [He did]
at Mount Perazim.
He will rise in wrath, as at the valley
of Gibeon,
to do His work, His strange work,
and to perform His task,
His disturbing task.
- 22 So now, do not mock,
or your shackles will become stronger.
Indeed, I have heard from the Lord GOD
of Hosts
a decree of destruction
for the whole land.

A Deal with Death

- 14 Therefore hear the word of the LORD,
you mockers
who rule this people in Jerusalem.

God's Wonderful Advice

- 23 Listen and hear my voice.
Pay attention and hear what I say.

^a28:9 Or He ^b28:9 Lit Those ^c28:10 Hb obscure; perhaps the mockers of v. 9 are mimicking the prophet's words as baby talk. ^d28:13 Hb obscure; the LORD quotes the mockers' words in v. 10 to represent the unintelligible language of the Assyrian invaders. ^e28:16 Lit will not hurry ^f28:19 Or The understanding of the message will cause sheer terror

- 24 Does the plowman plow every day to plant seed?
Does he [continuously] break up and cultivate the soil?
- 25 When he has leveled its surface,
does he not then scatter cumin and sow
black cumin?
He plants wheat in rows and barley
in plots,
with spelt as their border.
- 26 His God teaches him order;
He instructs him.
- 27 Certainly black cumin is not threshed
with a threshing board,
and a cart wheel is not rolled over the cumin.
But black cumin is beaten out with a stick,
and cumin with a rod.
- 28 Bread grain is crushed,
but is not threshed endlessly.
Though the wheel
of [the farmer's] cart rumbles,
his horses do not crush it.
- 29 This also comes from the LORD
of Hosts.
He gives wonderful advice;
He gives great wisdom.

Woe to Jerusalem

- 29 Woe to Ariel,^a Ariel,
the city where David camped!
Continue year after year;
let the festivals recur.
- 2 I will oppress Ariel,
and there will be mourning and crying,
and she will be to Me like an Ariel.^a
- 3 I will camp in a circle around you;
I will besiege you with earth ramps,
and I will set up my siege towers
against you.
- 4 You will be brought down;
you will speak from the ground,
and your words will come from low
in the dust.
Your voice will be like that of a spirit
from the ground;
your speech will whisper from the dust.
- 5 The multitude of your foes^b will be like fine dust,

- and the multitude of the ruthless,
like blowing chaff.
Then suddenly, in an instant,
- 6 you will be visited by the LORD of •Hosts
with thunder, earthquake, and loud noise, storm, tempest, and a flame
of consuming fire.
- 7 The multitude of all the nations
going out to battle against Ariel—
all the attackers, the siege-works
against her,
and those who oppress her—
will then be like a dream, a vision
in the night.
- 8 It will be like a hungry one who dreams
he is eating,
then wakes and is still hungry;
and like a thirsty one who dreams
he is drinking,
then wakes and is still thirsty,
longing for water.
So will be the multitude of all the nations
who go to battle against Mount Zion.
- 9 Stop and be astonished;
blind yourselves and be blind!
They are drunk,^c but not with wine;
they stagger,^d but not with beer.
- 10 For the LORD has poured out on you
an overwhelming urge to^e sleep;
He has shut your eyes—the prophets,
and covered your heads—the seers.

11 For you the entire vision will be like the words of a sealed document. If it is given to one who can read and he is asked to read it,^f he will say, "I can't read it, because it is sealed." 12 And if the document is given to one who cannot read and he is asked to read it,^g he will say, "I can't read."

13 The Lord said:

Because these people approach Me
with their mouths to honor Me with lip-service^h —
yet their hearts are far from Me,
and their worship [consists of] man-made rules learned [by rote]—

14 therefore I will again confound
these people
with wonder after wonder.

The wisdom of their wise men will vanish,
and the understanding of the perceptive
will be hidden.

- 15 Woe to those who go to great lengths
to hide their plans from the LORD.
[They do] their works in darkness,
and say, "Who sees us? Who knows us?"
- 16 You have turned things around,
as if the potter were the same as the clay.
How can what is made say about its maker,
"He didn't make me"?
How can what is formed
say about the one who formed it,
"He doesn't understand [what he's doing]"?
- 17 Isn't [it true that] in just a little while Lebanon will become an orchard,
and the orchard will seem like a forest?
- 18 On that day the deaf will hear
the words of a document,
and out of a deep darkness
the eyes of the blind will see.
- 19 The humble will have joy
after joy in the LORD,
and the poor people will rejoice
in the Holy One of Israel.
- 20 For the ruthless one will vanish,
the scorner will disappear,
and all those who lie in wait
with evil intent
will be killed—
- 21 those who, with [their] speech,
accuse a person of wrongdoing,
who set a trap at the •gate
for the mediator,
and without cause deprive the righteous
of justice.
- 22 Therefore, the LORD who redeemed Abraham says this about the house of Jacob:
Jacob will no longer be ashamed and his face will no longer be pale.
- 23 For when he sees his children,
the work of My hands
within his [nation],
they will honor My name,
they will honor the Holy One of Jacob and stand in awe of the God of Israel.
- 24 Those who are confused
will gain understanding and those who grumble
will accept instruction.

Condemnation of the Egyptian Alliance

- 30 Woe to the rebellious children!
[This is] the LORD's declaration.
They carry out a plan, but not Mine,
They make an alliance,
but against My will,
piling sin on top of sin.
- 2 They set out to go down to Egypt
without asking My advice,
in order to seek shelter
under Pharaoh's protection and take refuge in Egypt's shadow.
 - 3 But Pharaoh's protection will become your shame,
and refuge in Egypt's shadow your disgrace.
 - 4 For though his^a princes are at Zoan
and his messengers reach as far as Hanes,
 - 5 everyone will be ashamed
because of a people who can't help.
They are of no benefit, they are no help;
they are good for nothing but shame
and reproach.
 - 6 An •oracle about the animals of the •Negev:^b
Through a land of trouble and distress,
of lioness and lion,
of viper and flying serpent,
they carry their wealth on the backs of donkeys
and their treasures on the humps
of camels,
to a people who will not help them.
 - 7 Egypt's help is completely worthless;
therefore, I call her:
•Rahab Who Just Sits.
 - 8 Go now, write it on a tablet
in their presence
and inscribe it on a scroll;
it will be for the future,
forever and ever.
 - 9 They are a rebellious people,
deceptive children,
children who do not obey
the LORD's instruction.
 - 10 They say to the seers, "Do not see,"
and to the prophets,
"Do not prophesy the truth to us.
Tell us flattering things.
Prophesy illusions.
 - 11 Get out of the way!
Leave the pathway.
Rid us of the Holy One of Israel."

- 12 Therefore the Holy One of Israel says:
 “Because you have rejected this message and have trusted in oppression and deceit,
 and have depended on them, 13 this iniquity of yours will be like a spreading breach,
 a bulge in a high wall
 whose collapse will come very suddenly.
 14 Its collapse will be like the shattering of a potter’s jar, crushed to pieces,
 so that not even a fragment of pottery will be found among its shattered remains—no fragment large enough to take fire from a hearth
 or scoop water from a cistern.”
 15 For the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel, has said:
 “You will be delivered by returning
 and resting;
 your strength will lie in quiet confidence.
 But you are not willing.”
 16 You say, “No!
 We will escape on horses”—
 therefore you will escape!—
 and, “We will ride on fast horses”—
 but those who pursue you will be faster.
 17 One thousand [will flee] at the threat of one,
 at the threat of five you will flee,
 until you alone remain
 like a [solitary] pole on a mountaintop
 or a banner on a hill.

The LORD’s Mercy to Israel

- 18 Therefore the LORD is waiting to show you mercy,
 and is rising up to show you compassion,
 for the LORD is a just God.
 Happy are all who wait patiently for Him.
 19 For you people will live on Zion in Jerusalem and will never cry again. He will show favor to you at the sound of your cry; when He hears,
 He will answer you. 20 The Lord will give you meager bread and water during oppression, but your Teacher^a will not hide Himself^b any longer.
 Your eyes will see your Teacher,^a 21 and whenever you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear this command behind you: “This is the way. Walk in it.” 22 Then you will defile your silver-plated idols and your gold-plated images.

You will throw them away like menstrual cloths,
 and call them filth.

23 Then He will send rain for your seed that you have sown in the ground, and the food, the produce of the ground, will be rich and plentiful. On that day your cattle will graze in open pastures.
 24 The oxen and donkeys that work the ground will eat salted fodder scattered with winnowing shovel and fork. 25 Streams and watercourses will be on every high mountain and every raised hill
 on the day of great slaughter when the towers fall.
 26 The moonlight will be as bright as the sunlight,
 and the sunlight will be seven times brighter—
 like the light of seven days—on the day that the LORD bandages His people’s injuries and heals the wounds He inflicted.

Annihilation of the Assyrians

- 27 Look, •Yahweh^c comes from far away,
 His anger burning and heavy with smoke.^d
 His lips are full of fury,
 and His tongue is like a consuming fire.
 28 His breath is like an overflowing torrent that rises to the neck.
 [He comes] to sift the nations in a sieve
 of destruction
 and to put a bridle on the jaws
 of the peoples
 to lead [them] astray.
 29 Your singing will be like that on the night of a holy festival,
 And [your] heart will rejoice
 like one who walks [to the music]
 of a flute,
 going up to the mountain of the LORD,
 to the Rock of Israel.
 30 And the LORD will make the splendor of His voice heard and reveal His arm striking in angry wrath and a flame
 of consuming fire,
 in driving rain, a torrent, and hailstones.
 31 Assyria will be shattered by the voice
 of the LORD.
 He will strike with a rod.
 32 And every stroke of the appointed^e staff that the LORD brings down on him will be [to the sound] of tambourines and lyres;
 He will fight against him
 with brandished weapons.

The LORD, the Only Help

- 31 Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help and who depend on horses! They trust in the number of chariots and in the great strength of charioteers. They do not look to the Holy One of Israel and they do not seek the LORD's help.
- 2 But He also is wise and brings disaster. He does not go back on what He says; He will rise up against the house of wicked men and against the allies of evildoers.
- 3 Egyptians are men, not God; their horses are flesh, not spirit. When the LORD raises His hand [to strike], the helper will stumble and the helped will fall; both will perish together.
- 4 For this is what the LORD said to me: As a lion or young lion growls over its prey when a band of shepherds is called out against it, and is not terrified by their shouting or subdued by their noise, so the LORD of •Hosts will come down to fight on Mount Zion and on its hill.
- 5 Like hovering birds, so the LORD of Hosts will protect Jerusalem— by protecting [it], He will rescue [it], by sparing [it], He will deliver [it].
- 6 Return to the One the Israelites have greatly rebelled against. 7 For on that day, each one will reject the silver and gold idols that your own hands have sinfully made.
- 8 Then Assyria will fall, but not by human sword; a sword will devour him, but not one made by man. He will flee from the sword,

- his young men will be put to forced labor.
- 9 His rock^a will pass away because of fear, and his officers will be afraid because of the signal flag.

[This is] the LORD's declaration—whose fire is in Zion and whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

The Righteous Kingdom Announced

- 32 Indeed, a king will reign righteously, and rulers will rule justly.
- 2 Each will be like a shelter from the wind, a refuge from the rain, like streams of water in a dry land and the shade of a massive rock in an arid land.
- 3 Then the eyes of those who see will not be closed, and the ears of those who hear will listen.
- 4 The reckless mind will gain knowledge, and the stammering tongue will speak clearly and fluently.
- 5 A fool will no longer be called a noble, nor a scoundrel said to be important.
- 6 For a fool speaks foolishness and his mind plots iniquity. He lives in a godless way and speaks falsely about the LORD. He leaves the hungry empty and deprives the thirsty of drink.
- 7 The scoundrel's weapons are destructive; he hatches plots to destroy the needy with lies, and by charging the poor during a judgment.
- 8 But a noble person plans noble things; he stands up for noble causes.
- 9 Stand up, you complacent women; listen to me. Pay attention to what I say, you overconfident daughters.
- 10 In a little more than a year you overconfident ones will shudder, for the vintage will fail and the harvest will not come.
- 11 Shudder, you complacent ones; tremble, you overconfident ones! Strip yourselves bare and put [•sackcloth] about your waists.
- 12 Beat your breasts [in mourning] for the delightful fields and the fruitful vines,
- 13 for the ground of my people

^a31:9 Perhaps the Assyrian king

growing thorns and briers,

- 14 For the palace will be forsaken,
the busy city abandoned.
The hill and the watchtower will become barren places forever,
the joy of wild asses,
and a pasture for flocks,
15 until the Spirit from heaven is poured out
on us.
Then the desert will become an orchard,
and the orchard will seem like a forest.
16 Then justice will inhabit the wilderness,
and righteousness will dwell
in the orchard.
17 The result of righteousness
will be peace;
the effect of righteousness
will be quiet confidence forever.
18 Then my people will dwell
in a peaceful place,
and in safe and restful dwellings.
19 But hail will level the forest,^a and the city will sink into the depths.
20 Happy are you who sow seed
beside abundant waters,
who let ox and donkey range freely.

The LORD Rises Up

- 33 Woe, you destroyer never destroyed,
you traitor never betrayed!
When you have finished destroying,
you will be destroyed.
When you have finished betraying,
they will betray you.
- 2 LORD, be gracious to us! We wait for You.
Be our strength every morning,
and our salvation in time of trouble.
- 3 The peoples flee at the thunderous noise;
the nations scatter when You rise
in Your majesty.
- 4 Your spoil will be gathered as locusts
are gathered;
people will swarm over it
like an infestation of locusts.
- 5 The LORD is exalted, for He dwells
on high;
He has filled Zion with justice
and righteousness.
- 6 There will be times of security for you—

a storehouse of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge.

The •fear of the LORD is Zion's treasure.

- 7 Listen! Their warriors cry loudly
in the streets;
the messengers of peace weep bitterly.
- 8 The highways are deserted;
travel has ceased.
An agreement has been broken,
and cities^b despised.
and human life disregarded.
- 9 The land mourns and withers;
Lebanon is ashamed and decayed.
Sharon is like a desert;
Bashan and Carmel shake off [their] leaves.
- 10 "Now I will rise up," says the LORD.
"Now I will lift Myself up.
Now I will be exalted.
- 11 You will conceive chaff;
you will give birth to stubble.
Your breath is fire that will consume you.
- 12 The peoples will be burned to ashes,
like thorns cut down and burned in a fire.
- 13 You who are far off, hear what I have done;
you who are near, know My strength."
- 14 The sinners in Zion are afraid; trembling seizes the ungodly:
"Who among us can dwell
with a consuming fire?
Who among us can dwell
with ever-burning flames?"
- 15 The one who lives righteously
and speaks rightly,
who refuses gain from extortion,
whose hand never takes a bribe,
who stops his ears from listening to murderous plots^c
and shuts his eyes to avoid endorsing evil^d —
- 16 he will dwell on the heights;
his refuge will be the rocky fortresses,
his food provided, his water assured.
- 17 Your eyes will see the king in his beauty;
you will see a vast land.
- 18 Your mind will meditate on the [past] terror:
"Where is the accountant?^e
Where is the tribute collector?^f

Where is the one who spied out our defenses?"^a

- 19 You will no longer see the barbarians,
a people whose speech is difficult to comprehend—
who stammer in a language that is not understood.
- 20 Look at Zion, the city of our festival times.
Your eyes will see Jerusalem,
a peaceful pasture, a tent
that does not wander;
its tent pegs will not be pulled up
nor will any of its cords be loosened.
- 21 For there the majestic One, the LORD,
will be for us,
a place of rivers and broad streams,
where ships that are rowed will not go,
and majestic vessels will not pass.
- 22 For the LORD is our Judge,
the LORD is our lawgiver,
the LORD is our King.
He will save us.
- 23 Your ropes are slack;
they cannot hold the base of the mast
or spread out the flag.
Then abundant spoil will be divided,
the lame will plunder it,
- 24 and none there will say, "I am sick."
The people who dwell there will be forgiven [their] iniquity.

The Judgment of the Nations

- 34 You nations, come here and listen;
you peoples, pay attention!
Let the earth hear, and all that fills it,
the world and all that comes from it.
- 2 The LORD is angry with all the nations—
furious with all their armies.
He will set them apart for destruction,
giving them over to slaughter.
 - 3 Their slain will be thrown out,
and the stench of their corpses will rise;
the mountains flow^b with their blood.
 - 4 All^c the heavenly bodies will dissolve.
The skies will roll up like a scroll,
and their stars will all wither
as leaves wither on the vine,
and foliage on the fig tree.

The Judgment of Edom

- 5 When My sword has drunk its fill^d
in the heavens

it will then come down on Edom and on the people I have •set apart for destruction.

- 6 The LORD's sword is covered with blood.
It drips with fat,
with the blood of lambs and goats,
with the fat of the kidneys of rams.
For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah,
a great slaughter in the land of Edom.
- 7 The wild oxen will be struck^e down
with them,
and young bulls with the mighty bulls.
Their land will be soaked with^f blood,
and their soil will be saturated with fat.
- 8 For the LORD has a day of vengeance,
a time of paying back [Edom]
for its hostility against Zion.
- 9 [Edom's] streams will be turned into pitch,
her soil into sulfur;
her land will become burning pitch.
- 10 It will never go out—day or night.
Its smoke will go up forever.
It will be desolate, from generation
to generation;
no one will pass through it forever
and ever.
- 11 The desert owl^g and the hedgehog^h
will possess it,
and the great owl and the raven
will dwell there.
[The LORD] will stretch out a measuring line
and a plumb line over her for [her] destruction and chaos.
- 12 No nobles will be left to proclaim a king,
and all her princes will come to nothing.
- 13 Her palaces will be overgrown with thorns;
her fortified cities, with thistles and briers.
She will become a dwelling for jackals,
an abodeⁱ for ostriches.
- 14 The wild beasts will meet hyenas,
and one wild goat will call to another.
Indeed, the screech owl will stay there
and will find a resting place for herself.
- 15 The sand partridge^j will make her nest there;
she will lay and hatch her eggs
and will gather [her brood]
under her shadow.

The Ransomed Return to Zion

- 35 The wilderness and the dry land
will be glad;
the desert will rejoice and blossom
like a rose.^b
- 2 It will blossom abundantly
and will also rejoice with joy and singing.
The glory of Lebanon will be given to it,
the splendor of Carmel and Sharon.
They will see the glory of the LORD,
the splendor of our God.
- 3 Strengthen the weak hands, steady the shaking knees!
- 4 Say to the faint-hearted:
“Be strong; do not fear!
Here is your God; vengeance is coming.
God’s retribution is coming; He will save you.”
- 5 Then the eyes of the blind will be opened,
and the ears of the deaf unstopped.
- 6 Then the lame will leap like a deer,
and the tongue of the mute will sing
for joy,
for water will gush in the wilderness,
and streams in the desert;
- 7 the parched ground will become a pool
of water,
and the thirsty land springs of water.
In the haunt of jackals, in their lairs,
there will be grass, reeds, and papyrus.
- 8 A road will be there and a way;
it will be called the Holy Way.
The unclean will not travel on it,
but it will be for him who walks the path.
Even the fool will not go astray.
- 9 There will be no lion there,
and no vicious beast will go up on it;
they will not be found there.
But the redeemed will walk [on it],

- 10 and the ransomed of the LORD will return
and come to Zion with singing,
crowned with unending joy.
Joy and gladness will overtake [them],
and sorrow and sighing will flee.

Sennacherib Threatens Hezekiah

36 In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria advanced against all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.² Then the king of Assyria sent the •Rabshakeh, along with a massive army, from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. The Assyrian stood near the conduit of the upper pool, by the road to the Fuller’s Field.³ Eliakim son of Hilkiyah, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph, the record keeper, came out to him.

⁴ The Rabshakeh said to them, “Tell Hezekiah:

The great king, the king of Assyria, says this:
‘What are you basing your confidence on?’^c

⁵ I^d say that your plans and military preparedness are mere words. Now who are you trusting in that you have rebelled against me? ⁶ Look, you are trusting in Egypt, that splintered reed of a staff, which will enter and pierce the hand of anyone who leans on it. This is how Pharaoh king of Egypt is to all who trust in him. ⁷ Suppose you say to me: We trust in the LORD our God. Isn’t He the One whose •high places and altars Hezekiah has removed, saying to Judah and Jerusalem: You are to worship at this altar?

⁸ Now make a deal with my master, the king of Assyria. I’ll give you 2,000 horses if you can put riders on them! ⁹ How then can you repel [the attack^e of even] the weakest of my master’s officers, and trust in Egypt for chariots and horsemen? ¹⁰ Have I attacked this land to destroy it without the LORD’s [approval]? The LORD said to me, ‘Attack this land and destroy it.’”

¹¹ Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, “Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand [it]; don’t speak to us in Hebrew^f within earshot of the people who are on the wall.”

¹² But the Rabshakeh replied, “Has my master sent me to speak these words to your master and to you, and not to the men who sit on the wall, [who are destined] with you to eat their excrement and drink their urine?”

¹³ Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out loudly in Hebrew:^a

Listen to the words of the great king, the king of Assyria! ¹⁴ The king says: “Don’t let Hezekiah deceive you, for he cannot deliver you. ¹⁵ Don’t let Hezekiah persuade you to trust the LORD, saying, ‘The LORD will surely deliver us. This city will not be handed over to the king of Assyria.’”

¹⁶ Don’t listen to Hezekiah. For the king of Assyria says: “Make peace^b with me and surrender to me; then every one of you will eat from his own vine and his own fig tree and drink water from his own cistern ¹⁷ until I come and take you away to a land like your land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards. ¹⁸ [Beware] that Hezekiah does not mislead you by saying, ‘The LORD will deliver us.’ Has any one of the gods of the nations delivered his land from the hand of the king of Assyria? ¹⁹ Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they delivered Samaria from my hand? ²⁰ Who of all the gods of these lands [ever] delivered his land from my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem?”

²¹ But they were silent and did not answer him at all, for the king’s command was, “Don’t answer him.” ²² Then Eliakim son of Hilkiyah, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph, the record keeper, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and they reported to him the words of the Rabshakeh.

Hezekiah Seeks Isaiah’s Counsel

37 When King Hezekiah heard [their report], he tore his clothes, put on •sackcloth, and went to the house of the LORD. ² Then he sent Eliakim, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the scribe, and the older priests, wearing sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz. ³ They said to him, “Hezekiah says: ‘Today is a day of distress, rebuke, and disgrace, [as] when children come to the point of birth, and there is no strength to deliver them.

⁴ Perhaps the LORD your God will hear the words of the •Rabshakeh, whom his master, the king of Assyria, sent to mock the living God, and will rebuke [him for] the words that the LORD your God has heard. Therefore offer a prayer for the surviving remnant.’”

⁵ When King Hezekiah’s servants came to Isaiah, ⁶ Isaiah said to them, “Say this to your master, ‘The LORD says: Don’t be afraid because of the words you have heard, which the king of Assyria’s attendants have blasphemed Me with. ⁷ Look! I am putting a spirit in him and he will hear a rumor and return to his own land, where I will cause him to fall by the sword.’”

Sennacherib’s Letter

⁸ When the Rabshakeh heard that the king had left Lachish, he returned and discovered that the king of Assyria was fighting against Libnah. ⁹ The king had heard this about Tirhakah, king of •Cush: “He has set out to fight against you.” So when he heard this, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, ¹⁰ “Say this to Hezekiah king of Judah: ‘Don’t let your God, whom you trust, deceive you by saying that Jerusalem won’t be handed over to the king of Assyria. ¹¹ Look, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the countries; they destroyed them completely. Will you be rescued? ¹² Did the gods of the nations that my predecessors^d destroyed rescue them—Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the Edenites in Telassar? ¹³ Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, or Ivvah?’”

Hezekiah’s Prayer

¹⁴ Hezekiah took the letter from^e the messengers, read it, then went up to the LORD’s house and spread it out before the LORD. ¹⁵ Hezekiah prayed to the LORD: ¹⁶ “LORD of •Hosts, God of Israel, who is enthroned above the •cherubim, You are God—You alone—of all the kingdoms of the earth. You made the heavens and the earth. ¹⁷ Listen closely, LORD, and hear; open Your eyes, LORD, and see; hear all the words that Sennacherib has sent to mock the living God. ¹⁸ LORD, it is true that the kings of Assyria have devastated all these countries and their lands ¹⁹ and have thrown their gods into the fire; for they were not gods but made by human hands—wood and stone. So they have destroyed them. ²⁰ Now, LORD our God, save us from his hand so

God's Answer to Hezekiah

²¹ Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent [a message] to Hezekiah: “The LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘Because you prayed to Me about Sennacherib king of Assyria, ²² this is the word the LORD has spoken against him:

The young woman, Daughter Zion, despises you and scorns you: Daughter Jerusalem shakes [her] head behind your back.^a ²³ Who is it you have mocked and blasphemed? Who have you raised [your] voice against and lifted your eyes in pride? Against the Holy One of Israel!

²⁴ You have mocked the LORD through^b your servants. You have said: With my many chariots I have gone up to the heights of the mountains, to the far recesses of Lebanon. I cut down its tallest cedars, its choice cypress trees. I came to its remotest heights, its densest forest.

²⁵ I dug [wells]^c and drank water. I dried up all the streams of Egypt with the soles of my feet.

²⁶ Have you not heard? I designed it long ago; I planned it in days gone by. I have now brought it to pass, and you have crushed fortified cities into piles of rubble.

²⁷ Their inhabitants have become powerless, dismayed, and ashamed. They are plants of the field, tender grass, grass on the rooftops, blasted by the east wind.^d

²⁸ But I know^e your sitting down, your going out and your coming in, and your raging against Me.

²⁹ Because your raging against Me and your arrogance has reached My ears, I will put My hook in your nose and My bit in your mouth;

I will make you go back the way you came.

³⁰ “‘This will be the sign for you: This year you will eat what grows on its own, and in the second year what grows from that. But in the third year sow and reap, plant vineyards and eat their fruit. ³¹ The surviving remnant of the house of Judah will again take root downward and bear fruit upward. ³² For a remnant will go out from Jerusalem, and survivors from Mount Zion. The zeal of the LORD of Hosts will accomplish this.’

³³ “‘Therefore, this is what the LORD says about the king of Assyria:

He will not enter this city or shoot an arrow there or come before it with a shield or build up an assault ramp against it.

³⁴ He will go back on the road that he came and he will not enter this city. [This is] the LORD's declaration.

³⁵ I will defend this city and rescue it, because of Me and because of My servant David.’”

Sennacherib's Defeat and Death

³⁶ Then the angel of the LORD went out and struck down 185,000 in the camp of the Assyrians. When the people got up the [next] morning—there were all the dead bodies! ³⁷ So Sennacherib king of Assyria broke camp and left. He returned [home] and lived in Nineveh.

³⁸ One day, while he was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him down with the sword and escaped to the land of Ararat. Then his son Esar-haddon became king in his place.

Hezekiah's Illness and Recovery

38 In those days Hezekiah became terminally ill. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz came and said to him, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Put your affairs in order,^f for you are about to die; you will not recover.’”^g

² Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD. ³ He said, “Please, LORD, remember how I have walked before You faithfully and wholeheartedly, and have done what is good in Your sight.” And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

4 Then the word of the LORD came to Isaiah:
 5 “Go and tell Hezekiah that this is what the LORD God of your ancestor David says: I have heard your prayer; I have seen your tears. Look, I am going to add 15 years to your life.^a 6 And I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria; I will defend this city. 7 This is the sign to you from the LORD that the LORD will do what^b He has promised:^c 8 I am going to make the sun’s shadow that goes down on Ahaz’s stairway return by 10 steps.” So the sun’s shadow^d went back the 10 steps it had descended.

9 A poem by Hezekiah king of Judah after he had been sick and had recovered from his illness:

- 10 I said: In the prime^e of my life^a
 I must go to the gates of •Sheol;
 I am deprived of the rest of my years.
 11 I said: I will never see the LORD,
 the LORD in the land of the living;
 I will not look on humanity any longer with the inhabitants of what is passing away.^f
 12 My dwelling is plucked up and removed
 from me
 like a shepherd’s tent.
 I have rolled up my life like a weaver;
 He cuts me off from the loom.^g
 You make an end of me from day until night.
 13 I thought until the morning:
 He will break all my bones like a lion;
 You make an end of me day and night.
 14 I chirp like a swallow [or] a crane;
 I moan like a dove.
 My eyes grow weak looking upward.
 Lord, I am oppressed; support me.
 15 What can I say?
 He has spoken to me,
 and He Himself has done it.
 I walk along slowly all my years
 because of the bitterness of my soul, 16 Lord, because of these [promises]
 people live,
 and in all of them is the life of my spirit
 as well;
 You have restored me to health
 and let me live.
 17 Indeed, it was for [my own] welfare
 that I had such great bitterness;
 but Your love [has delivered] me

from the •Pit of destruction, for You have thrown all my sins behind Your back.

- 18 For Sheol cannot thank You;
 Death cannot praise You.
 Those who go down to the Pit cannot hope for Your faithfulness.
 19 The living, only the living can thank You,
 as I do today;
 a father will make Your faithfulness known to children
 20 The LORD will^h save me;
 we will play stringed instruments
 all the days of our lives
 at the house of the LORD.

21 Now Isaiah had said, “Let them take a lump of figs and apply it to his infected skin, so that he may recover.” 22 And Hezekiah had asked, “What is the sign that I will go up to the LORD’s temple?”

Hezekiah’s Folly

39 At that time Merodach-baladan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah since he heard that he had been sick and had recovered. 2 Hezekiah was pleased with them, and showed them his treasure house—the silver, the gold, the spices, and the precious oil—and all his armory, and everything that was found in his treasuries. There was nothing in his palace and in all his realm that Hezekiah did not show them.

3 Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and asked him, “What did these men say? The men who came to you—where were they from?”

Hezekiah replied, “They came to me from a distant country, from Babylon.”

4 And he asked, “What have they seen in your palace?”

Hezekiah answered, “They have seen everything in my palace. There isn’t anything in my storehouses that I didn’t show them.”

5 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of the LORD of •Hosts: 6 ‘The time will certainly come when everything in your palace and all that your fathers have stored up until this day will be carried off to Babylon; nothing will be left,’ says the LORD. 7 ‘Some of your descendants who come from you will be taken away, and they will be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.’”

⁸ Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “The word of the LORD that you have spoken is good.” For he thought: There will be peace and security during my lifetime.

God's People Comforted

Let him listen and obey in the future.
24 Who gave Jacob to the robber,^d
and Israel to the plunderers?
Was it not the LORD?
Have we not sinned against Him?
They were not willing to walk
in His ways,
and they would not listen
to His instruction.
25 So He poured out on Jacob
His furious anger

It surrounded him with fire,
but he did not know [it];
it burned him, but he paid no attention.^e

Restoration of Israel

- 43 Now this is what the LORD says—
the One who created you, Jacob,
and the One who formed you, Israel—
“Do not fear, for I have redeemed you;
I have called you by your name;
you are Mine.

when you pass through the waters,
and [when you pass] through the rivers,
they will not overwhelm you.
You will not be scorched
when you walk through the fire,
and the flame will not burn you.

God’s Deliverance of Rebellious Israel

- 14 This is what the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel says:
Because of you, I will send to Babylon and bring all of them as fugitives,^c even the Chaldeans in the ships in which they rejoice.^d

No God Other Than Yahweh

⁶ This is what the LORD, the King of Israel and its Redeemer, the LORD of •Hosts, says:

- I am the first and I am the last.
There is no God but Me.
- 7 Who, like Me, can announce [the future]?
Let him say so and make a case
before Me,
since I have established an ancient people.
Let these gods declare^c

and what will take place.
- 8 Do not be startled or afraid.
Have I not told you and declared it long ago?
You are my witnesses!
Is there any God but Me?
There is no [other] Rock;
I do not know any.

- 9 All who make idols are nothing,
and what they treasure does not profit.
Their witnesses do not see

so they will be put to shame.
- 10 Who makes a god or casts a metal image

- 11 Look, all its worshipers will be put to shame,
and the craftsmen are humans.
They all will assemble and stand;
they all will be startled and put to shame.
- 12 The ironworker labors over the coals, shapes the idol with hammers,
and works it with his strong arm.
Also he grows hungry
and his strength fails;
he doesn’t drink water and is faint.
- 13 The woodworker stretches out

he outlines it with a stylus;
he shapes it with chisels

Restoration of Israel through Cyrus

²⁴ This is what the LORD, your Redeemer who formed you from the womb, says:

- I am the LORD, who made everything;
who stretched out the heavens by Myself;
who alone spread out the earth;
- 25 who destroys the omens of the false prophets
and makes fools of diviners;
who confounds the wise
and makes their knowledge foolishness;
- 26 who confirms the message of His servant
and fulfills the counsel of His messengers;
who says to Jerusalem: She will be inhabited,
and to the cities of Judah: They will
be rebuilt,
and I will restore her ruins;
- 27 who says to the depths of the sea: Be dry,
and I will dry up your rivers;

- 28 who says to Cyrus: My shepherd,
he will fulfill all My pleasure and say to Jerusalem: She will
be rebuilt,
and of the temple: Its foundation
will be laid.

- 45 The LORD says this to Cyrus,
His anointed,
whose right hand I have grasped
to subdue nations before him,
to unloose the loins^c of kings,
to open the doors before him
and the gates will not be shut:
- 2 “I will go before you
and level the uneven places;^d
I will shatter the bronze doors and cut the iron bars in two.
- 3 I will give you the treasures of darkness and riches from secret places,
so that you may know that I, the LORD,
the God of Israel call you by your name.
- 4 I call you by your name,
because of Jacob My servant
and Israel My chosen one.
I give a name to you,
though you do not know Me.
- 5 I am the LORD, and there is no other;
there is no God but Me.
I will strengthen^e you,
though you do not know Me,
so that all may know from the rising
of the sun to its setting that there is no one but Me.
I am the LORD, and there is no other.
- 7 I form light and create darkness,
I make success and create disaster;
I, the LORD, do all these things.
- 8 “Heavens, sprinkle from above,
and let the skies shower righteousness.
Let the earth open up that salvation sprout
and righteousness spring up with it.
I, the LORD, have created it.
- 9 “Woe to the one who argues

"Ask Me what is to happen to^a My sons, and instruct Me about the work of My hands.
- 12 I made the earth,
and created man on it.
It was My hands that stretched out
the heavens,
and I commanded all their host.
- 13 I have raised him up in righteousness,
and will level all roads for him.
He will rebuild My city,
and set My exiles free,
not for a price or a bribe,"
says the LORD of •Hosts.

God Alone is the Savior

- 14 This is what the LORD says:
The products of Egypt and the merchandise of •Cush
and the Sabeans, men of stature, will come over to you
and will be yours;
they will follow you,
they will come over in chains;
and bow down to you.
They will confess^b to you:
God is indeed with you, and there is no other;
there is no other God.
- 15 Yes, You are a God who hides Himself,
God of Israel, Savior.
- 16 All of them are put to shame,
even humiliated;
the makers of idols
go in humiliation together.
- 17 Israel will be saved by the LORD
with an everlasting salvation;
you will not be put to shame
or humiliated
for all eternity.
- 18 For this is what the LORD says—
God is the Creator of the heavens.
He formed the earth and made it;
He established it;
He did not create it to be empty,

- [but] formed it to be inhabited—
"I am the LORD,
and there is no other.
- 19 I have not spoken in secret,

I did not say to the descendants
of Jacob:
Seek Me in a wasteland.
I, the LORD, speak truthfully;
I say what is right.
- 20 "Come, gather together,
and draw near, you fugitives

Who predicted this long ago?
Who announced it from ancient times?
Was it not I, the LORD?
There is no other God but Me,

there is no one except Me.
- 22 Turn to Me and be saved,
all the ends of the earth.
For I am God,
and there is no other.
- 23 By Myself I have sworn;^d
Truth has gone from My mouth,
a word that will not be revoked:

 I proclaimed them.
 Suddenly I acted, and they occurred.
 4 Because I know that you are stubborn, and your neck is iron^d

 5 therefore I declared to you long ago;
 I announced it to you before it occurred,
 so you could not claim: My idol

 6 You have heard it. Observe it all.
 Will you not acknowledge it?
 From now on I will announce new things

The Servant Brings Salvation

 He made me like a sharpened arrow;
 He hid me in His quiver.
- 3 He said to me, “You are

 I will be glorified in him.”
- 4 But I myself said: I have labored in vain,
 I have spent my strength for nothing
 and futility;
 yet my vindication is with the LORD,
 and my reward is with my God.
- 5 And now, says the LORD,
 who formed me from the womb to be His servant,

- to bring Jacob back to Him
 so that Israel might be gathered to Him;
 for I am honored in the sight of the LORD,
 and my God is my strength—

Who fathered these for me?
I was deprived of my children and barren, exiled and wandering—
but who brought them up?
See, I was left by myself—
but these, where did they come from?"^c
- 22 This is what the Lord GOD says:
Look, I will lift up My hand
to the nations,
and raise My banner to the peoples.
They will bring your sons in their arms,
and your daughters will be carried
on their shoulders.
- 23 Kings will be your foster fathers,
and their queens^d your nursing mothers.
They will bow down to you

with their faces to the ground,
and lick the dust at your feet.
Then you will know that I am the LORD;
those who put their hope in Me
will not be put to shame.

- 24 Can the prey be taken from the mighty,
or the captives of the righteous^e
be delivered?
- 25 For this is what the LORD says:
"Even the captives of a mighty man will be taken,
and the prey of a tyrant
will be delivered;
I will contend with the one who contends
with you,
and I will save your children.
- 26 I will make your oppressors eat
their own flesh,
and they will be drunk
with their own blood
as with sweet wine.
Then all flesh will know that I, the LORD, am your Savior, and your Redeemer, the Mighty One
of Jacob."

50 This is what the LORD says:

- Where is your mother's divorce certificate
that I used to send her away?
Or who were My creditors
that I sold you to?
Look, you were sold for your iniquities,
and your mother was put away
because of your transgressions.
- 2 Why was no one there when I came?
Why was there no one to answer
when I called?
Is My hand too short to redeem?
Or do I have no power to deliver?
Look, I dry up the sea by My rebuke;
I turn the rivers into a wilderness;
their fish rot because of lack of water
and die of thirst.
- 3 I dress the heavens in black and make •sackcloth their clothing.

The Obedient Servant

- 4 The Lord GOD has given Me
the tongue of those who are instructed to know how to sustain the weary with a word.

^a49:17 DSS, Aq, Theod, Vg; MT, Syr, Sym read sons ^b49:18 Lit all of them ^c49:21 Lit where are (or were) they ^d49:23 Lit princesses ^e49:24 DSS, Syr, Vg read fearsome one, or tyrant

- He awakens [Me] each morning;
He awakens My ear to listen like those being instructed.
- 5 The Lord GOD has opened My ear,
and I was not rebellious;
I did not turn back.
- 6 I gave My back to those who beat Me,
and My cheeks to those who tore out
My beard.
I did not hide My face from scorn
and spitting.
- 7 The Lord GOD will help Me;
therefore I have not been humiliated;
therefore I have set My face like flint,
and I know I will not be put to shame.
- 8 The One who justifies Me is near;
who will contend with Me?
Let us confront each other.^a
Who has a case against Me?^b
Let him come near Me!
- 9 In truth, the Lord GOD will help Me;
who is he who will condemn Me?
Indeed, all of them will wear out
like a garment;
a moth will devour them.
- 10 Who among you •fears the LORD,
listening to the voice of His servant?
Who [among you] walks in darkness,
and has no light?
Let him trust in the name of the LORD;
let him lean on his God.
- 11 Look, all you who kindle a fire,
who encircle yourselves with^c firebrands;
walk in the light of your fire
and in the firebrands you have lit!
This is what you'll get from My hand:
you will lie down in a place of torment.
- and He will make her wilderness
like Eden,
and her desert like the garden
of the LORD.
Joy and gladness will be found in her,
thanksgiving and melodious song.
- 4 Pay attention to Me, My people,
and listen to Me, My nation;
for instruction will come from Me,
and My justice for a light to the nations.
I will bring it about quickly.
- 5 My righteousness is near,
My salvation appears,
and My arms will bring justice
to the nations.
The coastlands^d will put their hope in Me,
and they will look to My strength.^e
- 6 Look up to the heavens,
and look at the earth beneath;
for the heavens will vanish like smoke,
the earth will wear out like a garment,
and its inhabitants will die
in like manner.^f
But My salvation will last forever, and My righteousness will never be shattered.
- 7 Listen to Me, you who know righteousness,
the people in whose heart is My instruction:
do not fear disgrace by men,
and do not be shattered by their taunts.
- 8 For the moth will devour them
like a garment,
and the worm will eat them like wool.
But My righteousness will last forever,
and My salvation for all generations.

Salvation for Zion

- 51 Listen to Me, you
who pursue righteousness,
you who seek the LORD:
Look to the rock from which you were cut,
and to the quarry from which you were dug.
- 2 Look to Abraham your father,
and to Sarah who gave birth to you in pain.
When I called him, he was only one;
I blessed him and made him many.
- 3 For the LORD will comfort Zion;
He will comfort all her waste places,
- 9 Wake up, wake up!
Put on the strength of the LORD's power.
Wake up as in days past,
as in generations of long ago.
Wasn't it You who hacked •Rahab
to pieces,
who pierced the sea monster?
- 10 Wasn't it You who dried up the sea,
the waters of the great deep,
who made the sea-bed into a road
for the redeemed to pass over?
- 11 And the ransomed of the LORD will return
and come to Zion with singing,
crowned with unending joy.

- Joy and gladness will overtake [them],
and sorrow and sighing will flee.
- 22 I—I am the One who comforts you.
Who are you that you should fear man who dies,
or a son of man who is given up
like grass?
- 23 But you have forgotten the LORD,
your Maker,
who stretched out the heavens
and laid the foundations of the earth.
You are in constant dread all day long because of the fury of the oppressor,
who has set himself to destroy.
But where is the fury of the oppressor?
- 24 The prisoner^a is soon to be set free;
he will not die [and go] to the •Pit,
and his food will not be lacking.
- 25 For I am the LORD your God who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar—
His name is •Yahweh of •Hosts.
- 26 I have put My words in your mouth,
and covered you in the shadow of My hand,
in order to plant^b the heavens,
to found the earth,
and to say to Zion, “You are My people.”
- 27 Wake yourself, wake yourself up!
Stand up, Jerusalem,
you who have drunk the cup of His fury
from the hand of the LORD;
you who have drunk the goblet
to the dregs—
the cup that [causes people] to stagger.
- 28 There is no one to guide her among all the children she has raised;
there is no one to take hold of her hand
among all the offspring
she has brought up.
- 29 These two things have happened to you:
devastation and destruction,
famine and sword.
Who will grieve for you?
How can I^c comfort you?
- 30 Your children have fainted;
they lie at the head of every street
like an antelope in a net.
They are full of the LORD’s fury,
the rebuke of your God.
- 21 So listen to this, afflicted and drunken one—but not with wine.
- 22 This is what your Lord says—
Yahweh, even your God, who defends His people—“Look, I have removed the cup of staggering from your hand;
that goblet, the cup of My fury.
You will never drink it again.
- 23 I will put it into the hands
of your tormenters,
who said to you:
Lie down, so we can walk over you.
You made your back like the ground,
and like a street for those who walk on it.
- 52 “Wake up, wake up;
put on your strength, Zion!
Put on your beautiful garments,
Jerusalem, the Holy City!
For the uncircumcised and the unclean
will no longer enter you.
- 2 Stand up, shake the dust off yourself!
Take your seat, Jerusalem.
Remove the bonds^d from your neck,
captive Daughter Zion.”
- 3 For this is what the LORD says:
“You were sold for nothing,
and you will be redeemed without silver.”
- 4 For this is what the Lord GOD says:
“At first My people went down to Egypt
to live there,
then Assyria oppressed them without cause.^e
- 5 So now what have I here”—
the LORD’s declaration—“that My people are taken away
for nothing?

the LORD’s declaration—
“and My name is continually blasphemed
all day long.
- 6 Therefore My people will know
My name;
therefore [they will know] on that day
that I am He who says: Here I am.”

for every eye will see
when the LORD returns to Zion.
- 9 Be joyful, rejoice together,
you ruins of Jerusalem!
For the LORD has comforted His people;
He has redeemed Jerusalem.
- 10 The LORD has displayed His holy arm
in the sight of all the nations;
all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God.
- 11 Leave, leave, go out from there!
Do not touch anything unclean;
go out from her, purify yourselves,
you who carry the vessels of the LORD.
- 12 For you will not leave in a hurry,
and you will not have to take flight;
because the LORD is going before you,
and the God of Israel is your rear guard.

The Servant's Suffering and Exaltation

- 13 See, My servant^a will act wisely;^b
He will be raised and lifted up and greatly exalted.
- 14 Just as many were appalled at You^c —
His appearance was so disfigured
that He did not look like a man, and His form did not resemble a human being—
- 15 so He will sprinkle^d many nations.^e
Kings will shut their mouths
because of Him,
For they will see
what had not been told them,
and they will understand what they had not heard.

- 53 Who has believed
what we have heard?^f
And who has the arm of the LORD
been revealed to?
- 2 He grew up before Him
like a young plant
and like a root out of dry ground.
He had no form or splendor
that we should look at Him,
no appearance that we should desire Him.

- 3 He was despised and rejected by men,
a man of suffering who knew what sickness was.
He was like one
people turned away from;^g
He was despised, and we didn't value Him.
- 4 Yet He Himself bore our sicknesses,
and He carried our pains;
but we in turn regarded Him stricken,
struck down by God, and afflicted.
- 5 But He was pierced because of our transgressions,
crushed because of our iniquities;
punishment for our peace was on Him,
and we are healed by His wounds.
- 6 We all went astray like sheep;
we all have turned to our own way;
and the LORD has punished Him
for^h the iniquity of us all.
- 7 He was oppressed and afflicted,
yet He did not open His mouth.
Like a lamb led to the slaughter and like a sheep silent
before her shearers,
He did not open His mouth.
- 8 He was taken away because of oppression
and judgment;
and who considered His fate?ⁱ
For He was cut off from the land
of the living;
He was struck because of My people's rebellion.
- 9 They^j made His grave with the wicked,
and with a rich man at His death,
although He had done no violence
and had not spoken deceitfully.
- 10 Yet the LORD was pleased to crush Him,
and He made Him sick.
When^k You make Him
a •restitution offering,
He will see [His] •seed, He will prolong His days,
and the will of the LORD will succeed
by His hand.
- 11 He will see [it]^l out of His anguish,
and He will be satisfied with His knowledge.
My righteous servant will justify many,
and He will carry their iniquities.

- 12 Therefore I will give Him^a the many
as a portion,
and He will receive^b the mighty as spoil,
because He submitted Himself to death,
and was counted among the rebels;
yet He bore the sin of many
and interceded for the rebels.

Future Glory for Israel

54 “Rejoice, barren one, who did not give birth;
burst into song and shout,
you who have not been in labor!
For the children of the forsaken one will be more than the children of the married woman,”
says the LORD.

- 2 “Enlarge the site of your tent,
and let your tent curtains
be stretched out;
do not hold back;
lengthen your ropes,
and drive your pegs deep.

- 3 For you will spread out to the right
and to the left,
and your descendants
will dispossess nations
and inhabit the desolate cities.

- 4 “Do not be afraid, for you will not be put to shame;
don’t be humiliated, for you will not
be disgraced.

For you will forget the shame
of your youth,
and you will no longer remember
the disgrace of your widowhood.

- 5 For your husband is your Maker—
His name is •Yahweh of •Hosts—
and the Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer;
He is called the God of all the earth.

- 6 For the LORD has called you,
like a wife deserted and wounded
in spirit,
a wife of one’s youth
when she is rejected,”
says your God.

- 7 “I deserted you for a brief moment,
but I will take you back with great compassion.

- 8 In a surge of anger
I hid My face from you for a moment,

but I will have compassion on you with everlasting love,”

says the LORD your Redeemer.

- 9 “For this is like the days^c of Noah to Me:
when I swore that the waters of Noah
would never flood the earth again,
so I have sworn that I will not be angry
with you
or rebuke you.

- 10 Though the mountains move
and the hills shake,
My love will not be removed from you and My covenant of peace will not be shaken,”
says your compassionate LORD.

- 11 “Poor [Jerusalem], storm-tossed,
and not comforted,
I will set your stones in black mortar,^d
and lay your foundations in sapphires.^e

- 12 I will make your battlements^f of rubies,
your gates of sparkling stones,
and all your walls of precious stones.

- 13 Then all your children will be taught
by the LORD,
their prosperity will be great,
and you will be established
on [a foundation of] righteousness.
You will be far from oppression,
you will certainly not be afraid;
you will be far from terror,
it will certainly not come near you.

- 15 If anyone attacks you,
it is not from Me;
whoever attacks you will fall before you.

- 16 Look, I have created the craftsman who blows on the charcoal fire and produces a weapon suitable for its task;
and I have created the destroyer
to work havoc.

- 17 No weapon formed against you will succeed,
and you will refute any accusation^g
raised against you in court.
This is the heritage of the LORD’s servants,
and their righteousness is from Me.”

[This is] the LORD’s declaration.

is not food,
and your wages on what does not satisfy?
Listen carefully to Me, and eat
what is good,
and you will enjoy the choicest of foods.^a
- 3 Pay attention and come to Me;
listen, so that you will live.
I will make an everlasting covenant
with you,
the promises assured to David.
- 4 Since I have made him a witness to the peoples,
a leader and commander for the peoples,
- 5 so you will summon a nation
you do not know,
and nations who do not know you will run to you.
For the LORD your God,
even the Holy One of Israel,
has glorified you.”
- 6 Seek the LORD while He may be found;
call to Him while He is near.
- 7 Let the wicked one abandon his way,
and the sinful one his thoughts;
let him return to the LORD,
so He may have compassion on him,
and to our God, for He will freely forgive.
- 8 “For My thoughts are not your thoughts,
and your ways are not My ways.”
[This is] the LORD’s declaration.
- 9 “For as heaven is higher than earth,
so My ways are higher than your ways,
and My thoughts than your thoughts.
- 10 For just as rain and snow fall
from heaven,
and do not return there
without saturating the earth,
and making it germinate and sprout,
and providing seed to sow
and food to eat,
- 11 so My word that comes from My mouth
will not return to Me empty,
but it will accomplish what I please,
and will prosper in what I send it [to do].”
- 12 You will indeed go out with joy
and be peacefully guided;

the mountains and the hills will break
into singing before you,
and all the trees of the field will clap [their] hands.

- 13 Instead of the thornbush, a cypress
will come up,
and instead of the brier, a myrtle
will come up;
it will make a name for the LORD
as an everlasting sign that will not be destroyed.

A House of Prayer for All

56 This is what the LORD says:

- Preserve justice and do what is right,
for My salvation is coming soon,
and My righteousness will be revealed.
- 2 Happy is the man who does this,
anyone who maintains this,
who keeps the Sabbath
without desecrating it,
and keeps his hand from doing any evil.
- 3 No foreigner who has converted
to the LORD
should say,
“The LORD will exclude me
from His people”;
and the eunuch should not say,
“Look, I am a dried-up tree.”
- 4 For the LORD says this:
“For the eunuchs who keep My Sabbaths,
and choose what pleases Me,
and hold firmly to My covenant,
- 5 I will give them, in My house and within My walls,
a memorial and a name
better than sons and daughters.
I will give each [of them]
an everlasting name
that will never be cut off.
- 6 And the foreigners who convert
to the LORD,
minister to Him, love the LORD’s name,
and are His servants,
all who keep the Sabbath
without desecrating it,
and who hold firmly to My covenant—
- 7 I will bring them to My holy mountain and let them rejoice in My house
of prayer.
Their •burnt offerings and sacrifices
will be acceptable on My altar,

^a55:2 Lit enjoy fatness

for My house will be called a house
of prayer
for all nations.”

⁸ [This is] the declaration
of the Lord GOD,
who gathers the dispersed
of Israel:

“I will gather to them still others besides those already gathered.”

Unrighteous Leaders Condemned

- ⁹ All you animals of the field and forest,
come and eat!
- ¹⁰ Israel's^a watchmen are blind, all of them,
they know nothing;
all of them are mute dogs,
they cannot bark;
they dream, lie down,
and love to sleep.
- ¹¹ These dogs have fierce appetites;
they never have enough.
And they are shepherds
who have no discernment;
all of them turn to their own way,
every last one for his own gain.
- ¹² “Come, let me get [some] wine,
let's guzzle [some] beer;
and tomorrow will be like today,
only far better!”

57 The righteous one perishes,
and no one takes it to heart;
faithful men are swept away,
with no one realizing that the righteous one is swept away from the presence^b of evil.
² He will enter into peace—
they will rest on their beds^c — everyone who lives uprightly.

Pagan Religion Denounced

- ³ But come here,
you sons of a sorceress,
offspring of an adulterer
and a prostitute!^d
- ⁴ Who is it you are mocking?
Who is it you are opening your mouth
and sticking out your tongue at?
Isn't it you, you rebellious children,
you race of liars,
- ⁵ who burn with lust among the oaks,
under every flourishing tree,

who slaughter children in the •wadis
below the clefts of the rocks?

- ⁶ Your portion is among the smooth [stones]
of the wadi;
indeed, they are your lot.
You have even poured out a drink offering
to them;
you have offered a •grain offering;
should I be satisfied with these?
- ⁷ You have placed your bed
on a high and lofty mountain;
you also went up there to offer sacrifice.
- ⁸ You have set up your memorial behind the door and doorpost.
For away from Me, you stripped,
went up, and made your bed wide,
and you have made a bargain^e for yourself
with them.
You have loved their bed;
you have gazed on their genitals.^f
- ⁹ You went to the king with oil
and multiplied your perfumes;
you sent your envoys far away
and sent [them] down even to •Sheol.
- ¹⁰ You became weary on your many journeys,
[but] you did not say, “I give up!”
You found a renewal of your strength;^g
therefore you did not grow weak.
- ¹¹ Who was it you dreaded and feared,
so that you lied and didn't remember Me
or take it to heart?
Have I not kept silent for such a long time^h
and you do not •fear Me?
- ¹² I will expose your righteousness,
and your works—they will not profit you.
- ¹³ When you cry out,
let your collection [of idols] deliver you!
The wind will carry all of them off,
a breath will take them away.
But whoever takes refuge in Me will inherit the land and possess My holy mountain.

Healing and Peace

and I will not always be angry;
for then the spirit would grow weak
before Me,
even the breath [of man],
which I have made.
- 17 Because of his sinful greed I was angry,
so I struck him; I was angry and hid;^a but he went on turning back to the desires of his heart.
- 18 I have seen his ways, but I will heal him;
I will lead him and comfort him and his mourners,
- 19 creating words of praise.”^b
The LORD says,
“Peace, peace to the one who is far or near,
and I will heal him.
- 20 But the wicked are like the storm-tossed sea,
for it cannot be still,
and its waters churn up mire and muck.
- 21 There is no peace for the wicked,”
says my God.

True Fasting

- 58 “Cry out loudly,^c don’t hold back!
Raise your voice like a trumpet.
Tell My people their transgression,
and the house of Jacob their sins.
- 2 They seek Me day after day
and delight to know My ways,
like a nation that does what is right and does not abandon the justice of their God.
They ask Me for righteous judgments;
they delight in the nearness of God.”
- 3 “Why have we fasted,
but You have not seen?
We have denied ourselves,
but You haven’t noticed!”^d “Look, you do as you please on the day of your fast,
and oppress all your workers.
- 4 You fast [with] contention and strife
to strike viciously with [your] fist.
You cannot fast as [you do] today,
[hoping] to make your voice heard
on high.

- 5 Will the fast I choose be like this:
A day for a person to deny himself,
to bow his head like a reed,
and to spread out [•]sackcloth and ashes?
Will you call this a fast
and a day acceptable to the LORD?
- 6 Isn’t the fast I choose:
To break the chains of wickedness,
to untie the ropes of the yoke,
to set the oppressed free,
and to tear off every yoke?
- 7 Is it not to share your bread
with the hungry,
to bring the poor and homeless
into your house,
to clothe the naked when you see him,
and to not ignore^e your own flesh [and blood]?
- 8 Then your light will appear like the dawn,
and your recovery will come quickly.
Your righteousness will go before you,
and the LORD’s glory will be your rear guard.
- 9 At that time, when you call, the LORD
will answer;
when you cry out, He will say: Here I am.
If you get rid of the yoke from those around you,^f
the finger-pointing and malicious speaking,
- 10 and if you offer yourself^g to the hungry,
and satisfy the afflicted one,
then your light will shine in the darkness,
and your night will be like noonday.
- 11 The LORD will always lead you, satisfy you in a parched land,
and strengthen your bones.
You will be like a watered garden and like a spring whose waters never run dry.
- 12 Some of you will rebuild
the ancient ruins;
you will restore the foundations laid long ago;^h
you will be called the repairer
of broken walls,
the restorer of streets where people live.

and I will make you ride over the heights
of the land,
and let you enjoy the heritage of your father Jacob.”
For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

Sin and Redemption

59 Indeed, the LORD's hand is not too short to save,

- and His ear is not too deaf to hear.
2 But your iniquities have built barriers between you and your God,
and your sins have made Him hide [His] face from you
so that He does not listen.
3 For your hands are defiled with blood,
and your fingers with iniquity;
your lips have spoken lies,
and you mutter injustice.
4 No one makes claims justly;
no one pleads honestly.
They trust in empty and worthless words;
they conceive trouble and give birth
to iniquity.
5 They hatch viper's eggs
and weave spider's webs.
Whoever eats their eggs will die;
crack one open, and a viper is hatched.
6 Their webs cannot become clothing,
and they cannot cover themselves
with their works.
Their works are sinful works,
and violent acts are in their hands.
7 Their feet run after evil,
and they rush to shed innocent blood.
Their thoughts are sinful thoughts;
ruin and wretchedness are in their paths.
8 They have not known the path of peace,
and there is no justice in their ways.
They have made their roads crooked;
no one who walks on them
will know peace.
9 Therefore justice is far from us,
and righteousness does not reach us.
We hope for light, but there is darkness;
for brightness, but we live in the night.
10 We grope along a wall like the blind;

we grope like those without eyes.
We stumble at noon as though it were twilight;
[we are] like the dead among those who are healthy.

- 11 We all growl like bears
and moan like doves.
We hope for justice, but there is none;
for salvation, [but] it is far from us.
12 For our transgressions have multiplied
before You,
and our sins testify against us.
For our transgressions are with us,
and we know our iniquities:
13 transgression and deception
against the LORD,
turning away from following our God,
speaking oppression and revolt,
conceiving and uttering lying words from the heart.
14 Justice is turned back,
and righteousness stands far off.
For truth has stumbled
in the public square,
and honesty cannot enter.
15 Truth is missing,
and whoever turns from evil is plundered.
The LORD saw that there was no justice,
and He was offended.
16 He saw that there was no man—
He was amazed that there was no one interceding;
so His own arm brought salvation,
and His own righteousness supported Him.
17 He put on righteousness
like a breastplate,
and a helmet of salvation on His head;
He put on garments of vengeance
for clothing,
and He wrapped Himself in zeal
as in a cloak.
18 Thus He will repay according to [their] deeds:
fury to His enemies,
retribution to His foes,
and He will repay the coastlands.
19 They will •fear the name of the LORD
in the west,
and His glory in the east;
for He will come like a rushing stream driven by the wind of the LORD.
20 The Redeemer will come to Zion,

^a58:13 Lit or speak a word and to those in Jacob who turn from transgression.

[This is] the LORD's declaration.

²¹ “As for Me, this is My covenant with them,” says the LORD: “My Spirit who is on you, and My words that I have put in your mouth, will not depart from your mouth, or from the mouth of your children, or from the mouth of your children's children, from now on and forever,” says the LORD.

The LORD's Glory in Zion

60 Arise, shine, for your light has come,
and the glory of the LORD shines over you.^a

- ² For look, darkness covers the earth,
and total darkness the peoples;
but the LORD will shine over you,
and His glory will appear over you.
- ³ Nations will come to your light,
and kings to the brightness of your radiance.
- ⁴ Raise your eyes and look around:
they all gather and come to you;
your sons will come from far away,
and your daughters will be carried on the hip.
- ⁵ Then you will see and be radiant,
and your heart will tremble and rejoice,^b
because the riches of the sea
will become yours,
and the wealth of the nations will come
to you.
- ⁶ Caravans of camels will cover your land^c —
young camels of Midian and Ephah—
all of them will come from Sheba.
They will carry gold and frankincense
and proclaim the praises of the LORD.
- ⁷ All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered
to you;
the rams of Nebaioth will serve you and go up on My altar
as an acceptable [sacrifice].
I will glorify My beautiful house.
- ⁸ Who are these who fly like a cloud,
like doves to their shelters?
- ⁹ Yes, the islands will wait for Me
with the ships of Tarshish in the lead,
to bring your children from far away,
their silver and gold with them,
for the honor of the LORD your God,

the Holy One of Israel,
who has glorified you.

- ¹⁰ Foreigners will build up your walls,
and their kings will serve you.
Although I struck you in My wrath,
yet I will show mercy to you with My favor.
- ¹¹ Your gates will always be open;
they will never be shut day or night
so that the wealth of the nations
may be brought into you,
with their kings being led [in procession].
- ¹² For the nation and the kingdom
that will not serve you will perish;
those nations will be annihilated.
- ¹³ The glory of Lebanon will come to you—[its] pine, fir, and cypress together—
to beautify the place of My sanctuary,
and I will glorify My dwelling place.^d
- ¹⁴ The sons of your oppressors
will come and bow down to you;
all who reviled you will fall down on their faces at your feet.
They will call you the City of the LORD,
Zion of the Holy One of Israel.
- ¹⁵ Instead of your being deserted and hated,
with no one passing through,
I will make you an object of eternal pride, a joy from age to age.
- ¹⁶ You will nurse on the milk of nations,
and nurse at the breast of kings;
you will know that I, the LORD,
am your Savior
and Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.
- ¹⁷ I will bring gold instead of bronze;
I will bring silver instead of iron,
bronze instead of wood,
and iron instead of stones.
I will appoint peace as your guard and righteousness as your ruler.
- ¹⁸ Violence will never again be heard of
in your land;
devastation and destruction
[will be gone from] your borders.
But you will name your walls salvation,
and your gates praise.
- ¹⁹ The sun will no longer be your light
by day,
and the brightness of the moon
will not shine on you;
but the LORD will be
your everlasting light,
and your God will be your splendor.

^a60:1 You refers to Jerusalem. ^b60:5 Lit expand ^c60:6 Lit cover you ^d60:13 Lit glorify the place of My feet

- 20 Your sun will no longer set,
and your moon will not fade;
for the LORD will be your everlasting light,
and the days of your sorrow will be over.
- 21 Then all your people will be righteous;
they will possess the land forever;
they are the branch I planted,
the work of My^a hands,
so that I may be glorified.
- 22 The least will become a thousand,
the smallest a mighty nation.
I am the LORD;
I will accomplish it quickly in its time.

Messiah's Jubilee

- 61 The Spirit of the Lord GOD is on Me,
because the LORD has anointed Me
to bring good news to the poor.
He has sent Me to heal^b
the brokenhearted,
to proclaim liberty to the captives,
and freedom to the prisoners;
- 2 to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor,
and the day of our God's vengeance;
to comfort all who mourn,
- 3 to provide for those who mourn in Zion;
to give them a crown of beauty
instead of ashes,
festive oil instead of mourning,
and splendid clothes instead of despair.^c
And they will be called righteous trees, planted by the LORD,
to glorify Him.
- 4 They will rebuild the ancient ruins;
they will restore
the former devastations;
they will renew the ruined cities,
the devastations of many generations.
- 5 Strangers will stand and feed your flocks,
and foreigners will be your plowmen
and vinedressers.
- 6 But you will be called the LORD's priests;
they will speak of you as ministers
of our God;
you will eat the wealth of the nations,
and you will boast in their riches.
- 7 Because your shame was double,
and they cried out,
"Disgrace is their portion," therefore, they will possess double
in their land,
and eternal joy will be theirs.

- 8 For I the LORD love justice;
I hate robbery and injustice;^d
I will faithfully reward them and make an everlasting covenant
with them.
- 9 Their descendants will be known
among the nations,
and their posterity among the peoples.
All who see them will recognize that they are a people the LORD has blessed.
- 10 I greatly rejoice in the LORD,
I exult in my God;
for He has clothed me with the garments of salvation
and wrapped me in a robe
of righteousness,
as a bridegroom wears a turban
and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.
- 11 For as the earth brings forth its growth,
and as a garden enables what is sown
to spring up,
so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise
to spring up before all the nations.

Zion's Restoration

- 62 I will not keep silent because of Zion,
and I will not keep still because of Jerusalem
until her righteousness shines
like a bright light,
and her salvation like a flaming torch.
- 2 Nations will see your righteousness,
and all kings your glory.
You will be called by a new name
that the LORD's mouth will announce.
- 3 You will be a glorious crown
in the LORD's hand,
and a royal diadem in the palm
of your God.
- 4 You will no longer be called Deserted,
and your land will not be called Desolate;
instead, you will be called My Delight
is in Her,^e
and your land Married;^f
for the LORD delights in you,
and your land will be married.
- 5 For as a young man marries a virgin,
so your sons will marry you;

^a60:21 LXX, DSS read His ^b61:1 Lit bind up ^c61:3 Lit a dim spirit ^d61:8 Some Hb mss, DSS, LXX, Syr, Tg, Vg; other Hb mss read robbery with a burnt offering ^e62:4 Hb Hephzibah ^f62:4 Hb Beulah

- and as a bridegroom rejoices^a over [his] bride,
so your God will rejoice over you.
- 6 Jerusalem,
I have appointed watchmen
on your walls;
they will never be silent, day or night.
You, who remind the LORD,
no rest for you!
- 7 Do not give Him rest until He establishes and makes her Jerusalem
the praise of the earth.
- 8 The LORD has sworn
with His right hand
and His strong arm:
I will no longer give your grain
to your enemies for food,
and foreigners will not drink
your new wine
you have labored for.
- 9 For those who gather grain will eat it
and praise the LORD,
and those who harvest the grapes
will drink [the wine]
in My holy courts.
- 10 Go out, go out through the gates;
prepare a way for the people!
Build it up, build up the highway;
clear away the stones!
Raise a banner for the peoples.
- 11 Look, the LORD has proclaimed
to the end of the earth, “Say to Daughter Zion:
Look, your salvation is coming,
His reward is with Him,
and His recompense is before Him.”
- 12 And they will be called^b the Holy People,
the LORD’s Redeemed;
and you will be called Cared For,
A City Not Deserted.

The LORD’s Day of Vengeance

- 63 Who is this coming from Edom
in crimson-stained garments from Bozrah—
this One who is splendid in His apparel,
rising up proudly^c in His great might?
It is I, proclaiming vindication,^d powerful to save.

- 2 Why is Your clothing red,
and Your garments like one who treads
a winepress?
- 3 I trampled the winepress alone,
and no one from the nations was
with Me.
I trampled them in My anger
and ground them underfoot in My fury;
their blood spattered My garments,
and all My clothes were stained.
- 4 For I planned the day of vengeance,^e
and the year of My redemption^f came.
- 5 I looked, but there was no one to help,
and I was amazed that no one assisted;
so My arm accomplished victory
for Me,
and My wrath assisted Me.
- 6 I crushed nations in My anger;
I made them drunk with My wrath and poured out their blood on the ground.

Remembrance of Grace

- 7 I will make known
the LORD’s faithful love
[and] the LORD’s praiseworthy acts, because of all the LORD has done for us—
even the many good things [He has done] for the house of Israel and has done for them based on His compassions
and the abundance of His faithful love.
- 8 He said, “They are indeed My people,
children who will not be disloyal,”
and He became their Savior.
- 9 In all their suffering, He suffered,^g
and the Angel of His Presence saved them.
He redeemed them
because of His love and compassion;
He lifted them up and carried them
all the days of the past.
- 10 But they rebelled,
and grieved His Holy Spirit.
So He became their enemy
[and] fought against them.
- 11 Then He^h remembered the days
of the past,
[the days] of Moses [and] his people.
Where is He who brought them up out of the sea
with the shepherdsⁱ of His flock?

Where is He who put His Holy Spirit
among the flock?

- 12 He sent His glorious arm
at Moses' right hand,
divided the waters before them
to obtain eternal fame for Himself, 13 and led them through the depths
like a horse in the wilderness,
so that they did not stumble.
14 Like cattle that go down into the valley,
the Spirit of the LORD gave them^a rest.
You led Your people this way to make a glorious name for Yourself.

Israel's Prayer

- 15 Look down from heaven and see
from Your lofty home—
holy and beautiful.
Where is Your zeal and Your might?
Your yearning^b and Your compassion are withheld from me.
16 Yet You are our Father, even though Abraham does not know us
and Israel doesn't recognize us.
You, LORD, are our Father;
from ancient times,
Your name is our Redeemer.
17 Why, LORD, do You make us stray from Your ways?
You harden our hearts so we do not •fear^c You.
Return, because of Your servants,
the tribes of Your heritage.
18 Your holy people had a possession^d
for a little while,
[but] our enemies have trampled down
Your sanctuary.
19 We have become like those
You never ruled over,
like those not called by Your name.
64^e If only You would tear
the heavens open
[and] come down,
so that mountains would quake
at Your presence—
2f as fire kindles the brushwood, and fire causes water to boil—
to make Your name known to Your enemies,
so that nations will tremble
at Your presence!

- 3 When You did awesome deeds
that we did not expect,
You came down,
and the mountains quaked at Your presence.
4 From ancient times no one has heard,
no one has listened,
no eye has seen any God except You,
who acts on behalf of the one who waits
for Him.
5 You welcome the one who joyfully does
what is right;
they remember You in Your ways.
But we have sinned, and You were angry;
we will remain in Your ways^g
and be saved.
6 All of us have become like something unclean,
and all our righteous acts are like a polluted^h garment;
all of us wither like a leaf,
and our iniquities carry us away
like the wind.
7 No one calls on Your name,
striving to take hold of You.
For You have hidden Your face from us and made us melt
because ofⁱ our iniquity.
8 Yet LORD, You are our Father;
we are the clay, and You are our potter;
we all are the work of Your hands.
9 LORD, do not be terribly angry
or remember [our] iniquity forever.
Please look—all of us are Your people!
10 Your holy cities have become
a wilderness;
Zion has become a wilderness,
Jerusalem a desolation.
11 Our holy and beautiful^k temple,
where our fathers praised You,
has been burned with fire,
and all that was dear to us lies in ruins.
12 LORD, after all this, will You restrain Yourself?
Will You keep silent and afflict severely?

- 2 I spread out My hands all day long to a rebellious people who walk in the wrong path,
following their own thoughts.
- 3 These people continually provoke Me
to My face,
sacrificing in gardens,
burning incense on bricks,
- 4 sitting among the graves,
spending nights in secret places,
eating swine's flesh,
and putting polluted broth
in their bowls.^b
- 5 They say: Keep to yourself,
don't come near me, for I am too holy
for you!
- These practices are smoke in My nostrils,
a fire that burns all day long.
- 6 It is written before Me:
I will not keep silent, but I will repay;
I will repay them fully^c
- 7 [for] your iniquities and the iniquities
of your^d fathers together,"
says the LORD.
"Because they burned incense
on the mountains
and reproached Me on the hills,
I will reward them fully^e
for their former deeds."

8 The LORD says this:

- As the new wine is found in a bunch
of grapes,
and one says: Don't destroy it,
for there's some good^f in it,
so I will act because of My servants
and not destroy them all.
- 9 I will produce descendants from Jacob,
and heirs to My mountains from Judah;
My chosen ones will possess it,
and My servants will dwell there.
- 10 Sharon will be a pasture for flocks,
and the Valley of Achor a place for cattle
to lie down,
for My people who have sought Me.
- 11 But you who abandon the LORD,
who forget My holy mountain, who prepare a table for Fortune^g
and fill bowls of mixed wine for Destiny,

- 12 I will destine you for the sword,
and all of you will kneel down
to be slaughtered,
because I called and you did not answer,
I spoke and you did not hear;
you did what was evil in My sight and chose what I did not delight in.
- 13 Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says:
My servants will eat,
but you will be hungry;
My servants will drink,
but you will be thirsty;
My servants will rejoice,
but you will be put to shame.
- 14 My servants will shout for joy
from a glad heart,
but you will cry out
from an anguished heart,
and you will lament out of
a broken spirit.
- 15 You will leave your name behind
as a curse for My chosen ones,
and the Lord GOD will kill you;
but He will give His servants
another name.
- 16 Whoever is blessed in the land
will be blessed by the God of truth, and whoever swears in the land
will swear by the God of truth.
For the former troubles
will be forgotten
and hidden from My sight.

A New Creation

- 17 "For I will create a new heaven
and a new earth;
the past events will not be remembered
or come to mind.
- 18 Then be glad and rejoice forever
in what I am creating;
for I will create Jerusalem to be a joy,
and its people to be a delight.
- 19 I will rejoice in Jerusalem
and be glad in My people.
The sound of weeping and crying
will no longer be heard in her.
- 20 In her, a nursing infant will no longer live
only a few days,^h
or an old man not live out his days.
Indeed, the youth will die

and the one who misses a hundred years

- 21 People will build houses and live
[in them];
they will plant vineyards and eat
their fruit.
- 22 They will not build and others live
[in them];
they will not plant and others eat.
For My people's lives will be like the lifetime of a tree.
My chosen ones will fully enjoy
the work of their hands.
- 23 They will not labor without success or bear children [destined] for disaster, for they will be a people blessed
by the LORD
along with their descendants.
- 24 Even before they call, I will answer;
while they are still speaking, I will hear.
- 25 The wolf and the lamb will feed together;^a
and the lion will eat straw like the ox,
but the serpent's food will be dust!
They will not do what is evil or destroy
on My entire holy mountain,"
says the LORD.

Final Judgment and Joyous Restoration

66 This is what the LORD says:

- Heaven is My throne,
and earth is My footstool.
What house could you possibly build
for Me?
And what place could be My home?
- 2 My hand made all these things,
and so they all came into being.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.
I will look favorably on this kind of person:
one who is humble, submissive^b in spirit,
and who trembles at My word.
- 3 One slaughters an ox, one kills a man;
one sacrifices a lamb, one breaks
a dog's neck;
one offers a •grain offering, one offers swine's blood;
one offers incense, one praises an idol—
all these have chosen their ways and delight in their abominations.
- 4 So I will choose their punishment,
and I will bring on them what they dread,

because I called and no one answered;
I spoke and they didn't hear;
they did what was evil in My sight and chose what I didn't delight in.

- 5 You who tremble at His word,
hear the word of the LORD:
"Your brothers who hate and exclude you
because of Me have said:
Let the LORD be glorified,
so that we can see your joy!
But they will be put to shame."
- 6 A sound of uproar from the city!
A voice from the temple—
the voice of the LORD,
paying back His enemies
what they deserve!
- 7 Before Zion was in labor, she gave birth;
before she was in pain, she delivered a boy.
- 8 Who has heard of such a thing?
Who has seen such things?
Can a land be born in one day,
or a nation be delivered in an instant?
Yet as soon as Zion was in labor,
she gave birth to her sons.
- 9 "Will I bring a baby to the point of birth and not deliver [it]?"
says the LORD;
"or will I who deliver, close [the womb]?"
says your God.
- 10 Be glad for Jerusalem and rejoice over her,
all who love her.
Rejoice greatly with her,
all who mourn over her—
- 11 so that you may nurse and be satisfied
from her comforting breast and drink deeply and delight yourselves
from her glorious breasts.
- 12 For this is what the LORD says:
I will make peace flow to her like a river,
and the wealth^c of nations like a flood;
you will nurse and be carried on [her] hip,
and bounced on [her] lap.
- 13 As a mother comforts her son,
so I will comfort you,
and you will be comforted in Jerusalem.
- 14 You will see, you will rejoice,
and you^d will flourish like grass;
then the LORD's power will be revealed to His servants,

^a65:25 Lit as one ^b66:2 Lit broken ^c66:12 Or glory ^d66:14 Lit your bones

but He will show His wrath against His enemies.

- 15 Look, the LORD will come with fire—
His chariots are like the whirlwind—
to execute His anger with fury,
and His rebuke with flames of fire.

- 16 For the LORD will execute judgment
on all flesh with His fiery sword,
and many will be slain by the LORD.

17 “Those who dedicate and purify themselves to [enter] the groves following their leader,^a eating meat from pigs, vermin, and rats, will perish together.”

[This is] the LORD’s declaration.

18 “Knowing^b their works and their thoughts,
I have come to gather all nations and languages;
they will come and see My glory. ¹⁹ I will establish a sign among them, and I will send survivors from them to the nations—to Tarshish, Put,^c Lud (who are archers), Tubal, Javan, and the islands far away—who have not heard of My fame or seen My glory. And they will proclaim My glory among the nations. ²⁰ They will bring all your brothers from all the nations as a gift to the LORD on horses and chariots, in litters, and on mules and camels, to My holy mountain Jerusalem, says the LORD, just as the Israelites bring an offering in a clean vessel to the house of the LORD. ²¹ I will also take some of them as priests and Levites,” says the LORD.

- 22 “For just as the new heavens
and the new earth,
which I will make,
will endure before Me”—

the LORD’s declaration—

“so will your offspring and your name endure.

- 23 All mankind will come to worship Me,
from one New Moon to another,
and from one Sabbath to another,”
says the LORD.

24 “As they leave, they will see the dead bodies of the men who have rebelled against Me; for their maggots will never die, their fire will never go out, and they will be a horror to all mankind.”

JEREMIAH

1 The words of Jeremiah, the son of Hilkiah, one of the priests living in Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin. ² The word of the LORD came to him in the thirteenth year of the reign of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah. ³ It also came throughout the days of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, until the fifth month of the eleventh year of Zedekiah son of Josiah, king of Judah,
when the people of Jerusalem went into exile.

The Call of Jeremiah

⁴ The word of the LORD came to me:

- ⁵ I chose you before I formed you
in the womb;
I set you apart before you were born.
I appointed you a prophet to the nations.

⁶ But I protested, “Oh no, Lord GOD! Look, I don’t know how to speak since I am [only] a youth.”

⁷ Then the LORD said to me:

Do not say: I am [only] a youth,

for you will go to everyone I send you to and speak whatever I tell you.

- ⁸ Do not be afraid of anyone,
for I will be with you to deliver you.

[This is] the LORD’s declaration.

⁹ Then the LORD reached out His hand, touched my mouth, and told me:

Look, I have filled your mouth with My words.

- ¹⁰ See, today I have set you over nations and kingdoms
to uproot and tear down,
to destroy and demolish,
to build and plant.

Two Visions

¹¹ Then the word of the LORD came to me,
asking, “What do you see, Jeremiah?”

I replied, “I see a branch of an almond tree.”

¹² The LORD said to me, “You have seen correctly, for I watch over My word to accomplish

it.”¹³ Again the word of the LORD came to me inquiring, “What do you see?”

And I replied, “I see a boiling pot, its mouth tilted from the north [to the south].”

¹⁴ Then the LORD said to me, “Disaster will be poured out^a from the north on all who live in the land. ¹⁵ Indeed, I am about to summon all the clans and kingdoms of the north.”

[This is] the LORD’s declaration.

They will come, and each [king]
will set up his throne
at the entrance to Jerusalem’s gates.
They will attack all her surrounding walls and all the other cities of Judah.

¹⁶ “I will pronounce My judgments against them for all the evil they did when they abandoned Me to burn incense to other gods and to worship the works of their own hands.

¹⁷ “Now, get ready. Stand up and tell them everything that I command you. Do not be intimidated by them or I will cause you to cower before them. ¹⁸ Today, I am the One who has made you a fortified city, an iron pillar, and bronze walls against the whole land—against the kings of Judah, its officials, its priests, and the population. ¹⁹ They will fight against you but never prevail over you, since I am with you to rescue you.”

[This is] the LORD’s declaration.

Israel Accused of Apostasy

2 The word of the LORD came to me: ² “Go and announce directly to Jerusalem that this is what the LORD says:

I remember the loyalty of your youth,
your love as a bride—
how you followed Me in the wilderness,
in a land not sown.

³ Israel was holy to the LORD,
the •firstfruits of His harvest.
All who ate of it found themselves guilty;
disaster came on them.”

[This is] the LORD’s declaration.

⁴ Hear the word of the LORD,
house of Jacob
and all families of the house of Israel.

⁵ Here is what the LORD says:

What fault did your fathers find in Me that they went so far from Me,
followed worthless idols,

and became worthless themselves?

⁶ They stopped asking: Where is the LORD who brought us from the land of Egypt,
who led us through the wilderness,
through a land of deserts and ravines,
through a land of drought and darkness,^b a land no one traveled through and where no one lived?

⁷ I brought you to a fertile land
to eat its fruit and bounty,
but after you entered, you defiled
My land;
you made My inheritance detestable.

⁸ The priests quit asking: Where is
the LORD?
The experts in the law no longer
knew Me,
and the rulers rebelled against Me.
The prophets prophesied by •Baal
and followed useless idols.

⁹ Therefore, I will bring a case against you again.
[This is] the LORD’s declaration.

I will bring a case against your children’s children.

¹⁰ Cross over to Cyprus^c and take a look.
Send [someone] to Kedar
and consider carefully;
see if there has ever been anything like this:

¹¹ Has a nation [ever] exchanged its gods?
(but they were not gods!)
Yet My people have exchanged their^d Glory
for useless idols.

¹² Be horrified at this, heavens;
be shocked and utterly appalled.
[This is] the LORD’s declaration.

¹³ For My people have committed a double evil:
They have abandoned Me,
the fountain of living water,
and dug cisterns for themselves,
cracked cisterns that cannot hold water.

Consequences of Apostasy

¹⁴ Is Israel a slave?
Was he born into slavery?^e
Why else has he become a prey?

¹⁵ The young lions have roared at him;
they have roared loudly.

- 16 The men of Memphis and Tahpanhes

17 Have you not brought this on yourself
by abandoning the LORD your God
while He was leading you along the way?
18 Now what will you gain
by traveling along the way to Egypt to drink the waters of the Nile?^a What will you gain
by traveling along the way to Assyria
to drink the waters of the Euphrates?
19 Your own evil will discipline you;
your own apostasies will reprimand you.
Think it over and see how evil and bitter
it is for you to abandon the LORD your God
and to have no •fear of Me.

[This is] the declaration
of the Lord GOD of •Hosts.

- 20 For long ago I^b broke your yoke;
I^b tore off your fetters.
You insisted: I will not serve!
On every high hill
and under every leafy tree
you lie down [like] a prostitute.
21 I planted you, a choice vine
from the very best seed.
How then could you turn into a degenerate, foreign vine?
22 Even if you wash with lye
and use a great amount of soap,
the stain of your guilt is still in front of Me.
[This is] the Lord GOD's declaration.
23 How can you protest: I am not defiled;
I have not followed the Baals?
Look at your behavior in the valley;
acknowledge what you have done.
[You are] a swift young camel twisting and turning on her way,
a wild donkey at home^c in the wilderness.
She sniffs the wind in the heat of her desire.
Who can control her passion?
All who look for her will not become tired;
they will find her in her mating season.^d 25 Keep your feet from going bare and your throat from thirst.

But you say: It's hopeless;
I love strangers,
and I will continue to follow them.

- 26 Like the shame of a thief
when he is caught,
so the house of Israel has been
put to shame.
They, their kings, their officials,
their priests, and their prophets say to a tree: You are my father,
and to a stone: You gave birth to me.
For they have turned their back to Me
and not their face,
but in their time of disaster they beg:
Rise up and save us!
28 But where are your gods you made
for yourself?
Let them rise up and save you in your time of disaster if they can,
for your gods are as numerous as your cities, Judah.

Judgment Deserved

- 29 Why do you bring a case against Me?
All of you have rebelled against Me.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.
30 I have struck down your children in vain;
they would not accept discipline.
Your own sword has devoured
your prophets
like a ravaging lion.
31 [Evil] generation,
pay attention to the word of the LORD!
Have I been a wilderness to Israel
or a land of dense darkness?
Why do My people claim:
We will go where we want;^e
we will no longer come to You?
32 Can a young woman forget her jewelry or a bride her wedding sash?
Yet My people have forgotten Me
for countless days.
33 How skillfully you pursue love;
you also teach evil women your ways.
34 Moreover, your skirts are stained with the blood of the innocent poor.
You did not catch them breaking and entering.
But in spite of all these things
you claim: I am innocent.
35 His anger is sure to turn away from me.

just as you were put to shame
by Assyria.

Wages of Apostasy

- 3 If^b a man divorces his wife
and she leaves him to marry another,
can he ever return to her?
Wouldn't such a land^c become totally defiled?
But you!
You have played the prostitute
with many partners—
can you return to Me?
[This is] the LORD's declaration.
- 2 Look to the barren heights and see.
Where have you not been immoral?
You sat waiting for them
beside the highways
like a nomad in the desert.
You have defiled the land
with your prostitution and wickedness.
- 3 This is why the showers haven't come—
why there has been no spring rain.
You have the brazen look of a prostitute^d
and refuse to be ashamed.
- 4 Have you not lately called Me: My Father,
my youthful companion?
- 5 Will He bear a grudge forever?
Will He be endlessly infuriated?
This is what you have spoken and done,
the evil you are capable of.

Unfaithful Israel, Treacherous Judah

⁶ In the days of King Josiah the LORD asked me, "Have you seen what unfaithful Israel has done? She has ascended every high hill and gone under every green tree to prostitute herself there. ⁷ I thought: After she has done all these things, she will return to Me. But she didn't return, and her treacherous sister Judah saw it.

⁸ I^e observed that it was because unfaithful Israel had committed adultery that I had sent her away and had given her a certificate of divorce. Nevertheless, her treacherous sister Judah was not afraid but also went and prostituted herself. ⁹ Indifferent to^f her prostitution, she defiled the land and committed adultery with stone and tree. ¹⁰ Yet in spite of all this, her treacherous sister Judah didn't return to Me with all her heart—only in pretense."

[This is] the LORD's declaration.

¹¹ The LORD announced to me, "Unfaithful Israel has shown herself more righteous than treacherous Judah. ¹² Go, proclaim these words to the north, and say:

Return, unfaithful Israel.

[This is] the LORD's declaration.

I will not look on you with anger,^g
for I am unfailing in My love.

[This is] the LORD's declaration.

I will not be angry forever.

- 13 Only acknowledge your guilt—
you have rebelled against the LORD
your God.

You have scattered your favors to strangers
under every green tree
and have not obeyed My voice.

[This is] the LORD's declaration.

¹⁴ "Return, you faithless children"—[this is] the LORD's declaration—"for I am your master, and I will take you, one from a city and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion. ¹⁵ I will give you shepherds who are loyal to Me,^h and they will shepherd you with knowledge and skill. ¹⁶ When you multiply and increase in the land, in those days"—the LORD's declaration—"no one will say any longer: The ark of the LORD's covenant. It will never come to mind, and no one will remember or miss it. It will never again be made. ¹⁷ At that time Jerusalem will be called, The LORD's Throne, and all the nations will be gathered to it, to the name of the LORD in Jerusalem. They will cease to follow the stubbornness of their evil hearts. ¹⁸ In those days the house of Judah will join with the house of Israel, and they will come together from the land of the north to the land I have given your ancestors to inherit."

True Repentance

- 19 I thought: How I long to make you [My] sons
and give you a desirable land,
the most beautiful inheritance of all the nations.
I thought: You will call Me, my Father,
and never turn away from Me.
- 20 However, as a woman may betray her lover,^a
so you have betrayed Me, house of Israel.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.
- 21 A sound is heard on the barren heights,
the children of Israel weeping and begging
for mercy,
for they have perverted their way;
they have forgotten the LORD their God.
- 22 Return, you faithless children.
I will heal your unfaithfulness.
"Here we are, coming to You,
for You are the LORD our God.
- 23 Surely, falsehood comes from the hills, commotion from the mountains,
but the salvation of Israel
is only in the LORD our God.
- 24 From the time of our youth
the shameful one^b has consumed what our fathers have worked for—their flocks and their herds,
their sons and their daughters.
- 25 Let us lie down in our shame;
let our disgrace cover us.
We have sinned against the LORD our God,
both we and our fathers,
from the time of our youth
even to this day.
We have not obeyed the voice of the LORD
our God."

Blessing or Curse

- 4 If you return,^c Israel—
[this is] the LORD's declaration—
[if] you return to Me,
if you remove your detestable idols
from My presence
and do not waver,
- 2 if you swear, As the LORD lives,
in truth, in justice, and in righteousness,
then the nations will be blessed^d by Him
and will pride themselves in Him.
- 3 For this is what the LORD says to the men of Judah and Jerusalem:

Break up the unplowed ground;
do not sow among the thorns.
4 Circumcise yourselves to the LORD;
remove the foreskin of your hearts,
men of Judah and residents of Jerusalem.
Otherwise, My wrath will break out
like fire
and burn with no one to extinguish [it]
because of your evil deeds.

Judgment from the North

- 5 Declare in Judah, proclaim in Jerusalem,
and say:
- Blow the ram's horn
throughout the land.
Cry out loudly and say:
Assemble yourselves,
and let's flee to the fortified cities.
- 6 Lift up a signal flag toward Zion.
Run for cover! Don't stand still!
For I am bringing disaster
from the north—
a great destruction.
- 7 A lion has gone up from his thicket;
a destroyer of nations has set out.
He has left his lair
to make your land a waste.
Your cities will be reduced to uninhabited ruins.
- 8 Because of this, put on •sackcloth;
mourn and wail,
for the LORD's burning anger
has not turned away from us.
- 9 "On that day"—[this is] the LORD's declaration—"the king and the officials will lose their courage. The priests will tremble in fear, and the prophets will be scared speechless."

¹⁰ I said, "Oh no, Lord GOD, You have certainly deceived this people and Jerusalem, by announcing, 'You will have peace,' while a sword is at^e our throats."

¹¹ At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem, "A searing wind [blows] from the barren heights in the wilderness on the way to My dear^f people. [It comes] not to winnow or to sift; ¹²a wind too strong for this comes at My call.^g Now I will also pronounce judgments against them."

proclaiming malice
from Mount Ephraim.
- 16 Warn the nations: Look!
Proclaim to Jerusalem:
Those who besiege are coming from a distant land;
they raise their voices
against the cities of Judah.
- 17 They have her surrounded

because she has rebelled against Me.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.
- 18 Your way of life and your actions
have brought this on you.
This is your punishment. It is very bitter,
because it has reached your heart!

Jeremiah's Lament

- 19 My anguish, my anguish!^a I writhe
in agony!
Oh, the pain in^b my heart!
My heart pounds;
I cannot be silent.
For you, my soul,
have heard the sound
of the ram's horn—
the shout of battle.
- 20 Disaster after disaster is reported,
for the whole land is destroyed.
Suddenly my tents are destroyed,
my tent curtains, in a moment.
- 21 How long must I see the signal flag and hear the sound of the ram's horn?
- 22 For My people are fools;
they do not know Me.
They are foolish children,
without understanding.
They are skilled in doing what is evil,
but they do not know how to do
what is good.
- 23 I looked at the earth,
and it was formless and empty.
[I looked] to the heavens,
and their light was gone.

- 24 I looked at the mountains,
and they were quaking;
all the hills shook.
- 25 I looked, and no man was left;
all the birds of the sky had fled.
- 26 I looked, and the fertile field was
a wilderness.
All its cities were torn down
because of the LORD
and His burning anger.
- 27 For this is what the LORD says:

The whole land will be a desolation,
but I will not finish it off.
- 28 Because of this, the earth will mourn;
the skies above will grow dark.
I have spoken; I have planned,
and I will not relent or turn back from it.
- 29 Every city flees
at the sound of the horseman and the archer.
They enter the thickets
and climb among the rocks.
Every city is abandoned;
no inhabitant is left.
- 30 And you devastated one, what are you doing
that you dress yourself in scarlet,
that you adorn yourself with gold jewelry,
that you enlarge your eyes with paint?
You beautify yourself for nothing.
Your lovers reject you;
they want to take your life.
- 31 I hear a cry like a woman in labor,
[a cry of] anguish like one bearing her first child.
The cry of Daughter Zion
gasping for breath,
stretching out her hands:
Woe is me, for my life is weary because of the murderers!

The Depravity of Jerusalem

- 5 Roam through the streets of Jerusalem.
Look and take note;
search in her squares.
If you find a single person,
anyone who acts justly,
who seeks to be faithful,
then I will forgive her.
- 2 When they say, "As the LORD lives,"
they are swearing falsely.

^a4:19 Lit My inner parts, my inner parts ^b4:19 Lit the walls of [look for] faithfulness?

You have struck them, but they felt no pain.
You finished them off,
but they refused to accept discipline.
They made their faces harder than rock,
and they refused to return.

4 Then I thought:

They are just the poor;
they have played the fool.

For they don't understand the way
of the LORD,
the justice of their God.

- 5 I will go to the powerful and speak to them.
Surely they know the way of the LORD,
the justice of their God.
However, these also had broken the yoke
and torn off the fetters.

- 6 Therefore, a lion from the forest
will strike them down.
A wolf from an arid plain will ravage them.
A leopard keeps watch over their cities.
Anyone who leaves them will be torn
to pieces
because their rebellious acts are many,
their unfaithful deeds numerous.

- 7 Why should I forgive you?
Your children have abandoned Me
and sworn by those who are not gods.
I satisfied their needs, yet they committed adultery;
they gashed themselves
at the prostitute's house.

- 8 They are well-fed,^a eager^b stallions,
each neighing after someone else's wife.

- 9 Should I not punish them
for these things?

[This is] the LORD's declaration.
Should I not avenge Myself on such a nation as this?

- 10 Go up among her vineyard terraces
and destroy them,
but do not finish them off.
Prune away her shoots,
for they do not belong to the LORD.

- 11 They, the house of Israel and the house
of Judah,
have dealt very treacherously with Me.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.

- 12 They have contradicted the LORD and insisted, "It won't happen.^c Harm won't come to us;
we won't see sword or famine."
13 The prophets become [only] wind,
for the [LORD'S] word is not in them.
This will in fact happen to them.

Coming Judgment

- 14 Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD of •Hosts says:

Because you have spoken this word,
I am going to make My words
become fire in your mouth.
These people are the wood,
and the fire will consume them.

- 15 I am about to bring a nation
from far away against you,
house of Israel.

[This is] the LORD's declaration.

It is an established nation,
an ancient nation,
a nation whose language
you do not know
and whose speech
you do not understand.

- 16 Their quiver is like an open grave;
they are all mighty warriors.

- 17 They will consume your harvest and your food.

They will consume your sons and your daughters.

They will consume your flocks and your herds.

They will consume your vines
and your fig trees.

They will destroy with the sword
your fortified cities in which you trust.

- 18 "But even in those days"—[this is] the LORD's declaration—"I will not finish you off.
19 When people ask: For what offense has the LORD our God done all these things to us? You will respond to them: Just as you abandoned Me and served foreign gods in your land, so will you serve strangers in a land that is not yours.

 They roar but cannot pass over it.
 23 But these people have stubborn

 They have turned aside

 24 They have not said to themselves:

 they catch men.
 27 Like a cage full of birds,
 so their houses are full of deceit.
 Therefore they have grown powerful and rich.
 28 They have become fat and sleek.
 They have also excelled in evil matters.
 They have not taken up cases,
 such as the case of orphans,
 so they might prosper,
 and they have not defended the rights of the needy.

 has taken place in the land.

 and the priests rule
 by their own authority.
 My people love it like this.
 But what will you do at the end of it?

Threatened Siege of Jerusalem

- 6 Run for cover, Benjaminites,
 out of Jerusalem!
 Sound the ram's horn in Tekoa;
 raise a smoke signal over Beth-haccherem,^b
 for disaster threatens from the north,
 even great destruction.
 2 [Though she is] beautiful and delicate,
 I will destroy^c Daughter Zion.
 3 Shepherds and their flocks will come
 against her;
 they will pitch [their] tents all around her.
 Each will pasture his own portion.
 4 Set [them] apart for war against her;
 rise up, let's attack at noon.
 Woe to us, for the day is passing;
 the evening shadows grow long.
 5 Rise up, let's attack by night.
 Let us destroy her fortresses.”
 6 For this is what the LORD of •Hosts says:
 Cut down the trees;
 raise a siege ramp against Jerusalem.
 This city must be punished.
 There is nothing but oppression within her.
 7 As a well gushes out its water,
 so she pours forth her evil.^d
 Violence and destruction resound in her.
 Sickness and wounds keep coming to My attention.
 8 Be warned, Jerusalem,
 or I will be torn away from you;
 I will make you a desolation,
 a land devoid of inhabitant.

Wrath on Israel

- 9 This is what the LORD of Hosts says:
 Glean as thoroughly as a vine
 the remnant of Israel.
 Pass your hand once more like a grape gatherer
 over the branches.
 10 Who can I speak to and give such a warning^e
 that they will listen?
 Look, their ear is uncircumcised,^f
 so they cannot pay attention.
 See, the word of the LORD has become contemptible to them—
 they find no pleasure in it.

to others,
[their] fields and wives as well,
for I will stretch out My hand
against the residents of the land.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.
- 13 For from the least to the greatest of them,
everyone is gaining profit unjustly.
From prophet to priest,
everyone deals falsely.
- 14 They have treated
My people's brokenness superficially,
claiming: Peace, peace,
when there is no peace.
- 15 Were they ashamed when they acted
so abhorrently?
They weren't at all ashamed.
They can no longer feel humiliation.
Therefore, they will fall among the fallen.
When I punish them, they will collapse,
says the LORD.

Disaster Because of Disobedience

- 16 This is what the LORD says:
Stand by the roadways and look.
Ask about the ancient paths:
Which is the way to what is good?
Then take it
and find rest for yourselves.
But they protested: We won't!
- 17 I appointed watchmen over you [and said:] Listen for the sound
of the ram's horn.
But they protested: We won't listen!
- 18 Therefore listen, you nations
and you witnesses,
learn what [the charge] is against them.
- 19 Listen, earth!
I am about to bring disaster
on these people,
the fruit of their own plotting,
for they have paid no attention to My word.
They have rejected My law.

- 20 What use to Me is frankincense
from Sheba
or sweet cane from a distant land?
Your •burnt offerings are not acceptable;
your sacrifices do not please Me.
- 21 Therefore, this is what the LORD says:
I am going to place stumbling blocks
before these people;
fathers and sons together will stumble
over them;
friends and neighbors will [also] perish.

A Cruel Nation from the North

- 22 This is what the LORD says:
Look, an army is coming from a northern land;
a great nation will be awakened
from the remote regions of the earth.
- 23 They grasp bow and javelin.
They are cruel and show no mercy.
Their voice roars like the sea,
and they ride on horses,
lined up like men in battle formation
against you, Daughter Zion.
- 24 We have heard about it,
and we are discouraged.^b Distress has seized us—
pain like a woman in labor.
- 25 Don't go out to the fields;
don't walk on the road.
For the enemy has a sword;
terror is on every side.
- 26 My dear^c people, dress yourselves

for suddenly the destroyer will come
on us.

for the LORD has rejected them.

False Trust in the Temple

7 [This is] the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ² “Stand in the gate of the house of the LORD and there call out this word: Hear the word of the LORD, all [you people] of Judah who enter through these gates to worship the LORD.

³ “This is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says: Correct your ways and your deeds, and I will allow you to live in this place. ⁴ Do not trust deceitful words, chanting: This is the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD. ⁵ Instead, if you really change your ways and your actions, if you act justly toward one another,^a ⁶ if you no longer oppress the alien, the fatherless, and the widow and no longer shed innocent blood in this place or follow other gods, bringing harm on yourselves, ⁷ I will allow you to live in this place, the land I gave to your ancestors forever and ever. ⁸ [But] look, you keep trusting in deceitful words that cannot help.

⁹ “Do you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, burn incense to •Baal, and follow other gods that you have not known? ¹⁰ Then do you come and stand before Me in this house called by My name and insist: We are safe? As a result, you are free to continue doing all these detestable acts! ¹¹ Has this house, which is called by My name, become a den of robbers in your view? Yes, I too have seen [it].”

[This is] the LORD’s declaration.

Shiloh As a Warning

¹² “But return to My place that was at Shiloh, where I made My name dwell at first. See what I did to it because of the evil of My people Israel. ¹³ Now, because you have done all these things”—[this is] the LORD’s declaration—“and because I have spoken to you time and time again^b but you wouldn’t listen, and I have called to you, but you wouldn’t answer, ¹⁴ what I did to Shiloh—I will do to the house that is called by My name—the house in which you trust—the place that I gave you and your ancestors. ¹⁵ I will drive you from My presence, just as I drove out all of your brothers, all the descendants of Ephraim.

Do Not Pray for Judah

¹⁶ “As for you, do not pray for these people. Do not offer a cry or a prayer on their behalf, and do not beg Me, for I will not listen to you. ¹⁷ Don’t you see how they behave in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁸ The sons gather wood, the fathers light the fire, and the women knead dough to make cakes for the queen of heaven,^c and they pour out drink offerings to other gods so that they provoke Me to anger. ¹⁹ But are they really provoking Me?” [This is] the LORD’s declaration. “Isn’t it they themselves [being provoked] to disgrace?”

²⁰ Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: “Look, My anger—My burning wrath—is about to be poured out on this place, on man and beast, on the tree of the field, and on the fruit of the ground. My wrath will burn and not be quenched.”

Obedience Over Sacrifice

²¹ This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: “Add your •burnt offerings to your other sacrifices, and eat the meat yourselves, ²² for when I brought your ancestors out of the land of Egypt, I did not speak with them or command them concerning burnt offering and sacrifice. ²³ However, I did give them this command: Obey Me, and then I will be your God, and you will be My people. You must walk in every way I command you so that it may go well with you.” ²⁴ Yet they didn’t listen or pay attention but walked according to their own advice and according to their own stubborn, evil heart. They went backward and not forward. ²⁵ Since the day your ancestors came out of the land of Egypt until this day, I have sent all My servants the prophets to you time and time again.^d ²⁶ However, they wouldn’t listen to Me or pay attention but became obstinate;^e they did more evil than their ancestors.

A Lament for Disobedient Judah

²⁷ “When you speak all these things to them, they will not listen to you. When you call to them, they will not answer you. ²⁸ You must therefore declare to them: This is the nation that would not listen to the voice of the LORD their God and would not accept discipline. Truth^f has perished—it has disappeared from their mouths.

 29 Cut off the hair of your sacred vow^a and throw it away. Raise up a dirge on the barren heights, for the LORD has rejected and abandoned the generation under His wrath.

30 “For the Judeans have done what is evil in My sight.” [This is] the LORD’s declaration. “They have set up their detestable things in the house that is called by My name and defiled it. 31 They have built the •high places of Topheth^b in the Valley of Hinnom^c in order to burn their sons and daughters in the fire, a thing I did not command; I never entertained the thought.^d

32 “Therefore, take note! Days are coming”—the LORD’s declaration—“when [this place] will no longer be called Topheth and the Valley of Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter. Topheth will become a cemetery,^e because there will be no other burial place. 33 The corpses of these people will become food for the birds of the sky and for the wild animals of the land, with no one to scare them off. 34 I will remove from the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem the sound of joy and gladness and the voices of the bridegroom and the bride, for the land will become a desolate waste.

Death over Life

8 “At that time”—[this is] the LORD’s declaration—“the bones of the kings of Judah, the bones of her officials, the bones of the priests, the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the residents of Jerusalem will be brought out of their graves. 2 They will be exposed to the sun, the moon, and the whole heavenly •host, which they have loved, served, followed, pursued, and worshiped. [Their bones] will not be collected and buried but will become like manure on the surface of the soil. 3 Death will be chosen over life by all the survivors of this evil family, those who remain wherever I have banished them.” [This is] the declaration of the LORD of Hosts.

4 You are to say to them: This is what the LORD says:

Do [people] fall and not get up again?
 If they turn away, do they not return?

5 Why have these people turned away?
 Why is Jerusalem always turning away?
 They take hold of deceit;
 they refuse to return.

6 I have paid careful attention.
 They do not speak what is right.
 No one regrets his evil,
 asking: What have I done?
 Everyone has stayed his course
 like a horse rushing into battle.
 7 Even the stork in the sky knows her seasons.
 The turtledove, swallow, and crane^f are aware of their migration, but My people do not know
 the requirements of the LORD.

Punishment for Judah’s Leaders

8 How can you claim: We are wise;
 the law of the LORD is with us?
 In fact, the lying pen of scribes
 has produced falsehood.
 9 The wise will be put to shame;
 they will be dismayed and snared.
 They have rejected the word
 of the LORD,
 so what wisdom do they really have?
 10 Therefore, I will give their wives to other men,
 their fields to new occupants,
 for from the least to the greatest,
 everyone is gaining profit unjustly.
 From prophet to priest,
 everyone deals falsely.
 11 They have treated superficially
 the brokenness
 of My dear^g people,
 claiming: Peace, peace,
 when there is no peace.
 12 Were they ashamed when they acted
 so abhorrently?
 They weren’t at all ashamed.
 They can no longer feel humiliation.
 Therefore, they will fall
 among the fallen.
 When I punish them, they will collapse,
 says the LORD.
 13 I will gather them and bring them to an end.^h
 [This is] the LORD’s declaration.
 There will be no grapes on the vine,
 no figs on the fig tree,
 and even the leaf will wither.
 Whatever I have given them will be lost
 to them.

God's People Unrepentant

- 14 Why are we just sitting here?
Gather together; let us enter the fortified cities and there suffer our fate,^a
for the LORD our God has condemned^b us.
He has given us poisoned water to drink,
because we have sinned against the LORD.
- 15 We hoped for peace, but there was nothing good;
for a time of healing, but there was only terror.
- 16 From Dan is heard
the snorting of horses.
At the sound of the neighing
of mighty steeds,
the whole land quakes.
They come to devour the land
and everything in it,
the city and all its residents.
- 17 Indeed, I am about to send snakes
among you,
poisonous vipers that cannot be charmed.
They will bite you.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.

Lament over Judah

- 18 My joy has flown away;
grief has settled on me.
My heart is sick.
- 19 Listen—the cry of my dear^c people
from a far away land:
Is the LORD no longer in Zion,
her King not in her midst?
Why have they provoked Me to anger
with their graven images,
with their worthless foreign idols?
- 20 Harvest has passed, summer has ended,
but we have not been saved.
- 21 I am broken by the brokenness
of my dear^c people.
I mourn; horror has taken hold of me.
- 22 Is there no balm^d in Gilead?
Is there no physician there?
So why has the healing of my dear^c people not come about?
- 9^e If my head were water,
my eyes a fountain of tears,
I would weep day and night
over the slain of my dear^f people.

- 2g If only I had a traveler's lodging place
in the wilderness,
I would abandon my people
and depart from them,
for they are all adulterers,
a solemn assembly of treacherous people.
- 3 They bent their tongues [like] their bows;
lies and not faithfulness prevail
in the land,
for they proceed from one evil to another,
and they do not take Me into account.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.

Imminent Ruin and Exile

- 4 Everyone has to be on guard against his friend.
Don't trust any brother,
for every brother will certainly deceive,
and every friend spread slander.
- 5 Each one betrays his friend;
no one tells the truth.
They have taught their tongues
to speak lies;
they wear themselves out doing wrong.
- 6 You live in [a world] of deception.^h
In [their] deception they refuse to know Me.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.
- 7 Therefore, this is what the LORD of •Hosts
says:
I am about to refine them and test them,
for what else can I do
because of My dearⁱ people?ⁱ
- 8 Their tongues are deadly arrows—
they speak deception.
With his mouth
a man speaks peaceably with his friend,
but inwardly he sets up an ambush.
- 9 Should I not punish them
for these things?
[This is] the LORD's declaration.
Should I not take My revenge^k against a nation such as this?
- 10 I will raise weeping and a lament
over the mountains,
a dirge over the wilderness grazing land,
for they have been so scorched that no one passes through.

The sound of cattle is no longer heard.
From the birds of the sky to the animals, [everything] has fled—they have gone away.

- 11 I will make Jerusalem a heap of rubble,
a jackals' den.
I will make the cities of Judah
a desolation,
an uninhabited place.

12 Who is the man wise enough to understand this? Who has the LORD spoken to, that he may explain it? Why is the land destroyed and scorched like a wilderness, so no one can pass through?

13 The LORD said, "It is because they abandoned My law I set in front of them and did not obey My voice or walk according to it. 14 Instead, they followed the stubbornness of their hearts and the •Baal, as their fathers taught them." 15 Therefore, this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: "I am about to feed this people •wormwood and give them poisonous waters to drink. 16 I will scatter them among nations that they and their fathers have not known. I will send a sword after them until I have finished them off."

Mourning over Judah

- 17 This is what the LORD of Hosts says:

Consider, and summon the women who mourn;
send for the skillful women.

- 18 Let them come quickly to raise a lament
over us
so that our eyes may overflow with tears,
our eyelids soaked with weeping.
19 For a sound of lamentation is heard
from Zion:
How devastated we are.
We are greatly ashamed,
for we have abandoned the land;
our dwellings have been torn down.
20 Now hear the word of the LORD,
you women.
Pay attention to^a the word of His mouth.
Teach your daughters a lament
and one another a dirge, 21 for Death has climbed through our windows;
it has entered our fortresses,
cutting off children from the streets,
young men from the squares.

- 22 Speak as follows:

This is what the LORD says:

Human corpses will fall
like manure on the surface of the field,
like newly cut grain after the reaper
with no one to gather [it].

Boast in the LORD

- 23 This is what the LORD says:

The wise must not boast in his wisdom;
the mighty must not boast in his might;
the rich must not boast in his riches.
24 But the one who boasts should boast
in this,
that he understands and knows Me—
that I am the LORD, showing faithful love, justice, and righteousness on the earth,
for I delight in these things.

[This is] the LORD's declaration.

25 "The days are coming"—the LORD's declaration—"when I will punish all the circumcised yet uncircumcised: 26 Egypt, Judah, Edom, the Ammonites, Moab, all those who clip the hair on their temples^b and reside in the wilderness. All these nations are uncircumcised, and the whole house of Israel is uncircumcised in heart."

False Gods Contrasted with the Creator

10 Hear the word that the LORD has spoken to^c you, house of Israel. 2 This is what
the LORD says:

Do not learn the way of the nations
or be terrified by signs in the heavens,
although the nations are terrified by them,

- 3 for the customs of the peoples
are worthless.

Someone cuts down a tree from the forest;
[it is] worked by the hands of a craftsman with a chisel.

- 4 He decorates it with silver and gold.
It is fastened with hammer and nails,
so it won't totter.

- 5 Like scarecrows in a cucumber patch,
their idols cannot speak.
They must be carried because they cannot walk.

Do not fear them for they can do no harm—
and they cannot do any good.

- 6 LORD, there is no one like You.
You are great;

^a9:20 Lit Your ears must receive ^b9:26 Or who live in distant places; Jr 25:23; 49:32; Lv 19:27 ^c10:1 Or against

- Your name is great in power.
 7 Who should not •fear You,
 King of the nations?
 It is what You deserve.
 For among all the wise people of the nations
 and among all their kingdoms,
 there is no one like You.
 8 They are both senseless and foolish, instructed by worthless idols
 [made of] wood!
 9 Beaten silver is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz^a
 from the hands of a goldsmith,
 the work of a craftsman.
 Their clothing is blue and purple,
 all the work of skilled artisans.
 10 But the LORD is the true God;
 He is the living God and eternal King.
 The earth quakes at His wrath,
 and the nations cannot endure His rage.
 11 You are to say this to them: The gods that did not make the heavens and the earth will perish
 from the earth and from under these heavens.^b 12 He made the earth by His power, established the world by His wisdom,
 and spread out the heavens
 by His understanding.
 13 When He thunders,^c
 the waters in the heavens are in turmoil, and He causes the clouds to rise
 from the ends of the earth.
 He makes lightning for the rain
 and brings the wind from His storehouses.
 14 Everyone is stupid and ignorant.
 Every goldsmith is put to shame
 by [his] carved image,
 for his cast images are a lie;
 there is no breath in them.
 15 They are worthless, a work to be mocked.
 At the time of their punishment
 they will be destroyed.
 16 Jacob's Portion^d is not like these because He is the One who formed
 all things.
 Israel is the tribe of His inheritance;
 the LORD of •Hosts is His name.

Exile After the Siege

- 17 Gather up your belongings^e
 from the ground,
 you who live under siege.

- 18 For this is what the LORD says:

Look, I am slinging out
 the land's residents at this time and bringing them such distress
 that they will feel it.

Jeremiah Grieves

- 19 Woe to me because of my brokenness—
 I am severely wounded!
 I exclaimed, "This is my intense suffering,
 but I must bear it."
 20 My tent is destroyed;
 all my tent cords are snapped.
 My sons have departed from me and are
 no more.
 [I have] no one to pitch my tent again
 or to hang up my curtains.
 21 For the shepherds are stupid:
 they don't seek the LORD.
 Therefore they have not prospered,
 and their whole flock is scattered.
 22 Listen! A noise—it is coming—a great commotion from the land to the north.
 The cities of Judah will be made desolate,
 a jackals' den.
 23 I know, LORD,
 that a man's way of life is not his own;
 no one who walks determines his own steps.
 24 Discipline me, LORD, but with justice—
 not in Your anger,
 or You will reduce me to nothing.
 25 Pour out Your wrath on the nations
 that don't recognize You and on the families
 that don't call on Your name,
 for they have consumed Jacob;
 they have consumed him and finished him off
 and made his homeland desolate.

Reminder of the Covenant

11 [This is] the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ² "Listen to the words of this covenant, and tell them to the men of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem. ³ You must tell them: This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Let a curse be on the man who does not obey the words of this covenant, ⁴ which I commanded your ancestors when I brought them

^a10:9 Or Ophir ^b10:11 This is the only Aram v. in Jr. ^c10:13 Lit At His giving of the voice ^d10:16 = the LORD out of the land of Egypt, out of the iron furnace. I declared: ‘Obey Me, and do everything that I command you, and you will be My people, and I will be your God,’⁵ in order to establish the oath I swore to your ancestors, to give [them] a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is today.”

I answered, “•Amen, LORD.”

⁶ The LORD said to me, “Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem: Obey the words of this covenant and carry them out. ⁷ For I strongly warned your ancestors when I brought them out of the land of Egypt until today, warning them time and time again:^a Obey My voice. ⁸ Yet they would not obey or pay attention; each one followed the stubbornness of his evil heart. So I brought on them all the curses of this covenant, because they had not done what I commanded [them] to do.”

⁹ The LORD said to me, “A conspiracy has been discovered among the men of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem. ¹⁰ They have returned to the sins of their ancestors who refused to obey My words and have followed other gods to worship them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah broke My covenant I made with their ancestors.

¹¹ “Therefore, this is what the LORD says: I am about to bring on them disaster that they cannot escape. They will cry out to Me, but I will not hear them. ¹² Then the cities of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem will go and cry out to the gods they have been burning incense to, but they certainly will not save them in their time of disaster. ¹³ Your gods are indeed as numerous as your cities, Judah, and the altars you have set up to Shame^b—altars to burn incense to •Baal—as numerous as the streets of Jerusalem.

¹⁵ What [right] does My beloved have to be in My house, having carried out so many evil schemes? Can holy meat^c prevent your disaster^d so you can rejoice?

¹⁶ The LORD named you a flourishing olive tree, beautiful with well-formed fruit.

He has set fire to it, and its branches are consumed^e with a great roaring sound.

¹⁷ “The LORD of •Hosts who planted you has decreed disaster against you, because of the harm the house of Israel and the house of Judah brought on themselves, provoking Me to anger by burning incense to Baal.”

¹⁸ The LORD informed me, so I knew.

Then You helped me to see their deeds,

¹⁹ for I was like a docile^f lamb led to slaughter.

I didn’t know that they had devised plots against me:

“Let’s destroy the tree with its fruit;^g let’s cut him off from the land of the living so that his name will no longer be remembered.”

²⁰ But, LORD of Hosts, who judges righteously, who tests heart^h and mind, let me see Your vengeance on them, for I have presented my case to You.

²¹ Therefore, here is what the LORD says concerning the people of Anathoth who want to take your life. They warn, “You must not prophesy in the name of the LORD, or you will certainly die at our hand.” ²² Therefore, this is what the LORD of Hosts says: “I am about to punish them. The young men will die by the sword; their sons and daughters will die by famine. ²³ They will have no remnant, for I will bring disaster on the people of Anathoth [in] the year of their punishment.”

Jeremiah’s Complaint

12 You will be righteous, LORD, even if I bring a case against You. Yet, I wish to contend with You: Why does the way of the wicked prosper? [Why] do the treacherous live at ease?

² You planted them, and they have taken root. They have grown and produced fruit. You are ever on their lips,ⁱ but far from their conscience.^h

³ As for You, You know me, LORD; You see me.

You test whether my heart is with You. Drag the wicked away like sheep to slaughter,

^a11:7 Lit today, rising early and warning ^b11:13 = Baal ^c11:15 = sacrifices ^d11:15 LXX; MT reads meat pass from you ^e11:16 Vg; MT reads broken ^f11:19 Or pet ^g11:19 Lit bread ^h11:20; 12:2 Lit kidneys ⁱ12:2 Lit are near in their mouth and set them apart for the day of killing.

- 4 How long will the land mourn
and the grass of every field wither?
Because of the evil of its residents, animals and birds have been swept away,
for [the people] have said,
“He cannot see what our end will be.”^a

The LORD's Response

- 5 If you have raced with runners
and they have worn you out,
how can you compete with horses?
If you stumble in a peaceful land,
what will you do in the thickets
of the Jordan?
- 6 Even your brothers—
your own father's household—
even they were treacherous to you;
even they have cried out loudly after you.
Do not have confidence in them,
though they speak well of you.
- 7 I have abandoned My house;
I have deserted My inheritance.
I have given the love of My life
into the hand of her enemies.
- 8 My inheritance has acted toward Me
like a lion in the forest.
She has roared against Me.
Therefore, I hate her.
- 9 Is My inheritance like a hyena^b to Me?
Are birds of prey circling her?
Go, gather all the wild animals;
bring them to devour [her].
- 10 Many shepherds have destroyed
My vineyard;
they have trampled My plot of land.
They have turned My desirable plot
into a desolate wasteland.
- 11 They have made it a desolation.
It mourns, desolate, before Me.
All the land is desolate,
but no one takes it to heart.
- 12 Over all the barren heights
in the wilderness
the destroyers have come,
for the LORD has a sword that devours
from one end of the earth to the other.
No one has peace.
- 13 They have sown wheat
but harvested thorns.
They have exhausted themselves but have no profit.

Be put to shame by your harvests
because of the LORD's burning anger.

¹⁴ This is what the LORD says: “Concerning all My evil neighbors who attack the inheritance that I bequeathed to My people, Israel, I am about to uproot them from their land, and I will uproot the house of Judah from among them.
¹⁵ After I have uprooted them, I will once again have compassion on them and return each one to his inheritance and to his land. ¹⁶ If they will diligently learn the ways of My people—to swear by My name, ‘As the LORD lives,’ just as they taught My people to swear by •Baal—they will be built up among My people. ¹⁷ However, if they will not obey, then I will uproot and destroy that nation.”

[This is] the LORD's declaration.

Linen Underwear

13 This is what the LORD said to me: “Go and buy yourself linen underwear and put it on,^c but don't get it wet.” ² So I bought underwear as the LORD instructed me and put it on.

³ Then the word of the LORD came to me a second time: ⁴ “Take the underwear that you bought and are wearing,^d and go at once to the Euphrates River and hide it in a rocky crevice.”
⁵ So I went and hid it by the Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

⁶ A long time later the LORD said to me, “Go at once to the Euphrates and get the underwear that I commanded you to hide there.” ⁷ So I went to the Euphrates and dug up the underwear and got it from the place where I had hidden it, but it was ruined—of no use whatsoever.

⁸ Then the word of the LORD came to me:
⁹ “This is what the LORD says: Just like this I will ruin the great pride of both Judah and Jerusalem.
¹⁰ These evil people, who refuse to listen to Me,
who walk in the stubbornness of their own hearts, and who have followed other gods to serve and worship—they will be like this underwear, of no use whatsoever. ¹¹ Just as underwear clings to one's waist, so I fastened the whole house of Israel and of Judah to Me”— [this is the LORD's declaration]—“so that they might be My people for My fame, praise, and glory, but they would not obey.”

The Wine Jars

¹² “Say this to them: This is what the LORD,
the God of Israel, says: Every jar should be filled

^a12:4 LXX reads see our ways ^b12:9 Hb obscure ^c13:1 Lit around your waist ^d13:4 Lit wearing around your waist

with wine. Then they will respond to you: Don't we know that every jar should be filled with wine? ¹³ And you will say to them, This is what the LORD says: I am about to fill all who live in this land—the kings who reign for David on his throne, the priests, the prophets and all the residents of Jerusalem—with drunkenness. ¹⁴ I will smash them against each other, fathers and sons alike—the LORD's declaration. "I will allow no mercy, pity, or compassion [to keep Me] from destroying them."

The LORD's Warning

- ¹⁵ Listen and pay attention.
Do not be proud,
for the LORD has spoken.
- ¹⁶ Give glory to the LORD your God
before He brings darkness, before your feet stumble
on the mountains at dusk.
You wait for light,
but He brings darkest gloom^a
and makes thick darkness.
- ¹⁷ But if you will not listen,
my innermost being will weep in secret
because of your pride.
My eyes will overflow with tears,
for the LORD's flock has been taken captive.
- ¹⁸ Say to the king and the queen mother:
Take a humble seat,
for your glorious crowns
have fallen from your heads.
- ¹⁹ The cities of the •Negev are under siege;
no one can help [them].
All of Judah has been taken into exile,
taken completely into exile.
- ²⁰ Look up and see
those coming from the north.
Where is the flock entrusted to you,
the sheep [that were] your pride?

The Destiny of Jerusalem

- ²¹ What will you say when He appoints
close friends as leaders over you, ones you yourself trained?
Won't labor pains seize you,
as [they do] a woman in labor?
- ²² And when you ask yourself:
Why have these things happened
to me?—
it is because of your great guilt

that your skirts have been stripped off, your body ravished.^b

- ²³ Can the •Cushite change his skin,
or a leopard his spots?
If so, you might be able to do
what is good,
you who are instructed in evil.
- ²⁴ I will scatter you^c like drifting chaff
before the desert wind.
- ²⁵ This is your lot,
what I have decreed for you—
[this is] the LORD's declaration—
because you have forgotten Me and trusted in Falsehood.^d
- ²⁶ I will pull your skirts up over your face
so that your shame might be seen.
- ²⁷ Your adulteries
and your [lustful] neighings,
your heinous prostitution
on the hills, in the fields—
I have seen your detestable acts.
Woe to you, Jerusalem!
You are unclean—
for how long yet?

The Drought

14 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought:

- ² Judah mourns;
her gates languish.
[Her people] are on the ground
in mourning;
Jerusalem's cry rises up.
- ³ Their nobles send their servants^e
for water.
They go to the cisterns;
they find no water;
their containers return empty.
They are ashamed and humiliated;
they cover their heads.
- ⁴ The ground is cracked
since no rain [has fallen] on the land.
The farmers are ashamed;
they cover their heads.
- ⁵ Even the doe in the field
gives birth and abandons [her fawn] since there is no grass.
- ⁶ Wild donkeys stand on the barren heights
panting for air like jackals.
Their eyes fail
because there are no green plants.

- 7 Though our guilt testifies against us,
LORD, act for Your name's sake.
Indeed, our rebellions are many;
we have sinned against You.
- 8 Hope of Israel,
its Savior in time of distress,
why are You like an alien in the land,
like a traveler stopping only for the night?
- 9 Why are You like a helpless man,
like a warrior unable to save?
Yet You are among us, LORD,
and we are called by Your name.
Don't leave us!
- 10 This is what the LORD says concerning
these people:
Truly they love to wander;
they never rest their feet.
So the LORD does not accept them.
Now He will remember their guilt
and punish their sins.

False Prophets to be Punished

11 Then the LORD said to me, "Do not pray for the well-being of these people. 12 If they fast, I will not hear their cry of despair. If they offer •burnt offering and •grain offering, I will not accept them. Rather, I will finish them off by sword, famine, and plague."

13 And I replied, "Oh no, Lord GOD! The prophets are telling them, 'You won't see sword or suffer famine. I will certainly give you true peace in this place.'"

14 But the LORD said to me, "These prophets are prophesying a lie in My name. I did not send them, nor did I command them or speak to them. They are prophesying to you a false vision, worthless •divination, the deceit of their own minds.

15 "Therefore, this is what the LORD says concerning the prophets who prophesy in My name, though I did not send them, and who say: There will never be sword or famine in this land: By sword and famine these prophets will meet their end. 16 The people they are prophesying to will be thrown into the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword. There will be no one to bury them—they, their wives, their sons, and their daughters. I will pour out their own evil on them."

Jeremiah's Request

- 17 You are to speak this word to them:
Let my eyes overflow with tears;

- day and night may [they] not stop,
for the virgin daughter of my people
has been destroyed by a great disaster,
an extremely severe wound.
- 18 If I go out to the field,
look—those slain by the sword!
If I enter the city,
look—those ill from famine!
For both prophet and priest travel to a land they do not know.
- 19 Have You completely rejected Judah?
Do You detest Zion?
Why do You strike us
with no hope of healing for us?
We hoped for peace,
but there was nothing good;
for a time of healing,
but there was only terror.
- 20 We acknowledge our wickedness, LORD,
the guilt of our fathers;
indeed, we have sinned against You.
- 21 Because of Your name, don't despise [us].
Don't disdain Your glorious throne.
Remember Your covenant with us;
do not break it.
- 22 Can any of the worthless idols
of the nations bring rain?
Or can the skies alone give showers?
Are You not the LORD our God?
We therefore put our hope in You,
for You have done all these things.

The LORD's Negative Response

15 Then the LORD said to me: "Even if Moses and Samuel should stand before Me, My compassions would not [reach out] to these people. Send them from My presence, and let them go. 2 If they ask you: Where will we go? you must tell them: This is what the LORD says:

Those [destined] for death, to death;
those [destined] for the sword,
to the sword.
Those [destined] for famine, to famine;
those [destined] for captivity, to captivity.

3 "I will ordain four kinds^a [of judgment] for them"—[this is] the LORD's declaration—"the sword to kill, the dogs to drag away, and the birds of the sky and the wild animals of the land to devour and destroy. 4 I will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth because of Manasseh son of Hezekiah, the king of Judah, for what he did in Jerusalem.

- 5 Who will have pity on you, Jerusalem?
Who will show sympathy toward you?
Who will turn aside
to ask about your welfare?
- 6 You have left Me.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.
You have turned your back,
so I have stretched out My hand
against you
and destroyed you.
I am tired of showing compassion.
- 7 I scattered them with a winnowing fork
at the gates of the land.
I made [them] childless; I destroyed
My people.
They would not turn from their ways.
- 8 I made their widows more numerous than the sand of the seas.
I brought against the mother of young men
a destroyer at noon.
I suddenly released on her agitation and terrors.
- 9 The mother of seven grew faint;
she breathed her [last] breath.
Her sun set while it was still day;
she was ashamed and humiliated.
The rest of them I will give over
to the sword
in the presence of their enemies."

[This is] the LORD's declaration.

Jeremiah's Complaint

- 10 Woe is me, my mother,
that you gave birth to me,
a man who incites dispute and conflict
in all the land.
I did not lend or borrow,
yet everyone curses me.

The LORD's Response

- 11 The LORD said:
Assuredly, I will set you free and care
for you.^a Assuredly, I will intercede for you in a time of trouble,
in your time of distress, with the enemy.
- 12 Can anyone smash iron,

- 13 Your wealth and your treasures

and within all your borders.
- 14 Then I will make you serve your enemies^b

for My anger will kindle a fire that will burn against you.

Jeremiah's Prayer for Vengeance

- 15 You know, LORD;
remember me and take note of me.
Avenge me against my persecutors.
In Your patience,^c don't take me away.
Know that I suffer disgrace for Your honor.
- 16 Your words were found, and I ate them.
Your words became a delight to me
and the joy of my heart,
for I am called by Your name,
LORD God of •Hosts.
- 17 I never sat with the band of revelers,
and I did not celebrate [with them].
Because Your hand was [on me],
I sat alone,
for You filled me with indignation.
- 18 Why has my pain become unending,
my wound incurable,
refusing to be healed?
You truly have become like a mirage
to me—
water that is not reliable.

Jeremiah Told to Repent

- 19 Therefore, this is what the LORD says:
If you return, I will restore you;
you will stand in My presence.
And if you speak noble [words],
rather than worthless ones,
you will be My spokesman.
It is they who must return to you;
you must not return to them.
- 20 Then I will make you a fortified wall

No Marriage for Jeremiah

16 The word of the LORD came to me: ²“You must not marry or have sons or daughters in this place. ³For this is what the LORD says concerning sons and daughters born in this place as well as concerning the mothers who bear them and the fathers who father them in this land: ⁴They will die from deadly diseases. They will not be mourned or buried but will be like manure on the face of the earth. They will be finished off by sword and famine. Their corpses will become food for the birds of the sky and for the wild animals of the land.

⁵“For this is what the LORD says: Don’t enter a house where a mourning feast is taking place.^a Don’t go to lament or sympathize with them, for I have removed My peace from these people”—[this is] the LORD’s declaration—“[as well as My] faithful love and compassion. ⁶Both great and small will die in this land without burial. No lament will be made for them, nor will anyone cut himself or shave his head for them.^b ⁷Food won’t be provided for the mourner to comfort him because of the dead. A cup of consolation won’t be given him because of [the loss of] his father or mother. ⁸You must not enter the house where feasting is taking place to sit with them to eat and drink. ⁹For this is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says: I am about to eliminate from this place, before your very eyes and in your time, the sound of joy and gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the bride.

Abandoning the LORD and His Law

¹⁰“When you tell these people all these things, they will say to you: Why has the LORD declared all this great disaster against us? What is our guilt? What is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God? ¹¹Then you will answer them: Because your fathers abandoned Me”—the LORD’s declaration—“and followed other gods, served them, and worshiped them. Indeed, they abandoned Me and did not keep My law. ¹²You did more evil than your fathers. Look, each one of you was following the stubbornness of his evil heart, not obeying Me. ¹³So I will hurl you from this land into a land that you and your fathers are not familiar with.

There you will worship other gods both day and night, for I will not grant you grace.^c

¹⁴“However, take note! The days are coming”—the LORD’s declaration—“when it will no longer be said: As the LORD lives who brought the Israelites from the land of Egypt, ¹⁵but rather: As the LORD lives who brought the Israelites from the land of the north and from all the other lands where He had banished them. For I will return them to their land that I gave to their ancestors.

Punishment of Exile

¹⁶“I am about to send for many fishermen”—the LORD’s declaration—“and they will fish for them. Then I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them down on every mountain and hill and out of the clefts of the rocks, ¹⁷for My gaze takes in all their ways. They are not concealed from Me, and their guilt is not hidden from My sight. ¹⁸I will first repay them double for their guilt and sin because they have polluted My land. They have filled My inheritance with the lifelessness of their detestable and abhorrent idols.”

- ¹⁹ LORD, my strength and my stronghold,
my refuge in a time of distress,
the nations will come to You
from the ends of the earth,
and they will say,
“Our fathers inherited only lies,
worthless idols of no benefit at all.”
- ²⁰ Can one make gods for himself?
But they are not gods.
- ²¹ “Therefore, I am about to inform them,
and this time I will make them know
My power and My might;
then they will know that My name is •Yahweh.”

Curse and Blessing

- 5 This is what the LORD says:

Cursed is the man who trusts in mankind,
who makes [human] flesh his strength and turns his heart from the LORD.

- 6 He will be like a juniper in the •Arabah;
he cannot see when good comes but dwells in the parched places
in the wilderness,
in a salt land where no one lives.
7 Blessed is the man who trusts
in the LORD,
whose confidence indeed is the LORD.
8 He will be like a tree planted by water:
it sends its roots out toward a stream,
it doesn't fear when heat comes,
and its foliage remains green.
It will not worry in a year of drought or cease producing fruit.

The Deceitful Heart

- 9 The heart is more deceitful than anything else
and desperately sick—
who can understand it?
10 I, the LORD, examine the mind,
I test the heart^b
to give to each according to his way,
according to what his actions deserve.
11 He who makes a fortune unjustly is [like] a partridge that hatches eggs
it didn't lay.
In the middle of his days
[his riches] will abandon him,
so in the end he will be a fool.
12 A throne of glory
on high from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary, 13 LORD, the hope of Israel, all who abandon You will be put to shame.

All who turn away from Me
will be written in the dirt,
for they have abandoned
the fountain of living water, the LORD.

Jeremiah's Plea

- 14 Heal me, LORD, and I will be healed;
save me, and I will be saved,
for You are my praise.
15 Hear how they keep challenging me,
“Where is the word of the LORD?
Let it come!”
16 But I have not run away from being Your shepherd,
and I have not longed for the fatal day.
You know my words were spoken
in Your presence.
17 Don't become a terror to me.
You are my refuge in the day of disaster.
18 Let my persecutors be put to shame,
but don't let me be put to shame.
Let them be terrified, but don't let me
be terrified.
Bring on them the day of disaster;
shatter them with total^c destruction.

Observing the Sabbath

19 This is what the LORD said to me, “Go and stand in the People's Gate, through which the kings of Judah enter and leave, and in all the gates of Jerusalem. 20 Announce to them: Hear the word of the LORD, kings of Judah, all Judah, and all the residents of Jerusalem who enter through these gates. 21 This is what the LORD says: Watch yourselves; do not pick up a load and bring it in through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. 22 You must not carry a load out of your houses on the Sabbath day or do any work, but you must consecrate the Sabbath day, just as I commanded your ancestors. 23 They wouldn't listen or pay attention but became obstinate, not listening or accepting discipline.

24 “However, if you listen to Me, says the LORD, and do not bring loads through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day and consecrate the Sabbath day and do no work on it, 25 kings and princes will enter through the gates of this city. They will sit on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses with their officials, the men of Judah, and the residents of Jerusalem. This city will be inhabited forever. 26 Then [people] will come from the cities of Judah and from the area around Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin and from the Judean foothills, from the hill country and from the •Negev bringing •burnt offerings and sacrifice, •grain offerings and frankincense, and thank offerings to the house of the LORD. ²⁷ If you do not listen to Me to consecrate the Sabbath day by not carrying a load while entering the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, I will set fire to its gates, and it will consume the citadels of Jerusalem and not be extinguished.”

Parable of the Potter

18 [This is] the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ² “Go down at once to the potter’s house; there I will reveal My words to you.” ³ So I went down to the potter’s house, and there he was, working away at the wheel.^a ⁴ But the jar that he was making from the clay became flawed in the potter’s hand, so he made it into another jar, as it seemed right for him to do.

⁵ The word of the LORD came to me: ⁶ “House of Israel, can I not treat you as this potter [treats his clay]?”—[this is] the LORD’s declaration. “Just like clay in the potter’s hand, so are you in My hand, house of Israel. ⁷ At one moment I might announce concerning a nation or a kingdom that I will uproot, tear down, and destroy [it]. ⁸ However, if that nation I have made an announcement about, turns from its evil, I will not bring the disaster on it I had planned. ⁹ At [another] time I announce that I will build and plant a nation or a kingdom. ¹⁰ However, if it does what is evil in My sight by not listening to My voice, I will not bring the good I had said I would do to it. ¹¹ So now, say to the men of Judah and to the residents of Jerusalem: This is what the LORD says: I am about to bring harm to you and make plans against you. Turn now, each from your evil way, and correct your ways and your deeds. ¹² But they will say: It’s hopeless. We will continue to follow our plans, and each of us will continue to act according to the stubbornness of his evil heart.”

Deluded Israel

¹³ Therefore, this is what the LORD says:

Ask among the nations,
Who has heard [things] like these?
Virgin Israel has done
a most terrible thing.

¹⁴ Does the snow of Lebanon ever leave the highland crags?

Or does cold water flowing
from a distance ever fail?

- ¹⁵ Yet My people have forgotten Me.
They burn incense to false [idols]
that make them stumble in their ways—
in the ancient roads—
to walk on [new] paths, not the highway.
¹⁶ They have made their land a horror,
a perpetual object of scorn;^b everyone who passes by it will be horrified
and shake his head.
¹⁷ I will scatter them before the enemy
like the east wind.
I will show them^c [My] back and not
[My] face
on the day of their calamity.

Plot against Jeremiah

¹⁸ Then certain ones said, “Come, let’s make plans against Jeremiah, for the law will never be lost from the priest, or counsel from the wise, or an oracle from the prophet. Come, let’s denounce him^d and pay no attention to all his words.”

- ¹⁹ Pay attention to me, LORD.
Hear what my opponents are saying!
²⁰ Should good be repaid with evil?
Yet they have dug a pit for me.
Remember how I stood before You
to speak good on their behalf,
to turn Your anger from them.
²¹ Therefore, hand their children
over to famine,
and pour the sword’s power on them.
Let their wives become childless
and widowed,
their husbands slain by deadly disease,^e their young men struck down
by the sword in battle.
²² Let a cry be heard from their houses
when You suddenly bring raiders
against them,
for they have dug a pit to capture me
and have hidden snares for my feet.
²³ But You, LORD, know
all their deadly plots against me.
Do not wipe out their guilt;
do not blot out their sin before You.
Let them be forced to stumble
before You;
deal with them in the time of Your anger.

The Clay Jug

19 This is what the LORD says: “Go, buy a potter’s clay jug. Take^a some of the elders of the people and some of the elders of the priests² and go out to the Valley of Hinnom near the entrance of the Potsherd Gate. Proclaim there the words I speak to you. ³ Say: Hear the word of the LORD, kings of Judah and residents of Jerusalem. This is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says: I am going to bring such disaster on this place that everyone who hears about it will shudder^b ⁴ because they have abandoned Me and made this a foreign place. They have burned incense in it to other gods that they, their fathers, and the kings of Judah have never known. They have filled this place with the blood of the innocent. ⁵ They have built •high places to •Baal on which to burn their children in the fire as burnt offerings to Baal, something I have never commanded or mentioned; I never entertained the thought.^c

⁶ “Therefore, take note! The days are coming”—[this is] the LORD’s declaration—“when this place will no longer be called Topheth and the Valley of Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter. ⁷ I will spoil the plans of Judah and Jerusalem in this place. I will make them fall by the sword before their enemies, by the hand of those who want to take their life. I will provide their corpses as food for the birds of the sky and for the wild animals of the land. ⁸ I will make this city desolate, an object of scorn. Everyone who passes by it will be horrified and scoff because of all its wounds. ⁹ I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and their daughters, and they will eat each other’s flesh in the siege and distress that their enemies, those who want to take their life, inflict on them.

¹⁰ “Then you are to shatter the jug in the presence of the people traveling with you, ¹¹ and you are to proclaim to them: This is what the LORD of Hosts says: I will shatter these people and this city, like one shatters a potter’s jar that can never again be mended. They will bury in Topheth until there is no place left to bury. ¹² I will do so to this place”—[this is] the declaration of the LORD—“and to its residents, making this city like Topheth. ¹³ The houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah will become impure like that place Topheth—all the houses on whose rooftops they have burned incense to the whole heavenly host and poured out drink offerings to other gods.”

¹⁴ Jeremiah came back from Topheth, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy, stood in the courtyard of the LORD’s temple, and proclaimed to all the people, ¹⁵ “This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: ‘I am about to bring on this city—and on all its [dependent] villages—all the disaster that I spoke against it, for they have become obstinate, not obeying My words.’”

Jeremiah Beaten by Pashhur

20 Pashhur the priest, the son of Immer and chief officer in the house of the LORD, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things. ² So Pashhur had Jeremiah the prophet beaten and put him in the stocks at the Upper Benjamin Gate in the LORD’s temple. ³ The next day, when Pashhur released Jeremiah from the stocks, Jeremiah said to him, “The LORD does not call you Pashhur, but Magor-missabib,^d ⁴ for this is what the LORD says, ‘I am about to make you a terror to both yourself and those you love. They will fall by the sword of their enemies before your very eyes. I will hand Judah over to the king of Babylon, and he will deport them to Babylon and put them to the sword. ⁵ I will give away all the wealth of this city, all its products and valuables. Indeed, I will hand all the treasures of the kings of Judah over to their enemies. They will plunder them, seize them, and carry them off to Babylon. ⁶ As for you, Pashhur, and all who live in your house, you will go into captivity. You will go to Babylon. There you will die, and there you will be buried, you and all your friends that you prophesied falsely to.’”

Jeremiah’s Compelled to Preach

⁷ You deceived me, LORD,
and I was deceived.

You seized me and prevailed.
I am a laughingstock all the time;
everyone ridicules me.

⁸ For whenever I speak, I cry out—
I proclaim: Violence and destruction! because the word of the LORD has become
for me
constant disgrace and derision.

Jeremiah’s Lament

- 14 Cursed be the day
on which I was born.
The day my mother bore me—
let it never be blessed.
- 15 Cursed be the man
who brought the news to my father, saying, “A male child is born to you,”
bringing him great joy.
- 16 Let that man be like the cities
the LORD overthrew without compassion.
Let him hear an outcry in the morning and a war cry at noontime

so that my mother might have been

Zedekiah’s Request Denied

21 [This is] the word that came to Jeremiah
from the LORD when King Zedekiah sent Pashhur son of Malchijah and the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah to Jeremiah, asking,

2 “Ask the LORD on our behalf, since Nebuchadnezzar^d king of Babylon is making war against us. Perhaps the LORD will perform for us something like all His [past] wonderful works so that [Nebuchadnezzar] will withdraw from us.”

3 But Jeremiah answered, “This is what you are to say to Zedekiah: ⁴ ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I will repel the weapons of war in your hands, those you are using to fight the king of Babylon and the Chaldeans^e who are besieging you outside the wall, and I will bring them into the center of this city. ⁵ I will fight against you with an outstretched hand and a mighty arm, with anger, rage, and great wrath. ⁶ I will strike the residents of this city, both man and beast. They will die in a great plague. ⁷ Afterwards’”—[this is] the LORD’s declaration—“‘King Zedekiah of Judah, his officers, and the people—those in this city who survive the plague, the sword, and the famine—I will hand over to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, to their enemies, yes, to those who want to take their lives. He will put them to the sword; he won’t spare them or show pity or compassion.’”

A Warning for the People

8 “But you must say to this people, ‘This is what the LORD says: Look, I am presenting to you the way of life and the way of death. ⁹ Whoever stays in this city will die by the sword, famine, and plague, but whoever goes out and surrenders to the Chaldeans who are besieging you will live and will retain his life like the spoils [of war]. ¹⁰ For I have turned^f against this city to [bring] disaster and not good’”—[this is] the LORD’s declaration. “‘It will be handed over to the king of Babylon, who will burn it down.’”

11 “And to the house of the king of Judah [say this]: ‘Hear the word of the LORD! ¹² House of David, this is what the LORD says:

that will consume everything around it.' "

Judgment against Sinful Kings

22 This is what the LORD says: "Go down to the palace of the king of Judah and announce this word there. ² You are to say: Hear the word of the LORD, king of Judah, you who sit on the throne of David—you, your officers, and your people who enter these gates. ³ This is what the LORD says: Administer justice and righteousness. Rescue the victim of robbery from the hand of his oppressor. Don't exploit or brutalize the alien, the fatherless, or the widow. Don't shed innocent blood in this place. ⁴ For if you conscientiously carry out this word, then kings sitting on David's throne will enter through the gates of this palace riding on chariots and horses—they, their officers, and their people. ⁵ But if you do not obey these words, then I swear by Myself—[this is] the LORD's declaration—"that this house will become a ruin."

⁶ For this is what the LORD says concerning the house of the king of Judah:

You are like Gilead to Me,
[or] the summit of Lebanon,
but I will certainly turn you into a wilderness,
uninhabited cities.

- ⁷ I will appoint destroyers against you,
each with his weapons.
They will cut down the choicest of your cedars
and throw them into the fire.

⁸ "Many nations will pass by this city and ask one another: Why did the LORD do such a thing to this great city? ⁹ They will answer: Because they abandoned the covenant of the LORD their God and worshiped and served other gods."

A Message concerning Shallum

- ¹⁰ Do not weep for the dead;
do not mourn for him.^a Weep bitterly for the one who has gone away,

for he will never return again
and see his native land.

¹¹ For this is what the LORD says concerning Shallum son of Josiah, king of Judah, who succeeded Josiah his father as king: "He has left this place—he will never return here again, ¹² but he will die in the place where they deported him, never seeing this land again."

A Message concerning Jehoiakim

- ¹³ Woe for the one who builds his palace
through unrighteousness,
his upper rooms through injustice,
who makes his fellow man serve without pay
and will not give him his wages, ¹⁴ who says: I will build myself
a massive palace,
with spacious upper rooms.
He will cut windows^b in it, and it will be paneled with cedar and painted with vermilion.
¹⁵ Are you a king because you excel
in cedar?
Your own father, did he not eat and drink?
He administered justice
and righteousness,
then it went well with him.
¹⁶ He took up the case of the poor and needy,
then it went well.
Is this not what it means to know Me?
[This is] the LORD's declaration.
¹⁷ But you have eyes and heart for nothing except your own unjust gain, shedding innocent blood
and committing extortion and oppression.

¹⁸ Therefore, this is what the LORD says concerning Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah:

They will not mourn for him, [saying,]
Woe, my brother! or Woe, [my] sister!
They will not mourn for him, saying,
Woe, lord! Woe, his majesty!

- ¹⁹ He will be buried [like] a donkey, dragged off and thrown outside the gates of Jerusalem.
²⁰ Go up to Lebanon and cry out;
raise your voice in Bashan;
cry out from Abarim,
for all your lovers^c have been crushed.
²¹ I spoke to you when you were secure.
You said: I will not listen.

^a22:10 The person referred to in this v. is the Shallum of v.11 ^b22:14 Lit My windows ^c22:20 Or friends, or allies

This has been your way since youth;
indeed, you have never listened to Me.

- 22 The wind will take charge of^a all your shepherds,
and your lovers^b will go into captivity.
Then you will be ashamed and humiliated
because of all your evil.
- 23 You residents of Lebanon,
nestled among the cedars,
how you will groan^c when labor pains
come on you,
agony like a woman in labor.

A Message concerning Coniah

24 “As I live,” says the LORD, “though you, Coniah^d son of Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, were a signet ring on My right hand, I would tear you from it. 25 In fact, I will hand you over to those you dread, who want to take your life, to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and the Chaldeans. 26 I will hurl you and the mother who gave birth to you into another land, where neither of you were born, and there you will both die. 27 They will never return to the land they long to return to.”

- 28 Is this man Coniah
a despised, shattered pot,
a jar no one wants?
Why are he and his descendants hurled out
and cast into a land
they have not known?
- 29 Earth, earth, earth,
hear the word of the LORD!
- 30 This is what the LORD says:
Record this man as childless,
a man who will not be successful
in his lifetime.
None of his descendants will succeed in sitting on the throne of David or ruling again in Judah.

The LORD and His Sheep

23 “Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of My pasture!” [This is] the LORD’s declaration. 2 “Therefore, this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says about the shepherds who shepherd My people: You have scattered My flock, banished them, and have not attended to them. I will attend to you because of your evil acts”—the LORD’s declaration. 3 “I will gather the remnant of My flock from all the lands where I have banished them, and I will return them to their grazing land. They will become fruitful and numerous. 4 I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them. They will no longer be afraid or dismayed, nor will any be missing.” [This is] the LORD’s declaration.

The Righteous Branch of David

5 “The days are coming”—[this is] the LORD’s declaration—“when I will raise up a righteous Branch of David. He will reign wisely as king and administer justice and righteousness in the land. 6 In His days Judah will be saved, and Israel will dwell securely. This is what He will be named: The LORD Is Our Righteousness. 7 The days are coming”—the LORD’s declaration—“when it will no longer be said: As the LORD lives who brought the Israelites from the land of Egypt, 8 but: As the LORD lives, who brought and led the descendants of the house of Israel from the land of the north and from all the other countries where I^e had banished them. They will dwell once more in their own land.”

False Prophets Condemned

9 Concerning the prophets:

- My heart is broken within me,
and all my bones tremble.
I have become like a drunkard,
like a man overcome by wine,
because of the LORD,
because of His holy words.
- 10 For the land is full of adulterers;
the land mourns because of the curse,
and the grazing lands in the wilderness
have dried up.
Their way of life^f has become evil,
and their power is not rightly used
- 11 because both prophet and priest
are ungodly,
even in My house I have found their evil.

[This is] the LORD’s declaration.

- 12 Therefore, their way will be to them
like slippery paths in the gloom.
They will be driven away
and fall down there,
for I will bring disaster on them,
the year of their punishment.
[This is] the LORD’s declaration.

^a22:22 Lit will shepherd ^b22:22 Or friends, or allies ^c22:23 LXX, Syr, Vg; MT reads will be pitied ^d22:24 = Jehoiachin ^e23:8 LXX reads He ^f23:10 Lit Their manner of running

- 13 Among the prophets of Samaria
I saw something disgusting:
They prophesied by •Baal
and led My people Israel astray.
- 14 Among the prophets of Jerusalem also
I saw a horrible thing:
They commit adultery and walk in lies.
They strengthen the hands of evildoers,
and none turns his back on evil.
They are all like Sodom to Me;
Jerusalem's residents are like Gomorrah.
- 15 Therefore, this is what the LORD of •Hosts
says concerning the prophets:
I am about to feed them •wormwood
and give them poisoned water to drink, for from the prophets of Jerusalem ungodliness^a has spread
throughout the land.
- 16 This is what the LORD of Hosts says: "Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you. They are making you worthless. They speak visions from their own minds, not from the LORD's mouth. 17 They keep on saying to those who despise Me: The LORD has said:
You will have peace. To everyone who walks in the stubbornness of his heart they have said, No harm will come to you."
- 18 For who has stood in the council
of the LORD
to see and hear His word?
Who has paid attention to His word and obeyed?
- 19 Look, a storm from the LORD!
Wrath has gone forth,
a whirling storm.
It will whirl about the head of the wicked.
- 20 The LORD's anger will not turn back
until He has completely fulfilled
the purposes of His heart.
In time to come you will understand it clearly.
- 21 I did not send these prophets,
yet they ran [with a message].
I did not speak to them,
yet they prophesied.
- 22 If they had really stood in My council,
they would have enabled My people to hear My words
and would have turned them back from their evil ways
and their evil deeds.

23 "Am I a God who is only near"—[this is] the LORD's declaration—"and not a God who is far away? 24 Can a man hide himself in secret places where I cannot see him?"—the LORD's declaration. "Do I not fill the heavens and the earth?"—the LORD's declaration.

25 "I have heard what the prophets who prophesy a lie in My name have said: I had a dream! I had a dream! 26 How long will this continue in the minds of the prophets prophesying lies, prophets of the deceit of their own minds? 27 Through their dreams that they tell one another, they make plans to cause My people to forget My name as their fathers forgot My name through Baal worship. 28 The prophet who has [only] a dream should recount the dream, but the one who has My word should speak My word truthfully, for what is straw [compared] to grain?"—the LORD's declaration. 29 "Is not My word like fire"—the LORD's declaration—"and like a sledgehammer that pulverizes rock? 30 Therefore, take note! I am against the prophets"—the LORD's declaration—"who steal My words from each other. 31 I am against the prophets"—the LORD's declaration—"who use their own tongues to deliver an oracle. 32 I am against those who prophesy false dreams"—the LORD's declaration—"telling them and leading My people astray with their falsehoods and their boasting. It was not I who sent or commanded them, and they are of no benefit at all to these people"—[this is] the LORD's declaration.

The Burden of the LORD

33 "Now when these people or a prophet or a priest asks you: What is the burden of the LORD? you will respond to them: What is the burden? I will throw you away"—[this is] the LORD's declaration. 34 "As for the prophet, priest, or people who say: The burden of the LORD, I will punish that man and his household. 35 This is what each man is to say to his friend and to his brother: What has the LORD answered? or What has the LORD spoken? 36 But no longer refer to^b the burden of the LORD, for each man's word becomes his burden and you pervert the words of the living God, the LORD of Hosts, our God. 37 You must say to the prophet: What has the LORD answered you? and What has the LORD spoken? 38 But if you say: The burden of the LORD, then this is what the LORD says: Because you have said, The burden of the LORD, and I specifically told you not to say, The burden of the LORD, 39 I will surely forget you^a and throw away from My presence both you and the city that I gave you and your fathers.⁴⁰ I will bring on you everlasting shame and humiliation that will never be forgotten.”

^a23:15 Or pollution ^b23:36 Or longer remember

The Good and the Bad Figs

24 After Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had deported Jeconiah^b son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, the officials of Judah, and the craftsmen and metalsmiths from Jerusalem and had brought them to Babylon, the LORD showed me two baskets of figs placed before the temple of the LORD. ² One basket [contained] very good figs, like early figs, but the other basket contained very bad figs, so bad they were inedible. ³ The LORD said to me, “What do you see, Jeremiah?” I said, “Figs! The good figs are very good, but the bad figs are extremely bad, so bad they are inedible.”

⁴ The word of the LORD came to me: ⁵ “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Like these good figs, so I regard as good the exiles from Judah I sent away from this place to the land of the Chaldeans. ⁶ I will keep My eyes on them for their good and will return them to this land. I will build them up and not demolish them; I will plant them and not uproot them. ⁷ I will give them a heart to know Me, that I am the LORD. They will be My people, and I will be their God because they will return to Me with all their heart.

⁸ “But as for the bad figs, so bad they are inedible, this is what the LORD says: in this way I will deal with Zedekiah king of Judah, his officials, and the remnant of Jerusalem—those remaining in this land and those living in the land of Egypt. ⁹ I will make them an object of horror and disaster to all the kingdoms of the earth, a disgrace, an object of scorn, ridicule, and cursing, wherever I have banished them. ¹⁰ I will send the sword, famine, and plague against them until they have perished from the land I gave to them and their ancestors.”

The Seventy-Year Exile

25 [This is] the word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah (which was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon). ² The prophet Jeremiah spoke concerning all the people of Judah and all the residents of Jerusalem as follows: ³ “From the thirteenth year of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah, until this very day—23 years—the word of the LORD has come to me, and I have spoken to you time and time again,^c but you have not obeyed. ⁴ The LORD sent all His servants the prophets to you time and time again,^d but you have not obeyed or even paid attention.^e ⁵ He announced, ‘Turn, each of you, from your^f evil way of life and from your evil deeds. Live in the land the LORD gave to you and your ancestors for ever and ever. ⁶ Do not follow other gods to serve them and to worship them, and do not provoke Me to anger by the work of your hands. Then I will do you no harm.

⁷ “‘But you would not obey Me’—[this is] the LORD’s declaration—‘in order that you might provoke Me to anger by the work of your hands and bring disaster on yourselves.’

⁸ “Therefore, this is what the LORD of •Hosts says: ‘Because you have not obeyed My words, ⁹ I am going to send for all the families of the north’—[this is] the LORD’s declaration—‘and [send for] My servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and I will bring them against this land, against its residents, and against all these surrounding nations, and I will •completely destroy them and make them a desolation, a derision, and ruins forever. ¹⁰ I will eliminate the sound of joy and gladness from them—the voice of the bridegroom and the bride, the sound of the millstones and the light of the lamp. ¹¹ This whole land will become a desolate ruin, and these nations will serve the king of Babylon for 70 years. ¹² When the 70 years are completed, I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation’—[this is] the LORD’s declaration—‘the land of the Chaldeans, for their guilt, and I will make it a ruin forever. ¹³ I will bring on that land all My words I have spoken against it, all that is written in this book that Jeremiah prophesied against all the nations. ¹⁴ For many nations and great kings will enslave them, and I will repay them according to their deeds and the work of their hands.’”

The Cup of God's Wrath

¹⁵ This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, said to me: “Take this cup of the wine of wrath from My hand and make all the nations I am sending you to drink from it. ¹⁶ They will drink,

^a23:39 Some Hb mss; other Hb mss, LXX, Syr, Vg read surely lift you up ^b24:1 = Jehoiachin; Jr 52:31–34;

stagger,^a and go out of their minds because of the sword I am sending among them.”

¹⁷ So I took the cup from the LORD’s hand and made all the nations drink [from it], everyone the LORD sent me to. ¹⁸ [These included:]

Jerusalem and the [other] cities of Judah, its kings and its officials, to make them a desolate ruin, an object of scorn and cursing—as it is today;

¹⁹ Pharaoh king of Egypt, his officers, his leaders, all his people,

²⁰ and all the mixed peoples; all the kings of the land of Uz;

all the kings of the land of the Philistines—Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod;

²¹ Edom, Moab, and the Ammonites;

²² all the kings of Tyre, all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the coastlands across the sea;

²³ Dedan, Tema, Buz, and all those who shave their temples;^b

²⁴ all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mixed peoples who have settled in the desert;

²⁵ all the kings of Zimri,

all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of Media;

²⁶ all the kings of the north, both near and far from one another;

that is, all the kingdoms of the world which are on the face of the earth.

Finally, the king of Sheshach^c will drink after them.

²⁷ “Then you are to say to them: This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: Drink, get drunk, and vomit. Fall down and never get up again, as a result of the sword I am sending among you. ²⁸ If^d they refuse to take the cup from you and drink, you are to say to them: This is what the LORD of Hosts says: You must drink! ²⁹ For I am already bringing disaster on the city that bears My name, so how could you possibly go unpunished? You will not go unpunished, for I am summoning a sword against all the inhabitants of the earth”—[this is] the declaration of the LORD of Hosts.

Judgment on the Whole World

³⁰ “As for you, you are to prophesy all these things to them, and say to them:

The LORD roars from on high;

He raises His voice from His holy dwelling.

He roars loudly over His grazing land;

He calls out with a shout, like those who tread [grapes],

against all the inhabitants of the earth.

³¹ The tumult reaches to the ends of the earth

because the LORD brings a case against the nations.

He enters into judgment with all flesh.

As for the wicked, He hands them over to the sword—

[This is] the LORD’s declaration.

³² “This is what the LORD of Hosts says:

Pay attention! Disaster goes forth from nation to nation.

A great storm is stirred up from the ends of the earth.”

³³ Those slain by the LORD on that day will be [spread] from one end of the earth to the other. They will not be mourned, gathered, or buried. They will be like manure on the surface of the ground.

³⁴ Wail, you shepherds, and cry out. Roll [in the dust],^e you leaders of the flock.

Because the days of your slaughter have come, you will fall and become shattered like a precious vase.

³⁵ Flight will be impossible for the shepherds,

and escape, for the leaders of the flock.

³⁶ [Hear] the sound of the shepherds’ cry, the wail of the leaders of the flock, for the LORD is destroying their pasture.

³⁷ Peaceful grazing land will become lifeless because of the LORD’s burning anger.

³⁸ He has left His den like a lion, for their land has become a desolation because of the sword^f of the oppressor, because of His burning anger.

Jeremiah’s Speech in the Temple

26 At the beginning of the reign of Jehoia-kim son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from the LORD: ² “This is what the LORD says: Stand in the courtyard of the LORD’s

^a25:16 Or vomit ^b25:23 Or who live in distant places; Jr 9:26; 49:32; Lv 19:27 ^c25:26 Probably a code name for Babylon temple and speak all the words I have commanded you to speak to all Judah's cities that are coming to worship there. Do not hold back a word.³ Perhaps they will listen and return—each from his evil way of life—so that I might relent concerning the disaster that I plan to do to them because of the evil of their deeds.⁴ You are to say to them: This is what the LORD says: If you do not listen to Me by living according to My law that I set before you⁵ and by listening to the words of My servants the prophets I have been sending you time and time again,^a though you did not listen, ⁶ I will make this temple like Shiloh. I will make this city an object of cursing for all the nations of the earth.”

Jeremiah Seized

⁷ The priests, the prophets, and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the temple of the LORD. ⁸ He finished the address the LORD had commanded him to deliver to all the people. Then the priests, the prophets, and all the people took hold of him, yelling, “You must surely die!”⁹ How dare you prophesy in the name of the LORD, ‘This temple will become like Shiloh and this city will become an uninhabited ruin!’” Then all the people assembled against Jeremiah at the LORD’s temple.

¹⁰ When the officials of Judah heard these things, they went up from the king’s palace to the LORD’s temple and sat at the entrance of the New Gate.^b ¹¹ Then the priests and prophets said to the officials and all the people, “This man deserves the death sentence because he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your own ears.”

Jeremiah's Defense

¹² Then Jeremiah said to all the officials and the people, “The LORD sent me to prophesy all the words that you have heard against this temple and city. ¹³ So now, correct your ways and deeds and obey the voice of the LORD your God so that He might relent concerning the disaster that He warned about. ¹⁴ As for me, here I am in your hands; do to me what you think is good and right. ¹⁵ But know for certain that if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood on yourselves, on this city, and on its residents, for it is certain the LORD has sent me to speak all these things directly to you.”

Jeremiah Released

¹⁶ Then the officials and all the people told the priests and prophets, “This man doesn’t deserve the death sentence, for he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God!”

¹⁷ Some of the elders of the land stood up and said to all the assembled people, ¹⁸ “Micah the Moreshite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah and said to all the people of Judah, ‘This is what the LORD of •Hosts says:

Zion will be plowed like a field,
Jerusalem will become ruins,
and the temple mount a forested hill.’

¹⁹ Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all [the people of] Judah put him to death? Did he not •fear the LORD and plead for the LORD’s favor,^c and did not the LORD relent concerning the disaster He had pronounced against them? We are about to bring great harm on ourselves!”

The Prophet Uriah

²⁰ Another man was also prophesying in the name of the LORD—Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath-jearim. He prophesied against this city and against this land in words like all those of Jeremiah. ²¹ King Jehoiakim, all his warriors, and all the officials heard his words, and the king tried to put him to death. When Uriah heard, he fled in fear and went to Egypt. ²² But King Jehoiakim sent men to Egypt: Elnathan son of Achbor and [certain other] men with him [went] to Egypt. ²³ They brought Uriah out of Egypt and took him to King Jehoiakim, who executed him with the sword and threw his corpse into the burial place of the common people.^d

²⁴ But Ahikam son of Shaphan supported Jeremiah, so he was not handed over to the people to be put to death.

The Yoke of Babylon

27 At the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah^e son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD:^f ² “This is what the LORD said to me: Make fetters and yoke bars for yourself and put them on your neck. ³ Send [word] to the king of Edom, the king of Moab, the king of the Ammonites, the king of Tyre, and the king of Sidon through messengers who are coming to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem. ⁴ Command them [to go] to their masters, saying: This is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says: This is what you must say to your masters: ⁵ By My great strength and outstretched arm, I made the earth, and the people, and animals on the face of the earth. I give it to anyone I please.^a ⁶ So now I have placed all these lands under the authority of My servant Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon. I have even given him the wild animals to serve him. ⁷ All nations will serve him, his son, and his grandson until the time for his own land comes, and then many nations and great kings will enslave him.

⁸ “As for the nation or kingdom that does not serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and does not place its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation I will punish by sword, famine, and plague”—[this is] the LORD’s declaration—“until through him I have destroyed it. ⁹ But as for you, do not listen to your prophets, your diviners, your dreamers, your fortune-tellers, or your sorcerers who say to you: Don’t serve the king of Babylon! ¹⁰ for they prophesy a lie to you so that you will be removed from your land. I will banish you, and you will perish. ¹¹ But as for the nation that will put its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, I will leave it in its own land, and that nation will till^b it and reside in it.” [This is] the LORD’s declaration.

Warning to Zedekiah

¹² I spoke to Zedekiah king of Judah in the same way: “Put your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, serve him and his people, and live! ¹³ Why should you and your people die by the sword, famine, or plague as the LORD has threatened against any nation that does not serve the king of Babylon? ¹⁴ Do not listen to the words of the prophets who are telling you, ‘You must not serve the king of Babylon,’ for they are prophesying a lie to you. ¹⁵ ‘I have not sent them’—[this is] the LORD’s declaration—‘and they are prophesying falsely in My name; therefore, I will banish you, and you will perish—you and the prophets who are prophesying to you.’”

¹⁶ Then I spoke to the priests and all these people, saying, “This is what the LORD says, ‘Do not listen to the words of your prophets. They are prophesying to you, claiming: Look, very soon now the articles of the LORD’s temple will be brought back from Babylon. They are prophesying a lie to you. ¹⁷ Do not listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon and live! Why should this city become a ruin?’ ¹⁸ If they are indeed prophets and if the word of the LORD is with them, let them intercede with the LORD of Hosts not to let the articles that remain in the LORD’s temple, in the palace of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem go to Babylon.’ ¹⁹ For this is what the LORD of Hosts says about the pillars, the sea, the water carts, and the rest of the articles that still remain in this city, ²⁰ those Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take when he deported Jeconiah^c son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon along with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem. ²¹ Yes, this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says about the articles that remain in the temple of the LORD, in the palace of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem: ²² ‘They will be brought to Babylon and will remain there until I attend to them again.’ [This is] the LORD’s declaration. ‘Then I will bring them up and restore them to this place.’”

Hananiah’s False Prophecy

28 In that same year, at the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fifth month of the fourth year, the prophet Hananiah son of Azzur from Gibeon said to me in the temple of the LORD in the presence of the priests and all the people, ² “This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: ‘I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. ³ Within two years I will restore to this place all the articles of the LORD’s temple that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took from here and transported to Babylon. ⁴ And I will restore to this place Jeconiah^c son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and all the exiles from Judah who went to Babylon’—[this is] the LORD’s declaration—‘for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.’”

Jeremiah’s Response to Hananiah

⁵ The prophet Jeremiah replied to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the temple of the LORD. ⁶ The prophet Jeremiah said, “•Amen! May the LORD do so. May the LORD make the words you have prophesied come true and may He restore the articles of the LORD’s temple and all the exiles from Babylon to this place! ⁷ Only listen to this message I am speaking in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people. ⁸ The prophets who preceded you and me from ancient times prophesied war, disaster,^d and plague against many lands and great kingdoms.⁹ As for the prophet who prophesies peace—only when the word of the prophet comes true will the prophet be recognized as one whom the LORD has truly sent.”

Hananiah Breaks Jeremiah's Yoke

¹⁰ The prophet Hananiah then took the yoke bar from the neck of Jeremiah the prophet and broke it. ¹¹ In the presence of all the people Hananiah proclaimed, “This is what the LORD says: ‘In this way, within two years I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, from the neck of all the nations.’” Jeremiah the prophet then went on his way.

The LORD's Word against Hananiah

¹² The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah after Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke bar from the neck of Jeremiah the prophet: ¹³ “Go say to Hananiah: This is what the LORD says: You broke a wooden yoke bar, but in its place you will make an iron yoke bar. ¹⁴ For this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: I have put an iron yoke on the neck of all these nations that they might serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and they will serve him. I have also put the wild animals under him.”

¹⁵ The prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah, “Listen, Hananiah! The LORD did not send you, but you have led these people to trust in a lie. ¹⁶ Therefore, this is what the LORD says: ‘I am about to send you off the face of the earth. You will die this year because you have spoken rebellion against the LORD.’” ¹⁷ And the prophet Hananiah died that year in the seventh month.

Jeremiah's Letter to the Exiles

29 This is the text of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the rest of the elders of the exiles, the priests, the prophets, and all the people Nebuchadnezzar had deported from Jerusalem to Babylon. ² [This was] after King Jeconiah,^a the queen mother, the court officials, the officials of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the metal-smiths had left Jerusalem. ³ [The letter was sent] by Elasah son of Shaphan and Gemariah son of Hilkiah whom Zedekiah king of Judah had sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. [The letter] stated:

⁴ This is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says to all the exiles I deported from Jerusalem to Babylon: ⁵ “Build houses and live [in them]. Plant gardens and eat their produce. ⁶ Take wives and have sons and daughters. Take wives for your sons and give your daughters to men [in marriage] so that they may bear sons and daughters. Multiply there; do not decrease. ⁷ Seek the welfare of the city I have deported you to. Pray to the LORD on its behalf, for when it has prosperity, you will prosper.”

⁸ For this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: “Don’t let your prophets who are among you and your diviners deceive you, and don’t listen to the dreams you elicit from them, ⁹ for they are prophesying falsely to you in My name. I have not sent them.” [This is] the LORD’s declaration.

¹⁰ For this is what the LORD says: “When 70 years for Babylon are complete, I will attend to you and will confirm My promise concerning you to restore you to this place. ¹¹ For I know the plans I have for you”—[this is] the LORD’s declaration—“plans for [your] welfare, not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope. ¹² You will call to Me and come and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. ¹³ You will seek Me and find Me when you search for Me with all your heart. ¹⁴ I will be found by you”—the LORD’s declaration—“and I will restore your fortunes^b and gather you from all the nations and places where I banished you”—the LORD’s declaration. “I will restore you to the place I deported you from.”

