6So he answered and said to me:

"'This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel:
'Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit,'
Says the LORD of hosts.
7'Who are you, O great mountain?
Before Zerubbabel you shall become a plain!
And he shall bring forth the capstone
With shouts of "Grace, grace to it!"'"

8Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

9"'The hands of Zerubbabel
Have laid the foundation of this temple;[a]
His hands shall also finish it.
Then you will know
That the LORD of hosts has sent Me to you.
10For who has despised the day of small things?
For these seven rejoice to see
The plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel.
They are the eyes of the LORD,
Which scan to and fro throughout the whole earth."

11Then I answered and said to him, "What are these two olive trees—at the right of the lampstand and at its left?"

MIR MAKING IT REAL // ZECHARIAH 4:6

Real Power? We live in a world in which it seems we can do almost anything. Sports records are being broken every day. Scientists are discovering cures for diseases that were once considered incurable. Virtual reality can take us places we never thought we could go. It's true, technology and information have enabled humans to do a lot with their minds and bodies and abilities. But humans are still limited. No matter how advanced we get, we will never even come close to being as awesome and powerful and wise as God is.

God says that we are to depend on His Spirit. He wants us to learn to trust His Spirit instead of our own power. There are certain things that His Spirit can do that you could never do in your own strength—such as touch and change and heal a person way down deep inside. God's ways may be different from yours. When you follow His Spirit, you may need to keep your mouth shut instead of telling someone off. He may lead you to make a decision that doesn't seem to make sense; then later you may realize that not doing it would have been devastating for you.

He leads in lots of different ways. No matter how strong or how smart you are, you can't outdo the Spirit of God. He's the One you can totally depend on. (See also: Prov. 3:5, 6; Is. 55:8, 9; Matt. 19:26; 1 Cor. 2:10–12.)

Words to Live By

Power: The word translated as "power" in Zechariah 4:6 is the Hebrew word koach (ko'-akh). It means "strength" or "might." It doesn't matter how strong or powerful we think we are, we will always hit a limit to what we can do. We will always find things we just can't do on our own. But when we trust God's Spirit to work within us, we have access to His power. And there is no limit to what God's power can do.

12 And I further answered and said to him,
"What are these two olive branches that drip into the receptacles[a] of the two gold pipes from which the golden oil drains?" 13 Then he answered me and said, "Do you not know what these are?"
And I said, "No, my lord."
14 So he said, "These are the two anointed ones, who stand beside the Lord of the whole earth."

VISION OF THE FLYING SCROLL

5 Then I turned and raised my eyes, and saw there a flying scroll.
2 And he said to me, "What do you see?"
So I answered, "I see a flying scroll. Its length is twenty cubits and its width ten cubits."
3 Then he said to me, "This is the curse that goes out over the face of the whole earth: 'Every thief shall be expelled,' according to this side of the scroll; and, 'Every perjurer shall be expelled,' according to that side of it."

4 "I will send out the curse," says the LORD of hosts;
"It shall enter the house of the thief
And the house of the one who swears falsely by My name.
It shall remain in the midst of his house
And consume it, with its timber and stones."

VISION OF THE WOMAN IN A BASKET

5 Then the angel who talked with me came out and said to me, "Lift your eyes now, and see what this is that goes forth."
6 So I asked, "What is it?" And he said, "It is a basket[a] that is going forth."

4:12 [a]Literally into the hands of 5:6 [a]Hebrew ephah, a measuring container, and so elsewhere

He also said, "This is their resemblance throughout the earth: 7Here is a lead disc lifted up, and this is a woman sitting inside the basket"; 8then he said, "This is Wickedness!" And he thrust her down into the basket, and threw the lead cover[a] over its mouth. 9Then I raised my eyes and looked, and there were two women, coming with the wind in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the basket between earth and heaven.

10So I said to the angel who talked with me, "Where are they carrying the basket?"

11And he said to me, "To build a house for it in the land of Shinar;[a] when it is ready, the basket will be set there on its base."

VISION OF THE FOUR CHARIOTS

6 Then I turned and raised my eyes and looked, and behold, four chariots were coming from between two mountains, and the mountains were mountains of bronze. 2With the first chariot were red horses, with the second chariot black horses, 3with the third chariot white horses, and with the fourth chariot dappled horses—strong steeds. 4Then I answered and said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?"

5And the angel answered and said to me, "These are four spirits of heaven, who go out from their station before the Lord of all the earth. 6The one with the black horses is going to the north country, the white are going after them, and the dappled are going toward the south country." 7Then the strong steeds went out, eager to go, that they might walk to and fro throughout the earth. And He said, "Go, walk to and fro throughout the earth." So they walked to and fro throughout the earth. 8And He called to me, and spoke to me, saying, "See, those who go toward the north country have given rest to My Spirit in the north country."

THE COMMAND TO CROWN JOSHUA

9Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying: 10"Receive the gift from the captives—from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, who have come from Babylon—and go the same day and enter the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah. 11Take the silver and gold, make an elaborate crown, and set it on the head of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest. 12Then speak to him, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, saying:

"Behold, the Man whose name is the BRANCH!
From His place He shall branch out,
And He shall build the temple of the LORD;
13Yes, He shall build the temple of the LORD.
He shall bear the glory,
And shall sit and rule on His throne;
So He shall be a priest on His throne,
And the counsel of peace shall be between them both."'

14"Now the elaborate crown shall be for a memorial in the temple of the LORD for Helem,[a] Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Hen the son of Zephaniah. 15Even those from afar shall come and build the temple of the LORD. Then you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent Me to you. And this shall come to pass if you diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God."

OBEDIENCE BETTER THAN FASTING

7 Now in the fourth year of King Darius it came to pass that the word of the LORD came to Zechariah, on the fourth day of the ninth month, Chislev, 2when the people[a] sent Sherezer,[b] with Regem-Melech and his men, to the house of God,[c] to pray before the LORD, 3*and* to ask the priests who were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and the prophets, saying, "Should I weep in the fifth month and fast as I have done for so many years?"

4Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, 5"Say to all the people of the land, and to the priests: 'When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months during those seventy years, did you really fast for Me—for Me? 6When you eat and when you drink, do you not

MAKING IT REAL // ZECHARIAH 7:9, 10

Walk in Love The Bible is full of advice about how God wants you to treat other people. If you'll start with the instructions here in Zechariah 7:9 and 10, you'll be well on your way to living a godly life.

These verses put some responsibility on the people who read them. Yes, you are responsible to see that justice is done in situations where you can. Don't let people treat others unfairly when you can speak out against it. And it is even more important to make sure you act fairly.

You're also responsible for acting with compassion and mercy. Being compassionate means going out of your way to help someone, sacrificing in order to share, and doing more than someone asks of you. Being merciful means that you do those things for people even if you think they don't deserve it.

What else? "Do not oppress the widow or the fatherless, the alien or the poor." Do what you can for people who can't do things for themselves. Older people often have trouble with little things like changing light bulbs or raking leaves. It wouldn't take long for you to do odd jobs for them, and they would love it. "The fatherless," or orphaned, often just need someone to throw a football with them or take them to a movie. You can't imagine how excited they would be if you did that!

Finally, "Let none of you plan evil in his heart against his brother." Pretty self-explanatory. All of these actions will continue to become more natural to you as you commit to walk in love. (See also: Deut. 6:4, 5; Amos 5:21–24; Matt. 22:36–39; Phil. 1:27.)

Words to Live By

Mercy: The word translated as "mercy" in Zechariah 7:9 is the Hebrew word checed (kheh'-sed). It carries the idea of kindness and goodness. When we show true kindness to someone, it's about doing what is good and what is right. When we consider the kindness God has shown us, even when we didn't deserve it, how can we be stingy with our kindness to others?

eat and drink for yourselves? 7*Should you* not have obeyed the words which the LORD proclaimed through the former prophets when Jerusalem and the cities around it were inhabited and prosperous, and the South[a] and the Lowland were inhabited?'"

DISOBEDIENCE RESULTED IN CAPTIVITY

8Then the word of the LORD came to Zechariah, saying, 9"Thus says the LORD of hosts:

'Execute true justice,
Show mercy and compassion
Everyone to his brother.
10Do not oppress the widow or the fatherless,
The alien or the poor.
Let none of you plan evil in his heart
Against his brother.'