¹⁵ You have said, “The LORD has raised up prophets for us in Babylon!” ¹⁶ But this is what the LORD says concerning the king sitting on David’s throne and concerning all the people living in this city—that is, concerning your brothers who did not go with you into exile. ¹⁷ This is what the LORD of Hosts says: “I am about to send against them sword, famine, and plague and will make them like rotten figs that are inedible because they are so bad. ¹⁸ I will pursue them with sword, famine, and plague. I will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth—a curse and a desolation, an object of scorn and a disgrace among all the nations where I will have banished them. ¹⁹[I will do this] because they have not listened to My words”—[this is] the LORD’s declaration—“that I sent to them with My servants the prophets time and time again.^a And you too have not listened.” [This is] the LORD’s declaration.

²⁰Hear the word of the LORD, all you exiles I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon. ²¹This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says to Ahab son of Kolaiah and to Zedekiah son of Maaseiah, the ones prophesying a lie to you in My name: “I am about to hand them over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will kill them before your very eyes. ²²Based on [what happens to] them, all the exiles of Judah who are in Babylon will create a curse that says: May the LORD make you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire! ²³because they have committed an outrage in Israel by committing adultery with their neighbors’ wives and have spoken a lie in My name, which I did not command them. I am He who knows, and I am a witness.” [This is] the LORD’s declaration.

²⁴To Shemaiah the Nehelamite you are to say, ²⁵“This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: You^b in your own name have sent out letters to all the people of Jerusalem, to the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah, and to all the priests, saying: ²⁶The LORD has appointed you priest in place of Jehoiada the priest to be the chief officer in the temple of the LORD, responsible for every madman who acts like a prophet. You must confine him in stocks and an iron collar. ²⁷So now, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth who has been acting like a prophet among you? ²⁸For he has sent [word] to us in Babylon, claiming: The exile will be long. Build houses and settle down. Plant gardens and eat their produce.”

²⁹Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the hearing of Jeremiah the prophet.

A Message about Shemaiah

³⁰Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ³¹“Send [a message] to all the exiles, saying: This is what the LORD says concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite. Because Shemaiah prophesied to you, though I did not send him, and made you trust a lie, ³²this is what the LORD says: I am about to punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his descendants. There will not be even one of his [descendants] living among these people, nor will any ever see the good that I will bring to My people”—[this is] the LORD’s declaration—“for he has preached rebellion against the LORD.”

Restoration from Captivity

30 [This is] the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD. ²This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: “Write down on a scroll all the words that I have spoken to you, ³for the days are certainly coming”—[this is] the LORD’s declaration—“when I will restore the fortunes^c of My people Israel and Judah”—the LORD’s declaration. “I will restore them to the land I gave to their ancestors and they will possess it.”

⁴These are the words the LORD spoke to Israel and Judah. ⁵Yes, this is what the LORD says:

We have heard a cry of terror,
of dread—there is no peace.

⁶Ask and see
whether a male can give birth.
Why then do I see every man with his hands on his stomach
like a woman in labor
and every face turned pale?

⁷How awful that day will be!
There will be none like it!
It will be a time of trouble for Jacob,
but he will be delivered out of it.

⁸“On that day”—[this is] the declaration of the LORD of •Hosts—“I will break his yoke from your neck and snap your fetters so strangers will never again enslave him. ⁹They will serve the LORD their God and I will raise up David their king for them.”

¹⁰As for you, My servant Jacob,
do not be afraid—
[this is] the LORD’s declaration—
and do not be dismayed, Israel,
for I will without fail save you
from far away,
your descendants, from the land
of their captivity!
Jacob will return and have calm and quiet
with no one to frighten him.

^a29:19 Lit prophets, rising up early and sending ^b29:25 Lit Because you ^c30:3 Or will end the captivity

- 11 For I will be with you—
 [this is] the LORD's declaration—
 to save you!
 I will bring destruction on all the nations
 where I have scattered you;
 however, I will not bring destruction
 on you.
 I will discipline you justly,
 but I will by no means
 leave you unpunished.

Healing Zion's Wounds

- 12 For this is what the LORD says:
 Your injury is incurable;
 your wound most severe.
 13 No one takes up the case for your sores.
 You have nothing that can heal you.
 14 All your lovers have forgotten you;
 they no longer look for you,
 for I have struck you like an enemy would,
 with the discipline of someone cruel,
 because of your enormous guilt
 and your innumerable sins.
 15 Why do you cry out about your injury?
 Your pain has no cure!
 I have done these things to you
 because of your enormous guilt
 and your innumerable sins.
 16 Nevertheless, all who devoured you will be devoured,
 and all your adversaries—all of them—
 will go off into exile.
 Your despoilers will become spoil,
 and all who plunder you will be plundered.
 17 But I will bring you health and will heal you of your wounds—
 [this is] the LORD's declaration—
 for they call you The Outcast, that Zion no one cares about.

Restoration of the Land

- 18 This is what the LORD says:
 I will certainly restore the fortunes^a of Jacob's tents
 and show compassion on his dwellings.
 Every city will be rebuilt on its mound;
 every citadel will stand on its proper site.
 19 Thanksgiving will come out of them,
 a sound of celebration.

- I will multiply them,
 and they will not decrease;
 I will honor them, and they will not be insignificant.
 20 His children will be as in past days;
 his congregation will be established in My presence.
 I will punish all his oppressors.
 21 Jacob's leader will be one of them;
 his ruler will issue from him.
 I will invite him to Me, and he will approach Me,
 for who would otherwise risk his life
 to approach Me?
 [this is] the LORD's declaration.
 22 You will be My people,
 and I will be your God.

The Wrath of God

- 23 Look, a storm from the LORD!
 Wrath has gone forth.
 A churning storm,
 it will whirl about the head of the wicked.
 24 The LORD's burning anger will not turn back
 until He has completely fulfilled
 the purposes of His heart.
 In time to come you will understand it.

God's Relationship with His People

- 31 “At that time”—[this is] the LORD's declaration—“I will be God of all the families of Israel, and they will be My people.”
 2 This is what the LORD says:

- They found favor in the wilderness—
 the people who survived the sword.
 [When] Israel went to find rest,
 3 the LORD appeared to him^b
 from far away.
 I have loved you
 with an everlasting love;
 therefore, I have continued to extend faithful love to you.
 4 Again I will build you so that you will
 be rebuilt,
 Virgin Israel.
 You will take up your tambourines again
 and go forth in joyful dancing.
 5 You will plant vineyards again on the mountains of Samaria;
 the planters will plant and will enjoy [the fruit].

- 6 For there will be a day when watchmen
will call out
in the hill country of Ephraim:
Get up, let's go up to Zion,
to the LORD our God!

God's People Brought Home

- 7 For this is what the LORD says:

Sing with joy for Jacob;
shout for the chief of the nations!
Proclaim, praise, and say:
LORD, save Your people,
the remnant of Israel!

- 8 Watch! I am going to bring them from the northern land.
I will gather them from remote regions
of the earth—
the blind and the lame will be with them,
along with those who are pregnant
and those about to give birth.
They will return here as a great assembly!

- 9 They will come weeping,
but I will bring them back with consolation.^a
I will lead them to •wadis [filled]
with water
by a smooth way where they will not stumble,
for I am Israel's Father,
and Ephraim is My firstborn.
10 Nations, hear the word of the LORD,
and tell it among the far off coastlands!
Say: The One who scattered Israel will gather him.

He will watch over him as a shepherd [guards] his flock,

- 11 for the LORD has ransomed Jacob and redeemed him from the power of one stronger than he.

- 12 They will come and shout for joy
on the heights of Zion;
they will be radiant with joy
because of the LORD's goodness,
because of the grain, the new wine,
the fresh oil,
and because of the young of the flocks
and herds.

Their life will be like an irrigated garden,
and they will no longer grow weak [from hunger].

- 13 Then the virgin will rejoice with dancing,
while young and old men [rejoice] together.

I will turn their mourning into joy,
give them consolation,
and [bring] happiness out of grief.

- 14 I will give the priests their fill with abundance,^b and My people will be satisfied with My goodness.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.

Lament Turned to Joy

- 15 This is what the LORD says:

A voice was heard in Ramah,
a lament with bitter weeping—
Rachel weeping for her children,
refusing to be comforted for her children
because they are no more.

- 16 This is what the LORD says:

Keep your voice from weeping
and your eyes from tears,
for the reward for your work
will come—
[this is] the LORD's declaration—
and your children will return
from the enemy's land.

- 17 There is hope for your future—
[this is] the LORD's declaration—
and your children will return to their own territory.

- 18 I have heard Ephraim moaning:
You disciplined me,
and I have been disciplined
like an untrained calf.
Restore me, and I will return,
for you, LORD, are my God.

- 19 After I returned, I repented;
After I was instructed, I struck my thigh
[in grief].

I was ashamed and humiliated
because I bore the disgrace of my youth.

- 20 Isn't Ephraim a precious son to Me,
a delightful child?
Whenever I speak against him,
I certainly still think about him.
Therefore, My inner being yearns for him;
I will truly have compassion on him.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.

Repentance and Restoration

- 21 Set up road markers for yourself;
establish signposts!
Keep the highway in mind,
the way you have traveled.

Return, Virgin Israel!

Return to these cities of yours.

- 22 How long will you turn here and there, faithless daughter?

For the LORD creates something new in the land^a —
a female^b will shelter^c a man.

23 This is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says: “When I restore their fortunes,^d they will once again speak this word in the land of Judah and in its cities: May the LORD bless you, righteous settlement, holy mountain. 24 Judah and all its cities will live in it together—also farmers and those who move^e with the flocks— 25 for I satisfy the thirsty person and feed all those who are weak.”

26 At this I awoke and looked around. My sleep had been most pleasant to me.

27 “The days are coming”—[this is] the LORD’s declaration—“when I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man and the seed of beast. 28 Just as I watched over them to uproot and to tear them down, to demolish and to destroy, and to cause disaster, so will I be attentive to build and to plant them,” says the LORD. 29 “In those days, it will never again be said:

The fathers have eaten sour grapes,
and the children’s teeth are set on edge.

30 Rather, each will die for his own wrongdoing. Anyone who eats sour grapes—his own teeth will be set on edge.

The New Covenant

31 “Look, the days are coming”—[this is] the LORD’s declaration—“when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah. 32 [This one will] not be like the covenant I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant they broke even though I had married them”—the LORD’s declaration. 33 “Instead, this is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after those days”—the LORD’s declaration. “I will place My law^f within them and write it on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be My people. 34 No longer will one teach his neighbor or his brother, saying: Know the LORD, for they will all know Me, from the least to the greatest of them”—the LORD’s declaration. “For I will forgive their wrongdoing and never again remember their sin.”

35 This is what the LORD says:

The One who gives the sun for light
by day,
the fixed order of moon and stars for light
by night,
who stirs up the sea and makes
its waves roar—
the LORD of Hosts is His name:

- 36 If this fixed order departs
from My presence—
[this is] the LORD’s declaration—
then also Israel’s descendants will cease to be a nation before Me forever.

37 This is what the LORD says:

If the heavens above can be measured and the foundations
of the earth below explored,
I will reject all of Israel’s descendants
because of all they have done—
[this is] the LORD’s declaration.

38 “Look, the days are coming”—the LORD’s declaration—“when the city^g from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate will be rebuilt for the LORD. 39 A measuring line will once again stretch out straight to the hill of Gareb and then turn toward Goah. 40 The whole valley—the corpses, the ashes, and all the fields as far as the Kidron Valley to the corner of the Horse Gate to the east—will be holy to the LORD. It will never be uprooted or demolished again.”

Jeremiah’s Land Purchase

32 [This is] the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. 2 At that time, the army of the king of Babylon was besieging Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was imprisoned in the guard’s courtyard in the palace of the king of Judah. 3 Zedekiah king of Judah had imprisoned him, saying: “Why are you prophesying, ‘This is what the LORD says: Look, I am about to hand this city over to Babylon’s king, and he will capture it. 4 Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape from the Chaldeans; indeed, he will certainly be handed over to Babylon’s king. They will speak face to face^h and meet eye to

^a31:22 Or new on earth ^b31:22 Or woman ^c31:22 Or female surrounds (Dt 32:10; Ps 32:7,10), or female courts; Hb obscure ^d31:23 Or I and their captivity ^e31:24 Tg, Vg, Aq, Sym; MT reads and they will move ^f31:33 Or instruction ^g31:38 = Jerusalem ^h32:4 Lit His mouth will speak with his mouth

eye. ⁵ He will take Zedekiah to Babylon where he will stay until I attend to him’—[this is] the LORD’s declaration. ‘You will fight the Chaldeans, but you will not succeed?’”

⁶ Jeremiah replied, “The word of the LORD came to me: ⁷ ‘Watch! Hanamel, the son of your uncle Shallum, is coming to you to say: Buy my field in Anathoth for yourself, for you own the right of redemption to buy it.’

⁸ “Then my cousin Hanamel [came] to the guard’s courtyard as the LORD had said and urged me, ‘Please buy my field in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, for you own the right of inheritance and redemption. Buy it for yourself.’ Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD. ⁹ So I bought the field in Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel, and I weighed out to him the money—17 •shekels^a of silver. ¹⁰ I recorded it on a scroll, sealed it, called in witnesses, and weighed out the silver on a scale. ¹¹ I took the purchase agreement—the sealed copy with its terms and conditions and the open copy—¹² and gave the purchase agreement to Baruch son of Neriah, son of Mahseiah. [I did this] in the sight of my cousin^b Hanamel, the witnesses who were signing the purchase agreement, and all the Judeans sitting in the guard’s courtyard.

¹⁶ “After I had given the purchase agreement to Baruch, son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD: ¹⁷ Ah, Lord GOD! You Yourself made the heavens and earth by Your great power and with Your outstretched arm. Nothing is too difficult for You! ¹⁸ You show faithful love to thousands but lay the fathers’ sins on their sons’ laps after them, great and mighty God whose name is the LORD of Hosts, ¹⁹ the One great in counsel and mighty in deed, whose eyes are on all the ways of the sons of men in order to give to each person according to his ways and the result of his deeds. ²⁰ You performed signs and wonders in the land of Egypt and do so to this very day both in Israel and among mankind. You made a name for Yourself, as [is the case] today. ²¹ You brought Your people Israel out of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a strong hand and an outstretched arm, and with great terror. ²² You gave them this land You swore [to give] to their ancestors, a land flowing with milk and honey. ²³ They entered and possessed it, but they did not obey Your voice or live according to Your law. They failed to perform all You commanded them to do, and so You have brought all this disaster on them. ²⁴ Look! Siege ramps have come against the city to capture it, and the city, as a result of the sword, famine, and plague, has been handed over to the Chaldeans who are fighting against it. What You have spoken has happened. Look, You can see it! ²⁵ Yet You, Lord GOD, have said to me: Buy the field with silver and call in witnesses—even though the city has been handed over to the Chaldeans!”

²⁶ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ²⁷ “Look, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh. Is anything too difficult for Me? ²⁸ Therefore, this is what the LORD says: I am about to hand this city over to the Chaldeans, to Babylon’s king Nebuchadnezzar, and he will capture it. ²⁹ The Chaldeans who are going to fight against this city will come, set this city on fire, and burn it along with the houses where incense has been burned to •Baal on their rooftops and where drink offerings have been poured out to other gods to provoke Me to anger. ³⁰ From their youth, the Israelites and Judeans have done nothing but what is evil in My sight! They have done nothing but provoke Me to anger by the work of their hands”—[this is] the LORD’s declaration—³¹ “for this city has been up against My wrath and fury from the day it was built until now. I will therefore remove it from My presence, ³² because of all the evil the Israelites and Judeans have done to provoke Me to anger—they, their kings, their officials, their priests, and their prophets, the men of Judah, and the residents of Jerusalem. ³³ They have turned their backs to Me and not their faces. Though I taught them time and time again,^c they do not listen and receive discipline. ³⁴ They have placed their detestable things in the house that is called by My name and have defiled it. ³⁵ They have built the •high places of Baal in the Valley of Hinnom to make their sons and daughters pass through [the fire] to •Molech—something I had not commanded them. I had never entertained the thought^d that they do this detestable act causing Judah to sin!

^a32:9 About 7 ounces ^b32:12 Some Hb mss, LXX, Syr; other Hb mss read uncle ^c32:33 Lit them, rising up early and teaching ^d32:35 Lit them, and it did not arise on My heart

³⁶ “Now therefore, this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to this city about which you said: It has been handed over to Babylon’s king through sword, famine, and plague: ³⁷ I am about to gather them from all the lands where I have banished them in My wrath, rage, and great fury, and I will return them to this place and make them live in safety. ³⁸ They will be My people, and I will be their God. ³⁹ I will give them one heart and one way so that for their good and for [the good of] their descendants after them, they will •fear Me always.

⁴⁰ “I will make with them an everlasting covenant: I will never turn away from doing good to them, and I will put fear of Me in their hearts so they will never again turn away from Me. ⁴¹ I will rejoice over them to do what is good to them, and I will plant them faithfully in this land with all My mind and heart.

⁴² “For this is what the LORD says: Just as I have brought all this great disaster on these people, so am I about to bring on them all the good I am promising them. ⁴³ Fields will be bought in this land about which you are saying: It’s a desolation without man or beast; it has been handed over to the Chaldeans! ⁴⁴ Fields will be purchased with silver, the transaction written on a scroll and sealed, and witnesses will be called on in the land of Benjamin, in the areas surrounding Jerusalem, and in Judah’s cities—the cities of the hill country, the cities of the Judean foothills, and the cities of the •Negev—because I will restore their fortunes.”^a

Israel’s Restoration

33 While he was still confined in the guard’s courtyard, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah a second time: ² “The LORD who made the earth,^b the LORD who forms it to establish it, the LORD is His name, says this: ³ Call to Me and I will answer you and tell you great and wondrous things you do not know. ⁴ For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says concerning the houses of this city and the palaces of Judah’s kings, the ones torn down [for defense] against the siege ramps and the sword: ⁵ The people coming to fight the Chaldeans will fill the houses with the corpses of [their own] men I strike down in My wrath and rage. I have hidden My face from this city because of all their evil. ⁶ Yet I will certainly bring health and healing to it and will indeed heal them. I will let them experience the abundance^c of peace and truth. ⁷ I will restore the fortunes^d of Judah and of Israel and will rebuild them as in former times. ⁸ I will purify them from all the wrongs they have committed against Me, and I will forgive all the wrongs they have committed against Me, rebelling against Me. ⁹ This city will bear on My behalf a name of joy, praise, and glory before all the nations of the earth, who will hear of all the good I will do for them. They will tremble with awe because of all the good and all the peace I will bring about for them.

¹⁰ “This is what the LORD says: In this place which you say is a ruin, without man or beast—that is, in Judah’s cities and Jerusalem’s streets that are a desolation without man, without inhabitant, and without beast—there will be heard again ¹¹ a sound of joy and gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the bride, and the voice of those saying,

Praise the LORD of •Hosts,
for the LORD is good;
His faithful love endures forever

as they bring thank offerings to the temple of the LORD. For I will restore the fortunes^d of the land as in former times, says the LORD.

¹² “This is what the LORD of Hosts says: In this desolate place—without man or beast—and in all its cities there will once more be a grazing land where shepherds may rest flocks. ¹³ The flocks will again pass under the hands of the one who counts them in the cities of the hill country, the cities of the Judean foothills, the cities of the •Negev, the land of Benjamin—the cities surrounding Jerusalem and Judah’s cities, says the LORD.

God’s Covenant with David

¹⁴ “Look, the days are coming”—[this is] the LORD’s declaration—“when I will fulfill the good promises that I have spoken concerning the house of Israel and the house of Judah. ¹⁵ In those days and at that time I will cause a Branch of righteousness to sprout up for David, and He will administer justice and righteousness in the land. ¹⁶ In those days Judah will be saved, and Jerusalem will dwell securely, and this is what she will be named: The LORD Is Our Righteousness. ¹⁷ For this is what the LORD says: David will never fail to have a man sitting on the throne of the house of Israel. ¹⁸ The Levitical priests will never fail to have a man always before Me to offer •burnt offerings, to burn •grain offerings, and to make sacrifices.”

¹⁹ The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ²⁰ “This is what the LORD says: If you can break My covenant with the day and My covenant with the night so that day and night cease to come at their regular time, ²¹ then also My covenant with My servant David may be broken so that he will not have a son reigning on his throne, and the Levitical priests will not be My ministers. ²² The hosts of heaven cannot be counted; the sand of the sea cannot be measured. So, too, I will make the descendants of My servant David and the Levites who minister to Me innumerable.”

²³ The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ²⁴ “Have you not noticed what these people have said? They say: The LORD has rejected the two families He had chosen. My people are treated with contempt and no longer regarded as a nation among them. ²⁵ This is what the LORD says: If I do not [keep] My covenant with the day and with the night and fail to establish the fixed order of heaven and earth, ²⁶ then I might also reject the •seed of Jacob and of My servant David—not taking from his descendants rulers over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Instead, I will restore their fortunes^a and have compassion on them.”

Jeremiah's Word to King Zedekiah

34 [This is] the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD when Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, all his army, all the earthly kingdoms under his control, and all other nations were fighting against Jerusalem and all its surrounding cities: ² “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Go, speak to Zedekiah, king of Judah, and tell him: This is what the LORD says: I am about to hand this city over to the king of Babylon, and he will burn it down. ³ As for you, you will not escape from his hand but are certain to be captured and handed over to him. You will meet the king of Babylon eye to eye and speak face to face;^b you will go to Babylon.

⁴ “Yet hear the LORD's word, Zedekiah, king of Judah. This is what the LORD says concerning you: You will not die by the sword; ⁵ you will die peacefully. There will be a burning ceremony for you just like the burning ceremonies for your fathers, the former kings who preceded you. Alas, lord! will be the lament for you, for I have spoken [this] word.” [This is] the LORD's declaration.

⁶ So Jeremiah the prophet related all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem ⁷ while the king of Babylon's army was attacking Jerusalem and all of Judah's remaining cities—against Lachish and Azekah, for only they were left among Judah's fortified cities.

The People and Their Slaves

⁸ [This is] the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD after King Zedekiah made a covenant with all the people who were in Jerusalem to proclaim freedom to them, ⁹ so each man would free his male and female Hebrew slaves and no one enslave his Judean brother. ¹⁰ All the officials and people who entered into covenant to free their male and female slaves—in order not to enslave them any longer—obeyed and freed them. ¹¹ Afterwards, however, they changed their minds and took back their male and female slaves they had freed and forced them to become slaves [again].

¹² Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ¹³ “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I made a covenant with your ancestors when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the place of slavery, saying: ¹⁴ At the end of seven years, each of you must free his Hebrew brother who sold himself^c to you. He may serve you six years, but then you must send him out free from you. But your ancestors did not obey Me or pay any attention. ¹⁵ Today you repented and did what pleased Me, each of you proclaiming freedom for his neighbor. You made a covenant before Me at the temple called by My name. ¹⁶ But you have changed your minds and profaned My name. Each has taken back his male and female slaves who had been freed [to go] wherever they wanted, and you have [again] subjugated them to be your slaves.

¹⁷ “Therefore, this is what the LORD says: You have not obeyed Me by proclaiming freedom, each man for his brother and for his neighbor. I hereby proclaim freedom for you”—[this is] the LORD's declaration—“to the sword, to plague, and to famine! I will make you a horror to all the earth's kingdoms. ¹⁸ As for those who disobeyed My covenant, not keeping the terms of the covenant they made before Me, I will treat them like the calf they cut in two in order to pass between its pieces.¹⁹ The officials of Judah and Jerusalem, the court officials, the priests, and all the people of the land who passed between the pieces of the calf²⁰ will be handed over to their enemies, to those who want to take their life. Their corpses will become food for the birds of the sky and for the wild animals of the land.²¹ I will hand Zedekiah king of Judah and his officials over to their enemies, to those who want to take their life, to the king of Babylon's army that is withdrawing.²² I am about to give the command"—[this is] the LORD's declaration—"and I will bring them back to this city. They will fight against it, capture it, and burn it down. I will make Judah's cities a desolation, without inhabitant."

The Rechabites' Example

35 [This is] the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah:² "Go to the house of the Rechabites, speak to them, and bring them to one of the chambers of the temple of the LORD to offer them a drink of wine."

³ So I took Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah, son of Habazziniah, and his brothers and all his sons—the entire house of the Rechabites—⁴ and I brought them into the temple of the LORD to a chamber [occupied by] the sons of Hanan son of Igdaliah, a man of God, who had a chamber near the officials' chamber, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah son of Shallum the doorkeeper.⁵ I set jars filled with wine and some cups before the sons of the house of the Rechabites and said to them, "Drink wine!"

⁶ But they replied, "We do not drink wine, for Jonadab, son of our ancestor Rechab, commanded: 'You and your sons must never drink wine.'⁷ You must not build a house or sow seed or plant a vineyard. [Those things] are not for you. Rather, you must live in tents your whole life, so you may live a long time on the soil where you stay as a resident alien.'⁸ We have obeyed the voice of Jonadab, son of our ancestor Rechab, in all he commanded us. So we haven't drunk wine our whole life—we, our wives, our sons, and our daughters.⁹ We also have not built houses to live in and do not have vineyard, field, or seed.¹⁰ But we have lived in tents and have obeyed and done as our ancestor Jonadab commanded us.¹¹ However, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched into the land, we said:

Come, let's go into Jerusalem to get away from the Chaldean and Aramean armies. So we have been living in Jerusalem."

¹² Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:¹³ "This is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says: Go, say to the men of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem: Will you not accept discipline by listening to My words?"—[this is] the LORD's declaration.¹⁴ "The words of Jonadab, son of Rechab, have been carried out. He commanded his sons not to drink wine, and they have not drunk to this very day because they have obeyed their ancestor's command. But I have spoken to you time and time again,^a and you have not obeyed Me!¹⁵ Time and time again^b I have sent you all My servants the prophets, proclaiming: Turn, each one from his evil way of life, and correct your actions. Stop following other gods to serve them. Live in the land that I gave you and your ancestors. But you would not pay attention or obey Me.¹⁶ Yes, the sons of Jonadab son of Rechab carried out their ancestor's command he gave them, but these people have not obeyed Me.¹⁷ Therefore, this is what the LORD, the God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: I will certainly bring to Judah and to all the residents of Jerusalem all the disaster I have pronounced against them because I have spoken to them, but they have not obeyed, and I have called to them, but they would not answer."

¹⁸ Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites: "This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'Because you have obeyed the command of your ancestor Jonadab and have kept all his commands and have done all that he commanded you,¹⁹ this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: Jonadab son of Rechab will never fail to have a man to always stand before Me.'"

Jeremiah Dictates a Scroll

36 In the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD:² "Take a scroll, and write on it all the words I have spoken to you concerning Israel, Judah, and all the nations from the time I [first] spoke to you during Josiah's reign until today.³ Perhaps, when the house of Judah hears about all the disaster I am planning to bring on them, each one of them will turn from his evil way. Then I will forgive their wrongdoing and sin."

^a35:14 Lit you, rising up early and speaking ^b35:15 Lit Rising up early and sending

⁴ So Jeremiah summoned Baruch son of Neriah. At Jeremiah's dictation,^a Baruch wrote on a scroll all the words the LORD had spoken to Jeremiah. ⁵ Then Jeremiah commanded Baruch, "I am restricted; I cannot enter the temple of the LORD, ⁶ so you must go and read from the scroll—which you wrote at my dictation^b—the words of the LORD in the hearing of the people at the temple of the LORD on a day of fasting. You must also read them in the hearing of all the Judeans who are coming from their cities. ⁷ Perhaps their petition will come before the LORD, and each one will turn from his evil way, for the anger and fury that the LORD has pronounced against this people are great." ⁸ So Baruch son of Neriah did everything Jeremiah the prophet had commanded him. At the LORD's temple he read the LORD's words from the scroll.

Baruch Reads the Scroll

¹¹ When Micaiah son of Gemariah, son of Shaphan, heard all the words of the LORD from the scroll, ¹² he went down to the scribe's chamber in the king's palace. All the officials were sitting there—Elishama the scribe, Delaiah son of She-maiah, Elnathan son of Achbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the other officials. ¹³ Micaiah reported to them all the words he had heard when Baruch read from the scroll in the hearing of the people. ¹⁴ Then all the officials sent [word] to Baruch through Jehudi son of Nethaniah, son of Shelemiah, son of Cushi, saying, "Bring the scroll that you read in the hearing of the people, and come." So Baruch son of Neriah took the scroll and went to them. ¹⁵ They said to him, "Sit down and read [it] in our hearing." So Baruch read [it] in their hearing.

¹⁶ When they had heard all the words, they turned to each other in fear and said to Baruch, "We must surely tell the king all these things."

¹⁷ Then they asked Baruch, "Tell us—how did you write all these words? At his dictation?"^c

¹⁸ Baruch said to them, "At his dictation.^c He recited all these words to me while I was writing on the scroll in ink."

Jehoiakim Burns the Scroll

¹⁹ The officials said to Baruch, "You and Jeremiah must hide yourselves and tell no one where you are." ²⁰ Then they came to the king at the courtyard, having deposited the scroll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and reported everything in the hearing of the king. ²¹ The king sent Jehudi to get the scroll, and he took it from the chamber of Elishama the scribe. Jehudi then read it in the hearing of the king and all the officials who were standing by the king. ²² Since it was the ninth month, the king was sitting in his winter quarters with a fire burning in front of him. ²³ As soon as Jehudi would read three or four columns, Jehoiakim would cut the scroll^d with a scribe's knife and throw the columns into the blazing fire until the entire scroll was consumed by the fire in the brazier. ²⁴ As they heard all these words, the king and all of his servants did not become terrified or tear their garments. ²⁵ Even though Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah had urged the king not to burn the scroll, he would not listen to them. ²⁶ Then the king commanded Jerahmeel the king's son, Seraiah son of Azriel, and Shelemiah son of Abdeel to seize Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet, but the LORD had hidden them.

Jeremiah Dictates Another Scroll

²⁷ After the king had burned the scroll with the words Baruch had written at Jeremiah's dictation,^e the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ²⁸ "Take another scroll, and once again write on it the very words that were on the original scroll that Jehoiakim king of Judah burned. ²⁹ You are to proclaim concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: This is what the LORD says: You have burned the scroll, saying: Why have you written on it: The king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land and cause it to be without man or beast? ³⁰ Therefore, this is what the LORD says concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: He will have no one to sit on David's throne, and his corpse will be thrown out [to be exposed] to the heat of day and the frost of night. ³¹ I will punish him, his descendants, and his officers for their wrongdoing. I will bring on them, on the residents of Jerusalem, and on the men of Judah all the disaster, which I warned them about but they did not listen.”

³² Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch son of Neriah, the scribe, and he wrote on it at Jeremiah’s dictation^a all the words of the scroll that Jehoiakim, Judah’s king, had burned in the fire. And many other words like them were added.

Jerusalem’s Last Days

37 Zedekiah son of Josiah reigned as king in the land of Judah in place of Jehoiachin^b son of Jehoiakim, for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made him king. ² He and his officers and the people of the land did not obey the words of the LORD that He spoke through Jeremiah the prophet.

³ Nevertheless, King Zedekiah sent Jehucal son of Shelemiah and Zephaniah son of Maaseiah, the priest, to Jeremiah the prophet, requesting, “Please pray to the LORD our God for us!”

⁶ The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet: ⁷ “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: This is what you will say to Judah’s king, who is sending you to inquire of Me: Watch: Pharaoh’s army, which has come out to help you, is going to return to its own land of Egypt. ⁸ The Chaldeans will then return and fight against this city. They will capture it and burn it down. ⁹ This is what the LORD says: Don’t deceive yourselves by saying: The Chaldeans will leave us for good, for they will not leave. ¹⁰ Indeed, if you were to strike down the entire Chaldean army that is fighting with you, and there remained among them only the badly wounded^d men, each in his tent, they would get up and burn this city down.”

Jeremiah’s Imprisonment

¹¹ When the Chaldean army withdrew from Jerusalem because of Pharaoh’s army, ¹² Jeremiah [started to] leave Jerusalem to go to the land of Benjamin to claim his portion there among the people. ¹³ But when he was at the

Benjamin Gate, an officer of the guard was there, whose name was Irijah son of Shelemiah, son of Hananiah, and he apprehended Jeremiah the prophet, saying, “You are deserting to the Chaldeans.”

¹⁴ “[That’s] a lie,” Jeremiah replied. “I am not deserting to the Chaldeans!” Irijah would not listen to him but apprehended Jeremiah and took him to the officials. ¹⁵ The officials were angry at Jeremiah and beat him and placed him in jail in the house of Jonathan the scribe, for it had been made into a prison. ¹⁶ So Jeremiah went into a cell in the dungeon and stayed there many days.

Jeremiah Summoned by Zedekiah

¹⁷ King Zedekiah later sent [for him] and received him, and in his house privately asked him, “Is there a word from the LORD?”

“There is,” Jeremiah responded, and he continued, “You will be handed over to the king of Babylon.” ¹⁸ Then Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, “How have I sinned against you or your servants or these people that you have put me in prison? ¹⁹ Where are your prophets who prophesied to you, claiming, ‘The king of Babylon will not come against you and this land’? ²⁰ So now please listen, my lord the king. May my petition come before you. Don’t send me back to the house of Jonathan the scribe, or I will die there.”

²¹ So King Zedekiah gave orders, and Jeremiah was placed in the guard’s courtyard. He was given a loaf of bread each day from the baker’s street until all the bread was gone from the city. So Jeremiah remained in the guard’s courtyard.

Jeremiah Thrown into a Cistern

38 Now Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jucal^e son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malchijah heard the words Jeremiah was speaking to all the people: ² “This is what the LORD says: ‘Whoever stays in this city will die by the sword, famine, and plague, but whoever surrenders to the Chaldeans will live. He will keep his life like the spoils [of war] and will live.’” ³ This is what the LORD says: “This city will most certainly be handed over to the king of Babylon’s army, and he will capture it.”

⁴ The officials then said to the king, “This man ought to die, because he is weakening the morale of the warriors who remain in this city and of all the people by speaking to them in this way. This man is not seeking the well-being of this people, but disaster.”

^a36:32 Lit it from Jeremiah’s mouth ^b37:1 = Coniah ^c37:4 Lit was coming in and going out ^d37:10 Lit the pierced ^e38:1 = Jehucal; Jr 37:3

⁵ King Zedekiah said, “Here he is; he’s in your hands since the king can’t do anything against you.” ⁶ So they took Jeremiah and dropped him into the cistern of Malchiah the king’s son, which was in the guard’s courtyard, lowering Jeremiah with ropes. There was no water in the cistern, only mud, and Jeremiah sank in the mud.

¹⁰ So the king commanded Ebed-melech, the Cushite, “Take from here 30 men under your authority and pull Jeremiah the prophet up from the cistern before he dies.”

¹¹ So Ebed-melech took the men under his authority and went to the king’s palace to a place below the storehouse.^a From there he took old rags and worn-out clothes and lowered them by ropes to Jeremiah in the cistern. ¹² Ebed-melech the Cushite cried out to Jeremiah, “Place these old rags and clothes between your armpits and the ropes.” Jeremiah did so, ¹³ and they pulled him up with the ropes and lifted him out of the cistern, but he continued to stay in the guard’s courtyard.

Zedekiah’s Final Meeting with Jeremiah

¹⁴ King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah the prophet and received him at the third entrance of the LORD’s temple. The king said to Jeremiah, “I am going to ask you something; don’t hide anything from me.”

¹⁵ Jeremiah replied to Zedekiah, “If I tell you, you will kill me, won’t you? Besides, if I give you advice, you won’t listen to me anyway.”

¹⁶ King Zedekiah swore to Jeremiah in private, “As the LORD lives, who has given us this life, I will not kill you or hand you over to these men who want to take your life.”

¹⁷ Jeremiah therefore said to Zedekiah, “This is what the LORD, the God of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says: ‘If indeed you surrender to the officials of the king of Babylon, then you will live, this city will not be burned down, and you and your household will survive. ¹⁸ But if you do not surrender to the officials of the king of Babylon, then this city will be handed over to the Chaldeans. They will burn it down, and you yourself will not escape from them.’”

¹⁹ But King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “I am worried about the Judeans who have deserted to the Chaldeans. They may hand me over to them to abuse me.”

²⁰ “They will not hand you over,” Jeremiah replied. “Obey the voice of the LORD in what I am telling you, so it may go well for you and you can live. ²¹ But if you refuse to surrender, this is the verdict^b that the LORD has shown me: ²² ‘All the women^c who remain in the palace of Judah’s king will be brought out to the officials of the king of Babylon and will say:

Your trusted friends^d misled^e you and overcame you.
Your feet sank into the mire,
and they deserted you.

²³ All your wives and sons will be brought out to the Chaldeans. You yourself will not escape from them, for you will be seized by the king of Babylon and this city will burn down.’”

²⁴ Then Zedekiah warned Jeremiah, “Don’t let anyone know about these things or you will die. ²⁵ If the officials hear that I have spoken with you and come and demand of you, ‘Tell us what you said to the king; don’t hide anything from us and we won’t kill you. Also, what did the king say to you?’ ²⁶ then you will tell them, ‘I was bringing before the king my petition that he not return me to the house of Jonathan to die there.’” ²⁷ When all the officials came to Jeremiah and questioned him, he reported the exact words to them the king had commanded, and they quit speaking with him because nothing had been heard. ²⁸ Jeremiah remained in the guard’s courtyard until the day Jerusalem was captured, and he was [there] when it happened.^f

The Fall of Jerusalem to Babylon

39 In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon advanced against Jerusalem with his entire army and laid siege to it. ² In the fourth month of Zedekiah’s eleventh year,

^a38:11 Or treasury ^b38:21 Or promise; lit word ^c38:22 Or wives ^d38:22 Lit The men of your peace ^e38:22 Or incited ^f38:28 Or captured. This is what happened when Jerusalem was captured:

on the ninth day of the month, the city was broken into. ³ All the officials of the king of Babylon entered and sat at the Middle Gate: Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim the Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer the Rab-mag, and all the rest of the officials of Babylon's king.

⁴ When he saw them, Zedekiah king of Judah and all the soldiers fled. They left the city at night by way of the king's garden through the gate between the two walls. They left along the route to the •Arabah. ⁵ However, the Chaldean army pursued them and overtook Zedekiah in the plains^a of Jericho, arrested him, and brought him to Nebuchadnezzar, Babylon's king, at Riblah in the land of Hamath. The king passed sentence on him [there].

⁶ At Riblah the king of Babylon slaughtered Zedekiah's sons before his eyes, and he [also] slaughtered all Judah's nobles. ⁷ Then he blinded Zedekiah and put him in bronze chains to take him to Babylon. ⁸ The Chaldeans next burned down the king's palace and the people's houses and tore down the walls of Jerusalem. ⁹ Nebuzaradan, the commander of the guards, deported to Babylon the rest of the people—those who had remained in the city and those deserters who had defected to him along with the rest of the people who had remained. ¹⁰ [However,] Nebuzaradan, the commander of the guards, left in the land of Judah some of the poor people who owned nothing, and he gave them vineyards and fields at that time.

Jeremiah Freed by Nebuchadnezzar

¹¹ [Speaking] through Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon gave orders concerning Jeremiah, saying: ¹² "Take him, look after him, and don't let any harm come to him; do for him whatever he says." ¹³ Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, Nebushazban the Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer the Rab-mag, and all the captains of the king of Babylon ¹⁴ had Jeremiah brought from the guard's courtyard and turned him over to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, to take him home. So he settled among [his own] people.

¹⁵ Now the word of the LORD had come to Jeremiah when he was confined in the guard's courtyard: ¹⁶ "Go tell Ebed-melech the •Cushite: This is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says: I am about to fulfill My words for harm and not for good against this city. They will take place before your eyes on that day. ¹⁷ But I will rescue you on that day"—[this is] the LORD's declaration—"and you will not be handed over to the men you fear. ¹⁸ Indeed, I will certainly deliver you so that you do not fall by the sword. Because you have trusted in Me, you will keep your life like the spoils [of war]." [This is] the LORD's declaration.

Jeremiah Stays in Judah

40 [This is] the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD after Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, released him at Ramah when he had been bound in chains with all the exiles of Jerusalem and Judah who were being exiled to Babylon. ² The captain of the guard took Jeremiah and said to him, "The LORD your God decreed this disaster on this place, ³ and the LORD has fulfilled [it]. He has done just what He decreed. Because you [people] have sinned against the LORD and have not obeyed Him, this thing has happened. ⁴ Now pay attention [to what I say]. Today I am setting you free from the chains that were on your hands. If it pleases you to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will take care of you. But if it seems wrong to you to come with me to Babylon, go no farther.^b Look—the whole land is in front of you. Wherever it seems good and right for you to go, go there." ⁵ When Jeremiah had not yet turned [to go, Nebuzaradan said to him:] "Return^c to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has appointed over the cities of Judah, and stay with him among the people or go wherever you want to go." So the captain of the guard gave him a ration and a gift and released him. ⁶ Jeremiah therefore went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah, and he stayed with him among the people who remained in the land.

Gedaliah Advises Peace

⁷ When all the commanders of the armies in the field—they and their men—heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam over the land and that he had put him in charge of the men, women, and children, the poorest of the land who had not been deported to Babylon, ⁸ they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. [The commanders included] Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah son of the Maacathite—they and their men.

⁹ Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, swore an oath to them and their men, assuring them, “Don’t be afraid to serve the Chaldeans. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well for you.” ¹⁰ As for me, I am going to live in Mizpah to represent^a [you] before the Chaldeans who come to us. As for you, gather wine, summer fruit, and oil, place them in your [storage] jars, and live in the cities you have captured.”

¹¹ When all the Judeans in Moab and among the Ammonites and in Edom and in all the other lands also heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant in Judah and had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, over them, ¹² they all returned from all the places where they had been banished and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah, and harvested a great amount of wine and summer fruit.

¹³ Meanwhile, Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the armies in the field came to Gedaliah at Mizpah ¹⁴ and warned him, “Don’t you realize that Baalis, king of the Ammonites, has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to strike you down?” But Gedaliah son of Ahikam would not believe them. ¹⁵ Then Johanan son of Kareah suggested to Gedaliah in private at Mizpah, “Let me go kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah. No one will know it. Why should he strike you down and scatter all of Judah that has gathered to you so that the remnant of Judah would perish?”

¹⁶ But Gedaliah son of Ahikam responded to Johanan son of Kareah, “Don’t do that! What you’re saying about Ishmael is a lie.”

Gedaliah Assassinated by Ishmael

41 In the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah, son of Elishama, of the royal family and one of the king’s chief officers, came with 10 men to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah. They ate a meal together there in Mizpah, ² but then Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the 10 men who were with him got up and struck down Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, with the sword; he killed the one the king of Babylon had appointed in the land. ³ Ishmael also struck down all the Judeans who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah, as well as the Chaldean soldiers who were there.

shaved their beards, torn their garments, and gashed themselves, and who were carrying •grain and incense offerings to bring to the temple of the LORD. ⁶ Ishmael son of Nethaniah came out of Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he came. When he encountered them, he said: “Come to Gedaliah son of Ahikam!” ⁷ But when they came into the city, Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the men with him slaughtered them and threw them into^b a cistern.

⁸ However, there were 10 men among them who said to Ishmael, “Don’t kill us, for we have hidden treasure in the field—wheat, barley, oil, and honey!” So he stopped and did not kill them along with their companions. ⁹ Now the cistern where Ishmael had thrown all the corpses of the men he had struck down was a large one^c that King Asa had made in the encounter with Baasha king of Israel. Ishmael son of Nethaniah filled [it] with the slain.

¹⁰ Then Ishmael took captive all the remnant of the people of Mizpah including the daughters of the king—all those who remained in Mizpah over whom Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Ishmael son of Nethaniah took them captive and set off to cross over to the Ammonites.

The Captives Rescued by Johanan

¹¹ When Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the armies with him heard of all the evil that Ishmael son of Nethaniah had done, ¹² they took all their men and went to fight with Ishmael son of Nethaniah and found him by the great pool in Gibeon. ¹³ When all the people with Ishmael saw Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the army with him, they rejoiced, ¹⁴ and all the people whom Ishmael had taken captive from Mizpah turned around and rejoined Johanan son of Kareah. ¹⁵ But Ishmael son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men and went to the Ammonites. ¹⁶ Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the armies with him then took from Mizpah all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael son of Nethaniah after Ishmael had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam—men, soldiers, women, children, and court officials whom he brought back from Gibeon. ¹⁷ They left, stopping in Geruth Chimham, which is near Bethlehem, in order to make their way into Egypt ¹⁸ away from the Chaldeans. For they feared them because Ishmael son of Netha-niah had struck down Gedaliah son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had appointed in the land.

The People Seek Jeremiah's Counsel

42 Then all the commanders of the armies, along with Johanan son of Kareah, Jazaniah son of Hoshaiiah, and all the people from the least to the greatest, approached ²Jeremiah the prophet and said, “May our petition come before you; pray to the LORD your God on our behalf, on behalf of this entire remnant (for few of us remain out of the many, as you can see with your own eyes), ³ that the LORD your God may tell us the way we should walk and the thing we should do.”

⁴ So Jeremiah the prophet said to them, “I have heard. I will now pray to the LORD your God according to your words, and every word that the LORD answers you I will tell you; I won’t withhold a word from you.”

⁵ And they said to Jeremiah, “As for every word the LORD your God sends you to [tell] us, if we don’t act accordingly, may the LORD be a true and faithful witness against us. ⁶ Whether it is pleasant or unpleasant, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God to whom we are sending you so that it may go well with us. We will certainly obey the voice of the LORD our God!”

Jeremiah's Advice to Stay

⁹ He said to them, “This is what the LORD says, the God of Israel to whom you sent me to bring your petition before Him: ¹⁰ ‘If you will indeed stay in this land, then I will rebuild and not demolish you, and I will plant and not uproot you, because I relent concerning the disaster that I have brought on you. ¹¹ Don’t be afraid of the king of Babylon whom you now fear; don’t be afraid of him’—[this is] the LORD’s declaration—‘because I am with you to save you and deliver you from him. ¹² I will grant you compassion, and he^a will have compassion on you and allow you to return to your own soil. ¹³ But if you say: We will not stay in this land, so as not to obey the voice of the LORD your God, ¹⁴ and if you say: No, instead we’ll go to the land of Egypt where we will not see war or hear the sound of the ram’s horn or hunger for food, and we’ll live there, ¹⁵ then hear the word of the LORD, remnant of Judah! This is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says: If you are firmly resolved to go to Egypt and live there for a while, ¹⁶ then the sword you fear will overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine you are worried about will follow on your heels^b there to Egypt, and you will die there. ¹⁷ All who resolve to go to Egypt to live there for a while will die by the sword, famine, and plague. They will have no survivor or escapee from the disaster I will bring on them.’

¹⁸ “For this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: ‘Just as My anger and fury were poured out on Jerusalem’s residents, so will My fury pour out on you if you go to Egypt. You will become an object of execration, scorn, cursing, and disgrace, and you will never see this place again.’ ¹⁹ The LORD has spoken concerning you, remnant of Judah: ‘Don’t go to Egypt.’ Know for certain that I have warned you today! ²⁰ You have led your own selves astray because you are the ones who sent me to the LORD your God, saying, ‘Pray to the LORD our God on our behalf, and as for all that the LORD our God says, tell it to us, and we’ll act accordingly.’ ²¹ For I have told you today, but you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God in everything He has sent me to [tell] you. ²² Now therefore, know for certain that by the sword, famine, and plague you will die in the place where you desired to go to live for a while.”

Jeremiah's Counsel Rejected

43 When Jeremiah had finished speaking to all the people all the words of the LORD their God—all these words the LORD their God had sent him to give them—² then Azariah son of Hoshaiiah, Johanan son of Kareah, and all the other arrogant men responded to Jeremiah, “You are speaking a lie! The LORD our God has not sent you to say, ‘You must not go to Egypt to live there for a while!’ ³ Rather, Baruch son of Neriah is inciting you against us to hand us over to the Chaldeans to put us to death or to deport us to Babylon!”

⁴ So Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the armies did not obey the voice of the LORD to stay in the land of Judah. ⁵ Instead, Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the armies took the whole remnant of Judah, those who had returned from all the nations

^a42:12 LXX reads / ^b42:16 Lit will cling after you

where they had been banished to live in the land of Judah for a while—⁶ the men, women, children, king's daughters, and everyone whom Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, had allowed to remain with Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, along with Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch son of Neriah—⁷ and they went to the land of Egypt because they did not obey the voice of the LORD. They went as far as Tahpanhes.

God's Sign to the People in Egypt

⁸ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah at Tahpanhes: ⁹ "Pick up some large stones and set them in the mortar of the brick pavement that is at the opening of Pharaoh's palace at Tahpanhes. [Do this] in the sight of the Judean men¹⁰ and tell them: This is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says: I will send for My servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and I will place his throne on these stones that I have embedded, and he will pitch his pavilion over them. ¹¹ He will come and strike down the land of Egypt—those [destined] for death, to death; those [destined] for captivity, to captivity; and those [destined] for the sword, to the sword. ¹² I^a will kindle a fire in the temples of Egypt's gods, and he will burn them and take them prisoner. He will clean the land of Egypt as a shepherd picks lice off^b his garment, and he will leave there unscathed. ¹³ He will smash the sacred pillars of the sun temple^c in the land of Egypt and burn down the temples of the Egyptian gods."

God's Judgment against His People in Egypt

44 [This is] the word that came to Jeremiah for all the Jews living in the land of Egypt—at Migdol, Tahpanhes, Memphis, and in the land of Pathros: ² "This is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says: You have seen all the disaster I brought against Jerusalem and all Judah's cities; look, they are a ruin today without an inhabitant in them³ because of their evil ways that provoked Me to anger, going and burning incense to serve other gods they, you, and your fathers did not know. ⁴ So I sent you all My servants the prophets time and time again,^d saying, Don't do this detestable thing that I hate. ⁵ But they did not listen or pay attention; they did not turn from their evil or stop burning incense to other gods. ⁶ So My fierce wrath poured forth and burned in Judah's cities and Jerusalem's streets so that they became the desolate ruin they are today.

⁷ "So now, this is what the LORD, the God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: Why are you doing such great harm to yourselves? You are cutting off man and woman, child and infant from Judah, leaving yourselves without a remnant. ⁸ You are provoking Me to anger by the work of your hands. You are burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt where you have gone to live for a while. As a result, you will be cut off and become an object of cursing and insult among all the nations of earth. ⁹ Have you forgotten the evils of your fathers, the evils of Judah's kings, the evils of their wives, your own evils, and the evils of your wives that were committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁰ They have not become humble to this day, and they have not •feared or walked by My law or My statutes that I set before you and your ancestors.

¹¹ "Therefore, this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: I am about to turn against you to [bring] disaster, to cut off all Judah. ¹² And I will take away the remnant of Judah, those who have resolved to go to the land of Egypt to live there for a while; they will meet their end. All of them in the land of Egypt will fall by the sword; they will meet their end by famine. From the least to the greatest, they will die by the sword and by famine. Then they will become an object of execration, of scorn, of cursing, and of disgrace. ¹³ I will punish those living in the land of Egypt just as I punished Jerusalem by sword, famine, and plague. ¹⁴ Then the remnant of Judah—those going to live for a while there in the land of Egypt—will have no fugitive or survivor to return to the land of Judah where they are longing^e to return to live, for they will not return except [for a few] fugitives."

The People's Stubborn Response

¹⁵ However, all the men who knew that their wives were burning incense to other gods, all the women standing by—a great assembly—and all the people who were living in the land of Egypt at Pathros answered Jeremiah, ¹⁶ "As for the word you spoke to us in the name of the LORD, we are not going to listen to you! ¹⁷ Instead, we will do everything we said we would: burn incense to the queen of heaven^f and offer drink

^a43:12 LXX, Syr, Vg read He ^b43:12 Or will wrap himself in the land of Egypt as a shepherd wraps himself in offerings to her just as we, our fathers, our kings, and our officials did in Judah's cities and in Jerusalem's streets. Then we had enough food and good things and saw no disaster,¹⁸ but from the time we ceased to burn incense to the queen of heaven and to offer her drink offerings, we have lacked everything, and through sword and famine we have met our end."

¹⁹ And the women said,^a "When we burned incense to the queen of heaven and poured out drink offerings to her, was it apart from our husbands' knowledge that we made sacrificial cakes in her image and poured out drink offerings to her?"

²⁰ But Jeremiah responded to all the people—the men, women, and all the people who were answering him—saying,²¹ "As for the incense you burned in Judah's cities and in Jerusalem's streets—you, your fathers, your kings, your officials, and the people of the land—did the LORD not remember them? He brought this to mind.²² The LORD can no longer bear your evil deeds and the detestable acts you have committed, so your land has become a waste, a desolation, and an object of cursing, without inhabitant, as [you see] today.²³ Because you burned incense and sinned against the LORD and didn't obey the LORD's voice and didn't walk in His law, His statutes, and His testimonies, this disaster has come to you, as [you see] today."

²⁴ Then Jeremiah said to all the people, including all the women, "Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt.²⁵ This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'As for you and your wives, you women have spoken with your mouths, and you men fulfilled it by your deeds, saying: We will keep our vows we have made to burn incense to the queen of heaven and to pour out drink offerings for her. [Go ahead,] confirm your vows! Pay your vows!'

²⁶ "Therefore, hear the word of the LORD, all you Judeans who live in the land of Egypt: 'I have sworn by My great name, says the LORD, that My name will never again be invoked by anyone of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, As the Lord GOD lives.'²⁷ I am watching over them for disaster and not for good, and every man of Judah who is in the land of Egypt will meet his end by sword or famine until they are finished off.²⁸ Those who escape the sword will return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah only few in number, and the whole remnant of Judah, the ones going to the land of Egypt to live there for a while, will know whose word stands, Mine or theirs!²⁹ This will be a sign to you'—[this is] the LORD's declaration—"that I am about to punish you in this place, so you may know that My words of disaster concerning you will certainly come to pass."³⁰ This is what the LORD says: I am about to hand over Pharaoh Hophra, Egypt's king, to his enemies, to those who want to take his life, just as I handed over Judah's King Zedekiah to Babylon's King Nebuchadnezzar, who was his enemy, the one who wanted to take his life."

The LORD's Message to Baruch

45 [This is] the word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch son of Neriah when he wrote these words on a scroll at Jeremiah's dictation^b in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah: ² "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to you, Baruch: ³ 'You have said, Woe is me, because the LORD has added misery to my pain! I am worn out with^c groaning and have found no rest.

⁴ " 'This is what you are to say to him: This is what the LORD says: What I have built I am about to demolish, and what I have planted I am about to uproot—the whole land! ⁵ But as for you, do you seek great things for yourself? Stop seeking! For I am about to bring disaster on every living creature'—[this is] the LORD's declaration—"but I will grant you your life like the spoils [of war] wherever you go."

Prophecies Against the Nations

46 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet about the nations:

Prophecies against Egypt

² About Egypt and the army of Pharaoh Neco, Egypt's king, which was defeated at Carchemish on the Euphrates River by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon in the fourth year of Judah's King Jehoiakim son of Josiah:

- ³ Deploy small shields and large;
draw near for battle!
- ⁴ Harness the horses;
mount the steeds;^d
take your positions with helmets on!
Polish the lances;
put on armor!

^d46:4 Or mount up, riders

- 5 Why have I seen [this]?
They are terrified,
they are retreating,
their warriors are crushed,
they flee headlong,
they never look back,
terror is on every side!
[This is] the LORD's declaration.
- 6 The swift cannot flee,
and the warrior cannot escape!
In the north by the bank
of the Euphrates River,
they stumble and fall.
- 7 Who is this, rising like the Nile,
like rivers whose waters churn?
- 8 Egypt rises like the Nile,
and its waters churn like rivers.
He boasts: I will go up, I will cover
the earth;
I will destroy cities with their residents.
- 9 Rise up, you cavalry!
Race furiously, you chariots!
Let the warriors go forth—•Cush and Put,
who are able to handle shields,
and the Ludim,
who are able to handle and string
the bow.
- 10 That day belongs to the Lord, the GOD
of •Hosts,
a day of vengeance to avenge Himself against His adversaries.
The sword will devour and be satisfied;
it will drink its fill of their blood,
because it will be a sacrifice to the Lord,
the GOD of Hosts,
in the northern land
by the Euphrates River.
- 11 Go up to Gilead and get balm, Virgin Daughter Egypt!
You have multiplied remedies in vain;
there is no healing for you.
- 12 The nations have heard of your dishonor,
and your outcry fills the earth,
because warrior stumbles against warrior
and together both of them have fallen.
- 13 [This is] the word the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet about the coming of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to defeat the land of Egypt:
- 14 Announce it in Egypt, and proclaim it in Migdol!
- Proclaim it in Memphis
and in Tahpanhes!
Say: Take positions! Prepare yourself,
for the sword devours all around you.
- 15 Why have your strong ones
been swept away?
Each has not stood,
for the LORD has thrust him down.
- 16 He continues to stumble.
Indeed, each falls over the other.
They say: Get up! Let's return to our people
and to the land of our birth,
away from the sword that oppresses.
- 17 There they will cry out:
Pharaoh king of Egypt was all noise;
he let the opportune moment pass.
- 18 As I live—
[this is] the King's declaration;
the LORD of Hosts is His name.
He will come like Tabor among the mountains
and like Carmel by the sea.
- 19 Pack your bags for exile,
inhabitant of Daughter Egypt!
For Memphis will become a desolation, uninhabited ruins.
- 20 Egypt is a beautiful young cow,
but a horsefly from the north is coming against her.^a
- 21 Even her mercenaries among her
are like stall-fed calves.
They too will turn back;
together they will flee;
they will not take their stand,
for the day of their calamity is coming
on them,
the time of their punishment.
- 22 Egypt will hiss like a slithering snake,^b
for [the enemy] will come with an army;
with axes they will come against her like those who cut trees.
- 23 They will cut down her forest—
[this is] the LORD's declaration—
though it is dense,
for they are more numerous than locusts;
they cannot be counted.
- 24 Daughter Egypt will be put to shame, handed over to a northern people.
- 25 The LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says:
"I am about to punish Amon, [god] of Thebes,

^a46:20 Some Hb mss, LXX, Syr; other Hb mss read is coming, coming ^b46:22 Lit Her sound, she will go like a snake along with Pharaoh, Egypt, her gods, and her kings—Pharaoh and those trusting in him. ²⁶ I will hand them over to those who want to take their lives—to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and his officers. But after this, it will be inhabited again as in ancient times.”

[This is] the LORD's declaration.

Reassurance for Israel

²⁷ But you, My servant Jacob,
do not be afraid,
and do not be discouraged, Israel,
for without fail I will save you
from far away
and your descendants, from the land
of their captivity!
Jacob will return and have calm and quiet
with no one to frighten him.

²⁸ And you, My servant Jacob,
do not be afraid—
[this is] the LORD's declaration—
for I will be with you.
I will bring destruction on all the nations
where I have banished you,
but I will not bring destruction on you.
I will discipline you with justice,
but I will by no means
leave you unpunished.

Prophecies against the Philistines

47 [This is] the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet about the Philistines before Pharaoh defeated Gaza. ² This is what the LORD says:

Look, waters are rising from the north and becoming an overflowing •wadi.
They will overflow the land
and everything in it,
the cities and their inhabitants.
The people will cry out,
and every inhabitant of the land
will wail.

³ At the sound of the stomping hooves
of his stallions,
the rumbling of his chariots,
and the clatter of their wheels,
fathers will not turn back for their sons,
because they will be utterly helpless^a

⁴ on account of the day that is coming to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon

every remaining ally.

Indeed, the LORD is about to destroy the Philistines,

the remnant of the islands of Caphtor.^b

⁵ Baldness is coming to Gaza.

Ashkelon will become silent,

a remnant of their valley.

How long will you gash yourself?

⁶ Ah, sword of the LORD!

How long will you be restless?

Go back to your scabbard;

be still; be silent!

⁷ How can it^c rest

when the LORD has given it a command?

He has assigned it

against Ashkelon and the shore of the sea.

Prophecies against Moab

48 About Moab, this is what the LORD of •Hosts, the God of Israel, says:

Woe to Nebo, because it is about to be destroyed;

Kiriathaim will be put to shame; it will be taken captive.

The fortress will be put to shame
and dismayed!

² There is no longer praise for Moab;
they plan harm against her in Heshbon:
Come, let's cut her off from nationhood.
You madmen will also be silenced;
the sword will pursue you.

³ A voice cries out from Horonaim:
devastation and great disaster!

⁴ Moab will be shattered;
her little ones will cry out.

⁵ For on the ascent to Luhith
they will be weeping continually,^d
and on the descent to Horonaim will be heard cries of distress
over the destruction:

⁶ Flee! Save your lives!
Be like a juniper bush^e in the wilderness.

⁷ Because you trust in your works^f
and treasures,
you will be captured also.
Chemosh will go into exile
with his priests and officials.

⁸ The destroyer will move against every town;
not one town will escape.
The valley will perish,

^a47:3 Lit because of laziness of hands ^b47:4 Probably Crete; Gn 10:14; Dt 2:23; Am 9:7 ^c47:7 LXX, Vg; MT reads you ^d48:5 Lit Luhith, weeping goes up with weeping ^e48:6 Or like Aroer; Jr 48:19; Is 17:2 ^f48:7 LXX reads strongholds

- and the plain will be annihilated,
as the LORD has said.
- 9 Make Moab a salt marsh,^{a b}
for she will run away;^c
her towns will become a desolation, without inhabitant.
- 10 Cursed is the one who does the LORD's business deceitfully,^d and cursed is the one who withholds his sword
from bloodshed.
- 11 Moab has been left quiet since his youth,
settled [like wine] on its dregs.
He hasn't been poured from one container to another
or gone into exile.
So his taste has remained the same,
and his aroma hasn't changed.
- 12 Therefore look, the days are coming—
[this is] the LORD's declaration—
when I will send those to him,
who will pour him out.
They will empty his containers
and smash his jars.
- 13 Moab will be put to shame
because of Chemosh,
just as the house of Israel was
put to shame
because of Bethel that they trusted in.
- 14 How can you say, We are warriors—mighty men [ready] for battle?
- 15 The destroyer of Moab and its towns has come up,^e
and the best of its young men have gone down to slaughter.
[This is] the King's declaration;
the LORD of Hosts is His name.
- 16 Moab's calamity is near at hand;
his disaster is rushing swiftly.
- 17 Mourn for him,
all you surrounding [nations],
everyone who knows his name.
Say: How the mighty scepter is shattered,
the glorious staff!
- 18 Come down from glory;
sit on parched ground,
resident of the daughter of Dibon,
for the destroyer of Moab has come
against you;

- he has destroyed your fortresses.
- 19 Stand by the highway and look,
resident of Aroer!
Ask him who is fleeing or her
who is escaping,
What happened?
- 20 Moab is put to shame,
indeed dismayed.
Wail and cry out!
Declare by the Arnon
that Moab is destroyed.

21 "Judgment has come to the land of the plateau—to Holon, Jahzah, Mephaath, ²² Dibon, Nebo, Beth-diblathaim, ²³ Kiriathaim, Beth-gamul, Beth-meon, ²⁴ Kerioth, Bozrah, and all the towns of the land of Moab, those far and near. ²⁵ Moab's •horn is chopped off; his arm is shattered."

[This is] the LORD's declaration.

26 "Make him drunk, because he has exalted himself against the LORD. Moab will wallow in his own vomit, and he will also become a laughingstock. ²⁷ Wasn't Israel a laughingstock to you? Was he ever found among thieves? For whenever you speak of him you shake [your head]."

- 28 Abandon the towns! Live in the cliffs, residents of Moab!
Be like a dove
that nests inside the mouth of a cave.

- 29 We have heard of Moab's pride, great pride, indeed—
his insolence, arrogance, pride,
and haughty heart.

- 30 I know his outburst.

[This is] the LORD's declaration.

It is empty.

His boast is empty.

- 31 Therefore, I will wail over Moab.
I will cry out for Moab, all of it;
he will moan for the men of Kir-heres.

- 32 I will weep for you, vine of Sibmah,
with more than the weeping for Jazer.
Your tendrils have extended to the sea;
they have reached to the sea
[and to] Jazer.^f
The destroyer has fallen on your summer fruit
and grape harvest.

^a48:9 LXX reads a sign; Vg reads a flower; Syr, Tg read a crown; others read Moab fly away ^b48:9 = to make a conquered city uninhabitable; Jdg 9:45 ^c48:9 Hb obscure ^d48:10 Or negligently ^e48:15 Or Moab is destroyed; he has come up against its city ^f48:32 Some Hb mss read reached as far as Jazer; Is 16:8

- 33 Joy and celebration are taken from the fertile field
and from the land of Moab.
I have stopped the flow of wine
from the winepresses;
no one will tread with shouts of joy.
The shouting is not a shout of joy.

34 “There is a cry from Heshbon to Elealeh; they raise their voices as far as Jahaz—from Zoar to Horonaim [and] Eglath-shelishiyah—because even the waters of Nimrim have become desolate. 35 In Moab, I will stop”—[this is] the LORD’s declaration—“the one who offers sacrifices on the •high place and burns incense to his gods. 36 Therefore, My heart moans like flutes for Moab, and My heart moans like flutes for the people of Kir-heres. And therefore, the wealth he has gained has perished. 37 Indeed, every head is bald and every beard clipped; on every hand is a gash and •sackcloth around the waist. 38 On all the rooftops of Moab and in her public squares, everyone is mourning because I have shattered Moab like a jar no one wants.” [This is] the LORD’s declaration. 39 “How broken it is! They wail! How Moab has turned his back! He is ashamed. Moab will become a laughingstock and a shock to all those around him.”

40 For this is what the LORD says:

He will swoop down like an eagle
and spread his wings against Moab.

- 41 The towns have^a been captured,
and the strongholds seized.
In that day the heart of Moab’s warriors will be like the heart of a woman with contractions.
- 42 Moab will be destroyed as a people because he has exalted himself
against the LORD.
- 43 Panic, pit, and trap
await you, resident of Moab.
[This is] the LORD’s declaration.
- 44 He who flees from the panic will fall
in the pit,
and he who climbs from the pit
will be captured in the trap,
for I will bring against Moab
the year of their punishment.
[This is] the LORD’s declaration.
- 45 Those who flee will stand exhausted
in Heshbon’s shadow

because fire has come out from Heshbon
and a flame from within Sihon.
It will devour Moab’s forehead
and the skull of the noisemakers.

- 46 Woe to you, Moab!
The people of Chemosh have perished because your sons have been taken captive
and your daughters have gone into captivity.
- 47 Yet, I will restore the fortunes^b of Moab
in the last days.
[This is] the LORD’s declaration.
The judgment on Moab ends here.

Prophecies against Ammon

49 About the Ammonites, this is what the LORD says:

Does Israel have no sons?

Is he without an heir?

Why then has

•Milcom^{c d} dispossessed Gad
and his people settled in their cities?

- 2 Therefore look, the days are coming—
[this is] the LORD’s declaration—
when I will make the shout of battle heard against Rabbah of the Ammonites.
It will become a desolate mound,
and its villages will be burned down.
Israel will dispossess their dispossessors,
says the LORD.

- 3 Wail, Heshbon, for Ai is devastated;
cry out, daughters of Rabbah!
Clothe yourselves with •sackcloth,
and lament;
run back and forth within your walls,^e
because Milcom will go into exile together with his priests and officials.
- 4 Why do you brag about your valleys,
your flowing valley,^f
you faithless daughter?

- You who trust in your treasures
[and boast]: Who can attack me?
- 5 Look, I am about to bring terror
on you—
[this is] the declaration of the Lord,
the GOD of •Hosts—
from all those around you.
You will be banished,
each man headlong,
with no one to gather up the fugitives.

^a48:41 Or Kerioth has ^b48:47 Or will end the captivity ^c49:1 LXX, Syr, Vg; MT reads Malkam ^d49:1 = Molech;

- ⁶ But after that, I will restore the fortunes^a
of the Ammonites.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.

though you elevate your nest like the eagle,
even from there I will bring you down.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.

Prophecies against Edom

⁷ About Edom, this is what the LORD of Hosts says:

- Is there no longer wisdom in Teman?^b
Has counsel perished from the prudent?
Has their wisdom rotted away?
- ⁸ Run! Turn back! Lie low,
residents of Dedan,
for I will bring Esau's calamity on him
at the time I punish him.
- ⁹ If grape harvesters came to you,
wouldn't they leave some gleanings?
Were thieves to come in the night,
they would destroy only
what they wanted.
- ¹⁰ But I will strip Esau bare;
I will uncover his secret places.
He will try to hide himself,
but he will be unable.
His descendants will be destroyed
along with his relatives and neighbors.
He will exist no longer.
- ¹¹ Abandon your orphans;
I will preserve them;
let your widows trust in Me.

¹² "For this is what the LORD says: If those who do not deserve to drink the cup must drink it, can you possibly remain unpunished? You will not remain unpunished, for you must drink [it] too. ¹³ For by Myself I have sworn"—the LORD's declaration—"Bozrah^c will become a desolation, a disgrace, a ruin, and a curse, and all her cities will become ruins forever."

- ¹⁴ I have heard a message from the LORD;
an envoy has been sent
among the nations:
Assemble yourselves to come against her.
Rise up for war!
- ¹⁵ Look, I will certainly make you insignificant among the nations,
despised among humanity.
- ¹⁶ As to the terror you cause,^d
your presumptuous heart
has deceived you.
You who live in the clefts of the rock,^e
you who occupy the mountain summit,

¹⁷ "Edom will become a desolation. Everyone who passes by her will be horrified and scoff because of all her wounds. ¹⁸ As when Sodom and Gomorrah were overthrown along with their neighbors," says the LORD, "no one will live there; no human being will even stay in it as a resident alien.

¹⁹ "Look, it will be like a lion coming up from the thickets^f of the Jordan to the perennially watered grazing land. Indeed, I will chase Edom away from her [land] in a flash. I will appoint whoever is chosen for her. For who is like Me?
Who will summon Me? Who is the shepherd who can stand against Me?"

²⁰ Therefore, hear the plans that the LORD has drawn up against Edom and the strategies He has devised against the people of Teman: The flock's little lambs will certainly be dragged away, and their grazing land will be made desolate because of them. ²¹ At the sound of their fall the earth will quake; the sound of her cry will be heard at the •Red Sea. ²² Look! It will be like an eagle soaring upward, then swooping down and spreading its wings over Bozrah. In that day the hearts of Edom's warriors will be like the heart of a woman with contractions.

Prophecies against Damascus

²³ About Damascus:

Hamath and Arpad are put to shame,
for they have heard a bad report
and are agitated;
in the sea there is anxiety that cannot be calmed.

- ²⁴ Damascus has become weak;
she has turned to run;
panic has gripped her.
Distress and labor pains have seized her
like a woman in labor.
- ²⁵ How can the city of praise
not be abandoned,
the town that brings Me joy?
- ²⁶ Therefore, her young men will fall
in her public squares;
all the warriors will be silenced
in that day.

[This is] the declaration of
the LORD of Hosts.

Prophecies against Kedar and Hazor

28 About Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar, Babylon's king, defeated, this is what the LORD says:

- Rise up, go against Kedar,
and destroy the people of the east!
- 29 They will take their tents and their flocks
along with their tent curtains
and all their equipment.
They will take their camels
for themselves.
They will call out to them:
Terror is on every side!
- 30 Run! Escape quickly! Lie low, residents of Hazor—
[this is] the LORD's declaration—
for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has drawn up a plan against you;
he has devised a strategy against you.
- 31 Rise up, go up against a nation at ease,
one living in security.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.
They have no doors, not even a gate bar;
they live alone.
- 32 Their camels will become plunder,
and their massive herds of cattle will become spoil.
I will scatter them to the wind
in every direction,
those who shave their temples;
I will bring calamity on them
across all their borders.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.
- 33 Hazor will become a jackals' den,
a desolation forever.
No one will live there;
no human being will even stay in it
as a resident alien.

Prophecies against Elam

34 [This is] the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet about Elam^a at the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah.
35 This is what the LORD of Hosts says:

I am about to shatter Elam's bow,
the source^b of their might.

- 36 I will bring the four winds against Elam
from the four corners of the heavens,
and I will scatter them to all these winds.
There will not be a nation
to which Elam's banished ones will not go.
- 37 I will devastate Elam before their enemies,
before those who want to take their lives.
I will bring disaster on them,
My burning anger.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.
I will send the sword after them until I finish them off.
- 38 I will set My throne in Elam,
and I will destroy the king and officials from there.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.
- 39 In the last days,
I will restore the fortunes^c of Elam.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.

Prophecies against Babylon

50 The word the LORD spoke about Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans, through Jeremiah the prophet:

- 2 Announce to the nations;
proclaim and raise up a signal flag;
proclaim, and hide nothing.
Say: Babylon is captured;
Bel is put to shame;
Marduk is devastated;
her idols are put to shame;
her false gods, devastated.
- 3 For a nation from the north will come
against her;
it will make her land desolate.
No one will be living in it—
both man and beast will escape.^d
- 4 In those days and at that time—
[this is] the LORD's declaration—
the Israelites and Judeans will come together,
weeping as they come,
and will seek the LORD their God.
- 5 They will ask about Zion, [turning] their faces to this road.
They will come and join themselves^e
to the LORD
in an everlasting covenant that will never be forgotten.

^e50:5 LXX; MT reads Come and join yourselves

- 6 My people are lost sheep;
their shepherds have led them astray,
guiding them the wrong way
in the mountains.
They have wandered from mountain
to hill;
they have forgotten their resting place.
- 7 All who found them devoured them.
Their adversaries said: We're not guilty;
instead, they have sinned
against the LORD,
their righteous grazing land,
the hope of their ancestors, the LORD.
- 8 Escape from Babylon;
depart from the Chaldeans' land.
Be like the rams that lead the flock.
- 9 For I will soon stir up and bring against Babylon
an assembly of great nations
from the north country.
They will line up in battle formation
against her;
from there she will be captured.
Their arrows will be like those of a skilled^a warrior
who does not return empty-handed.
- 10 The Chaldeans will become plunder;
all her plunderers will be fully satisfied.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.
- 11 Because you rejoice,
because you sing in triumph—
you who plundered My inheritance—because you frolic like a young cow treading grain
and neigh like stallions,
- 12 your mother will be utterly humiliated;
she who bore you will be put to shame.
Look! She will lag behind all^b the nations—
a dry land, a wilderness, an •Arabah.
- 13 Because of the LORD's wrath,
she will not be inhabited;
she will become a desolation, every bit
of her.
Everyone who passes through Babylon
will be horrified
and scoff because of all her wounds.
- 14 Line up in battle formation
around Babylon,
all you archers!
Shoot at her! Do not spare an arrow,
for she has sinned against the LORD.
- 15 Raise a war cry against her on every side!

She has thrown up her hands [in surrender];
her defense towers have fallen;
her walls are demolished.
Since this is the LORD's vengeance,
take out your vengeance on her;
as she has done, do the same to her.

16 Cut off the sower from Babylon
as well as him who wields the sickle
at harvest time.
Because of the oppressor's sword,
each will turn to his own people,
each will flee to his own land.

The Return of God's People

- 17 Israel is a stray lamb, chased by lions.
The first who devoured him was the king
of Assyria;
this last who has crunched his bones
was Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.
- 18 Therefore, this is what the LORD of •Hosts,
the God of Israel, says: "I am about to punish the king of Babylon and his land just as I punished
the king of Assyria.
- 19 I will return Israel to his grazing land,
and he will feed on Carmel and Bashan;
he will be satisfied
in the hill country of Ephraim and of Gilead.
- 20 In those days and at that time—
[this is] the LORD's declaration—
one will search for Israel's guilt,
but there will be none,
and for Judah's sins,
but they will not be found,
for I will forgive those I leave
as a remnant.

The Invasion of Babylon

- 21 Go against the land of Merathaim,
and against those living in Pekod.
Put them to the sword;
•completely destroy them—
[this is] the LORD's declaration—
do everything I have commanded you.
- 22 The sound of war is in the land—
a great destruction.
- 23 How the hammer of the whole earth
is cut down and smashed!
What a horror Babylon has become
among the nations!
- 24 Babylon, I laid a trap for you, and you were caught,

^a50:9 Some Hb mss, LXX, Syr; other Hb mss read bereaving ^b50:12 Lit Look! The last of

- but you did not even know it.
 You were found and captured
 because you fought against the LORD.
- 25 The LORD opened His armory
 and brought out His weapons of wrath, because it is a task of the Lord GOD of Hosts
 in the land of the Chaldeans.
- 26 Come against her from the most distant places.^a Open her granaries;
 pile her up like mounds of grain
 and completely destroy her.
 Leave her no survivors.
- 27 Put all her young bulls to the sword;
 let them go down to the slaughter.
 Woe to them, because their day has come,
 the time of their punishment.

The Humiliation of Babylon

- 28 [There is] a voice of fugitives and escapees
 from the land of Babylon announcing in Zion the vengeance
 of the LORD our God,
 the vengeance for His temple.
- 29 Summon the archers to Babylon,
 all who string the bow;
 camp all around her; let none escape.
 Repay her according to her deeds;
 just as she has done, do the same to her,
 for she has acted arrogantly
 against the LORD,
 against the Holy One of Israel.
- 30 Therefore, her young men will fall
 in her public squares;
 all the warriors will be silenced
 in that day.
 [This is] the LORD's declaration.
- 31 Look, I am against you,
 you arrogant one—[this is] the declaration of
 the Lord GOD of Hosts—
 because your day has come,
 the time when I will punish you.
- 32 The arrogant will stumble and fall
 with no one to pick him up.
 I will set fire to his cities,
 and it will consume everything
 around him.”

The Desolation of Babylon

- 33 This is what the LORD of Hosts says:
 Israelites and Judeans alike
 have been oppressed.

- All their captors hold them fast;
 they refuse to release them.
- 34 Their Redeemer is strong;
 the LORD of Hosts is His name.
 He will fervently plead their case
 so that He might bring rest to the earth
 but turmoil to those who live in Babylon.
- 35 A sword is over the Chaldeans—
 [this is] the LORD's declaration—
 against those who live in Babylon, against her officials, and against her sages.
- 36 A sword is against the diviners,
 and they will act foolishly.
 A sword is against her heroic warriors,
 and they will be terrified.
- 37 A sword is against his horses and chariots
 and against all the foreigners
 among them,
 and they will be like women.
 A sword is against her treasures,
 and they will be plundered.
- 38 A drought will come on her waters,
 and they will be dried up.
 For it is a land of carved images,
 and they go mad because of terrifying things.^b
- 39 Therefore, desert creatures^c will live
 with jackals,
 and ostriches will also live in her.
 It will never again be inhabited or lived in through all generations.
- 40 Just as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah
 and their neighboring towns—
 [this is] the LORD's declaration—
 so no one will live there;
 no human being will even stay in it
 as a resident alien.

The Conquest of Babylon

- 41 Look! A people comes from the north.
 A great nation and many kings will be stirred up
 from the remote regions of the earth.
- 42 They grasp bow and javelin.
 They are cruel and show no mercy.
 Their voice roars like the sea,
 and they ride on horses,
 lined up like men in battle formation
 against you, Daughter of Babylon.

Babylon’s conquest the earth will quake; a cry

God’s Judgment on Babylon

51 This is what the LORD says:

I am about to stir up a destructive wind^c against Babylon and against the population of Leb-qamai.^d

- 2 I will send strangers to Babylon who will scatter her and strip
her land bare,
for they will come against her
from every side in the day of disaster.
- 3 Don’t let the archer string his bow;
don’t let him put on^e his armor.
Don’t spare her young men;
•completely destroy her entire army!
- 4 Those who were slain will fall in the land of the Chaldeans,
those who were pierced through,
in her streets.
- 5 For Israel and Judah are not left widowed
by their God, the LORD of •Hosts, though their land is full of guilt
against the Holy One of Israel.
- 6 Leave Babylon;
save your lives, each of you!
Don’t be silenced by her guilt.
For this is the time of the LORD’s vengeance—
He will pay her what she deserves.
- 7 Babylon was a golden cup
in the LORD’s hand

making the whole earth drunk.
The nations drank her wine;
therefore, the nations go mad.

- 8 Suddenly Babylon fell and was shattered.
Wail for her;
get balm for her wound—
perhaps she can be healed.
- 9 We tried to heal Babylon,
but she could not be healed.
Abandon her!
Let each of us go to his own land,
for her judgment extends to the sky
and reaches as far as the clouds.
- 10 The LORD has brought about our vindication;
come, let’s tell in Zion
what the LORD our God has accomplished.
- 11 Sharpen the arrows!
Fill the quivers!
The LORD has put it into the mind of the kings of the Medes because His plan is aimed at Babylon to destroy her,
for it is the LORD’s vengeance, vengeance for His temple.
- 12 Raise up a signal flag against the walls of Babylon;
fortify the watch post;
set the watchmen in place;
prepare the ambush.
For the LORD has both planned and accomplished
what He has threatened
against those who live in Babylon.
- 13 You who reside by many waters,
rich in treasures,
your end has come,
your life thread is cut.
- 14 The LORD of Hosts has sworn by Himself:
I will fill you up with men as with locusts,
and they will sing the victory song

[this is] the LORD's declaration—
you devastate the whole earth.
I will stretch out My hand against you,
roll you down from the cliffs,
and turn you into a burned-out mountain.
- 26 No one will be able to retrieve a cornerstone
or a foundation stone from you,
because you will become desolate forever.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.
- 27 Raise a signal flag in the land;

- 28 Set apart the nations for battle
against her—
the kings of Media,
her governors and all her officials,
and all the lands they rule.
- 29 The earth quakes and trembles,
because the LORD's purposes against Babylon stand:
to make the land of Babylon
an uninhabited desolation.
- 30 Babylon's warriors have stopped fighting;
they sit in their strongholds.
Their might is exhausted;
they have become like women.
Babylon's homes have been set ablaze,
her gate bars are shattered.

and herald to meet herald,
to announce to the king of Babylon
that his city has been captured

and the soldiers are terrified.
- 33 For this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God
of Israel, says:

at the time it is trampled.
In just a little while her harvest time
will come.
- 34 "Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon

⁴² The sea has risen over Babylon;
she is covered with its turbulent waves.

⁴³ Her cities have become a desolation,
a dry and arid land,
a land where no one lives,
where no human being passes through.

⁴⁴ I will punish Bel in Babylon.
I will make him vomit

The nations will no longer stream to him;
even Babylon's wall will fall.

⁴⁵ Come out from among her, My people!
Save your lives, each of you,
from the LORD's burning anger.

⁴⁶ May you not become faint-hearted and fearful

when the report is proclaimed in the land,
for the report will come one year,
and then another the next year.
There will be violence in the land
with ruler against ruler.

⁴⁷ Therefore, look, the days are coming when I will punish

Babylon's carved images.

Her entire land will suffer shame,
and all her slain will lie fallen within her.

⁴⁸ Heaven and earth and everything in them will shout for joy over Babylon because the destroyers from the north will come against her.

[This is] the LORD's declaration.

⁴⁹ Babylon must fall [because of] the slain
of Israel,
even as the slain of all the earth fell because of Babylon.

⁵⁰ You who have escaped the sword,
go and do not stand still!
Remember the LORD from far away,
and let Jerusalem come to your mind.

⁵¹ We are ashamed
because we have heard insults.
Humiliation covers our faces because foreigners have entered the holy places of the LORD's temple.

⁵² Therefore, look, the days are coming—
[this is] the LORD's declaration—
when I will punish her carved images, and the wounded will groan
throughout her land.

⁵³ Even if Babylon should ascend to the heavens
and fortify her tall fortresses,
destroyers will come against her from Me.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.

⁵⁴ The sound of a cry from Babylon!
The sound of great destruction
from the land of the Chaldeans!

⁵⁵ For the LORD is going to devastate Babylon;
He will silence her mighty voice.
Their waves roar like abundant waters;
the tumult of their voice resounds,

⁵⁶ for a destroyer is coming against her,
against Babylon.

Her warriors will be captured,
their bows shattered,
for the LORD is a God of retribution;
He will certainly repay.

⁵⁷ I will make her princes and sages drunk,
along with her governors, officials,
and warriors.
Then they will fall asleep forever
and never wake up.

[This is] the King's declaration;
the LORD of Hosts is His name.

⁵⁸ This is what the LORD of Hosts says:

Babylon's thick walls will be totally demolished,

and her high gates consumed by fire.
The peoples will have labored
for nothing;
the nations will exhaust themselves
[only to feed] the fire.

⁵⁹ [This is] what Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah son of Neriah son of Mahseiah, the quartermaster, when he went to Babylon with Zedekiah king of Judah in the fourth year of Zedekiah's reign. ⁶⁰ Jeremiah wrote on one scroll about all the disaster that would come to Babylon; all these words were written against Babylon.

⁶¹ Jeremiah told Seraiah, "When you get to Babylon, see that you read all these words aloud. ⁶² You must say, 'LORD, You have threatened to cut off this place so that no one will live in it—man or beast. Indeed, it will remain desolate forever.' ⁶³ When you have finished reading this scroll, tie a stone to it and throw it into the middle of the Euphrates River. ⁶⁴ Then say, 'In the same way, Babylon will sink and never rise again because of the disaster I am bringing on her. They will grow weary.'"

The words of Jeremiah end here.

The Fall of Jerusalem

52 Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king; he reigned 11 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah; [she was] from Libnah. ² Zedekiah did what was evil in the LORD's sight just as Jehoiakim had done. ³ Because of the LORD's anger, it came to the point in Jerusalem and Judah that He finally banished them from His presence. Nevertheless, Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

⁴ In the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon advanced against Jerusalem with his entire army. They laid siege to the city and built a siege wall all around it. ⁵ The city was under siege until King Zedekiah's eleventh year.

⁶ By the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was so severe in the city that the people of the land had no food. ⁷ Then the city was broken into, and all the warriors fled. They left the city by night by way of the gate between the two walls near the king's garden, though the Chaldeans surrounded the city. They made their way along the route to the •Arabah. ⁸ The Chaldean army pursued the king and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. Zedekiah's entire army was scattered from him. ⁹ The Chaldeans seized the king and brought him to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, and he passed sentence on him.

¹⁰ At Riblah the king of Babylon slaughtered Zedekiah's sons before his eyes and also slaughtered the Judean commanders. ¹¹ Then he blinded Zedekiah and bound him with bronze chains. The king of Babylon brought Zedekiah to Babylon, where he kept him in custody^a until his dying day.

¹⁷ Now the Chaldeans broke into pieces the bronze pillars for the LORD's temple and the water carts and the bronze reservoir that were in the LORD's temple, and carried all the bronze to Babylon. ¹⁸ They took the pots, the shovels, the wick trimmers, the sprinkling basins, the dishes, and all the bronze articles used in [temple] service. ¹⁹ The commander of the guards took away the bowls, the firepans, the sprinkling basins, the pots, the lampstands, the pans, and the drink offering bowls—whatever was gold or silver.

²⁰ As for the two pillars, the one reservoir, and the 12 bronze bulls under the water carts that King Solomon had made for the LORD's temple, the weight of the bronze of all these articles was beyond measure. ²¹ One pillar was 27 feet^c tall, had a circumference of 18 feet,^d was hollow—four fingers thick—²² and had a bronze capital on top of it. One capital, encircled by bronze latticework and pomegranates, stood seven and a half feet^e high. The second pillar was the same, with pomegranates. ²³[Each capital had] 96 pomegranates all around it. All the pomegranates around the latticework numbered 100.

^a52:11 Lit in a house of guards ^b52:12 Lit Jerusalem; he stood before ^c52:21 Lit 18 cubits ^d52:21 Lit 12 cubits

²⁴The commander of the guards also took away Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the priest of the second rank, and the three doorkeepers. ²⁵From the city he took a court official who had been appointed over the warriors; seven trusted royal aides^a found in the city; the secretary of the commander of the army, who enlisted the people of the land for military duty; and 60 men from the common people who were found within the city. ²⁶Nebuzaradan, the commander of the guards, took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. ²⁷The king of Babylon put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah went into exile from its land.

²⁸These are the people Nebuchadnezzar deported: in the seventh year, 3,023 Jews; ²⁹in his eighteenth year,^b 832 people from Jerusalem;

³⁰in Nebuchadnezzar's twenty-third year, Nebuzaradan, the commander of the guards, deported 745 Jews. All together 4,600 people [were deported].

Jehoiachin Pardoned

³¹On the twenty-fifth day of the twelfth month of the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Judah's King Jehoiachin, Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the [first] year of his reign, pardoned King Jehoiachin of Judah and released him from the prison. ³²He spoke kindly to him and set his throne above the thrones of the kings who were with him in Babylon. ³³So Jehoiachin changed his prison clothes, and he dined regularly in the presence of the king of Babylon for the rest of his life. ³⁴As for his allowance, a regular allowance was given to him by the king of Babylon, a portion for each day until the day of his death, for the rest of his life.

LAMENTATIONS

Lament over Jerusalem

⌘ Alef

1 How^c she sits alone,
the city [once] crowded
with people!
She who was great among the nations
has become like a widow.
The princess among the provinces
has become a slave.

⌚ Bet

2 She weeps aloud during the night,
with tears on her cheeks.
There is no one to offer her comfort,
[not one] from all her lovers.^d
All her friends have betrayed her;
they have become her enemies.

⌛ Gimel

3 Judah has gone into exile
following^e affliction and harsh slavery;
she lives among the nations
but finds no place to rest.

All her pursuers have overtaken her in narrow places.

⌜ Dalet

4 The roads to Zion mourn,
for no one comes to the appointed festivals.
All her gates are deserted;
her priests groan,
her young women grieve,
and she herself is bitter.

⌞ He

5 Her adversaries have become [her] masters;
her enemies are at ease,
for the LORD has made her suffer
because of her many transgressions.
Her children have gone away
as captives before the adversary.

⌠ Vav

6 All her splendor has vanished from Daughter Zion.
Her leaders are like stags

^a52:25 Lit seven men who look on the king's face ^b52:29 Some Hb mss, Syr add he deported ^c1:1 The stanzas in Lm 1–4 form an •acrostic. ^d1:2 = Jerusalem's political allies; Jr 22:20–22; Ezk 23 ^e1:3 Or because of that find no pasture;

they walk away exhausted
before the hunter.

י Zayin

- 7 During the days of her affliction
and homelessness
Jerusalem remembers all her precious belongings
that were [hers] in days of old.
When her people fell into the adversary's hand,
she had no one to help.
The adversaries looked at her,
laughing over her downfall.

ק Khet

- 8 Jerusalem has sinned grievously;
therefore, she has become an object of scorn.^a
All who honored her [now] despise her,
for they have seen her nakedness.
She herself groans and turns away.

ט Tet

- 9 Her uncleanness [stains] her skirts.
She never considered her end.
Her downfall was astonishing;
there was no one to comfort her.
LORD, look on my affliction,
for the enemy triumphs!

י Yod

- 10 The adversary has seized
all her precious belongings.
She has even seen the nations enter her sanctuary—
those You had forbidden to enter Your assembly.

כ Kaf

- 11 All her people groan
while they search for bread.
They have traded
their precious belongings for food
in order to stay alive.
LORD, look and see how I have become despised.

ל Lamed

- 12 Is this nothing to you, all you who pass by?
Look and see!

Is there any pain like mine,
which was dealt out to me,
which the LORD made [me] suffer
on the day of His burning anger?

מ Mem

- 13 He sent fire from on high into my bones;
He made it descend.^b
He spread a net for my feet
and turned me back.
He made me desolate,
sick all day long.

נ Nun

- 14 My transgressions have been formed into a yoke,^{c d}
fastened together by His hand;
they have been placed on my neck,
and the Lord has broken my strength.
He has handed me over to those I cannot withstand.

ס Samek

- 15 The Lord has rejected
all the mighty men within me.
He has summoned an army^e against me
to crush my young warriors.
The Lord has trampled
Virgin Daughter Judah
[like grapes] in a winepress.

ע Ayin

- 16 I weep because of these things;
my eyes flow^f with tears.
For there is no one nearby
to comfort [me],
no one to keep me alive.
My children are desolate
because the enemy has prevailed.

פ Pe

- 17 Zion stretches out her hands;
there is no one to comfort her.
The LORD has issued a decree against Jacob that his neighbors should be his adversaries.
Jerusalem has become something impure among them.

צ Tsade

- 18 The LORD is in the right,
for I have rebelled against His command.

^a1:8 Or become impure ^b1:13 DSS, LXX; MT reads bones, and it prevailed against them ^c1:14 Some Hb mss, LXX read He kept watch over my transgressions ^d1:14 Or The yoke of my transgressions is bound; Hb obscure ^e1:15 Or has announced an appointed time ^f1:16 Lit my eye, my eye flows

Listen, all you people;
look at my pain.
My young men and women
have gone into captivity.

פ Qof

- 19 I called to my lovers,
but they betrayed me.
My priests and elders perished in the city while searching for food
to keep themselves alive.

ר Resh

- 20 LORD, see how I am in distress.
I am churning within;
my heart is broken,^a
for I have been very rebellious.
Outside, the sword takes the children;
inside, there is death.

ש Shin

- 21 People have heard me groaning,
but there is no one to comfort me.
All my enemies have heard of my misfortune;
they are glad that You have caused [it].
Bring on the day You have announced,
so that they may become like me.

ת Tav

- 22 Let all their wickedness come
before You,
and deal with them
as You have dealt with me
because of all my transgressions.
For my groans are many,
and I am sick at heart.

Judgment on Jerusalem

א Alef

- 2 How the Lord has overshadowed Daughter Zion with His anger!
He has thrown down Israel's glory
from heaven to earth.
He has abandoned His footstool^b
in the day of His anger.

ב Bet

- 2 Without compassion the Lord has swallowed up
all the dwellings of Jacob.

In His wrath He has demolished
the fortified cities of Daughter Judah.
He brought [them] to the ground
and defiled the kingdom and its leaders.

ג Gimel

- 3 He has cut off every •horn of Israel
in His burning anger and withdrawn His right hand
in the presence of the enemy.
He has blazed against Jacob like a flaming fire
that consumes everything [in its path].

ד Dalet

- 4 Like an enemy He has bent His bow;
His right hand is positioned like an adversary.
He has killed everyone who was loved,^c pouring out His wrath like fire on the tent of Daughter Zion.

ה He

- 5 The Lord is like an enemy;
He has swallowed up Israel.
He swallowed up all its palaces
and destroyed its fortified cities.
He has multiplied mourning and lamentation
within Daughter Judah.

ו Vav

- 6 He has done violence to His temple^d
as if [it were] a garden [booth], destroying His place of meeting.
The LORD has abolished
appointed festivals and Sabbaths in Zion.
He has despised king and priest
in His fierce anger.

ז Zayin

- 7 The Lord has rejected His altar,
repudiated His sanctuary;
He has handed the walls of her palaces
over to the enemy.
They have raised a shout in the house
of the LORD
as on the day of an appointed festival.

ח Khet

- 8 The LORD determined to destroy the wall of Daughter Zion.
He stretched out a measuring line

^a1:20 Lit is turned within me ^b2:1 Either the ark of the covenant or the temple ^c2:4 Lit killed all the delights of the eye; Ezk 24:16 ^d2:6 Lit booth

and did not restrain Himself from destroying.
He made the ramparts and walls grieve;
together they waste away.

ו Tet

- 9 Zion's gates have fallen to the ground;
He has destroyed and shattered the bars
on her [gates].
Her king and her leaders [live]
among the nations,
instruction^a is no more,
and even her prophets receive no vision from the LORD.

י Yod

- 10 The elders of Daughter Zion
sit on the ground in silence.
They have thrown dust on their heads and put on [•]sackcloth.
The young women of Jerusalem have bowed their heads to the ground.

כ Kaf

- 11 My eyes are worn out from weeping;
I am churning within.
My heart is poured out in grief^b
because of the destruction of my dear people,
because children and infants faint
in the streets of the city.

ל Lamed

- 12 They cry out to their mothers:
Where is the grain and wine?
as they faint like the wounded
in the streets of the city,
as their lives fade away
in the arms of their mothers.

מ Mem

- 13 What can I say on your behalf?
To what can I compare you,
Daughter Jerusalem?
What can I liken you to,
so that I may console you,
Virgin Daughter Zion?
For your ruin is as vast as the sea.
Who can heal you?

נ Nun

- 14 Your prophets saw visions for you that were empty and deceptive;

they did not reveal your guilt
and so restore your fortunes.
They saw [•]oracles for you that were empty and misleading.

ס Samek

- 15 All who pass by [scornfully] clap their hands at you.
They hiss and shake their heads
at Daughter Jerusalem:
Is this the city that was called the perfection of beauty,
the joy of the whole earth?

פ Pe

- 16 All your enemies
open their mouths against you.
They hiss and gnash [their] teeth,
saying, "We have swallowed [her] up.
This is the day we have waited for!
We have lived to see [it]."

צ Ayin

- 17 The LORD has done what He planned;
He has accomplished His decree,
which He ordained in days of old.
He has demolished without compassion, letting the enemy gloat over you and exalting the horn of your adversaries.

צ Tsade

- 18 The hearts of the people cry out
to the Lord.
Wall of Daughter Zion,
let [your] tears run down like a river
day and night.
Give yourself no relief
and your^c eyes no rest.

ק Qof

- 19 Arise, cry out in the night,
from the first watch of the night.
Pour out your heart like water
before the Lord's presence.
Lift up your hands to Him for the lives of your children who are fainting from hunger
on the corner of every street.

ר Resh

EZEKIEL

1 In the thirtieth year, in the fourth [month], on the fifth [day] of the month, while I was among the exiles by the Chebar Canal, the heavens opened and I saw visions of God. ² On the fifth [day] of the month—it was the fifth year of King Jehoiachin's exile—³ the word of the LORD came directly to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the Chebar Canal. And the LORD's hand was on him there.

Vision of the LORD's Glory

⁴ I looked and there was a whirlwind coming from the north, a great cloud with fire flashing back and forth and brilliant light all around it. In the center of the fire, there was a gleam like amber. ⁵ The form of four living creatures came from it. And this was their appearance: They had human form, ⁶ but each of them had four faces and four wings. ⁷ Their legs were straight, and the soles of their feet were like the hooves of a calf, sparkling like the gleam of polished bronze. ⁸ [They had] human hands under their wings on their four sides. All four of them had faces and wings. ⁹ Their wings were touching. The creatures did not turn as they moved; each one went straight ahead. ¹⁰ The form of [each of] their faces was that of a man, and each of the four had the face of a lion on the right, the face of an ox on the left, and the face of an eagle. ¹¹ [That is what] their faces [were like]. Their wings were spread upward; each had two [wings] touching that of another and two wings covering its body. ¹² Each creature went straight ahead. Wherever the Spirit^a wanted to go, they went without turning as they moved.

¹⁵ When I looked at the living creatures, there was one wheel on the ground beside each creature that had four faces. ¹⁶ The appearance of the wheels and their craftsmanship was like the gleam of beryl, and all four had the same form. Their appearance and craftsmanship was like a wheel within a wheel. ¹⁷ When they moved, they went in any of the four directions, without pivoting as they moved. ¹⁸ Their rims were large and frightening. Each of their four rims were full of eyes all around. ¹⁹ So when the living creatures moved, the wheels moved beside them, and when the creatures rose from the earth, the wheels also rose. ²⁰ Wherever the Spirit^a wanted to go, the creatures went in the direction the Spirit was moving. The wheels rose alongside them, for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels. ²¹ When the creatures moved, the wheels moved; when the creatures stood still, the wheels stood still; and when the creatures rose from the earth, the wheels rose alongside them, for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

²² The shape of an expanse, with a gleam like awe-inspiring crystal, was spread out over the heads of the living creatures. ²³ And under the expanse their wings extended one toward another. Each of them also had two wings covering their bodies. ²⁴ When they moved, I heard the sound of their wings like the roar of mighty waters, like the voice of the •Almighty, and a sound of commotion like the noise of an army. When they stood still, they lowered their wings.

²⁵ A voice came from above the expanse over their heads; when they stood still, they lowered their wings. ²⁶ The shape of a throne with the appearance of sapphire^b stone was above the expanse.^c There was a form with the appearance of a human on the throne high above. ²⁷ From what seemed to be His waist up, I saw a gleam like amber, with what looked like fire enclosing it all around. From what seemed to be His waist down, I also saw what looked like fire. There was a brilliant light all around Him. ²⁸ The appearance of the brilliant light all around was like that of a rainbow in a cloud on a rainy day. This was the appearance of the form of the LORD's glory. When I saw [it], I fell facedown and heard a voice speaking.

Mission to Rebellious Israel

2 He said to me, "Son of man, stand up on your feet and I will speak with you." ² As He spoke to me, the Spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and I listened to the One who was speaking to me. ³ He said to me: "Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites [and] to the rebellious nations^a who have rebelled against Me. The Israelites and their ancestors have transgressed against Me to this day. ⁴ The children are obstinate^b and hardhearted. I am sending you to them, and you must say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says. ⁵ Whether they listen or refuse [to listen]—for they are a rebellious house—they will know that a prophet has been among them.

⁶ “But you, son of man, do not be afraid of them or their words, though briers and thorns are beside you and you live among scorpions. Don’t be afraid of their words or be discouraged by [the look on] their faces, for they are a rebellious house. ⁷ But speak My words to them whether they listen or refuse [to listen], for they are rebellious.

⁸ “And you, son of man, listen to what I tell you: Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house. Open your mouth and eat what I am giving you.” ⁹ So I looked and saw a hand reaching out to me, and there was a written scroll in it. ¹⁰ When He unrolled it before me, it was written on the front and back; [words of] lamentation, mourning, and woe were written on it.

3 He said to me: “Son of man, eat what you find [here]. Eat this scroll, then go and speak to the house of Israel.” ² So I opened my mouth, and He fed me the scroll. ³ “Son of man,” he said to me, “eat^c and fill your stomach with, this scroll I am giving you.” So I ate [it], and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth.

⁴ Then He said to me: “Son of man, go to the house of Israel and speak My words to them. ⁵ For you are not being sent to a people of unintelligible speech or difficult language but to the house of Israel. ⁶ [You are] not [being sent] to many peoples of unintelligible speech or difficult language, whose words you cannot understand. No doubt, if I sent you to them, they would listen to you. ⁷ But the house of Israel will not want to listen to you because they do not want to listen to Me. For the whole house of Israel is hardheaded and hardhearted. ⁸ Look, I have made your face as hard as their faces and your forehead as hard as their foreheads. ⁹ I have made your forehead like a diamond, harder than flint. Don’t be afraid of them or discouraged by [the look on] their faces, even though they are a rebellious house.”

¹⁰ Next He said to me: “Son of man, listen carefully to all My words that I speak to you and take [them] to heart. ¹¹ Go to your people, the exiles, and speak to them. Tell them: This is what the Lord GOD says, whether they listen or refuse [to listen].”

¹² The Spirit then lifted me up, and I heard a great rumbling sound behind me—praise the glory of the LORD in His place!— ¹³ with the^d sound of the living creatures’ wings brushing against each other and the sound of the wheels beside them, a great rumbling sound. ¹⁴ So the Spirit lifted me up and took me away. I left in bitterness and in an angry spirit, and the LORD’s hand was on me powerfully. ¹⁵ I came to the exiles at Tel-abib, who were living by the Chebar Canal, and I sat there stunned for seven days.

Ezekiel as a Watchman

¹⁶ Now at the end of seven days the word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁷ “Son of man, I have made you a watchman over the house of Israel. When you hear a word from My mouth, give them a warning from Me. ¹⁸ If I say to the wicked person: You will surely die, but you do not warn him—you don’t speak out to warn him about his wicked way in order to save his life—that wicked person will die for his iniquity. Yet I will hold you responsible for his blood. ¹⁹ But if you warn a wicked person and he does not turn from his wickedness or his wicked way, he will die for his iniquity, but you will have saved your life. ²⁰ Now if a righteous person turns from his righteousness and practices iniquity, and I put a stumbling block in front of him, he will die. If you did not warn him, he will die because of his sin and the righteous acts he did will not be remembered. Yet I will hold you responsible for his blood. ²¹ But if you warn the righteous person that he should not sin, and he does not sin, he will indeed live because he listened to [your] warning, and you will have saved your life.”

²² Then the hand of the LORD was on me there, and He said to me, “Get up, go out to the plain, and I will speak with you there.” ²³ So I got up and went out to the plain. The LORD’s glory was present there, like the glory I had seen by the Chebar Canal, and I fell facedown. ²⁴ The Spirit entered me and set me on my feet. He spoke with me and said: “Go, shut yourself inside your house. ²⁵ And you, son of man, they will put ropes on you and bind you with them so you cannot go out among them. ²⁶ I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, and you will be mute and unable to rebuke them, for they are a rebellious house. ²⁷ But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you will say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says. Let the one who listens, listen, and let the one who refuses, refuse—for they are a rebellious house.

^a2:3 LXX omits to the rebellious nations ^b2:4 Lit hard of face ^c3:3 Lit feed your belly ^d3:12–13 Some emend to behind me as the glory of the LORD rose from His place: ¹³ the

Jerusalem's Siege Dramatized

4 “Now you, son of man, take a brick, set it in front of you, and draw the city of Jerusalem on it. ² Then lay siege against it: construct a siege wall, build a ramp, pitch military camps, and place battering rams against it on all sides. ³ Take an iron plate and set it up as an iron wall between yourself and the city. Turn your face toward it so that it is under siege, and besiege it. This will be a sign for the house of Israel.

⁴ “Then lie down on your left side and place the iniquity^a of the house of Israel on it. You will bear their iniquity for the number of days you lie on your side. ⁵ For I have assigned you the years of their iniquity according to the number of days [you lie down], 390 days; so you will bear the iniquity of the house of Israel. ⁶ When you have completed these days, lie down again, but on your right side, and bear the iniquity of the house of Judah. I have assigned you 40 days, a day for each year. ⁷ You must turn your face toward the siege of Jerusalem with your arm bared, and prophesy against it. ⁸ Be aware that I will put cords on you so you cannot turn from side to side until you have finished the days of your siege.

⁹ “Also take wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt. Put them in a single container and make them into bread for yourself. You are to eat it during the number of days you lie on your side, 390 days. ¹⁰ The food you eat each day will be eight ounces^b by weight; you will eat it from time to time.^c ¹¹ You are also to drink water by measure, one-sixth of a gallon,^d [which] you will drink from time to time. ¹² You will eat it as [you would] a barley cake and bake it over dried human excrement in their sight.” ¹³ The LORD said, “This is how the Israelites will eat their bread—ceremonially unclean—among the nations where I will banish them.”

¹⁴ But I said, “Ah, Lord GOD, I have never been defiled. From my youth until now I have not eaten anything that died naturally or was mauled by wild beasts. And impure meat has never entered my mouth.”

¹⁵ He replied to me, “Look, I will let you [use] cow dung instead of human excrement, and you can make your bread over that.” ¹⁶ Then He said to me, “Son of man, I am going to cut off the supply of bread in Jerusalem. They will anxiously eat bread [rationed] by weight and in dread drink water by measure. ¹⁷ So they will lack bread and water; everyone will be devastated and waste away because of their iniquity.

Ezekiel Dramatizes Jerusalem's Fall

5 “Now you, son of man, take a sharp sword, use it as you would a barber's razor, and shave your head and beard. Then take a pair of scales and divide the hair. ² You are to burn up one third [of it] in the city when the days of the siege have ended; you are to take one third and slash [it] with the sword all around the city; and you are to scatter one third to the wind, for I will draw a sword [to chase] after them. ³ But you are to take a few strands from the hair and secure them in the folds of your [robe]. ⁴ Take some more of them, throw them into the fire, and burn them in it. A fire will spread from it to the whole house of Israel.

⁷ “Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: Because you have been more insubordinate than the nations around you—you have not walked in My statutes or kept My ordinances; you have not even kept the ordinances of the nations around you—⁸ therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: See, I am against you, [Jerusalem], and I will execute judgments within you in the sight of the nations. ⁹ Because of all your abominations, I will do to you what I have never done before and what I will never do again. ¹⁰ As a result, fathers will eat [their] sons within Jerusalem,^e and sons will eat their fathers. I will execute judgments against you and scatter all your survivors to every direction of the wind.

¹¹ “Therefore, as I live”—[this is] the declaration of the Lord GOD—“I am going to cut [you] off and show [you] no pity, because you have defiled My sanctuary with all your detestable practices and abominations. Yes, I will not spare [you]. ¹² One third of your people will die by plague and be consumed by famine within you; one third will fall by the sword all around you; and I will scatter one third to every direction of the wind, and I will draw a sword [to chase] after them. ¹³ When My anger is spent and I have vented My wrath on them, I will be appeased. Then, after I have spent My wrath on them, they will know that I, the LORD, have spoken in My jealousy.

^a4:4 Or punishment ^b4:10 Lit 20 shekels ^c4:10 Or it at set times ^d4:11 Lit hin ^e5:10 Lit you

¹⁴ “I will make you a ruin and a disgrace among the nations around you, in the sight of everyone who passes by. ¹⁵ So you^a will be a disgrace and a taunt, a warning and a horror, to the nations around you when I execute judgments against you in anger, wrath, and furious rebukes. I, the LORD, have spoken. ¹⁶ When I shoot deadly arrows of famine at them, arrows for destruction that I will send to destroy you, [inhabitants of Jerusalem], I will intensify the famine against you and cut off your supply of bread. ¹⁷ I will send famine and dangerous animals against you. They will leave you childless, [Jerusalem]. Plague and bloodshed will sweep through you, and I will bring a sword against you. I, the LORD, have spoken.”

Prophecy against Israel's Idolatry

6 The word of the LORD came to me: ² “Son of man, turn your face toward the mountains of Israel and prophesy against them. ³ You are to say: Mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD! This is what the Lord GOD says to the mountains and the hills, to the ravines and the valleys: I am about to bring a sword against you, and I will destroy your •high places. ⁴ Your altars will be desolated and your incense altars smashed. I will throw down your slain in front of your idols. ⁵ I will lay the corpses of the Israelites in front of their idols and scatter your bones around your altars. ⁶ Wherever you live the cities will be in ruins and the high places will be desolate, so that your altars will lie in ruins and be desecrated,^b your idols smashed and obliterated, your incense altars cut down, and your works wiped out. ⁷ The slain will fall among you, and you will know that I am the LORD.

⁸ “Yet I will leave a remnant when you are scattered among the nations, for throughout the countries there will be some of you who will escape the sword. ⁹ Then your survivors will remember Me among the nations where they are taken captive, how I was crushed by their promiscuous hearts that turned away from Me and by their eyes that lusted after their idols. They will loathe themselves because of the evil things they did, their abominations of every kind. ¹⁰ And they will know that I am the LORD; I did not threaten to bring this disaster on them without a reason.

Lament over the Fall of Jerusalem

¹¹ “This is what the Lord GOD says: Clap your hands, stamp your feet, and cry out over all the evil abominations of the house of Israel, who will fall by the sword, famine, and plague. ¹² The one who is far off will die by plague; the one who is near will fall by the sword; and the one who remains and is spared^c will die of famine. In this way I will exhaust My wrath on them. ¹³ You will [all] know that I am the LORD when their slain lie among their idols around their altars, on every high hill, on all the mountaintops, and under every green tree and every leafy oak—the places where they offered pleasing aromas to all their idols. ¹⁴ I will stretch out My hand against them, and wherever they live I will make the land a desolate waste, from the wilderness to Diblah.^d Then they will know that I am •Yahweh.”

Announcement of the End

7 And the word of the LORD came to me: ² “Son of man, this is what the Lord GOD says to the land of Israel:

An end! The end has come on the four corners of the land.

³ The end is now on you;
I will send My anger against you
and judge you according to your ways.
I will punish you for all
your abominations.

⁴ I will not look on you with pity
or spare [you],
but I will punish you for your ways
and for your abominations within you.
Then you will know that I am the LORD.”

⁵ This is what the Lord GOD says:

Look, one disaster after another
is coming!

⁶ An end has come; the end has come!
It has awakened against you.

Look, it is coming!

⁷ Doom^b has come on you,
inhabitants of the land.

- The time has come; the day is near.
There will be panic on the mountains and not celebration.
- 8 I will pour out My wrath on you
very soon;
I will exhaust My anger against you
and judge you according to your ways.
I will punish you for all
your abominations.
- 9 I will not look on [you] with pity

I will punish you for your ways
and for your abominations within you.
Then you will know that it is I, the LORD, who strikes.
- 10 Look, the day is coming!
Doom has gone out.
The rod has blossomed;
arrogance has bloomed.
- 11 Violence has grown into a rod
of wickedness;
none of them [will remain]:
none of their multitude,
none of their wealth,
and none of the eminent^a among them.
- 12 The time has come; the day has arrived.
Let the buyer not rejoice
and the seller not mourn,
for wrath is on all her multitude.

- 14 They have blown the trumpet
and prepared everything,
but no one goes to war,
for My wrath is on all her multitude.
- 15 The sword is on the outside;
plague and famine are on the inside.
Whoever is in the field will die
by the sword,
and famine and plague will devour
whoever is in the city.
- 16 The survivors among them will escape
and live on the mountains
like doves of the valley,
all of them moaning,
- each over his own iniquity.
- 17 All their hands will become weak,
and all [their] knees will turn to water.
- 18 They will put on [•]sackcloth,
and horror will overwhelm them.
Shame will cover all [their] faces,
and all their heads will be bald.
- 19 They will throw their silver
into the streets,
and their gold will seem like something filthy.
Their silver and gold will be unable
to save them
in the day of the LORD's wrath.
They will not satisfy their appetites
or fill their stomachs,
for these were the stumbling blocks
that brought about their iniquity.
- 20 He appointed His beautiful ornaments
for majesty,
but^c they made their abhorrent images
from them,
their detestable things.
Therefore, I have made these into something filthy for them.
- 21 I will hand these things over to foreigners as plunder
and to the wicked of the earth as spoil,
and they will profane them.
- 22 I will turn My face from the wicked
as they profane My treasured place.
Violent men will enter it and profane it.
- 23 Forge the chain,
for the land is filled with crimes
of bloodshed,
and the city is filled with violence.
- 24 So I will bring the most evil of nations
to take possession of their houses.
I will put an end to the pride
of the strong,
and their sacred places will be profaned.
- 25 Anguish is coming!
They will seek peace,
but there will be none.
- 26 Disaster after disaster will come,
and there will be rumor after rumor.
Then they will seek a vision
from a prophet,
but instruction will perish from the priests
and counsel from the elders.
- 27 The king will mourn;

I will deal with them according to their own conduct,
and I will judge them
by their own standards.

Then they will know that I am the LORD.

Visionary Journey to Jerusalem

8 In the sixth year, in the sixth [month], on the fifth [day] of the month, I was sitting in my house and the elders of Judah were sitting in front of me, and there the hand of the Lord GOD came down on me. ²I looked, and there was a form that had the appearance of a man.^a From what seemed to be His waist down was fire, and from His waist up was something that looked bright, like the gleam of amber. ³He stretched out what appeared to be a hand and took me by the hair of my head. Then the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven and carried me in visions of God to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the inner gate that faces north, where the offensive statue that provokes jealousy was located. ⁴I saw the glory of the God of Israel there, like the vision I had seen in the plain.

Pagan Practices in the Temple

⁵The LORD said to me, “Son of man, look toward the north.” I looked to the north, and there was this offensive statue north of the altar gate, at the entrance. ⁶He said to me, “Son of man, do you see what they are doing, the great abominations that the house of Israel is committing here, so that I must depart from My sanctuary? You will see even greater abominations.”

⁷Then He brought me to the entrance of the court, and when I looked there was a hole in the wall. ⁸He said to me, “Son of man, dig through the wall.” So I dug through the wall, and there was a doorway. ⁹He said to me, “Go in and see the terrible abominations they are committing here.” ¹⁰I went in and looked, and there engraved all around the wall was every form of detestable thing, crawling creatures and beasts, as well as all the idols of the house of Israel.

¹¹Seventy elders from the house of Israel were standing before them, with Jaazaniah son of Shaphan standing among them. Each had an incense burner in his hand, and a fragrant cloud of incense was rising up. ¹²Then He said to me, “Son of man, do you see what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the darkness, each at the shrine of his idol? For they are saying: The LORD does not see us. The LORD has abandoned the land.” ¹³Again He said to me, “You will see even greater abominations, which they are committing.”

¹⁴So He brought me to the entrance of the north gate of the LORD’s house, and I saw women sitting there weeping for Tammuz. ¹⁵And He said to me, “Do you see [this], son of man? You will see even greater abominations than these.”

¹⁶So He brought me to the inner court of the LORD’s house, and there were about 25 men at the entrance of the LORD’s temple, between the portico and the altar, with their backs to the LORD’s temple and their faces [turned] to the east. They were bowing to the east in worship of the sun. ¹⁷And He said to me, “Do you see [this], son of man? Is it not enough for the house of Judah to commit the abominations they are practicing here, that they must also fill the land with violence and repeatedly provoke Me to anger, even putting the branch to their nose?^b ¹⁸Therefore I will respond with wrath. I will not show pity or spare [them]. Though they cry out in My ears with a loud voice, I will not listen to them.”

Vision of Slaughter in Jerusalem

9 Then He called to me directly with a loud voice, “Come near, executioners of the city, each [of you] with a destructive weapon in his hand.” ²And I saw six men coming from the direction of the Upper Gate, which faces north, each with a war club in his hand. There was another man among them, clothed in linen, with writing equipment at his side. They came and stood beside the bronze altar.

³Then the glory of the God of Israel rose from above the •cherubim where it had been, to the threshold of the temple. He called to the man clothed in linen with the writing equipment at his side. ⁴“Pass throughout the city of Jerusalem,” the LORD said to him, “and put a mark on the foreheads of the men who sigh and groan over all the abominations committed in it.”

⁵To the others He said in my hearing, “Pass through the city after him and start killing; do not show pity or spare [them]! ⁶Slaughter the old men, the young men and women, as well as the [older] women and little children, but do not come near anyone who has the mark. Now begin at My sanctuary.” So they began with the elders who were in front of the temple. ⁷ Then He said to them, “Defile the temple and fill the courts with the slain. Go!” So they went out killing [people] in the city.

⁸ While they were killing, I was left alone. And I fell facedown and cried out, “Ah, Lord GOD! Are You going to destroy the entire remnant of Israel when You pour out Your wrath on Jerusalem?”

⁹ He answered me: “The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is extremely great; the land is full of bloodshed, and the city full of perversity. For they say: The LORD has abandoned the land; He does not see. ¹⁰ But as for Me, I will not show pity or spare [them]. I will bring their actions down on their own heads.” ¹¹ Then the man clothed in linen with the writing equipment at his side reported back, “I have done as You commanded me.”

God's Glory Leaves the Temple

10 Then I looked, and there above the expanse over the heads of the •cherubim was something like sapphire^a stone resembling the shape of a throne that appeared above them. ² The LORD spoke to the man clothed in linen and said, “Go inside the wheelwork beneath the cherubim. Fill your hands with hot coals from among the cherubim and scatter [them] over the city.” So he went in as I watched.

³ Now the cherubim were standing to the south of the temple when the man went in, and the cloud filled the inner court. ⁴ Then the glory of the LORD rose from above the cherubim to the threshold of the temple. The temple was filled with the cloud, and the court was filled with the brightness of the LORD's glory. ⁵ The sound of the cherubim's wings could be heard as far as the outer court; it was like the voice of •God Almighty when He speaks.

⁹ I looked, and there were four wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside each cherub.

The luster of the wheels was like the gleam of beryl. ¹⁰ In appearance, all four had the same form, like a wheel within a wheel. ¹¹ When they moved, they would go in any of the four directions, without pivoting as they moved. But wherever the head faced, they would go in that direction,^b without pivoting as they went. ¹² Their entire bodies, including their backs, hands, wings, and the wheels that the four of them had, were full of eyes all around. ¹³ As I listened the wheels were called “the wheelwork.” ¹⁴ Each one had four faces: the first face was that of a cherub, the second that of a man, the third that of a lion, and the fourth that of an eagle.

¹⁵ The cherubim ascended; these were the living creatures I had seen by the Chebar Canal. ¹⁶ When the cherubim moved, the wheels moved beside them, and when they lifted their wings to rise from the earth, even then the wheels did not veer away from them. ¹⁷ When the cherubim stood still, the wheels stood still, and when they ascended, the wheels ascended with them, for the spirit of the living creatures was in them.

²⁰ These were the living creatures I had seen beneath the God of Israel by the Chebar Canal, and I recognized that they were cherubim. ²¹ Each had four faces and each had four wings, with the form of human hands under their wings. ²² Their faces looked like the same faces I had seen by the Chebar Canal. Each creature went straight ahead.

Vision of Israel's Corrupt Leaders

11 The Spirit then lifted me up and brought me to the eastern gate of the LORD's house, which faces east, and at the gate's entrance were 25 men. Among them I saw Jaazaniah son of Azzur, and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, leaders of the people. ² The LORD said to me, “Son of man, these are the men who plan evil and give wicked advice in this city. ³ They are saying: Isn't the time near to build houses?^c The city is the pot, and we are the meat. ⁴ Therefore, prophesy against them. Prophesy, son of man!”

^a10:1 Or lapis lazuli ^b10:11 Lit go after it ^c11:3 Or The time is not near to build houses.

⁵ Then the Spirit of the LORD came on me, and He told me, “You are to say: This is what the LORD says: That is what you are thinking, house of Israel; and I know the thoughts that arise in your mind. ⁶ You have multiplied your slain in this city, filling its streets with the dead.

⁷ “Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: The slain you have put within it are the meat, and the city is the pot, but I^a will remove you from it. ⁸ You fear the sword, so I will bring the sword against you.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD. ⁹ “I will bring you out of the city and hand you over to foreigners; I will execute judgments against you. ¹⁰ You will fall by the sword, and I will judge you at the border of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD. ¹¹ The city will not be a pot for you, and you will not be the meat within it. I will judge you at the border of Israel, ¹² so you will know that I am the LORD, whose statutes you have not followed and whose ordinances you have not practiced. Instead, you have acted according to the ordinances of the nations around you.”

¹³ Now while I was prophesying, Pelatiah son of Benaiah died. Then I fell facedown and cried out with a loud voice: “Ah, Lord GOD! Will You bring to an end the remnant of Israel?”

Promise of Israel's Restoration

¹⁴ The word of the LORD came to me again: ¹⁵ “Son of man, your own relatives, those who have the right to redeem you,^{b c} and the entire house of Israel, all of them, are those the residents of Jerusalem have said this to: Stay away from the LORD; this land has been given to us as a possession.

¹⁷ “Therefore say: This is what the Lord GOD says: I will gather you from the peoples and assemble you from the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

¹⁸ “When they arrive there, they will remove all its detestable things and all its abominations from it. ¹⁹ And I will give them one heart and put a new spirit within them; I will remove their heart of stone from their bodies^d and give them a heart of flesh, ²⁰ so they may follow My statutes, keep My ordinances, and practice them. Then they will be My people, and I will be their God. ²¹ But as for those whose hearts pursue their desire for detestable things and abominations, I will bring their actions down on their own heads.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

God's Glory Leaves Jerusalem

²² Then the •cherubim, with the wheels beside them, lifted their wings, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them. ²³ The glory of the LORD rose up from within the city and stood on the mountain east of the city.^e ²⁴ The Spirit lifted me up and brought me to Chaldea and to the exiles in a vision from the Spirit of God. After the vision I had seen left me, ²⁵ I spoke to the exiles about all the things the LORD had shown me.

Ezekiel Dramatizes the Exile

12 The word of the LORD came to me: ² “Son of man, you are living among a rebellious house. They have eyes to see but do not see, and ears to hear but do not hear, for they are a rebellious house.

³ “Son of man, pack your bags for exile and go into exile in their sight during the day. You will go into exile from your place to another place while they watch; perhaps they will understand, though they are a rebellious house. ⁴ During the day, bring out your bags like an exile's bags while they look on. Then in the evening go out in their sight like those going into exile. ⁵ As they watch, dig through the wall and take the [bags] out through it. ⁶ And while they look on, lift [the bags] to [your] shoulder and take [them] out in the dark; cover your face so that you cannot see the land. For I have made you a sign to the house of Israel.”

⁸ Then the word of the LORD came to me in the morning: ⁹ “Son of man, hasn't the house of Israel, that rebellious house, asked you: What are you doing? ¹⁰ Say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: This •oracle is about the prince^f in Jerusalem and all the house of Israel who are living there.^g ¹¹ You are to say: I am a sign for you. Just as I have done, so it will be done to them; they will go into exile, into captivity. ¹² The prince who is among them will lift [his bags] to his shoulder in the dark and go out. They^a will dig through the wall to bring [him] out through it. He will cover his face so he cannot see the land with his eyes. ¹³ But I will spread My net over him, and he will be caught in My snare. I will bring him to Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans, yet he will not see it, and he will die there. ¹⁴ I will also scatter all the attendants who surround him and all his troops to every direction of the wind, and I will draw a sword [to chase] after them. ¹⁵ They will know that I am the LORD when I disperse them among the nations and scatter them among the countries. ¹⁶ But I will spare a few of them from the sword, famine, and plague so they can tell about all their abominations among the nations where they go. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel Dramatizes Israel's Anxiety

¹⁷ The word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁸ “Son of man, eat your bread with trembling and drink your water with shaking and anxiety. ¹⁹ Then say to the people of the land: This is what the Lord GOD says about the residents of Jerusalem in the land of Israel: They will eat their bread with anxiety and drink their water in dread, for their^b land will be stripped of everything in it because of the violence of all who live there. ²⁰ The inhabited cities will be destroyed, and the land will become a desolation. Then you will know that I am the LORD.”

A Deceptive Proverb Stopped

²¹ Again the word of the LORD came to me: ²² “Son of man, what is this proverb you [people] have about the land of Israel, which goes:

The days keep passing by,
and every vision fails?

²³ Therefore say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: I will put a stop to this proverb, and they will not use it again in Israel. But say to them: The days draw near, as well as the fulfillment of every vision. ²⁴ For there will no longer be any false vision or flattering •divination within the house of Israel. ²⁵ But I, the LORD, will speak whatever message I will speak, and it will be done. It will no longer be delayed. For in your days, rebellious house, I will speak a message and bring it to pass.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

²⁶ The word of the LORD came to me: ²⁷ “Son of man, notice that the house of Israel is saying: The vision that he sees concerns many years [from now]; he prophesies about distant times. ²⁸ Therefore say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: None of My words will be delayed any longer. The message I speak will be fulfilled.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

Israel's False Prophets Condemned

13 The word of the LORD came to me: ² “Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who are prophesying. Say to those who prophesy out of their own imagination: Hear the word of the LORD! ³ This is what the Lord GOD says: Woe to the foolish prophets who follow their own spirit and have seen nothing. ⁴ Your prophets, Israel, are like jackals among ruins. ⁵ You did not go up to the gaps or restore the wall around the house of Israel so that it might stand in battle on the day of the LORD. ⁶ They see false visions and speak lying •divinations. They claim: [This is] the LORD's declaration, when the LORD did not send them, yet they wait for the fulfillment of [their] message. ⁷ Didn't you see a false vision and speak a lying divination when you proclaimed: [This is] the LORD's declaration, even though I had not spoken?

⁸ “Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: I am against you because you have spoken falsely and had lying visions.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD. ⁹ “My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and speak lying divinations. They will not be present in the fellowship of My people or be recorded in the register of the house of Israel, and they will not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord GOD.

¹⁰ “Since they have led My people astray saying: Peace, when there is no peace, for when someone builds a wall they plaster it with whitewash, ¹¹ therefore, tell those who plaster [it] that it will fall. Torrential rain will come, and I will send hailstones plunging^c down, and a windstorm will be released. ¹² Now when the wall has fallen, will you not be asked: Where is the coat of whitewash that you put on [it]?

¹³ “So this is what the Lord GOD says: I will release a windstorm in My wrath. Torrential rain will come in My anger, and hailstones [will fall]

in destructive fury. ¹⁴ I will tear down the wall you plastered with whitewash and knock it to the ground so that its foundation is exposed. The city will fall, and you will be destroyed within it. Then you will know that I am the LORD. ¹⁵ After I exhaust My wrath against the wall and against those who plaster it with whitewash, I will say to you: The wall is no more and neither are those who plastered it— ¹⁶ those prophets of Israel who prophesied to Jerusalem and saw a vision of peace for her when there was no peace.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

¹⁷ “Now, son of man, turn^a toward the women of your people who prophesy out of their own imagination. Prophesy against them ¹⁸ and say: This is what the Lord GOD says: Woe to the women who sew [magic] bands on the wrist of every hand and who make veils for the heads of people of every height in order to ensnare lives. Will you ensnare the lives of My people but preserve your own? ¹⁹ You profane Me in front of My people for handfuls of barley and scraps of bread; you kill those who should not die and spare those who should not live, when you lie to My people, who listen to lies.

²⁰ “Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: I am against your [magic] bands that you ensnare people with like birds, and I will tear them from your arms. I will free the people you have ensnared like birds. ²¹ I will also tear off your veils and deliver My people from your hands, so that they will no longer be prey in your hands. Then you will know that I am the LORD. ²² Because you have disheartened the righteous person with lies, even though I have not caused him grief, and because you have encouraged the wicked person not to turn from his evil way to save his life, ²³ therefore you will no longer see false visions or practice divination. I will deliver My people from your hands. Then you will know that I am the LORD.”

Idoltrous Elders Punished

14 Some of the elders of Israel came to me and sat down in front of me. ² Then the word of the LORD came to me: ³ “Son of man, these men have set up idols in their hearts and have put sinful stumbling blocks before their faces. Should I be consulted by them at all?

⁴ “Therefore, speak to them and tell them: This is what the Lord GOD says: When anyone from the house of Israel sets up idols in his heart, puts a sinful stumbling block before his face, and then comes to the prophet, I, the LORD, will answer him appropriately.^b [I will answer him] according to his many idols, ⁵ so that I may take hold of the house of Israel by their hearts, because they are all estranged from Me by their idols.

⁶ “Therefore, say to the house of Israel: This is what the Lord GOD says: Repent and turn away from your idols; turn your faces away from all your abominations. ⁷ For when anyone from the house of Israel or from the foreigners who reside in Israel separates himself from Me, setting up idols in his heart and putting a sinful stumbling block before his face, and then comes to the prophet to inquire of Me,^c I, the LORD, will answer him Myself. ⁸ I will turn against that one and make him a sign and a proverb; I will cut him off from among My people. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

⁹ “But if the prophet is deceived and speaks a message, it was I, the LORD, who deceived that prophet. I will stretch out My hand against him and destroy him from among My people Israel. ¹⁰ They will bear their punishment—the punishment of the one who inquires will be the same as that of the prophet— ¹¹ in order that the house of Israel may no longer stray from following Me and no longer defile themselves with all their transgressions. Then they will be My people and I will be their God.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

Four Devastating Judgments

¹² The word of the LORD came to me: ¹³ “Son of man, if a land sins against Me by acting faithlessly, and I stretch out My hand against it to cut off its supply of bread, to send famine through it, and to wipe out [both] man and animal from it, ¹⁴ even [if] these three men—Noah, Daniel, and Job—were in it, they would deliver [only] themselves by their righteousness.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

¹⁵ “If I allow dangerous animals to pass through the land and depopulate it so that it becomes desolate, with no one passing through [it] for [fear of] the animals, ¹⁶ even [if] these three men were in it, as I live”—the declaration of the Lord GOD—“they could not deliver [their] sons or daughters. They alone would be delivered, but the land would be desolate.

¹⁷ “Or if I bring a sword against that land and say: Let a sword pass through it, so that I wipe out [both] man and animal from it, ¹⁸ even [if]

^a13:17 Lit set your face ^b14:4 Alt Hb tradition reads him who comes ^c14:7 Lit Me for himself

these three men were in it, as I live”—the declaration of the Lord GOD—“they could not deliver [their] sons or daughters, but they alone would be delivered.

¹⁹ “Or if I send a plague into that land and pour out My wrath on it with bloodshed to wipe out [both] man and animal from it, ²⁰ even [if] Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as I live”—the declaration of the Lord GOD—“they could not deliver [their] son or daughter. They would deliver [only] themselves by their righteousness.

²¹ “For this is what the Lord GOD says: How much worse will it be when I send My four devastating judgments against Jerusalem—sword, famine, dangerous animals, and plague—in order to wipe out [both] man and animal from it! ²² Even so, there will be survivors left in it, sons and daughters who will be brought out. Indeed, they will come out to you, and you will observe their conduct and actions. Then you will be consoled about the devastation I have brought on Jerusalem, about all I have brought on it. ²³ They will bring you consolation when you see their conduct and actions, and you will know that it was not without cause that I have done what I did to it.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

Parable of the Useless Vine

15 Then the word of the LORD came to me: ² “Son of man, how does the wood of the vine, that branch among the trees of the forest, compare to any other wood? ³ Can wood be taken from it to make something useful? Or can anyone make a peg from it to hang things on? ⁴ In fact, it is put into the fire as fuel. The fire devours both of its ends, and the middle is charred. Can it be useful for anything? ⁵ Even when it was whole it could not be made into a useful object. How much less can it ever be made into anything useful when the fire has devoured it and it is charred!

⁶ “Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: Like the wood of the vine among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire as fuel, so I will give up the residents of Jerusalem. ⁷ I will turn against them. They may have escaped from the fire, but it will [still] consume them. And you will know that I am the LORD when I turn against them. ⁸ I will make the land desolate because they have acted unfaithfully.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

Parable of God's Adulterous Wife

16 The word of the LORD came to me again: ² “Son of man, explain Jerusalem’s abominations to her. ³ You are to say: This is what the Lord GOD says to Jerusalem: Your origin and your birth were in the land of the Canaanites. Your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite. ⁴ As for your birth, your umbilical cord wasn’t cut on the day you were born, and you weren’t washed clean^a with water. You were not rubbed with salt or wrapped in cloths. ⁵ No one cared [enough] about you to do even one of these things out of compassion for you. But you were thrown out into the open field because you were despised on the day you were born.

⁶ “I passed by you and saw you lying in your blood, and I said to you [as you lay] in your blood: Live! Yes, I said to you [as you lay] in your blood: Live!^b ⁷ I made you thrive^c like plants of the field. You grew up and matured and became very beautiful.^d Your breasts were formed and your hair grew, but you were stark naked.

⁸ “Then I passed by you and saw you, and you were indeed at the age for love. So I spread the edge of My garment over you and covered your nakedness. I pledged Myself to you, entered into a covenant with you, and you became Mine.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD. ⁹ “I washed you with water, rinsed off your blood, and anointed you with oil. ¹⁰ I clothed you in embroidered cloth and provided you with leather sandals. I also wrapped you in fine linen and covered you with silk. ¹¹ I adorned you with jewelry, putting bracelets on your wrists and a chain around your neck. ¹² I put a ring in your nose, earrings on your ears, and a beautiful tiara on your head. ¹³ So you were adorned with gold and silver, and your clothing was [made] of fine linen, silk, and embroidered cloth. You ate fine flour, honey, and oil. You became extremely beautiful and attained royalty. ¹⁴ Your fame spread among the nations because of your beauty, for it was perfect through My splendor, which I had bestowed on you.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

¹⁵ “But you were confident in your beauty and acted like a prostitute because of your fame. You lavished your sexual favors on everyone who passed by. Your beauty became his.^a ¹⁶ You took some of your garments and made colorful •high places for yourself, and you engaged in prostitution on them. These places should not ^a16:4,15 Hb obscure ^b16:6 Some Hb mss, LXX, Syr omit Yes, I said to you [as you lay] in your blood: Live!

^c16:7 LXX reads Thrive; I made you ^d16:7 Or matured and developed the loveliest of ornaments have been built, and this should never have happened!^a ¹⁷ You also took your beautiful jewelry made from the gold and silver I had given you, and you made male images so that you could engage in prostitution with them. ¹⁸ Then you took your embroidered garments to cover them, and set My oil and incense before them. ¹⁹ You also set before them as a pleasing aroma the food I gave you—the fine flour, oil, and honey that I fed you. That is what happened.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

²⁰ “You even took your sons and daughters you bore to Me and sacrificed them to these images as food. Wasn’t your prostitution enough? ²¹ You slaughtered My children and gave them up when you passed them through [the fire] to the images. ²² In all your abominations and acts of prostitution, you did not remember the days of your youth when you were stark naked and lying in your blood.

²³ “Then after all your evil—Woe, woe to you!”—the declaration of the Lord GOD—²⁴ “you built yourself a mound and made yourself an elevated place in every square. ²⁵ You built your elevated place at the head of every street and turned your beauty into an abomination. You spread your legs to everyone who passed by and increased your prostitution. ²⁶ You engaged in promiscuous acts with Egyptian men, your well-endowed neighbors, and increased your prostitution to provoke Me to anger.

²⁷ “Therefore, I stretched out My hand against you and reduced your provisions. I gave you over to the desire of those who hate you, the Philistine women, who were embarrassed by your indecent behavior. ²⁸ Then you engaged in prostitution with the Assyrian men because you were not satisfied. Even though you did this with them, you were still not satisfied. ²⁹ So you extended your prostitution to Chaldea, the land of merchants, but you were not even satisfied with this!

³⁰ “How your heart was inflamed [with lust]—the declaration of the Lord GOD—“when you did all these things, the acts of a brazen prostitute, ³¹ building your mound at the head of every street and making your elevated place in every square. But you were unlike a prostitute because you scorned payment. ³² You adulterous wife, who receives strangers instead of her husband! ³³ Men give gifts to all prostitutes, but you gave gifts to all your lovers. You bribed them to come to you from all around for your sexual favors. ³⁴ So you were the opposite of other women in your acts of prostitution; no one solicited you. When you paid a fee instead of one being paid to you, you were the opposite.

³⁵ “Therefore, you prostitute, hear the word of the LORD! ³⁶ This is what the Lord GOD says: Because your lust was poured out and your nakedness exposed by your acts of prostitution with your lovers, and because of all your detestable idols and the blood of your children that you gave to them, ³⁷ I am therefore going to gather all the lovers you pleased—all those you loved as well as all those you hated. I will gather them against you from all around and expose your nakedness to them so they see you completely naked. ³⁸ I will judge you the way adulteresses and those who shed blood are judged. Then I will bring about your bloodshed in wrath and jealousy. ³⁹ I will hand you over to them, and they will level your mounds and tear down your elevated places. They will strip off your clothes, take your beautiful jewelry, and leave you stark naked. ⁴⁰ They will bring a mob against you to stone you and cut you to pieces with their swords. ⁴¹ Then they will burn down your houses and execute judgments against you in the sight of many women. I will stop you from being a prostitute, and you will never again pay fees for lovers. ⁴² So I will satisfy My wrath against you, and My jealousy will turn away from you. Then I will be silent and no longer angry. ⁴³ Because you did not remember the days of your youth but enraged Me with all these things, I will also bring your actions down on your own head.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD. “Haven’t you committed immoral acts in addition to all your abominations?

⁴⁴ “Look, everyone who uses proverbs will say this proverb about you:

Like mother, like daughter.

⁴⁵ You are the daughter of your mother, who despised her husband and children. You are the sister of your sisters, who despised their husbands and children. Your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite. ⁴⁶ Your older sister was Samaria, who lived with her daughters to the north of you, and your younger sister was Sodom, who lived with her daughters to the south of you. ⁴⁷ Didn’t you walk in their ways and practice their abominations? It was only a short time before you behaved more corruptly than they did.^b

48 “As I live”—the declaration of the Lord GOD—“your sister Sodom and her daughters have not behaved as you and your daughters have. 49 Now this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: she and her daughters had pride, plenty of food, and comfortable security, but didn’t support the poor and needy. 50 They were haughty and did detestable things before Me, so I removed them when I saw [this].^a 51 But Samaria did not commit [even] half your sins. You have multiplied your abominations beyond theirs and made your sisters appear righteous by all the abominations you have committed. 52 You must also bear your disgrace, since you have been an advocate for your sisters. For they appear more righteous than you because of your sins, which you committed more abhorrently than they [did]. So you also, be ashamed and bear your disgrace, since you have made your sisters appear righteous.

53 “I will restore their fortunes, the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters and those of Samaria and her daughters. I will also restore^b your fortunes among them, 54 so you will bear your disgrace and be ashamed of all you did when you comforted them. 55 As for your sisters, Sodom and her daughters and Samaria and her daughters will return to their former state. You and your daughters will also return to your former state. 56 Didn’t you treat your sister Sodom as an object of scorn when you were proud, 57 before your wickedness was exposed? It was like the time you were scorned by the daughters of Aram^c and all those around her, and by the daughters of the Philistines—those who treated you with contempt from every side. 58 You yourself must bear the consequences of your indecency and abominations”—the LORD’s declaration.

59 “For this is what the Lord GOD says: I will deal with you according to what you have done, since you have despised the oath by breaking the covenant. 60 But I will remember the covenant I made with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you. 61 Then you will remember your ways and be ashamed when you^d receive your older and younger sisters. I will give them to you as daughters, but not because of your covenant. 62 I will establish My covenant with you, and you will know that I am the LORD, 63 so that when I make •atonement for all you have done, you will remember and be ashamed, and never open your mouth again because of your disgrace.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

Parable of the Eagles

17 The word of the LORD came to me: 2 “Son of man, pose a riddle and speak a parable to the house of Israel. 3 You are to say: This is what the Lord GOD says:

A great eagle with great wings,
long pinions,
and full plumage of many colors
came to Lebanon and took the top of the cedar.

- 4 He plucked off its topmost shoot,
brought it to the land of merchants,
and set it in a city of traders.
- 5 Then he took some of the land’s seed
and put it in a fertile field;
he set it [like] a willow,
a plant^e by abundant waters.
- 6 It sprouted and became a spreading vine,
low in height with its branches turned toward him,
yet its roots stayed under it.
So it became a vine,
produced branches,
and sent forth shoots.

- 7 But there was another great eagle
with great wings and thick plumage.
And this vine bent its roots toward him!
It stretched out its branches to him
from its planting bed,
so that he might water it.
- 8 It had been planted
in a good field by abundant waters
in order to produce branches,
bear fruit, and become a splendid vine.

9 You are to say: This is what the Lord GOD says:

Will it flourish?
Will he not tear out its roots and strip off its fruit
so that it shrivels?
All its fresh leaves will wither!
Great strength and many people will not be needed to pull it from its roots.

- 10 Even though it is planted, will it flourish?
Won’t it completely wither
when the east wind strikes it?
It will wither on the bed
where it sprouted.”

^a16:50 Or them as you have seen ^b16:53 LXX, Vg; MT reads Samaria and her daughters and the fortunes of

¹¹ The word of the LORD came to me: ¹² “Now say to that rebellious house: Don’t you know what these things mean? Tell [them]: The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, took its king and officials, and brought them back with him to Babylon.

¹⁶ “As I live”—[this is] the declaration of the Lord GOD—“he will die in Babylon, in the land of the king who put him on the throne, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke. ¹⁷ Pharaoh will not help him with [his] great army and vast horde in battle, when ramps are built and siege walls constructed to destroy many lives. ¹⁸ He despised the oath by breaking the covenant. He did all these things even though he gave his hand [in pledge]. He will not escape!”

¹⁹ Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: “As I live, I will bring down on his head My oath that he despised and My covenant that he broke. ²⁰ I will spread My net over him, and he will be captured in My snare. I will bring him to Babylon and execute judgment on him there for the treachery he committed against Me. ²¹ All the fugitives^a among his troops will fall by the sword, and those who survive will be scattered to every direction of the wind. Then you will know that I, •Yahweh, have spoken.”

²² This is what the Lord GOD says:

I will take [a sprig]
from the lofty top of the cedar and plant [it].

I will pluck a tender sprig
from its topmost shoots, and I will plant [it]
on a high towering mountain.

²³ I will plant it on Israel’s high mountain
so that it may bear branches, produce fruit,
and become a majestic cedar.
Birds of every kind will nest under it,
taking shelter in the shade of its branches.

²⁴ Then all the trees of the field will know that I am the LORD.
I bring down the tall tree,

and make the low tree tall.
I cause the green tree to wither
and make the withered tree thrive.
I, Yahweh, have spoken
and I will do [it].

Personal Responsibility for Sin

18 The word of the LORD came to me: ² “What do you mean by using this proverb concerning the land of Israel:

The fathers eat sour grapes,
and the children’s teeth are set on edge?

³ As I live”—[this is] the declaration of the Lord GOD—“you will no longer use this proverb in Israel. ⁴ Look, every life belongs to Me. The life of the father is like the life of the son—both belong to Me. The person who sins is the one who will die.

¹⁰ “Now suppose the man has a violent son, who sheds blood and does any of these [things], ¹¹ though the father has done none of them. Indeed, when the son eats at the mountain [shrines] and defiles his neighbor’s wife, ¹² and [when] he oppresses the poor and needy, commits robbery, and does not return collateral, and [when] he raises his eyes to the idols, commits abominations, ¹³ and lends at interest or for profit, will he live? He will not live! Since he has committed all these abominations, he will certainly die. His blood will be on him.

¹⁴ “Now suppose he has a son who sees all the sins his father has committed, and though he sees them, he does not do likewise. ¹⁵ He does not eat at the mountain [shrines] or raise his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel. He does not defile his neighbor’s wife. ¹⁶ He doesn’t oppress anyone, hold collateral, or commit robbery. He gives his bread to the hungry and covers the naked with clothing. ¹⁷ He keeps his hand from [harming] the poor, not taking interest or profit [on a loan]. He practices My ordinances and follows My statutes. Such a person will not die for his father's iniquity. He will certainly live.

¹⁸ "As for his father, he will die for his own iniquity because he practiced fraud, robbed [his] brother, and did what was wrong among his people. ¹⁹ But you may ask: Why doesn't the son suffer punishment for the father's iniquity? Since the son has done what is just and right, carefully observing all My statutes, he will certainly live. ²⁰ The person who sins is the one who will die. A son won't suffer punishment for the father's iniquity, and a father won't suffer punishment for the son's iniquity. The righteousness of the righteous person will be on him, and the wickedness of the wicked person will be on him.

²¹ "Now if the wicked person turns from all the sins he has committed, keeps all My statutes, and does what is just and right, he will certainly live; he will not die. ²² None of the transgressions he has committed will be held against him. He will live because of the righteousness he has practiced. ²³ Do I take any pleasure in the death of the wicked?" [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD. "Instead, don't I [take pleasure] when he turns from his ways and lives? ²⁴ But when a righteous person turns from his righteousness and practices iniquity, committing the same abominations that the wicked do, will he live? None of the righteous acts he did will be remembered. He will die because of the treachery he has engaged in and the sin he has committed.

²⁵ "But you say: The Lord's way isn't fair. Now listen, house of Israel: Is it My way that is unfair? Instead, isn't it your ways that are unfair? ²⁶ When a righteous person turns from his righteousness and practices iniquity, he will die for this. He will die because of the iniquity he has practiced. ²⁷ But if a wicked person turns from the wickedness he has committed and does what is just and right, he will preserve his life. ²⁸ He will certainly live because he thought it over and turned from all the transgressions he had committed; he will not die. ²⁹ But the house of Israel says: The Lord's way isn't fair. Is it My ways that are unfair, house of Israel? Instead, isn't it your ways that are unfair?

³⁰ "Therefore, house of Israel, I will judge each one of you according to his ways." [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD. "Repent and turn from all your transgressions, so they will not be a stumbling block that causes your punishment. ³¹ Throw off all the transgressions you have committed, and make yourselves a new heart and a new spirit. Why should you die, house of Israel? ³² For I take no pleasure in anyone's death." [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD. "So repent and live!

A Lament for Israel's Princes

19 "Now, lament for the princes of Israel ² and say:

What was your mother? A lioness!
She lay down among the lions;
she reared her cubs
among the young lions.

³ She brought up one of her cubs,
and he became a young lion.

After he learned to tear prey,
he devoured people.

⁴ When the nations heard about him,
he was caught in their pit.
Then they led him away with hooks
to the land of Egypt.

⁵ When she saw that she waited [in vain],
that her hope was lost,
she took another of her cubs
and made him a young lion.

⁶ He prowled among the lions,
and he became a young lion.
After he learned to tear prey,
he devoured people.

⁷ He devastated^a their strongholds
and destroyed their cities.
The land and everything in it shuddered
at the sound of his roaring.

⁸ Then the nations from the surrounding provinces
set out against him.
They spread their net over him;
he was caught in their pit.

⁹ They put a wooden yoke on him^b

They brought him into the fortresses
so his roar could no longer be heard

it was fruitful and full of branches lament.”

Israel's Rebellion

20 In the seventh year, in the fifth [month], on the tenth [day] of the month, some of Israel's elders came to consult the Lord, and they sat down in front of me. ² Then the word of the Lord came to me: ³ “Son of man, speak with the elders of Israel and tell them: This is what the Lord God says: Are you coming to consult Me?
As I live, I will not be consulted by you.” [This is]
the declaration of the Lord God.

⁴ “Will you pass judgment against them, will you pass judgment, son of man? Explain to them the abominations of their fathers. ⁵ Say to them:
This is what the Lord GOD says: On the day I chose Israel, I swore an oath^c to the descendants of Jacob's house and made Myself known to them in the land of Egypt. I swore to them, saying: I am the LORD your God. ⁶ On that day I swore^d to them that I would bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land I had searched out for them, [a land] flowing with milk and honey, the most beautiful of all lands. ⁷ I also said to them: Each of you must throw away the detestable things that are before your eyes and not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

⁸ “But they rebelled against Me and were unwilling to listen to Me. None of them threw away the detestable things that were before their eyes, and they did not forsake the idols of Egypt.

So I considered pouring out My wrath on them, exhausting My anger against them within the land of Egypt. ⁹ But I acted for the sake of My name, so that it would not be profaned in the eyes of the nations they were living among, in whose sight I had made Myself known to Israel
by bringing them out of Egypt.

¹⁰ “So I brought them out of the land of Egypt and led them into the wilderness. ¹¹ Then I gave them My statutes and explained My ordinances to them—the person who does them will live by them. ¹² I also gave them My Sabbaths to serve as a sign between Me and them, so they will know that I am the LORD who sets them apart as holy.

¹³ “But the house of Israel rebelled against Me in the wilderness. They did not follow My statutes and they rejected My ordinances—the person who does them will live by them. They also completely profaned My Sabbaths. So I considered pouring out My wrath on them in the wilderness to put an end to them. ¹⁴ But I acted because of My name, so that it would not be profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I had brought them out. ¹⁵ However, I swore^d to them in the wilderness that I would not bring them into the land I had given [them]—the most beautiful of all lands, flowing with milk and honey— ¹⁶ because they rejected My ordinances, profaned My Sabbaths, and did not follow My statutes. For their hearts went after their idols.
¹⁷ But I spared them from destruction and did not bring them to an end in the wilderness.

¹⁸ “Then I said to their children in the wilderness: Don't follow the statutes of your fathers, defile yourselves with their idols, or keep their ordinances. ¹⁹ I am the LORD your God. Follow My statutes, keep My ordinances, and practice them. ²⁰ Keep My Sabbaths holy, and they will be a sign between Me and you, so you may know that I am the LORD your God.

²¹ “But the children rebelled against Me. They did not follow My statutes or carefully keep My ordinances—the person who does them will live by them. They also profaned My Sabbaths. So I considered pouring out My wrath on them and exhausting My anger against them in the wilderness. ²² But I withheld My hand and acted
because of My name, so that it would not be pro-
faned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I brought them out. ²³ However, I swore^d to them in the wilderness that I would disperse them

^a19:11 Or thick foliage ^b19:14 Lit from the branch of its parts ^c20:5 Lit I lifted My hand ^d20:6,15,23 Lit lifted My hand

among the nations and scatter them among the countries. ²⁴ For they did not practice My ordinances but rejected My statutes and profaned My Sabbaths, and their eyes were fixed on their fathers' idols. ²⁵ I also gave them statutes that were not good and ordinances that did not bring them life. ²⁶ When they made every firstborn pass through [the fire], I defiled them through their gifts in order to devastate them so they would know that I am the LORD.

²⁷ "Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel, and tell them: This is what the Lord GOD says: In this way also your fathers blasphemed Me by committing treachery against Me: ²⁸ When I brought them into the land that I swore^a to give them and they saw any high hill or leafy tree, they offered their sacrifices and presented their offensive offerings there. They also sent up their pleasing aromas and poured out their drink offerings there. ²⁹ So I asked them: What is this •high place you are going to? And it is called High Place to this day.

³⁰ "Therefore say to the house of Israel: This is what the Lord GOD says: Are you defiling yourselves the way your fathers did, and prostituting yourselves with their detestable things? ³¹ When you offer your gifts, making your children pass through the fire, you continue to defile yourselves with all your idols to this day. So should I be consulted by you, house of Israel? As I live"—[this is] the declaration of the Lord GOD—"I will not be consulted by you!

Israel's Restoration

³² "When you say: Let us be like the nations, like the peoples of [other] countries, worshiping wood and stone, what you have in mind will never happen. ³³ As I live"—the declaration of the Lord GOD—"I will rule over you with a strong hand, an outstretched arm, and outpoured wrath. ³⁴ I will bring you from the peoples and gather you from the countries where you were scattered, with a strong hand, an outstretched arm, and outpoured wrath. ³⁵ I will lead you into the wilderness of the peoples and enter into judgment with you there face to face. ³⁶ Just as I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will enter into judgment with you." [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD. ³⁷ "I will make you pass under the rod and will bring you into the bond of the covenant. ³⁸ And I will also purge you of those who rebel and transgress against Me. I will bring them out of the land where they live as foreign residents, but they will not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

³⁹ "As for you, house of Israel, this is what the Lord GOD says: Go and serve your idols, each of you. But afterwards you will surely listen to Me, and you will no longer defile My holy name with your gifts and idols. ⁴⁰ For on My holy mountain, Israel's high mountain"—the declaration of the Lord GOD—"there the entire house of Israel, all of them, will serve Me in the land. There I will accept them and will require your contributions and choicest gifts, all your holy offerings. ⁴¹ When I bring you from the peoples and gather you from the countries where you have been scattered, I will accept you as a pleasing aroma. And I will demonstrate My holiness through you in the sight of the nations. ⁴² When I lead you into the land of Israel, the land I swore^a to give your fathers, you will know that I am the LORD. ⁴³ There you will remember your ways and all your deeds you have defiled yourselves with, and you will loathe yourselves for all the evil things you have done. ⁴⁴ You will know that I am the LORD, house of Israel, when I have dealt with you because of My name rather than according to your evil ways and corrupt acts." [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

Fire in the South

^{45b} The word of the LORD came to me: ⁴⁶ "Son of man, face the south and preach against it. Prophecy against the forest land in the •Negev, ⁴⁷ and say to the forest there: Hear the word of the LORD! This is what the Lord GOD says: I am about to ignite a fire in you, and it will devour every green tree and every dry tree in you. The blazing flame will not be extinguished, and every face from the south to the north will be scorched by it. ⁴⁸ Then all people will see that I, •Yahweh, have kindled it. It will not be extinguished."

⁴⁹ Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD, they are saying of me: Isn't he [just] posing riddles?"

God's Sword of Judgment

21^c The word of the LORD came to me again: ² "Son of man, turn your face toward Jerusalem and preach against the sanctuaries. Prophecy against the land of Israel, ³ and say to it: This is what the LORD says: I am against you. I will draw My sword from its sheath and cut off both the righteous and the wicked from you.

^a20:28,42 Lit lifted My hand ^b20:45 Ezk 21:1 in Hb ^c21:1 Ezk 21:6 in Hb

⁴ Since I will cut off^a [both] the righteous and the wicked, My sword will therefore come out of its sheath against everyone from the south to the north. ⁵ So all the people will know that I, the LORD, have taken My sword from its sheath—it will not be sheathed again.

⁶ “But you, son of man, groan! Groan bitterly with a broken heart^b right before their eyes. ⁷ And when they ask you: Why are you groaning? then say: Because of the news that is coming. Every heart will melt, and every hand will become weak. Every spirit will be discouraged, and every knee will turn to water. Yes, it is coming and it will happen.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

⁸ The word of the LORD came to me: ⁹ “Son of man, prophesy: This is what the Lord says! You are to proclaim:

A sword! A sword is sharpened and also polished.

¹⁰ It is sharpened for slaughter, polished to flash like lightning! Should we rejoice?

The scepter of My son, the sword despises every tree.^c

¹¹ The sword is given to be polished, to be grasped in the hand. It is sharpened, and it is polished, to be put in the hand of the slayer.

¹² Cry out and wail, son of man, for it is against My people. It is against all the princes of Israel! They are given over to the sword with My people.

Therefore strike [your] thigh [in grief].

¹³ Surely it will be a trial! And what if the sword despises even the scepter?

The scepter will not continue.^c

[This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

¹⁴ Therefore, son of man, prophesy and clap [your] hands together. Let the sword strike two times, even three. It is a sword for massacre, a sword for great massacre—it surrounds^d them!

¹⁵ I have appointed a sword for slaughter^c at all their gates, so that their hearts may melt and many may stumble.

Alas! It is ready to flash like lightning; it is drawn^e for slaughter.

¹⁶ Slash to the right; turn to the left—wherever your blade is directed.

¹⁷ I also will clap My hands together, and I will satisfy My wrath. I, the LORD, have spoken.”

¹⁸ Then the word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁹ “Now you, son of man, mark out two roads that the sword of Babylon’s king can take. Both of them should originate from the same land. And make a signpost at the fork in the road to [each] city. ²⁰ Mark out a road that the sword can take to Rabbah of the Ammonites and to Judah into fortified Jerusalem. ²¹ For the king of Babylon stands at the split in the road, at the fork of the two roads, to practice •divination: he shakes the arrows, consults the idols, and observes the liver. ²² The answer marked^e Jerusalem appears in his right hand, [indicating] that he should set up battering rams, give the order to^f slaughter, raise a battle cry, set battering rams against the gates, build a ramp, and construct a siege wall. ²³ It will seem like false divination in the eyes of those who have sworn an oath to the Babylonians, but it will draw attention to [their] guilt so that they will be captured.

²⁴ “Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: Because you have drawn attention to your guilt, exposing your transgressions, so that your sins are revealed in all your actions, since you have done this, you will be captured by them.

²⁵ And you, profane and wicked prince of Israel,^g the day has come for your punishment.”^h

²⁶ This is what the Lord GOD says:

Remove the turban, and take off the crown.

Things will not remain as they are;ⁱ exalt the lowly and bring down the exalted.

²⁷ A ruin, a ruin, I will make it a ruin! Yet this will not happen until He comes; I have given the judgment to Him.^j

28 “Now prophesy, son of man, and say: This is what the Lord GOD says concerning the Ammonites and their contempt. You are to proclaim:

Sword, sword!

[You are] drawn for slaughter,
polished to consume, to flash
like lightning.

29 While they offer false visions
and lying divinations about you,
[the time] has come to put you to the necks of the profane wicked ones;
the day has come
for your punishment.^a

30 Return [it] to its sheath!

I will judge you^b
in the place where you were created,
in the land of your origin.

31 I will pour out My indignation on you;
I will blow the fire of My fury on you.
I will hand you over to brutal men,
skilled at destruction.

32 You will be fuel for the fire.
Your blood will be [spilled] in the land.
You will not be remembered,
for I, the LORD, have spoken.”

Indictment of Sinful Jerusalem

22 The word of the LORD came to me: 2 “Now, son of man, will you pass judgment? Will you pass judgment against the city of blood? Then explain all her abominations to her. 3 You are to say: This is what the Lord GOD says: A city that sheds blood within her [walls] so that her time of judgment has come and who makes idols for herself so that she is defiled! 4 You are guilty of the blood you have shed, and you are defiled from the idols you have made. You have brought your [judgment] days near and have come to your years [of punishment]. Therefore, I have made you a disgrace to the nations and a mockery to all the lands. 5 Those who are near and those far away from you will mock you, you infamous one full of turmoil.

6 “Look, every prince of Israel within you has used his strength to shed blood. 7 Father and mother are treated with contempt, and the foreign resident is exploited within you. The fatherless and widow are oppressed in you. 8 You despise My holy things and profane My Sabbaths. 9 There are men within you who slander in order to shed blood. People who [live] in you eat at the mountain [shrines]; they commit immoral acts within you. 10 Men within you have sexual intercourse with [their] father's wife, and violate women during their menstrual impurity. 11 One man within you commits an abomination with his neighbor's wife; another wickedly defiles his daughter-in-law; and [yet] another violates his sister, his father's daughter. 12 People who [live] in you accept bribes in order to shed blood. You take interest and profit [on a loan] and brutally extort your neighbors. You have forgotten Me.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

13 “Now look, I clap My hands together against the unjust gain you have made and against the blood shed among you. 14 Will your courage endure or your hands be strong in the days when I deal with you? I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will act. 15 I will disperse you among the nations and scatter you among the countries; I will purge your uncleanness. 16 You^c will be profaned in the sight of the nations. Then you will know that I am the LORD.”

Jerusalem as God's Furnace

17 The word of the LORD came to me: 18 “Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to Me. All of them are copper, tin, iron, and lead inside the furnace; they are the dross of silver. 19 Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: Because all of you have become dross, I am about to gather you into Jerusalem. 20 Just as one gathers silver, copper, iron, lead, and tin into the furnace to blow fire on them and melt them, so I will gather [you] in My anger and wrath, put you [inside], and melt you. 21 Yes, I will gather you together and blow on you with the fire of My fury, and you will be melted within the city. 22 As silver is melted inside a furnace, so you will be melted inside the city. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have poured out My wrath on you.”

Indictment of a Sinful Land

23 The word of the LORD came to me: 24 “Son of man, say to her: You are a land that has not been cleansed, that has not received rain in the day of indignation. 25 The conspiracy of her prophets within her is^d like a roaring lion tearing [its] prey: they devour people, seize wealth and valuables, and multiply the widows within her. 26 Her priests do violence to My law and profane

^a21:29 Lit come in the time of the punishment of the end ^b21:30 = the Ammonites ^c22:16 One Hb ms, LXX, Syr, Vg read I ^d22:24–25 LXX reads indignation, ²⁵whose princes within her are

My holy things. They make no distinction between the holy and the common, and they do not explain the difference between the clean and the unclean. They disregard^a My Sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.

²⁷ “Her officials within her are like wolves tearing [their] prey, shedding blood, and destroying lives in order to get unjust gain. ²⁸ Her prophets plaster with whitewash for them by seeing false visions and lying •divinations, and they say: This is what the Lord GOD says, when the LORD has not spoken. ²⁹ The people of the land have practiced extortion and committed robbery. They have oppressed the poor and needy and unlawfully exploited the foreign resident. ³⁰ I searched for a man among them who would repair the wall and stand in the gap before Me on behalf of the land so that I might not destroy it, but I found no one. ³¹ So I have poured out My indignation on them and consumed them with the fire of My fury. I have brought their actions down on their own heads.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

The Two Immoral Sisters

23 The word of the LORD came to me again: ² “Son of man, there were two women, daughters of the same mother, ³ who acted like prostitutes in Egypt, behaving promiscuously in their youth. Their breasts were fondled there, and their virgin nipples caressed. ⁴ The older one was named Oholah,^b and her sister was Oholibah.^c They became Mine and gave birth to sons and daughters. As for their names, Oholah represents Samaria and Oholibah represents Jerusalem.

⁵ “Oholah acted like a prostitute even though she was Mine. She lusted after her lovers, the Assyrians: warriors ⁶ dressed in blue, governors and prefects, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding on steeds. ⁷ She offered her sexual favors to them; all of them were the elite of Assyria. She defiled herself with all those she lusted after and with all their idols. ⁸ She didn’t give up her promiscuity that began in Egypt, when men slept with her in her youth, caressed her virgin nipples, and poured out their lust on her. ⁹ Therefore, I handed her over to her lovers, the Assyrians she lusted for. ¹⁰ They exposed her nakedness, seized her sons and daughters, and killed her with the sword. Since they executed judgment against her, she became notorious among women.

¹¹ “Now her sister Oholibah saw [this], but she was [even] more depraved in her lust than Oholah, and made her promiscuous acts worse than those of her sister. ¹² She lusted after the Assyrians: governors and prefects, warriors splendidly dressed, horsemen riding on steeds, all of them desirable young men. ¹³ And I saw that she had defiled herself; both of them [had taken] the same path. ¹⁴ But she increased her promiscuity when she saw male figures carved on the wall, images of the Chaldeans, engraved in vermilion, ¹⁵ wearing belts on their waists and flowing turbans on their heads; all of them looked like officers, a depiction of the Babylonians in Chaldea, the land of their birth. ¹⁶ At the sight of them^d she lusted after them and sent messengers to them in Chaldea. ¹⁷ Then the Babylonians came to her, to the bed of love, and defiled her with their lust. But after she was defiled by them, she turned away from them in disgust. ¹⁸ When she flaunted her promiscuity and exposed her nakedness, I turned away from her in disgust just as I turned away from her sister. ¹⁹ Yet she multiplied her acts of promiscuity, remembering the days of her youth when she acted like a prostitute in the land of Egypt ²⁰ and lusted after their lovers, whose sexual members were like those of donkeys and whose emission was like that of stallions. ²¹ So you revisited the indecency of your youth, when the Egyptians caressed your nipples to enjoy your youthful breasts.

²² “Therefore Oholibah, this is what the Lord GOD says: I am going to incite your lovers against you, those you turned away from in disgust. I will bring them against you from every side: ²³ the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans; Pekod, Shoa, and Koa; and all the Assyrians with them—desirable young men, all of them governors and prefects, officers and administrators, all of them riding on horses. ²⁴ They will come against you with an alliance of nations and with weapons, chariots, and^e wagons. They will set themselves against you on every side with shields, bucklers, and helmets. I will delegate judgment to them, and they will judge you by their own standards. ²⁵ When I vent My jealous rage on you, they will deal with you in wrath. They will cut off your nose and ears, and your descendants will fall by the sword. They will seize your sons and daughters, and your descendants will be consumed by fire. ²⁶ They will strip off your clothes and take your beautiful jewelry. ²⁷ So I will put an end to your indecency and sexual immorality, which began in the land of Egypt, and you will not look longingly at them or remember Egypt any more.

²⁸ “For this is what the Lord GOD says: I am going to hand you over to those you hate, to those you turned away from in disgust. ²⁹ They will treat you with hatred, take all you have worked for, and leave you stark naked, so that the shame of your debauchery will be exposed, both your indecency and promiscuity. ³⁰ These things will be done to you because you acted like a prostitute with the nations, defiling yourself with their idols. ³¹ You have followed the path of your sister, so I will put her cup in your hand.”

³² This is what the Lord GOD says:

You will drink your sister's cup,
which is deep and wide.

You will be an object of^a ridicule
and scorn,
for it holds [so] much.

³³ You will be filled with drunkenness
and grief,
with a cup of devastation and desolation,
the cup of your sister Samaria.

³⁴ You will drink it and drain [it];
then you will gnaw its broken pieces,
and tear your breasts.
For I have spoken.

[This is] the declaration
of the Lord GOD.

³⁵ Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says: “Because you have forgotten Me and cast Me behind your back, you must bear the consequences of your indecency and promiscuity.”

³⁶ Then the LORD said to me: “Son of man, will you pass judgment against Oholah and Oholibah? Then declare their abominations to them. ³⁷ For they have committed adultery, and blood is on their hands; they have committed adultery with their idols. They have even made the children they bore to Me pass through [the fire] as food for the idols. ³⁸ They also did this to Me: they defiled My sanctuary on that same day and profaned My Sabbaths. ³⁹ On the same day they slaughtered their children for their idols, they entered My sanctuary to profane it. Yes, that is what they did inside My house.

⁴⁰ “In addition, they sent for men who came from far away when a messenger was dispatched to them. And look how they came! You bathed, painted your eyes, and adorned yourself with jewelry for them. ⁴¹ You sat on a luxurious couch with a table spread before it, on which you had set My incense and oil. ⁴² The sound of a carefree crowd was there. Drunkards^b from the desert were brought in, along with common men. They put bracelets on the women's hands and beautiful crowns on their heads. ⁴³ Then I said concerning this woman worn out by adultery: Will they now have illicit sex with her, even her? ⁴⁴ Yet they had sex with her as one does with a prostitute. This is how they had sex with Oholah and Oholibah, those obscene women. ⁴⁵ But righteous men will judge them the way adulteresses and those who shed blood are judged, for they are adulteresses and blood is on their hands.