CARING
How should we treat others?
Zechariah 7:9, 10

11"But they refused to heed, shrugged their shoulders, and stopped their ears so that they could not hear. 12Yes, they made their hearts like flint, refusing to hear the law and the words which the LORD of hosts had sent by His Spirit through the former prophets. Thus great wrath came from the LORD of hosts. 13Therefore it happened, that just as He proclaimed and they would not hear, so they called out and I would not listen," says the LORD of hosts. 14"But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations which they had not known. Thus the land became desolate after them, so that no one passed through or returned; for they made the pleasant land desolate."

7:7 [a]Hebrew Negev

JERUSALEM, HOLY CITY OF THE FUTURE

8 Again the word of the LORD of hosts came, saying, 2"Thus says the LORD of hosts:

'I am zealous for Zion with great zeal;
With great fervor I am zealous for her.'

3"Thus says the LORD:

'I will return to Zion,
And dwell in the midst of Jerusalem.
Jerusalem shall be called the City of Truth,
The Mountain of the LORD of hosts,
The Holy Mountain.'

4"Thus says the LORD of hosts:

'Old men and old women shall again sit
In the streets of Jerusalem,
Each one with his staff in his hand
Because of great age.
5The streets of the city
Shall be full of boys and girls
Playing in its streets.'

6"Thus says the LORD of hosts:

'If it is marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days,
Will it also be marvelous in My eyes?'
Says the LORD of hosts.

7"Thus says the LORD of hosts:

'Behold, I will save My people from the land of the east
And from the land of the west;
8I will bring them back,
And they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem.
They shall be My people
And I will be their God,
In truth and righteousness.'

9"Thus says the LORD of hosts:

'Let your hands be strong,
You who have been hearing in these days
These words by the mouth of the prophets,
Who spoke in the day the foundation was laid
For the house of the LORD of hosts,
That the temple might be built.
10For before these days
There were no wages for man nor any hire for beast;
There was no peace from the enemy for whoever went out or came in;
For I set all men, everyone, against his neighbor.

11But now I will not treat the remnant of this people as in the former days,' says the LORD of hosts.

12'For the seed shall be prosperous,
The vine shall give its fruit,
The ground shall give her increase,
And the heavens shall give their dew—
I will cause the remnant of this people
To possess all these.
13And it shall come to pass
That just as you were a curse among the nations,
O house of Judah and house of Israel,
So I will save you, and you shall be a blessing.
Do not fear,
Let your hands be strong.'

14"For thus says the LORD of hosts:

'Just as I determined to punish you When your fathers provoked Me to wrath,'
Says the LORD of hosts,
'And I would not relent, 15So again in these days
I am determined to do good
To Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.
Do not fear.

Speak Truth We all make mistakes. At some point in time, you will mess up; and the result could be a damaged friendship. When that happens, the first thing you've got to do is to be truthful with yourself. Face what you did, swallow your pride, and don't make excuses—just admit it. You messed up. Whether you meant to or not, it happened. The key to great relationships is being able to work out the stuff that comes between you.

Next you've got to be honest with God. Confess your sin. Tell Him you know you've done wrong and that you're sorry. Ask Him to forgive you. He'll forgive you before you finish asking. Then ask Him to help you deal with your friend—to help you know what to say and how to make things right.

The hardest part may be facing your friend and admitting that you aren't perfect, that you blew it and you're sorry. Ask for your friend's forgiveness. A good Christian friend may surprise you and say, "I've already forgiven you."

There are other things that will help you patch up a relationship, too. Walking in true forgiveness and grace, learning to overlook the little stuff, doing your best to love like Jesus, encouraging, supporting, having good times together—all of these things build good relationships and make it easier to work through the rough spots. (See also: 2 Cor. 2:7, 8; Eph. 4:25–32; 1 John 4:7.)

Words to Live By

Truth: The word translated as "truth" in Zechariah 8:16 is the Hebrew word emeth (eh'-meth). It means "trustworthiness," "faithfulness," or "certainty." We should always seek to speak truth so when people hear our words, they know they can trust them; and so they will know they can trust us to be faithful to the words we say.

16 These are the things you shall do:
Speak each man the truth to his neighbor;
Give judgment in your gates for truth, justice, and peace;
17 Let none of you think evil in your[a] heart against your neighbor;
And do not love a false oath.
For all these are things that I hate,'
Says the LORD."

18 Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, 19 "'Thus says the LORD of hosts:

'The fast of the fourth month,
The fast of the fifth,
The fast of the seventh,
And the fast of the tenth,
Shall be joy and gladness and cheerful feasts
For the house of Judah.
Therefore love truth and peace.'

20 "'Thus says the LORD of hosts:

'Peoples shall yet come,
Inhabitants of many cities;
21 The inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying,
"Let us continue to go and pray before the LORD,
And seek the LORD of hosts.
I myself will go also."
22 Yes, many peoples and strong nations
Shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem,
And to pray before the LORD.'

23 "'Thus says the LORD of hosts: 'In those days ten men from every language of the nations shall grasp the sleeve of a Jewish man, saying, "Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you."'"

8:17 [a]Literally his

ISRAEL DEFENDED AGAINST ENEMIES

9 The burden[a] of the word of the LORD
Against the land of Hadrach,
And Damascus its resting place (For the eyes of men
And all the tribes of Israel
Are on the LORD);
2 Also against Hamath, which borders on it,
And against Tyre and Sidon, though they are very wise.

3 For Tyre built herself a tower,
Heaped up silver like the dust,
And gold like the mire of the streets.
4 Behold, the Lord will cast her out;
He will destroy her power in the sea,
And she will be devoured by fire.

5 Ashkelon shall see it and fear;
Gaza also shall be very sorrowful;
And Ekron, for He dried up her expectation.
The king shall perish from Gaza,
And Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

6 "A mixed race shall settle in Ashdod,
And I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.
7 I will take away the blood from his mouth,
And the abominations from between his teeth.
But he who remains, even he shall be for our God,
And shall be like a leader in Judah,
And Ekron like a Jebusite.
8 I will camp around My house
Because of the army,
Because of him who passes by and him who returns.
No more shall an oppressor pass through them,
For now I have seen with My eyes.

THE COMING KING

9 "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion!
Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem!
Behold, your King is coming to you;
He is just and having salvation,
Lowly and riding on a donkey,
A colt, the foal of a donkey.

Zechariah 9:9

Donkeys were considered animals of peace. They were ridden by princes and kings (Judg. 5:10; 10:4; 12:14; 2 Sam. 16:1, 2). When Jesus rode into Jerusalem for the last week of His earthly ministry, He was sitting on a young donkey.

10 I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim
And the horse from Jerusalem;
The battle bow shall be cut off.
He shall speak peace to the nations;
His dominion shall be 'from sea to sea,
And from the River to the ends of the earth.'[a]

GOD WILL SAVE HIS PEOPLE

11 "As for you also,
Because of the blood of your covenant,
I will set your prisoners free from the waterless pit.
12 Return to the stronghold,
You prisoners of hope.
Even today I declare
That I will restore double to you.
13 For I have bent Judah, My bow,
Fitted the bow with Ephraim,
And raised up your sons, O Zion,
Against your sons, O Greece,
And made you like the sword of a mighty man."

14 Then the LORD will be seen over them,
And His arrow will go forth like lightning.
The Lord GOD will blow the trumpet,
And go with whirlwinds from the south.
15 The LORD of hosts will defend them;
They shall devour and subdue with slingstones.
They shall drink and roar as if with wine;
They shall be filled with blood like basins,
Like the corners of the altar.
16 The LORD their God will save them in that day,
As the flock of His people.

9:1 [a]Or oracle 9:10 [a]Psalm 72:8

For they shall be like the jewels of a crown, Lifted like a banner over His land—
17For how great is its[a] goodness
And how great its[b] beauty!
Grain shall make the young men thrive,
And new wine the young women.

RESTORATION OF JUDAH AND ISRAEL

10 Ask the LORD for rain
In the time of the latter rain.[a]
The LORD will make flashing clouds;
He will give them showers of rain,
Grass in the field for everyone.

2For the idols[a] speak delusion;
The diviners envision lies,
And tell false dreams;
They comfort in vain.
Therefore the people wend their way like sheep;
They are in trouble because there is no shepherd.