⁴⁶ “This is what the Lord GOD says: Summon^c an assembly against them and consign them to terror and plunder. ⁴⁷ The assembly will stone them and cut them down with their swords. They will kill their sons and daughters and burn their houses with fire. ⁴⁸ So I will put an end to indecency in the land, and all the women will be admonished not to imitate your indecent behavior. ⁴⁹ They will repay you for your indecency, and you will bear the consequences for your sins of idolatry. Then you will know that I am the Lord GOD.”

Parable of the Boiling Pot

24 The word of the LORD came to me in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth [day] of the month: ² “Son of man, write down today's date, this very day. The king of Babylon has laid siege to Jerusalem this very day. ³ Now speak a parable to the rebellious house. Tell them: This is what the Lord GOD says:

Put the pot on [the fire]—
put [it] on,
and then pour water into it!

⁴ Place the pieces of meat in it, every good piece—
thigh and shoulder.

Fill it with choice bones.

⁵ Take the choicest of the flock
and also pile up the fuel^d under it.
Bring it to a boil
and cook the bones in it.”

^a23:32 Or It will bring ^b23:42 Or Sabeans ^c23:46 Or I will summon ^d24:5 Lit bones

⁶ Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says:

Woe to the city of bloodshed,
the pot that has rust inside it,
and whose rust will not come off!
Empty it piece by piece;
lots should not be cast for its contents.

⁷ For the blood she shed^a is in her midst.
She put it out on the bare rock;
she didn't pour it on the ground
to cover it with dust.

⁸ In order to stir up wrath
and take vengeance,
I have put her blood on the bare rock,
so that it would not be covered.

⁹ Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says:

Woe to the city of bloodshed!
I Myself will make the pile of kindling large.

¹⁰ Pile on the logs and kindle the fire!
Cook the meat well
and mix in the spices!^{b c}
Let the bones be burned!

¹¹ Set the empty pot on its coals
so that it becomes hot and its copper glows.
Then its impurity will melt inside it;
its rust will be consumed.

¹² It has frustrated every effort;^d
its thick rust will not come off.
Into the fire with its rust!

¹³ Because of the indecency of your uncleanness—
since I tried to purify you,
but you would not be purified
from your uncleanness—
you will not be pure again
until I have satisfied My wrath on you.

¹⁴ I, the LORD, have spoken.
It is coming, and I will do it!
I will not refrain, I will not show pity,
and I will not relent.
I^e will judge you
according to your ways and deeds.

[This is] the declaration
of the Lord GOD.

The Death of Ezekiel's Wife: A Sign

¹⁵ Then the word of the LORD came to me:
¹⁶ "Son of man, I am about to take the delight of your eyes away from you with a fatal blow. But you must not lament or weep or let your tears flow. ¹⁷ Groan quietly; do not observe mourning

rites for the dead. Put on your turban and strap your sandals on your feet; do not cover [your] mustache or eat the bread of mourners."^f

¹⁸ I spoke to the people in the morning, and my wife died in the evening. The next morning
I did just as I was commanded. ¹⁹ Then the people asked me, "Won't you tell us what these things you are doing mean for us?"

²⁰ So I answered them: "The word of the LORD came to me: ²¹ 'Say to the house of Israel: This is what the Lord GOD says: I am about to desecrate
My sanctuary, the pride of your power, the delight of your eyes, and the desire of your heart. Also, the sons and daughters you left behind will fall by the sword. ²² Then you will do just as I have done:
You will not cover [your] mustache or eat the bread of mourners.^f ²³ Your turbans will remain on your heads and your sandals on your feet. You will not lament or weep but will waste away
because of your sins and will groan to one another.
²⁴ Now Ezekiel will be a sign for you. You will do everything that he has done. When this happens, you will know that I am the Lord GOD.

²⁵ "Son of man, know that on the day I take their stronghold from them, their pride and joy,
the delight of their eyes and the longing of their hearts, [as well as] their sons and daughters, ²⁶ on that day a fugitive will come to you and report the news. ²⁷ On that day your mouth will be opened [to talk] with him; you will speak and no longer be mute. So you will be a sign for them, and they will know that I am the LORD."

Prophecies Against the Nations

Judgment against Ammon

25 Then the word of the LORD came to me:
² "Son of man, turn your face toward the Ammonites and prophesy against them.
³ Say to the Ammonites: Hear the word of the Lord GOD: This is what the Lord GOD says:
Because you said: Good! about My sanctuary
when it was desecrated, about the land of Israel
when it was laid waste, and about the house of Judah when they went into exile, ⁴ therefore I am about to give you to the people of the east as a possession. They will set up their encampments and pitch their tents among you. They will eat your fruit and drink your milk. ⁵ I will make Rabbah a pasture for camels and Ammon a sheepfold. Then you will know that I am the LORD."

⁶ For this is what the Lord GOD says: “Because you clapped [your] hands, stamped [your] feet, and rejoiced over the land of Israel with wholehearted contempt, ⁷ therefore I am about to stretch out My hand against you and give you as plunder to the nations. I will cut you off from the peoples and eliminate you from the countries. I will destroy you, and you will know that I am the LORD.”

Judgment against Moab

⁸ This is what the Lord GOD says: “Because Moab and Seir said: Look, the house of Judah is like all the [other] nations, ⁹ therefore I am about to expose Moab’s flank beginning with its^a frontier cities, the pride of the land: Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim. ¹⁰ I will give it along with Ammon to the people of the east as a possession, so that Ammon will not be remembered among the nations. ¹¹ So I will execute judgments against Moab, and they will know that I am the LORD.”

Judgment against Edom

¹² This is what the Lord GOD says: “Because Edom acted vengefully against the house of Judah and incurred grievous guilt by taking revenge on them, ¹³ therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I will stretch out My hand against Edom and cut off both man and animal from it. I will make it a wasteland; they will fall by the sword from Teman to Dedan. ¹⁴ I will take My vengeance on Edom through My people Israel, and they will deal with Edom according to My anger and wrath. So they will know My vengeance.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

Judgment against Philistia

¹⁵ This is what the Lord GOD says: “Because the Philistines acted in vengeance and took revenge with deep contempt, destroying [because of their] ancient hatred, ¹⁶ therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I am about to stretch out My hand against the Philistines, cutting off the Cherethites and wiping out what remains of the coastal peoples.^b ¹⁷ I will execute great vengeance against them with furious rebukes. They will know that I am the LORD when I take My vengeance on them.”

The Downfall of Tyre

26 In the eleventh year, on the first [day] of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: ² “Son of man, because Tyre said about Jerusalem: Good! The gateway to the peoples is shattered. She has been turned over to me. I will be filled [now that] she lies in ruins, ³ therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: See, I am against you, Tyre! I will raise up many nations against you, just as the sea raises its waves. ⁴ They will destroy the walls of Tyre and demolish her towers. I will scrape the soil from her and turn her into a bare rock. ⁵ She will become a place in the sea to spread nets, for I have spoken.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD. “She will become plunder for the nations, ⁶ and her villages on the mainland will be slaughtered by the sword. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

⁷ For this is what the Lord GOD says: “See, I am about to bring King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, king of kings, against Tyre from the north with horses, chariots, cavalry, and a vast company of troops. ⁸ He will slaughter your villages on the mainland with the sword. He will set up siege works against you, and will build a ramp^c and raise a wall of shields against you. ⁹ He will direct the blows of his battering rams against your walls and tear down your towers with his iron tools. ¹⁰ His horses will be so numerous that their dust will cover you. When he enters your gates as [an army] entering a breached city, your walls will shake from the noise of cavalry, wagons, and chariots. ¹¹ He will trample all your streets with the hooves of his horses. He will slaughter your people with the sword, and your mighty pillars will fall to the ground. ¹² They will take your wealth as spoil and plunder your merchandise. They will also demolish your walls and tear down your beautiful homes. Then they will throw your stones, timber, and soil into the water. ¹³ I will put an end to the noise of your songs, and the sound of your lyres will no longer be heard. ¹⁴ I will turn you into a bare rock, and you will be a place to spread nets. You will never be rebuilt, for I, the LORD, have spoken.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

¹⁵ This is what the Lord GOD says to Tyre: “Won’t the coasts and islands quake at the sound of your downfall, when the wounded groan and slaughter occurs within you? ¹⁶ All the princes of the sea will descend from their thrones, remove their robes, and strip off their embroidered garments. They will clothe themselves with trembling; they will sit on the ground, tremble continually, and be appalled at you. ¹⁷ Then they will lament for you and say of you:

you who were populated from the seas!^a
She who was powerful on the sea,
she and all of her inhabitants inflicted their terror.^b

- 18 Now the coastlands tremble
on the day of your downfall;
the islands in the sea
are alarmed by your demise.”

¹⁹ For this is what the Lord GOD says: “When I make you a ruined city like [other] deserted cities, when I raise up the deep against you so that the mighty waters cover you, ²⁰ then I will bring you down [to be] with those who descend to the •Pit, to the people of antiquity. I will make you dwell in the underworld^c like^d the ancient ruins, with those who descend to the Pit, so that you will no longer be inhabited or display [your] splendor^e in the land of the living. ²¹ I will make you an object of horror, and you will no longer exist. You will be sought but will never be found again.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

The Sinking of Tyre

27 The word of the LORD came to me: ² “Now, son of man, lament for Tyre. ³ Say to Tyre, who is located at the entrance of the sea, merchant of the peoples to many coasts and islands: This is what the Lord GOD says:

Tyre, you declared:

I am perfect in beauty.

- 4 Your realm was in the heart of the sea;
your builders perfected your beauty.
5 They constructed all your planking with pine trees from Senir.^f
They took a cedar from Lebanon
to make a mast for you.
6 They made your oars of oaks
from Bashan.
They made your deck of cypress wood
from the coasts of Cyprus, [inlaid] with ivory.
7 Your sail was [made of] fine embroidered linen from Egypt,
and served as your banner.

Your awning was of blue and purple fabric
from the coasts of Elishah.

- 8 The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad
were your rowers.
Your wise men were within you, Tyre;
they were your helmsmen.
9 The elders of Gebal and its wise men were within you, repairing your leaks.
All the ships of the sea and their sailors came to^g you to barter for your goods.
10 [Men of] Persia, Lud, and Put were in your army, [serving] as your warriors.
They hung shields and helmets in you;
they gave you splendor.
11 Men of Arvad and Helech were [stationed] on your walls all around,
and Gamadites were in your towers.
They hung their shields^h all around your walls;
they perfected your beauty.

12 “Tarshish was your trading partner because of [your] great wealth of every kind. They exchanged silver, iron, tin, and lead for your merchandise. ¹³ Javan, Tubal, and Meshech were your merchants. They exchanged slavesⁱ and bronze utensils for your goods. ¹⁴ Those from Beth-togarmah exchanged horses, war horses, and mules for your merchandise. ¹⁵ Men of Dedan^j were also your merchants; many coasts and islands were your regular markets. They brought back ivory tusks and ebony as your payment. ¹⁶ Aram^k was your trading partner because of your numerous products. They exchanged turquoise,^m purple and embroidered cloth, fine linen, coral,ⁿ and rubies^o for your merchandise. ¹⁷ Judah and the land of Israel were your merchants. They exchanged wheat from Minnith, meal,^p honey, oil, and balm for your goods. ¹⁸ Damascus was also your trading partner because of your numerous products and your great wealth of every kind, [trading] in wine from Helbon and white wool.^q ¹⁹ Vedan^r and Javan from Uzal^s dealt in your merchandise; wrought iron, cassia, and aromatic cane were [exchanged] for your goods. ²⁰ Dedan was your merchant in saddlecloths for riding. ²¹ Arabia and all the princes of Kedar were your business^t

So you became full and heavily loaded^b in the heart of the sea.

- ²⁶ Your rowers have brought you onto the high seas, but the east wind has shattered you in the heart of the sea.
- ²⁷ Your wealth, merchandise, and goods, your sailors and helmsmen, those who repair your leaks, those who barter for your goods, and all the warriors within you, with all the other people on board,^c sink into the heart of the sea on the day of your downfall.
- ²⁸ The countryside shakes at the sound of your sailors' cries.
- ²⁹ All those who handle an oar disembark from their ships. The sailors and all the helmsmen of the sea stand on the shore.
- ³⁰ They raise their voices over you and cry out bitterly. They throw dust on their heads; they roll in ashes.
- ³¹ They shave their heads because of you and wrap themselves in sackcloth. They weep over you with deep anguish and bitter mourning.
- ³² In their wailing they lament for you, mourning over you: Who was like Tyre, silenced^a in the middle of the sea?
- ³³ When your merchandise was unloaded from the seas, you satisfied many peoples. You enriched the kings of the earth with your abundant wealth and goods.
- ³⁴ Now you are shattered by the sea in the depths of the waters; your goods and the people within you have gone down.

- ³⁵ All the inhabitants of the coasts and islands are appalled at you. Their kings shudder with fear; [their] faces are contorted.
- ³⁶ Those who trade among the peoples hiss at you; you have become an object of horror and will never exist again."

The Fall of Tyre's Ruler

28 The word of the LORD came to me: ² "Son of man, say to the ruler of Tyre: This is what the Lord GOD says:

Your^d heart is proud, and you have said: I am a god; I sit in the seat of gods in the heart of the sea. Yet you are a man and not a god, though you have regarded your heart as that of a god.

- ³ Yes, you are wiser than Daniel; no secret is hidden from you!
- ⁴ By your wisdom and understanding you have acquired wealth for yourself. You have acquired gold and silver for your treasures.
- ⁵ By your great skill in trading you have increased your wealth, but your heart has become proud because of your wealth."
- ⁶ Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: Because you regard your heart as that of a god,
- ⁷ I am about to bring strangers against you, ruthless men from the nations. They will draw their swords against your magnificent wisdom and will defile your splendor.
- ⁸ They will bring you down to the Pit, and you will die a violent death in the heart of the sea.

A Lament for Tyre's King

11 The word of the LORD came to me: 12 "Son of man, lament for the king of Tyre and say to him: This is what the Lord GOD says:

- You were the seal^a of perfection,^b
full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.
- 13 You were in Eden, the garden of God.
Every kind of precious stone covered you:
carnelian, topaz, and diamond,^b
beryl, onyx, and jasper;
sapphire,^c turquoise^d and emerald.^e
Your mountings and settings were crafted
in gold;
they were prepared on the day
you were created.
- 14 You were an anointed guardian cherub,
for^f I had appointed you.
You were on the holy mountain of God;
you walked among the fiery stones.
- 15 From the day you were created you were blameless in your ways until wickedness was found in you.
- 16 Through the abundance of your trade,
you were filled with violence,
and you sinned.
So I expelled you in disgrace
from the mountain of God,
and banished you, guardian cherub,^g
from among the fiery stones.
- 17 Your heart became proud because of your beauty;
For the sake of your splendor
you corrupted your wisdom.
So I threw you down to the earth;
I made a spectacle of you before kings.
- 18 You profaned your sanctuaries
by the magnitude of your iniquities
in your dishonest trade.
So I sent out fire from within you,
and it consumed you.
I reduced you to ashes on the ground
in the sight of everyone watching you.
- 19 All those who know you
among the nations

are appalled at you.
You have become an object of horror
and will never exist again."

A Prophecy against Sidon

20 The word of the LORD came to me: 21 "Son of man, turn your face toward Sidon and prophesy against it. 22 You are to say: This is what the Lord GOD says:

- Look! I am against you, Sidon,
and I will display My glory within you.
They will know that I am the LORD
when I execute judgments against her and demonstrate My holiness through her.
- 23 I will send a plague against her
and bloodshed in her streets;
the slain will fall within her,
while the sword is against her^h
on every side.
Then they will know that I am the LORD.

24 "The house of Israel will no longer be hurt
byⁱ pricking briars or painful thorns from all their neighbors who treat them with contempt. Then they will know that I am the Lord GOD.

25 "This is what the Lord GOD says: When I gather the house of Israel from the peoples where they are scattered and demonstrate My holiness through them in the sight of the nations, then they will live in their own land, which I gave to My servant Jacob. 26 They will live there securely, build houses, and plant vineyards.
They will live securely when I execute judgments against all their neighbors who treat them with contempt. Then they will know that I am the LORD their God."

A Prophecy of Egypt's Ruin

29 In the tenth year, in the tenth [month] on the twelfth [day] of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: 2 "Son of man, turn your face toward Pharaoh king of Egypt and prophesy against him and against all of Egypt. 3 Speak [to him] and say: This is what the Lord GOD says:

you and all the fish of your streams.
You will fall on the open ground and will not be taken away or gathered [for burial].
I have given you
to the beasts of the earth
and the birds of the sky as food.
- 6 Then all the inhabitants of Egypt
will know that I am the LORD,
for they^a have been a staff [made] of reed
to the house of Israel.
- 7 When Israel grasped you by the hand,
you splintered, tearing all their shoulders;
when they leaned on you,
you shattered and made all their hips unsteady.^b

8 “Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says:
I am going to bring a sword against you and wipe out man and animal from you.⁹ The land of Egypt will be a desolate ruin. Then they will know that I am the LORD. Because you^c said:
The Nile is my own; I made [it],¹⁰ therefore, I am against you and your Nile. I will turn the land of Egypt into ruins, a desolate waste from Migdol to Syene, as far as the border of •Cush.
¹¹ No human foot will pass through it, and no animal foot will pass through it. It will be uninhabited for 40 years. ¹² I will make the land of Egypt a desolation among^d desolate lands, and its cities will be a desolation among^e ruined cities for 40 years. I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them across the countries.

¹³ “For this is what the Lord GOD says: At the end of 40 years I will gather the Egyptians from the nations where they were dispersed. ¹⁴ I will restore the fortunes of Egypt and bring them back to the land of Pathros, the land of their origin. There they will be a lowly kingdom.
¹⁵ Egypt will be the lowliest of kingdoms and will never again exalt itself over the nations. I will make them so small they cannot rule over the nations. ¹⁶ It will never again be an object of trust for the house of Israel, drawing attention to their sin of turning to the Egyptians. Then they will know that I am the Lord GOD.”

Babylon Receives Egypt as Compensation

¹⁷ In the twenty-seventh year in the first [month], on the first [day] of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁸ “Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made his army labor strenuously against Tyre. Every head was made bald and every shoulder chafed, but he and his army received no compensation from Tyre for the labor he expended against it.
¹⁹ Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I am going to give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who will carry off its wealth, seizing its spoil and taking its plunder. This will be his army’s compensation. ²⁰ I have given him
the land of Egypt as the pay he labored for, since they worked for Me.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD. ²¹ “In that day I will cause a •horn to sprout for the house of Israel, and I will enable you to speak out among them. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Egypt’s Doom

30 The word of the LORD came to me:
² “Son of man, prophesy and say: This is what the Lord GOD says:

Wail: Alas for the day!

- 3 For a day is near;
a day belonging to the LORD is near.
It will be a day of clouds,
a time [of doom] for the nations.
- 4 A sword will come against Egypt,
and there will be anguish in •Cush
when the slain fall in Egypt,
and its wealth is taken away,
and its foundations are torn down.
- 5 Cush, Put, and Lud,
and all the various foreign troops,^f
plus Libya^g and the men of the covenant land^h
will fall by the sword along with them.
- 6 This is what the LORD says:
Those who support Egypt will fall,
and its proud strength will collapse.

they will fall within it by the sword.

of the Lord GOD.

- 9 On that day, messengers will go out from Me in ships to terrify confident Cush. Anguish will come over them on the day of Egypt's [doom]. For indeed it is coming."
- 10 This is what the Lord GOD says:
I will put an end to the hordes^c of Egypt by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.
- 11 He along with his people, ruthless men from the nations, will be brought in to destroy the land. They will draw their swords against Egypt and fill the land with the slain.
- 12 I will make the streams dry and sell the land into the hands of evil men. I will bring desolation on the land and everything in it by the hands of foreigners. I, the LORD, have spoken.
- 13 This is what the Lord GOD says:
I will destroy the idols and put an end to the false gods in Memphis. There will no longer be a prince from the land of Egypt. So I will instill fear in that land.
- 14 I will make Pathros desolate, set fire to Zoan, and execute judgments on Thebes.
- 15 I will pour out My wrath on Pelusium, the stronghold of Egypt, and will wipe out the crowds^c of Thebes.
- 16 I will set fire to Egypt; Pelusium will writhe in anguish, Thebes will be breached, and Memphis will face foes in broad daylight.^d
- 17 The young men of On^e and Pi-beseth will fall by the sword, and those cities^f will go into captivity.
- 18 The day will be dark^g in Tehaphnehes, when I break the yoke of Egypt there and its proud strength comes to an end in the city.

A cloud will cover Tehaphnehes,^h and its villages will go into captivity.

- 19 So I will execute judgments against Egypt, and they will know that I am the LORD.

Pharaoh's Power Broken

20 In the eleventh year, in the first [month], on the seventh [day] of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: 21 "Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt. Look, it has not been bandaged—[no] medicine has been applied and no splint put on to bandage it so that it can grow strong [enough] to handle a sword. 22 Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: Look! I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt. I will break his arms, both the strong one and the one [already] broken, and will make the sword fall from his hand. 23 I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them among the countries. 24 I will strengthen the arms of Babylon's king and place My sword in his hand. But I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he will groan before him as a mortally wounded man. 25 I will strengthen the arms of Babylon's king, but Pharaoh's arms will fall. They will know that I am the LORD when I place My sword in the hand of Babylon's king and he wields it against the land of Egypt. 26 When I disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them among the countries, they will know that I am the LORD."

Downfall of Egypt and Assyria

31 In the eleventh year, in the third [month], on the first [day] of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: 2 "Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his hordes:

- Who are you like in your greatness?
- 3 Think of Assyria, a cedar in Lebanon, with beautiful branches and shady foliage, and of lofty height. Its top was among the clouds.¹
- 4 The waters caused it to grow; the underground springs made it tall, directing their rivers all around the place where the tree was planted and sending their channels to all the trees of the field.
- 5 Therefore the cedar became greater in height than all the trees of the field. Its branches multiplied, and its boughs grew long as it spread [them] out because of the plentiful water.

- 6 All the birds of the sky
nested in its branches,
and all the animals of the field
gave birth beneath its boughs;
all the great nations lived in its shade.
7 It was beautiful in its greatness,
in the length of its limbs,
for its roots extended to abundant water.
8 The cedars in God's garden could not rival it;
the pine trees couldn't compare
with its branches,
nor could the plane trees match its boughs.
No tree in the garden of God
could compare with it in beauty.
9 I made it beautiful with its many limbs,
and all the trees of Eden,
which were in God's garden, envied it.

10 "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says:
Since it^a became great in height and set its top among the clouds,^b and it^c grew proud on account of its height, ¹¹ I determined to hand it over to a ruler of nations; he would surely deal with it. I banished it because of its wickedness.
¹² Foreigners, ruthless men from the nations, cut it down and left it lying. Its limbs fell on the mountains and in every valley; its boughs lay broken in all the earth's ravines. All the peoples of the earth left its shade and abandoned it. ¹³ All the birds of the sky nested on its fallen trunk, and all the animals of the field were among its boughs. ¹⁴ [This happened] so that no trees [planted] beside water would become great in height and set their tops among the clouds,^b and so that no [other] well-watered trees would reach them in height. For they have all been consigned to death, to the underworld, among the •people who descend to the •Pit.

¹⁵ "This is what the Lord GOD says: I caused grieving on the day the cedar went down to •Sheol. I closed off the underground deep because of it:^d I held back the rivers of the deep, and [its] abundant waters were restrained. I made Lebanon mourn on account of it, and all the trees of the field fainted because of it. ¹⁶ I made the nations quake at the sound of its downfall, when I threw it down to Sheol [to be] with those who descend to the Pit. Then all the trees of Eden, all the well-watered trees, the choice and best of Lebanon, were comforted in the underworld. ¹⁷ They too descended with it to Sheol, to those slain by the sword. As its allies^{e f} they had lived in its shade among the nations.

¹⁸ "Who then are you like in glory and greatness among Eden's trees? You also will be brought down to the underworld [to be] with the trees of Eden. You will lie among the uncircumcised with those slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his hordes"—the declaration of the Lord GOD.

A Lament for Pharaoh

32 In the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first [day] of the month,
the word of the LORD came to me: ² "Son of man,
lament for Pharaoh king of Egypt and say to him:

You compare yourself to a lion
of the nations,
but^g you are like a monster in the seas.
You thrash about in your rivers,
churn up the waters with your feet,
and muddy the^h rivers."

³ This is what the Lord GOD says:

I will spread My net over you with an assembly of many peoples,
and theyⁱ will haul you up in My net.

4 I will abandon you on the land and hurl you on the open field.
I will cause all the birds of the sky
to settle on you and let the beasts of the entire earth
eat their fill of you.

5 I will put your flesh on the mountains and fill the valleys with your carcass.

6 I will drench the land
with the flow of your blood, [even] to the mountains;
the ravines will be filled with your [gore].

7 When I snuff you out,
I will cover the heavens
and darken their stars.
I will cover the sun with a cloud,
and the moon will not give its light.

8 I will darken all the shining lights
in the heavens over you,
and will bring darkness on your land.

of the Lord GOD.

- 9 I will trouble the hearts of many peoples,
when I bring about your destruction
among the nations,
in countries you do not know.
- 10 I will cause many nations to be appalled
at you,
and their kings will shudder with fear
because of you
when I brandish My sword
in front of them.
On the day of your downfall
each of them will tremble
every moment for his life.
- 11 For this is what the Lord GOD says:
The sword of Babylon's king
will come against you!
- 12 I will make your hordes fall
by the swords of warriors,
all of them ruthless men from the nations.
They will ravage Egypt's pride,
and all its hordes will be destroyed.
- 13 I will slaughter all its cattle
that are beside many waters.
No human foot will churn them again,
and no cattle hooves will disturb them.
- 14 Then I will let their waters settle
and will make their rivers flow like oil.
[This is] the declaration
of the Lord GOD.
- 15 When I make the land of Egypt a desolation,
so that it is emptied of everything in it,
when I strike down all who live there,
then they will know that I am the LORD.

chant it over Egypt and all its hordes." [This is]
the declaration of the Lord GOD.
- Egypt in Sheol
- 17 In the twelfth year,^a on the fifteenth [day] of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:
18 "Son of man, wail over the hordes of Egypt and bring Egypt and the daughters of mighty nations down to the underworld,^b [to be] with those who descend to the •Pit:
- 19 Whom do you surpass in loveliness?
Go down and be laid to rest
with the uncircumcised!
- 20 They will fall among those slain
by the sword.
- A sword is appointed!
They drag her and all her hordes away.
- 21 Warrior leaders will speak
from the middle of •Sheol
about him^c and his allies:
They have come down;
the uncircumcised lie
slain by the sword.
- 22 Assyria is there with all her company;
her graves are all around her.
All of them are slain, fallen by the sword.
- 23 Her graves are set in the deepest regions
of the Pit,
and her company is all around her burial place.
All of them are slain, fallen
by the sword—
they who [once] spread terror
in the land of the living.
- 24 Elam is there
with all her hordes around her grave.
All of them are slain, fallen
by the sword—
they who went down
to the underworld^b uncircumcised, who [once] spread their terror
in the land of the living.
They bear their disgrace

 of the Lord GOD.

Ezekiel as Israel's Watchman

33 The word of the LORD came to me:
² “Son of man, speak to your people and tell them: Suppose I bring the sword against a land, and the people of that land select a man from among them, appointing him as their watchman, ³ and he sees the sword coming against the land and blows his trumpet to warn the people. ⁴ Then, if anyone hears the sound of the trumpet but ignores the warning, and the sword comes and takes him away, his blood will be on his own head. ⁵ [Since] he heard the sound of the trumpet but ignored the warning, his blood is on his own hands.^b If he had taken warning, he would have saved his life.

⁶ However, if the watchman sees the sword coming but doesn't blow the trumpet, so that the people aren't warned, and the sword comes and takes away their lives, then they have been taken away because of their iniquity, but I will hold the watchman accountable for their blood.

⁷ “As for you, son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel. When you hear a word from My mouth, give them a warning from Me. ⁸ If I say to the wicked: Wicked
 one, you will surely die, but you do not speak out to warn him about his way, that wicked person will die for his iniquity, yet I will hold you responsible for his blood. ⁹ But if you warn a wicked person to turn from his way and he doesn't turn from it, he will die for his iniquity,
 but you will have saved your life.

¹⁰ “Now as for you, son of man, say to the house of Israel: You have said this: Our transgressions and our sins are [heavy] on us, and we are wasting away because of them! How then can we survive? ¹¹ Tell them: As I live”—the declaration of the Lord GOD—“I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that the wicked person should turn from his way and live. Repent, repent of your evil ways! Why will you die, house of Israel?”

¹² “Now, son of man, say to your people: The righteousness of the righteous person will not save him on the day of his transgression; neither will the wickedness of the wicked person cause him to stumble on the day he turns from his wickedness. The righteous person won't be able to survive by his righteousness on the day he sins. ¹³ When I tell the righteous person that he will surely live, but he trusts in his righteousness and commits iniquity, then none of his righteousness will be remembered, and he will die because of the iniquity he has committed.

¹⁴ “So when I tell the wicked person: You will surely die, but he repents of his sin and does what is just and right— ¹⁵ he returns collateral, makes restitution for what he has stolen, and walks in the statutes of life without practicing iniquity—he will certainly live; he will not die.
¹⁶ None of the sins he committed will be held against him. He has done what is just and right;
 he will certainly live.

¹⁷ “But your people say: The Lord's way isn't fair, even though it is their own way that isn't fair. ¹⁸ When a righteous person turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, he will die on account of this. ¹⁹ But when a wicked person turns from his wickedness and does what is just and right, he will live because of this. ²⁰ Yet you say: The Lord's way isn't fair. I will judge each of you according to his ways, house of Israel."

The News of Jerusalem's Fall

²¹ In the twelfth year of our exile, in the tenth [month], on the fifth [day] of the month, a fugitive from Jerusalem came to me and reported, "The city has been taken!" ²² Now the hand of the LORD had been on me the evening before the fugitive arrived, and He opened my mouth before the man came to me in the morning. So my mouth was opened and I was no longer mute.

Israel's Continued Rebellion

²³ Then the word of the LORD came to me: ²⁴ "Son of man, those who live in the^a ruins in the land of Israel are saying: Abraham was only one person, yet he received possession of the land. But we are many; the land has been given to us as a possession. ²⁵ Therefore say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: You eat [meat] with blood [in it], raise your eyes to your idols, and shed blood. Should you then receive possession of the land? ²⁶ You have relied on your swords, you have committed abominations, and each of you has defiled his neighbor's wife. Should you then receive possession of the land?

²⁷ "Tell them this: This is what the Lord GOD says: As surely as I live, those who are in the ruins will fall by the sword, those in the open field I have given to wild animals to be devoured, and those in the strongholds and caves will die by plague. ²⁸ I will make the land a desolate waste, and its proud strength will come to an end. The mountains of Israel will become desolate, with no one passing through. ²⁹ They will know that I am the LORD when I make the land a desolate waste because of all the abominations they have committed.

³⁰ "Now, son of man, your people are talking about you near the [city] walls and in the doorways of their houses. One person speaks to another, each saying to his brother: Come and hear what the message is that comes from the LORD! ³¹ So My people come to you in crowds,^b sit in front of you, and hear your words, but they don't obey them. Although they express love with their mouths, their hearts pursue unjust gain. ³² Yes, to them you are like a singer of love songs who has a beautiful voice and plays skillfully on an instrument. They hear your words, but they don't obey them. ³³ Yet when it comes—and it will definitely come—then they will know that a prophet has been among them."

The Shepherds and God's Flock

34 ² The word of the LORD came to me: ² "Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy, and say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says to the shepherds: Woe to the shepherds of Israel, who have been feeding themselves! Shouldn't the shepherds feed their flock? ³ You eat the fat, wear the wool, and butcher the fatlings, but you do not tend the flock. ⁴ You have not strengthened the weak, healed the sick, bandaged the injured, brought back the strays, or sought the lost. Instead, you have ruled them with violence and cruelty. ⁵ They were scattered for lack of a shepherd; they became food for all the wild animals when they were scattered. ⁶ My flock went astray on all the mountains and every high hill. They were scattered over the whole face of the earth, and there was no one searching or seeking [for them].

⁷ "Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD. ⁸ As I live"—the declaration of the Lord GOD—"because My flock has become [prey and] food for every wild animal since [they] lack a shepherd, for My shepherds do not search for My flock, and [because] the shepherds feed themselves rather than My flock, ⁹ therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD!

¹⁰ "This is what the Lord GOD says: Look, I am against the shepherds. I will demand My flock from them^c and prevent them from shepherding the flock. The shepherds will no longer feed themselves, for I will rescue My flock from their mouths so that they will not be food for them.

¹¹ "For this is what the Lord GOD says: See, I Myself will search for My flock and look for them. ¹² As a shepherd looks for his sheep on the day he is among his scattered flock, so I will look for My flock. I will rescue them from all the places where they have been scattered on a cloudy and dark day. ¹³ I will bring them out from the peoples, gather them from the countries, and bring them into their own land. I will shepherd them on the mountains of Israel, in the ravines, and in all the inhabited places of the land. ¹⁴ I will tend them with good pasture, and their grazing place will be on Israel's lofty mountains. There they will lie down in a good grazing place; they will feed in rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. ¹⁵ I will tend My flock and let them lie down." [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD. ¹⁶ "I will seek the lost, bring back the strays, bandage the injured, and strengthen the weak, but I will destroy^a the fat and the strong. I will shepherd them with justice.

¹⁷ "The Lord GOD says to you, My flock: I am going to judge between one sheep and another, between the rams and male goats. ¹⁸ Isn't it enough for you to feed on the good pasture? Must you also trample the rest of the pasture with your feet? Or [isn't it enough] that you drink the clear water? Must you also muddy the rest with your feet? ¹⁹ Yet My flock has to feed on what your feet have trampled, and drink what your feet have muddled.

²⁰ "Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD says to them: See, I Myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. ²¹ Since you have pushed with flank and shoulder and butted all the weak ones with your horns until you scattered them all over, ²² I will save My flock, and they will no longer be prey for you. I will judge between one sheep and another. ²³ I will appoint over them a single shepherd, My servant David, and he will shepherd them. He will tend them himself and will be their shepherd. ²⁴ I, the LORD, will be their God, and My servant David will be a prince among them. I, the LORD, have spoken.

²⁵ "I will make a covenant of peace with them and eliminate dangerous animals in the land, so that they may live securely in the wilderness and sleep in the forest. ²⁶ I will make them and the area around My hill a blessing: I will send down showers in their season—showers^b of blessing. ²⁷ The trees of the field will give their fruit, and the land will yield its produce; My flock will be secure in their land. They will know that I am the LORD when I break the bars of their yoke and rescue them from the hands of those who enslave them. ²⁸ They will no longer be prey for the nations, and the wild animals of the land will not consume them. They will live securely, and no one will frighten [them]. ²⁹ I will establish for them a place renowned for [its] agriculture,^c and they will no longer be victims of famine in the land. They will no longer endure the insults of the nations. ³⁰ Then they will know that I, the LORD their God, am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are My people." [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD. ³¹ "You are My flock, the human flock of My pasture, and I am your God." [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

A Prophecy against Edom

35 The word of the LORD came to me: ² "Son of man, turn your face toward Mount Seir and prophesy against it. ³ Say to it: This is what the Lord GOD says:

Look! I am against you, Mount Seir.
I will stretch out My hand against you
and make you a desolate waste.

⁴ I will turn your cities into ruins,
and you will become a desolation.
Then you will know that I am the LORD.

⁵ "Because you maintained an ancient hatred and handed over the Israelites to the power of the sword in the time of their disaster, the time of final punishment, ⁶ therefore, as I live"—[this is] the declaration of the Lord GOD—"I will destine you for bloodshed, and it will pursue you. Since you did not hate bloodshed, it will pursue you. ⁷ I will make Mount Seir a desolate waste and will cut off from it those who come and go. ⁸ I will fill its mountains with the slain; those slain by the sword will fall on your hills, in your valleys, and in all your ravines. ⁹ I will make you a perpetual desolation; your cities will not be inhabited. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

¹⁰ "Because you said: These two nations and two lands will be mine, and we will possess them—though the LORD was there— ¹¹ therefore, as I live"—the declaration of the Lord GOD—"I will treat [you] according to the anger and jealousy you showed in your hatred of them. I will make Myself known among them^d when I judge you. ¹² Then you will know that I, the LORD, have heard all the blasphemies you uttered against the mountains of Israel, saying: They are desolate. They have been given to us to devour! ¹³ You boasted against Me with your mouth, and spoke many words against Me. I heard [it] Myself!

¹⁴ "This is what the Lord GOD says: While the whole world rejoices, I will make you a desolation. ¹⁵ Just as you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel because it became a desolation, so I will deal with you: you will become a desolation, Mount Seir, and [so will] all Edom in its entirety. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

Restoration of Israel's Mountains

36 “Son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel and say: Mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD. ² This is what the Lord GOD says: Because the enemy has said about you, ‘Good! The ancient heights have become our possession,’ ³ therefore, prophesy and say: This is what the Lord GOD says: Because they have made you desolate and have trampled you from every side, so that you became a possession for the rest of the nations and an object of people’s gossip and slander, ⁴ therefore, mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD. This is what the Lord GOD says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys, to the desolate ruins and abandoned cities, which have become plunder and a mockery to the rest of the nations all around.

⁵ “This is what the Lord GOD says: Certainly in My burning zeal I speak against the rest of the nations and all of Edom, who took^a My land as their own possession with wholehearted rejoicing and utter contempt, so that its pastureland became^b plunder. ⁶ Therefore, prophesy concerning the land of Israel and say to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys: This is what the Lord GOD says: Look, I speak in My burning zeal because you have endured the insults of the nations. ⁷ Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I swear^c that the nations all around you will endure their own insults.

⁸ “You, mountains of Israel, will put forth your branches and bear your fruit for My people Israel, since their arrival is near. ⁹ Look! I am on your side; I will turn toward you, and you will be tilled and sown. ¹⁰ I will fill you with people, with the whole house of Israel in its entirety. The cities will be inhabited and the ruins rebuilt. ¹¹ I will fill you with people and animals, and they will increase and be fruitful. I will make you inhabited as you once were and make [you] better off than you were before. Then you will know that I am the LORD. ¹² I will cause people, My people Israel, to walk on you; they will possess you, and you will be their inheritance. You will no longer deprive them of [their] children.

¹³ “This is what the Lord GOD says: Because people are saying to you: You devour men and deprive your nation of children, ¹⁴ therefore, you will no longer devour men and deprive your nation of children.”^d [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD. ¹⁵ “I will no longer allow the insults of the nations to be heard against you, and you will not have to endure the reproach of the peoples any more; you will no longer cause your nation to stumble.”^e [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

Restoration of Israel's People

¹⁶ The word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁷ “Son of man, while the house of Israel lived in their land, they defiled it with their conduct and actions. Their behavior before Me was like menstrual impurity. ¹⁸ So I poured out My wrath on them because of the blood they had shed on the land, and because they had defiled it with their idols. ¹⁹ I dispersed them among the nations, and they were scattered among the countries. I judged them according to their conduct and actions. ²⁰ When they came to the nations where they went, they profaned My holy name, because it was said about them: These are the people of the LORD, yet they had to leave His land [in exile]. ²¹ Then I had concern for My holy name, which the house of Israel profaned among the nations where they went.

²⁴ “For I will take you from the nations and gather you from all the countries, and will bring you into your own land. ²⁵ I will also sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean. I will cleanse you from all your impurities and all your idols. ²⁶ I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you; I will remove your heart of stone^f and give you a heart of flesh. ²⁷ I will place My Spirit within you and cause you to follow My statutes and carefully observe My ordinances. ²⁸ Then you will live in the land that I gave your fathers; you will be My people, and I will be your God. ²⁹ I will save you from all your uncleanness. I will summon the grain and make it plentiful, and will not bring famine on you. ³⁰ I will also make the fruit of the trees and the produce of the field plentiful, so that you will no longer experience reproach among the nations on account of famine.

³¹ “Then you will remember your evil ways and your deeds that were not good, and you will loathe yourselves for your iniquities and abominations. ³² It is not for your sake that I will act”—the declaration of the Lord GOD—“let this be known to you. Be ashamed and humiliated because of your ways, house of Israel!

³³ “This is what the Lord GOD says: On the day I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the ruins will be rebuilt. ³⁴ The desolate land will be cultivated instead of lying desolate in the sight of everyone who passes by. ³⁵ Then they will say: This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden. The cities that were once ruined, desolate, and destroyed are [now] fortified and inhabited. ³⁶ Then the nations that remain around you will know that I, the LORD, have rebuilt what was destroyed and have replanted what was desolate. I, the LORD, have spoken and I will do [it].

³⁷ “This is what the Lord GOD says: I will respond to the house of Israel and do this for them: I will multiply them in number like a flock.^a ³⁸ So the ruined cities will be filled with a flock of people, just as the flock of sheep for sacrifice is filled^b in Jerusalem during its appointed festivals. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

The Valley of Dry Bones

37 The hand of the LORD was on me, and He brought me out by His Spirit and set me down in the middle of the valley; it was full of bones. ² He led me all around them. There were a great many of them on the surface of the valley, and they were very dry. ³ Then He said to me, “Son of man, can these bones live?”

I replied, “Lord GOD, [only] You know.”

⁴ He said to me, “Prophecy concerning these bones and say to them: Dry bones, hear the word of the LORD! ⁵ This is what the Lord GOD says to these bones: I will cause breath to enter you, and you will live. ⁶ I will put tendons on you, make flesh grow on you, and cover you with skin. I will put breath in you so that you come to life. Then you will know that I am the LORD.”

⁷ So I prophesied as I had been commanded. While I was prophesying, there was a noise, a rattling sound, and the bones came together, bone to bone. ⁸ As I looked, tendons appeared on them, flesh grew, and skin covered them, but there was no breath in them. ⁹ He said to me, “Prophecy to the breath,^c prophesy, son of man. Say to it: This is what the Lord GOD says: Breath, come from the four winds and breathe into these slain so that they may live!” ¹⁰ So I prophesied as He commanded me; the breath^c entered them, and they came to life and stood on their feet, a vast army.

¹¹ Then He said to me, “Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Look how they say: Our bones are dried up, and our hope has perished; we are cut off. ¹² Therefore, prophesy and say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: I am going to open your graves and bring you up from them, My people, and lead you into the land of Israel. ¹³ You will know that I am the LORD, My people, when I open your graves and bring you up from them. ¹⁴ I will put My Spirit in you, and you will live, and I will settle you in your own land. Then you will know that I am the LORD. I have spoken, and I will do [it].” [This is] the declaration of the LORD.

The Reunification of Israel

¹⁵ The word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁶ “Son of man, take a single stick and write on it: Belonging to Judah and the Israelites associated with him. Then take another stick and write on it: Belonging to Joseph—the stick of Ephraim—and all the house of Israel associated with him. ¹⁷ Then join them together into a single stick so that they become one in your hand. ¹⁸ When your people ask you: Won’t you explain to us what you mean by these things?— ¹⁹ tell them: This is what the Lord GOD says: I am going to take the stick of Joseph—which is in the hand of Ephraim—and the tribes of Israel associated with him, and put them together with the stick of Judah. I will make them into a single stick so that they become one in My hand.

²⁰ “When the sticks you have written on are in your hand and in full view of the people, ²¹ tell them: This is what the Lord GOD says: I am going to take the Israelites out of the nations where they have gone. I will gather them from all around and bring them into their own land. ²² I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel, and one king will rule over all of them. They will no longer be two nations and will no longer be divided into two kingdoms. ²³ They will not defile themselves any more with their idols, their detestable things, and all their transgressions. I will save them from all their apostasies by which^a they sinned, and I will cleanse them. Then they will be My people, and I will be their God. ²⁴ My servant David will be king over them, and there will be one shepherd for all of them. They will follow My ordinances, and keep My statutes and obey them.

²⁵ “They will live in the land that I gave to My servant Jacob, where your fathers lived. They will live in it forever with their children and grandchildren, and My servant David will be their prince forever. ²⁶ I will make a covenant of peace with them; it will be an everlasting covenant with them. I will establish and multiply them, and will set My sanctuary among them forever. ²⁷ My dwelling place will be with them; I will be their God, and they will be My people. ²⁸ When My sanctuary is among them forever, the nations will know that I, the LORD, sanctify Israel.”

The Defeat of Gog

38 The word of the LORD came to me: ² “Son of man, turn your face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the chief prince of^b Meshech and Tubal. Prophesy against him ³ and say: This is what the Lord GOD says: Look, I am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. ⁴ I will turn you around, put hooks in your jaws, and bring you out with all your army, including horses and riders, who are all splendidly dressed, a huge company armed with shields and bucklers, all of them brandishing swords. ⁵ Persia, •Cush, and Put are with them, all of them with shields and helmets; ⁶ Gomer with all its troops; and Beth-togarmah from the remotest parts of the north along with all its troops—many peoples are with you.

⁷ “Be prepared and get yourself ready, you and all your company who have been mobilized around you; you will be their guard. ⁸ After a long time you will be summoned. In the last years you will enter a land that has been restored from war^c and regathered from many peoples to the mountains of Israel, which had long been a ruin. They were brought out from the peoples, and all of them [now] live securely. ⁹ You, all of your troops, and many peoples with you will advance, coming like a thunderstorm; you will be like a cloud covering the land.

¹⁰ “This is what the Lord GOD says: On that day, thoughts will arise in your mind, and you will devise an evil plan. ¹¹ You will say: I will go up against a land of open villages; I will come against a tranquil people who are living securely, all of them living without walls and without bars or gates— ¹² in order to seize spoil and carry off plunder, to turn your hand against ruins now inhabited and against a people gathered from the nations, who have been acquiring cattle and possessions and who live at the center of the world. ¹³ Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish with all its rulers^d will ask you: Have you come to seize spoil? Have you assembled your hordes to carry off plunder, to make off with silver and gold, to take cattle and possessions, to seize great spoil?

¹⁴ “Therefore prophesy, son of man, and say to Gog: This is what the Lord GOD says: On that day when My people Israel are dwelling securely, will you not know [this] ¹⁵ and come from your place in the remotest parts of the north—you and many peoples with you, who are all riding horses—a mighty horde, a huge army? ¹⁶ You will advance against My people Israel like a cloud covering the land. It will happen in the last days, Gog, that I will bring you against My land so that the nations may know Me, when I show Myself holy through you in their sight.

¹⁷ “This is what the Lord GOD says: Are you the one I spoke about in former times through My servants, the prophets of Israel, who for years prophesied in those times that I would bring you against them? ¹⁸ Now on that day, the day when Gog comes against the land of Israel”—[this is] the declaration of the Lord GOD—“My wrath will flare up.^e ¹⁹ I swear in My zeal and fiery rage: On that day there will be a great earthquake in the land of Israel. ²⁰ The fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, the animals of the field, every creature that crawls on the ground, and every human being on the face of the earth will tremble before Me. The mountains will be thrown down, the cliffs will collapse, and every wall will fall to the ground. ²¹ I will call for a sword against him on all My mountains”—the declaration of the Lord GOD—“and every man’s sword will be against his brother. ²² I will execute judgment on him with plague and bloodshed. I will pour out torrential rain, hailstones, fire, and brimstone on him, as well as his troops and the many peoples who are with him. ²³ I will display My greatness and holiness, and will reveal Myself in the sight of many nations. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

The Disposal of Gog

39 “As for you, son of man, prophesy against Gog and say: This is what the Lord GOD says: Look, I am against you, Gog, chief prince of ^aMeshech and Tubal. ² I will turn you around, drive you on, and lead you up from the remotest parts of the north. I will bring you against the mountains of Israel. ³ Then I will knock your bow from your left hand and make your arrows drop from your right hand. ⁴ You, all your troops, and the peoples who are with you will fall on the mountains of Israel. I will give you as food to every kind of predatory bird and to the wild animals. ⁵ You will fall on the open field, for I have spoken.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

⁶ “I will send fire against Magog and those who live securely on the coasts and islands. Then they will know that I am the LORD. ⁷ So I will make My holy name known among My people Israel and will no longer allow it to be profaned. Then the nations will know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel. ⁸ Yes, it is coming, and it will happen.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD. “This is the day I have spoken about.

⁹ “Then the inhabitants of Israel’s cities will go out, kindle fires, and burn the weapons—the bucklers and shields, the bows and arrows, the clubs and spears. For seven years they will use them to make fires. ¹⁰ They will not gather wood from the countryside or cut [it] down from the forests, for they will use the weapons to make fires. They will take the loot from those who looted them and plunder those who plundered them.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

¹¹ “Now on that day I will give Gog a burial place there in Israel—the Valley of the Travelers^b east of the Sea. It will block those who travel through, for Gog and all his hordes will be buried there. So [it] will be called the Valley of Hamongog.^c ¹² The house of Israel will spend seven months burying them in order to cleanse the land. ¹³ All the people of the land will bury [them] and their fame will spread on the day I display My glory.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

¹⁷ “Son of man, this is what the Lord GOD says: Tell every kind of bird and all the wild animals: Assemble and come! Gather from all around to My sacrificial feast that I am slaughtering for you, a great feast on the mountains of Israel; you will eat flesh and drink blood. ¹⁸ You will eat the flesh of mighty men and drink the blood of the earth’s princes: rams, lambs, male goats, and bulls, all of them fatlings of Bashan. ¹⁹ You will eat fat until you are satisfied and drink blood until you are drunk, at My sacrificial feast that I have prepared for you. ²⁰ At My table you will eat your fill of horses and riders, of mighty men and all the warriors.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

Israel’s Restoration to God

²¹ “I will display My glory among the nations, and all the nations will see the judgment I have executed and the hand I have laid on them. ²² From that day forward the house of Israel will know that I am the LORD their God. ²³ And the nations will know that the house of Israel went into exile on account of their iniquity, because they dealt unfaithfully with Me. Therefore, I hid My face from them and handed them over to their enemies, so that they all fell by the sword. ²⁴ I dealt with them according to their uncleanness and transgressions, and I hid My face from them.

²⁵ “So this is what the Lord GOD says: Now I will restore the fortunes of Jacob and have compassion on the whole house of Israel, and I will be jealous for My holy name. ²⁶ They will feel remorse for^f ^gtheir disgrace and all the unfaithfulness they committed against Me, when they live

I will leave none of them behind.^a ²⁹ I will no longer hide My face from them, for I will pour out My Spirit on the house of Israel.” [This is] the declaration of the LORD GOD.

The New Temple

40 In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month in the fourteenth year after Jerusalem had been captured, on that very day the LORD’s hand was on me, and He brought me there.² In visions of God He took me to the land of Israel and set me down on a very high mountain. On its southern [slope] was a structure resembling a city.³ He brought me there, and I saw a man whose appearance was like bronze, with a linen cord and a measuring rod in his hand. He was standing by the gate.⁴ He spoke to me: “Son of man, look with your eyes, listen with your ears, and pay attention to everything I am going to show you, for you have been brought here so that I might show [it] to you. Report everything you see to the house of Israel.”

The Wall and Outer Gates

⁵ Now there was a wall surrounding the outside of the temple. The measuring rod in the man’s hand was six units of 21 inches;^b each unit was the standard length plus three inches.^c He measured the thickness of the [wall] structure; it was about 10 feet,^d and its height was the same.^d ⁶ Then he came to the gate that faced east and climbed its steps. He measured the threshold of the gate; it was 10 feet deep—the first threshold was 10 feet deep.⁷ Each recess was about 10 feet^d long and 10 feet^e deep, and there was [a space of] eight and three-quarter feet^f between the recesses. The [inner] threshold of the gate on the temple side next to the gate’s portico was about 10 feet.^d ⁸ Next he measured the portico of the gate; ⁹ it^g was 14 feet,^h and its pilasters were three and a half feet.ⁱ The portico of the gate was on the temple side.

¹⁰ There were three recesses on each side of the east gate, each with the same measurements, and the pilasters on either side also had the same measurements.¹¹ Then he measured the width of the gate’s entrance; it was 17 and a half feet,^j while the width^k of the gateway was 22 and three-quarter feet.¹² There was a barrier of 21 inches^m in front of the recesses on both sides, and the recesses on each side were 10 and a half feetⁿ square.¹³ Then he measured the gateway from the roof of one recess to the roof of the [opposite] one; the distance was 43 and three-quarter feet.^o The openings of the recesses faced each other.¹⁴ Next, he measured the pilasters—105 feet.^p The gate extended around to the pilaster of the court.^q ¹⁵ [The distance] from the front of the gate at the entrance to the front of the gate’s portico on the inside was 87 and a half feet.^r ¹⁶ The recesses and their pilasters had beveled windows all around the inside of the gateway. The porticos also had windows all around on the inside. Each pilaster was decorated with palm trees.

¹⁷ Then he brought me into the outer court, and there were chambers and a paved surface laid out all around the court. Thirty chambers faced the pavement,¹⁸ which flanked the gates and corresponded to the length of the gates; [this] was the lower pavement.¹⁹ Then he measured the distance from the front of the lower gate to the exterior front of the inner court; it was 175 feet.^s [This] was the east; next the north [is described].

²⁰ He measured the gate of the outer court facing north, [both] its length and width.²¹ Its three recesses on each side, its pilasters, and its portico had the same measurements as the first gate: 87 and a half feet^r long and 43 and three-quarter feet^o wide.²² Its windows, portico, and palm trees had the same measurements as those of the gate that faced east. Seven steps led up to the gate, and its portico was ahead of them.²³ The inner court had a gate facing the north gate, like the one on the east. He measured the distance from gate to gate; it was 175 feet.^s

²⁴ He brought me to the south side, and there was also a gate on the south. He measured its pilasters and portico; they had the same measurements as the others.²⁵ Both the gate and its portico had windows all around, like the other windows. It was 87 and a half feet^a long and 43 and three-quarter feet^b wide.²⁶ Its stairway had seven steps, and its portico was ahead of them. It had palm trees on its pilasters, one on each side.²⁷ The inner court had a gate on the south. He measured from gate to gate on the south; it was 175 feet.^c

The Inner Gates

²⁸ Then he brought me to the inner court through the south gate. When he measured the south gate, it had the same measurements as the others.²⁹ Its recesses, pilasters, and portico had the same measurements as the others. Both it and its portico had windows all around. It was 87 and a half feet^a long and 43 and three-quarter feet^b wide.³⁰ (There were porticoes all around, 43 and three-quarter feet long and eight and three-quarter feet^d wide.^e)³¹ Its portico faced the outer court, and its pilasters were decorated with palm trees. Its stairway had eight steps.

³² Then he brought me to the inner court on the east side. When he measured the gate, it had the same measurements as the others.³³ Its recesses, pilasters, and portico had the same measurements as the others. Both it and its portico had windows all around. It was 87 and a half feet^a long and 43 and three-quarter feet^b wide.³⁴ Its portico faced the outer court, and its pilasters were decorated with palm trees on each side. Its stairway had eight steps.

³⁵ Then he brought me to the north gate. When he measured [it], it had the same measurements as the others,³⁶ [as did] its recesses, pilasters, and portico. It also had windows all around. It was 87 and a half feet^a long and 43 and three-quarter feet^b wide.³⁷ Its portico^f faced the outer court, and its pilasters were decorated with palm trees on each side. Its stairway had eight steps.

Rooms for Preparing Sacrifices

³⁸ There was a chamber whose door [opened] into the portico of the gate.^g The •burnt offering was to be washed there.³⁹ Inside the portico of the gate there were two tables on each side, on which to slaughter the burnt offering, •sin offering, and •restitution offering.⁴⁰ Outside, as one approaches the entrance of the north gate, there were two tables on one side and two [more] tables on the other side of the gate's portico.⁴¹ So there were four tables inside the gate and four outside, eight tables [in all] on which the slaughtering was to be done.⁴² There were also four tables of cut stone for the burnt offering, [each] 31 and a half inches^h long, 31 and a half inches wide, and 21 inchesⁱ high. The utensils used to slaughter the burnt offerings and [other] sacrifices were placed on them.⁴³ There were three-inch^j hooks^k fastened all around the inside of the room, and the flesh of the offering was to be laid on the tables.

Rooms for Singers and Priests

⁴⁴ Outside the inner gate, within the inner court, there were chambers for the singers:^l one^m beside the north gate, facing south, and another beside the southⁿ gate, facing north.⁴⁵ Then the man said to me: "This chamber that faces south is for the priests who keep charge of the temple.⁴⁶ The chamber that faces north is for the priests who keep charge of the altar. These are the sons of Zadok, the ones from the sons of Levi who may approach the LORD to serve Him."⁴⁷ Next he measured the court. It was square, 175 feet^c long and 175 feet wide. The altar was in front of the temple.

⁴⁸ Then he brought me to the portico of the temple and measured the pilasters of the portico; they were eight and three-quarter feet^d [thick] on each side. The width of the gateway was 24 and a half feet,^o and the sidewalls of the gate were^p five and a quarter feet^q [wide] on each side.⁴⁹ The portico was 35 feet^r across and 21^s feet^t deep, and 10 steps led^u up to it. There were pilars by the pilasters, one on each side.

Inside the Temple

entrance were eight and three-quarter feet^a [wide] on each side. He also measured the length of the great hall, 70 feet,^b and the width, 35 feet.^c ³ He went inside [the next room] and measured the pilasters at the entrance; they were three and a half feet^d [wide]. The entrance was 10 and a half feet^e [wide], and the width of the entrance's side-walls on each side^f was 12 and a quarter feet.^g ⁴ He then measured the length of the room adjacent to the great hall, 35 feet,^c and the width, 35 feet. And he said to me, "This is the most holy place."

Outside the Temple

⁵ Then he measured the wall of the temple; it was 10 and a half feet^e [thick]. The width of the side rooms all around the temple was seven feet.^h ⁶ The side rooms were arranged one above another in three stories of 30 rooms each.ⁱ There were ledges on the wall of the temple all around to serve as supports for the side rooms, so that the supports would not be in the temple wall [itself]. ⁷ The side rooms surrounding [the temple] widened at each successive story, for the structure surrounding the temple [went up] by stages. This was the reason for the temple's broadness as it rose. And so, one would go up from the lowest story to the highest by means of the middle one.^j

⁸ I saw that the temple had a raised platform surrounding [it]; this foundation for the side rooms was 10 and a half feet high.^k ⁹ The thickness of the outer wall of the side rooms was eight and three-quarter feet.^a The free space between the side rooms of the temple ¹⁰ and the [outer] chambers was 35 feet^c wide all around the temple. ¹¹ The side rooms opened into the free space, one entrance toward the north and another to the south. The area of free space was eight and three-quarter feet^a wide all around.

¹² Now the building that faced the temple yard toward the west was 122 and a half feet^l wide. The wall of the building was eight and three-quarter feet^a thick on all sides, and the building's length was 157 and a half feet.^m

¹³ Then the man measured the temple; it was 175 feetⁿ long. In addition, the temple yard and the building, including its walls, were 175 feet long. ¹⁴ The width of the front of the temple along with the temple yard to the east was 175 feet. ¹⁵ Next he measured the length of the building facing the temple yard to the west, with its galleries^o on each side; it was 175 feet.

Interior Wooden Structures

The interior of the great hall and the porticoes of the court— ¹⁶ the thresholds, the beveled windows, and the balconies all around with their three levels opposite the threshold—were overlaid with wood on all sides. [They were paneled] from the ground to the windows (but the windows were covered), ¹⁷ reaching to the top of the entrance, and as far as the inner temple and on the outside. On every wall all around, on the inside and outside, was a pattern ¹⁸ carved with •cherubim and palm trees. There was a palm tree between each pair of cherubim. Each cherub had two faces: ¹⁹ a human face turned toward the palm tree on one side, and a lion's face turned toward it on the other. They were carved throughout the temple on all sides. ²⁰ Cherubim and palm trees were carved from the ground to the top of the entrance and on the wall of the great hall.

²¹ The doorposts of the great hall were square, and the front of the sanctuary had the same appearance. ²² The altar was^p made of wood, five and a quarter feet^q high and three and a half feet^d long.^r It had corners, and its length^s and sides were of wood. The man told me, "This is the table that stands before the LORD."

²³ The great hall and the sanctuary each had a double door, ²⁴ and each of the doors had two swinging panels. There were two panels for one door and two for the other. ²⁵ Cherubim and palm trees were carved on the doors of the great hall like those carved on the walls. There was a wooden canopy^l outside, in front of the portico. ²⁶ There were beveled windows and palm trees on both sides, on the sidewalls of the portico, the side rooms of the temple, and the canopies.^j

The Priests' Chambers

¹³ Then the man said to me, “The northern and southern chambers that face the temple yard are the holy chambers where the priests who approach the LORD will eat the most holy offerings. There they will deposit the most holy offerings—the •grain offerings, •sin offerings, and •restitution offerings—for the place is holy. ¹⁴ Once the priests have entered, they must not go out from the holy area to the outer court until they have removed the clothes they minister in, for these are holy. They are to put on other clothes before they approach the public area.”

Outside Dimensions of the Temple Complex

¹⁵ When he finished measuring inside the temple complex, he led me out by way of the gate that faced east and measured all around the complex.

¹⁶ He measured the east side with a measuring rod;

it was 875 feet^h by the measuring rod.ⁱ

¹⁷ He^j measured the north side;

it was 875 feet by the measuring rod.ⁱ

¹⁸ He^k measured the south side;

it was 875 feet by the measuring rod.

¹⁹ Then he turned to the west side and measured 875 feet by the measuring rod.

²⁰ He measured the temple complex on all four sides. It had a wall all around [it], 875 [feet] long and 875 [feet] wide, to separate the holy from the common.

Return of the LORD's Glory

43 He led me to the gate, the one that faces east, ² and I saw the glory of the God of Israel coming from the east. His voice sounded like the roar of mighty waters, and the earth shone with His glory. ³ The vision I saw was like the one I had seen when He^l came to destroy the city, and like the ones I had seen by the Chebar Canal. I fell facedown. ⁴ The glory of the LORD entered the temple by way of the gate that faced east. ⁵ Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the inner court, and the glory of the LORD filled the temple.

⁶ While the man was standing beside me, I heard someone speaking to me from the temple. ⁷ He said to me: “Son of man, this is the place of My throne and the place for the soles of My feet, where I will dwell among the Israelites forever. [The house of] Israel and their kings will no longer defile My holy name by their [religious] prostitution and by the corpses^m of their kings at their •high places.ⁿ ⁸ Whenever they placed their threshold next to My threshold and their doorposts beside My doorposts, with [only] a wall between Me and them, they were defiling My holy name by the abominations they committed. ¹⁰ “As for you, son of man, describe the temple to the house of Israel, so that they may be ashamed of their iniquities. Let them measure [its] pattern, ¹¹ and they will be ashamed of all that they have done. Reveal^a the design of the temple to them—its layout with its exits and entrances—its complete design along with all its statutes, design specifications, and laws. Write it down in their sight so that they may observe its complete design and all its statutes and may carry them out. ¹² This is the law of the temple: all its surrounding territory on top of the mountain will be especially holy. Yes, this is the law of the temple.

The Altar

¹³ “These are the measurements of the altar in units of length (each unit being the standard length plus three inches):^b the gutter is 21 inches^c [deep] and 21 inches wide, with a rim of nine inches^d around its edge. This is the base^e of the altar. ¹⁴ [The distance] from the gutter on the ground to the lower ledge is three and a half feet,^f and the width [of the ledge] is 21 inches.^c There are seven feet^g from the small ledge to the large ledge, [whose] width is also 21 inches. ¹⁵ The altar hearth^h is seven feet^g [high], and four horns project upward from the hearth. ¹⁶ The hearth is square, 21 feetⁱ long by 21 feet wide. ¹⁷ The ledge is 24 and a half feetⁱ long by 24 and a half feet wide, with four equal sides. The rim all around it is 10 and a half inches,^k and its gutter is 21 inches^c all around it. The altar’s steps face east.”

¹⁸ Then He said to me: “Son of man, this is what the Lord GOD says: These are the statutes for the altar on the day it is constructed, so that •burnt offerings may be sacrificed on it and blood may be sprinkled on it: ¹⁹ You are to give a bull from the herd as a •sin offering to the Levitical priests who are from the offspring of Zadok, who approach Me in order to serve Me.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD. ²⁰ “You must take some of its blood and apply [it] to the four horns of the altar, the four corners of the ledge, and all around the rim. In this way you will purify the altar and make •atonement for it. ²¹ Then you must take away the bull for the sin offering, and it must be burned outside the sanctuary in the place appointed for the temple.

²² “On the second day you are to present an unblemished male goat as a sin offering. They will purify the altar just as they did with the bull. ²³ When you have finished the purification, you are to present a young, unblemished bull and an unblemished ram from the flock. ²⁴ You must present them before the LORD; the priests will throw salt on them and sacrifice them as a burnt offering to the LORD. ²⁵ You will offer a goat for a sin offering each day for seven days. A young bull and a ram from the flock, both unblemished, must also be offered. ²⁶ For seven days the priests are to make atonement for the altar and cleanse it. In this way they will consecrate it^l ²⁷ and complete the days [of purification]. Then on the eighth day and afterwards, the priests will offer your burnt offerings and •fellowship offerings on the altar, and I will accept you.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

The Prince's Privilege

44 The man then brought me back toward the sanctuary’s outer gate that faced east, and it was closed. ² The LORD said to me: “This gate will remain closed. It will not be opened, and no one will enter through it, because the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered through it. Therefore it will remain closed. ³ The prince himself will sit in the gateway to eat a meal before the LORD. He must enter by way of the portico of the gate and go out the same way.”

⁴ Then the man brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple. I looked, and the glory of the LORD filled His temple. And I fell facedown. ⁵ The LORD said to me: “Son of man, pay attention; look with your eyes and listen with your ears to everything I tell you about all the statutes and laws of the LORD’s temple. Take careful note of the entrance of the temple along with all the exits of the sanctuary.

The Levites' Duties and Privileges

⁶ “Say to the rebellious people, the house of Israel: This is what the Lord GOD says: [I have had] enough of all your abominations, house of Israel. ⁷ When you brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in both heart and flesh, to occupy My sanctuary, you defiled My temple while you offered My food—the fat and the blood. You^a broke My covenant with all your abominations. ⁸ You have not kept charge of My holy things but have appointed [others] to keep charge of My sanctuary for you.

⁹ “This is what the Lord GOD says: No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and flesh, may enter My sanctuary, not even a foreigner who is among the Israelites. ¹⁰ Surely the Levites who wandered away from Me when Israel went astray, and who strayed from Me after their idols, will bear the consequences of their sin. ¹¹ Yet they will occupy My sanctuary, serving as guards at the temple gates and ministering at the temple. They will slaughter the •burnt offerings and [other] sacrifices for the people and will stand before them to serve them. ¹² Because they ministered to the house of Israel before their idols and became a sinful stumbling block to them, therefore I swore an oath^b against them”—[this is] the declaration of the Lord GOD—“that they would bear the consequences of their sin. ¹³ They must not approach Me to serve Me as priests or come near any of My holy things or the most holy things. They will bear their disgrace and the consequences of the abominations they committed. ¹⁴ Yet I will make them responsible for the duties of the temple—for all its work and everything done in it.

The Priests' Duties and Privileges

¹⁵ “But the Levitical priests descended from Zadok, who kept charge of My sanctuary when the Israelites went astray from Me, will approach Me to serve Me. They will stand before Me to offer Me fat and blood.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD. ¹⁶ “They are the ones who may enter My sanctuary and draw near to My table to serve Me. They will keep My mandate. ¹⁷ When they enter the gates of the inner court they must wear linen garments; they must not have on them anything made of wool when they minister at the gates of the inner court and within [it]. ¹⁸ They must wear linen turbans on their heads and linen undergarments around their waists. They are not to put on [anything that makes them] sweat. ¹⁹ Before they go out to the outer court,^c to the people, they must take off the clothes they have been ministering in, leave them in the holy chambers, and dress in other clothes so that they do not transmit holiness to the people through their clothes.

²⁰ “They may not shave their heads or let their hair grow long, but must carefully trim their hair. ²¹ No priest may drink wine before he enters the inner court. ²² He is not to marry a widow or a divorced woman, but must marry a virgin from the offspring of the house of Israel, or a widow who is the widow of a priest. ²³ They must teach My people the difference between the holy and the common, and explain to them the difference between the clean and the unclean.

²⁴ “In a dispute, they will officiate as judges and decide the case according to My ordinances. They must observe My laws and statutes regarding all My appointed festivals, and keep My Sabbaths holy. ²⁵ A priest may not come [near] a dead person so that he becomes defiled. However, he may defile himself for a father, a mother, a son, a daughter, a brother, or an unmarried sister. ²⁶ After he is cleansed, he is to count off seven days for himself. ²⁷ On the day he goes into the sanctuary, into the inner court to minister in the sanctuary, he must present his •sin offering.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

²⁸ “This will be their inheritance: I am their inheritance. You are to give them no possession in Israel: I am their possession. ²⁹ They will eat the •grain offering, the sin offering, and the •restitution offering. Everything in Israel that is permanently dedicated [to the LORD] will belong to them. ³⁰ The best of all the •firstfruits of every kind and contribution of every kind from all your gifts will belong to the priests. You are to give your first batch of dough to the priest so that a blessing may rest on your homes. ³¹ The priests may not eat any bird or animal that died naturally or was mauled by wild beasts.

The Sacred Portion of the Land

45 “When you divide the land by lot as an inheritance, you must set aside a donation to the LORD, a holy portion of the land, eight and one-third [miles]^d long and six and two-thirds [miles]^e wide. This entire tract of land will be holy. ² In this area there will be a square [section]^f for the sanctuary, 875 by 875 [feet],^g with 87 and a half feet^h of open space all around it. ³ From this holy portion,ⁱ you will measure off an area eight and one-third [miles]^j long and three and one-third [miles]^a wide, in which the sanctuary, the most holy place, will stand.^b ⁴ It will be a holy area of the land to be used by the priests who minister in the sanctuary, who draw near to serve the LORD. It will be a place for their houses, as well as a holy area for the sanctuary. ⁵ There will be [another area] eight and one-third [miles]^c long and three and one-third [miles]^a wide for the Levites who minister in the temple; it will be their possession for towns to live in.^d

⁶ “As the property of the city, you must set aside an area one and two-thirds [of a mile]^e wide and eight and one-third [miles]^c long, adjacent to the holy donation [of land]. It will be for the whole house of Israel. ⁷ And the prince will have the area on each side of the holy donation [of land] and the city’s property, adjacent to the holy donation and the city’s property, stretching to the west on the west side and to the east on the east side. [Its] length will correspond to one of the [tribal] portions from the western boundary to the eastern boundary. ⁸ This will be his land as a possession in Israel. My princes will no longer oppress My people but give the [rest of the] land to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

⁹ “This is what the Lord GOD says: You have gone too far,^f princes of Israel! Put away violence and oppression and do what is just and right. Put an end to your evictions of My people.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD. ¹⁰ “You must have honest balances, an honest dry measure,^g and an honest liquid measure.^h ¹¹ The dry measureⁱ and the liquid measure^j will be uniform, with the liquid measure containing five and a half gallons^k and the dry measure [holding] half a bushel.^k Their measurement will be one-tenth of the standard larger capacity measure.^l ¹² The •shekel will weigh 20 gerahs. Your mina will equal 60 shekels.

The People’s Contribution to the Sacrifices

¹³ “This is the contribution you are to offer: Three quarts^m from five bushelsⁿ of wheat and^o three quarts from five bushels of barley. ¹⁴ The quota of oil in liquid measures^p will be one percent of every^q cor. [The cor equals] 10 liquid measures [or] one standard larger capacity measure,^r

since 10 liquid measures equal one standard larger capacity measure. ¹⁵ And [the quota] from the flock is one animal out of every 200 from the well-watered pastures of Israel. [These are] for the •grain offerings, •burnt offerings, and •fellowship offerings, to make •atonement for the people.” [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD. ¹⁶ “All the people of the land must take part in this contribution for the prince in Israel. ¹⁷ Then the burnt offerings, grain offerings, and drink offerings for the festivals, New Moons, and Sabbaths—for all the appointed times of the house of Israel—will be the prince’s responsibility. He will provide the •sin offerings, grain offerings, burnt offerings, and fellowship offerings to make atonement on behalf of the house of Israel.

²¹ “In the first [month], on the fourteenth day of the month, you are to celebrate the •Passover, a festival of seven days [during which] unleavened bread will be eaten. ²² On that day the prince will provide a bull as a sin offering on behalf of himself and all the people of the land. ²³ During the seven days of the festival, he will provide seven bulls and seven rams without blemish as a burnt offering to the LORD on each of the seven days, along with a male goat each day for a sin offering. ²⁴ He will also provide a grain offering of half a bushel^s per bull and half a bushel per ram, along with a gallon^t of oil for every half bushel. ²⁵ At the festival [that begins] on the fifteenth day of the seventh month,^u he will provide the same things for seven days—the same sin offerings, burnt offerings, grain offerings, and oil.

He will bow in worship at the threshold of the gate and then depart, but the gate must not be closed until evening. ³ The people of the land will also bow in worship before the LORD at the entrance of that gate on the Sabbaths and New Moons.

⁴ "The burnt offering that the prince presents to the LORD on the Sabbath day is to be six unblemished lambs and an unblemished ram. ⁵ The •grain offering will be half a bushel^a with the ram, and the grain offering with the lambs will be whatever he wants to give, as well as a gallon^b of oil for every half bushel. ⁶ On the day of the New Moon, [the burnt offering] is to be a young, unblemished bull, as well as six lambs and a ram without blemish. ⁷ He will provide a grain offering of half a bushel^a with the bull, half a bushel with the ram, and whatever he can afford with the lambs, together with a gallon^b of oil for every half bushel. ⁸ When the prince enters, he must go in by way of the gate's portico and go out the same way.

¹² "When the prince makes a freewill offering, whether a burnt offering or a fellowship offering as a freewill offering to the LORD, the gate that faces east must be opened for him. He is to offer his burnt offering or fellowship offering just as he does on the Sabbath day. Then he will go out, and the gate must be closed after he leaves.

¹³ "You must offer an unblemished year-old male lamb as a daily burnt offering to the LORD; you will offer it every morning. ¹⁴ You must also prepare a grain offering every morning along with it: three quarts,^d with one-third of a gallon^e of oil to moisten the fine flour—a grain offering to the LORD. [This is] a permanent statute [to be observed] regularly. ¹⁵ They will offer the lamb, the grain offering, and the oil every morning as a regular burnt offering.

Transfer of Royal Lands

¹⁶ "This is what the Lord GOD says: If the prince gives a gift to each of his sons as their inheritance, it will belong to his sons. It will become their property by inheritance. ¹⁷ But if he gives a gift from his inheritance to one of his servants, it will belong to that servant until the year of freedom, when it will revert to the prince. His inheritance belongs only to his sons; it is theirs. ¹⁸ The prince must not take any of the people's inheritance, evicting them from their property. He is to provide an inheritance for his sons from his own property, so that none of My people will be displaced from his own property."

The Temple Kitchens

¹⁹ Then he brought me through the entrance that was at the side of the gate, into the priests' holy chambers, which faced north. I saw a place there at the far western end. ²⁰ He said to me, "This is the place where the priests will boil the •restitution offering and the •sin offering, and where they will bake the grain offering, so that they do not bring [them] into the outer court and transmit holiness to the people." ²¹ Next he brought me into the outer court and led me past its four corners. There was a [separate] court in each of its corners. ²² In the four corners of the [outer] court there were enclosed^f courts, 70 [feet]^g long by 52 and a half [feet]^h wide. All four corner areas had the same dimensions. ²³ There was a [stone] wallⁱ around the inside of them, around the four of them, with ovens built at the base of the walls on all sides. ²⁴ He said to me: "These are the kitchens where those who minister at the temple will cook the people's sacrifices."

The Life-Giving River

water flowing from under the threshold of the temple toward the east, for the temple faced east. The water was coming down from under the south side [of the threshold] of the temple, south of the altar. ² Next he brought me out by way of the north gate and led me around the outside to the outer gate that faced east; there the water was trickling from the south side. ³ As the man went out east with a measuring line in his hand, he measured off a third of a mile^a and led me through the water. It came up to [my] ankles. ⁴ Then he measured off a third [of a mile] and led me through the water. It came up to [my] knees. He measured off another third [of a mile] and led me through [the water]. It came up to [my] waist. ⁵ Again he measured off a third of a [mile], and it was a river that I could not cross [on foot]. For the water had risen; it was deep enough to swim in, a river that could not be crossed [on foot].

⁶ He asked me, "Do you see [this], son of man?" Then he led me back to the bank of the river. ⁷ When I had returned, I saw a very large number of trees along both sides of the river-bank. ⁸ He said to me, "This water flows out to the eastern region and goes down to the •Ara-bah. When it enters the sea, the sea of foul water,^{b c} the water [of the sea] becomes fresh. ⁹ Every [kind of] living creature that swarms will live wherever the river flows,^d and there will be a huge number of fish because this water goes there. Since the water will become fresh, there will be life everywhere the river goes. ¹⁰ Fishermen will stand beside it from Engedi to En-eglaim.^e These will become places where nets are spread out to dry. Their fish will consist of many different kinds, like the fish of the Mediterranean Sea. ¹¹ Yet its swamps and marshes will not be healed; they will be left for salt. ¹² All [kinds of] trees providing food will grow along both banks of the river. Their leaves will not wither, and their fruit will not fail. Each month they will bear fresh fruit because the water [comes] from the sanctuary. Their fruit will be used for food and their leaves for medicine."

The Borders of the Land

¹³ This is what the Lord GOD says: "This is^f the border you will [use to] divide the land as an inheritance for the 12 tribes of Israel. Joseph will receive two shares. ¹⁴ You will inherit it in equal portions, since I swore^g to give it to your ancestors. So this land will fall to you as an inheritance.

¹⁵ "This is to be the border of the land:

On the north side it will extend from the Mediterranean Sea by way of Hethlon and Lebo-hamath to Zedad,^h ¹⁶ Berothah, and Sibraim (which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath), [as far as] Hazer-hatticon, which is on the border of Hauran. ¹⁷ So the border will run from the sea to Hazar-enon at the border of Damascus, with the territory of Hamath to the north. This will be the northern side.

¹⁸ On the east side it will run between Hauran and Damascus, along the Jordan between Gilead and the land of Israel; you will measure from the [northern] border to the eastern sea.ⁱ This will be the eastern side.

¹⁹ On the south side it will run from Tamar to the waters of Meribath-kadesh,^j and on to the Brook [of Egypt] as far as the Mediterranean Sea. This will be the southern side.

²¹ "You are to divide this land among yourselves according to the tribes of Israel. ²² You will allot it as an inheritance for yourselves and for the foreigners living among you, who have fathered children among you. You will treat them^k like native-born Israelites; along with you, they will be allotted an inheritance among the tribes of Israel. ²³ In whatever tribe the foreigner lives, you will assign his inheritance there." [This is] the declaration of the Lord GOD.

DANIEL

Daniel's Captivity in Babylon

1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar^d king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and laid siege to it. ² The Lord handed Jehoiakim king of Judah over to him, along with some of the vessels from the house of God. Nebuchadnezzar carried them to the land of Babylon,^e to the house of his god,^f and put the vessels in the treasury of his god.

³ The king ordered Ashpenaz, the chief of his court officials,^g to bring some of the Israelites from the royal family and from the nobility—

⁴ young men without any physical defect, good-looking, suitable for instruction in all wisdom, knowledgeable, perceptive, and capable of serving in the king's palace—and to teach them the Chaldean language and literature. ⁵ The king assigned them daily provisions from the royal food and from the wine that he drank. They were to be trained for three years, and at the end of that time they were to serve in the king's court.^h

⁶ Among them, from the descendants of Judah, were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah.

⁷ The chief official gave them [different] names:

to Daniel, he gave the name Belteshazzar; to Hananiah, Shadrach; to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abednego.

Faithfulness in Babylon

⁸ Daniel determined that he would not defile himself with the king's food or with the wine he drank. So he asked permission from the chief official not to defile himself. ⁹ God had granted Daniel favor and compassion from the chief official, ¹⁰ yet he said to Daniel, "My lord the king assigned your food and drink. I'm afraid [of what would happen] if he saw your faces looking thinner than those of the other young men your age. You would endanger my lifeⁱ with the king."

¹¹ So Daniel said to the guard whom the chief official had assigned to Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, ¹² "Please test your servants for 10 days. Let us be given vegetables to eat and water to drink. ¹³ Then examine our appearance and the appearance of the young men who are eating the king's food, and deal with your servants based on what you see." ¹⁴ He agreed with them in this matter and tested them

Faithfulness Rewarded

¹⁷ God gave these four young men knowledge and understanding in every kind of literature and wisdom. Daniel also understood visions and dreams of every kind. ¹⁸ At the end of the time that the king had said to present them, the chief official presented them to Nebuchadnezzar. ¹⁹ The king interviewed them, and among all of them, no one was found equal to Daniel, Haniah, Mishael, and Azariah. So they began to serve in the king's court. ²⁰ In every matter of wisdom and understanding that the king consulted them about, he found them 10 times^b better than all the diviner-priests and mediums in his entire kingdom. ²¹ Daniel remained there until the first year of King Cyrus.

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream

2 In the second year of his reign, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams that troubled him, and sleep deserted him. ² So the king gave orders to summon the diviner-priests, mediums, sorcerers, and Chaldeans^c to tell the king his dreams. When they came and stood before the king, ³ he said to them, "I have had a dream and am anxious to understand it."

⁴ The Chaldeans spoke to the king (Aramaic^d begins here): "May the king live forever. Tell your servants the dream, and we will give the interpretation."

⁵ The king replied to the Chaldeans, "My word is final: If you don't tell me the dream and its interpretation, you will be torn limb from limb,^e and your houses will be made a garbage dump. ⁶ But if you make the dream and its interpretation known to me, you'll receive gifts, a reward, and great honor from me. So make the dream and its interpretation known to me."

⁷ They answered a second time, "May the king tell the dream to his servants, and we will give the interpretation."

⁸ The king replied, "I know for certain you are trying to gain some time, because you see that my word is final. ⁹ If you don't tell me the dream, there is one decree for you. You have conspired to tell me something false or fraudulent until the situation changes. So tell me the dream and I will know you can give me its interpretation."

¹⁴ Then Daniel responded with tact and discretion to Arioch, the commander of the king's guard,^f who had gone out to execute the wise men of Babylon. ¹⁵ He asked Arioch, the king's officer, "Why is the decree from the king so harsh?"^g Then Arioch explained the situation to Daniel. ¹⁶ So Daniel went and asked the king to give him some time, so that he could give the king the interpretation.

¹⁷ Then Daniel went to his house and told his friends Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah about the matter, ¹⁸ [urging] them to ask the God of heaven for mercy concerning this mystery, so Daniel and his friends would not be killed with the rest of Babylon's wise men. ¹⁹ The mystery was then revealed to Daniel in a vision at night, and Daniel praised the God of heaven ²⁰ and declared:

May the name of God
be praised forever and ever,
for wisdom and power belong to Him.

²¹ He changes the times and seasons;
He removes kings and establishes kings.
He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding.

²² He reveals the deep and hidden things;
He knows what is in the darkness,
and light dwells with Him.

²³ I offer thanks and praise to You,
God of my fathers,
because You have given me
wisdom and power.
And now You have let me know what we asked of You,

for You have let us know
the king's mystery.^a

²⁴ Therefore Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had assigned to destroy the wise men of Babylon. He came and said to him, "Don't kill the wise men of Babylon! Bring me before the king, and I will give him the interpretation."

²⁶ The king said in reply to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to tell me the dream I had and its interpretation?"

²⁷ Daniel answered the king: "No wise man, medium, diviner-priest, or astrologer is able to make known to the king the mystery he asked about. ²⁸ But there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries, and He has let King Nebuchadnezzar know what will happen in the last days. Your dream and the visions [that came into] your mind [as you lay] in bed were these: ²⁹ Your Majesty, while you were in your bed, thoughts came [to your mind] about what will happen in the future.^b The revealer of mysteries has let you know what will happen. ³⁰ As for me, this mystery has been revealed to me, not because I have more wisdom than anyone living, but in order that the interpretation might be made known to the king, and that you may understand the thoughts of your mind.

The Dream's Interpretation

³¹ "My king, as you were watching, a colossal statue appeared. That statue, tall and dazzling, was standing in front of you, and its appearance was terrifying. ³² The head of the statue was pure gold, its chest and arms were silver, its stomach and thighs were bronze, ³³ its legs were iron, and its feet were partly iron and partly fired clay. ³⁴ As you were watching, a stone broke off without a hand touching it,^c struck the statue on its feet of iron and fired clay, and crushed them. ³⁵ Then the iron, the fired clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were shattered and became like chaff from the summer threshing floors. The wind carried them away, and not a trace of them could be found. But the stone that struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

³⁶ "This was the dream; now we will tell the king its interpretation. ³⁷ Your Majesty, you are king of kings. The God of heaven has given you sovereignty, power, strength, and glory. ³⁸ Wherever people live—or wild animals, or birds of the air—He has handed them over to you and made you ruler over them all. You are the head of gold.

³⁹ "After you, there will arise another kingdom, inferior to yours, and then another, a third kingdom, of bronze, which will rule the whole earth. ⁴⁰ A fourth kingdom will be as strong as iron; for iron crushes and shatters everything, and like iron that smashes, it will crush and smash all the others.^d ⁴¹ You saw the feet and toes, partly of a potter's fired clay and partly of iron—it will be a divided kingdom, though some of the strength of iron will be in it. You saw the iron mixed with clay, ⁴² and that the toes of the feet were part iron and part fired clay—part of the kingdom will be strong, and part will be brittle. ⁴³ You saw the iron mixed with clay—the peoples will mix with one another^e but will not hold together, just as iron does not mix with fired clay.

⁴⁴ "In the days of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed, and this kingdom will not be left to another people. It will crush all these kingdoms and bring them to an end, but will itself endure forever. ⁴⁵ You saw a stone break off from the mountain without a hand touching it,^f and it crushed the iron, bronze, fired clay, silver, and gold. The great God has told the king what will happen in the future.^g The dream is true, and its interpretation certain."

Nebuchadnezzar's Response

⁴⁶ Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell down, paid homage to Daniel, and gave orders to present an offering and incense to him. ⁴⁷ The king said to Daniel, "Your God is indeed God of gods, Lord of kings, and a revealer of mysteries, since you were able to reveal this mystery." ⁴⁸ Then the king promoted Daniel and gave him many generous gifts. He made him ruler over the entire province of Babylon and chief governor over all the wise men of Babylon. ⁴⁹ At Daniel's request, the king appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to manage the province of Babylon. But Daniel remained at the king's court.

Nebuchadnezzar's Gold Statue

3 King Nebuchadnezzar made a gold statue, 90 feet high and nine feet wide.^a He set it up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon. ² King Nebuchadnezzar sent word to assemble the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the rulers of the provinces to attend the dedication of the statue King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. ³ So the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the rulers of the provinces assembled for the dedication of the statue the king had set up. Then they stood before the statue Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

⁴ A herald loudly proclaimed, "People of every nation and language, you are commanded: ⁵ When you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither,^b lyre,^c harp, drum,^d and every kind of music, you are to fall down and worship the gold statue that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up. ⁶ But whoever does not fall down and worship will immediately be thrown into a furnace of blazing fire."

⁷ Therefore, when all the people heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, and every kind of music, people of every nation and language fell down and worshiped the gold statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

The Furnace of Blazing Fire

⁸ Some Chaldeans took this occasion to come forward and maliciously accuse the Jews. ⁹ They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, "May the king live forever. ¹⁰ You as king have issued a decree that everyone who hears the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, drum, and every kind of music must fall down and worship the gold statue. ¹¹ Whoever does not fall down and worship will be thrown into a furnace of blazing fire. ¹² There are some Jews you have appointed to manage the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men have ignored you, the king; they do not serve your gods or worship the gold statue you have set up."

¹³ Then in a furious rage Nebuchadnezzar gave orders to bring in Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. So these men were brought before the king. ¹⁴ Nebuchadnezzar asked them, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, is it true that you don't serve my gods or worship the gold statue I have set up? ¹⁵ Now if you're ready, when you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, drum, and every kind of music, fall down and worship the statue I made. But if you don't worship it, you will immediately be thrown into a furnace of blazing fire—and who is the god who can rescue you from my power?"

¹⁶ Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego replied to the king, "Nebuchadnezzar, we don't need to give you an answer to this question. ¹⁷ If the God we serve exists, then He can rescue us from the furnace of blazing fire, and He can rescue us from the power of you, the king. ¹⁸ But even if He does not rescue us,^f we want you as king to know that we will not serve your gods or worship the gold statue you set up."

¹⁹ Then Nebuchadnezzar was filled with rage, and the expression on his face changed toward Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He gave orders to heat the furnace seven times more than was customary, ²⁰ and he commanded some of the strongest soldiers in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and throw them into the furnace of blazing fire. ²¹ So these men, in their trousers, robes, head coverings,^g and other clothes, were tied up and thrown into the furnace of blazing fire. ²² Since the king's command was so urgent^h and the furnace extremely hot, the raging flamesⁱ killed those men who carried Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego up. ²³ And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego fell, bound, into the furnace of blazing fire.

Delivered from the Fire

²⁴ Then King Nebuchadnezzar jumped up in alarm. He said to his advisers, "Didn't we throw three men, bound, into the fire?"

"Yes, of course, Your Majesty," they replied to the king.

²⁵ He exclaimed, "Look! I see four men, not tied, walking around in the fire unharmed; and the fourth looks like a son of the gods."^j

²⁶ Nebuchadnezzar then approached the door of the furnace of blazing fire and called: "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, you servants of the •Most High God—come out!" So Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the fire. ²⁷ When the satraps, prefects, governors, and the king's advisers gathered around, they saw that the fire had no effect on^k the bodies of these men: not a hair of their heads was singed, their robes were unaffected, and there was no smell of fire on them. ²⁸ Nebuchadnezzar exclaimed, "Praise to the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego! He sent His angel^a and rescued His servants who trusted in Him. They violated the king's command and risked their lives rather than serve or worship any god except their own God. ²⁹ Therefore I issue a decree that anyone of any people, nation, or language who says anything offensive against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego will be torn limb from limb and his house made a garbage dump. For there is no other god who is able to deliver like this." ³⁰ Then the king rewarded Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

Nebuchadnezzar's Proclamation

4^b King Nebuchadnezzar,

To those of every people, nation, and language, who live in all the earth:

May your prosperity increase. ² I am pleased to tell you about the miracles and wonders the •Most High God has done for me.

³ How great are His miracles,
and how mighty His wonders!
His kingdom is an eternal kingdom,
and His dominion is from generation
to generation.

The Dream

^{4c} I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at ease in my house and flourishing in my palace. ⁵ I had a dream, and it frightened me; while in my bed, the images and visions in my mind alarmed me. ⁶ So I issued a decree to bring all the wise men of Babylon to me in order that they might make the dream's interpretation known to me. ⁷ When the diviner-priests, mediums, Chaldeans, and astrologers came in, I told them the dream, but they could not make its interpretation known to me.

⁸ Finally Daniel, named Belteshazzar after the name of my god—and the spirit of the holy gods is in him—came before me. I told him the dream: ⁹ Belteshazzar, head of the diviners, because I know that you have a spirit of the holy gods and that no mystery puzzles you, explain to me the visions of my dream that I saw, and its interpretation. ¹⁰ In the visions of my mind as I was lying in bed, I saw this:

- There was a tree in the middle
of the earth,
and its height was great.
¹¹ The tree grew large and strong;
its top reached to the sky,
and it was visible to the ends of the^d earth.
¹² Its leaves were beautiful, its fruit
was abundant,
and on it was food for all.
Wild animals found shelter under it,
the birds of the air lived in its branches,
and every creature was fed from it.

¹³ As I was lying in my bed, I also saw in the visions of my mind an observer, a holy one,^e coming down from heaven. ¹⁴ He called out loudly:

- Cut down the tree and chop off
its branches;
strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit.
Let the animals flee from under it,
and the birds from its branches.
¹⁵ But leave the stump with its roots
in the ground,
and with a band of iron and bronze
around it,
in the tender grass of the field.
Let him be drenched with dew
from the sky
and share the plants of the earth with the animals.
¹⁶ Let his mind be changed from that of a man,
and let him be given the mind
of an animal
for seven periods of time.^{f g} ¹⁷ This word is by decree of the observers;
the matter is a command
from the holy ones.
This is so the living will know that the Most High is ruler
over the kingdom of men.
He gives it to anyone He wants and sets over it the lowliest of men.

¹⁸ This is the dream that I, King Nebuchadnezzar, had. Now, Belteshazzar, tell me the interpretation, because none of the wise men of my kingdom can make the interpretation known to me. But you can, because you have the spirit of the holy gods.

The Dream Interpreted

Belteshazzar answered, “My lord, may the dream apply to those who hate you, and its interpretation to your enemies! ²⁰ The tree you saw, which grew large and strong, whose top reached to the sky and was visible to all the earth, ²¹ whose leaves were beautiful and its fruit abundant—and on it was food for all, under it the wild animals lived, and in its branches the birds of the air lived— ²² that tree is you, the king. For you have become great and strong: your greatness has grown and even reaches the sky, and your dominion [extends] to the ends of the earth.

²³ “The king saw an observer, a holy one, coming down from heaven and saying, ‘Cut down the tree and destroy it, but leave the stump with its roots in the ground and with a band of iron and bronze around it, in the tender grass of the field. Let him be drenched with dew from the sky, and share [food] with the wild animals for seven periods of time.’ ²⁴ This is the interpretation, Your Majesty, and this is the sentence of the Most High that has been passed against my lord the king: ²⁵ You will be driven away from people to live with the wild animals. You will feed on grass like cattle and be drenched with dew from the sky for seven periods of time, until you acknowledge that the Most High is ruler over the kingdom of men, and He gives it to anyone He wants. ²⁶ As for the command to leave the tree’s stump with its roots, your kingdom will be restored^a to you as soon as you acknowledge that Heaven^b rules. ²⁷ Therefore, may my advice seem good to you my king. Separate yourself from your sins by doing what is right, and from your injustices by showing mercy to the needy. Perhaps there will be an extension of your prosperity.”

The Sentence Executed

²⁸ All this happened to King Nebuchadnezzar. ²⁹ At the end of 12 months, as he was walking on the roof of the royal palace in Babylon, ³⁰ the king exclaimed, “Is this not Babylon the Great that I have built by my vast power to be a royal residence and to display my majestic glory?”

³¹ While the words were still in the king’s mouth, a voice came from heaven: “King Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is declared that the kingdom has departed from you. ³² You will be driven away from people to live with the wild animals, and you will feed on grass like cattle for seven periods of time, until you acknowledge that the Most High is ruler over the kingdom of men, and He gives it to anyone He wants.”

³³ At that moment the sentence against Nebuchadnezzar was executed. He was driven away from people. He ate grass like cattle, and his body was drenched with dew from the sky, until his hair grew like eagles’ [feathers] and his nails like birds’ [claws].

Nebuchadnezzar’s Praise

³⁴ But at the end of those days, I, Nebuchadnezzar, looked up to heaven, and my sanity returned to me. Then I praised the Most High and honored and glorified Him who lives forever:

For His dominion is an everlasting dominion,
and His kingdom is from generation
to generation.

³⁵ All the inhabitants of the earth
are counted as nothing, and He does what He wants with the army of heaven
and the inhabitants of the earth.
There is no one who can hold back
His hand
or say to Him, “What have You done?”

³⁶ At that time my sanity returned to me, and my majesty and splendor returned to me for the glory of my kingdom. My advisers and my nobles sought me out, I was reestablished over my kingdom, and even more greatness came to me. ³⁷ Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise, exalt, and glorify the King of heaven, because all His works are true and His ways are just. And He is able to humble those who walk in pride.

Belshazzar’s Feast

5 King Belshazzar held a great feast for 1,000 of his nobles and drank wine in their presence. ² Under the influence of the wine, Belshazzar gave orders to bring in the gold and silver vessels that his predecessor^d Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem, so that the king and his nobles, wives, and con-

^a4:26 Lit enduring ^b4:26 = God ^c5:2 Or When he tasted ^d5:2 Or father, or grandfather

cubines could drink from them. ³ So they brought in the gold^a vessels that had been taken from the temple, the house of God in Jerusalem, and the king and his nobles, wives, and concubines drank from them. ⁴ They drank the wine and praised their gods made of gold and silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone.

The Handwriting on the Wall

⁵ At that moment the fingers of a man's hand appeared and began writing on the plaster of the king's palace wall next to the lampstand. As the king watched the hand^b that was writing, ⁶ his face turned pale,^c and his thoughts so terrified him that his hip joints shook and his knees knocked together. ⁷ The king called out to bring in the mediums, Chaldeans, and astrologers. He said to these wise men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this inscription and gives me its interpretation will be clothed in purple, have a gold chain around his neck, and have the third highest position in the kingdom." ⁸ So all the king's wise men came in, but none could read the inscription or make known its interpretation to him. ⁹ Then King Belshazzar became even more terrified, his face turned pale,^d and his nobles were bewildered.

¹¹ There is a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods in him. In the days of your predecessor he was found to have insight, intelligence, and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods. Your predecessor, King Nebuchadnezzar, appointed him chief of the diviners, mediums, Chaldeans, and astrologers. Your own predecessor, the king, ¹² [did this] because Daniel, the one the king named Belteshazzar, was found to have an extraordinary spirit, knowledge and perception, and the ability to interpret dreams, explain riddles, and solve problems. Therefore, summon Daniel, and he will give the interpretation."

Daniel before the King

¹³ Then Daniel was brought before the king. The king said to him, "Are you Daniel, one of the Judean exiles that my predecessor the king brought from Judah? ¹⁴ I've heard that you have the spirit of the gods in you, and that you have insight, intelligence, and extraordinary wisdom. ¹⁵ Now the wise men and mediums were brought before me to read this inscription and make its interpretation known to me, but they could not give its interpretation. ¹⁶ However, I have heard about you that you can give interpretations and solve problems. Therefore, if you can read this inscription and give me its interpretation, you will be clothed in purple, have a gold chain around your neck, and have the third highest position in the kingdom."

¹⁷ Then Daniel answered the king, "You may keep your gifts, and give your rewards to someone else; however, I will read the inscription for the king and make the interpretation known to him. ¹⁸ Your Majesty, the •Most High God gave sovereignty, greatness, glory, and majesty to your predecessor Nebuchadnezzar. ¹⁹ Because of the greatness He gave him, all peoples, nations, and languages were terrified and fearful of him. He killed anyone he wanted and kept alive anyone he wanted; he exalted anyone he wanted and humbled anyone he wanted. ²⁰ But when his heart was exalted and his spirit became arrogant, he was deposed from his royal throne and his glory was taken from him. ²¹ He was driven away from people, his mind was like an animal's, he lived with the wild donkeys, he was fed grass like cattle, and his body was drenched with dew from the sky until he acknowledged that the Most High God is ruler over the kingdom of men and sets anyone He wants over it.

²² "But you his successor, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, even though you knew all this. ²³ Instead, you have exalted yourself against the Lord of heaven. The vessels from His house^g were brought to you, and as you and your nobles, wives, and concubines drank wine from them, you praised the gods made of silver and gold, bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which do not see or hear or understand. But you have not glorified the God who holds your life-breath in His hand and who controls the whole course of your life.^h ²⁴ Therefore, He sent the hand, and this writing was inscribed.

The Inscription's Interpretation

²⁵ "This is the writing that was inscribed:

MENE, MENE, TEKEL, PARSIN

^a5:3 Theod, Vg add and silver ^b5:5 Lit part of the hand ^c5:5-6 Lit writing, ⁶the king's brightness changed

^g5:23 = God's temple ^h5:23 Lit and all your ways belong to Him

²⁶ This is the interpretation of the message:

MENE^a [means that] God has numbered [the days of] your kingdom and brought it to an end.

²⁷ TEKEL^b [means that] you have been weighed in the balance and found deficient.

²⁸ PERES^c [means that] your kingdom has been divided and given to the Medes and Persians.”

²⁹ Then Belshazzar gave an order, and they clothed Daniel in purple, [placed] a gold chain around his neck, and issued a proclamation concerning him that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

³⁰ That very night Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans was killed, ^{31d} and Darius the Mede received the kingdom at the age of 62.

The Plot against Daniel

6 Darius decided^e to appoint 120 satraps over the kingdom, stationed throughout the realm, ² and over them three administrators, including Daniel. These satraps would be accountable to them so that the king would not be defrauded. ³ Daniel^f distinguished himself above the administrators and satraps because he had an extraordinary spirit, so the king planned to set him over the whole realm. ⁴ The administrators and satraps, therefore, kept trying to find a charge against Daniel regarding the kingdom. But they could find no charge or corruption, for he was trustworthy, and no negligence or corruption was found in him. ⁵ Then these men said, “We will never find any charge against this Daniel unless we find something against him concerning the law of his God.”

⁶ So the administrators and satraps went together to the king and said to him, “May King Darius live forever. ⁷ All the administrators of the kingdom, the prefects, satraps, advisers, and governors have agreed that the king should establish an ordinance and enforce an edict that for 30 days, anyone who petitions any god or man except you, the king, will be thrown into the lions’ den. ⁸ Therefore, Your Majesty, establish the edict and sign the document so that, as a law of the Medes and Persians, it is irrevocable and cannot be changed.” ⁹ So King Darius signed the document.

Daniel in the Lions’ Den

¹⁰ When Daniel learned that the document had been signed, he went into his house. The windows in its upper room opened toward Jerusalem, and three times a day he got down on his knees, prayed, and gave thanks to his God, just as he had done before. ¹¹ Then these men went as a group and found Daniel petitioning and imploring his God. ¹² So they approached the king and asked about his edict: “Didn’t you sign an edict that for 30 days any man who petitions any god or man except you, the king, will be thrown into the lions’ den?”

The king answered, “As a law of the Medes and Persians, the order stands and is irrevocable.”

¹³ Then they replied to the king, “Daniel, one of the Judean exiles, has ignored you, the king, and the edict you signed, for he prays three times a day.” ¹⁴ As soon as the king heard this, he was very displeased; he set his mind on rescuing Daniel and made every effort until sundown to deliver him.

¹⁵ Then these men went to the king and said to him, “You as king know it is a law of the Medes and Persians that no edict or ordinance the king establishes can be changed.”

¹⁶ So the king gave the order, and they brought Daniel and threw him into the lions’ den. The king said to Daniel, “May your God, whom you serve continually, rescue you!” ¹⁷ A stone was brought and placed over the mouth of the den. The king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the signet rings of his nobles, so that nothing in regard to Daniel could be changed. ¹⁸ Then the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting. No diversions^g were brought to him, and he could not sleep.

Daniel Released

¹⁹ At the first light of dawn the king got up and hurried to the lions’ den. ²⁰ When he reached the den, he cried out in anguish to Daniel. “Daniel, servant of the living God,” the king said,^h “has your God whom you serve continually been able to rescue you from the lions?”

²¹ Then Daniel spoke with the king: “May the king live forever. ²² My God sent His angel and shut the lions’ mouths. They haven’t hurt me, for I was found innocent before Him. Also, I have not committed a crime against you my king.”

²³ The king was overjoyed and gave orders to take Daniel out of the den. So Daniel was taken out of the den, uninjured, for he trusted in his God. ²⁴ The king then gave the command, and those men who had maliciously accused Daniel^a were brought and thrown into the lions' den—they, their children, and their wives. They had not reached the bottom of the den before the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones.

Darius Honors God

²⁵ Then King Darius wrote to those of every people, nation, and language who live in all the earth: "May your prosperity abound. ²⁶ I issue a decree that in all my royal dominion, people must tremble in fear before the God of Daniel:

- For He is the living God,
and He endures forever;
His kingdom will never be destroyed,
and His dominion has no end.
²⁷ He rescues and delivers;
He performs signs and wonders
in the heavens and on the earth,
for He has rescued Daniel from the power of the lions."

²⁸ So Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius and^b the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Daniel's Vision of the Four Beasts

7 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream with visions in his mind as he was lying in his bed. He wrote down the dream, and here is the summary^c of his account. ² Daniel said, "In my vision at night I was watching, and suddenly the four winds of heaven stirred up the great sea. ³ Four huge beasts came up from the sea, each different from the other.

⁴ "The first was like a lion but had eagle's wings. I continued watching until its wings were torn off. It was lifted up from the ground, set on its feet like a man, and given a human mind.

⁵ "Suddenly, another beast appeared, a second one, that looked like a bear. It was raised up on one side, with three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. It was told, 'Get up! Gorge yourself on flesh.'

⁶ "While I was watching, another beast appeared. It was like a leopard with four wings of a bird on its back. It had four heads and was given authority to rule.

⁷ "While I was watching in the night visions, a fourth beast appeared, frightening and dreadful, and incredibly strong, with large iron teeth.

It devoured and crushed, and it trampled with its feet whatever was left. It was different from all the beasts before it, and it had 10 horns.

⁸ "While I was considering the horns, suddenly another horn, a little one, came up among them, and three of the first horns were uprooted before it. There were eyes in this horn like a man's, and it had a mouth that spoke arrogantly.

The Ancient of Days and the Son of Man

⁹ "As I kept watching,

thrones were set in place,
and the Ancient of Days took His seat.
His clothing was white like snow,
and the hair of His head like whitest wool.
His throne was flaming fire;
its wheels were blazing fire.

- ¹⁰ A river of fire was flowing,
coming out from His presence.
Thousands upon thousands served Him;
ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him.
The court was convened,
and the books were opened.

¹¹ "I watched, then, because of the sound of the arrogant words the horn was speaking. As I continued watching, the beast was killed and its body destroyed and given over to the burning fire. ¹² As for the rest of the beasts, their authority to rule was removed, but an extension of life was granted to them for a certain period of time.

¹³ I continued watching in the night visions,

and I saw One like a son of man
coming with the clouds of heaven.
He approached the Ancient of Days
and was escorted before Him.

- ¹⁴ He was given authority to rule,
and glory, and a kingdom;
so that those of every people,
nation, and language
should serve Him.
His dominion is an everlasting dominion
that will not pass away, and His kingdom is one that will not be destroyed.

Interpretation of the Vision

¹⁵ "As for me, Daniel, my spirit was deeply distressed within me,^d and the visions in my mind terrified me. ¹⁶ I approached one of those who were standing by and asked him the true meaning of all this. So he let me know the interpretation of these things: ¹⁷ ‘These huge beasts, four in number, are four kings who will rise from the earth. ¹⁸ But the holy ones of the •Most High will receive the kingdom and possess it forever, yes, forever and ever.’

^a6:24 Lit had eaten his pieces ^b6:28 Or Darius, even ^c7:1 Lit beginning ^d7:15 Lit was distressed in the middle of its sheath

¹⁹ “Then I wanted to know the true meaning of the fourth beast, the one different from all the others, extremely terrifying, with iron teeth and bronze claws, devouring, crushing, and trampling with its feet whatever was left. ²⁰ [I also wanted to know] about the 10 horns on its head and about the other horn that came up, before which three fell—the horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spoke arrogantly, and that was more visible than the others. ²¹ As I was watching, this horn made war with the holy ones and was prevailing over them ²² until the Ancient of Days arrived and a judgment was given in favor of the holy ones of the Most High, for the time had come, and the holy ones took possession of the kingdom.

²³ “This is what he said: ‘The fourth beast will be a fourth kingdom on the earth, different from all the other kingdoms. It will devour the whole earth, trample it down, and crush it. ²⁴ The 10 horns are 10 kings who will rise from this kingdom. Another, different from the previous ones, will rise after them and subdue three kings. ²⁵ He will speak words against the Most High and oppress^a the holy ones of the Most High. He will intend to change religious festivals^b and laws, and the holy ones will be handed over to him for a time, times, and half a time.^c ²⁶ But the court will convene, and his dominion will be taken away, to be completely destroyed forever. ²⁷ The kingdom, dominion, and greatness of the kingdoms under all of heaven will be given to the people, the holy ones of the Most High. His kingdom will be an everlasting kingdom, and all rulers will serve and obey Him.’

²⁸ “This is the end of the interpretation. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts terrified me greatly, and my face turned pale,^d but I kept the matter to myself.”

The Vision of a Ram and a Goat

8 In the third year of King Belshazzar’s reign, a vision appeared to me, Daniel, after the one that had appeared to me earlier. ² I saw the vision, and as I watched, I was in the fortress city of Susa, in the province of Elam. I saw in the vision that I was beside the Ulai Canal. ³ I looked up,^e and there was a ram standing beside the canal. He had two horns. The two horns were long, but one was longer than the other, and the longer one came up last. ⁴ I saw the ram charging to the west, the north, and the south. No animal could stand against him, and there was no rescue from his power. He did whatever he wanted and became great.

⁵ As I was observing, a male goat appeared, coming from the west across the surface of the entire earth without touching the ground. The goat had a conspicuous horn^f between his eyes. ⁶ He came toward the two-horned ram I had seen standing beside the canal and rushed at him with savage fury. ⁷ I saw him approaching the ram, and infuriated with him, he struck the ram, shattering his two horns, and the ram was not strong enough to stand against him. The goat threw him to the ground and trampled him, and there was no one to rescue the ram from his power. ⁸ Then the male goat became very great, but when he became powerful, the large horn was shattered. Four conspicuous horns came up in its place, [pointing] toward the four winds of heaven.

The Little Horn

⁹ From one of them a little horn emerged and grew extensively toward the south and the east and toward the beautiful land.^g ¹⁰ It grew as high as the heavenly •host, made some of the stars and some of the host fall to the earth, and trampled them. ¹¹ It made itself great, even up to the Prince of the host; it removed His daily sacrifice and overthrew the place of His sanctuary. ¹² Because of rebellion, a host, together with the daily sacrifice, will be given over. The horn will throw truth to the ground and will be successful in whatever it does.

¹³ Then I heard a holy one speaking, and another holy one said to the speaker, “How long will [the events of] this vision last—the daily sacrifice, the rebellion that makes desolate, and the giving over of the sanctuary and of the host to be trampled?”

¹⁴ He said to me,^h “For 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be restored.”

Interpretation of the Vision

¹⁵ While I, Daniel, was watching the vision and trying to understand it, there stood before me someone who appeared to be a man. ¹⁶ I heard a human voice calling from the middle of the Ulai: “Gabriel, explain the vision to this man.”

¹⁷ So he approached where I was standing; when he came near, I was terrified and fell face-down. “Son of man,” he said to me, “understand that the vision refers to the time of the end.” ¹⁸ While he was speaking to me, I fell into a deep sleep, with my face [to the ground]. Then he touched me, made me stand up, ¹⁹ and said, “I am here to tell you what will happen at the conclusion of the time of wrath, because it refers to the appointed time of the end. ²⁰ The two-horned ram that you saw represents the kings of Media and Persia. ²¹ The shaggy goat represents the king of Greece, and the large horn between his eyes represents the first king.^a ²² The four horns that took the place of the shattered horn represent four kingdoms. They will rise from that nation, but without its power.

²³ Near the end of their kingdoms,
when the rebels have reached the full measure of their sin,^b an insolent king, skilled in intrigue,^c will come to the throne.

²⁴ His power will be great,
but it will not be his own.
He will cause terrible destruction and succeed in whatever he does.
He will destroy the powerful along with the holy people.

²⁵ He will cause deceit to prosper
through his cunning and by his influence, and in his own mind he will make himself great.

In [a time of] peace, he will destroy many;
he will even stand against the Prince of princes.

But he will be shattered,
not by human hands.

²⁶ The vision of the evenings and the mornings
that has been told is true.
Now you must seal up the vision
because it refers to many days [in the future].”

²⁷ I, Daniel, was overcome and lay sick for days. Then I got up and went about the king’s business. I was greatly disturbed by the vision and could not understand it.

Daniel’s Prayer

9 In the first year of Darius, who was the son of Ahasuerus, was a Mede by birth, and was ruler over the kingdom of the Chaldeans—
² in the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, understood from the books according to the word of the LORD to Jeremiah the prophet that the number of years for the desolation of Jerusalem would be 70. ³ So I turned my attention to the Lord God to seek Him by prayer and petitions, with fasting, [•]sackcloth, and ashes.

⁴ I prayed to the LORD my God and confessed:

Ah, Lord—the great and awe-inspiring God who keeps His gracious covenant with those who love Him and keep His commandments—
⁵ we have sinned, done wrong, acted wickedly, rebelled, and turned away from Your commandments and ordinances.
⁶ We have not listened to Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your name to our kings, leaders, fathers, and all the people of the land.

⁷ Lord, righteousness belongs to You, but this day public shame belongs to us: the men of Judah, the residents of Jerusalem, and all Israel—those who are near and those who are far, in all the countries where You have dispersed them because of the disloyalty they have shown toward You. ⁸ LORD, public shame belongs to us, our kings, our leaders, and our fathers, because we have sinned against You.
⁹ Compassion and forgiveness belong to the Lord our God, though we have rebelled against Him ¹⁰ and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God by following His instructions that He set before us through His servants the prophets.

¹¹ All Israel has broken Your law and turned away, refusing to obey You. The promised curse^d written in the law of Moses, the servant of God, has been poured out on us because we have sinned against Him. ¹² He has carried out His words that He spoke against us and against our rulers^e by bringing on us so great a disaster that nothing like what has been done to Jerusalem has ever been done under all of heaven. ¹³ Just as it is written in the law of Moses, all this disaster has come on us, yet we have not appeased the LORD our God by turning from our injustice and paying attention to Your truth. ¹⁴ So the LORD kept the disaster in mind and brought it on us, for the LORD our God is righteous in all He has done. But we have not obeyed Him.

¹⁵ Now, Lord our God, who brought Your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand and made Your name [renowned] as it is this day, we have sinned, we have acted wickedly. ¹⁶ Lord, in keeping with all Your righteous acts, may Your anger and wrath turn away from Your city Jerusalem, Your holy mountain; for because of our sins and the injustices of our fathers, Jerusalem and Your people have become an object of ridicule to all those around us.

¹⁷ Therefore, our God, hear the prayer and the petitions of Your servant. Show Your favor to Your desolate sanctuary for the Lord's sake. ¹⁸ Listen,^a my God, and hear. Open Your eyes and see our desolations and the city called by Your name. For we are not presenting our petitions before You based on our righteous acts, but based on Your abundant compassion. ¹⁹ Lord, hear! Lord, forgive! Lord, listen and act! My God, for Your own sake, do not delay, because Your city and Your people are called by Your name.

The 70 Weeks of Years

²⁰ While I was speaking, praying, confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my petition before •Yahweh my God concerning the holy mountain of my God—²¹ while I was praying, Gabriel, the man I had seen in the first vision, came to me in my extreme weariness, about the time of the evening offering. ²² He gave me this explanation: “Daniel, I’ve come now to give you understanding. ²³ At the beginning of your petitions an answer went out, and I have come to give it, for you are treasured [by God]. So consider the message and understand the vision:

- ²⁴ Seventy weeks^b are decreed about your people and your holy city—to bring the rebellion to an end, to put a stop to sin, to wipe away injustice, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most holy place.

- ²⁵ Know and understand this: From the issuing of the decree to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until Messiah the Prince^c will be seven weeks and 62 weeks.^d It will be rebuilt with a plaza and a moat, but in difficult times.
- ²⁶ After those 62 weeks^e the Messiah will be cut off and will have nothing. The people of the coming prince will destroy the city and the sanctuary. The^f end will come with a flood, and until the end there will be^g war; desolations are decreed.
- ²⁷ He will make a firm covenant^h with many for one week,ⁱ but in the middle of the week he will put a stop to sacrifice and offering. And the abomination of desolation will be on a wing of the temple^j ^k until the decreed destruction is poured out on the desolator.”

Vision of a Glorious One

10 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia, a message was revealed to Daniel, who was named Belteshazzar. The message was true and was about a great conflict. He understood the message and had understanding of the vision.

² In those days I, Daniel, was mourning for three full weeks. ³ I didn’t eat any rich food, no meat or wine entered my mouth, and I didn’t put any oil [on my body] until the three weeks were over. ⁴ On the twenty-fourth day of the first month,^l as I was standing on the bank of the great river, the Tigris, ⁵ I looked up, and there was a man dressed in linen, with a belt of gold from Uphaz^m around his waist. ⁶ His body was like topaz,ⁿ his face like the brilliance of lightning, his eyes like flaming torches, his arms and feet like the gleam of polished bronze, and the sound of his words like the sound of a multitude.

⁷ Only I, Daniel, saw the vision. The men who were with me did not see it, but a great terror fell on them, and they ran and hid. ⁸ I was left alone, looking at this great vision. No strength was left in me; my face grew deathly pale,^a and I was powerless. ⁹I heard the words he said, and when I heard them I fell into a deep sleep,^b with my face to the ground.

Angelic Conflict

¹⁰ Suddenly, a hand touched me and raised me to my hands and knees. ¹¹ He said to me, "Daniel, you are a man treasured [by God]. Understand the words that I'm saying to you. Stand on your feet, for I have now been sent to you." After he said this to me, I stood trembling.

¹² "Don't be afraid, Daniel," he said to me, "for from the first day that you purposed to understand and to humble yourself before your God, your prayers were heard. I have come because of your prayers. ¹³ But the prince of the kingdom of Persia opposed me for 21 days. Then Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me after I had been left there with the kings of Persia. ¹⁴ Now I have come to help you understand what will happen to your people in the last days, for the vision refers to those days."

¹⁵ While he was saying these words to me, I turned my face toward the ground and was speechless. ¹⁶ Suddenly one with human likeness touched my lips. I opened my mouth and said to the one standing in front of me, "My lord, because of the vision, I am overwhelmed and powerless. ¹⁷ How can someone like me, your servant,^c speak with someone like you, my lord? Now I have no strength, and there is no breath in me."

¹⁸ Then the one with human likeness touched me again and strengthened me. ¹⁹ He said, "Don't be afraid, you who are^d treasured [by God]. Peace to you; be very strong!"

As he spoke to me, I was strengthened and said, "Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me."

²⁰ He said, "Do you know why I've come to you? I must return at once to fight against the prince of Persia, and when I leave, the prince of Greece will come. ²¹ No one has the courage to support me against them except Michael, your prince. However, I will tell you what is recorded 11 in the book of truth. ¹ In the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to strengthen and protect him. ² Now I will tell you the truth.

Prophecies about Persia and Greece

"Three more kings will arise in Persia, and the fourth will be far richer than the others. By the power he gains through his riches, he will stir up everyone against the kingdom of Greece. ³ Then a warrior king will arise; he will rule a vast realm and do whatever he wants. ⁴ But as soon as he is established, his kingdom will be broken up and divided to the four winds of heaven, but not to his descendants; it will not be the same kingdom that he ruled, because his kingdom will be uprooted and will go to others besides them.

Kings of the South and the North

⁵ "The king of the South will grow powerful, but one of his commanders will grow more powerful and will rule a kingdom greater than his. ⁶ After some years they will form an alliance, and the daughter of the king of the South will go to the king of the North to seal the agreement. She will not retain power, and his strength will not endure. She will be given up, together with her entourage, her father,^e and the one who supported her during those times. ⁷ In the place of the king of the South, one from her family^f will rise up, come against the army, and enter the fortress of the king of the North. He will take action against them and triumph. ⁸ He will take even their gods captive to Egypt, with their metal images and their precious articles of silver and gold. For some years he will stay away from the king of the North, ⁹ who will enter the kingdom of the king of the South and then return to his own land.

¹⁴ "In those times many will rise up against the king of the South. Violent ones among your own people will assert themselves to fulfill a vision, but they will fail. ¹⁵ Then the king of the North will come, build up an assault ramp, and capture a well-fortified city. The forces of the South will not stand; even their select troops will not be able to resist. ¹⁶ The king of the North who comes against him will do whatever he wants, and no one can oppose him. He will establish himself in the beautiful land^a with total destruction in his hand. ¹⁷ He will resolve to come with the force of his whole kingdom and will reach an agreement with him.^b He will give him a daughter in marriage^c to destroy it,^d but she will not stand with him or support him. ¹⁸ Then he will turn his attention to the coasts and islands^e and capture many. But a commander will put an end to his taunting; instead, he will turn his taunts against him. ¹⁹ He will turn his attention back to the fortresses of his own land, but he will stumble, fall, and be no more.

²⁰ “In his place one will arise who will send out a tax collector for the glory of the kingdom; but within a few days he will be shattered, though not in anger^f or in battle.

²⁵ “With a large army he will stir up his power and his courage against the king of the South. The king of the South will prepare for battle with an extremely large and powerful army, but he will not succeed, because plots will be made against him. ²⁶ Those who eat his provisions will destroy him; his army will be swept away, and many will fall slain. ²⁷ The two kings, whose hearts are bent on evil, will speak lies at the same table but to no avail, for still the end will come at the appointed time. ²⁸ The king of the North will return to his land with great wealth, but his heart will be set against the holy covenant;^j he will take action, then return to his own land.

²⁹ “At the appointed time he will come again to the South, but this time^k will not be like the first. ³⁰ Ships of Kittim^l will come against him, and being intimidated, he will withdraw. Then he will rage against the holy covenant and take action. On his return, he will favor those who abandon the holy covenant. ³¹ His forces will rise up and desecrate the temple fortress. They will abolish the daily sacrifice and set up the abomination of desolation. ³² With flattery he will corrupt those who act wickedly toward the covenant, but the people who know their God will be strong and take action. ³³ Those who are wise among the people will give understanding to many, yet they will die by sword and flame, and be captured and plundered for a time. ³⁴ When defeated, they will be helped by some, but many others will join them insincerely. ³⁵ Some of the wise will fall so that they may be refined, purified, and cleansed until the time of the end, for it will still come at the appointed time.

³⁶ “Then the king will do whatever he wants. He will exalt and magnify himself above every god, and he will say outrageous things against the God of gods. He will be successful until the time of wrath is completed, because what has been decreed will be accomplished. ³⁷ He will not show regard for the gods^m of his fathers, the god longed for by women, or for any other god, because he will magnify himself above all. ³⁸ Instead, he will honor a god of fortresses—a god his fathers did not know—with gold, silver, precious stones, and riches. ³⁹ He will deal with the strongest fortresses with [the help of] a foreign god. He will greatly honor those who acknowledge him,ⁿ making them rulers over many and distributing land as a reward.

⁴⁰ “At the time of the end, the king of the South will engage him in battle, but the king of the North will storm against him with chariots, horsemen, and many ships. He will invade countries and sweep through them like a flood. ⁴¹ He will also invade the beautiful land, and many will fall. But these will escape from his power: Edom, Moab, and the prominent people^o of the Ammonites. ⁴² He will extend his power against the countries, and not even the land of Egypt will escape. ⁴³ He will get control over the hidden treasures of gold and silver and over all the riches of Egypt. submission.^a ⁴⁴ But reports from the east and the north will terrify him, and he will go out with great fury to destroy and annihilate many. ⁴⁵ He will pitch his royal tents between the sea and^b the beautiful holy mountain, but he will meet his end with no one to help him.

- 12 At that time
Michael the great prince who stands watch over your people will rise up.
There will be a time of distress
such as never has occurred since nations came into being until that time.
But at that time all your people who are found written in the book
will escape.
- ² Many of those who sleep in the dust
of the earth will awake,
some to eternal life,
and some to shame and eternal contempt.
- ³ Those who are wise will shine

and those who lead many to righteousness,
like the stars forever and ever.

⁵ Then I, Daniel, looked, and two others were standing there, one on this bank of the river and one on the other. ⁶ One said to the man dressed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, “How long until the end of these extraordinary things?” ⁷ Then I heard the man dressed in linen, who was above the waters of the river. He raised both his hands^d toward heaven and swore by Him who lives eternally that it would be for a time, times, and half [a time]. When the power of the holy people is shattered, all these things will be completed.

⁸ I heard but did not understand. So I asked, “My lord, what will be the outcome of these things?”

⁹ He said, “Go on your way, Daniel, for the words are secret and sealed until the time of the end. ¹⁰ Many will be purified, cleansed, and refined, but the wicked will act wickedly; none of the wicked will understand, but the wise will understand. ¹¹ From the time the daily sacrifice is abolished and the abomination of desolation is set up, there will be 1,290 days. ¹² Blessed is the one who waits for and reaches 1,335 days. ¹³ But as for you, go on your way to the end;^e you will rest, then rise to your destiny at the end of the days.”

HOSEA

1 The word of the LORD that came to Hosea son of Beeri during the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and of Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel.

Hosea's Marriage and Children

² When the LORD first spoke to Hosea, He said this to him:

Go and marry a promiscuous wife
and [have] children of promiscuity,
for the whole land has been promiscuous
by abandoning the LORD.

³ So he went and married Gomer daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

⁴ Then the LORD said to him:

Name him Jezreel, for in a little while I will avenge the bloodshed of Jezreel on the house of Jehu
and put an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel.

⁵ On that day I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.^f

⁶ She conceived again and gave birth to a daughter, and the LORD said to him:

Name her No Compassion,^g
for I will no longer have compassion
on the house of Israel.
I will certainly take them away.

⁷ But I will have compassion on the house
of Judah,

^a11:43 Lit Cushites at his steps ^b11:45 Or the seas at ^c12:4 LXX reads and the earth will be filled with unrighteousness
^d12:7 Lit raised his right and his left ^e12:13 LXX omits to the end ^f1:5 = God sows ^g1:6 Hb Lo-ruhamah

and I will deliver them by
the LORD their God.
I will not deliver them by bow, sword,
or war,
or by horses and cavalry.

⁸ After Gomer had weaned No Compassion, she conceived and gave birth to a son. ⁹ Then the LORD said:

Name him Not My People,^a
for you are not My people, and I will not be your God.^b

^{10c} Yet the number of the Israelites will be like the sand of the sea,
which cannot be measured or counted.
And in the place where they were told:
You are not My people,
they will be called: Sons of the living God.
¹¹ And the Judeans and the Israelites will be gathered together.
They will appoint for themselves
a single ruler,
and go up from^d the land.
For the day of Jezreel will be great.

2^e Call^f your brothers: My People and your sisters: Compassion.

Israel's Adultery Rebuked

² Rebuke your mother; rebuke [her].
For she is not My wife and I am not her husband.
Let her remove the promiscuous look
from her face
and her adultery from between her breasts.
³ Otherwise, I will strip her naked and expose her as she was on the day of her birth.
I will make her like a desert
and like a parched land,
and I will let her die of thirst.
⁴ I will have no compassion on her children
because they are the children of promiscuity.
⁵ For their mother is promiscuous;
she conceived them
and acted shamefully.
For she thought: I will go after my lovers,
the men who give me my food
and water,
my wool and flax, my oil and drink.
⁶ Therefore, this is what I will do:

I will block her^g way with thorns;
I will enclose her with a wall,
so that she cannot find her paths.
⁷ She will pursue her lovers
but not catch them;
she will seek them but not find [them].
Then she will think:

I will go back to my former husband,
for then it was better for me than now.

⁸ She does not recognize that it is I who gave her the grain,
the new wine, and the oil.
I lavished silver and gold on her,
which they used for •Baal.
⁹ Therefore, I will take back My grain in its time
and My new wine in its season;
I will take away My wool and linen,
which were to cover her nakedness.
¹⁰ Now I will expose her shame
in the sight of her lovers,
and no one will rescue her from My hands.
¹¹ I will put an end to all her celebrations:
her feasts, New Moons, and Sabbaths—
all her festivals.
¹² I will devastate her vines and fig trees.
She thinks that these are her wages
that her lovers have given her.
I will turn them into a thicket,
and the wild animals will eat them.
¹³ And I will punish her for the days of the Baals
when she burned incense to them,
put on her rings and jewelry,
and went after her lovers,
but forgot Me.

[This is] the LORD's declaration.

Israel's Adultery Forgiven

¹⁴ Therefore, I am going to persuade her,
lead her to the wilderness,
and speak tenderly to her.^h ¹⁵ There I will give her vineyards back to her and make the Valley of Achorⁱ
into a gateway of hope.
There she will respond as [she did]
in the days of her youth,
as in the day she came out of the land
of Egypt.
¹⁶ In that day—
the LORD's declaration—
you will call [Me]: My husband,

^a1:9 Hb Lo-ammi ^b1:9 Lit not be yours ^c1:10 Hs 2:1 in Hb ^d1:11 Or and flourish in; Hb obscure ^e2:1 Hs 2:3 in Hb ^f2:1 Lit Say to ^g2:6 LXX, Syr; MT reads your ^h2:14 Lit speak to her heart ⁱ2:15 = Trouble; Jos 7:26

- and no longer call Me: My Baal.^a
- 17 For I will remove the names of the Baals from her mouth; they will no longer be remembered by their names.
- 18 On that day I will make a covenant for them with the wild animals, the birds of the sky, and the creatures that crawl on the ground. I will shatter bow, sword, and weapons of war in the land^b and will enable the people to rest securely.
- 19 I will take you to be My wife forever. I will take you to be My wife in righteousness, justice, love, and compassion.
- 20 I will take you to be My wife in faithfulness, and you will know the LORD.
- 21 On that day I will respond—the LORD's declaration. I will respond to the sky, and it will respond to the earth.
- 22 The earth will respond to the grain, the new wine, and the oil, and they will respond to Jezreel.
- 23 I will sow her^c in the land for Myself, and I will have compassion on No Compassion; I will say to Not My People: You are My people, and he will say: [You are] My God.

Waiting for Restoration

3 Then the LORD said to me, "Go again; show love to a woman who is loved by another man and is an adulteress, just as the LORD loves the Israelites though they turn to other gods and love raisin cakes."

² So I bought her for 15 •shekels of silver and five bushels of barley.^{d e} ³ I said to her, "You must live with me many days. Don't be promiscuous or belong to any man, and I will act the same way toward you."

⁴ For the Israelites must live many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred pillar, and without •ephod or household idols.

⁵ Afterwards, the people of Israel will return and seek the LORD their God and David their king.

They will come with awe to the LORD and to His goodness in the last days.

God's Case against Israel

- 4 Hear the word of the LORD, people of Israel, for the LORD has a case against the inhabitants of the land: There is no truth, no faithful love, and no knowledge of God in the land!
- 2 Cursing, lying, murder, stealing, and adultery are rampant; one act of bloodshed follows another.
- 3 For this reason the land mourns, and everyone who lives in it languishes, along with the wild animals and the birds of the sky; even the fish of the sea disappear.
- 4 But let no one dispute; let no one argue, for My case is against you priests.^{f g}
- 5 You will stumble by day; the prophet will also stumble with you by night. And I will destroy your mother.
- 6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Because you have rejected knowledge, I will reject you from serving as My priest. Since you have forgotten the law of your God, I will also forget your sons.
- 7 The more they multiplied, the more they sinned against Me. I^h will change their honor into disgrace.
- 8 They feed on the sinⁱ of My people; they have an appetite for their transgressions.
- 9 [The same judgment] will happen to both people and priests. I will punish them for their ways and repay them for their deeds.
- 10 They will eat but not be satisfied; they will be promiscuous but not multiply; for they have abandoned their devotion to the LORD.
- 11 Promiscuity, wine, and new wine take away [one's] understanding.
- 12 My people consult their wooden [idols], and their divining rods inform them.

^a2:16 Or My master ^b2:18 Or war on the earth ^c2:23 = Israel ^d3:2 LXX reads barley and a measure of wine

- For a spirit of promiscuity leads them astray;
they act promiscuously
in disobedience to^a their God.
- 13 They sacrifice on the mountaintops,
and they burn offerings on the hills,
and under oaks, poplars, and terebinths,
because their shade is pleasant.
And so your daughters act promiscuously and your daughters-in-law commit adultery.
- 14 I will not punish your daughters
when they act promiscuously or your daughters-in-law
when they commit adultery,
for the men themselves go off with prostitutes
and make sacrifices with cult prostitutes.
People without discernment are doomed.

Warnings for Israel and Judah

- 15 Israel, if you act promiscuously,
don't let Judah become guilty!
Do not go to Gilgal or make a pilgrimage to Beth-aven,^b and do not swear an oath:
As the LORD lives!
- 16 For Israel is as obstinate as a stubborn cow.
Can the LORD now shepherd them
like a lamb in an open meadow?
- 17 Ephraim is attached to idols;
leave him alone!
- 18 When their drinking is over,
they turn to promiscuity.
Israel's leaders^c fervently love disgrace.^d
- 19 A wind with its wings will carry them off,^e
and they will be ashamed
of their sacrifices.
- 5 Hear this, priests!
Pay attention, house of Israel!
Listen, royal house!
For the judgment applies to you because you have been a snare at Mizpah
and a net spread out on Tabor.
- 2 Rebels are deeply involved in slaughter;
I will be a punishment for all of them.^d
- 3 I know Ephraim,
and Israel is not hidden from Me.
For now, Ephraim,

- you have acted promiscuously;
Israel is defiled.
- 4 Their actions do not allow [them]
to return to their God,
for a spirit of promiscuity is among them,
and they do not know the LORD.
- 5 Israel's arrogance testifies against them.^f
Both Israel and Ephraim stumble
because of their wickedness;
even Judah will stumble with them.
- 6 They go with their flocks and herds
to seek the LORD
but do not find [Him];
He has withdrawn from them.
- 7 They betrayed the LORD;
indeed, they gave birth
to illegitimate children.
Now the New Moon will devour them along with their fields.
- 8 Blow the horn in Gibeah,
the trumpet in Ramah;
raise the war cry in Beth-aven:
After you, Benjamin!
- 9 Ephraim will become a desolation
on the day of punishment;
I announce what is certain
among the tribes of Israel.
- 10 The princes of Judah are like those who move boundary markers;
I will pour out My fury on them like water.
- 11 Ephraim is oppressed, crushed in judgment,
for he is determined to follow
what is worthless.^g
- 12 So I am like rot to Ephraim
and like decay to the house of Judah.
- 13 When Ephraim saw his sickness
and Judah his wound, Ephraim went to Assyria
and sent [a delegation] to the great king.^h
But he cannot cure you or heal your wound.
- 14 For I am like a lion to Ephraim and like a young lion to the house
of Judah.
Yes, I will tear [them] to pieces
and depart.
I will carry [them] off,
and no one can rescue [them].
- 15 I will depart and return to My place until they recognize their guilt and seek
My face;
they will search for Me in their distress.

A Call to Repentance

- 6 Come, let us return to the LORD.
For He has torn [us],
and He will heal us;
He has wounded [us],
and He will bind up our wounds.
- 2 He will revive us after two days,
and on the third day He will raise us up
so we can live in His presence.
- 3 Let us strive to know the LORD.
His appearance is as sure as the dawn.
He will come to us like the rain,
like the spring showers that water
the land.

The LORD's First Lament

- 4 What am I going to do with you, Ephraim?
What am I going to do with you, Judah?
Your loyalty is like the morning mist
and like the early dew that vanishes.
- 5 This is why I have used the prophets to cut them down;^a
I have killed them with the words
of My mouth.
My judgment strikes like lightning.^b
- 6 For I desire loyalty and not sacrifice,
the knowledge of God rather than •burnt offerings.
- 7 But they, like Adam,^c have violated
the covenant;
there they have betrayed Me.
- 8 Gilead is a city of evildoers,
tracked with bloody footprints.
- 9 Like robbers who wait in ambush
for someone,
a band of priests murders on the road
to Shechem.
They commit atrocities.
- 10 I have seen something horrible
in the house of Israel:
Ephraim's promiscuity is there;
Israel is defiled.
- 11 A harvest is also appointed for you, Judah.

- 7 When I^d return My people from captivity,
¹ when I heal Israel,
the sins of Ephraim and the crimes
of Samaria
will be exposed.
For they practice fraud;
a thief breaks in;

a gang pillages outside.

- 2 But they never consider that I remember
all their evil.
Now their sins are all around them;
they are right in front of My face.

Israel's Corruption

- 3 They please the king with their evil,
the princes with their lies.
- 4 All of them commit adultery;
[they are] like an oven heated by a baker who stops stirring [the fire]
from the kneading of the dough
until it is leavened.
- 5 On the day of our king,
the princes are sick with the heat of wine—
there is a conspiracy with traitors.^e
- 6 For they—their hearts like an oven—
draw him into their oven.
Their anger smolders all night;
in the morning it blazes like a flaming fire.
- 7 All of them are as hot as an oven,
and they consume their rulers.
All their kings fall;
not one of them calls on Me.^f
- 8 Ephraim has allowed himself
to get mixed up with the nations.
Ephraim is unturned bread,
baked on a griddle.
- 9 Foreigners consume his strength,
but he does not notice.
Even his hair is streaked with gray,
but he does not notice.
- 10 Israel's arrogances testifies against them,^g
yet they do not return to the LORD
their God,
and for all this, they do not seek Him.
- 11 So Ephraim has become like a silly, senseless dove;
they call to Egypt, and they go to Assyria.
- 12 As they are going, I will spread My net
over them;
I will bring them down like birds of the sky.
I will discipline them in accordance with the news that reaches^h their assembly.

The LORD's Second Lament

- 13 Woe to them, for they fled from Me;
destruction to them, for they rebelled
against Me!

^a6:5 Or have cut down the prophets ^b6:5 LXX, Syr, Tg; MT reads Your judgments go out as light ^c6:7 Or they, as at

- Though I want to redeem [them],
they speak lies against Me.
14 They do not cry to Me from their hearts;
rather, they wail on their beds.
They slash themselves^a for grain
and wine;
they turn away from Me.
15 I trained and strengthened their arms,
but they plot evil against Me.
16 They turn, but not to what is above;^b
they are like a faulty bow.
Their leaders will fall by the sword
because of the cursing of their tongue.
They will be ridiculed for this in the land
of Egypt.

Israel's False Hopes

- 8 [Put] the horn to your mouth!
One like an eagle comes against the house of the LORD, because they transgress My covenant
and rebel against My law.
2 Israel cries out to Me:
My God, we know You!
3 Israel has rejected what is good;
an enemy will pursue him.
4 They have installed kings,
but not through Me.
They have appointed leaders,
but without My approval.
They make their silver and gold into idols for themselves
for their own destruction.^c
5 Your calf-idol^d is rejected, Samaria.
My anger burns against them.
How long will they be incapable of innocence?
6 For this thing is from Israel—
a craftsman made it, and it is not God.
The calf of Samaria will be smashed to bits!
7 Indeed, they sow the wind and reap the whirlwind.
There is no standing grain;
what sprouts fails to yield flour.
Even if they did,
foreigners would swallow it up.
8 Israel is swallowed up!
Now they are among the nations
like discarded pottery.
9 For they have gone up to Assyria
[like] a wild donkey going off on its own.

- Ephraim has paid for love.
10 Even though they hire [lovers]
among the nations,
I will now round them up,
and they will begin to decrease in number
under the burden of the king and leaders.
11 When Ephraim multiplied his altars
for sin,
they became his altars for sinning.
12 Though I were to write out for him
ten thousand points of My law, they would be^e regarded as something alien.
13 Though they offer sacrificial gifts^f
and eat the flesh,
the LORD does not accept them.
Now He will remember their guilt
and punish their sins;
they will return to Egypt.
14 Israel has forgotten his Maker
and built palaces;
Judah has also multiplied fortified cities.
I will send fire on their cities,
and it will consume their citadels.

The Coming Exile

- 9 Israel, do not rejoice jubilantly
as the nations do,
for you have acted promiscuously,
leaving your God.
You have loved the wages of a prostitute
on every grain-threshing floor.
2 Threshing floor and wine vat will not sustain them,
and the new wine will fail them.
3 They will not stay in the land
of the LORD.
Instead, Ephraim will return to Egypt,
and they will eat unclean food in Assyria.
4 They will not pour out their wine offerings to the LORD,
and their sacrifices will not please Him.
Their [food] will be like the bread of mourners;
all who eat it become defiled.
For their bread will be
for their appetites [alone];
it will not enter the house of the LORD.
5 What will you do on a festival day,
on the day of the LORD's feast?
6 For even if they flee from devastation,

^a7:14 Some Hb mss, LXX; other Hb mss read They stay; 1 Kg 18:28 ^b7:16 Others emend to turn to what is useless

^c8:4 Lit themselves that it might be cut off ^d8:5 Lit calf ^e8:12 Or Though I wrote out . . . law, they are ^f8:13 Hb obscure

Egypt will gather them, and Memphis will bury them.
Thistles will take possession
of their precious silver;
thorns will invade their tents.

- 7 The days of punishment have come;
the days of retribution have come.
Let Israel recognize it!
The prophet is a fool,
and the inspired man is insane,
because of the magnitude
of your guilt and hostility.
- 8 Ephraim's watchman is with my God.
The prophet [encounters] a fowler's snare
on all his ways.
Hostility is in the house of his God!
- 9 They have deeply corrupted themselves
as in the days of Gibeah.
He will remember their guilt;
He will punish their sins.

Ephraim Bereaved of Offspring

- 10 I discovered Israel
like grapes in the wilderness.
I saw your fathers
like the first fruit of the fig tree
in its first season.
But they went to Baal-peor, consecrated themselves to Shame,^a
and became detestable,
like the thing they loved.
- 11 Ephraim's glory will fly away like a bird:
no birth, no gestation, no conception.
- 12 Even if they raise children,
I will bereave them of each one.
Yes, woe to them when I depart from them!
- 13 I have seen Ephraim like Tyre, planted in a meadow,
so Ephraim will bring out his children
to the executioner.
- 14 Give them, LORD—
What should You give?
Give them a womb that miscarries
and breasts that are dry!
- 15 All their evil appears at Gilgal,
for there I came to hate them.
I will drive them from My house
because of their evil, wicked actions.
I will no longer love them;
all their leaders are rebellious.
- 16 Ephraim is blighted;
their roots are withered;

they cannot bear fruit.
Even if they bear children,
I will kill the precious offspring
of their wombs.

- 17 My God will reject them
because they have not listened to Him;
they will become wanderers
among the nations.

The Vine and the Calf

- 10 Israel is a lush^b vine;
it yields fruit for itself.
The more his fruit increased,
the more he increased the altars.
The better his land produced,
the better they made the sacred pillars.
- 2 Their hearts are devious;^c
now they must bear their guilt.
The LORD will break down their altars
and demolish their sacred pillars.
- 3 In fact, they are now saying:
"We have no king!
For we do not •fear the LORD.
What can a king do for us?"
- 4 They speak [mere] words,
taking false oaths
while making covenants.
So lawsuits break out like poisonous weeds in the furrows
of a field.
- 5 The residents of Samaria
will have anxiety
over the calf of Beth-aven.
Indeed, its idolatrous priests rejoiced
over it;
the people will mourn over it,
over its glory.
It will certainly depart from them.
- 6 The calf itself will be taken to Assyria
as an offering to the great king.^d
Ephraim will experience shame;
Israel will be ashamed of its counsel.
- 7 Samaria's king will disappear^e
like foam^f on the surface of the water.
- 8 The •high places of Aven,
the sin of Israel,
will be destroyed;
thorns and thistles will grow
over their altars.
They will say to the mountains,
"Cover us!"
and to the hills, "Fall on us!"

^a9:10 = a Hb term of derision for Baal ^b10:1 Or ravaged ^c10:2 Or divided ^d10:6 Or to King Yareb ^e10:7 Or will be cut off ^f10:7 Or a stick

Israel's Defeat because of Sin

- 9 Israel, you have sinned
since the days of Gibeah;
they have taken their stand there.
Will not war against the unjust overtake them in Gibeah?
- 10 I will discipline them at my discretion;
nations will be gathered against them to put them in bondage^a for their two crimes.
- 11 Ephraim is a well-trained young cow
that loves to thresh,
but I will place a yoke on^b her fine neck.
I will harness Ephraim;
Judah will plow;
Jacob will do the final plowing.
- 12 Sow righteousness for yourselves
and reap faithful love;
break up your untilled ground.
It is time to seek the LORD until He comes and sends righteousness on you like the rain.
- 13 You have plowed wickedness
and reaped injustice;
you have eaten the fruit of lies.
Because you have trusted
in your own way^c
and in your large number of soldiers,
- 14 the roar of battle will rise
against your people,
and all your fortifications
will be demolished
in a day of war,
like Shalman's destruction of Beth-arbel.
Mothers will be dashed to pieces along with [their] children.
- 15 So it will be done to you, Bethel,
because of your extreme evil.
At dawn the king of Israel will be totally destroyed.

The LORD's Love for Israel

- 11 When Israel was a child, I loved him,
and out of Egypt I called My son.
2 [The more] they^d called them,^e
[the more] they^e departed from Me.^f
They kept sacrificing to the •Baals and burning offerings to idols.
- 3 It was I who taught Ephraim to walk,

- taking them^g in My arms,
but they never knew that I healed them.
- 4 I led them with human cords,
with ropes of kindness.
To them I was like one who eases the yoke from their jaws;
I bent down to give them food.
- 5 Israel will not return to the land of Egypt and Assyria will be his king,
because they refused to repent.
- 6 A sword will whirl through his cities;
it will destroy and devour the bars of his gates,^h
because of their schemes.
- 7 My people are bent on turning from Me.
Though they call to Him on high,
He will not exalt them at all.
- 8 How can I give you up, Ephraim?
How can I surrender you, Israel?
How can I make you like Admah?
How can I treat you like Zeboiim?
I have had a change of heart;
My compassion is stirred!
- 9 I will not vent the full fury of My anger;
I will not turn back to destroy Ephraim.
For I am God and not man,
the Holy One among you;
I will not come in rage.ⁱ
- 10 They will follow the LORD;
He will roar like a lion.
When He roars,
His children will come trembling
from the west.
- 11 They will be roused like birds from Egypt
and like doves from the land of Assyria.
Then I will settle them in their homes.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.
- 12 Ephraim surrounds me with lies,
the house of Israel, with deceit.
Judah still wanders with El^k
and is faithful to holy ones.^{l m}

God's Case against Jacob's Heirs

- 12 Ephraim chasesⁿ the wind
and pursues the east wind.
He continually multiplies lies
and violence.
He makes a covenant with Assyria,
and olive oil is carried to Egypt.

- 2 The LORD also has a dispute with Judah.
He is about to punish Jacob
according to his ways;
He will repay him based on his actions.
- 3 In the womb he grasped his brother's heel,
and as an adult he wrestled with God.
- 4 Jacob struggled with the Angel
and prevailed;
he wept and sought His favor.
He found him^a at Bethel,
and there He spoke with him.^b
- 5 •Yahweh is the God of •Hosts;
Yahweh is His name.
- 6 But you must return to your God.
Maintain love and justice,
and always put your hope in God.
- 7 A merchant loves to extort
with dishonest scales in his hands.
- 8 But Ephraim says:
"How rich I have become;
I made it all myself.
In all my earnings,
no one can find any crime in me that I can be punished for!"^c

Judgment on Apostate Israel

- 9 I have been the LORD your God
ever since^d the land of Egypt.
I will make you live in tents again,
as in the festival days.
- 10 I spoke through the prophets and granted many visions;
I gave parables through the prophets.
- 11 Since Gilead is full of evil,
they will certainly come to nothing.
They sacrifice bulls in Gilgal;
even their altars will be like heaps of rocks
on the furrows of a field.

Further Indictment of Jacob's Heirs

- 12 Jacob fled to the land of Aram.
Israel worked to earn a wife;
he tended flocks for a wife.
- 13 The LORD brought Israel from Egypt
by a prophet,
and Israel was tended by a prophet.
- 14 Ephraim has provoked bitter anger,
so his Lord will leave his bloodguilt
on him
and repay him for his contempt.

- 13 When Ephraim spoke,
there was trembling;
he was exalted in Israel.
But he incurred guilt through •Baal
and died.
- 2 Now they continue to sin
and make themselves a cast image,
idols skillfully made from their silver,
all of them the work of craftsmen.
People say about them,
"Let the men who sacrifice^e kiss
the calves."
- 3 Therefore, they will be like the morning mist,
like the early dew that vanishes,
like chaff blown from a threshing floor,
or like smoke from a window.

Death and Resurrection

- 4 I have been the LORD your God
ever since^f the land of Egypt;
you know no God but Me,
and no Savior exists besides Me.
- 5 I knew^g you in the wilderness,
in the land of drought.
- 6 When they had pasture,
they became satisfied;
they were satisfied,
and their hearts became proud.
Therefore they forgot Me.
- 7 So I will be like a lion to them;
I will lurk like a leopard on the path.
- 8 I will attack them
like a bear robbed of her cubs and tear open the rib cage
over their hearts.
I will devour them there like a lioness,
like a wild beast that would rip
them open.
- 9 I will destroy you, Israel;
you have no help but Me.^h
- 10 Where now is your king,ⁱ
that he may save you in all your cities,
and the^j rulers^k you demanded, saying:
Give me a king and leaders?
- 11 I give you a king in My anger
and take away [a king] in My wrath.
- 12 Ephraim's guilt is preserved;
his sin is stored up.
- 13 Labor pains come on him.

- 14 I will^b ransom them from the power
of •Sheol.
I will^b redeem them from death.
Death, where are your barbs?
Sheol, where is your sting?
Compassion is hidden from My eyes.

The Coming Judgment

- 15 Although he flourishes
among [his] brothers,^c an east wind will come,
a wind from the LORD rising up from the desert.
His water source will fail,
and his spring will run dry.
The wind^d will plunder the treasury of every precious item.
- 16e Samaria will bear her guilt because she has rebelled against her God.
They will fall by the sword;
their little ones will be dashed to pieces,
and their pregnant women ripped open.

A Plea to Repent

- 14 Israel, return to the LORD your God,
for you have stumbled in your sin.
- 2 Take words [of repentance] with you and return to the LORD.
Say to Him: “Forgive all [our] sin
and accept what is good,
so that we may repay You with praise^f from our^g lips.

- 3 Assyria will not save us,
we will not ride on horses,
and we will no longer proclaim: Our gods!
to the work of our hands.
For the fatherless receives compassion
in You.”

A Promise of Restoration

- 4 I will heal their apostasy;
I will freely love them,
for My anger will have turned from him.
- 5 I will be like the dew to Israel;
he will blossom like the lily
and take root like [the cedars of] Lebanon.
- 6 His new branches will spread,
and his splendor will be like the olive tree,
his fragrance, like [the forest of] Lebanon.
- 7 The people will return and live
beneath his shade.
They will grow grain
and blossom like the vine.
His renown will be like the wine
of Lebanon.
- 8 Ephraim, why should I^h have anything more
to do with idols?
It is I who answer and watch over him.
I am like a flourishing pine tree;
your fruit comes from Me.
- 9 Let whoever is wise understand
these things,
and whoever is insightful recognize them.
For the ways of the LORD are right,
and the righteous walk in them,
but the rebellious stumble in them.

JOEL

- 1 The word of the LORD that came to Joel son
of Pethuel:

A Plague of Locusts

- 2 Hear this, you elders;
listen, all you inhabitants of the land.
Has anything like this ever happened
in your days

- or in the days of your ancestors?
- 3 Tell your children about it,
and let your children tell their children,
and their children the next generation.
- 4 What the devouring locust has left,
the swarming locust has eaten;
what the swarming locust has left,
the young locust has eaten;

^a13:13 Lit he will not present himself at the opening of the womb for sons ^b13:14 Or Should I . . . ? ^c13:15 Or among reeds ^d13:15 Probably = the Assyrian king ^e13:16 Hs 14:1 in Hb ^f14:2 LXX reads with the fruit ^g14:2 Lit repay the bulls of our ^h14:8 LXX reads he and what the young locust has left,

the destroying locust has eaten.

- 5 Wake up, you drunkards, and weep;
wail, all you wine drinkers,
because of the sweet wine,
for it has been taken from your mouth.
- 6 For a nation has invaded My land, powerful and without number;
its teeth are the teeth of a lion,
and it has the fangs of a lioness.
- 7 It has devastated My grapevine
and splintered My fig tree.
It has stripped off its bark and thrown it away;
its branches have turned white.
- 8 Grieve like a young woman dressed in •sackcloth, [mourning] for the husband
of her youth.
- 9 •Grain and drink offerings have been cut off
from the house of the LORD;
the priests, who are ministers of the LORD, mourn.
- 10 The fields are destroyed;
the land grieves;
indeed, the grain is destroyed;
the new wine is dried up;
and the olive oil fails.
- 11 Be ashamed, you farmers, wail, you vinedressers,^a
over the wheat and the barley,
because the harvest of the field
has perished.
- 12 The grapevine is dried up,
and the fig tree is withered;
the pomegranate, the date palm,
and the apple—
all the trees of the orchard—
have withered.
Indeed, human joy has dried up.
- 13 Dress [in sackcloth] and lament,
you priests;
wail, you ministers of the altar.
Come and spend the night in sackcloth,
you ministers of my God,
because grain and drink offerings
are withheld from the house of your God.
- 14 Announce a sacred fast;
proclaim an assembly!
Gather the elders
and all the residents of the land

at the house of the LORD your God,
and cry out to the LORD.

The Day of the LORD

- 15 Woe because of that day!
For the Day of the LORD is near
and will come as devastation
from the •Almighty.
- 16 Hasn't the food been cut off
before our eyes,
joy and gladness
from the house of our God?
- 17 The seeds lie shriveled in their casings.^b
The storehouses are in ruin,
and the granaries are broken down,
because the grain has withered away.
- 18 How the animals groan!
The herds of cattle wander in confusion
since they have no pasture.
Even the flocks of sheep suffer punishment.
- 19 I call to You, LORD,
for fire has consumed
the pastures of the wilderness,
and flames have devoured
all the trees of the countryside.
- 20 Even the wild animals cry out to^c You,
for the river beds are dried up,
and fire has consumed
the pastures of the wilderness.

2

- Blow the horn in Zion;
sound the alarm on My holy mountain!
Let all the residents of the land tremble,
for the Day of the LORD is coming;
in fact, it is near—
- 2 a day of darkness and gloom,
a day of clouds and dense overcast,
like the dawn spreading
over the mountains;
a great and strong people [appears],
such as never existed in ages past and never will again
in all the generations to come.
- 3 A fire destroys^d in front of them,
and behind them a flame devours.
The land in front of them
is like the Garden of Eden,
but behind them,
it is like a desert wasteland;
there is no escape from them.
- 4 Their appearance is like that of horses,
and they gallop like war horses.

Their sound is like the sound of chariots,
like the sound of fiery flames
consuming stubble,
like a mighty army deployed for war.
- 6 Nations writhe in horror before them;
all faces turn pale.
- 7 They attack as warriors [attack];
they scale walls as men of war [do].
Each goes on his own path,
and they do not change their course.
- 8 They do not push each other;
each man proceeds on his own path.
They dodge the missiles, never stopping.
- 9 They storm the city;
they run on the wall;
they climb into the houses;
they enter through the windows
like thieves.
- 10 The earth quakes before them;
the sky shakes.
The sun and moon grow dark,
and the stars cease their shining.
- 11 The LORD raises His voice
in the presence of His army.
His camp is very large;
Those who carry out His command
are powerful.
Indeed, the Day of the LORD is terrible and dreadful—
who can endure it?

God's Call for Repentance

- 12 Even now—
[this is] the LORD's declaration—
turn to Me with all your heart,
with fasting, weeping, and mourning.
- 13 Tear your hearts,
not just your clothes,
and return to the LORD your God.
For He is gracious and compassionate,
slow to anger, rich in faithful love,
and He relents from sending disaster.
- 14 Who knows? He may turn and relent and leave a blessing behind Him, [so you can] offer grain and wine to the LORD your God.
- 15 Blow the horn in Zion!
Announce a sacred fast;
proclaim an assembly.
- 16 Gather the people;
sanctify the congregation;

assemble the aged;^a gather the children,
even those nursing at the breast.
Let the bridegroom leave his bedroom,
and the bride her honeymoon chamber.

17 Let the priests, the LORD's ministers, weep between the portico^b and the altar.
Let them say:
"Have pity on Your people, LORD,
and do not make Your inheritance
a disgrace,
an object of scorn among the nations.
Why should it be said among the peoples,
'Where is their God?'"

God's Response to His People

18 Then the LORD became jealous for His land and spared His people. 19 The LORD answered
His people:

- Look, I am about to send you grain, new wine, and olive oil.
You will be satiated with them,
and I will no longer make you a disgrace among the nations.
- 20 I will drive the northerner far from you and banish him to a dry
and desolate land,
his front ranks into the Dead Sea,
and his rear guard
into the Mediterranean Sea.
His stench will rise;
yes, his rotten smell will rise,
for he has done catastrophic things.
- 21 Don't be afraid, land;
rejoice and be glad,
for the LORD has done great things.
- 22 Don't be afraid, wild animals,
for the wilderness pastures
have turned green,
the trees bear their fruit,
and the fig tree and grapevine yield their riches.
- 23 Children of Zion, rejoice and be glad
in the LORD your God, because He gives you the autumn rain
for your vindication.^c
He sends showers for you,
both autumn and spring rain as before.
- 24 The threshing floors will be full of grain,
and the vats will overflow
with new wine and olive oil.

^a2:16 Or elders ^b2:17 = the temple porch; 1 Kg 6:3; 7:6–21 ^c2:23 Or righteousness

that the swarming locust ate,

and the devouring locust—
My great army that I sent against you.
- 26 You will have plenty to eat and be satisfied.
You will praise the name of •Yahweh
your God,
who has dealt wondrously with you.
My people will never again be put
to shame.
- 27 You will know that I am present in Israel
and that I am the LORD your God,
and there is no other.
My people will never again be put
to shame.

God's Promise of His Spirit

- 28a After this
I will pour out My Spirit on all humanity;
then your sons and your daughters
will prophesy,
your old men will have dreams,
and your young men will see visions.
- 29 I will even pour out My Spirit
on the male and female slaves in those days.
- 30 I will display wonders
in the heavens and on the earth:
blood, fire, and columns of smoke.
- 31 The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood
before the great and awe-inspiring Day of the LORD comes.
- 32 Then everyone who calls
on the name of Yahweh will be saved, for there will be an escape
for those on Mount Zion
and in Jerusalem,
as the LORD promised,
among the survivors the LORD calls.

Judgment of the Nations

- 3^b Yes, in those days and at that time,
when I restore the fortunes of Judah
and Jerusalem,
- 2 I will gather all the nations
and take them to the Valley of Jehoshaphat.^c
I will enter into judgment with them there because of My people,
My inheritance Israel.

The nations have scattered the Israelites in foreign countries and divided up My land.

- 3 They cast lots for My people;
they bartered a boy for a prostitute
and sold a girl for wine to drink.
- 4 And also: Tyre, Sidon, and all the territories of Philistia—what are you to Me? Are you paying Me back or trying to get even with Me? I will quickly bring retribution on your heads. ⁵ For you took My silver and gold and carried My finest treasures to your temples. ⁶ You sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks to remove them far from their own territory.
⁷ Look, I am about to rouse them up from the place where you sold them; I will bring retribution on your heads. ⁸ I will sell your sons and daughters into the hands of the people of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabceans,^d to a distant nation, for the LORD has spoken.
- 9 Proclaim this among the nations:
Prepare for holy war;
rouse the warriors;
let all the men of war advance and attack!
- 10 Hammer your plowshares into swords
and your pruning knives into spears.
Let even the weakling say: I am a warrior.
- 11 Come quickly,^e
all you surrounding nations;
gather yourselves.
Bring down Your warriors there, LORD.
- 12 Let the nations be roused
and come to the Valley of Jehoshaphat, for there I will sit down
to judge all the surrounding nations.
- 13 Swing the sickle
because the harvest is ripe.
Come and trample [the grapes]
because the winepress is full;
the wine vats overflow
because the wickedness of the nations
is great.
- 14 Multitudes, multitudes
in the valley of decision!
For the Day of the LORD is near
in the valley of decision.
- 15 The sun and moon will grow dark,
and the stars will cease their shining.
- 16 The LORD will roar from Zion
and raise His voice from Jerusalem;
heaven and earth will shake.

Israel Blessed

- ¹⁷ Then you will know that I am the LORD your God,
who dwells in Zion, My holy mountain.
Jerusalem will be holy,
and foreigners will never overrun it again.
- ¹⁸ In that day
the mountains will drip with sweet wine,
and the hills will flow with milk.
All the streams of Judah will flow
with water,

and a spring will issue
from the LORD's house, watering the Valley of Acacias.^a ¹⁹ Egypt will become desolate,

and Edom a desert wasteland,
because of the violence [done]
to the people of Judah
in whose land they shed innocent blood.

²⁰ But Judah will be inhabited forever, and Jerusalem from generation
to generation.

²¹ I will pardon their bloodguilt,^b
[which] I have not pardoned, for the LORD dwells in Zion.

AMOS

1 The words of Amos, who was one of the sheep breeders^c from Tekoa—what he saw regarding Israel in the days of Uzziah, king of Judah, and Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel,
two years before the earthquake.

² He said:

The LORD roars from Zion
and raises His voice from Jerusalem;
the pastures of the shepherds mourn,^d
and the summit of Carmel withers.

Judgment on Israel's Neighbors

³ The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing Damascus
for three crimes, even four,
because they threshed Gilead with iron sledges.

⁴ Therefore, I will send fire against Hazael's palace,
and it will consume Ben-hadad's citadels.

⁵ I will break down the gates^e of Damascus.
I will cut off the ruler from the Valley of Aven,
and the one who wields the scepter
from Beth-eden.
The people of Aram will be exiled to Kir.
The LORD has spoken.

⁶ The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing Gaza
for three crimes, even four,

because they exiled
a whole community,
handing them over to Edom.

⁷ Therefore, I will send fire against the walls of Gaza,
and it will consume its citadels.

⁸ I will cut off the ruler from Ashdod,
and the one who wields the scepter
from Ashkelon.

I will also turn My hand against Ekron, and the remainder of the Philistines
will perish.

The Lord GOD has spoken.

⁹ The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing Tyre
for three crimes, even four,
because they handed over a whole community of exiles to Edom
and broke^f a treaty of brotherhood.

¹⁰ Therefore, I will send fire against the walls of Tyre,
and it will consume its citadels.

¹¹ The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing Edom
for three crimes, even four,
because he pursued his brother
with the sword.
He stifled his compassion,
his anger tore [at them] continually,
and he harbored his rage incessantly.

13 The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing the Ammonites
for three crimes, even four,
because they ripped open
the pregnant women of Gilead
in order to enlarge their territory.

- 14 Therefore, I will set fire to the walls of Rabbah,
and it will consume its citadels.

There will be shouting on the day of battle and a violent wind on the day of the storm.

- 15 Their king and his princes will go into exile together.
The LORD has spoken.

2 The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing Moab
for three crimes, even four,
because he burned to lime
the bones of the king of Edom.

- 2 Therefore, I will send fire against Moab,
and it will consume the citadels
of Kerioth.

Moab will die with a tumult,
with shouting and the sound
of the ram's horn.

- 3 I will cut off the judge from the land
and kill all its officials with him.
The LORD has spoken.

Judgment on Judah

4 The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing Judah
for three crimes, even four,
because they have rejected the law
of the LORD
and have not kept His statutes.
The lies that their ancestors followed have led them astray.

- 5 Therefore, I will send fire against Judah,
and it will consume the citadels
of Jerusalem.

Judgment on Israel

6 The LORD says:

I will not relent from punishing Israel
for three crimes, even four,

because they sell a righteous person for silver
and a needy person for a pair of sandals.

- 7 They trample the heads of the poor
on the dust of the ground and block the path of the needy.
A man and his father have sexual relations with the same girl,
profaning My holy name.

- 8 They stretch out beside every altar
on garments taken as collateral, and they drink in the house of their God
wine obtained through fines.

- 9 Yet I destroyed the Amorite
as Israel advanced;
his height was like the cedars,
and he was as sturdy as the oaks;
I destroyed his fruit above
and his roots beneath.

- 10 And I brought you from the land of Egypt and led you 40 years in the wilderness in order to possess the land of the Amorite.

- 11 I raised up some of your sons as prophets and some of your young men
as Nazirites.

Is this not the case, Israelites?

[This is] the LORD's declaration.

- 12 But you made the Nazirites drink wine
and commanded the prophets:
Do not prophesy.

- 13 Look, I am about to crush^a [you]
in your place
as a wagon full of sheaves crushes [grain].

- 14 Escape will fail the swift,
the strong one will not prevail
by his strength,
and the brave will not save his life.

- 15 The archer will not stand [his ground],
the [one who is] swift of foot
will not save himself, and the one riding a horse will not save
his life.

- 16 Even the most courageous of the warriors will flee naked on that day—
the LORD's declaration.

God's Reasons for Punishing Israel

3 Listen to this message that the LORD has spoken against you, Israelites, against the entire clan that I brought from the land of Egypt:

^a2:13 Or hinder; Hb obscure

- 2 I have known only you out of all the clans of the earth;
therefore, I will punish you for all your iniquities.
- 3 Can two walk together without agreeing to meet?^a
- 4 Does a lion roar in the forest
when it has no prey?
Does a young lion growl from its lair
unless it has captured [something]?
- 5 Does a bird land in a trap on the ground
if there is no bait for it?
Does a trap spring from the ground
when it has caught nothing?
- 6 If a ram's horn is blown in a city,
aren't people afraid?
If a disaster occurs in a city,
hasn't the LORD done it?
- 7 Indeed, the Lord GOD does nothing without revealing His counsel to His servants the prophets.
- 8 A lion has roared;
who will not fear?
The Lord GOD has spoken;
who will not prophesy?
- 9 Proclaim on the citadels in Ashdod
and on the citadels in the land of Egypt:
Assemble on the mountains of Samaria and see the great turmoil in the city and the acts of oppression within it.
- 10 The people are incapable of doing right—
the LORD's declaration—
those who store up violence and destruction
in their citadels.
- 11 Therefore, the Lord GOD says:
An enemy will surround the land;
he will destroy your strongholds
and plunder your citadels.
- 12 The LORD says:
As the shepherd snatches two legs
or a piece of an ear
from the lion's mouth,
so the Israelites who live in Samaria will be rescued
with [only] the corner of a bed
or the^b cushion^c of a couch.^d

- 13 Listen and testify against the house
of Jacob—
[this is] the declaration of the Lord GOD, the God of •Hosts.
- 14 I will punish the altars of Bethel
on the day I punish Israel for its crimes;
the horns of the altar will be cut off
and fall to the ground.
- 15 I will demolish the winter house
and the summer house;
the houses [inlaid with] ivory
will be destroyed,
and the great houses will come
to an end—
the LORD's declaration.

Social and Spiritual Corruption

- 4 Listen to this message, you cows
of Bashan
who are on the hill of Samaria, women who oppress the poor
and crush the needy,
who say to their husbands,
“Bring us something to drink.”
- 2 The Lord GOD has sworn by His holiness:
Look, the days are coming^e
when you will be taken away
with hooks,
every last [one] of you with fishhooks.
- 3 You will go through breaches in the wall,
each woman straight ahead,
and you will be driven along toward Harmon.
[This is] the LORD's declaration.
- 4 Come to Bethel and rebel;
rebel even more at Gilgal!
Bring your sacrifices every morning,
your tenths every three days.
- 5 Offer leavened bread as a thank offering,
and loudly proclaim
your freewill offerings,
for that is what you Israelites love [to do]!
[This is] the LORD's declaration.

God's Discipline and Israel's Apostasy

- 6 I gave you absolutely nothing to eat^f
in all your cities,

your communities,

yet you did not return to Me—
the LORD's declaration.

- 7 I also withheld the rain from you while there were still three months until harvest.

I sent rain on one city
but no rain on another.
One field received rain
while a field with no rain withered.

- 8 Two or three cities staggered to another city to drink water
but were not satisfied,
yet you did not return to Me—
the LORD's declaration.

- 9 I struck you with blight and mildew;
the locust devoured
your many gardens and vineyards,
your fig trees and olive trees,
yet you did not return to Me—
the LORD's declaration.

- 10 I sent plagues like those of Egypt;
I killed your young men with the sword,
along with your captured horses.
I caused the stench of your camp
to fill your nostrils,
yet you did not return to Me—
the LORD's declaration.

- 11 I overthrew some of you
as I^a overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and you were like a burning stick snatched from a fire,
yet you did not return to Me—
the LORD's declaration.

- 12 Therefore, Israel, that is what I will do
to you,
and since I will do that to you,
Israel, prepare to meet your God!

- 13 He is here:
the One who forms the mountains,
creates the wind,
and reveals His^b thoughts to man,
the One who makes the dawn
out of darkness
and strides on the heights of the earth.
•Yahweh, the God of •Hosts,
is His name.

Lamentation for Israel

- 5 Listen to this message that I am singing for you, a lament, house of Israel:

- 2 She has fallen;
Virgin Israel will never rise again.
She lies abandoned on her land,
with no one to raise her up.

- 3 For the Lord GOD says:

The city that marches out
a thousand [strong]
will have [only] a hundred left,
and the one that marches out
a hundred [strong]
will have [only] ten left in the house
of Israel.

Seek God and Live

- 4 For the LORD says to the house of Israel:

Seek Me and live!

- 5 Do not seek Bethel
or go to Gilgal
or journey to Beer-sheba,
for Gilgal will certainly go into exile,
and Bethel will come to nothing.
- 6 Seek •Yahweh and live,
or He will spread like fire [throughout] the house of Joseph;
it will consume [everything,]
with no one at Bethel to extinguish it.
- 7 Those who turn justice into •wormwood throw righteousness to the ground.
- 8 The One who made the Pleiades and Orion, who turns darkness^c into dawn
and darkens day into night,
who summons the waters of the sea
and pours them out over the face
of the earth—
Yahweh is His name.
- 9 He brings destruction^d on the strong,^e
and it falls on the stronghold.
- 10 They hate the one who convicts [the guilty]
at the city •gate
and despise the one who speaks
with integrity.
- 11 Therefore, because you trample on
the poor
and exact a grain tax from him,
you will never live in the houses of cut stone
you have built;
you will never drink the wine
from the lush vineyards
you have planted.

- 12 For I know your crimes are many
and your sins innumerable.
They oppress the righteous, take a bribe,
and deprive the poor of justice
at the gates.
- 13 Therefore, the wise person
will keep silent
at such a time,
for the days are evil.
- 14 Seek good and not evil
so that you may live,
and the LORD, the God of •Hosts,
will be with you,
as you have claimed.
- 15 Hate evil and love good;
establish justice in the gate.
Perhaps the LORD, the God of Hosts, will be gracious
to the remnant of Joseph.
- 16 Therefore Yahweh, the God of Hosts, the Lord, says:

There will be wailing in all
the public squares;
they will cry out in anguish^a in all the streets.
The farmer will be called on to mourn,
and professional mourners^b to wail.

17 There will be wailing in all the vineyards,
for I will pass among you.
The LORD has spoken.

The Day of the LORD

- 18 Woe to you who long for the Day
of the LORD!
What will the Day of the LORD be for you?
It will be darkness and not light.
- 19 It will be like a man who flees from a lion
only to have a bear confront him.
He goes home and rests his hand against the wall
only to have a snake bite him.
- 20 Won't the Day of the LORD
be darkness rather than light,
even gloom without any brightness in it?
- 21 I hate, I despise your feasts!
I can't stand the stench
of your solemn assemblies.
- 22 Even if you offer Me
your •burnt offerings and •grain offerings,
I will not accept [them];

I will have no regard for your •fellowship offerings of fattened cattle.

- 23 Take away from Me the noise of your songs!
I will not listen to the music of your harps.
- 24 But let justice flow like water,
and righteousness,
like an unfailing stream.

25 “House of Israel, was it sacrifices and grain offerings that you presented to Me during the 40 years in the wilderness? ²⁶ But you have taken up^c Sakkuth^d e your king^f and Kaiwang^g h your star god, images you have made for yourselves. ²⁷ So I will send you into exile beyond Damascus.” Yahweh, the God of Hosts, is His name. He has spoken.

Woe to the Complacent

those the house of Israel comes to.
- 2 Cross over to Calneh and see;
go from there to great Hamath;
then go down to Gath of the Philistines.
Are you better than these kingdoms?
Is their territory larger than yours?
- 3 You dismiss any thought of the evil day
and bring in a reign of violence.
- 4 They lie on beds [inlaid with] ivory,
sprawled out on their couches,

like David.
- 6 They drink wine by the bowlful
and anoint themselves with the finest oils
but do not grieve over the ruin of Joseph.
- 7 Therefore, they will now go into exile
as the first of the captives,
and the feasting of those who sprawl out will come to an end.

I loathe Jacob's pride
and hate his citadels,
so I will hand over the city
and everything in it.

⁹ And if there are 10 men left in one house, they will die. ¹⁰ A close relative^a and a burner,^b will remove his corpse^c from the house. He will call to someone in the inner recesses of the house, "Any more with you?"

That person will reply, "None."

Then he will say, "Silence, because Yahweh's name must not be invoked."

¹¹ For the LORD commands:

The large house will be smashed
to pieces,
and the small house to rubble.

¹² Do horses run on rock,
or does someone plow [it] with oxen?^d
Yet you have turned justice into poison and the fruit of righteousness into •wormwood—

¹³ you who rejoice over Lo-debar and say, "Didn't we capture Karnaim for ourselves by our own strength?"

¹⁴ But look, I am raising up a nation against you, house of Israel—[this is] the declaration of the Lord,
the GOD of Hosts—
and they will oppress you from the entrance of Hamath^e to the Brook of the •Arabah.^f

First Vision: Locusts

7 The Lord GOD showed me this: He was forming a swarm of locusts at the time the spring crop first began to sprout—after the cutting of the king's hay. ² When the locusts finished eating the vegetation of the land, I said, "Lord GOD, please forgive! How will Jacob survive since he is so small?"

³ The LORD relented concerning this. "It will not happen," He said.

Second Vision: Fire

⁴ The Lord GOD showed me this: The Lord GOD was calling for a judgment by fire. It consumed the great deep and devoured the land. ⁵ Then I said, "Lord GOD, please stop! How will Jacob survive since he is so small?"

⁶ The LORD relented concerning this. "This will not happen either," said the Lord GOD.

Third Vision: A Plumb Line

⁷ He showed me this: The Lord was standing there by a vertical wall with a plumb line in His hand. ⁸ The LORD asked me, "What do you see, Amos?"

I replied, "A plumb line."

Then the Lord said, "I am setting a plumb line among My people Israel; I will no longer spare them:

⁹ Isaac's •high places will be deserted,
and Israel's sanctuaries will be in ruins;
I will rise up against the house of Jeroboam
with a sword."

Amaziah's Opposition

¹⁰ Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent [word] to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you [right here] in the house of Israel. The land cannot endure all his words, ¹¹ for Amos has said this: 'Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel will certainly go into exile from its homeland.'"

¹² Then Amaziah said to Amos, "Go away, you seer! Flee to the land of Judah. Earn your living^g and give [your] prophecies there, ¹³ but don't ever prophesy at Bethel again, for it is the king's sanctuary and a royal temple."

¹⁴ So Amos answered Amaziah, "I was^h not a prophet or the son of a prophet;ⁱ rather, I was^h a herdsman, and I took care of sycamore figs. ¹⁵ But the LORD took me from following the flock and said to me, 'Go, prophesy to My people Israel.'"

¹⁶ Now hear the word of the LORD. You say:

Do not prophesy against Israel;
do not preach against the house of Isaac.

¹⁷ Therefore, this is what the LORD says:

Your wife will be a prostitute in the city,
your sons and daughters will fall
by the sword,
and your land will be divided up with a measuring line.
You yourself will die on pagan^j soil,
and Israel will certainly go into exile
from its homeland.

Fourth Vision: A Basket of Summer Fruit

8 The Lord GOD showed me this: A basket of summer fruit. ² He asked me, “What do you see, Amos?”

I replied, “A basket of summer fruit.”

The LORD said to me, “The end has come for My people Israel; I will no longer spare them.

³ In that day the temple^a songs will become wailing”—the Lord GOD’s declaration. “Many dead bodies, thrown everywhere! Silence!”

⁴ Hear this, you who trample on the needy and do away with the poor of the land,

⁵ asking, “When will the New Moon be over so we may sell grain, and the Sabbath, so we may market wheat? We can reduce the measure while increasing the price^b and cheat with dishonest scales.

⁶ We can buy the poor with silver and the needy for a pair of sandals and even sell the wheat husks!”

⁷ The LORD has sworn by the Pride of Jacob:^c

I will never forget all their deeds.

⁸ Because of this, won’t the land quake and all who dwell in it mourn? All of it will rise like the Nile; it will surge and then subside like the Nile in Egypt.

⁹ And in that day—

[this is] the declaration
of the Lord GOD—

I will make the sun go down at noon;
I will darken the land in the daytime.

¹⁰ I will turn your feasts into mourning and all your songs into lamentation; I will cause everyone^d to wear •sackcloth and every head to be shaved. I will make that grief like mourning for an only son and its outcome like a bitter day.

¹¹ Hear this! The days are coming—

[this is] the declaration
of the Lord GOD—

when I will send a famine through the land: not a famine of bread or a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD.

¹² People will stagger from sea to sea and roam from north to east, seeking the word of the LORD, but they will not find it.

¹³ In that day the beautiful young women, the young men also, will faint from thirst.

¹⁴ Those who swear by the guilt of Samaria and say, “As your god lives, Dan,” or “As the way^e f of Beer-sheba lives”—they will fall, never to rise again.

Fifth Vision: The LORD beside the Altar

9 I saw the LORD standing beside the altar, and He said:

Strike the capitals of the pillars so that the thresholds shake; knock them down on the heads of all the people.

Then I will kill the rest of them with the sword.

None of those who flee will get away; none of their fugitives will escape.

² If they dig down to •Sheol, from there My hand will take them; if they climb up to heaven, from there I will bring them down.

³ If they hide themselves on the top of Carmel, from there I will track them down and seize them; if they conceal themselves from My sight on the sea floor, from there I will command the [sea] serpent to bite them.

⁴ And if they are driven by their enemies into captivity, from there I will command the sword to kill them. I will fix My eyes on them for harm and not for good.

⁵ The Lord, the GOD of •Hosts—He touches the earth; it melts, and all who dwell on it mourn; all of it rises like the Nile and subsides like the Nile of Egypt.

⁶ He builds His upper chambers in the heavens and lays the foundation of His vault on the earth. He summons the waters of the sea and pours them out on the face of the earth.

Announcement of Judgment

to Me?
[This is] the LORD's declaration.
Didn't I bring Israel from the land
of Egypt,
the Philistines from Caphtor,^a
and the Arameans from Kir?
- 8 Look, the eyes of the Lord GOD
are on the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it
from the face of the earth.
However, I will not totally destroy
the house of Jacob—
the LORD's declaration—
- 9 for I am about to give the command,
and I will shake the house of Israel
among all the nations,
as one shakes a sieve,
but not a pebble will fall
to the ground.
- 10 All the sinners among My people, who say: Disaster will never overtake^b or confront us,
will die by the sword.

Announcement of Restoration

- 11 In that day
I will restore the fallen booth of David:

- I will repair its gaps,
restore its ruins,
and rebuild it as in the days of old,
so that they may possess
the remnant of Edom
and all the nations
that are called by My name^c —
[this is] the LORD's declaration—
- He will do this.
- 13 Hear this! The days are coming—
the LORD's declaration—
when the plowman will overtake

and the one who treads grapes,
the sower of seed.
The mountains will drip
with sweet wine,
and all the hills will flow [with it].
- 14 I will restore the fortunes of My people Israel.^d
They will rebuild and occupy ruined cities,
plant vineyards and drink their wine,
make gardens and eat their produce.
- 15 I will plant them on their land,
and they will never again be uprooted

you will be deeply despised.
- 3 Your presumptuous heart

who say to yourself:
Who can bring me down to the ground?
- 4 Though you seem to soar^g like an eagle
and make your nest among the stars,

Edom's Sins against Judah

- 10 You will be covered with shame and destroyed forever
because of violence done
to your brother Jacob.
- 11 On the day you stood aloof,
on the day strangers captured his wealth,^c
while foreigners entered his •gate
and cast lots for Jerusalem,
you were just like one of them.
- 12 Do not gloat^d over your brother
in the day of his calamity;
do not rejoice over the people of Judah
in the day of their destruction;
do not boastfully mock^e
in the day of distress.
- 13 Do not enter the gate of My people
in the day of their disaster.
Yes, you—do not gloat
over their misery
in the day of their disaster
and do not appropriate their possessions
in the day of their disaster.
- 14 Do not stand at the crossroads^f
to cut off their fugitives,
and do not hand over their survivors
in the day of distress.

Judgment of the Nations

- 15 For the Day of the LORD is near,
against all the nations.
As you have done, so it will be done
to you;
what you deserve will return
on your own head.
- 16 For as you have drunk
on My holy mountain,
so all the nations will drink^g continually.
They will drink and gulp down and be as though they had never been.
- 17 But there will be a deliverance
on Mount Zion,
and it will be holy;
the house of Jacob will dispossess
those who dispossessed them.^h
- 18 Then the house of Jacob will be a [blazing] fire,
and the house of Joseph a [burning] flame,
but the house of Esau will be stubble;
theyⁱ will set them on fire and consume them.^j
Therefore no survivor will remain
of the house of Esau,
for the LORD has spoken.

Future Blessing for Israel

- 19 [People from] the •Negev will possess
the hill country of Esau;
[those from] the Judean foothills
will possess
[the land of] the Philistines.
Theyⁱ will possess
the territories of Ephraim and Samaria,
while Benjamin will possess Gilead.
- 20 The exiles of the Israelites who are in Halah^k
who are among the Canaanites
as far as Zarephath
and the exiles of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad
will possess the cities of the Negev.
- 21 Saviors^l will ascend Mount Zion
to rule over the hill country of Esau, but the kingdom will be the LORD's.

JONAH

Jonah's Flight

1 The word of the LORD came to Jonah son of Amittai: ² “Get up! Go to the great city of Nineveh and preach against it, because their wickedness has confronted Me.” ³ However, Jonah got up to flee to Tarshish from the LORD’s presence. He went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish. He paid the fare and went down into it to go with them to Tarshish, from the LORD’s presence.

⁴ Then the LORD hurled a violent wind on the sea, and such a violent storm arose on the sea that the ship threatened to break apart. ⁵ The sailors were afraid, and each cried out to his god. They threw the ship’s cargo into the sea to lighten the load. Meanwhile, Jonah had gone down to the lowest part of the vessel and had stretched out and fallen into a deep sleep.

⁶ The captain approached him and said, “What are you doing sound asleep? Get up! Call to your god.^a Maybe this god will consider us, and we won’t perish.”

⁷ “Come on!” the sailors said to each other. “Let’s cast lots. Then we will know who is to blame for this trouble we’re in.” So they cast lots, and the lot singled out Jonah. ⁸ Then they said to him, “Tell us who is to blame for this trouble we’re in. What is your business and where are you from? What is your country and what people are you from?”

⁹ He answered them, “I am a Hebrew. I worship^b •Yahweh, the God of the heavens, who made the sea and the dry land.”

¹⁰ Then the men were even more afraid and said to him, “What is this you’ve done?” For the men knew he was fleeing from the LORD’s presence, because he had told them. ¹¹ So they said to him, “What should we do to you to calm this sea that’s against us?” For the sea was getting worse and worse.

¹² He answered them, “Pick me up and throw me into the sea^c so it may quiet down for you, for I know that I’m to blame for this violent storm that is against you.” ¹³ Nevertheless, the men rowed hard to get back to dry land, but they could not because the sea was raging against them more and more.

¹⁴ So they called out to the LORD: “Please, Yahweh, don’t let us perish because of this man’s life, and don’t charge us with innocent blood! For You, Yahweh, have done just as You pleased.” ¹⁵ Then they picked up Jonah and threw him into the sea, and the sea stopped its raging. ¹⁶ The men ^dfeared the LORD even more, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows. ^{17d} Then the LORD appointed a great fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in^e the fish three days and three nights.

Jonah's Prayer

2 Jonah prayed to the LORD his God from inside^f the fish:

² I called to the LORD in my distress,
and He answered me.
I cried out for help in the belly of •Sheol;
You heard my voice.

³ You threw me into the depths,
into the heart of the seas,
and the current^g overcame me.
All Your breakers and Your billows
swept over me.

⁴ But I said: I have been banished
from Your sight,
yet I will look once more^h
toward Your holy temple.

⁵ The waters engulfed me up to the neck;ⁱ
the watery depths overcame me;
seaweed was wrapped around my head.

⁶ I sank to the foundations of the mountains;
the earth with its prison bars closed behind me forever!
But You raised my life from the •Pit,
LORD my God!

⁷ As my life was fading away,
I remembered the LORD.
My prayer came to You,
to Your holy temple.

⁸ Those who cling to worthless idols
forsake faithful love,

⁹ but as for me, I will sacrifice to You with a voice of thanksgiving.
I will fulfill what I have vowed.
Salvation^j is from the LORD!

¹⁰ Then the LORD commanded the fish, and it vomited Jonah onto dry land.

Jonah's Preaching

3 Then the word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time: ² “Get up! Go to the great city of Nineveh and preach the message that I tell you.” ³ So Jonah got up and went to Nineveh according to the LORD’s command.

Now Nineveh was an extremely large city,^a a three-day walk.^b ⁴ Jonah set out on the first day of his walk in the city and proclaimed, “In 40 days Nineveh will be overthrown!” ⁵ The men of Nineveh believed in God.^c They proclaimed a fast and dressed in sackcloth—from the greatest of them to the least.

By order of the king and his nobles: No man or beast, herd or flock, is to taste anything at all. They must not eat or drink water. ⁸ Furthermore, both man and beast must be covered with sackcloth, and everyone must call out earnestly to God. Each must turn from his evil ways and from the violence^d he is doing.^e ⁹ Who knows? God may turn and relent; He may turn from His burning anger so that we will not perish.

¹⁰ Then God saw their actions—that they had turned from their evil ways—so God relented from the disaster He had threatened to do to them. And He did not do it.

Jonah's Anger

4 But Jonah was greatly displeased and became furious. ² He prayed to the LORD: “Please, LORD, isn’t this what I said while I was still in my own country? That’s why I fled toward Tarshish in the first place. I knew that You are a merciful and compassionate God, slow to become angry, rich in faithful love, and One who relents from [sending] disaster. ³ And now, LORD, please take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live.”

⁴ The LORD asked, “Is it right for you to be angry?”

⁵ Jonah left the city and sat down east of it. He made himself a shelter there and sat in its shade to see what would happen to the city. ⁶ Then the LORD God appointed a plant,^f and it grew up to provide shade over Jonah’s head to ease his discomfort.^g Jonah was greatly pleased with the plant. ⁷ When dawn came the next day, God appointed a worm that attacked the plant, and it withered.

⁸ As the sun was rising, God appointed a scorching east wind. The sun beat down on Jonah’s head so that he almost fainted, and he wanted to die. He said, “It’s better for me to die than to live.”

⁹ Then God asked Jonah, “Is it right for you to be angry about the plant?”

“[Yes,]” he replied. “It is right. I’m angry enough to die!”

¹⁰ So the LORD said, “You cared about the plant, which you did not labor over and did not grow. It appeared in a night and perished in a night. ¹¹ Should I not care about the great city of Nineveh, which has more than 120,000 people^h who cannot distinguish between their right and their left, as well as many animals?”

MICAH

1 The word of the LORD that came to Micah the Moreshite—what he saw regarding Samaria and Jerusalem in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

Coming Judgment on Israel

² Listen, all you peoples;
pay attention, earthⁱ and everyone in it!

The Lord GOD will be a witness against you, the Lord, from His holy temple.

³ Look, the LORD is leaving His place and coming down to trample the heights^j of the earth.

- like water cascading down a mountainside.
- 5 All this will happen because of Jacob's rebellion
and the sins of the house of Israel.
What is the rebellion of Jacob?
Isn't it Samaria?
And what is the [•]high place of Judah?
Isn't it Jerusalem?
- 6 Therefore, I will make Samaria
a heap of ruins in the countryside,
a planting area for a vineyard.
I will roll her stones into the valley and expose her foundations.
- 7 All her carved images will be smashed
to pieces,
all her wages will be burned in the fire,
and I will destroy all her idols.
Since she collected the wages of a prostitute,
they will be used again for a prostitute.

Micah's Lament

- 8 Because of this I will lament and wail;
I will walk barefoot and naked.
I will howl like the jackals and mourn like ostriches.^a
- 9 For her wound is incurable
and has reached even Judah;
it has approached the gate of my people,
as far as Jerusalem.
- 10 Don't announce it in Gath,
don't weep at all.
In Beth-leaphrah roll in the dust.
- 11 Depart in shameful nakedness,
you residents of Shaphir;
the residents of Zaanan will not come out.
Beth-ezel is lamenting;
its support^b is taken from you.
- 12 Though the residents of Maroth anxiously wait for something good, calamity has come from the LORD
to the gate of Jerusalem.
- 13 Harness the horses to the chariot,
you residents of Lachish.
This was the beginning of sin
for Daughter Zion,
because Israel's acts of rebellion
can be traced to you.
- 14 Therefore, send farewell gifts
to Moresheth-gath;
the houses of Achzib are a deception
to the kings of Israel.

- 15 I will again bring a conqueror
against you who live in Mareshah.
The nobility^c of Israel will come to Adullam.
- 16 Shave yourselves bald and cut off your hair
in sorrow for your precious children;
make yourselves as bald as an eagle,
for they have been taken from you into exile.

Oppressors Judged

- 2 Woe to those who dream up wickedness
and prepare evil [plans] on their beds!
At morning light they accomplish it because the power is in their hands.
- 2 They covet fields and seize them;
they also take houses.
They deprive a man of his home,
a person of his inheritance.
- 3 Therefore, the LORD says:
I am now planning a disaster
against this nation;
you cannot free your necks from it.
Then you will not walk so proudly
because it will be an evil time.
- 4 In that day one will take up a taunt
against you,
and lament mournfully, saying:
We are totally ruined!
He measures out the allotted land
of my people.
How He removes [it] from me!
He allots our fields to traitors.
- 5 Therefore, there will be no one in the assembly of the LORD to divide the land by casting lots.^d

God's Word Rejected

"They should not preach these things;
shame will not overtake us."^f
- 7 House of Jacob, should it be asked:
"Is the Spirit of the LORD impatient?
Are these the things He does?"
Don't My words bring good to the one who walks uprightly?
- 8 But recently My people have risen up like an enemy:
You strip off the splendid robe from those who are passing through confidently,

^a1:8 Or eagle owls; lit daughters of the desert ^b1:11 Lit its standing place; Hb obscure ^c1:15 Lit glory ^d2:5 Lit LORD stretching the measuring line by lot ^e2:6 = the prophets ^f2:6 Text emended; MT reads things. Shame will not depart.

- like those returning from war.
 9 You force the women of My people out of their comfortable homes, and you take My blessing^a
 from their children forever.
 10 Get up and leave,
 for this is not your place of rest,
 because defilement brings destruction—
 a grievous destruction!
 11 If a man of spirit^b comes and invents lies:
 “I will preach to you about wine and beer,”
 he would be just the preacher
 for this people!

The Remnant Regathered

- 12 I will indeed gather all of you, Jacob;
 I will collect the remnant of Israel.
 I will bring them together like sheep
 in a pen,
 like a flock in the middle of its fold.
 It will be noisy with people.
 13 One who breaks open [the way]
 will advance before them;
 they will break out, pass through the gate,
 and leave by it.
 Their King will pass through before them,
 the LORD as their leader.

Unjust Leaders Judged

- 3 Then I said: “Now listen, leaders of Jacob,
 you rulers of the house of Israel.
 Aren’t you supposed to know what is just?
 2 You hate good and love evil.
 You tear off the skin of people and [strip] their flesh from their bones.
 3 You eat the flesh of my people after you strip their skin from them and break their bones.
 You chop them up
 like flesh for the cooking pot,
 like meat in a caldron.”
 4 Then they will cry out to the LORD,
 but He will not answer them.
 He will hide His face from them
 at that time
 because of the crimes
 they have committed.

False Prophets Judged

- 5 This is what the LORD says
 concerning the prophets

- who lead my people astray,
 who proclaim peace
 when they have [food] to sink their teeth into but declare war against the one who puts nothing in their mouths.
 6 Therefore, it will be night for you—without visions;
 it will grow dark for you—
 without •divination.
 The sun will set on these prophets,
 and the daylight will turn black
 over them.
 7 Then the seers will be ashamed and the diviners disappointed.
 They will all cover their mouths^c because there will be no answer from God.
 8 But as for me, I am filled with power
 by the Spirit of the LORD,
 with justice and courage,
 to proclaim to Jacob his rebellion
 and to Israel his sin.

Zion’s Destruction

- 9 Listen to this, leaders of the house
 of Jacob,
 you rulers of the house of Israel,
 who abhor justice
 and pervert everything that is right, 10 who build Zion with bloodshed and Jerusalem with injustice.
 11 Her leaders issue rulings for a bribe,
 her priests teach for payment,
 and her prophets practice divination
 for money.
 Yet they lean on the LORD, saying,
 “Isn’t the LORD among us?
 No calamity will overtake us.”
 12 Therefore, because of you,
 Zion will be plowed like a field,
 Jerusalem will become ruins,
 and the hill of the temple mount
 will be a thicket.

The LORD’s Rule from Restored Zion

- 4 In the last days
 the mountain of the LORD’s house
 will be established
 at the top of the mountains
 and will be raised above the hills.
 Peoples will stream to it,
 2 and many nations will come and say,

^a2:9 Perhaps = land ^b2:11 Lit wind ^c3:7 Lit mustache

- “Come, let us go up to the mountain
of the LORD,
to the house of the God of Jacob.
He will teach us about His ways
so we may walk in His paths.”
For instruction will go out of Zion
and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
- 3 He will settle disputes
among many peoples
and provide arbitration for strong nations
that are far away.
They will beat their swords into plows,
and their spears into pruning knives.
Nation will not take up the sword against nation,
and they will never again train for war.
- 4 But each man will sit under his grapevine
and under his fig tree
with no one to frighten [him].
For the mouth of the LORD of •Hosts has promised [this].
- 5 Though all the peoples each walk
in the name of their gods,
we will walk in the name of •Yahweh
our God
forever and ever.
- 6 On that day—
[this is] the LORD’s declaration—
I will assemble the lame
and gather the scattered,
those I have injured.
- 7 I will make the lame into a remnant,
those far removed into a strong nation.
Then the LORD will rule over them
in Mount Zion
from this time on and forever.
- 8 And you, watchtower for the flock,
fortified hill^a of Daughter Zion,
the former rule will come to you,
sovereignty will come to Daughter Jerusalem.

From Exile to Victory

- 9 Now, why are you shouting loudly?
Is there no king with you?
Has your counselor perished,
so that anguish grips you like a woman
in labor?
- 10 Writhe and cry out,^b Daughter Zion,
like a woman in labor.
For now you will leave the city and camp in the open fields.

- You will go to Babylon;
there you will be rescued;
there the LORD will redeem you from the power of your enemies!
- 11 Many nations have now assembled
against you;
they say, “Let her be defiled,
and let us feast our eyes on Zion.”
- 12 But they do not know the LORD’s intentions or understand His plan,
that He has gathered them
like sheaves to the threshing floor.
- 13 Rise and thresh, Daughter Zion,
for I will make your horns iron and your hooves bronze,
so you can crush many peoples.
Then you^c will devote
what they plundered to the LORD,
their wealth to the Lord of all the earth.

From Defeated Ruler to Conquering King

- 5^d Now daughter [who is] under attack,
you slash yourself [in grief];
a siege is set against us!
They are striking the judge of Israel
on the cheek with a rod.
- 2^e Bethlehem Ephrathah,
you are small among the clans of Judah;
One will come from you to be ruler over Israel for Me.
His origin^f is from antiquity,
from eternity.^g
- 3 Therefore, He will abandon them until the time
when she who is in labor has given birth;
then the rest of His brothers will return to the people of Israel.
- 4 He will stand and shepherd [them]
in the strength of •Yahweh,
in the majestic name of Yahweh His God.
They will live securely,
for then His greatness will extend
to the ends of the earth.
- 5 There^h will be peace.
When Assyria invades our land,
when it marches against our fortresses,
we will raise against it seven shepherds,
even eight leaders of men.
- 6 They will shepherd the land of Assyria
with the sword,

the land of Nimrod with a drawn blade.^a So He will rescue us from Assyria
 when it invades our land,
 when it marches against our territory.

The Glorious and Purified Remnant

- 7 Then the remnant of Jacob
 will be among many peoples
 like dew from the LORD,
 like showers on the grass,
 which do not wait for anyone
 or linger for •mankind.
- 8 Then the remnant of Jacob
 will be among the nations,
 among many peoples,
 like a lion among animals of the forest,
 like a young lion among flocks of sheep,
 which tramples and tears
 as it passes through,
 and there is no one to rescue [them].
- 9 Your hand will be lifted up against your adversaries,
 and all your enemies will be destroyed.
- 10 In that day—
 the LORD's declaration—
 I will remove your horses from you and wreck your chariots.
- 11 I will remove the cities of your land
 and tear down all your fortresses.
- 12 I will remove sorceries from your hands,
 and you will not have any more fortune-tellers.
- 13 I will remove your carved images
 and sacred pillars from you,
 so that you will not bow down again
 to the work of your hands.
- 14 I will pull up the •Asherah poles from among you
 and demolish your cities.^b
- 15 I will take vengeance in anger and wrath against the nations that have not obeyed [Me].

God's Lawsuit against Judah

- 6 Now listen to what the LORD is saying:
 Rise, plead [your] case
 before the mountains,
 and let the hills hear your voice.
- 2 Listen to the LORD's lawsuit,
 you mountains and enduring foundations
 of the earth,

- because the LORD has a case
 against His people,
 and He will argue it against Israel.
- 3 My people, what have I done to you,
 or how have I wearied you?
 Testify against Me!
- 4 Indeed, I brought you up from the land
 of Egypt
 and redeemed you from that place
 of slavery.
 I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam
 ahead of you.
- 5 My people,
 remember what Balak
 king of Moab proposed,
 what Balaam son of Beor answered him,
 and [what happened] from Acacia Grove^c
 to Gilgal,
 so that you may acknowledge the LORD's righteous acts.
- 6 What should I bring before the LORD
 when I come to bow before God on high?
 Should I come before Him
 with •burnt offerings,
 with year-old calves?
- 7 Would the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams,
 or with ten thousand streams of oil?
 Should I give my firstborn
 for my transgression,
 the child of my body for my own sin?
- 8 He has told you men what is good and what it is the LORD requires of you:
 Only to act justly,
 to love faithfulness,
 and to walk humbly with your God.

Verdict of Judgment

- 9 The voice of the LORD calls out to the city^d
 (and it is wise to •fear Your name):
 "Pay attention to the rod and the One who ordained it."^e
- 10 Are there still^f the treasures of wickedness
 and the accursed short measure
 in the house of the wicked?
- 11 Can I excuse wicked scales
 or bags of deceptive weights?
- 12 For the wealthy of the city are full of violence,
 and its residents speak lies;
 the tongues in their mouths are deceitful.

- 13 “As a result, I have begun to strike
you severely,^a bringing desolation because of your sins.
- 14 You will eat but not be satisfied,
for there will be hunger within you.
What you acquire, you cannot save,
and what you do save,
I will give to the sword.^b
- 15 You will sow but not reap;
you will press olives
but not anoint yourself with oil;
and [you will tread] grapes
but not drink the wine.
- 16 The statutes of Omri
and all the practices of Ahab’s house
have been observed;
you have followed their policies.
Therefore, I will make you a desolate place
and the city’s^c residents an object of contempt;^d
you will bear the scorn of My people.”^e

Israel's Moral Decline

- 7 How sad for me!
For I am like one who—
when the summer fruit has been gathered after the gleaning of the grape harvest—[finds] no grape cluster to eat,
no early fig, which I crave.
- 2 Godly people have vanished
from the land;
there is no one upright among the people.
All of them wait in ambush to shed blood;
they hunt each other with a net.
- 3 Both hands are good
at accomplishing evil:
the official and the judge demand a bribe;
when the powerful man communicates
his evil desire,
they plot it together.
- 4 The best of them is like a brier;
the most upright is worse than a hedge of thorns.
The day of your watchmen,
[the day of] your punishment, is coming;
at this time their panic is here.
- 5 Do not rely on a friend;
don’t trust in a close companion.
Seal your mouth
from the woman who lies in your arms.
- 6 For a son considers his father a fool,

- a daughter opposes her mother,
and a daughter-in-law is against her mother-in-law;
a person’s enemies are the people
in his own home.
- 7 But as for me, I will look to the LORD;
I will wait for the God of my salvation.
My God will hear me.

Zion's Vindication

- 8 Do not rejoice over me, my enemy!
Though I have fallen, I will stand up;
though I sit in darkness,
the LORD will be my light.
- 9 Because I have sinned against Him,
I must endure the LORD’s rage
until He argues my case
and establishes justice for me.
He will bring me into the light;
I will see His salvation.^f
- 10 Then my enemy will see,
and she will be covered with shame,
the one who said to me,
“Where is the LORD your God?”
My eyes will look at her in triumph;
at that time she will be trampled like mud in the streets.
- 11 A day will come for rebuilding your walls;
on that day [your] boundary
will be extended.
- 12 On that day people will come to you from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, even from Egypt to the Euphrates River and from sea to sea
and mountain to mountain.
- 13 Then the earth will become a wasteland
because of its inhabitants,
and as a result of their actions.

Micah's Prayer Answered

- 14 Shepherd Your people with Your staff,
the flock that is Your possession.
They live alone in a scrubland,
surrounded by pastures.
Let them graze in Bashan and Gilead
as in ancient times.
- 15 I will show them^g wondrous deeds
as in the days of your exodus
from the land of Egypt.
- 16 Nations will see and be ashamed of^h all their power.

they will stand in awe of You.

because He delights in faithful love.

and faithful love to Abraham,
as You swore to our fathers

NAHUM

- 1 The •oracle concerning Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

God's Vengeance

- ² The LORD is a jealous and avenging God;
the LORD takes vengeance
and is fierce in^b wrath.
The LORD takes vengeance against His foes;
He is furious with His enemies.
³ The LORD is slow to anger but great in power;
the LORD will never leave
[the guilty] unpunished.
His path is in the whirlwind and storm,
and clouds are the dust beneath His feet.
⁴ He rebukes the sea so that it dries up,
and He makes all the rivers run dry.
Bashan and Carmel wither;
even the flower of Lebanon withers.
⁵ The mountains quake before Him,
and the hills melt;
the earth trembles^c ^d at His presence—
the world and all who live in it.
⁶ Who can withstand His indignation?
Who can endure His burning anger?
His wrath is poured out like fire,
even rocks are shattered before Him.

Destruction of Nineveh

- ⁷ The LORD is good,
a stronghold in a day of distress;

- He cares for those who take refuge
in Him.
⁸ But He will completely destroy Nineveh^e
with an overwhelming flood,
and He will chase His enemies into darkness.
⁹ Whatever you^f plot against the LORD,
He will bring [it] to complete destruction;
oppression will not rise up
a second time.
¹⁰ For they will be consumed
like entangled thorns,
like a drunkard's drink,
and like straw that is fully dry.^g
¹¹ One has gone out from Nineveh,^h who plots evil against the LORD,
and is a wicked counselor.

Promise of Judah's Deliverance

- ¹² This is what the LORD says:
Though they are strongⁱ and numerous,
they will still be mowed down,
and he^j will pass away.
Though I have afflicted you,^k
I will afflict you no longer.
¹³ For I will now break off his^l yoke
from you
and tear off your shackles.

The Assyrian King's Demise

¹⁴ The LORD has issued an order concerning you:^a

There will be no offspring to carry on your name.^b
I will eliminate the carved idol and cast image
from the house of your gods;
I will prepare your grave,
for you are contemptible.

^{15c} Look to the mountains—
the feet of one bringing good news and proclaiming peace!
Celebrate your festivals, Judah;
fulfill your vows.
For the wicked one will never again
march through you;
he will be entirely wiped out.

Attack against Nineveh

2 One who scatters is coming up
against you.
Man the fortifications!
Watch the road!
Brace^d yourself!
Summon all your strength!

2 For the LORD will restore the majesty
of Jacob,
yes,^e the majesty of Israel,
though ravagers have ravaged them
and ruined their vine branches.

3 The shields of his^f warriors are dyed red;
the valiant men are dressed in scarlet.
The fittings of the chariot flash like fire
on the day of its [battle] preparations,
and the spears are brandished.

4 The chariots dash madly
through the streets;
they rush around in the plazas.
They look like torches;
they dart back and forth like lightning.

5 He gives orders to his officers;
they stumble as they advance.
They race to its wall;
the protective shield is set in place.

6 The river gates are opened,
and the palace erodes away.

7 Beauty^g is stripped,^h
she is carried away;

her ladies-in-waiting moan
like the sound of doves,
and beat their breasts.

8 Nineveh has been like a pool of water from her [first] days,^h
but they are fleeing.
“Stop! Stop!” [they cry,ⁱ but no one turns back.

9 “Plunder the silver! Plunder the gold!”
There is no end to the treasure,
an abundance of every precious thing.

10 Desolation, decimation, devastation!
Hearts melt,
knees tremble,
loins shake,
every face grows pale!

11 Where is the lions’ lair,
or the feeding ground of the young lions,
where the lion and lioness prowled,
and the lion’s cub,
with nothing to frighten them away?

12 The lion mauled whatever its cubs needed
and strangled [prey] for its lionesses.
It filled up its dens with the kill,
and its lairs with mauled prey.

13 Beware, I am against you—
the declaration of the Lord of •Hosts.
I will make your chariots go up in smoke!ⁱ
and the sword will devour
your young lions.
I will cut off your prey from the earth,
and the sound of your messengers
will never be heard again.

Nineveh's Downfall

3 Woe to the city of blood, totally deceitful,
full of plunder,
never without prey.

2 The crack of the whip
and rumble of the wheel, galloping horse
and jolting chariot!

3 Charging horseman,
flashing sword,
shining spear;
heaps of slain,
mounds of corpses,
dead bodies without end—
they stumble over their dead.

HABAKKUK

1 The •oracle that Habakkuk the prophet saw.

Habakkuk's First Prayer

- 2 How long, LORD, must I call for help
and You do not listen,
or cry out to You about violence
and You do not save?
- 3 Why do You force me to look at injustice?
Why do You tolerate^a wrongdoing?
Oppression and violence are right in front of me.
Strife is ongoing, and conflict escalates.
- 4 This is why the law is ineffective
and justice never emerges.
For the wicked restrict the righteous;
therefore, justice comes out perverted.

God's First Answer

- 5 Look at the nations^b and observe—
be utterly astounded!
For something is taking place in your days that you will not believe
when you hear about it.
- 6 Look! I am raising up the Chaldeans,^c that bitter, impetuous nation that marches across the earth's open spaces
to seize territories not its own.
- 7 They are fierce and terrifying;
their views of justice and sovereignty
stem from themselves.
- 8 Their horses are swifter than leopards
and more fierce^d than wolves of the night.
Their horsemen charge ahead;
their horsemen come from distant [lands].
They fly like an eagle, swooping to devour.
- 9 All of them come to do violence;
their faces are set in determination.^e
They gather prisoners like sand.
- 10 They mock kings,
and rulers are a joke to them.
They laugh at every fortress and build siege ramps to capture it.
- 11 Then they sweep by like the wind and pass through.
They are guilty;^f their strength is their god.

Habakkuk's Second Prayer

- 12 Are You not from eternity, •Yahweh my God?
My Holy One, You^g will not die.
LORD, You appointed them
to execute judgment;
[my] Rock, You destined them
to punish [us].
- 13 [Your] eyes are too pure to look on evil,
and You cannot tolerate wrongdoing.
So why do You tolerate those who are treacherous?
Why are You silent
while one^h who is wicked swallows up oneⁱ who is more righteous than himself?
- 14 You have made mankind
like the fish of the sea,
like marine creatures that have no ruler.
- 15 The Chaldeans pull them all up with a hook,
catch them in their dragnet,
and gather them in their fishing net;
that is why they are glad and rejoice.
- 16 That is why they sacrifice to their dragnet
and burn incense to their fishing net,
for by these things their portion is rich
and their food plentiful.
- 17 Will they therefore empty their net^j
and continually slaughter nations without mercy?

Habakkuk Waits for God's Response

- 2 I will stand at my guard post
and station myself on the lookout tower.
I will watch to see what He will say to me
and what I should^k reply about my complaint.

God's Second Answer

- 2 The LORD answered me:

Write down this vision;
clearly inscribe it on tablets
so one may easily read it.^l
- 3 For the vision is yet for the appointed time;
it testifies about the end and will not lie.
Though it delays, wait for it,

^a1:3 Lit observe ^b1:5 DSS, LXX, Syr read Look, you treacherous people; Ac 13:41 ^c1:6 = the Babylonians

since it will certainly come and not be late.

- 4 Look, his ego is inflated;^a
he is without integrity.
But the righteous one will live
by his faith.^b
- 5 Moreover, wine^c betrays;
an arrogant man is never at rest.^d
He enlarges his appetite like •Sheol,
and like Death he is never satisfied.
He gathers all the nations to himself;
he collects all the peoples for himself.

The 5 Woe Oracles

- 6 Won't all of these take up a taunt
against him,
with mockery and riddles about him?
They will say:
- Woe to him who amasses
what is not his—
how much longer?—
and loads himself with goods
taken in pledge.
- 7 Won't your creditors suddenly arise,
and those who disturb you wake up?
Then you will become spoil for them.
- 8 Since you have plundered many nations,
all the peoples who remain
will plunder you—because of human bloodshed
and violence against lands, cities,
and all who live in them.
- 9 Woe to him who unjustly gains wealth for his house^e
to place his nest on high,
to escape from the reach of disaster!
- 10 You have planned shame for your house
by wiping out many peoples and sinning against your own self.
- 11 For the stones will cry out from the wall,
and the rafters will answer them
from the woodwork.
- 12 Woe to him who builds a city with bloodshed
and founds a town with injustice!
- 13 Is it not from the LORD of •Hosts, that the peoples labor [only] to fuel
the fire
and countries exhaust themselves
for nothing?

- 14 For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the LORD's glory,
as the waters cover the sea.
- 15 Woe to him who gives his neighbors drink, pouring out your wrath^f
and even making them drunk,
in order to look at their nakedness!
- 16 You will be filled with disgrace
instead of glory.
You also—drink,
and expose your uncircumcision!^g
The cup in the LORD's right hand
will come around to you,
and utter disgrace will cover your glory.
- 17 For [your] violence against Lebanon
will overwhelm you;
the destruction of animals
will terrify you,^h
because of [your] human bloodshed
and violence
against lands, cities, and all who live
in them.
- 18 What use is a carved idol
after its craftsman carves it?
It is [only] a cast image, a teacher of lies.
For the one who crafts its shape trusts in it
and makes idols that cannot speak.
- 19 Woe to him who says to wood: Wake up!
or to mute stone: Come alive!
Can it teach?
Look! It may be plated with gold and silver,
yet there is no breath in it at all.
- 20 But the LORD is in His holy temple;
let everyone on earth
be silent in His presence.

Habakkuk's Third Prayer

3 A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet. According to Shigiono.ⁱ

- 2 LORD, I have heard the report about You;
LORD, I stand in awe of Your deeds.
Revive [Your work] in these years;
make [it] known in these years.
In [Your] wrath remember mercy!
- 3 God comes from Teman,
the Holy One from Mount Paran. •Selah

- His splendor covers the heavens,
and the earth is full of His praise.
- 4 [His] brilliance is like light;
rays are flashing from His hand.
This is where His power is hidden.
- 5 Plague goes before Him,
and pestilence follows in His steps.
- 6 He stands and shakes^a the earth;
He looks and startles the nations.
The age-old mountains break apart;
the ancient hills sink down.
His pathways are ancient.
- 7 I see the tents of Cushan^b in distress;
the tent curtains of the land of Midian tremble.
- 8 Are You angry at the rivers, LORD?
Is Your wrath against the rivers?
Or is Your rage against the sea
when You ride on Your horses,
Your victorious chariot?
- 9 You took the sheath from Your bow;
the arrows are ready^c to be used with an oath.^d Selah
You split the earth with rivers.
- 10 The mountains see You and shudder;
a downpour of water sweeps by.
The deep roars with its voice and lifts its waves^e high.
- 11 Sun and moon stand still in [their] lofty residence,
at the flash of Your flying arrows,
at the brightness of Your shining spear.
- 12 You march across the earth
with indignation;
You trample down the nations in wrath.

- 13 You come out to save Your people,
to save Your anointed.^f
You crush the leader of the house
of the wicked
and strip [him] from foot^g to neck. Selah
- 14 You pierce his head
with his own spears;
his warriors storm out to scatter us, gloating as if ready to secretly devour
the weak.
- 15 You tread the sea with Your horses,
stirring up the great waters.

Habakkuk's Confidence in God Expressed

- 16 I heard, and I trembled within;
my lips quivered at the sound.
Rottenness entered my bones;
I trembled where I stood.
Now I must quietly wait for the day
of distress
to come against the people invading us.
- 17 Though the fig tree does not bud
and there is no fruit on the vines, though the olive crop fails
and the fields produce no food, though there are no sheep in the pen
and no cattle in the stalls,

I will rejoice in the God
of my salvation!
- 19 •Yahweh my Lord is my strength;
He makes my feet like those of a deer and enables me to walk on mountain heights!

ZEPHANIAH

1 The word of the LORD that came to Zephaniah son of Cushi, son of Gedaliah, son of Amariah, son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah.

The Great Day of the LORD

- ² I will completely sweep away everything
from the face of the earth—
[this is] the LORD's declaration.
- ³ I will sweep away man and animal;

I will sweep away the birds of the sky
and the fish of the sea,
and the ruinsⁱ along with the wicked.
I will cut off mankind
from the face of the earth—
the LORD's declaration.

- ⁴ I will stretch out My hand against Judah
and against all the residents of Jerusalem.
I will cut off from this place
every vestige of •Baal,

 those who bow and pledge loyalty
 to the LORD
 but also pledge loyalty to •Milcom;^a 6 and those who turn back from following
 the LORD,
 who do not seek the LORD or inquire
 of Him.
 7 Be silent in the presence of the Lord GOD,
 for the Day of the LORD is near.
 Indeed, the LORD has prepared a sacrifice;
 He has consecrated His guests.
 8 On the day of the LORD's sacrifice
 I will punish the officials, the king's sons, and all who are dressed
 in foreign clothing.
 9 On that day I will punish all who skip over the threshold,^b who fill their master's house with violence and deceit.
 10 On that day—
 the LORD's declaration—
 there will be an outcry
 from the Fish Gate,
 a wailing from the Second District,
 and a loud crashing from the hills.
 11 Wail, you residents of the Hollow,^c
 for all the merchants^d will be silenced;
 all those loaded with silver will be cut off.
 12 And at that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps
 and punish the men who settle down comfortably,^e
 who say to themselves:
 The LORD will not do good or evil.
 13 Their wealth will become plunder
 and their houses a ruin.
 They will build houses but never live
 [in them],
 plant vineyards but never drink
 their wine.
 14 The great Day of the LORD is near,
 near and rapidly approaching.
 Listen, the Day of the LORD—
 there the warrior's cry is bitter.
 15 That day is a day of wrath,

- a day of trouble and distress,
 a day of destruction and desolation,
 a day of darkness and gloom,
 a day of clouds and blackness, 16 a day of trumpet [blast] and battle cry against the fortified cities,
 and against the high corner towers.
 17 I will bring distress on mankind,
 and they will walk like the blind
 because they have sinned
 against the LORD.
 Their blood will be poured out like dust
 and their flesh like dung.
 18 Their silver and their gold will not be able to rescue them
 on the day of the LORD's wrath.
 The whole earth will be consumed
 by the fire of His jealousy.
 For He will make a complete,
 yes, a horrifying end
 of all the inhabitants of the earth.

A Call to Repentance

- 2 Gather yourselves together;
 gather together, undesirable^f nation,
 2 before the decree takes effect
 and the day passes like chaff,
 before the burning of the LORD's anger
 overtakes you,
 before the day of the LORD's anger
 overtakes you.
 3 Seek the LORD, all you humble
 of the earth,
 who carry out what He commands.
 Seek righteousness, seek humility;
 perhaps you will be concealed
 on the day of the LORD's anger.

Judgment against the Nations

- 4 For Gaza will be abandoned,
 and Ashkelon will become a ruin.
 Ashdod will be driven out at noon,
 and Ekron will be uprooted.
 5 Woe, inhabitants of the seacoast, nation of the Cherethites!^g
 The word of the LORD is against you,
 Canaan, land of the Philistines:
 I will destroy you until there is no one left.

to the remnant of the house of Judah;
they will find pasture there.
They will lie down in the evening
among the houses of Ashkelon,
for the LORD their God will return to them
and restore their fortunes.
- 8 I have heard the taunting of Moab
and the insults of the Ammonites, who have taunted My people
and threatened their territory.
- 9 Therefore, as I live—
the declaration of the LORD of [•]Hosts,
the God of Israel—
Moab will be like Sodom
and the Ammonites like Gomorrah—
a place overgrown with weeds,
a salt pit, and a perpetual wasteland.
The remnant of My people will plunder them;
the remainder of My nation
will dispossess them.
- 10 This is what they get for their pride,
because they have taunted
and acted arrogantly
against the people of the LORD of Hosts.
- 11 The LORD will be terrifying to them
when He starves all the gods of the earth.
Then all the distant coastlands
of the nations
will bow in worship to Him,
each in its own place.
- 12 You [•]Cushites will also be slain
by My sword.
- 13 He will also stretch out His hand against the north and destroy Assyria;
He will make Nineveh a desolate ruin,
dry as the desert.
- 14 Herds will lie down in the middle of it,
every kind of wild animal.^a Both the desert owl^b and the screech owl^c
will roost in the capitals of its pillars.
[Their] calls will sound^d from the window,
but devastation^e will be on the threshold,
for He will expose the cedar work.^f
- 15 This is the self-assured city
that lives in security,

that thinks to herself:
I am, and there is no one besides me.
What a desolation she has become,
a place for wild animals to lie down!
Everyone who passes by her jeers^g and shakes his fist.

Woe to Oppressive Jerusalem

- 3 Woe to the city that is rebellious^h and defiled,
the oppressive city!
- 2 She has not obeyed;
she has not accepted discipline.
She has not trusted in the LORD;
she has not drawn near to her God.
- 3 Theⁱ princes within her are roaring lions;
her judges are wolves of the night,
which leave nothing for^j the morning.
- 4 Her prophets are reckless—treacherous men.
Her priests profane the sanctuary;
they do violence to instruction.
- 5 The righteous LORD is in her;
He does no wrong.
He applies His justice morning
by morning;
He does not fail at dawn,
yet the one who does wrong
knows no shame.
- 6 I have cut off nations;
their corner towers are destroyed.
I have laid waste their streets,
with no one to pass through.
Their cities lie devastated,
without a person, without an inhabitant.
- 7 I thought: You will certainly [•]fear Me
and accept correction.
Then her dwelling place^k
would not be cut off [based on] all that I had allocated to her.
However, they became more corrupt
in all their actions.
- 8 Therefore, wait for Me—
the LORD's declaration—
until the day I rise up for plunder.^l

to assemble kingdoms,
in order to pour out My indignation

Final Restoration Promised

so that all of them may call on the name of •Yahweh and serve Him with a single purpose.^a
- 10 From beyond the rivers of •Cush
My supplicants, My dispersed people, will bring an offering to Me.
- 11 On that day you^b will not be put to shame
because of everything you have done
in rebelling against Me.
For then I will remove your boastful braggarts from among you,
and you will never again be haughty
on My holy mountain.
- 12 I will leave
a meek and humble people among you,
and they will trust in the name of Yahweh.
- 13 The remnant of Israel will no longer
do wrong or tell lies;
a deceitful tongue will not be found
in their mouths.
But they will pasture and lie down,
with nothing to make [them] afraid.
- 14 Sing for joy, Daughter Zion;
shout loudly, Israel!
Be glad and rejoice with all [your] heart,
Daughter Jerusalem!

- 15 The LORD has removed
your punishment;
He has turned back your enemy.
The King of Israel, the LORD,
is among you;
you need no longer fear harm.
- 16 On that day it will be said to Jerusalem:
“Do not fear;
Zion, do not let your hands grow weak.
- 17 The LORD your God is among you,
a warrior who saves.
He will rejoice over you with gladness.
He will bring [you] quietness^c
with His love.
He will delight in you with shouts of joy.”
- 18 I will gather those who have been driven from the appointed festivals;
[They will be] a tribute from you,^d
and reproach [on her].^e
- 19 Yes, at that time
I will deal with all who afflict you.
I will save the lame and gather
the scattered;
I will make those who were disgraced
throughout the earth
receive praise and fame.
- 20 At that time I will bring you^f back,
yes, at the time I will gather you.
I will make you famous and praiseworthy
among all the peoples of the earth,
when I restore your fortunes
before your eyes.
Yahweh has spoken.

HAGGAI

Command to Rebuild the Temple

1 In the second year of King Darius,^g on the first day of the sixth month, the word of the LORD came through Haggai the prophet to Zerub-babel son of Shealtiel, the governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest:

² “The LORD of •Hosts says this: These people say: The time has not come for the house of the LORD to be rebuilt.”

³ The word of the LORD came through Haggai
the prophet: ⁴ “Is it a time for you yourselves to live in your paneled houses, while this house^h

lies in ruins?” ⁵ Now, the LORD of Hosts says this: “Think carefully aboutⁱ your ways:

- 6 You have planted much
but harvested little.
You eat
but never have enough to be satisfied.
You drink
but never have enough to become drunk.
You put on clothes
but never have enough to get warm.
The wage earner [puts his] wages
into a bag with a hole in it.”

^a3:9 Lit with one shoulder ^b3:11 = Israel ^c3:17 LXX, Syr read He will renew you ^d3:18 = Jerusalem ^e3:18 Hb obscure ^f3:20 = people of Israel ^g1:1 King of Persia 522–486 B.C. ^h1:4 = the temple ⁱ1:5 Lit Place your heart on

⁷ The LORD of Hosts says this: “Think carefully about^a your ways. ⁸ Go up into the hills, bring down lumber, and build the house. Then I will be pleased with it and be glorified,” says the LORD. ⁹ “You expected much, but then it amounted to little. When you brought [the harvest] to your house, I ruined^b it. Why?” [This is] the declaration of the LORD of Hosts. “Because My house still lies in ruins, while each of you is busy with his own house.

- ¹⁰ So on your account,^c
the skies have withheld the dew
and the land its crops.
¹¹ I have summoned a drought on the fields and the hills,
on the grain, new wine, olive oil,
and whatever the ground yields,
on the people and animals,
and on all that your hands produce.”

The People's Response

¹² Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, and the entire remnant of the people obeyed the voice of the LORD their God and the words of the prophet Haggai, because the LORD their God had sent him. So the people •feared the LORD.

¹³ Haggai, the LORD's messenger, delivered the LORD's message to the people, “I am with you”—the LORD's declaration.

¹⁴ The LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, the spirit of the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people. They began work on the house of •Yahweh of Hosts, their God, ¹⁵ on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of King Darius.

Encouragement and Promise

2 On the twenty-first day of the seventh month, the word of the LORD came through Haggai the prophet: ² “Speak to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, to the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, and to the remnant of the people: ³ Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How does it look to you now? Doesn't it seem like nothing to you?^d ⁴ Even so, be strong, Zerubbabel”—the LORD's declaration. “Be strong, Joshua son of Jehozadak, high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land”—the LORD's declaration. “Work! For I am with you”—the declaration of the LORD of •Hosts. ⁵ “[This is] the promise I made to you when you came out of Egypt, and My Spirit is present among you; don't be afraid.”

⁶ For the LORD of Hosts says this: “Once more, in a little while, I am going to shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land. ⁷ I will shake all the nations so that the treasures of all the nations will come, and I will fill this house with glory,” says the LORD of Hosts. ⁸ “The silver and gold belong to Me”—the declaration of the LORD of Hosts. ⁹ “The final glory of this house^e will be greater than the first,” says the LORD of Hosts. “I will provide peace in this place”—the declaration of the LORD of Hosts.

From Deprivation to Blessing

¹⁰ On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth [month], in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Haggai the prophet: ¹¹ “This is what the LORD of Hosts says: Ask the priests for a ruling. ¹² If a man is carrying consecrated meat in the fold of his garment, and with his fold touches bread, stew, wine, oil, or any other food, does it become holy?”

The priests answered, “No.”

¹³ Then Haggai asked, “If someone defiled by [contact with] a corpse touches any of these, does it become defiled?”

The priests answered, “It becomes defiled.”

¹⁴ Then Haggai replied, “So is this people, and so is this nation before Me”—the LORD's declaration. “And so is every work of their hands; even what they offer there is defiled.

¹⁵ “Now, reflect back from this day: Before one stone was placed on another in the LORD's temple, ¹⁶ what state were you in?^f When someone came to a [grain] heap of 20 measures, it [only] amounted to 10; when one came to the winepress to dip 50 measures from the vat, it [only] amounted to 20. ¹⁷ I struck you—all the work of your hands—with blight, mildew, and hail, but you didn't turn to Me”—the LORD's declaration. ¹⁸ “Consider carefully from this day forward; from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, from the day the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid; consider it carefully. ¹⁹ Is there still seed left in the granary? The vine, the fig, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have not yet produced. But from this day on I will bless you.”

Promise to Zerubbabel

²⁰ The word of the LORD came to Haggai a second time on the twenty-fourth day of the month: ²¹ “Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah: I am going to shake the heavens and the earth. ²² I will overturn royal thrones and destroy the power of the Gentile kingdoms. I will overturn chariots and their riders. Horses and their riders will fall, each by his brother’s sword. ²³ On that day”—the declaration of the LORD of Hosts—“I will take you, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, My servant”—the LORD’s declaration—“and make you like My signet ring, for I have chosen you.” [This is] the declaration of the LORD of Hosts.

ZECHARIAH

A Plea for Repentance

1 In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berechiah, son of Iddo: ² “The LORD was extremely angry with your ancestors. ³ So tell the people: This is what the LORD of •Hosts says: Return to Me”—[this is] the declaration of the LORD of Hosts—“and I will return to you, says the LORD of Hosts. ⁴ Do not be like your ancestors; the earlier prophets proclaimed to them: This is what the LORD of Hosts says: Turn from your evil ways and your evil deeds. But they did not listen or pay attention to Me”—the LORD’s declaration. ⁵ “Where are your ancestors now? And do the prophets live forever? ⁶ But didn’t My words and My statutes that I commanded My servants the prophets overtake your ancestors? They repented and said: As the LORD of Hosts purposed to deal with us for our ways and deeds, so He has dealt with us.”

The Night Visions

⁷ On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month of Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berechiah, son of Iddo:

First Vision: Horsemen

⁸ I looked out in the night and saw a man riding on a red horse. He was standing among the myrtle trees in the valley. Behind him were red, sorrel, and white horses. ⁹ I asked, “What are these, my lord?”

The angel who was talking to me replied, “I will show you what they are.”

¹⁰ Then the man standing among the myrtle trees explained, “They are the ones the LORD has sent to patrol the earth.”

¹¹ They reported to the Angel of the LORD standing among the myrtle trees, “We have patrolled the earth, and right now the whole earth is calm and quiet.”

¹² Then the Angel of the LORD responded, “How long, LORD of Hosts, will You withhold mercy from Jerusalem and the cities of Judah that You have been angry with these 70 years?” ¹³ The LORD replied with kind and comforting words to the angel who was speaking with me.

¹⁴ So the angel who was speaking with me said, “Proclaim: The LORD of Hosts says: I am extremely jealous for Jerusalem and Zion. ¹⁵ I am fiercely angry with the nations that are at ease, for I was a little angry, but they made it worse. ¹⁶ Therefore, this is what the LORD says: I have graciously returned to Jerusalem; My house will be rebuilt within it”—the declaration of the LORD of Hosts—“and a measuring line will be stretched out over Jerusalem.”

¹⁷ “Proclaim further: This is what the LORD of Hosts says: My cities will again overflow with prosperity; the LORD will once more comfort Zion and again choose Jerusalem.”

Second Vision: Four Horns and Craftsmen

^{18a} Then I looked up and saw four •horns. ¹⁹ So I asked the angel who was speaking with me, “What are these?”

And he said to me, “These are the horns that scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.”

²⁰ Then the LORD showed me four craftsmen.

²¹ I asked, “What are they coming to do?”

He replied, “These are the horns that scattered Judah so no one could raise his head. These [craftsmen] have come to terrify them, to cut off the horns of the nations that raised [their] horns against the land of Judah to scatter it.”

Third Vision: Surveyor

2^a I looked up and saw a man with a measuring line in his hand. ² I asked, “Where are you going?”

He answered me, “To measure Jerusalem to determine its width and length.”

³ Then the angel who was speaking with me went out, and another angel went out to meet him. ⁴ He said to him, “Run and tell this young man: Jerusalem will be inhabited without walls because of the number of people and livestock in it.” ⁵ The declaration of the LORD: “I will be a wall of fire around it, and I will be the glory within it.”

¹⁰ “Daughter Zion, shout for joy and be glad, for I am coming to dwell among you”—the LORD’s declaration. ¹¹ “Many nations will join themselves to the LORD on that day and become My^f people. I will dwell among you, and you will know that the LORD of Hosts has sent Me^b to you. ¹² The LORD will take possession of Judah as His portion in the Holy Land, and He will once again choose Jerusalem. ¹³ Let all people be silent before the LORD, for He is coming from His holy dwelling.”

Fourth Vision: High Priest and Branch

3 Then he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the Angel of the LORD, with Satan^g standing at his right side to accuse him. ² The LORD^h said to Satan: “The LORD rebuke you, Satan! May the LORD who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Isn’t this man a burning stick snatched from the fire?”

³ Now Joshua was dressed with filthyⁱ clothes as he stood before the Angel. ⁴ So He^j spoke to those^k standing before Him, “Take off his filthy clothes!” Then He said to him, “See, I have removed your guilt from you, and I will clothe you with splendid robes.”

⁵ Then I said, “Let them put a clean turban on his head.” So a clean turban was placed on his head, and they clothed him in garments while the Angel of the LORD was standing nearby.

⁶ Then the Angel of the LORD charged Joshua: ⁷ “This is what the LORD of •Hosts says: If you walk in My ways and keep My instructions, you will both rule My house and take care of My courts; I will also grant you access among these who are standing here.

⁸ “Listen, Joshua the high priest, you and your colleagues sitting before you; indeed, these men are a sign that I am about to bring My servant, the Branch. ⁹ Notice the stone I have set before Joshua; on [that] one stone are seven eyes. I will engrave an inscription on it”—the declaration of the LORD of Hosts—“and I will take away the guilt of this land in a single day. ¹⁰ On that day, each of you will invite his neighbor to [sit] under [his] vine and fig tree.” [This is] the declaration of the LORD of Hosts.

Fifth Vision: Gold Lampstand

4 The angel who was speaking with me then returned and roused me as one awakened out of sleep. ² He asked me, “What do you see?”

I replied, “I see a solid gold lampstand there with a bowl on its top. It has seven lamps on it and seven channels for each of the lamps on its top. ³ There are also two olive trees beside it, one on the right of the bowl and the other on its left.”

⁴ Then I asked the angel who was speaking with me, “What are these, my lord?”

⁵ “Don’t you know what they are?” replied the angel who was speaking with me.

I said, “No, my lord.”

⁶ So he answered me, “This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel: ‘Not by strength or by might, but by My Spirit,’ says the LORD of •Hosts. ⁷ ‘What are you, great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become a plain. And he will bring out the capstone accompanied by shouts of: Grace, grace to it!’”

⁸ Then the word of the LORD came to me: ⁹ “Zerubbabel’s hands have laid the foundation of this house, and his hands will complete it. Then you will know that the LORD of Hosts has sent me to you. ¹⁰ For who scorns the day of small things? These seven eyes of the LORD, which scan throughout the whole earth, will rejoice when they see the plumb line^a in Zerubbabel's hand."

¹¹ I asked him, "What are the two olive trees on the right and left of the lampstand?" ¹² And I questioned him further, "What are the two olive branches beside the two gold conduits, from which golden [oil] pours out?"

¹³ Then he inquired of me, "Don't you know what these are?"

"No, my lord," I replied.

¹⁴ "These are the two anointed ones,"^b he said, "who stand by the Lord of the whole earth."

Sixth Vision: Flying Scroll

5 I looked up again and saw a flying scroll. ² "What do you see?" he asked me.

"I see a flying scroll," I replied, "30 feet^c long and 15 feet^d wide."

³ Then he said to me, "This is the curse that is going out over the whole land, for every thief will be removed according to what is written on one side, and everyone who swears [falsely] will be removed according to what is written on the other side. ⁴ I will send it out,"—the declaration of the LORD of •Hosts—"and it will enter the house of the thief and the house of the one who swears falsely by My name. It will stay inside his house and destroy it along with its timbers and stones."

Seventh Vision: Woman in the Basket

⁵ Then the angel who was speaking with me came forward and told me, "Look up and see what this is that is approaching."

⁶ So I asked, "What is it?"

He responded, "It's a measuring basket^e that is approaching." And he continued, "This is their iniquity^f in all the land." ⁷ Then a lead cover was lifted, and there was a woman sitting inside the basket. ⁸ "This is Wickedness," he said. He shoved her down into the basket and pushed the lead weight over its opening. ⁹ Then I looked up and saw two women approaching with the wind in their wings. Their wings were like those of a stork, and they lifted up the basket between earth and sky.

¹⁰ So I asked the angel who was speaking with me, "Where are they taking the basket?"

¹¹ "To build a shrine for it in the land of •Shinar,"^g he told me. "When that is ready, [the basket] will be placed there on its pedestal."

Eighth Vision: Four Chariots

6 Then I looked up again and saw four chariots coming from between two mountains. And the mountains were made of bronze. ² The first chariot had red horses, the second chariot black horses, ³ the third chariot white horses, and the fourth chariot dappled horses—[all] strong horses. ⁴ So I inquired of the angel who was speaking with me, "What are these, my lord?"

⁵ The angel told me, "These are the four spirits^h of heaven going out after presenting themselves to the Lord of the whole earth. ⁶ The one with the black horses is going to the land of the north, the white horses are going after them, but the dappled horses are going to the land of the south." ⁷ As the strong horses went out, they wanted to go patrol the earth, and the LORD said, "Go, patrol the earth." So they patrolled the earth. ⁸ Then He summoned me saying, "See, those going to the land of the north have pacified My Spirit in the northern land."

Crowning of the Branch

⁹ The word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁰ "Take [an offering] from the exiles, from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, who have arrived from Babylon, and go that same day to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah. ¹¹ Take silver and gold, make crowns and place them on the head of Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest. ¹² You are to tell him: This is what the LORD of •Hosts says: Here is a man whose name is Branch; He will branch out from His place and build the LORD's temple. ¹³ Yes, He will build the LORD's temple; He will be clothed in splendor and will sit on His throne and rule. There will also be a priest on His throne, and there will be peaceful counsel between the two of them. ¹⁴ The crown will reside in the LORD's temple as a memorial to Heldai, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Heniⁱ son of Zephaniah. ¹⁵ People who are far off will come and build the LORD's temple, and you will know that the LORD of Hosts has sent Me to you. This will happen when you fully obey the LORD your God."

Disobedience and Fasting

7 In the fourth year of King Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, which is Chisleu. ² Now [the people of] Bethel had sent Sharezer, Regem-melech, and their men to plead for the LORD's favor ³ by asking the priests who were at the house of the LORD of •Hosts as well as the prophets, "Should we mourn and fast in the fifth month as we have done these many years?"

⁴ Then the word of the LORD of Hosts came to me: ⁵ "Ask all the people of the land and the priests: When you fasted and lamented in the fifth and in the seventh [months] for these 70 years, did you really fast for Me? ⁶ When you eat and drink, don't you eat and drink [simply] for yourselves? ⁷ Aren't [these] the words that the LORD proclaimed through the earlier prophets when Jerusalem was inhabited and secure,^a along with its surrounding cities, and when the southern region and the Judean foothills were inhabited?"

¹¹ But they refused to pay attention and turned a stubborn shoulder; they closed their ears so they could not hear. ¹² They made their hearts like a rock so as not to obey the law or the words that the LORD of Hosts had sent by His Spirit through the earlier prophets. Therefore great anger came from the LORD of Hosts. ¹³ Just as He had called, and they would not listen, so when they called, I would not listen," says the LORD of Hosts. ¹⁴ "I scattered them with a windstorm over all the nations that had not known them, and the land was left desolate behind them, with no one coming or going. They turned a pleasant land into a desolation."

Obedience and Feasting

8 The word of the LORD of •Hosts came: ² "The LORD of Hosts says this: I am extremely jealous for Zion; I am jealous for her with great wrath." ³ The LORD says this: "I will return to Zion and live in Jerusalem. Then Jerusalem will be called the Faithful City, the mountain of the LORD of Hosts, and the Holy Mountain." ⁴ The LORD of Hosts says this: "Old men and women will again sit along the streets of Jerusalem, each with a staff in hand because of advanced age. ⁵ The streets of the city will be filled with boys and girls playing in them." ⁶ The LORD of Hosts says this: "Though it may seem incredible to the remnant of this people in those days, should it also seem incredible to Me?"—the declaration of the LORD of Hosts. ⁷ The LORD of Hosts says this: "I will save My people from the land of the east and the land of the west. ⁸ I will bring them [back] to live in Jerusalem. They will be My people, and I will be their faithful and righteous God."

⁹ The LORD of Hosts says this: "Let your hands be strong, you who now hear these words that the prophets spoke when the foundations were laid for the rebuilding of the temple, the house of the LORD of Hosts. ¹⁰ For prior to those days neither man nor beast had wages. There was no safety from the enemy for anyone who came or went, for I turned everyone against his neighbor. ¹¹ But now, I will not treat the remnant of this people as in the former days"—the declaration of the LORD of Hosts. ¹² "For they will sow in peace: the vine will yield its fruit, the land will yield its produce, and the skies will yield their dew. I will give the remnant of this people all these things as an inheritance. ¹³ As you have been a curse among the nations, house of Judah and house of Israel, so I will save you, and you will be a blessing. Don't be afraid; let your hands be strong." ¹⁴ For the LORD of Hosts says this: "As I resolved to treat you badly when your fathers provoked Me to anger, and would not relent," says the LORD of Hosts, ¹⁵ "so I have resolved again in these days to do what is good to Jerusalem and the house of Judah. Don't be afraid. ¹⁶ These are the things you must do: Speak truth to one another; render honest and peaceful judgments in your •gates. ¹⁷ Do not plot evil in your hearts against your neighbor, and do not love perjury, for I hate all this"—the LORD's declaration.

¹⁸ Then the word of the LORD of Hosts came to me: ¹⁹ "The LORD of Hosts says this: The fast of the fourth [month], the fast of the fifth, the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth will become times of joy, gladness, and cheerful festivals for the house of Judah. Therefore, love truth and peace." ²⁰ The LORD of Hosts says this: "Peoples will yet come, the residents of many cities; ²¹ the residents of one city will go to another, saying: Let's go at once to plead for the LORD's favor and to seek the LORD of Hosts. I am also going. ²² Many peoples and strong nations will come to seek the LORD of Hosts in Jerusalem and to plead for the LORD's favor." ²³ The LORD of Hosts says this: "In those days, 10 men from nations of every language will grab the robe of a Jewish man tightly, urging: Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.”

Judgment of Zion's Enemies

9 An •Oracle

- The word of the LORD
is against the land of Hadrach, and Damascus is its resting place—
for the eyes of men and all the tribes of Israel are on the LORD^a —
- 2 and also against Hamath,
which borders it,
as well as Tyre and Sidon,
though they are very shrewd.
- 3 Tyre has built herself a fortress;
she has heaped up silver like dust
and gold like the dirt of the streets.
- 4 Listen! The Lord will impoverish her and cast her wealth into the sea;
she herself will be consumed by fire.
- 5 Ashkelon will see it and be afraid;
Gaza too, and will writhe in great pain,
as will Ekron, for her hope will fail.
There will cease to be a king in Gaza,
and Ashkelon will become uninhabited.
- 6 A mongrel people will live in Ashdod,
and I will destroy the pride of the Philistines.
- 7 I will remove the blood from their mouths
and the detestable things
from between their teeth.
Then they too will become a remnant
for our God;
they will become like a clan in Judah
and Ekron like the Jebusites.
- 8 I will set up camp at My house against an army,^b
against those who march back and forth,
and no oppressor will march
against them again,
for now I have seen with My own eyes.

The Coming of Zion's King

- 9 Rejoice greatly, Daughter Zion!
Shout in triumph, Daughter Jerusalem!
See, your King is coming to you;
He is righteous and victorious,^c humble and riding on a donkey,
on a colt, the foal of a donkey.
- 10 I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim
and the horse from Jerusalem.

The bow of war will be removed,
and He will proclaim peace to the nations.
His dominion will extend from sea to sea,
from the Euphrates River
to the ends of the earth.

- 11 As for you,
because of the blood of your covenant,
I will release your prisoners
from the waterless cistern.
- 12 Return to a stronghold,
you prisoners who have hope;
today I declare that I will restore double
to you.
- 13 For I will bend Judah [as My bow];
I will fill that bow with Ephraim.
I will rouse your sons, Zion,
against your sons, Greece.^d
I will make you like a warrior's sword.
- 14 Then the LORD will appear over them,
and His arrow will fly like lightning.
The Lord GOD will sound the trumpet and advance with the southern storms.
- 15 The LORD of •Hosts will defend them.
They will consume and conquer
with slingstones;
they will drink and be rowdy as if
with wine.
They will be as full as the sprinkling basin,
like [those] at the corners of the altar.
- 16 The LORD their God will save them
on that day
as the flock of His people;
for they are like jewels in a crown,
sparkling over His land.
- 17 How lovely and beautiful they will be!
Grain will make the young men flourish,
and new wine, the young women.

The LORD Restores His People

- 10 Ask the LORD for rain
in the season of spring rain.
The LORD makes the rain clouds,
and He will give them showers of rain
and crops in the field for everyone.
- 2 For the idols speak falsehood,
and the diviners see illusions;
they relate empty dreams
and offer empty comfort.
Therefore [the people] wander like sheep;
they suffer affliction because there is no shepherd.
- 3 My anger burns against the shepherds,
so I will punish the leaders.^e

For the LORD of •Hosts has tended His flock,
the house of Judah;
He will make them like His majestic steed

- 4 From them^a will come the cornerstone,
from them the tent peg,
from them the battle bow,
from them every ruler.
Together⁵ they will be like warriors
in battle

trampling down the mud of the streets.
They will fight because the LORD is
with them,
and they will put horsemen to shame.

- 6 I will strengthen the house of Judah and deliver the house of Joseph.^b
I will restore^c them
because I have compassion on them, and they will be
as though I had never rejected them.
For I am the LORD their God,
and I will answer them.

- 7 Ephraim will be like a warrior, and their hearts will be glad as if
with wine.
Their children will see it and be glad;
their hearts will rejoice in the LORD.

- 8 I will whistle and gather them
because I have redeemed them;
they will be as numerous as they once were.

- 9 Though I sow them among the nations,
they will remember Me
in the distant lands;
they and their children will live
and return.

- 10 I will bring them back from the land
of Egypt
and gather them from Assyria.
I will bring them to the land of Gilead
and to Lebanon,
but it will not be enough for them.
11 He^d will pass through the sea of distress
and strike the waves of the sea;
all the depths of the Nile will dry up.
The pride of Assyria will be brought down,
and the scepter of Egypt will come
to an end.

- 12 I will strengthen them in the LORD,

and they will march in His name—
[this is] •Yahweh's declaration.

Israel's Shepherds: Good and Bad

- 11 Open your gates, Lebanon,
and fire will consume your cedars.
2 Wail, cypress, for the cedar has fallen;
the glorious [trees] are destroyed!
Wail, oaks of Bashan,
for the stately forest has fallen!
3 Listen to the wail of the shepherds,
for their glory is destroyed.
Listen to the roar of young lions,
for the thickets of the Jordan
are^e destroyed.

4 The LORD my God says this: "Shepherd the flock intended for slaughter. ⁵ Those who buy them slaughter them but are not punished. Those who sell them say: Praise the LORD because I have become rich! Even their own shepherds have no compassion for them. ⁶ Indeed, I will no longer have compassion on the inhabitants of the land"—the LORD's declaration. "Instead, I will turn everyone over to his neighbor and his king. They will devastate the land, and I will not deliver [it] from them."

⁷ So I shepherded the flock intended for slaughter, the afflicted of the flock.^f I took two staffs, calling one Favor and the other Union, and I shepherded the flock. ⁸ In one month I got rid of three shepherds. I became impatient with them, and they also detested me. ⁹ Then I said, "I will no longer shepherd you. Let what is dying die, and let what is going astray go astray; let the rest devour each other's flesh." ¹⁰ Next I took my staff called Favor and cut it in two, annulling the covenant I had made with all the peoples. ¹¹ It was annulled on that day, and so the afflicted of the flock^g who were watching me knew that it was the word of the LORD. ¹² Then I said to them, "If it seems right to you, give me my wages; but if not, keep [them]." So they weighed my wages, 30 pieces of silver.

¹³ "Throw it to the potter,"^h the LORD said to me—this magnificent price I was valued by them. So I took the 30 pieces of silver and threw it into the house of the LORD, to the potter.ⁱ ¹⁴ Then I cut in two my second staff, Union, annulling the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

¹⁵ The LORD also said to me: “Take the equipment of a foolish shepherd. ¹⁶ I am about to raise up a shepherd in the land who will not care for those who are going astray, and he will not seek the lost^a or heal the broken. He will not sustain the healthy,^b but he will devour the flesh of the fat [sheep] and tear off their hooves.

May a sword strike^c his arm and his right eye!
May his arm wither away
and his right eye go completely blind!”

Judah's Security

12

An •Oracle

The word of the LORD concerning Israel.
A declaration of the LORD,
who stretched out the heavens,
laid the foundation of the earth,
and formed the spirit of man within him.

² “Look, I will make Jerusalem a cup that causes staggering for the peoples who surround the city. The siege against Jerusalem will also involve Judah. ³ On that day I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all the peoples; all who try to lift it will injure themselves severely when all the nations of the earth gather against her. ⁴ On that day”—the LORD’s declaration—“I will strike every horse with panic and its rider with madness. I will keep a watchful eye on the house of Judah but strike all the horses of the nations with blindness. ⁵ Then [each of] the leaders of Judah will think to himself: The residents of Jerusalem are my strength through the LORD of •Hosts, their God. ⁶ On that day I will make the leaders of Judah like a firepot in a woodpile, like a flaming torch among sheaves; they will consume all the peoples around them on the right and the left, while Jerusalem continues to be inhabited on its site, in Jerusalem. ⁷ The LORD will save the tents of Judah first, so that the glory of David’s house and the glory of Jerusalem’s residents may not be greater than that of Judah. ⁸ On that day the LORD will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the one who is weakest among them will be like David on that day, and the house of David will be like God, like the Angel of the LORD, before them.

⁹ On that day I will set out to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

Mourning for the Pierced One

¹⁰ “Then I will pour out a spirit^d of grace and prayer on the house of David and the residents of Jerusalem, and they will look at^e Me whom they pierced. They will mourn for Him as one mourns for an only child and weep bitterly for Him as one weeps for a firstborn. ¹¹ On that day the mourning in Jerusalem will be as great as the mourning of Hadad-rimmon in the plain of Megiddo. ¹² The land will mourn, every family by itself: the family of David’s house by itself and their women by themselves; the family of Nathan’s^f house by itself and their women by themselves; ¹³ the family of Levi’s house by itself and their women by themselves; the family of Shimei^g by itself and their women by themselves; ¹⁴ all the remaining families, every family by itself, and their women by themselves.

God's People Cleansed

13 “On that day a fountain will be opened for the house of David and for the residents of Jerusalem, [to wash away] sin and impurity. ² On that day”—the declaration of the LORD of •Hosts—“I will erase the names of the idols from the land, and they will no longer be remembered. I will remove the prophets^h and the unclean spirit from the land. ³ If a man still prophesies, his father and his mother who bore him will say to him: You cannot remain alive because you have spoken falsely in the name of the LORD. When he prophesies, his father and his mother who bore him will pierce him through. ⁴ On that day every prophet will be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies; they will not put on a hairy cloak in order to deceive. ⁵ He will say: I am not a prophet; I am a tiller of the soil, for a man purchasedⁱ me as a servant since my youth. ⁶ If someone asks him: What are these wounds on your chest?^j—then he will answer: The wounds I received in the house of my friends.

I will also turn My hand against the little ones.

- 8 In the whole land—
the LORD's declaration—
two-thirds^a will be cut off and die,
but a third will be left in it.
- 9 I will put this third through the fire;
I will refine them as silver is refined and test them as gold is tested.
They will call on My name,
and I will answer them.
I will say: They are My people,
and they will say: The LORD is our God."

The LORD's Triumph and Reign

14 A day of the LORD is coming when your plunder will be divided in your presence.² I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem for battle. The city will be captured, the houses looted, and the women raped. Half the city will go into exile, but the rest of the people will not be removed from the city.

³ Then the LORD will go out to fight against those nations as He fights on a day of battle.⁴ On that day His feet will stand on the •Mount of Olives, which faces Jerusalem on the east. The Mount of Olives will be split in half from east to west, forming a huge valley, so that half the mountain will move to the north and half to the south.⁵ You will flee by My mountain valley,^b for the valley of the mountains will extend to Azal. You will flee as you fled^c from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then the LORD my God will come and all the holy ones with Him.^d

⁶ On that day there will be no light; the sunlight and moonlight^e will diminish.^f ⁷ It will be a day known [only] to •Yahweh, without day or night, but there will be light at evening.

⁸ On that day living water will flow out from Jerusalem, half of it toward the eastern sea^g and the other half toward the western sea,^h in summer and winter alike.⁹ On that day Yahweh will become king over all the earth—Yahweh alone, and His name alone.¹⁰ All the land from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem will be changed into a plain. But [Jerusalem] will be raised up and will remainⁱ on its site from the Benjamin Gate to the place of the First Gate,^j to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the royal wine-presses.¹¹ People will live there, and never again will there be a curse of destruction. So Jerusalem will dwell in security.

¹² This will be the plague the LORD strikes all the peoples with, who have warred against Jerusalem: their flesh will rot while they stand on their feet, their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths.¹³ On that day a great panic from the LORD will be among them, so that each will seize the hand of another, and the hand of one will rise against the other.¹⁴ Judah will also fight at Jerusalem, and the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be collected: gold, silver, and clothing in great abundance.¹⁵ The same plague as the previous one will strike^k the horses, mules, camels, donkeys, and all the animals that are in those camps.

¹⁶ Then all the survivors from the nations that came against Jerusalem will go up year after year to worship the King, the LORD of •Hosts, and to celebrate the Festival of Booths.¹⁷ Should any of the families of the earth not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of Hosts, rain will not fall on them.¹⁸ And if the people^l of Egypt will not go up and enter, then rain will not fall on them; this^m will be the plague the LORD inflicts on the nations who do not go up to celebrate the Festival of Booths.¹⁹ This will be the punishment of Egypt and all the nations that do not go up to celebrate the Festival of Booths.

²⁰ On that day, [the words]

HOLY TO THE LORD

will be on the bells of the horses. The pots in the house of the LORD will be like the sprinkling basins before the altar.²¹ Every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to the LORD of Hosts. Everyone who sacrifices will come and take some of the pots to cook in. And on that day there will no longer be a Canaaniteⁿ in the house of the LORD of Hosts.

MALACHI

The LORD's Love for Israel

1 An •oracle: The word of the LORD to Israel through Malachi.^a

² "I have loved you," says the LORD.

But you ask: "How have You loved us?"

"Wasn't Esau Jacob's brother?" [This is] the LORD's declaration. "Even so, I loved Jacob,³ but I hated Esau. I turned his mountains into a wasteland, and [gave] his inheritance to the desert jackals."

⁴ Though Edom says: "We have been devastated, but we will rebuild^b the ruins," the LORD of •Hosts says this: "They may build, but I will demolish. They will be called a wicked country and the people the LORD has cursed^c forever. ⁵ Your own eyes will see this, and you yourselves will say: The LORD is great, [even] beyond^d the borders of Israel.

Disobedience of the Priests

⁶ "A son honors [his] father, and a servant his master. But if I am a father, where is My honor? And if I am a master, where is [your] •fear of Me? says the LORD of Hosts to you priests, who despise My name."

Yet you ask: "How have we despised Your name?"

⁷ "By presenting defiled food on My altar."

You ask: "How have we defiled You?"

When you say: "The LORD's table is contemptible."

⁸ "When you present a blind [animal] for sacrifice, is it not wrong? And when you present a lame or sick [animal], is it not wrong? Bring it to your governor! Would he be pleased with you or show you favor?" asks the LORD of Hosts. ⁹ "And now ask for God's favor. Will He be gracious to us? [Since] this has come from your hands, will He show any of you favor?" asks the LORD of Hosts. ¹⁰ "I wish one of you would shut the [temple] doors, so you would no longer kindle a useless [fire on] My altar! I am not pleased with you," says the LORD of Hosts, "and I will accept no offering from your hands.

¹¹ "For My name will be great among the nations, from the rising of the sun to its setting. Incense^e and pure offerings will be presented in My name in every place because My name will be great among the nations,"^f says the LORD of Hosts.

¹² But you are profaning it^g when you say: "The Lord's table is defiled, and its product, its food, is contemptible." ¹³ You also say: "Look, what a nuisance!" "And you scorn^h it," says the LORD of Hosts. "You bring stolen,ⁱ lame, or sick animals. You bring this as an offering! Am I to accept that from your hands?" asks the LORD.

¹⁴ "The deceiver is cursed who has an [acceptable] male in his flock and makes a vow but sacrifices a defective [animal] to the Lord. For I am a great King," says the LORD of Hosts, "and My name^j will be feared among the nations.

Warning to the Priests

2 "Therefore, this decree is for you priests: ² If you don't listen, and if you don't take it to heart to honor My name," says the LORD of •Hosts, "I will send a curse among you, and I will curse your blessings. In fact, I have already begun to curse them because you are not taking it to heart.

³ "Look, I am going to rebuke your descendants, and I will spread animal waste^k over your faces, the waste from your festival sacrifices, and you will be taken away with it. ⁴ Then you will know that I sent you this decree so My covenant with Levi may continue," says the LORD of Hosts. ⁵ "My covenant with him was one of life and peace, and I gave these to him; it called for reverence, and he revered Me and stood in awe of My name. ⁶ True instruction was in his mouth, and nothing wrong was found on his lips. He walked with Me in peace and fairness and turned many from sin. ⁷ For the lips of a priest should guard knowledge, and people should seek instruction from his mouth, because he is the messenger of the LORD of Hosts.

⁸ "You, on the other hand, have turned from the way. You have caused many to stumble by your instruction. You have violated^l the covenant of Levi," says the LORD of Hosts. ⁹ "So I in turn have made you despised and humiliated before all the people because you are not keeping My ways but are showing partiality in [your] instruction."

Judah's Marital Unfaithfulness

¹⁰ Don't all of us have one Father? Didn't one God create us? Why then do we act treacherously against one another, profaning the covenant of our fathers? ¹¹ Judah has acted treacherously, and a detestable thing has been done in Israel and in Jerusalem. For Judah has profaned the LORD's sanctuary,^a which He loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god.^b ¹² To the man who does this, may the LORD cut off any descendants^c ^d from the tents of Jacob, even if they present an offering to the LORD of Hosts.

¹⁴ Yet you ask, "For what reason?" Because the LORD has been a witness between you and the wife of your youth. You have acted treacherously against her, though she was your marriage partner and your wife by covenant. ¹⁵ Didn't the one [God] make [us] with a remnant of His life-breath? And what does the One seek?^e A godly •offspring. So watch yourselves carefully,^f and do not act treacherously against the wife of your youth.

¹⁶ "If he hates and divorces [his wife]," says the LORD God of Israel, "he^g covers his garment with injustice," says the LORD of Hosts. Therefore, watch yourselves carefully,^h and do not act treacherously.

Judgment at the LORD's Coming

¹⁷ You have wearied the LORD with your words.

Yet you ask, "How have we wearied [Him]?"

When you say, "Everyone who does evil is good in the LORD's sight, and He is pleased with them," or "Where is the God of justice?"

3 "See, I am going to send My messenger, and he will clear the way before Me. Then the Lord you seek will suddenly come to His temple, the Messenger of the covenant you desire—see, He is coming," says the LORD of •Hosts. ² But who can endure the day of His coming? And who will be able to stand when He appears? For He will be like a refiner's fire and like cleansing lye. ³ He will be like a refiner and purifier of silver; He will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver. Then they will present offerings to the LORD in righteousness. ⁴ And the offerings of Judah and Jerusalem will please the LORD as in days of old and years gone by.

⁵ "I will come to you in judgment, and I will be ready to witness against sorcerers and adulterers; against those who swear falsely; against those who oppress the widow and the fatherless, and cheat the wage earner; and against those who deny [justice to] the foreigner. They do not •fear Me," says the LORD of Hosts. ⁶ "Because I, •Yahweh, have not changed, you descendants of Jacob have not been destroyed.

Robbing God

⁷ "Since the days of your fathers, you have turned from My statutes; you have not kept [them]. Return to Me, and I will return to you," says the LORD of Hosts.

But you ask: "How can we return?"

⁸ "Will a man rob God? Yet you are robbing Me!"

You ask: "How do we rob You?"

"[By not making the payments] of 10 percent and the contributions. ⁹ You are suffering under a curse, yet you—the whole nation—are [still] robbing Me. ¹⁰ Bring the full 10 percent into the storehouse so that there may be food in My house. Test Me in this way," says the LORD of Hosts. "See if I will not open the floodgates of heaven and pour out a blessing for you without measure. ¹¹ I will rebuke the devourerⁱ for you, so that it will not ruin the produce of your ground, and your vine in your field will not be barren," says the LORD of Hosts. ¹² "Then all the nations will consider you fortunate, for you will be a delightful land," says the LORD of Hosts.

The Righteous and the Wicked

¹³ "Your words against Me are harsh," says the LORD.

Yet you ask: "What have we spoken against You?"

¹⁴ You have said: "It is useless to serve God. What have we gained by keeping His requirements and walking mournfully before the LORD of Hosts? ¹⁵ So now we consider the arrogant to be fortunate. Not only do those who commit wickedness prosper, they even test God and escape.”

¹⁶At that time those who feared the LORD spoke to one another. The LORD took notice and listened. So a book of remembrance was written before Him for those who feared Yahweh and had high regard for His name. ¹⁷“They will be Mine,” says the LORD of Hosts, “a special possession on the day I am preparing. I will have compassion on them as a man has compassion on his son who serves him. ¹⁸So you will again see the difference between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve Him.

4^a “For indeed, the day is coming, burning like a furnace, when all the arrogant and everyone who commits wickedness will become stubble. The coming day will consume them,” says the LORD of •Hosts, “not leaving them root or branches. ²But for you who •fear My name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings, and you will go out and playfully jump like calves from the stall.^b ³You will trample the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day I am preparing,” says the LORD of Hosts.

A Final Warning

⁴“Remember the instruction of Moses My servant, the statutes and ordinances I commanded him at Horeb for all Israel. ⁵Look, I am going to send you Elijah the prophet before the great and awesome Day of the LORD comes. ^{6c}And he will turn the hearts of fathers to [their] children and the hearts of children to their fathers. Otherwise, I will come and strike the land^d with a curse.”

THE NEW TESTAMENT

MATTHEW

The Genealogy of Jesus Christ

1 The historical record^a of Jesus Christ, the Son of David, the Son of Abraham:

From Abraham to David

- ² Abraham fathered^b Isaac,
Isaac fathered Jacob,
Jacob fathered Judah and his brothers,
- ³ Judah fathered Perez and Zerah by Tamar, Perez fathered Hezron, Hezron fathered Aram,
- ⁴ Aram fathered Aminadab,
Aminadab fathered Nahshon, Nahshon fathered Salmon,
- ⁵ Salmon fathered Boaz by Rahab, Boaz fathered Obed by Ruth,
Obed fathered Jesse,
- ⁶ and Jesse fathered King David.

From David to the Babylonian Exile

- Then^c David fathered Solomon
by Uriah's wife,
- ⁷ Solomon fathered Rehoboam,
Rehoboam fathered Abijah, Abijah fathered Asa,^d
 - ⁸ Asa^d fathered Jehoshaphat,
Jehoshaphat fathered Joram, Joram fathered Uzziah,
 - ⁹ Uzziah fathered Jotham, Jotham fathered Ahaz, Ahaz fathered Hezekiah,
 - ¹⁰ Hezekiah fathered Manasseh, Manasseh fathered Amon,^e
Amon^e fathered Josiah,
 - ¹¹ and Josiah fathered Jechoniah
and his brothers
at the time of the exile to Babylon.

From the Exile to the Messiah

- ¹² Then after the exile to Babylon
Jechoniah fathered Salathiel, Salathiel fathered Zerubbabel,
- ¹³ Zerubbabel fathered Abiud, Abiud fathered Eliakim, Eliakim fathered Azor,
- ¹⁴ Azor fathered Zadok,

- Zadok fathered Achim,
Achim fathered Eliud,
- ¹⁵ Eliud fathered Eleazar,
Eleazar fathered Matthan, Matthan fathered Jacob,
 - ¹⁶ and Jacob fathered Joseph the husband of Mary,
who gave birth to^f Jesus who is called the •Messiah.

¹⁷ So all the generations from Abraham to David were 14 generations; and from David until the exile to Babylon, 14 generations; and from the exile to Babylon until the Messiah, 14 generations.

The Nativity of the Messiah

¹⁸ The birth of Jesus Christ came about this way: After His mother Mary had been •engaged to Joseph, it was discovered before they came together that she was pregnant by the Holy Spirit. ¹⁹ So her husband Joseph, being a righteous man, and not wanting to disgrace her publicly, decided to divorce her secretly.

²⁰ But after he had considered these things, an angel of the Lord suddenly appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, don't be afraid to take Mary as your wife, because what has been conceived in her is by the Holy Spirit. ²¹ She will give birth to a son, and you are to name Him Jesus,^g because He will save His people from their sins."

²² Now all this took place to fulfill what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet:

- ²³ See, the virgin will become pregnant and give birth to a son, and they will name Him Immanuel,^h

which is translated "God is with us."

²⁴ When Joseph got up from sleeping, he did as the Lord's angel had commanded him. He married her ²⁵ but did not know her intimately until she gave birth to a son.ⁱ And he named Him Jesus.

Wise Men Seek the King

2 After Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of King •Herod, •wise men from the east arrived unexpectedly in Jerusalem, ² saying, “Where is He who has been born King of the Jews? For we saw His star in the east^a and have come to worship Him.”^b

³ When King Herod heard this, he was deeply disturbed, and all Jerusalem with him. ⁴ So he assembled all the •chief priests and •scribes of the people and asked them where the •Messiah would be born.

⁵ “In Bethlehem of Judea,” they told him, “because this is what was written by the prophet:

6 And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least
among the leaders of Judah:
because out of you will come a leader who will shepherd My people Israel.”^c

⁷ Then Herod secretly summoned the wise men and asked them the exact time the star appeared. ⁸ He sent them to Bethlehem and said, “Go and search carefully for the child. When you find Him, report back to me so that I too can go and worship Him.”^d

⁹ After hearing the king, they went on their way. And there it was—the star they had seen in the east!^e It led them until it came and stopped above the place where the child was. ¹⁰ When they saw the star, they were overjoyed beyond measure. ¹¹ Entering the house, they saw the child with Mary His mother, and falling to their knees, they worshiped Him.^f Then they opened their treasures and presented Him with gifts: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. ¹² And being warned in a dream not to go back to Herod, they returned to their own country by another route.

The Flight into Egypt

¹³ After they were gone, an angel of the Lord suddenly appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, “Get up! Take the child and His mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you. For Herod is about to search for the child to destroy Him.” ¹⁴ So he got up, took the child and His mother during the night, and escaped to Egypt. ¹⁵ He stayed there until Herod’s death, so that what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet might be fulfilled: Out of Egypt I called My Son.^g

The Massacre of the Innocents

¹⁶ Then Herod, when he saw that he had been outwitted by the wise men, flew into a rage. He gave orders to massacre all the male children in and around Bethlehem who were two years^h old and under, in keeping with the time he had learned from the wise men. ¹⁷ Then what was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled:

18 A voice was heard in Ramah,
weeping,ⁱ and great mourning,
Rachel weeping for her children;
and she refused to be consoled,
because they were no more.^j

The Holy Family in Nazareth

¹⁹ After Herod died, an angel of the Lord suddenly appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, ²⁰ saying, “Get up! Take the child and His mother and go to the land of Israel, because those who sought the child’s life are dead.” ²¹ So he got up, took the child and His mother, and entered the land of Israel. ²² But when he heard that Archelaus^k was ruling over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And being warned in a dream, he withdrew to the region of Galilee. ²³ Then he went and settled in a town called Nazareth to fulfill what was spoken through the prophets, that He will be called a •Nazarene.

The Messiah’s Herald

3 In those days John the Baptist came, preaching in the Wilderness of Judea ² and saying, “Repent, because the kingdom of heaven has come near!” ³ For he is the one spoken of through the prophet Isaiah, who said:

A voice of one crying out
in the wilderness:
“Prepare the way for the Lord;
make His paths straight!”^l

⁴ John himself had a camel-hair garment with a leather belt around his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. ⁵ Then [people from] Jerusalem, all Judea, and all the vicinity of the Jordan were flocking to him, ⁶ and they were baptized by him in the Jordan River as they confessed their sins.

⁷ When he saw many of the •Pharisees and •Sadducees coming to the place of his baptism,^m he said to them, “Brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? ⁸ Therefore produce fruit consistent withⁿ repentance. ⁹ And don’t presume to say to yourselves, ‘We have

¹¹ "I baptize you with^a water for repentance,^b but the One who is coming after me is more powerful than I. I am not worthy to take off^c His sandals. He Himself will baptize you with^a the Holy Spirit and fire. ¹² His winnowing shovel^d is in His hand, and He will clear His threshing floor and gather His wheat into the barn. But the chaff He will burn up with fire that never goes out."

The Baptism of Jesus

¹³ Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him. ¹⁴ But John tried to stop Him, saying, "I need to be baptized by You, and yet You come to me?"

¹⁵ Jesus answered him, "Allow it for now, because this is the way for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he allowed Him [to be baptized].

¹⁶ After Jesus was baptized, He went up immediately from the water. The heavens suddenly opened for Him,^e and He saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming down on Him. ¹⁷ And there came a voice from heaven:

This is My beloved Son.
I take delight in Him!

The Temptation of Jesus

4 Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the Devil. ² After He had fasted 40 days and 40 nights, He was hungry. ³ Then the tempter approached Him and said, "If You are the Son of God, tell these stones to become bread."

⁴ But He answered, "It is written:

Man must not live on bread alone but on every word that comes from the mouth of God."^f

⁵ Then the Devil took Him to the holy city,^g had Him stand on the pinnacle of the temple, ⁶ and said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down. For it is written:

He will give His angels orders concerning you, and

they will support you
with their hands
so that you will not strike
your foot against a stone."^h

⁷ Jesus told him, "It is also written: Do not test the Lord your God."ⁱ

⁸ Again, the Devil took Him to a very high mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor. ⁹ And he said to Him, "I will give You all these things if You will fall down and worship me."^j

¹⁰ Then Jesus told him, "Go away,^k Satan! For it is written:

Worship the Lord your God,
and serve only Him."^l

¹¹ Then the Devil left Him, and immediately angels came and began to serve Him.

Ministry in Galilee

¹² When He heard that John had been arrested, He withdrew into Galilee. ¹³ He left Nazareth behind and went to live in Capernaum by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naph-tali. ¹⁴ This was to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah:

¹⁵ Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali,
along the sea road, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles!

¹⁶ The people who live in darkness
have seen a great light,
and for those living in the shadowland of death,
light has dawned.^{m n}

¹⁷ From then on Jesus began to preach, "Re-pent, because the kingdom of heaven has come near!"

The First Disciples

¹⁸ As He was walking along the Sea of Galilee, He saw two brothers, Simon, who was called Peter, and his brother Andrew. They were casting a net into the sea, since they were fishermen. ¹⁹ "Follow Me," He told them, "and I will make you fish for^o people!" ²⁰ Immediately they left their nets and followed Him.

²¹ Going on from there, He saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They were in a boat with Zebedee

Teaching, Preaching, and Healing

²³ Jesus was going all over Galilee, teaching in their •synagogues, preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing every^a disease and sickness among the people. ²⁴ Then the news about Him spread throughout Syria. So they brought to Him all those who were afflicted, those suffering from various diseases and intense pains, the demon-possessed, the epileptics, and the paralytics. And He healed them. ²⁵ Large crowds followed Him from Galilee, •Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and beyond the Jordan.

The Sermon on the Mount

5 When He saw the crowds, He went up on the mountain, and after He sat down, His disciples came to Him. ² Then^b He began to teach them, saying:

The Beatitudes

- 3 “Blessed are the poor in spirit,
because the kingdom of heaven is theirs.
- 4 Blessed are those who mourn,
because they will be comforted.
- 5 Blessed are the gentle,
because they will inherit the earth.
- 6 Blessed are those who hunger
and thirst for righteousness,
because they will be filled.
- 7 Blessed are the merciful,
because they will be shown mercy.
- 8 Blessed are the pure in heart,
because they will see God.
- 9 Blessed are the peacemakers,
because they will be called sons of God.
- 10 Blessed are those who are persecuted
for righteousness,
because the kingdom of heaven is theirs.

¹¹ “Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and falsely say every kind of evil against you because of Me. ¹² Be glad and rejoice, because your reward is great in heaven. For that is how they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Believers Are Salt and Light

¹³ “You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt should lose its taste, how can it be made salty? It’s no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled on by men.

¹⁴ “You are the light of the world. A city situated on a hill cannot be hidden. ¹⁵ No one lights a lamp and puts it under a basket,^c but rather on a lampstand, and it gives light for all who are in the house. ¹⁶ In the same way, let your light shine^d before men, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.

Christ Fulfills the Law

¹⁷ “Don’t assume that I came to destroy the Law or the Prophets. I did not come to destroy but to fulfill. ¹⁸ For •I assure you: Until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter^e or one stroke of a letter will pass from the law until all things are accomplished. ¹⁹ Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches people to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever practices and teaches [these commandments] will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. ²⁰ For I tell you, unless your righteousness surpasses that of the •scribes and •Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Murder Begins in the Heart

²¹ “You have heard that it was said to our ancestors,^f Do not murder,^g and whoever murders will be subject to judgment. ²² But I tell you, everyone who is angry with his brother^h will be subject to judgment. And whoever says to his brother, ‘Fool!’ⁱ will be subject to the •Sanhedrin. But whoever says, ‘You moron!’ will be subject to •hellfire.^j ²³ So if you are offering your gift on the altar, and there you remember that your brother has something against you, ²⁴ leave your gift there in front of the altar. First go and be reconciled with your brother, and then come and offer your gift. ²⁵ Reach a settlement quickly with your adversary while you’re on the way with him, or your adversary will hand you over to the judge, the judge to^k the officer, and you will be thrown into prison. ²⁶ I assure you: You will never get out of there until you have paid the last penny!^l

Adultery in the Heart

²⁷ “You have heard that it was said, Do not commit adultery.^a ²⁸ But I tell you, everyone who looks at a woman to lust for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart. ²⁹ If your right eye •causes you to sin, gouge it out and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of the parts of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. ³⁰ And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of the parts of your body than for your whole body to go into hell!

Divorce Practices Censured

³¹ “It was also said, Whoever divorces his wife must give her a written notice of divorce.^b ³² But I tell you, everyone who divorces his wife, except in a case of sexual immorality,^c causes her to commit adultery. And whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

Tell the Truth

³³ “Again, you have heard that it was said to our ancestors,^d You must not break your oath, but you must keep your oaths to the Lord.^e ³⁴ But I tell you, don’t take an oath at all: either by heaven, because it is God’s throne; ³⁵ or by the earth, because it is His footstool; or by Jerusalem, because it is the city of the great King. ³⁶ Neither should you swear by your head, because you cannot make a single hair white or black. ³⁷ But let your word ‘yes’ be ‘yes,’ and your ‘no’ be ‘no.’^f Anything more than this is from the evil one.

Go the Second Mile

³⁸ “You have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.^g ³⁹ But I tell you, don’t resist^h an evildoer. On the contrary, if anyone slaps you on your right cheek, turn the other to him also. ⁴⁰ As for the one who wants to sue you and take away your shirt,ⁱ let him have your coat^j as well. ⁴¹ And if anyone forces^k you to go one mile, go with him two. ⁴² Give to the one who asks you, and don’t turn away from the one who wants to borrow from you.

Love Your Enemies

⁴³ “You have heard that it was said, Love your neighbor^l and hate your enemy. ⁴⁴ But I tell you, love your enemies^m and pray for those whoⁿ persecute you, ⁴⁵ so that you may be^o sons of your Father in heaven. For He causes His sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous. ⁴⁶ For if you love those who love you, what reward will you have? Don’t even the tax collectors do the same? ⁴⁷ And if you greet only your brothers, what are you doing out of the ordinary?^p Don’t even the Gentiles^q do the same? ⁴⁸ Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

How to Give

6 “Be careful not to practice your righteousness^r in front of people, to be seen by them. Otherwise, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven. ² So whenever you give to the poor, don’t sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the •synagogues and on the streets, to be applauded by people. •I assure you: They’ve got their reward! ³ But when you give to the poor, don’t let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, ⁴ so that your giving may be in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you.^s

How to Pray

⁵ “Whenever you pray, you must not be like the hypocrites, because they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners to be seen by people. I assure you: They’ve got their reward! ⁶ But when you pray, go into your private room, shut your door, and pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you.^t ⁷ When you pray, don’t babble like the idolaters,^u since they imagine they’ll be heard for their many words. ⁸ Don’t be like them, because your Father knows the things you need before you ask Him.

The Model Prayer

⁹ “Therefore, you should pray like this:

Your name be honored as holy.

How to Fast

16 “Whenever you fast, don’t be sad-faced like the hypocrites. For they make their faces unattractive^g so their fasting is obvious to people. I assure you: They’ve got their reward! 17 But when you fast, put oil on your head, and wash your face, 18 so that you don’t show your fasting to people but to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you.^h

God and Possessions

19 “Don’t collect for yourselves treasuresⁱ on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal. 20 But collect for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys, and where thieves don’t break in and steal. 21 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

22 “The eye is the lamp of the body. If your eye is good, your whole body will be full of light. 23 But if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. So if the light within you is darkness—how deep is that darkness!

24 “No one can be a slave of two masters, since either he will hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot be slaves of God and of money.

The Cure for Anxiety

25 “This is why I tell you: Don’t worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Isn’t life more than food and the body more than clothing? 26 Look at the birds of the sky: they don’t sow or reap or gather into barns, yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Aren’t you worth more than they? 27 Can any of you add a single •cubit to his height^j by worrying? 28 And why do you worry about clothes? Learn how the wildflowers of the field grow: they don’t labor or spin thread. 29 Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor was adorned like one of these! 30 If that’s how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and thrown into the furnace tomorrow, won’t He do much more for you—you of little faith? 31 So don’t worry, saying, ‘What will we eat?’ or ‘What will we drink?’ or ‘What will we wear?’ 32 For the idolaters^k eagerly seek all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them. 33 But seek first the kingdom of God^l and His righteousness, and all these things will be provided for you. 34 Therefore don’t worry about tomorrow, because tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

Do Not Judge

7 “Do not judge, so that you won’t be judged. 2 For with the judgment you use,^m you will be judged, and with the measure you use,ⁿ it will be measured to you. 3 Why do you look at the speck in your brother’s eye but don’t notice the log in your own eye? 4 Or how can you say to your brother, ‘Let me take the speck out of your eye,’ and look, there’s a log in your eye? 5 Hypocrite! First take the log out of your eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother’s eye. 6 Don’t give what is holy to dogs or toss your pearls before pigs, or they will trample them with their feet, turn, and tear you to pieces.

Keep Asking, Searching, Knocking

7 “Keep asking,^o and it will be given to you. Keep searching,^p and you will find. Keep knocking,^q and the door^r will be opened to you. 8 For everyone who asks receives, and the one who searches finds, and to the one who knocks, the door^s will be opened. 9 What man among you, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone? 10 Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake? 11 If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask Him! 12 Therefore, whatever you want

Entering the Kingdom

¹³ “Enter through the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the road is broad that leads to destruction, and there are many who go through it. ¹⁴ How narrow is the gate and difficult the road that leads to life, and few find it.

²¹ “Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord!’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but [only] the one who does the will of My Father in heaven. ²² On that day many will say to Me, ‘Lord, Lord, didn’t we prophesy in Your name, drive out demons in Your name, and do many miracles in Your name?’ ²³ Then I will announce to them, ‘I never knew you! Depart from Me, you lawbreakers!’^{b c}

The Two Foundations

²⁴ “Therefore, everyone who hears these words of Mine and acts on them will be like a sensible man who built his house on the rock. ²⁵ The rain fell, the rivers rose, and the winds blew and pounded that house. Yet it didn’t collapse, because its foundation was on the rock. ²⁶ But everyone who hears these words of Mine and doesn’t act on them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. ²⁷ The rain fell, the rivers rose, the winds blew and pounded that house, and it collapsed. And its collapse was great!”

²⁸ When Jesus had finished this sermon,^d the crowds were astonished at His teaching, ²⁹ because He was teaching them like one who had authority, and not like their •scribes.

Cleansing a Leper

8 When He came down from the mountain, large crowds followed Him. ² Right away a man with a serious skin disease came up and kneled before Him, saying, “Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean.”^e

³ Reaching out His hand He touched him, saying, “I am willing; be made clean.” Immediately his disease was healed.^f ⁴ Then Jesus told him, “See that you don’t tell anyone; but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses prescribed, as a testimony to them.”

A Centurion’s Faith

⁵ When He entered Capernaum, a •centurion came to Him, pleading with Him, ⁶ “Lord, my servant is lying at home paralyzed, in terrible agony!”

⁸ “Lord,” the centurion replied, “I am not worthy to have You come under my roof. But only say the word, and my servant will be cured. ⁹ For I too am a man under authority, having soldiers under my command.^g I say to this one, ‘Go!’ and he goes; and to another, ‘Come!’ and he comes; and to my slave, ‘Do this!’ and he does it.”

¹⁰ Hearing this, Jesus was amazed and said to those following Him, “•I assure you: I have not found anyone in Israel with so great a faith! ¹¹ I tell you that many will come from east and west, and recline at the table with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. ¹² But the sons of the kingdom will be thrown into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.” ¹³ Then Jesus told the centurion, “Go. As you have believed, let it be done for you.” And his servant was cured that very moment.^h

Healings at Capernaum

¹⁴ When Jesus went into Peter’s house, He saw his mother-in-law lying in bed with a fever. ¹⁵ So He touched her hand, and the fever left her. Then she got up and began to serve Him. ¹⁶ When evening came, they brought to Him many who were demon-possessed. He drove out the spirits with a word and healed all who were sick, ¹⁷ so that what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

He Himself took our weaknesses and carried our diseases.ⁱ

²⁰Jesus told him, “Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay His head.”

²¹“Lord,” another of His disciples said, “first let me go bury my father.”^b

²²But Jesus told him, “Follow Me, and let the dead bury their own dead.”

Wind and Wave Obey the Master

²³As He got into the^c boat, His disciples followed Him. ²⁴Suddenly, a violent storm arose on the sea, so that the boat was being swamped by the waves. But He was sleeping. ²⁵So the disciples came and woke Him up, saying, “Lord, save [us]! We’re going to die!”

²⁶But He said to them, “Why are you fearful, you of little faith?” Then He got up and rebuked the winds and the sea. And there was a great calm.

²⁷The men were amazed and asked, “What kind of man is this?—even the winds and the sea obey Him!”

Demons Driven Out by the Master

²⁸When He had come to the other side, to the region of the Gadarenes,^d two demon-possessed men met Him as they came out of the tombs. They were so violent that no one could pass that way. ²⁹Suddenly they shouted, “What do You have to do with us,^e f Son of God? Have You come here to torment us before the time?”

³⁰Now a long way off from them, a large herd of pigs was feeding. ³¹“If You drive us out,” the demons begged Him, “send us into the herd of pigs.”

³²“Go!” He told them. So when they had come out, they entered the pigs. And suddenly the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea and perished in the water. ³³Then the men who tended them fled. They went into the city and reported everything—especially what had happened to those who were demon-possessed. ³⁴At that, the whole town went out to meet Jesus. When they saw Him, they begged Him to leave their region.

The Son of Man Forgives and Heals

9 So He got into a boat, crossed over, and came to His own town. ²Just then some men^g brought to Him a paralytic lying on a stretcher. Seeing their faith, Jesus told the paralytic, “Have courage, son, your sins are forgiven.”

³At this, some of the •scribes said among themselves, “He’s blaspheming!”

⁴But perceiving their thoughts, Jesus said, “Why are you thinking evil things in your hearts?” ⁵For which is easier: to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk’? ⁶But so you may know that the •Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”—then He told the paralytic, “Get up, pick up your stretcher, and go home.” ⁷And he got up and went home. ⁸When the crowds saw this, they were awestruck!ⁱ and gave glory to God who had given such authority to men.

The Call of Matthew

⁹As Jesus went on from there, He saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax office, and He said to him, “Follow Me!” So he got up and followed Him.

¹⁰While He was reclining at the table in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came as guests to eat^k with Jesus and His disciples.

¹¹When the •Pharisees saw this, they asked His disciples, “Why does your Teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

¹²But when He heard this, He said, “Those who are well don’t need a doctor, but the sick do.” ¹³Go and learn what this means: I desire mercy and not sacrifice.^l For I didn’t come to call the righteous, but sinners.”^m

A Question about Fasting

¹⁴Then John’s disciples came to Him, saying, “Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but Your disciples do not fast?”

¹⁵Jesus said to them, “Can the wedding guestsⁿ be sad while the groom is with them? The days will come when the groom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast.” ¹⁶No one patches an old garment with unshrunk cloth, because the patch pulls away from the garment and makes the tear worse. ¹⁷And no one puts^o new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the skins burst, the wine spills out, and the skins are ruined. But they put new wine into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved.”

A Girl Restored and a Woman Healed

¹⁸ As He was telling them these things, suddenly one of the leaders^a came and knelt down before Him, saying, “My daughter is near death,^b but come and lay Your hand on her, and she will live.” ¹⁹ So Jesus and His disciples got up and followed him.

²⁰ Just then, a woman who had suffered from bleeding for 12 years approached from behind and touched the •tassel on His robe, ²¹ for she said to herself, “If I can just touch His robe, I’ll be made well!”^c

²² But Jesus turned and saw her. “Have courage, daughter,” He said. “Your faith has made you well.”^d And the woman was made well from that moment.^e

²³ When Jesus came to the leader’s house, He saw the flute players and a crowd lamenting loudly. ²⁴ “Leave,” He said, “because the girl isn’t dead, but sleeping.” And they started laughing at Him. ²⁵ But when the crowd had been put outside, He went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up. ²⁶ And this news spread throughout that whole area.

Healing the Blind

²⁷ As Jesus went on from there, two blind men followed Him, shouting, “Have mercy on us, Son of David!”

²⁸ When He entered the house, the blind men approached Him, and Jesus said to them, “Do you believe that I can do this?”

“Yes, Lord,” they answered Him.

²⁹ Then He touched their eyes, saying, “Let it be done for you according to your faith!”

³⁰ And their eyes were opened. Then Jesus warned them sternly, “Be sure that no one finds out!”^f ³¹ But they went out and spread the news about Him throughout that whole area.

Driving Out a Demon

³² Just as they were going out, a demon-possessed man who was unable to speak was brought to Him. ³³ When the demon had been driven out, the man^g spoke. And the crowds were amazed, saying, “Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel!”

³⁴ But the Pharisees said, “He drives out demons by the ruler of the demons!”

The Lord of the Harvest

³⁵ Then Jesus went to all the towns and villages, teaching in their •synagogues, preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing every^h disease and every sickness.ⁱ ³⁶ When He saw the crowds, He felt compassion for them, because they were weary and worn out, like sheep without a shepherd. ³⁷ Then He said to His disciples, “The harvest is abundant, but the workers are few. ³⁸ Therefore, pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest.”

Commissioning the Twelve

10 Summoning His 12 disciples, He gave them authority over unclean^j spirits, to drive them out and to heal every^h disease and sickness. ² These are the names of the 12 apostles:

First, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother;

³ Philip and Bartholomew;^k Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus;^l

⁴ Simon the Zealot,^m and Judas Iscariot,ⁿ who also betrayed Him.

¹¹ “When you enter any town or village, find out who is worthy, and stay there until you leave. ¹² Greet a household when you enter it, ¹³ and if the household is worthy, let your peace be on it. But if it is unworthy, let your peace return to you. ¹⁴ If anyone will not welcome you or listen to your words, shake the dust off your feet when you leave that house or town. ¹⁵ •I assure you: It will be more tolerable on the day

¹⁶ “Look, I’m sending you out like sheep among wolves. Therefore be as shrewd as serpents and as harmless as doves. ¹⁷ Because people will hand you over to sanhedrins^a and flog you in their •synagogues, beware of them. ¹⁸ You will even be brought before governors and kings because of Me, to bear witness to them and to the nations. ¹⁹ But when they hand you over, don’t worry about how or what you should speak. For you will be given what to say at that hour, ²⁰ because you are not speaking, but the Spirit of your Father is speaking through you.

²¹ “Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child. Children will even rise up against their parents and have them put to death. ²² You will be hated by everyone because of My name. But the one who endures to the end will be delivered.^b ²³ When they persecute you in one town, escape to another. For I assure you: You will not have covered the towns of Israel before the •Son of Man comes. ²⁴ A disciple^c is not above his teacher, or a slave above his master. ²⁵ It is enough for a disciple to become like his teacher and a slave like his master. If they called the head of the house ‘•Beelzebul,’ how much more the members of his household!

Fear God

²⁶ “Therefore, don’t be afraid of them, since there is nothing covered that won’t be uncovered, and nothing hidden that won’t be made known. ²⁷ What I tell you in the dark, speak in the light. What you hear in a whisper,^d proclaim on the housetops. ²⁸ Don’t fear those who kill the body but are not able to kill the soul; rather, fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in •hell. ²⁹ Aren’t two sparrows sold for a penny?^e Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father’s consent.^f ³⁰ But even the hairs of your head have all been counted. ³¹ Don’t be afraid therefore; you are worth more than many sparrows.

Acknowledging Christ

³² “Therefore, everyone who will acknowledge Me before men, I will also acknowledge him before My Father in heaven. ³³ But whoever denies Me before men, I will also deny him before My Father in heaven. ³⁴ Don’t assume that I came to bring peace on the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. ³⁵ For I came to turn a man against his father,

a daughter against her mother,
a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;

³⁶ and a man’s enemies will be
the members of his household.^g

³⁷ The person who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me; the person who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. ³⁸ And whoever doesn’t take up his cross and follow^h Me is not worthy of Me. ³⁹ Anyone findingⁱ his life will lose it, and anyone losing^j his life because of Me will find it.

A Cup of Cold Water

⁴⁰ “The one who welcomes you welcomes Me, and the one who welcomes Me welcomes Him who sent Me. ⁴¹ Anyone who^k welcomes a prophet because he is a prophet^l will receive a prophet’s reward. And anyone who^m welcomes a righteous person because he’s righteousⁿ will receive a righteous person’s reward. ⁴² And whoever gives just a cup of cold water to one of these little ones because he is a disciple^o —I assure you: He will never lose his reward!”

In Praise of John the Baptist

11 When Jesus had finished giving orders to His 12 disciples, He moved on from there to teach and preach in their towns. ² When John heard in prison what the •Messiah was doing, he sent [a message] by his disciples ³ and asked Him, “Are You the One who is to come, or should we expect someone else?”

⁴ Jesus replied to them, “Go and report to John what you hear and see: ⁵ the blind see, the lame walk, those with skin diseases are healed,^p the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor are told the good news. ⁶ And if anyone is not offended because of Me, he is blessed.”

⁷ As these men went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed swaying in the wind? ⁸ What then did you go out to

he will prepare Your way
before You.^b

¹¹ “•I assure you: Among those born of women no one greater than John the Baptist has appeared,^c but the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. ¹² From the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven has been suffering violence,^d and the violent have been seizing it by force. ¹³ For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John; ¹⁴ if you're willing to accept it, he is the Elijah who is to come. ¹⁵ Anyone who has ears^e should listen!

An Unresponsive Generation

¹⁶ “To what should I compare this generation? It's like children sitting in the marketplaces who call out to each other:

¹⁷ We played the flute for you,
but you didn't dance;
we sang a lament,
but you didn't mourn!^f

¹⁸ For John did not come eating or drinking, and they say, ‘He has a demon!’ ¹⁹ The •Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, ‘Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ Yet wisdom is vindicated^g by her deeds.”^h

²⁰ Then He proceeded to denounce the towns where most of His miracles were done, because they did not repent: ²¹ “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented in sackcloth and ashes long ago! ²² But I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you. ²³ And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? You will go down to •Hades. For if the miracles that were done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until today. ²⁴ But I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom on the day of judgment than for you.”

The Son Gives Knowledge and Rest

²⁵ At that time Jesus said, “I praiseⁱ You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and learned and revealed them to infants. ²⁶ Yes, Father, because this was Your good pleasure.^j ²⁷ All things have been entrusted to Me by My Father. No one knows^k the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son desires^l to reveal Him.

²⁸ “Come to Me, all of you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. ²⁹ All of you, take up My yoke and learn from Me, because I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for yourselves. ³⁰ For My yoke is easy and My burden is light.”

Lord of the Sabbath

12 At that time Jesus passed through the grainfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry and began to pick and eat some heads of grain. ² But when the •Pharisees saw it, they said to Him, “Look, Your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath!”

³ He said to them, “Haven't you read what David did when he and those who were with him were hungry— ⁴ how he entered the house of God, and they ate^m the •sacred bread, which is not lawful for him or for those with him to eat, but only for the priests? ⁵ Or haven't you read in the Lawⁿ that on Sabbath days the priests in the temple violate the Sabbath and are innocent? ⁶ But I tell you that something greater than the temple is here! ⁷ If you had known what this means: I desire mercy and not sacrifice,^o you would not have condemned the innocent. ⁸ For the •Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.”

The Man with the Paralyzed Hand

⁹ Moving on from there, He entered their •synagogue. ¹⁰ There He saw a man who had a paralyzed hand. And in order to accuse Him they asked Him, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?”

¹¹ But He said to them, “What man among you, if he had a sheep^p that fell into a pit on the Sabbath, wouldn't take hold of it and lift it out?

¹² A man is worth far more than a sheep, so it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath.”

¹³ Then He told the man, “Stretch out your hand.” So he stretched it out, and it was restored, as good as the other. ¹⁴ But the Pharisees went out and plotted against Him, how they might destroy Him.

The Servant of the Lord

¹⁵ When Jesus became aware of this, He withdrew from there. Huge crowds^a followed Him, and He healed them all. ¹⁶ He warned them not to make Him known, ¹⁷ so that what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

- ¹⁸ Here is My Servant
whom I have chosen,
My beloved in whom
My soul delights;
I will put My Spirit on Him,
and He will proclaim justice
to the nations.
- ¹⁹ He will not argue or shout,
and no one will hear His voice

- ²⁰ He will not break a bruised reed,
and He will not put out until He has led justice to victory.^b

- ²¹ The nations will put their hope

A House Divided

²² Then a demon-possessed man who was blind and unable to speak was brought to Him. He healed him, so that the man^d could both speak and see. ²³ And all the crowds were astounded and said, “Perhaps this is the Son of David!”

²⁴ When the Pharisees heard this, they said, “The man drives out demons only by •Beelzebub, the ruler of the demons.”

²⁵ Knowing their thoughts, He told them: “Every kingdom divided against itself is headed for destruction, and no city or house divided against itself will stand. ²⁶ If Satan drives out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand? ²⁷ And if I drive out demons by Beelzebub, who is it your sons drive them out by? For this reason they will be your judges. ²⁸ If I drive out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come to you. ²⁹ How can someone enter a strong man’s house and steal his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man? Then he can rob his house. ³⁰ Anyone who is not with Me is against Me, and anyone who does not gather with Me scatters. ³¹ Because of this, I tell you, people will be forgiven every sin and blasphemy, but the blasphemy against^e the Spirit will not be forgiven.^f ³² Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him. But whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, either in this age or in the one to come.

A Tree and Its Fruit

³³ “Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad^g and its fruit bad; for a tree is known by its fruit. ³⁴ Brood of vipers! How can you speak good things when you are evil? For the mouth speaks from the overflow of the heart. ³⁵ A good man produces good things from his storeroom of good,^h and an evil man produces evil things from his storeroom of evil. ³⁶ I tell you that on the day of judgment people will have to account for every careless word they speak.ⁱ ³⁷ For by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned.”

The Sign of Jonah

³⁸ Then some of the scribes and Pharisees said to Him, “Teacher, we want to see a sign from You.”

³⁹ But He answered them, “An evil and adulterous generation demands a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. ⁴⁰ For as Jonah was in the belly of the great fish three days and three nights, so the Son of Man will be in the heart of the earth three days and three nights. ⁴¹ The men of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at Jonah’s proclamation; and look—something greater than Jonah is here! ⁴² The queen of the south will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and look—something greater than Solomon is here!

An Unclean Spirit’s Return

⁴³ “When an unclean^j spirit comes out of a man, it roams through waterless places looking for rest but doesn’t find any. ⁴⁴ Then it says, ‘I’ll go back to my house that I came from.’ And when it arrives, it finds [the house] vacant, swept, and put in order. ⁴⁵ Then off it goes and brings with it

True Relationships

⁴⁶ He was still speaking to the crowds when suddenly His mother and brothers were standing outside wanting to speak to Him. ⁴⁷ Someone told Him, "Look, Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to You."^a

⁴⁸ But He replied to the one who told Him, "Who is My mother and who are My brothers?"

⁴⁹ And stretching out His hand toward His disciples, He said, "Here are My mother and My brothers! ⁵⁰ For whoever does the will of My Father in heaven, that person is My brother and sister and mother."

The Parable of the Sower

13 On that day Jesus went out of the house and was sitting by the sea. ² Such large crowds gathered around Him that He got into a boat and sat down, while the whole crowd stood on the shore.

³ Then He told them many things in parables, saying: "Consider the sower who went out to sow. ⁴ As he was sowing, some seeds fell along the path, and the birds came and ate them up. ⁵ Others fell on rocky ground, where there wasn't much soil, and they sprang up quickly since the soil wasn't deep. ⁶ But when the sun came up they were scorched, and since they had no root, they withered. ⁷ Others fell among thorns, and the thorns came up and choked them. ⁸ Still others fell on good ground, and produced a crop: some 100, some 60, and some 30 times [what was sown]. ⁹ Anyone who has ears^b should listen!"

Why Jesus Used Parables

¹⁰ Then the disciples came up and asked Him, "Why do You speak to them in parables?"

¹¹ He answered them, "Because the secrets^c of the kingdom of heaven have been given for you to know, but it has not been given to them. ¹² For whoever has, [more] will be given to him, and he will have more than enough. But whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. ¹³ For this reason I speak to them in parables, because looking they do not see, and hearing they do not listen or understand. ¹⁴ Isaiah's prophecy is fulfilled in them, which says:

You will listen and listen,
yet never understand;
and you will look and look,
yet never perceive.

15 For this people's heart
has grown callous;
their ears are hard of hearing,
and they have shut their eyes;
otherwise they might see
with their eyes
and hear with their ears,
understand with their hearts and turn back—
and I would cure them.^d

¹⁶ "But your eyes are blessed because they do see, and your ears because they do hear! ¹⁷ For •I assure you: Many prophets and righteous people longed to see the things you see yet didn't see them; to hear the things you hear yet didn't hear them.

The Parable of the Sower Explained

¹⁸ "You, then, listen to the parable of the sower: ¹⁹ When anyone hears the word^e about the kingdom and doesn't understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what was sown in his heart. This is the one sown along the path. ²⁰ And the one sown on rocky ground—this is one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy. ²¹ Yet he has no root in himself, but is short-lived. When pressure or persecution comes because of the word, immediately he stumbles. ²² Now the one sown among the thorns—this is one who hears the word, but the worries of this age and the seduction^f of wealth choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. ²³ But the one sown on the good ground—this is one who hears and understands the word, who does bear fruit and yields: some 100, some 60, some 30 times [what was sown]."

The Parable of the Wheat and the Weeds

²⁴ He presented another parable to them: "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field. ²⁵ But while people were sleeping, his enemy came, sowed weeds^g among the wheat, and left. ²⁶ When the plants sprouted and produced

²⁸ "An enemy did this!" he told them.

"So, do you want us to go and gather them up?" the slaves asked him.

²⁹ "No," he said. "When you gather up the weeds, you might also uproot the wheat with them. ³⁰ Let both grow together until the harvest. At harvest time I'll tell the reapers: Gather the weeds first and tie them in bundles to burn them, but store the wheat in my barn.'"

The Parables of the Mustard Seed and of the Yeast

³¹ He presented another parable to them: "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that a man took and sowed in his field. ³² It's the smallest of all the seeds, but when grown, it's taller than the vegetables and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the sky come and nest in its branches."

³³ He told them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed into 50 pounds^a of flour until it spread through all of it."^b

Using Parables Fulfills Prophecy

³⁴ Jesus told the crowds all these things in parables, and He would not speak anything to them without a parable, ³⁵ so that what was spoken through the prophet might be fulfilled:

I will open My mouth in parables;
I will declare things kept secret
from the foundation of the world.^c

Jesus Interprets the Wheat and the Weeds

³⁶ Then He dismissed the crowds and went into the house. His disciples approached Him and said, "Explain the parable of the weeds in the field to us."

³⁷ He replied: "The One who sows the good seed is the •Son of Man;³⁸ the field is the world; and the good seed—these are the sons of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one, and ³⁹ the enemy who sowed them is the Devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the harvesters are angels. ⁴⁰ Therefore just as the weeds are gathered and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of the age. ⁴¹ The Son of Man will send out His angels, and they will gather from His kingdom everything that causes sin^d and those guilty of lawlessness.^e ⁴² They will throw them into the blazing furnace where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. ⁴³ Then the righteous will shine like the sun in their Father's kingdom. Anyone who has ears^f should listen!

The Parables of the Hidden Treasure and of the Priceless Pearl

⁴⁴ "The kingdom of heaven is like treasure, buried in a field, that a man found and reburied. Then in his joy he goes and sells everything he has and buys that field.

⁴⁵ "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls. ⁴⁶ When he found one priceless^g pearl, he went and sold everything he had, and bought it.

The Parable of the Net

⁴⁷ "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a large net thrown into the sea. It collected every kind [of fish], ⁴⁸ and when it was full, they dragged it ashore, sat down, and gathered the good [fish] into containers, but threw out the worthless ones. ⁴⁹ So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will go out, separate the evil people from the righteous,⁵⁰ and throw them into the blazing furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

The Storehouse of Truth

⁵¹ "Have you understood all these things?"^h

"Yes," they told Him.

⁵² "Therefore," He said to them, "every student of Scriptureⁱ instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who brings out of his storeroom what is new and what is old."

⁵³ When Jesus had finished these parables, He left there.

Rejection at Nazareth

⁵⁴ He went to His hometown and began to teach them in their •synagogue, so that they were astonished and said, "How did this wisdom and these miracles come to Him? ⁵⁵ Isn't this the carpenter's son? Isn't His mother called Mary, and His brothers James, Joseph,^j Simon, and Judas? ⁵⁶ And His sisters, aren't they all with us? So where does He get all these things?" ⁵⁷ And they were offended by Him.

John the Baptist Beheaded

14 At that time •Herod the tetrarch heard the report about Jesus.² “This is John the Baptist!” he told his servants. “He has been raised from the dead, and that’s why supernatural powers are at work in him.”

³ For Herod had arrested John, chained^a him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife,⁴ since John had been telling him, “It’s not lawful for you to have her!”⁵ Though he wanted to kill him, he feared the crowd, since they regarded him as a prophet.

⁶ But when Herod’s birthday celebration came, Herodias’ daughter danced before them^b and pleased Herod.⁷ So he promised with an oath to give her whatever she might ask.⁸ And prompted by her mother, she answered, “Give me John the Baptist’s head here on a platter!”⁹ Although the king regretted it, he commanded that it be granted because of his oaths and his guests.¹⁰ So he sent orders and had John beheaded in the prison.¹¹ His head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, who carried it to her mother.¹² Then his disciples came, removed the corpse,^c buried it, and went and reported to Jesus.

¹³ When Jesus heard about it, He withdrew from there by boat to a remote place to be alone. When the crowds heard this, they followed Him on foot from the towns.¹⁴ As He stepped ashore,^d He saw a huge crowd, felt compassion for them, and healed their sick.

¹⁵ When evening came, the disciples approached Him and said, “This place is a wilderness, and it is already late.^e Send the crowds away so they can go into the villages and buy food for themselves.”

¹⁶ “They don’t need to go away,” Jesus told them. “You give them something to eat.”

¹⁷ “But we only have five loaves and two fish here,” they said to Him.

¹⁸ “Bring them here to Me,” He said.¹⁹ Then He commanded the crowds to sit down^f on the grass. He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He blessed them. He broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples [gave them] to the crowds.²⁰ Everyone ate and was filled. Then they picked up 12 baskets full of leftover pieces!²¹ Now those who ate were about 5,000 men, besides women and children.

Walking on the Water

²² Immediately He^g made the disciples get into the boat and go ahead of Him to the other side, while He dismissed the crowds.²³ After dismissing the crowds, He went up on the mountain by Himself to pray. When evening came, He was there alone.²⁴ But the boat was already over a mile^h from land,ⁱ battered by the waves, because the wind was against them.²⁵ Around three in the morning,^j He came toward them walking on the sea.²⁶ When the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were terrified. “It’s a ghost!” they said, and cried out in fear.

²⁷ Immediately Jesus spoke to them. “Have courage! It is I. Don’t be afraid.”

²⁸ “Lord, if it’s You,” Peter answered Him, “command me to come to You on the water.”

²⁹ “Come!” He said.

And climbing out of the boat, Peter started walking on the water and came toward Jesus.³⁰ But when he saw the strength of the wind,^k he was afraid. And beginning to sink he cried out, “Lord, save me!”

³¹ Immediately Jesus reached out His hand, caught hold of him, and said to him, “You of little faith, why did you doubt?”³² When they got into the boat, the wind ceased.³³ Then those in the boat worshiped Him and said, “Truly You are the Son of God!”

Miraculous Healings

³⁴ Once they crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret.³⁵ When the men of that place recognized Him, they alerted^l the whole vicinity and brought to Him all who were sick.³⁶ They were begging Him that they might only touch the •tassel on His robe. And as many as touched it were made perfectly well.

The Tradition of the Elders

³ He answered them, "And why do you break God's commandment because of your tradition?"

⁴ For God said:^b

Honor your father
and your mother;^c and,
The one who speaks evil of father
or mother
must be put to death.^d

⁵ But you say, "Whoever tells his father or mother, "Whatever benefit you might have received from me is a gift [committed to the temple]"— ⁶ he does not have to honor his father."^e In this way, you have revoked God's word^f because of your tradition. ⁷ Hypocrites! Isaiah prophesied correctly about you when he said:

- 8 These people^g honor Me
with their lips,
but their heart is far from Me.
- 9 They worship Me in vain,

of men."^h

Defilement Is from Within

¹⁰ Summoning the crowd, He told them, "Listen and understand: ¹¹ It's not what goes into the mouth that defiles a man, but what comes out of the mouth, this defiles a man."

¹² Then the disciples came up and told Him, "Do You know that the Pharisees took offense when they heard this statement?"

¹³ He replied, "Every plant that My heavenly Father didn't plant will be uprooted. ¹⁴ Leave them alone! They are blind guides.ⁱ And if the blind guide the blind, both will fall into a pit."

¹⁵ Then Peter replied to Him, "Explain this parable to us."

¹⁶ "Are even you still lacking in understanding?" He^j asked. ¹⁷ "Don't you realize^k that whatever goes into the mouth passes into the stomach and is eliminated?^l ¹⁸ But what comes out of the mouth comes from the heart, and this defiles a man. ¹⁹ For from the heart come evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, sexual immoralities, thefts, false testimonies, blasphemies. ²⁰ These are the things that defile a man, but eating with unwashed hands does not defile a man."

A Gentile Mother's Faith

²¹ When Jesus left there, He withdrew to the area of Tyre and Sidon. ²² Just then a Canaanite woman from that region came and kept crying out,^m "Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is cruelly tormented by a demon."

²³ Yet He did not say a word to her. So His disciples approached Him and urged Him, "Send her away because she cries out after us."ⁿ

²⁴ He replied, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

²⁵ But she came, knelt before Him, and said, "Lord, help me!"

²⁶ He answered, "It isn't right to take the children's bread and throw it to their dogs."

²⁷ "Yes, Lord," she said, "yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters' table!"

²⁸ Then Jesus replied to her, "Woman, your faith is great. Let it be done for you as you want." And from that moment^o her daughter was cured.

Healing Many People

²⁹ Moving on from there, Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee. He went up on a mountain and sat there, ³⁰ and large crowds came to Him, having with them the lame, the blind, the deformed, those unable to speak, and many others. They put them at His feet, and He healed them. ³¹ So the crowd was amazed when they saw those unable to speak talking, the deformed restored, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. And they gave glory to the God of Israel.

Feeding 4,000

³² Now Jesus summoned His disciples and said, "I have compassion on the crowd, because they've already stayed with Me three days and have nothing to eat. I don't want to send them away hungry; otherwise they might collapse on the way."

³³ The disciples said to Him, "Where could we get enough bread in this desolate place to fill such a crowd?"

³⁴ "How many loaves do you have?" Jesus asked them.

"Seven," they said, "and a few small fish."

³⁵ After commanding the crowd to sit down on the ground, ³⁶ He took the seven loaves and the fish, and He gave thanks, broke them, and kept on giving them to the disciples, and the disciples

The Yeast of the Pharisees and the Sadducees

16 The •Pharisees and •Sadducees approached, and as a test, asked Him to show them a sign from heaven.

² He answered them: “When evening comes you say, ‘It will be good weather because the sky is red.’ ³ And in the morning, ‘Today will be stormy because the sky is red and threatening.’ You^b know how to read the appearance of the sky, but you can’t read the signs of the times.^c ⁴ An evil and adulterous generation wants a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of^d Jonah.” Then He left them and went away.

⁵ The disciples reached the other shore,^e and they had forgotten to take bread.

⁶ Then Jesus told them, “Watch out and beware of the yeast^f of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

⁷ And they discussed among themselves, “We didn’t bring any bread.”

⁸ Aware of this, Jesus said, “You of little faith! Why are you discussing among yourselves that you do not have bread? ⁹ Don’t you understand yet? Don’t you remember the five loaves for the 5,000 and how many baskets you collected? ¹⁰ Or the seven loaves for the 4,000 and how many large baskets you collected? ¹¹ Why is it you don’t understand that when I told you, ‘Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees,’ it wasn’t about bread?” ¹² Then they understood that He did not tell them to beware of the yeast in bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Peter’s Confession of the Messiah

¹³ When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi,^g He asked His disciples, “Who do people say that the •Son of Man is?”^h

¹⁴ And they said, “Some say John the Baptist; others, Elijah; still others, Jeremiah or one of the prophets.”

¹⁵ “But you,” He asked them, “who do you say that I am?”

¹⁶ Simon Peter answered, “You are the •Messiah, the Son of the living God!”

¹⁷ And Jesus responded, “Simon son of Jonah,ⁱ you are blessed because flesh and blood did not reveal this to you, but My Father in heaven. ¹⁸ And I also say to you that you are Peter,^j and on this rock^k I will build My church, and the forces^l of •Hades will not overpower it. ¹⁹ I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth is already bound^m in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth is already loosedⁿ in heaven.”

²⁰ And He gave the disciples orders to tell no one that He was^o the Messiah.

His Death and Resurrection Predicted

²¹ From then on Jesus began to point out to His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders, •chief priests, and •scribes, be killed, and be raised the third day. ²² Then Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him, “Oh no,^p Lord! This will never happen to You!”

²³ But He turned and told Peter, “Get behind Me, Satan! You are an offense to Me because you’re not thinking about God’s concerns,^q but man’s.”

Take Up Your Cross

²⁴ Then Jesus said to His disciples, “If anyone wants to come with Me, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow Me. ²⁵ For whoever wants to save his •life will lose it, but whoever loses his life because of Me will find it. ²⁶ What will it benefit a man if he gains the whole world yet loses his life? Or what will a man give in exchange for his life? ²⁷ For the Son of Man is going to come with His angels in the glory of His Father, and then He will reward each according to what he has done. ²⁸ •I assure you: There are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom.”

transformed^a in front of them, and His face shone like the sun. Even His clothes became as white as the light. ³ Suddenly, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with Him.

⁴ Then Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it’s good for us to be here! If You want, I will make^b three •tabernacles here: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

⁵ While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud covered^c them, and a voice from the cloud said:

This is My beloved Son.
I take delight in Him.
Listen to Him!

⁶ When the disciples heard it, they fell face-down and were terrified.

⁷ Then Jesus came up, touched them, and said, “Get up; don’t be afraid.” ⁸ When they looked up they saw no one except Him^d—Jesus alone. ⁹ As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, “Don’t tell anyone about the vision until the •Son of Man is raised^e from the dead.”

¹⁰ So the disciples questioned Him, “Why then do the •scribes say that Elijah must come first?”

¹¹ “Elijah is coming^f and will restore everything,” He replied.^g ¹² “But I tell you: Elijah has already come, and they didn’t recognize him. On the contrary, they did whatever they pleased to him. In the same way the Son of Man is going to suffer at their hands.”^h ¹³ Then the disciples understood that He spoke to them about John the Baptist.

¹⁴ When they reached the crowd, a man approached and knelt down before Him. ¹⁵ “Lord,” he said, “have mercy on my son, because he has seizuresⁱ and suffers severely. He often falls into the fire and often into the water. ¹⁶ I brought him to Your disciples, but they couldn’t heal him.”

¹⁷ Jesus replied, “You unbelieving and rebellious^j generation! How long will I be with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring him here to Me.” ¹⁸ Then Jesus rebuked the demon,^k and it^l came out of him, and from that moment^m the boy was healed.

¹⁹ Then the disciples approached Jesus privately and said, “Why couldn’t we drive it out?”

²⁰ “Because of your little faith,” Heⁿ told them. “For •I assure you: If you have faith the size of^o a mustard seed, you will tell this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you. [21 However, this kind does not come out except by prayer and fasting.]”^p

The Second Prediction of His Death

²² As they were meeting^q in Galilee, Jesus told them, “The Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men. 23 They will kill Him, and on the third day He will be raised up.” And they were deeply distressed.

Paying the Temple Tax

²⁴ When they came to Capernaum, those who collected the double-drachma tax^r approached Peter and said, “Doesn’t your Teacher pay the double-drachma tax?”

²⁵ “Yes,” he said.

When he went into the house, Jesus spoke to him first,^s “What do you think, Simon? Who do earthly kings collect tariffs or taxes from? From their sons or from strangers?”^t

²⁶ “From strangers,” he said.^u

“Then the sons are free,” Jesus told him. ²⁷ “But, so we won’t offend them, go to the sea, cast in a fishhook, and catch the first fish that comes up. When you open its mouth you’ll find a coin.^v Take it and give it to them for Me and you.”

Who Is the Greatest?

18 At that time^m the disciples came to Jesus and said, “Who is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?”

² Then He called a child to Him and had him stand among them. ³ “•I assure you,” He said, “unless you are converted^w and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. ⁴ Therefore, whoever humbles himself like this child—this one is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. ⁵ And whoever welcomes^x one child like this in My name welcomes Me.

It is better for you to enter life maimed or lame, than to have two hands or two feet and be thrown into the eternal fire. ⁹ And if your eye causes your downfall, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye, rather than to have two eyes and be thrown into •hellfire!^c

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

¹⁰ “See that you don’t look down on one of these little ones, because I tell you that in heaven their angels continually view the face of My Father in heaven. [¹¹ For the •Son of Man has come to save the lost.]^d ¹² What do you think? If a man has 100 sheep, and one of them goes astray, won’t he leave the 99 on the hillside and go and search for the stray? ¹³ And if he finds it, I assure you: He rejoices over that sheep^e more than over the 99 that did not go astray. ¹⁴ In the same way, it is not the will of your Father in heaven that one of these little ones perish.

Restoring a Brother

¹⁵ “If your brother sins against you,^f go and rebuke him in private.^g If he listens to you, you have won your brother. ¹⁶ But if he won’t listen, take one or two more with you, so that by the testimony^h of two or three witnesses every fact may be established.ⁱ ¹⁷ If he pays no attention to them, tell the church.^j But if he doesn’t pay attention even to the church, let him be like an unbeliever^k and a tax collector to you. ¹⁸ I assure you: Whatever you bind on earth is already bound^l in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth is already loosed^m in heaven. ¹⁹ Again, I assure you: If two of you on earth agree about any matter that youⁿ pray for, it will be done for you^o by My Father in heaven. ²⁰ For where two or three are gathered together in My name, I am there among them.”

The Parable of the Unforgiving Slave

²¹ Then Peter came to Him and said, “Lord, how many times could my brother sin against me and I forgive him? As many as seven times?”

²² “I tell you, not as many as seven,^p” Jesus said to him, “but 70 times seven.^q ²³ For this reason, the kingdom of heaven can be compared to a king who wanted to settle accounts with his •slaves. ²⁴ When he began to settle accounts, one who owed 10,000 talents^r was brought before him. ²⁵ Since he had no way to pay it back, his master commanded that he, his wife, his children, and everything he had be sold to pay the debt.

²⁶ “At this, the •slave fell facedown before him and said, ‘Be patient with me, and I will pay you everything!’ ²⁷ Then the master of that slave had compassion, released him, and forgave him the loan.

²⁹ “At this, his fellow •slave fell down^s and began begging him, ‘Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.’ ³⁰ But he wasn’t willing. On the contrary, he went and threw him into prison until he could pay what was owed. ³¹ When the other slaves saw what had taken place, they were deeply distressed and went and reported to their master everything that had happened.

³² “Then, after he had summoned him, his master said to him, ‘You wicked •slave! I forgave you all that debt because you begged me. ³³ Shouldn’t you also have had mercy on your fellow slave, as I had mercy on you?’ ³⁴ And his master got angry and handed him over to the jailer^t until he could pay everything that was owed. ³⁵ So My heavenly Father will also do to you if each of you does not forgive his brother^u from his^v heart.”

The Question of Divorce

there. ³ Some •Pharisees approached Him to test Him. They asked, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife on any grounds?”

⁴ “Haven’t you read,” He replied, “that He who created^a them in the beginning made them male and female,^b ⁵ and He also said:

For this reason a man will leave
his father and mother
and be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh?^c

⁶ So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, man must not separate.”

⁷ “Why then,” they asked Him, “did Moses command [us] to give divorce papers and to send her away?”

⁸ He told them, “Moses permitted you to divorce your wives because of the hardness of your hearts. But it was not like that from the beginning. ⁹ And I tell you, whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery.”^d

¹⁰ His disciples said to Him, “If the relationship of a man with his wife is like this, it’s better not to marry!”

¹¹ But He told them, “Not everyone can accept this saying, but only those it has been given to. ¹² For there are eunuchs who were born that way from their mother’s womb, there are eunuchs who were made by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves that way because of the kingdom of heaven. Let anyone accept this who can.”

Blessing the Children

¹³ Then children were brought to Him so He might put His hands on them and pray. But the disciples rebuked them. ¹⁴ Then Jesus said, “Leave the children alone, and don’t try to keep them from coming to Me, because the kingdom of heaven is made up of people like this.”^e

¹⁵ After putting His hands on them, He went on from there.

The Rich Young Ruler

¹⁶ Just then someone came up and asked Him, “Teacher, what good must I do to have eternal life?”

¹⁷ “Why do you ask Me about what is good?”^f He said to him. “There is only One who is good.^g

If you want to enter into life, keep the commandments.”

¹⁸ “Which ones?” he asked Him.

Jesus answered,

Do not murder;
do not commit adultery;
do not steal;
do not bear false witness;

¹⁹ honor your father and your mother;
and love your neighbor as yourself.^h

²⁰ “I have kept all these,”ⁱ the young man told Him. “What do I still lack?”

²¹ “If you want to be perfect,”^j Jesus said to him, “go, sell your belongings and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me.”

²² When the young man heard that command, he went away grieving, because he had many possessions.

Possessions and the Kingdom

²³ Then Jesus said to His disciples, “•I assure you: It will be hard for a rich person to enter the kingdom of heaven! ²⁴ Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God.”

²⁵ When the disciples heard this, they were utterly astonished and asked, “Then who can be saved?”

²⁶ But Jesus looked at them and said, “With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”

²⁷ Then Peter responded to Him, “Look, we have left everything and followed You. So what will there be for us?”

²⁸ Jesus said to them, “I assure you: In the Messianic Age,^k when the •Son of Man sits on His glorious throne, you who have followed Me will also sit on 12 thrones, judging the 12 tribes of Israel. ²⁹ And everyone who has left houses, brothers or sisters, father or mother,^l children, or fields because of My name will receive 100 times more and will inherit eternal life. ³⁰ But many who are first will be last, and the last first.

² After agreeing with the workers on one •denarius for the day, he sent them into his vineyard. ³ When he went out about nine in the morning,^a he saw others standing in the marketplace doing nothing. ⁴ To those men he said, ‘You also go to my vineyard, and I’ll give you whatever is right.’ So off they went. ⁵ About noon and at three,^b he went out again and did the same thing. ⁶ Then about five^c he went and found others standing around,^d and said to them, ‘Why have you been standing here all day doing nothing?’

⁷ “‘Because no one hired us,’ they said to him.

“‘You also go to my vineyard,’ he told them.^e

⁹ “When those who were hired about five^c came, they each received one denarius. ¹⁰ So when the first ones came, they assumed they would get more, but they also received a denarius each. ¹¹ When they received it, they began to complain to the landowner: ¹² ‘These last men put in one hour, and you made them equal to us who bore the burden of the day and the burning heat!’

¹³ “He replied to one of them, ‘Friend, I’m doing you no wrong. Didn’t you agree with me on a denarius? ¹⁴ Take what’s yours and go. I want to give this last man the same as I gave you. ¹⁵ Don’t I have the right to do what I want with my business?^g Are you jealous^h because I’m generous?’ⁱ

¹⁶ “So the last will be first, and the first last.”^j

The Third Prediction of His Death

¹⁷ While going up to Jerusalem, Jesus took the 12 disciples aside privately and said to them on the way: ¹⁸ “Listen! We are going up to Jerusalem. The •Son of Man will be handed over to the •chief priests and •scribes, and they will condemn Him to death. ¹⁹ Then they will hand Him over to the Gentiles to be mocked, flogged,^k and crucified, and He will be resurrected^l on the third day.”

Suffering and Service

²⁰ Then the mother of Zebedee’s sons approached Him with her sons. She knelt down to ask Him for something. ²¹ “What do you want?” He asked her.

“Promise,”^m she said to Him, “that these two sons of mine may sit, one on Your right and the other on Your left, in Your kingdom.”

²² But Jesus answered, “You don’t know what you’re asking. Are you able to drink the cupⁿ that I am about to drink?”^o

“We are able,” they said to Him.

²³ He told them, “You will indeed drink My cup.^p But to sit at My right and left is not Mine to give; instead, it belongs to those for whom it has been prepared by My Father.” ²⁴ When the 10 [disciples] heard this, they became indignant with the two brothers. ²⁵ But Jesus called them over and said, “You know that the rulers of the Gentiles dominate them, and the men of high position exercise power over them. ²⁶ It must not be like that among you. On the contrary, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, ²⁷ and whoever wants to be first among you must be your slave; ²⁸ just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life—a ransom for many.”

Two Blind Men Healed

²⁹ As they were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed Him. ³⁰ There were two blind men sitting by the road. When they heard that Jesus was passing by, they cried out, “Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!” ³¹ The crowd told them to keep quiet, but they cried out all the more, “Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!”

³² Jesus stopped, called them, and said, “What do you want Me to do for you?”

³³ “Lord,” they said to Him, “open our eyes!”

³⁴ Moved with compassion, Jesus touched their eyes. Immediately they could see, and they followed Him.

The Triumphal Entry

21 When they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage at the •Mount of Olives, Jesus then sent two disciples, ² telling them, “Go into the village ahead of you. At once you will find a donkey tied there, and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them to Me. ³ If anyone says anything to you, you should say that the Lord needs them, and immediately he will send them.”

⁴ This took place so that what was spoken through the prophet might be fulfilled:

- 5 Tell Daughter Zion,
“See, your King is coming to you,
gentle, and mounted on a donkey,
even on a colt,
the foal of a beast of burden.”^a

⁶ The disciples went and did just as Jesus directed them. ⁷ They brought the donkey and the colt; then they laid their robes on them, and He sat on them. ⁸ A very large crowd spread their robes on the road; others were cutting branches from the trees and spreading them on the road. ⁹ Then the crowds who went ahead of Him and those who followed kept shouting:

• Hosanna to the Son of David!
Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!^b
Hosanna in the highest heaven!

¹⁰ When He entered Jerusalem, the whole city was shaken, saying, “Who is this?” ¹¹ And the crowds kept saying, “This is the prophet Jesus from Nazareth in Galilee!”

Cleansing the Temple Complex

¹² Jesus went into the •temple complex^c and drove out all those buying and selling in the temple. He overturned the money changers’ tables and the chairs of those selling doves. ¹³ And He said to them, “It is written, My house will be called a house of prayer.^d But you are making it a den of thieves!”^e

Children Cheer Jesus

¹⁴ The blind and the lame came to Him in the temple complex, and He healed them. ¹⁵ When the •chief priests and the •scribes saw the wonders that He did and the children in the temple complex cheering, “Hosanna to the Son of David!” they were indignant ¹⁶ and said to Him, “Do You hear what these [children] are saying?”

“Yes,” Jesus told them. “Have you never read:

You have prepared^f praise
from the mouths of children
and nursing infants?”^g

¹⁷ Then He left them, went out of the city to Bethany, and spent the night there.

The Barren Fig Tree

¹⁸ Early in the morning, as He was returning to the city, He was hungry. ¹⁹ Seeing a lone fig tree by the road, He went up to it and found nothing on it except leaves. And He said to it, “May no fruit ever come from you again!” At once the fig tree withered.

²¹ Jesus answered them, “• I assure you: If you have faith and do not doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you tell this mountain, ‘Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,’ it will be done. ²² And if you believe, you will receive whatever you ask for in prayer.”

Messiah’s Authority Challenged

²³ When He entered the temple complex, the chief priests and the elders of the people came up to Him as He was teaching and said, “By what authority are You doing these things? Who gave You this authority?”

²⁴ Jesus answered them, “I will also ask you one question, and if you answer it for Me, then I will tell you by what authority I do these things. ²⁵ Where did John’s baptism come from? From heaven or from men?”

They began to argue among themselves, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say to us, ‘Then why didn’t you believe him?’ ²⁶ But if we say, ‘From men,’ we’re afraid of the crowd, because everyone thought John was a prophet.” ²⁷ So they answered Jesus, “We don’t know.”

And He said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.

The Parable of the Two Sons

²⁸ “But what do you think? A man had two sons. He went to the first and said, ‘My son, go, work in the vineyard today.’

²⁹ “He answered, ‘I don’t want to!’ Yet later he changed his mind and went. ³⁰ Then the man went to the other and said the same thing.

“I will, sir,” he answered. But he didn’t go.

³¹ “Which of the two did his father’s will?”

“The first,” they said.

Jesus said to them, “I assure you: Tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you! ³² For John came to you in the way of righteousness,^h and you didn’t believe him. Tax collectors and prostitutes did believe ³³ "Listen to another parable: There was a man, a landowner, who planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a winepress in it, and built a watchtower. He leased it to tenant farmers and went away. ³⁴ When the grape harvest^a drew near, he sent his slaves to the farmers to collect his fruit. ³⁵ But the farmers took his slaves, beat one, killed another, and stoned a third. ³⁶ Again, he sent other slaves, more than the first group, and they did the same to them. ³⁷ Finally, he sent his son to them. 'They will respect my son,' he said.

The Parable of the Vineyard Owner

³⁸ "But when the tenant farmers saw the son, they said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him and take his inheritance!' ³⁹ So they seized him and threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. ⁴⁰ Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those farmers?"

⁴¹ "He will completely destroy those terrible men," they told Him, "and lease his vineyard to other farmers who will give him his produce at the harvest."^b

⁴² Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the Scriptures:

The stone that the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone.^c
This came from the Lord
and is wonderful in our eyes?^d

⁴³ Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a nation producing its^e fruit. [⁴⁴ Whoever falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; but on whom-ever it falls, it will grind him to powder!"]^f

⁴⁵ When the chief priests and the •Pharisees heard His parables, they knew He was speaking about them. ⁴⁶ Although they were looking for a way to arrest Him, they feared the crowds, because they^g regarded Him as a prophet.

The Parable of the Wedding Banquet

22 Once more Jesus spoke to them in parables: ² "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. ³ He sent out his •slaves to summon those invited to the banquet, but they didn't want to come. ⁴ Again, he sent out other slaves, and said, 'Tell those who are invited: Look, I've prepared my dinner; my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding banquet.'

⁸ "Then he told his •slaves, 'The banquet is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy. ⁹ Therefore, go to where the roads exit the city and invite everyone you find to the banquet.' ¹⁰ So those slaves went out on the roads and gathered everyone they found, both evil and good. The wedding banquet was filled with guests.ⁱ ¹¹ But when the king came in to view the guests, he saw a man there who was not dressed for a wedding. ¹² So he said to him, 'Friend, how did you get in here without wedding clothes?' The man was speechless.

¹⁴ "For many are invited, but few are chosen."

God and Caesar

¹⁵ Then the •Pharisees went and plotted how to trap Him by what He said.^k ¹⁶ They sent their disciples to Him, with the •Herodians. "Teacher," they said, "we know that You are truthful and teach truthfully the way of God. You defer to no one, for You don't show partiality.^l ¹⁷ Tell us, therefore, what You think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"

¹⁸ But perceiving their malice, Jesus said, "Why are you testing Me, hypocrites? ¹⁹ Show Me the coin used for the tax." So they brought Him a •denarius. ²⁰ "Whose image and inscription is this?" He asked them.

²¹ "Caesar's," they said to Him.

Then He said to them, "Therefore, give back to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." ²² When they heard this, they were amazed. So they left Him and went away.

The Sadducees and the Resurrection

²³ The same day some •Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came up to Him and questioned Him: ²⁴ “Teacher, Moses said, if a man dies, having no children, his brother is to marry his wife and raise up offspring for his brother.”^a ²⁵ Now there were seven brothers among us. The first got married and died. Having no offspring, he left his wife to his brother. ²⁶ The same happened to the second also, and the third, and so to all seven.^b ²⁷ Then last of all the woman died. ²⁸ Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife will she be of the seven? For they all had married her.”^c

²⁹ Jesus answered them, “You are deceived, because you don’t know the Scriptures or the power of God. ³⁰ For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage but are like^d angels in heaven. ³¹ Now concerning the resurrection of the dead, haven’t you read what was spoken to you by God: ³² I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob?”^e He^f is not the God of the dead, but of the living.”

³³ And when the crowds heard this, they were astonished at His teaching.

The Primary Commandments

³⁴ When the Pharisees heard that He had silenced the Sadducees, they came together in the same place. ³⁵ And one of them, an expert in the law, asked a question to test Him: ³⁶ “Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?”^g

³⁷ He said to him, “Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.”^h ³⁸ This is the greatest and most importantⁱ commandment. ³⁹ The second is like it: Love your neighbor as yourself.^j ⁴⁰ All the Law and the Prophets depend^k on these two commandments.”

The Question about the Messiah

⁴¹ While the Pharisees were together, Jesus questioned them, ⁴² “What do you think about the •Messiah? Whose Son is He?”

“David’s,” they told Him.

⁴³ He asked them, “How is it then that David, inspired by the Spirit,^l calls Him ‘Lord’:

⁴⁴ The Lord declared to my Lord,
‘Sit at My right hand
until I put Your enemies
under Your feet’?”^{m n}

⁴⁵ “If David calls Him ‘Lord,’ how then can the Messiah be his Son?” ⁴⁶ No one was able to answer Him at all,^o and from that day no one dared to question Him any more.

Religious Hypocrites Denounced

23 Then Jesus spoke to the crowds and to His disciples: ² “The •scribes and the •Pharisees are seated in the chair of Moses.^p ³ Therefore do whatever they tell you and observe [it]. But don’t do what they do,^q because they don’t practice what they teach. ⁴ They tie up heavy loads that are hard to carry^r and put them on people’s shoulders, but they themselves aren’t willing to lift a finger^s to move them. ⁵ They do everything^t to be observed by others: They enlarge their phylacteries^u and lengthen their •tassels.^v ⁶ They love the place of honor at banquets, the front seats in the •synagogues, ⁷ greetings in the marketplaces, and to be called ‘•Rabbi’ by people.

⁸ “But as for you, do not be called ‘Rabbi,’ because you have one Teacher,^w and you are all brothers. ⁹ Do not call anyone on earth your father, because you have one Father, who is in heaven. ¹⁰ And do not be called masters either, because you have one Master,^x the •Messiah. ¹¹ The greatest among you will be your servant. ¹² Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.

¹³ “But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You lock up the kingdom of heaven from people. For you don’t go in, and you don’t allow those entering to go in.

²⁹ “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! blood shed on the earth will be charged to you,^l from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah, son of Berechiah, whom you murdered between the sanctuary and the altar. ³⁶ •I assure you: All these things will come on this generation!

Jesus’ Lamentation over Jerusalem

³⁷ “Jerusalem, Jerusalem! The city who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her. How often I wanted to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks^m under her wings, yet you were not willing! ³⁸ See, your house is left to you desolate. ³⁹ For I tell you, you will never see Me again until you say, Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!”ⁿ

Destruction of the Temple Predicted

24 As Jesus left and was going out of the •temple complex, His disciples came up and called His attention to the temple buildings. ² Then He replied to them, “Don’t you see all these things? •I assure you: Not one stone will be left here on another that will not be thrown down!”

Signs of the End of the Age

³ While He was sitting on the •Mount of Olives, the disciples approached Him privately and said, “Tell us, when will these things happen? And what is the sign of Your coming and of the end of the age?”

⁴ Then Jesus replied to them: “Watch out that no one deceives you. ⁵ For many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am the •Messiah,’ and they will deceive many. ⁶ You are going to hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not alarmed, because these things must take place, but the end is not yet. ⁷ For nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines^o and earthquakes in various places. ⁸ All these events are the beginning of birth pains.

And then the end will come.

The Great Tribulation

¹⁵ “So when you see the abomination that causes desolation,^{c d} spoken of by the prophet Daniel, standing in the holy place” (let the reader understand^e), ¹⁶ “then those in Judea must flee to the mountains! ¹⁷ A man on the housetop^f must not come down to get things out of his house. ¹⁸ And a man in the field must not go back to get his clothes. ¹⁹ Woe to pregnant women and nursing mothers in those days! ²⁰ Pray that your escape may not be in winter or on a Sabbath. ²¹ For at that time there will be great tribulation, the kind that hasn’t taken place from the beginning of the world until now and never will again! ²² Unless those days were limited, no one would^g survive.^h But those days will be limited because of the elect.

²³ “If anyone tells you then, ‘Look, here is the Messiah!’ or, ‘Over here!’ do not believe it! ²⁴ False messiahsⁱ and false prophets will arise and perform great signs and wonders to lead astray, if possible, even the elect. ²⁵ Take note: I have told you in advance. ²⁶ So if they tell you, ‘Look, he’s in the wilderness!’ don’t go out; ‘Look, he’s in the inner rooms!’ do not believe it. ²⁷ For as the lightning comes from the east and flashes as far as the west, so will be the coming of the •Son of Man. ²⁸ Wherever the carcass is, there the vultures^j will gather.

The Coming of the Son of Man

²⁹ “Immediately after the tribulation of those days:

The sun will be darkened,
and the moon will not shed its light;
the stars will fall from the sky,
and the celestial powers will be shaken.

³⁰ “Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and then all the peoples of the earth^k will mourn;^l and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. ³¹ He will send out His angels with a loud trumpet, and they will gather His elect from the four winds, from one end of the sky to the other.

The Parable of the Fig Tree

³² “Now learn this parable from the fig tree: As soon as its branch becomes tender and sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near. ³³ In the same way, when you see all these things, recognize^m that Heⁿ is near—at the door! ³⁴ I assure you: This generation will certainly not pass away until all these things take place. ³⁵ Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away.

No One Knows the Day or Hour

³⁶ “Now concerning that day and hour no one knows—neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son^o — except the Father only. ³⁷ As the days of Noah were, so the coming of the Son of Man will be. ³⁸ For in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day Noah boarded the ark. ³⁹ They didn’t know^p until the flood came and swept them all away. So this is the way the coming of the Son of Man will be: ⁴⁰ Then two men will be in the field: one will be taken and one left. ⁴¹ Two women will be grinding at the mill: one will be taken and one left. ⁴² Therefore be alert, since you don’t know what day^q your Lord is coming. ⁴³ But know this: If the homeowner had known what time^r the thief was coming, he would have stayed alert and not let his house be broken into. ⁴⁴ This is why you also must be ready, because the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

Faithful Service to the Messiah

⁴⁵ “Who then is a faithful and sensible slave, whom his master has put in charge of his household, to give them food at the proper time? ⁴⁶ That slave whose master finds him working when he comes will be rewarded. ⁴⁷ I assure you: He will put him in charge of all his possessions. ⁴⁸ But if that wicked slave says in his heart, ‘My master is delayed,’ ⁴⁹ and starts to beat his fellow slaves, and eats and drinks with drunkards, ⁵⁰ that slave’s master will come on a day he does not expect and at an hour he does

The Parable of the 10 Virgins

25 “Then the kingdom of heaven will be like 10 virgins^b who took their lamps and went out to meet the groom. ² Five of them were foolish and five were sensible. ³ When the foolish took their lamps, they didn’t take oil with them. ⁴ But the sensible ones took oil in their flasks with their lamps. ⁵ Since the groom was delayed, they all became drowsy and fell asleep.

⁶ “In the middle of the night there was a shout: ‘Here’s the groom! Come out to meet him.’

⁷ “Then all those virgins got up and trimmed their lamps. ⁸ But the foolish ones said to the sensible ones, ‘Give us some of your oil, because our lamps are going out.’

⁹ “The sensible ones answered, ‘No, there won’t be enough for us and for you. Go instead to those who sell, and buy oil for yourselves.’

¹⁰ “When they had gone to buy some, the groom arrived. Then those who were ready went in with him to the wedding banquet, and the door was shut.

¹¹ “Later the rest of the virgins also came and said, ‘Master, master, open up for us!’

¹² “But he replied, ‘I assure you: I do not know you!’

¹³ “Therefore be alert, because you don’t know either the day or the hour.^c

The Parable of the Talents

¹⁴ “For it is just like a man going on a journey. He called his own •slaves and turned over his possessions to them. ¹⁵ To one he gave five talents;^d to another, two; and to another, one—to each according to his own ability. Then he went on a journey. Immediately ¹⁶ the man who had received five talents went, put them to work, and earned five more. ¹⁷ In the same way the man with two earned two more. ¹⁸ But the man who had received one talent went off, dug a hole in the ground, and hid his master’s money.

¹⁹ “After a long time the master of those •slaves came and settled accounts with them. ²⁰ The man who had received five talents approached, presented five more talents, and said, ‘Master, you gave me five talents. Look, I’ve earned five more talents.’

²¹ “His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful •slave! You were faithful over a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Share your master’s joy!’

²² “Then the man with two talents also approached. He said, ‘Master, you gave me two talents. Look, I’ve earned two more talents.’

²³ “His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful •slave! You were faithful over a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Share your master’s joy!’

²⁴ “Then the man who had received one talent also approached and said, ‘Master, I know you. You’re a difficult man, reaping where you haven’t sown and gathering where you haven’t scattered seed. ²⁵ So I was afraid and went off and hid your talent in the ground. Look, you have what is yours.’

²⁶ “But his master replied to him, ‘You evil, lazy •slave! If you knew that I reap where I haven’t sown and gather where I haven’t scattered, ²⁷ then^e you should have deposited my money with the bankers. And when I returned I would have received my money^f back with interest.

²⁸ “‘So take the talent from him and give it to the one who has 10 talents. ²⁹ For to everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have more than enough. But from the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. ³⁰ And throw this good-for-nothing slave into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’

The Sheep and the Goats

³¹ “When the •Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the angels^g with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory. ³² All the nations^h will be gathered before Him, and He will separate them one from another, just as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. ³³ He will put the sheep on His right, and the goats on the left. ³⁴ Then the King will say to those on His right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

40 "And the King will answer them, 'I assure you: Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of Mine, you did for Me.' 41 Then He will also say to those on the left, 'Depart from Me, you who are cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the Devil and his angels!