3"My anger is kindled against the shepherds,
And I will punish the goatherds.
For the LORD of hosts will visit His flock,
The house of Judah,
And will make them as His royal horse in the battle.
4From him comes the cornerstone,
From him the tent peg,
From him the battle bow,
From him every ruler[a] together.
5They shall be like mighty men,
Who tread down their enemies
In the mire of the streets in the battle.
They shall fight because the LORD is with them,
And the riders on horses shall be put to shame.

6"I will strengthen the house of Judah,
And I will save the house of Joseph.
I will bring them back,
Because I have mercy on them.
They shall be as though I had not cast them aside;
For I am the LORD their God,
And I will hear them.
7*Those of* Ephraim shall be like a mighty man,
And their heart shall rejoice as if with wine.
Yes, their children shall see it and be glad;
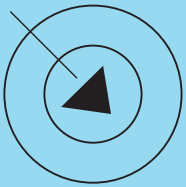
Their heart shall rejoice in the LORD.
8I will whistle for them and gather them,
For I will redeem them;
And they shall increase as they once increased.

9"I will sow them among the peoples,
And they shall remember Me in far countries;
They shall live, together with their children,
And they shall return.

Zechariah 10:10

Gilead and Lebanon refer to the regions on each side of the Jordan River. Together they form the land that God originally gave to the Israelites.



10I will also bring them back from the land of Egypt,
And gather them from Assyria.
I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon,
Until no more room is found for them.
11He shall pass through the sea with affliction,
And strike the waves of the sea:
All the depths of the River[a] shall dry up.
Then the pride of Assyria shall be brought down,
And the scepter of Egypt shall depart.

12"So I will strengthen them in the LORD,
And they shall walk up and down in His name,"
Says the LORD.

PROMISE

God promises to strengthen His people.

"So I will strengthen them in the LORD, and they shall walk up and down in His name," says the LORD (Zech. 10:12).

Through the prophet Zechariah, God promised to restore the nation of Israel, His people. We know that we are now also God's people and He is still the same faithful God. So this promise is also for us. We can be sure that God will strengthen us, because He is our Lord and we are His people

God has chosen to show His power and His personality in the lives of the people who live for Him. The problems you face are just opportunities for God to show His character. It's a chance for Him to show what He can do (His awesome power) and what He will do (His incredible kindness and mercy).

In his second letter to the Christians who lived Corinth, Paul gave a long list of the difficulties he had faced. One thing in particular seemed to bother him, though he didn't say what it was. He just said that he had asked the Lord three times to change things. But God answered, "My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness" (2 Cor. 12:9). When you feel weak or overwhelmed in your life, be disciplined enough to read and learn God's Word. Spend time praying and ask Him to help you. The only place to find real strength is in the presence of God.

SEE FOR YOURSELF// Psalm 68:35; Habakkuk 3:19; 2 Corinthians 12:9, 10; Philippians 4:13

2 Wail, O cypress, for the cedar has fallen,
Because the mighty trees are ruined.
Wail, O oaks of Bashan,
For the thick forest has come down.
3 There is the sound of wailing shepherds!
For their glory is in ruins.
There is the sound of roaring lions!
For the pride[a] of the Jordan is in ruins.

Zechariah 11:3

In ancient Israel, lions were known to spring from their hiding places among the thickets near the Jordan River to pounce on people passing by.

PROPHECY OF THE SHEPHERDS

4 Thus says the LORD my God, "Feed the flock for slaughter, 5 whose owners slaughter them and feel no guilt; those who sell them say, 'Blessed be the LORD, for I am rich'; and their shepherds do not pity them. 6 For I will no longer pity the inhabitants of the land," says the LORD. "But indeed I will give everyone into his neighbor's hand and into the hand of his king. They shall attack the land, and I will not deliver them from their hand."

7 So I fed the flock for slaughter, in particular the poor of the flock.[a] I took for myself two staffs: the one I called Beauty,[b] and the other I called Bonds;[c] and I fed the flock. 8 I dismissed the three shepherds in one month. My soul loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me. 9 Then I said, "I will not feed you. Let what is dying die, and what is perishing perish. Let those that are left eat each other's flesh." 10 And I took my staff, Beauty, and cut it in two, that I might break the covenant which I had made with all the peoples. 11 So it was broken on that day. Thus the poor[a] of the flock, who were watching me, knew that it was the word of the LORD. 12Then I said to them, "If it is agreeable to you, give me my wages; and if not, refrain." So they weighed out for my wages thirty pieces of silver.

11:3 [a]Or floodplain, thicket 11:7 [a]Following Masoretic Text, Targum, and Vulgate; Septuagint reads for the Canaanites. [b]Or Grace, and so in verse 10 [c]Or Unity, and so in verse 14 11:11 [a]Following Masoretic Text, Targum, and Vulgate; Septuagint reads the Canaanites.

13And the LORD said to me, "Throw it to the potter"—that princely price they set on me. So I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them into the house of the LORD for the potter. 14Then I cut in two my other staff, Bonds, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15And the LORD said to me, "Next, take for yourself the implements of a foolish shepherd. 16For indeed I will raise up a shepherd in the land who will not care for those who are cut off, nor seek the young, nor heal those that are broken, nor feed those that still stand. But he will eat the flesh of the fat and tear their hooves in pieces.

17"Woe to the worthless shepherd,
Who leaves the flock!
A sword shall be against his arm
And against his right eye;
His arm shall completely wither,
And his right eye shall be totally blinded."

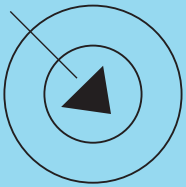
Zechariah 12:2

A cup that came from God's hand was a common symbol in ancient times for a person's (or a nation's) destiny. A cup of His anger symbolized punishment for a sin. A cup of His blessing symbolized a bright future.

THE COMING DELIVERANCE OF JUDAH

12 The burden[a] of the word of the LORD against Israel. Thus says the LORD, who stretches out the heavens, lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him: 2"Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of drunkenness to all the surrounding peoples, when they lay siege against Judah and Jerusalem. 3And it shall happen in that day that I will make Jerusalem a very heavy stone for all peoples; all who would heave it away will surely be cut in pieces, though all nations of the earth are gathered against it. 4In that day," says the LORD, "I will strike every horse with confusion, and its rider with madness; I will open My eyes on the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness. 5And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in the LORD of hosts, their God.' 6In that day I will make the governors of Judah like a firepan in the woodpile, and like a fiery torch in the sheaves; they shall devour all the surrounding peoples on the right hand and on the left, but Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place—Jerusalem.

7"The LORD will save the tents of Judah first, so that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem shall not become greater than that of Judah. 8In that day the LORD will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; the one who is feeble among them in that day shall be like David, and the house of David shall be like God, like the Angel of the LORD before them. 9It shall be in that day that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.



MOURNING FOR THE PIERCED ONE

10"And I will pour on the house of David and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem the Spirit of grace and supplication; then they will look on Me whom they pierced. Yes, they will mourn for Him as one mourns for his only son, and grieve for Him as one grieves for a firstborn. 11In that day there shall be a great mourning in Jerusalem, like the mourning at Hadad Rimmon in the plain of Megiddo.[a] 12And the land shall mourn, every family by itself: the family of the house of David by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the house of Nathan by itself, and their wives by themselves; 13the family of the house of Levi by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of Shimei by itself, and their wives by themselves; 14all the families that remain, every family by itself, and their wives by themselves.

IDOLATRY CUT OFF

13 "In that day a fountain shall be opened for the house of David and for the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness.

PROMISE

God promises to refine and test His people.

"I will bring the one-third through the fire, will refine them as silver is refined, and test them as gold is tested. They will call on My name, and I will answer them. I will say, 'This is My people'; and each one will say, 'The LORD is my God'" (Zech. 13:9).

Imagine you bought a ring that was supposed to be pure gold, but when you wore it, it made your finger turn green. Why would such a thing happen? Because the ring wasn't pure gold. It didn't go through the refining process necessary to remove all the impurities from the metal. Maybe the ring looked beautiful in the case, but not on your green-fingered hand. Unfortunately, if a ring causes discolored digits, it's not pure gold; it's a fraud and full of other junky metals. What could have been a beautiful ring was ruined because the goldsmith didn't take the time or energy to purify the gold.

God wants you to be pure—in every way. He wants your thoughts to be pure. He wants your actions to be pure. He wants you physically, morally, spiritually, and sexually pure. He doesn't want you just to look good. He wants you to be beautiful through and through.