42 For I was hungry

 I was thirsty
 and you gave Me nothing to drink;

45 "Then He will answer them, 'I assure you: Whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for Me either.'

46 "And they will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

The Plot to Kill Jesus

26 When Jesus had finished saying all this, He told His disciples, ² "You know^a that the •Passover takes place after two days, and the •Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified."

³ Then the •chief priests^b and the elders of the people assembled in the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas, ⁴ and they conspired to arrest Jesus in a treacherous way and kill Him. ⁵ "Not during the festival," they said, "so there won't be rioting among the people."

The Anointing at Bethany

⁶ While Jesus was in Bethany at the house of Simon, a man who had a serious skin disease, ⁷ a woman approached Him with an alabaster jar of very expensive fragrant oil. She poured it on His head as He was reclining at the table. ⁸ When the disciples saw it, they were indignant. "Why this waste?" they asked. ⁹ "This might have been sold for a great deal and given to the poor."

¹⁰ But Jesus, aware of this, said to them, "Why are you bothering this woman? She has done a noble thing for Me. ¹¹ You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have Me. ¹² By pouring this fragrant oil on My body, she has prepared Me for burial. ¹³ •I assure you: Wherever this gospel is proclaimed in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told in memory of her."

¹⁴ Then one of the Twelve—the man called Judas Iscariot—went to the chief priests ¹⁵ and said, "What are you willing to give me if I hand Him over to you?" So they weighed out 30 pieces of silver for him. ¹⁶ And from that time he started looking for a good opportunity to betray Him.

Betrayal at the Passover

¹⁷ On the first day of •Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Where do You want us to prepare the Passover so You may eat it?"

¹⁸ "Go into the city to a certain man," He said, "and tell him, 'The Teacher says: My time is near; I am celebrating the Passover at your place^c with My disciples.' " ¹⁹ So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover. ²⁰ When evening came, He was reclining at the table with the Twelve. ²¹ While they were eating, He said, "I assure you: One of you will betray Me."

²² Deeply distressed, each one began to say to Him, "Surely not I, Lord?"

²³ He replied, "The one who dipped his hand with Me in the bowl—he will betray Me. ²⁴ The •Son of Man will go just as it is written about Him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born."

²⁵ Then Judas, His betrayer, replied, "Surely not I, •Rabbi?"

"You have said it," He told him.

The First Lord's Supper

²⁶ As they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed and broke it, gave it to the disciples, and said, "Take and eat it; this is My body." ²⁷ Then He took a cup, and after giving thanks, He gave

Peter’s Denial Predicted

³¹ Then Jesus said to them, “Tonight all of you will run away^d because of Me, for it is written:

I will strike the shepherd,
and the sheep of the flock
will be scattered.^e

³² But after I have been resurrected, I will go ahead of you to Galilee.”

³³ Peter told Him, “Even if everyone runs away because of You, I will never run away!”

³⁴ “I assure you,” Jesus said to him, “tonight—before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times!”

³⁵ “Even if I have to die with You,” Peter told Him, “I will never deny You!” And all the disciples said the same thing.

The Prayer in the Garden

³⁶ Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane,^f and He told the disciples, “Sit here while I go over there and pray.”

³⁷ Taking along Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, He began to be sorrowful and deeply distressed. ³⁸ Then He said to them, “My soul is swallowed up in sorrow^g—to the point of death.^h Remain here and stay awake with Me.”

³⁹ Going a little farther,ⁱ He fell facedown and prayed, “My Father! If it is possible, let this cup pass from Me. Yet not as I will, but as You will.”

⁴⁰ Then He came to the disciples and found them sleeping. He asked Peter, “So, couldn’t you^j stay awake with Me one hour? ⁴¹ Stay awake and pray, so that you won’t enter into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

⁴² Again, a second time, He went away and prayed, “My Father, if this^k cannot pass^l unless I drink it, Your will be done.” ⁴³ And He came again and found them sleeping, because they could not keep their eyes open.^m

⁴⁴ After leaving them, He went away again and prayed a third time, saying the same thing once more. ⁴⁵ Then He came to the disciples and said to them, “Are you still sleeping and resting?ⁿ Look, the time is near. The Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners. ⁴⁶ Get up; let’s go! See—My betrayer is near.”

The Judas Kiss

⁴⁷ While He was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, suddenly arrived. A large mob, with swords and clubs, was with him from the chief priests and elders of the people. ⁴⁸ His betrayer had given them a sign: “The One I kiss, He’s the One; arrest Him!” ⁴⁹ So he went right up to Jesus and said, “Greetings, Rabbi!”—and kissed Him.

⁵⁰ “Friend,” Jesus asked him, “why have you come?”^o

Then they came up, took hold of Jesus, and arrested Him. ⁵¹ At that moment one of those with Jesus reached out his hand and drew his sword. He struck the high priest’s slave and cut off his ear.

⁵² Then Jesus told him, “Put your sword back in place because all who take up a sword will perish by a sword. ⁵³ Or do you think that I cannot call on My Father, and He will provide Me at once with more than 12 legions^p of angels? ⁵⁴ How, then, would the Scriptures be fulfilled that say it must happen this way?”

⁵⁵ At that time Jesus said to the crowds, “Have you come out with swords and clubs, as if I were a criminal,^q to capture Me? Every day I used to sit, teaching in the •temple complex, and you didn’t arrest Me. ⁵⁶ But all this has happened so that the prophetic Scriptures^r would be fulfilled.” Then all the disciples deserted Him and ran away.

Jesus Faces the Sanhedrin

⁵⁷ Those who had arrested Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the •scribes and the elders had convened. ⁵⁸ Meanwhile, Peter was following Him at a distance right to the high priest’s courtyard.^s He went in

⁶² The high priest then stood up and said to Him, “Don’t You have an answer to what these men are testifying against You?” ⁶³ But Jesus kept silent. Then the high priest said to Him, “By the living God I place You under oath: tell us if You are the •Messiah, the Son of God!”

⁶⁴ “You have said it,”^e Jesus told him. “But I tell you, in the future^f you will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of the Power and coming on the clouds of heaven.”^g

⁶⁵ Then the high priest tore his robes and said, “He has blasphemed! Why do we still need witnesses? Look, now you’ve heard the blasphemy! ⁶⁶ What is your decision?”^h

They answered, “He deserves death!” ⁶⁷ Then they spit in His face and beat Him; others slapped Him ⁶⁸ and said, “Prophecy to us, Messiah! Who hit You?”

Peter Denies His Lord

⁶⁹ Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. A servant approached him and she said, “You were with Jesus the Galilean too.”

⁷⁰ But he denied it in front of everyone: “I don’t know what you’re talking about!”

⁷¹ When he had gone out to the gateway, another woman saw him and told those who were there, “This man was with Jesus the •Nazarene!”

⁷² And again he denied it with an oath, “I don’t know the man!”

⁷⁴ Then he started to curse^j and to swear with an oath, “I do not know the man!” Immediately a rooster crowed, ⁷⁵ and Peter remembered the words Jesus had spoken, “Before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times.” And he went outside and wept bitterly.

Jesus Handed Over to Pilate

27 When daybreak came, all the •chief priests and the elders of the people plotted against Jesus to put Him to death. ² After tying Him up, they led Him away and handed Him over to •Pilate,^k the governor.

Judas Hangs Himself

³ Then Judas, His betrayer, seeing that He had been condemned, was full of remorse and returned the 30 pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders. ⁴ “I have sinned by betraying innocent blood,” he said.

“What’s that to us?” they said. “See to it yourself!”

⁵ So he threw the silver into the sanctuary and departed. Then he went and hanged himself.

⁶ The chief priests took the silver and said, “It’s not lawful to put it into the temple treasury,^l since it is blood money.”^m ⁷ So they conferred together and bought the potter’s field with it as a burial place for foreigners. ⁸ Therefore that field has been called “Blood Field” to this day. ⁹ Then what was spoken through the prophet Jeremiah was fulfilled:

They took the 30 pieces of silver, the price of Him whose price was set by the sons of Israel, ¹⁰ and they gave them for the potter’s field, as the Lord directed me.ⁿ

Jesus Faces the Governor

¹¹ Now Jesus stood before the governor. “Are You the King of the Jews?” the governor asked Him.

Jesus answered, “You have said it.”^o ¹² And while He was being accused by the chief priests and elders, He didn’t answer.

¹³ Then Pilate said to Him, “Don’t You hear how much they are testifying against You?” ¹⁴ But He didn’t answer him on even one charge, so that the governor was greatly amazed.

Jesus or Barabbas

¹⁵ At the festival the governor’s custom was to release to the crowd a prisoner they wanted. ¹⁶ At that time they had a notorious prisoner called Barabbas.^p ¹⁷ So when they had gathered together, Pilate said to them, “Who is it you want me to release for you—Barabbas,^a or Jesus who is called •Messiah?”¹⁸ For he knew they had handed Him over because of envy.

¹⁹ While he was sitting on the judge’s bench, his wife sent word to him, “Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for today I’ve suffered terribly in a dream because of Him!”

²⁰ The chief priests and the elders, however, persuaded the crowds to ask for Barabbas and to execute Jesus. ²¹ The governor asked them, “Which of the two do you want me to release for you?”

“Barabbas!” they answered.

²² Pilate asked them, “What should I do then with Jesus, who is called Messiah?”

They all answered, “Crucify Him!”^b

²³ Then he said, “Why? What has He done wrong?”

But they kept shouting, “Crucify Him!” all the more.

²⁴ When Pilate saw that he was getting nowhere,^c but that a riot was starting instead, he took some water, washed his hands in front of the crowd, and said, “I am innocent of this man’s blood.^d See to it yourselves!”

²⁵ All the people answered, “His blood be on us and on our children!” ²⁶ Then he released Barabbas to them. But after having Jesus flogged,^e he handed Him over to be crucified.

Mocked by the Military

²⁷ Then the governor’s soldiers took Jesus into •headquarters and gathered the whole •company around Him. ²⁸ They stripped Him and dressed Him in a scarlet robe. ²⁹ They twisted together a crown of thorns, put it on His head, and placed a reed in His right hand. And they knelt down before Him and mocked Him: “Hail, King of the Jews!” ³⁰ Then they spit at Him, took the reed, and kept hitting Him on the head. ³¹ When they had mocked Him, they stripped Him of the robe, put His clothes on Him, and led Him away to crucify Him.

Crucified Between Two Criminals

³² As they were going out, they found a Cyrenian man named Simon. They forced this man to carry His cross. ³³ When they came to a place called Golgotha (which means Skull Place), ³⁴ they gave Him wine^f mixed with gall to drink. But when He tasted it, He would not drink it. ³⁵ After crucifying Him they divided His clothes by casting lots.^g ³⁶ Then they sat down and were guarding Him there. ³⁷ Above His head they put up the charge against Him in writing:

THIS IS JESUS
THE KING OF THE JEWS

³⁸ Then two criminals^h were crucified with Him, one on the right and one on the left. ³⁹ Those who passed by were yelling insults atⁱ Him, shaking their heads ⁴⁰ and saying, “The One who would demolish the sanctuary and rebuild it in three days, save Yourself! If You are the Son of God, come down from the cross!” ⁴¹ In the same way the •chief priests, with the •scribes and elders,^j mocked Him and said, ⁴² “He saved others, but He cannot save Himself! He is the King of Israel! Let Him^k come down now from the cross, and we will believe in Him. ⁴³ He has put His trust in God; let God rescue Him now—if He wants Him!^l For He said, ‘I am God’s Son.’” ⁴⁴ In the same way even the criminals who were crucified with Him kept taunting Him.

The Death of Jesus

⁴⁵ From noon until three in the afternoon^m darkness came over the whole land.ⁿ ⁴⁶ At about three in the afternoon Jesus cried out with a loud voice, “Εἰ, Εἰ, ἰεμά sabachtháni?” that is, “My God, My God, why have You forsaken^o Me?”^p

⁴⁷ When some of those standing there heard this, they said, “He’s calling for Elijah!”

⁴⁸ Immediately one of them ran and got a sponge, filled it with sour wine, fixed it on a reed, and offered Him a drink. ⁴⁹ But the rest said, “Let’s see if Elijah comes to save Him!”

⁵⁰ Jesus shouted again with a loud voice and gave up His spirit. ⁵¹ Suddenly, the curtain of the sanctuary^q was split in two from top to bottom; the earth quaked and the rocks were split. ⁵² The tombs also were opened and many bodies of the saints who had gone to their rest^a were raised. ⁵³ And they came out of the tombs after His resurrection, entered the holy city, and appeared to many.

⁵⁴ When the •centurion and those with him, who were guarding Jesus, saw the earthquake and the things that had happened, they were terrified and said, “This man really was God’s Son!”^b

⁵⁵ Many women who had followed Jesus from Galilee and ministered to Him were there, looking on from a distance. ⁵⁶ Among them were •Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of Zebedee’s sons.

The Burial of Jesus

⁵⁷ When it was evening, a rich man from Arimathea named Joseph came, who himself had also become a disciple of Jesus. ⁵⁸ He approached Pilate and asked for Jesus’ body. Then Pilate ordered that it^c be released. ⁵⁹ So Joseph took the body, wrapped it in clean, fine linen, ⁶⁰ and placed it in his new tomb, which he had cut into the rock. He left after rolling a great stone against the entrance of the tomb. ⁶¹ Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were seated there, facing the tomb.

The Closely Guarded Tomb

⁶² The next day, which followed the preparation day, the chief priests and the •Pharisees gathered before Pilate ⁶³ and said, “Sir, we remember that while this deceiver was still alive, He said, ‘After three days I will rise again.’” ⁶⁴ Therefore give orders that the tomb be made secure until the third day. Otherwise, His disciples may come, steal Him, and tell the people, ‘He has been raised from the dead.’ Then the last deception will be worse than the first.”

⁶⁵ “You have^d a guard [of soldiers],”^e Pilate told them. “Go and make it as secure as you know how.” ⁶⁶ Then they went and made the tomb secure by sealing the stone and setting the guard.^f

Resurrection Morning

28 After the Sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, •Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to view the tomb. ² Suddenly there was a violent earthquake, because an angel of the Lord descended from heaven and approached [the tomb]. He rolled back the stone and was sitting on it. ³ His appearance was like lightning, and his robe was as white as snow. ⁴ The guards were so shaken from fear of him that they became like dead men.

⁵ But the angel told the women, “Don’t be afraid, because I know you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. ⁶ He is not here! For He has been resurrected, just as He said. Come and see the place where He lay. ⁷ Then go quickly and tell His disciples, ‘He has been raised from the dead. In fact, He is going ahead of you to Galilee; you will see Him there.’ Listen, I have told you.”

⁸ So, departing quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, they ran to tell His disciples the news. ⁹ Just then^g Jesus met them and said, “Good morning!” They came up, took hold of His feet, and worshiped Him. ¹⁰ Then Jesus told them, “Do not be afraid. Go and tell My brothers to leave for Galilee, and they will see Me there.”

The Soldiers Are Bribed to Lie

¹¹ As they were on their way, some of the guard came into the city and reported to the •chief priests everything that had happened. ¹² After the priests^h had assembled with the elders and agreed on a plan, they gave the soldiers a large sum of money ¹³ and told them, “Say this, ‘His disciples came during the night and stole Him while we were sleeping.’” ¹⁴ If this reaches the governor’s ears,ⁱ we will deal with him and keep you out of trouble.” ¹⁵ So they took the money and did as they were instructed. And this story has been spread among Jewish people to this day.

The Great Commission

¹⁶ The 11 disciples traveled to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had directed them. ¹⁷ When they saw Him, they worshiped,^k but some doubted. ¹⁸ Then Jesus came near and said to them, “All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. ¹⁹ Go, therefore, and make disciples of^l all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰ teaching them to observe everything I have commanded you. MARK

The Messiah's Herald

1 The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. ² As it is written in Isaiah the prophet:^a

Look, I am sending My messenger
ahead of You,
who will prepare Your way.^b

3 A voice of one crying out
in the wilderness:
“Prepare the way for the Lord;
make His paths straight!”^c

⁴ John came baptizing^d in the wilderness and preaching a baptism of repentance^e for the forgiveness of sins. ⁵ The whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem were flocking to him, and they were baptized by him in the Jordan River as they confessed their sins. ⁶ John wore a camel-hair garment with a leather belt around his waist and ate locusts and wild honey. ⁷ He was preaching: “Someone more powerful than I will come after me. I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the strap of His sandals. ⁸ I have baptized you with^f water, but He will baptize you with^f the Holy Spirit.”

The Baptism of Jesus

⁹ In those days Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptized in the Jordan by John. ¹⁰ As soon as He came up out of the water, He saw the heavens being torn open and the Spirit descending to Him like a dove. ¹¹ And a voice came from heaven:

You are My beloved Son;
I take delight in You!^g

The Temptation of Jesus

¹² Immediately the Spirit drove Him into the wilderness. ¹³ He was in the wilderness 40 days, being tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals, and the angels began to serve Him.

Ministry in Galilee

¹⁴ After John was arrested, Jesus went to Galilee, preaching the good news^h ⁱ of God:^j 15 “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe in the good news!”

The First Disciples

¹⁶ As He was passing along by the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Andrew, Simon's brother. They were casting a net into the sea, since they were fishermen.

17 “Follow Me,” Jesus told them, “and I will make you fish for^k people!” ¹⁸ Immediately they left their nets and followed Him. ¹⁹ Going on a little farther, He saw James the son of Zebedee and his brother John. They were in their boat mending their nets. ²⁰ Immediately He called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men and followed Him.

Driving Out an Unclean Spirit

²¹ Then they went into Capernaum, and right away He entered the •synagogue on the Sabbath and began to teach. ²² They were astonished at His teaching because, unlike the •scribes, He was teaching them as one having authority.

²³ Just then a man with an unclean spirit was in their synagogue. He cried out,^l ²⁴ “What do You have to do with us,^m Jesus—Nazarene? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God!”

²⁵ But Jesus rebuked him and said, “Be quiet,ⁿ and come out of him!” ²⁶ And the unclean spirit convulsed him, shouted with a loud voice, and came out of him.

²⁷ Then they were all amazed, so they began to argue with one another, saying, “What is this? A new teaching with authority!^o He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him.” ²⁸ His fame then spread throughout the entire vicinity of Galilee.

Healings at Capernaum

²⁹ As soon as they left the synagogue, they went into Simon and Andrew's house with James and John. ³⁰ Simon's mother-in-law was lying in bed with a fever, and they told Him about her at once. ³¹ So He went to her, took her by the hand, and raised her up. The fever left her,^a and she began to serve them.

³² When evening came, after the sun had set, they began bringing to Him all those who were sick and those who were demon-possessed.

³³ The whole town was assembled at the door,

³⁴ and He healed many who were sick with various diseases and drove out many demons. But He would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew Him.

Preaching in Galilee

³⁵ Very early in the morning, while it was still dark, He got up, went out, and made His way to a deserted place. And He was praying there.

³⁶ Simon and his companions went searching for Him. ³⁷ They found Him and said, “Everyone’s looking for You!”

³⁸ And He said to them, “Let’s go on to the neighboring villages so that I may preach there too. This is why I have come.” ³⁹ So He went into all of Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and driving out demons.

Cleansing a Leper

⁴⁰ Then a man with a serious skin disease came to Him and, on his knees,^b begged Him: “If You are willing, You can make me clean.”^c

⁴¹ Moved with compassion, Jesus reached out His hand and touched him. “I am willing,” He told him. “Be made clean.” ⁴² Immediately the disease left him, and he was healed.^d ⁴³ Then He sternly warned him and sent him away at once, ⁴⁴ telling him, “See that you say nothing to anyone; but go and show yourself to the priest, and offer what Moses prescribed for your cleansing, as a testimony to them.” ⁴⁵ Yet he went out and began to proclaim it widely and to spread the news, with the result that Jesus could no longer enter a town openly. But He was out in deserted places, and they would come to Him from everywhere.

The Son of Man Forgives and Heals

2 When He entered Capernaum again after some days, it was reported that He was at home. ² So many people gathered together that there was no more room, not even in the doorway, and He was speaking the message to them. ³ Then they came to Him bringing a paralytic, carried by four men. ⁴ Since they were not able to bring him to^e Jesus because of the crowd, they removed the roof above where He was. And when they had broken through, they lowered the stretcher on which the paralytic was lying.

⁵ Seeing their faith, Jesus told the paralytic, “Son, your sins are forgiven.”

⁸ Right away Jesus understood in His spirit that they were reasoning like this within themselves and said to them, “Why are you reasoning these things in your hearts?^g ⁹ Which is easier: to say to the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up, pick up your stretcher, and walk’? ¹⁰ But so you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins,” He told the paralytic, ¹¹ “I tell you: get up, pick up your stretcher, and go home.”

¹² Immediately he got up, picked up the stretcher, and went out in front of everyone. As a result, they were all astounded and gave glory to God, saying, “We have never seen anything like this!”

The Call of Matthew

¹³ Then Jesus went out again beside the sea. The whole crowd was coming to Him, and He taught them. ¹⁴ Then, moving on, He saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax office, and He said to him, “Follow Me!” So he got up and followed Him.

Dining with Sinners

¹⁵ While He was reclining at the table in Levi’s house, many tax collectors and sinners were also guests^h with Jesus and His disciples, because there were many who were following Him. ¹⁶ When the scribes of the Phariseesⁱ saw that He was eating with sinners and tax collectors, they asked His disciples, “Why does He eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

¹⁷ When Jesus heard this, He told them, “Those who are well don’t need a doctor, but the sick [do need one]. I didn’t come to call the righteous, but sinners.”

A Question about Fasting

¹⁸ Now John’s disciples and the Pharisees^k

^a1:31 Other mss add at once ^b1:40 Other mss omit on his knees ^c1:40 In these vv., clean includes healing, ceremonial purification, return to fellowship with people, and worship in the temple; Lv 14:1–32. ^d1:42 Lit made clean ^e2:4 Other mss read able to get near ^f2:6 Or there, reasoning in their hearts ^g2:8 Or minds ^h2:15 Lit reclining (at the table); at important meals the custom was to recline on a mat at a low table and lean on the left elbow. ⁱ2:16 Other mss read scribes and Pharisees ^j2:16 Other mss add and drink ^k2:18 Other mss read the disciples of John and of the Pharisees

were fasting. People came and asked Him, “Why do John’s disciples and the Pharisees’ disciples fast, but Your disciples do not fast?”

¹⁹ Jesus said to them, “The wedding guests^a cannot fast while the groom is with them, can they? As long as they have the groom with them, they cannot fast. ²⁰ But the time^b will come when the groom is taken away from them, and then they will fast in that day. ²¹ No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment. Otherwise, the new patch pulls away from the old cloth, and a worse tear is made. ²² And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the wine will burst the skins, and the wine is lost as well as the skins.^c But new wine is for fresh wineskins.”

Lord of the Sabbath

²³ On the Sabbath He was going through the grainfields, and His disciples began to make their way picking some heads of grain. ²⁴ The Pharisees said to Him, “Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the Sabbath?”

²⁵ He said to them, “Have you never read what David and those who were with him did when he was in need and hungry— ²⁶ how he entered the house of God in the time of Abiathar the high priest and ate the •sacred bread—which is not lawful for anyone to eat except the priests—and also gave some to his companions?” ²⁷ Then He told them, “The Sabbath was made for^d man and not man for^d the Sabbath. ²⁸ Therefore the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath.”

The Man with the Paralyzed Hand

3 Now He entered the •synagogue again, and a man was there who had a paralyzed hand. ² In order to accuse Him, they were watching Him closely to see whether He would heal him on the Sabbath. ³ He told the man with the paralyzed hand, “Stand before us.”^e ⁴ Then He said to them, “Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save life or to kill?” But they were silent. ⁵ After looking around at them with anger and sorrow at the hardness of their hearts, He told the man, “Stretch out your hand.” So he stretched it out, and his hand was restored. ⁶ Immediately the •Pharisees went out and started plotting with the •Herodians against Him, how they might destroy Him.

Ministering to the Multitude

⁷ Jesus departed with His disciples to the sea, and a great multitude followed from Galilee, Judea, ⁸ Jerusalem, Idumea, beyond the Jordan, and around Tyre and Sidon. The great multitude came to Him because they heard about everything He was doing. ⁹ Then He told His disciples to have a small boat ready for Him, so the crowd would not crush Him. ¹⁰ Since He had healed many, all who had diseases were pressing toward Him to touch Him. ¹¹ Whenever the unclean spirits saw Him, those possessed fell down before Him and cried out, “You are the Son of God!” ¹² And He would strongly warn them not to make Him known.

The 12 Apostles

¹³ Then He went up the mountain and summoned those He wanted, and they came to Him. ¹⁴ He also appointed 12—He also named them apostles^f—to be with Him, to send them out to preach, ¹⁵ and to have authority to^g drive out demons.

¹⁶ He appointed the Twelve:^h

- To Simon, He gave the name Peter;
- ¹⁷ and to James the son of Zebedee, and to his brother John, He gave the name “Boanerges” (that is, “Sons of Thunder”);
- ¹⁸ Andrew; Philip and Bartholomew; Matthew and Thomas; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Zealot;ⁱ
- ¹⁹ and Judas Iscariot,^j who also betrayed Him.

A House Divided

²⁰ Then He went home, and the crowd gathered again so that they were not even able to eat.^k ²¹ When His family heard this, they set out to restrain Him, because they said, “He’s out of His mind.”

²² The •scribes who had come down from Jerusalem said, “He has •Beelzebul in Him!” and, “He drives out demons by the ruler of the demons!”

²³ So He summoned them and spoke to them in parables: “How can Satan drive out Satan?

²⁷ “On the other hand, no one can enter a strong man’s house and rob his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man. Then he will rob his house. ²⁸ • I assure you: People will be forgiven for all sins^b and whatever blasphemies they may blaspheme. ²⁹ But whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin”^c — ³⁰ because they were saying, “He has an unclean spirit.”

True Relationships

³¹ Then His mother and His brothers came, and standing outside, they sent [word] to Him and called Him. ³² A crowd was sitting around Him and told Him, “Look, Your mother, Your brothers, and Your sisters^d are outside asking for You.”

³³ He replied to them, “Who are My mother and My brothers?” ³⁴ And looking about at those who were sitting in a circle around Him, He said, “Here are My mother and My brothers! ³⁵ Whoever does the will of God is My brother and sister and mother.”

The Parable of the Sower

4 Again He began to teach by the sea, and a very large crowd gathered around Him. So He got into a boat on the sea and sat down, while the whole crowd was on the shore facing the sea. ² He taught them many things in parables, and in His teaching He said to them: ³ “Listen! Consider the sower who went out to sow. ⁴ As he sowed, this occurred: Some seed fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up. ⁵ Other seed fell on rocky ground where it didn’t have much soil, and it sprang up right away, since it didn’t have deep soil. ⁶ When the sun came up, it was scorched, and since it didn’t have a root, it withered. ⁷ Other seed fell among thorns, and the thorns came up and choked it, and it didn’t produce a crop. ⁸ Still others fell on good ground and produced a crop that increased 30, 60, and 100 times [what was sown].” ⁹ Then He said, “Anyone who has ears to hear should listen!”

Why Jesus Used Parables

¹⁰ When He was alone with the Twelve, those who were around Him asked Him about the parables. ¹¹ He answered them, “The secret^e of the kingdom of God has been granted to you, but to those outside, everything comes in parables ¹² so that they may look and look,

yet not perceive;
they may listen and listen,
yet not understand;
otherwise, they might turn back—
and be forgiven.”^{f g}

The Parable of the Sower Explained

¹³ Then He said to them: “Do you not understand this parable? How then will you understand any of the parables? ¹⁴ The sower sows the word. ¹⁵ These^h are the ones along the path where the word is sown: when they hear, immediately Satan comes and takes away the word sown in them.” ¹⁶ And these are the ones sown on rocky ground: when they hear the word, immediately they receive it with joy. ¹⁷ But they have no root in themselves; they are short-lived. When affliction or persecution comes because of the word, they immediately stumble. ¹⁸ Others are sown among thorns; these are the ones who hear the word, ¹⁹ but the worries of this age, the seduction^k of wealth, and the desires for other things enter in and choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. ²⁰ But the ones sown on good ground are those who hear the word, welcome it, and produce a crop: 30, 60, and 100 times [what was sown].”

Using Your Light

²¹ He also said to them, “Is a lamp brought in to be put under a basket or under a bed? Isn’t it to be put on a lampstand? ²² For nothing is concealed except to be revealed, and nothing hidden except to come to light. ²³ If anyone has ears to hear, he should listen!” ²⁴ Then He said to them, “Pay attention to what you hear. By the measure you use,^l it will be measured and added to you. ²⁵ For to the one who has, it will be given, and from the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken away.”

The Parable of the Growing Seed

²⁶ “The kingdom of God is like this,” He said. “A man scatters seed on the ground; ²⁷ he sleeps and rises—night and day, and the seed sprouts and grows—he doesn’t know how. ²⁸ The soil produces a crop by itself—first the blade, then the head, and then the ripe grain on the head. ²⁹ But as soon as the crop is ready, he sends for the sickle, because harvest has come.”

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

³⁰ And He said: “How can we illustrate the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use to describe it? ³¹ It’s like a mustard seed that, when sown in the soil, is smaller than all the seeds on the ground. ³² And when sown, it comes up and grows taller than all the vegetables, and produces large branches, so that the birds of the sky can nest in its shade.”

Using Parables

³³ He would speak the word to them with many parables like these, as they were able to understand. ³⁴ And He did not speak to them without a parable. Privately, however, He would explain everything to His own disciples.

Wind and Wave Obey the Master

³⁵ On that day, when evening had come, He told them, “Let’s cross over to the other side [of the lake].” ³⁶ So they left the crowd and took Him along since He was [already] in the boat. And other boats were with Him. ³⁷ A fierce windstorm arose, and the waves were breaking over the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. ³⁸ But He was in the stern, sleeping on the cushion. So they woke Him up and said to Him, “Teacher! Don’t you care that we’re going to die?”

³⁹ He got up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Silence! Be still!” The wind ceased, and there was a great calm. ⁴⁰ Then He said to them, “Why are you fearful? Do you still have no faith?”

⁴¹ And they were terrified and asked one another, “Who then is this? Even the wind and the sea obey Him!”

Demons Driven Out by the Master

5 Then they came to the other side of the sea, to the region of the Gerasenes.^a ² As soon as He got out of the boat, a man with an unclean spirit came out of the tombs and met

Him. ³ He lived in the tombs. No one was able to restrain him any more—even with chains—⁴ because he often had been bound with shackles and chains, but had snapped off the chains and smashed the shackles. No one was strong enough to subdue him. ⁵ And always, night and day, he was crying out among the tombs and in the mountains and cutting himself with stones.

⁶ When he saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and knelt down before Him. ⁷ And he cried out with a loud voice, “What do You have to do with me,^b Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg^c You before God, don’t torment me!” ⁸ For He had told him, “Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!”

⁹ “What is your name?” He asked him.

“My name is Legion,”^d he answered Him, “because we are many.” ¹⁰ And he kept begging Him not to send them out of the region.

¹¹ Now a large herd of pigs was there, feeding on the hillside. ¹² The demons^e begged Him, “Send us to the pigs, so we may enter them.”

¹³ And He gave them permission. Then the unclean spirits came out and entered the pigs, and the herd of about 2,000 rushed down the steep bank into the sea and drowned there.

¹⁴ The men who tended them^f ran off and reported it in the town and the countryside, and people went to see what had happened. ¹⁵ They came to Jesus and saw the man who had been demon-possessed by the legion, sitting there, dressed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. ¹⁶ The eyewitnesses described to them what had happened to the demon-possessed man and [told] about the pigs. ¹⁷ Then they began to beg Him to leave their region.

¹⁸ As He was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon-possessed kept begging Him to be with Him. ¹⁹ But He would not let him; instead, He told him, “Go back home to your own people, and report to them how much the Lord has done for you and how He has had mercy on you.” ²⁰ So he went out and began to proclaim in the •Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him, and they were all amazed.

A Girl Restored and a Woman Healed

²¹ When Jesus had crossed over again by boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around Him while He was by the sea. ²² One of the •synagogue leaders, named Jairus, came, and when he saw Jesus, he fell at His feet ²³ and kept begging Him, “My little daughter is at death’s door.^a Come and lay Your hands on her so she can get well and live.”

²⁴ So Jesus went with him, and a large crowd was following and pressing against Him. ²⁵ A woman suffering from bleeding for 12 years ²⁶ had endured much under many doctors. She had spent everything she had and was not helped at all. On the contrary, she became worse. ²⁷ Having heard about Jesus, she came behind Him in the crowd and touched His robe. ²⁸ For she said, “If I can just touch His robes, I’ll be made well!” ²⁹ Instantly her flow of blood ceased, and she sensed in her body that she was cured of her affliction.

³⁰ At once Jesus realized in Himself that power had gone out from Him. He turned around in the crowd and said, “Who touched My robes?”

³¹ His disciples said to Him, “You see the crowd pressing against You, and You say, ‘Who touched Me?’”

³² So He was looking around to see who had done this. ³³ Then the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came with fear and trembling, fell down before Him, and told Him the whole truth. ³⁴ “Daughter,” He said to her, “your faith has made you well.^b Go in peace and be free^c from your affliction.”

³⁵ While He was still speaking, people came from the synagogue leader’s house and said, “Your daughter is dead. Why bother the Teacher any more?”

³⁶ But when Jesus overheard what was said, He told the synagogue leader, “Don’t be afraid. Only believe.” ³⁷ He did not let anyone accompany Him except Peter, James, and John, James’ brother. ³⁸ They came to the leader’s house, and He saw a commotion—people weeping and wailing loudly. ³⁹ He went in and said to them, “Why are you making a commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep.”

⁴⁰ They started laughing at Him, but He put them all outside. He took the child’s father, mother, and those who were with Him, and entered the place where the child was. ⁴¹ Then He took the child by the hand and said to her, “Talitha kumi!”^d (which is translated, “Little girl, I say to you, get up!”). ⁴² Immediately the girl got up and began to walk. (She was 12 years old.) At this they were utterly astounded. ⁴³ Then He gave them strict orders that no one should know about this and said that she should be given something to eat.

Rejection at Nazareth

6 He went away from there and came to His hometown, and His disciples followed Him. ² When the Sabbath came, He began to teach in the •synagogue, and many who heard Him were astonished. “Where did this man get these things?” they said. “What is this wisdom given to Him, and how are these miracles performed by His hands? ³ Isn’t this the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James, Joses, Judas, and Simon? And aren’t His sisters here with us?” So they were offended by Him.

⁴ Then Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown, among his relatives, and in his household.” ⁵ So He was not able to do any miracles^e there, except that He laid His hands on a few sick people and healed them. ⁶ And He was amazed at their unbelief.

Now He was going around the villages in a circuit, teaching. ⁷ He summoned the Twelve and began to send them out in pairs and gave them authority over unclean spirits. ⁸ He instructed them to take nothing for the road except a walking stick: no bread, no traveling bag, no money in their belts. ⁹ They were to wear sandals, but not put on an extra shirt. ¹⁰ Then He said to them, “Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you leave that place. ¹¹ If any place does not welcome you and people refuse to listen to you, when you leave there, shake the dust off your feet as a testimony against them.”^f

¹² So they went out and preached that people should repent. ¹³ And they were driving out many demons, anointing many sick people with oil, and healing.

John the Baptist Beheaded

¹⁴ King •Herod heard of this, because Jesus’ name had become well known. Some^g said, “John the Baptist has been raised from the dead, and that’s why supernatural powers are at work in him.” ¹⁵ But others said, “He’s Elijah.” Still others said, “He’s a propheth—like one of the prophets.”

¹⁶ When Herod heard of it, he said, “John, the one I beheaded, has been raised!” ¹⁷ For Herod

But she could not, ²⁰ because Herod was in awe of^a John and was protecting him, knowing he was a righteous and holy man. When Herod heard him he would be very disturbed,^b yet would hear him gladly.

²¹ Now an opportune time came on his birthday, when Herod gave a banquet for his nobles, military commanders, and the leading men of Galilee. ²² When Herodias' own daughter^c came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests. The king said to the girl, "Ask me whatever you want, and I'll give it to you." ²³ So he swore oaths to her: "Whatever you ask me I will give you, up to half my kingdom."

²⁴ Then she went out and said to her mother, "What should I ask for?"

"John the Baptist's head!" she said.

²⁵ Immediately she hurried to the king and said, "I want you to give me John the Baptist's head on a platter—right now!"

²⁶ Though the king was deeply distressed, because of his oaths and the guests^d he did not want to refuse her. ²⁷ The king immediately sent for an executioner and commanded him to bring John's head. So he went and beheaded him in prison, ²⁸ brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. ²⁹ When his disciples^e heard about it, they came and removed his corpse and placed it in a tomb.

³⁰ The apostles gathered around Jesus and reported to Him all that they had done and taught. ³¹ He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a remote place and rest a while." For many people were coming and going, and they did not even have time to eat. ³² So they went away in the boat by themselves to a remote place, ³³ but many saw them leaving and recognized them. People ran there by land from all the towns and arrived ahead of them.^f ³⁴ So as He stepped ashore, He saw a huge crowd and had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. Then He began to teach them many things.

³⁵ When it was already late, His disciples approached Him and said, "This place is a wilderness, and it is already late! ³⁶ Send them away, so they can go into the surrounding countryside and villages to buy themselves something to eat."

³⁷ "You give them something to eat," He responded.

They said to Him, "Should we go and buy 200 •denarii worth of bread and give them something to eat?"

³⁸ And He asked them, "How many loaves do you have? Go look."

When they found out they said, "Five, and two fish."

³⁹ Then He instructed them to have all the people sit down^g in groups on the green grass. ⁴⁰ So they sat down in ranks of hundreds and fifties. ⁴¹ Then He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He blessed and broke the loaves. He kept giving them to His disciples to set before the people. He also divided the two fish among them all. ⁴² Everyone ate and was filled. ⁴³ Then they picked up 12 baskets full of pieces of bread and fish. ⁴⁴ Now those who ate the loaves were 5,000 men.

Walking on the Water

⁴⁵ Immediately He made His disciples get into the boat and go ahead of Him to the other side, to Bethsaida, while He dismissed the crowd. ⁴⁶ After He said good-bye to them, He went away to the mountain to pray. ⁴⁷ When evening came, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and He was alone on the land. ⁴⁸ He saw them being battered as they rowed,^h because the wind was against them. Around three in the morningⁱ He came toward them walking on the sea and wanted to pass by them. ⁴⁹ When they saw Him walking on the sea, they thought it was a ghost and cried out; ⁵⁰ for they all saw Him and were terrified. Immediately He spoke with them and said, "Have courage! It is I. Don't be afraid." ⁵¹ Then He got into the boat with them, and the wind ceased. They were completely astounded,^j ⁵² because they had not understood about the loaves. Instead, their hearts were hardened.

they got out of the boat, people immediately recognized Him. ⁵⁵ They hurried throughout that vicinity and began to carry the sick on stretchers to wherever they heard He was. ⁵⁶ Wherever He would go, into villages, towns, or the country, they laid the sick in the marketplaces and begged Him that they might touch just the tassels of His robe. And everyone who touched it was made well.

The Traditions of the Elders

7 The Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around Him. ² They observed that some of His disciples were eating their bread with unclean—that is, unwashed—hands. ³ (For the Pharisees, in fact all the Jews, will not eat unless they wash their hands ritually, keeping the tradition of the elders. ⁴ When they come from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they have washed. And there are many other customs they have received and keep, like the washing of cups, jugs, copper utensils, and dining couches.^a) ⁵ Then the Pharisees and the scribes asked Him, “Why don’t Your disciples live according to the tradition of the elders, instead of eating bread with ritually unclean^b hands?”

⁶ He answered them, “Isaiah prophesied correctly about you hypocrites, as it is written:

These people honor Me
with their lips,
but their heart is far from Me.

7 They worship Me in vain,
teaching as doctrines the commands of men.^c

⁸ Disregarding the command of God, you keep the tradition of men.”^d ⁹ He also said to them, “You completely invalidate God’s command in order to maintain^e your tradition! ¹⁰ For Moses said:

Honor your father
and your mother;^f and,
Whoever speaks evil of father
or mother
must be put to death.^g

¹¹ But you say, ‘If a man tells his father or mother: Whatever benefit you might have received from me is Corban’ (that is, a gift [committed to the temple]), ¹² “you no longer let him do anything for his father or mother. ¹³ You revoke God’s word by your tradition that you have handed down. And you do many other similar things.” ¹⁴ Summoning the crowd again, He told them, “Listen to Me, all of you, and understand: ¹⁵ Nothing that goes into a person from outside can defile him, but the things that come out of a person are what defile him. ¹⁶ If anyone has ears to hear, he should listen!”^h

¹⁷ When He went into the house away from the crowd, the disciples asked Him about the parable. ¹⁸ And He said to them, “Are you also as lacking in understanding? Don’t you realize that nothing going into a man from the outside can defile him? ¹⁹ For it doesn’t go into his heart but into the stomach and is eliminated.”ⁱ (As a result, He made all foods clean.^j) ²⁰ Then He said, “What comes out of a person—that defiles him. ²¹ For from within, out of people’s hearts, come evil thoughts, sexual immoralities, thefts, murders, ²² adulteries, greed, evil actions, deceit, lewdness, stinginess,^k blasphemy, pride, and foolishness. ²³ All these evil things come from within and defile a person.”

²⁴ He got up and departed from there to the region of Tyre and Sidon.^l He entered a house and did not want anyone to know it, but He could not escape notice. ²⁵ Instead, immediately after hearing about Him, a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit came and fell at His feet. ²⁶ Now the woman was Greek, a Syro-phenician by birth, and she kept asking Him to drive the demon out of her daughter. ²⁷ He said to her, “Allow the children to be satisfied first, because it isn’t right to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs.”

²⁸ But she replied to Him, “Lord, even the dogs under the table eat the children’s crumbs.”

²⁹ Then He told her, “Because of this reply, you may go. The demon has gone out of your daughter.” ³⁰ When she went back to her home, she found her child lying on the bed, and the demon was gone.

the region of the •Decapolis.³² They brought to Him a deaf man who also had a speech difficulty, and begged Jesus to lay His hand on him.³³ So He took him away from the crowd privately. After putting His fingers in the man's ears and spitting, He touched his tongue.³⁴ Then, looking up to heaven, He sighed deeply and said to him, "Ephphatha!"^a (that is, "Be opened!").³⁵ Immediately his ears were opened, his speech difficulty was removed,^b and he began to speak clearly.³⁶ Then He ordered them to tell no one, but the more He would order them, the more they would proclaim it.

³⁷ They were extremely astonished and said, "He has done everything well! He even makes deaf people hear, and people unable to speak, talk!"

Feeding 4,000

8 In those days there was again a large crowd, and they had nothing to eat. He summoned the disciples and said to them, ² "I have compassion on the crowd, because they've already stayed with Me three days and have nothing to eat. ³ If I send them home famished,^c they will collapse on the way, and some of them have come a long distance."

⁴ His disciples answered Him, "Where can anyone get enough bread here in this desolate place to fill these people?"

⁵ "How many loaves do you have?" He asked them.

"Seven," they said.⁶ Then He commanded the crowd to sit down on the ground. Taking the seven loaves, He gave thanks, broke the [loaves], and kept on giving [them] to His disciples to set before [the people]. So they served the [loaves] to the crowd.⁷ They also had a few small fish, and when He had blessed them, He said these were to be served as well.⁸ They ate and were filled. Then they collected seven large baskets of leftover pieces.⁹ About 4,000 [men] were there. He dismissed them¹⁰ and immediately got into the boat with His disciples and went to the district of Dalmanutha.^d

The Yeast of the Pharisees and Herod

¹¹ The •Pharisees came out and began to argue with Him, demanding of Him a sign from heaven to test Him.¹² But sighing deeply in His spirit, He said, "Why does this generation demand a sign? •I assure you: No sign will be given to this generation!"¹³ Then He left them, got on board [the boat] again, and went to the other side.

¹⁴ They had forgotten to take bread and had only one loaf with them in the boat.¹⁵ Then He commanded them: "Watch out! Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of •Herod."

¹⁶ They were discussing among themselves that they did not have any bread.¹⁷ Aware of this, He said to them, "Why are you discussing that you do not have any bread? Do you not yet understand or comprehend? Is your heart hardened?"¹⁸ Do you have eyes, and not see, and do you have ears, and not hear?^e And do you not remember?¹⁹ When I broke the five loaves for the 5,000, how many baskets full of pieces of bread did you collect?"

"Twelve," they told Him.

²⁰ "When I broke the seven loaves for the 4,000, how many large baskets full of pieces of bread did you collect?"

"Seven," they said.

²¹ And He said to them, "Don't you understand yet?"

Healing a Blind Man

²² Then they came to Bethsaida. They brought a blind man to Him and begged Him to touch him.²³ He took the blind man by the hand and brought him out of the village. Spitting on his eyes and laying His hands on him, He asked him, "Do you see anything?"

²⁴ He looked up and said, "I see people—they look to me like trees walking."

²⁵ Again Jesus placed His hands on the man's eyes, and he saw distinctly. He was cured and could see everything clearly.²⁶ Then He sent him home, saying, "Don't even go into the village."^f

Peter's Confession of the Messiah

²⁷ Jesus went out with His disciples to the villages of Caesarea Philippi. And on the road He asked His disciples, "Who do people say that I am?"

²⁸ They answered Him, "John the Baptist; others, Elijah; still others, one of the prophets."

²⁹ "But you," He asked them again, "who do you say that I am?"

Peter answered Him, "You are the •Messiah!"

³⁰ And He strictly warned them to tell no one about Him.

³³ But turning around and looking at His disciples, He rebuked Peter and said, “Get behind Me, Satan, because you’re not thinking about God’s concerns,^a but man’s!”

Take Up Your Cross

³⁴ Summoning the crowd along with His disciples, He said to them, “If anyone wants to be My follower, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow Me. ³⁵ For whoever wants to save his •life will lose it, but whoever loses his life because of Me and the gospel will save it. ³⁶ For what does it benefit a man to gain the whole world yet lose his life? ³⁷ What can a man give in exchange for his life? ³⁸ For whoever is ashamed of Me and of My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels.”

9 Then He said to them, “•I assure you: There are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the kingdom of God come in power.”

The Transfiguration

² After six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up on a high mountain by themselves to be alone. He was transformed^b in front of them, ³ and His clothes became dazzling—extremely white as no launderer on earth could whiten them. ⁴ Elijah appeared to them with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus.

⁵ Then Peter said to Jesus, “•Rabbi, it is good for us to be here! Let us make three •tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah”—⁶ because he did not know what he should say, since they were terrified.

⁷ A cloud appeared, overshadowing them, and a voice came from the cloud:

This is My beloved Son;
listen to Him!

⁸ Then suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone with them except Jesus alone.

⁹ As they were coming down from the mountain, He ordered them to tell no one what they had seen until the •Son of Man had risen from the dead. ¹⁰ They kept this word to themselves, discussing what “rising from the dead” meant.

¹¹ Then they began to question Him, “Why do the •scribes say that Elijah must come first?”

¹² “Elijah does come first and restores everything,” He replied. “How then is it written about the Son of Man that He must suffer many things and be treated with contempt? ¹³ But I tell you that Elijah really has come, and they did to him whatever they wanted, just as it is written about him.”

¹⁴ When they came to the disciples, they saw a large crowd around them and scribes disputing with them. ¹⁵ All of a sudden, when the whole crowd saw Him, they were amazed^c and ran to greet Him. ¹⁶ Then He asked them, “What are you arguing with them about?”

¹⁷ Out of the crowd, one man answered Him, “Teacher, I brought my son to You. He has a spirit that makes him unable to speak. ¹⁸ Wherever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams at the mouth, grinds his teeth, and becomes rigid. So I asked Your disciples to drive it out, but they couldn’t.”

¹⁹ He replied to them, “You unbelieving generation! How long will I be with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring him to Me.” ²⁰ So they brought him to Him. When the spirit saw Him, it immediately convulsed the boy. He fell to the ground and rolled around, foaming at the mouth. ²¹ “How long has this been happening to him?” Jesus asked his father.

“From childhood,” he said. ²² “And many times it has thrown him into fire or water to destroy him. But if You can do anything, have compassion on us and help us.”

²³ Then Jesus said to him, “‘If You can?’^{d e} Everything is possible to the one who believes.”

²⁴ Immediately the father of the boy cried out, “I do believe! Help my unbelief.”

²⁵ When Jesus saw that a crowd was rapidly coming together, He rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, “You mute and deaf spirit,^f I command you: come out of him and never enter him again!”

²⁶ Then it came out, shrieking and convulsing him^g violently. The boy became like a corpse, so that many said, “He’s dead.” ²⁷ But Jesus, taking him by the hand, raised him, and he stood up.

The Second Prediction of His Death

³⁰ Then they left that place and made their way through Galilee, but He did not want anyone to know it. ³¹ For He was teaching His disciples and telling them, “The Son of Man is being betrayed^b into the hands of men. They will kill Him, and after He is killed, He will rise three days later.” ³² But they did not understand this statement, and they were afraid to ask Him.

Who is the Greatest?

³³ Then they came to Capernaum. When He was in the house, He asked them, “What were you arguing about on the way?” ³⁴ But they were silent, because on the way they had been arguing with one another about who was the greatest. ³⁵ Sitting down, He called the Twelve and said to them, “If anyone wants to be first, he must be last of all and servant of all.” ³⁶ Then He took a child, had him stand among them, and taking him in His arms, He said to them, ³⁷ “Whoever welcomes^c one little child such as this in My name welcomes Me. And whoever welcomes Me does not welcome Me, but Him who sent Me.”

In His Name

³⁸ John said to Him, “Teacher, we saw someone^d driving out demons in Your name, and we tried to stop him because he wasn’t following us.”

³⁹ “Don’t stop him,” said Jesus, “because there is no one who will perform a miracle in My name who can soon afterwards speak evil of Me. ⁴⁰ For whoever is not against us is for us. ⁴¹ And whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because of My name,^e since you belong to the •Messiah—I assure you: He will never lose his reward.

⁴⁹ For everyone will be salted with fire.^h ⁵⁰ Salt is good, but if the salt should lose its flavor, how can you make it salty? Have salt among yourselves and be at peace with one another.”

The Question of Divorce

10 He set out from there and went to the region of Judea and across the Jordan. Then crowds converged on Him again and, as He usually did, He began teaching them once more. ² Some •Pharisees approached Him to test Him. They asked, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce [his] wife?”

³ He replied to them, “What did Moses command you?”

⁴ They said, “Moses permitted us to write divorce papers and send her away.”

⁵ But Jesus told them, “He wrote this commandment for you because of the hardness of your hearts. ⁶ But from the beginning of creation God^j made them male and female.^k

7 For this reason a man will leave

Blessing the Children

¹³ Some people were bringing little children to Him so He might touch them, but His disciples rebuked them. ¹⁴ When Jesus saw it, He was indignant and said to them, “Let the little children come to Me. Don’t stop them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. ¹⁵ •I assure you: Whoever does not welcome^a the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.” ¹⁶ After taking them in His arms, He laid His hands on them and blessed them.

The Rich Young Ruler

¹⁷ As He was setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt down before Him, and asked Him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

¹⁸ “Why do you call Me good?” Jesus asked him. “No one is good but One—God. ¹⁹ You know the commandments:

Do not murder;
do not commit adultery;
do not steal;
do not bear false witness;
do not defraud;
honor your father and mother.”^b

²⁰ He said to Him, “Teacher, I have kept all these from my youth.”

²¹ Then, looking at him, Jesus loved him and said to him, “You lack one thing: Go, sell all you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come,^c follow Me.” ²² But he was stunned^d at this demand, and he went away grieving, because he had many possessions.

²³ Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, “How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!” ²⁴ But the disciples were astonished at His words. Again Jesus said to them, “Children, how hard it is^e to enter the kingdom of God! ²⁵ It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God.”

²⁶ So they were even more astonished, saying to one another, “Then who can be saved?”

²⁷ Looking at them, Jesus said, “With men it is impossible, but not with God, because all things are possible with God.”

²⁸ Peter began to tell Him, “Look, we have left everything and followed You.”

²⁹ “I assure you,” Jesus said, “there is no one who has left house, brothers or sisters, mother or father,^f children, or fields because of Me and the gospel, ³⁰ who will not receive 100 times more, now at this time—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields, with persecutions—and eternal life in the age to come. ³¹ But many who are first will be last, and the last first.”

The Third Prediction of His Death

³² They were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was walking ahead of them. They were astonished, but those who followed Him were afraid. Taking the Twelve aside again, He began to tell them the things that would happen to Him.

³³ “Listen! We are going up to Jerusalem. The •Son of Man will be handed over to the •chief priests and the •scribes, and they will condemn Him to death. Then they will hand Him over to the Gentiles, ³⁴ and they will mock Him, spit on Him, flog^g Him, and kill Him, and He will rise after three days.”

Suffering and Service

³⁵ Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached Him and said, “Teacher, we want You to do something for us if we ask You.”

³⁶ “What do you want Me to do for you?” He asked them.

³⁷ They answered Him, “Allow us to sit at Your right and at Your left in Your glory.”

³⁸ But Jesus said to them, “You don’t know what you’re asking. Are you able to drink the cup I drink or to be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with?”

³⁹ “We are able,” they told Him.

Jesus said to them, “You will drink the cup I drink, and you will be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with. ⁴⁰ But to sit at My right or left is not Mine to give; instead, it is for those it has been prepared for.” ⁴¹ When the [other] 10 [disciples] heard this, they began to be indignant with James and John.

⁴² Jesus called them over and said to them, "You know that those who are regarded as rulers of the Gentiles dominate them, and their men of high positions exercise power over them. ⁴³ But it must not be like that among you. On the contrary, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, ⁴⁴ and whoever wants to be first among you must be a •slave to all. ⁴⁵ For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life—a ransom for many."^a

A Blind Man Healed

⁴⁶ They came to Jericho. And as He was leaving Jericho with His disciples and a large crowd, Bartimaeus (the son of Timaeus), a blind beggar, was sitting by the road. ⁴⁷ When he heard that it was Jesus the •Nazarene, he began to cry out, "Son of David, Jesus, have mercy on me!" ⁴⁸ Many people told him to keep quiet, but he was crying out all the more, "Have mercy on me, Son of David!"

⁴⁹ Jesus stopped and said, "Call him."

So they called the blind man and said to him, "Have courage! Get up; He's calling for you." ⁵⁰ He threw off his coat, jumped up, and came to Jesus.

⁵¹ Then Jesus answered him, "What do you want Me to do for you?"

"Rabbouni,"^b the blind man told Him, "I want to see!"

⁵² "Go your way," Jesus told him. "Your faith has healed you." Immediately he could see and began to follow Him on the road.

The Triumphal Entry

11 When they approached Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany near the •Mount of Olives, He sent two of His disciples ² and told them, "Go into the village ahead of you. As soon as you enter it, you will find a young donkey tied there, on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it here. ³ If anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord needs it and will send it back here right away.'"

⁴ So they went and found a young donkey outside in the street, tied by a door. They untied it, ⁵ and some of those standing there said to them, "What are you doing, untying the donkey?" ⁶ They answered them just as Jesus had said, so they let them go. ⁷ Then they brought the donkey to Jesus and threw their robes on it, and He sat on it.

⁸ Many people spread their robes on the road, and others spread leafy branches cut from the fields.^c ⁹ Then those who went ahead and those who followed kept shouting:

•Hosanna!

Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!^d

¹⁰ Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David!

Hosanna in the highest heaven!

¹¹ And He went into Jerusalem and into the •temple complex. After looking around at everything, since it was already late, He went out to Bethany with the Twelve.

The Barren Fig Tree Is Cursed

¹² The next day when they came out from Bethany, He was hungry. ¹³ After seeing in the distance a fig tree with leaves, He went to find out if there was anything on it. When He came to it, He found nothing but leaves, because it was not the season for figs. ¹⁴ He said to it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again!" And His disciples heard it.

Cleansing the Temple Complex

¹⁵ They came to Jerusalem, and He went into the temple complex and began to throw out those buying and selling in the temple. He overturned the money changers' tables and the chairs of those selling doves, ¹⁶ and would not permit anyone to carry goods through the temple complex.

¹⁷ Then He began to teach them: "Is it not written, My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations?"^e But you have made it a den of thieves!"^f ¹⁸ Then the •chief priests and the •scribes heard it and started looking for a way to destroy Him. For they were afraid of Him, because the whole crowd was astonished by His teaching.

¹⁹ And whenever evening came, they would go out of the city.

The Barren Fig Tree Is Withered

²⁰ Early in the morning, as they were passing by, they saw the fig tree withered from the roots up. ²¹ Then Peter remembered and said to Him, "•Rabbi, look! The fig tree that You cursed is withered."

²² Jesus replied to them, "Have faith in God. ²³ •I assure you: If anyone says to this

Messiah’s Authority Challenged

²⁷ They came again to Jerusalem. As He was walking in the temple complex, the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders came and asked Him, ²⁸ “By what authority are You doing these things? Who gave You this authority to do these things?”

²⁹ Jesus said to them, “I will ask you one question; then answer Me, and I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. ³⁰ Was John’s baptism from heaven or from men? Answer Me.”

³¹ They began to argue among themselves: “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say, ‘Then why didn’t you believe him?’ ³² But if we say, ‘From men’”—they were afraid of the crowd, because everyone thought that John was a genuine prophet. ³³ So they answered Jesus, “We don’t know.”

And Jesus said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

The Parable of the Vineyard Owner

12 Then He began to speak to them in parables: “A man planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug out a pit for a winepress, and built a watchtower. Then he leased it to tenant farmers and went away. ² At harvest time he sent a •slave to the farmers to collect some of the fruit of the vineyard from the farmers. ³ But they took him, beat him, and sent him away empty-handed. ⁴ Again he sent another slave to them, and they^d hit him on the head and treated him shamefully.^e ⁵ Then he sent another, and they killed that one. [He] also [sent] many others; they beat some and they killed some.

⁶ “He still had one to send, a beloved son. Finally he sent him to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’

⁷ “But those tenant farmers said among themselves, ‘This is the heir. Come, let’s kill him, and the inheritance will be ours!’ ⁸ So they seized him, killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.

⁹ “Therefore, what will the owner^f of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the farmers and give the vineyard to others. ¹⁰ Haven’t you read this Scripture:

The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.^g

11 This came from the Lord and is wonderful in our eyes?^h

¹² Because they knew He had said this parable against them, they were looking for a way to arrest Him, but they were afraid of the crowd. So they left Him and went away.

God and Caesar

¹³ Then they sent some of the •Pharisees and the •Herodians to Him to trap Him by what He said.ⁱ ¹⁴ When they came, they said to Him, “Teacher, we know You are truthful and defer to no one, for You don’t show partiality^j but teach truthfully the way of God. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not? ¹⁵ Should we pay, or should we not pay?”

But knowing their hypocrisy, He said to them, “Why are you testing Me? Bring Me a •denarius to look at.” ¹⁶ So they brought one. “Whose image and inscription is this?” He asked them.

“Caesar’s,” they said.

¹⁷ Then Jesus told them, “Give back to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” And they were amazed at Him.

The Sadducees and the Resurrection

¹⁸ Some •Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Him and questioned Him: ¹⁹ “Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother dies, leaves his wife behind, and leaves no child, his brother should take the wife and produce •offspring for his brother.^k ²⁰ There were seven brothers. The first took a wife, and dying, left no offspring. ²¹ The sec-

²⁴ Jesus told them, "Are you not deceived because you don't know the Scriptures or the power of God? ²⁵ For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage but are like angels in heaven. ²⁶ Now concerning the dead being raised—haven't you read in the book of Moses, in the passage about the burning bush, how God spoke to him: I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob?^d ²⁷ He is not God of the dead but of the living. You are badly deceived."

The Primary Commandments

²⁸ One of the •scribes approached. When he heard them debating and saw that Jesus answered them well, he asked Him, "Which commandment is the most important of all?"^e

²⁹ "This is the most important,"^f Jesus answered:

Listen, Israel! The Lord our God, the Lord is One.^g ³⁰ Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.^h ⁱ

³¹ "The second is: Love your neighbor as yourself.^j There is no other commandment greater than these."

³² Then the scribe said to Him, "You are right, Teacher! You have correctly said that He is One, and there is no one else except Him. ³³ And to love Him with all your heart, with all your understanding,^k and with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself, is far more [important] than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices."

³⁴ When Jesus saw that he answered intelligently, He said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And no one dared to question Him any longer.

The Question about the Messiah

³⁵ So Jesus asked this question as He taught in the •temple complex, "How can the scribes say that the •Messiah is the Son of David? ³⁶ David himself says by the Holy Spirit:

The Lord declared to my Lord,
'Sit at My right hand
until I put Your enemies
under Your feet.'^l

³⁷ David himself calls Him 'Lord'; how then can the Messiah be his Son?" And the large crowd was listening to Him with delight.

Warning against the Scribes

³⁸ He also said in His teaching, "Beware of the scribes, who want to go around in long robes, and who want greetings in the market-places, ³⁹ the front seats in the •synagogues, and the places of honor at banquets. ⁴⁰ They devour widows' houses and say long prayers just for show. These will receive harsher punishment."

The Widow's Gift

⁴¹ Sitting across from the temple treasury, He watched how the crowd dropped money into the treasury. Many rich people were putting in large sums. ⁴² And a poor widow came and dropped in two tiny coins worth very little.^m ⁴³ Summoning His disciples, He said to them, "•I assure you: This poor widow has put in more than all those giving to the temple treasury. ⁴⁴ For they all gave out of their surplus, but she out of her poverty has put in everything she possessed—all she had to live on."

Destruction of the Temple Predicted

13 As He was going out of the •temple complex, one of His disciples said to Him, "Teacher, look! What massive stones! What impressive buildings!"

² Jesus said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here on another that will not be thrown down!"

Signs of the End of the Age

³ While He was sitting on the •Mount of Olives across from the temple complex, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked Him privately, ⁴ "Tell us, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign when all these things are about to take place?"

^a12:22 Other mss add had taken her and ^b12:23 Other mss omit when they rise ^c12:23 Lit the seven had her as a wife ^d12:26 Ex 3:6, 15–16 ^e12:28 Lit Which commandment is first of all? ^f12:29 Other mss add of all the commandments ^g12:29 Or The Lord our God is one Lord ^h12:30 Dt 6:4–5; Jos 22:5 ⁱ12:30 Other mss add This is the first commandment ^j12:31 Lv 19:18 ^k12:33 Other mss add with all your soul ^l12:36 Ps 110:1 ^m12:42 Lit *dropped in two lepta, which is a quadrans; the lepton was the smallest and least valuable Gk coin in use. ⁵ Then Jesus began by telling them: “Watch out that no one deceives you. ⁶ Many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am He,’ and they will deceive many. ⁷ When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, don’t be alarmed; these things must take place, but the end is not yet. ⁸ For nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places, and famines.^a These are the beginning of birth pains.

Persecutions Predicted

⁹ “But you, be on your guard! They will hand you over to sanhedrins,^b and you will be flogged in the •synagogues. You will stand before governors and kings because of Me, as a witness to them. ¹⁰ And the good news^c must first be proclaimed to all nations. ¹¹ So when they arrest you and hand you over, don’t worry beforehand what you will say. On the contrary, whatever is given to you in that hour—say it. For it isn’t you speaking, but the Holy Spirit. ¹² Then brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child. Children will rise up against parents and put them to death. ¹³ And you will be hated by everyone because of My name. But the one who endures to the end will be delivered.^d

The Great Tribulation

¹⁴ “When you see the abomination that causes desolation^e standing where it should not” (let the reader understand),^f “then those in Judea must flee to the mountains! ¹⁵ A man on the housetop must not come down or go in to get anything out of his house. ¹⁶ And a man in the field must not go back to get his clothes. ¹⁷ Woe to pregnant women and nursing mothers in those days! ¹⁸ Pray it^g won’t happen in winter. ¹⁹ For those will be days of tribulation, the kind that hasn’t been from the beginning of the world,^h which God created, until now and never will be again! ²⁰ Unless the Lord limited those days, no one would survive.ⁱ But He limited those days because of the elect, whom He chose.

²¹ “Then if anyone tells you, ‘Look, here is the •Messiah! Look—there!’ do not believe it! ²² For false messiahs^j and false prophets will rise up and will perform signs and wonders to lead astray, if possible, the elect. ²³ And you must watch! I have told you everything in advance.

²⁴ “But in those days, after that tribulation:

The sun will be darkened,
and the moon will not shed its light;

²⁵ the stars will be falling from the sky,
and the celestial powers will be shaken.

²⁶ Then they will see the •Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory. ²⁷ He will send out the angels and gather His elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky.

The Parable of the Fig Tree

²⁸ “Learn this parable from the fig tree: As soon as its branch becomes tender and sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near. ²⁹ In the same way, when you see these things happening, know^k that He^l is near—at the door! ³⁰ •I assure you: This generation will certainly not pass away until all these things take place. ³¹ Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away.

No One Knows the Day or Hour

³² “Now concerning that day or hour no one knows—neither the angels in heaven nor the Son—except the Father. ³³ Watch! Be alert!^m For you don’t know when the time is [coming]. ³⁴ It is like a man on a journey, who left his house, gave authority to his •slaves, gave each one his work, and commanded the doorkeeper to be alert. ³⁵ Therefore be alert, since you don’t know when the master of the house is coming—whether in the evening or at midnight or at the crowing of the rooster or early in the morning. ³⁶ Otherwise, he might come suddenly and find you sleeping. ³⁷ And what I say to you, I say to everyone: Be alert!”

The Plot to Kill Jesus

14 After two days it was the •Passover and the Festival of •Unleavened Bread. The •chief priests and the •scribes were looking for a treacherous way to arrest and kill Him. ² “Not during the festival,” they said, “or there may be rioting among the people.”

reclining at the table, a woman came with an alabaster jar of pure and expensive fragrant oil of nard. She broke the jar and poured it on His head.⁴ But some were expressing indignation to one another: “Why has this fragrant oil been wasted? ⁵ For this oil might have been sold for more than 300 •denarii and given to the poor.” And they began to scold her.

⁶ Then Jesus said, “Leave her alone. Why are you bothering her? She has done a noble thing for Me. ⁷ You always have the poor with you, and you can do good for them whenever you want, but you do not always have Me. ⁸ She has done what she could; she has anointed My body in advance for burial. ⁹ •I assure you: Wherever the gospel is proclaimed in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told in memory of her.”

¹⁰ Then Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve, went to the chief priests to hand Him over to them. ¹¹ And when they heard this, they were glad and promised to give him silver.^a So he started looking for a good opportunity to betray Him.

Preparation for Passover

¹² On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrifice the Passover lamb, His disciples asked Him, “Where do You want us to go and prepare the Passover so You may eat it?”

¹³ So He sent two of His disciples and told them, “Go into the city, and a man carrying a water jug will meet you. Follow him. ¹⁴ Wherever he enters, tell the owner of the house, ‘The Teacher says, “Where is the guest room for Me to eat the Passover with My disciples?”’ ¹⁵ He will show you a large room upstairs, furnished and ready. Make the preparations for us there.”

¹⁶ So the disciples went out, entered the city, and found it just as He had told them, and they prepared the Passover.

Betrayal at the Passover

¹⁷ When evening came, He arrived with the Twelve. ¹⁸ While they were reclining and eating, Jesus said, “I assure you: One of you will betray Me—one who is eating with Me!”

¹⁹ They began to be distressed and to say to Him one by one, “Surely not I?”

²⁰ He said to them, “[It is] one of the Twelve—the one who is dipping [bread] with Me in the bowl. ²¹ For the •Son of Man will go just as it is written about Him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born.”

The First Lord's Supper

²² As they were eating, He took bread, blessed and broke it, gave it to them, and said, “Take [it];^b this is My body.”

²³ Then He took a cup, and after giving thanks, He gave it to them, and so they all drank from it. ²⁴ He said to them, “This is My blood [that establishes] the covenant;^c it is shed for many. ²⁵ I assure you: I will no longer drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it in a new way^d in the kingdom of God.”

²⁶ After singing psalms,^e they went out to the •Mount of Olives.

Peter's Denial Predicted

²⁷ Then Jesus said to them, “All of you will run away,^f ^g because it is written:

I will strike the shepherd,
and the sheep will be scattered.^h

²⁸ But after I have been resurrected, I will go ahead of you to Galilee.”

²⁹ Peter told Him, “Even if everyone runs away, I will certainly not!”

³⁰ “I assure you,” Jesus said to him, “today, this very night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times!”

³¹ But he kept insisting, “If I have to die with You, I will never deny You!” And they all said the same thing.

The Prayer in the Garden

³² Then they came to a place named Gethsemane, and He told His disciples, “Sit here while I pray.” ³³ He took Peter, James, and John with Him, and He began to be deeply distressed and horrified. ³⁴ Then He said to them, “My soul is swallowed up in sorrowⁱ—to the point of death. Remain here and stay awake.” ³⁵ Then He went a little farther, fell to the ground, and began to pray that if it were possible, the hour might pass from Him. ³⁶ And He said, “•Abba, Father! All things are possible for You. Take this cup away from Me. Nevertheless, not what I will, but what You will.”

³⁹ Once again He went away and prayed, saying the same thing. ⁴⁰ And He came again and found them sleeping, because they could not keep their eyes open.^a They did not know what to say to Him. ⁴¹ Then He came a third time and said to them, “Are you still sleeping and resting? Enough! The time has come. Look, the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners. ⁴² Get up; let’s go! See—My betrayer is near.”

The Judas Kiss

⁴³ While He was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, suddenly arrived. With him was a mob, with swords and clubs, from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders. ⁴⁴ His betrayer had given them a signal. “The One I kiss,” he said, “He’s the One; arrest Him and take Him away under guard.” ⁴⁵ So when he came, he went right up to Him and said, “•Rabbi!”—and kissed Him. ⁴⁶ Then they took hold of Him and arrested Him. ⁴⁷ And one of those who stood by drew his sword, struck the high priest’s •slave, and cut off his ear.

⁴⁸ But Jesus said to them, “Have you come out with swords and clubs, as though I were a criminal,^b to capture Me? ⁴⁹ Every day I was among you, teaching in the •temple complex, and you didn’t arrest Me. But the Scriptures must be fulfilled.” ⁵⁰ Then they all deserted Him and ran away.

⁵¹ Now a certain young man,^c having a linen cloth wrapped around his naked body, was following Him. They caught hold of him, ⁵² but he left the linen cloth behind and ran away naked.

Jesus Faces the Sanhedrin

⁵³ They led Jesus away to the high priest, and all the chief priests, the elders, and the scribes convened. ⁵⁴ Peter followed Him at a distance, right into the high priest’s courtyard. He was sitting with the temple police,^d warming himself by the fire.^e

⁵⁵ The chief priests and the whole •Sanhedrin were looking for testimony against Jesus to put

Him to death, but they could find none. ⁵⁶ For many were giving false testimony against Him, but the testimonies did not agree. ⁵⁷ Some stood up and were giving false testimony against Him, stating, ⁵⁸ “We heard Him say, ‘I will demolish this sanctuary made by [human] hands, and in three days I will build another not made by hands.’” ⁵⁹ Yet their testimony did not agree even on this.

⁶⁰ Then the high priest stood up before them all and questioned Jesus, “Don’t You have an answer to what these men are testifying against You?” ⁶¹ But He kept silent and did not answer anything. Again the high priest questioned Him, “Are You the •Messiah, the Son of the Blessed One?”

⁶² “I am,” said Jesus, “and all of you^f will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of the Power and coming with the clouds of heaven.”^g

⁶³ Then the high priest tore his robes and said, “Why do we still need witnesses? ⁶⁴ You have heard the blasphemy! What is your decision?”^h

And they all condemned Him to be deserving of death. ⁶⁵ Then some began to spit on Him, to blindfold Him, and to beat Him, saying, “Prophecy!” Even the temple police took Him and slapped Him.

Peter Denies His Lord

⁶⁶ While Peter was in the courtyard below, one of the high priest’s servants came. ⁶⁷ When she saw Peter warming himself, she looked at him and said, “You also were with that •Nazarene, Jesus.”

⁶⁸ But he denied it: “I don’t know or understand what you’re talking about!” Then he went out to the entryway, and a rooster crowed.ⁱ

⁶⁹ When the servant saw him again she began to tell those standing nearby, “This man is one of them!”

Jesus Faces Pilate

15 As soon as it was morning, the •chief priests had a meeting with the elders, •scribes, and the whole •Sanhedrin. After tying Jesus up, they led Him away and handed Him over to •Pilate.

² So Pilate asked Him, “Are You the King of the Jews?”

He answered him, “You have said it.”^b

³ And the chief priests began to accuse Him of many things. ⁴ Then Pilate questioned Him again, “Are You not answering anything? Look how many things they are accusing You of!”

⁵ But Jesus still did not answer anything, so Pilate was amazed.

Jesus or Barabbas

⁶ At the festival it was Pilate’s custom to release for the people a prisoner they requested.

⁷ There was one named Barabbas, who was in prison with rebels who had committed murder during the rebellion. ⁸ The crowd came up and began to ask [Pilate] to do for them as was his custom. ⁹ So Pilate answered them, “Do you want me to release the King of the Jews for you?” ¹⁰ For he knew it was because of envy that the chief priests had handed Him over. ¹¹ But the chief priests stirred up the crowd so that he would release Barabbas to them instead.

¹² Pilate asked them again, “Then what do you want me to do with the One you call the King of the Jews?”

¹³ Again they shouted, “Crucify Him!”

¹⁴ Then Pilate said to them, “Why? What has He done wrong?”

But they shouted, “Crucify Him!” all the more.

¹⁵ Then, willing to gratify the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas to them. And after having Jesus flogged,^c he handed Him over to be crucified.

Mocked by the Military

¹⁶ Then the soldiers led Him away into the courtyard (that is, •headquarters) and called the whole •company together. ¹⁷ They dressed Him in a purple robe, twisted together a crown of thorns, and put it on Him. ¹⁸ And they began to salute Him, “Hail, King of the Jews!” ¹⁹ They kept hitting Him on the head with a reed and spitting on Him. Getting down on their knees, they were paying Him homage. ²⁰ When they had mocked Him, they stripped Him of the purple robe, put His clothes on Him, and led Him out to crucify Him.

Crucified between Two Criminals

²¹ They forced a man coming in from the country, who was passing by, to carry Jesus’ cross. He was Simon, a Cyrenian, the father of Alexander and Rufus. ²² And they brought Jesus to the place called Golgotha (which means Skull Place). ²³ They tried to give Him wine mixed with myrrh, but He did not take it. ²⁴ Then they crucified Him and divided His clothes, casting lots for them to decide what each would get. ²⁵ Now it was nine in the morning^d when they crucified Him. ²⁶ The inscription of the charge written against Him was

THE KING OF THE JEWS

²⁷ They crucified two criminals^e with Him, one on His right and one on His left. ²⁸ So the Scripture was fulfilled that says: And He was counted among outlaws.^{f,g} ²⁹ Those who passed by were yelling insults at^h Him, shaking their heads, and saying, “Ha! The One who would demolish the sanctuary and build it in three days, ³⁰ save Yourself by coming down from the cross!” ³¹ In the same way, the chief priests with the scribes were mocking Him to one another and saying, “He saved others; He cannot save Himself! ³² Let the •Messiah, the King of Israel, come down now from the cross, so that we may see and believe.” Even those who were crucified with Him were taunting Him.

The Death of Jesus

³³ When it was noon,ⁱ darkness came over the whole land^j until three in the afternoon.^k ³⁴ And at three^k Jesus cried out with a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, lemá! sabachtháni?” which is translated, “My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?”^m

³⁶ Someone ran and filled a sponge with sour wine, fixed it on a reed, offered Him a drink, and said, “Let’s see if Elijah comes to take Him down!”

³⁷ But Jesus let out a loud cry and breathed His last. ³⁸ Then the curtain of the sanctuary^a was split in two from top to bottom. ³⁹ When the •centurion, who was standing opposite Him, saw the way He^b breathed His last, he said, “This man really was God’s Son!”^c

⁴⁰ There were also women looking on from a distance. Among them were •Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the younger and of Joses, and Salome. ⁴¹ When He was in Galilee, they would follow Him and help Him. Many other women had come up with Him to Jerusalem.

The Burial of Jesus

⁴² When it was already evening, because it was preparation day (that is, the day before the Sabbath), ⁴³ Joseph of Arimathea, a prominent member of the Sanhedrin who was himself looking forward to the kingdom of God, came and boldly went in to Pilate and asked for Jesus’ body. ⁴⁴ Pilate was surprised that He was already dead. Summoning the centurion, he asked him whether He had already died. ⁴⁵ When he found out from the centurion, he gave the corpse to Joseph. ⁴⁶ After he bought some fine linen, he took Him down and wrapped Him in the linen. Then he placed Him in a tomb cut out of the rock, and rolled a stone against the entrance to the tomb. ⁴⁷ Now Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses were watching where He was placed.

Resurrection Morning

16 When the Sabbath was over, •Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so they could go and anoint Him. ² Very early in the morning, on the first day of the week, they went to the tomb at sunrise. ³ They were saying to one another, “Who will roll away the stone from the entrance to the tomb for us?” ⁴ Looking up, they observed that the stone—which was very large—had been rolled away. ⁵ When they entered the tomb, they saw a young man^d dressed in a long white robe sitting on the right side; they were amazed and alarmed.^e

⁶ “Don’t be alarmed,” he told them. “You are looking for Jesus the •Nazarene, who was crucified. He has been resurrected! He is not here! See the place where they put Him. ⁷ But go, tell His disciples and Peter, ‘He is going ahead of you to Galilee; you will see Him there just as He told you.’”

⁸ So they went out and started running from the tomb, because trembling and astonishment overwhelmed them. And they said nothing to anyone, since they were afraid.

Appearances of the Risen Lord

⁹ Early on the first day of the week, after He had risen, He appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom He had driven seven demons. ¹⁰ She went and reported to those who had been with Him, as they were mourning and weeping. ¹¹ Yet, when they heard that He was alive and had been seen by her, they did not believe it. ¹² Then after this, He appeared in a different form to two of them walking on their way into the country. ¹³ And they went and reported it to the rest, who did not believe them either.

The Great Commission

¹⁴ Later, He appeared to the Eleven themselves as they were reclining at the table. He rebuked their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who saw Him after He had been resurrected. ¹⁵ Then He said to them, “Go into all the world and preach the gospel to the whole creation. ¹⁶ Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. ¹⁷ And these signs will accompany those who believe: In My name they will drive out demons; they will speak in new languages; ¹⁸ they will pick up snakes;^f if they should drink anything deadly, it will never harm them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will get well.”

The Ascension

¹⁹ Then after speaking to them, the Lord Jesus was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. ²⁰ And they went out and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the word by the accompanying signs.^g

The Dedication to Theophilus

1 Many have undertaken to compile a narrative about the events that have been fulfilled^a among us, ²just as the original eyewitnesses and servants of the word handed them down to us. ³It also seemed good to me, since I have carefully investigated everything from the very first, to write to you in orderly sequence, most honorable Theophilus, ⁴so that you may know the certainty of the things about which you have been instructed.^b

Gabriel Predicts John's Birth

⁵In the days of King •Herod of Judea, there was a priest of Abijah's division^c named Zechariah. His wife was from the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. ⁶Both were righteous in God's sight, living without blame according to all the commandments and requirements of the Lord. ⁷But they had no children^d because Elizabeth could not conceive,^e and both of them were well along in years.^f

⁸When his division was on duty and he was serving as priest before God, ⁹it happened that he was chosen by lot, according to the custom of the priesthood, to enter the sanctuary of the Lord and burn incense. ¹⁰At the hour of incense the whole assembly of the people was praying outside. ¹¹An angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing to the right of the altar of incense. ¹²When Zechariah saw him, he was startled and overcome with fear.^g ¹³But the angel said to him:

Do not be afraid, Zechariah,
because your prayer has been heard.
Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son,
and you will name him John.

- ¹⁴ There will be joy and delight for you,
and many will rejoice at his birth.
¹⁵ For he will be great in the sight of the Lord and will never drink wine or beer.
He will be filled with the Holy Spirit
while still in his mother's womb.
¹⁶ He will turn many of the sons of Israel
to the Lord their God.
¹⁷ And he will go before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah,

to turn the hearts of fathers
to their children,
and the disobedient
to the understanding of the righteous, to make ready for the Lord
a prepared people.

¹⁸ "How can I know this?" Zechariah asked the angel. "For I am an old man, and my wife is well along in years."^h

¹⁹ The angel answered him, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God, and I was sent to speak to you and tell you this good news. ²⁰Now listen! You will become silent and unable to speak until the day these things take place, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their proper time."

²¹ Meanwhile, the people were waiting for Zechariah, amazed that he stayed so long in the sanctuary. ²²When he did come out, he could not speak to them. Then they realized that he had seen a vision in the sanctuary. He kept making signs to them and remained speechless. ²³When the days of his ministry were completed, he went back home.

²⁴After these days his wife Elizabeth conceived and kept herself in seclusion for five months. She said, ²⁵"The Lord has done this for me. He has looked with favor in these days to take away my disgrace among the people."

Gabriel Predicts Jesus' Birth

²⁶In the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, ²⁷to a virgin •engaged to a man named Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. ²⁸And [the angel] came to her and said, "Rejoice, favored woman! The Lord is with you."ⁱ ²⁹But she was deeply troubled by this statement, wondering what kind of greeting this could be. ³⁰Then the angel told her:

Do not be afraid, Mary,
for you have found favor with God.

- ³¹ Now listen:
You will conceive and give birth to a son,
and you will call His name JESUS.

and will be called the Son of the Most High,
and the Lord God will give Him
the throne of His father David.

and His kingdom will have no end.

34 Mary asked the angel, “How can this be,
since I have not been intimate with a man?”^a 35 The angel replied to her:

The Holy Spirit will come upon you,
and the power of the Most High will overshadow you.
Therefore the holy One to be born
will be called the Son of God.

36 And consider your relative Elizabeth—even she has conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month for her who was called barren.

37 For nothing will be impossible with God.”

38 “I am the Lord’s •slave,”^b said Mary. “May it be done to me according to your word.” Then the angel left her.

Mary’s Visit to Elizabeth

39 In those days Mary set out and hurried to a town in the hill country of Judah⁴⁰ where she entered Zechariah’s house and greeted Elizabeth.⁴¹ When Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, the baby leaped inside her,^c and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.⁴² Then she exclaimed with a loud cry:

You are the most blessed of women,
and your child will be blessed!^d

43 How could this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? 44 For you see, when the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the baby leaped for joy inside me!^e 45 She who has believed is blessed because what was spoken to her by the Lord will be fulfilled!”

Mary’s Praise

46 And Mary said:

My soul proclaims the greatness of
the Lord,
47 and my spirit has rejoiced in God
my Savior,
48 because He has looked with favor
on the humble condition of His •slave.

Surely, from now on all generations
will call me blessed, 49 because the Mighty One has done great things for me,
and His name is holy.
50 His mercy is from generation
to generation
on those who fear Him.
51 He has done a mighty deed with His arm;
He has scattered the proud because of the thoughts of their hearts;
52 He has toppled the mighty from their thrones
and exalted the lowly.
53 He has satisfied the hungry
with good things
and sent the rich away empty.
54 He has helped His servant Israel, mindful of His mercy,^g 55 just as He spoke to our ancestors,
to Abraham and his descendants^h forever.

56 And Mary stayed with her about three months; then she returned to her home.

The Birth and Naming of John

57 Now the time had come for Elizabeth to give birth, and she had a son.⁵⁸ Then her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had shown her His great mercy,ⁱ and they rejoiced with her.

59 When they came to circumcise the child on the eighth day, they were going to name him Zechariah, after his father.⁶⁰ But his mother responded, “No! He will be called John.”

61 Then they said to her, “None of your relatives has that name.”⁶² So they motioned to his father to find out what he wanted him to be called.⁶³ He asked for a writing tablet and wrote:

HIS NAME IS JOHN

And they were all amazed.⁶⁴ Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue [set free],
and he began to speak, praising God.⁶⁵ Fear came on all those who lived around them, and all these things were being talked about throughout the hill country of Judea.⁶⁶ All who

Zechariah’s Prophecy

⁶⁷ Then his father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied:

- ⁶⁸ Praise the Lord, the God of Israel, because He has visited
and provided redemption for His people.
⁶⁹ He has raised up a ^ahorn of salvation^a for us in the house of His servant David, ⁷⁰ just as He spoke by the mouth of His holy prophets in ancient times;
⁷¹ salvation from our enemies
and from the clutches^b of those who hate us.
⁷² He has dealt mercifully with our fathers and remembered His holy covenant—
⁷³ the oath that He swore to our father Abraham.
He has given us the privilege,
⁷⁴ since we have been rescued from our enemies’ clutches,^c
to serve Him without fear ⁷⁵ in holiness and righteousness
in His presence all our days.
⁷⁶ And child, you will be called a prophet of the Most High,
for you will go before the Lord
to prepare His ways,
⁷⁷ to give His people knowledge of salvation
through the forgiveness of their sins.
⁷⁸ Because of our God’s merciful compassion,
the Dawn from on high will visit us ⁷⁹ to shine on those who live in darkness
and the shadow of death,
to guide our feet into the way of peace.

⁸⁰ The child grew up and became spiritually strong, and he was in the wilderness until the day of his public appearance to Israel.

The Birth of Jesus

2 In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus^d that the whole empire^e should be registered. ² This first registration took place while^f Quirinius was governing Syria. ³ So everyone went to be registered, each to his own town.

⁴ And Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee, to Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family line of David, ⁵ to be registered along with Mary, who was [•]engaged to him^g and was pregnant. ⁶ While they were there, the time came for her to give birth. ⁷ Then she gave birth to her firstborn Son, and she wrapped Him snugly in cloth and laid Him in a feeding trough—because there was no room for them at the inn.

The Shepherds and the Angels

⁸ In the same region, shepherds were staying out in the fields and keeping watch at night over their flock. ⁹ Then an angel of the Lord stood before^h them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified.ⁱ ¹⁰ But the angel said to them, “Don’t be afraid, for look, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people: ¹¹ today a Savior, who is [•]Messiah the Lord, was born for you in the city of David. ¹² This will be the sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped snugly in cloth and lying in a manger.”

¹³ Suddenly there was a multitude of the heavenly host with the angel, praising God and saying:

- ¹⁴ Glory to God in the highest heaven,
and peace on earth to people
He favors!^j ^k

¹⁶ They hurried off and found both Mary and Joseph, and the baby who was lying in the feeding trough. ¹⁷ After seeing [them], they reported the message they were told about this child, ¹⁸ and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them. ¹⁹ But Mary was treasuring up all these things^l in her heart and meditating on them. ²⁰ The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had seen and heard, just as they had been told.

Simeon's Prophetic Praise

²⁵ There was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. This man was righteous and devout, looking forward to Israel's consolation,^f and the Holy Spirit was on him. ²⁶ It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he saw the Lord's Messiah. ²⁷ Guided by the Spirit, he entered^g the •temple complex. When the parents brought in the child Jesus to perform for Him what was customary under the law, ²⁸ Simeon took Him up in his arms, praised God, and said:

- ²⁹ Now, Master,
You can dismiss Your •slave in peace,
according to Your word.
³⁰ For my eyes have seen Your salvation.
³¹ You have prepared [it]
in the presence of all peoples—
³² a light for revelation to the Gentiles^h

³³ His father and motherⁱ were amazed at what was being said about Him. ³⁴ Then Simeon blessed them and told His mother Mary: "Indeed, this child is destined to cause the fall and rise of many in Israel and to be a sign that will be opposed^j — ³⁵ and a sword will pierce your own soul—that the thoughts^k of many hearts may be revealed."

Anna's Testimony

³⁶ There was also a prophetess, Anna, a daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was well along in years,^l having lived with her husband seven years after her marriage,^m ³⁷ and was a widow for 84 years.ⁿ She did not leave the temple complex, serving God night and day with fastings and prayers. ³⁸ At that very moment,^o

she came up and began to thank God and to speak about Him to all who were looking forward to the redemption of Jerusalem.^p

The Family's Return to Nazareth

³⁹ When they had completed everything according to the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. ⁴⁰ The boy grew up and became strong, filled with wisdom, and God's grace was on Him.

In His Father's House

⁴¹ Every year His parents traveled to Jerusalem for the •Passover Festival. ⁴² When He was 12 years old, they went up according to the custom of the festival. ⁴³ After those days were over, as they were returning, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but His parents^q did not know it. ⁴⁴ Assuming He was in the traveling party, they went a day's journey. Then they began looking for Him among their relatives and friends. ⁴⁵ When they did not find Him, they returned to Jerusalem to search for Him. ⁴⁶ After three days, they found Him in the temple complex sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. ⁴⁷ And all those who heard Him were astounded at His understanding and His answers. ⁴⁸ When His parents saw Him, they were astonished, and His mother said to Him, "Son, why have You treated us like this? Your father and I have been anxiously searching for You."

⁴⁹ "Why were you searching for Me?" He asked them. "Didn't you know that I had to be in my Father's house?"^r ⁵⁰ But they did not understand what He said to them.

In Favor with God and with People

⁵¹ Then He went down with them and came to Nazareth and was obedient to them. His mother kept all these things in her heart. ⁵² And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and with people.

of Abilene,^a ² during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, God's word came to John the son of Zechariah in the wilderness. ³ He went into all the vicinity of the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance^b for the forgiveness of sins, ⁴ as it is written in the book of the words of the prophet Isaiah:

A voice of one crying out
in the wilderness:
"Prepare the way for the Lord;
make His paths straight!
⁵ Every valley will be filled, and every mountain and hill will be made low;^c
the crooked will become straight,
the rough ways smooth,
⁶ and everyone^d will see the salvation
of God."^e

⁷ He then said to the crowds who came out to be baptized by him, "Brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath?

⁸ Therefore produce fruit consistent with repentance. And don't start saying to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father,' for I tell you that God is able to raise up children for Abraham from these stones! ⁹ Even now the ax is ready to strike^f the root of the trees! Therefore every tree that doesn't produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire."

¹¹ He replied to them, "The one who has two shirts^g must share with someone who has none, and the one who has food must do the same."

¹² Tax collectors also came to be baptized, and they asked him, "Teacher, what should we do?"

¹³ He told them, "Don't collect any more than what you have been authorized."

¹⁴ Some soldiers also questioned him: "What should we do?"

He said to them, "Don't take money from anyone by force or false accusation; be satisfied with your wages."

¹⁵ Now the people were waiting expectantly, and all of them were debating in their minds^h whether John might be the •Messiah.

¹⁶ John answered them all, "I baptize you withⁱ water, but One is coming who is more powerful than I. I am not worthy to untie the strap of His sandals. He will baptize you withⁱ the Holy Spirit and fire. ¹⁷ His winnowing shovel^j is in His hand to clear His threshing floor and gather the wheat into His barn, but the chaff He will burn up with a fire that never goes out."

¹⁸ Then, along with many other exhortations, he proclaimed good news to the people. ¹⁹ But Herod the tetrarch, being rebuked by him about Herodias, his brother's wife, and about all the evil things Herod had done, ²⁰ added this to everything else—he locked John up in prison.

The Baptism of Jesus

²¹ When all the people were baptized, Jesus also was baptized. As He was praying, heaven opened, ²² and the Holy Spirit descended on Him in a physical appearance like a dove. And a voice came from heaven:

You are My beloved Son.
I take delight in You!

The Temptation of Jesus

4 Then Jesus returned from the Jordan, full of the Holy Spirit, and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness ²for 40 days to be tempted by the Devil. He ate nothing during those days, and when they were over,^b He was hungry. ³The Devil said to Him, “If You are the Son of God, tell this stone to become bread.”

⁴ But Jesus answered him, “It is written: Man must not live on bread alone.”^{c d}

⁵ So he took Him up^e and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

⁶ The Devil said to Him, “I will give You their splendor and all this authority, because it has been given over to me, and I can give it to anyone I want. ⁷If You, then, will worship me,^f all will be Yours.”

⁸ And Jesus answered him,^g “It is written:

Worship the Lord your God,
 and serve Him only.”^h

⁹ So he took Him to Jerusalem, had Him stand on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him, “If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down from here. ¹⁰For it is written:

He will give His angels orders
 concerning you,
 to protect you,^{i 11} and they will support you
 with their hands,
 so that you will not strike
 your foot against a stone.”^j

¹² And Jesus answered him, “It is said: Do not test the Lord your God.”^k

¹³ After the Devil had finished every temptation, he departed from Him for a time.

Ministry in Galilee

¹⁴ Then Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news about Him spread throughout the entire vicinity. ¹⁵ He was teaching in their •synagogues, being acclaimed^l by everyone.

Rejection at Nazareth

¹⁶ He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up. As usual, He entered the synagogue on the Sabbath day and stood up to read. ¹⁷ The scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to Him, and unrolling the scroll, He found the place where it was written:

- 18 The Spirit of the Lord is on Me,
 because He has anointed Me
 to preach good news to the poor.
 He has sent Me^m
 to proclaim freedomⁿ to the captives
 and recovery of sight to the blind,
 to set free the oppressed, 19 to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor.”^{o p}

²⁰ He then rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. And the eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fixed on Him.

²¹ He began by saying to them, “Today as you listen, this Scripture has been fulfilled.”

²² They were all speaking well of Him^q and were amazed by the gracious words that came from His mouth, yet they said, “Isn't this Joseph's son?”

²³ Then He said to them, “No doubt you will quote this proverb^r to Me: ‘Doctor, heal yourself.’ ‘All we've heard that took place in Capernaum, do here in Your hometown also.’”

²⁴ He also said, “•I assure you: No prophet is accepted in his hometown. ²⁵But I say to you, there were certainly many widows in Israel in Elijah's days, when the sky was shut up for three years and six months while a great famine came over all the land. ²⁶Yet Elijah was not sent to any of them—but to a widow at Zarephath in Sidon. ²⁷And in the prophet Elisha's time, there were many in Israel who had serious skin diseases, yet not one of them was healed^s—only Naaman the Syrian.”

²⁸ When they heard this, everyone in the synagogue was enraged. ²⁹ They got up, drove Him out of town, and brought Him to the edge^a of the hill their town was built on, intending to hurl Him over the cliff. ³⁰ But He passed right through the crowd and went on His way.

Driving Out an Unclean Spirit

³¹ Then He went down to Capernaum, a town in Galilee, and was teaching them on the Sabbath. ³² They were astonished at His teaching because His message had authority. ³³ In the synagogue there was a man with an unclean demonic spirit who cried out with a loud voice, ³⁴ “Leave us alone!^b What do You have to do with us,^c Jesus—•Nazarene? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God!”

³⁵ But Jesus rebuked him and said, “Be quiet and come out of him!”

And throwing him down before them, the demon came out of him without hurting him at all. ³⁶ They were all struck with amazement and kept saying to one another, “What is this message? For He commands the unclean spirits with authority and power, and they come out!” ³⁷ And news about Him began to go out to every place in the vicinity.

Healings at Capernaum

³⁸ After He left the synagogue, He entered Simon’s house. Simon’s mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever, and they asked Him about her. ³⁹ So He stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. She got up immediately and began to serve them.

⁴⁰ When the sun was setting, all those who had anyone sick with various diseases brought them to Him. As He laid His hands on each one of them, He would heal them. ⁴¹ Also, demons were coming out of many, shouting and saying, “You are the Son of God!” But He rebuked them and would not allow them to speak, because they knew He was the •Messiah.

Preaching in Galilee

⁴² When it was day, He went out and made His way to a deserted place. But the crowds were searching for Him. They came to Him and tried to keep Him from leaving them. ⁴³ But He said to them, “I must proclaim the good news about the kingdom of God to the other towns also, because I was sent for this purpose.” ⁴⁴ And He was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.^d

The First Disciples

5 As the crowd was pressing in on Jesus to hear God’s word, He was standing by Lake Gennesaret.^e ² He saw two boats at the edge of the lake;^f the fishermen had left them and were washing their nets. ³ He got into one of the boats, which belonged to Simon, and asked him to put out a little from the land. Then He sat down and was teaching the crowds from the boat.

⁴ When He had finished speaking, He said to Simon, “Put out into deep water and let down^g your nets for a catch.”

⁵ “Master,” Simon replied, “we’ve worked hard all night long and caught nothing! But at Your word, I’ll let down the nets.”^h

⁶ When they did this, they caught a great number of fish, and their nets^h began to tear. ⁷ So they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them; they came and filled both boats so full that they began to sink.

⁸ When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at Jesus’ knees and said, “Go away from me, because I’m a sinful man, Lord!” ⁹ For he and all those with him were amazedⁱ at the catch of fish they took, ¹⁰ and so were James and John, Zebedee’s sons, who were Simon’s partners.

“Don’t be afraid,” Jesus told Simon. “From now on you will be catching people!” ¹¹ Then they brought the boats to land, left everything, and followed Him.

Cleansing a Leper

¹² While He was in one of the towns, a man was there who had a serious skin disease all over him. He saw Jesus, fell facedown, and begged Him: “Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean.”^j

¹³ Reaching out His hand, He touched him, saying, “I am willing; be made clean,” and immediately the disease left him. ¹⁴ Then He ordered him to tell no one: “But go and show yourself to the priest, and offer what Moses prescribed for your cleansing as a testimony to them.”

¹⁵ But the news^k about Him spread even more, and large crowds would come together to hear

The Son of Man Forgives and Heals

¹⁷ On one of those days while He was teaching, •Pharisees and teachers of the law were sitting there who had come from every village of Galilee and Judea, and also from Jerusalem. And the Lord's power to heal was in Him. ¹⁸ Just then some men came, carrying on a stretcher a man who was paralyzed. They tried to bring him in and set him down before Him. ¹⁹ Since they could not find a way to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and lowered him on the stretcher through the roof tiles into the middle of the crowd before Jesus.

²⁰ Seeing their faith He said, "Friend,^a your sins are forgiven you."

²¹ Then the •scribes and the Pharisees began to reason: "Who is this man who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

²² But perceiving their thoughts, Jesus replied to them, "Why are you reasoning this in your hearts?^b ²³ Which is easier: to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Get up and walk'? ²⁴ But so you may know that the •Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins"—He told the paralyzed man, "I tell you: get up, pick up your stretcher, and go home."

²⁵ Immediately he got up before them, picked up what he had been lying on, and went home glorifying God. ²⁶ Then everyone was astounded, and they were giving glory to God. And they were filled with awe and said, "We have seen incredible things today!"

The Call of Levi

²⁷ After this, Jesus went out and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax office, and He said to him, "Follow Me!" ²⁸ So, leaving everything behind, he got up and began to follow Him.

Dining with Sinners

²⁹ Then Levi hosted a grand banquet for Him at his house. Now there was a large crowd of tax collectors and others who were guests^c with them. ³⁰ But the Pharisees and their scribes were complaining to His disciples, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"

³¹ Jesus replied to them, "The healthy don't need a doctor, but the sick do. ³² I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

A Question about Fasting

³³ Then they said to Him, "John's disciples fast often and say prayers, and those of the Pharisees do the same, but Yours eat and drink."^d

³⁴ Jesus said to them, "You can't make the wedding guests^e fast while the groom is with them, can you? ³⁵ But the days will come when the groom will be taken away from them—then they will fast in those days."

³⁶ He also told them a parable: "No one tears a patch from a new garment and puts it on an old garment. Otherwise, not only will he tear the new, but also the piece from the new garment will not match the old. ³⁷ And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the new wine will burst the skins, it will spill, and the skins will be ruined. ³⁸ But new wine should be put into fresh wineskins.^f ³⁹ And no one, after drinking old wine, wants new, because he says, 'The old is better.'"^g

6 On a Sabbath,^h He passed through the grainfields. His disciples were picking heads of grain, rubbing them in their hands, and eating them. ² But some of the •Pharisees said, "Why are you doing what is not lawful on the Sabbath?"

³ Jesus answered them, "Haven't you read what David and those who were with him did when he was hungry— ⁴ how he entered the house of God, and took and ate the •sacred bread, which is not lawful for any but the priests to eat? He even gave some to those who were with him." ⁵ Then He told them, "The •Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."

The Man with the Paralyzed Hand

⁶ On another Sabbath He entered the •synagogue and was teaching. A man was there whose right hand was paralyzed. ⁷ The •scribes and Pharisees were watching Him closely, to see if He would heal on the Sabbath, so that they could find a charge against Him. ⁸ But He knew their thoughts and told the man with the paralyzed hand, "Get up and stand here."ⁱ So he got

The 12 Apostles

¹² During those days He went out to the mountain to pray and spent all night in prayer to God. ¹³ When daylight came, He summoned His disciples, and He chose 12 of them—He also named them apostles:

- ¹⁴ Simon, whom He also named Peter, and Andrew his brother; James and John; Philip and Bartholomew;
- ¹⁵ Matthew and Thomas; James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called the Zealot;
- ¹⁶ Judas the son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

Teaching and Healing

¹⁷ After coming down with them, He stood on a level place with a large crowd of His disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem and from the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon. ¹⁸ They came to hear Him and to be healed of their diseases; and those tormented by unclean spirits were made well. ¹⁹ The whole crowd was trying to touch Him, because power was coming out from Him and healing them all.

The Beatitudes

²⁰ Then looking up at^b His disciples, He said:

- Blessed are you who are poor, because the kingdom of God is yours.
- ²¹ Blessed are you who are hungry now, because you will be filled. Blessed are you who weep now, because you will laugh.
- ²² Blessed are you when people hate you, when they exclude you, insult you, and slander your name as evil, because of the Son of Man.

²³ “Rejoice in that day and leap for joy! Take note—your reward is great in heaven, because this is the way their ancestors used to treat the prophets.

Woe to the Self-Satisfied

- ²⁴ But woe to you who are rich, because you have received your comfort.
- ²⁵ Woe to you who are full now, because you will be hungry. Woe to you^c who are laughing now, because you will mourn and weep.
- ²⁶ Woe to you^c when all people speak well of you, because this is the way their ancestors used to treat the false prophets.

Love Your Enemies

²⁷ “But I say to you who listen: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, ²⁸ bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. ²⁹ If anyone hits you on the cheek, offer the other also. And if anyone takes away your coat, don’t hold back your shirt either. ³⁰ Give to everyone who asks from you, and from one who takes away your things, don’t ask for them back. ³¹ Just as you want others to do for you, do the same for them. ³² If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them. ³³ If you do [what is] good to those who are good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do that. ³⁴ And if you lend to those from whom you expect to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners to be repaid in full. ³⁵ But love your enemies, do [what is] good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. Then your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High. For He is gracious to the ungrateful and evil. ³⁶ Be merciful, just as your Father also is merciful.

Do Not Judge

³⁷ “Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven. ³⁸ Give, and it will be given to you; a good measure—pressed down, shaken together, and running over—will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use,^d it will be measured back to you.”

³⁹ He also told them a parable: “Can the blind guide the blind? Won’t they both fall into a pit? ⁴⁰ A disciple is not above his teacher, but every one who is fully trained will be like his teacher.

Hypocrite! First take the log out of your eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck in your brother’s eye.

A Tree and Its Fruit

43 “A good tree doesn’t produce bad fruit; on the other hand, a bad tree doesn’t produce good fruit. 44 For each tree is known by its own fruit. Figs aren’t gathered from thornbushes, or grapes picked from a bramble bush. 45 A good man produces good out of the good storeroom of his heart. An evil man produces evil out of the evil storeroom, for his mouth speaks from the overflow of the heart.

The Two Foundations

46 “Why do you call Me ‘Lord, Lord,’ and don’t do the things I say? 47 I will show you what someone is like who comes to Me, hears My words, and acts on them: 48 He is like a man building a house, who dug deep^a and laid the foundation on the rock. When the flood came, the river crashed against that house and couldn’t shake it, because it was well built. 49 But the one who hears and does not act is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. The river crashed against it, and immediately it collapsed. And the destruction of that house was great!”

A Centurion’s Faith

7 When He had concluded all His sayings in the hearing of the people, He entered Capernaum. 2 A •centurion’s •slave, who was highly valued by him, was sick and about to die. 3 When the centurion heard about Jesus, he sent some Jewish elders to Him, requesting Him to come and save the life of his slave. 4 When they reached Jesus, they pleaded with Him earnestly, saying, “He is worthy for You to grant this, 5 because he loves our nation and has built us a •synagogue.” 6 Jesus went with them, and when He was not far from^b the house, the centurion sent friends to tell Him, “Lord, don’t trouble Yourself, since I am not worthy to have You come under my roof. 7 That is why I didn’t even consider myself worthy to come to You. But say the word, and my servant will be cured.^c 8 For I too am a man placed under authority, having soldiers under my command.^d I say to this one, ‘Go!’ and he goes; and to another, ‘Come!’ and he comes; and to my slave, ‘Do this!’ and he does it.”

9 Jesus heard this and was amazed at him, and turning to the crowd following Him, He said, “I tell you, I have not found so great a faith even in Israel!” 10 When those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the •slave in good health.

A Widow’s Son Raised to Life

11 Soon afterwards He was on His way to a town called Nain. His disciples and a large crowd were traveling with Him. 12 Just as He neared the gate of the town, a dead man was being carried out. He was his mother’s only son, and she was a widow. A large crowd from the city was also with her. 13 When the Lord saw her, He had compassion on her and said, “Don’t cry.” 14 Then He came up and touched the open coffin,^e and the pallbearers stopped. And He said, “Young man, I tell you, get up!”

15 The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother. 16 Then fear^f came over everyone, and they glorified God, saying, “A great prophet has risen among us,” and “God has visited^g His people.” 17 This report about Him went throughout Judea and all the vicinity.

In Praise of John the Baptist

18 Then John’s disciples told him about all these things. So John summoned two of his disciples 19 and sent them to the Lord, asking, “Are You the One who is to come, or should we look for someone else?”

20 When the men reached Him, they said, “John the Baptist sent us to ask You, ‘Are You the One who is to come, or should we look for someone else?’”

21 At that time Jesus healed many people of diseases, plagues, and evil spirits, and He granted sight to many blind people. 22 He replied to them, “Go and report to John the things you have seen and heard: The blind receive their sight, the lame walk, those with skin diseases are healed,^h the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have the good news preached to them. 23 And anyone who is not offended because of Me is blessed.” 24 After John’s messengers left, He began to speak to the crowds about John:

Look, those who are splendidly dressed^a and live in luxury are in royal palaces. ²⁶ What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and far more than a prophet. ²⁷ This is the one it is written about:

Look, I am sending My messenger ahead of You;^b

²⁸ I tell you, among those born of women no one is greater than John,^d but the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he."

²⁹ (And when all the people, including the tax collectors, heard this, they acknowledged God's way of righteousness,^e because they had been baptized with John's baptism. ³⁰ But since the •Pharisees and experts in the law had not been baptized by him, they rejected the plan of God for themselves.)

An Unresponsive Generation

³¹ "To what then should I compare the people of this generation, and what are they like? ³² They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling to each other:

We played the flute for you,
but you didn't dance;
we sang a lament,
but you didn't weep!

³³ For John the Baptist did not come eating bread or drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon!' ³⁴ The •Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' ³⁵ Yet wisdom is vindicated^f by all her children."

Much Forgiveness, Much Love

³⁶ Then one of the Pharisees invited Him to eat with him. He entered the Pharisee's house and reclined at the table. ³⁷ And a woman in the town who was a sinner found out that Jesus was reclining at the table in the Pharisee's house. She brought an alabaster flask of fragrant oil ³⁸ and stood behind Him at His feet, weeping, and began to wash His feet with her tears. She wiped His feet with the hair of her head, kissing them and anointing them with the fragrant oil.

³⁹ When the Pharisee who had invited Him saw this, he said to himself, "This man, if He were a prophet, would know who and what kind of woman this is who is touching Him—she's a sinner!"

⁴⁰ Jesus replied to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you."

"Teacher," he said, "say it."

⁴¹ "A creditor had two debtors. One owed 500 •denarii, and the other 50. ⁴² Since they could not pay it back, he graciously forgave them both. So, which of them will love him more?"

⁴³ Simon answered, "I suppose the one he forgave more."

"You have judged correctly," He told him.

⁴⁴ Turning to the woman, He said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave Me no water for My feet, but she, with her tears, has washed My feet and wiped them with her hair. ⁴⁵ You gave Me no kiss, but she hasn't stopped kissing My feet since I came in. ⁴⁶ You didn't anoint My head with oil, but she has anointed My feet with fragrant oil. ⁴⁷ Therefore I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven; that's why^g she loved much. But the one who is forgiven little, loves little." ⁴⁸ Then He said to her, "Your sins are forgiven."

⁴⁹ Those who were at the table with Him began to say among themselves, "Who is this man who even forgives sins?"

⁵⁰ And He said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

Many Women Support Christ's Work

8 Soon afterwards He was traveling from one town and village to another, preaching and telling the good news of the kingdom of God. The Twelve were with Him, ² and also some women who had been healed of evil spirits and sicknesses: Mary, called •Magdalene (seven demons had come out of her); ³ Joanna the wife of Chuza, •Herod's steward; Susanna; and many others who were supporting them from their possessions.

The Parable of the Sower

⁴ As a large crowd was gathering, and people were flocking to Him from every town, He said in a parable: ⁵ "A sower went out to sow his seed. As he was sowing, some fell along the path; it was trampled on, and the birds of the sky ate it up. ⁶ Other seed fell on the rock; when it

Why Jesus Used Parables

⁹ Then His disciples asked Him, “What does this parable mean?” ¹⁰ So He said, “The secrets^a of the kingdom of God have been given for you to know, but to the rest it is in parables, so that

Looking they may not see,

The Parable of the Sower Explained

¹¹ “This is the meaning of the parable:^c The seed is the word of God. ¹² The seeds along the path are those who have heard. Then the Devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. ¹³ And the seeds on the rock are those who, when they hear, welcome the word with joy. Having no root, these believe for a while and depart in a time of testing. ¹⁴ As for the seed that fell among thorns, these are the ones who, when they have heard, go on their way and are choked with worries, riches, and pleasures of life, and produce no mature fruit. ¹⁵ But the seed in the good ground—these are the ones who,^d having heard the word with an honest and good heart, hold on to it and by enduring, bear fruit.

Using Your Light

¹⁶ “No one, after lighting a lamp, covers it with a basket or puts it under a bed, but puts it on a lampstand so that those who come in may see the light. ¹⁷ For nothing is concealed that won’t be revealed, and nothing hidden that won’t be made known and come to light. ¹⁸ Therefore, take care how you listen. For whoever has, more will be given to him; and whoever does not have, even what he thinks he has will be taken away from him.”

True Relationships

¹⁹ Then His mother and brothers came to Him, but they could not meet with Him because of the crowd. ²⁰ He was told, “Your mother and

Your brothers are standing outside, wanting to see You.”

²¹ But He replied to them, “My mother and My brothers are those who hear and do the word of God.”

Wind and Wave Obey the Master

²² One day He and His disciples got into a boat, and He told them, “Let’s cross over to the other side of the lake.” So they set out, ²³ and as they were sailing He fell asleep. Then a fierce windstorm came down on the lake; they were being swamped and were in danger. ²⁴ They came and woke Him up, saying, “Master, Master, we’re going to die!” Then He got up and rebuked the wind and the raging waves. So they ceased, and there was a calm. ²⁵ He said to them, “Where is your faith?”

They were fearful and amazed, asking one another, “Who can this be?^e He commands even the winds and the waves, and they obey Him!”

Demons Driven Out by the Master

²⁶ Then they sailed to the region of the Gerasenes,^f which is opposite Galilee. ²⁷ When He got out on land, a demon-possessed man from the town met Him. For a long time he had worn no clothes and did not stay in a house but in the tombs. ²⁸ When he saw Jesus, he cried out, fell down before Him, and said in a loud voice, “What do You have to do with me,^g Jesus, You Son of the Most High God? I beg You, don’t torment me!” ²⁹ For He had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. Many times it had seized him, and although he was guarded, bound by chains and shackles, he would snap the restraints and be driven by the demon into deserted places.

³⁰ “What is your name?” Jesus asked him.

“Legion,” he said—because many demons had entered him. ³¹ And they begged Him not to banish them to the •abyss.

³² A large herd of pigs was there, feeding on the hillside. The demons begged Him to permit them to enter the pigs, and He gave them permission. ³³ The demons came out of the man and entered the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and drowned. ³⁴ When the men who tended them saw what had happened, they ran off and reported it in the town and in the countryside. ³⁵ Then people went out to see what had happened. They came to Jesus and found the man the demons had departed from, sitting at Jesus' feet, dressed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. ³⁶ Meanwhile the eyewitnesses reported to them how the demon-possessed man was delivered. ³⁷ Then all the people of the Gerasene region^a asked Him to leave them, because they were gripped by great fear. So getting into the boat, He returned.

³⁸ The man from whom the demons had departed kept begging Him to be with Him. But He sent him away and said, ³⁹ "Go back to your home, and tell all that God has done for you." And off he went, proclaiming throughout the town all that Jesus had done for him.

A Girl Restored and a Woman Healed

⁴⁰ When Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed Him, for they were all expecting Him. ⁴¹ Just then, a man named Jairus came. He was a leader of the •synagogue. He fell down at Jesus' feet and pleaded with Him to come to his house, ⁴² because he had an only daughter about 12 years old, and she was at death's door.^b

While He was going, the crowds were nearly crushing Him. ⁴³ A woman suffering from bleeding for 12 years, who had spent all she had on doctors^c yet could not be healed by any, ⁴⁴ approached from behind and touched the •tassel of His robe. Instantly her bleeding stopped.

⁴⁵ "Who touched Me?" Jesus asked.

When they all denied it, Peter^d said, "Master, the crowds are hemming You in and pressing against You."^e

⁴⁶ "Somebody did touch Me," said Jesus. "I know that power has gone out from Me." ⁴⁷ When the woman saw that she was discovered,^f she came trembling and fell down before Him. In the presence of all the people, she declared the reason she had touched Him and how she was instantly cured. ⁴⁸ "Daughter," He said to her, "your faith has made you well." ⁴⁹ "Go in peace."

⁴⁹ While He was still speaking, someone came from the synagogue leader's [house], saying, "Your daughter is dead. Don't bother the Teacher anymore."

⁵⁰ When Jesus heard it, He answered him, "Don't be afraid. Only believe, and she will be made well." ⁵¹ After He came to the house, He let no one enter with Him except Peter, John, James, and the child's father and mother. ⁵² Everyone was crying and mourning for her. But He said, "Stop crying, for she is not dead but asleep."

⁵³ They started laughing at Him, because they knew she was dead. ⁵⁴ So He^h took her by the hand and called out, "Child, get up!" ⁵⁵ Her spirit returned, and she got up at once. Then He gave orders that she be given something to eat. ⁵⁶ Her parents were astounded, but He instructed them to tell no one what had happened.

9 Summoning the Twelve, He gave them power and authority over all the demons, and [power] to healⁱ diseases. ² Then He sent them to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal the sick.

³ "Take nothing for the road," He told them, "no walking stick, no traveling bag, no bread, no money; and don't take an extra shirt." ⁴ Whatever house you enter, stay there and leave from there. ⁵ If they do not welcome you, when you leave that town, shake off the dust from your feet as a testimony against them." ⁶ So they went out and traveled from village to village, proclaiming the good news and healing everywhere.

Herod's Desire to See Jesus

⁷ •Herod the tetrarch heard about everything that was going on. He was perplexed, because some said that John had been raised from the dead, ⁸ some that Elijah had appeared, and others that one of the ancient prophets had risen. ⁹ "I beheaded John," Herod said, "but who is this I hear such things about?" And he wanted to see Him.

¹⁰ When the apostles returned, they reported to Jesus all that they had done. He took them along and withdrew privately to a^j town called Bethsaida. ¹¹ When the crowds found out, they followed Him. He welcomed them, spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and cured^k those who needed healing.

¹² Late in the day,^a the Twelve approached and said to Him, “Send the crowd away, so they can go into the surrounding villages and countryside to find food and lodging, because we are in a deserted place here.”

¹³ “You give them something to eat,” He told them.

“We have no more than five loaves and two fish,” they said, “unless we go and buy food for all these people.” ¹⁴ (For about 5,000 men were there.)

Then He told His disciples, “Have them sit down^b in groups of about 50 each.” ¹⁵ They did so, and had them all sit down. ¹⁶ Then He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He blessed and broke them. He kept giving them to the disciples to set before the crowd. ¹⁷ Everyone ate and was filled. Then they picked up^c 12 baskets of leftover pieces.

Peter's Confession of the Messiah

¹⁸ While He was praying in private and His disciples were with Him, He asked them, “Who do the crowds say that I am?”

¹⁹ They answered, “John the Baptist; others, Elijah; still others, that one of the ancient prophets has come back.”^d

²⁰ “But you,” He asked them, “who do you say that I am?”

Peter answered, “God’s •Messiah!”

His Death and Resurrection Predicted

²¹ But He strictly warned and instructed them to tell this to no one, ²² saying, “The •Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, •chief priests, and •scribes, be killed, and be raised the third day.”

Take Up Your Cross

²³ Then He said to [them] all, “If anyone wants to come with^e Me, he must deny himself, take up his cross daily,^f and follow Me. ²⁴ For whoever wants to save his •life will lose it, but whoever loses his life because of Me will save it. ²⁵ What is a man benefited if he gains the whole world, yet loses or forfeits himself? ²⁶ For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when He comes in His glory and that of the Father and the holy angels. ²⁷ I tell you the truth: there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the kingdom of God.”

The Transfiguration

²⁸ About eight days after these words, He took along Peter, John, and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. ²⁹ As He was praying, the appearance of His face changed, and His clothes became dazzling white. ³⁰ Suddenly, two men were talking with Him—Moses and Elijah. ³¹ They appeared in glory and were speaking of His death,^g which He was about to accomplish in Jerusalem.

³² Peter and those with him were in a deep sleep,^h and when they became fully awake, they saw His glory and the two men who were standing with Him. ³³ As the two men were departing from Him, Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it’s good for us to be here! Let us make three •tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah”—not knowing what he said.

³⁴ While he was saying this, a cloud appeared and overshadowed them. They became afraid as they entered the cloud. ³⁵ Then a voice came from the cloud, saying:

This is My Son, the Chosen One;ⁱ
listen to Him!

³⁶ After the voice had spoken, only Jesus was found. They kept silent, and in those days told no one what they had seen.

The Power of Faith over a Demon

⁴¹ Jesus replied, “You unbelieving and rebellious^l generation! How long will I be with you and put up with you? Bring your son here.”

⁴² As the boy was still approaching, the demon knocked him down and threw him into severe convulsions. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, cured the boy, and gave him back to his father. ⁴³ And they were all astonished at the greatness of God.

The Second Prediction of His Death

While everyone was amazed at all the things He was doing, He told His disciples, ⁴⁴ “Let these words sink in:^a the Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men.”

⁴⁵ But they did not understand this statement; it was concealed from them so that they could not grasp it, and they were afraid to ask Him about it.^b

Who Is the Greatest?

⁴⁶ Then an argument started among them about who would be the greatest of them. ⁴⁷ But Jesus, knowing the thoughts of their hearts, took a little child and had him stand next to Him. ⁴⁸ He told them, “Whoever welcomes^c this little child in My name welcomes Me. And whoever welcomes Me welcomes Him who sent Me. For whoever is least among you—this one is great.”

In His Name

⁴⁹ John responded, “Master, we saw someone driving out demons in Your name, and we tried to stop him because he does not follow us.”

⁵⁰ “Don’t stop him,” Jesus told him, “because whoever is not against you is for you.”^d

The Journey to Jerusalem

⁵¹ When the days were coming to a close for Him to be taken up,^e He determined^f to journey to Jerusalem. ⁵² He sent messengers ahead of Him, and on the way they entered a village of the •Samaritans to make preparations for Him. ⁵³ But they did not welcome Him, because He determined to journey to Jerusalem. ⁵⁴ When the disciples James and John saw this, they said, “Lord, do You want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?”^g

⁵⁵ But He turned and rebuked them,^h ⁵⁶ and they went to another village.

Following Jesus

⁵⁷ As they were traveling on the road someone said to Him, “I will follow You wherever You go!”

⁵⁸ Jesus told him, “Foxes have dens, and birds of the skyⁱ have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay His head.” ⁵⁹ Then He said to another, “Follow Me.”

“Lord,” he said, “first let me go bury my father.”^j

⁶⁰ But He told him, “Let the dead bury their own dead, but you go and spread the news of the kingdom of God.”

⁶¹ Another also said, “I will follow You, Lord, but first let me go and say good-bye to those at my house.”

⁶² But Jesus said to him, “No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.”

Sending Out the Seventy

10 After this, the Lord appointed 70^k others, and He sent them ahead of Him in pairs to every town and place where He Himself was about to go. ² He told them: “The harvest is abundant, but the workers are few. Therefore, pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest. ³ Now go; I’m sending you out like lambs among wolves. ⁴ Don’t carry a money-bag, traveling bag, or sandals; don’t greet anyone along the road. ⁵ Whatever house you enter, first say, ‘Peace to this household.’ ⁶ If a son of peace^l is there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you. ⁷ Remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they offer, for the worker is worthy of his wages. Don’t be moving from house to house. ⁸ When you enter any town, and they welcome you, eat the things set before you. ⁹ Heal the sick who are there, and tell them, ‘The kingdom of God has come near you.’ ¹⁰ When you enter any town, and they don’t welcome you, go out into its streets and say, ¹¹ ‘We are wiping off [as a witness] against you even the dust of your town that clings to our feet. Know this for certain: the kingdom of God has come near.’ ¹² I tell you, on that day it will be more tolerable for Sodom than for that town.”

Unrepentant Towns

¹³ “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes! ¹⁴ But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you. ¹⁵ And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? No, you will go down to •Hades! ¹⁶ Whoever listens to you listens to Me. Whoever rejects you

The Return of the Seventy

¹⁷ The Seventy^a returned with joy, saying, “Lord, even the demons submit to us in Your name.”

¹⁸ He said to them, “I watched Satan fall from heaven like a lightning flash. ¹⁹ Look, I have given you the authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy; nothing will ever harm you. ²⁰ However, don’t rejoice that^b the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.”

The Son Reveals the Father

²¹ In that same hour He^c rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, “I praise^e You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and the learned and have revealed them to infants. Yes, Father, because this was Your good pleasure.^f ²² All things have^g been entrusted to Me by My Father. No one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son, and anyone to whom the Son desires^h to reveal Him.”

²³ Then turning to His disciples He said privately, “The eyes that see the things you see are blessed! ²⁴ For I tell you that many prophets and kings wanted to see the things you see yet didn’t see them; to hear the things you hear yet didn’t hear them.”

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

²⁵ Just then an expert in the law stood up to test Him, saying, “Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

²⁶ “What is written in the law?” He asked him. “How do you read it?”

²⁷ He answered:

Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.ⁱ

²⁸ “You’ve answered correctly,” He told him. “Do this and you will live.”

²⁹ But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?”

³⁰ Jesus took up [the question] and said: “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell into the hands of robbers. They stripped him, beat him up, and fled, leaving him half dead. ³¹ A priest happened to be going down that road. When he saw him, he passed by on the other side. ³² In the same way, a Levite, when he arrived at the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. ³³ But a Samaritan on his journey came up to him, and when he saw [the man], he had compassion. ³⁴ He went over to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. ³⁵ The next day^j he took out two •denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, ‘Take care of him. When I come back I’ll reimburse you for whatever extra you spend.’

³⁶ “Which of these three do you think proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?”

³⁷ “The one who showed mercy to him,” he said.

Then Jesus told him, “Go and do the same.”

Martha and Mary

³⁸ While they were traveling, He entered a village, and a woman named Martha welcomed Him into her home.^k ³⁹ She had a sister named Mary, who also sat at the Lord’s^l feet and was listening to what He said.^m ⁴⁰ But Martha was distracted by her many tasks, and she came up and asked, “Lord, don’t You care that my sister has left me to serve alone? So tell her to give me a hand.”ⁿ

⁴¹ The Lord^c answered her, “Martha, Martha, you are worried and upset about many things, ⁴² but one thing is necessary. Mary has made the right choice,^o and it will not be taken away from her.”

The Model Prayer

11 He was praying in a certain place, and when He finished, one of His disciples said to Him, “Lord, teach us to pray, just as John also taught his disciples.”

² He said to them, “Whenever you pray, say:

Father,^p

Keep Asking, Searching, Knocking

⁵ He also said to them: “Suppose one of you^e has a friend and goes to him at midnight and says to him, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, ⁶ because a friend of mine on a journey has come to me, and I don’t have anything to offer him.’^f ⁷ Then he will answer from inside and say, ‘Don’t bother me! The door is already locked, and my children and I have gone to bed. I can’t get up to give you anything.’^g ⁸ I tell you, even though he won’t get up and give him anything because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence,^h he will get up and give him as much as he needs.

⁹ “So I say to you, keep asking,ⁱ and it will be given to you. Keep searching,^j and you will find. Keep knocking,^j and the door will be opened to you. ¹⁰ For everyone who asks receives, and the one who searches finds, and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened. ¹¹ What father among you, if his son^k asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead of a fish? ¹² Or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? ¹³ If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give^l the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him?”

A House Divided

¹⁴ Now He was driving out a demon that was mute.^m When the demon came out, the man who had been mute, spoke, and the crowds were amazed. ¹⁵ But some of them said, “He drives out demons by •Beelzebul, the ruler of the demons!” ¹⁶ And others, as a test, were demanding of Him a sign from heaven.

¹⁷ Knowing their thoughts, He told them: “Every kingdom divided against itself is headed for destruction, and a house divided against itself falls. ¹⁸ If Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say I drive out demons by Beelzebul. ¹⁹ And if I drive out demons by Beelzebul, who is it your sonsⁿ drive them out by? For this reason they will be your judges. ²⁰ If I drive out demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come to you. ²¹ When a strong man, fully armed, guards his estate, his possessions are secure.^o ²² But when one stronger than he attacks and overpowers him, he takes from him all his weapons^p he trusted in, and divides up his plunder. ²³ Anyone who is not with Me is against Me, and anyone who does not gather with Me scatters.

An Unclean Spirit’s Return

²⁴ “When an unclean spirit comes out of a man, it roams through waterless places looking for rest, and not finding rest, it then^q says, ‘I’ll go back to my house where I came from.’ ²⁵ And returning, it finds [the house] swept and put in order. ²⁶ Then it goes and brings seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and settle down there. As a result, that man’s last condition is worse than the first.”

True Blessedness

²⁷ As He was saying these things, a woman from the crowd raised her voice and said to Him, “The womb that bore You and the one who nursed You are blessed!”

²⁸ He said, “Even more, those who hear the word of God and keep it are blessed!”

The Sign of Jonah

²⁹ As the crowds were increasing, He began saying: “This generation is an evil generation. It demands a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah.^r ³⁰ For just as Jonah became a sign to the people of Nineveh, so also the •Son of Man will be to this generation. ³¹ The queen of the south will rise up at the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and look—something greater than Solomon is here! ³² The men of Nineveh will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at Jonah’s proclamation, and look—something greater than Jonah is here!

Religious Hypocrisy Denounced

³⁷ As He was speaking, a •Pharisee asked Him to dine with him. So He went in and reclined at the table.³⁸ When the Pharisee saw this, he was amazed that He did not first perform the ritual washing^b before dinner.³⁹ But the Lord said to him: “Now you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside you are full of greed and evil.⁴⁰ Fools! Didn’t He who made the outside make the inside too? ⁴¹ But give to charity what is within,^c and then everything is clean for you.

⁴² “But woe to you Pharisees! You give a tenth^d of mint, rue, and every kind of herb, and you bypass^e justice and love for God.^f These things you should have done without neglecting the others.

⁴³ “Woe to you Pharisees! You love the front seat in the •synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces.

⁴⁴ “Woe to you!^g You are like unmarked graves; the people who walk over them don’t know it.”

⁴⁵ One of the experts in the law answered Him, “Teacher, when You say these things You insult us too.”

⁴⁷ “Woe to you! You build monuments^h to the prophets, and your fathers killed them.⁴⁸ Therefore you are witnesses that you approveⁱ the deeds of your fathers, for they killed them, and you build their monuments.^j ⁴⁹ Because of this, the wisdom of God said, ‘I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute,’⁵⁰ so that this generation may be held responsible for the blood of all the prophets shed since the foundation of the world^k — ⁵¹ from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary.

“Yes, I tell you, this generation will be held responsible.^l

⁵² “Woe to you experts in the law! You have taken away the key of knowledge! You didn’t go in yourselves, and you hindered those who were going in.”

⁵³ When He left there,^m the •scribes and the Pharisees began to oppose Him fiercely and to cross-examine Him about many things;⁵⁴ they were lying in wait for Him to trap Him in something He said.ⁿ

Beware of Religious Hypocrisy

12 In these circumstances,^o a crowd of many thousands came together, so that they were trampling on one another. He began to say to His disciples first: “Be on your guard against the yeast^p of the •Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.² There is nothing covered that won’t be uncovered, nothing hidden that won’t be made known.³ Therefore whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have whispered in an ear in private rooms will be proclaimed on the housetops.

Fear God

⁴ “And I say to you, My friends, don’t fear those who kill the body, and after that can do nothing more.⁵ But I will show you the One to fear: Fear Him who has authority to throw people into •hell after death. Yes, I say to you, this is the One to fear!⁶ Aren’t five sparrows sold for two pennies?^q Yet not one of them is forgotten in God’s sight.⁷ Indeed, the hairs of your head are all counted. Don’t be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows!

Acknowledging Christ

⁸ “And I say to you, anyone who acknowledges Me before men, the •Son of Man will also acknowledge him before the angels of God,⁹ but whoever denies Me before men will be denied before the angels of God.¹⁰ Anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but the one who blasphemes against the Holy

The Parable of the Rich Fool

¹³ Someone from the crowd said to Him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."

¹⁴ "Friend,"^a He said to him, "who appointed Me a judge or arbitrator over you?" ¹⁵ He then told them, "Watch out and be on guard against all greed because one's life is not in the abundance of his possessions."

¹⁶ Then He told them a parable: "A rich man's land was very productive. ¹⁷ He thought to himself, 'What should I do, since I don't have anywhere to store my crops?' ¹⁸ I will do this," he said. 'I'll tear down my barns and build bigger ones and store all my grain and my goods there. ¹⁹ Then I'll say to myself, "You^b have many goods stored up for many years. Take it easy; eat, drink, and enjoy yourself."

²⁰ "But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your •life is demanded of you. And the things you have prepared—whose will they be?'

²¹ "That's how it is with the one who stores up treasure for himself and is not rich toward God."

The Cure for Anxiety

²² Then He said to His disciples: "Therefore I tell you, don't worry about your life, what you will eat; or about the body, what you will wear. ²³ For life is more than food and the body more than clothing. ²⁴ Consider the ravens: they don't sow or reap; they don't have a storeroom or a barn; yet God feeds them. Aren't you worth much more than the birds? ²⁵ Can any of you add a •cubit to his height^c by worrying? ²⁶ If then you're not able to do even a little thing, why worry about the rest?

²⁷ "Consider how the wildflowers grow: they don't labor or spin thread. Yet I tell you, not even Solomon in all his splendor was adorned like one of these! ²⁸ If that's how God clothes the grass, which is in the field today and is thrown into the furnace tomorrow, how much more will He do for you—you of little faith? ²⁹ Don't keep striving for what you should eat and what you should drink, and don't be anxious. ³⁰ For the Gentile world eagerly seeks all these things, and your Father knows that you need them.

³¹ "But seek His kingdom, and these things will be provided for you. ³² Don't be afraid, little flock, because your Father delights to give you the kingdom. ³³ Sell your possessions and give to the poor. Make money-bags for yourselves that won't grow old, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. ³⁴ For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Ready for the Master's Return

³⁵ "Be ready for service^d and have your lamps lit. ³⁶ You must be like people waiting for their master to return^e from the wedding banquet so that when he comes and knocks, they can open [the door] for him at once. ³⁷ Those •slaves the master will find alert when he comes will be blessed. •I assure you: He will get ready,^f have them recline at the table, then come and serve them. ³⁸ If he comes in the middle of the night, or even near dawn,^g and finds them alert, those slaves are blessed. ³⁹ But know this: if the homeowner had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. ⁴⁰ You also be ready, because the Son of Man is coming at an hour that you do not expect."

Rewards and Punishment

⁴¹ "Lord," Peter asked, "are You telling this parable to us or to everyone?"

⁴² The Lord said: "Who then is the faithful and sensible manager his master will put in charge of his household servants to give them their allotted food at the proper time? ⁴³ That •slave whose master finds him working when he comes will be rewarded. ⁴⁴ I tell you the truth: he will put him in charge of all his possessions. ⁴⁵ But if that slave says in his heart, 'My master is delaying his coming,' and starts to beat the male and female slaves, and to eat and drink and get drunk, ⁴⁶ that slave's master will come on a day he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know. He will cut him to pieces^h and assign him a place with the unbelievers.ⁱ ⁴⁷ And that slave who knew his master's will and didn't prepare himself or do it^j will be severely beaten. ⁴⁸ But the one who did not know and did things

Not Peace but Division

⁴⁹ “I came to bring fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already set ablaze! ⁵⁰ But I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how it consumes Me until it is finished! ⁵¹ Do you think that I came here to give peace to the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division! ⁵² From now on, five in one household will be divided: three against two, and two against three.

⁵³ They will be divided,
father against son,
son against father,
mother against daughter,
daughter against mother,
mother-in-law
against her daughter-in-law,
and daughter-in-law

Interpreting the Time

⁵⁴ He also said to the crowds: “When you see a cloud rising in the west, right away you say, ‘A storm is coming,’ and so it does. ⁵⁵ And when the south wind is blowing, you say, ‘It’s going to be a scorcher!’ and it is. ⁵⁶ Hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and the sky, but why don’t you know how to interpret this time?

Settling Accounts

⁵⁷ “Why don’t you judge for yourselves what is right? ⁵⁸ As you are going with your adversary to the ruler, make an effort to settle with him on the way. Then he won’t drag you before the judge, the judge hand you over to the bailiff, and the bailiff throw you into prison. ⁵⁹ I tell you, you will never get out of there until you have paid the last cent.”^c

Repent or Perish

13 At that time, some people came and reported to Him about the Galileans whose blood •Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. ² And He^d responded to them, “Do you think that these Galileans were more sinful than all Galileans because they suffered these things?

³ No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as well! ⁴ Or those 18 that the tower in Siloam fell on and killed—do you think they were more sinful than all the people who live in Jerusalem? ⁵ No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as well!”

The Parable of the Barren Fig Tree

⁶ And He told this parable: “A man had a fig tree that was planted in his vineyard. He came looking for fruit on it and found none. ⁷ He told the vineyard worker, ‘Listen, for three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree and haven’t found any. Cut it down! Why should it even waste the soil?’

⁸ “But he replied to him, ‘Sir,^e leave it this year also, until I dig around it and fertilize it. ⁹ Perhaps it will bear fruit next year, but if not, you can cut it down.”

Healing a Daughter of Abraham

¹⁰ As He was teaching in one of the •synagogues on the Sabbath, ¹¹ a woman was there who had been disabled by a spirit^f for over 18 years. She was bent over and could not straighten up at all.^g ¹² When Jesus saw her, He called out to her,^h “Woman, you are free of your disability.” ¹³ Then He laid His hands on her, and instantly she was restored and began to glorify God.

¹⁴ But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, responded by telling the crowd, “There are six days when work should be done; therefore come on those days and be healed and not on the Sabbath day.”

¹⁵ But the Lord answered him and said, “Hypocrites! Doesn’t each one of you untie his ox or donkey from the feeding trough on the Sabbath and lead it to water? ¹⁶ Satan has bound this woman, a daughter of Abraham, for 18 years—shouldn’t she be untied from this bondage on the Sabbath day?”

¹⁷ When He had said these things, all His adversaries were humiliated, but the whole crowd was rejoicing over all the glorious things He was doing.

The Parables of the Mustard Seed and of the Yeast

²⁰ Again He said, “What can I compare the kingdom of God to? ²¹ It’s like yeast that a woman took and mixed into 50 pounds^a of flour until it spread through the entire mixture.”^b

The Narrow Way

²² He went through one town and village after another, teaching and making His way to Jerusalem. ²³ “Lord,” someone asked Him, “are there few being saved?”^c

He said to them, ²⁴ “Make every effort to enter through the narrow door, because I tell you, many will try to enter and won’t be able ²⁵ once the homeowner gets up and shuts the door. Then you will stand^d outside and knock on the door, saying, ‘Lord, open up for us!’ He will answer you, ‘I don’t know you or where you’re from.’ ²⁶ Then you will say,^e ‘We ate and drank in Your presence, and You taught in our streets!’ ²⁷ But He will say, ‘I tell you, I don’t know you or where you’re from. Get away from Me, all you workers of unrighteousness!’ ²⁸ There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth in that place, when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in the kingdom of God but yourselves thrown out. ²⁹ They will come from east and west, from north and south, and recline at the table in the kingdom of God. ³⁰ Note this: some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last.”

Jesus and Herod Antipas

³¹ At that time some •Pharisees came and told Him, “Go, get out of here! •Herod wants to kill You!”

³² He said to them, “Go tell that fox, ‘Look! I’m driving out demons and performing healings today and tomorrow, and on the third day^f I will complete My work.’”^g ³³ Yet I must travel today, tomorrow, and the next day, because it is not possible for a prophet to perish outside of Jerusalem!

Jesus’ Lamentation over Jerusalem

³⁴ “Jerusalem, Jerusalem! The city who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her. How often I wanted to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing! ³⁵ See, your house^h is abandoned to you. And I tell you, you will not see Me until the time comes when you say, Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!”ⁱ

A Sabbath Controversy

14 One Sabbath, when He went to eat^j at the house of one of the leading •Pharisees, they were watching Him closely. ² There in front of Him was a man whose body was swollen with fluid.^k ³ In response, Jesus asked the law experts and the Pharisees, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath or not?” ⁴ But they kept silent. He took the man, healed him, and sent him away. ⁵ And to them, He said, “Which of you whose son or ox falls into a well, will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day?” ⁶ To this they could find no answer.

Teachings on Humility

⁷ He told a parable to those who were invited, when He noticed how they would choose the best places for themselves: ⁸ “When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, don’t recline at the best place, because a more distinguished person than you may have been invited by your host.” ⁹ The one who invited both of you may come and say to you, ‘Give your place to this man,’ and then in humiliation, you will proceed to take the lowest place.

¹⁰ “But when you are invited, go and recline in the lowest place, so that when the one who invited you comes, he will say to you, ‘Friend, move up higher.’ You will then be honored in the presence of all the other guests. ¹¹ For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”

¹² He also said to the one who had invited Him, “When you give a lunch or a dinner, don’t invite your friends, your brothers, your relatives, or your rich neighbors, because they might invite you back, and you would be repaid.” ¹³ On the contrary, when you host a banquet, invite those who are poor, maimed, lame, or blind. ¹⁴ And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you; for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.”

The Parable of the Large Banquet

¹⁵ When one of those who reclined at the table with Him heard these things, he said to

¹⁶ Then He told him: “A man was giving a large banquet and invited many. ¹⁷ At the time of the banquet, he sent his slave to tell those who were invited, ‘Come, because everything is now ready.’

¹⁸ “But without exception^a they all began to make excuses. The first one said to him, ‘I have bought a field, and I must go out and see it. I ask you to excuse me.’

¹⁹ “Another said, ‘I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I’m going to try them out. I ask you to excuse me.’

²⁰ “And another said, ‘I just got married,^b and therefore I’m unable to come.’

²¹ “So the slave came back and reported these things to his master. Then in anger, the master of the house told his slave, ‘Go out quickly into the streets and alleys of the city, and bring in here the poor, maimed, blind, and lame!’

²² “‘Master,’ the slave said, ‘what you ordered has been done, and there’s still room.’

²³ “Then the master told the slave, ‘Go out into the highways and lanes and make them come in, so that my house may be filled. ²⁴ For I tell you, not one of those men who were invited will enjoy my banquet!’”

The Cost of Following Jesus

²⁵ Now great crowds were traveling with Him. So He turned and said to them: ²⁶ “If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his own father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters—yes, and even his own life—he cannot be My disciple. ²⁷ Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple.

²⁸ “For which of you, wanting to build a tower, doesn’t first sit down and calculate the cost to see if he has enough to complete it? ²⁹ Otherwise, after he has laid the foundation and cannot finish it, all the onlookers will begin to make fun of him, ³⁰ saying, ‘This man started to build and wasn’t able to finish.’

³¹ “Or what king, going to war against another king, will not first sit down and decide if he is able with 10,000 to oppose the one who comes against him with 20,000? ³² If not, while the other is still far off, he sends a delegation and asks for terms of peace. ³³ In the same way, therefore, every one of you who does not say good-bye to^c all his possessions cannot be My disciple.

³⁴ “Now, salt is good, but if salt should lose its taste, how will it be made salty? ³⁵ It isn’t fit for the soil or for the manure pile; they throw it out. Anyone who has ears to hear should listen!”

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

15 All the tax collectors and sinners were approaching to listen to Him. ² And the •Pharisees and •scribes were complaining, “This man welcomes sinners and eats with them!”

³ So He told them this parable: ⁴ “What man among you, who has 100 sheep and loses one of them, does not leave the 99 in the open field^d and go after the lost one until he finds it? ⁵ When he has found it, he joyfully puts it on his shoulders, ⁶ and coming home, he calls his friends and neighbors together, saying to them, ‘Rejoice with me, because I have found my lost sheep!’ ⁷ I tell you, in the same way, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over 99 righteous people who don’t need repentance.

The Parable of the Lost Coin

⁸ “Or what woman who has 10 silver coins,^e if she loses one coin, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? ⁹ When she finds it, she calls her women friends and neighbors together, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, because I have found the silver coin I lost!’ ¹⁰ I tell you, in the same way, there is joy in the presence of God’s angels over one sinner who repents.”

The Parable of the Lost Son

¹¹ He also said: “A man had two sons. ¹² The younger of them said to his father, ‘Father, give me the share of the estate I have coming to me.’ So he distributed the assets^f to them. ¹³ Not many days later, the younger son gathered together all he had and traveled to a distant country, where he squandered his estate in foolish living. ¹⁴ After he had spent everything, a severe famine struck that country, and he had nothing.^g ¹⁵ Then he went to work for^h one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed pigs. ¹⁶ He longed to eat his fill fromⁱ the carob pods^j the pigs were eating, but no one would give him any. ¹⁷ When

Make me like one of your hired hands.' 20 So he got up and went to his father. But while the son was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion. He ran, threw his arms around his neck,^d and kissed him. 21 The son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight. I'm no longer worthy to be called your son.'

22 "But the father told his •slaves, 'Quick! Bring out the best robe and put it on him; put a ring on his finger^e and sandals on his feet. 23 Then bring the fattened calf and slaughter it, and let's celebrate with a feast, 24 because this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!' So they began to celebrate.

25 "Now his older son was in the field; as he came near the house, he heard music and dancing. 26 So he summoned one of the servants and asked what these things meant. 27 'Your brother is here,' he told him, 'and your father has slaughtered the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.'^f

28 "Then he became angry and didn't want to go in. So his father came out and pleaded with him. 29 But he replied to his father, 'Look, I have been slaving many years for you, and I have never disobeyed your orders, yet you never gave me a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. 30 But when this son of yours came, who has devoured your assets^g with prostitutes, you slaughtered the fattened calf for him.'

31 "'Son,^h he said to him, 'you are always with me, and everything I have is yours. 32 But we had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.'"

The Parable of the Dishonest Manager

16 He also said to the disciples: "There was a rich man who received an accusation that his manager was squandering his possessions. 2 So he called the manager in and asked, 'What is this I hear about you? Give an account of your management, because you can no longer be [my] manager.'

3 "Then the manager said to himself, 'What should I do, since my master is taking the management away from me? I'm not strong enough to dig; I'm ashamed to beg. 4 I know what I'll do so that when I'm removed from management, people will welcome me into their homes.'

5 "So he summoned each one of his master's debtors. 'How much do you owe my master?' he asked the first one.

6 "'A hundred measures of oil,' he said.

"Take your invoice,' he told him, 'sit down quickly, and write 50.'

7 "Next he asked another, 'How much do you owe?'

"A hundred measures of wheat,' he said.

"Take your invoice,' he told him, 'and write 80.'

8 "The master praised the unrighteous manager because he had acted astutely. For the sons of this age are more astute than the sons of light [in dealing] with their own people.ⁱ 9 And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of the unrighteous money so that when it fails,^j they may welcome you into eternal dwellings. 10 Whoever is faithful in very little is also faithful in much, and whoever is unrighteous in very little is also unrighteous in much. 11 So if you have not been faithful with the unrighteous money, who will trust you with what is genuine? 12 And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to someone else, who will give you what is your own? 13 No household slave can be the •slave of two masters, since either he will hate one and love the other, or he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You can't be slaves to both God and money."

Kingdom Values

14 The •Pharisees, who were lovers of money, were listening to all these things and scoffing at Him. 15 And He told them: "You are the ones who justify yourselves in the sight of others, but God knows your hearts. For what is highly admired by people is revolting in God's sight.

16 "The Law and the Prophets were^k until John; since then, the good news of the kingdom of God has been proclaimed, and everyone is strongly urged to enter it.^l 17 But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one stroke of a letter in the law to drop out.

The Rich Man and Lazarus

¹⁹ “There was a rich man who would dress in purple and fine linen, feasting lavishly every day. ²⁰ But a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, was left at his gate. ²¹ He longed to be filled with what fell from the rich man’s table, but instead the dogs would come and lick his sores. ²² One day the poor man died and was carried away by the angels to Abraham’s side.^a The rich man also died and was buried. ²³ And being in torment in •Hades, he looked up and saw Abraham a long way off, with Lazarus at his side. ²⁴ ‘Father Abraham!’ he called out, ‘Have mercy on me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, because I am in agony in this flame!’

²⁵ “Son,^b Abraham said, ‘remember that during your life you received your good things, just as Lazarus received bad things, but now he is comforted here, while you are in agony. ²⁶ Besides all this, a great chasm has been fixed between us and you, so that those who want to pass over from here to you cannot; neither can those from there cross over to us.’

²⁷ “Father,’ he said, ‘then I beg you to send him to my father’s house— ²⁸ because I have five brothers—to warn them, so they won’t also come to this place of torment.’

²⁹ “But Abraham said, ‘They have Moses and the prophets; they should listen to them.’

³⁰ “No, father Abraham,’ he said. ‘But if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.’

³¹ “But he told him, ‘If they don’t listen to Moses and the prophets, they will not be persuaded if someone rises from the dead.’”

Warnings from Jesus

17 He said to His disciples, “Offenses^c will certainly come,^d but woe to the one they come through! ² It would be better for him if a millstone^e were hung around his neck and he were thrown into the sea than for him to cause one of these little ones to •stumble. ³ Be on your guard. If your brother sins,^f rebuke him, and if he repents, forgive him. ⁴ And if he sins against you seven times in a day, and comes back to you seven times, saying, ‘I repent,’ you must forgive him.”

Faith and Duty

⁵ The apostles said to the Lord, “Increase our faith.”

⁶ “If you have faith the size of^g a mustard seed,” the Lord said, “you can say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it will obey you.

⁷ “Which one of you having a slave plowing or tending sheep, will say to him when he comes in from the field, ‘Come at once and sit down to eat’? ⁸ Instead, will he not tell him, ‘Prepare something for me to eat, get ready,^h and serve me while I eat and drink; later you can eat and drink’? ⁹ Does he thank that slave because he did what was commanded?ⁱ ¹⁰ In the same way, when you have done all that you were commanded, you should say, ‘We are good-for-nothing slaves; we’ve only done our duty.’”

The 10 Lepers

¹¹ While traveling to Jerusalem, He passed between^j Samaria and Galilee. ¹² As He entered a village, 10 men with serious skin diseases met Him. They stood at a distance ¹³ and raised their voices, saying, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!”

¹⁴ When He saw them, He told them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And while they were going, they were healed.^k

¹⁷ Then Jesus said, “Were not 10 cleansed? Where are the nine? ¹⁸ Didn’t any return^l to give glory to God except this foreigner?” ¹⁹ And He told him, “Get up and go on your way. Your faith has made you well.”^m

The Coming of the Kingdom

²⁰ Being asked by the •Pharisees when the kingdom of God will come, He answered them, “The kingdom of God is not coming with something observable; ²¹ no one will say,ⁿ ‘Look here!’ or ‘There!’ For you see, the kingdom of God is among you.”

Don't follow or run after them. ²⁴ For as the lightning flashes from horizon to horizon and lights up the sky, so the Son of Man will be in His day. ²⁵ But first He must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.

²⁶ "Just as it was in the days of Noah, so it will be in the days of the Son of Man: ²⁷ people went on eating, drinking, marrying and giving in marriage until the day Noah boarded the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all. ²⁸ It will be the same as it was in the days of Lot: people went on eating, drinking, buying, selling, planting, building. ²⁹ But on the day Lot left Sodom, fire and sulfur rained from heaven and destroyed them all. ³⁰ It will be like that on the day the Son of Man is revealed. ³¹ On that day, a man on the housetop, whose belongings are in the house, must not come down to get them. Likewise the man who is in the field must not turn back. ³² Remember Lot's wife! ³³ Whoever tries to make his •life secure^a b will lose it, and whoever loses his life will preserve it. ³⁴ I tell you, on that night two will be in one bed: one will be taken and the other will be left. ³⁵ Two women will be grinding grain together: one will be taken and the other left. [³⁶ Two will be in a field: one will be taken, and the other will be left.]"c ³⁷ "Where, Lord?" they asked Him.

He said to them, "Where the corpse is, there also the vultures will be gathered."

The Parable of the Persistent Widow

18 He then told them a parable on the need for them to pray always and not become discouraged: ² "There was a judge in one town who didn't fear God or respect man. ³ And a widow in that town kept coming to him, saying, 'Give me justice against my adversary.'

⁴ "For a while he was unwilling, but later he said to himself, 'Even though I don't fear God or respect man, ⁵ yet because this widow keeps pestering me,^d I will give her justice, so she doesn't wear me out^e by her persistent coming.'"

⁶ Then the Lord said, "Listen to what the unjust judge says. ⁷ Will not God grant justice to His elect who cry out to Him day and night? Will He delay [to help] them?^f ⁸ I tell you that He will swiftly grant them justice. Nevertheless, when the •Son of Man comes, will He find that faith^g on earth?"

The Parable of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector

⁹ He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and looked down on everyone else: ¹⁰ "Two men went up to the •temple complex to pray, one a •Pharisee and the other a tax collector. ¹¹ The Pharisee took his stand^h and was praying like this: 'God, I thank You that I'm not like other people!—greedy, unrighteous, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. ¹² I fast twice a week; I give a tenthⁱ of everything I get.'

¹³ "But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even raise his eyes to heaven but kept striking his chest^k and saying, 'God, turn Your wrath from me!—a sinner!' ¹⁴ I tell you, this one went down to his house justified rather than the other; because everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

Blessing the Children

¹⁵ Some people were even bringing infants to Him so He might touch them, but when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. ¹⁶ Jesus, however, invited them: "Let the little children come to Me, and don't stop them, because the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. ¹⁷ •I assure you: Whoever does not welcome the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it."

The Rich Young Ruler

¹⁸ A ruler asked Him, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

¹⁹ "Why do you call Me good?" Jesus asked him. "No one is good but One—God. ²⁰ You know the commandments:

Do not commit adultery;
do not murder;
do not steal;
do not bear false witness;
honor your father and mother."^m

²¹ "I have kept all these from my youth," he said.

²² When Jesus heard this, He told him, “You still lack one thing: sell all that you have and distribute it to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me.”

²³ After he heard this, he became extremely sad, because he was very rich.

²⁴ Seeing that he became sad,^a Jesus said, “How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God! ²⁵ For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God.”

²⁶ Those who heard this asked, “Then who can be saved?”

²⁷ He replied, “What is impossible with men is possible with God.”

²⁸ Then Peter said, “Look, we have left what we had and followed You.”

²⁹ So He said to them, “I assure you: There is no one who has left a house, wife or brothers, parents or children because of the kingdom of God, ³⁰ who will not receive many times more at this time, and eternal life in the age to come.”

The Third Prediction of His Death

³¹ Then He took the Twelve aside and told them, “Listen! We are going up to Jerusalem. Everything that is written through the prophets about the Son of Man will be accomplished. ³² For He will be handed over to the Gentiles, and He will be mocked, insulted, spit on; ³³ and after they flog Him, they will kill Him, and He will rise on the third day.”

³⁴ They understood none of these things. This saying^b was hidden from them, and they did not grasp what was said.

A Blind Man Receives His Sight

³⁸ So he called out, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!” ³⁹ Then those in front told him to keep quiet,^c but he kept crying out all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

⁴⁰ Jesus stopped and commanded that he be brought to Him. When he drew near, He asked him, ⁴¹ “What do you want Me to do for you?”

“Lord,” he said, “I want to see!”

⁴² “Receive your sight!” Jesus told him. “Your faith has healed you.”^d ⁴³ Instantly he could see, and he began to follow Him, glorifying God. All the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

Jesus Visits Zacchaeus

19 He entered Jericho and was passing through. ² There was a man named Zacchaeus who was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. ³ He was trying to see who Jesus was, but he was not able because of the crowd, since he was a short man. ⁴ So running ahead, he climbed up a sycamore tree to see Jesus, since He was about to pass that way. ⁵ When Jesus came to the place, He looked up and said to him, “Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, because today I must stay at your house.”

⁶ So he quickly came down and welcomed Him joyfully. ⁷ All who saw it began to complain, “He’s gone to lodge with a sinful man!”

⁸ But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, “Look, I’ll give^e half of my possessions to the poor, Lord! And if I have extorted anything from anyone, I’ll pay^f back four times as much!”

⁹ “Today salvation has come to this house,” Jesus told him, “because he too is a son of Abraham. ¹⁰ For the •Son of Man has come to seek and to save the lost.”^g

The Parable of the 10 Minas

¹¹ As they were listening to this, He went on to tell a parable because He was near Jerusalem, and they thought the kingdom of God was going to appear right away.

¹² Therefore He said: “A nobleman traveled to a far country to receive for himself authority to be king^h and then return. ¹³ He called 10 of his •slaves, gave them 10 minas,ⁱ and told them, ‘Engage in business until I come back.’

¹⁴ “But his subjects hated him and sent a delegation after him, saying, ‘We don’t want this man to rule over us!’

¹⁵ “At his return, having received the authority to be king,^h he summoned those •slaves he had given the money to so he could find out how much they had made in business. ¹⁶ The first came forward and said, ‘Master, your mina has earned 10 more minas.’

¹⁷ “‘Well done, good! •slave!’ he told him. ‘Because you have been faithful in a very small matter, have authority over 10 towns.’

19 “So he said to him, ‘You will be over five towns.’

20 “And another came and said, ‘Master, here is your mina. I have kept it hidden away in a cloth 21 because I was afraid of you, for you’re a tough man: you collect what you didn’t deposit and reap what you didn’t sow.’

22 “He told him, ‘I will judge you by what you have said,^a you evil •slave! [If] you knew I was a tough man, collecting what I didn’t deposit and reaping what I didn’t sow, 23 why didn’t you put my money in the bank? And when I returned, I would have collected it with interest!’ 24 So he said to those standing there, ‘Take the mina away from him and give it to the one who has 10 minas.’

25 “But they said to him, ‘Master, he has 10 minas.’

26 “‘I tell you, that to everyone who has, more will be given; and from the one who does not have, even what he does have will be taken away. 27 But bring here these enemies of mine, who did not want me to rule over them, and slaughter^b them in my presence.’”

The Triumphal Entry

28 When He had said these things, He went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. 29 As He approached Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the •Mount of Olives, He sent two of the disciples 30 and said, “Go into the village ahead of you. As you enter it, you will find a young donkey tied there, on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it here. 31 If anyone asks you, ‘Why are you untying it?’ say this: ‘The Lord needs it.’”

32 So those who were sent left and found it just as He had told them. 33 As they were untying the young donkey, its owners said to them, “Why are you untying the donkey?”

34 “The Lord needs it,” they said. 35 Then they brought it to Jesus, and after throwing their robes on the donkey, they helped Jesus get on it. 36 As He was going along, they were spreading their robes on the road. 37 Now He came near the path down the Mount of Olives, and the whole crowd of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the miracles they had seen:

38 Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord.^c d
Peace in heaven
and glory in the highest heaven!

39 Some of the •Pharisees from the crowd told Him, “Teacher, rebuke Your disciples.”

40 He answered, “I tell you, if they were to keep silent, the stones would cry out!”

Jesus’ Love for Jerusalem

41 As He approached and saw the city, He wept over it, 42 saying, “If you knew this day what I would bring, peace—but now it is hidden from your eyes. 43 For the days will come on you when your enemies will build an embankment against you, surround you, and hem you in on every side. 44 They will crush you and your children within you to the ground, and they will not leave one stone on another in you, because you did not recognize the time of your visitation.”

Cleansing the Temple Complex

45 He went into the •temple complex and began to throw out those who were selling,^e

46 and He said, “It is written, My house will be a house of prayer, but you have made it a den of thieves!”^f

47 Every day He was teaching in the temple complex. The •chief priests, the •scribes, and the leaders of the people were looking for a way to destroy Him, 48 but they could not find a way to do it, because all the people were captivated by what they heard.^g

The Authority of Jesus Challenged

20 One day^h as He was teaching the people in the •temple complex and proclaiming the good news, the •chief priests and the •scribes, with the elders, came up 2 and said to Him: “Tell us, by what authority are You doing these things? Who is it who gave You this authority?”

3 He answered them, “I will also ask you a question. Tell Me, 4 was the baptism of John from heaven or from men?”

5 They discussed it among themselves: “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say, ‘Why didn’t you believe him?’ 6 But if we say, ‘From men,’ all the people will stone us, because they are convinced that John was a prophet.”

7 So they answered that they did not know its origin.ⁱ

The Parable of the Vineyard Owner

⁹ Then He began to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard, leased it to tenant farmers, and went away for a long time. ¹⁰ At harvest time he sent a •slave to the farmers so that they might give him some fruit from the vineyard. But the farmers beat him and sent him away empty-handed. ¹¹ He sent yet another slave, but they beat that one too, treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty-handed. ¹² And he sent yet a third, but they wounded this one too and threw him out.

¹³ “Then the owner of the vineyard said, ‘What should I do? I will send my beloved son. Perhaps^a they will respect him.’

¹⁴ “But when the tenant farmers saw him, they discussed it among themselves and said, ‘This is the heir. Let’s kill him, so the inheritance will be ours!’ ¹⁵ So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

“Therefore, what will the owner of the vineyard do to them? ¹⁶ He will come and destroy those farmers and give the vineyard to others.”

But when they heard this they said, “No—never!”

¹⁷ But He looked at them and said, “Then what is the meaning of this Scripture:^b

The stone that the builders rejected—
this has become the cornerstone?^{c d}

¹⁸ Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, and if it falls on anyone, it will grind him to powder!”

¹⁹ Then the scribes and the chief priests looked for a way to get their hands on Him that very hour, because they knew He had told this parable against them, but they feared the people.

God and Caesar

²⁰ They^e watched closely and sent spies who pretended to be righteous,^f so they could catch Him in what He said,^g to hand Him over to the governor’s rule and authority. ²¹ They questioned Him, “Teacher, we know that You speak and teach correctly, and You don’t show partiality,^h but teach truthfully the way of God. ²² Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?”

²³ But detecting their craftiness, He said to them,ⁱ ²⁴ “Show Me a •denarius. Whose image and inscription does it have?”

²⁵ “Well then,” He told them, “give back to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s and to God the things that are God’s.”

²⁶ They were not able to catch Him in what He said^g in public,^j and being amazed at His answer, they became silent.

The Sadducees and the Resurrection

²⁷ Some of the •Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came up and questioned Him: ²⁸ “Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother has a wife, and dies childless, his brother should take the wife and produce •offspring for his brother.^k ²⁹ Now there were seven brothers. The first took a wife and died without children. ³⁰ Also the second^l ³¹ and the third took her. In the same way, all seven died and left no children. ³² Finally, the woman died too. ³³ Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife will the woman be? For all seven had married her.”^m

³⁴ Jesus told them, “The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage. ³⁵ But those who are counted worthy to take part in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. ³⁶ For they cannot die anymore, because they are like angels and are sons of God, since they are sons of the resurrection. ³⁷ Moses even indicated [in the passage] about the burning bush that the dead are raised, where he calls the Lord the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.ⁿ ³⁸ He is not God of the dead but of the living, because all are living to^o Him.”

³⁹ Some of the scribes answered, “Teacher, You have spoken well.” ⁴⁰ And they no longer dared to ask Him anything.

The Question about the Messiah

⁴¹ Then He said to them, “How can they say that the •Messiah is the Son of David? ⁴² For David himself says in the Book of Psalms:

Warning against the Scribes

⁴⁵While all the people were listening, He said to His disciples, ⁴⁶“Beware of the scribes, who want to go around in long robes and who love greetings in the marketplaces, the front seats in the •synagogues, and the places of honor at banquets. ⁴⁷They devour widows’ houses and say long prayers just for show. These will receive greater punishment.”^a

The Widow's Gift

21 He looked up and saw the rich dropping their offerings into the temple treasury. ²He also saw a poor widow dropping in two tiny coins.^b ³“I tell you the truth,” He said. “This poor widow has put in more than all of them. ⁴For all these people have put in gifts out of their surplus, but she out of her poverty has put in all she had to live on.”

Destruction of the Temple Predicted

⁵As some were talking about the •temple complex, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God,^c He said, ⁶“These things that you see—the days will come when not one stone will be left on another that will not be thrown down!”

Signs of the End of the Age

⁷“Teacher,” they asked Him, “so when will these things be? And what will be the sign when these things are about to take place?”

⁸Then He said, “Watch out that you are not deceived. For many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am He,’ and, ‘The time is near.’ Don’t follow them. ⁹When you hear of wars and rebellions,^d don’t be alarmed. Indeed, these things must take place first, but the end won’t come right away.”

¹⁰Then He told them: “Nation will be raised up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. ¹¹There will be violent earthquakes, and famines and plagues in various places, and there will be terrifying sights and great signs from heaven. ¹²But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and persecute you. They will hand you over to the •synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of My name. ¹³It will lead to an opportunity for you to witness.^e ¹⁴Therefore make up your minds^f not to prepare your defense ahead of time, ¹⁵for I will give you such words^g and a wisdom that none of your adversaries will be able to resist or contradict. ¹⁶You will even be betrayed by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends. They will kill some of you. ¹⁷You will be hated by everyone because of My name, ¹⁸but not a hair of your head will be lost. ¹⁹By your endurance gain^h your •lives.

The Destruction of Jerusalem

²⁰“When you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then recognize that its desolation has come near. ²¹Then those in Judea must flee to the mountains! Those inside the cityⁱ must leave it, and those who are in the country must not enter it, ²²because these are days of vengeance to fulfill all the things that are written. ²³Woe to pregnant women and nursing mothers in those days, for there will be great distress in the land^j and wrath against this people. ²⁴They will fall by the edge of the sword and be led captive into all the nations, and Jerusalem will be trampled by the Gentiles^k until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

The Coming of the Son of Man

²⁵“Then there will be signs in the sun, moon, and stars; and there will be anguish on the earth among nations bewildered by the roaring sea and waves. ²⁶People will faint from fear and expectation of the things that are coming on the world, because the celestial powers will be shaken. ²⁷Then they will see the •Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. ²⁸But when these things begin to take place, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is near!”

The Parable of the Fig Tree

²⁹Then He told them a parable: “Look at the fig tree, and all the trees. ³⁰As soon as they put out [leaves] you can see for yourselves and recognize that summer is already near. ³¹In the same way, when you see these things happening, recognize^l that the kingdom of God is near. ³²•I assure you: This generation will certainly not pass away until all things take place. ³³Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away.

For it will come on all who live on the face of the whole earth. ³⁶ But be alert at all times, praying that you may have strength^c to escape all these things that are going to take place and to stand before the Son of Man.”

³⁷ During the day, He was teaching in the temple complex, but in the evening He would go out and spend the night on what is called the •Mount of Olives. ³⁸ Then all the people would come early in the morning to hear Him in the temple complex.

The Plot to Kill Jesus

22 The Festival of •Unleavened Bread, which is called •Passover, was drawing near. ² The •chief priests and the •scribes were looking for a way to put Him to death, because they were afraid of the people.

³ Then Satan entered Judas, called Iscariot, who was numbered among the Twelve. ⁴ He went away and discussed with the chief priests and temple police how he could hand Him over to them. ⁵ They were glad and agreed to give him silver.^d ⁶ So he accepted [the offer] and started looking for a good opportunity to betray Him to them when the crowd was not present.

Preparation for Passover

⁷ Then the Day of Unleavened Bread came when the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. ⁸ Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and prepare the Passover meal for us, so we can eat it.”

⁹ “Where do You want us to prepare it?” they asked Him.

¹⁰ “Listen,” He said to them, “when you’ve entered the city, a man carrying a water jug will meet you. Follow him into the house he enters. ¹¹ Tell the owner of the house, ‘The Teacher asks you, “Where is the guest room where I can eat the Passover with My disciples?”’” ¹² Then he will show you a large, furnished room upstairs. Make the preparations there.”

¹³ So they went and found it just as He had told them, and they prepared the Passover.

¹⁴ When the hour came, He reclined at the table, and the apostles with Him. ¹⁵ Then He said to them, “I have fervently desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. ¹⁶ For I tell you, I will not eat it again^e until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.” ¹⁷ Then He took a cup, and after giving thanks, He said, “Take this and share it among yourselves. ¹⁸ For I tell you, from now on I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes.”

¹⁹ And He took bread, gave thanks, broke it, gave it to them, and said, “This is My body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of Me.”

²⁰ In the same way He also took the cup after supper and said, “This cup is the new covenant [established by] My blood; it is shed for you.^f

²³ So they began to argue among themselves which of them it could be who was going to do this thing.

The Dispute over Greatness

²⁴ Then a dispute also arose among them about who should be considered the greatest. ²⁵ But He said to them, “The kings of the Gentiles dominate them, and those who have authority over them are called ‘Benefactors.’^h ²⁶ But it must not be like that among you. On the contrary, whoever is greatest among you must become like the youngest, and whoever leads, like the one serving. ²⁷ For who is greater, the one at the table or the one serving? Isn’t it the one at the table? But I am among you as the One who serves. ²⁸ You are the ones who stood by Me in My trials. ²⁹ I bestow on you a kingdom, just as My Father bestowed one on Me, ³⁰ so that you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom. And you will sit on thrones judging the 12 tribes of Israel.

Peter’s Denial Predicted

³¹ “Simon, Simon,ⁱ look out! Satan has asked to sift you^j like wheat. ³² But I have prayed for you^k that your faith may not fail. And you, when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers.”

³⁵ He also said to them, “When I sent you out without money-bag, traveling bag, or sandals, did you lack anything?”

“Not a thing,” they said.

³⁶ Then He said to them, “But now, whoever has a money-bag should take it, and also a traveling bag. And whoever doesn’t have a sword should sell his robe and buy one. ³⁷ For I tell you, what is written must be fulfilled in Me: And He was counted among the outlaws.^b Yes, what is written about Me is coming to its fulfillment.”

³⁸ “Lord,” they said, “look, here are two swords.”

“Enough of that!”^c He told them.

The Prayer in the Garden

³⁹ He went out and made His way as usual to the •Mount of Olives, and the disciples followed Him.

⁴⁰ When He reached the place, He told them, “Pray that you may not enter into temptation.”

⁴¹ Then He withdrew from them about a stone’s throw, knelt down, and began to pray, ⁴² “Father, if You are willing, take this cup away from Me—nevertheless, not My will, but Yours, be done.”

⁴⁵ When He got up from prayer and came to the disciples, He found them sleeping, exhausted from their grief.^e ⁴⁶ “Why are you sleeping?” He asked them. “Get up and pray, so that you won’t enter into temptation.”

The Judas Kiss

⁴⁷ While He was still speaking, suddenly a mob was there, and one of the Twelve named Judas was leading them. He came near Jesus to kiss Him, ⁴⁸ but Jesus said to him, “Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?”

⁴⁹ When those around Him saw what was going to happen, they asked, “Lord, should we strike with the sword?” ⁵⁰ Then one of them struck the high priest’s slave and cut off his right ear.

⁵¹ But Jesus responded, “No more of this!”^f And touching his ear, He healed him. ⁵² Then

Jesus said to the chief priests, temple police, and the elders who had come for Him, “Have you come out with swords and clubs as if I were a criminal?^g ⁵³ Every day while I was with you in the •temple complex, you never laid a hand on Me. But this is your hour—and the dominion of darkness.”

Peter Denies His Lord

⁵⁴ They seized Him, led Him away, and brought Him into the high priest’s house. Meanwhile Peter was following at a distance. ⁵⁵ They lit a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, and Peter sat among them. ⁵⁶ When a servant saw him sitting in the firelight, and looked closely at him, she said, “This man was with Him too.”

⁵⁷ But he denied it: “Woman, I don’t know Him!”

⁵⁸ After a little while, someone else saw him and said, “You’re one of them too!”

“Man, I am not!” Peter said.

⁵⁹ About an hour later, another kept insisting, “This man was certainly with Him, since he’s also a Galilean.”

⁶⁰ But Peter said, “Man, I don’t know what you’re talking about!” Immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed. ⁶¹ Then the Lord turned and looked at Peter. So Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had said to him, “Before the rooster crows today, you will deny Me three times.” ⁶² And he went outside and wept bitterly.

Jesus Mocked and Beaten

⁶³ The men who were holding Jesus started mocking and beating Him. ⁶⁴ After blindfolding Him, they kept^h asking, “Prophecy! Who hit You?” ⁶⁵ And they were saying many other blasphemous things against Him.

Jesus Faces the Sanhedrin

⁶⁶ When daylight came, the eldersⁱ of the people, both the chief priests and the scribes, convened and brought Him before their •Sanhedrin. ⁶⁷ They said, “If You are the •Messiah, tell us.”

But He said to them, “If I do tell you, you will not believe. ⁶⁸ And if I ask you, you will not answer. ⁶⁹ But from now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the Power of God.”

⁷⁰ They all asked, “Are You, then, the Son of God?”

And He said to them, "You say that I am."

⁷¹ "Why do we need any more testimony," they said, "since we've heard it ourselves from His mouth?"

Jesus Faces Pilate

23 Then their whole assembly rose up and brought Him before •Pilate. ² They began to accuse Him, saying, "We found this man subverting our nation, opposing payment of taxes to Caesar, and saying that He Himself is the •Messiah, a King."

³ So Pilate asked Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

He answered him, "You have said it."^a

⁴ Pilate then told the •chief priests and the crowds, "I find no grounds for charging this man."

⁵ But they kept insisting, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee where He started even to here."

Jesus Faces Herod Antipas

⁶ When Pilate heard this,^b he asked if the man was a Galilean. ⁷ Finding that He was under Herod's jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem during those days. ⁸ •Herod was very glad to see Jesus; for a long time he had wanted to see Him, because he had heard about Him and was hoping to see some miracle^c performed by Him. ⁹ So he kept asking Him questions, but Jesus did not answer him. ¹⁰ The chief priests and the •scribes stood by, vehemently accusing Him. ¹¹ Then Herod, with his soldiers, treated Him with contempt, mocked Him, dressed Him in a brilliant robe, and sent Him back to Pilate. ¹² That very day Herod and Pilate became friends.^d Previously, they had been hostile toward each other.

Jesus or Barabbas

¹³ Pilate called together the chief priests, the leaders, and the people, ¹⁴ and said to them, "You have brought me this man as one who subverts the people. But in fact, after examining Him in your presence, I have found no grounds to charge this man with those things you accuse Him of. ¹⁵ Neither has Herod, because he sent Him back to us. Clearly, He has done nothing to deserve death. ¹⁶ Therefore I will have Him whipped^e and [then] release Him." ¹⁷ For according to the festival he had to release someone to them.^f

¹⁸ Then they all cried out together, "Take this man away! Release Barabbas to us!" ¹⁹ (He had been thrown into prison for a rebellion that had taken place in the city, and for murder.)

²⁰ Pilate, wanting to release Jesus, addressed them again, ²¹ but they kept shouting, "Crucify! Crucify Him!"

²² A third time he said to them, "Why? What has this man done wrong? I have found in Him no grounds for the death penalty. Therefore I will have Him whipped and [then] release Him."

²³ But they kept up the pressure, demanding with loud voices that He be crucified. And their voices^g won out. ²⁴ So Pilate decided to grant their demand ²⁵ and released the one they were asking for, who had been thrown into prison for rebellion and murder. But he handed Jesus over to their will.

The Way to the Cross

²⁶ As they led Him away, they seized Simon, a Cyrenian, who was coming in from the country, and laid the cross on him to carry behind Jesus. ²⁷ A great multitude of the people followed Him, including women who were mourning and lamenting Him. ²⁸ But turning to them, Jesus said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me, but weep for yourselves and your children. ²⁹ Look, the days are coming when they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed!' ³⁰ Then they will begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us!' and to the hills, 'Cover us!'"^h ³¹ For if they do these things when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?"

Crucified between Two Criminals

³² Two others—criminals—were also led away to be executed with Him. ³³ When they arrived at the place called The Skull, they crucified Him there, along with the criminals, one on the right and one on the left. ³⁴ Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, because they do not know what they are doing."ⁱ And they divided His clothes and cast lots.

³⁵ The people stood watching, and even the leaders kept scoffing: "He saved others; let Him save Himself if this is God's Messiah, the Chosen One!" ³⁶ The soldiers also mocked Him. They

³⁸ An inscription was above Him:^a

³⁹ Then one of the criminals hanging there began to yell insults at^b Him: “Aren’t You the Messiah? Save Yourself and us!”

⁴⁰ But the other answered, rebuking him: “Don’t you even fear God, since you are undergoing the same punishment? ⁴¹ We are punished justly, because we’re getting back what we deserve for the things we did, but this man has done nothing wrong.” ⁴² Then he said, “Jesus, remember me^c when You come into Your kingdom!”

⁴³ And He said to him, “•I assure you: Today you will be with Me in paradise.”

The Death of Jesus

⁴⁴ It was now about noon,^d and darkness came over the whole land^e until three,^f ⁴⁵ because the sun’s light failed.^g The curtain of the sanctuary was split down the middle. ⁴⁶ And Jesus called out with a loud voice, “Father, into Your hands I entrust My spirit.”^h Saying this, He breathed His last.

⁴⁷ When the •centurion saw what happened, he began to glorify God, saying, “This man really was righteous!” ⁴⁸ All the crowds that had gathered for this spectacle, when they saw what had taken place, went home, striking their chests.ⁱ ⁴⁹ But all who knew Him, including the women who had followed Him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

The Burial of Jesus

⁵⁰ There was a good and righteous man named Joseph, a member of the •Sanhedrin, ⁵¹ who had not agreed with their plan and action. He was from Arimathea, a Judean town, and was looking forward to the kingdom of God. ⁵² He approached Pilate and asked for Jesus’ body. ⁵³ Taking it down, he wrapped it in fine linen and placed it in a tomb cut into the rock, where no one had ever been placed.^j ⁵⁴ It was preparation day, and the Sabbath was about to begin.^k ⁵⁵ The women who had come with Him from Galilee followed along and observed the tomb and how His body was placed. ⁵⁶ Then they returned and prepared spices and perfumes. And they rested on the Sabbath according to the commandment.

Resurrection Morning

24 On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they^l came to the tomb, bringing the spices they had prepared. ² They found the stone rolled away from the tomb. ³ They went in but did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. ⁴ While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men stood by them in dazzling clothes. ⁵ So the women were terrified and bowed down to the ground.^m

“Why are you looking for the living among the dead?” asked the men. ⁶ “He is not here, but He has been resurrected! Remember how He spoke to you when He was still in Galilee, ⁷ saying, ‘The •Son of Man must be betrayed into the hands of sinful men, be crucified, and rise on the third day?’” ⁸ And they remembered His words.

⁹ Returning from the tomb, they reported all these things to the Eleven and to all the rest. ¹⁰ •Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them were telling the apostles these things. ¹¹ But these words seemed like nonsense to them, and they did not believe the women. ¹² Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. When he stooped to look in, he saw only the linen cloths.ⁿ So he went home, amazed at what had happened.

The Emmaus Disciples

¹³ Now that same day two of them were on their way to a village called^o Emmaus, which was about seven miles^p from Jerusalem. ¹⁴ Together they were discussing everything that had taken place. ¹⁵ And while they were discussing and arguing, Jesus Himself came near and began to walk along with them. ¹⁶ But they^q were prevented from recognizing Him. ¹⁷ Then He asked them, “What is this dispute that you’re having^r with each other as you are walking?” And they stopped [walking and looked] discouraged.

¹⁸ The one named Cleopas answered Him, “Are You the only visitor in Jerusalem who

So they said to Him, "The things concerning Jesus the •Nazarene, who was a Prophet powerful in action and speech before God and all the people, ²⁰ and how our •chief priests and leaders handed Him over to be sentenced to death, and they crucified Him. ²¹ But we were hoping that He was the One who was about to redeem Israel. Besides all this, it's the third day since these things happened. ²² Moreover, some women from our group astounded us. They arrived early at the tomb, ²³ and when they didn't find His body, they came and reported that they had seen a vision of angels who said He was alive. ²⁴ Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but they didn't see Him."

²⁵ He said to them, "How unwise and slow you are to believe in your hearts all that the prophets have spoken! ²⁶ Didn't the •Messiah have to suffer these things and enter into His glory?" ²⁷ Then beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, He interpreted for them the things concerning Himself in all the Scriptures.

²⁸ They came near the village where they were going, and He gave the impression that He was going farther. ²⁹ But they urged Him: "Stay with us, because it's almost evening, and now the day is almost over." So He went in to stay with them.

³⁰ It was as He reclined at the table with them that He took the bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. ³¹ Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized Him, but He disappeared from their sight. ³² So they said to each other, "Weren't our hearts ablaze within us while He was talking with us on the road and explaining the Scriptures to us?" ³³ That very hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem. They found the Eleven and those with them gathered together, ³⁴ who said,^a "The Lord has certainly been raised, and has appeared to Simon!" ³⁵ Then they began to describe what had happened on the road and how He was made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

The Reality of the Risen Jesus

³⁶ And as they were saying these things, He Himself stood among them. He said to them, "Peace to you!" ³⁷ But they were startled and terrified and thought they were seeing a ghost. ³⁸ "Why are you troubled?" He asked them. "And why do doubts arise in your hearts?" ³⁹ Look at My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself! Touch Me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have." ⁴⁰ Having said this, He showed them His hands and feet. ⁴¹ But while they still could not believe^b because of [their] joy and were amazed, He asked them, "Do you have anything here to eat?" ⁴² So they gave Him a piece of a broiled fish,^c ⁴³ and He took it and ate in their presence.

⁴⁴ Then He told them, "These are My words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about Me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets, and the Psalms must be fulfilled." ⁴⁵ Then He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. ⁴⁶ He also said to them, "This is what is written:^d the Messiah would suffer and rise from the dead the third day, ⁴⁷ and repentance for^e forgiveness of sins would be proclaimed in His name to all the nations, beginning at Jerusalem. ⁴⁸ You are witnesses of these things. ⁴⁹ And look, I am sending you^f what My Father promised. As for you, stay in the city^g until you are empowered^h from on high."

The Ascension of Jesus

⁵⁰ Then He led them out as far as Bethany, and lifting up His hands He blessed them. ⁵¹ And while He was blessing them, He left them and was carried up into heaven. ⁵² After worshiping Him, they returned to Jerusalem with great joy. ⁵³ And they were continually in the •temple complex blessing God.ⁱ

JOHN

Prologue

- 1 In the beginning was the Word,^a
and the Word was with God,
and the Word was God.
2 He was with God in the beginning.
3 All things were created through Him,
and apart from Him not one thing was created
that has been created.
4 Life was in Him,^b
and that life was the light of men.
5 That light shines in the darkness,
yet the darkness did not overcome^c it.
6 There was a man named John who was sent from God.
7 He came as a witness to testify about the light,
so that all might believe through him.^d
8 He was not the light,
but he came to testify about the light.
9 The true light, who gives light to everyone,
was coming into the world.^e
10 He was in the world, and the world was created through Him,
yet the world did not recognize Him.
11 He came to His own,^f
and His own people^f did not receive Him.
12 But to all who did receive Him,
He gave them the right to be^g
children of God,
to those who believe in His name, 13 who were born,
not of blood,^h
or of the will of the flesh,
or of the will of man,ⁱ but of God.
14 The Word became flesh^j
and took up residence^k among us.

We observed His glory,
the glory as the •One and Only Son^l
from the Father,
full of grace and truth.
15 (John testified concerning Him
and exclaimed,
“This was the One of whom I said,
‘The One coming after me
has surpassed me,
because He existed before me.’”) 16 Indeed, we have all received grace after grace
from His fullness,
17 for although the law was given through Moses;
grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.
18 No one has ever seen God.^m
The One and Only Sonⁿ — the One who is at the Father's side^o —
He has revealed Him.

John the Baptist's Testimony

19 This is John's testimony when the •Jews from Jerusalem sent priests and Levites to ask him, “Who are you?”

20 He did not refuse to answer, but he declared: “I am not the •Messiah.”

21 “What then?” they asked him. “Are you Elijah?”

“I am not,” he said.

“Are you the Prophet?”^p

“No,” he answered.

22 “Who are you, then?” they asked. “We need to give an answer to those who sent us.
What can you tell us about yourself?”

23 He said, “I am a voice of one crying out in the wilderness: Make straight the way of the Lord^q —just as Isaiah the prophet said.”

^a1:1 The Word (Gk Logos) is a title for Jesus as the communication and the revealer of God the Father; Jn 1:14, 18; Rv 19:13.

²⁴ Now they had been sent from the •Pharisees. ²⁵ So they asked him, “Why then do you baptize if you aren’t the Messiah, or Elijah, or the Prophet?”

²⁶ “I baptize with^a water,” John answered them. “Someone stands among you, but you don’t know [Him]. ²⁷ He is the One coming after me,^b whose sandal strap I’m not worthy to untie.”

²⁸ All this happened in Bethany^c across the Jordan,^d where John was baptizing.

The Lamb of God

²⁹ The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, “Here is the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! ³⁰ This is the One I told you about: ‘After me comes a man who has surpassed me, because He existed before me.’ ³¹ I didn’t know Him, but I came baptizing with^a water so He might be revealed to Israel.”

³² And John testified, “I watched the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and He rested on Him. ³³ I didn’t know Him, but He who sent me to baptize with^a water told me, ‘The One you see the Spirit descending and resting on—He is the One who baptizes with^a the Holy Spirit.’ ³⁴ I have seen and testified that He is the Son of God!”^f

³⁵ Again the next day, John was standing with two of his disciples. ³⁶ When he saw Jesus passing by, he said, “Look! The Lamb of God!”

³⁷ The two disciples heard him say this and followed Jesus. ³⁸ When Jesus turned and noticed them following Him, He asked them, “What are you looking for?”

They said to Him, “•Rabbi” (which means “Teacher”), “where are You staying?”

³⁹ “Come and you’ll see,” He replied. So they went and saw where He was staying, and they stayed with Him that day. It was about 10 in the morning.^g

⁴⁰ Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, was one of the two who heard John and followed Him. ⁴¹ He first found his own brother Simon and told him, “We have found the Messiah!”^h (which means “Anointed One”), ⁴² and he brought [Simon] to Jesus.

When Jesus saw him, He said, “You are Simon, son of John.ⁱ You will be called •Cephas” (which means “Rock”).

Philip and Nathanael

⁴³ The next day He decided to leave for Galilee. Jesus found Philip and told him, “Follow Me!”

⁴⁴ Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the hometown of Andrew and Peter. ⁴⁵ Philip found Nathanael^k and told him, “We have found the One Moses wrote about in the Law (and so did the prophets): Jesus the son of Joseph, from Nazareth!”

⁴⁶ “Can anything good come out of Nazareth?” Nathanael asked him.

“Come and see,” Philip answered.

⁴⁷ Then Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward Him and said about him, “Here is a true Israelite; no deceit is in him.”

⁴⁸ “How do you know me?” Nathanael asked.

“Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you,” Jesus answered.

⁴⁹ “Rabbi,” Nathanael replied, “You are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!”

⁵⁰ Jesus responded to him, “Do you believe [only] because I told you I saw you under the fig tree? You^l will see greater things than this.”

⁵¹ Then He said, “•I assure you: You^m will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending on the •Son of Man.”

The First Sign: Turning Water into Wine

2 On the third day a wedding took place in Cana of Galilee. Jesus’ mother was there, and ² Jesus and His disciples were invited to the wedding as well. ³ When the wine ran out, Jesus’ mother told Him, “They don’t have any wine.”

⁴ “What has this concern of yours to do with Me,ⁿ •woman?” Jesus asked. “My hour^o has not yet come.”

Various methods of reckoning time were used in the ancient world. John probably used a different method from the other 3 Gospels. If John used the same method of time reckoning as the other 3 Gospels, the translation would be: It was about four in the afternoon. ^h1:41 In the NT, the word Messiah translates the Gk word Christos (“Anointed One”), except here and in Jn 4:25 where it translates Messias. ⁱ1:42 Other mss read Simon, son of Jonah ^j1:43 Or he, referring either to Peter (v. 42) or Andrew (vv. 40–41) ^k1:45 Probably the Bartholomew of the other Gospels and Acts ^l1:50 You (sg in Gk) refers to Nathanael. ^m1:51 You is pl in Gk and refers to Nathanael and the other disciples. ⁿ2:4 Or You and I see things differently; lit What to Me and to you; Mt 8:29; Mk 1:24; 5:7; Lk 8:28 ^o2:4 The time of His sacrificial death and exaltation; Jn 7:30; 8:20; 12:23,27; 13:1; 17:1

⁵ “Do whatever He tells you,” His mother told the servants.

⁶ Now six stone water jars had been set there for Jewish purification. Each contained 20 or 30 gallons.^a

⁷ “Fill the jars with water,” Jesus told them. So they filled them to the brim. ⁸ Then He said to them, “Now draw some out and take it to the chief servant.”^b And they did.

⁹ When the chief servant tasted the water (after it had become wine), he did not know where it came from—though the servants who had drawn the water knew. He called the groom ¹⁰ and told him, “Everybody sets out the fine wine first, then, after people have drunk freely, the inferior. But you have kept the fine wine until now.”

¹¹ Jesus performed this first sign^c in Cana of Galilee. He displayed His glory, and His disciples believed in Him.

¹² After this, He went down to Capernaum, together with His mother, His brothers, and His disciples, and they stayed there only a few days.

Cleansing the Temple Complex

¹³ The Jewish •Passover was near, so Jesus went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁴ In the •temple complex He found people selling oxen, sheep, and doves, and [He also found] the money changers sitting there. ¹⁵ After making a whip out of cords, He drove everyone out of the temple complex with their sheep and oxen. He also poured out the money changers’ coins and overturned the tables. ¹⁶ He told those who were selling doves, “Get these things out of here! Stop turning My Father’s house into a marketplace!”^d

¹⁷ And His disciples remembered that it is written: Zeal for Your house will consume Me.^e

¹⁸ So the Jews replied to Him, “What sign [of authority] will You show us for doing these things?”

¹⁹ Jesus answered, “Destroy this sanctuary, and I will raise it up in three days.”

²⁰ Therefore the Jews said, “This sanctuary took 46 years to build, and will You raise it up in three days?”

²¹ But He was speaking about the sanctuary of His body. ²² So when He was raised from the dead, His disciples remembered that He had said this. And they believed the Scripture and the statement Jesus had made.

²³ While He was in Jerusalem at the Passover Festival, many trusted in His name when they saw the signs He was doing. ²⁴ Jesus, however, would not entrust Himself to them, since He knew them all ²⁵ and because He did not need anyone to testify about man; for He Himself knew what was in man.

Jesus and Nicodemus

3 There was a man from the •Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. ² This man came to Him at night and said, “•Rabbi, we know that You have come from God as a teacher, for no one could perform these signs You do unless God were with him.”

³ Jesus replied, “•I assure you: Unless someone is born again,^f he cannot see the kingdom of God.”

⁴ “But how can anyone be born when he is old?” Nicodemus asked Him. “Can he enter his mother’s womb a second time and be born?”

⁵ Jesus answered, “I assure you: Unless someone is born of water and the Spirit,^g he cannot enter the kingdom of God. ⁶ Whatever is born of the flesh is flesh, and whatever is born of the Spirit is spirit. ⁷ Do not be amazed that I told you that you^h must be born again. ⁸ The windⁱ blows where it pleases, and you hear its sound, but you don’t know where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit.”

⁹ “How can these things be?” asked Nicodemus.

¹⁰ “Are you a teacher^j of Israel and don’t know these things?” Jesus replied. ¹¹ “I assure you: We speak what We know and We testify to what We have seen, but you^k do not accept Our testimony.^l ¹² If I have told you about things that happen on earth and you don’t believe, how will you believe if I tell you about things of heaven?

Jesus and John the Baptist

²² After this, Jesus and His disciples went to the Judean countryside, where He spent time with them and baptized. ²³ John also was baptizing in Aenon near Salim, because there was plenty of water there. People were coming and being baptized, ²⁴ since John had not yet been thrown into prison.

²⁵ Then a dispute arose between John’s disciples and a •Jew^d about purification. ²⁶ So they came to John and told him, “Rabbi, the One you testified about, and who was with you across the Jordan, is baptizing—and everyone is flocking to Him.”

²⁷ John responded, “No one can receive a single thing unless it’s given to him from heaven. ²⁸ You yourselves can testify that I said, ‘I am not the •Messiah, but I’ve been sent ahead of Him.’ ²⁹ He who has the bride is the groom. But the groom’s friend, who stands by and listens for him, rejoices greatly^e at the groom’s voice. So this joy of mine is complete. ³⁰ He must increase, but I must decrease.”

The One from Heaven

³¹ The One who comes from above is above all. The one who is from the earth is earthly and speaks in earthly terms.^f The One who comes from heaven is above all. ³² He testifies to what He has seen and heard, yet no one accepts His testimony. ³³ The one who has accepted His testimony has affirmed that God is true. ³⁴ For God sent Him, and He speaks God’s words, since He^g gives the Spirit without measure. ³⁵ The Father loves the Son and has given all things into His hands. ³⁶ The one who believes in the Son has eternal life, but the one who refuses to believe in the Son will not see life; instead, the wrath of God remains on him.

Jesus and the Samaritan Woman

4 When Jesus^h knew that the •Pharisees heard He was making and baptizing more disciples than John ² (though Jesus Himself was not baptizing, but His disciples were), ³ He left Judea and went again to Galilee. ⁴ He had to travel through Samaria, ⁵ so He came to a town of Samaria called Sychar near the propertyⁱ that Jacob had given his son Joseph. ⁶ Jacob’s well was there, and Jesus, worn out from His journey, sat down at the well. It was about six in the evening.^j

⁷ A woman of Samaria came to draw water.

“Give Me a drink,” Jesus said to her, ⁸ for His disciples had gone into town to buy food.

⁹ “How is it that You, a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a •Samaritan woman?” she asked Him. For Jews do not associate with^k Samaritans.^l

¹⁰ Jesus answered, “If you knew the gift of God, and who is saying to you, ‘Give Me a drink,’ you would ask Him, and He would give you living water.”

¹¹ “Sir,” said the woman, “You don’t even have a bucket, and the well is deep. So where do you get this ‘living water’? ¹² You aren’t greater than our father Jacob, are you? He gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did his sons and livestock.”

¹³ Jesus said, “Everyone who drinks from this water will get thirsty again. ¹⁴ But whoever drinks from the water that I will give him will never get thirsty again—ever! In fact, the water I will give him will become a well^m of water springing up within him for eternal life.”

¹⁵ “Sir,” the woman said to Him, “give me this water so I won’t get thirsty and come here to draw water.”

¹⁶ “Go call your husband,” He told her, “and come back here.”

¹⁷ “I don’t have a husband,” she answered.

²¹ Jesus told her, "Believe Me, •woman, an hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. ²² You Samaritans^b worship what you do not know. We worship what we do know, because salvation is from the Jews. ²³ But an hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth. Yes, the Father wants such people to worship Him. ²⁴ God is spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth."

²⁵ The woman said to Him, "I know that •Messiah^c is coming" (who is called Christ). "When He comes, He will explain everything to us."

²⁶ "I am [He]," Jesus told her, "the One speaking to you."

The Ripened Harvest

²⁷ Just then His disciples arrived, and they were amazed that He was talking with a woman. Yet no one said, "What do You want?" or "Why are You talking with her?"

²⁸ Then the woman left her water jar, went into town, and told the men, ²⁹ "Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did! Could this be the Messiah?" ³⁰ They left the town and made their way to Him.

³¹ In the meantime the disciples kept urging Him, "•Rabbi, eat something."

³² But He said, "I have food to eat that you don't know about."

³³ The disciples said to one another, "Could someone have brought Him something to eat?"

³⁴ "My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me and to finish His work," Jesus told them.

³⁵ "Don't you say, 'There are still four more months, then comes the harvest'? Listen [to what] I'm telling you: Open^d your eyes and look at the fields, for they are ready^e for harvest. ³⁶ The reaper is already receiving pay and gathering fruit for eternal life, so the sower and reaper can rejoice together. ³⁷ For in this case the saying is true: 'One sows and another reaps.' ³⁸ I sent you to reap what you didn't labor for; others have labored, and you have benefited from^f their labor."

The Savior of the World

³⁹ Now many Samaritans from that town believed in Him because of what the woman said^g when she testified, "He told me everything I ever did." ⁴⁰ Therefore, when the Samaritans came to Him, they asked Him to stay with them, and He stayed there two days. ⁴¹ Many more believed because of what He said.^h ⁴² And they told the woman, "We no longer believe because of what you said, for we have heard for ourselves and know that this really is the Savior of the world."ⁱ

A Galilean Welcome

⁴³ After two days He left there for Galilee. ⁴⁴ Jesus Himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country. ⁴⁵ When they entered Galilee, the Galileans welcomed Him because they had seen everything He did in Jerusalem during the festival. For they also had gone to the festival.

The Second Sign: Healing an Official's Son

⁴⁶ Then He went again to Cana of Galilee, where He had turned the water into wine. There was a certain royal official whose son was ill at Capernaum. ⁴⁷ When this man heard that Jesus had come from Judea into Galilee, he went to Him and pleaded with Him to come down and heal his son, for he was about to die.

⁴⁸ Jesus told him, "Unless you [people] see signs and wonders, you will not believe."

⁴⁹ "Sir," the official said to Him, "come down before my boy dies!"

⁵⁰ "Go," Jesus told him, "your son will live." The man believed what^j Jesus said to him and departed.

⁵¹ While he was still going down, his •slaves met him saying that his boy was alive. ⁵² He asked them at what time he got better. "Yesterday at seven in the morning^k the fever left him," they answered. ⁵³ The father realized this was the very hour at which Jesus had told him, "Your son will live.” Then he himself believed, along with his whole household.

⁵⁴ This therefore was the second sign Jesus performed after He came from Judea to Galilee.

The Third Sign: Healing the Sick

5 After this, a Jewish festival took place, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. ² By the Sheep Gate in Jerusalem there is a pool, called Bethesda^a in Hebrew, which has five colonnades.^b ³ Within these lay a multitude of the sick—blind, lame, and paralyzed [—waiting for the moving of the water, ⁴ because an angel would go down into the pool from time to time and stir up the water. Then the first one who got in after the water was stirred up recovered from whatever ailment he had].^c

⁵ One man was there who had been sick for 38 years. ⁶ When Jesus saw him lying there and knew he had already been there a long time, He said to him, “Do you want to get well?”

⁷ “Sir,” the sick man answered, “I don’t have a man to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, but while I’m coming, someone goes down ahead of me.”

⁸ “Get up,” Jesus told him, “pick up your bedroll and walk!” ⁹ Instantly the man got well, picked up his bedroll, and started to walk.

Now that day was the Sabbath, ¹⁰ so the •Jews said to the man who had been healed, “This is the Sabbath! It’s illegal for you to pick up your bedroll.”

¹¹ He replied, “The man who made me well told me, ‘Pick up your bedroll and walk.’”

¹² “Who is this man who told you, ‘Pick up [your bedroll] and walk?’” they asked. ¹³ But the man who was cured did not know who it was, because Jesus had slipped away into the crowd that was there.^d

¹⁴ After this, Jesus found him in the •temple complex and said to him, “See, you are well. Do not sin any more, so that something worse doesn’t happen to you.” ¹⁵ The man went and reported to the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.

Honoring the Father and the Son

¹⁶ Therefore, the Jews began persecuting Jesus^e because He was doing these things on the Sabbath. ¹⁷ But Jesus responded to them, “My Father is still working, and I am working also.”

¹⁸ This is why the Jews began trying all the more to kill Him: not only was He breaking the Sabbath, but He was even calling God His own Father, making Himself equal with God.

¹⁹ Then Jesus replied, “•I assure you: The Son is not able to do anything on His own, but only what He sees the Father doing. For whatever the Father^f does, the Son also does these things in the same way. ²⁰ For the Father loves the Son and shows Him everything He is doing, and He will show Him greater works than these so that you will be amazed. ²¹ And just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so the Son also gives life to anyone He wants to. ²² The Father, in fact, judges no one but has given all judgment to the Son, ²³ so that all people will honor the Son just as they honor the Father. Anyone who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him.

Life and Judgment

²⁴ “I assure you: Anyone who hears My word and believes Him who sent Me has eternal life and will not come under judgment but has passed from death to life.

²⁵ “I assure you: An hour is coming, and is now here, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. ²⁶ For just as the Father has life in Himself, so also He has granted to the Son to have life in Himself. ²⁷ And He has granted Him the right to pass judgment, because He is the •Son of Man. ²⁸ Do not be amazed at this, because a time is coming when all who are in the graves will hear His voice ²⁹ and come out—those who have done good things, to the resurrection of life, but those who have done wicked things, to the resurrection of judgment.

³⁰ “I can do nothing on My own. I judge only as I hear, and My judgment is righteous, because I do not seek My own will, but the will of Him who sent Me.

Four Witnesses to Jesus

³¹ “If I testify about Myself, My testimony is not valid.^g ³² There is Another who testifies about Me, and I know that the testimony He gives about Me is valid.^h ³³ You have sent [messengers] to John, and he has testified to the truth. ³⁴ I don’t receive man’s testimony, but I say these things so that you may be saved. ³⁵ Johnⁱ was a burning and shining lamp, and for a time you were willing to enjoy his light.

³⁶ “But I have a greater testimony than John’s because of the works that the Father has given Me to accomplish. These very works I am doing testify about Me that the Father has sent Me. ³⁷ The Father who sent Me has Himself testified about Me. You have not heard His voice at any time, and you haven’t seen His form. ³⁸ You don’t have His word living in you, because you don’t believe the One He sent. ³⁹ You pore over^a the Scriptures because you think you have eternal life in them, yet they testify about Me. ⁴⁰ And you are not willing to come to Me that you may have life.

⁴¹ “I do not accept glory from men, ⁴² but I know you—that you have no love for God within you. ⁴³ I have come in My Father’s name, yet you don’t accept Me. If someone else comes in his own name, you will accept him. ⁴⁴ How can you believe? While accepting glory from one another, you don’t seek the glory that comes from the only God. ⁴⁵ Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father. Your accuser is Moses, on whom you have set your hope. ⁴⁶ For if you believed Moses, you would believe Me, because he wrote about Me. ⁴⁷ But if you don’t believe his writings, how will you believe My words?”

The Fourth Sign: Feeding 5,000

6 After this, Jesus crossed the Sea of Galilee (or Tiberias). ² And a huge crowd was following Him because they saw the signs that He was performing on the sick. ³ So Jesus went up a mountain and sat down there with His disciples.

⁴ Now the •Passover, a Jewish festival, was near. ⁵ Therefore, when Jesus looked up and noticed a huge crowd coming toward Him, He asked Philip, “Where will we buy bread so these people can eat?” ⁶ He asked this to test him, for He Himself knew what He was going to do.

⁷ Philip answered, “Two hundred •denarii worth of bread wouldn’t be enough for each of them to have a little.”

⁸ One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, said to Him, ⁹ “There’s a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish—but what are they for so many?”

¹⁰ Then Jesus said, “Have the people sit down.”

There was plenty of grass in that place, so they sat down. The men numbered about 5,000.

¹¹ Then Jesus took the loaves, and after giving thanks He distributed them to those who were seated—so also with the fish, as much as they wanted.

¹² When they were full, He told His disciples, “Collect the leftovers so that nothing is wasted.”

¹³ So they collected them and filled 12 baskets with the pieces from the five barley loaves that were left over by those who had eaten.

¹⁴ When the people saw the sign^b He had done, they said, “This really is the Prophet who was to come into the world!” ¹⁵ Therefore, when Jesus knew that they were about to come and take Him by force to make Him king, He withdrew again^c to the mountain by Himself.

The Fifth Sign: Walking on Water

¹⁶ When evening came, His disciples went down to the sea, ¹⁷ got into a boat, and started across the sea to Capernaum. Darkness had already set in, but Jesus had not yet come to them. ¹⁸ Then a high wind arose, and the sea began to churn. ¹⁹ After they had rowed about three or four miles,^d they saw Jesus walking on the sea. He was coming near the boat, and they were afraid.

²⁰ But He said to them, “It is I.^e Don’t be afraid!” ²¹ Then they were willing to take Him on board, and at once the boat was at the shore where they were heading.

The Bread of Life

²² The next day, the crowd that had stayed on the other side of the sea knew there had been only one boat.^f [They also knew] that Jesus had not boarded the boat with His disciples, but that His disciples had gone off alone. ²³ Some boats from Tiberias came near the place where they ate the bread after the Lord gave thanks. ²⁴ When the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor His disciples were there, they got into the boats and went to Capernaum looking for Jesus.

²⁵ When they found Him on the other side of the sea, they said to Him, “•Rabbi, when did You get here?”

²⁶ Jesus answered, “•I assure you: You are looking for Me, not because you saw the signs, but because you ate the loaves and were filled. ²⁷ Don’t work for the food that perishes but for the food that lasts for eternal life, which the •Son of Man will give you, because God the Father has set His seal of approval on Him.”

²⁸ “What can we do to perform the works of God?” they asked.

^a5:39 In Gk this could be a command: Pore over. . . ^b6:14 Other mss read signs ^c6:15 A previous withdrawal is mentioned in Mk 6:31–32, an event that occurred just before the feeding of the 5,000. ^d6:19 Lit 25 or 30 stadia; 1 stadion = 600 feet ^e6:20 Lit I am ^f6:22 Other mss add into which His disciples had entered

²⁹ Jesus replied, “This is the work of God: that you believe in the One He has sent.”

³⁰ “What sign then are You going to do so we may see and believe You?” they asked. “What are You going to perform? ³¹ Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, just as it is written: He gave them bread from heaven to eat.”^{a b}

³² Jesus said to them, “I assure you: Moses didn’t give you the bread from heaven, but My Father gives you the real bread from heaven.

³³ For the bread of God is the One who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.”

³⁴ Then they said, “Sir, give us this bread always!”

³⁵ “I am the bread of life,” Jesus told them. “No one who comes to Me will ever be hungry, and no one who believes in Me will ever be thirsty again. ³⁶ But as I told you, you’ve seen Me,^c and yet you do not believe. ³⁷ Everyone the Father gives Me will come to Me, and the one who comes to Me I will never cast out. ³⁸ For I have come down from heaven, not to do My will, but the will of Him who sent Me. ³⁹ This is the will of Him who sent Me: that I should lose none of those He has given Me but should raise them up on the last day. ⁴⁰ For this is the will of My Father: that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him may have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day.”

⁴¹ Therefore the Jews started complaining about Him, because He said, “I am the bread that came down from heaven.” ⁴² They were saying, “Isn’t this Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can He now say, ‘I have come down from heaven?’”

⁴³ Jesus answered them, “Stop complaining among yourselves. ⁴⁴ No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws^d him, and I will raise him up on the last day. ⁴⁵ It is written in the Prophets: And they will all be taught by God.^e Everyone who has listened to and learned from the Father comes to Me— ⁴⁶ not that anyone has seen the Father except the One who is from God. He has seen the Father.

⁴⁷ “I assure you: Anyone who believes^f has eternal life. ⁴⁸ I am the bread of life. ⁴⁹ Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. ⁵⁰ This is the bread that comes down from heaven so that anyone may eat of it and not die. ⁵¹ I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread he will live forever. The bread that I will give for the life of the world is My flesh.”

⁵² At that, the Jews argued among themselves, “How can this man give us His flesh to eat?”

⁵³ So Jesus said to them, “I assure you: Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you do not have life in yourselves. ⁵⁴ Anyone who eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day, ⁵⁵ because My flesh is real food and My blood is real drink. ⁵⁶ The one who eats My flesh and drinks My blood lives in Me, and I in him. ⁵⁷ Just as the living Father sent Me and I live because of the Father, so the one who feeds on Me will live because of Me. ⁵⁸ This is the bread that came down from heaven; it is not like the manna^g your fathers ate—and they died. The one who eats this bread will live forever.”

⁵⁹ He said these things while teaching in the •synagogue in Capernaum.

Many Disciples Desert Jesus

⁶⁰ Therefore, when many of His disciples heard this, they said, “This teaching is hard! Who can accept^h it?”

⁶¹ Jesus, knowing in Himself that His disciples were complaining about this, asked them, “Does this offend you? ⁶² Then what if you were to observe the Son of Man ascending to where He was before? ⁶³ The Spirit is the One who gives life. The flesh doesn’t help at all. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and are life. ⁶⁴ But there are some among you who don’t believe.” (For Jesus knew from the beginning those who would notⁱ believe and the one who would betray Him.) ⁶⁵ He said, “This is why I told you that no one can come to Me unless it is granted to him by the Father.”

⁶⁶ From that moment many of His disciples turned back and no longer accompanied Him. ⁶⁷ Therefore Jesus said to the Twelve, “You don’t want to go away too, do you?”

⁶⁸ Simon Peter answered, “Lord, who will we go to? You have the words of eternal life. ⁶⁹ We have come to believe and know that You are the Holy One of God!”^j

⁷⁰ Jesus replied to them, “Didn’t I choose you, the Twelve? Yet one of you is the Devil!”^k ⁷¹ He was referring to Judas, Simon Iscariot’s son,^k one of the Twelve, because he was going to betray Him.

The Unbelief of Jesus' Brothers

7 After this, Jesus traveled in Galilee, since He did not want to travel in Judea because the •Jews were trying to kill Him. ² The Jewish Festival of Tabernacles^{a b} was near, ³ so His brothers said to Him, “Leave here and go to Judea so Your disciples can see Your works that You are doing. ⁴ For no one does anything in secret while he’s seeking public recognition. If You do these things, show Yourself to the world.” ⁵ (For not even His brothers believed in Him.)

⁶ Jesus told them, “My time has not yet arrived, but your time is always at hand. ⁷ The world cannot hate you, but it does hate Me because I testify about it—that its deeds are evil. ⁸ Go up to the festival yourselves. I’m not going up to the festival yet,^c because My time has not yet fully come.” ⁹ After He had said these things, He stayed in Galilee.

Jesus at the Festival of Tabernacles

¹⁰ After His brothers had gone up to the festival, then He also went up, not openly but secretly. ¹¹ The Jews were looking for Him at the festival and saying, “Where is He?” ¹² And there was a lot of discussion about Him among the crowds. Some were saying, “He’s a good man.” Others were saying, “No, on the contrary, He’s deceiving the people.” ¹³ Still, nobody was talking publicly about Him because they feared the Jews.

¹⁴ When the festival was already half over, Jesus went up into the •temple complex and began to teach. ¹⁵ Then the Jews were amazed and said, “How does He know the Scriptures, since He hasn’t been trained?”

¹⁶ Jesus answered them, “My teaching isn’t Mine but is from the One who sent Me. ¹⁷ If anyone wants to do His will, he will understand whether the teaching is from God or if I am speaking on My own. ¹⁸ The one who speaks for himself seeks his own glory. But He who seeks the glory of the One who sent Him is true, and there is no unrighteousness in Him. ¹⁹ Didn’t Moses give you the law? Yet none of you keeps the law! Why do you want to kill Me?”

²⁰ “You have a demon!” the crowd responded. “Who wants to kill You?”

²¹ “I did one work, and you are all amazed,” Jesus answered. ²² “Consider this: Moses has given you circumcision—not that it comes from Moses but from the fathers—and you circumcise a man on the Sabbath. ²³ If a man receives circumcision on the Sabbath so that the law of Moses won’t be broken, are you angry at Me because I made a man entirely well on the Sabbath? ²⁴ Stop judging according to outward appearances; rather judge according to righteous judgment.”

The Identity of the Messiah

²⁵ Some of the people of Jerusalem were saying, “Isn’t this the man they want to kill? ²⁶ Yet, look! He’s speaking publicly and they’re saying nothing to Him. Can it be true that the authorities know He is the •Messiah? ²⁷ But we know where this man is from. When the Messiah comes, nobody will know where He is from.”

²⁸ As He was teaching in the temple complex, Jesus cried out, “You know Me and you know where I am from. Yet I have not come on My own, but the One who sent Me is true. You don’t know Him; ²⁹ I know Him because I am from Him, and He sent Me.”

³⁰ Then they tried to seize Him. Yet no one laid a hand on Him because His hour^d had not yet come. ³¹ However, many from the crowd believed in Him and said, “When the Messiah comes, He won’t perform more signs than this man has done, will He?”

³² The •Pharisees heard the crowd muttering these things about Him, so the •chief priests and the Pharisees sent temple police to arrest Him.

³³ Then Jesus said, “I am only with you for a short time. Then I’m going to the One who sent Me. ³⁴ You will look for Me, but you will not find Me; and where I am, you cannot come.”

³⁵ Then the Jews said to one another, “Where does He intend to go so we won’t find Him? He doesn’t intend to go to the Dispersion^e among the Greeks and teach the Greeks, does He? ³⁶ What is this remark He made: ‘You will look for Me, and you will not find Me; and where I am, you cannot come’?”

The Promise of the Spirit

³⁷ On the last and most important day of the festival, Jesus stood up and cried out, “If anyone is thirsty, he should come to Me^f and drink! ³⁸ The one who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said,^g will have streams of living water flow from deep within him.” ³⁹ He said this about the Spirit, whom those who believed in Him were going to receive, for the Spirit^a had not yet been received,^b ^c because Jesus had not yet been glorified.

The People Are Divided over Jesus

⁴⁰ When some from the crowd heard these words, they said, “This really is the Prophet!”^d ⁴¹ Others said, “This is the Messiah!” But some said, “Surely the Messiah doesn’t come from Galilee, does He?” ⁴² Doesn’t the Scripture say that the Messiah comes from David’s offspring^e and from the town of Bethlehem, where David once lived?” ⁴³ So a division occurred among the crowd because of Him. ⁴⁴ Some of them wanted to seize Him, but no one laid hands on Him.

Debate over Jesus’ Claims

⁴⁵ Then the temple police came to the chief priests and Pharisees, who asked them, “Why haven’t you brought Him?”

⁴⁶ The police answered, “No man ever spoke like this!”^f

⁴⁷ Then the Pharisees responded to them: “Are you fooled too? ⁴⁸ Have any of the rulers believed in Him? Or any of the Pharisees? ⁴⁹ But this crowd, which doesn’t know the law, is accursed!”

⁵² “You aren’t from Galilee too, are you?” they replied. “Investigate and you will see that no prophet arises from Galilee.”^g

8 ⁵³ So each one went to his house. ¹ But Jesus went to the •Mount of Olives.

An Adulteress Forgiven

² At dawn He went to the •temple complex again, and all the people were coming to Him. He sat down and began to teach them.

³ Then the •scribes and the •Pharisees brought a woman caught in adultery, making her stand in the center. ⁴ “Teacher,” they said to Him, “this woman was caught in the act of committing adultery. ⁵ In the law Moses commanded us to stone such women. So what do You say?” ⁶ They asked this to trap Him, in order that they might have evidence to accuse Him.

Jesus stooped down and started writing on the ground with His finger. ⁷ When they persisted in questioning Him, He stood up and said to them, “The one without sin among you should be the first to throw a stone at her.”

⁸ Then He stooped down again and continued writing on the ground. ⁹ When they heard this, they left one by one, starting with the older men. Only He was left, with the woman in the center. ¹⁰ When Jesus stood up, He said to her, “•Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?”

¹¹ “No one, Lord,”^h she answered.

“Neither do I condemn you,” said Jesus. “Go, and from now on do not sin any more.”ⁱ

¹² Then Jesus spoke to them again: “I am the light of the world. Anyone who follows Me will never walk in the darkness but will have the light of life.”

Jesus’ Self-Witness

¹³ So the Pharisees said to Him, “You are testifying about Yourself. Your testimony is not valid.”^j

¹⁴ “Even if I testify about Myself,” Jesus replied, “My testimony is valid,^k because I know where I came from and where I’m going. But you don’t know where I come from or where I’m going. ¹⁵ You judge by human standards.^l I judge no one. ¹⁶ And if I do judge, My judgment is true, because I am not alone, but I and the Father who sent Me [judge together]. ¹⁷ Even in your law it is written that the witness of two men is valid. ¹⁸ I am the One who testifies about Myself, and the Father who sent Me testifies about Me.”

¹⁹ Then they asked Him, “Where is Your Father?”

“You know neither Me nor My Father,” Jesus answered. “If you knew Me, you would also know My Father.” ²⁰ He spoke these words by the treasury,^m while teaching in the temple complex. But no one seized Him, because His hourⁿ had not come.

²² So the Jews said again, "He won't kill Himself, will He, since He says, 'Where I'm going, you cannot come'?"

²³ "You are from below," He told them, "I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world. ²⁴ Therefore I told you that you will die in your sins. For if you do not believe that I am [He],^a you will die in your sins."

²⁵ "Who are You?" they questioned.

"Precisely what I've been telling you from the very beginning," Jesus told them. ²⁶ "I have many things to say and to judge about you, but the One who sent Me is true, and what I have heard from Him—these things I tell the world."

²⁷ They did not know He was speaking to them about the Father. ²⁸ So Jesus said to them, "When you lift up the •Son of Man, then you will know that I am [He], and that I do nothing on My own. But just as the Father taught Me, I say these things. ²⁹ The One who sent Me is with Me. He has not left Me alone, because I always do what pleases Him."

Truth and Freedom

³⁰ As He was saying these things, many believed in Him. ³¹ So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed Him, "If you continue in My word,^b you really are My disciples. ³² You will know the truth, and the truth will set you free."

³³ "We are descendants^c of Abraham," they answered Him, "and we have never been enslaved to anyone. How can You say, 'You will become free'?"

³⁴ Jesus responded, "•I assure you: Everyone who commits sin is a slave of sin. ³⁵ A slave does not remain in the household forever, but a son does remain forever. ³⁶ Therefore if the Son sets you free, you really will be free. ³⁷ I know you are descendants^c of Abraham, but you are trying to kill Me because My word^b is not welcome among you. ³⁸ I speak what I have seen in the presence of the Father,^d and therefore you do what you have heard from your father."

³⁹ "Our father is Abraham!" they replied.

"If you were Abraham's children," Jesus told them, "you would do what Abraham did. ⁴⁰ But now you are trying to kill Me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. Abraham did not do this!⁴¹ You're doing what your father does."

"We weren't born of sexual immorality," they said. "We have one Father—God."

⁴² Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love Me, because I came from God and I am here. For I didn't come on My own, but He sent Me. ⁴³ Why don't you understand what I say? Because you cannot listen to My word. ⁴⁴ You are of your father the Devil, and you want to carry out your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning and has not stood in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he tells a lie, he speaks from his own nature;^f because he is a liar and the father of liars.^g ⁴⁵ Yet because I tell the truth, you do not believe Me. ⁴⁶ Who among you can convict Me of sin? If I tell the truth, why don't you believe Me? ⁴⁷ The one who is from God listens to God's words. This is why you don't listen, because you are not from God."

Jesus and Abraham

⁴⁸ The Jews responded to Him, "Aren't we right in saying that You're a •Samaritan and have a demon?"

⁴⁹ "I do not have a demon," Jesus answered. "On the contrary, I honor My Father and you dishonor Me. ⁵⁰ I do not seek My glory; the One who seeks it also judges. ⁵¹ I assure you: If anyone keeps My word, he will never see death—ever!"

⁵² Then the Jews said, "Now we know You have a demon. Abraham died and so did the prophets. You say, 'If anyone keeps My word, he will never taste death—ever!' ⁵³ Are You greater than our father Abraham who died? Even the prophets died. Who do You pretend to be?"^h

⁵⁴ "If I glorify Myself," Jesus answered, "My glory is nothing. My Father—you say about Him, 'He is our God'—He is the One who glorifies Me. ⁵⁵ You've never known Him, but I know Him. If I were to say I don't know Him, I would be a liar like you. But I do know Him, and I keep His word. ⁵⁶ Your father Abraham was overjoyed that he would see My day; he saw it and rejoiced."

⁵⁷ The Jews replied, "You aren't 50 years old yet, and You've seen Abraham?"ⁱ

The Sixth Sign: Healing a Man Born Blind

9 As He was passing by, He saw a man blind from birth. ² His disciples questioned Him: “•Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?”

³ “Neither this man nor his parents sinned,” Jesus answered. “[This came about] so that God’s works might be displayed in him. ⁴ We must do the works of Him who sent Me^d while it is day. Night is coming when no one can work. ⁵ As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.”

⁸ His neighbors and those who formerly had seen him as a beggar said, “Isn’t this the man who sat begging?” ⁹ Some said, “He’s the one.” “No,” others were saying, “but he looks like him.”

He kept saying, “I’m the one!”

¹⁰ Therefore they asked him, “Then how were your eyes opened?”

¹¹ He answered, “The man called Jesus made mud, spread it on my eyes, and told me, ‘Go to Siloam and wash.’ So when I went and washed I received my sight.”

¹² “Where is He?” they asked.

“I don’t know,” he said.

The Healed Man’s Testimony

¹³ They brought the man who used to be blind to the •Pharisees. ¹⁴ The day that Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes was a Sabbath. ¹⁵ So again the Pharisees asked him how he received his sight.

“He put mud on my eyes,” he told them. “I washed and I can see.”

¹⁶ Therefore some of the Pharisees said, “This man is not from God, for He doesn’t keep the Sabbath!” But others were saying, “How can a sinful man perform such signs?” And there was a division among them.

¹⁷ Again they asked the blind man,^e “What do you say about Him, since He opened your eyes?”

“He’s a prophet,” he said.

¹⁹ They asked them, “Is this your son, [the one] you say was born blind? How then does he now see?”

²⁰ “We know this is our son and that he was born blind,” his parents answered. ²¹ “But we don’t know how he now sees, and we don’t know who opened his eyes. Ask him; he’s of age. He will speak for himself.” ²² His parents said these things because they were afraid of the Jews, since the Jews had already agreed that if anyone confessed Him as •Messiah, he would be banned from the •synagogue. ²³ This is why his parents said, “He’s of age; ask him.”

²⁴ So a second time they summoned the man who had been blind and told him, “Give glory to God.^f We know that this man is a sinner!”

²⁵ He answered, “Whether or not He’s a sinner, I don’t know. One thing I do know: I was blind, and now I can see!”

²⁶ Then they asked him, “What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?”

²⁷ “I already told you,” he said, “and you didn’t listen. Why do you want to hear it again? You don’t want to become His disciples too, do you?”

²⁸ They ridiculed him: “You’re that man’s disciple, but we’re Moses’ disciples. ²⁹ We know that God has spoken to Moses. But this man—we don’t know where He’s from!”

³⁰ “This is an amazing thing,” the man told them. “You don’t know where He is from, yet He opened my eyes! ³¹ We know that God doesn’t listen to sinners, but if anyone is God-fearing and does His will, He listens to him. ³² Throughout history^g no one has ever heard of someone opening the eyes of a person born blind. ³³ If this man were not from God, He wouldn’t be able to do anything.”

³⁴ “You were born entirely in sin,” they replied, “and are you trying to teach us?” Then they threw him out.^h

The Blind Man’s Sight and the Pharisees’ Blindness

³⁶ “Who is He, Sir, that I may believe in Him?” he asked.

³⁷ Jesus answered, “You have seen Him; in fact, He is the One speaking with you.”

³⁸ “I believe, Lord!” he said, and he worshiped Him.

³⁹ Jesus said, “I came into this world for judgment, in order that those who do not see will see and those who do see will become blind.”

⁴⁰ Some of the Pharisees who were with Him heard these things and asked Him, “We aren’t blind too, are we?”

⁴¹ “If you were blind,” Jesus told them, “you wouldn’t have sin.^a But now that you say, ‘We see’—your sin remains.

The Ideal Shepherd

10 “¹ I assure you: Anyone who doesn’t enter the sheep pen by the door but climbs in some other way, is a thief and a robber. ² The one who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. ³ The doorkeeper opens it for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. ⁴ When he has brought all his own outside, he goes ahead of them. The sheep follow him because they recognize his voice. ⁵ They will never follow a stranger; instead they will run away from him, because they don’t recognize the voice of strangers.”

⁶ Jesus gave them this illustration, but they did not understand what He was telling them.

The Good Shepherd

⁷ So Jesus said again, “I assure you: I am the door of the sheep. ⁸ All who came before Me^b are thieves and robbers, but the sheep didn’t listen to them. ⁹ I am the door. If anyone enters by Me, he will be saved and will come in and go out and find pasture. ¹⁰ A thief comes only to steal and to kill and to destroy. I have come that they may have life and have it in abundance.

¹¹ “I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. ¹² The hired man, since he is not the shepherd and doesn’t own the sheep, leaves them^c and runs away when he sees a wolf coming. The wolf then snatches and scatters them. ¹³ [This happens] because he is a hired man and doesn’t care about the sheep.

¹⁴ “I am the good shepherd. I know My own sheep, and they know Me, ¹⁵ as the Father knows Me, and I know the Father. I lay down My life for the sheep. ¹⁶ But I have other sheep that are not of this fold; I must bring them also, and they will listen to My voice. Then there will be one flock, one shepherd. ¹⁷ This is why the Father loves Me, because I am laying down My life so I may take it up again. ¹⁸ No one takes it from Me, but I lay it down on My own. I have the right to lay it down, and I have the right to take it up again. I have received this command from My Father.”

¹⁹ Again a division took place among the Jews because of these words. ²⁰ Many of them were saying, “He has a demon and He’s crazy! Why do you listen to Him?” ²¹ Others were saying, “These aren’t the words of someone demon-possessed. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?”

Jesus at the Festival of Dedication

²² Then the Festival of Dedication^d took place in Jerusalem, and it was winter. ²³ Jesus was walking in the •temple complex in Solomon’s Colonnade.^e ²⁴ Then the Jews surrounded Him and asked, “How long are You going to keep us in suspense?^f If You are the •Messiah, tell us plainly.”^g

²⁵ “I did tell you and you don’t believe,” Jesus answered them. “The works that I do in My Father’s name testify about Me. ²⁶ But you don’t believe because you are not My sheep.^h ²⁷ My sheep hear My voice, I know them, and they follow Me. ²⁸ I give them eternal life, and they will never perish—ever! No one will snatch them out of My hand. ²⁹ My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all. No one is able to snatch them out of the Father’s hand. ³⁰ The Father and I are one.”ⁱ

Renewed Efforts to Stone Jesus

³¹ Again the Jews picked up rocks to stone Him.

³² Jesus replied, “I have shown you many good works from the Father. Which of these works are you stoning Me for?”

³³ “We aren’t stoning You for a good work,” the Jews answered, “but for blasphemy, because You—being a man—make Yourself God.”

³⁴ Jesus answered them, “Isn’t it written in your law,^j I said, you are gods?^k ³⁵ If He called

This way you will know and understand^a that the Father is in Me and I in the Father.” ³⁹ Then they were trying again to seize Him, yet He eluded their grasp.

Many beyond the Jordan Believe in Jesus

⁴⁰ So He departed again across the Jordan to the place where John had been baptizing earlier, and He remained there. ⁴¹ Many came to Him and said, “John never did a sign, but everything John said about this man was true.” ⁴² And many believed in Him there.

Lazarus Dies at Bethany

11 Now a man was sick, Lazarus, from Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. ² Mary was the one who anointed the Lord with fragrant oil and wiped His feet with her hair, and it was her brother Lazarus who was sick. ³ So the sisters sent a message to Him: “Lord, the one You love is sick.”

⁴ When Jesus heard it, He said, “This sickness will not end in death but is for the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it.” ⁵ (Jesus loved Martha, her sister, and Lazarus.) ⁶ So when He heard that he was sick, He stayed two more days in the place where He was. ⁷ Then after that, He said to the disciples, “Let’s go to Judea again.”

⁸ “•Rabbi,” the disciples told Him, “just now the Jews tried to stone You, and You’re going there again?”

⁹ “Aren’t there 12 hours in a day?” Jesus answered. “If anyone walks during the day, he doesn’t stumble, because he sees the light of this world. ¹⁰ If anyone walks during the night, he does stumble, because the light is not in him.” ¹¹ He said this, and then He told them, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen •asleep, but I’m on My way to wake him up.”

¹² Then the disciples said to Him, “Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will get well.”

¹³ Jesus, however, was speaking about his death, but they thought He was speaking about natural sleep. ¹⁴ So Jesus then told them plainly, “Lazarus has died. ¹⁵ I’m glad for you that I wasn’t there so that you may believe. But let’s go to him.”

¹⁶ Then Thomas (called “Twin”) said to his fellow disciples, “Let’s go so that we may die with Him.”

The Resurrection and the Life

¹⁷ When Jesus arrived, He found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days. ¹⁸ Bethany was near Jerusalem (about two miles^b away). ¹⁹ Many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them about their brother. ²⁰ As soon as Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet Him. But Mary remained seated in the house.

²¹ Then Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if You had been here, my brother wouldn’t have died. ²² Yet even now I know that whatever You ask from God, God will give You.”

²³ “Your brother will rise again,” Jesus told her.

²⁴ Martha said, “I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.”

²⁵ Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in Me, even if he dies, will live. ²⁶ Everyone who lives and believes in Me will never die—ever. Do you believe this?”

²⁷ “Yes, Lord,” she told Him, “I believe You are the •Messiah, the Son of God, who was to come into the world.”

Jesus Shares the Sorrow of Death

²⁸ Having said this, she went back and called her sister Mary, saying in private, “The Teacher is here and is calling for you.”

²⁹ As soon as she heard this, she got up quickly and went to Him. ³⁰ Jesus had not yet come into the village but was still in the place where Martha had met Him. ³¹ The Jews who were with her in the house consoling her saw that Mary got up quickly and went out. So they followed her, supposing that she was going to the tomb to cry there.

³² When Mary came to where Jesus was and saw Him, she fell at His feet and told Him, “Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died!”

³³ When Jesus saw her crying, and the Jews who had come with her crying, He was angry^c in His spirit and deeply moved. ³⁴ “Where have you put him?” He asked.

“Lord,” they told Him, “come and see.”

^a10:38 Other mss read know and believe ^b11:18 Lit 15 stadia; 1 stadion = 600 feet ^c11:33 The Gk word is very strong and probably indicates Jesus’ anger against sin’s tyranny and death.

³⁵ Jesus wept.

³⁶ So the Jews said, "See how He loved him!"

³⁷ But some of them said, "Couldn't He who opened the blind man's eyes also have kept this man from dying?"

The Seventh Sign: Raising Lazarus from the Dead

³⁸ Then Jesus, angry in Himself again, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. ³⁹ "Remove the stone," Jesus said.

Martha, the dead man's sister, told Him, "Lord, he already stinks. It's been four days."

⁴⁰ Jesus said to her, "Didn't I tell you that if you believed you would see the glory of God?"

⁴¹ So they removed the stone. Then Jesus raised His eyes and said, "Father, I thank You that You heard Me. ⁴² I know that You always hear Me, but because of the crowd standing here I said this, so they may believe You sent Me."

⁴³ After He said this, He shouted with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" ⁴⁴ The dead man came out bound hand and foot with linen strips and with his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Loose him and let him go."

The Plot to Kill Jesus

⁴⁵ Therefore many of the Jews who came to Mary and saw what He did believed in Him.

⁴⁷ So the •chief priests and the Pharisees convened the •Sanhedrin and said, "What are we going to do since this man does many signs? ⁴⁸ If we let Him continue in this way, everybody will believe in Him! Then the Romans will come and remove both our place^a and our nation."

⁴⁹ One of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all! ⁵⁰ You're not considering that it is to your^b advantage that one man should die for the people rather than the whole nation perish." ⁵¹ He did not say this on his own, but being high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus was going to die for the nation, ⁵² and not for the nation only, but also to unite the scattered children of God. ⁵³ So from that day on they plotted to kill Him. ⁵⁴ Therefore Jesus no longer walked openly among the Jews but departed from there to the countryside near the wilderness, to a town called Ephraim. And He stayed there with the disciples.

⁵⁵ The Jewish •Passover was near, and many went up to Jerusalem from the country to purify themselves before the Passover. ⁵⁶ They were looking for Jesus and asking one another as they stood in the •temple complex: "What do you think? He won't come to the festival, will He?"

⁵⁷ The chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that if anyone knew where He was, he should report it so they could arrest Him.

The Anointing at Bethany

12 Six days before the •Passover, Jesus came to Bethany where Lazarus^d was, the one Jesus had raised from the dead. ² So they gave a dinner for Him there; Martha was serving them, and Lazarus was one of those reclining at the table with Him. ³ Then Mary took a pound of fragrant oil—pure and expensive nard—anoined Jesus' feet, and wiped His feet with her hair. So the house was filled with the fragrance of the oil.

⁴ Then one of His disciples, Judas Iscariot (who was about to betray Him), said, ⁵ "Why wasn't this fragrant oil sold for 300 •denarii^e and given to the poor?" ⁶ He didn't say this because he cared about the poor but because he was a thief. He was in charge of the money-bag and would steal part of what was put in it.

⁷ Jesus answered, "Leave her alone; she has kept it for the day of My burial. ⁸ For you always have the poor with you, but you do not always have Me."

The Decision to Kill Lazarus

⁹ Then a large crowd of the Jews learned He was there. They came not only because of Jesus, but also to see Lazarus the one He had raised from the dead. ¹⁰ Therefore the •chief priests decided to also kill Lazarus, ¹¹ because he was the reason many of the Jews were deserting them^f and believing in Jesus.

The Triumphal Entry

¹² The next day, when the large crowd that had come to the festival heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, ¹³ they took palm branches and went out to meet Him. They kept shouting: "•Hosanna! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord^g—the King of Israel!"

¹⁶ His disciples did not understand these things at first. However, when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things had been written about Him and that they had done these things to Him. ¹⁷ Meanwhile the crowd, which had been with Him when He called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead, continued to testify.^b ¹⁸ This is also why the crowd met Him, because they heard He had done this sign.

¹⁹ Then the •Pharisees said to one another, "You see? You've accomplished nothing. Look—the world has gone after Him!"

Jesus Predicts His Crucifixion

²⁰ Now some Greeks were among those who went up to worship at the festival. ²¹ So they came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and requested of him, "Sir, we want to see Jesus."

²² Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. ²³ Jesus replied to them, "The hour has come for the •Son of Man to be glorified.

²⁴ "•I assure you: Unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains by itself. But if it dies, it produces a large crop.^c ²⁵ The one who loves his life will lose it, and the one who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. ²⁶ If anyone serves Me, he must follow Me. Where I am, there My servant also will be. If anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him.

²⁷ "Now My soul is troubled. What should I say—Father, save Me from this hour? But that is why I came to this hour. ²⁸ Father, glorify Your name!"^d

Then a voice came from heaven: "I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again!"

²⁹ The crowd standing there heard it and said it was thunder. Others said, "An angel has spoken to Him!"

³⁰ Jesus responded, "This voice came, not for Me, but for you. ³¹ Now is the judgment of this world. Now the ruler of this world will be cast out. ³² As for Me, if I am lifted up^e from the earth I will draw all [people] to Myself." ³³ He said this to signify what kind of death He was about to die.

³⁴ Then the crowd replied to Him, "We have heard from the law that the •Messiah will remain forever. So how can You say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up'?^e Who is this Son of Man?"

³⁵ Jesus answered, "The light will be with you only a little longer. Walk while you have the light so that darkness doesn't overtake you. The one who walks in darkness doesn't know where he's going. ³⁶ While you have the light, believe in the light so that you may become sons of light." Jesus said this, then went away and hid from them.

Isaiah's Prophecies Fulfilled

³⁷ Even though He had performed so many signs in their presence, they did not believe in Him. ³⁸ But this was to fulfill the word of Isaiah the prophet, who said:^f

Lord, who has believed our message?
And who has the arm of the Lord
been revealed to?^g

³⁹ This is why they were unable to believe, because Isaiah also said:

40 He has blinded their eyes
and hardened their hearts,
so that they would not see
with their eyes
or understand with their hearts,
and be converted,
and I would heal them.^h

⁴¹ Isaiah said these things becauseⁱ he saw His glory and spoke about Him.

⁴² Nevertheless, many did believe in Him even among the rulers, but because of the Pharisees they did not confess Him, so they would not be banned from the •synagogue. ⁴³ For they loved praise from men more than praise from God.^j

A Summary of Jesus' Mission

⁴⁴ Then Jesus cried out, "The one who believes in Me believes not in Me, but in Him who sent Me. ⁴⁵ And the one who sees Me sees Him who sent Me. ⁴⁶ I have come as a light into the world, so that everyone who believes in Me would not remain in darkness. ⁴⁷ If anyone hears My words and doesn't keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. ⁴⁸ The one who rejects Me and doesn't accept My sayings has this as his judge:^k

the word I have spoken will judge him on the last day. ⁴⁹ For I have not spoken on My own, but the Father Himself who sent Me has given Me a command as to what I should say and what I should speak. ⁵⁰ I know that His command is eternal life. So the things that I speak, I speak just as the Father has told Me.”

Jesus Washes His Disciples' Feet

13 Before the •Passover Festival, Jesus knew that His hour had come to depart from this world to the Father. Having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end.^a

² Now by the time of supper, the Devil had already put it into the heart of Judas, Simon Iscariot's son, to betray Him. ³ Jesus knew that the Father had given everything into His hands, that He had come from God, and that He was going back to God. ⁴ So He got up from supper, laid aside His robe, took a towel, and tied it around Himself. ⁵ Next, He poured water into a basin and began to wash His disciples' feet and to dry them with the towel tied around Him.

⁶ He came to Simon Peter, who asked Him, “Lord, are You going to wash my feet?”

⁷ Jesus answered him, “What I'm doing you don't understand now, but afterwards you will know.”

⁸ “You will never wash my feet—ever!” Peter said.

Jesus replied, “If I don't wash you, you have no part with Me.”

⁹ Simon Peter said to Him, “Lord, not only my feet, but also my hands and my head.”

¹⁰ “One who has bathed,” Jesus told him, “doesn't need to wash anything except his feet, but he is completely clean. You are clean, but not all of you.” ¹¹ For He knew who would betray Him. This is why He said, “You are not all clean.”

The Meaning of Footwashing

¹² When Jesus had washed their feet and put on His robe, He reclined^b again and said to them, “Do you know what I have done for you? ¹³ You call Me Teacher and Lord. This is well said, for I am. ¹⁴ So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. ¹⁵ For I have given you an example that you also should do just as I have done for you.

¹⁶ “•I assure you: A slave is not greater than his master,^c and a messenger is not greater than the one who sent him. ¹⁷ If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them. ¹⁸ I'm not speaking about all of you; I know those I have chosen. But the Scripture must be fulfilled: The one who eats My bread^d has raised his heel against Me.^e

¹⁹ “I am telling you now before it happens, so that when it does happen you will believe that I am [He]. ²⁰ I assure you: The one who receives whomever I send receives Me, and the one who receives Me receives Him who sent Me.”

Judas' Betrayal Predicted

²¹ When Jesus had said this, He was troubled in His spirit and testified, “I assure you: One of you will betray Me!”

²² The disciples started looking at one another—uncertain which one He was speaking about. ²³ One of His disciples, the one Jesus loved, was reclining close beside Jesus.^f ²⁴ Simon Peter motioned to him to find out who it was He was talking about. ²⁵ So he leaned back against Jesus and asked Him, “Lord, who is it?”

²⁶ Jesus replied, “He's the one I give the piece of bread to after I have dipped it.” When He had dipped the bread, He gave it to Judas, Simon Iscariot's son.^g ²⁷ After [Judas ate] the piece of bread, Satan entered him. Therefore Jesus told him, “What you're doing, do quickly.”

²⁸ None of those reclining at the table knew why He told him this. ²⁹ Since Judas kept the money-bag, some thought that Jesus was telling him, “Buy what we need for the festival,” or that he should give something to the poor. ³⁰ After receiving the piece of bread, he went out immediately. And it was night.

The New Commandment

³¹ When he had gone out, Jesus said, “Now the •Son of Man is glorified, and God is glorified in Him. ³² If God is glorified in Him,^h God will also glorify Him in Himself and will glorify Him at once.

³³ “Children, I am with you a little while longer. You will look for Me, and just as I told the Jews, ‘Where I am going you cannot come,’ so now I tell you.

³⁴ “I give you a new commandment: love one another. Just as I have loved you, you must also

Peter's Denials Predicted

³⁶ “Lord,” Simon Peter said to Him, “where are You going?”

Jesus answered, “Where I am going you cannot follow Me now, but you will follow later.”

³⁷ “Lord,” Peter asked, “why can’t I follow You now? I will lay down my life for You!”

³⁸ Jesus replied, “Will you lay down your life for Me? I assure you: A rooster will not crow until you have denied Me three times.

The Way to the Father

14 “Your heart must not be troubled. Believe^a in God; believe also in Me. ² In My Father’s house are many dwelling places;^b if not, I would have told you. I am going away to prepare a place for you. ³ If I go away and prepare a place for you, I will come back and receive you to Myself, so that where I am you may be also. ⁴ You know the way where I am going.”^c

⁵ “Lord,” Thomas said, “we don’t know where You’re going. How can we know the way?”

⁶ Jesus told him, “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me.

Jesus Reveals the Father

⁷ “If you know Me, you will also know^d My Father. From now on you do know Him and have seen Him.”

⁸ “Lord,” said Philip, “show us the Father, and that’s enough for us.”

⁹ Jesus said to him, “Have I been among you all this time without your knowing Me, Philip? The one who has seen Me has seen the Father. How can you say, ‘Show us the Father’? ¹⁰ Don’t you believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in Me? The words I speak to you I do not speak on My own. The Father who lives in Me does His works. ¹¹ Believe Me that I am in the Father and the Father is in Me. Otherwise, believe^e because of the works themselves.

Praying in Jesus’ Name

¹² “•I assure you: The one who believes in Me will also do the works that I do. And he will do even greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. ¹³ Whatever you ask in My name, I will do it so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. ¹⁴ If you ask Me^f anything in My name, I will do it.^g

Another Counselor Promised

¹⁵ “If you love Me, you will keep^h My commandments. ¹⁶ And I will ask the Father, and He will give you another •Counselor to be with you forever. ¹⁷ He is the Spirit of truth. The world is unable to receive Him because it doesn’t see Him or know Him. But you do know Him, because He remains with you and will beⁱ in you. ¹⁸ I will not leave you as orphans; I am coming to you.

The Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit

¹⁹ “In a little while the world will see Me no longer, but you will see Me. Because I live, you will live too. ²⁰ In that day you will know that I am in My Father, you are in Me, and I am in you. ²¹ The one who has My commands and keeps them is the one who loves Me. And the one who loves Me will be loved by My Father. I also will love him and will reveal Myself to him.”

²² Judas (not Iscariot) said to Him, “Lord, how is it You’re going to reveal Yourself to us and not to the world?”

²³ Jesus answered, “If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word. My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our home with him. ²⁴ The one who doesn’t love Me will not keep My words. The word that you hear is not Mine but is from the Father who sent Me.

²⁵ “I have spoken these things to you while I remain with you. ²⁶ But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit—the Father will send Him in My name—will teach you all things and remind you of everything I have told you.

Jesus’ Gift of Peace

²⁷ “Peace I leave with you. My peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Your heart must not be troubled or fearful. ²⁸ You have heard Me tell you, ‘I am going away and I am coming to you.’ If you loved Me, you would have rejoiced that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. ²⁹ I have told you now before it happens so that when it ³¹ On the contrary, [I am going away]^b so that the world may know that I love the Father. Just as the Father commanded Me, so I do.

“Get up; let’s leave this place.

The Vine and the Branches

15 “I am the true vine, and My Father is the vineyard keeper. ² Every branch in Me that does not produce fruit He removes, and He prunes every branch that produces fruit so that it will produce more fruit. ³ You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you. ⁴ Remain in Me, and I in you. Just as a branch is unable to produce fruit by itself unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in Me.

⁵ “I am the vine; you are the branches. The one who remains in Me and I in him produces much fruit, because you can do nothing without Me. ⁶ If anyone does not remain in Me, he is thrown aside like a branch and he withers. They gather them, throw them into the fire, and they are burned. ⁷ If you remain in Me and My words remain in you, ask whatever you want and it will be done for you. ⁸ My Father is glorified by this: that you produce much fruit and prove to be^c My disciples.

Christlike Love

⁹ “As the Father has loved Me, I have also loved you. Remain in My love. ¹⁰ If you keep My commands you will remain in My love, just as I have kept My Father’s commands and remain in His love.

¹¹ “I have spoken these things to you so that My joy may be in you and your joy may be complete. ¹² This is My command: love one another as I have loved you. ¹³ No one has greater love than this, that someone would lay down his life for his friends. ¹⁴ You are My friends if you do what I command you. ¹⁵ I do not call you slaves anymore, because a slave doesn’t know what his master^d is doing. I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything I have heard from My Father. ¹⁶ You did not choose Me, but I chose you. I appointed you that you should go out and produce fruit and that your fruit should remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in My name, He will give you.

¹⁷ This is what I command you: love one another.

Persecutions Predicted

¹⁸ “If the world hates you, understand that it hated Me before it hated you. ¹⁹ If you were of the world, the world would love [you as] its own. However, because you are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of it, the world hates you. ²⁰ Remember the word I spoke to you: ‘A slave is not greater than his master.’ If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. If they kept My word, they will also keep yours. ²¹ But they will do all these things to you on account of My name, because they don’t know the One who sent Me. ²² If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have sin.^e Now they have no excuse for their sin. ²³ The one who hates Me also hates My Father. ²⁴ If I had not done the works among them that no one else has done, they would not have sin. Now they have seen and hated both Me and My Father. ²⁵ But [this happened] so that the statement written in their law might be fulfilled: They hated Me for no reason.^f

Coming Testimony and Rejection

²⁶ “When the •Counselor comes, the One I will send to you from the Father—the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father—He will testify about Me. ²⁷ You also will testify, because you have been with Me from the beginning.

16 “I have told you these things to keep you from stumbling. ² They will ban you from the •synagogues. In fact, a time is coming when anyone who kills you will think he is offering service to God. ³ They will do these things because they haven’t known the Father or Me. ⁴ But I have told you these things so that when their time^g comes you may remember I told them to you. I didn’t tell you these things from the beginning, because I was with you.

The Counselor’s Ministry

⁵ “But now I am going away to Him who sent Me, and not one of you asks Me, ‘Where are You going?’ ⁶ Yet, because I have spoken these things to you, sorrow has filled your heart. ⁷ Nevertheless, I am telling you the truth. It is for your benefit that I go away, because if I don’t go away the •Counselor will not come to you. If I go, I will send Him to you. ⁸ When He comes, He will convict the world about sin, righteousness, and judgment: ⁹ about sin, because they do not believe in Me; ¹⁰ about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will no longer see Me; ¹¹ and about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been judged.

¹² “I still have many things to tell you, but you can’t bear them now. ¹³ When the Spirit of truth comes, He will guide you into all the truth. For He will not speak on His own, but He will speak whatever He hears. He will also declare to you what is to come. ¹⁴ He will glorify Me, because He will take from what is Mine and declare it to you. ¹⁵ Everything the Father has is Mine. This is why I told you that He takes from what is Mine and will declare it to you.

Sorrow Turned to Joy

¹⁶ “A little while and you will no longer see Me; again a little while and you will see Me.”^a

¹⁷ Therefore some of His disciples said to one another, “What is this He tells us: ‘A little while and you will not see Me; again a little while and you will see Me’; and, ‘because I am going to the Father’?” ¹⁸ They said, “What is this He is saying,^b ‘A little while’? We don’t know what He’s talking about!”

¹⁹ Jesus knew they wanted to question Him, so He said to them, “Are you asking one another about what I said, ‘A little while and you will not see Me; again a little while and you will see Me’?”

²⁰ “•I assure you: You will weep and wail, but the world will rejoice. You will become sorrowful, but your sorrow will turn to joy. ²¹ When a woman is in labor she has pain because her time has come. But when she has given birth to a child, she no longer remembers the suffering because of the joy that a person has been born into the world. ²² So you also have sorrow^c now. But I will see you again. Your hearts will rejoice, and no one will rob you of your joy. ²³ In that day you will not ask Me anything.

“I assure you: Anything you ask the Father in My name, He will give you. ²⁴ Until now you have asked for nothing in My name. Ask and you will receive, that your joy may be complete.

Jesus the Victor

²⁵ “I have spoken these things to you in figures of speech. A time is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures, but I will tell you plainly about the Father. ²⁶ In that day you will ask in My name. I am not telling you that I will make requests to the Father on your behalf. ²⁷ For the Father Himself loves you, because you have loved Me and have believed that I came from God.^d ²⁸ I came from the Father and have come into the world. Again, I am leaving the world and going to the Father.”

²⁹ “Ah!” His disciples said. “Now You’re speaking plainly and not using any figurative language. ³⁰ Now we know that You know everything and don’t need anyone to question You. By this we believe that You came from God.”

³¹ Jesus responded to them, “Do you now believe? ³² Look: An hour is coming, and has come, when each of you will be scattered to his own home, and you will leave Me alone. Yet I am not alone, because the Father is with Me. ³³ I have told you these things so that in Me you may have peace. You will have suffering in this world. Be courageous! I have conquered the world.”

Jesus Prays for Himself

17 Jesus spoke these things, looked up to heaven, and said:

Father,
the hour has come.
Glorify Your Son
so that the Son may glorify You,
² for You gave Him authority

so the love You have loved Me with may be in them and I may be in them.

Jesus Betrayed

18 After Jesus had said these things, He went out with His disciples across the Kidron Valley, where there was a garden, and He and His disciples went into it. ² Judas, who betrayed Him, also knew the place, because Jesus often met there with His disciples. ³ So Judas took a •company of soldiers and some temple police from the •chief priests and the •Pharisees and came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons.

⁴ Then Jesus, knowing everything that was about to happen to Him, went out and said to them, “Who is it you’re looking for?”

⁵ “Jesus the •Nazarene,” they answered.

“I am He,”^f Jesus told them.

Judas, who betrayed Him, was also standing with them. ⁶ When He told them, “I am He,” they stepped back and fell to the ground.

⁷ Then He asked them again, “Who is it you’re looking for?”

“Jesus the Nazarene,” they said.

⁸ “I told you I am [He],” Jesus replied. “So if you’re looking for Me, let these men go.” ⁹ This was to fulfill the words He had said: “I have not lost one of those You have given Me.”

¹⁰ Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it, struck the high priest's slave, and cut off his right ear. (The slave's name was Malchus.)

¹¹ At that, Jesus said to Peter, "Sheathe your sword! Am I not to drink the cup the Father has given Me?"

Jesus Arrested and Taken to Annas

¹² Then the company of soldiers, the commander, and the Jewish temple police arrested Jesus and tied Him up. ¹³ First they led Him to Annas, for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. ¹⁴ Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jews that it was advantageous that one man should die for the people.

Peter Denies Jesus

¹⁵ Meanwhile Simon Peter was following Jesus, as was another disciple. That disciple was an acquaintance of the high priest; so he went with Jesus into the high priest's courtyard. ¹⁶ But Peter remained standing outside by the door. So the other disciple, the one known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the girl who was the doorkeeper and brought Peter in.

¹⁷ Then the slave girl who was the doorkeeper said to Peter, "You aren't one of this man's disciples too, are you?"

"I am not!" he said. ¹⁸ Now the slaves and the temple police had made a charcoal fire, because it was cold. They were standing there warming themselves, and Peter was standing with them, warming himself.

Jesus before Annas

¹⁹ The high priest questioned Jesus about His disciples and about His teaching.

²⁰ "I have spoken openly to the world," Jesus answered him. "I have always taught in the •synagogue and in the •temple complex, where all the Jews congregate, and I haven't spoken anything in secret." ²¹ Why do you question Me? Question those who heard what I told them. Look, they know what I said."

²² When He had said these things, one of the temple police standing by slapped Jesus, saying, "Is this the way you answer the high priest?"

²³ "If I have spoken wrongly," Jesus answered him, "give evidence^a about the wrong; but if rightly, why do you hit Me?"

²⁴ Then Annas sent Him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.

Peter Denies Jesus Twice More

²⁵ Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said to him, "You aren't one of His disciples too, are you?"

He denied it and said, "I am not!"

²⁶ One of the high priest's slaves, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, said, "Didn't I see you with Him in the garden?"

²⁷ Peter then denied it again. Immediately a rooster crowed.

Jesus before Pilate

²⁸ Then they took Jesus from Caiaphas to the governor's •headquarters. It was early morning. They did not enter the headquarters themselves; otherwise they would be defiled and unable to eat the •Passover.

²⁹ Then •Pilate came out to them and said, "What charge do you bring against this man?"

³⁰ They answered him, "If this man weren't a criminal,^b we wouldn't have handed Him over to you."

³¹ So Pilate told them, "Take Him yourselves and judge Him according to your law."

"It's not legal^c for us to put anyone to death," the Jews declared. ³² They said this so that Jesus' words might be fulfilled signifying what sort of death He was going to die.

³³ Then Pilate went back into the headquarters, summoned Jesus, and said to Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

³⁴ Jesus answered, "Are you asking this on your own, or have others told you about Me?"

³⁵ "I'm not a Jew, am I?" Pilate replied. "Your own nation and the chief priests handed You over to me. What have You done?"

³⁶ "My kingdom is not of this world," said Jesus. "If My kingdom were of this world, My servants^d would fight, so that I wouldn't be handed over to the Jews. As it is, My kingdom does not have its origin here."^e

³⁷ "You are a king then?" Pilate asked.

"You say that I'm a king," Jesus replied. "I was born for this, and I have come into the world for this: to testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to My voice."

³⁸ "What is truth?" said Pilate.

Jesus or Barabbas

After he had said this, he went out to the Jews again and told them, "I find no grounds for charging Him. ³⁹ You have a custom that I release one [prisoner] to you at the Passover. So, do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"

⁴⁰ They shouted back, "Not this man, but Barabbas!" Now Barabbas was a revolutionary.^a

Jesus Flogged and Mocked

19 Then •Pilate took Jesus and had Him flogged. ² The soldiers also twisted together a crown of thorns, put it on His head, and threw a purple robe around Him. ³ And they repeatedly came up to Him and said, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and were slapping His face.

⁴ Pilate went outside again and said to them, "Look, I'm bringing Him outside to you to let you know I find no grounds for charging Him."

Pilate Sentences Jesus to Death

⁵ Then Jesus came out wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to them, "Here is the man!"

⁶ When the •chief priests and the temple police saw Him, they shouted, "Crucify! Crucify!"

Pilate responded, "Take Him and crucify Him yourselves, for I find no grounds for charging Him."

⁷ "We have a law," the Jews replied to him, "and according to that law He must die, because He made Himself^b the Son of God."

⁸ When Pilate heard this statement, he was more afraid than ever. ⁹ He went back into the •headquarters and asked Jesus, "Where are You from?" But Jesus did not give him an answer. ¹⁰ So Pilate said to Him, "You're not talking to me? Don't You know that I have the authority to release You and the authority to crucify You?"

¹¹ "You would have no authority over Me at all," Jesus answered him, "if it hadn't been given you from above. This is why the one who handed Me over to you has the greater sin."^c

¹² From that moment Pilate made every effort^d to release Him. But the Jews shouted, "If you release this man, you are not Caesar's friend. Anyone who makes himself a king opposes Caesar!"

¹³ When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus outside. He sat down on the judge's bench in a place called the Stone Pavement (but in Hebrew Gabbatha). ¹⁴ It was the preparation day for the •Passover, and it was about six in the morning.^e Then he told the Jews, "Here is your king!"

¹⁵ But they shouted, "Take Him away! Take Him away! Crucify Him!"

Pilate said to them, "Should I crucify your king?"

"We have no king but Caesar!" the chief priests answered.

¹⁶ So then, because of them, he handed Him over to be crucified.

The Crucifixion

Therefore they took Jesus away.^f ¹⁷ Carrying His own cross, He went out to what is called Skull Place, which in Hebrew is called Golgotha. ¹⁸ There they crucified Him and two others with Him, one on either side, with Jesus in the middle. ¹⁹ Pilate also had a sign lettered and put on the cross. The inscription was:

JESUS THE NAZARENE
THE KING OF THE JEWS

²⁰ Many of the Jews read this sign, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and it was written in Hebrew,^g Latin, and Greek. ²¹ So the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Don't write, 'The King of the Jews,' but that He said, 'I am the King of the Jews.'"

²² Pilate replied, "What I have written, I have written."

²³ When the soldiers crucified Jesus, they took His clothes and divided them into four parts, a part for each soldier. They also took the tunic, which was seamless, woven in one piece from the top. ²⁴ So they said to one another, "Let's not tear it, but toss for it, to see who gets it." [They did this] to fulfill the Scripture that says: They divided My clothes among themselves, and they cast lots for My clothing.^h And this is what the soldiers did.

Jesus' Provision for His Mother

²⁵ Standing by the cross of Jesus were His mother, His mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and •Mary Magdalene. ²⁶ When Jesus saw His mother and the disciple He loved standing there, He said to His mother, "•Woman, here is your son." ²⁷ Then He said to the disciple, "Here is your mother." And from that hour the disciple took her into his home.

The Finished Work of Jesus

²⁸ After this, when Jesus knew that everything was now accomplished that the Scripture might be fulfilled, He said, “I’m thirsty!” ²⁹ A jar full of sour wine was sitting there; so they fixed a sponge full of sour wine on hyssop^a and held it up to His mouth.

³⁰ When Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, “It is finished!” Then bowing His head, He gave up His spirit.

Jesus’ Side Pierced

³¹ Since it was the preparation day, the Jews did not want the bodies to remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a special^b day). They requested that Pilate have the men’s legs broken and that [their bodies] be taken away. ³² So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man and of the other one who had been crucified with Him. ³³ When they came to Jesus, they did not break His legs since they saw that He was already dead. ³⁴ But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and at once blood and water came out. ³⁵ He who saw this has testified so that you also may believe. His testimony is true, and he knows he is telling the truth. ³⁶ For these things happened so that the Scripture would be fulfilled: Not one of His bones will be broken.^c ³⁷ Also, another Scripture says: They will look at the One they pierced.^d

Jesus’ Burial

³⁸ After this, Joseph of Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus—but secretly because of his fear of the Jews—asked Pilate that he might remove Jesus’ body. Pilate gave him permission, so he came and took His body away. ³⁹ Nicodemus (who had previously come to Him at night) also came, bringing a mixture of about 75 pounds^e of myrrh and aloes. ⁴⁰ Then they took Jesus’ body and wrapped it in linen cloths with the aromatic spices, according to the burial custom of the Jews. ⁴¹ There was a garden in the place where He was crucified. A new tomb was in the garden; no one had yet been placed in it. ⁴² They placed Jesus there because of the Jewish preparation and since the tomb was nearby.

The Empty Tomb

20 On the first day of the week • Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early, while it was still dark. She saw that the stone had been removed^f from the tomb. ² So she ran to Simon Peter and to the other disciple, the one Jesus loved, and said to them, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we don’t know where they have put Him!”

³ At that, Peter and the other disciple went out, heading for the tomb. ⁴ The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and got to the tomb first. ⁵ Stooping down, he saw the linen cloths lying there, yet he did not go in. ⁶ Then, following him, Simon Peter came also. He entered the tomb and saw the linen cloths lying there. ⁷ The wrapping that had been on His head was not lying with the linen cloths but was folded up in a separate place by itself. ⁸ The other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, then entered the tomb, saw, and believed. ⁹ For they still did not understand the Scripture that He must rise from the dead. ¹⁰ Then the disciples went home again.

Mary Magdalene Sees the Risen Lord

¹¹ But Mary stood outside facing the tomb, crying. As she was crying, she stooped to look into the tomb. ¹² She saw two angels in white sitting there, one at the head and one at the feet, where Jesus’ body had been lying. ¹³ They said to her, “•Woman, why are you crying?”

“Because they’ve taken away my Lord,” she told them, “and I don’t know where they’ve put Him.” ¹⁴ Having said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, though she did not know it was Jesus.

¹⁵ “Woman,” Jesus said to her, “why are you crying? Who is it you are looking for?”

Supposing He was the gardener, she replied, “Sir, if you’ve removed Him, tell me where you’ve put Him, and I will take Him away.”

¹⁶ Jesus said, “Mary.”

Turning around, she said to Him in Hebrew, “Rabbouni!”^g—which means “Teacher.”

¹⁷ “Don’t cling to Me,” Jesus told her, “for I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to My brothers and tell them that I am ascending to My Father and your Father—to My God and your God.”

¹⁸ Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, “I have seen the Lord!” And she told them what^h He had said to her.

doors locked because of their fear of the Jews. Then Jesus came, stood among them, and said to them, “Peace to you!”

²⁰ Having said this, He showed them His hands and His side. So the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

²¹ Jesus said to them again, “Peace to you! As the Father has sent Me, I also send you.” ²² After saying this, He breathed on them and said,^a “Receive the Holy Spirit. ²³ If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain [the sins of] any, they are retained.”

Thomas Sees and Believes

²⁴ But one of the Twelve, Thomas (called “Twin”), was not with them when Jesus came. ²⁵ So the other disciples kept telling him, “We have seen the Lord!”

But he said to them, “If I don’t see the mark of the nails in His hands, put my finger into the mark of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will never believe!”

²⁶ After eight days His disciples were indoors again, and Thomas was with them. Even though the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them. He said, “Peace to you!”

²⁷ Then He said to Thomas, “Put your finger here and observe My hands. Reach out your hand and put it into My side. Don’t be an unbeliever, but a believer.”

²⁸ Thomas responded to Him, “My Lord and my God!”

²⁹ Jesus said, “Because you have seen Me, you have believed.^b Those who believe without seeing are blessed.”

The Purpose of This Gospel

³⁰ Jesus performed many other signs in the presence of His disciples that are not written in this book. ³¹ But these are written so that you may believe Jesus is the •Messiah, the Son of God,^c and by believing you may have life in His name.

Jesus’ Third Appearance to the Disciples

21 After this, Jesus revealed Himself again to His disciples by the Sea of Tiberias.^d He revealed Himself in this way:

² Simon Peter, Thomas (called “Twin”), Nathanael from Cana of Galilee, Zebedee’s sons, and two others of His disciples were together.

³ “I’m going fishing,” Simon Peter said to them.

“We’re coming with you,” they told him. They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

⁴ When daybreak came, Jesus stood on the shore. However, the disciples did not know it was Jesus.

⁵ “Men,”^e Jesus called to them, “you don’t have any fish, do you?”

“No,” they answered.

⁶ “Cast the net on the right side of the boat,” He told them, “and you’ll find some.” So they did,^f and they were unable to haul it in because of the large number of fish. ⁷ Therefore the disciple, the one Jesus loved, said to Peter, “It is the Lord!”

When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he tied his outer garment around him^g (for he was stripped) and plunged into the sea. ⁸ But since they were not far from land (about 100 yards^h away), the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish. ⁹ When they got out on land, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish lying on it, and bread.

¹⁰ “Bring some of the fish you’ve just caught,” Jesus told them. ¹¹ So Simon Peter got up and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish—153 of them. Even though there were so many, the net was not torn.

¹² “Come and have breakfast,” Jesus told them. None of the disciples dared ask Him, “Who are You?” because they knew it was the Lord. ¹³ Jesus came, took the bread, and gave it to them. He did the same with the fish.

¹⁴ This was now the third timeⁱ Jesus appeared^j to the disciples after He was raised from the dead.

Jesus’ Threefold Restoration of Peter

¹⁵ When they had eaten breakfast, Jesus asked Simon Peter, “Simon, son of John,^k do you love^l Me more than these?”

“Yes, Lord,” he said to Him, “You know that I love You.”

“Feed My lambs,” He told him.

¹⁶ A second time He asked him, “Simon, son of John, do you love Me?”

Peter’s threefold confession of love for Jesus corresponds to his earlier threefold denial of Jesus; Jn 18:15–18,25–27.

“Yes, Lord,” he said to Him, “You know that I love You.”

“Shepherd My sheep,” He told him.

¹⁷ He asked him the third time, “Simon, son of John, do you love Me?”

Peter was grieved that He asked him the third time, “Do you love Me?” He said, “Lord, You know everything! You know that I love You.”

“Feed My sheep,” Jesus said. ¹⁸ “•I assure you: When you were young, you would tie your belt and walk wherever you wanted. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands and someone else will tie you and carry you where you don’t want to go.” ¹⁹ He said this to signify by what kind of death he would glorify God.^a After saying this, He told him, “Follow Me!”

Correcting a False Report

²⁰ So Peter turned around and saw the disciple Jesus loved following them. [That disciple]

was the one who had leaned back against Jesus at the supper and asked, “Lord, who is the one that’s going to betray You?” ²¹ When Peter saw him, he said to Jesus, “Lord—what about him?”

²² “If I want him to remain until I come,” Jesus answered, “what is that to you? As for you, follow Me.”

²³ So this report^b spread to the brothers^c that this disciple would not die. Yet Jesus did not tell him that he would not die, but, “If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you?”

Epilogue

²⁴ This is the disciple who testifies to these things and who wrote them down. We know that his testimony is true.

²⁵ And there are also many other things that Jesus did, which, if they were written one by one, I suppose not even the world itself could contain the books^d that would be written.

ACTS

Prologue

1 I wrote the first narrative, Theophilus, about all that Jesus began to do and teach ² until the day He was taken up, after He had given orders through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom He had chosen. ³ After He had suffered, He also presented Himself alive to them by many convincing proofs, appearing to them during 40 days and speaking about the kingdom of God.

The Holy Spirit Promised

⁴ While He was together with them,^e He commanded them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait for the Father’s promise. “This,” [He said, “is what] you heard from Me; ⁵ for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now.”

⁶ So when they had come together, they asked Him, “Lord, at this time are You restoring the kingdom to Israel?”

⁷ He said to them, “It is not for you to know times or periods that the Father has set by His own authority. ⁸ But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be My witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends^f of the earth.”

The Ascension

⁹ After He had said this, He was taken up as they were watching, and a cloud received Him out of their sight. ¹⁰ While He was going, they were gazing into heaven, and suddenly two men in white clothes stood by them. ¹¹ They said, “Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up into heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come in the same way that you have seen Him going into heaven.”

United in Prayer

¹² Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olive Grove, which is near Jerusalem—a Sabbath day’s journey away. ¹³ When they arrived, they went to the room upstairs where they were staying:

Peter, John,
James, Andrew,
Philip, Thomas,
Bartholomew, Matthew,

Matthias Chosen

¹⁵ During these days Peter stood up among the brothers^c—the number of people who were together was about 120—and said: ¹⁶ “Brothers, the Scripture had to be fulfilled that the Holy Spirit through the mouth of David spoke in advance about Judas, who became a guide to those who arrested Jesus. ¹⁷ For he was one of our number and was allotted a share in this ministry.” ¹⁸ Now this man acquired a field with his unrighteous wages; and falling headfirst, he burst open in the middle, and all his insides spilled out. ¹⁹ This became known to all the residents of Jerusalem, so that in their own language that field is called Hakeldama, that is, Field of Blood. ²⁰ “For it is written in the Book of Psalms:

Let his dwelling become desolate;
let no one live in it;^d and Let someone else take his position.^e

²¹ “Therefore, from among the men who have accompanied us during the whole time the Lord Jesus went in and out among us— ²² beginning from the baptism of John until the day He was taken up from us—from among these, it is necessary that one become a witness with us of His resurrection.”

²³ So they proposed two: Joseph, called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias. ²⁴ Then they prayed, “You, Lord, know the hearts of all; show which of these two You have chosen ²⁵ to take the place^f in this apostolic service that Judas left to go to his own place.” ²⁶ Then they cast lots for them, and the lot fell to Matthias. So he was numbered with the 11 apostles.

Pentecost

2 When the day of Pentecost had arrived, they were all together in one place. ² Suddenly a sound like that of a violent rushing wind came from heaven, and it filled the whole house where they were staying. ³ And tongues, like flames of fire that were divided, appeared to them and rested on each one of them. ⁴ Then they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different languages, as the Spirit gave them ability for speech.

⁵ There were Jews living in Jerusalem, devout men from every nation under heaven. ⁶ When this sound occurred, the multitude came together and was confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. ⁷ And they were astounded and amazed, saying,^g “Look, aren’t all these who are speaking Galileans?” ⁸ How is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? ⁹ Parthians, Medes, Elamites; those who live in Mesopotamia, in Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, ¹⁰ Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome, both Jews and •proselytes, ¹¹ Cretans and Arabs—we hear them speaking in our own languages the magnificent acts of God.” ¹² And they were all astounded and perplexed, saying to one another, “What could this be?” ¹³ But some sneered and said, “They’re full of new wine!”

Peter’s Sermon

¹⁴ But Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice, and proclaimed to them: “Jewish men and all you residents of Jerusalem, let this be known to you and pay attention to my words. ¹⁵ For these people are not drunk, as you suppose, since it’s only nine in the morning.^h ¹⁶ On the contrary, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

that I will pour out My Spirit

I saw the Lord ever before me;
because He is at my right hand,
I will not be shaken.

26 Therefore my heart was glad,

He^g was not left in Hades,
and His flesh did not experience
decay.^h

32 “God has resurrected this Jesus. We are all witnesses of this. 33 Therefore, since He has been exalted to the right hand of God and has received from the Father the promised Holy Spirit, He has poured out what you both see and hear. 34 For it was not David who ascended into the heavens, but he himself says:

The Lord said to my Lord,
‘Sit at My right hand

35 until I make Your enemies
Your footstool.’ⁱ

36 “Therefore let all the house of Israel know with certainty that God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Messiah!”

Forgiveness through the Messiah

37 When they heard this, they were pierced to the heart and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles: “Brothers, what must we do?”

38 “Repent,” Peter said to them, “and be baptized, each of you, in the name of Jesus the Messiah for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39 For the promise is for you and for your children, and for all who are far off,^j as many as the Lord our God will call.” 40 And with many other words he testified and strongly urged them, saying, “Be saved from this corrupt^k generation!”

A Generous and Growing Church

41 So those who accepted his message were baptized, and that day about 3,000 people were added to them. 42 And they devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching, to fellowship, to the breaking of bread, and to prayers.

43 Then fear came over everyone, and many wonders and signs were being performed through the apostles. 44 Now all the believers were together and had everything in common. 45 So they sold their possessions and property and distributed the proceeds to all, as anyone had a need.^l 46 And every day they devoted themselves [to meeting] together in the •temple complex, and broke bread from house to house. They ate their food with gladness and simplicity of heart,⁴⁷ praising God and having favor with all the people. And every day the Lord added to them^m those who were being saved.

Healing of a Lame Man

3 Now Peter and John were going up together to the •temple complex at the hour of prayer at three in the afternoon.ⁿ 2 And a man who was lame from his mother’s womb was carried there and placed every day at the temple gate called Beautiful, so he could beg from those entering the temple complex. 3 When he saw Peter and John about to enter the temple complex, he asked for help. 4 Peter, along with John, looked at him intently and said, “Look at us.” 5 So he turned to them,^o expecting to get something from

So they were filled with awe and astonishment at what had happened to him.

Preaching in Solomon’s Colonnade

¹¹ While he^a was holding on to Peter and John, all the people, greatly amazed, ran toward them in what is called Solomon’s Colonnade. ¹² When Peter saw this, he addressed the people: “Men of Israel, why are you amazed at this? Or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made him walk? ¹³ The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified His Servant Jesus, whom you handed over and denied in the presence of •Pilate, when he had decided to release Him. ¹⁴ But you denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked to have a murderer given to you. ¹⁵ And you killed the source^b of life, whom God raised from the dead; we are witnesses of this. ¹⁶ By faith in His name, His name has made this man strong, whom you see and know. So the faith that comes through Him has given him this perfect health in front of all of you.

¹⁷ “And now, brothers, I know that you did it in ignorance, just as your leaders also did. ¹⁸ But what God predicted through the mouth of all the prophets—that His •Messiah would suffer—He has fulfilled in this way. ¹⁹ Therefore repent and turn back, that your sins may be wiped out so that seasons of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, ²⁰ and He may send Jesus, who has been appointed Messiah for you. ²¹ Heaven must welcome^c Him until the times of the restoration of all things, which God spoke about by the mouth of His holy prophets from the beginning. ²² Moses said:^d

The Lord your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from among your brothers. You must listen to Him in everything He will say to you. ²³ And it will be that everyone who will not listen to that Prophet will be completely cut off from the people.^e

²⁴ “In addition, all the prophets who have spoken, from Samuel and those after him, have also announced these days. ²⁵ You are the sons of the prophets and of the covenant that God made with your forefathers, saying to Abraham, And in your seed all the families of the earth will be blessed.^f ²⁶ God raised up His Servant^g and sent Him first to you to bless you by turning each of you from your evil ways.”

Peter and John Arrested

4 Now as they were speaking to the people, the priests, the commander of the temple guard, and the •Sadducees confronted them, ² because they were provoked that they were teaching the people and proclaiming in the person of Jesus^h the resurrection from the dead. ³ So they seized them and put them in custody until the next day, since it was already evening. ⁴ But many of those who heard the message believed, and the number of the men came to about 5,000.

Peter and John Face the Jewish Leadership

⁸ Then Peter was filled with the Holy Spirit and said to them, “Rulers of the people and elders:^k ⁹ If we are being examined today about a good deed done to a disabled man—by what means he was healed— ¹⁰ let it be known to all of you and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ the •Nazarene—whom you crucified and whom God raised from the dead—by Him this man is standing here before you healthy. ¹¹ This [Jesus] is

The stone despised by you builders, who has become the cornerstone.^l

¹² There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to people by which we must be saved.”

The Name Forbidden

¹³ When they observed the boldness of Peter and John and realized that they were uneducated and untrained men, they were amazed and knew that they had been with Jesus. ¹⁴ And since they saw the man who had been healed standing with them, they had nothing to say in response. ¹⁵ After they had ordered them to leave the •Sanhedrin, they conferred among themselves, ¹⁶ saying, “What should we do with these men? For an obvious sign, evident to all who live in Jerusalem, has been done through them, and we cannot deny it! ¹⁷ But so this does not spread any further among the people, let’s threaten them against speaking to anyone in this name again.” ¹⁸ So they called for them and ordered them not to preach or teach at all in the name of Jesus.

²¹ After threatening them further, they released them. They found no way to punish them, because the people were all giving glory to God over what had been done; ²² for the man was over 40 years old on whom this sign of healing had been performed.

Prayer for Boldness

²³ After they were released, they went to their own fellowship^a and reported all that the •chief priests and the elders had said to them. ²⁴ When they heard this, they raised their voices to God unanimously and said, “Master, You are the One who made the heaven, the earth, and the sea, and everything in them. ²⁵ You said through the Holy Spirit, by the mouth of our father David Your servant:^b

Why did the Gentiles rage,
and the peoples plot futile things?

²⁶ The kings of the earth took their stand,
and the rulers assembled together against the Lord and against His •Messiah.^c

²⁷ “For, in fact, in this city both •Herod and Pontius •Pilate, with the Gentiles and the peoples of Israel, assembled together against Your holy Servant Jesus, whom You anointed, ²⁸ to do whatever Your hand and Your plan had predestined to take place. ²⁹ And now, Lord, consider their threats, and grant that Your slaves may speak Your message with complete boldness, ³⁰ while You stretch out Your hand for healing, signs, and wonders to be performed through the name of Your holy Servant Jesus.” ³¹ When they had prayed, the place where they were assembled was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak God’s message with boldness.

Believers Sharing

³² Now the multitude of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of his possessions was his own, but instead they held everything in common. ³³ And with great power the apostles were giving testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was on all of them. ³⁴ For there was not a needy person among them, because all those who owned lands or houses sold them, brought the proceeds of the things that were sold, ³⁵ and laid them at the apostles’ feet. This was then distributed to each person as anyone had a need.

³⁶ Joseph, a Levite and a Cypriot by birth, whom the apostles named Barnabas, which is translated Son of Encouragement, ³⁷ sold a field he owned, brought the money, and laid it at the apostles’ feet.

Lying to the Holy Spirit

5 But a man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a piece of property. ² However, he kept back part of the proceeds with his wife’s knowledge, and brought a portion of it and laid it at the apostles’ feet.

³ Then Peter said, “Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and keep back part of the proceeds from the field? ⁴ Wasn’t it yours while you possessed it? And after it was sold, wasn’t it at your disposal? Why is it that you planned this thing in your heart? You have not lied to men but to God!” ⁵ When he heard these words, Ananias dropped dead, and a great fear came on all who heard. ⁶ The young men got up, wrapped [his body], carried him out, and buried him.

⁷ There was an interval of about three hours; then his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. ⁸ “Tell me,” Peter asked her, “did you sell the field for this price?”

“Yes,” she said, “for that price.”

^a4:23 Or friends, or companions ^b4:25 Other mss read through the mouth of David Your servant ^c4:25–26 Ps 2:1–2

⁹ Then Peter said to her, “Why did you agree to test the Spirit of the Lord? Look! The feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out!”

¹⁰ Instantly she dropped dead at his feet. When the young men came in, they found her dead, carried her out, and buried her beside her husband. ¹¹ Then great fear came on the whole church and on all who heard these things.

Apostolic Signs and Wonders

¹² Many signs and wonders were being done among the people through the hands of the apostles. By common consent they would all meet in Solomon’s Colonnade. ¹³ None of the rest dared to join them, but the people praised them highly. ¹⁴ Believers were added to the Lord in increasing numbers—crowds of both men and women. ¹⁵ As a result, they would carry the sick out into the streets and lay them on beds and pallets so that when Peter came by, at least his shadow might fall on some of them. ¹⁶ In addition, a multitude came together from the towns surrounding Jerusalem, bringing sick people and those who were tormented by unclean spirits, and they were all healed.

In and Out of Prison

¹⁷ Then the high priest took action. He and all his colleagues, those who belonged to the party of the •Sadducees, were filled with jealousy. ¹⁸ So they arrested^a the apostles and put them in the city jail. ¹⁹ But an angel of the Lord opened the doors of the jail during the night, brought them out, and said, ²⁰ “Go and stand in the •temple complex, and tell the people all about this life.” ²¹ In obedience to this, they entered the temple complex at daybreak and began to teach.

The Apostles on Trial Again

When the high priest and those who were with him arrived, they convened the •Sanhedrin—the full Senate of the sons of Israel—and sent [orders] to the jail to have them brought. ²² But when the temple police got there, they did not find them in the jail, so they returned and reported, ²³ “We found the jail securely locked, with the guards standing in front of the doors; but when we opened them, we found no one inside!” ²⁴ As^b the captain of the temple police and the •chief priests heard these things, they were baffled about them, as to what could come of this.

²⁶ Then the captain went with the temple police and brought them in without force, because they were afraid the people might stone them. ²⁷ When they had brought them in, they had them stand before the Sanhedrin, and the high priest asked, ²⁸ “Didn’t we strictly order you not to teach in this name? And look, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and are determined to bring this man’s blood on us!”

²⁹ But Peter and the apostles replied, “We must obey God rather than men. ³⁰ The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you had murdered by hanging Him on a tree. ³¹ God exalted this man to His right hand as ruler and Savior, to grant repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. ³² We are witnesses of these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey Him.”

Gamaliel’s Advice

³³ When they heard this, they were enraged and wanted to kill them. ³⁴ A •Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law who was respected by all the people, stood up in the Sanhedrin and ordered the men^c to be taken outside for a little while. ³⁵ He said to them, “Men of Israel, be careful about what you’re going to do to these men. ³⁶ Not long ago Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody, and a group of about 400 men rallied to him. He was killed, and all his partisans were dispersed and came to nothing. ³⁷ After this man, Judas the Galilean rose up in the days of the census and attracted a following.^d That man also perished, and all his partisans were scattered. ³⁸ And now, I tell you, stay away from these men and leave them alone. For if this plan or this work is of men, it will be overthrown; ³⁹ but if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them. You may even be found fighting against God.” So they were persuaded by him. ⁴⁰ After they called in the apostles and had them flogged, they ordered them not to speak in the name of Jesus and released them. ⁴¹ Then they went out from the presence of the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to be dishonored on behalf of the name.^e ⁴² Every day in the temple complex, and in various homes, they continued teaching and proclaiming the good news that the •Messiah is Jesus.^f

Seven Chosen to Serve

6 In those days, as the number of the disciples was multiplying, there arose a complaint by the Hellenistic Jews^a against the Hebraic Jews^b that their widows were being overlooked in the daily distribution. ² Then the Twelve summoned the whole company of the disciples and said, “It would not be right for us to give up preaching about God to wait on tables. ³ Therefore, brothers, select from among you seven men of good reputation, full of the Spirit and wisdom, whom we can appoint to this duty. ⁴ But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the preaching ministry.” ⁵ The proposal pleased the whole company. So they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and the Holy Spirit, and Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a •proselyte from Antioch. ⁶ They had them stand before the apostles, who prayed and laid their hands on them.^c

⁷ So the preaching about God flourished, the number of the disciples in Jerusalem multiplied greatly, and a large group of priests became obedient to the faith.

Stephen Accused of Blasphemy

⁸ Stephen, full of grace and power, was performing great wonders and signs among the people. ⁹ Then some from what is called the Freedmen’s •Synagogue, composed of both Cyrenians and Alexandrians, and some from Cilicia and Asia, came forward and disputed with Stephen. ¹⁰ But they were unable to stand up against the wisdom and the Spirit by whom he spoke.

¹¹ Then they induced men to say, “We heard him speaking blasphemous words against Moses and God!” ¹² They stirred up the people, the elders, and the •scribes; so they came up, dragged him off, and took him to the •Sanhedrin. ¹³ They also presented false witnesses who said, “This man does not stop speaking blasphemous words against this holy place and the law. ¹⁴ For we heard him say that Jesus, this •Nazarene, will destroy this place and change the customs that Moses handed down to us.” ¹⁵ And all who were sitting in the Sanhedrin looked intently at him and saw that his face was like the face of an angel.

Stephen’s Address

7 “Is this true?”^d the high priest asked.

² “Brothers and fathers,” he said, “listen: The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he settled in Haran, ³ and said to him:

Get out of your country
and away from your relatives, and come to the land that I will show
you.^e

⁴ “Then he came out of the land of the Chaldeans and settled in Haran. And from there, after his father died, God had him move to this land in which you now live. ⁵ He didn’t give him an inheritance in it, not even a foot of ground, but He promised to give it to him as a possession, and to his descendants after him, even though he was childless. ⁶ God spoke in this way:

His descendants would be strangers
in a foreign country,
and they would enslave
and oppress them for 400 years.

⁷ I will judge the nation
that they will serve as slaves,
God said.

After this, they will come out and worship Me in this place.^f

⁸ Then He gave him the covenant of circumcision. This being so, he fathered Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day; Isaac did the same with Jacob, and Jacob with the 12 patriarchs.

The Patriarchs in Egypt

⁹ “The patriarchs became jealous of Joseph and sold him into Egypt, but God was with him ¹⁰ and rescued him out of all his troubles. He gave him favor and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, who appointed him governor over Egypt and over his whole household. ¹¹ Then a famine came over all of Egypt and Canaan, with great suffering, and our forefathers could find no food. ¹² When Jacob heard there was grain in Egypt, he sent our forefathers the first time. ¹³ The second time, Joseph was revealed to his brothers, and Joseph’s family became known to Pharaoh. ¹⁴ Joseph then invited his father Jacob and all his relatives, 75 people in all, ¹⁵ and Jacob went down to Egypt. He and our forefathers died there, ¹⁶ were carried back to Shechem, and were placed in the tomb that Abraham had bought for a sum of silver from the sons of Hamor in Shechem.

Moses, a Rejected Savior

¹⁷ “As the time was drawing near to fulfill the promise that God had made to Abraham, the people flourished and multiplied in Egypt ¹⁸until a different king ruled over Egypt^a who did not know Joseph. ¹⁹He dealt deceitfully with our race and oppressed our forefathers by making them leave their infants outside so they wouldn’t survive.^b ²⁰At this time Moses was born, and he was beautiful before God. He was nursed in his father’s home three months, ²¹and when he was left outside, Pharaoh’s daughter adopted and raised him as her own son. ²²So Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was powerful in his speech and actions.

²³ “As he was approaching the age of 40, he decided^c to visit his brothers, the sons of Israel. ²⁴When he saw one of them being mistreated, he came to his rescue and avenged the oppressed man by striking down the Egyptian. ²⁵He assumed his brothers would understand that God would give them deliverance through him, but they did not understand. ²⁶The next day he showed up while they were fighting and tried to reconcile them peacefully, saying, ‘Men, you are brothers. Why are you mistreating each other?’

²⁷ “But the one who was mistreating his neighbor pushed him^d away, saying:

Who appointed you a ruler and a judge over us? ²⁸Do you want to kill me, the same way you killed the Egyptian yesterday?^e

²⁹ “At this disclosure, Moses fled and became an exile in the land of Midian, where he fathered two sons. ³⁰After 40 years had passed, an angel^f appeared to him in the desert of Mount Sinai, in the flame of a burning bush. ³¹When Moses saw it, he was amazed at the sight. As he was approaching to look at it, the voice of the Lord came: ³²I am the God of your forefathers—the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob.^g So Moses began to tremble and did not dare to look.

³³ “Then the Lord said to him:

Take the sandals off your feet, because the place where you are standing is holy ground. ³⁴I have certainly seen the oppression of My people in Egypt;

I have heard their groaning and have come down to rescue them. And now, come, I will send you to Egypt.^h

³⁵ “This Moses, whom they rejected when they said, Who appointed you a ruler and a judge?^e—this one God sent as a ruler and a redeemer by means of the angel who appeared to him in the bush. ³⁶This man led them out and performed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, at the Red Sea, and in the desert for 40 years.

Israel’s Rebellion against God

³⁷ “This is the Moses who said to the sons of Israel, Godⁱ will raise up for you a Prophet like me from among your brothers.^j ³⁸He is the one who was in the congregation in the desert together with the angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our forefathers. He received living oracles to give to us. ³⁹Our forefathers were unwilling to obey him, but pushed him away, and in their hearts turned back to Egypt. ⁴⁰They told Aaron:

Make us gods who will go before us. As for this Moses who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we don’t know what’s become of him.^k

⁴¹ They even made a calf in those days, offered sacrifice to the idol, and were celebrating what their hands had made. ⁴²Then God turned away and gave them up to worship the host of heaven, as it is written in the book of the prophets:

Did you bring Me offerings and sacrifices for 40 years in the desert, O house of Israel?

Resisting the Holy Spirit

⁵¹ "You stiff-necked people with uncircumcised hearts and ears! You are always resisting the Holy Spirit; as your forefathers did, so do you. ⁵² Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? They even killed those who announced beforehand the coming of the Righteous One, whose betrayers and murderers you have now become. ⁵³ You received the law under the direction of angels and yet have not kept it."

The First Christian Martyr

⁵⁴ When they heard these things, they were enraged in their hearts^c and gnashed their teeth at him. ⁵⁵ But Stephen, filled by the Holy Spirit, gazed into heaven. He saw God's glory, with^d Jesus standing at the right hand of God, and he said, ⁵⁶ "Look! I see the heavens opened and the •Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!"

⁵⁷ Then they screamed at the top of their voices, stopped their ears, and rushed together against him. ⁵⁸ They threw him out of the city and began to stone him. And the witnesses laid their robes at the feet of a young man named Saul. ⁵⁹ They were stoning Stephen as he called out: "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!" ⁶⁰ Then he knelt down and cried out with a loud voice, "Lord, do not charge them with this sin!" And saying this, he fell •asleep.^e

Saul the Persecutor

8 Saul agreed with putting him to death. On that day a severe persecution broke out against the church in Jerusalem, and all except the apostles were scattered throughout the land of Judea and Samaria. ² But devout men buried Stephen and mourned deeply over him. ³ Saul, however, was ravaging the church, and he would enter house after house, drag off men and women, and put them in prison.

Philip in Samaria

⁴ So those who were scattered went on their way proclaiming the message of good news. ⁵ Philip went down to a^f city in Samaria and preached the •Messiah to them. ⁶ The crowds paid attention with one mind to what Philip said, as they heard and saw the signs he was performing. ⁷ For unclean spirits, crying out with a loud voice, came out of many who were possessed, and many who were paralyzed and lame were healed. ⁸ So there was great joy in that city.

The Response of Simon

⁹ A man named Simon had previously practiced sorcery in that city and astounded the •Samaritan people, while claiming to be somebody great. ¹⁰ They all paid attention to him, from the least of them to the greatest, and they said, "This man is called the Great Power of God!"^g ¹¹ They were attentive to him because he had astounded them with his sorceries for a long time. ¹² But when they believed Philip, as he proclaimed the good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, both men and women were baptized. ¹³ Then even Simon himself believed. And after he was baptized, he went around constantly with^h Philip and was astounded as he observed the signs and great miracles that were being performed.

Simon's Sin

¹⁴ When the apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had welcomed God's message, they sent Peter and John to them. ¹⁵ After they went down there, they prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit. ¹⁶ For He had not yet come down onⁱ any of them; they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. ¹⁷ Then Peter and John laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

¹⁸ When Simon saw that the Holy^j Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money, ¹⁹ saying, “Give me this power too, so that anyone I lay hands on may receive the Holy Spirit.”

²⁰ But Peter told him, “May your silver be destroyed with you, because you thought the gift of God could be obtained with money! ²¹ You have no part or share in this matter, because your heart is not right before God. ²² Therefore repent of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that the intent of your heart may be forgiven you. ²³ For I see you are poisoned by bitterness and bound by iniquity.”

²⁴ “Please pray^a to the Lord for me,” Simon replied, “so that nothing you^a have said may happen to me.”

²⁵ Then, after they had testified and spoken the message of the Lord, they traveled back to Jerusalem, evangelizing many villages of the •Samaritans.

The Conversion of the Ethiopian Official

²⁶ An angel of the Lord spoke to Philip: “Get up and go south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to desert Gaza.”^b ²⁷ So he got up and went. There was an Ethiopian man, a eunuch and high official of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was in charge of her entire treasury. He had come to worship in Jerusalem ²⁸ and was sitting in his chariot on his way home, reading the prophet Isaiah aloud.

²⁹ The Spirit told Philip, “Go and join that chariot.”

³⁰ When Philip ran up to it, he heard him reading the prophet Isaiah, and said, “Do you understand what you’re reading?”

³¹ “How can I,” he said, “unless someone guides me?” So he invited Philip to come up and sit with him. ³² Now the Scripture passage he was reading was this:

He was led like a sheep
to the slaughter;
and as a lamb is silent
before its shearer,
so He does not open His mouth.

³³ In His humiliation justice was denied Him.

Who will describe His generation?
For His life is taken from the earth.^c

³⁴ The eunuch replied to Philip, “I ask you, who is the prophet saying this about—himself or another person?” ³⁵ So Philip proceeded^d to tell him the good news about Jesus, beginning from that Scripture.

³⁶ As they were traveling down the road, they came to some water. The eunuch said, “Look, there’s water! What would keep me from being baptized?” ³⁷ And Philip said, “If you believe with all your heart you may.” And he replied, “I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.”^e ³⁸ Then he ordered the chariot to stop, and both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and he baptized him. ³⁹ When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord carried Philip away, and the eunuch did not see him any longer. But he went on his way rejoicing. ⁴⁰ Philip appeared in^f Azotus,^g and passing through, he was evangelizing all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

The Damascus Road

9 Meanwhile Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest ² and requested letters from him to the •synagogues in Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, either men or women, he might bring them as prisoners to Jerusalem. ³ As he traveled and was nearing Damascus, a light from heaven suddenly flashed around him. ⁴ Falling to the ground, he heard a voice saying to him, “Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?”

⁵ “Who are You, Lord?” he said.

“I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting,” He replied. ⁶ “But get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do.”

⁷ The men who were traveling with him stood speechless, hearing the sound but seeing no one. ⁸ Then Saul got up from the ground, and though his eyes were open, he could see nothing. So they took him by the hand and led him into Damascus. ⁹ He was unable to see for three days, and did not eat or drink.

Saul's Baptism

¹⁰ Now in Damascus there was a disciple named Ananias. And the Lord said to him in a vision, “Ananias!”

“Here I am, Lord!” he said.

¹¹ “Get up and go to the street called Straight,” the Lord said to him, “to the house of Judas, and ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul, since he is praying there. ¹² In a vision^h he has seen a man named Ananias coming in and placing his hands on him so he may regain his sight.”

¹⁴ And he has authority here from the •chief priests to arrest all who call on Your name.”

¹⁵ But the Lord said to him, “Go! For this man is My chosen instrument to carry My name before Gentiles, kings, and the sons of Israel. ¹⁶ I will certainly show him how much he must suffer for My name!”

¹⁷ So Ananias left and entered the house. Then he placed his hands on him and said, “Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road you were traveling, has sent me so you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit.”

¹⁸ At once something like scales fell from his eyes, and he regained his sight. Then he got up and was baptized. ¹⁹ And after taking some food, he regained his strength.

Saul Proclaiming the Messiah

Saul^a was with the disciples in Damascus for some days. ²⁰ Immediately he began proclaiming Jesus in the synagogues: “He is the Son of God.”

²¹ But all who heard him were astounded and said, “Isn’t this the man who, in Jerusalem, was destroying those who called on this name, and then came here for the purpose of taking them as prisoners to the chief priests?”

²² But Saul grew more capable, and kept confounding the Jews who lived in Damascus by proving that this One is the •Messiah.

²³ After many days had passed, the Jews conspired to kill him, ²⁴ but their plot became known to Saul. So they were watching the gates day and night intending to kill him, ²⁵ but his disciples took him by night and lowered him in a large basket through [an opening in] the wall.

Saul in Jerusalem

²⁶ When he arrived in Jerusalem, he tried to associate with the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, since they did not believe he was a disciple. ²⁷ Barnabas, however, took him and brought him to the apostles and explained to them how, on the road, Saul^b had seen the Lord, and that He had talked to him, and how in Damascus he had spoken boldly in the name of Jesus. ²⁸ Saul^b was coming and going with them in Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord. ²⁹ He conversed and debated with the Hellenistic Jews,^c but they attempted to kill him. ³⁰ When the brothers found out, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him off to Tarsus.

³¹ So the church throughout all Judea, Galilee, and Samaria had peace, being built up and walking in the fear of the Lord and in the encouragement of the Holy Spirit, and it increased in numbers.

The Healing of Aeneas

³² As Peter was traveling from place to place,^d he also came down to the saints^e who lived in Lydda. ³³ There he found a man named Aeneas, who was paralyzed and had been bedridden for eight years. ³⁴ Peter said to him, “Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and make your own bed,”^f and immediately he got up. ³⁵ So all who lived in Lydda and Sharon saw him and turned to the Lord.

Dorcas Restored to Life

³⁶ In Joppa there was a disciple named Tabitha, which is translated Dorcas.^g She was always doing good works and acts of charity. ³⁷ In those days she became sick and died. After washing her, they placed her in a room upstairs. ³⁸ Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples heard that Peter was there and sent two men to him who begged him, “Don’t delay in coming with us.” ³⁹ So Peter got up and went with them. When he arrived, they led him to the room upstairs. And all the widows approached him, weeping and showing him the robes and clothes that Dorcas had made while she was with them. ⁴⁰ Then Peter sent them all out of the room. He knelt down, prayed, and turning toward the body said, “Tabitha, get up!” She opened her eyes, saw Peter, and sat up. ⁴¹ He gave her his hand and helped her stand up. Then he called the saints and widows and presented her alive. ⁴² This became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. ⁴³ And Peter^b stayed on many days in Joppa with Simon, a leather tanner.^h man and feared God along with his whole household. He did many charitable deeds for the [Jewish] people and always prayed to God.

³ At about three in the afternoon^a he distinctly saw in a vision an angel of God who came in and said to him, “Cornelius!”

⁴ Looking intently at him, he became afraid and said, “What is it, Lord?”

And he told him, “Your prayers and your acts of charity have come up as a memorial offering before God. ⁵ Now send men to Joppa and call for Simon, who is also named Peter. ⁶ He is lodging with Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea.”

⁷ When the angel who spoke to him had gone, he called two of his household slaves and a devout soldier, who was one of those who attended him. ⁸ After explaining everything to them, he sent them to Joppa.

Peter's Vision

⁹ The next day, as they were traveling and nearing the city, Peter went up to pray on the housetop at about noon.^b ¹⁰ Then he became hungry and wanted to eat, but while they were preparing something he went into a visionary state. ¹¹ He saw heaven opened and an object coming down that resembled a large sheet being lowered to the earth by its four corners. ¹² In it were all the four-footed animals and reptiles of the earth, and the birds of the sky. ¹³ Then a voice said to him, “Get up, Peter; kill and eat!”

¹⁴ “No, Lord!” Peter said. “For I have never eaten anything common^c and unclean!”

¹⁵ Again, a second time, a voice said to him, “What God has made clean, you must not call common.” ¹⁶ This happened three times, and then the object was taken up into heaven.

Peter Visits Cornelius

¹⁷ While Peter was deeply perplexed about what the vision he had seen might mean, the men who had been sent by Cornelius, having asked directions to Simon's house, stood at the gate. ¹⁸ They called out, asking if Simon, who was also named Peter, was lodging there.

¹⁹ While Peter was thinking about the vision, the Spirit told him, “Three men are here looking for you. ²⁰ Get up, go downstairs, and accompany them with no doubts at all, because I have sent them.”

²¹ Then Peter went down to the men and said, “Here I am, the one you're looking for. What is the reason you're here?”

²² They said, “Cornelius, a centurion, an upright and God-fearing man, who has a good reputation with the whole Jewish nation, was divinely directed by a holy angel to call you to his house and to hear a message from you.”

²³ Peter^d then invited them in and gave them lodging.

The next day he got up and set out with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa went with him. ²⁴ The following day he entered Caesarea. Now Cornelius was expecting them and had called together his relatives and close friends. ²⁵ When Peter entered, Cornelius met him, fell at his feet, and worshiped him.

²⁶ But Peter helped him up and said, “Stand up! I myself am also a man.” ²⁷ While talking with him, he went on in and found that many had come together there. ²⁸ Peter^d said to them, “You know it's forbidden for a Jewish man to associate with or visit a foreigner. But God has shown me that I must not call any person common or unclean. ²⁹ That's why I came without any objection when I was sent for. So I ask, ‘Why did you send for me?’ ”

³⁰ Cornelius replied, “Four days ago at this hour, at three in the afternoon,^e I was^f praying in my house. Just then a man in a dazzling robe stood before me ³¹ and said, ‘Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your acts of charity have been remembered in God's sight. ³² Therefore send someone to Joppa and invite Simon here, who is also named Peter. He is lodging in Simon the tanner's house by the sea.’^g ³³ Therefore I immediately sent for you, and you did the right thing in coming. So we are all present before God, to hear everything you have been commanded by the Lord.”

Good News for Gentiles

³⁴ Then Peter began to speak: “In truth, I understand that God doesn't show favoritism, ³⁵ but in every nation the person who fears Him and does righteousness is acceptable to Him. ³⁶ He sent the message to the sons of Israel, proclaiming the good news of peace through Jesus Christ—He is Lord of all. ³⁷ You know the events^h that took place throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee after the baptism that John preached: ³⁸ how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, and how He went about doing good and curing all who were under the tyranny of the Devil, because God was with Him. ³⁹ We ourselves are witnesses of everything He did in both the Judean country and in Jerusalem; yet they killed Him by hanging Him on a tree. ⁴⁰ God raised up this man on the third day and permitted Him to be seen, ⁴¹ not by all the people, but by us, witnesses appointed beforehand by God, who ate and drank with Him after He rose from the dead. ⁴² He commanded us to preach to the people, and to solemnly testify that He is the One appointed by God to be the Judge of the living and the dead. ⁴³ All the prophets testify about Him that through His name everyone who believes in Him will receive forgiveness of sins.”

Gentile Conversion and Baptism

⁴⁴ While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit came down on all those who heard the message. ⁴⁵ The circumcised believers^a who had come with Peter were astounded, because the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out on the Gentiles also. ⁴⁶ For they heard them speaking in [other] languages and declaring the greatness of^b God.

Then Peter responded, ⁴⁷ “Can anyone withhold water and prevent these from being baptized, who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?” ⁴⁸ And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to stay for a few days.

Gentile Salvation Defended

11 The apostles and the brothers who were throughout Judea heard that the Gentiles had welcomed God’s message also. ² When Peter went up to Jerusalem, those who stressed circumcision^c argued with him, ³ saying, “You visited uncircumcised men and ate with them!”

⁴ Peter began to explain to them in an orderly sequence, saying: ⁵ “I was in the town of Joppa praying, and I saw, in a visionary state, an object coming down that resembled a large sheet being lowered from heaven by its four corners, and it came to me. ⁶ When I looked closely and considered it, I saw the four-footed animals of the earth, the wild beasts, the reptiles, and the birds of the sky. ⁷ Then I also heard a voice telling me, ‘Get up, Peter; kill and eat!’

⁸ “No, Lord!” I said. ‘For nothing common or unclean has ever entered my mouth!’ ⁹ But a voice answered from heaven a second time, ‘What God has made clean, you must not call common.’

¹⁰ “Now this happened three times, and then everything was drawn up again into heaven. ¹¹ At that very moment, three men who had been sent to me from Caesarea arrived at the house where we were. ¹² Then the Spirit told me to go with them with no doubts at all. These six brothers accompanied me, and we went into the man’s house. ¹³ He reported to us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying, ‘Send^d to Joppa, and call for Simon, who is also named Peter. ¹⁴ He will speak words^e to you by which you and all your household will be saved.’

¹⁵ “As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit came down on them, just as on us at the beginning. ¹⁶ Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how He said, ‘John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.’ ¹⁷ Therefore, if God gave them the same gift that He also gave to us when we believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, how could I possibly hinder God?”

¹⁸ When they heard this they became silent. Then they glorified God, saying, “So God has granted repentance resulting in life^f to even the Gentiles!”

The Church in Antioch

¹⁹ Those who had been scattered as a result of the persecution that started because of Stephen made their way as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the message to no one except Jews. ²⁰ But there were some of them, Cypriot and Cyrenian men, who came to Antioch and began speaking to the Hellenists,^g h proclaiming the good news about the Lord Jesus. ²¹ The Lord’s hand was with them, and a large number who believed turned to the Lord. ²² Then the report about them reached the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent out Barnabas to travelⁱ as far as Antioch. ²³ When he arrived and saw the grace of God, he was glad, and he encouraged all of them to remain true to the Lord with a firm resolve of the heart— ²⁴ for he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of

Famine Relief

²⁷ In those days some prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch.²⁸ Then one of them, named Agabus, stood up and predicted by the Spirit that there would be a severe famine throughout the Roman world.^b This took place during the time of Claudius.^c ²⁹ So each of the disciples, according to his ability, determined to send relief to the brothers who lived in Judea.³⁰ This they did, sending it to the elders by means of Barnabas and Saul.

James Martyred and Peter Jailed

12 About that time King •Herod cruelly attacked some who belonged to the church,² and he killed James, John's brother, with the sword.³ When he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter too, during the days of •Unleavened Bread.⁴ After the arrest, he put him in prison and assigned four squads of four soldiers each to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the •Passover.⁵ So Peter was kept in prison, but prayer was being made earnestly to God for him by the church.

Peter Rescued

⁶ On the night before Herod was to bring him out [for execution], Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, while the sentries in front of the door guarded the prison.⁷ Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared, and a light shone in the cell. Striking Peter on the side, he woke him up and said, "Quick, get up!" Then the chains fell off his wrists.⁸ "Get dressed," the angel told him, "and put on your sandals." And he did so. "Wrap your cloak around you," he told him, "and follow me."⁹ So he went out and followed, and he did not know that what took place through the angel was real, but thought he was seeing a vision.¹⁰ After they passed the first and second guard posts, they came to the iron gate that leads into the city, which opened to them by itself. They went outside and passed one street, and immediately the angel left him.

¹¹ Then Peter came to himself and said, "Now I know for certain that the Lord has sent His angel and rescued me from Herod's grasp and from all that the Jewish people expected."

¹² When he realized this, he went to the house of Mary, the mother of John Mark,^d where many had assembled and were praying.¹³ He knocked at the door in the gateway, and a servant named Rhoda came to answer.¹⁴ She recognized Peter's voice, and because of her joy she did not open the gate, but ran in and announced that Peter was standing at the gateway.

¹⁵ "You're crazy!" they told her. But she kept insisting that it was true. Then they said, "It's his angel!"¹⁶ Peter, however, kept on knocking, and when they opened the door and saw him, they were astounded.

¹⁷ Motioning to them with his hand to be silent, he explained to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. "Report these things to James^e and the brothers," he said. Then he departed and went to a different place.

¹⁸ At daylight, there was a great commotion^f among the soldiers as to what could have become of Peter.¹⁹ After Herod had searched and did not find him, he interrogated the guards and ordered their execution. Then Herod went down from Judea to Caesarea and stayed there.

Herod's Death

²⁰ He had been very angry with the Tyrians and Sidonians.^g Together they presented themselves before him, and having won over Blastus, who was in charge of the king's bedroom, they asked for peace, because their country was supplied with food from the king's country.²¹ So on an appointed day, dressed in royal robes and seated on the throne, Herod delivered a public address to them.²² The populace began to shout, "It's the voice of a god and not of a man!"²³ At once an angel of the Lord struck him because he did not give the glory to God, and he became infected with worms and died.²⁴ Then God's message flourished and multiplied.²⁵ And Barnabas and Saul returned to^h Jerusalem after they had completed their relief mission, on which they took John Mark.^d

Preparing for the Mission Field

13 In the local church at Antioch there were prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius the Cyrenian, Manaen, a close friend of •Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

² As they were ministering to^a the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, “Set apart for Me Barnabas and Saul for the work that I have called them to.” ³ Then, after they had fasted, prayed, and laid hands on them,^b they sent them off.

The Mission to Cyprus

⁴ Being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they came down to Seleucia, and from there they sailed to Cyprus. ⁵ Arriving in Salamis, they proclaimed God’s message in the Jewish •synagogues. They also had John as their assistant. ⁶ When they had gone through the whole island as far as Paphos, they came across a sorcerer, a Jewish false prophet named Bar-Jesus. ⁷ He was with the •proconsul, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. This man summoned Barnabas and Saul and desired to hear God’s message. ⁸ But Elymas, the sorcerer, which is how his name is translated, opposed them and tried to turn the proconsul away from the faith.

⁹ Then Saul—also called Paul—filled with the Holy Spirit, stared straight at the sorcerer^c ¹⁰ and said, “You son of the Devil, full of all deceit and all fraud, enemy of all righteousness! Won’t you ever stop perverting the straight paths of the Lord? ¹¹ Now, look! The Lord’s hand is against you: you are going to be blind, and will not see the sun for a time.” Suddenly a mist and darkness fell on him, and he went around seeking someone to lead him by the hand.

¹² Then the proconsul, seeing what happened, believed and was astonished at the teaching about the Lord.

Paul’s Sermon in Antioch of Pisidia

¹⁶ Then standing up, Paul motioned with his hand and spoke: “Men of Israel, and you who fear God, listen! ¹⁷ The God of this people Israel chose our forefathers, exalted the people during their stay in the land of Egypt, and led them out of it with a mighty^d arm. ¹⁸ And for about 40 years He put up with them^e in the desert; ¹⁹ then after destroying seven nations in the land of Canaan, He gave their land to them as an inheritance. ²⁰ This all took about 450 years. After this, He gave them judges until Samuel the prophet. ²¹ Then they asked for a king, so God gave them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for 40 years. ²² After removing him, He raised up David as their king, of whom He testified: ‘I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after My heart,^f who will carry out all My will.’

²³ “From this man’s descendants, according to the promise, God brought the Savior, Jesus,^g to Israel. ²⁴ Before He came to public attention,^h John had previously proclaimed a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. ²⁵ Then as John was completing his life work, he said, ‘Who do you think I am? I am not the One. But look! Someone is coming after me, and I am not worthy to untie the sandals on His feet.’

²⁶ “Brothers, sons of Abraham’s race, and those among you who fear God, the message of this salvation has been sent to us. ²⁷ For the residents of Jerusalem and their rulers, since they did not recognize Him or the voices of the prophets that are read every Sabbath, have fulfilled their wordsⁱ by condemning Him. ²⁸ Though they found no grounds for the death penalty, they asked •Pilate to have Him killed. ²⁹ When they had fulfilled all that had been written about Him, they took Him down from the tree and put Him in a tomb. ³⁰ But God raised Him from the dead, ³¹ and He appeared for many days to those who came up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now His witnesses to the people. ³² And we ourselves proclaim to you the good news of the promise that was made to our forefathers. ³³ God has fulfilled this to us their children by raising up Jesus, as it is written in the second Psalm:

today I have become Your Father.^{j k}

Paul and Barnabas in Antioch

⁴² As they^e were leaving, they^f ^g begged that these matters be presented to them the following Sabbath. ⁴³ After the synagogue had been dismissed, many of the Jews and devout •proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who were speaking with them and persuading them to continue in the grace of God.

⁴⁴ The following Sabbath almost the whole town assembled to hear the message of the Lord.^h ⁴⁵ But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and began to oppose what Paul was saying by insulting him.

⁴⁶ Then Paul and Barnabas boldly said: “It was necessary that God’s message be spoken to you first. But since you reject it, and consider yourselves unworthy of eternal life, we now turn to the Gentiles! ⁴⁷ For this is what the Lord has commanded us:

I have appointed you as a light
for the Gentiles,
to bring salvation to the endsⁱ
of the earth.”^j

⁴⁸ When the Gentiles heard this, they rejoiced and glorified the message of the Lord, and all who had been appointed to eternal life believed. ⁴⁹ So the message of the Lord spread through the whole region. ⁵⁰ But the Jews incited the religious women of high standing and the leading men of the city. They stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas and expelled them from their district. ⁵¹ But shaking the dust off their feet against them, they proceeded to Iconium. ⁵² And the disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

Growth and Persecution in Iconium

14 The same thing happened in Iconium; they entered the Jewish •synagogue and spoke in such a way that a great number of both Jews and Greeks believed. ² But the Jews who refused to believe stirred up and poisoned the minds^k of the Gentiles against the brothers. ³ So they stayed there for some time and spoke boldly, in reliance on the Lord, who testified to the message of His grace by granting that signs and wonders be performed through them. ⁴ But the people of the city were divided, some siding with the Jews and some with the apostles. ⁵ When an attempt was made by both the Gentiles and Jews, with their rulers, to assault and stone them, ⁶ they found out about it and fled to the Lycaonian towns called Lystra and Derbe, and to the surrounding countryside. ⁷ And there they kept evangelizing.

Mistaken for Gods in Lystra

⁸ In Lystra a man without strength in his feet, lame from birth,^l and who had never walked, sat ⁹ and heard Paul speaking. After observing him closely and seeing that he had faith to be healed, ¹⁰ [Paul] said in a loud voice, “Stand up straight on your feet!” And he jumped up and started to walk around.

¹¹ When the crowds saw what Paul had done, they raised their voices, saying in the Lycaonian language, “The gods have come down to us in the form of men!” ¹² And they started to call Barnabas, Zeus, and Paul, Hermes, because he was the main speaker. ¹³ Then the priest of Zeus, whose temple was just outside the town, brought oxen and garlands to the gates. He, with the crowds, intended to offer sacrifice.

¹⁴ The apostles Barnabas and Paul tore their robes when they heard this and rushed into the crowd, shouting: ¹⁵ “Men! Why are you doing these things? We are men also, with the same nature as you, and we are proclaiming good news to you, that you should turn from these worthless things to the living God, who made

¹⁹ Then some Jews came from Antioch and Iconium, and when they had won over the crowds and stoned Paul, they dragged him out of the city, thinking he was dead. ²⁰ After the disciples surrounded him, he got up and went into the town. The next day he left with Barnabas for Derbe.

Church Planting

²¹ After they had evangelized that town and made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, to Iconium, and to Antioch, ²² strengthening the hearts^c of the disciples by encouraging them to continue in the faith, and by telling them, “It is necessary to pass through many troubles on our way into the kingdom of God.”

²³ When they had appointed elders in every church and prayed with fasting, they committed them to the Lord in whom they had believed. ²⁴ Then they passed through Pisidia and came to Pamphylia. ²⁵ After they spoke the message in Perga, they went down to Attalia. ²⁶ From there they sailed back to Antioch where they had been entrusted to the grace of God for the work they had completed. ²⁷ After they arrived and gathered the church together, they reported everything God had done with them, and that He had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles. ²⁸ And they spent a considerable time^d with the disciples.

Dispute in Antioch

15 Some men came down from Judea and began to teach the brothers: “Unless you are circumcised according to the custom prescribed by Moses, you cannot be saved!” ² But after Paul and Barnabas had engaged them in serious argument and debate, they arranged for Paul and Barnabas and some others of them to go up to the apostles and elders in Jerusalem concerning this controversy. ³ When they had been sent on their way by the church, they passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, explaining in detail the conversion of the Gentiles, and they created great joy among all the brothers.

⁴ When they arrived at Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church, the apostles, and the elders, and they reported all that God had done with them. ⁵ But some of the believers from the party of the •Pharisees stood up and said, “It is necessary to circumcise them and to command them to keep the law of Moses!”

The Jerusalem Council

⁶ Then the apostles and the elders assembled to consider this matter. ⁷ After there had been much debate, Peter stood up and said to them: “Brothers, you are aware that in the early days God made a choice among you,^e that by my mouth the Gentiles would hear the gospel message and believe. ⁸ And God, who knows the heart, testified to them by giving^f the Holy Spirit, just as He also did to us. ⁹ He made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith. ¹⁰ Why, then, are you now testing God by putting on the disciples’ necks a yoke that neither our forefathers nor we have been able to bear? ¹¹ On the contrary, we believe we are saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, in the same way they are.”

¹² Then the whole assembly fell silent and listened to Barnabas and Paul describing all the signs and wonders God had done through them among the Gentiles. ¹³ After they stopped speaking, James responded: “Brothers, listen to me! ¹⁴ Simeon^g has reported how God first intervened to take from the Gentiles a people for His name. ¹⁵ And the words of the prophets agree with this, as it is written:

- 16 After these things I will return
and will rebuild David’s tent,
which has fallen down.
I will rebuild its ruins
and will set it up again,

The Letter to the Gentile Believers

²² Then the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, decided to select men from among them and to send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas: Judas, called Barsabbas, and Silas, both leading men among the brothers.²³ They wrote this letter to be delivered by them:^a

From the apostles and the elders, your brothers,
To the brothers from among the Gentiles in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia:
Greetings.

²⁴ Because we have heard that some to whom we gave no authorization went out from us and troubled you with their words and unsettled your hearts,^b ²⁵ we have unanimously decided to select men and send them to you along with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, ²⁶ who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁷ Therefore we have sent Judas and Silas, who will personally report the same things by word of mouth.^c ²⁸ For it was the Holy Spirit's decision—and ours—to put no greater burden on you than these necessary things: ²⁹ that you abstain from food offered to idols, from blood, from eating anything that has been strangled, and from sexual immorality. If you keep yourselves from these things, you will do well.
Farewell.

The Outcome of the Jerusalem Letter

³⁰ Then, being sent off, they went down to Antioch, and after gathering the assembly, they delivered the letter. ³¹ When they read it, they rejoiced because of its encouragement. ³² Both Judas and Silas, who were also prophets themselves, encouraged the brothers and strengthened them with a long message. ³³ After spending some time there, they were sent back in peace by the brothers to those who had sent them.^{d e} ³⁵ But Paul and Barnabas, along with many others, remained in Antioch teaching and proclaiming the message of the Lord.

Paul and Barnabas Part Company

³⁶ After some time had passed, Paul said to Barnabas, “Let's go back and visit the brothers in every town where we have preached the message of the Lord, and see how they're doing.” ³⁷ Barnabas wanted to take along John Mark.^f ³⁸ But Paul did not think it appropriate to take along this man who had deserted them in Pamphylia and had not gone on with them to the work. ³⁹ There was such a sharp disagreement that they parted company, and Barnabas took Mark with him and sailed off to Cyprus. ⁴⁰ Then Paul chose Silas and departed, after being commended to the grace of the Lord by the brothers. ⁴¹ He traveled through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

Paul Selects Timothy

16 Then he went on to Derbe and Lystra, where there was a disciple named Timothy, the son of a believing Jewish woman, but his father was a Greek. ² The brothers at Lystra and Iconium spoke highly of him. ³ Paul wanted Timothy^g to go with him, so he took him and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those places, since they all knew that his father was a Greek. ⁴ As they traveled through the towns, they delivered the decisions reached by the apostles and elders at Jerusalem for them to observe. ⁵ So the churches were strengthened in the faith and were increased in number daily.

Evangelization of Europe

⁶ They went through the region of Phrygia and Galatia and were prevented by the Holy Spirit from speaking the message in the province of Asia. ⁷ When they came to Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus did not allow them. ⁸ So, bypassing Mysia, they came down to Troas. ⁹ During the night a vision appeared to Paul: a Macedonian man was standing and pleading with him, “Cross over to Macedonia and help us!” ¹⁰ After he had seen the vision, we^h immediately made efforts to set out for Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to evangelize them.

Lydia's Conversion

¹¹ Then, setting sail from Troas, we ran a straight course to Samothrace, the next day to Neapolis, ¹² and from there to Philippi, a Roman colony, which is a leading city of that district of Macedonia. We stayed in that city for a number of days. ¹³ On the Sabbath day we went outside the city gate by the river, where we thought there was a place of prayer. We sat down and spoke to the women gathered there. ¹⁴ A woman named Lydia, a dealer in purple cloth from the city of Thyatira, who worshiped God, was listening. The Lord opened her heart to pay attention to what was spoken by Paul. ¹⁵ After she and her household were baptized, she urged us, "If you consider me a believer in the Lord, come and stay at my house." And she persuaded us.

Paul and Silas in Prison

¹⁶ Once, as we were on our way to prayer, a slave girl met us who had a spirit of prediction^a and made a large profit for her owners by fortune-telling. ¹⁷ As she followed Paul and us she cried out, "These men are the slaves of the Most High God, who are proclaiming to you^b the way of salvation." ¹⁸ And she did this for many days.

But Paul was greatly aggravated, and turning to the spirit, said, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her!" And it came out right away.^c

¹⁹ When her owners saw that their hope of profit was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace to the authorities. ²⁰ And bringing them before the chief magistrates, they said, "These men are seriously disturbing our city. They are Jews, ²¹ and are promoting customs that are not legal for us as Romans to adopt or practice."

²² Then the mob joined in the attack against them, and the chief magistrates stripped off their clothes and ordered them to be beaten with rods. ²³ After they had inflicted many blows on them, they threw them in jail, ordering the jailer to keep them securely guarded. ²⁴ Receiving such an order, he put them into the inner prison and secured their feet in the stocks.

A Midnight Deliverance

²⁵ About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. ²⁶ Suddenly there was such a violent earthquake that the foundations of the jail were shaken, and immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's chains came loose. ²⁷ When the jailer woke up and saw the doors of the prison open, he drew his sword and was going to kill himself, since he thought the prisoners had escaped.

²⁸ But Paul called out in a loud voice, "Don't harm yourself, because all of us are here!"

²⁹ Then the jailer^d called for lights, rushed in, and fell down trembling before Paul and Silas. ³⁰ Then he escorted them out and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

³¹ So they said, "Believe on the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved—you and your household." ³² Then they spoke the message of the Lord to him along with everyone in his house. ³³ He took them the same hour of the night and washed their wounds. Right away he and all his family were baptized. ³⁴ He brought them up into his house, set a meal before them, and rejoiced because he had believed God with his entire household.

An Official Apology

³⁵ When daylight came, the chief magistrates sent the police to say, "Release those men!"

³⁶ The jailer reported these words to Paul: "The magistrates have sent orders for you to be released. So come out now and go in peace."

³⁷ But Paul said to them, "They beat us in public without a trial, although we are Roman citizens, and threw us in jail. And now are they going to smuggle us out secretly? Certainly not! On the contrary, let them come themselves and escort us out!"

³⁸ Then the police reported these words to the magistrates. And they were afraid when they heard that Paul and Silas^e were Roman citizens. ³⁹ So they came and apologized to them, and escorting them out, they urged them to leave town. ⁴⁰ After leaving the jail, they came to Lydia's house where they saw and encouraged the brothers, and departed.

A Short Ministry in Thessalonica

17 Then they traveled through Amphipolis and Apollonia and came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish •synagogue. ² As usual, Paul went to them, and on three Sabbath days reasoned with them from the Scriptures, ³ explaining and showing that the

The Assault on Jason’s House

⁵ But the Jews became jealous, and when they had brought together some scoundrels from the marketplace and formed a mob, they set the city in an uproar. Attacking Jason’s house, they searched for them to bring them out to the public assembly. ⁶ When they did not find them, they dragged Jason and some of the brothers before the city officials, shouting, “These men who have turned the world upside down have come here too, ⁷ and Jason has received them as guests! They are all acting contrary to Caesar’s decrees, saying that there is another king—Jesus!” ⁸ The Jews^b stirred up the crowd and the city officials who heard these things. ⁹ So taking a security bond from Jason and the others, they released them.

The Bereans Search the Scriptures

¹⁰ As soon as it was night, the brothers sent Paul and Silas off to Berea. On arrival, they went into the synagogue of the Jews. ¹¹ The people here were more open-minded than those in Thessalonica, since they welcomed the message with eagerness and examined the Scriptures daily to see if these things were so. ¹² Consequently, many of them believed, including a number of the prominent Greek women as well as men. ¹³ But when the Jews from Thessalonica found out that God’s message had been proclaimed by Paul at Berea, they came there too, agitating and disturbing^c the crowds. ¹⁴ Then the brothers immediately sent Paul away to go to the sea, but Silas and Timothy stayed on there. ¹⁵ Those who escorted Paul brought him as far as Athens, and after receiving instructions for Silas and Timothy to come to him as quickly as possible, they departed.

Paul in Athens

¹⁶ While Paul was waiting for them in Athens, his spirit was troubled within him when he saw that the city was full of idols. ¹⁷ So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and with those who worshiped God, and in the marketplace every day with those who happened to be there. ¹⁸ Then also, some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers argued with him. Some said, “What is this pseudo-intellectual^d trying to say?”

Others replied, “He seems to be a preacher of foreign deities”—because he was telling the good news about Jesus and the resurrection.

¹⁹ They took him and brought him to the Areopagus,^e and said, “May we learn about this new teaching you’re speaking of? ²⁰ For what you say sounds strange to us, and we want to know what these ideas mean.” ²¹ Now all the Athenians and the foreigners residing there spent their time on nothing else but telling or hearing something new.

The Areopagus Address

²² Then Paul stood in the middle of the Areopagus and said: “Men of Athens! I see that you are extremely religious in every respect. ²³ For as I was passing through and observing the objects of your worship, I even found an altar on which was inscribed:

TO AN UNKNOWN GOD

Therefore, what you worship in ignorance, this I proclaim to you. ²⁴ The God who made the world and everything in it—He is Lord of heaven and earth and does not live in shrines made by hands. ²⁵ Neither is He served by human hands, as though He needed anything, since He Himself gives everyone life and breath and all things. ²⁶ From one man^f He has made every nation of men to live all over the earth and has determined their appointed times and the boundaries of where they live, ²⁷ so that they might seek God, and perhaps they might reach out and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us. ²⁸ For in Him we live and move and exist, as even some of your own poets have said, ‘For we are also His offspring.’^g ²⁹ Being God’s offspring, then, we shouldn’t think that the divine nature is like gold or silver or stone, an image fashioned by human art and imagination.

everywhere to repent,³¹ because He has set a day on which He is going to judge the world in righteousness by the Man He has appointed. He has provided proof of this to everyone by raising Him from the dead.”

³² When they heard about resurrection of the dead, some began to ridicule him. But others said, “We will hear you about this again.” ³³ So Paul went out from their presence. ³⁴ However, some men joined him and believed, among whom were Dionysius the Areopagite, a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Founding the Corinthian Church

18 After this, he^a left from Athens and went to Corinth,² where he found a Jewish man named Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla because Claudius^b had ordered all the Jews to leave Rome. Paul^c came to them,³ and being of the same occupation, stayed with them and worked, for they were tentmakers by trade. ⁴ He reasoned in the •synagogue every Sabbath and tried to persuade both Jews and Greeks.

⁵ When Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul was occupied with preaching the message^d and solemnly testified to the Jews that the •Messiah is Jesus. ⁶ But when they resisted and blasphemed, he shook out his clothes^e and told them, “Your blood is on your own heads! I am clean. From now on I will go to the Gentiles.” ⁷ So he left there and went to the house of a man named Titius Justus, a worshiper of God, whose house was next door to the synagogue. ⁸ Crispus, the leader of the synagogue, believed the Lord, along with his whole household; and many of the Corinthians, when they heard, believed and were baptized.

⁹ Then the Lord said to Paul in a night vision, “Don’t be afraid, but keep on speaking and don’t be silent. ¹⁰ For I am with you, and no one will lay a hand on you to hurt you, because I have many people in this city.” ¹¹ And he stayed there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

¹² While Gallio was •proconsul of Achaia, the Jews made a united attack against Paul and brought him to the judge’s bench. ¹³ “This man,”

they said, “persuades people to worship God contrary to the law!”

¹⁴ And as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, “If it were a matter of a crime or of moral evil, it would be reasonable for me to put up with you Jews. ¹⁵ But if these are questions about words, names, and your own law, see to it yourselves. I don’t want to be a judge of such things.” ¹⁶ So he drove them from the judge’s bench. ¹⁷ Then they all^f seized Sosthenes, the leader of the synagogue, and beat him in front of the judge’s bench. But none of these things concerned Gallio.

The Return Trip to Antioch

¹⁸ So Paul, having stayed on for many days, said good-bye to the brothers and sailed away to Syria. Priscilla and Aquila were with him. He shaved his head at Cenchreae, because he had taken a vow. ¹⁹ When they reached Ephesus he left them there, but he himself entered the synagogue and engaged in discussion with^g the Jews. ²⁰ And though they asked him to stay for a longer time, he declined, ²¹ but said good-bye and stated,^h “I’ll come back to you again, if God wills.” Then he set sail from Ephesus.

²² On landing at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the church,ⁱ and went down to Antioch. ²³ He set out, traveling through one place after another in the Galatian territory and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.

The Eloquent Apollos

²⁴ A Jew named Apollos, a native Alexandrian, an eloquent man who was powerful in the Scriptures, arrived in Ephesus. ²⁵ This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit,^j he spoke and taught the things about Jesus accurately, although he knew only John’s baptism. ²⁶ He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. After Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him home^k and explained the way of God to him more accurately. ²⁷ When he wanted to cross over to Achaia, the brothers wrote to the disciples urging them to welcome him. After he arrived, he greatly helped those who had believed through grace. ²⁸ For he vigorously refuted the Jews in public, demonstrating through the Scriptures that Jesus is the Messiah.

Twelve Disciples of John the Baptist

19 While Apollos was in Corinth, Paul traveled through the interior regions and came to Ephesus. He found some disciples² and asked them, “Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?”

“No,” they told him, “we haven’t even heard that there is a Holy Spirit.”

³ “Then with what [baptism] were you baptized?” he asked them.

“With John’s baptism,” they replied.

⁴ Paul said, “John baptized with a baptism of repentance, telling the people that they should believe in the One who would come after him, that is, in Jesus.”

⁵ On hearing this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. ⁶ And when Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they began to speak with [other] languages and to prophesy. ⁷ Now there were about 12 men in all.

In the Lecture Hall of Tyrannus

⁸ Then he entered the •synagogue and spoke boldly over a period of three months, engaging in discussion and trying to persuade them about the things related to the kingdom of God. ⁹ But when some became hardened and would not believe, slandering the Way in front of the crowd, he withdrew from them and met separately with the disciples, conducting discussions every day in the lecture hall of Tyrannus. ¹⁰ And this went on for two years, so that all the inhabitants of the province of Asia, both Jews and Greeks, heard the word of the Lord.

Demonism Defeated at Ephesus

¹³ Then some of the itinerant Jewish exorcists attempted to pronounce the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, “I command you by the Jesus whom Paul preaches!” ¹⁴ Seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish •chief priest, were doing this. ¹⁵ The evil spirit answered them, “Jesus I know, and Paul I recognize—but who are you?” ¹⁶ Then the man who had the evil spirit leaped on them, overpowered them all, and prevailed against them, so that they ran out of that house naked and wounded. ¹⁷ This became known to everyone who lived in Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks. Then fear fell on all of them, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. ¹⁸ And many who had become believers came confessing and disclosing their practices, ¹⁹ while many of those who had practiced magic collected their books and burned them in front of everyone. So they calculated their value, and found it to be 50,000 pieces of silver. ²⁰ In this way the Lord’s message flourished and prevailed.

The Riot in Ephesus

²¹ When these events were over, Paul resolved in the Spirit to pass through Macedonia and Achaia and go to Jerusalem. “After I’ve been there,” he said, “I must see Rome as well!” ²² So after sending two of those who assisted him, Timothy and Erastus, to Macedonia, he himself stayed in the province of Asia for a while.

²³ During that time there was a major^b disturbance about the Way. ²⁴ For a person named Demetrius, a silversmith who made silver shrines of Artemis,^c provided a great deal of^d business for the craftsmen. ²⁵ When he had assembled them, as well as the workers engaged in this type of business, he said: “Men, you know that our prosperity is derived from this business. ²⁶ You both see and hear that not only in Ephesus, but in almost the whole province of Asia, this man Paul has persuaded and misled a considerable number of people by saying that gods made by hand are not gods! ²⁷ So not only do we run a risk that our business may be discredited, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis may be despised and her magnificence come to the verge of ruin—the very one whom the whole province of Asia and the world adore.”

²⁸ When they had heard this, they were filled with rage and began to cry out, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!” ²⁹ So the city was filled with confusion; and they rushed all together into the amphitheater, dragging along Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians who were Paul’s traveling companions. ³⁰ Though Paul wanted to go in before the people, the disciples did not let him. ³¹ Even some of the provincial officials of Asia, who were his friends, sent word to him, pleading with him not to take a chance by going^e into the amphitheater. ³² Meanwhile,

^a19:12 Or that also sweatbands and sweatcloths or handkerchiefs ^b19:23 Lit was not a little ^c19:24 Artemis was the ancient Gk mother goddess believed to control all fertility. ^d19:24 Lit provided not a little ^e19:31 Lit not to give himself

some were shouting one thing and some another, because the assembly was in confusion, and most of them did not know why they had come together.³³ Then some of the crowd gave Alexander advice when the Jews pushed him to the front. So motioning with his hand, Alexander wanted to make his defense to the people.³⁴ But when they recognized that he was a Jew, a united cry went up from all of them for about two hours: "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

³⁵ However, when the city clerk had calmed the crowd down, he said, "Men of Ephesus! What man is there who doesn't know that the city of the Ephesians is the temple guardian of the great^a Artemis, and of the image that fell from heaven?" ³⁶ Therefore, since these things are undeniable, you must keep calm and not do anything rash. ³⁷ For you have brought these men here who are not temple robbers or blasphemers of our^b goddess. ³⁸ So if Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have a case against anyone, the courts are in session, and there are •proconsuls. Let them bring charges against one another. ³⁹ But if you want something else, it must be decided in a legal assembly. ⁴⁰ In fact, we run a risk of being charged with rioting for what happened today, since there is no justification that we can give as a reason for this disorderly gathering." ⁴¹ After saying this, he dismissed the assembly.

Paul in Macedonia

20 After the uproar was over, Paul sent for the disciples, encouraged them, and after saying good-bye, departed to go to Macedonia. ² And when he had passed through those areas and exhorted them at length, he came to Greece ³ and stayed three months. When he was about to set sail for Syria, a plot was devised against him by the Jews, so a decision was made to go back through Macedonia. ⁴ He was accompanied^c by Sopater, son of Pyrrhus,^d from Berea, Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica, Gaius from Derbe, Timothy, and Tychicus and Trophimus from Asia. ⁵ These men went on ahead and waited for us in Troas, ⁶ but we sailed away from Philippi after the days of •Unleavened Bread. In five days we reached them at Troas, where we spent seven days.

Eutychus Revived at Troas

⁷ On the first day of the week,^e we^f assembled to break bread. Paul spoke to them, and since he was about to depart the next day, he extended his message until midnight. ⁸ There were many lamps in the room upstairs where we were assembled, ⁹ and a young man named Eutychus was sitting on a window sill and sank into a deep sleep as Paul kept on speaking. When he was overcome by sleep he fell down from the third story, and was picked up dead. ¹⁰ But Paul went down, threw himself on him, embraced him, and said, "Don't be alarmed, for his •life is in him!" ¹¹ After going upstairs, breaking the bread, and eating, he conversed a considerable time until dawn. Then he left. ¹² They brought the boy home alive and were greatly comforted.

From Troas to Miletus

¹³ Then we went on ahead to the ship and sailed for Assos, from there intending to take Paul on board. For these were his instructions, since he himself was going by land. ¹⁴ When he met us at Assos, we took him on board and came to Mitylene. ¹⁵ Sailing from there, the next day we arrived off Chios. The following day we crossed over to Samos, and^g the day after, we came to Miletus. ¹⁶ For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus so he would not have to spend time in the province of Asia, because he was hurrying to be in Jerusalem, if possible, for the day of Pentecost.

Farewell Address to the Ephesian Elders

¹⁷ Now from Miletus, he sent to Ephesus and called for the elders of the church. ¹⁸ And when they came to him, he said to them: "You know, from the first day I set foot in Asia, how I was with you the whole time— ¹⁹ serving the Lord with all humility, with tears, and with the trials that came to me through the plots of the Jews— ²⁰ and that I did not shrink back from proclaiming to you anything that was profitable, or from teaching it to you in public and from house to house. ²¹ I testified to both Jews and Greeks about repentance toward God and faith in our Lord Jesus.

²² "And now I am on my way to Jerusalem, bound in my spirit, not knowing what I will encounter there, ²³ except that in town after town the Holy Spirit testifies to me that chains and afflictions are waiting for me. ²⁴ But I count my life of no value to myself, so that I may finish my course^h and the ministry I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of God's grace.

³² “And now^c I commit you to God and to the message of His grace, which is able to build you up and to give you an inheritance among all who are sanctified. ³³ I have not coveted anyone’s silver or gold or clothing. ³⁴ You yourselves know that these hands have provided for my needs, and for those who were with me. ³⁵ In every way I’ve shown you that by laboring like this, it is necessary to help the weak and to keep in mind the words of the Lord Jesus, for He said, ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’”

³⁶ After he said this, he knelt down and prayed with all of them. ³⁷ There was a great deal of weeping by everyone. And embracing Paul, they kissed him, ³⁸ grieving most of all over his statement that they would never see his face again. Then they escorted him to the ship.

Warnings on the Journey to Jerusalem

21 After we tore ourselves away from them and set sail, we came by a direct route to Cos, the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. ² Finding a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, we boarded and set sail. ³ After we sighted Cyprus, leaving it on the left, we sailed on to Syria and arrived at Tyre, because the ship was to unload its cargo there. ⁴ So we found some disciples and stayed there seven days. They said to Paul through the Spirit not to go to Jerusalem. ⁵ When our days there were over, we left to continue our journey, while all of them, with their wives and children, escorted us out of the city. After kneeling down on the beach to pray, ⁶ we said good-bye to one another. Then we boarded the ship, and they returned home.

⁷ When we completed our voyage from Tyre, we reached Ptolemais, where we greeted the brothers and stayed with them one day. ⁸ The next day we left and came to Caesarea, where we entered the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the Seven, and stayed with him. ⁹ This man had four virgin daughters who prophesied.

¹⁰ While we were staying there many days, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea.

¹¹ He came to us, took Paul’s belt, tied his own feet and hands, and said, “This is what the Holy Spirit says: ‘In this way the Jews in Jerusalem will bind the man who owns this belt, and deliver him into Gentile hands.’” ¹² When we heard this, both we and the local people begged him not to go up to Jerusalem.

¹³ Then Paul replied, “What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.”

¹⁴ Since he would not be persuaded, we stopped talking and simply said, “The Lord’s will be done!”

Conflict over the Gentile Mission

¹⁵ After these days we got ready and went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁶ Some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us and brought us to Mnason, a Cypriot and an early disciple, with whom we were to stay.

¹⁷ When we reached Jerusalem, the brothers welcomed us gladly. ¹⁸ The following day Paul went in with us to James, and all the elders were present. ¹⁹ After greeting them, he related one by one what God did among the Gentiles through his ministry.

²⁰ When they heard it, they glorified God and said, “You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are who have believed, and they are all zealous for the law. ²¹ But they have been told about you that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to abandon Moses, by telling them not to circumcise their children or to walk in our customs. ²² So what is to be done?^d They will certainly hear that you’ve come. ²³ Therefore do what we tell you: We have four men who have obligated themselves with a vow. ²⁴ Take these men, purify yourself along with them, and pay for them to get their heads shaved. Then everyone will know that what they were told about you amounts to nothing, but that you yourself are also careful about

The Riot in the Temple Complex

²⁶ Then the next day, Paul took the men, having purified himself along with them, and entered the temple, announcing the completion of the purification days when the offering for each of them would be made. ²⁷ As the seven days were about to end, the Jews from the province of Asia saw him in the •temple complex, stirred up the whole crowd, and seized him, ²⁸ shouting, “Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches everyone everywhere against our people, our law, and this place. What’s more, he also brought Greeks into the temple and has profaned this holy place.” ²⁹ For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with him, and they supposed that Paul had brought him into the temple complex.^b

³⁰ The whole city was stirred up, and the people rushed together. They seized Paul, dragged him out of the temple complex, and at once the gates were shut. ³¹ As they were trying to kill him, word went up to the commander of the •regiment that all Jerusalem was in chaos. ³² Taking along soldiers and •centurions, he immediately ran down to them. Seeing the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul. ³³ Then the commander came up, took him into custody, and ordered him to be bound with two chains. He asked who he was and what he had done. ³⁴ Some in the mob were shouting one thing and some another. Since he was not able to get reliable information because of the uproar, he ordered him to be taken into the barracks. ³⁵ When Paul^c got to the steps, he had to be carried by the soldiers because of the mob’s violence, ³⁶ for the mass of people were following and yelling, “Kill him!”

Paul’s Defense before the Jerusalem Mob

³⁷ As he was about to be brought into the barracks, Paul said to the commander, “Am I allowed to say something to you?”

He replied, “Do you know Greek? ³⁸ Aren’t you the Egyptian who raised a rebellion some time ago and led 4,000 Assassins^d into the desert?”

³⁹ Paul said, “I am a Jewish man from Tarsus of Cilicia, a citizen of an important city.^e Now I ask you, let me speak to the people.”

⁴⁰ After he had given permission, Paul stood on the steps and motioned with his hand to the people. When there was a great hush, he addressed 22 them in the Hebrew language: ¹ “Brothers and fathers, listen now to my defense before you.” ² When they heard that he was addressing them in the Hebrew language, they became even quieter. ³ He continued, “I am a Jewish man, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city^f at the feet of Gamaliel, and educated according to the strict view of our patriarchal law. Being zealous for God, just as all of you are today, ⁴ I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and putting both men and women in jail, ⁵ as both the high priest and the whole council of elders can testify about me. Having received letters from them to the brothers, I was traveling to Damascus to bring those who were prisoners there to be punished in Jerusalem.

Paul’s Testimony

⁶ “As I was traveling and near Damascus, about noon an intense light from heaven suddenly flashed around me. ⁷ I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?’

⁸ “I answered, ‘Who are You, Lord?’

“He said to me, ‘I am Jesus the •Nazarene, whom you are persecuting!’ ⁹ Now those who were with me saw the light,^g but they did not hear the voice of the One who was speaking to me.

¹⁰ “Then I said, ‘What should I do, Lord?’

“And the Lord told me, ‘Get up and go into Damascus, and there you will be told about everything that is assigned for you to do.’