Purification is a two-step process. You make the decision to allow the Lord to work in your life; then He does the purifying. He does it by renewing your mind with His Word and by speaking to you by His Spirit. The process may not always be pleasant for you, but God will not leave you in the fire to burn up. Just like a master goldsmith, He will only allow the fire to make you better and take away all the junky stuff in your life. Then He will bring you out at the perfect time and finish the process of making you into the beautiful person He created you to be.

When a ring is put on a finger, it's put to the test. If it's pure, it's beautiful. If it isn't, it will tarnish. When you've been purified by the Lord, you will be as beautiful as pure gold.

2 "It shall be in that day," says the LORD of hosts, "that I will cut off the names of the idols from the land, and they shall no prophets and the unclean spirit to depart from the land. 3 It shall come to pass that if anyone still prophesies, then his father and mother who begot him will say to him, 'You shall not live, because you have spoken lies in the name of the LORD.' And his father and mother who begot him shall thrust him through when he prophesies.

4 "And it shall be in that day that every prophet will be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies; they will not wear a robe of coarse hair to deceive. 5 But he will say, 'I

Against the Man who is My

Says the LORD of hosts.
"Strike the Shepherd,
And the sheep will be scattered;
Then I will turn My hand against the little ones.
8 And it shall come to pass in all the land,"
Says the LORD,
"That two-thirds in it shall be cut off

But one–third shall be left in it:

And test them as gold is tested.
They will call on My name,

THE DAY OF THE LORD

14 Behold, the day of the LORD is coming,
And your spoil will be divided in your midst.
2 For I will gather all the nations to battle against Jerusalem;
The city shall be taken,
The houses rifled,
And the women ravished.
Half of the city shall go into captivity,
But the remnant of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 Then the LORD will go forth
And fight against those nations,
As He fights in the day of battle.
4 And in that day His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives,
Which faces Jerusalem on the east.
And the Mount of Olives shall be split in two,
From east to west,
Making a very large valley;
Half of the mountain shall move toward the north
And half of it toward the south.

5 Then you shall flee through My mountain valley,
For the mountain valley shall reach to Azal.
Yes, you shall flee
As you fled from the earthquake
In the days of Uzziah king of Judah.

Thus the LORD my God will come,
And all the saints with You.[a]

6 It shall come to pass in that day
That there will be no light;
The lights will diminish.
7 It shall be one day
Which is known to the LORD—
Neither day nor night.
But at evening time it shall happen
That it will be light.

8 And in that day it shall be
That living waters shall flow from Jerusalem,
Half of them toward the eastern sea
And half of them toward the western sea;
In both summer and winter it shall occur.
9 And the LORD shall be King over all the earth.
In that day it shall be—
"The LORD is one,"[a]
And His name one.

10 All the land shall be turned into a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem. Jerusalem[a] shall be raised up and inhabited in her place from Benjamin's Gate to the place of the First Gate and the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's winepresses.

11 The people shall dwell in it;
And no longer shall there be utter destruction,
But Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited.

12 And this shall be the plague with which the LORD will strike all the people who fought against Jerusalem:

Their flesh shall dissolve while they stand on their feet,
Their eyes shall dissolve in their sockets,
And their tongues shall dissolve in their mouths.

13 It shall come to pass in that day
That a great panic from the LORD will be among them.

14:5 [a]Or you; Septuagint, Targum, and Vulgate read Him. 14:9 [a]Compare Deuteronomy 6:4

Everyone will seize the hand of his neighbor,
And raise his hand against his 14 Judah also will fight at Jerusalem.

And the wealth of all the surrounding nations

Gold, silver, and apparel in great abundance.

15 Such also shall be the plague
On the horse and the mule,
On the camel and the donkey,
And on all the cattle that will be in those camps.
So shall this plague be.

THE NATIONS WORSHIP THE KING

16 And it shall come to pass that everyone who is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the Feast of Tabernacles. 17 And it shall be that whichever of the families of the earth do not come up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, on them there will be no rain. 18 If the family of Egypt will not come up and enter in, they shall have no rain; they shall receive the plague with which the LORD strikes the nations who do not come up to keep the Feast of Tabernacles. 19 This shall be the punishment of Egypt and the punishment of all the nations that do not come up to keep the Feast of Tabernacles.