¹¹ “Since I couldn’t see because of the brightness of that light, I was led by the hand by those who were with me, and came into Damascus. ¹² Someone named Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good reputation with all the Jews residing there, ¹³ came to me, stood by me, and said, ‘Brother Saul, regain your sight.’ And in that very hour I looked up and saw him. ¹⁴ Then he said, ‘The God of our fathers has appointed you to know His will, to see the Right-

17 “After I came back to Jerusalem and was praying in the •temple complex, I went into a visionary state 18 and saw Him telling me, ‘Hurry and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not accept your testimony about Me!’

19 “But I said, ‘Lord, they know that in •synagogue after synagogue I had those who believed in You imprisoned and beaten. 20 And when the blood of Your witness Stephen was being shed, I myself was standing by and approving,^b and I guarded the clothes of those who killed him.’

21 “Then He said to me, ‘Go, because I will send you far away to the Gentiles.’”

Paul's Roman Protection

22 They listened to him up to this word. Then they raised their voices, shouting, “Wipe this person off the earth—it’s a disgrace for him to live!”

23 As they were yelling and flinging aside their robes and throwing dust into the air, 24 the commander ordered him to be brought into the barracks, directing that he be examined with the scourge, so he could discover the reason they were shouting against him like this. 25 As they stretched him out for the lash, Paul said to the •centurion standing by, “Is it legal for you to scourge a man who is a Roman citizen and is uncondemned?”

26 When the centurion heard this, he went and reported to the commander, saying, “What are you going to do? For this man is a Roman citizen.”

27 The commander came and said to him, “Tell me—are you a Roman citizen?”

“Yes,” he said.

28 The commander replied, “I bought this citizenship for a large amount of money.”

“But I myself was born a citizen,” Paul said.

29 Therefore, those who were about to examine him withdrew from him at once. The commander too was alarmed when he realized Paul was a Roman citizen and he had bound him.

Paul before the Sanhedrin

30 The next day, since he wanted to find out exactly why Paul was being accused by the Jews, he released him^c and instructed the •chief priests and all the •Sanhedrin to convene. Then he brought Paul down and placed him before them.

23 1 Paul looked intently at the •Sanhedrin and said, “Brothers, I have lived my life before God in all good conscience until this day.”

2 But the high priest Ananias ordered those who were standing next to him to strike him on the mouth. 3 Then Paul said to him, “God is going to strike you, you whitewashed wall! You are sitting there judging me according to the law, and in violation of the law are you ordering me to be struck?”

4 And those standing nearby said, “Do you dare revile God’s high priest?”

5 “I did not know, brothers,” Paul said, “that it was the high priest. For it is written, You must not speak evil of a ruler of your people.”^d 6 When Paul realized that one part of them were •Sadducees and the other part were •Pharisees, he cried out in the Sanhedrin, “Brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees! I am being judged because of the hope of the resurrection of the dead!” 7 When he said this, a dispute broke out between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the assembly was divided. 8 For the Sadducees say there is no resurrection, and no angel or spirit, but the Pharisees affirm them all.

9 The shouting grew loud, and some of the •scribes of the Pharisees’ party got up and argued vehemently: “We find nothing evil in this man. What if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?”^e 10 When the dispute became violent, the commander feared that Paul might be torn apart by them and ordered the troops to go down, rescue him from them, and bring him into the barracks.

The Plot against Paul

11 The following night, the Lord stood by him and said, “Have courage! For as you have testified about Me in Jerusalem, so you must also testify in Rome.”

12 When it was day, the Jews formed a conspiracy and bound themselves under a curse: neither to eat nor to drink until they had killed Paul. 13 There were more than 40 who had formed this plot. 14 These men went to the •chief priests and elders and said, “We have bound ourselves under a solemn curse that we won’t eat anything until we have killed Paul. 15 So now you, along with the Sanhedrin, make a request to the commander that he bring him down to you^a as if you were going to investigate his case more thoroughly. However, before he gets near, we are ready to kill him.”

¹⁶ But the son of Paul’s sister, hearing about their ambush, came and entered the barracks and reported it to Paul. ¹⁷ Then Paul called one of the •centurions and said, “Take this young man to the commander, because he has something to report to him.”

¹⁸ So he took him, brought him to the commander, and said, “The prisoner Paul called me and asked me to bring this young man to you, because he has something to tell you.”

¹⁹ Then the commander took him by the hand, led him aside, and inquired privately, “What is it you have to report to me?”

²⁰ “The Jews,” he said, “have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the Sanhedrin tomorrow, as though they are going to hold a somewhat more careful inquiry about him. ²¹ Don’t let them persuade you, because there are more than 40 of them arranging to ambush him, men who have bound themselves under a curse not to eat or drink until they kill him. Now they are ready, waiting for a commitment from you.”

²² So the commander dismissed the young man and instructed him, “Don’t tell anyone that you have informed me about this.”

To Caesarea by Night

²³ He summoned two of his centurions and said, “Get 200 soldiers ready with 70 cavalry and 200 spearmen to go to Caesarea at nine tonight.^b ²⁴ Also provide mounts so they can put Paul on them and bring him safely to Felix the governor.”

²⁵ He wrote a letter of this kind:

²⁶ Claudius Lysias,
To the most excellent governor Felix:
Greetings.

²⁷ When this man had been seized by the Jews and was about to be killed by them, I arrived with my troops and rescued him because I learned that he is a Roman citizen. ²⁸ Wanting to know the charge for which they were accusing him, I brought him down before their Sanhedrin. ²⁹ I found out that the accusations were about disputed matters in their law, and that there was no charge that merited death or chains. ³⁰ When I was informed that there was a plot against the man,^c I sent him to you right away. I also ordered his accusers to state their case against him in your presence.^d

³¹ Therefore, during the night, the soldiers took Paul and brought him to Antipatris as they were ordered. ³² The next day, they returned to the barracks, allowing the cavalry to go on with him. ³³ When these men entered Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him. ³⁴ After he^e read it, he asked what province he was from. So when he learned he was from Cilicia, ³⁵ he said, “I will give you a hearing whenever your accusers get here too.” And he ordered that he be kept under guard in •Herod’s palace.^f

The Accusation against Paul

24 After five days Ananias the high priest came down with some elders and a lawyer^g named Tertullus. These men presented their case against Paul to the governor. ² When he was called in, Tertullus began to accuse him and said: “Since we enjoy great peace because of you, and reforms are taking place for the benefit of this nation by your foresight, ³ we gratefully receive them always and in all places, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. ⁴ However, so that I will not burden you any further, I beg you in your graciousness to give us a brief hearing. ⁵ For we have found this man to be a plague, an agitator among all the Jews throughout the Roman world, and a ringleader of the sect of the •Nazarenes!^h ⁶ He even tried to desecrate the temple, so we apprehended him [and wanted to judge him according to our law. ⁷ But Lysias the commander came and took him from our hands, commanding his accusers to come to you.]ⁱ ⁸ By examining him yourself you will be able to discern all these things of which we accuse him.” ⁹ The Jews also joined in the attack, alleging that these things were so.

Paul’s Defense before Felix

¹⁰ When the governor motioned to him to speak, Paul replied: “Because I know you have been a judge of this nation for many years, I am glad to offer my defense in what concerns me. ¹¹ You are able to determine that it is no more than 12 days since I went up to worship in Jerusalem. ¹² And they didn't find me disputing with anyone or causing a disturbance among the crowd, either in the •temple complex or in the •synagogues, or anywhere in the city. ¹³ Neither can they provide evidence to you of what they now bring against me. ¹⁴ But I confess this to you: that according to the Way, which they call a sect, so I worship my fathers' God, believing all the things that are written in the Law and in the Prophets. ¹⁵ And I have a hope in God, which these men themselves also accept, that there is going to be a resurrection,^a both of the righteous and the unrighteous. ¹⁶ I always do my best to have a clear conscience toward God and men. ¹⁷ After many years, I came to bring charitable gifts and offerings to my nation, ¹⁸ and while I was doing this, some Jews from the province of Asia found me ritually purified in the temple, without a crowd and without any uproar. ¹⁹ It is they who ought to be here before you to bring charges, if they have anything against me. ²⁰ Either let these men here state what wrongdoing they found in me when I stood before the •Sanhedrin, ²¹ or about this one statement I cried out while standing among them, 'Today I am being judged before you concerning the resurrection of the dead.'

The Verdict Postponed

²² Since Felix was accurately informed about the Way, he adjourned the hearing, saying, "When Lysias the commander comes down, I will decide your case." ²³ He ordered that the •centurion keep Paul^b under guard, though he could have some freedom, and that he should not prevent any of his friends from serving^c him.

²⁴ After some days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish, he sent for Paul and listened to him on the subject of faith in Christ Jesus. ²⁵ Now as he spoke about righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix became afraid and replied, "Leave for now, but when I find time I'll call for you." ²⁶ At the same time he was also hoping that money would be given to him by Paul.^d For this reason he sent for him quite often and conversed with him.

²⁷ After two years had passed, Felix received a successor, Porcius Festus, and because he wished to do a favor for the Jews, Felix left Paul in prison.

Appeal to Caesar

25 Three days after Festus arrived in the province, he went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea. ² Then the •chief priests and the leaders of the Jews presented their case against Paul to him; and they appealed, ³ asking him to do them a favor against Paul,^e that he might summon him to Jerusalem. They were preparing an ambush along the road to kill him. ⁴ However, Festus answered that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself was about to go there shortly. ⁵ "Therefore," he said, "let the men of authority among you go down with me and accuse him, if there is any wrong in this man."

⁶ When he had spent not more than eight or 10 days among them, he went down to Caesarea. The next day, seated at the judge's bench, he commanded Paul to be brought in. ⁷ When he arrived, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him and brought many serious charges that they were not able to prove, ⁸ while Paul made the defense that, "Neither against the Jewish law, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar have I sinned at all."

⁹ Then Festus, wanting to do a favor for the Jews, replied to Paul, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem, there to be tried before me on these charges?"

¹⁰ But Paul said: "I am standing at Caesar's tribunal, where I ought to be tried. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as even you can see very well. ¹¹ If then I am doing wrong, or have done anything deserving of death, I do not refuse to die, but if there is nothing to what these men accuse me of, no one can give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar!"

¹² After Festus conferred with his council, he replied, "You have appealed to Caesar; to Caesar you will go!"

King Agrippa and Bernice Visit Festus

¹³ After some days had passed, King Agrippa^f and Bernice arrived in Caesarea and paid a courtesy call on Festus. ¹⁴ Since they stayed there many days, Festus presented Paul's case to the king, saying, "There's a man who was left as a prisoner by Felix. ¹⁵ When I was in Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews presented their case and asked for a judgment against him. ¹⁶ I answered them that it's not the Romans' custom to give any man up^g before the accused confronts the accusers face to face and has an opportunity to give a defense concerning the charge. ¹⁷ Therefore, when they had assembled here, I did not delay. The next day I sat at the judge's bench and ordered the man to be brought in. ¹⁸ Concerning him, the accusers stood up and brought no charge of the sort I was expecting. ¹⁹ Instead they had some disagreements with him about their own religion and about a certain Jesus, a dead man whom Paul claimed to be alive. ²⁰ Since I was at a loss in a dispute over such things, I asked him if he wished to go to Jerusalem and be tried there concerning these matters. ²¹ But when Paul appealed to be held for trial by the Emperor, I ordered him to be kept in custody until I could send him to Caesar."

²² Then Agrippa said to Festus, "I would like to hear the man myself."

"Tomorrow," he said, "you will hear him."

Paul before Agrippa

²³ So the next day, Agrippa and Bernice came with great pomp and entered the auditorium with the commanders and prominent men of the city. When Festus gave the command, Paul was brought in. ²⁴ Then Festus said: "King Agrippa and all men present with us, you see this man about whom the whole Jewish community has appealed to me, both in Jerusalem and here, shouting that he should not live any longer. ²⁵ Now I realized that he had not done anything deserving of death, but when he himself appealed to the Emperor, I decided to send him. ²⁶ I have nothing definite to write to the Emperor about him. Therefore, I have brought him before all of you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after this examination is over, I may have something to write. ²⁷ For it seems unreasonable to me to send a prisoner and not to indicate the charges against him."

Paul's Defense before Agrippa

26 Agrippa said to Paul, "It is permitted for you to speak for yourself."

Then Paul stretched out his hand and began his defense: ² "I consider myself fortunate, King Agrippa, that today I am going to make a defense before you about everything I am accused of by the Jews, ³ especially since you are an expert in all the Jewish customs and controversies. Therefore I beg you to listen to me patiently.

⁴ "All the Jews know my way of life from my youth, which was spent from the beginning among my own nation and in Jerusalem. ⁵ They had previously known me for quite some time, if they were willing to testify, that according to the strictest party of our religion I lived as a •Pharisee. ⁶ And now I stand on trial for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers, ⁷ [the promise] our 12 tribes hope to attain as they earnestly serve Him night and day. Because of this hope I am being accused by the Jews, O king! ⁸ Why is it considered incredible by any of you that God raises the dead? ⁹ In fact, I myself supposed it was necessary to do many things in opposition to the name of Jesus the •Nazarene. ¹⁰ This I actually did in Jerusalem, and I locked up many of the saints in prison, since I had received authority for that from the •chief priests. When they were put to death, I cast my vote against them. ¹¹ In all the •synagogues I often tried to make them blaspheme by punishing them. Being greatly enraged at them, I even pursued them to foreign cities.

Paul's Account of His Conversion and Commission

¹² "Under these circumstances I was traveling to Damascus with authority and a commission from the chief priests. ¹³ At midday, while on the road, O king, I saw a light from heaven brighter than the sun, shining around me and those traveling with me. ¹⁴ When we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice speaking to me in the Hebrew language, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'^a

¹⁵ "But I said, 'Who are You, Lord?'

"And the Lord replied: 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. ¹⁶ But get up and stand on your feet. For I have appeared to you for this purpose, to appoint you as a servant and a witness of things you have seen,^b and of things in which I will appear to you. ¹⁷ I will rescue you from the people and from the Gentiles, to whom I now send you, ¹⁸ to open their eyes that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a share among those who are sanctified by faith in Me.'

¹⁹ "Therefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision. ²⁰ Instead, I preached to those in Damascus first, and to those in Jerusalem and in all the region of Judea, and to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works worthy of repentance.²¹ For this reason the Jews seized me in the •temple complex and were trying to kill me.²² Since I have obtained help that comes from God, to this day I stand and testify to both small and great, saying nothing else than what the prophets and Moses said would take place—²³ that the •Messiah must suffer, and that as the first to rise from the dead, He would proclaim light to our people and to the Gentiles.”

Not Quite Persuaded

²⁴ As he was making his defense this way, Festus exclaimed in a loud voice, “You’re out of your mind, Paul! Too much study is driving you mad!”

²⁵ But Paul replied, “I’m not out of my mind, most excellent Festus. On the contrary, I’m speaking words of truth and good judgment.²⁶ For the king knows about these matters. It is to him I am actually speaking boldly. For I’m not convinced that any of these things escapes his notice, since this was not done in a corner!²⁷ King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know you believe.”

²⁸ Then Agrippa said to Paul, “Are you going to persuade me to become a Christian so easily?”

²⁹ “I wish before God,” replied Paul, “that whether easily or with difficulty, not only you but all who listen to me today might become as I am—except for these chains.”

³⁰ So the king, the governor, Bernice, and those sitting with them got up,³¹ and when they had left they talked with each other and said, “This man is doing nothing that deserves death or chains.”

³² Then Agrippa said to Festus, “This man could have been released if he had not appealed to Caesar.”

Sailing for Rome

27 When it was decided that we were to sail to Italy, they handed over Paul and some other prisoners to a •centurion named Julius, of the Imperial •Regiment.² So when we had boarded a ship of Adramyttium, we put to sea, intending to sail to ports along the coast of the Province of Asia. Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, was with us.³ The next day we put in at Sidon, and Julius treated Paul kindly and allowed him to go to his friends to receive their care.⁴ When we had put out to sea from there, we sailed along the northern coast^a of Cyprus because the winds were against us.⁵ After sailing through the open sea off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we reached Myra in Lycia.⁶ There the centurion found an Alexandrian ship sailing for Italy and put us on board.⁷ Sailing slowly for many days, we came with difficulty as far as Cnidus. But since the wind did not allow us to approach it, we sailed along the south side^a of Crete off Salomone.⁸ With yet more difficulty we sailed along the coast, and came to a place called Fair Havens near the city of Lasea.

Paul’s Advice Ignored

⁹ By now much time had passed, and the voyage was already dangerous. Since the Fast^b was already over, Paul gave his advice¹⁰ and told them, “Men, I can see that this voyage is headed toward damage and heavy loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives.”¹¹ But the centurion paid attention to the captain and the owner of the ship rather than to what Paul said.¹² Since the harbor was unsuitable to winter in, the majority decided to set sail from there, hoping somehow to reach Phoenix, a harbor on Crete open to the southwest and northwest, and to winter there.

Storm-Tossed Vessel

¹³ When a gentle south wind sprang up, they thought they had achieved their purpose; they weighed anchor and sailed along the shore of Crete.¹⁴ But not long afterwards, a fierce wind called the “northeaster”^c rushed down from the island.^d ¹⁵ Since the ship was caught and was unable to head into the wind, we gave way to it and were driven along.¹⁶ After running under the shelter of a little island called Cauda,^e we were barely able to get control of the skiff.¹⁷ After hoisting it up, they used ropes and tackle and girded the ship. Then, fearing they would run aground on the Syrtis,^f they lowered the drift-anchor, and in this way they were driven along.¹⁸ Because we were being severely battered by the storm, they began to jettison the cargo the next day.¹⁹ On the third day, they threw the ship’s gear overboard with their own hands.

²⁰ For many days neither sun nor stars appeared, and the severe storm kept raging; finally all hope that we would be saved was disappearing.²¹ Since many were going without food, Paul stood up among them and said, “You men should have followed my advice not to sail from Crete and sustain this damage and loss.²² Now I urge you to take courage, because there will be no loss of any of your lives, but only of the ship. ²³ For this night an angel of the God I belong to and serve stood by me, ²⁴ saying, ‘Don’t be afraid, Paul. You must stand before Caesar. And, look! God has graciously given you all those who are sailing with you.’ ²⁵ Therefore, take courage, men, because I believe God that it will be just the way it was told to me. ²⁶ However, we must run aground on a certain island.”

²⁷ When the fourteenth night came, we were drifting in the Adriatic Sea,^a and in the middle of the night the sailors thought they were approaching land.^b ²⁸ They took a sounding and found it to be 120 feet^c deep; when they had sailed a little farther and sounded again, they found it to be 90 feet^d deep. ²⁹ Then, fearing we might run aground in some rocky place, they dropped four anchors from the stern and prayed for daylight to come.

³⁰ Some sailors tried to escape from the ship; they had let down the skiff into the sea, pretending that they were going to put out anchors from the bow. ³¹ Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, “Unless these men stay in the ship, you cannot be saved.” ³² Then the soldiers cut the ropes holding the skiff and let it drop away.

³³ When it was just about daylight, Paul urged them all to take food, saying, “Today is the fourteenth day that you have been waiting and going without food, having eaten nothing. ³⁴ Therefore I urge you to take some food. For this has to do with your survival, since not a hair will be lost from the head of any of you.” ³⁵ After he said these things and had taken some bread, he gave thanks to God in the presence of them all, and when he had broken it, he began to eat. ³⁶ They all became encouraged and took food themselves. ³⁷ In all there were 276 of us on the ship. ³⁸ And having eaten enough food, they began to lighten the ship by throwing the grain overboard into the sea.

Shipwreck

³⁹ When daylight came, they did not recognize the land, but sighted a bay with a beach. They planned to run the ship ashore if they could. ⁴⁰ After casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time loosening the ropes that held the rudders. Then they hoisted the foresail to the wind and headed for the beach. ⁴¹ But they struck a sandbar and ran the ship aground. The bow jammed fast and remained immovable, but the stern began to break up with the pounding of the waves.

⁴² The soldiers’ plan was to kill the prisoners so that no one could swim off and escape. ⁴³ But the centurion kept them from carrying out their plan because he wanted to save Paul, so he ordered those who could swim to jump overboard first and get to land. ⁴⁴ The rest were to follow, some on planks and some on debris from the ship. In this way, all got safely to land.

Malta’s Hospitality

28 Safely ashore, we then learned that the island was called Malta. ² The local people showed us extraordinary kindness, for they lit a fire and took us all in, since rain was falling and it was cold. ³ As Paul gathered a bundle of brushwood and put it on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat and fastened itself to his hand. ⁴ When the local people saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to one another, “This man is probably a murderer, and though he has escaped the sea, Justice^e does not allow him to live!” ⁵ However, he shook the creature off into the fire and suffered no harm. ⁶ They expected that he would swell up or suddenly drop dead. But after they waited a long time and saw nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds and said he was a god.

Ministry in Malta

⁷ Now in the area around that place was an estate belonging to the leading man of the island, named Publius, who welcomed us and entertained us hospitably for three days. ⁸ It happened that Publius’ father was in bed suffering from fever and dysentery. Paul went to him, and praying and laying his hands on him, he healed him. ⁹ After this, the rest of those on the island who had diseases also came and were cured. ¹⁰ So they heaped many honors on us, and when we sailed, they gave us what we needed.

Rome at Last

¹¹ After three months we set sail in an Alexandrian ship that had wintered at the island, with the Twin Brothers’ as its figurehead. ¹² Putting in at Syracuse, we stayed three days. ¹³ From there, after making a circuit along the coast,^g we reached Rhegium. After one day a south wind sprang up, and the second day we came to Puteoli. ¹⁴ There we found believers^h and were invited to stay with them for seven days.

And so we came to Rome. ¹⁵ Now the believers^a from there had heard the news about us and had come to meet us as far as Forum of Appius and Three Taverns. When Paul saw them, he thanked God and took courage. ¹⁶ And when we entered Rome,^b Paul was permitted to stay by himself with the soldier who guarded him.

Paul's First Interview with Roman Jews

¹⁷ After three days he called together the leaders of the Jews. And when they had gathered he said to them: "Brothers, although I have done nothing against our people or the customs of our forefathers, I was delivered as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans ¹⁸ who, after examining me, wanted to release me, since I had not committed a capital offense. ¹⁹ Because the Jews objected, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar; it was not as though I had any accusation against my nation. ²⁰ So, for this reason I've asked to see you and speak to you. In fact, it is for the hope of Israel that I'm wearing this chain."

²¹ And they said to him, "We haven't received any letters about you from Judea; none of the brothers has come and reported or spoken anything evil about you. ²² But we consider it suitable to hear from you what you think. For concerning this sect, we are aware that it is spoken against everywhere."

The Response to Paul's Message

²³ After arranging a day with him, many came to him at his lodging. From dawn to dusk he expounded and witnessed about the kingdom of God. He persuaded them concerning Jesus from both the Law of Moses and the Prophets. ²⁴ Some were persuaded by what he said, but others did not believe.

²⁵ Disagreeing among themselves, they began to leave after Paul made one statement: "The Holy Spirit correctly spoke through the prophet Isaiah to your^c forefathers ²⁶ when He said,

Go to this people and say:

'You will listen and listen,
yet never understand;
and you will look and look,
yet never perceive.

²⁷ For this people's heart
has grown callous,
their ears are hard of hearing,
and they have shut their eyes;
otherwise
they might see with their eyes
and hear with their ears,
understand with their heart,
and be converted—
and I would heal them.'^d

²⁸ Therefore, let it be known to you that this saving work of God has been sent to the Gentiles; they will listen!" [²⁹ After he said these things, the Jews departed, while engaging in a prolonged debate among themselves.]^e

Paul's Ministry Unhindered

³⁰ Then he stayed two whole years in his own rented house. And he welcomed all who visited him, ³¹ proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching the things concerning the Lord Jesus Christ with full boldness and without hindrance.

ROMANS

God's Good News for Rome

1 Paul, a slave of Christ Jesus, called as an apostle^f and singled out for God's good news— ² which He promised long ago through His prophets in the Holy Scriptures— ³ concerning His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who was a descendant of David^g according to the flesh ⁴ and was established as the powerful Son of God by the resurrection from the dead according to the Spirit of holiness.^h ⁵ We have received grace and apostleship through Him to bring aboutⁱ the obedience of faith^j among all the nations,^a on behalf of His name, ⁶including yourselves who are also Jesus Christ's by calling:

⁷ To all who are in Rome, loved by God, called as saints.

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Apostle's Desire to Visit Rome

⁸ First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you because the news of your faith^a is being reported in all the world. ⁹ For God, whom I serve with my spirit in [telling] the good news about His Son, is my witness that I constantly mention you, ¹⁰ always asking in my prayers that if it is somehow in God's will, I may now at last succeed in coming to you. ¹¹ For I want very much to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to strengthen you, ¹² that is, to be mutually encouraged by each other's faith, both yours and mine.

¹³ Now I want you to know,^b brothers, that I often planned to come to you (but was prevented until now) in order that I might have a fruitful ministry^c among you, just as among the rest of the Gentiles. ¹⁴ I am obligated both to Greeks and barbarians,^d both to the wise and the foolish. ¹⁵ So I am eager to preach the good news to you also who are in Rome.

The Righteous Will Live by Faith

¹⁶ For I am not ashamed of the gospel,^e because it is God's power for salvation to everyone who believes, first to the Jew, and also to the Greek. ¹⁷ For in it God's righteousness is revealed from faith to faith,^f just as it is written: The righteous will live by faith.^g ^h

The Guilt of the Gentile World

¹⁸ For God's wrath is revealed from heaven against all godlessness and unrighteousness of people who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth, ¹⁹ since what can be knownⁱ about God is evident among them, because God has shown it to them. ²⁰ From the creation of the world His invisible attributes, that is, His eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly seen, being understood through what He has made. As a result, people^j are without excuse. ²¹ For though they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God or show gratitude. Instead, their thinking became nonsense, and their senseless minds^k were darkened. ²² Claiming to be wise, they became fools ²³ and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling mortal man, birds, four-footed animals, and reptiles.

²⁴ Therefore God delivered them over in the cravings of their hearts to sexual impurity, so that their bodies were degraded among themselves. ²⁵ They exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served something created instead of the Creator, who is blessed forever. •Amen.

From Idolatry to Depravity

²⁶ This is why God delivered them over to degrading passions. For even their females exchanged natural sexual intercourse^l for what is unnatural. ²⁷ The males in the same way also left natural sexual intercourse^l with females and were inflamed in their lust for one another. Males committed shameless acts with males and received in their own persons^m the appropriate penalty for their perversion.ⁿ

²⁸ And because they did not think it worthwhile to have God in their knowledge, God delivered them over to a worthless mind to do what is morally wrong. ²⁹ They are filled with all unrighteousness,^o evil, greed, and wickedness. They are full of envy, murder, disputes, deceit, and malice. They are gossips, ³⁰ slanderers, God-haters, arrogant, proud, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents, ³¹ undiscerning, untrustworthy, unloving,^p and unmerciful. ³² Although they know full well God's just sentence—that those who practice such things deserve to die^q—they not only do them, but even applaud^r others who practice them.

God's Righteous Judgment

2 Therefore, anyone of you^s who judges is without excuse. For when you judge another, you condemn yourself, since you, the judge, do the same things. ² We know that God's judgment on those who do such things is based on the truth. ³ Do you really think—anyone of you who judges those who do such things yet do the same—that you will escape God's judgment? ⁴ Or do you despise the riches of His kindness, restraint, and patience, not recognizing^t that God's kindness is intended to lead

^a1:5 Or Gentiles ^a1:8 Or because your faith ^b1:13 Lit I don't want you to be unaware ^c1:13 Lit have some fruit ^d1:14 Or non-Greeks ^e1:16 Other mss add of Christ ^f1:17 Or revealed out of faith into faith ^g1:17 Or The one who is righteous by faith will live ^h1:17 Hab 2:4 ⁱ1:19 Or what is known ^j1:20 Lit they ^k1:21 Lit hearts ^l1:26,27 Lit natural use ^m1:27 Or in themselves ⁿ1:27 Or error ^o1:29 Other mss add sexual immorality ^p1:31 Other mss add unforgiving ^q1:32 Lit things are worthy of death ^r1:32 Lit even take pleasure in ^s2:1 Lit Therefore, O man, every one ^t2:4 Or patience, because you do not recognize you to repentance? ⁵ But because of your hardness and unrepentant heart you are storing up wrath for yourself in the day of wrath, when God's righteous judgment is revealed. ⁶ He will repay each one according to his works:^a ⁷ eternal life to those who by patiently doing good seek for glory, honor, and immortality; ⁸ but wrath and indignation to those who are self-seeking and disobey the truth, but are obeying unrighteousness; ⁹ affliction and distress for every human being who does evil, first to the Jew, and also to the Greek; ¹⁰ but glory, honor, and peace for everyone who does good, first to the Jew, and also to the Greek. ¹¹ There is no favoritism with God.

¹² All those who sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and all those who sinned under the law will be judged by the law. ¹³ For the hearers of the law are not righteous before God, but the doers of the law will be declared righteous.^b ¹⁴ So, when Gentiles, who do not have the law, instinctively do what the law demands, they are a law to themselves even though they do not have the law. ¹⁵ They show that the work of the law^c is written on their hearts. Their consciences testify in support of this, and their competing thoughts either accuse or excuse them^d ¹⁶ on the day when God judges what people have kept secret, according to my gospel through Christ Jesus.

Jewish Violation of the Law

¹⁷ Now if^e you call yourself a Jew, and rest in the law, and boast in God, ¹⁸ and know His will, and approve the things that are superior, being instructed from the law, ¹⁹ and are convinced that you are a guide for the blind, a light to those in darkness, ²⁰ an instructor of the ignorant, a teacher of the immature, having in the law the full expression^f of knowledge and truth—²¹ you then, who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who preach, “You must not steal”—do you steal? ²² You who say, “You must not commit adultery”—do you commit adultery? You who detest idols, do you rob their temples? ²³ You who boast in the law, do you dishonor God by breaking the law? ²⁴ For, as it is written: The name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you.^g

Circumcision of the Heart

²⁵ For circumcision benefits you if you observe the law, but if you are a lawbreaker, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. ²⁶ Therefore if an uncircumcised man keeps the law's requirements, will his uncircumcision not be counted as circumcision? ²⁷ A man who is physically uncircumcised, but who fulfills the law, will judge you who are a lawbreaker in spite of having the letter [of the law] and circumcision. ²⁸ For a person is not a Jew who is one outwardly, and [true] circumcision is not something visible in the flesh. ²⁹ On the contrary, a person is a Jew who is one inwardly, and circumcision is of the heart—by the Spirit, not the letter.^h His praiseⁱ is not from men but from God.

Paul Answers an Objection

3 So what advantage does the Jew have? Or what is the benefit of circumcision? ² Considerable in every way. First, they were entrusted with the spoken words of God. ³ What then? If some did not believe, will their unbelief cancel God's faithfulness? ⁴ Absolutely not! God must be true, but everyone is a liar, as it is written:

That You may be justified in Your words
and triumph when You judge.^j

⁵ But if our unrighteousness highlights^k God's righteousness, what are we to say? I use a human argument: Is God unrighteous to inflict wrath? ⁶ Absolutely not! Otherwise, how will God judge the world? ⁷ But if by my lie God's truth is amplified to His glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner? ⁸ And why not say, just as some people slanderously claim we say, “Let us do evil so that good may come”? Their condemnation is deserved!

The Whole World Guilty before God

⁹ What then? Are we any better?^m Not at all! For we have previously charged that both Jews and Gentilesⁿ are all under sin,^o ¹⁰ as it is written:^p

There is no one righteous,
not even one;
¹¹ there is no one who understands,

^a2:6 Ps 62:12; Pr 24:12 ^b2:13 Or will be justified or acquitted ^c2:15 The code of conduct required by the law

there is no one who seeks God.

12 All have turned away,
together they have become useless;
there is no one who does good,
there is not even one.^a

13 Their throat is an open grave;
they deceive with their tongues.^b
Vipers' venom is under their lips.^c

14 Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.^d

15 Their feet are swift to shed blood;
16 ruin and wretchedness are in their paths,

17 and the path of peace
they have not known.^e

18 There is no fear of God
before their eyes.^f

¹⁹ Now we know that whatever the law says speaks to those who are subject to the law,^g so that every mouth may be shut and the whole world may become subject to God's judgment.^h
²⁰ For no flesh will be justifiedⁱ in His sight by the works of the law, for through the law [comes] the knowledge of sin.

God's Righteousness through Faith

²¹ But now, apart from the law, God's righteousness has been revealed—attested by the Law and the Prophets!²²—that is, God's righteousness through faith in Jesus Christ,^k to all who believe, since there is no distinction.²³ For all have sinned and fall short of the^l glory of God.²⁴ They are justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus.²⁵ God presented Him as a propitiation^m through faith in His blood, to demonstrate His righteousness, because in His restraint God passed over the sins previously committed.²⁶ He presented Him to demonstrate His righteousness at the present time, so that He would be righteous and declare righteousⁿ the one who has faith in Jesus.

Boasting Excluded

²⁷ Where then is boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law?^o By one of works? No, on the contrary, by a law^p of faith.²⁸ For we conclude that a man is justified by faith apart from works of law.²⁹ Or is God for Jews only? Is He not also for Gentiles? Yes, for Gentiles too,³⁰ since there is one God who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith.³¹ Do we then cancel the law through faith? Absolutely not! On the contrary, we uphold the law.

Abraham Justified by Faith

4 What then can we say that Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh, has found? ² If Abraham was justified^q by works, then he has something to brag about—but not before God.^r ³ For what does the Scripture say?

Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him
for righteousness.^s

⁴ Now to the one who works, pay is not considered as a gift, but as something owed.⁵ But to the one who does not work, but believes on Him who declares righteous^t the ungodly, his faith is credited for righteousness.

David Celebrating the Same Truth

⁶ Likewise, David also speaks of the blessing of the man to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:

7 How happy those whose lawless acts are forgiven
and whose sins are covered!
8 How happy the man whom the Lord will never charge with sin!^u

Abraham Justified before Circumcision

⁹ Is this blessing only for the circumcised, then? Or is it also for the uncircumcised? For we say, Faith was credited to Abraham for righteousness.^s ¹⁰ How then was it credited—while he was circumcised, or uncircumcised? Not while he was circumcised, but uncircumcised.¹¹ And he received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith^v while still uncircumcised. This was to make him the father of all who believe but are not circumcised, so that righteousness may be credited to them also.¹² And he became the father of the circumcised, not only to those who are circumcised, but also to those who follow in the footsteps of the faith our father Abraham had while still uncircumcised.

The Promise Granted through Faith

¹³ For the promise to Abraham or to his descendants that he would inherit the world was not through the law, but through the righteousness that comes by faith.^a ¹⁴ If those who are of the law are heirs, faith is made empty and the promise is canceled. ¹⁵ For the law produces wrath; but where there is no law, there is no transgression.

¹⁶ This is why the promise is by faith, so that it may be according to grace, to guarantee it to all the descendants—not only to those who are of the law,^b but also to those who are of Abraham's faith. He is the father of us all ¹⁷ in God's sight. As it is written: I have made you the father of many nations.^c He believed in God, who gives life to the dead and calls things into existence that do not exist. ¹⁸ Against hope, with hope he believed, so that he became the father of many nations,^c according to what had been spoken: So will your descendants be.^d ¹⁹ He considered^e his own body to be already dead (since he was about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah's womb, without weakening in the faith. ²⁰ He did not waver in unbelief at God's promise, but was strengthened in his faith and gave glory to God, ²¹ because he was fully convinced that what He had promised He was also able to perform. ²² Therefore, it was credited to him for righteousness.^f ²³ Now it was credited to him was not written for Abraham alone, ²⁴ but also for us. It will be credited to us who believe in Him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead. ²⁵ He was delivered up for^g our trespasses and raised for^g our justification.^h

Faith Triumphs

5 Therefore, since we have been declared righteous by faith, we have peaceⁱ with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. ² Also through Him, we have obtained access by faith^j into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in the hope of the glory of God. ³ And not only that, but we also rejoice in our afflictions, because we know that affliction produces endurance, ⁴ endurance produces proven character, and proven character produces hope. ⁵ This hope does not disappoint, because God's love has been poured out in our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us.

Those Declared Righteous Are Reconciled

⁶ For while we were still helpless, at the appointed moment, Christ died for the ungodly. ⁷ For rarely will someone die for a just person—though for a good person perhaps someone might even dare to die. ⁸ But God proves His own love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us! ⁹ Much more then, since we have now been declared righteous by His blood, we will be saved through Him from wrath. ¹⁰ For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, [then how] much more, having been reconciled, will we be saved by His life! ¹¹ And not only that, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Death through Adam and Life through Christ

¹² Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, in this way death spread to all men, because all sinned.^k ¹³ In fact, sin was in the world before the law, but sin is not charged to one's account when there is no law. ¹⁴ Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who did not sin in the likeness of Adam's transgression. He is a prototype of the Coming One.

¹⁸ So then, as through one trespass there is condemnation for everyone, so also through one righteous act there is life-giving justification^l for everyone. ¹⁹ For just as through one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so also through the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous. ²⁰ The law came along to multiply the trespass. But where sin multiplied, grace multiplied even more, ²¹ so that, just as sin reigned in death, so also grace will reign through righteousness, resulting in eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The New Life in Christ

6 What should we say then? Should we continue in sin in order that grace may multiply? ² Absolutely not! How can we who died to sin still live in it? ³ Or are you unaware that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into His death? ⁴ Therefore we were buried with Him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too may •walk in a new way^a of life. ⁵ For if we have been joined with Him in the likeness of His death, we will certainly also be^b in the likeness of His resurrection. ⁶ For we know that our old self^c was crucified with Him in order that sin's dominion over the body^d may be abolished, so that we may no longer be enslaved to sin, ⁷ since a person who has died is freed^e from sin's claims.^f ⁸ Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with Him, ⁹ because we know that Christ, having been raised from the dead, no longer dies. Death no longer rules over Him. ¹⁰ For in that He died, He died to sin once for all; but in that He lives, He lives to God. ¹¹ So, you too consider yourselves dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus.^g

¹² Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body, so that you obey^h its desires. ¹³ And do not offer any partsⁱ of it to sin as weapons for unrighteousness. But as those who are alive from the dead, offer yourselves to God, and all the partsⁱ of yourselves to God as weapons for righteousness. ¹⁴ For sin will not rule over you, because you are not under law but under grace.

From Slaves of Sin to Slaves of God

¹⁵ What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? Absolutely not! ¹⁶ Do you not know that if you offer yourselves to someone^j as obedient slaves, you are slaves of that one you obey—either of sin leading to death or of obedience leading to righteousness? ¹⁷ But thank God that, although you used to be slaves of sin, you obeyed from the heart that pattern of teaching you were entrusted to, ¹⁸ and having been liberated from sin, you became enslaved to righteousness. ¹⁹ I am using a human analogy^k because of the weakness of your flesh.^l For just as you offered the partsⁱ of yourselves as slaves to moral impurity, and to greater and greater lawlessness, so now offer them as slaves to righteousness, which results in sanctification. ²⁰ For when you were slaves of sin, you were free from allegiance to righteousness.^m ²¹ And what fruit was producedⁿ then from the things you are now ashamed of? For the end of those things is death. ²² But now, since you have been liberated from sin and become enslaved to God, you have your fruit, which results in sanctification^o—and the end is eternal life! ²³ For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

An Illustration from Marriage

7 Since I am speaking to those who understand law, brothers, are you unaware that the law has authority over someone as long as he lives? ² For example, a married woman is legally bound to her husband while he lives. But if her husband dies, she is released from the law regarding the husband. ³ So then, if she gives herself to another man while her husband is living, she will be called an adulteress. But if her husband dies, she is free from that law. Then, if she gives herself to another man, she is not an adulteress.

⁴ Therefore, my brothers, you also were put to death in relation to the law through the [crucified] body of the •Messiah, so that you may belong to another—to Him who was raised from the dead—that we may bear fruit for God. ⁵ For when we were in the flesh,^p the sinful passions operated through the law in every part of us^q and bore fruit for death. ⁶ But now we have been released from the law, since we have died to what held us, so that we may serve in the new way^r of the Spirit and not in the old letter of the law.

Sin's Use of the Law

⁷ What should we say then? Is the law sin? Absolutely not! On the contrary, I would not have known sin if it were not for the law. For example, I would not have known what it is to covet if the law had not said, Do not covet.^a ⁸ And sin, seizing an opportunity through the commandment, produced in me coveting of every kind. For apart from the law sin is dead. ⁹ Once I was alive apart from the law, but when the commandment came, sin sprang to life ¹⁰ and I died. The commandment that was meant for life resulted in death for me. ¹¹ For sin, seizing an opportunity through the commandment, deceived me, and through it killed me. ¹² So then, the law is holy, and the commandment is holy and just and good.

The Problem of Sin in Us

¹³ Therefore, did what is good cause my death?^b Absolutely not! On the contrary, sin, in order to be recognized as sin, was producing death in me through what is good, so that through the commandment sin might become sinful beyond measure. ¹⁴ For we know that the law is spiritual; but I am made out of flesh,^c sold into sin's power. ¹⁵ For I do not understand what I am doing, because I do not practice what I want to do, but I do what I hate. ¹⁶ And if I do what I do not want to do, I agree with the law that it is good. ¹⁷ So now I am no longer the one doing it, but it is sin living in me. ¹⁸ For I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my flesh. For the desire to do what is good is with me, but there is no ability to do it. ¹⁹ For I do not do the good that I want to do, but I practice the evil that I do not want to do. ²⁰ Now if I do what I do not want, I am no longer the one doing it, but it is the sin that lives in me. ²¹ So I discover this principle:^d when I want to do good, evil is with me. ²² For in my inner self^e I joyfully agree with God's law. ²³ But I see a different law in the parts of my body,^f waging war against the law of my mind and taking me prisoner to the law of sin in the parts of my body.^f ²⁴ What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death? ²⁵ I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord!^g So then, with my mind I myself am a slave to the law of God, but with my flesh, to the law of sin.

The Life-Giving Spirit

8 Therefore, no condemnation now exists for those in Christ Jesus,^h ² because the Spirit's law of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death. ³ What the law could not do since it was limitedⁱ by the flesh, God did. He condemned sin in the flesh by sending His own Son in flesh like ours under sin's domain,^k and as a sin offering, ⁴ in order that the law's requirement would be accomplished in us who do not •walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. ⁵ For those whose lives are^l according to the flesh think about the things of the flesh, but those whose lives are^l according to the Spirit, about the things of the Spirit. ⁶ For the mind-set of the flesh is death, but the mind-set of the Spirit is life and peace. ⁷ For the mind-set of the flesh is hostile to God because it does not submit itself to God's law, for it is unable to do so. ⁸ Those whose lives are^l in the flesh are unable to please God. ⁹ You, however, are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, since^m the Spirit of God lives in you. But if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Him. ¹⁰ Now if Christ is in you, the body is deadⁿ because of sin, but the Spirit^o is life because of righteousness. ¹¹ And if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead lives in you, then He who raised Christ from the dead will also bring your mortal bodies to life through^p His Spirit who lives in you.

The Holy Spirit's Ministries

¹² So then, brothers, we are not obligated to the flesh to live according to the flesh, ¹³ for if you live according to the flesh, you are going to die. But if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. ¹⁴ All those led by God's Spirit are God's sons. ¹⁵ For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry out, "•Abba, Father!" ¹⁶ The Spirit Himself testifies together with our spirit that we are God's children, ¹⁷ and if children, also heirs— heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ—seeing that^q we suffer with Him so that we may also be glorified with Him.

From Groans to Glory

¹⁸ For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is going to be revealed to us. ¹⁹ For the creation eagerly waits with anticipation for God's sons to be revealed. ²⁰ For the creation was subjected to futility—not willingly, but because of Him who subjected it—in the hope ²¹ that the creation itself will also be set free from the bondage of corruption into the glorious freedom of God's children. ²² For we know that the whole creation has been groaning together with labor pains until now. ²³ And not only that, but we ourselves who have the Spirit as the •firstfruits—we also groan within ourselves, eagerly waiting for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. ²⁴ Now in this hope we were saved, yet hope that is seen is not hope, because who hopes for what he sees? ²⁵ But if we hope for what we do not see, we eagerly wait for it with patience.

²⁶ In the same way the Spirit also joins to help in our weakness, because we do not know what to pray for as we should, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us^a with unspoken groanings. ²⁷ And He who searches the hearts knows the Spirit's mind-set, because He intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

²⁸ We know that all things work together^b for the good^c of those who love God: those who are called according to His purpose. ²⁹ For those He foreknew^d He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, so that He would be the firstborn among many brothers. ³⁰ And those He predestined, He also called; and those He called, He also justified; and those He justified, He also glorified.

The Believer's Triumph

- ³¹ What then are we to say about these things?
If God is for us, who is against us?
³² He did not even spare His own Son, but offered Him up for us all; how will He not also with Him grant us everything?
³³ Who can bring an accusation against God's elect?
God is the One who justifies.
³⁴ Who is the one who condemns?
Christ Jesus is the One who died, but even more, has been raised;
He also is at the right hand of God and intercedes for us.

- ³⁵ Who can separate us from the love of Christ?
Can affliction or anguish or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword?
³⁶ As it is written:
Because of You we are being put to death all day long; we are counted as sheep to be slaughtered.^e ³⁷ No, in all these things we are more than victorious through Him who loved us.
³⁸ For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, ³⁹ nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing will have the power to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord!

Israel's Rejection of Christ

9 I speak the truth in Christ—I am not lying; my conscience is testifying to me with the Holy Spirit^f — ² that I have intense sorrow and continual anguish in my heart. ³ For I could wish that I myself were cursed and cut off^g from the •Messiah for the benefit of my brothers, my countrymen by physical descent.^h ⁴ They are Israelites, and to them belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the temple service, and the promises. ⁵ The forefathers are theirs, and from them, by physical descent,ⁱ came the Messiah, who is God over all, blessed forever! •Amen.

God's Gracious Election of Israel

⁶ But it is not as though the word of God has failed. For not all who are descended from Israel are Israel. ⁷ Neither are they all children because they are Abraham's descendants.^k On the contrary, in Isaac your seed will be called.^l ⁸ That is, it is not the children by physical descent^m who are God's children, but the children of the promise are considered seed.

⁹ For this is the statement of the promise: At this time I will come, and Sarah will have a son.^a ¹⁰ And not only that, but also when Rebekah became pregnant^b by Isaac our forefather ¹¹ (for though they had not been born yet or done anything good or bad, so that God's purpose according to election might stand, ¹² not from works but from the One who calls) she was told: The older will serve the younger.^c ¹³ As it is written: Jacob I have loved, but Esau I have hated.^d

God's Selection Is Just

¹⁴ What should we say then? Is there injustice with God? Absolutely not! ¹⁵ For He tells Moses:

I will show mercy to whom
I show mercy,
and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion.^e

¹⁶ So then it does not depend on human will or effort,^f but on God who shows mercy. ¹⁷ For the Scripture tells Pharaoh:

For this reason I raised you up:
so that I may display
My power in you,
and that My name may be proclaimed
in all the earth.^g

¹⁸ So then, He shows mercy to whom He wills, and He hardens whom He wills.

¹⁹ You will say to me, therefore, "Why then does He still find fault? For who can resist His will?" ²⁰ But who are you—anyone^h who talks back to God? Will what is formed say to the one who formed it, "Why did you make me like this?" ²¹ Or has the potter no right over His clay, to make from the same lump one piece of pottery for honor and another for dishonor? ²² And what if God, desiring to display His wrath and to make His power known, endured with much patience objects of wrath ready for destruction? ²³ And [what if] He did this to make known the riches of His glory on objects of mercy that He prepared beforehand for glory— ²⁴ on us whom He also called, not only from the Jews but also from the Gentiles? ²⁵ As He also says in Hosea:

I will call "Not-My-People," "My-People,"

and she who is "Unloved,"
"Beloved."ⁱ

²⁶ And it will be in the place where they were told,
you are not My people,
there they will be called sons of the living God.^j

²⁷ But Isaiah cries out concerning Israel:

Though the number of Israel's sons
is like the sand of the sea,
only the remnant will be saved;
for the Lord will execute His sentence completely and decisively
on the earth.^{k l}

²⁹ And just as Isaiah predicted:

If the Lord of Hosts^m
had not left us a seed,
we would have become like Sodom,
and we would have been made like Gomorrah.ⁿ

Israel's Present State

³⁰ What should we say then? Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, have obtained righteousness—namely the righteousness that comes from faith. ³¹ But Israel, pursuing the law for righteousness, has not achieved the law.^o ³² Why is that? Because they did not pursue it by faith, but as if it were by works.^p They stumbled over the stumbling stone. ³³ As it is written:

Look! I am putting a stone in Zion to stumble over,
and a rock to trip over,
yet the one who believes on Him
will not be put to shame.^q

Righteousness by Faith Alone

10 Brothers, my heart's desire and prayer to God concerning them^r is for their salvation! ² I can testify about them that they have zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. ³ Because they disregarded the righteousness from God and attempted to establish their own righteousness, they have not submitted to God's righteousness. ⁴ For Christ is the end^a of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes. ⁵ For Moses writes about the righteousness that is from the law: The one who does these things will live by them.^b

⁶ But the righteousness that comes from faith speaks like this: Do not say in your heart, “Who will go up to heaven?”^c that is, to bring Christ down ⁷ or, “Who will go down into the •abyss?”^d that is, to bring Christ up from the dead. ⁸ On the contrary, what does it say? The message is near you, in your mouth and in your heart.^e This is the message of faith that we proclaim: ⁹ if you confess with your mouth, “Jesus is Lord,” and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. ¹⁰ With the heart one believes, resulting in righteousness, and with the mouth one confesses, resulting in salvation. ¹¹ Now the Scripture says, No one who believes on Him will be put to shame,^f ¹² for there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, since the same Lord of all is rich to all who call on Him. ¹³ For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.^g

Israel's Rejection of the Message

¹⁴ But how can they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how can they believe without hearing about Him? And how can they hear without a preacher? ¹⁵ And how can they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: How welcome^h are the feet of thoseⁱ who announce the gospel of good things!^j ¹⁶ But all did not obey the gospel. For Isaiah says, Lord, who has believed our message?^k ¹⁷ So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the message about Christ.^l ¹⁸ But I ask, “Did they not hear?” Yes, they did:

Their voice has gone out to all the earth,
and their words to the ends of the inhabited world.^m

¹⁹ But I ask, “Did Israel not understand?” First, Moses said:

I will make you jealous of those who are not a nation;
I will make you angry by a nation that lacks understanding.ⁿ

²⁰ And Isaiah says boldly:

I was found by those who were not looking for Me;
I revealed Myself to those who were not asking for Me.^o

²¹ But to Israel he says: All day long I have spread out My hands to a disobedient and defiant people.^p

Israel's Rejection Not Total

11 I ask, then, has God rejected His people? Absolutely not! For I too am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, from the tribe of Benjamin. ² God has not rejected His people whom He foreknew. Or do you not know what the Scripture says in the Elijah section—how he pleads with God against Israel?

³ Lord, they have killed Your prophets,
torn down Your altars;
and I am the only one left,
and they are trying to take my life!^q

⁴ But what was God's reply to him? I have left 7,000 men for Myself who have not bowed down to •Baal.^r ⁵ In the same way, then, there is also at the present time a remnant chosen by grace. ⁶ Now if by grace, then it is not by works; otherwise grace ceases to be grace.^s

⁷ What then? Israel did not find what it was looking for, but the elect did find it. The rest were hardened, ⁸ as it is written:

God gave them a spirit of stupor,
eyes that cannot see and ears
that cannot hear, to this day.^t

⁹ And David says:

Let their feasting^u become a snare
and a trap,
a pitfall and a retribution to them.

¹⁰ Let their eyes be darkened
so they cannot see,
and their backs be bent continually.^v

Israel's Rejection Not Final

¹¹ I ask, then, have they stumbled so as to fall? Absolutely not! On the contrary, by their stumbling,^w salvation has come to the Gentiles to make Israel^x jealous. ¹² Now if their stumbling^a brings riches for the world, and their failure riches for the Gentiles, how much more will their full number bring!

¹³ Now I am speaking to you Gentiles. In view of the fact that I am an apostle to the Gentiles, I magnify my ministry, ¹⁴ if I can somehow make my own people^b jealous and save some of them. ¹⁵ For if their being rejected is world reconciliation, what will their acceptance mean but life from the dead? ¹⁶ Now if the •firstfruits offered up are holy, so is the whole batch. And if the root is holy, so are the branches.

¹⁷ Now if some of the branches were broken off, and you, though a wild olive branch, were grafted in among them, and have come to share in the rich root^c of the cultivated olive tree, ¹⁸ do not brag that you are better than those branches. But if you do brag—you do not sustain the root, but the root sustains you. ¹⁹ Then you will say, “Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in.” ²⁰ True enough; they were broken off by unbelief, but you stand by faith. Do not be arrogant, but be afraid. ²¹ For if God did not spare the natural branches, He will not spare you either. ²² Therefore, consider God’s kindness and severity: severity toward those who have fallen, but God’s kindness toward you—if you remain in His kindness. Otherwise you too will be cut off. ²³ And even they, if they do not remain in unbelief, will be grafted in, because God has the power to graft them in again. ²⁴ For if you were cut off from your native wild olive, and against nature were grafted into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these—the natural branches—be grafted into their own olive tree?

²⁵ So that you will not be conceited, brothers, I do not want you to be unaware of this •mystery: a partial hardening has come to Israel until the full number of the Gentiles has come in. ²⁶ And in this way all^d Israel will be saved, as it is written:

The Liberator will come from Zion;
He will turn away godlessness
from Jacob.

²⁷ And this will be My covenant with them,^e
when I take away their sins.^f

²⁸ Regarding the gospel, they are enemies for your advantage, but regarding election, they are loved because of their forefathers, ²⁹ since God’s gracious gifts and calling are irrevocable.^g ³⁰ As you once disobeyed God, but now have received mercy through their disobedience, ³¹ so they too have now disobeyed, [resulting] in mercy to you, so that they also now^h may receive mercy. ³² For God has imprisoned all in disobedience, so that He may have mercy on all.

both of the wisdom and the knowledge
of God!
How unsearchable His judgments
and untraceable His ways!
- ³⁴ For who has known the mind
of the Lord?
Or who has been His counselor?
Or who has ever first given to Him,
and has to be repaid?ⁱ
- ³⁶ For from Him and through Him
and to Him are all things.
To Him be the glory forever. •Amen.

A Living Sacrifice

12 Therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, I urge you to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God; this is your spiritual worship.^j ² Do not be conformed to this age, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may discern what is the good, pleasing, and perfect will of God.

Many Gifts but One Body

³ For by the grace given to me, I tell everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he should think. Instead, think sensibly, as God has distributed a measure of faith to each one. ⁴ Now as we have many parts in one body, and all the parts do not have the same function, ⁵ in the same way we who are many are one body in Christ and individually members of one another. ⁶ According to the grace given to us, we have different gifts:

- If prophecy, use it according to the standard of faith;
⁷ if service, in service; if teaching,
in teaching;
⁸ if exhorting, in exhortation; giving,
with generosity;
leading, with diligence; showing mercy,
with cheerfulness.

Christian Ethics

⁹ Love must be without hypocrisy. Detest evil; cling to what is good. ¹⁰ Show family affection to one another with brotherly love. Outdo one another in showing honor. ¹¹ Do not lack diligence; be fervent in spirit; serve the Lord. ¹² Rejoice in hope; be patient in affliction; be persistent in prayer. ¹³ Share with the saints in their needs; pursue hospitality. ¹⁴ Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse. ¹⁵ Rejoice with those who rejoice; weep with those who weep. ¹⁶ Be in agreement with one another. Do not be proud; instead, associate with the humble. Do not be wise in your own estimation. ¹⁷ Do not repay anyone evil for evil. Try to do what is honorable in everyone's eyes. ¹⁸ If possible, on your part, live at peace with everyone. ¹⁹ Friends, do not avenge yourselves; instead, leave room for His^a wrath. For it is written: Vengeance belongs to Me; I will repay,^b says the Lord. ²⁰ But

If your enemy is hungry, feed him.
If he is thirsty, give him something to drink.

For in so doing you will be heaping fiery coals on his head.^c

²¹ Do not be conquered by evil, but conquer evil with good.

A Christian's Duties to the State

13 Everyone must submit to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and those that exist are instituted by God. ² So then, the one who resists the authority is opposing God's command, and those who oppose it will bring judgment on themselves. ³ For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Do you want to be unafraid of the authority? Do good and you will have its approval. ⁴ For government is God's servant to you for good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, because it does not carry the sword for no reason. For government is God's servant, an avenger that brings wrath on the one who does wrong. ⁵ Therefore, you must submit, not only because of wrath, but also because of your conscience. ⁶ And for this reason you pay taxes, since the [authorities] are God's public servants, continually attending to these tasks.^d ⁷ Pay your obligations to everyone: taxes to those you owe taxes, tolls to those you owe tolls, respect to those you owe respect, and honor to those you owe honor.

Love Our Primary Duty

⁸ Do not owe anyone anything,^e except to love one another, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. ⁹ The commandments:

Do not commit adultery,
do not murder,
do not steal,^f
do not covet,^g

and if there is any other commandment—all are summed up by this: Love your neighbor as yourself.^h

¹⁰ Love does no wrong to a neighbor. Love, therefore, is the fulfillment of the law.

Put On Christ

¹¹ Besides this, knowing the time, it is already the hour for youⁱ to wake up from sleep, for now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed. ¹² The night is nearly over, and the daylight is near, so let us discard the deeds of darkness and put on the armor of light. ¹³ Let us •walk with decency, as in the daylight: not in carousing and drunkenness; not in sexual impurity and promiscuity; not in quarreling and jealousy. ¹⁴ But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no plans to satisfy the fleshly desires.

The Law of Liberty

14 Accept anyone who is weak in faith,^j but don't argue about doubtful issues. ² One person believes he may eat anything, but one who is weak eats only vegetables. ³ One who eats must not look down on one who does not eat; and one who does not eat must not criticize one who does, because God has accepted him. ⁴ Who are you to criticize another's household slave? Before his own Lord he stands or falls. And stand he will! For the Lord is able^k to make him stand.

⁵ One person considers one day to be above another day. Someone else considers every day to be the same. Each one must be fully convinced in his own mind. ⁶ Whoever observes the day, observes it to the Lord.^l Whoever eats, eats to the Lord, since he gives thanks to God; and whoever does not eat, it is to the Lord that he does not eat, yet he thanks God.⁷ For none of us lives to himself, and no one dies to himself.⁸ If we live, we live to the Lord; and if we die, we die to the Lord. Therefore, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord.⁹ Christ died and came to life for this: that He might rule over both the dead and the living.¹⁰ But you, why do you criticize your brother? Or you, why do you look down on your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God.^a ¹¹ For it is written:

As I live, says the Lord,
every knee will bow to Me,
and every tongue will give praise to God.^b

¹² So then, each of us will give an account of himself to God.

The Law of Love

¹³ Therefore, let us no longer criticize one another, but instead decide not to put a stumbling block or pitfall in your brother's way.¹⁴ (I know and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself. Still, to someone who considers a thing to be unclean, to that one it is unclean.)¹⁵ For if your brother is hurt by what you eat, you are no longer •walking according to love. By what you eat, do not destroy that one for whom Christ died.¹⁶ Therefore, do not let your good be slandered,¹⁷ for the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit.¹⁸ Whoever serves the •Messiah in this way is acceptable to God and approved by men.

¹⁹ So then, we must pursue what promotes peace and what builds up one another.²⁰ Do not tear down God's work because of food. Everything is clean, but it is wrong for a man to cause stumbling by what he eats.²¹ It is a noble thing not to eat meat, or drink wine, or do anything that makes your brother stumble.^c ²² Do you have faith? Keep it to yourself before God. Blessed is the man who does not condemn himself by what he approves.²³ But whoever doubts stands condemned if he eats, because his eating is not from faith, and everything that is not from faith is sin.

Pleasing Others, Not Ourselves

15 Now we who are strong have an obligation to bear the weaknesses of those without strength, and not to please ourselves.² Each one of us must please his neighbor for his good, in order to build him up.³ For even the •Messiah did not please Himself. On the contrary, as it is written, The insults of those who insult You have fallen on Me.^d ⁴ For whatever was written before was written for our instruction, so that through our endurance and through the encouragement of the Scriptures we may have hope.⁵ Now may the God of endurance and encouragement grant you agreement with one another, according to Christ Jesus,⁶ so that you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ with a united mind and voice.

Glorifying God Together

⁷ Therefore accept one another, just as the Messiah also accepted you, to the glory of God.⁸ Now I say that Christ has become a servant of the circumcised^e on behalf of the truth of God, to confirm the promises to the fathers,⁹ and so that Gentiles may glorify God for His mercy. As it is written:

Therefore I will praise You
among the Gentiles, and I will sing psalms to Your name.^f

¹⁰ Again it says: Rejoice, you Gentiles, with His people!^g ¹¹ And again:

Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles;
all the peoples should praise Him!^h

¹² And again, Isaiah says:

The root of Jesse will appear,
the One who rises to rule
the Gentiles;
in Him the Gentiles will hope.ⁱ

¹³ Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

From Jerusalem to Illyricum

¹⁴ Now, my brothers, I myself am convinced about you that you also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, and able to instruct one another.¹⁵ Nevertheless, to remind you, I have written to you more boldly on some points^j because of the grace given me by God ¹⁶ to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, serving as a priest of God's good news. My purpose is that the offering of the Gentiles may be acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit. ¹⁷ Therefore I have reason to boast in Christ Jesus regarding what pertains to God. ¹⁸ For I would not dare say anything except what Christ has accomplished through me to make the Gentiles obedient by word and deed, ¹⁹ by the power of miraculous signs and wonders, and by the power of God's Spirit. As a result, I have fully proclaimed the good news about the Messiah from Jerusalem all the way around to Illyricum.^a ²⁰ So my aim is to evangelize where Christ has not been named, in order that I will not be building on someone else's foundation, ²¹ but, as it is written:

Those who had no report of Him will see,
and those who have not heard
will understand.^b

Paul's Travel Plans

²² That is why I have been prevented many times from coming to you. ²³ But now I no longer have any work to do in these provinces,^c and I have strongly desired for many years to come to you ²⁴ whenever I travel to Spain.^d For I do hope to see you when I pass through, and to be sent on my way there by you, once I have first enjoyed your company for a while. ²⁵ Now, however, I am traveling to Jerusalem to serve the saints; ²⁶ for Macedonia and Achaia^e were pleased to make a contribution to the poor among the saints in Jerusalem. ²⁷ Yes, they were pleased, and they are indebted to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in their spiritual benefits, then they are obligated to minister to Jews^f in material needs. ²⁸ So when I have finished this and safely delivered the funds^g to them, I will go by way of you to Spain. ²⁹ But I know that when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing^h of Christ.

³⁰ Now I implore you, brothers, through the Lord Jesus Christ and through the love of the Spirit, to agonize together with me in your prayers to God on my behalf: ³¹ that I may be rescued from the unbelievers in Judea, that my service for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints, ³² and that, by God's will, I may come to you with joy and be refreshed together with you.

³³ The God of peace be with all of you. • Amen.

Paul's Commendation of Phoebe

16 I commend to you our sister Phoebe, who is a servantⁱ of the church in Cenchreae. ² So you should welcome her in the Lord in a manner worthy of the saints, and assist her in whatever matter she may require your help. For indeed she has been a benefactor of many—and of me also.

- ⁸ Greet Ampliatus, my dear friend in the Lord.
- ⁹ Greet Urbanus, our co-worker in Christ, and my dear friend Stachys.
- ¹⁰ Greet Apelles, who is approved in Christ. Greet those who belong to the household of Aristobulus.
- ¹¹ Greet Herodion, my fellow countryman. Greet those who belong to the household of Narcissus who are in the Lord.
- ¹² Greet Tryphaena and Tryphosa, who have worked hard in the Lord.
Greet my dear friend Persis, who has worked very hard in the Lord.
- ¹³ Greet Rufus, chosen in the Lord; also his mother—and mine.
- ¹⁴ Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers who are with them.
- ¹⁵ Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them.
- ¹⁶ Greet one another with a holy kiss.
All the churches of Christ send you greetings.

Warning against Divisive People

¹⁷ Now I implore you, brothers, watch out for those who cause dissensions and pitfalls contrary to the doctrine you have learned. Avoid them; ¹⁸ for such people do not serve our Lord Christ but their own appetites,^a and by smooth talk and flattering words they deceive the hearts of the unsuspecting.

Paul's Gracious Conclusion

¹⁹ The report of your obedience has reached everyone. Therefore I rejoice over you. But I want you to be wise about what is good, yet innocent about what is evil. ²⁰ The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus be with you.

²¹ Timothy, my co-worker, and Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, my fellow countrymen, greet you.

²² I Tertius, who penned this epistle in the Lord, greet you.

²³ Gaius, who is host to me and to the whole church, greets you. Erastus, the city treasurer, and our brother Quartus greet you.

[²⁴ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.]^b

Glory to God

²⁵ Now to Him who has power to strengthen you according to my gospel and the proclamation of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the sacred secret kept silent for long ages, ²⁶ but now revealed and made known through the prophetic Scriptures, according to the command of the eternal God, to advance the obedience of faith among all nations— ²⁷ to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ—to Him be the glory forever!^c •Amen.

1 CORINTHIANS

Greeting

1 Paul, called as an apostle of Christ Jesus by God's will, and our brother Sosthenes:

² To God's church at Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus and called as saints, with all those in every place who call on the name of Jesus Christ our Lord—theirs and ours.

³ Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thanksgiving

⁴ I always thank my God for you because of God's grace given to you in Christ Jesus, ⁵ that by Him you were made rich in everything—in all speaking and all knowledge— ⁶ as the testimony about Christ was confirmed among you, ⁷ so that you do not lack any spiritual gift as you eagerly wait for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁸ He will also confirm you to the end, blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹ God is faithful; by Him you were called into fellowship with His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Divisions at Corinth

¹⁰ Now I urge you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all say the same thing, that there be no divisions among you, and that you be united with the same understanding and the same conviction. ¹¹ For it has been reported to me about you, my brothers, by members of Chloe's household, that there are quarrels among you. ¹² What I am saying is this: each of you says, "I'm with Paul," or "I'm with Apollos," or "I'm with •Cephas," or "I'm with Christ." ¹³ Is Christ divided? Was it Paul who was crucified for you? Or were you baptized in Paul's name? ¹⁴ I thank God^d ^e that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, ¹⁵ so that no one can say you had been baptized in my name. ¹⁶ I did, in fact, baptize the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I don't know if I baptized anyone else. ¹⁷ For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel—not with clever words, so that the cross of Christ will not be emptied [of its effect].

Christ the Power and Wisdom of God

¹⁸ For to those who are perishing the message of the cross is foolishness, but to us who are being saved it is God's power. ¹⁹ For it is written:

I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,
and I will set aside the understanding of the experts.^f

^a16:18 Lit belly ^b16:24 Other mss omit bracketed text; see v. 20 ^c16:25–27 Other mss have these vv. at the end of chap 14 or 15. ^d1:14 Other mss omit God ^e1:14 Or I am thankful ^f1:19 Is 29:14

²⁰ Where is the philosopher?^a Where is the scholar? Where is the debater of this age? Hasn't God made the world's wisdom foolish? ²¹ For since, in God's wisdom, the world did not know God through wisdom, God was pleased to save those who believe through the foolishness of the message preached. ²² For the Jews ask for signs and the Greeks seek wisdom, ²³ but we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to the Jews and foolishness to the Gentiles.^b ²⁴ Yet to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ is God's power and God's wisdom, ²⁵ because God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

Boasting Only in the Lord

²⁶ Brothers, consider your calling: not many are wise from a human perspective,^c not many powerful, not many of noble birth. ²⁷ Instead, God has chosen the world's foolish things to shame the wise, and God has chosen the world's weak things to shame the strong. ²⁸ God has chosen the world's insignificant and despised things—the things viewed as nothing—so He might bring to nothing the things that are viewed as something, ²⁹ so that no one^d can boast in His presence. ³⁰ But from Him you are in Christ Jesus, who for us became wisdom from God, as well as righteousness, sanctification, and redemption, ³¹ in order that, as it is written: The one who boasts must boast in the Lord.^e

Paul's Proclamation

2 When I came to you, brothers, announcing the testimony^f of God to you, I did not come with brilliance of speech or wisdom. ² For I determined to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and Him crucified. ³ And I was with you in weakness, in fear, and in much trembling. ⁴ My speech and my proclamation were not with persuasive words of wisdom,^g but with a demonstration of the Spirit and power, ⁵ so that your faith might not be based on men's wisdom but on God's power.

Spiritual Wisdom

⁶ However, among the mature we do speak a wisdom, but not a wisdom of this age, or of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing. ⁷ On the contrary, we speak God's hidden wisdom in a •mystery, which God predestined before the ages for our glory. ⁸ None of the rulers of this age knew it, for if they had known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. ⁹ But as it is written:

What no eye has seen and no ear has heard,
and what has never come into a man's heart,
is what God has prepared for those who love Him.^h

¹⁰ Now God has revealed them to us by the Spirit, for the Spirit searches everything, even the deep things of God. ¹¹ For who among men knows the concernsⁱ of a man except the spirit of the man that is in him? In the same way, no one knows the concernsⁱ of God except the Spirit of God. ¹² Now we have not received the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, in order to know what has been freely given to us by God. ¹³ We also speak these things, not in words taught by human wisdom, but in those taught by the Spirit, explaining spiritual things to spiritual people.^j ¹⁴ But the natural man does not welcome what comes from God's Spirit, because it is foolishness to him; he is not able to know it since it is evaluated^k spiritually. ¹⁵ The spiritual person, however, can evaluate^l everything, yet he himself cannot be evaluated^k by anyone. ¹⁶ For:

who has known the Lord's mind,
that he may instruct Him?^m

But we have the mind of Christ.

The Problem of Immaturity

3 Brothers, I was not able to speak to you as spiritual people but as people of the flesh, as babies in Christ. ² I fed you milk, not solid food, because you were not yet able to receive it. In fact, you are still not able, ³ because you are still fleshly. For since there is envy and strifeⁿ among you, are you not fleshly and living like ordinary people?^o ⁴ For whenever someone says, "I'm with Paul," and another, "I'm with Apollos," are you not [typical] men?^p

The Role of God's Servants

⁵ So, what is Apollos? And what is Paul? They are servants through whom you believed, and each has the role the Lord has given. ⁶ I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. ⁷ So then neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. ⁸ Now the one who plants and the one who waters are equal, and each will receive his own reward according to his own labor. ⁹ For we are God's co-workers. You are God's field, God's building. ¹⁰ According to God's grace that was given to me, as a skilled master builder I have laid a foundation, and another builds on it. But each one must be careful how he builds on it, ¹¹ because no one can lay any other foundation than what has been laid—that is, Jesus Christ. ¹² If anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, or straw, ¹³ each one's work will become obvious, for the day^a will disclose it, because it will be revealed by fire; the fire will test the quality of each one's work. ¹⁴ If anyone's work that he has built survives, he will receive a reward. ¹⁵ If anyone's work is burned up, it will be lost, but he will be saved; yet it will be like an escape through fire.^b

¹⁶ Don't you know that you are God's sanctuary and that the Spirit of God lives in you? ¹⁷ If anyone ruins God's sanctuary, God will ruin him; for God's sanctuary is holy, and that is what you are.

The Folly of Human Wisdom

¹⁸ No one should deceive himself. If anyone among you thinks he is wise in this age, he must become foolish so that he can become wise. ¹⁹ For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God, since it is written: He catches the wise in their craftiness^c—²⁰ and again, The Lord knows the reasonings of the wise, that they are futile.^d ²¹ So no one should boast in men, for all things are yours: ²² whether Paul or Apollos or •Cephas or the world or life or death or things present or things to come—all are yours, ²³ and you belong to Christ, and Christ to God.

The Faithful Manager

4 A person should consider us in this way: as servants of Christ and managers of God's •mysteries. ² In this regard, it is expected of managers that each one be found faithful. ³ It is of little importance that I should be evaluated by you or by a human court.^e In fact, I don't even evaluate myself. ⁴ For I am not conscious of anything against myself, but I am not justified by this. The One who evaluates me is the Lord. ⁵ Therefore don't judge anything prematurely, before the Lord comes, who will both bring to light what is hidden in darkness and reveal the intentions of the hearts. And then praise will come to each one from God.

The Apostles' Example of Humility

⁶ Now, brothers, I have applied these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, so that you may learn from us the saying: "Nothing beyond what is written."^f The purpose is that none of you will be inflated with pride in favor of one person over another. ⁷ For who makes you so superior? What do you have that you didn't receive? If, in fact, you did receive it, why do you boast as if you hadn't received it? ⁸ Already you are full! Already you are rich! You have begun to reign as kings without us—and I wish you did reign, so that we also could reign with you! ⁹ For I think God has displayed us, the apostles, in last place, like men condemned to die: we have become a spectacle to the world and to angels and to men. ¹⁰ We are fools for Christ, but you are wise in Christ! We are weak, but you are strong! You are distinguished, but we are dishonored! ¹¹ Up to the present hour we are both hungry and thirsty; we are poorly clothed, roughly treated, homeless; ¹² we labor, working with our own hands. When we are reviled, we bless; when we are persecuted, we endure it; ¹³ when we are slandered, we entreat. We are, even now, like the world's garbage, like the filth of all things.

Paul's Fatherly Care

¹⁴ I'm not writing this to shame you, but to warn you as my dear children. ¹⁵ For you can have 10,000 instructors in Christ, but you can't have many fathers. Now I have fathered you in Christ Jesus through the gospel. ¹⁶ Therefore I urge you, be imitators of me. ¹⁷ This is why I have sent to you Timothy, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord. He will remind you about my ways in Christ Jesus, just as I teach everywhere in every church. ¹⁸ Now some are inflated with pride, as though I were not coming to you. ¹⁹ But I will come to you soon, if the Lord wills, and I will know not the talk but the power of those who are inflated with pride. ²⁰ For the kingdom of God is not in talk but in power. ²¹ What do you want? Should I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

Immoral Church Members

5 It is widely reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and the kind of sexual immorality that is not even condoned^a among the Gentiles—a man is living with his father's wife. ² And you are inflated with pride, instead of filled with grief so that he who has committed this act might be removed from among you. ³ For though absent in body but present in spirit, I have already decided about him who has done this thing as though I were present. ⁴ In the name of our Lord Jesus, when you are assembled, along with my spirit and with the power of our Lord Jesus, ⁵ turn that one over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the Day of the Lord.

⁶ Your boasting is not good. Don't you know that a little yeast permeates the whole batch of dough? ⁷ Clean out the old yeast so that you may be a new batch, since you are unleavened. For Christ our •Passover has been sacrificed.^b ⁸ Therefore, let us observe the feast, not with old yeast, or with the yeast of malice and evil, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Church Discipline

⁹ I wrote to you in a letter not to associate with sexually immoral people—¹⁰ by no means referring to this world's immoral people, or to the greedy and swindlers, or to idolaters; otherwise you would have to leave the world. ¹¹ But now I am writing^c you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother who is sexually immoral or greedy, an idolater or a reviler, a drunkard or a swindler. Do not even eat with such a person. ¹² For what is it to me to judge outsiders? Do you not judge those who are inside? ¹³ But God judges outsiders. Put away the evil person from among yourselves.^d

Lawsuits among Believers

6 Does any of you who has a complaint against someone dare go to law before the unrighteous,^e and not before the saints? ² Or do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest cases? ³ Do you not know that we will judge angels—not to speak of things pertaining to this life? ⁴ So if you have cases pertaining to this life, do you select those^f who have no standing in the church to judge? ⁵ I say this to your shame! Can it be that there is not one wise person among you who will be able to arbitrate between his brothers? ⁶ Instead, brother goes to law against brother, and that before unbelievers!

⁷ Therefore, it is already a total defeat for you that you have lawsuits against one another. Why not rather put up with injustice? Why not rather be cheated? ⁸ Instead, you act unjustly and cheat—and this to brothers! ⁹ Do you not know that the unjust will not inherit God's kingdom? Do not be deceived: no sexually immoral people, idolaters, adulterers, male prostitutes, homosexuals, ¹⁰ thieves, greedy people, drunkards, revilers, or swindlers will inherit God's kingdom. ¹¹ Some of you were like this; but you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

Glorifying God in Body and Spirit

¹² “Everything is permissible for me,”^g but not everything is helpful. “Everything is permissible for me,”^g but I will not be brought under the control of anything. ¹³ “Foods for the stomach and the stomach for foods,”^g but God will do away with both of them.^h The body is not for sexual immorality but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. ¹⁴ God raised up the Lord and will also raise us up by His power. ¹⁵ Do you not know that your bodies are the members of Christ? So should I take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Absolutely not! ¹⁶ Do you not know that anyone joined to a prostitute is one body with her? For it says, The two will become one flesh.ⁱ ¹⁷ But anyone joined to the Lord is one spirit with Him.

¹⁸ Flee from sexual immorality! “Every sin a person can commit is outside the body,”^j but the person who is sexually immoral sins against his own body. ¹⁹ Do you not know that your body is a sanctuary of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God? You are not your own,²⁰ for you were bought at a price; therefore glorify God in your body.^k

Principles of Marriage

7 About the things you wrote:^a “It is good for a man not to have relations with^b a woman.”^c 2 But because of sexual immorality,^d each man should have his own wife, and each woman should have her own husband. 3 A husband should fulfill his marital duty to his wife, and likewise a wife to her husband. 4 A wife does not have authority over her own body, but her husband does. Equally, a husband does not have authority over his own body, but his wife does. 5 Do not deprive one another—except when you agree, for a time, to devote yourselves to^e prayer. Then come together again; otherwise, Satan may tempt you because of your lack of self-control. 6 I say this as a concession, not as a command. 7 I wish that all people were just like me. But each has his own gift from God, one this and another that.

A Word to the Unmarried

8 I say to the unmarried and to widows: It is good for them if they remain as I am. 9 But if they do not have self-control, they should marry, for it is better to marry than to burn with desire.

Advice to Married People

10 I command the married—not I, but the Lord—a wife is not to leave^f her husband. 11 But if she does leave, she must remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband—and a husband is not to leave his wife. 12 But to the rest I, not the Lord, say: If any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she is willing to live with him, he must not leave her. 13 Also, if any woman has an unbelieving husband, and he is willing to live with her, she must not leave her husband. 14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the Christian husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but now they are holy. 15 But if the unbeliever leaves, let him leave.^f A brother or a sister is not bound in such cases. God has called you^g to peace. 16 For you, wife, how do you know whether you will save your husband? Or you, husband, how do you know whether you will save your wife?

Various Situations of Life

17 However, each one must live his life in the situation the Lord assigned when God called him.^h This is what I command in all the churches. 18 Was anyone already circumcised when he was called? He should not undo his circumcision. Was anyone called while uncircumcised? He should not get circumcised. 19 Circumcision does not matter and uncircumcision does not matter, but keeping God’s commandments does. 20 Each person should remain in the life situationⁱ in which he was called. 21 Were you called while a slave? It should not be a concern to you. But if you can become free, by all means take the opportunity.^j 22 For he who is called by the Lord as a slave is the Lord’s freedman.^k Likewise he who is called as a free man^l is Christ’s slave. 23 You were bought at a price; do not become slaves of men. 24 Brothers, each person should remain with God in whatever situation he was called.

About the Unmarried and Widows

25 About virgins: I have no command from the Lord, but I do give an opinion as one who by the Lord’s mercy is trustworthy. 26 Therefore I consider this to be good because of the present distress: it is fine for a man to stay as he is. 27 Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be loosed. Are you loosed from a wife? Do not seek a wife. 28 However, if you do get married, you have not sinned, and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. But such people will have trouble in this life,^m and I am trying to spare you. 29 And I say this, brothers: the time is limited, so from now on those who have wives should be as though they had none, 30 those who weep as though they did not weep, those who rejoice as though they did not rejoice, those who buy as though they did not possess, 31 and those who use the world as though they did not make full use of it. For this world in its current form is passing away.

32 I want you to be without concerns. An unmarried man is concerned about the things of the Lord—how he may please the Lord. 33 But a married man is concerned about the things of the world—how he may please his wife—34 and he is divided. An unmarried woman or a virgin is concerned about the things of the Lord, so that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But a married woman is concerned about the things of the world—how she may please her husband. 35 Now I am saying this for your own benefit, not to put a restraint on you, but because of what is proper, and so that you may be devoted to the Lord without distraction.

³⁶ But if any man thinks he is acting improperly toward his virgin,^a if she is past marriageable age,^b and so it must be, he can do what he wants. He is not sinning; they can get married. ³⁷ But he who stands firm in his heart (who is under no compulsion, but has control over his own will) and has decided in his heart to keep his own virgin, will do well. ³⁸ So then he who marries^c his virgin does well, but he who does not marry^d will do better.

³⁹ A wife is bound^e as long as her husband is living. But if her husband dies, she is free to be married to anyone she wants—only in the Lord.^f ⁴⁰ But she is happier if she remains as she is, in my opinion. And I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

Food Offered to Idols

8 About food offered to idols: We know that “we all have knowledge.”^g Knowledge inflates with pride, but love builds up. ² If anyone thinks he knows anything, he does not yet know it as he ought to know it. ³ But if anyone loves God, he is known by Him.

⁴ About eating food offered to idols, then, we know that “an idol is nothing in the world,”^g and that “there is no God but one.”^g ⁵ For even if there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth—as there are many “gods” and many “lords”—

⁶ yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things, and we for Him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we through Him.

⁷ However, not everyone has this knowledge. In fact, some have been so used to idolatry up until now, that when they eat food offered to an idol, their conscience, being weak, is defiled. ⁸ Food will not make us acceptable to God. We are not inferior if we don’t eat, and we are not better if we do eat. ⁹ But be careful that this right of yours in no way becomes a stumbling block to the weak. ¹⁰ For if somebody sees you, the one who has this knowledge, dining in an idol’s temple, won’t his weak conscience be encouraged to eat food offered to idols? ¹¹ Then the weak person, the brother for whom Christ died, is ruined by your knowledge. ¹² Now when you sin like this against the brothers and wound their weak conscience, you are sinning against Christ. ¹³ Therefore, if food causes my brother to fall, I will never again eat meat, so that I won’t cause my brother to fall.

Paul’s Example as an Apostle

9 Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord? ² If I am not an apostle to others, at least I am to you, for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord. ³ My defense to those who examine me is this: ⁴ Don’t we have the right to eat and drink? ⁵ Don’t we have the right to be accompanied by a Christian wife, like the other apostles, the Lord’s brothers, and •Cephas? ⁶ Or is it only Barnabas and I who have no right to refrain from working? ⁷ Who ever goes to war at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat its fruit? Or who shepherds a flock and does not drink the milk from the flock? ⁸ Am I saying this from a human perspective? Doesn’t the law also say the same thing? ⁹ For it is written in the law of Moses, Do not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain.^h Is God really concerned with oxen? ¹⁰ Or isn’t He really saying it for us? Yes, this is written for us, because he who plows ought to plow in hope, and he who threshes should do so in hope of sharing the crop. ¹¹ If we have sown spiritual things for you, is it too much if we reap material things from you? ¹² If others share this authority over you, don’t we even more?

However, we have not used this authority; instead we endure everything so that we will not hinder the gospel of Christ. ¹³ Do you not know that those who perform the temple services eat the food from the temple, and those who serve at the altar share in the offerings of the altar? ¹⁴ In the same way, the Lord has commanded that those who preach the gospel should earn their living by the gospel.

¹⁵ But I have used none of these rights, and I have not written this to make it happen that way for me. For it would be better for me to die than for anyone to deprive me of my boast! ¹⁶ For if I preach the gospel, I have no reason to boast, because an obligation is placed on me. And woe to me if I do not preach the gospel! ¹⁷ For if I do

^a7:36 (1) a man’s fiancée, or (2) his daughter, or (3) his Levirate wife, or (4) a celibate companion ^b7:36 Or virgin, if his passions are strong. ^c7:38 Or marries off ^d7:38 Or marry her off ^e7:39 Other mss add by law ^f7:39 Only a believer ^g8:1,4 See note at 1 Co 6:12 ^h9:9 Dt 25:4

this willingly, I have a reward; but if unwillingly, I am entrusted with a stewardship. ¹⁸ What then is my reward? To preach the gospel and offer it free of charge, and not make full use of my authority in the gospel.

¹⁹ For although I am free from all people, I have made myself a slave to all, in order to win more people. ²⁰ To the Jews I became like a Jew, to win Jews; to those under the law, like one under the law—though I myself am not under the law^a—to win those under the law. ²¹ To those who are outside the law, like one outside the law—not being outside God's law, but under the law of Christ—to win those outside the law. ²² To the weak I became weak, in order to win the weak. I have become all things to all people, so that I may by all means save some. ²³ Now I do all this because of the gospel, that I may become a partner in its benefits.^b

²⁴ Do you not know that the runners in a stadium all race, but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may win. ²⁵ Now everyone who competes exercises self-control in everything. However, they do it to receive a perishable crown, but we an imperishable one. ²⁶ Therefore I do not run like one who runs aimlessly, or box like one who beats the air. ²⁷ Instead, I discipline my body and bring it under strict control, so that after preaching to others, I myself will not be disqualified.

Warnings from Israel's Past

10 Now I want you to know, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, all passed through the sea, ² and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea. ³ They all ate the same spiritual food, ⁴ and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from a spiritual rock that followed them, and that rock was Christ. ⁵ But God was not pleased with most of them, for they were struck down in the desert.

⁶ Now these things became examples for us, so that we will not desire evil as they did.^c ⁷ Don't become idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and got up to play.^{d e} ⁸ Let us not commit sexual immorality as some of them did,^f and in a single day 23,000 people fell dead. ⁹ Let us not tempt Christ as some of them did,^g and were destroyed by snakes. ¹⁰ Nor should we complain as some of them did,^h and were killed by the destroyer.ⁱ ¹¹ Now these things happened to them as examples, and they were written as a warning to us, on whom the ends of the ages have come. ¹² Therefore, whoever thinks he stands must be careful not to fall! ¹³ No temptation has overtaken you except what is common to humanity. God is faithful and He will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation He will also provide a way of escape, so that you are able to bear it.

Warning against Idolatry

¹⁴ Therefore, my dear friends, flee from idolatry. ¹⁵ I am speaking as to wise people. Judge for yourselves what I say. ¹⁶ The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a sharing in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a sharing in the body of Christ? ¹⁷ Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for all of us share that one bread. ¹⁸ Look at the people of Israel.^j Are not those who eat the sacrifices partners in the altar? ¹⁹ What am I saying then? That food offered to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? ²⁰ No, but I do say that what they^k sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons and not to God. I do not want you to be partners with demons! ²¹ You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot share in the Lord's table and the table of demons. ²² Or are we provoking the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than He?

Christian Liberty

²³ "Everything is permissible,"^{l m} but not everything is helpful. "Everything is permissible,"^{l m} but not everything builds up. ²⁴ No one should seek his own [good], but [the good] of the other person.

²⁵ Eat everything that is sold in the meat market, asking no questions for conscience' sake, for the earth is the Lord's, and all that is in it.ⁿ ²⁷ If one of the unbelievers invites you over and you want to go, eat everything that is set before you, without raising questions of conscience. ²⁸ But if someone says to you, "This is food offered to an idol," do not eat it, out of consideration for the one who told you, and for conscience' sake.^o ²⁹ I do not mean your own conscience, but the other person's. For why is my freedom judged by another person's conscience? ³⁰ If I partake with thanks, why am I slandered because of something for which I give thanks?

³¹ Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for God's glory. ³² Give no offense to the Jews or the Greeks or the church of God, ³³ just as I also try to please all people in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be 11 saved. ¹ Be imitators of me, as I also am of Christ.

Instructions about Head Coverings

² Now I praise you^a because you remember me in all things and keep the traditions just as I delivered them to you. ³ But I want you to know that Christ is the head of every man, and the man is the head of the woman,^b and God is the head of Christ. ⁴ Every man who prays or prophesies with something on his head dishonors his head. ⁵ But every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head, since that is one and the same as having her head shaved. ⁶ So if a woman's head^c is not covered, her hair should be cut off. But if it is disgraceful for a woman to have her hair cut off or her head shaved, she should be covered.

¹³ Judge for yourselves: Is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered? ¹⁴ Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair it is a disgrace to him, ¹⁵ but that if a woman has long hair, it is her glory? For her hair is given to her^d as a covering. ¹⁶ But if anyone wants to argue about this, we have no other^e custom, nor do the churches of God.

The Lord's Supper

¹⁷ Now in giving the following instruction I do not praise you, since you come together not for the better but for the worse. ¹⁸ For, to begin with, I hear that when you come together as a church there are divisions among you, and in part I believe it. ¹⁹ There must, indeed, be factions among you, so that the approved among you may be recognized. ²⁰ Therefore when you come together in one place, it is not really to eat the Lord's Supper. ²¹ For in eating, each one takes his own supper ahead of others, and one person is hungry while another is drunk! ²² Don't you have houses to eat and drink in? Or do you look down on the church of God and embarrass those who have nothing? What should I say to you? Should I praise you? I do not praise you for this!

²³ For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you: on the night when He was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took bread, ²⁴ gave thanks, broke it, and said,^f "This is My body, which is^g for you. Do this in remembrance of Me."

²⁵ In the same way [He] also [took] the cup, after supper, and said, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me." ²⁶ For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until He comes.

Self-Examination

²⁷ Therefore, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy way will be guilty of sin against the body^h and blood of the Lord. ²⁸ So a man should examine himself; in this way he should eat of the bread and drink of the cup. ²⁹ For whoever eats and drinks without recognizing the body,ⁱ eats and drinks judgment on himself. ³⁰ This is why many are sick and ill among you, and many have fallen •asleep. ³¹ If we were properly evaluating ourselves, we would not be judged, ³² but when we are judged, we are disciplined by the Lord, so that we may not be condemned with the world.

³³ Therefore, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for one another. ³⁴ If anyone is hungry, he should eat at home, so that you can come together and not cause judgment. And I will give instructions about the other matters whenever I come.

Diversity of Spiritual Gifts

12 About matters of the spirit:^a brothers, I do not want you to be unaware. ² You know how, when you were pagans, you were led to dumb idols—being led astray. ³ Therefore I am informing you that no one speaking by the Spirit of God says, “Jesus is cursed,” and no one can say, “Jesus is Lord,” except by the Holy Spirit.

⁴ Now there are different gifts, but the same Spirit. ⁵ There are different ministries, but the same Lord. ⁶ And there are different activities, but the same God is active in everyone and everything.^b ⁷ A manifestation of the Spirit is given to each person to produce what is beneficial:

- ⁸ to one is given a message of wisdom through the Spirit,
- to another, a message of knowledge by the same Spirit,
- ⁹ to another, faith by the same Spirit,
- to another, gifts of healing by the one Spirit,
- ¹⁰ to another, the performing of miracles,
- to another, prophecy,
- to another, distinguishing between spirits,
- to another, different kinds of languages,
- to another, interpretation of languages.

¹¹ But one and the same Spirit is active in all these, distributing to each one as He wills.

Unity Yet Diversity in the Body

¹² For as the body is one and has many parts, and all the parts of that body, though many, are one body—so also is Christ. ¹³ For we were all baptized by one Spirit into one body—whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit. ¹⁴ So the body is not one part but many. ¹⁵ If the foot should say, “Because I’m not a hand, I don’t belong to the body,” in spite of this it still belongs to the body. ¹⁶ And if the ear should say, “Because I’m not an eye, I don’t belong to the body,” in spite of this it still belongs to the body. ¹⁷ If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were an ear, where would be the sense of smell? ¹⁸ But now God has placed the parts, each one of them, in the body just as He wanted. ¹⁹ And if they were all the same part, where would the body be? ²⁰ Now there are many parts, yet one body.

²¹ So the eye cannot say to the hand, “I don’t need you!” nor again the head to the feet, “I don’t need you!” ²² On the contrary, all the more, those parts of the body that seem to be weaker are necessary. ²³ And those parts of the body that we think to be less honorable, we clothe these with greater honor, and our unrepresentable parts have a better presentation. ²⁴ But our presentable parts have no need [of clothing]. Instead, God has put the body together, giving greater honor to the less honorable, ²⁵ so that there would be no division in the body, but that the members would have the same concern for each other. ²⁶ So if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

²⁷ Now you are the body of Christ, and individual members of it. ²⁸ And God has placed these in the church:

- first apostles, second prophets,
- third teachers, next, miracles,
- then gifts of healing, helping, managing,
- various kinds of languages.
- ²⁹ Are all apostles? Are all prophets?
- Are all teachers? Do all do miracles?
- ³⁰ Do all have gifts of healing?
- Do all speak in languages?
- Do all interpret?

³¹ But desire the greater gifts. And I will show you an even better way.

Love: The Superior Way

- 13 If I speak the languages of men and of angels, but do not have love, I am a sounding gong or a clanging cymbal.
- ² If I have [the gift of] prophecy, and understand all •mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so that I can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.
 - ³ And if I donate all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned,^c but do not have love, I gain nothing.
 - ⁴ Love is patient; love is kind. Love does not envy; is not boastful; is not conceited;
 - ⁵ does not act improperly; is not selfish; is not provoked; does not keep a record of wrongs;
 - ⁶ finds no joy in unrighteousness, but rejoices in the truth;

^a12:1 Lit About things spiritual ^b12:6 Lit God acts all things in all ^c13:3 Other mss read to boast

- 7 bears all things, believes all things,
hopes all things, endures all things.
- 8 Love never ends.
But as for prophecies, they will come
to an end;
as for languages, they will cease;
as for knowledge, it will come to an end.
- 9 For we know in part, and we prophesy
in part.
- 10 But when the perfect comes,
the partial will come to an end.
- 11 When I was a child, I spoke like a child,
I thought like a child,
I reasoned like a child.
When I became a man, I put aside childish things.
- 12 For now we see indistinctly, as in a mirror,
but then face to face.
Now I know in part, but then
I will know fully, as I am fully known.
- 13 Now these three remain:
faith, hope, and love.
But the greatest of these is love.

Prophecy: A Superior Gift

14 Pursue love and desire spiritual gifts,
and above all that you may prophesy.
2 For the person who speaks in [another] language is not speaking to men but to God, since no one understands him; however, he speaks •mysteries in the Spirit.^a 3 But the person who prophesies speaks to people for edification, encouragement, and consolation. 4 The person who speaks in [another] language builds himself up, but he who prophesies builds up the church. 5 I wish all of you spoke in other languages, but even more that you prophesied. The person who prophesies is greater than the person who speaks in languages, unless he interprets
so that the church may be built up.

6 But now, brothers, if I come to you speaking in [other] languages, how will I benefit you unless I speak to you with a revelation or knowledge or prophecy or teaching? 7 Even inanimate things producing sounds—whether flute or harp—if they don’t make a distinction in the notes, how will what is played on the flute or harp be recognized? 8
In fact, if the trumpet makes an unclear sound, who will prepare for battle? 9 In the same way, unless you use your tongue for intelligible speech, how will what is spoken be known? For you will be speaking into the air. 10 There are doubtless many different kinds of languages in the world, and all have meaning.^b 11 Therefore, if I do not know the meaning of the language, I will be a foreigner^c

to the speaker, and the speaker will be a foreigner to me. 12 So also you—since you are zealous in matters of the spirit,^d seek to excel in building up the church.

13 Therefore the person who speaks in [another] language should pray that he can interpret.
14 For if I pray in [another] language, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful.
15 What then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will also pray with my understanding. I will sing with the spirit, and I will also sing with my understanding. 16 Otherwise, if you bless with the spirit, how will the uninformed person^e say “•Amen” at your giving of thanks, since he does not know what you are saying? 17 For you may very well be giving thanks, but the other person is not being built up. 18 I thank God that I speak in [other] languages more than all of you; 19 yet in the church I would rather speak five words with my understanding, in order to teach others also, than 10,000 words in [another] language.

20 Brothers, don’t be childish in your thinking,
but be infants in evil and adult in your thinking.
21 It is written in the law:

By people of other languages
and by the lips of foreigners,
I will speak to this people;
and even then, they will not listen to Me,^f

says the Lord. 22 It follows that speaking in other languages is intended as a sign,^g not to believers but to unbelievers. But prophecy is not for unbelievers but for believers. 23 Therefore if the whole church assembles together, and all are speaking in [other] languages, and people who are uninformed or unbelievers come in, will they not say that you are out of your minds? 24 But if all are prophesying, and some unbeliever or uninformed person comes in, he is convicted by all and is judged by all.
25 The secrets of his heart will be revealed, and as a result he will fall down on his face and worship God, proclaiming, “God is really among you.”

Order in Church Meetings

²⁶ How is it then, brothers? Whenever you come together, each one^a has a psalm, a teaching, a revelation, [another] language, or an interpretation. All things must be done for edification. ²⁷ If any person speaks in [another] language, there should be only two, or at the most three, each in turn, and someone must interpret. ²⁸ But if there is no interpreter, that person should keep silent in the church and speak to himself and to God. ²⁹ Two or three prophets should speak, and the others should evaluate. ³⁰ But if something has been revealed to another person sitting there, the first prophet should be silent. ³¹ For you can all prophesy one by one, so that everyone may learn and everyone may be encouraged. ³² And the prophets' spirits are under the control of the prophets, ³³ since God is not a God of disorder but of peace.

As in all the churches of the saints, ³⁴ the women^b should be silent in the churches, for they are not permitted to speak, but should be submissive, as the law also says. ³⁵ And if they want to learn something, they should ask their own husbands at home, for it is disgraceful for a woman to speak in the church meeting. ³⁶ Did the word of God originate from you, or did it come to you only?

³⁷ If anyone thinks he is a prophet or spiritual, he should recognize that what I write to you is the Lord's command. ³⁸ But if anyone ignores this, he will be ignored.^c ³⁹ Therefore, my brothers, be eager to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in [other] languages. ⁴⁰ But everything must be done decently and in order.

Resurrection Essential to the Gospel

15 Now brothers, I want to clarify^d for you the gospel I proclaimed to you; you received it and have taken your stand on it. ² You are also saved by it, if you hold to the message I proclaimed to you—unless you believed to no purpose.^e ³ For I passed on to you as most important what I also received:

that Christ died for our sins
according to the Scriptures,

⁴ that He was buried,
that He was raised on the third day
according to the Scriptures,

⁵ and that He appeared to •Cephas,
then to the Twelve.

- ⁶ Then He appeared to over 500 brothers at one time,
most of whom remain to the present,
but some have fallen •asleep.
- ⁷ Then He appeared to James, then to all the apostles.
- ⁸ Last of all, as to one abnormally born,
He also appeared to me.

⁹ For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. ¹⁰ But by God's grace I am what I am, and His grace toward me was not ineffective. However, I worked more than any of them, yet not I, but God's grace that was with me. ¹¹ Therefore, whether it is I or they, so we preach and so you have believed.

Resurrection Essential to the Faith

¹² Now if Christ is preached as raised from the dead, how can some of you say, "There is no resurrection of the dead"? ¹³ But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not been raised; ¹⁴ and if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is without foundation, and so is your faith.^f ¹⁵ In addition, we are found to be false witnesses about God, because we have testified about God that He raised up Christ—whom He did not raise up if in fact the dead are not raised. ¹⁶ For if the dead are not raised, Christ has not been raised. ¹⁷ And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is worthless; you are still in your sins. ¹⁸ Therefore those who have fallen asleep in Christ have also perished. ¹⁹ If we have placed our hope in Christ for this life only, we should be pitied more than anyone.

Christ's Resurrection Guarantees Ours

²⁰ But now Christ has been raised from the dead, the •firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. ²¹ For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead also comes through a man. ²² For just as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive. ²³ But each in his own order: Christ, the firstfruits; afterward, at His coming, the people of Christ. ²⁴ Then comes the end, when He hands over the kingdom to God the Father, when He abolishes all rule and all authority and power. ²⁵ For He must reign until He puts all His enemies under His feet. ²⁶ The last enemy to be abolished is death. ²⁷ For He has put everything under His feet.^g But

^a14:26 Other mss add of you ^b14:34 Other mss read your women ^c14:38 Other mss read he should be ignored

^d15:1 Or I make known ^e15:2 Or believed in vain ^f15:14 Or preaching is useless, and your faith also is useless, or preaching is empty, and your faith also is empty ^g15:27 Ps 8:6

when it says “everything” is put under Him, it is obvious that He who puts everything under Him is the exception.²⁸ And when everything is subject to Him, then the Son Himself will also be subject to Him who subjected everything to Him, so that God may be all in all.

Resurrection Supported by Christian Experience

²⁹ Otherwise what will they do who are being baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, then why are people^a baptized for them?^b

³⁰ Why are we in danger every hour? ³¹ I affirm by the pride in you that I have in Christ Jesus our Lord: I die every day! ³² If I fought wild animals in Ephesus with only human hope,^c what good does that do me?^d If the dead are not raised, Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.^e ³³ Do not be deceived: “Bad company corrupts good morals.”^f ³⁴ Become right-minded^g and stop sinning, because some people are ignorant about God. I say this to your shame.

The Nature of the Resurrection Body

³⁵ But someone will say, “How are the dead raised? What kind of body will they have when they come?” ³⁶ Foolish one! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. ³⁷ And as for what you sow—you are not sowing the future body, but only a seed,^h perhaps of wheat or another grain. ³⁸ But God gives it a body as He wants, and to each of the seeds its own body. ³⁹ Not all flesh is the same flesh; there is one flesh for humans, another for animals, another for birds, and another for fish. ⁴⁰ There are heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the splendor of the heavenly bodies is different from that of the earthly ones. ⁴¹ There is a splendor of the sun, another of the moon, and another of the stars; for star differs from star in splendor. ⁴² So it is with the resurrection of the dead:

- Sown in corruption,
raised in incorruption;
- ⁴³ sown in dishonor; raised in glory;
sown in weakness, raised in power;
- ⁴⁴ sown a natural body,
raised a spiritual body.

If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. ⁴⁵ So it is written: The first man Adam became a living being;ⁱ the last Adam became a life-giving Spirit. ⁴⁶ However, the spiritual is not first, but the natural; then the spiritual.

- ⁴⁷ The first man was from the earth and made of dust;
the second man is^j from heaven.
- ⁴⁸ Like the man made of dust, so are those who are made of dust;
like the heavenly man, so are those who are heavenly.
- ⁴⁹ And just as we have borne the image of the man made of dust,
we will also bear the image of the heavenly man.

Victorious Resurrection

⁵⁰ Brothers, I tell you this: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, and corruption cannot inherit incorruption. ⁵¹ Listen! I am telling you a •mystery:

- We will not all fall asleep,
but we will all be changed,
- ⁵² in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye,
at the last trumpet.
For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible,
and we will be changed.
- ⁵³ Because this corruptible must be clothed with incorruptibility, and this mortal must be clothed with immortality.
- ⁵⁴ Now when this corruptible is clothed with incorruptibility,
and this mortal is clothed with immortality,
then the saying that is written will take place:

Death has been swallowed up in victory.^k

- ⁵⁵ O Death, where is your victory?
O Death, where is your sting?^l
- ⁵⁶ Now the sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law.
- ⁵⁷ But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory
through our Lord Jesus Christ!

⁵⁸ Therefore, my dear brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the Lord’s work, knowing that your labor in the Lord is not in vain.

Collection for the Jerusalem Church

16 Now about the collection for the saints: you should do the same as I instructed the Galatian churches. ² On the first day of the week, each of you is to set something aside and save to the extent that he prospers, so that no collections will need to be made when I come. ³ And when I arrive, I will send those whom you recommend by letter to carry your gracious gift to Jerusalem. ⁴ If it is also suitable for me to go, they will travel with me.

Paul's Travel Plans

⁵ I will come to you after I pass through Macedonia—for I will be traveling through Macedonia—⁶ and perhaps I will remain with you, or even spend the winter, that you may send me on my way wherever I go. ⁷ I don't want to see you now just in passing, for I hope to spend some time with you, if the Lord allows. ⁸ But I will stay in Ephesus until Pentecost, ⁹ because a wide door for effective ministry has opened for me^a—yet many oppose me. ¹⁰ If Timothy comes, see that he has nothing to fear from you, because he is doing the Lord's work, just as I am. ¹¹ Therefore no one should look down on him; but you should send him on his way in peace so he can come to me, for I am expecting him with the brothers.^b

¹² About our brother Apollos: I strongly urged him to come to you with the brothers, but he was not at all willing to come now. However, when he has time, he will come.

Final Exhortation

¹³ Be alert, stand firm in the faith, be brave and strong. ¹⁴ Your every [action] must be done with love.

¹⁵ Brothers, you know the household of Stephanas: they are the •firstfruits of Achaia and have devoted themselves to serving the saints. I urge you ¹⁶ also to submit to such people, and to everyone who works and labors with them. ¹⁷ I am delighted over the presence of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus, because these men have made up for your absence. ¹⁸ For they have refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore recognize such people.

Conclusion

¹⁹ The churches of the Asian province greet you. Aquila and Priscilla greet you heartily in the Lord, along with the church that meets in their home. ²⁰ All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

²¹ This greeting is in my own hand^c—Paul. ²² If anyone does not love the Lord, a curse be on him. Maranatha!^d ²³ The grace of our Lord Jesus be with you. ²⁴ My love be with all of you in Christ Jesus.

2 CORINTHIANS

Greeting

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by God's will, and Timothy our^e brother:

To God's church at Corinth, with all the saints who are throughout Achaia.

² Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

The God of Comfort

³ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort. ⁴ He comforts us in all our affliction,^f so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any kind of affliction, through the comfort we ourselves receive from God. ⁵ For as the sufferings of Christ overflow to us, so our comfort overflows through Christ. ⁶ If we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation; if we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which is experienced in the endurance of the same sufferings that we suffer. ⁷ And our hope for you is firm, because we know that as you share in the sufferings, so you will share in the comfort.

⁸ For we don't want you to be unaware, brothers, of our affliction that took place in the province of Asia: we were completely overwhelmed—beyond our strength—so that we even despaired of life. ⁹ However, we personally had a death sentence within ourselves so that we would not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead.

^a16:9 Lit for a door has opened to me, great and effective. ^b16:11 With the brothers may connect with Paul or Timothy. ^c16:21 Paul normally dictated his letters to a secretary, but signed the end of each letter himself; see Rm 16:22; Gl 6:11; Col 4:18; 2 Th 3:17. ^d16:22 Aram expression meaning Our Lord come!, or Our Lord has come! ^e1:1 Lit the ^f1:4 Or trouble, or tribulation, or trials, or oppression; the Gk word has a lit meaning of being under pressure.

¹⁰ He has delivered us from such a terrible death, and He will deliver us; we have placed our hope in Him that He will deliver us again. ¹¹ And you can join in helping with prayer for us, so that thanks may be given by many^a on our^b behalf for the gift that came to us through [the prayers of] many.

A Clear Conscience

¹² For our boast is this: the testimony of our conscience that we have conducted ourselves in the world, and especially toward you, with God-given sincerity and purity, not by fleshly^c wisdom but by God's grace. ¹³ Now we are writing you nothing other than what you can read and also understand. I hope you will understand completely—¹⁴ as you have partially understood us—that we are your reason for pride, as you are ours, in the day of our^d Lord Jesus.

A Visit Postponed

¹⁵ In this confidence, I planned to come to you first, so you could have a double benefit,^e ¹⁶ and to go on to Macedonia with your help, then come to you again from Macedonia and be given a start by you on my journey to Judea. ¹⁷ So when I planned this, was I irresponsible? Or what I plan, do I plan in a purely human^f way so that I say “Yes, yes” and “No, no” [simultaneously]? ¹⁸ As God is faithful, our message to you is not “Yes and no.” ¹⁹ For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us—by me and Silvanus^g and Timothy—did not become “Yes and no”; on the contrary, “Yes” has come about in Him. ²⁰ For every one of God's promises is “Yes” in Him. Therefore the “Amen” is also through Him for God's glory through us. ²¹ Now the One who confirms us with you in Christ, and has anointed us, is God; ²² He has also sealed us and given us the Spirit as a down payment in our hearts.

²³ I call on God as a witness against me:^h it was to spare you that I did not come to Corinth. ²⁴ Not that we have control ofⁱ your faith, but we are workers with you for your joy, because 2 you stand by faith. ¹ In fact, I made up my mind about this:^j not to come to you on another painful visit.^k ² For if I cause you pain, then who will cheer me other than the one hurt?^l ³ I wrote this very thing so that when I came I wouldn't have pain from those who ought to give me joy, because I am confident about all of you that my joy is yours.^m ⁴ For out of an extremely troubled and anguished heart I wrote to you with many tears—not that you should be hurt, but that you should know the abundant love I have for you.

A Sinner Forgiven

⁵ If anyone has caused pain, he has not caused pain to me, but in some degree—not to exaggerate—to all of you. ⁶ The punishment by the majority is sufficient for such a person, ⁷ so now you should forgive and comfort him instead; otherwise, this one may be overwhelmed by excessive grief. ⁸ Therefore I urge you to confirm your love to him. ⁹ It was for this purpose I wrote: so I may know your proven character, if you are obedient in everything. ¹⁰ Now to whom you forgive anything, I do too. For what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, it is for you in the presence of Christ, ¹¹ so that we may not be taken advantage of by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his intentions.ⁿ

A Trip to Macedonia

¹² When I came to Troas for the gospel of Christ, a door was opened to me by the Lord. ¹³ I had no rest in my spirit because I did not find my brother Titus, but I said good-bye to them and left for Macedonia.

A Ministry of Life or Death

¹⁴ But thanks be to God, who always puts us on display^o in Christ,^p and spreads through us in every place the scent of knowing Him. ¹⁵ For to God we are the fragrance of Christ among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing. ¹⁶ To some we are a scent of death leading to death, but to others, a scent of life leading to life. And who is competent for this? ¹⁷ For we are not like the many^q who make a trade in God's message [for profit], but as those with sincerity, we speak in Christ, as from God and before God.

Living Letters

3 Are we beginning to commend ourselves again? Or like some, do we need letters of recommendation to you or from you? ² You yourselves are our letter, written on our hearts, recognized and read by everyone, ³ since it is plain that you are Christ's letter, produced^a by us, not written with ink but with the Spirit of the living God; not on stone tablets but on tablets that are hearts of flesh.

Paul's Competence

⁴ We have this kind of confidence toward God through Christ: ⁵ not that we are competent in^b ourselves to consider anything as coming from ourselves, but our competence is from God. ⁶ He has made us competent to be ministers of a new covenant, not of the letter, but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit produces life.

New Covenant Ministry

⁷ Now if the ministry of death, chiseled in letters on stones, came with glory, so that the sons of Israel were not able to look directly at Moses' face because of the glory from his face—a fading [glory]—⁸ how will the ministry of the Spirit not be more glorious? ⁹ For if the ministry of condemnation had glory, the ministry of righteousness overflows with even more glory. ¹⁰ In fact, what had been glorious is not glorious in this case because of the glory that surpasses it. ¹¹ For if what was fading away was glorious, what endures will be even more glorious.

¹² Therefore having such a hope, we use great boldness—¹³ not like Moses, who used to put a veil over his face so that the sons of Israel could not look at the end of what was fading away. ¹⁴ But their minds were closed.^c For to this day, at the reading of the old covenant, the same veil remains; it is not lifted, because it is set aside [only] in Christ. ¹⁵ However, to this day, whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their hearts, ¹⁶ but whenever a person turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. ¹⁷ Now the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. ¹⁸ We all, with unveiled faces, are reflecting^d the glory of the Lord and are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory;^e this is from the Lord who is the Spirit.^f

4 Therefore, since we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we do not give up. ² Instead, we have renounced shameful secret things, not •walking in deceit or distorting God's message, but in God's sight we commend ourselves to every person's conscience by an open display of the truth. ³ But if, in fact, our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. ⁴ Regarding them: the god of this age has blinded the minds of the unbelievers so they cannot see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ,^g who is the image of God. ⁵ For we are not proclaiming ourselves but Jesus Christ as Lord, and ourselves as your slaves because of Jesus. ⁶ For God, who said, "Light shall shine out of darkness"—He has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of God's glory in the face of Jesus Christ.

Treasure in Clay Jars

⁷ Now we have this treasure in clay jars, so that this extraordinary power may be from God and not from us. ⁸ We are pressured in every way but not crushed; we are perplexed but not in despair; ⁹ we are persecuted but not abandoned; we are struck down but not destroyed. ¹⁰ We always carry the death of Jesus in our body, so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body. ¹¹ For we who live are always given over to death because of Jesus, so that Jesus' life may also be revealed in our mortal flesh. ¹² So death works in us, but life in you. ¹³ And since we have the same spirit of faith in accordance with what is written, I believed, therefore I spoke,^h we also believe, and therefore speak, ¹⁴ knowing that the One who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and present us with you. ¹⁵ For all this is because of you, so that grace, extended through more and more people, may cause thanksgiving to overflow to God's glory.

¹⁶ Therefore we do not give up; even though our outer person is being destroyed, our inner person is being renewed day by day. ¹⁷ For our momentary light afflictionⁱ is producing for us an absolutely incomparable eternal weight of glory. ¹⁸ So we do not focus on what is seen, but on what is unseen; for what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

Our Future after Death

5 For we know that if our earthly house, a tent,^j is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house^k not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. ² And, in fact, we groan in

^a3:3 Lit ministered to ^b3:5 Lit from ^c3:14 Lit their thoughts were hardened ^d3:18 Or are looking as in a mirror at ^e3:18 Progressive glorification or sanctification ^f3:18 Or from the Spirit of the Lord, or from the Lord, the Spirit ^g4:4 Or the gospel of the glorious Christ, or the glorious gospel of Christ ^h4:13 Ps 116:10 LXX ⁱ4:17 See note at 2 Co 1:4 ^j5:1 Our present physical body ^k5:1 a building . . . a house = our future body

this one, longing to put on our house from heaven,³ since, when we are clothed,^a we will not be found naked.⁴ Indeed, we who are in this tent groan, burdened as we are, because we do not want to be unclothed but clothed, so that mortality may be swallowed up by life.⁵ And the One who prepared us for this very thing is God, who gave us the Spirit as a down payment.

⁶ Therefore, though we are always confident and know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord—⁷ for we •walk by faith, not by sight—⁸ yet we are confident and satisfied to be out of the body and at home with the Lord.⁹ Therefore, whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to be pleasing to Him.¹⁰ For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each may be repaid for what he has done in the body, whether good or bad.

¹¹ Knowing, then, the fear of the Lord, we persuade people. We are completely open before God, and I hope we are completely open to your consciences as well.¹² We are not commending ourselves to you again, but giving you an opportunity to be proud of us, so that you may have a reply for those who take pride in the outward appearance^b rather than in the heart.¹³ For if we are out of our mind, it is for God; if we have a sound mind, it is for you.¹⁴ For Christ's love compels^c us, since we have reached this conclusion: if One died for all, then all died.¹⁵ And He died for all so that those who live should no longer live for themselves, but for the One who died for them and was raised.

The Ministry of Reconciliation

¹⁶ From now on, then, we do not know^d anyone in a purely human way.^e Even if we have known^f Christ in a purely human way,^g yet now we no longer know^d Him like that.¹⁷ Therefore if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation; old things have passed away, and look, new things^h have come.¹⁸ Now everything is from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation:¹⁹ that is, in Christ, God was reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and He has committed the message of reconciliation to us.²⁰ Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ; certain that God is appealing through us, we plead on Christ's behalf, "Be reconciled to God."²¹ He made the One who did not know sin to be sin for us, so that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.

6 Working togetherⁱ with Him, we also appeal to you: "Don't receive God's grace in vain."² For He says:

In an acceptable time, I heard you,
and in the day of salvation,
I helped you.^j

Look, now is the acceptable time; look, now is the day of salvation.

The Character of Paul's Ministry

³ We give no opportunity for stumbling to anyone, so that the ministry will not be blamed.⁴ But in everything, as God's ministers, we commend ourselves:

- by great endurance, by afflictions,
- by hardship, by pressures,
- ⁵ by beatings, by imprisonments, by riots,
- by labors,
- by sleepless nights, by times of hunger,
- ⁶ by purity, by knowledge, by patience,
- by kindness,
- by the Holy Spirit, by sincere love,
- ⁷ by the message of truth, by the power of God;
- through weapons of righteousness on the right hand and the left,
- ⁸ through glory and dishonor,
- through slander and good report;
- as deceivers yet true;
- ⁹ as unknown yet recognized; as dying and look—we live;
- as being chastened yet not killed;
- ¹⁰ as grieving yet always rejoicing; as poor yet enriching many;
- as having nothing yet possessing everything.

¹¹ We have spoken openly^k to you, Corinthians; our heart has been opened wide.¹² You are not limited by us, but you are limited by your own affections.¹³ Now in like response—I speak as to children—you also should be open to us.

Separation to God

¹⁴ Do not be mismatched with unbelievers. For what partnership is there between righteousness and lawlessness? Or what fellowship does light have with darkness? ¹⁵ What agreement does Christ have with Belial?^a Or what does a believer have in common with an unbeliever? ¹⁶ And what agreement does God's sanctuary have with idols? For we^b are the sanctuary of the living God, as God said:

I will dwell among them and walk
among them,
and I will be their God,
and they will be My people.^c

¹⁷ Therefore, come out from among them
and be separate, says the Lord;
do not touch any unclean thing,
and I will welcome you.^d

¹⁸ I will be a Father to you, and you will be sons and daughters
to Me,
says the Lord Almighty.^e

7 Therefore dear friends, since we have such promises, we should wash ourselves clean from every impurity of the flesh and spirit, making our sanctification complete^f in the fear of God.

Joy and Repentance

² Take us into your hearts.^g We have wronged no one, corrupted no one, defrauded no one. ³ I don't say this to condemn you, for I have already said that you are in our hearts, to die together and to live together. ⁴ I have great confidence in you; I have great pride in you. I am filled with encouragement; I am overcome with joy in all our afflictions.

⁵ In fact, when we came into Macedonia, we^h had no rest. Instead, we were afflicted in every way: struggles on the outside, fears inside. ⁶ But God, who comforts the humble, comforted us by the coming of Titus, ⁷ and not only by his coming, but also by the comfort he received from you. He announced to us your deep longing, your sorrow,ⁱ your zeal for me, so that I rejoiced even more. ⁸ For although I grieved you with my letter, I do not regret it—even though I did regret it since I saw that the letter grieved you, though only for a little while. ⁹ Now I am rejoicing, not because you were grieved, but because your grief led to repentance. For you were grieved as God willed, so that you didn't experience any loss from us. ¹⁰ For godly grief produces a repentance not to be regretted and leading to salvation, but worldly grief produces death. ¹¹ For consider how much diligence this very thing—this grieving as God wills—has produced in you: what a desire to clear yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what deep longing, what zeal, what justice! In every way you have commended yourselves to be pure in this matter. ¹² So even though I wrote to you, it was not because of the one who did wrong, or because of the one who was wronged, but in order that your diligence for us might be made plain to you in the sight of God. ¹³ For this reason we have been comforted.

In addition to our comfort, we were made to rejoice even more over the joy Titus had,^j because his spirit was refreshed by all of you. ¹⁴ For if I have made any boast to him about you, I have not been embarrassed; but as I have spoken everything to you in truth, so our boasting to Titus has also turned out to be the truth. ¹⁵ And his affection toward you is even greater as he remembers the obedience of all of you, and how you received him with fear and trembling. ¹⁶ I rejoice that I have complete confidence in you.

Appeal to Complete the Collection

8 We want you to know, brothers, about the grace of God granted to the churches of Macedonia: ² during a severe testing by affliction, their abundance of joy and their deep poverty overflowed into the wealth of their generosity. ³ I testify that, on their own, according to their ability and beyond their ability, ⁴ they begged us insistently for the privilege of sharing in the ministry to the saints, ⁵ and not just as we had hoped. Instead, they gave themselves especially to the Lord, then to us by God's will. ⁶ So we urged Titus that, just as he had begun, so he should also complete this grace to you. ⁷ Now as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all diligence, and in your love for us^k—excel also in this grace.

⁸ I am not saying this as a command. Rather, by means of the diligence of others, I am testing the genuineness of your love. ⁹ For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ: although He was rich, for your sake He became poor, so that by His poverty you might become rich. ¹⁰ Now I am giving an opinion on this because it is profitable for you, who a year ago began not only to do something but also to desire it.^a ¹¹ But now finish the task^b as well, that just as there was eagerness to desire it, so there may also be a completion from what you have. ¹² For if the eagerness is there, it is acceptable according to what one has, not according to what he does not have. ¹³ It is not that there may be relief for others and hardship for you, but it is a question of equality^c — ¹⁴ at the present time your surplus is [available] for their need, so that their abundance may also become [available] for your need, that there may be equality. ¹⁵ As it has been written:

^a6:15 Or Belial, a name for the Devil or antichrist in extra-biblical Jewish writings ^b6:16 Other mss read you

The person who gathered much did not have too much,
and the person who gathered little did not have too little.^d

Administration of the Collection

¹⁶ Thanks be to God who put the same diligence for you into the heart of Titus. ¹⁷ For he accepted our urging and, being very diligent, went out to you by his own choice. ¹⁸ With him we have sent the brother who is praised throughout the churches for his gospel ministry.^e ¹⁹ And not only that, but he was also appointed by the churches to accompany us with this gift^f that is being administered by us for the glory of the Lord Himself and to show our eagerness [to help]. ²⁰ We are taking this precaution so no one can find fault with us concerning this large sum administered by us. ²¹ For we are making provision for what is honorable, not only before the Lord but also before men. ²² We have also sent with them our brother whom we have often tested, in many circumstances, and found diligent—and now even more diligent because of his great confidence in you. ²³ As for Titus, he is my partner and co-worker serving you; as for our brothers, they are the messengers of the churches, the glory of Christ. ²⁴ Therefore, before the churches, show them the proof of your love and of our boasting about you.

Motivations for Giving

9 Now concerning the ministry to the saints, it is unnecessary for me to write to you. ² For I know your eagerness, and I brag about you to the Macedonians:^g “Achaia^h has been prepared since last year,” and your zeal has stirred up most of them. ³ But I sent the brothers so our boasting about you in the matter would not prove empty, and so you would be prepared just as I said. ⁴ For if any Macedonians should come with me and find you unprepared, we, not to mention you, would be embarrassed in that situation.ⁱ ⁵ Therefore I considered it necessary to urge the brothers to go on ahead to you and arrange in advance the generous gift you promised, so that it will be ready as a gift and not an extortion.

⁶ Remember this:^j the person who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the person who sows generously will also reap generously. ⁷ Each person should do as he has decided in his heart—not out of regret or out of necessity, for God loves a cheerful giver. ⁸ And God is able to make every grace overflow to you, so that in every way, always having everything you need, you may excel in every good work. ⁹ As it is written:

He has scattered;
He has given to the poor;
His righteousness endures forever.^k

¹⁰ Now the One who provides seed for the sower and bread for food will provide and multiply your seed and increase the harvest of your righteousness, ¹¹ as you are enriched in every way for all generosity, which produces thanksgiving to God through us. ¹² For the ministry of this service is not only supplying the needs of the saints, but is also overflowing in many acts of thanksgiving to God. ¹³ Through the proof of this service, they will glorify God for your obedience to the confession of^l the gospel of Christ, and for your generosity in sharing with them and with others. ¹⁴ And in their prayers for you they will have deep affection for^m you because of the surpassing grace of God on you. ¹⁵ Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift.

Paul's Apostolic Authority

10 Now I, Paul, make a personal appeal to you by the gentleness and graciousness of Christ—I who am humble among you in person, but bold toward you when absent. ² I beg you that when I am present I will not need to be bold with the confidence by which I plan to challenge certain people who think we are •walking in a fleshly way.ⁿ ³ For although we are walking in the flesh, we do not wage war in a fleshly way,^a ⁴ since the weapons of our warfare are not fleshly, but are powerful through God for the demolition of strongholds. We demolish arguments ⁵ and every high-minded thing that is raised up against the knowledge of God, taking every thought captive to the obedience of Christ. ⁶ And we are ready to punish any disobedience, once your obedience is complete.

⁷ Look at what is obvious.^b If anyone is confident that he belongs to Christ, he should remind himself of this: just as he belongs to Christ, so do we. ⁸ For if I boast some more about our authority, which the Lord gave for building you up and not for tearing you down, I am not ashamed. ⁹ I don't want to seem as though I am trying to terrify you with my letters. ¹⁰ For it is said, "His letters are weighty and powerful, but his physical presence is weak, and his public speaking is despicable." ¹¹ Such a person should consider this: what we are in the words of our letters when absent, we will be in actions when present.

¹² For we don't dare classify or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves. But in measuring themselves by themselves and comparing themselves to themselves, they lack understanding. ¹³ We, however, will not boast beyond measure, but according to the measure of the area [of ministry] that God has assigned to us, [which] reaches even to you. ¹⁴ For we are not overextending ourselves, as if we had not reached you, since we have come to you with the gospel of Christ. ¹⁵ We are not bragging beyond measure about other people's labors. But we have the hope that as your faith increases, our area [of ministry] will be greatly enlarged, ¹⁶ so that we may preach the gospel to the regions beyond you, not boasting about what has already been done in someone else's area [of ministry]. ¹⁷ So the one who boasts must boast in the Lord.^c ¹⁸ For it is not the one commending himself who is approved, but the one the Lord commends.

Paul and the False Apostles

11 I wish you would put up with a little foolishness from me. Yes, do put up with me.^d ² For I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy, because I have promised you in marriage to one husband—to present a pure virgin to Christ. ³ But I fear that, as the serpent deceived Eve by his cunning, your minds may be corrupted from a complete and pure^e devotion to Christ. ⁴ For if a person comes and preaches another Jesus, whom we did not preach, or you receive a different spirit, which you had not received, or a different gospel, which you had not accepted, you put up with it splendidly!

⁵ Now I consider myself in no way inferior to the "super-apostles." ⁶ Though untrained in public speaking, I am certainly not [untrained] in knowledge. Indeed, we have always made that clear to you in everything. ⁷ Or did I commit a sin by humbling myself so that you might be exalted, because I preached the gospel of God to you free of charge? ⁸ I robbed other churches by taking pay [from them] to minister to you. ⁹ When I was present with you and in need, I did not burden anyone, for the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied my needs. I have kept myself, and will keep myself, from burdening you in any way. ¹⁰ As the truth of Christ is in me, this boasting of mine will not be stopped^f in the regions of Achaia. ¹¹ Why? Because I don't love you? God knows I do!

¹² But I will continue to do what I am doing, in order to cut off the opportunity of those who want an opportunity to be regarded just as we are in what they are boasting about. ¹³ For such people are false apostles, deceitful workers, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ. ¹⁴ And no wonder! For Satan himself is disguised as an angel of light. ¹⁵ So it is no great thing if his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness. Their destiny^g will be according to their works.

Paul's Sufferings for Christ

¹⁶ I repeat: no one should consider me a fool. But if [you do], at least accept me as a fool, so I too may boast a little. ¹⁷ What I say in this matter^h of boasting, I don't speak as the Lord would, but foolishly. ¹⁸ Since many boast from a human perspective,ⁱ I will also boast. ¹⁹ For you gladly put up with fools since you are so smart!^j ²⁰ In fact, you put up with it if someone enslaves you, if someone devours you, if someone captures you, if someone dominates you, or if someone hits you in the face. ²¹ I say this to [our] shame: we have been weak.

But in whatever anyone dares [to boast]—I am talking foolishly—I also dare:

^a10:3 Lit war according to flesh ^b10:7 Or You are looking at things outwardly ^c10:17 Jr 9:24 ^d11:1 Or Yes, you are putting up with me ^e11:3 Other mss omit and pure ^f11:10 Or silenced ^g11:15 Lit end ^h11:17 Or business, or confidence ⁱ11:18 Lit boast according to the flesh ^j11:19 Or are wise

- 27 labor and hardship,
many sleepless nights,
hunger and thirst,
often without food, cold,
and lacking clothing.

28 Not to mention^d other things, there is the daily pressure on me: my care for all the churches. 29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to stumble, and I do not burn with indignation? 30 If boasting is necessary, I will boast about my weaknesses. 31 The eternally blessed One, the God and Father of the Lord Jesus, knows I am not lying. 32 In Damascus, the governor under King Aretas^e guarded the city of the Damascenes in order to arrest me, 33 so I was let down in a basket through a window in the wall and escaped his hands.

Sufficient Grace

12 It is necessary to boast; it is not helpful, but I will move on to visions and revelations of the Lord. 2 I know a man in Christ who was caught up into the third heaven 14 years ago. Whether he was in the body or out of the body, I don't know; God knows. 3 I know that this man—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows—⁴ was caught up into paradise. He heard inexpressible words, which a man is not allowed to speak. ⁵ I will boast about this person, but not about myself, except of my weaknesses. ⁶ For if I want to boast, I will not be a fool, because I will be telling the truth. But I will spare you, so that no one can credit me with something beyond what he sees in me or hears from me, ⁷ especially because of the extraordinary revelations. Therefore, so that I would not exalt myself, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, a messenger^f of Satan to torment me so I would not exalt myself. ⁸ Concerning this, I pleaded with the Lord three times to take it away from me. ⁹ But He said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for power^g is perfected in weakness.” Therefore, I will most gladly boast all the more about my weaknesses, so that Christ's power may reside in me. ¹⁰ So because of Christ, I am pleased in weaknesses, in insults, in catastrophes, in persecutions, and in pressures. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

Signs of an Apostle

¹¹ I have become a fool; you forced it on me. I ought to have been recommended by you, since I am in no way inferior to the “super-apostles,” even though I am nothing. ¹² The signs of an apostle were performed among you in all endurance—not only signs but also wonders and miracles. ¹³ So in what way were you treated worse than the other churches, except that I personally did not burden you? Forgive me this wrong!

Paul's Concern for the Corinthians

¹⁴ Look! I am ready to come to you this third time. I will not burden you, for I am not seeking what is yours, but you. For children are not obligated to save up for their parents, but parents for their children. ¹⁵ I will most gladly spend and be spent for you.^h If I love you more, am I to be loved less? ¹⁶ Now granted, I have not burdened you; yet sly as I am, I took you in by deceit! ¹⁷ Did I take advantage of you by anyone I sent you? ¹⁸ I urged Titus [to come], and I sent the brother with him. Did Titus take advantage of you? Didn't we •walk in the same spirit and in the same footsteps?

¹⁹ You have thought all along that we were defending ourselves to you.^a [No], in the sight of God we are speaking in Christ, and everything, dear friends, is for building you up. ²⁰ For I fear that perhaps when I come I will not find you to be what I want, and I may not be found by you to be what you want;^b there may be quarreling, jealousy, outbursts of anger, selfish ambitions, slander, gossip, arrogance, and disorder. ²¹ I fear that when I come my God will again^c humiliate me in your presence, and I will grieve for many who sinned before and have not repented of the uncleanness, sexual immorality, and promiscuity they practiced.

Final Warnings and Exhortations

13 This is the third time I am coming to you. On the testimony^d of two or three witnesses every word will be confirmed.^e ² I gave warning, and I give warning—as when I was present the second time, so now while I am absent—to those who sinned before and to all the rest: if I come again, I will not be lenient, ³ since you seek proof of Christ speaking in me. He is not weak toward you, but powerful among you. ⁴ In fact, He was crucified in weakness, but He lives by God's power. For we also are weak in Him, yet toward you we will live with Him by God's power.

⁵ Test yourselves [to see] if you are in the faith. Examine yourselves. Or do you not recognize for yourselves that Jesus Christ is in you?—unless you fail the test.^f ⁶ And I hope you will recognize that we are not failing the test. ⁷ Now we pray to God that you do nothing wrong, not that we may appear to pass the test, but that you may do what is right, even though we [may appear] to fail. ⁸ For we are not able to do anything against the truth, but only for the truth. ⁹ In fact, we rejoice when we are weak and you are strong. We also pray for this: your maturity.^g ¹⁰ This is why I am writing these things while absent, that when I am there I will not use severity, in keeping with the authority the Lord gave me for building up and not for tearing down.

¹¹ Finally, brothers, rejoice. Be restored, be encouraged, be of the same mind, be at peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

¹² Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you.

¹³ The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.^h

GALATIANS

Greeting

1 Paul, an apostle—not from men or by man, but by Jesus Christ and God the Father who raised Him from the dead— ² and all the brothers who are with me:

To the churches of Galatia.ⁱ

³ Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord^j Jesus Christ, ⁴ who gave Himself for our sins to rescue us from this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, ⁵ to whom be the glory forever and ever. •Amen.

No Other Gospel

⁶ I am amazed that you are so quickly turning away from Him who called you by the grace of Christ, [and are turning] to a different gospel—

⁷ not that there is another [gospel], but there are some who are troubling you and want to change the gospel of Christ. ⁸ But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach to you a gospel other than what we have preached to you, a curse be on him!^k ⁹ As we have said before, I now say again: if anyone preaches to you a gospel contrary to what you received, a curse be on him!^l

¹⁰ For am I now trying to win the favor of people, or God? Or am I striving to please people? If I were still trying to please people, I would not be a slave of Christ.

Paul Defends His Apostleship

point of view.^a ¹² For I did not receive it from a human source and I was not taught it, but it came by a revelation from Jesus Christ.

¹³ For you have heard about my former way of life in Judaism: I persecuted God's church to an extreme degree and tried to destroy it; ¹⁴ and I advanced in Judaism beyond many contemporaries among my people, because I was extremely zealous for the traditions of my ancestors. ¹⁵ But when God, who from my mother's womb set me apart and called me by His grace, was pleased ¹⁶ to reveal His Son in me, so that I could preach Him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with anyone.^b ¹⁷ I did not go up to Jerusalem to those who had become apostles before me; instead I went to Arabia and came back to Damascus.

¹⁸ Then after three years I did go up to Jerusalem to get to know •Cephas,^c and I stayed with him 15 days. ¹⁹ But I didn't see any of the other apostles except James, the Lord's brother. ²⁰ Now in what I write to you, I'm not lying. God is my witness.^d

²¹ Afterwards, I went to the regions of Syria and Cilicia. ²² I remained personally unknown to the Judean churches in Christ; ²³ they simply kept hearing: "He who formerly persecuted us now preaches the faith he once tried to destroy." ²⁴ And they glorified God because of me.

Paul Defends His Gospel at Jerusalem

2 Then after 14 years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus along also. ² I went up because of a revelation and presented to them the gospel I preach among the Gentiles—but privately to those recognized [as leaders]—so that I might not be running, or have run, in vain. ³ But not even Titus who was with me, though he was a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised. ⁴ [This issue arose] because of false brothers smuggled in, who came in secretly to spy on our freedom that we have in Christ Jesus, in order to enslave us. ⁵ But we did not yield in submission to these people for even an hour, so that the truth of the gospel would remain for you.

⁶ But from those recognized as important (what they really were makes no difference to me; God does not show favoritism^e)—those recognized as important added nothing to me. ⁷ On the contrary, they saw that I had been entrusted with the gospel for the uncircumcised, just as Peter was for the circumcised. ⁸ For He who was at work with Peter in the apostleship to the circumcised was also at work with me among the Gentiles. ⁹ When James, •Cephas, and John, recognized as pillars, acknowledged the grace that had been given to me, they gave the right hand of fellowship to me and Barnabas, [agreeing] that we should go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised. ¹⁰ [They asked] only that we would remember the poor, which I made every effort to do.

Freedom from the Law

¹¹ But when Cephas^c came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face because he stood condemned.^f ¹² For he used to eat with the Gentiles before certain men came from James. However, when they came, he withdrew and separated himself, because he feared those from the circumcision party. ¹³ Then the rest of the Jews joined his hypocrisy, so that even Barnabas was carried away by their hypocrisy. ¹⁴ But when I saw that they were deviating from the truth of the gospel, I told Cephas^c in front of everyone, "If you, who are a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, how can you compel Gentiles to live like Jews?"^g

¹⁵ We are Jews by birth and not "Gentile sinners"; ¹⁶ yet we know that no one is justified by the works of the law but by faith in Jesus Christ.^h And we have believed in Christ Jesus, so that we might be justified by faith in Christⁱ and not by the works of the law, because by the works of the law no human being will^j be justified. ¹⁷ But if, while seeking to be justified by Christ, we ourselves are also found to be sinners, is Christ then a promoter^k of sin? Absolutely not! ¹⁸ If I rebuild those things that I tore down, I show myself to be a law-breaker. ¹⁹ For through the law I have died to the law, that I might live to God. I have been crucified with Christ; ²⁰ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the flesh,^l I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me. ²¹ I do not set aside the grace of God; for if righteousness comes through the law, then Christ died for nothing.

Justification through Faith

learn this from you: Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law or by hearing with faith?^a ³Are you so foolish? After beginning with the Spirit, are you now going to be made complete by the flesh?^b ⁴Did you suffer so much for nothing—if in fact it was for nothing? ⁵So then, does God^c supply you with the Spirit and work miracles among you by the works of the law or by hearing with faith?^a

⁶Just as Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him for righteousness,^d ⁷so understand that those who have faith are Abraham's sons. ⁸Now the Scripture foresaw that God would justify the Gentiles by faith and foretold the good news to Abraham, saying, All the nations will be blessed in you.^e ⁹So those who have faith are blessed with Abraham, who had faith.^f

Law and Promise

¹⁰For all who [rely on] the works of the law are under a curse, because it is written: Cursed is everyone who does not continue doing everything written in the book of the law.^g ¹¹Now it is clear that no one is justified before God by the law, because the righteous will live by faith.^h ¹²But the law is not based on faith; instead, the one who does these things will live by them.ⁱ ¹³Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us, because it is written: Cursed is everyone who is hung on a tree.^j ¹⁴The purpose was that the blessing of Abraham would come to the Gentiles in Christ Jesus, so that we could receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

¹⁵Brothers, I'm using a human illustration.^k No one sets aside even a human covenant that has been ratified, or makes additions to it. ¹⁶Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. He does not say "and to seeds," as though referring to many, but and to your seed,^l referring to one, who is Christ. ¹⁷And I say this: the law, which came 430 years later, does not revoke a covenant that was previously ratified by God,^m so as to cancel the promise. ¹⁸For if the inheritance is from the law, it is no longer from the promise; but God granted it to Abraham through the promise.

The Purpose of the Law

¹⁹Why the law then? It was added because of transgressions until the Seed to whom the promise was made would come. [The law] was ordered through angels by means of a mediator. ²⁰Now a mediator is not for just one person, but God is one. ²¹Is the law therefore contrary to God's promises? Absolutely not! For if a law had been given that was able to give life, then righteousness would certainly be by the law. ²²But the Scripture has imprisoned everything under sin's power,ⁿ so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. ²³Before this faith came, we were confined under the law, imprisoned until the coming faith was revealed. ²⁴The law, then, was our guardian^o until Christ, so that we could be justified by faith. ²⁵But since that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian,^o ²⁶for you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus.

Sons and Heirs

²⁷For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. ²⁸There is no Jew or Greek, slave or free, male or female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus. ²⁹And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's seed, heirs according to 4 the promise. ¹Now I say that as long as the heir is a child, he differs in no way from a slave, though he is the owner of everything. ²Instead, he is under guardians and stewards until the time set by his father. ³In the same way we also, when we were children, were in slavery under the elemental forces of the world. ⁴But when the completion of the time came, God sent His Son, born of a woman, born under the law, ⁵to redeem those under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. ⁶And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of His Son into our^p hearts, crying, "•Abba, Father!" ⁷So you are no longer a slave, but a son; and if a son, then an heir through God.

Paul's Concern for the Galatians

⁸But in the past, when you didn't know God, you were enslaved to things^q that by nature are not gods. ⁹But now, since you know God, or rather have become known by God, how can you turn back again to the weak and bankrupt elemental forces? Do you want to be enslaved to them all over again? ¹⁰ You observe [special] days, months, seasons, and years. ¹¹ I am fearful for you, that perhaps my labor for you has been wasted.

¹² I beg you, brothers: become like me, for I also became like you. You have not wronged me; ¹³ you know that previously I preached the gospel to you in physical weakness, ¹⁴ and though my physical condition was a trial for you,^a you did not despise or reject me. On the contrary, you received me as an angel of God, as Christ Jesus [Himself].

¹⁵ What happened to this blessedness of yours? For I testify to you that, if possible, you would have torn out your eyes and given them to me. ¹⁶ Have I now become your enemy by telling you the truth? ¹⁷ They^b are enthusiastic about you, but not for any good. Instead, they want to isolate you so you will be enthusiastic about them. ¹⁸ Now it is always good to be enthusiastic about good—and not just when I am with you. ¹⁹ My children, again I am in the pains of childbirth for you until Christ is formed in you. ²⁰ I'd like to be with you right now and change my tone of voice, because I don't know what to do about you.

Sarah and Hagar: Two Covenants

²¹ Tell me, you who want to be under the law, don't you hear the law? ²² For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by a slave and the other by a free woman. ²³ But the one by the slave was born according to the flesh, while the one by the free woman was born as the result of a promise. ²⁴ These things are illustrations,^c for the women represent the two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai and bears children into slavery—this is Hagar. ²⁵ Now Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children. ²⁶ But the Jerusalem above is free, and she is our mother. ²⁷ For it is written:

Rejoice, O barren woman who does not give birth.
Break forth and shout,
you who are not in labor,
for the children of the desolate are many,

more numerous than those of the woman who has a husband.^d

²⁸ Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. ²⁹ But just as then the child born according to the flesh persecuted the one born according to the Spirit, so also now. ³⁰ But what does the Scripture say?

Throw out the slave and her son, for the son of the slave will never inherit with the son of the free woman.^e

³¹ Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave but of the free woman.

Freedom of the Christian

5 Christ has liberated us into freedom. Therefore stand firm and don't submit again to a yoke of slavery. ² Take note! I, Paul, tell you that if you get circumcised, Christ will not benefit you at all. ³ Again I testify to every man who gets circumcised that he is obligated to keep the entire law. ⁴ You who are trying to be justified by the law are alienated from Christ; you have fallen from grace! ⁵ For by the Spirit we eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness from faith. ⁶ For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision accomplishes anything; what matters is faith working through love.

⁷ You were running well. Who prevented you from obeying the truth? ⁸ This persuasion did not come from Him who called you. ⁹ A little yeast leavens the whole lump of dough. ¹⁰ In the Lord I have confidence in you that you will not accept any other view. But whoever it is who is troubling you will pay the penalty. ¹¹ Now brothers, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? In that case the offense of the cross has been abolished. ¹² I wish those who are disturbing you might also get themselves castrated!

¹³ For you are called to freedom, brothers; only don't use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but serve one another through love. ¹⁴ For the entire law is fulfilled in one statement: Love your neighbor as yourself.^f ¹⁵ But if you bite and devour one another, watch out, or you will be consumed by one another.

The Spirit versus the Flesh

¹⁶ I say then, •walk by the Spirit and you will not carry out the desire of the flesh. ¹⁷ For the

^a4:14 Other mss read me ^b4:17 The false teachers ^c4:24 Typology or allegory ^d4:27 Is 54:1 ^e4:30 Gn 21:10

flesh desires what is against the Spirit, and the Spirit desires what is against the flesh; these are opposed to each other, so that you don't do what you want. ¹⁸ But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

¹⁹ Now the works of the flesh are obvious:^a ^b sexual immorality, moral impurity, promiscuity, ²⁰ idolatry, sorcery, hatreds, strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, selfish ambitions, dissensions, factions, ²¹ envy,^c drunkenness, carousing, and anything similar, about which I tell you in advance—as I told you before—that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

²² But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faith,^d ²³ gentleness, self-control. Against such things there is no law. ²⁴ Now those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. ²⁵ If we live by the Spirit, we must also follow the Spirit. ²⁶ We must not become conceited, provoking one another, envying one another.

Carry One Another's Burdens

6 Brothers, if someone is caught in any wrongdoing, you who are spiritual should restore such a person with a gentle spirit, watching out for yourselves so you won't be tempted also. ² Carry one another's burdens; in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ. ³ For if anyone considers himself to be something when he is nothing, he is deceiving himself. ⁴ But each person should examine his own work, and then he will have a reason for boasting in himself alone, and not in respect to someone else. ⁵ For each person will have to carry his own load.

⁶ The one who is taught the message must share his goods with the teacher. ⁷ Don't be deceived: God is not mocked. For whatever a man sows he will also reap, ⁸ because the one who sows to his flesh will reap corruption from the flesh, but the one who sows to the Spirit will reap eternal life from the Spirit. ⁹ So we must not get tired of doing good, for we will reap at the proper time if we don't give up. ¹⁰ Therefore, as we have opportunity, we must work for the good of all, especially for those who belong to the household of faith.

Concluding Exhortation

¹¹ Look at what large letters I have written to you in my own handwriting. ¹² Those who want to make a good showing in the flesh are the ones who would compel you to be circumcised—but only to avoid being persecuted for the cross of Christ. ¹³ For even the circumcised don't keep the law themselves; however, they want you to be circumcised in order to boast about your flesh. ¹⁴ But as for me, I will never boast about anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom^e the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. ¹⁵ For^f both circumcision and uncircumcision mean nothing; [what matters] instead is a new creation. ¹⁶ May peace be on all those who follow this standard, and mercy also be on the Israel of God!

¹⁷ From now on, let no one cause me trouble, because I carry the marks of Jesus on my body. ¹⁸ Brothers, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. •Amen.

EPHESIANS

Greeting

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by God's will:

To the saints and believers in Christ Jesus at Ephesus.^g

² Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

God's Rich Blessings

³ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord

Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavens, in Christ; ⁴ for He chose us in Him, before the foundation of the world, to be holy and blameless in His sight.^h In loveⁱ ⁵ He predestined us to be adopted through Jesus Christ for Himself, according to His favor and will, ⁶ to the praise of His glorious grace that He favored us with in the Beloved.

⁷ In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of His grace⁸ that He lavished on us with all wisdom and understanding.⁹ He made known to us the •mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure that He planned in Him¹⁰ for the administration^a of the days of fulfillment^b—to bring everything together in the •Messiah, both things in heaven and things on earth in Him.

¹¹ In Him we were also made His inheritance,^c predestined according to the purpose of the One who works out everything in agreement with the decision of His will,¹² so that we who had already put our hope in the Messiah might bring praise to His glory.

¹³ In Him you also, when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation—in Him when you believed—were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit.¹⁴ He is the down payment of our inheritance, for the redemption of the possession,^d to the praise of His glory.

Prayer for Spiritual Insight

¹⁵ This is why, since I heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints,¹⁶ I never stop giving thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers.¹⁷ [I pray] that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father,^e would give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him.¹⁸ [I pray] that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened so you may know what is the hope of His calling, what are the glorious riches of His inheritance among the saints,¹⁹ and what is the immeasurable greatness of His power to us who believe, according to the working of His vast strength.

God's Power in Christ

²⁰ He demonstrated [this power] in the Messiah by raising Him from the dead and seating Him at His right hand in the heavens—²¹ far above every ruler and authority, power and dominion, and every title given,^f not only in this age but also in the one to come.²² And He put everything under His feet^g and appointed Him as head over everything for the church,²³ which is His body, the fullness of the One who fills all things in every way.

From Death to Life

2 And you were dead in your trespasses and sins² in which you previously •walked according to this worldly age, according to the ruler of the atmospheric domain,^h the spirit now working in the disobedient.¹ ³ We too all previously lived among them in our fleshly desires, carrying out the inclinations of our flesh and thoughts, and by nature we were children under wrath, as the others were also.⁴ But God, who is abundant in mercy, because of His great love that He had for us,⁵ made us alive with the •Messiah even though we were dead in trespasses. By grace you are saved!⁶ He also raised us up with Him and seated us with Him in the heavens, in Christ Jesus,⁷ so that in the coming ages He might display the immeasurable riches of His grace in [His] kindness to us in Christ Jesus.⁸ For by grace you are saved through faith, and this is not from yourselves; it is God's gift—⁹ not from works, so that no one can boast.¹⁰ For we are His creation—created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared ahead of time so that we should walk in them.

Unity in Christ

¹¹ So then, remember that at one time you were Gentiles in the flesh—called “the uncircumcised” by those called “the circumcised,” done by hand in the flesh.¹² At that time you were without the Messiah, excluded from the citizenship of Israel, and foreigners to the covenants of the promise, with no hope and without God in the world.¹³ But now in Christ Jesus, you who were far away have been brought near by the blood of the Messiah.¹⁴ For He is our peace, who made both groups one and tore down the dividing wall of hostility. In His flesh,¹⁵ He did away with the law of the commandments in regulations, so that He might create in Himself one new man from the two, resulting in peace.¹⁶ [He did this so] that He might reconcile both to God in one body through the cross and put the hostility to death by it.^k ¹⁷ When [Christ] came, He proclaimed the good news of peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near.¹⁸ For through Him we both have access by one Spirit to the Father.¹⁹ So then you are no longer foreigners and strangers, but fellow citizens with the saints, and members of God's household,²⁰ built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus Himself as the cornerstone.²¹ The whole building is

^a1:10 Or dispensation; lit house law (Gk oikonomia) ^b1:10 Lit the fulfillment of times ^c1:11 Or we also were chosen as an inheritance, or we also received an inheritance ^d1:14 the possession could be either man's or God's being fitted together in Him and is growing into a holy sanctuary in the Lord,²² in whom you also are being built together for God's dwelling in the Spirit.

Paul's Ministry to the Gentiles

3 For this reason, I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles—² you have heard, haven't you, about the administration of God's grace that He gave to me for you?³ The •mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I have briefly written above.⁴ By reading this you are able to understand my insight about the mystery of the •Messiah.⁵ This was not made known to people^a in other generations as it is now revealed to His holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit:⁶ the Gentiles are co-heirs, members of the same body, and partners of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.⁷ I was made a servant of this [gospel] by the gift of God's grace that was given to me by the working of His power.

⁸ This grace was given to me—the least of all the saints!—to proclaim to the Gentiles the incalculable riches of the Messiah,⁹ and to shed light for all about the administration of the mystery hidden for ages in God who created all things.¹⁰ This is so that God's multi-faceted wisdom may now be made known through the church to the rulers and authorities in the heavens.¹¹ This is according to the purpose of the ages, which He made in the Messiah, Jesus our Lord,¹² in whom we have boldness, access, and confidence through faith in Him.^b ¹³ So then I ask you not to be discouraged over my afflictions on your behalf, for they are your glory.

Prayer for Spiritual Power

¹⁴ For this reason I bow my knees before the Father^c ¹⁵ from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named.¹⁶ [I pray] that He may grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with power through His Spirit in the inner man,¹⁷ and that the Messiah may dwell in your hearts through faith. [I pray that] you, being rooted and firmly established in love,¹⁸ may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and width, height and depth,¹⁹ and to know the Messiah's love that surpasses knowledge, so you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

²⁰ Now to Him who is able to do above and beyond all that we ask or think—according to the power that works in you—²¹ to Him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. •Amen.

Unity and Diversity in the Body of Christ

4 I, therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, urge you to •walk worthy of the calling you have received,² with all humility and gentleness, with patience, accepting^d one another in love,³ diligently keeping the unity of the Spirit with the peace that binds [us].⁴ There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to one hope^e at your calling;⁵ one Lord, one faith, one baptism,⁶ one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all.

⁷ Now grace was given to each one of us according to the measure of the •Messiah's gift.⁸ For it says:

When He ascended on high,
He took prisoners into captivity;^f
He gave gifts to people.^g

⁹ But what does "He ascended" mean except that He^h descended to the lower parts of the earth?ⁱ ¹⁰ The One who descended is the same as the One who ascended far above all the heavens, that He might fill^j all things.¹¹ And He personally gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers,¹² for the training of the saints in the work of ministry, to build up the body of Christ,¹³ until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of God's Son, [growing] into a mature man with a stature measured by Christ's fullness.¹⁴ Then we will no longer be little children, tossed by the waves and blown around by every wind of teaching, by human cunning with cleverness in the techniques of deceit.¹⁵ But speaking the truth in love, let us grow in every way into Him who is the head—Christ.¹⁶ From Him the whole body, fitted and knit together by every supporting ligament, promotes the growth of the body for building up itself in love by the proper working of each individual part.

Living the New Life

¹⁷ Therefore, I say this and testify in the Lord: You should no longer walk as the Gentiles walk, in the futility of their thoughts.¹⁸ They are darkened in their understanding, excluded from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them and because of the hardness of their hearts. ¹⁹ They became callous and gave themselves over to promiscuity for the practice of every kind of impurity with a desire for more and more.^a

²⁰ But that is not how you learned about the Messiah, ²¹ assuming you heard Him and were taught by Him, because the truth is in Jesus: ²² you took off^b your former way of life, the old man that is corrupted by deceitful desires; ²³ you are being renewed^c in the spirit of your minds; ²⁴ you put on^d the new man, the one created according to God's [likeness] in righteousness and purity of the truth.

²⁵ Since you put away lying, Speak the truth, each one to his neighbor,^e because we are members of one another. ²⁶ Be angry and do not sin.^f Don't let the sun go down on your anger, ²⁷ and don't give the Devil an opportunity. ²⁸ The thief must no longer steal. Instead, he must do honest work with his own hands, so that he has something to share with anyone in need. ²⁹ No rotten talk should come from your mouth, but only what is good for the building up of someone in need,^g in order to give grace to those who hear. ³⁰ And don't grieve God's Holy Spirit, who sealed you^h for the day of redemption. ³¹ All bitterness, anger and wrath, insult and slander must be removed from you, along with all wickedness. ³² And be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving one another, just as God also forgave youⁱ in Christ.

5 Therefore, be imitators of God, as dearly loved children. ² And •walk in love, as the •Messiah also loved us and gave Himself for us, a sacrificial and fragrant offering to God. ³ But sexual immorality and any impurity or greed should not even be heard of^j among you, as is proper for saints. ⁴ And coarse and foolish talking or crude joking are not suitable, but rather giving thanks. ⁵ For know and recognize this: no sexually immoral or impure or greedy person, who is an idolater, has an inheritance in the kingdom of the Messiah and of God.

Light versus Darkness

⁶ Let no one deceive you with empty arguments, for because of these things God's wrath is coming on the disobedient.^k ⁷ Therefore, do not become their partners. ⁸ For you were once darkness, but now [you are] light in the Lord. Walk as children of light—⁹ for the fruit of the light^l [results] in all goodness, righteousness, and truth—¹⁰ discerning what is pleasing to the Lord. ¹¹ Don't participate in the fruitless works of darkness, but instead, expose them. ¹² For it is shameful even to mention what is done by them in secret. ¹³ Everything exposed by the light is made clear, ¹⁴ for what makes everything clear is light. Therefore it is said:

Get up, sleeper, and rise up from the dead,
and the Messiah will shine on you.^m

Consistency in the Christian Life

¹⁵ Pay careful attention, then, to how you walk—not as unwise people but as wise—¹⁶ making the most of the time,ⁿ because the days are evil. ¹⁷ So don't be foolish, but understand what the Lord's will is. ¹⁸ And don't get drunk with wine, which [leads to] reckless actions, but be filled with the Spirit:

- ¹⁹ speaking to one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making music to the Lord in your heart,
- ²⁰ giving thanks always for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ,
- ²¹ submitting to one another in the fear of Christ.

Wives and Husbands

²² Wives, submit^o to your own husbands as to the Lord, ²³ for the husband is head of the wife as also Christ is head of the church. He is the Savior of the body. ²⁴ Now as the church submits to Christ, so wives should [submit] to their husbands in everything. ²⁵ Husbands, love your wives, just as also Christ loved the church and gave Himself for her, ²⁶ to make her holy, cleansing^p her in the washing of water by the word. ²⁷ He did this to present the church to Himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, but holy and blameless. ²⁸ In the same way, husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. ²⁹ For no one ever hates his own flesh, but provides and cares for it, just as Christ does for the ³² This •mystery is profound, but I am talking about Christ and the church. ³³ To sum up, each one of you is to love his wife as himself, and the wife is to respect her husband.

Children and Parents

6 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, because this is right. ² Honor your father and mother—which is the first commandment with a promise— ³ that it may go well with you and that you may have a long life in the land.^{d e} ⁴ And fathers, don't stir up anger in your children, but bring them up in the training and instruction of the Lord.

Slaves and Masters

⁵ Slaves, obey your human^f masters with fear and trembling, in the sincerity of your heart, as to Christ. ⁶ Don't [work only] while being watched, in order to please men, but as slaves of Christ, do God's will from your heart.^g ⁷ Render service with a good attitude, as to the Lord and not to men, ⁸ knowing that whatever good each one does, slave or free, he will receive this back from the Lord. ⁹ And masters, treat them the same way, without threatening them, because you know that both their and your Master is in heaven, and there is no favoritism with Him.

Christian Warfare

¹⁰ Finally, be strengthened by the Lord and by His vast strength. ¹¹ Put on the full armor of God so that you can stand against the tactics^h of the Devil. ¹² For our battle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the world powers of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavens. ¹³ This is why you must take up the full armor of God, so that you may be able to resist in the evil day, and having prepared everything, to take your stand. ¹⁴ Stand, therefore,

with truth like a belt around your waist, righteousness like armor on your chest, ¹⁵ and your feet sandaled with readiness for the gospel of peace.ⁱ

¹⁶ In every situation take the shield of faith, and with it you will be able to extinguish the flaming arrows of the evil one.

¹⁷ Take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is God's word.

¹⁸ With every prayer and request, pray at all times in the Spirit, and stay alert in this, with all perseverance and intercession for all the saints.

¹⁹ Pray also for me, that the message may be given to me when I open my mouth to make known with boldness the •mystery of the gospel. ²⁰ For this I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I might be bold enough in Him to speak as I should.

Paul's Farewell

²¹ Tychicus, our dearly loved brother and faithful servant^j in the Lord, will tell you everything so that you also may know how I am and what I'm doing. ²² I am sending him to you for this very reason, to let you know how we are and to encourage your hearts.

²³ Peace to the brothers, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

²⁴ Grace be with all who have undying love for our Lord Jesus Christ.^{k l}

PHILIPPIANS

Thanksgiving and Prayer

good work in you^a will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus. ⁷ It is right for me to think this way about all of you, because I have you in my heart,^b and you are all partners with me in grace, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and establishment of the gospel. ⁸ For God is my witness, how I deeply miss all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus. ⁹ And I pray this: that your love will keep on growing in knowledge and every kind of discernment, ¹⁰ so that you can determine what really matters and can be pure and blameless in^c the day of Christ, ¹¹ filled with the fruit of righteousness that [comes] through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

Advance of the Gospel

¹² Now I want you to know, brothers, that what has happened to me has actually resulted in the advancement of the gospel, ¹³ so that it has become known throughout the whole imperial guard,^d and to everyone else, that my imprisonment is for Christ.^e ¹⁴ Most of the brothers in the Lord have gained confidence from my imprisonment and dare even more to speak the message^f fearlessly. ¹⁵ Some, to be sure, preach Christ out of envy and strife, but others out of good will.^g ¹⁶ These do so out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the gospel; ¹⁷ the others proclaim Christ out of rivalry, not sincerely, seeking to cause [me] trouble in my imprisonment.^h ¹⁸ What does it matter? Just that in every way, whether out of false motives or true, Christ is proclaimed. And in this I rejoice. Yes, and I will rejoice ¹⁹ because I know this will lead to my deliveranceⁱ through your prayers and help from the Spirit of Jesus Christ. ²⁰ My eager expectation and hope is that I will not be ashamed about anything, but that now as always, with all boldness, Christ will be highly honored in my body, whether by life or by death.

Living Is Christ

²¹ For me, living is Christ and dying is gain. ²² Now if I live on in the flesh, this means fruitful work for me; and I don't know which one I should choose. ²³ I am pressured by both. I have the desire to depart and be with Christ—which is far better— ²⁴ but to remain in the flesh is more necessary for you. ²⁵ Since I am persuaded of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your advancement and joy in the faith, ²⁶ so that, because of me, your confidence may grow in Christ Jesus when I come to you again.

²⁷ Just one thing: live your life in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ. Then, whether I come and see you or am absent, I will hear about you that you are standing firm in one spirit, with one mind,^j working side by side for the faith of the gospel, ²⁸ not being frightened in any way by your opponents. This is evidence of their destruction, but of your deliverance—and this is from God. ²⁹ For it has been given to you on Christ's behalf not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer for Him, ³⁰ having the same struggle that you saw I had and now hear about me.

Christian Humility

2 If then there is any encouragement in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship with the Spirit, if any affection and mercy, ² fulfill my joy by thinking the same way, having the same love, sharing the same feelings, focusing on one goal. ³ Do nothing out of rivalry or conceit, but in humility consider others as more important than yourselves. ⁴ Everyone should look out not [only] for his own interests, but also for the interests of others.

Christ's Humility and Exaltation

- ⁵ Make your own attitude that of Christ Jesus,
- ⁶ who, existing in the form of God, did not consider equality with God as something to be used for His own advantage.^k
- ⁷ Instead He emptied Himself by assuming the form of a slave, taking on the likeness of men. And when He had come as a man in His external form,
- ⁸ He humbled Himself by becoming obedient to the point of death—even to death on a cross.
- ⁹ For this reason God also highly exalted Him and gave Him the name that is above every name,
- ¹⁰ so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow—

Lights in the World

12 So then, my dear friends, just as you have always obeyed, not only in my presence, but now even more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. 13 For it is God who is working in you, [enabling you] both to will and to act for His good purpose. 14 Do everything without grumbling and arguing, 15 so that you may be blameless and pure, children of God who are faultless in a crooked and perverted generation, among whom you shine like stars in the world. 16 Hold firmly^a the message of life. Then I can boast in the day of Christ that I didn't run in vain or labor for nothing. 17 But even if I am poured out as a drink offering on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with all of you. 18 In the same way you also should rejoice and share your joy with me.

Timothy and Epaphroditus

19 Now I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon so that I also may be encouraged when I hear news about you. 20 For I have no one else like-minded who will genuinely care about your interests; 21 all seek their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ. 22 But you know his proven character, because he has served with me in the gospel ministry like a son with a father. 23 Therefore, I hope to send him as soon as I see how things go with me. 24 And I am convinced in the Lord that I myself will also come quickly.

25 But I considered it necessary to send you Epaphroditus—my brother, co-worker, and fellow soldier, as well as your messenger and minister to my need— 26 since he has been longing for all of you and was distressed because you heard that he was sick. 27 Indeed, he was so sick that he nearly died. However, God had mercy on him, and not only on him but also on me, so that I would not have one grief on top of another. 28 For this reason, I am very eager to send him so that you may rejoice when you see him again and I may be less anxious. 29 Therefore, welcome him in the Lord with all joy and hold men like him in honor, 30 because he came close to death for the work of Christ, risking his life to make up what was lacking in your ministry to me.

Knowing Christ

3 Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. To write to you again about this is no trouble for me and is a protection for you.

2 Watch out for “dogs,”^b watch out for evil workers, watch out for those who mutilate the flesh. 3 For we are the circumcision, the ones who serve by the Spirit of God, boast in Christ Jesus, and do not put confidence in the flesh— 4 although I once had confidence in the flesh too. If anyone else thinks he has grounds for confidence in the flesh, I have more: 5 circumcised the eighth day; of the nation of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a •Pharisee; 6 as to zeal, persecuting the church; as to the righteousness that is in the law, blameless.

7 But everything that was a gain to me, I have considered to be a loss because of Christ. 8 More than that, I also consider everything to be a loss in view of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. Because of Him I have suffered the loss of all things and consider them filth, so that I may gain Christ 9 and be found in Him, not having a righteousness of my own from the law, but one that is through faith in Christ^c—the righteousness from God based on faith. 10 [My goal] is to know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death, 11 assuming that I will somehow reach the resurrection from among the dead.

Reaching Forward to God's Goal

12 Not that I have already reached [the goal] or am already fully mature, but I make every effort to take hold of it because I also have been taken hold of by Christ Jesus. 13 Brothers, I do not^d consider myself to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: forgetting what is behind and reaching forward to what is ahead, 14 I pursue as my goal the prize promised by God's heavenly^e call in Christ Jesus. 15 Therefore, all who are mature should think this way. And if you think differently about anything, God will reveal this to you also. 16 In any case, we should live up to whatever [truth] we have attained. 17 Join in imitating me, brothers, and observe those who live according to the example you have in us. 18 For I have often told you,

^a2:16 Or Offer, or Hold out ^b3:2 An expression of contempt for the unclean, those outside the people of God

^c3:9 Or through the faithfulness of Christ ^d3:13 Other mss read not yet ^e3:14 Or upward and now say again with tears, that many live as enemies of the cross of Christ. ¹⁹ Their end is destruction; their god is their stomach; their glory is in their shame. They are focused on earthly things, ²⁰ but our citizenship is in heaven, from which we also eagerly wait for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ. ²¹ He will transform the body of our humble condition into the likeness of His glorious body, by the power that enables Him to subject everything to Himself.

Practical Counsel

4 So then, in this way, my dearly loved brothers, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord, dear friends. ² I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to agree in the Lord. ³ Yes, I also ask you, true partner,^a to help these women who have contended for the gospel at my side, along with Clement and the rest of my co-workers whose names are in the book of life. ⁴ Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! ⁵ Let your graciousness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. ⁶ Don't worry about anything, but in everything, through prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God. ⁷ And the peace of God, which surpasses every thought, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

⁸ Finally brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable—if there is any moral excellence and if there is any praise—dwell on these things. ⁹ Do what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

Appreciation of Support

¹⁰ I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at last you have renewed your care for me. You were, in fact, concerned about me, but lacked the opportunity [to show it]. ¹¹ I don't say this out of need, for I have learned to be content in whatever circumstances I am. ¹² I know both how to have a little, and I know how to have a lot. In any and all circumstances I have learned the secret [of being content]—whether well-fed or hungry, whether in abundance or in need. ¹³ I am able to do all things through Him^b who strengthens me. ¹⁴ Still, you did well by sharing with me in my hardship.

¹⁵ And you, Philippians, know that in the early days of the gospel, when I left Macedonia, no church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving except you alone. ¹⁶ For even in Thessalonica you sent [gifts] for my need several times. ¹⁷ Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the fruit that is increasing to your account. ¹⁸ But I have received everything in full, and I have an abundance. I am fully supplied, having received from Epaphroditus what you provided—a fragrant offering, a welcome sacrifice, pleasing to God. ¹⁹ And my God will supply all your needs according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus. ²⁰ Now to our God and Father be glory forever and ever. •Amen.

Final Greetings

Thanksgiving

³ We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you, ⁴ for we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love you have for all the saints ⁵ because of the hope reserved for you in heaven. You have already heard about [this hope] in the message of truth, ⁶ the gospel that has come to you. It is bearing fruit and growing all over the world, just as it has among you since the day you heard it and recognized God's grace in the truth.^f ⁷ You learned this from Epaphras, our much loved fellow slave. Prayer for Spiritual Growth

⁹ For this reason also, since the day we heard this, we haven't stopped praying for you. We are asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, ¹⁰ so that you may •walk worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing [to Him], bearing fruit in every good work and growing in the knowledge of God. ¹¹ May you be strengthened with all power, according to His glorious might, for all endurance and patience, with joy ¹² giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you^b to share in the saints'^c inheritance in the light. ¹³ He has rescued us from the domain of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of the Son He loves, ¹⁴ in whom we have redemption,^d the forgiveness of sins.

The Centrality of Christ

- ¹⁵ He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation;^e
- ¹⁶ because by Him everything was created, in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities— all things have been created through Him and for Him.
- ¹⁷ He is before all things, and by Him all things hold together.
- ¹⁸ He is also the head of the body, the church; He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that He might come to have first place in everything.
- ¹⁹ For God was pleased [to have] all His fullness dwell in Him,
- ²⁰ and through Him to reconcile everything to Himself by making peace through the blood of His cross^f — whether things on earth or things in heaven.

²¹ And you were once alienated and hostile in mind because of your evil actions. ²² But now He has reconciled you by His physical body^g through His death, to present you holy, faultless, and blameless before Him— ²³ if indeed you remain grounded and steadfast in the faith, and are not shifted away from the hope of the gospel that you heard. [This gospel] has been proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and I, Paul, have become a minister of it.

Paul's Ministry

²⁴ Now I rejoice in my sufferings for you, and I am completing in my flesh what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for His body, that is, the church. ²⁵ I have become its minister, according to God's administration that was given to me for you, to make God's message fully known, ²⁶ the •mystery hidden for ages and generations but now revealed to His saints. ²⁷ God wanted to make known to those among the Gentiles the glorious wealth of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. ²⁸ We proclaim Him, warning and teaching everyone with all wisdom, so that we may present everyone mature in Christ. ²⁹ I labor for this, striving with His strength that works powerfully in me.

2 For I want you to know how great a struggle I have for you, for those in Laodicea, and for all who have not seen me in person. ² [I want] their hearts to be encouraged and joined together in love, so that they may have all the riches of assured understanding, and have the knowledge of God's •mystery—Christ.^h ³ In Him all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden.

Christ versus the Colossian Heresy

⁴ I am saying this so that no one will deceive you with persuasive arguments. ⁵ For I may be absent in body, but I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see your good order and the strength of your faith in Christ.

⁶ Therefore as you have received Christ Jesus the Lord, •walk in Him, ⁷ rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness.

⁸ Be careful that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deceit based on human tradition, based on the elemental forces of the world, and not based on Christ. ⁹ For in Him the entire fullness of God's natureⁱ dwells bodily,^j ¹⁰ and you have been filled by Him, who is the head over every ruler and authority. ¹¹ In Him you were also circumcised with a circumcision not done with hands, by putting off the body of flesh, in the circumcision of the

ⁱ2:9 Or the deity ^j2:9 Or nature lives in a human body

•Messiah.¹² Having been buried with Him in baptism, you were also raised with Him through faith in the working of God, who raised Him from the dead.¹³ And when you were dead in trespasses and in the uncircumcision of your flesh, He made you alive with Him and forgave us all our trespasses.¹⁴ He erased the certificate of debt, with its obligations, that was against us and opposed to us, and has taken it out of the way by nailing it to the cross.¹⁵ He disarmed the rulers and authorities and disgraced them publicly; He triumphed over them by Him.^a

¹⁶ Therefore don't let anyone judge you in regard to food and drink or in the matter of a festival or a new moon or a sabbath day.^b ¹⁷ These are a shadow of what was to come; the substance is^c the Messiah.¹⁸ Let no one disqualify you,^d insisting on ascetic practices and the worship of angels, claiming access to a visionary realm and inflated without cause by his fleshly mind.¹⁹ He doesn't hold on to the head, from whom the whole body, nourished and held together by its ligaments and tendons, develops with growth from God.

²⁰ If you died with Christ to the elemental forces of this world, why do you live as if you still belonged to the world? Why do you submit to regulations: ²¹ "Don't handle, don't taste, don't touch"? ²² All these [regulations] refer to what is destroyed by being used up; they are human commands and doctrines.²³ Although these have a reputation of wisdom by promoting ascetic practices, humility, and severe treatment of the body, they are not of any value against fleshly indulgence.

The Life of the New Man

3 So if you have been raised with the •Messiah, seek what is above, where the Messiah is, seated at the right hand of God.² Set your minds on what is above, not on what is on the earth.³ For you have died, and your life is hidden with the Messiah in God.⁴ When the Messiah, who is your^e life, is revealed, then you also will be revealed with Him in glory.

⁵ Therefore, put to death whatever in you is worldly:^f sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desire, and greed, which is idolatry.⁶ Because of these, God's wrath comes on the disobedient,^g ⁷ and you once •walked in these things when you were living in them.⁸ But now you must also put away all the following: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and filthy language from your mouth.⁹ Do not lie to one another, since you have put off the old man with his practices¹⁰ and have put on the new man, who is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of his Creator.¹¹ Here there is not Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian,^h slave and free; but Christ is all and in all.

The Christian Life

¹² Therefore, God's chosen ones, holy and loved, put on heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience,¹³ accepting one another and forgiving one another if anyone has a complaint against another. Just as the Lord has forgiven you, so also you must [forgive].¹⁴ Above all, [put on] love—the perfect bond of unity.¹⁵ And let the peace of the Messiah, to which you were also called in one body, control your hearts. Be thankful.¹⁶ Let the message about the Messiah dwell richly among you, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, and singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, with gratitude in your hearts to God.¹⁷ And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

Christ in Your Home

- ¹⁸ Wives, be submissive to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord.
- ¹⁹ Husbands, love your wives and don't become bitter against them.
- ²⁰ Children, obey your parents in everything, for this is pleasing in the Lord.
- ²¹ Fathers, do not exasperate your children, so they won't become discouraged.
- ²² Slaves, obey your human masters in everything; don't work only while being watched, in order to please men, but [work] wholeheartedly, fearing the Lord.
- ²³ Whatever you do, do it enthusiastically,ⁱ as something done for the Lord and not for men,²⁴ knowing that you will receive the reward of an inheritance from the Lord—you serve the Lord Christ.²⁵ For the wrongdoer will be paid back for whatever wrong he has done, and there is no favoritism.

Speaking to God and Others

² Devote yourselves to prayer; stay alert in it with thanksgiving. ³ At the same time, pray also for us that God may open a door to us for the message, to speak the •mystery of the •Messiah—for which I am in prison— ⁴ so that I may reveal it as I am required to speak. ⁵ •Walk in wisdom toward outsiders, making the most of the time. ⁶ Your speech should always be gracious, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how you should answer each person.

Christian Greetings

⁷ Tychicus, a loved brother, a faithful servant, and a fellow slave in the Lord, will tell you all the news about me. ⁸ I have sent him to you for this very purpose, so that you may know how we are,^a and so that he may encourage your hearts. ⁹ He is with Onesimus, a faithful and loved brother, who is one of you. They will tell you about everything here.

¹⁰ Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, greets you, as does Mark, Barnabas' cousin (concerning whom you have received instructions: if he comes to you, welcome him), ¹¹ and so does Jesus who is called Justus. These alone of the circumcision are my co-workers for the kingdom of God, and they have been a comfort to me. ¹² Epaphras, who is one of you, a slave of Christ Jesus, greets you. He is always contending for you in his prayers, so that you can stand mature and fully assured^b in everything God wills. ¹³ For I testify about him that he works hard^c for you, for those in Laodicea, and for those in Hierapolis. ¹⁴ Luke, the loved physician, and Demas greet you. ¹⁵ Give my greetings to the brothers in Laodicea, and to Nympha and the church in her house. ¹⁶ And when this letter has been read among you, have it read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and see that you also read the letter from Laodicea. ¹⁷ And tell Archippus, "Pay attention to the ministry you have received in the Lord, so that you can accomplish it."

¹⁸ This greeting is in my own hand—Paul. Remember my imprisonment. Grace be with you.^d

1 THESSALONIANS

Greeting

1 Paul, Silvanus,^e and Timothy:
To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Grace to you and peace.^f

Thanksgiving

² We always thank God for all of you, remembering you constantly in our prayers. ³ We recall, in the presence of our God and Father, your work of faith, labor of love, and endurance of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, ⁴ knowing your election, brothers loved by God. ⁵ For our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power, in the Holy Spirit, and with much assurance. You know what kind of men we were among you for your benefit, ⁶ and you became imitators of us and of the Lord when, in spite of severe persecution, you welcomed the message with the joy from the Holy Spirit. ⁷ As a result, you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia. ⁸ For the Lord's message rang out from you, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place that your faith^g in God has gone out, so we don't need to say anything. ⁹ For they themselves report about us what kind of reception we had from you: how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, ¹⁰ and to wait for His Son from heaven, whom He raised from the dead—Jesus, who rescues us from the coming wrath.

Paul's Conduct

2 For you yourselves know, brothers, that our visit with you was not without result. ² On the contrary, after we had previously suffered and been outrageously treated in Philippi, as you know, we were emboldened by our God to speak the gospel of God to you in spite of great opposition. ³ For our exhortation didn't come from error or impurity or an intent to deceive. ⁴ Instead, just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, not to please men, but rather God, who examines our hearts. ⁵ For we never used flattering speech, as you know, or had greedy motives—God is our witness— ⁶ and we didn't seek glory from people, either from you or from others. ⁷ Although we could have been a burden as Christ's apostles, instead we were gentle^a among you, as a nursing mother nurtures her own children. ⁸ We cared so much for you that we were pleased to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own lives, because you had become dear to us. ⁹ For you remember our labor and hardship, brothers. Working night and day so that we would not burden any of you, we preached God's gospel to you. ¹⁰ You are witnesses, and so is God, of how devoutly, righteously, and blamelessly we conducted ourselves with you believers. ¹¹ As you know, like a father with his own children, ¹² we encouraged, comforted, and implored each one of you to •walk worthy of God, who calls you into His own kingdom and glory.

Reception and Opposition to the Message

¹³ Also, this is why we constantly thank God, because when you received the message about God that you heard from us, you welcomed it not as a human message, but as it truly is, the message of God, which also works effectively in you believers. ¹⁴ For you, brothers, became imitators of God's churches in Christ Jesus that are in Judea, since you have also suffered the same things from people of your own country, just as they did from the Jews. ¹⁵ They killed both the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and persecuted us; they displease God, and are hostile to everyone, ¹⁶ hindering us from speaking to the Gentiles so that they may be saved. As a result, they are always adding to the number of their sins, and wrath has overtaken them completely.^b

Paul's Desire to See Them

¹⁷ But as for us, brothers, after we were forced to leave you for a short time (in person, not in heart), we greatly desired and made every effort to return and see you face to face. ¹⁸ So we wanted to come to you—even I, Paul, time and again—but Satan hindered us. ¹⁹ For who is our hope, or joy, or crown of boasting in the presence of our Lord Jesus at His coming? Is it not you? ²⁰ For you are our glory and joy!

Anxiety in Athens

3 Therefore, when we could no longer stand it, we thought it was better to be left alone in Athens. ² And we sent Timothy, our brother and God's co-worker^c in the gospel of Christ, to strengthen and encourage you concerning your faith, ³ so that no one will be shaken by these persecutions. For you yourselves know that we are appointed to^d this. ⁴ In fact, when we were with you, we told you previously that we were going to suffer persecution, and as you know, it happened. ⁵ For this reason, when I could no longer stand it, I also sent to find out about your faith, fearing that the tempter had tempted you and that our labor might be for nothing.

Encouraged by Timothy

⁶ But now Timothy has come to us from you and brought us good news about your faith and love, and that you always have good memories of us, wanting to see us, as we also want to see you. ⁷ Therefore, brothers, in all our distress and persecution, we were encouraged about you through your faith. ⁸ For now we live, if you stand firm in the Lord. ⁹ How can we thank God for you in return for all the joy we experience because of you before our God, ¹⁰ as we pray earnestly night and day to see you face to face and to complete what is lacking in your faith?

Prayer for the Church

¹¹ Now may our God and Father Himself, and our Lord Jesus, direct our way to you. ¹² And may the Lord cause you to increase and overflow with love for one another and for everyone, just as we also do for you. ¹³ May He make your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all His saints. •Amen.^e

The Call to Sanctification

4 Finally then, brothers, we ask and encourage you in the Lord Jesus, that as you have received from us how you must •walk and please God—as you are doing^f—do so even more. ² For you know what commands we gave you through the Lord Jesus.

³ For this is God's will, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality, ⁴ so that each of you knows how to possess his own vessels^g in sanctification and honor, ⁵ not with lustful desires, like the Gentiles who don't know God. ⁶ This means one must not transgress against and defraud his brother in this matter, because the Lord is an avenger of all these offenses,^a as we also previously told and warned you.⁷ For God has not called us to impurity, but to sanctification.⁸ Therefore, the person who rejects this does not reject man, but God, who also gives you His Holy Spirit.

Loving and Working

⁹ About brotherly love: you don't need me to write you because you yourselves are taught by God to love one another.¹⁰ In fact, you are doing this toward all the brothers in the entire region of Macedonia. But we encourage you, brothers, to do so even more,¹¹ to seek to lead a quiet life, to mind your own business,^b and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you,¹² so that you may walk properly^c in the presence of outsiders^d and not be dependent on anyone.^e

The Comfort of Christ's Coming

¹³ We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, concerning those who are •asleep, so that you will not grieve like the rest, who have no hope.¹⁴ Since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, in the same way God will bring with Him those who have fallen asleep through^f Jesus.^g ¹⁵ For we say this to you by a revelation from the Lord:^h We who are still alive at the Lord's coming will certainly have no advantage overⁱ those who have fallen asleep.¹⁶ For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout,^j with the archangel's voice, and with the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first.¹⁷ Then we who are still alive will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air; and so we will always be with the Lord.¹⁸ Therefore encourage^k one another with these words.

The Day of the Lord

5 About the times and the seasons: brothers, you do not need anything to be written to you.² For you yourselves know very well that the Day of the Lord will come just like a thief in the night.³ When they say, "Peace and security," then sudden destruction comes on them, like labor pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.⁴ But you, brothers, are not in the dark, so that this day would overtake you like a thief.⁵ For you are all sons of light and sons of the day. We're not of the night or of darkness.⁶ So then, we must not sleep, like the rest, but we must stay awake and be sober.⁷ For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk are drunk at night.⁸ But since we are of the day, we must be sober and put the armor of faith and love on our chests, and put on a helmet of the hope of salvation.⁹ For God did not appoint us to wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,¹⁰ who died for us, so that whether we are awake or •asleep, we will live together with Him.¹¹ Therefore encourage one another and build each other up as you are already doing.

Exhortations and Blessings

¹² Now we ask you, brothers, to give recognition to those who labor among you and lead you in the Lord and admonish you,¹³ and to esteem them very highly in love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves.¹⁴ And we exhort you, brothers: warn those who are lazy,¹ comfort the discouraged, help the weak, be patient with everyone.¹⁵ See to it that no one repays evil for evil to anyone, but always pursue what is good for one another and for all.

- ¹⁶ Rejoice always!
- ¹⁷ Pray constantly.
- ¹⁸ Give thanks in everything, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.
- ¹⁹ Don't stifle the Spirit.
- ²⁰ Don't despise prophecies,
- ²¹ but test all things. Hold on to what is good.
- ²² Stay away from every form of evil.

²³ Now may the God of peace Himself sanctify you completely. And may your spirit, soul, and body be kept sound and blameless for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.²⁴ He who calls you is faithful, who also will do it.²⁵ Brothers, pray for us also.²⁶ Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss.²⁷ I charge you by the Lord that this letter be read to all the brothers.²⁸ May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you!

2 THESSALONIANS

Greeting

1 Paul, Silvanus,^a and Timothy:
To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

² Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

God's Judgment and Glory

³ We must always thank God for you, brothers, which is fitting, since your faith is flourishing, and the love of every one of you for one another is increasing. ⁴ Therefore we ourselves boast about you among God's churches—about your endurance and faith in all the persecutions and afflictions you endure. ⁵ It is a clear evidence of God's righteous judgment that you will be counted worthy of God's kingdom, for which you also are suffering, ⁶ since it is righteous for God to repay with affliction those who afflict you, ⁷ and [to reward]
with rest you who are afflicted, along with us.
[This will take place] at the revelation of the Lord Jesus from heaven with His powerful angels, ⁸ taking vengeance with flaming fire on those who don't know God and on those who don't obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. ⁹ These will pay the penalty of everlasting destruction, away from the Lord's presence and from His glorious strength, ¹⁰ in that day when He comes to be glorified by His saints and to be admired by all those who have believed, because our testimony among you was believed. ¹¹ And in view of this, we always pray for you that our God will consider you worthy of His calling, and will, by His power, fulfill every desire for goodness and the work of faith, ¹² so that the name of our Lord Jesus will be glorified by you, and you by Him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Man of Lawlessness

2 Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered to Him: we ask you, brothers, ² not to be easily upset in mind or troubled, either by a spirit or by a message or by a letter as if from us, alleging that the Day of the Lord^b has come. ³ Don't let anyone deceive you in any way. For [that day] will not come unless the apostasy^c comes first and the man of lawlessness^d is revealed, the son of destruction. ⁴ He opposes and exalts himself

above every so-called god or object of worship,
so that he sits^e in God's sanctuary,^f publicizing
that he himself is God.

⁵ Don't you remember that when I was still with you I told you about this? ⁶ And you know what currently restrains [him], so that he will be revealed in his time. ⁷ For the •mystery of lawlessness is already at work; but the one now restrain-ing will do so until he is out of the way, ⁸ and then the lawless one will be revealed. The Lord Jesus will destroy him with the breath of His mouth and will bring him to nothing with the brightness of His coming. ⁹ The coming [of the lawless one] is based on Satan's working, with all kinds of false miracles, signs, and wonders, ¹⁰ and with every unrighteous deception among those who are perishing. [They perish] because they did not accept the love of the truth in order to be saved. ¹¹ For this reason God sends them a strong delusion so that they will believe what is false, ¹² so that all will be condemned—those who did not believe the truth but enjoyed unrighteousness.

Stand Firm

¹³ But we must always thank God for you, brothers loved by the Lord, because from the beginnings^g God has chosen you for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth. ¹⁴ He called you to this through our gospel, so that you might obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁵ Therefore, brothers, stand firm and hold to the traditions you were taught, either by our message or by our letter.

¹⁶ May our Lord Jesus Christ Himself and God
our Father, who has loved us and given us eternal encouragement and good hope by grace, ¹⁷ encourage your hearts and strengthen you in every good work and word.

Pray for Us

3 Finally, pray for us, brothers, that the Lord's message may spread rapidly and be honored, just as it was with you, ² and that we may be delivered from wicked and evil men, for not all have faith. ³ But the Lord is faithful; He will strengthen and guard you from the evil one.
⁴ We have confidence in the Lord about you,

Warning against Irresponsible Behavior

⁶ Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from every brother who •walks irresponsibly and not according to the tradition received from us. ⁷ For you yourselves know how you must imitate us: we were not irresponsible among you; ⁸ we did not eat anyone's bread free of charge; instead, we labored and toiled, working night and day, so that we would not be a burden to any of you. ⁹ It is not that we don't have the right [to support], but we did it to make ourselves an example to you so that you would imitate us. ¹⁰ In fact, when we were with you, this is what we commanded you: "If anyone isn't willing to work, he should not eat." ¹¹ For we hear that there are some among you who walk irresponsibly, not working at all, but interfering with the work [of others]. ¹² Now we command and exhort such people, by the Lord Jesus Christ, that quietly working, they may eat their own bread.^a ¹³ Brothers, do not grow weary in doing good.

¹⁴ And if anyone does not obey our instruction in this letter, take note of that person; don't associate with him, so that he may be ashamed. ¹⁵ Yet don't treat him as an enemy, but warn him as a brother.

Final Greetings

¹⁶ May the Lord of peace Himself give you peace always in every way. The Lord be with all of you. ¹⁷ This greeting is in my own hand—Paul. This is a sign in every letter; this is how I write. ¹⁸ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with all of you.

1 TIMOTHY

Greeting

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus according to the command of God our Savior and of Christ Jesus, our hope:

² To Timothy, my true child in the faith.

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the^b Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

False Doctrine and Misuse of the Law

³ As I urged you when I went to Macedonia, remain in Ephesus so that you may command certain people not to teach other doctrine ⁴ or to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies. These promote empty speculations rather than God's plan, which operates by faith. ⁵ Now the goal of our instruction is love from a pure heart, a good conscience, and a sincere faith. ⁶ Some have deviated from these and turned aside to fruitless discussion. ⁷ They want to be teachers of the law, although they don't understand what they are saying or what they are insisting on. ⁸ Now we know that the law is good, provided one uses it legitimately. ⁹ We know that the law is not meant for a righteous person, but for the lawless and rebellious, for the ungodly and sinful, for the unholy and irreverent, for those who kill their fathers and mothers, for murderers, ¹⁰ for the sexually immoral and homosexuals, for kidnappers, liars, perjurers, and for whatever else is contrary to the sound teaching ¹¹ based on the glorious gospel of the blessed God that was entrusted to me.

Paul's Testimony

¹² I give thanks to Christ Jesus our Lord, who has strengthened me, because He considered me faithful, appointing me to the ministry— ¹³ one who was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and an arrogant man. Since it was out of ignorance that I had acted in unbelief, I received mercy, ¹⁴ and the grace of our Lord overflowed, along with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. ¹⁵ This saying is trustworthy and deserving of full acceptance: "Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners"—and I am the worst of them. ¹⁶ But I received mercy because of this, so that in me, the worst [of them], Christ Jesus might demonstrate the utmost patience as an example to those who would believe in Him for eternal life. ¹⁷ Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only^c God, be honor and glory forever and ever. •Amen.

Engage in Battle

¹⁸ Timothy, my child, I am giving you this instruction in keeping with the prophecies previously made about you, so that by them you may strongly engage in battle, ¹⁹ having faith and a good conscience. Some have rejected these and have suffered the shipwreck of their faith. ²⁰ Hymenaeus and Alexander are among them, and I have delivered them to Satan, so that they may be taught not to blaspheme.

Instructions on Prayer

2 First of all, then, I urge that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone, ² for kings and all those who are in authority, so that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and dignity. ³ This is good, and it pleases God our Savior, ⁴ who wants everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.

- ⁵ For there is one God
and one mediator between God and man,
a man, Christ Jesus,
- ⁶ who gave Himself—a ransom for all,
a testimony at the proper time.

⁷ For this I was appointed a herald, an apostle (I am telling the truth;^a I am not lying), and a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

Instructions to Men and Women

⁸ Therefore I want the men in every place to pray, lifting up holy hands without anger or argument. ⁹ Also, the women are to dress themselves in modest clothing, with decency and good sense; not with elaborate hairstyles, gold, pearls, or expensive apparel, ¹⁰ but with good works, as is proper for women who affirm that they worship God. ¹¹ A woman should learn in silence with full submission. ¹² I do not allow a woman to teach or to have authority over a man; instead, she is to be silent. ¹³ For Adam was created first, then Eve. ¹⁴ And Adam was not deceived, but the woman was deceived and transgressed. ¹⁵ But she will be saved through childbearing, if she continues^b in faith, love, and holiness, with good sense.

Qualifications of Church Leaders

3 This saying is trustworthy:^c “If anyone aspires to be an •overseer, he desires a noble work.” ² An overseer, therefore, must be above reproach, the husband of one wife, self-controlled, sensible, respectable, hospitable, an able teacher,^d ³ not addicted to wine, not a bully but gentle, not quarrelsome, not greedy— ⁴ one who manages his own household competently, having his children under control with all dignity. ⁵ (If anyone does not know how to manage his own household, how will he take care of God’s church?) ⁶ He must not be a new convert, or he might become conceited and fall into the condemnation of the Devil. ⁷ Furthermore, he must have a good reputation among outsiders, so that he does not fall into disgrace and the Devil’s trap.

⁸ Deacons, likewise, should be worthy of respect, not hypocritical, not drinking a lot of wine, not greedy for money, ⁹ holding the •mystery of the faith with a clear conscience. ¹⁰ And they must also be tested first; if they prove blameless, then they can serve as deacons. ¹¹ Wives, too, must be worthy of respect, not slanderers, self-controlled, faithful in everything. ¹² Deacons must be husbands of one wife, managing their children and their own households competently. ¹³ For those who have served well as deacons acquire a good standing for themselves, and great boldness in the faith that is in Christ Jesus.

The Mystery of Godliness

¹⁴ I write these things to you, hoping to come to you soon. ¹⁵ But if I should be delayed, [I have written] so that you will know how people ought to act in God’s household, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth. ¹⁶ And most certainly, the mystery of godliness is great:

He^e was manifested in the flesh,
justified in the Spirit,
seen by angels,
preached among the Gentiles,
believed on in the world,
taken up in glory.

Demonic Influence

4 Now the Spirit explicitly says that in the latter times some will depart from the faith, paying attention to deceitful spirits and the teachings of demons, ² through the hypocrisy of liars whose consciences are seared. ³ They forbid marriage and demand abstinence from foods that God created to be received with ^a2:7 Other mss add in Christ ^b2:15 Lit if they continue ^c3:1 This saying is trustworthy could refer to 1 Tm 2:15.

^d3:2 Or hospitable, skillful in teaching ^e3:16 Other mss read God

gratitude by those who believe and know the truth. ⁴ For everything created by God is good, and nothing should be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving, ⁵ since it is sanctified by the word of God and by prayer.

A Good Servant of Jesus Christ

⁶ If you point these things out to the brothers, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, nourished by the words of the faith and of the good teaching that you have followed. ⁷ But have nothing to do with irreverent and silly myths. Rather, train yourself in godliness, ⁸ for,

the training of the body has a limited benefit,
but godliness is beneficial in every way,
since it holds promise for the present life
and also for the life to come.

⁹ This saying is trustworthy and deserves full acceptance. ¹⁰ In fact, we labor and strive^a for this, because we have put our hope in the living God, who is the Savior of everyone, especially of those who believe.

Instructions for Ministry

¹¹ Command and teach these things. ¹² No one should despise your youth; instead, you should be an example to the believers in speech, in conduct, in love,^b in faith, in purity. ¹³ Until I come, give your attention to public reading, exhortation, and teaching. ¹⁴ Do not neglect the gift that is in you; it was given to you through prophecy, with the laying on of hands by the council of elders. ¹⁵ Practice these things; be committed to them, so that your progress may be evident to all. ¹⁶ Be conscientious about yourself and your teaching; persevere in these things, for by doing this you will save both yourself and your hearers.

5 Do not rebuke an older man, but exhort him as a father, younger men as brothers, ² older women as mothers, and with all propriety, the younger women as sisters.

The Support of Widows

³ Support^c widows who are genuinely widows. ⁴ But if any widow has children or grandchildren, they should learn to practice their religion toward their own family first and to repay their parents, for this pleases God. ⁵ The real widow, left all alone, has put her hope in God and continues night and day in her petitions and prayers;

⁶ however, she who is self-indulgent is dead even while she lives. ⁷ Command this, so that they won't be blamed. ⁸ Now if anyone does not provide for his own relatives, and especially for his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

⁹ No widow should be placed on the official support list^d unless she is at least 60 years old, has been the wife of one husband, ¹⁰ and is well known for good works—that is, if she has brought up children, shown hospitality, washed the saints' feet, helped the afflicted, and devoted herself to every good work. ¹¹ But refuse to enroll younger widows; for when they are drawn away from Christ by desire, they want to marry, ¹² and will therefore receive condemnation because they have renounced their original pledge. ¹³ At the same time, they also learn to be idle, going from house to house; they are not only idle, but are also gossips and busybodies, saying things they shouldn't say. ¹⁴ Therefore, I want younger women to marry, have children, manage their households, and give the adversary no opportunity to accuse us. ¹⁵ For some have already turned away to follow Satan. ¹⁶ If any^e believing woman has widows, she should help them, and the church should not be burdened, so that it can help those who are genuinely widows.

Honoring the Elders

¹⁷ The elders who are good leaders should be considered worthy of an ample honorarium,^f especially those who work hard at preaching and teaching. ¹⁸ For the Scripture says:

You must not muzzle an ox
that is threshing grain,^g and,
The laborer is worthy of his wages.

¹⁹ Don't accept an accusation against an elder unless it is supported by two or three witnesses. ²⁰ Publicly rebuke^h those who sin, so that the rest will also be afraid. ²¹ I solemnly charge you, before God and Christ Jesus and the elect angels, to observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing out of favoritism. ²² Don't be too quick to lay hands onⁱ anyone, and don't share in the sins of others. Keep yourself pure. ²³ Don't continue drinking only water, but use a little wine because of your stomach and your frequent illnesses. ²⁴ Some people's sins are evident, going before them to judgment, but [the sins] of others follow them. ²⁵ Likewise, good works are obvious, and those that are not [obvious] cannot remain hidden.

Honoring Masters

6 All who are under the yoke as slaves must regard their own masters to be worthy of all respect, so that God's name and His teaching will not be blasphemed. ² And those who have believing masters should not be disrespectful to them because they are brothers, but should serve them better, since those who benefit from their service are believers and dearly loved.

False Doctrine and Human Greed

Teach and encourage these things. ³ If anyone teaches other doctrine and does not agree with the sound teaching of our Lord Jesus Christ and with the teaching that promotes godliness, ⁴ he is conceited, understanding nothing, but having a sick interest in disputes and arguments over words. From these come envy, quarreling, slanders, evil suspicions, ⁵ and constant disagreement among men whose minds are depraved and deprived of the truth, who imagine that godliness^a is a way to material gain.^b ⁶ But godliness with contentment is a great gain.

⁷ For we brought nothing into the world, and^c we can take nothing out.

⁸ But if we have food and clothing,^d we will be content with these.

⁹ But those who want to be rich fall into temptation, a trap, and many foolish and harmful desires, which plunge people into ruin and destruction. ¹⁰ For the love of money is a root^e of all kinds of evil, and by craving it, some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pains.

Compete for the Faith

¹¹ Now you, man of God, run from these things;

but pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, and gentleness.

¹² Fight the good fight for the faith; take hold of eternal life, to which you were called and have made a good confession before many witnesses.

¹³ In the presence of God, who gives life to all, and before Christ Jesus, who gave a good confession before Pontius •Pilate, I charge you ¹⁴ to keep the commandment without spot or blame until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁵ which God^f will bring about in His own time. [He is] the blessed and only Sovereign,

the King of kings,
and the Lord of lords,

¹⁶ the only One who has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light, whom none of mankind has seen or can see, to whom be honor and eternal might.
•Amen.

Instructions to the Rich

¹⁷ Instruct those who are rich in the present age not to be arrogant or to set their hope on the uncertainty of wealth, but on God,^g who richly provides us with all things to enjoy. ¹⁸ [Instruct them] to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous, willing to share, ¹⁹ storing up for themselves a good foundation for the age to come, so that they may take hold of life that is real.

Guard the Heritage

²⁰ Timothy, guard what has been entrusted to you, avoiding irreverent, empty speech and contradictions from the “knowledge” that falsely bears that name. ²¹ By professing it, some people have deviated from the faith.

Grace be with all of you.

2 TIMOTHY

Greeting

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by God's will, for the promise of life in Christ Jesus:

² To Timothy, my dearly loved child.

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

science as my forefathers did, when I constantly remember you in my prayers night and day. ⁴ Remembering your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy, ⁵ clearly recalling your sincere faith that first lived in your grandmother Lois, then in your mother Eunice, and that I am convinced is in you also.

⁶ Therefore, I remind you to keep ablaze the gift of God that is in you through the laying on of my hands. ⁷ For God has not given us a spirit^a of fearfulness, but one of power, love, and sound judgment.

Not Ashamed of the Gospel

⁸ So don't be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord, or of me His prisoner. Instead, share in suffering for the gospel, relying on the power of God,

⁹ who has saved us and called us with a holy calling,
not according to our works,
but according to His own purpose
and grace,
which was given to us in Christ Jesus
before time began.

¹⁰ This has now been made evident through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who has abolished death and has brought life and immortality
to light through the gospel.

¹¹ For this [gospel] I was appointed a herald, apostle, and teacher,^b ¹² and that is why I suffer these things. But I am not ashamed, because I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to guard what has been entrusted to me^c until that day.

Be Loyal to the Faith

¹³ Hold on to the pattern of sound teaching that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. ¹⁴ Guard, through the Holy Spirit who lives in us, that good thing entrusted to you. ¹⁵ This you know: all those in Asia have turned away from me, including Phygelus and Hermogenes. ¹⁶ May the Lord grant mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, because he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chains. ¹⁷ On the contrary, when he was in Rome, he diligently searched for me and found me. ¹⁸ May the Lord grant that he obtain mercy from the Lord on that day. And you know how much he ministered at Ephesus.

Be Strong in Grace

2 You, therefore, my child, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. ² And what you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses, commit to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.

³ Share in suffering as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. ⁴ To please the recruiter, no one serving as a soldier gets entangled in the concerns of everyday life. ⁵ Also, if anyone competes as an athlete, he is not crowned unless he competes according to the rules. ⁶ It is the hardworking farmer who ought to be the first to get a share of the crops. ⁷ Consider what I say, for the Lord will give you understanding in everything.

⁸ Keep in mind Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, descended from David, according to my gospel. ⁹ For this I suffer, to the point of being bound like a criminal; but God's message is not bound. ¹⁰ This is why I endure all things for the elect: so that they also may obtain salvation, which is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.

¹¹ This saying is trustworthy:

For if we have died with Him,
we will also live with Him;

¹² if we endure,
we will also reign with Him;

if we deny Him, He will also deny us;

¹³ if we are faithless, He remains faithful,
for He cannot deny Himself.

An Approved Worker

¹⁴ Remind them of these things, charging them before God^d not to fight about words; this is in no way profitable and leads to the ruin of the hearers. ¹⁵ Be diligent to present yourself approved to God, a worker who doesn't need to be ashamed, correctly teaching the word of truth. ¹⁶ But avoid irreverent, empty speech, for this will produce an even greater measure of godlessness. ¹⁷ And their word will spread like gangrene, among whom are Hymenaeus and Philetus. ¹⁸ They have deviated from the truth, saying that the resurrection has already taken place, and are overturning the faith of some. ¹⁹ Nevertheless, God's solid foundation stands firm, having this inscription:

The Lord knows those who are His,^e and

Everyone who names the name
of the Lord

must turn away from unrighteousness.

^a1:7 Or Spirit ^b1:11 Other mss add of the Gentiles ^c1:12 Or guard what I have entrusted to Him, or guard my deposit ^d2:14 Other mss read before the Lord ^e2:19 Nm 16:5

²⁰ Now in a large house there are not only gold and silver bowls, but also those of wood and earthenware, some for special^a use, some for ordinary. ²¹ So if anyone purifies himself from these things, he will be a special^b instrument, set apart, useful to the Master, prepared for every good work.

²² Flee from youthful passions, and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart. ²³ But reject foolish and ignorant disputes, knowing that they breed quarrels. ²⁴ The Lord's slave must not quarrel, but must be gentle to everyone, able to teach,^c and patient, ²⁵ instructing his opponents with gentleness. Perhaps God will grant them repentance to know the truth. ²⁶ Then they may come to their senses and escape the Devil's trap, having been captured by him to do his will.

Difficult Times Ahead

3 But know this: difficult times will come in the last days. ² For people will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy, ³ unloving, irreconcilable, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, without love for what is good, ⁴ traitors, reckless, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, ⁵ holding to the form of religion but denying its power. Avoid these people!

⁶ For among them are those who worm their way into households and capture idle women burdened down with sins, led along by a variety of passions, ⁷ always learning and never able to come to a knowledge of the truth. ⁸ Just as Jannes and Jambres resisted Moses, so these also resist the truth, men who are corrupt in mind, worthless in regard to the faith. ⁹ But they will not make further progress, for their lack of understanding will be clear to all, as theirs^d was also.

The Sacred Scriptures

¹⁰ But you have followed my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, and endurance, ¹¹ along with the persecutions and sufferings that came to me in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. What persecutions I endured! Yet the Lord rescued me from them all. ¹² In fact, all those who want to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted. ¹³ Evil people and imposters will become worse, deceiving and being deceived. ¹⁴ But as for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing those from whom you learned, ¹⁵ and that from childhood you have known the sacred Scriptures, which are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. ¹⁶ All Scripture is inspired by God^e and is profitable for teaching, for rebuking, for correcting, for training in righteousness, ¹⁷ so that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work.

Fulfill Your Ministry

4 Before God and Christ Jesus, who is going to judge the living and the dead, and by His appearing and His kingdom, I solemnly charge you: ² proclaim the message; persist in it whether convenient or not; rebuke, correct, and encourage with great patience and teaching. ³ For the time will come when they will not tolerate sound doctrine, but according to their own desires, will accumulate teachers for themselves because they have an itch to hear something new.^f ⁴ They will turn away from hearing the truth and will turn aside to myths. ⁵ But as for you, keep a clear head about everything, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.

⁶ For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time for my departure is close. ⁷ I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. ⁸ In the future, there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me, but to all those who have loved His appearing.

Final Instructions

⁹ Make every effort to come to me soon, ¹⁰ for Demas has deserted me, because he loved this present world, and has gone to Thessalonica. Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. ¹¹ Only Luke is with me. Bring Mark with you, for he is useful to me in the ministry. ¹² I have sent Tychicus to Ephesus. ¹³ When you come, bring the cloak I left in Troas with Carpus, as well as the scrolls, especially the parchments. ¹⁴ Alexander the coppersmith did great harm to me. The Lord will repay him according to his works. ¹⁵ Watch out for him yourself, because he strongly opposed our words.

¹⁶ At my first defense, no one came to my assistance, but everyone deserted me. May it not be counted against them. ¹⁷ But the Lord stood with me and strengthened me, so that the proclamation might be fully made through me, and all the Gentiles might hear. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. ¹⁸ The Lord will rescue me from every evil work and will bring me safely into His heavenly kingdom. To Him be the glory forever and ever! •Amen.

Benediction

¹⁹ Greet Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus. ²⁰ Erastus has remained at Corinth; Trophimus I left sick at Miletus. ²¹ Make every effort to come before winter. Eubulus greets you, as do Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brothers.

²² The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with you!

TITUS

Greeting

1 Paul, a slave of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ for the faith of God's elect and the knowledge of the truth that leads^a to godliness, ² in the hope of eternal life that God, who cannot lie, promised before time began, ³ and has in His own time revealed His message in the proclamation that I was entrusted with by the command of God our Savior:

⁴ To Titus, my true child in our common faith.

Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

Titus' Ministry in Crete

⁵ The reason I left you in Crete was to set right what was left undone and, as I directed you, to appoint elders in every town: ⁶ someone who is blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful^b children not accused of wildness or rebellion. ⁷ For an •overseer, as God's manager, must be blameless, not arrogant, not quick tempered, not addicted to wine, not a bully, not greedy for money, ⁸ but hospitable, loving what is good, sensible, righteous, holy, self-controlled, ⁹ holding to the faithful message as taught, so that he will be able both to encourage with sound teaching and to refute those who contradict it.

¹⁰ For there are also many rebellious people, idle talkers and deceivers, especially those from Judaism.^c ¹¹ It is necessary to silence them; they overthrow whole households by teaching for dishonest gain what they should not. ¹² One of their very own prophets said,

Cretans are always liars, evil beasts,
lazy gluttons.^d

¹³ This testimony is true. So, rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith ¹⁴ and may not pay attention to Jewish myths and the commandments of men who reject the truth.

¹⁵ To the pure, everything is pure, but to those who are defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure; in fact, both their mind and conscience are defiled. ¹⁶ They profess to know God, but they deny Him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, and disqualified for any good work.

Sound Teaching

2 But you must speak what is consistent with sound teaching. ² Older men are to be self-controlled, worthy of respect, sensible, and sound in faith, love, and endurance. ³ In the same way, older women are to be reverent in behavior, not slanderers, not addicted to much wine. [They are] to teach what is good, ⁴ so that they may encourage the young women to love their husbands and children, ⁵ to be sensible, pure, good homemakers, and submissive to their husbands, so that God's message will not be slandered.

⁶ Likewise, encourage the young men to be sensible ⁷ about everything. Set an example of good works yourself, with integrity and dignity^e in your teaching. ⁸ Your message is to be sound beyond reproach, so that the opponent will be ashamed, having nothing bad to say about us.

⁹ Slaves are to be submissive to their masters in everything, and to be well-pleasing, not talking back ¹⁰ or stealing, but demonstrating utter faithfulness, so that they may adorn the teaching of God our Savior in everything.

¹¹ For the grace of God has appeared, with salvation^f for all people, ¹² instructing us to deny godlessness and worldly lusts and to live in a sensible, righteous, and godly way in the present age,¹³ while we wait for the blessed hope and the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ.¹⁴ He gave Himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to cleanse for Himself a special people, eager to do good works.

^a1:1 Or corresponds ^b1:6 Or believing ^c1:10 Lit the circumcision ^d1:12 This saying is from the Cretan poet Epimenides (6th century B.C.). ^e2:7 Other mss add incorruptibility ^f2:11 Or appeared, bringing salvation

¹⁵ Say these things, and encourage and rebuke with all authority. Let no one disregard^a you.

The Importance of Good Works

3 Remind them to be submissive to rulers and authorities, to obey, to be ready for every good work,² to slander no one, to avoid fighting, and to be kind, always showing gentleness to all people.³ For we too were once foolish, disobedient, deceived, captives of various passions and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, detesting one another.

⁴ But when the goodness and love for man appeared from God our Savior,

⁵ He saved us—
not by works of righteousness
that we had done,
but according to His mercy,
through the washing of regeneration
and renewal by the Holy Spirit.

⁶ This [Spirit] He poured out on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior,

⁷ so that having been justified by His grace, we may become heirs with the hope of eternal life.

⁸ This saying is trustworthy. I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have believed God might be careful to devote themselves to good works. These are good and profitable for everyone.⁹ But avoid foolish debates, genealogies, quarrels, and disputes about the law, for they are unprofitable and worthless.¹⁰ Reject a divisive person after a first and second warning,¹¹ knowing that such a person is perverted and sins, being self-condemned.

Final Instructions and Closing

¹² When I send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, make every effort to come to me in Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there.¹³ Diligently help Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey, so that they will lack nothing.

¹⁴ And our people must also learn to devote themselves to good works for cases of urgent need, so that they will not be unfruitful.¹⁵ All those who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with all of you.

PHILEMON

Greeting

Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy, our brother:

To Philemon, our dear friend and co-worker,² to Apphia our sister,^b to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church that meets in your house.

³ Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philemon's Love and Faith

⁴ I always thank my God when I mention you in my prayers,⁵ because I hear of your love and faith toward^c the Lord Jesus and for all the saints.⁶ [I pray] that your participation in the faith may become effective through knowing every good thing that is in us^d for [the glory of] Christ.⁷ For I have great joy and encouragement from your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, brother.

An Appeal for Onesimus

⁸ For this reason, although I have great boldness in Christ to command you to do what is right,⁹ I appeal, instead, on the basis of love. I, Paul, as an elderly man^e and now also as a prisoner of Christ Jesus,¹⁰ appeal to you for my child, whom I fathered^f while in chains—Onesimus.^g ¹¹ Once he was useless to you, but now he is useful to both you and me.¹² I am sending him—a part of myself^h—back to you.ⁱ ¹³ I wanted to keep him with me, so that in my imprisonment for the gospel he might serve me in your place.¹⁴ But I didn't want to do anything without your consent, so that your good deed might not be out of obligation, but of your own free will. ¹⁵ For perhaps this is why he was separated [from you] for a brief time, so that you might get him back permanently, ¹⁶ no longer as a slave, but more than a slave—as a dearly loved brother. This is especially so to me, but even more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.^a

¹⁷ So if you consider me a partner, accept him as you would me. ¹⁸ And if he has wronged you in any way, or owes you anything, charge that to my account. ¹⁹ I, Paul, write this with my own hand: I will repay it—not to mention to you that you owe me even your own self. ²⁰ Yes, brother, may I have joy from you in the Lord; refresh my heart in Christ. ²¹ Since I am confident of your obedience, I am writing to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say. ²² But meanwhile, also prepare a guest room for me, for I hope that through your prayers I will be restored to you.

Final Greetings

²³ Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you, and so do ²⁴ Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my co-workers.

²⁵ The grace of the Lord^b Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

HEBREWS

The Nature of the Son

1 Long ago God spoke to the fathers by the prophets at different times and in different ways. ² In these last days, He has spoken to us by [His] Son, whom He has appointed heir of all things and through whom He made the universe.^c ³ He is the radiance^d of His glory, the exact expression^e of His nature, and He sustains all things by His powerful word. After making purification for sins,^f He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high.^g ⁴ So He became higher in rank than the angels, just as the name He inherited is superior to theirs.

The Son Superior to Angels

⁵ For to which of the angels did He ever say, You are My Son; today I have become Your Father,^h i or again, I will be His Father, and He will be My Son?^j ⁶ When He again brings His firstborn into the world,^k He says, And all God's angels must worship Him.^l ⁷ And about the angels He says:

He makes His angels winds,^m and His servantsⁿ a fiery flame;^o

⁸ but about the Son:

Your throne, O God, is forever and ever,
and the scepter of Your kingdom
is a scepter of justice.

⁹ You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness;
this is why God, Your God,
has anointed You,
rather than Your companions,^p q
with the oil of joy.

¹⁰ And:

In the beginning, Lord,
You established the earth,
and the heavens are the works
of Your hands;

¹¹ they will perish, but You remain.
They will all wear out like clothing;
¹² You will roll them up like a cloak,^r
and they will be changed like a robe.
But You are the same,
and Your years will never end.^s

¹³ Now to which of the angels has He ever said:

Sit at My right hand
until I make Your enemies
Your footstool?^t u

¹⁴ Are they not all ministering spirits sent out to serve those who are going to inherit salvation?

Warning against Neglect

2 We must therefore pay even more attention to what we have heard, so that we

^a16 Both physically and spiritually ^b25 Other mss read our Lord ^c1:2 Lit ages ^d1:3 Or reflection ^e1:3 Or representation, or copy, or reproduction ^f1:3 Other mss read for our sins by Himself ^g1:3 Or He sat down on high at the right hand of the Majesty ^h1:5 Or have begotten You ⁱ1:5 Ps 2:7 ^j1:5 2 Sm 7:14; 1 Ch 17:13 ^k1:6 Or And again, when He brings His firstborn into the world ^l1:6 Dt 32:43 LXX; Ps 97:7 ^m1:7 Or spirits ⁿ1:7 Or ministers ^o1:7 Ps 104:4 ^p1:9 Or associates ^q1:8–9 Ps 45:6–7 ^r1:12 Other mss omit like a cloak ^s1:10–12 Ps 102:25–27 ^t1:13 Or enemies a footstool for Your feet ^u1:13 Ps 110:1

will not drift away. ² For if the message spoken through angels was legally binding,^a and every transgression and disobedience received a just punishment, ³ how will we escape if we neglect such a great salvation? It was first spoken by the Lord and was confirmed to us by those who heard Him. ⁴ At the same time, God also testified by signs and wonders, various miracles, and distributions [of gifts] from the Holy Spirit according to His will.

Jesus and Humanity

⁵ For He has not subjected to angels the world to come that we are talking about. ⁶ But one has somewhere testified:

What is man, that You remember him,
or the son of man,
that You care for him?

- ⁷ You made him lower than the angels
for a short time;
You crowned him with glory
and honor^b
⁸ and subjected everything
under his feet.^c

For in subjecting everything to him, He left nothing not subject to him. As it is, we do not yet see everything subjected to him. ⁹ But we do see Jesus—made lower than the angels for a short time so that by God's grace He might taste death for everyone—crowned with glory and honor because of the suffering of death.

¹⁰ For it was fitting, in bringing many sons to glory, that He, for whom and through whom all things exist, should make the source^d of their salvation perfect through sufferings. ¹¹ For the One who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one Father.^e That is why He is not ashamed to call them brothers, ¹² saying:

I will proclaim Your name
to My brothers;
I will sing hymns to You
in the congregation.^f

¹³ Again, I will trust in Him.^g And again, Here I am with the children God gave Me.^h

¹⁴ Now since the children have flesh and blood in common, He also shared in these, so that through His death He might destroy the one holding the power of death—that is, the Devil—¹⁵ and free those who were held in slavery all their lives by the fear of death. ¹⁶ For it is clear that He does not reach out to help angels, but to help Abraham's offspring. ¹⁷ Therefore He had to be like His brothers in every way, so that He could become a merciful and faithful high priest in serviceⁱ to God, to make propitiation^j for the sins of the people. ¹⁸ For since He Himself was tested and has suffered, He is able to help those who are tested.

Our Apostle and High Priest

3 Therefore, holy brothers and companions in a heavenly calling, consider Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession; ² He was faithful to the One who appointed Him, just as Moses was in all God's^k household. ³ For Jesus^l is considered worthy of more glory than Moses, just as the builder has more honor than the house. ⁴ Now every house is built by someone, but the One who built everything is God. ⁵ Moses was faithful as a servant in all God's^k household, as a testimony to what would be said [in the future]. ⁶ But Christ was faithful as a Son over His household, whose household we are if we hold on to the courage and the confidence of our hope.^m

Warning against Unbelief

⁷ Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says:

- Today, if you hear His voice,
⁸ do not harden your hearts
as in the rebellion,
on the day of testing in the desert,
⁹ where your fathers tested Me,
tried [Me],
and saw My works ¹⁰ for 40 years.
Therefore I was provoked with this generation and said, "They always go astray
in their hearts,
and they have not known My ways."
¹¹ So I swore in My anger,
"They will not enter My rest."ⁿ

that none of you is hardened by sin's deception.¹⁴ For we have become companions of the •Messiah if we hold firmly until the end the reality^a that we had at the start.¹⁵ As it is said:

Today, if you hear His voice,
do not harden your hearts
as in the rebellion.^b

¹⁶ For who heard and rebelled? Wasn't it really all who came out of Egypt under Moses?¹⁷ And with whom was He "provoked for 40 years"? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the desert? ¹⁸ And to whom did He "swear that they would not enter His rest," if not those who disobeyed? ¹⁹ So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief.

The Promised Rest

4 Therefore, while the promise remains of entering His rest, let us fear so that none of you should miss it.^c ² For we also have received the good news just as they did; but the message they heard did not benefit them, since they were not united with those who heard it in faith^d ³ (for we who have believed enter the rest), in keeping with what^e He has said:

So I swore in My anger,
they will not enter My rest.^f

And yet His works have been finished since the foundation of the world, ⁴ for somewhere He has spoken about the seventh day in this way:

And on the seventh day
God rested from all His works.^g

⁵ Again, in that passage [He says], They will never enter My rest.^f ⁶ Since it remains for some to enter it, and those who formerly received the good news did not enter because of disobedience, ⁷ again, He specifies a certain day—today—speaking through David after such a long time, as previously stated:

Today if you hear His voice,
do not harden your hearts.^h

⁸ For if Joshua had given them rest, He would not have spoken later about another day. ⁹ A Sabbath rest remains, therefore, for God's people. ¹⁰ For the person who has entered His rest has rested from his own works, just as God did from His. ¹¹ Let us then make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one will fall into the same pattern of disobedience.

¹² For the word of God is living and effective and sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating as far as to divide soul, spirit, joints, and marrow; it is a judge of the ideas and thoughts of the heart. ¹³ No creature is hidden from Him, but all things are naked and exposed to the eyes of Him to whom we must give an account.

Our Great High Priest

¹⁴ Therefore since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens—Jesus the Son of God—let us hold fast to the confession. ¹⁵ For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but One who has been tested in every way as we are, yet without sin. ¹⁶ Therefore let us approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us at the proper time.

The Messiah, a High Priest

5 For every high priest taken from men is appointed in serviceⁱ to God for the people, to offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. ² He is able to deal gently with those who are ignorant and are going astray, since he himself is also subject to weakness. ³ Because of this, he must make a sin offering for himself as well as for the people. ⁴ No one takes this honor on himself; instead, a person is called by God, just as Aaron was. ⁵ In the same way, the •Messiah did not exalt Himself to become a high priest, but the One who said to Him, You are My Son; today I have become Your Father,^j ⁶ also said in another passage, You are a priest forever in the order of Melchizedek.^k

⁷ During His earthly life,^l He offered prayers and appeals, with loud cries and tears, to the One who was able to save Him from death, and He was heard because of His reverence. ⁸ Though a Son, He learned obedience through what He suffered. ⁹ After He was perfected, He became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey Him, ¹⁰ and He was declared by God a high priest "in the order of Melchizedek."

The Problem of Immaturity

¹¹ We have a great deal to say about this, and it's difficult to explain, since you have become

^a3:14 Or confidence ^b3:15 Ps 95:7–8 ^c4:1 Or should seem to miss it ^d4:2 Other mss read since it was not united by faith in those who heard ^e4:3 Or rest, just as ^f4:3,5 Ps 95:11 ^g4:4 Gn 2:2 ^h4:7 Ps 95:7–8 ⁱ5:1 Lit things ^j5:5 Ps 2:7 ^k5:6 Ps 110:4; Gn 14:18–20 ^l5:7 Lit In the days of His flesh

slow to understand. ¹² For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you again the basic principles of God's revelation. You need milk, not solid food. ¹³ Now everyone who lives on milk is inexperienced with the message about righteousness, because he is an infant. ¹⁴ But solid food is for the mature—for those whose senses have been trained to distinguish between good and evil.

Warning against Regression

6 Therefore, leaving the elementary message about the •Messiah, let us go on to maturity, not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, faith in God, ² teaching about ritual washings,^a laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment. ³ And we will do this if God permits.

⁴ For it is impossible to renew to repentance those who were once enlightened, who tasted the heavenly gift, became companions with the Holy Spirit, ⁵ tasted God's good word and the powers of the coming age, ⁶ and who have fallen away, because,^b to their own harm, they are recrucifying the Son of God and holding Him up to contempt. ⁷ For ground that has drunk the rain that has often fallen on it, and that produces vegetation useful to those it is cultivated for, receives a blessing from God. ⁸ But if it produces thorns and thistles, it is worthless and about to be cursed, and will be burned at the end.

⁹ Even though we are speaking this way, dear friends, in your case we are confident of the better things connected with salvation. ¹⁰ For God is not unjust; He will not forget your work and the love^c you showed for His name when you served the saints—and you continue to serve them. ¹¹ Now we want each of you to demonstrate the same diligence for the final realization of your hope, ¹² so that you won't become lazy, but imitators of those who inherit the promises through faith and perseverance.

Inheriting the Promise

¹³ For when God made a promise to Abraham, since He had no one greater to swear by, He swore by Himself:

¹⁴ I will most certainly bless you, and I will greatly multiply you.^d

¹⁵ And so, after waiting patiently, Abraham^e obtained the promise. ¹⁶ For men swear by something greater than themselves, and for them a confirming oath ends every dispute. ¹⁷ Because God wanted to show His unchangeable purpose even more clearly to the heirs of the promise, He guaranteed it with an oath, ¹⁸ so that through two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to seize the hope set before us. ¹⁹ We have this [hope]—like a sure and firm anchor of the soul—that enters the inner sanctuary behind the curtain. ²⁰ Jesus has entered there on our behalf as a forerunner, because He has become a “high priest forever in the order of Melchizedek.”

The Greatness of Melchizedek

7 For this Melchizedek—

King of Salem, priest of the Most High God, who met Abraham and blessed him as he returned from defeating the kings,

² and Abraham gave him a tenth of everything;

first, his name means

“king of righteousness,”

then also, “king of Salem,”

meaning “king of peace”;

³ without father, mother, or genealogy, having neither beginning of days

nor end of life,

but resembling the Son of God—

remains a priest forever.

⁴ Now consider how great this man was, to whom even Abraham the patriarch gave a tenth of the plunder! ⁵ The sons of Levi who receive the priestly office have a commandment according to the law to collect a tenth from the people—that is, from their brothers—though they have [also] descended from Abraham.^f ⁶ But one without this^g lineage collected tithes from Abraham and blessed the one who had the promises. ⁷ Without a doubt,^h the inferior is blessed by the superior. ⁸ In the one case, men who will die receive tithes; but in the other case, [Scripture] testifies that he lives. ⁹ And in a sense Levi himself, who receives tithes, has paid tithes through Abraham, ¹⁰ for he was still within his forefatherⁱ when Melchizedek met him.

A Superior Priesthood

¹¹ If, then, perfection came through the Levi-

tical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need was there for another priest to arise in the order of Melchizedek, and not to be described as being in the order of Aaron? ¹² For when there is a change of the priesthood, there must be a change of law as well. ¹³ For the One about whom these things are said belonged to a different tribe, from which no one has served at the altar. ¹⁴ Now it is evident that our Lord came from Judah, and about that tribe Moses said nothing concerning priests.

¹⁵ And this becomes clearer if another priest like Melchizedek arises, ¹⁶ who doesn't become a [priest] based on a legal command concerning physical^a descent but based on the power of an indestructible life. ¹⁷ For it has been testified:

You are a priest forever in the order of Melchizedek.^b

¹⁸ So the previous commandment is annulled because it was weak and unprofitable ¹⁹ (for the law perfected nothing), but a better hope is introduced, through which we draw near to God.

²⁰ None of this [happened] without an oath. For others became priests without an oath, ²¹ but He with an oath made by the One who said to Him:

The Lord has sworn,
and He will not change His mind,
You are a priest forever.^b

²² So Jesus has also become the guarantee of a better covenant.

²³ Now many have become [Levitical] priests, since they are prevented by death from remaining in office. ²⁴ But because He remains forever, He holds His priesthood permanently. ²⁵ Therefore He is always able to save^c those who come to God through Him, since He always lives to intercede for them.

²⁶ For this is the kind of high priest we need: holy, innocent, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. ²⁷ He doesn't need to offer sacrifices every day, as high priests do—first for their own sins, then for those of the people. He did this once for all when He offered Himself. ²⁸ For the law appoints as high priests men who are weak, but the promise of the oath, which came after the law, [appoints] a Son, who has been perfected forever.

A Heavenly Priesthood

8 Now the main point of what is being said is this: we have this kind of high priest, who sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, ² a minister of the sanctuary and the true tabernacle, which the Lord set up, and not man. ³ For every high priest is appointed to offer gifts and sacrifices; therefore it was necessary for this [priest] also to have something to offer. ⁴ Now if He were on earth, He wouldn't be a priest, since there are those^d offering the gifts prescribed by the law. ⁵ These serve as a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, as Moses was warned when he was about to complete the tabernacle. For He said, Be careful that you make everything according to the pattern that was shown to you on the mountain.^e ⁶ But Jesus^f has now obtained a superior ministry, and to that degree He is the mediator of a better covenant, which has been legally enacted on better promises.

A Superior Covenant

⁷ For if that first [covenant] had been faultless, no opportunity would have been sought for a second one. ⁸ But finding fault with His people,^g He says:^h

"Look, the days are coming,"

says the Lord,

"when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel

and with the house of Judah—

⁹ not like the covenant

that I made with their fathers

on the day I took them by their hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt.

Because they did not continue in My covenant,

I disregarded them," says the Lord.

¹⁰ "But this is the covenant

that I will make with the house of Israel

after those days," says the Lord:

"I will put My laws into their minds, and I will write them on their hearts,

and I will be their God,

and they will be My people.

¹¹ And each person will not teach

to their wrongdoing,
and I will never again remember their sins.”^{a b}

¹³ By saying, a new [covenant], He has declared that the first is old. And what is old and aging is about to disappear.

Old Covenant Ministry

9 Now the first [covenant] also had regulations for ministry and an earthly sanctuary. ² For a tabernacle was set up; and in the first room, which is called “the holy place,” were the lampstand, the table, and the presentation loaves. ³ Behind the second curtain, the tabernacle was called “the holy of holies.” ⁴ It contained the gold altar of incense and the ark of the covenant, covered with gold on all sides, in which there was a gold jar containing the manna, Aaron’s rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant. ⁵ The cherubim of glory were above it overshadowing the mercy seat. It is not possible to speak about these things in detail right now.

⁶ These things having been set up this way, the priests enter the first room repeatedly, performing their ministry. ⁷ But the high priest alone enters the second room, and that only once a year, and never without blood, which he offers for himself and for the sins of the people committed in ignorance. ⁸ The Holy Spirit was making it clear that the way into the holy of holies had not yet been disclosed while the first tabernacle was still standing. ⁹ This is a symbol for the present time, during which gifts and sacrifices are offered that cannot perfect the worshiper’s conscience. ¹⁰ They are physical regulations and only deal with food, drink, and various washings imposed until the time of restoration.

¹¹ Now the •Messiah has appeared, high priest of the good things that have come.^c In the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made with hands (that is, not of this creation), ¹² He entered the holy of holies once for all, not by the blood of goats and calves, but by His own blood, having obtained eternal redemption. ¹³ For if the blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who are defiled, sanctify for the purification of the flesh, ¹⁴ how much more will the blood of the Messiah, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God, cleanse our^d consciences from dead works to serve the living God?

¹⁵ Therefore He is the mediator of a new covenant,^e so that those who are called might receive the promise of the eternal inheritance, because a death has taken place for redemption from the transgressions [committed] under the first covenant. ¹⁶ Where a will exists, the death of the testator must be established. ¹⁷ For a will is valid only when people die, since it is never in force while the testator is living. ¹⁸ That is why even the first covenant was inaugurated with blood. ¹⁹ For when every commandment had been proclaimed by Moses to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and goats, along with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled the scroll itself and all the people, ²⁰ saying, This is the blood of the covenant that God has commanded for you.^f

²³ Therefore it was necessary for the copies of the things in the heavens to be purified with these [sacrifices], but the heavenly things themselves [to be purified] with better sacrifices than these. ²⁴ For the Messiah did not enter a sanctuary made with hands (only a model^g of the true one) but into heaven itself, that He might now appear in the presence of God for us. ²⁵ He did not do this to offer Himself many times, as the high priest enters the sanctuary yearly with the blood of another. ²⁶ Otherwise, He would have had to suffer many times since the foundation of the world. But now He has appeared one time, at the end of the ages, for the removal of sin by the sacrifice of Himself. ²⁷ And just as it is appointed for people to die once—and after this, judgment—²⁸ so also the Messiah, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but^h to bring salvation to those who are waiting for Him.

The Perfect Sacrifice

10 Since the law has [only] a shadow of the good things to come, and not the actual

^a8:12 Other mss add and their lawless deeds ^b8:8–12 Jr 31:31–34 ^c9:11 Other mss read that are to come

form of those realities, it can never perfect the worshipers by the same sacrifices they continually offer year after year. ² Otherwise, wouldn't they have stopped being offered, since the worshipers, once purified, would no longer have any consciousness of sins? ³ But in the sacrifices^a there is a reminder of sins every year. ⁴ For it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

⁵ Therefore, as He was coming into the world, He said:

You did not want sacrifice
and offering,
but You prepared a body for Me.

⁶ You did not delight in whole burnt offerings and sin offerings.

⁷ Then I said, "See, I have come—
it is written about Me
in the volume of the scroll—
to do Your will, O God!"^b

⁸ After He says above, You did not desire or delight in sacrifices and offerings, whole burnt offerings and sin offerings, (which are offered according to the law), ⁹ He then says, See, I have come to do Your will.^c He takes away the first to establish the second. ¹⁰ By this will, we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once and for all.

¹¹ Now every priest stands day after day ministering and offering time after time the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. ¹² But this man, after offering one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down at the right hand of God. ¹³ He is now waiting until His enemies are made His footstool. ¹⁴ For by one offering He has perfected forever those who are sanctified. ¹⁵ The Holy Spirit also testifies to us about this. For after He had said:

¹⁶ This is the covenant that I will make
with them
after those days, says the Lord:
I will put My laws on their hearts,
and I will write them on their minds,

¹⁷ [He adds:]

I will never again remember their sins and their lawless acts.^d

¹⁸ Now where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer an offering for sin.

Exhortations to Godliness

¹⁹ Therefore, brothers, since we have boldness to enter the sanctuary through the blood of Jesus, ²⁰ by the new and living way that He has inaugurated for us, through the curtain (that is, His flesh); ²¹ and since we have a great high priest over the house of God, ²² let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, our hearts sprinkled [clean] from an evil conscience and our bodies washed in pure water. ²³ Let us hold on to the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful. ²⁴ And let us be concerned about one another in order to promote love and good works, ²⁵ not staying away from our meetings, as some habitually do, but encouraging each other, and all the more as you see the day drawing near.

Warning against Willful Sin

²⁶ For if we deliberately sin after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, ²⁷ but a terrifying expectation of judgment, and the fury of a fire about to consume the adversaries. ²⁸ If anyone disregards Moses' law, he dies without mercy, based on the testimony of two or three witnesses. ²⁹ How much worse punishment, do you think one will deserve who has trampled on the Son of God, regarded as profane^e the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and insulted the Spirit of grace? ³⁰ For we know the One who has said, Vengeance belongs to Me, I will repay,^f g and again, The Lord will judge His people.^h ³¹ It is a terrifying thing to fall into the hands of the living God!

³² Remember the earlier days when, after you had been enlightened, you endured a hard struggle with sufferings. ³³ Sometimes you were publicly exposed to taunts and afflictions, and at other times you were companions of those who were treated that way. ³⁴ For you sympathized with the prisonersⁱ and accepted with joy the confiscation of your possessions, knowing that you yourselves have a better and enduring possession.^j ³⁵ So don't throw away your confidence, which has a great reward. ³⁶ For you need endurance, so that after you have done God's will, you may receive what was promised.

39 But we are not those who draw back and are destroyed, but those who have faith and obtain life.

Heroes of Faith

11 Now faith is the reality^c of what is hoped for, the proof^d of what is not seen. ² For by it our ancestors were approved.

³ By faith we understand that the universe was^e created by the word^f of God, so that what is seen has been made from things that are not visible.

⁴ By faith Abel offered to God a better sacrifice than Cain [did]. By this he was approved as a righteous man, because God approved his gifts, and even though he is dead, he still speaks through this.

⁵ By faith, Enoch was taken away so that he did not experience death, and he was not to be found because God took him away.^g For prior to his transformation he was approved, having pleased God. ⁶ Now without faith it is impossible to please God, for the one who draws near to Him must believe that He exists and rewards those who seek Him.

⁸ By faith Abraham, when he was called, obeyed and went out to a place he was going to receive as an inheritance; he went out, not knowing where he was going. ⁹ By faith he stayed as a foreigner in the land of promise, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, co-heirs of the same promise. ¹⁰ For he was looking forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God.

¹¹ By faith even Sarah herself, when she was barren, received power to conceive offspring, even though she was past the age, since she^h considered that the One who had promised was faithful. ¹² And therefore from one man—in fact, from one as good as dead—came offspring as numerous as the stars of heaven and as innumerable as the grains of sand by the seashore.

¹³ These all died in faith without having received the promises, but they saw them from a distance, greeted them, and confessed that they were foreigners and temporary residents on the earth. ¹⁴ Now those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. ¹⁵ If they had been remembering that land they came from, they would have had opportunity to return. ¹⁶ But they now aspire to a better land—a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them.

¹⁷ By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac; he who had received the promises was offering up his unique son, ¹⁸ about whom it had been said, In Isaac your seed will be called.ⁱ ¹⁹ He considered God to be able even to raise someone from the dead, from which he also got him back as an illustration.^j

²⁰ By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come. ²¹ By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and, he worshiped, leaning on the top of his staff.^k ²² By faith Joseph, as he was nearing the end of his life, mentioned the exodus of the sons of Israel and gave instructions concerning his bones.

²³ By faith Moses, after he was born, was hidden by his parents for three months, because they saw that the child was beautiful, and they didn't fear the king's edict. ²⁴ By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter ²⁵ and chose to suffer with the people of God rather than to enjoy the short-lived pleasure of sin. ²⁶ For he considered reproach for the sake of the •Messiah to be greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt, since his attention was on the reward.

³⁰ By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after being encircled for seven days. ³¹ By faith Rahab the prostitute received the spies in peace and didn't perish with those who disobeyed.

³⁹ All these were approved through their faith, but they did not receive what was promised, ⁴⁰ since God had provided something better for us, so that they would not be made perfect without us.

The Call to Endurance

12 Therefore since we also have such a large cloud of witnesses surrounding us, let us lay aside every weight and the sin that so easily ensnares us, and run with endurance the race that lies before us, ² keeping our eyes on Jesus,^b the source and perfecter^c of our faith, who for the joy that lay before Him^d endured a cross and despised the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of God's throne.

Fatherly Discipline

³ For consider Him who endured such hostility from sinners against Himself, so that you won't grow weary and lose heart. ⁴ In struggling against sin, you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. ⁵ And you have forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons:

My son, do not take the Lord's discipline lightly, or faint when you are reprov-
ed by Him;

⁶ for the Lord disciplines the one
He loves,

and punishes every son whom He receives.^e

⁷ Endure it as discipline: God is dealing with you as sons. For what son is there whom a father does not discipline? ⁸ But if you are without discipline—which all^f receive^g—then you are illegitimate children and not sons. ⁹ Furthermore, we had natural fathers discipline us, and we respected them. Shouldn't we submit even more to the Father of spirits and live? ¹⁰ For they disciplined us for a short time based on what seemed good to them, but He does it for our benefit, so that we can share His holiness. ¹¹ No discipline seems enjoyable at the time, but painful. Later on, however, it yields the fruit of peace and righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

¹² Therefore strengthen your tired hands and weakened knees, ¹³ and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be dislocated,^h but healed instead.

Warning against Rejecting God's Grace

¹⁴ Pursue peace with everyone, and holiness—without it no one will see the Lord. ¹⁵ See to it that no one falls short of the grace of God and that no root of bitterness springs up, causing trouble and by it, defiling many. ¹⁶ And see that there isn't any immoral or irreverent person like Esau, who sold his birthright in exchange for one meal. ¹⁷ For you know that later, when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected because he didn't find any opportunity for repentance, though he sought it with tears.

¹⁸ For you have not come to what could be touched, to a blazing fire, to darkness, gloom, and storm, ¹⁹ to the blast of a trumpet, and the sound of words. (Those who heard it begged that not another word be spoken to them, ²⁰ for they could not bear what was commanded: And if even an animal touches the mountain, it must be stoned!ⁱ ²¹ And the appearance was so terrifying that Moses said, I am terrified and trembling.)^j ²² Instead, you have come to Mount Zion, to the city of the living God (the heavenly Jerusalem), to myriads of angels in festive gathering, ²³ to the assembly of the firstborn whose names have been written^k in heaven, to God who is the judge of all, to the spirits of righteous people made perfect, ²⁴ to Jesus (mediator of a new covenant), and to the sprinkled blood, which says better things than the [blood] of Abel.

²⁵ See that you do not reject the One who speaks; for if they did not escape when they rejected Him who warned them on earth, even less will we if we turn away from Him who warns us from heaven. ²⁶ His voice shook the earth at that time, but now He has promised, Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also heaven.^a ²⁷ Now this expression, “Yet once more,” indicates the removal of what can be shaken—that is, created things—so that what is not shaken might remain. ²⁸ Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us hold on to grace.^b By it, we may serve God acceptably, with reverence and awe; ²⁹ for our God is a consuming fire.

Final Exhortations

13 Let brotherly love continue. ² Don't neglect to show hospitality, for by doing this some have welcomed angels as guests without knowing it. ³ Remember the prisoners, as though you were in prison with them, and the mistreated, as though you yourselves were suffering bodily.^c ⁴ Marriage must be respected by all, and the marriage bed kept undefiled, because God will judge immoral people and adulterers. ⁵ Your life should be free from the love of money. Be satisfied with what you have, for He Himself has said, I will never leave you or forsake you.^d ⁶ Therefore, we may boldly say:

The Lord is my helper;

I will not be afraid.

What can man do to me?^e

⁷ Remember your leaders who have spoken God's word to you. As you carefully observe the outcome of their lives, imitate their faith. ⁸ Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. ⁹ Don't be led astray by various kinds of strange teachings; for it is good for the heart to be established by grace and not by foods, since those involved in them have not benefited. ¹⁰ We have an altar from which those who serve the tabernacle do not have a right to eat. ¹¹ For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the holy of holies by the high priest as a sin offering are burned outside the camp. ¹² Therefore Jesus also suffered outside the gate, so that He might sanctify^f the people by His own blood. ¹³ Let us then go to Him outside the camp, bearing His disgrace. ¹⁴ For here we do not have an enduring city; instead, we seek the one to come. ¹⁵ Therefore, through Him let us continually offer up to God a sacrifice of praise, that is, the fruit of our lips that confess His name. ¹⁶ Don't neglect to do good and to share, for God is pleased with such sacrifices. ¹⁷ Obey your leaders^g and submit to them, for they keep watch over your souls as those who will give an account, so that they can do this with joy and not with grief, for that would be unprofitable for you. ¹⁸ Pray for us; for we are convinced that we have a clear conscience, wanting to conduct ourselves honorably in everything. ¹⁹ And I especially urge you to pray^h that I may be restored to you very soon.

Benediction and Farewell

²⁰ Now may the God of peace, who brought up from the dead our Lord Jesus—the great Shepherd of the sheep—with the blood of the everlasting covenant, ²¹ equipⁱ you with all that is good to do His will, working in us what is pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever.^j •Amen.

²² Brothers, I urge you to receive this word of exhortation, for I have written to you in few words. ²³ Be aware that our brother Timothy has been released. If he comes soon enough, he will be with me when I see you. ²⁴ Greet all your leaders and all the saints. Those who are from Italy greet you. ²⁵ Grace be with all of you.

JAMES

Greeting

1 James, a slave of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ:

To the 12 tribes in the Dispersion.
Greetings.

Trials and Maturity

² Consider it a great joy, my brothers, whenever you experience various trials, ³ knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance. ⁴ But endurance must do its complete work, so that you may be mature and complete, lacking nothing.

⁵ Now if any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God, who gives to all generously and without criticizing, and it will be given to him. ⁶ But let him ask in faith without doubting. For the doubter is like the surging sea, driven and tossed by the wind. ⁷ That person should not expect to receive anything from the Lord. ⁸ An indecisive man is unstable in all his ways.

¹² Blessed is a man who endures trials,^a because when he passes the test he will receive the crown of life that He^b has promised to those who love Him.

¹³ No one undergoing a trial should say, “I am being tempted by God.” For God is not tempted by evil,^c and He Himself doesn’t tempt anyone. ¹⁴ But each person is tempted when he is drawn away and enticed by his own evil desires. ¹⁵ Then after desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin, and when sin is fully grown, it gives birth to death.

¹⁶ Don’t be deceived, my dearly loved brothers. ¹⁷ Every generous act and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights; with Him there is no variation or shadow cast by turning. ¹⁸ By His own choice, He gave us a new birth by the message of truth^d so that we would be the •firstfruits of His creatures.

Hearing and Doing the Word

¹⁹ My dearly loved brothers, understand this: everyone must be quick to hear, slow to speak, and slow to anger, ²⁰ for man’s anger does not accomplish God’s righteousness. ²¹ Therefore, ridding yourselves of all moral filth and evil excess, humbly receive the implanted word, which is able to save you.^e

²⁶ If anyone^g thinks he is religious, without controlling his tongue but deceiving his heart, his religion is useless. ²⁷ Pure and undefiled religion before our^h God and Father is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

The Sin of Favoritism

2 My brothers, hold your faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ without showing favoritism. ² For suppose a man comes into your meeting wearing a gold ring, dressed in fine clothes, and a poor man dressed in dirty clothes also comes in. ³ If you look with favor on the man wearing the fine clothes so that you say, “Sit here in a good place,” and yet you say to the poor man, “Stand over there,” or, “Sit here on the floor by my footstool,” ⁴ haven’t you discriminated among yourselves and become judges with evil thoughts?

⁵ Listen, my dear brothers: Didn’t God choose the poor in this world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that He has promised to those who love Him? ⁶ Yet you dishonored that poor man. Don’t the rich oppress you and drag you into the courts? ⁷ Don’t they blaspheme the noble name that you bear?

⁸ If you really carry out the royal law prescribed in Scripture, Love your neighbor as yourself,ⁱ you are doing well. ⁹ But if you show

^a1:12 Lit trial, used as a collective ^b1:12 Other mss read that the Lord ^c1:13 Or evil persons, or evil things

^d1:18 message of truth = the gospel ^e1:21 Lit save your souls ^f1:23 Lit at the face of his birth ^g1:26 Other mss add among you ^h1:27 Or before the ⁱ2:8 Lv 19:18

favoritism, you commit sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. ¹⁰ For whoever keeps the entire law, yet fails in one point, is guilty of [breaking it] all. ¹¹ For He who said, Do not commit adultery,^a also said, Do not murder.^b So if you do not commit adultery, but you do murder, you are a lawbreaker.

¹² Speak and act as those who will be judged by the law of freedom. ¹³ For judgment is without mercy to the one who hasn't shown mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

Faith and Works

¹⁴ What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith, but does not have works? Can his faith^c save him?

¹⁵ If a brother or sister is without clothes and lacks daily food, ¹⁶ and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, keep warm, and eat well," but you don't give them what the body needs, what good is it? ¹⁷ In the same way faith, if it doesn't have works, is dead by itself.

¹⁸ But someone will say, "You have faith, and I have works."^d Show me your faith without works, and I will show you faith from my works.^e ¹⁹ You believe that God is one; you do well. The demons also believe—and they shudder.

²⁰ Foolish man! Are you willing to learn that faith without works is useless? ²¹ Wasn't Abraham our father justified by works when he offered Isaac his son on the altar? ²² You see that faith was active together with his works, and by works, faith was perfected. ²³ So the Scripture was fulfilled that says, Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him for righteousness,^f and he was called God's friend. ²⁴ You see that a man is justified by works and not by faith alone. ²⁵ And in the same way, wasn't Rahab the prostitute also justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out by a different route? ²⁶ For just as the body without the spirit is dead, so also faith without works is dead.

Controlling the Tongue

3 Not many should become teachers, my brothers, knowing that we will receive a stricter judgment; ² for we all stumble in many ways. If anyone does not stumble in what he says,^g he is a mature man who is also able to control his whole body.^h

³ Now when we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we also guide the whole animal.ⁱ ⁴ And consider ships: though very large and driven by fierce winds, they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. ⁵ So too, though the tongue is a small part [of the body], it boasts great things. Consider how large a forest a small fire ignites. ⁶ And the tongue is a fire. The tongue, a world of unrighteousness, is placed among the parts of our [bodies]; it pollutes the whole body, sets the course of life on fire, and is set on fire by •hell.

⁷ For every creature—animal or bird, reptile or fish—is tamed and has been tamed by man, ⁸ but no man can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison. ⁹ With it we bless our Lord and Father, and with it we curse men who are made in God's likeness. ¹⁰ Out of the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things should not be this way. ¹¹ Does a spring pour out sweet and bitter water from the same opening? ¹² Can a fig tree produce olives, my brothers, or a grapevine [produce] figs? Neither can a saltwater spring yield fresh water.

The Wisdom from Above

¹³ Who is wise and understanding among you? He should show his works by good conduct with wisdom's gentleness. ¹⁴ But if you have bitter envy and selfish ambition in your heart, don't brag and lie in defiance of the truth. ¹⁵ Such wisdom does not come down from above, but is earthly, sensual, demonic. ¹⁶ For where envy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every kind of evil. ¹⁷ But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peace-loving, gentle, compliant, full of mercy and good fruits, without favoritism and hypocrisy. ¹⁸ And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

Proud or Humble

4 What is the source of the wars and the fights among you? Don't they come from the cravings that are at war within you?^k ² You desire and do not have. You murder and covet and cannot obtain. You fight and war. You do not have because you do not ask. ³ You ask and don't receive because you ask wrongly, so that you may spend it on your desires for pleasure.

⁴ Adulteresses!^l Do you not know that friendship with the world is hostility toward God? So

^a2:11 Ex 20:14; Dt 5:18 ^b2:11 Ex 20:13; Dt 5:17 ^c2:14 Or Can faith, or Can that faith, or Can such faith ^d2:18 The quotation may end here or after v. 18b or v. 19. ^e2:18 Other mss read Show me your faith from your works, and from my works I will show you my faith. ^f2:23 Gn 15:6 ^g3:2 Lit in word ^h3:2 Lit to bridle the whole body ⁱ3:3 Lit whole body ^j3:9 Or bless the ^k4:1 Lit war in your members ^l4:4 Other mss read Adulterers and adulteresses

whoever wants to be the world's friend becomes God's enemy. ⁵Or do you think it's without reason the Scripture says that the Spirit He has caused to live in us yearns jealously?^a

⁶ But He gives greater grace. Therefore He says:

God resists the proud,
but gives grace to the humble.^b

⁷ Therefore, submit to God. But resist the Devil, and he will flee from you. ⁸ Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, sinners, and purify your hearts, double-minded people! ⁹ Be miserable and mourn and weep. Your laughter must change to mourning and your joy to sorrow. ¹⁰ Humble yourselves before the Lord, and He will exalt you.

¹¹ Don't criticize one another, brothers. He who criticizes a brother or judges his brother criticizes the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge. ¹² There is one lawgiver and judge^c who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you to judge your neighbor?

Our Will and His Will

¹³ Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will travel to such and such a city and spend a year there and do business and make a profit." ¹⁴ You don't even know what tomorrow will bring—what your life will be! For you are a bit of smoke that appears for a little while, then vanishes.

¹⁵ Instead, you should say, "If the Lord wills, we will live and do this or that." ¹⁶ But as it is, you boast in your arrogance. All such boasting is evil. ¹⁷ So, for the person who knows to do good and doesn't do it, it is a sin.

Warning to the Rich

5 Come now, you rich people! Weep and wail over the miseries that are coming on you. ² Your wealth is ruined: your clothes are moth-eaten; ³ your silver and gold are corroded, and their corrosion will be a witness against you and will eat your flesh like fire. You stored up treasure in the last days! ⁴ Look! The pay that you withheld from the workers who reaped your fields cries out, and the outcry of the harvesters has reached the ears of the Lord of Hosts.^d ⁵ You have lived luxuriously on the land and have indulged yourselves. You have fatted your hearts for^e the day of slaughter. ⁶ You have condemned—you have murdered—the righteous man; he does not resist you.

Waiting for the Lord

⁷ Therefore, brothers, be patient until the Lord's coming. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth and is patient with it until it receives the early and the late rains. ⁸ You also must be patient. Strengthen your hearts, because the Lord's coming is near.

⁹ Brothers, do not complain about one another, so that you will not be judged. Look, the judge stands at the door!

¹⁰ Brothers, take the prophets who spoke in the Lord's name as an example of suffering and patience. ¹¹ See, we count as blessed those who have endured.^f You have heard of Job's endurance and have seen the outcome from the Lord: the Lord is very compassionate and merciful.

Truthful Speech

¹² Now above all, my brothers, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or with any other oath. Your "yes" must be "yes," and your "no" must be "no," so that you won't fall under judgment.^g

Effective Prayer

¹³ Is anyone among you suffering? He should pray. Is anyone cheerful? He should sing praises.

¹⁴ Is anyone among you sick? He should call for the elders of the church, and they should pray over him after anointing him with olive oil in the name of the Lord. ¹⁵ The prayer of faith will save the sick person, and the Lord will raise him up; and if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven.

¹⁶ Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The intense prayer of the righteous is very powerful. ¹⁷ Elijah was a man with a nature like ours; yet he prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the land. ¹⁸ Then he prayed again, and the sky gave rain and the land produced its fruit.

¹⁹ My brothers, if any among you strays from the truth, and someone turns him back, ²⁰ he should know that whoever turns a sinner from the error of his way will save him •life from death and cover a multitude of sins.

^a4:5 Or He who caused the Spirit to live in us yearns jealously, or the spirit He caused to live in us yearns jealously, or He jealously yearns for the Spirit He made to live in us ^b4:6 Pr 3:34 ^c4:12 Other mss omit and judge ^d5:4 Gk Sabaoth; this word is a transliteration of the Hb word for Hosts, or Armies. ^e5:5 Or hearts in ^f5:11 Or have persevered ^g5:12 Other mss read fall into hypocrisy

1 PETER

Greeting

1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ:
To the temporary residents of the Dispersion in the provinces of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, chosen ² according to the foreknowledge of God the Father and set apart by the Spirit for obedience and [for the] sprinkling with the blood of Jesus Christ.

May grace and peace be multiplied to you.

A Living Hope

³ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. According to His great mercy, He has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, ⁴ and into an inheritance that is imperishable, uncorrupted, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, ⁵ who are being protected by God's power through faith for a salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time. ⁶ You rejoice in this,^a though now for a short time you have had to be distressed by various trials ⁷ so that the genuineness of your faith—more valuable than gold, which perishes though refined by fire—may result in^b praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. ⁸ You love Him, though you have not seen Him. And though not seeing Him now, you believe in Him and rejoice with inexpressible and glorious joy, ⁹ because you are receiving the goal of your^c faith, the salvation of your souls.^d

¹⁰ Concerning this salvation, the prophets who prophesied about the grace that would come to you searched and carefully investigated. ¹¹ They inquired into what time or what circumstances^e the Spirit of Christ within them was indicating when He testified in advance to the messianic sufferings^f and the glories that would follow.^g ¹² It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves but you concerning things that have now been announced to you through those who preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven. Angels desire to look into these things.

A Call to Holy Living

¹³ Therefore, get your minds ready for action,^h being self-disciplined, and set your hope completely on the grace to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. ¹⁴ As obedient children, do not be conformed to the desires of your former ignorance ¹⁵ but, as the One who called you is holy, you also are to be holy in all your conduct; ¹⁶ for it is written, Be holy, because I am holy.ⁱ

¹⁷ And if you address as Father the One who judges impartially based on each one's work, you are to conduct yourselves in reverence during this time of temporary residence. ¹⁸ For you know that you were redeemed from your empty way of life inherited from the fathers, not with perishable things, like silver or gold, ¹⁹ but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without defect or blemish. ²⁰ He was destined^j before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of the times for you ²¹ who through Him are believers in God, who raised Him from the dead and gave Him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

²² By obedience to the truth,^k having purified yourselves^l for sincere love of the brothers, love one another earnestly from a pure^m heart, ²³ since you have been born again—not of perishable seed but of imperishable—through the living and enduring word of God. ²⁴ For

All flesh is like grass, and all its glory like a flower
of the grass.

The grass withers, and the flower drops off,

²⁵ but the word of the Lord
endures forever.ⁿ

And this is the word that was preached as the gospel to you.

The Living Stone and a Holy People

2 So rid yourselves of all wickedness, all deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and all slander. ² Like newborn infants, desire the unadulterated spiritual milk, so that you may grow by it in [your] salvation,^o ³ since you have tasted that the Lord is good.^p ⁴ Coming to Him, a living stone—rejected by men but chosen and valuable to God—⁵ you yourselves, as living stones, are being built into a spiritual house for a holy priesthood to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. ⁶ For it stands in Scripture:

Look! I lay a stone in Zion,
a chosen and valuable cornerstone,
and the one who believes in Him
will never be put to shame!^{a b}

⁷ So the honor is for you who believe; but for the unbelieving,

The stone that the builders rejected—
this One has become the cornerstone,^c

and

8 A stone that causes men to stumble,^d and a rock that trips them up.^{e f}

They stumble by disobeying the message; they were destined for this.

9 But you are a chosen race,^{g h}

for His possession,^k
so that you may proclaim the praises^{l m} of the One who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light.

10 Once you were not a people,
but now you are God's people;
you had not received mercy,
but now you have received mercy.

A Call to Good Works

¹¹ Dear friends, I urge you as aliens and temporary residents to abstain from fleshly desires that war against you.ⁿ ¹² Conduct yourselves honorably among the Gentiles,^o so that in a case where they speak against you as those who do evil, they may, by observing your good works, glorify God in a day of visitation.^p

¹³ Submit to every human institution because of the Lord, whether to the Emperor^q as the supreme authority, ¹⁴ or to governors as those sent out by him to punish those who do evil and to praise those who do good. ¹⁵ For it is God's will that you, by doing good, silence the ignorance of foolish people. ¹⁶ As God's slaves, [live] as free people, but don't use your freedom as a way to conceal evil. ¹⁷ Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the Emperor.^r

Submission of Slaves to Masters

¹⁸ Household slaves, submit yourselves to your masters with all respect, not only to the good and gentle but also to the cruel.^r ¹⁹ For it [brings] favor^s if, because of conscience toward God,^t someone endures grief from suffering unjustly. ²⁰ For what credit is there if you endure when you sin and are beaten? But when you do good and suffer, if you endure, it brings favor with God.

21 For you were called to this,
because Christ also suffered for you,
leaving you an example,
so that you should follow in His steps.

22 He did not commit sin,
and no deceit was found in His mouth;^u

23 when reviled, He did not revile
in return;
when suffering, He did not threaten,
but committed Himself to the One who judges justly.

24 He Himself bore our sins
in His body on the tree,
so that, having died to sins,
we might live for righteousness;
by His wounding
you have been healed.^v

25 For you were like sheep going astray,^w
but you have now returned to the shepherd and guardian^x
of your souls.

Wives and Husbands

3 Wives, in the same way, submit yourselves to your own husbands so that, even if some disobey the [Christian] message, they may be won over^y without a message by the way their wives live, ² when they observe your pure, reverent lives. ³ Your beauty should not consist of outward things [like] elaborate hairstyles and the wearing of gold ornaments^z or fine clothes;

^a2:6 Or be disappointed ^b2:6 Is 28:16 LXX ^c2:7 Ps 118:22 ^d2:8 Or a stone causing stumbling ^e2:8 Or a rock to trip over ^f2:8 Is 8:14 ^g2:9 Or chosen generation, or chosen nation ^h2:9 Is 43:20 LXX; Dt 7:6; 10:15 ⁱ2:9 Ex 19:6; 23:22 LXX; Is 61:6 ^j2:9 Ex 19:6; 23:22 LXX ^k2:9 Ex 19:5; 23:22 LXX; Dt 4:20; 7:6; Is 43:21 LXX ^l2:9 Or the mighty deeds ^m2:9 Is 42:12; 43:21 ⁿ2:11 Lit against the soul ^o2:12 Or among the nations, or among the pagans ^p2:12 A day when God intervenes in human history, either in grace or in judgment ^q2:13,17 Lit king ^r2:18 Lit crooked, or unscrupulous ^s2:19 Other mss add with God ^t2:19 Other mss read because of a good conscience ^u2:22 Is 53:9 ^v2:24 Is 53:5 ^w2:25 Is 53:6 ^x2:25 Or overseer ^y3:1 Lit may be gained ^z3:3 Lit and of putting around of gold items

⁴ instead, [it should consist of] the hidden person of the heart with the imperishable quality of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is very valuable in God's eyes. ⁵ For in the past, the holy women who hoped in God also beautified themselves in this way, submitting to their own husbands, ⁶ just as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord. You have become her children when you do good and aren't frightened by anything alarming.

⁷ Husbands, in the same way, live with your wives with understanding of their weaker nature^a yet showing them honor as co-heirs of the grace of life, so that your prayers will not be hindered.

Do No Evil

⁸ Now finally, all of you should be like-minded and sympathetic, should love believers,^b and be compassionate and humble,^c ⁹ not paying back evil for evil or insult for insult but, on the contrary, giving a blessing, since you were called for this, so that you can inherit a blessing.

- ¹⁰ For the one who wants to love life and to see good days must keep his tongue from evil and his lips from speaking deceit,
¹¹ and he must turn away from evil and do good. He must seek peace and pursue it,
¹² because the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous and His ears are open to their request. But the face of the Lord is against those who do evil.^d

Undeserved Suffering

¹³ And who will harm^e you if you are passionate for what is good?^f ¹⁴ But even if you should suffer for righteousness, you are blessed. Do not fear what they fear or be disturbed,^g ¹⁵ but set apart the •Messiah^h as Lord in your hearts, and always be ready to give a defense to anyone who asks you for a reasonⁱ for the hope that is in you. ¹⁶ However, do this with gentleness and respect, keeping your conscience clear, so that when you are accused,^k those who denounce your Christian life will be put to shame. ¹⁷ For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that should be God's will,^l than for doing evil.

- ¹⁸ For Christ also suffered for sins once for all,^m the righteous for the unrighteous,ⁿ that He might bring you^o to God, after being put to death in the fleshly realm^p but made alive in the spiritual realm.^q

¹⁹ In that state^r He also went and made a proclamation to the spirits in prison^s ²⁰ who in the past were disobedient, when God patiently waited in the days of Noah while an ark was being prepared; in it, a few—that is, eight people^t—were saved through water. ²¹ Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you (not the removal of the filth of the flesh, but the pledge^u of a good conscience toward God) through the resurrection of Jesus Christ. ²² Now that He has gone into heaven, He is at God's right hand, with angels, authorities, and powers subjected to Him.

Following Christ

4 Therefore, since Christ suffered^v in the flesh,^w arm yourselves also with the same resolve^x—because the One who suffered in the flesh^w has finished with sin^y—² in order to live the remaining time in the flesh,^w no longer for human desires,^z but for God's will. ³ For there has already been enough time spent in doing the will of the pagans:^{aa} carrying on in unrestrained behavior, evil desires, drunkenness, orgies, carousing, and lawless idolatry. ⁴ In regard to this, they are surprised that you don't plunge with them into the same flood^a of dissipation—and they slander you. ⁵ They will give an account to the One who stands ready to judge the living and the dead. ⁶ For this reason the gospel was also preached to [those who are now] dead, so that, although they might be judged by men in the fleshly realm,^b they might live by God in the spiritual realm.^c

End-Time Ethics

⁷ Now the end of all things is near; therefore, be clear-headed and disciplined for prayer. ⁸ Above all, keep your love for one another at full strength, since love covers a multitude of sins.^d ⁹ Be hospitable to one another without complaining. ¹⁰ Based on the gift they have received, everyone should use it to serve others, as good managers of the varied grace of God. ¹¹ If anyone speaks, [his speech should be] like the oracles of God; if anyone serves, [his service should be] from the strength God provides, so that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ. To Him belong the glory and the power forever and ever. •Amen.

Christian Suffering

¹² Dear friends, when the fiery ordeal^e arises among you to test you, don't be surprised by it, as if something unusual were happening to you. ¹³ Instead, as you share in the sufferings of the •Messiah rejoice, so that you may also rejoice with great joy at the revelation of His glory. ¹⁴ If you are ridiculed for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you.^f ¹⁵ None of you, however, should suffer as a murderer, a thief, an evildoer, or as a meddler.^g ¹⁶ But if [anyone suffers] as a Christian, he should not be ashamed, but should glorify God with that name. ¹⁷ For the time has come for judgment to begin with God's household; and if it begins with us, what will the outcome be for those who disobey the gospel of God?

¹⁸ And if the righteous is saved with difficulty, what will become of the ungodly and the sinner?^h

¹⁹ So those who suffer according to God's will should, in doing good, entrust themselves to a faithful Creator.

About the Elders

5 Therefore, as a fellow elder and witness to the sufferings of the •Messiah, and also a participant in the glory about to be revealed, I exhort the elders among you: ² shepherd God's flock among you, not overseeingⁱ out of compulsion but freely, according to God's [will];^j not for the money but eagerly; ³ not lording it over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock. ⁴ And when the chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the unfading crown of glory.

⁵ Likewise, you younger men, be subject to the elders. And all of you clothe yourselves with^k humility toward one another, because

God resists the proud,
but gives grace to the humble.^l

⁶ Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, so that He may exalt you in due time,^m ⁷ casting all your care upon Him, because He cares about you.

Conclusion

⁸ Be sober! Be on the alert! Your adversary the Devil is prowling around like a roaring lion, looking for anyone he can devour. ⁹ Resist him, firm in the faith, knowing that the same sufferings are being experienced by your brothers in the world.

¹⁰ Now the God of all grace, who called you to His eternal glory in Christ Jesus, will personallyⁿ restore, establish, strengthen, and support you after you have suffered a little.^o ¹¹ To Him be the dominion^p forever.^q •Amen.

2 PETER

Greeting

1 Simeon^a Peter, a slave and an apostle of Jesus Christ:

To those who have obtained a faith of equal privilege with ours^b through the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ.

² May grace and peace be multiplied to you through the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.

Growth in the Faith

³ For His^c divine power has given us everything required for life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us by^d His own glory and goodness. ⁴ By these He has given us very great and precious promises, so that through them you may share in the divine nature, escaping the corruption that is in the world because of evil desires. ⁵ For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with goodness, goodness with knowledge, ⁶ knowledge with self-control, self-control with endurance, endurance with godliness, ⁷ godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. ⁸ For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they will keep you from being useless or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹ The person who lacks these things is blind and shortsighted, and has forgotten the cleansing from his past sins. ¹⁰ Therefore, brothers, make every effort to confirm your calling and election, because if you do these things you will never stumble. ¹¹ For in this way, entry into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ will be richly supplied to you.

¹² Therefore I will always remind you about these things, even though you know them and are established in the truth you have. ¹³ I consider it right, as long as I am in this tent,^e to wake you up with a reminder, ¹⁴ knowing that I will soon lay aside my tent, as our Lord Jesus Christ has also shown me. ¹⁵ And I will also make every effort that after my departure^f you may be able to recall these things at any time.

The Trustworthy Prophetic Word

¹⁶ For we did not follow cleverly contrived myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; instead, we were eyewitnesses of His majesty. ¹⁷ For when He received honor and glory from God the Father, a voice came to Him from the Majestic Glory:

This is My beloved Son.^g

I take delight in Him!^h

¹⁸ And we heard this voice when it came from heaven while we were with Him on the holy mountain. ¹⁹ So we have the prophetic word strongly confirmed. You will do well to pay attention to it, as to a lamp shining in a dismal place, until the day dawns and the morning star arises in your hearts. ²⁰ First of all, you should know this: no prophecy of Scripture comes from one's own interpretation, ²¹ because no prophecy ever came by the will of man; instead, moved by the Holy Spirit, men spoke from God.

The Judgment of False Teachers

2 But there were also false prophets among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you. They will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Master who bought them, and will bring swift destruction on themselves. ² Many will follow their unrestrained ways, and because of them the way of truth will be blasphemed. ³ In their greed they will exploit you with deceptive words. Their condemnation, [pronounced] long ago, is not idle, and their destruction does not sleep.

⁴ For if God didn't spare the angels who sinned, but threw them down into Tartarusⁱ and delivered them to be kept in chains^j of darkness until judgment; ⁵ and if He didn't spare the ancient world, but protected Noah, a preacher of righteousness, and seven others,^k when He brought a flood on the world of the ungodly; ⁶ and if He reduced the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ashes and condemned them to ruin,^l making them an example to those who were going to be ungodly;^m ⁷ and if He rescued righteous Lot, distressed by the unrestrained behavior of the immoral ⁸ (for as he lived among them, that righteous man tormented himself day

^a1:1 Simon ^b1:1 Or obtained a faith of the same kind as ours ^c1:3 Lit As His ^d1:3 Or to ^e1:13 A euphemism for Peter's body ^f1:15 Or my death ^g1:17 Other mss read My Son, My Beloved ^h1:17 A reference to the transfiguration; see Mt 17:5 ⁱ2:4 Tartarus is a Gk name for a subterranean place of divine punishment lower than Hades. ^j2:4 Other mss read in pits ^k2:5 Lit righteousness, as the eighth ^l2:6 Other mss omit to ruin ^m2:6 Other mss read an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly

by day with the lawless deeds he saw and heard)—⁹ then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trials and to keep the unrighteous under punishment until the day of judgment,¹⁰ especially those who follow the polluting desires of the flesh and despise authority.

Bold, arrogant people! They do not tremble when they blaspheme the glorious ones;¹¹ however, angels, who are greater in might and power, do not bring a slanderous charge against them before the Lord.^a ¹² But these people, like irrational animals—creatures of instinct born to be caught and destroyed—speak blasphemies about things they don't understand, and in their destruction they too will be destroyed,¹³ suffering harm as the payment for unrighteousness. They consider it a pleasure to carouse in the daytime. They are blots and blemishes, delighting in their deceptions^b as they feast with you,¹⁴ having eyes full of adultery and always looking for sin, seducing unstable people, and with hearts trained in greed. Accursed children! ¹⁵ By abandoning the straight path, they have gone astray and have followed the path of Balaam, the son of Bosor,^c who loved the wages of unrighteousness,¹⁶ but received a rebuke for his transgression: a speechless donkey spoke with a human voice and restrained the prophet's madness.

¹⁷ These people are springs without water, mists driven by a whirlwind. The gloom of darkness has been reserved for them. ¹⁸ For uttering bombastic, empty words, they seduce, by fleshly desires and debauchery, people who have barely escaped^d from those who live in error. ¹⁹ They promise them freedom, but they themselves are slaves of corruption, since people are enslaved to whatever defeats them. ²⁰ For if, having escaped the world's impurity through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in these things and defeated, the last state is worse for them than the first. ²¹ For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness than, after knowing it, to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them. ²² It has happened to them according to the true proverb: A dog returns to its own vomit,^e and, "a sow, after washing itself, wallows in the mud."

The Day of the Lord

3 Dear friends, this is now the second letter I've written you; in both, I awaken your pure understanding with a reminder,² so that you can remember the words previously spoken by the holy prophets, and the commandment of our Lord and Savior [given] through your apostles. ³ First, be aware of this: scoffers will come in the last days to scoff, following their own lusts,⁴ saying, "Where is the promise of His coming? For ever since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they have been since the beginning of creation." ⁵ They willfully ignore this: long ago the heavens and the earth existed out of water and through water by the word of God. ⁶ Through these the world of that time perished when it was flooded by water. ⁷ But by the same word the present heavens and earth are held in store for fire, being kept until the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

⁸ Dear friends, don't let this one thing escape you: with the Lord one day is like 1,000 years, and 1,000 years like one day. ⁹ The Lord does not delay His promise, as some understand delay, but is patient with you, not wanting any to perish, but all to come to repentance.

¹⁰ But the Day of the Lord will come like a thief;^f on that [day] the heavens will pass away with a loud noise, the elements will burn and be dissolved, and the earth and the works on it will be disclosed.^g ¹¹ Since all these things are to be destroyed in this way, [it is clear] what sort of people you should be in holy conduct and godliness ¹² as you wait for and earnestly desire the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be on fire and be dissolved, and the elements will melt with the heat. ¹³ But based on His promise, we wait for new heavens and a new earth, where righteousness will dwell.

Conclusion

¹⁴ Therefore, dear friends, while you wait for these things, make every effort to be found in peace without spot or blemish before Him.

¹⁵ Also, regard the patience of our Lord as [an opportunity for] salvation, just as our dear brother Paul, according to the wisdom given to him, has written to you. ¹⁶ He speaks about these things in all his letters, in which there are some matters that are hard to understand. The untaught and unstable twist them to their own destruction, as they also do with the rest of the Scriptures.

¹⁷ Therefore, dear friends, since you have been forewarned, be on your guard, so that

^a2:11 Other mss read them from the Lord ^b2:13 Other mss read delighting in the love feasts ^c2:15 Other mss read Beor ^d2:18 Or people who are barely escaping ^e2:22 Pr 26:11 ^f3:10 Other mss add in the night ^g3:10 Other mss read will be burned up

you are not led away by the error of the immoral and fall from your own stability.
¹⁸ But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity.^a •Amen.^b

1 JOHN

Prologue

- 1 What was from the beginning,
 what we have heard,
 what we have seen with our eyes,
 what we have observed,
 and have touched with our hands,
 concerning the Word of life—
² that life was revealed, and we have seen it
 and we testify and declare to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was revealed to us—
³ what we have seen and heard
 we also declare to you,
 so that you may have fellowship
 along with us;
 and indeed our fellowship is with the Father
 and with His Son Jesus Christ.
⁴ We are writing these things^c
 so that our^d joy may be complete.

Fellowship with God

⁵ Now this is the message we have heard from Him and declare to you: God is light, and there is absolutely no darkness in Him. ⁶ If we say, “We have fellowship with Him,” and •walk in darkness, we are lying and are not practicing^e the truth. ⁷ But if we walk in the light as He Himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus His Son cleanses us from all sin. ⁸ If we say, “We have no sin,” we are deceiving ourselves, and the truth is not in us. ⁹ If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. ¹⁰ If we say, “We have not sinned,” we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us.

2 My little children, I am writing you these things so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an •advocate with the Father—Jesus Christ the righteous One. ² He Himself is the propitiation^f for our sins, and not only for ours, but also for those of the whole world.

God's Commands

³ This is how we are sure that we have come to know Him: by keeping His commands. ⁴ The one who says, “I have come to know Him,” without keeping His commands, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. ⁵ But whoever keeps His word, truly in him the love of God is perfected.^g This is how we know we are in Him: ⁶ the one who says he remains in Him should •walk just as He walked.

⁷ Dear friends, I am not writing you a new command, but an old command that you have had from the beginning. The old command is the message you have heard. ⁸ Yet I am writing you a new command, which is true in Him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining.

⁹ The one who says he is in the light but hates his brother is in the darkness until now. ¹⁰ The one who loves his brother remains in the light, and there is no cause for stumbling in him.^h ¹¹ But the one who hates his brother is in the darkness, walks in the darkness, and doesn't know where he's going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

Reasons for Writing

- ¹² I am writing to you, little children, because your sins have been forgiven
 on account of His name.
¹³ I am writing to you, fathers,
 because you have come to know the One
 who is from the beginning.
 I am writing to you, young men,
 because you have had victory over the evil one.
¹⁴ I have written to you, children,
 because you have come to know
 the Father.
 I have written to you, fathers,

because you have come to know the One
 who is from the beginning.
 I have written to you, young men,
 because you are strong,

 and you have had victory over the evil one.

A Warning about the World

¹⁵ Do not love the world or the things that belong to^a the world. If anyone loves the world, love for the Father is not in him. Because everything that belongs to^b the world—¹⁶ the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride in one's lifestyle—is not from the Father, but is from the world. ¹⁷ And the world with its lust is passing away, but the one who does God's will remains forever.

The Last Hour

¹⁸ Children, it is the last hour. And as you have heard, "Antichrist is coming," even now many antichrists have come. We know from this that it is the last hour. ¹⁹ They went out from us, but they did not belong to us; for if they had belonged to us, they would have remained with us. However, they went out so that it might be made clear that none of them belongs to us.

²⁰ But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all have knowledge.^c ²¹ I have not written to you because you don't know the truth, but because you do know it, and because no lie comes from the truth. ²² Who is the liar, if not the one who denies that Jesus is the •Messiah? He is the antichrist, the one who denies the Father and the Son. ²³ No one who denies the Son can have the Father; he who confesses the Son has the Father as well.

Remaining with God

²⁴ What you have heard from the beginning must remain in you. If what you have heard from the beginning remains in you, then you will remain in the Son and in the Father. ²⁵ And this is the promise that He Himself made to us: eternal life. ²⁶ I have written these things to you about those who are trying to deceive you.

²⁷ The anointing you received from Him remains in you, and you don't need anyone to teach you. Instead, His anointing teaches you about all things, and is true and is not a lie; just as it has taught you, remain in Him.

God's Children

²⁸ So now, little children, remain in Him, so that when He appears we may have boldness and not be ashamed before Him at His coming.

²⁹ If you know that He is righteous, you know this as well: everyone who does what is right has been born of Him. ¹ Look at how great a love^d the Father has given us, that we should be called God's children. And we are! The reason the world does not know us is that it didn't know Him. ² Dear friends, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet been revealed. We know that when He appears, we will be like Him, because we will see Him as He is. ³ And everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself just as He is pure.

⁴ Everyone who commits sin also breaks the law;^e sin is the breaking of law. ⁵ You know that He was revealed so that He might take away sins,^f and there is no sin in Him. ⁶ Everyone who remains in Him does not sin; everyone who sins has not seen Him or known Him.

⁷ Little children, let no one deceive you! The one who does what is right is righteous, just as He is righteous. ⁸ The one who commits sin is of the Devil, for the Devil has sinned from the beginning. The Son of God was revealed for this purpose: to destroy the Devil's works. ⁹ Everyone who has been born of God does not sin, because His^g seed remains in him; he is not able to sin, because he has been born of God. ¹⁰ This is how God's children—and the Devil's children—are made evident.

Love's Imperative

Whoever does not do what is right is not of God, especially the one who does not love his brother. ¹¹ For this is the message you have heard from the beginning: we should love one another, ¹² unlike Cain, who was of the evil one and murdered^h his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his works were evil, and his brother's were righteous. ¹³ Do not be surprised, brothers, if the world hates you. ¹⁴ We know that we have passed from death to life because we love our brothers. The one who does not love remains in death. ¹⁵ Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life residing in him.

Love in Action

¹⁶ This is how we have come to know love:

^a2:15 Lit things in ^b2:15 Lit that is in ^c2:20 Other mss read and you know all things ^d3:1 Or at what sort of love
^e3:4 Or also commits iniquity ^f3:5 Other mss read our sins ^g3:9 God's ^h3:12 Or slaughtered

He laid down His life for us. We should also lay down our lives for our brothers. ¹⁷ If anyone has this world's goods and sees his brother in need but shuts off his compassion from him—how can God's love reside in him?

¹⁸ Little children, we must not love in word or speech, but in deed and truth; ¹⁹ that is how we will know we are of the truth, and will convince our hearts in His presence, ²⁰ because if our hearts condemn us, God is greater than our hearts and knows all things.

²¹ Dear friends, if our hearts do not condemn [us] we have confidence before God, ²² and can receive whatever we ask from Him because we keep His commands and do what is pleasing in His sight. ²³ Now this is His command: that we believe in the name of His Son Jesus Christ, and love one another as He commanded us. ²⁴ The one who keeps His commands remains in Him, and He in him. And the way we know that He remains in us is from the Spirit He has given us.

The Spirit of Truth and the Spirit of Error

4 Dear friends, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to determine if they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.

² This is how you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit who confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh^a is from God. ³ But every spirit who does not confess Jesus^b is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist; you have heard that he is coming, and he is already in the world now.

⁴ You are from God, little children, and you have conquered them, because the One who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world. ⁵ They are from the world. Therefore what they say is from the world, and the world listens to them. ⁶ We are from God. Anyone who knows God listens to us; anyone who is not from God does not listen to us. From this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of deception.

Knowing God through Love

⁷ Dear friends, let us love one another, because love is from God, and everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. ⁸ The one who does not love does not know God, because God is love. ⁹ God's love was revealed among us in this way:^c God sent His •One and Only Son into the world so that we might live through Him. ¹⁰ Love consists in this: not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the^d propitiation^e for our sins. ¹¹ Dear friends, if God loved us in this way, we also must love one another. ¹² No one has ever seen God.^f If we love one another, God remains in^g us and His love is perfected in us.

¹³ This is how we know that we remain in Him and He in us: He has given to us from His Spirit. ¹⁴ And we have seen and we testify that the Father has sent the Son as Savior of the world. ¹⁵ Whoever confesses^h that Jesus is the Son of God—God remains in him and he in God. ¹⁶ And we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and the one who remains in love remains in God, and God remains in us.

¹⁷ In this, love is perfected with us so that we may have confidence in the day of judgment; for we are as He is in this world. ¹⁸ There is no fear in love; instead, perfect love drives out fear, because fear involves punishment.ⁱ So the one who fears has not reached perfection in love. ¹⁹ We love^j because He first loved us.

Keeping God's Commands

²⁰ If anyone says, "I love God," yet hates his brother, he is a liar. For the person who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen.^k ²¹ And we have this command from Him: the one who loves God must also love his brother.

5 Everyone who believes that Jesus is the •Messiah has been born of God, and everyone who loves the parent also loves his child. ² This is how we know that we love God's children when we love God and obey^l His commands. ³ For this is what love for God is: to keep His commands. Now His commands are not a burden, ⁴ because whatever has been born of God conquers the world. This is the victory that has conquered the world: our faith. ⁵ And who is the one who conquers the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

The Sureness of God's Testimony

⁶ Jesus Christ—He is the One who came by water and blood; not by water only, but by water and by blood. And the Spirit is the One who tes-

^a4:2 Or confesses Jesus to be the Christ come in the flesh ^b4:3 Other mss read confess that Jesus has come in the flesh ^c4:9 Or revealed in us ^d4:10 Or a ^e4:10 The word propitiation has to do with the removal of divine wrath. Jesus' death is the means that turns God's wrath from the sinner; see 2 Co 5:21. ^f4:12 Since God is an infinite being, no one can see Him in His absolute essential nature; see Ex 33:18–23. ^g4:12 Or remains among ^h4:15 Or acknowledges ⁱ4:18 Or fear has its own punishment or torment ^j4:19 Other mss add Him ^k4:20 Other mss read seen, how is he able to love . . . seen? (as a question) ^l5:2 Other mss read keep tifies, because the Spirit is the truth.⁷ For there are three that testify:^a ⁸ the Spirit, the water, and the blood—and these three are in agreement.⁹ If we accept the testimony of men, God's testimony is greater, because it is God's testimony that He has given about His Son.¹⁰ (The one who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. The one who does not believe God has made Him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has given about His Son.)¹¹ And this is the testimony: God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son.

¹² The one who has the Son has life. The one who doesn't have the Son of God does not have life. ¹³ I have written these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life.

Effective Prayer

¹⁴ Now this is the confidence we have before Him: whenever we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. ¹⁵ And if we know that He hears whatever we ask, we know that we have what we have asked Him for.

¹⁶ If anyone sees his brother committing a sin that does not bring death, he should ask, and God^b will give life to him—to those who commit sin that doesn't bring death. There is sin^c that brings death. I am not saying he should pray about that. ¹⁷ All unrighteousness is sin, and there is sin that does not bring death.

Conclusion

¹⁸ We know that everyone who has been born of God does not sin, but the One^d who is born of God keeps him,^{e f} and the evil one does not touch him.

¹⁹ We know that we are of God, and the whole world is under the sway of the evil one.

²⁰ And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding so that we may know the true One.^g We are in the true One—that is, in His Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life.

²¹ Little children, guard yourselves from idols.

2 JOHN

Greeting

The Elder:^h To the elect ladyⁱ and her children, whom I love in truth—and not only I, but also all who have come to know the truth—² because of the truth that remains in us and will be with us forever.

³ Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

Truth and Deception

⁴ I was very glad to find some of your children •walking in truth, in keeping with a command we have received from the Father. ⁵ So now I urge you, lady—not as if I were writing you a new command, but one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another. ⁶ And this is love: that we walk according to His commands. This is the command as you have heard it from the beginning: you must walk in love.^j

⁷ Many deceivers have gone out into the world; they do not confess the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh.^k This is the deceiver and the antichrist.

⁸ Watch yourselves so that you don't lose what we^l have worked for, but you may receive a full reward. ⁹ Anyone who does not remain in the teaching about Christ, but goes beyond it, does not have God. The one who remains in that teaching, this one has both the Father and the Son. ¹⁰ If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your home, and don't say, "Welcome," to him; ¹¹ for the one who says, "Welcome," to him shares in his evil works.

Farewell

¹² Though I have many things to write to you, I don't want to do so with paper and ink. Instead, I hope to be with you and talk face to face^m so that our joy may be complete.

¹³ The children of your elect sister send you greetings.

3 JOHN

Greeting

The Elder:

To my dear friend^a Gaius, whom I love in truth.

² Dear friend,^b I pray that you may prosper in every way and be in good health, just as your soul prospers. ³ For I was very glad when some brothers came and testified to your [faithfulness] to the truth—how you are •walking in the truth.

⁴ I have no greater joy than this: to hear that my children are walking in the truth.

Gaius Commended

⁵ Dear friend,^b you are showing your faith^c by whatever you do for the brothers, and this [you are doing] for strangers; ⁶ they have testified to your love before the church. You will do well to send them on their journey in a manner worthy of God, ⁷ since they set out for the sake of the name, accepting nothing from pagans. ⁸ Therefore, we ought to support such men, so that we can be co-workers with^d the truth.

Diotrephes and Demetrius

⁹ I wrote something to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to have first place among them, does not receive us. ¹⁰ This is why, if I come, I will remind him of the works he is doing, slandering us with malicious words. And he is not satisfied with that! He not only refuses to welcome the brothers himself, but he even stops those who want to do so and expels them from the church.

¹¹ Dear friend,^b do not imitate what is evil, but what is good. The one who does good is of God; the one who does evil has not seen God. ¹² Demetrius has a [good] testimony from everyone, and from the truth itself. And we also testify for him, and you know that our testimony is true.

Farewell

¹³ I have many things to write you, but I don't want to write to you with pen and ink. ¹⁴ I hope to see you soon, and we will talk face to face.^e

Peace be with you. The friends send you greetings. Greet the friends by name.

JUDE

Greeting

Jude, a slave of Jesus Christ, and a brother of James:

To those who are the called, loved^f by God the Father and kept by Jesus Christ.

² May mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to you.

Jude's Purpose in Writing

³ Dear friends, although I was eager to write you about our common salvation, I found it necessary to write and exhort you to contend for the faith that was delivered to the saints once for all.

⁴ For certain men, who were designated for this judgment long ago, have come in by stealth; they are ungodly, turning the grace of our God into promiscuity and denying our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

Apostates: Past and Present

⁵ Now I want to remind you, though you know all these things: the Lord, having first of all^g saved a people out of Egypt, later destroyed those who did not believe; ⁶ and He has kept, with eternal chains in darkness for the judgment of the great day, angels who did not keep their own position but deserted their proper dwelling. ⁷ In the same way, Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities around them committed sexual immorality and practiced perversions,^h just as they did, and serve as an example by undergoing the punishment of eternal fire.

⁸ Nevertheless, these dreamers likewise defile their flesh, despise authority, and blaspheme glorious beings. ⁹ Yet Michael the archangel, when he was disputing with the Devil in a debate about Moses' body, did not dare bring an abusive condemnation against him, but said, "The Lord rebuke you!" ¹⁰ But these people blaspheme anything they don't understand, and what they know by instinct, like unreasoning animals—they destroy themselves with these things.

¹¹ Woe to them! For they have traveled in the way of Cain, have abandoned themselves to the error of Balaam for profit, and have perished in Korah's rebellion.

The Apostates' Doom

¹² These are the ones who are like dangerous reefs^a at your love feasts. They feast with you, nurturing only themselves without fear. They are waterless clouds carried along by winds; trees in late autumn—fruitless, twice dead, pulled out by the roots; ¹³ wild waves of the sea, foaming up their shameful deeds; wandering stars for whom is reserved the blackness of darkness forever!

¹⁴ And Enoch, in the seventh [generation] from Adam, prophesied about them:

Look! The Lord comes^b with thousands of His holy ones

¹⁵ to execute judgment on all, and to convict them^c
of all their ungodly deeds
that they have done in an ungodly way,
and of all the harsh things ungodly sinners
have said against Him.

¹⁶ These people are discontented grumblers, walking according to their desires; their mouths utter arrogant words, flattering people for their own advantage.

¹⁷ But you, dear friends, remember the words foretold by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ; ¹⁸ they told you, "In the end time there will be scoffers walking according to their own ungodly desires." ¹⁹ These people create divisions and are merely natural, not having the Spirit.

Exhortation and Benediction

²⁰ But you, dear friends, building yourselves up in your most holy faith and praying in the Holy Spirit, ²¹ keep yourselves in the love of God, expecting the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ for eternal life. ²² Have mercy on some who doubt; ²³ save others by snatching [them] from the fire; on others have mercy in fear, hating even the garment defiled by the flesh.

²⁴ Now to Him who is able to protect you from stumbling and to make you stand in the presence of His glory, blameless and with great joy, ²⁵ to the only God our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord,^d be glory, majesty, power, and authority before all time,^e now, and forever. •Amen.

REVELATION

Prologue

1 The revelation of^f Jesus Christ that God gave Him to show His •slaves what must quickly^g take place. He sent it and signified it^h through His angel to His slave John, ² who testified to God's word and to the testimonyⁱ about Jesus Christ, in all he saw.^j ³ Blessed is the one who reads and blessed are those who hear the words of this prophecy and keep^k what is written in it, because the time is near!

John's Vision of the Risen Lord

9 I, John, your brother and partner in the tribulation, kingdom, and perseverance in Jesus, was on the island called Patmos because of God's word and the testimony about Jesus.^a 10 I was in the Spirit^b c on the Lord's day,^d and I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet 11 saying, “Write on a scroll^e what you see and send it to the seven churches: Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea.”

12 I turned to see the voice that was speaking to me. When I turned I saw seven gold lampstands, 13 and among the lampstands was One like the •Son of Man,^f dressed in a long robe, and with a gold sash wrapped around His chest. 14 His head and hair were white like wool—white as snow, His eyes like a fiery flame, 15 His feet like fine bronze fired in a furnace, and His voice like the sound of cascading^g waters. 16 In His right hand He had seven stars; from His mouth came a sharp two-edged sword; and His face was shining like the sun at midday.^h

17 When I saw Him, I fell at His feet like a dead man. He laid His right hand on me, and said, “Don't be afraid! I am the First and the Last, 18 and the Living One. I was dead, but look—I am alive forever and ever, and I hold the keys of death and •Hades. 19 Therefore write what you have seen, what is, and what will take place after this. 20 The secretⁱ of the seven stars you saw in My right hand, and of the seven gold lampstands, is this: the seven stars are the angels^j of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands^k are the seven churches.

The Letters to the Seven Churches

The Letter to Ephesus

2 “To the angel^l of the church in Ephesus write:

“The One who holds the seven stars in His right hand and who walks among the seven gold lampstands says: 2 I know your works, your labor, and your endurance, and that you cannot tolerate evil. You have tested those who call themselves apostles and are not, and you have found them to be liars. 3 You also possess endurance and have tolerated [many things] because of My name, and have not grown weary. 4 But I have this against you: you have abandoned the love [you had] at first. 5 Remember then how far you have fallen; repent, and do the works you did at first. Otherwise, I will come to you^m and remove your lampstand from its place—unless you repent. 6 Yet you do have this: you hate the practices of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

7 “Anyone who has an ear should listen to what the Spirit says to the churches. I will give the victor the right to eat from the tree of life, which is inⁿ the paradise of God.

The Letter to Smyrna

8 “To the angel of the church in Smyrna write: “The First and the Last, the One who was dead and came to life, says: 9 I know your^o tribulation and poverty, yet you are rich. [I know] the slander of those who say they are Jews and are not, but are a •synagogue of Satan. 10 Don't be afraid of what you are about to suffer. Look, the Devil is about to throw some of you into prison to test you, and you will have tribulation for 10 days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown^p of life.

11 “Anyone who has an ear should listen to what the Spirit says to the churches. The victor will never be harmed by the second death.

The Letter to Pergamum

12 “To the angel of the church in Pergamum write:

“The One who has the sharp, two-edged sword says: 13 I know^q where you live—where Satan's throne is! And you are holding on to My name and did not deny your faith in Me,^r even in the days of Antipas, My faithful witness, who was killed among you, where Satan lives. 14 But I have a few things against you. You have some there who hold to the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to place a stumbling block^s in front of the sons of Israel: to eat meat sacrificed to idols and to commit sexual immorality.^t 15 In the same way, you also have those who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans.^u 16 Therefore

The Letter to Thyatira

¹⁸ “To the angel of the church in Thyatira write:

“The Son of God, the One whose eyes are like a fiery flame, and whose feet are like fine bronze says: ¹⁹ I know your works—your love, faithfulness,^b service, and endurance. Your last works are greater than the first. ²⁰ But I have this against you: you tolerate the woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess, and teaches and deceives My slaves to commit sexual immorality^c and to eat meat sacrificed to idols. ²¹ I gave her time to repent, but she does not want to repent of her sexual immorality.^d ²² Look! I will throw her into a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation, unless they repent of her^e practices. ²³ I will kill her children with the plague.^f Then all the churches will know that I am the One who examines minds^g and hearts, and I will give to each of you according to your works. ²⁴ I say to the rest of you in Thyatira, who do not hold this teaching, who haven’t known the deep things^h of Satan—as they say—I do not put any other burden on you. ²⁵ But hold on to what you have until I come. ²⁶ The victor and the one who keeps My works to the end: I will give him authority over the nations—

The Letter to Sardis

3 “To the angel of the church in Sardis write: “The One who has the seven spirits of God and the seven stars says: I know your works;

you have a reputation^k for being alive, but you are dead. ² Be alert and strengthen^l what remains, which is about to die, for I have not found your works complete before My God. ³ Remember therefore what you have received and heard; keep it, and repent. But if you are not alert, I will come^m like a thief, and you have no idea at what hour I will come against you.ⁿ ⁴ But you have a few people^o in Sardis who have not defiled^p their clothes, and they will walk with Me in white, because they are worthy. ⁵ In the same way, the victor will be dressed in white clothes, and I will never erase his name from the book of life, but will acknowledge his name before My Father and before His angels.

⁶ “Anyone who has an ear should listen to what the Spirit says to the churches.

The Letter to Philadelphia

⁷ “To the angel of the church in Philadelphia write:

“The Holy One, the True One, the One who has the key of David, who opens and no one will close, and closes and no one opens says: ⁸ I know your works. Because you have limited strength, have kept My word, and have not denied My name, look, I have placed before you an open door that no one is able to close. ⁹ Take note! I will make those from the •synagogue of Satan, who claim to be Jews and are not, but are lying—note this—I will make them come and bow down at your feet, and they will know that I have loved you. ¹⁰ Because you have kept My command to endure,^q I will also keep you from the hour of testing that is going to come over the whole world to test those who live on the earth. ¹¹ I am coming quickly. Hold on to what you have, so that no one takes your crown. ¹² The victor: I will make him a pillar in the sanctuary of My God, and he will never go out again. I will write on him the name of My God, and the name of the city of My God—the new Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from My God—and My new name.

The Throne Room of Heaven

4 After this I looked, and there in heaven was an open door. The first voice that I had heard speaking to me like a trumpet said, “Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after this.”

² Immediately I was in the Spirit,^d and there in heaven a throne was set. One was seated on the throne, ³ and the One seated^e looked like jasper^f and carnelian^g stone. A rainbow that looked like an emerald surrounded the throne. ⁴ Around that throne were 24 thrones, and on the thrones sat 24 elders dressed in white clothes, with gold crowns on their heads. ⁵ From the throne came flashes of lightning, rumblings, and thunder. Burning before the throne were seven fiery torches, which are the seven spirits of God. ⁶ Also before the throne was something like a sea of glass, similar to crystal. In the middle^h and around the throne were four living creatures covered with eyes in front and in back. ⁷ The first living creature was like a lion; the second living creature was like a calf; the third living creature had a face like a man; and the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle. ⁸ Each of the four living creatures had six wings; they were covered with eyes around and inside. Day and night they never stop,ⁱ saying:

Holy, holy, holy,^j
Lord God, the Almighty,
who was, who is, and who is coming.

⁹ Whenever the living creatures give glory, honor, and thanks to the One seated on the throne, the One who lives forever and ever, ¹⁰ the 24 elders fall down before the One seated on the throne, worship the One who lives forever and ever, cast their crowns before the throne, and say:

¹¹ Our Lord and God,^k
You are worthy to receive glory and honor and power,
because You have created all things,
and because of Your will they exist and were created.

The Lamb Takes the Scroll

5 Then I saw in the right hand of the One seated on the throne a scroll with writing on the inside and on the back, sealed with seven seals. ² I also saw a mighty angel proclaiming in a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals?” ³ But no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or even to look in it. ⁴ And I cried and cried because no one was found worthy to open^l the scroll or even to look in it.

⁵ Then one of the elders said to me, “Stop crying. Look! The Lion from the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has been victorious so that He may open the scroll and^m its seven seals.” ⁶ Then I saw one like a slaughtered lamb standing betweenⁿ the throne and the four living creatures and among the elders. He had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent into all the earth. ⁷ He came and took [the scroll]^o out of the right hand of the One seated on the throne.

The Lamb Is Worthy

⁸ When He took the scroll, the four living creatures and the 24 elders fell down before the Lamb. Each one had a harp and gold bowls filled with incense, which are the prayers of the saints. ⁹ And they sang a new song:

^a3:14 Or Ruler, or Source, or Beginning ^b3:16 Or spit ^c3:19 Or be zealous ^d4:2 Lit I became in the Spirit or in spirit ^e4:3 Other mss omit and the One seated ^f4:3 A precious stone ^g4:3 A translucent red gem ^h4:6 Lit In the middle of the throne ⁱ4:8 Or they never rest ^j4:8 Other mss read holy 9 times ^k4:11 Other mss add the Holy One; other mss read O Lord ^l5:4 Other mss add and read ^m5:5 Other mss add loose ⁿ5:6 Or standing in the middle of ^o5:7 Other mss include the scroll and to open its seals;

because You were slaughtered,
and You redeemed^a [people]^b for God
by Your blood
from every tribe and language and people and nation.

10 You made them a kingdom^c and priests
to our God,
and they will reign on the earth.

11 Then I looked, and heard the voice of many angels around the throne, and also of the living creatures, and of the elders. Their number was countless thousands, plus thousands of thousands. 12 They said with a loud voice:

The Lamb who was slaughtered is worthy to receive power and riches and wisdom and strength
and honor and glory and blessing!

13 I heard every creature in heaven, on earth, under the earth, on the sea, and everything in them say:

Blessing and honor and glory
and dominion
to the One seated on the throne,
and to the Lamb, forever and ever!

14 The four living creatures said, “•Amen,” and the elders fell down and worshiped.

The First Seal on the Scroll

6 Then I saw^d the Lamb open one of the seven^e seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures say with a voice like thunder, “Come!”^f g 2 I looked, and there was a white horse. The horseman on it had a bow; a crown was given to him, and he went out as a victor to conquer.^h

The Second Seal

3 When He opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, “Come!”^f g 4 Then another horse went out, a fiery red one,
and its horseman was empoweredⁱ to take peace from the earth, so that people would slaughter one another. And a large sword was given to him.

The Third Seal

5 When He opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, “Come!”^f g And I looked, and there was a black horse. The horseman on it had a balance scale in his hand. 6 Then I heard something like a voice among the four living creatures say, “A quart of wheat for a •denarius, and three quarts of barley for a denar-ius—but do not harm the olive oil and the wine.”

The Fourth Seal

7 When He opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, “Come!”^f g 8 And I looked, and there was a pale green^j horse. The horseman on it was named Death, and •Hades was following after him. Authority was given to them^k over a fourth of the earth, to kill by the sword, by famine, by plague,
and by the wild animals of the earth.

The Fifth Seal

9 When He opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those slaughtered because of God’s word and the testimony they had.^l 10 They cried out with a loud voice: “O Lord,^m holy and true, how long until You judge and avenge our blood from those who live on the earth?” 11 So a white robe was given to each of them, and they were told to rest a little while longer until [the number of] their fellow slaves and their brothers, who were going to be killed
just as they had been, would be completed.

The Sixth Seal

12 Then I saw Him openⁿ the sixth seal. A violent earthquake occurred; the sun turned black like sackcloth made of goat hair; the entire moon^o became like blood; 13 the stars^p of heaven fell to the earth as a fig tree drops its unripe figs
when shaken by a high wind; 14 the sky separated like a scroll being rolled up; and every mountain and island was moved from its place.

15 Then the kings of the earth, the nobles, the military commanders, the rich, the powerful,
and every slave and free person hid in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains. 16 And they said to the mountains and to the rocks, “Fall on us and hide us from the face of the One seated

The Sealed of Israel

7 After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, restraining the four winds of the earth so that no wind could blow on the earth or on the sea or on any tree. ² Then I saw another angel rise up from the east, who had the seal of the living God. He cried out in a loud voice to the four angels who were empowered^b to harm the earth and the sea: ³ "Don't harm the earth or the sea or the trees until we seal the slaves of our God on their foreheads." ⁴ And I heard the number of those who were sealed:

144,000 sealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel:

- ⁵ 12,000 sealed from the tribe of Judah,
12,000^c from the tribe of Reuben,
12,000 from the tribe of Gad,
- ⁶ 12,000 from the tribe of Asher,
12,000 from the tribe of Naphtali,

- ⁷ 12,000 from the tribe of Simeon,
12,000 from the tribe of Levi,
12,000 from the tribe of Issachar,
- ⁸ 12,000 from the tribe of Zebulun,
12,000 from the tribe of Joseph,
12,000 sealed from the tribe of Benjamin.

A Multitude from the Great Tribulation

⁹ After this I looked, and there was a vast multitude from every nation, tribe, people, and language, which no one could number, standing before the throne and before the Lamb. They were robed in white with palm branches in their hands. ¹⁰ And they cried out in a loud voice:

Salvation belongs to our God,
who is seated on the throne,
and to the Lamb!

¹¹ All the angels stood around the throne, the elders, and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, ¹² saying:

•Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor

and power and strength,
be to our God forever and ever. Amen.

¹³ Then one of the elders asked me, "Who are these people robed in white, and where did they come from?"

¹⁴ I said to him, "Sir,^d you know."
Then he told me:

These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation.
They washed their robes and made them white
in the blood of the Lamb.

- ¹⁵ For this reason they are before the throne
of God,
and they serve Him day and night
in His sanctuary.
The One seated on the throne
will shelter^e them:
- ¹⁶ no longer will they hunger; no longer
will they thirst;
no longer will the sun strike them,
or any heat.
- ¹⁷ Because the Lamb who is at the center
of the throne will shepherd them;
He will guide them to springs
of living waters,
and God will wipe away every tear
from their eyes.

The Seventh Seal

8 When He opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. ² Then I saw the seven angels who stand in the presence of God; seven trumpets were given to them. ³ Another angel, with a gold incense burner, came and stood at the altar. He was given a large amount of incense to offer with the prayers of all the saints on the gold altar in front of the throne. ⁴ The smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, went up in the presence of God from the angel's hand. ⁵ The angel took the incense burner, filled it with fire from the altar, and hurled it to the earth; there were thunders, rumblings, lightnings, and an earthquake. ⁶ And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared to blow them.

The First Trumpet

⁷ The first [angel]^f blew his trumpet, and hail and fire, mixed with blood, were hurled to the earth. So a third of the earth was burned up, a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up.

The Second Trumpet

⁸ The second angel blew his trumpet, and something like a great mountain ablaze with fire was hurled into the sea. So a third of the sea became blood, ⁹ a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

The Third Trumpet

¹⁰ The third angel blew his trumpet, and a great star, blazing like a torch, fell from heaven. It fell on a third of the rivers and springs of water. ¹¹ The name of the star is Wormwood,^a and a third of the waters became wormwood. So, many of the people died from the waters, because they had been made bitter.

The Fourth Trumpet

¹² The fourth angel blew his trumpet, and a third of the sun was struck, a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of them were darkened. A third of the day was without light, and the night as well.

¹³ I looked, and I heard an eagle,^b flying in mid-heaven,^c saying in a loud voice, “Woe! Woe! Woe to those who live on the earth, because of the remaining trumpet blasts that the three angels are about to sound!”

The Fifth Trumpet

9 The fifth angel blew his trumpet, and I saw a star that had fallen from heaven to earth. The key to the shaft of the •abyss was given to him. ² He opened the shaft of the abyss, and smoke came up out of the shaft like smoke from a great^d furnace so that the sun and the air were darkened by the smoke from the shaft. ³ Then out of the smoke locusts came to the earth, and power^e was given to them like the power that scorpions have on the earth. ⁴ They were told not to harm the grass of the earth, or any green plant, or any tree, but only people who do not have God’s seal on their foreheads. ⁵ They were not permitted to kill them, but were to torment [them] for five months; their torment is like the torment caused by a scorpion when it strikes a man. ⁶ In those days people will seek death and will not find it; they will long to die, but death will flee from them.

⁷ The appearance of the locusts was like horses equipped for battle. On their heads were something like gold crowns; their faces were like men’s faces; ⁸ they had hair like women’s hair; their teeth were like lions’ teeth; ⁹ they had chests like iron breastplates; the sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots with many horses rushing into battle; ¹⁰ and they had tails with stingers, like scorpions, so that with their tails they had the power^e to harm people for five months. ¹¹ They had as their king^f the angel of the abyss; his name in Hebrew is Abaddon,^g and in Greek he has the name Apollyon.^h ¹² The first woe has passed. There are still two more woes to come after this.

The Sixth Trumpet

¹³ The sixth angel blew his trumpet. From the fourⁱ horns of the gold altar that is before God, I heard a voice ¹⁴ say to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, “Release the four angels bound at the great river Euphrates.” ¹⁵ So the four angels who were prepared for the hour, day, month, and year were released to kill a third of the human race. ¹⁶ The number of mounted troops was 200 million;^j I heard their number. ¹⁷ This is how I saw the horses in my vision: The horsemen had breastplates that were fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow. The heads of the horses were like lions’ heads, and from their mouths came fire, smoke, and sulfur. ¹⁸ A third of the human race was killed by these three plagues—by the fire, the smoke, and the sulfur that came from their mouths. ¹⁹ For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails, because their tails, like snakes, have heads, and they inflict injury with them.

²⁰ The rest of the people, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands to stop worshiping demons and idols of gold, silver, bronze, stone, and wood, which are not able to see, hear, or walk. ²¹ And they did not repent of their murders, their sorceries,^k their sexual immorality, or their thefts.

The Mighty Angel and the Small Scroll

10 Then I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven, surrounded by a cloud, with a rainbow over his head.^l His face was like the sun, his legs^m were like fiery pillars, ² and he had a little scroll opened in his hand.

^a8:11 Wormwood is absinthe, a bitter herb. ^b8:13 Other mss read angel ^c8:13 Very high ^d9:2 Other mss omit great ^e9:3,10 Or authority ^f9:11 Or as king over them ^g9:11 Or destruction ^h9:11 Or destroyer ⁱ9:13 Other mss omit four ^j9:16 Other mss read 100 million ^k9:21 Or magic potions, or drugs; Gk pharmakon ^l10:1 Or a halo on his head ^m10:1 Or feet

He put his right foot on the sea, his left on the land,³ and he cried out with a loud voice like a roaring lion. When he cried out, the seven thunders spoke with their voices.⁴ And when the seven thunders spoke, I was about to write. Then I heard a voice from heaven, saying, “Seal up what the seven thunders said, and do not write it down!”

⁵ Then the angel that I had seen standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand to heaven. ⁶ He swore an oath by the One who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and what is in it, the earth and what is in it, and the sea and what is in it: “There will no longer be an interval of time,^a ⁷ but in the days of the sound of the seventh angel, when he will blow his trumpet, then God’s hidden plan^b will be completed, as He announced to His servants^c the prophets.”

⁸ Now the voice that I heard from heaven spoke to me again and said, “Go, take the scroll that lies open in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land.”

⁹ So I went to the angel and asked him to give me the little scroll. He said to me, “Take and eat it; it will be bitter in your stomach, but it will be as sweet as honey in your mouth.”

¹⁰ Then I took the little scroll from the angel’s hand and ate it. It was as sweet as honey in my mouth, but when I ate it, my stomach became bitter. ¹¹ And I was told,^d “You must prophesy again about^e many peoples, nations, languages, and kings.”

The Two Witnesses

11 Then I was given a measuring reed like a rod,^f with these words: “Go^g and measure God’s sanctuary and the altar, and [count] those who worship there. ² But exclude the courtyard outside the sanctuary. Don’t measure it, because it is given to the nations,^h and they will trample the holy city for 42 months. ³ I will empowerⁱ my two witnesses, and they will prophesy for 1,260 days,^j dressed in sackcloth.”^k ⁴ These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord^l of the earth. ⁵ If anyone wants to harm them, fire comes from their mouths and consumes their enemies; if anyone wants to harm them, he must be killed in this way. ⁶ These men have the power to close the sky so that it does not rain during the days of their prophecy. They also have power over the waters to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with any plague whenever they want.

The Witnesses Martyred

⁷ When they finish their testimony, the beast^m that comes up out of the •abyss will make war with them, conquer them, and kill them. ⁸ Their dead bodiesⁿ will lie in the public square^o of the great city, which is called, prophetically,^p Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified. ⁹ And representatives from^q the peoples, tribes, languages, and nations will view their bodies for three and a half days and not permit their bodies to be put into a tomb. ¹⁰ Those who live on the earth will gloat over them and celebrate and send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who live on the earth.

The Witnesses Resurrected

¹¹ But after the three and a half days, the breath^r of life from God entered them, and they stood on their feet. So great fear fell on those who saw them. ¹² Then they heard^s a loud voice from heaven saying to them, “Come up here.” They went up to heaven in a cloud, while their enemies watched them. ¹³ At that moment a violent earthquake took place, a tenth of the city fell, and 7,000 people were killed in the earthquake. The survivors were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven. ¹⁴ The second woe has passed. Take note: the third woe is coming quickly!

The Seventh Trumpet

¹⁵ The seventh angel blew his trumpet, and there were loud voices in heaven saying:

The kingdom of the world has become the [kingdom]
of our Lord and of His •Messiah,
and He will reign forever and ever!

¹⁶ The 24 elders, who were seated before God on their thrones, fell on their faces and worshiped God, ¹⁷ saying:

to be judged,
and to give the reward to Your servants

and the time has come to destroy those who destroy the earth.

¹⁹ God's sanctuary in heaven was opened, and the ark of His covenant^b appeared in His sanctuary. There were lightnings, rumblings, thunders, an earthquake,^c and severe hail.

The Woman, the Child, and the Dragon

12 A great sign^d appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and a crown of 12 stars on her head. ² She was pregnant and cried out in labor and agony to give birth. ³ Then another sign^e appeared in heaven: There was a great fiery red dragon having seven heads and 10 horns, and on his heads were seven diadems.^f ⁴ His tail swept away a third of the stars in heaven and hurled them to the earth. And the dragon stood in front of the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she did give birth he might devour her child. ⁵ But she gave birth to a Son—a male who is going to shepherd^g all nations with an iron scepter—and her child was caught up to God and to His throne.
⁶ The woman fled into the wilderness, where she had a place prepared by God, to be fed
there^h for 1,260 days.

The Dragon Thrown Out of Heaven

⁷ Then war broke out in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon. The dragon and his angels also fought, ⁸ but he could not prevail, and there was no place for them in heaven any longer. ⁹ So the great dragon was thrown out—the ancient serpent, who is called the Devilⁱ and Satan,^j the one who deceives the whole world. He was thrown to earth, and his angels with him.

¹⁰ Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say:

The salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of His •Messiah have now come,
because the accuser of our brothers
has been thrown out:
the one who accuses them before our God
day and night.

- 11 They conquered him by the blood of the Lamb
and by the word of their testimony, for they did not love their lives in the face
of death.
12 Therefore rejoice, O heavens,
and you who dwell in them!
Woe to the earth and the sea,
for the Devil has come down to you with great fury,
because he knows he has a short time.

The Woman Persecuted

¹³ When the dragon saw that he had been thrown to earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the male. ¹⁴ The woman was given two wings of a great eagle, so that she could fly from the serpent's presence to her place in the wilderness, where she was fed for a time, times, and half a time.^k ¹⁵ From his mouth the serpent spewed water like a river after the woman, to sweep her away in a torrent. ¹⁶ But the earth helped the woman: the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river that the dragon had spewed from his mouth. ¹⁷ So the dragon was furious with the woman and left to wage war against the rest of her offspring^l—those who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony about Jesus. ¹⁸ He^m stood on the sand of the sea.ⁿ

The Beast from the Sea

sea. He^o had 10 horns and seven heads.

heads were blasphemous names.^a ² The beast I saw was like a leopard, his feet were like a bear's, and his mouth was like a lion's mouth. The dragon gave him his power, his throne, and great authority. ³ One of his heads appeared to be fatally wounded,^b but his fatal wound was healed. The whole earth was amazed and followed the beast.^c ⁴ They worshiped the dragon because he gave authority to the beast. And they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who is able to wage war against him?"

⁵ A mouth was given to him to speak boasts and blasphemies. He was also given authority to act^d ^e for 42 months. ⁶ He began to speak^f blasphemies against God: to blaspheme His name and His dwelling—those who dwell in heaven. ⁷ And he was permitted to wage war against the saints and to conquer them. He was also given authority over every tribe, people, language, and nation. ⁸ All those who live on the earth will worship him, everyone whose name was not written from the foundation of the world in the book^g of life of the Lamb who was slaughtered.^h

⁹ If anyone has an ear, he should listen:

- ¹⁰ If anyone is destined for captivity,
into captivity he goes.
If anyone is to be killedⁱ with a sword,
with a sword he will be killed.

Here is the endurance and the faith of the saints.^j

The Beast from the Earth

¹¹ Then I saw another beast coming up out of the earth; he had two horns like a lamb,^k but he sounded like a dragon. ¹² He exercises all the authority of the first beast on his behalf and compels the earth and those who live on it to worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed. ¹³ He also performs great signs, even causing fire to come down from heaven to earth before people. ¹⁴ He deceives those who live on the earth because of the signs that he is permitted to perform on behalf of the beast, telling those who live on the earth to make an image^l of the beast who had the sword wound yet lived. ¹⁵ He was permitted to give a spirit^m to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast could both speak and cause whoever would not worship the image of the beast to be killed. ¹⁶ And he requires everyone—small and great, rich and poor, free and slave—to be given a markⁿ on his^o right hand or on his^o forehead, ¹⁷ so that no one can buy or sell unless he has the mark: the beast's name or the number of his name.

¹⁸ Here is wisdom:^p The one who has understanding must calculate^q the number of the beast, because it is the number of a man.^r His number is 666.^s

The Lamb and the 144,000

14 Then I looked, and there on Mount Zion stood the Lamb, and with Him were 144,000 who had His name and His Father's name written on their foreheads. ² I heard a sound^t from heaven like the sound of cascading waters and like the rumbling of loud thunder. The sound I heard was also like harpists playing on their harps. ³ They sang^u a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders, but no one could learn the song except the 144,000 who had been redeemed^v from the earth. ⁴ These are the ones not defiled with women, for they have kept their virginity. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever He goes. They were redeemed^w ^v from the human race as the •first-fruits for God and the Lamb. ⁵ No lie was found in their mouths; they are blameless.

The Proclamation of Three Angels

⁶ Then I saw another angel flying in mid-heaven, having the eternal gospel to announce to the inhabitants of the earth—to every nation, tribe, language, and people. ⁷ He spoke with a loud voice: "Fear God and give Him glory, because the hour of His judgment has come. Worship the Maker of heaven and earth, the sea and springs of water."

⁸ A second angel^x followed, saying: "It has fallen, Babylon the Great has fallen,^y who made all nations drink the wine of her sexual immorality,^z which brings wrath."

He will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the sight of the holy angels and in the sight of the Lamb, ¹¹ and the smoke of their torment will go up forever and ever. There is no rest^b day or night for those who worship the beast and his image, or anyone who receives the mark of his name. ¹² Here is the endurance^{c d} of the saints, who keep the commandments of God and the faith in Jesus.”^e

¹³ Then I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Write: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.”

“Yes,” says the Spirit, “let them rest from their labors, for their works follow them!”

Reaping the Earth’s Harvest

¹⁴ Then I looked, and there was a white cloud, and One like the Son of Man^f was seated on the cloud, with a gold crown on His head and a sharp sickle in His hand. ¹⁵ Another angel came out of the sanctuary, crying out in a loud voice to the One who was seated on the cloud, “Use your sickle and reap, for the time to reap has come, since the harvest of the earth is ripe.” ¹⁶ So the One seated on the cloud swung His sickle over the earth, and the earth was harvested.

¹⁷ Then another angel who also had a sharp sickle came out of the sanctuary in heaven. ¹⁸ Yet another angel, who had authority over fire, came from the altar, and he called with a loud voice to the one who had the sharp sickle, “Use your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of grapes from earth’s vineyard, because its grapes have ripened.” ¹⁹ So the angel swung his sickle toward earth and gathered the grapes from earth’s vineyard, and he threw them into the great winepress of God’s wrath. ²⁰ Then the press was trampled outside the city, and blood flowed out of the press up to the horses’ bridles for about 180 miles.^g

Preparation for the Bowl Judgments

15 Then I saw another great and awe-inspiring sign^h in heaven: seven angels with the seven last plagues, for with them, God’s wrath will be completed. ² I also saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who had won the victory from the beast, his image,ⁱ and the number of his name, were standing on the sea of glass with harps from God.^j ³ They sang the song of God’s servant Moses, and the song of the Lamb:

Great and awe-inspiring are Your works,
Lord God, the Almighty;
righteous and true are Your ways,
King of the Nations.

⁴ Lord, who will not fear and glorify
Your name?
Because You alone are holy,
because all the nations will come and worship before You, because Your righteous acts
have been revealed.

⁵ After this I looked, and the heavenly sanctuary—the tabernacle of testimony—was opened. ⁶ Out of the sanctuary came the seven angels with the seven plagues, dressed in clean, bright linen, with gold sashes wrapped around their chests. ⁷ One of the four living creatures gave the seven angels seven gold bowls filled with the wrath of God who lives forever and ever. ⁸ Then the sanctuary was filled with smoke from God’s glory and from His power, and no one could enter the sanctuary until the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

The First Bowl

16 Then I heard a loud voice from the sanctuary saying to the seven angels, “Go and pour out the seven^k bowls of God’s wrath on the earth.” ² The first went and poured out his bowl on the earth, and severely painful sores^l broke out on the people who had the mark of the beast and who worshiped his image.

The Second Bowl

³ The second^m poured out his bowl into the sea. It turned to blood like a dead man’s, and all lifeⁿ in the sea died.

The Third Bowl

the Holy One,
for You have decided these things.

⁶ Because they poured out the blood of the saints and the prophets,
You also gave them blood to drink;
they deserve it!

⁷ Then I heard someone from the altar say:

Yes, Lord God, the Almighty,
true and righteous are Your judgments.

The Fourth Bowl

⁸ The fourth^a poured out his bowl on the sun. He^b was given the power^c to burn people with fire, ⁹ and people were burned by the intense heat. So they blasphemed the name of God who had the power^c over these plagues, and they did not repent and give Him glory.

The Fifth Bowl

¹⁰ The fifth^a poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was plunged into darkness. People^d gnawed their tongues from pain ¹¹ and blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, yet they did not repent of their actions.

The Sixth Bowl

¹² The sixth^a poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up to prepare the way for the kings from the east. ¹³ Then I saw three unclean spirits like frogs [coming] from the dragon's mouth, from the beast's mouth, and from the mouth of the false prophet. ¹⁴ For they are spirits of demons performing signs, who travel to the kings of the whole world to assemble them for the battle of the great day of God, the Almighty.

¹⁵ "Look, I am coming like a thief. Blessed is the one who is alert and remains clothed^e so that he may not go naked, and they see his shame."

The Seventh Bowl

¹⁷ Then the seventh^a poured out his bowl into the air,^h and a loud voice came out of the sanctuary,ⁱ from the throne, saying, "It is done!" ¹⁸ There were lightnings, rumblings, and thunders. And a severe earthquake occurred like no other since man has been on the earth—so great was the quake. ¹⁹ The great city split into three parts, and the cities of the nations^j fell. Babylon the Great was remembered in God's presence; He gave her the cup filled with the wine of His fierce anger. ²⁰ Every island fled, and the mountains disappeared.^k ²¹ Enormous hailstones, each weighing about 100 pounds,^l fell from heaven on the people, and they^m blasphemed God for the plague of hail because that plague was extremely severe.

The Woman and the Scarlet Beast

17 Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me: "Come, I will show you the judgment of the notorious prostituteⁿ who sits on many^o waters. ² The kings of the earth committed sexual immorality with her, and those who live on the earth became drunk on the wine of her sexual immorality." ³ So he carried me away in the Spirit^p to a desert. I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that was covered^q with blasphemous names, having seven heads and 10 horns. ⁴ The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, adorned with gold, precious stones, and pearls. She had a gold cup in her hand filled with everything vile and with the impurities of her^r prostitution. ⁵ On her forehead a cryptic name was written:

BABYLON THE GREAT
THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES
AND OF THE VILE THINGS OF
THE EARTH

⁶ Then I saw that the woman was drunk on the blood of the saints and on the blood of the witnesses to Jesus. When I saw her, I was utterly astounded.

The Meaning of the Woman and of the Beast

⁷ Then the angel said to me, “Why are you astounded? I will tell you the secret meaning^a of the woman and of the beast, with the seven heads and the 10 horns, that carries her. ⁸ The beast that you saw was, and is not, and is about to come up from the ^aabyss and go to destruction. Those who live on the earth whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world will be astounded when they see the beast that was, and is not, and will be present [again].

⁹ “Here is the mind with wisdom:^b the seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman is seated. ¹⁰ They are also seven kings:^c five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come, and when he comes, he must remain for a little while. ¹¹ The beast that was and is not, is himself the eighth, yet is of the seven and goes to destruction. ¹² The 10 horns you saw are 10 kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but they will receive authority as kings with the beast for one hour. ¹³ These have one purpose, and they give their power and authority to the beast. ¹⁴ These will make war against the Lamb, but the Lamb will conquer them because he is Lord of lords and King of kings. Those with him are called and elect and faithful.”

¹⁵ He also said to me, “The waters you saw, where the prostitute was seated, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and languages. ¹⁶ The 10 horns you saw, and the beast, will hate the prostitute. They will make her desolate and naked, devour her flesh, and burn her up with fire. ¹⁷ For God has put it into their hearts to carry out His plan by having one purpose, and to give their kingdom^d to the beast until God’s words are accomplished. ¹⁸ And the woman you saw is the great city that has an empire^e over the kings of the earth.”

The Fall of Babylon the Great

18 After this I saw another angel with great authority coming down from heaven, and the earth was illuminated by his splendor. ² He cried in a mighty voice:

It has fallen,^f Babylon the Great has fallen!
She has become a dwelling for demons,

a haunt^g for every unclean spirit,
a haunt^g for every unclean bird,
and a haunt^g for every unclean
and despicable beast.^h

³ For all the nations have drunkⁱ
the wine of her sexual immorality, which brings wrath.

The kings of the earth have committed sexual immorality with her,
and the merchants of the earth
have grown wealthy
from her excessive luxury.

⁴ Then I heard another voice from heaven:

Come out of her, My people,
so that you will not share
in her sins,
or receive any of her plagues.

⁵ For her sins are piled up^j
to heaven,
and God has remembered her crimes.

⁶ Pay her back the way she also paid,
and double it according to her works.
In the cup in which she mixed,
mix a double portion for her.

⁷ As much as she glorified herself and lived luxuriously,
give her that much torment and grief.
Because she says in her heart,
‘I sit as queen;

I am not a widow,
and I will never see grief,’

⁸ therefore her plagues will come in one day^k —
death, and grief, and famine.
She will be burned up with fire,
because the Lord God who judges her is mighty.

The World Mourns Babylon's Fall

⁹ The kings of the earth who have committed sexual immorality and lived luxuriously with her will weep and mourn over her when they see the smoke of her burning. ¹⁰ They stand far off in fear of her torment, saying:

Woe, woe, the great city,
Babylon, the mighty city!
For in a single hour^k
your judgment has come.

^a17:7 Lit the mystery ^b17:9 Or This calls for the mind with wisdom ^c17:10 Some editors or translators put They are also seven kings: in v. 9. ^d17:17 Or sovereignty ^e17:18 Or has sovereignty or rulership ^f18:2 Other mss omit It has fallen ^g18:2 Or prison ^h18:2 Other mss omit the words and a haunt for every unclean beast. The words and despicable then refer to the bird of the previous line. ⁱ18:3 Other mss read have collapsed; other mss read have fallen ^j18:5 Or sins have reached up ^k18:8,10 Suddenly

¹¹ The merchants of the earth will also weep and mourn over her, because no one buys their merchandise any longer— ¹² merchandise of gold, silver, precious stones, and pearls; fine fabrics of linen, purple, silk, and scarlet; all kinds of fragrant wood products; objects of ivory; objects of expensive wood, brass,^a iron, and marble; ¹³ cinnamon, spice,^{b c} incense, myrrh,^d and frankincense; wine, olive oil, fine wheat flour, and grain; cattle and sheep; horses and carriages; and human bodies and souls.^{e f}

¹⁴ The fruit you craved has left you.
All your splendid and glamorous things
are gone;
they will never find them again.

¹⁵ The merchants of these things, who became rich from her, will stand far off in fear of her torment, weeping and mourning, ¹⁶ saying:

Woe, woe, the great city,
clothed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet,
adorned with gold, precious stones,
and pearls;

¹⁷ because in a single hour^g
such fabulous wealth was destroyed!

And every shipmaster, seafarer, the sailors, and all who do business by sea, stood far off ¹⁸ as they watched the smoke from her burning and kept crying out: “Who is like the great city?”

¹⁹ They threw dust on their heads and kept crying out, weeping, and mourning:

Woe, woe, the great city,
where all those who have ships on the sea
became rich from her wealth;
because in a single hour^g
she was destroyed.

²⁰ Rejoice over her, heaven, and you saints,
apostles, and prophets,
because God has executed your judgment
on her!^h

The Finality of Babylon's Fall

²¹ Then a mighty angel picked up a stone like a large millstone and threw it into the sea, saying:

In this way, Babylon the great city will be thrown down violently

and never be found again.

²² The sound of harpists, musicians, flutists,
and trumpeters
will never be heard in you again;
no craftsman of any trade
will ever be found in you again;
the sound of a mill
will never be heard in you again;
²³ the light of a lamp will never shine
in you again;
and the voice of a groom and bride
will never be heard in you again.
[All this will happen]
because your merchants were the nobility
of the earth,
because all the nations were deceived
by your sorcery,ⁱ ²⁴ and the blood of prophets and saints,
and all those slaughtered on earth,
was found in you.^j

Heaven Exults over Babylon

19 After this I heard something like the loud voice of a vast multitude in heaven, saying:

Hallelujah!^k
Salvation, glory, and power belong
to our God,
² because His judgments are true^l
and righteous,
because He has judged
the notorious prostitute
who corrupted the earth
with her sexual immorality;
and He has avenged the blood of His servants that was on her hands.

³ A second time they said:

Hallelujah!^m
Her smoke ascends forever and ever!

⁴ Then the 24 elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God, who is seated on the throne, saying:

•Amen! Hallelujah!^m

⁵ A voice came from the throne, saying:

Praise our God,

^a18:12 Or bronze, or copper ^b18:13 Other mss omit spice ^c18:13 Or amomum, an aromatic plant
^d18:13 Or perfume ^e18:13 Or carriages; and slaves, namely, human beings ^f18:13 Slaves; “bodies” was the Gk way of referring to slaves; “souls of men” was the Hb way. ^g18:17,19 Suddenly ^h18:20 Or God pronounced on her the judgment she passed on you; see Rv 18:6 ⁱ18:23 Ancient sorcery or witchcraft often used spells and drugs. Here the term may be non-literal, that is, Babylon drugged the nations with her beauty and power. ^j18:24 Lit in her ^k19:1 Lit Praise Yahweh; the Gk word is transliterated hallelujah from a Hb expression of praise and is used in many places in the OT, such as Ps 106:1. ^l19:2 Valid; see Jn 8:16; 19:35 ^m19:3,4 See note at Rv 19:1

all you His servants, you who fear Him, both small and great!

Marriage of the Lamb Announced

⁶ Then I heard something like the voice of a vast multitude, like the sound of cascading waters, and like the rumbling of loud thunder, saying:

Hallelujah^a —because our Lord God,
the Almighty,
has begun to reign!

⁷ Let us be glad, rejoice, and give Him glory, because the marriage of the Lamb
has come,
and His wife has prepared herself.

⁸ She was permitted to wear fine linen,
bright and pure.

For the fine linen represents the righteous acts of the saints.

⁹ Then he^b said to me, “Write: Blessed are those invited to the marriage feast of the Lamb!” He also said to me, “These words of God are true.” ¹⁰ Then I fell at his feet to worship him, but he said to me, “Don’t do that! I am a fellow •slave with you and your brothers who have the testimony about^c Jesus. Worship God, because the testimony about^c Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.”

The Rider on a White Horse

¹¹ Then I saw heaven opened, and there was a white horse! Its rider is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and makes war. ¹² His eyes were like a fiery flame, and on His head were many crowns. He had a name written that no one knows except Himself. ¹³ He wore a robe stained with blood,^d and His name is called the Word of God. ¹⁴ The armies that were in heaven followed Him on white horses, wearing pure white linen. ¹⁵ From His mouth came a sharp^e sword, so that with it He might strike the nations. He will shepherd^f them with an iron scepter. He will also trample the winepress of the fierce anger of God, the Almighty. ¹⁶ And on His robe and on His thigh He has a name written:

KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS

The Beast and His Armies Defeated

¹⁷ Then I saw an angel standing in the sun, and he cried out in a loud voice, saying to all the birds flying in mid-heaven, “Come, gather together for the great supper of God, ¹⁸ so that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of commanders, the flesh of mighty men, the flesh of horses and of their riders, and the flesh of everyone, both free and •slave, small and great.”

¹⁹ Then I saw the beast, the kings of the earth, and their armies gathered together to wage war against the rider on the horse and against His army. ²⁰ But the beast was taken prisoner, and along with him the false prophet, who had performed signs on his authority,^g by which he deceived those who accepted the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image. Both of them were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur. ²¹ The rest were killed with the sword that came from the mouth of the rider on the horse, and all the birds were filled with their flesh.

Satan Bound

20 Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven with the key to the •abys and a great chain in his hand. ² He seized the dragon, that ancient serpent who is the Devil and Satan,^h and bound him for 1,000 years. ³ He threw him into the abyss, closed it, and put a seal on it so that he would no longer deceive the nations until the 1,000 years were completed. After that, he must be released for a short time.

The Saints Reign with the Messiah

⁴ Then I saw thrones, and people seated on them who were given authority to judge. [I] also [saw] the souls of those who had been beheadedⁱ because of their testimony about Jesus and because of God’s word, who had not worshiped the beast or his image, and who had not accepted the mark on their foreheads or their hands. They came to life and reigned with the •Messiah for 1,000 years. ⁵ The rest of the dead did not come to life until the 1,000 years were completed. This is the first resurrection. ⁶ Blessed and holy is the one who shares in the first resurrection! The second death has no power^j over these, but they will be priests of God and the Messiah, and they will reign with Him for 1,000 years.

^a19:6 See note at Rv 19:1 ^b19:9 Probably an angel; see Rv 17:1; 22:8–9 ^c19:10 Or testimony to ^d19:13 Or a robe dipped in ^e19:15 Other mss add double-edged ^f19:15 Or rule ^g19:20 Lit signs before him ^h20:2 Other mss add who deceives the whole world ⁱ20:4 All who had given their lives for their faith in Christ ^j20:6 Or authority

Satanic Rebellion Crushed

⁷ When the 1,000 years are completed, Satan will be released from his prison ⁸ and will go out to deceive the nations at the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them for battle. Their number is like the sand of the sea. ⁹ They came up over the surface of the earth and surrounded the encampment of the saints, the beloved city. Then fire came down from heaven^a and consumed them. ¹⁰ The Devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur where the beast and the false prophet are, and they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

The Great White Throne Judgment

¹¹ Then I saw a great white throne and One seated on it. Earth and heaven fled from His presence, and no place was found for them. ¹² I also saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Another book was opened, which is the book of life, and the dead were judged according to their works by what was written in the books.

¹³ Then the sea gave up its dead, and Death and •Hades gave up their dead; all^b were judged according to their works. ¹⁴ Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire.^c ¹⁵ And anyone not found written in the book of life was thrown into the lake of fire.

The New Creation

21 Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea existed no longer. ² I also saw the Holy City, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband.

³ Then I heard a loud voice from the throne:^d

Look! God's dwelling^e is with men, and He will live with them.
They will be His people,
and God Himself will be with them and be their God.^f

⁴ He will wipe away every tear
from their eyes.
Death will exist no longer;
grief, crying, and pain will exist no longer,
because the previous things^g
have passed away.

⁵ Then the One seated on the throne said, "Look! I am making everything new." He also said, "Write, because these words^h are faithful and true." ⁶ And He said to me, "It is done! I am the •Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give to the thirsty from the spring of living water as a gift. ⁷ The victor will inherit these things, and I will be his God, and he will be My son. ⁸ But the cowards, unbelievers,ⁱ vile, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars—their share will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death."

The New Jerusalem

⁹ Then one of the seven angels, who had held the seven bowls filled with the seven last plagues, came and spoke with me: "Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb." ¹⁰ He then carried me away in the Spirit^j to a great and high mountain and showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, ¹¹ arrayed with God's glory. Her radiance was like a very precious stone, like a jasper stone, bright as crystal. ¹² [The city] had a massive high wall, with 12 gates. Twelve angels were at the gates; [on the gates], names were inscribed, the names of the 12 tribes of the sons of Israel. ¹³ There were three gates on the east, three gates on the north, three gates on the south, and three gates on the west. ¹⁴ The city wall had 12 foundations, and on them were the 12 names of the Lamb's 12 apostles.

¹⁵ The one who spoke with me had a gold measuring rod to measure the city, its gates, and its wall. ¹⁶ The city is laid out in a square; its length and width are the same. He measured the city with the rod at 12,000 stadia.^k Its length, width, and height are equal. ¹⁷ Then he measured its wall, 144 •cubits according to human measurement, which the angel used. ¹⁸ The building material of its wall was jasper, and the city was pure gold like clear glass.

¹⁹ The foundations of the city wall were adorned with every kind of precious stone:

the first foundation jasper,
the second sapphire,
the third chalcidony,
the fourth emerald,
²⁰ the fifth sardonyx,

the ninth topaz,
the tenth chrysoprase,
the eleventh jacinth,
the twelfth amethyst.

²¹ The 12 gates are 12 pearls; each individual gate was made of a single pearl. The broad street^a of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass.

²² I did not see a sanctuary in it, because the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb are its sanctuary. ²³ The city does not need the sun or the moon to shine on it, because God's glory illuminates it, and its lamp is the Lamb. ²⁴ The nations^b will walk in its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it.^c ²⁵ Each day its gates will never close because it will never be night there. ²⁶ They will bring the glory and honor of the nations into it.^d ²⁷ Nothing profane will ever enter it: no one who does what is vile or false, but only those written in the Lamb's book of life.

The Source of Life

22 Then he showed me the river^e of living water, sparkling like crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb ² down the middle of the broad street [of the city]. On both sides of the river was the tree of life^f bearing 12 kinds of fruit, producing its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree are for healing the nations,³ and there will no longer be any curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city,^g and His servants will serve Him. ⁴ They will see His face, and His name will be on their foreheads. ⁵ Night will no longer exist, and people will not need lamplight or sunlight, because the Lord God will give them light. And they will reign forever and ever.

The Time Is Near

⁶ Then he said to me, "These words are faithful and true. And the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets,^h has sent His angel to show His servants what must quickly take place."ⁱ

⁷ "Look, I am coming quickly! Blessed is the one who keeps the prophetic words of this book."

⁸ I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. When I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who had shown them to me. ⁹ But he said to me, "Don't do that! I am a fellow •slave with you, your brothers the prophets, and those who keep the words of this book. Worship God." ¹⁰ He also said to me, "Don't seal the prophetic words of this book, because the time is near. ¹¹ Let the unrighteous go on in unrighteousness; let the filthy go on being made filthy; let the righteous go on in righteousness; and let the holy go on being made holy."

¹² "Look! I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me to repay each person according to what he has done. ¹³ I am the •Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

¹⁴ "Blessed are those who wash their robes,^j so that they may have the right to the tree of life and may enter the city by the gates. ¹⁵ Outside are the dogs, the sorcerers, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices lying.

¹⁶ "I, Jesus, have sent My angel to attest these things to you^k for the churches. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, the Bright Morning Star."

¹⁷ Both the Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" Anyone who hears should say, "Come!" And the one who is thirsty should come. Whoever desires should take the living water as a gift.

¹⁸ I testify to everyone who hears the prophetic words of this book: If anyone adds to them, God will add to him the plagues that are written in this book. ¹⁹ And if anyone takes away from the words of this prophetic book, God will take away his share of the tree of life and the holy city, written in this book.

²⁰ He who testifies about these things says, "Yes, I am coming quickly."

HCSB BULLET NOTES

HCSB Bullet Notes are one of the unique features of the Holman Christian Standard Bible®. These notes explain frequently used biblical words or terms. These “bullet” words (for example: ●abyss) are normally marked with a bullet only on their first occurrence in a chapter of the biblical text. However, certain important or easily misunderstood terms, such as ●Jews or ●slaves, will have more than one bullet per chapter. Other frequently used words, like ●gate, are marked with bullets only where the use of the word fits the definitions given below. A few words in footnotes, like ●acrostic, also have a bullet.

LORD, TEACH US TO PRAY

Luke 11

He was praying in a certain place, and when He finished, one of His disciples said to Him, “Lord, teach us to pray, just as John also taught his disciples.”

² He said to them, “Whenever you pray, say:

Father, Your name be honored as holy.
Your kingdom come.

How to Pray

Matthew 6

⁵ “Whenever you pray, you must not be like the hypocrites, because they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners to be seen by people. I assure you: They’ve got their reward! ⁶ But when you pray, go into your private room, shut your door, and pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you. ⁷ When you pray, don’t babble like the idolaters, since they imagine they’ll be heard for their many words. ⁸ Don’t be like them, because your Father knows the things you need before you ask Him.

⁹ “Therefore, you should pray like this:

Our Father in heaven,
Your name be honored as holy.

¹⁰ Your kingdom come.

Your will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.

¹¹ Give us today our daily bread.

¹² And forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors.

¹³ And do not bring us into temptation,
but deliver us from the evil one.
[For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.]

¹⁴ “For if you forgive people their wrongdoing, your heavenly Father will forgive you as well. ¹⁵ But if you don’t forgive people, your Father will not forgive your wrongdoing.

Luke 11

⁹ “So I say to you, keep asking, and it will be given to you. Keep searching, and you will find. Keep knocking, and the door will be opened to you. ¹⁰ For everyone who asks receives, and the one who searches finds, and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened. ¹¹ What father among you, if his son asks for a fish, will, instead of a fish, give him a snake? ¹² Or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? ¹³ If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him?”

Help in Praying

Romans 8

²⁶ In the same way the Spirit also joins to help in our weakness, because we do not know what to pray for as we should, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with unspoken groanings. ²⁷ And He who searches the hearts knows the Spirit’s mind-set, because He intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

Hebrews 4

¹² For the word of God is living and effective and sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating as far as to divide soul, spirit, joints, and marrow; it is a judge of the ideas and thoughts of the heart. ¹³ No creature is hidden from Him, but all things are naked and exposed to the eyes of Him to whom we must give an account.

¹⁴ Therefore since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens—Jesus the Son of God—let us hold fast to the confession. ¹⁵ For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but One who has been tested in every way as we are, yet without sin. ¹⁶ Therefore let us approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us at the proper time.