20 In that day "HOLINESS TO THE LORD" shall be engraved on the bells of the horses. The pots in the LORD's house shall be like the bowls before the altar. 21 Yes, every pot in Jerusalem and Judah shall be holiness to the LORD of hosts.[a] Everyone who sacrifices shall come and take them and cook in them. In that day there shall no longer be a Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts.

KEY VERSE:

"The Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to His temple, even the Messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight. Behold, He is coming," says the LORD of hosts (Malachi 3:1).

THEN ///

Have you ever been excited about something, like a family trip or a party with friends, and it turns out to be nothing like you had thought? Maybe you'd been looking forward to the trip for a long time. Maybe you had imagined how fun it was going to be and how everyone would enjoy it. But, when reality happened, it just wasn't as bright and shiny as it was in your head.

That's how the Hebrews felt at the point when Malachi preached and wrote his message. They had struggled through some extremely hard times. After being exiled from their country, they returned, resettled, and rebuilt the temple and the city walls. All that involved years of work.

When it was done they expected that God would bless them and their lives would be like the "good old days" when they were happy and rich and in God's favor.

The problem was that they were still missing the point about obedience to God. They were halfhearted followers. They were sitting back expecting God to fix everything. They halfheartedly did what they needed to do, but they weren't being the people they needed to be.

NOW ///

When God originally established the customs of the Hebrews (this was back in the days of Moses), He taught them to offer their best to Him. This established God as top priority in their lives. It taught them not to put their trust in their crops or their riches but in God.

During the days of Malachi, the people were going through the motions of bringing sacrifices; but instead of bringing their best offerings, they were bringing their damaged goods. This kind of sacrificing was just a shadow of obedience, not the real thing. They weren't establishing their lives around God's truth; they were fitting Him in where it worked for them. This was their error. If we look, we can see that same error in our world today.

REALITY CHECK ///

We don't know much about the prophet Malachi. In fact, we don't know anything more than what is revealed in this book: he was a man who spoke out for God and who called people to serve God wholeheartedly.

Malachi spoke God's truth. We don't know anything else about him, but his life can inspire us to do the same thing. Wouldn't it be great to be known only for what we said for God? How wonderful it would be to be remembered for the times we spread His Word. If being remembered for the way you shared God's truth with the world were your goal, how would your life change?

ISRAEL BELOVED OF GOD

2"I have loved you," says the LORD.
"Yet you say, 'In what way have You loved us?'
Was not Esau Jacob's brother?"
Says the LORD.
"Yet Jacob I have loved;
3But Esau I have hated,
And laid waste his mountains and his heritage
For the jackals of the wilderness."

4Even though Edom has said,
"We have been impoverished,
But we will return and build the desolate places,"

Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"They may build, but I will throw down;
They shall be called the Territory of Wickedness,
And the people against whom the LORD will have indignation forever.

1:1 [a]Or oracle

Malachi 1:2

Jacob and Esau were the two sons of Isaac. As the older brother, Esau was legally entitled to the larger inheritance from his father. Yet God chose to bless Jacob, and he became Isaac's number one heir. God gave Jacob the name Israel. His twelve sons are the twelve tribes that made up the nation of Israel.

5 Your eyes shall see,
And you shall say,
'The LORD is magnified beyond the border of Israel.'

POLLUTED OFFERINGS

6 "A son honors his father,
And a servant his master.
If then I am the Father,
Where is My honor?
And if I am a Master,
Where is My reverence?
Says the LORD of hosts
To you priests who despise My name.
Yet you say, 'In what way have we despised Your name?'

7 "You offer defiled food on My altar,
But say,
'In what way have we defiled You?'
By saying,
'The table of the LORD is contemptible.'
8 And when you offer the blind as a sacrifice,
Is it not evil?
And when you offer the lame and sick,
Is it not evil?
Offer it then to your governor!
Would he be pleased with you?
Would he accept you favorably?"
Says the LORD of hosts.

9 "But now entreat God's favor,
That He may be gracious to us.
While this is being done by your hands,
Will He accept you favorably?"
Says the LORD of hosts.
10 "Who is there even among you who would shut the doors,
So that you would not kindle fire on
My altar in vain?
I have no pleasure in you,"
Says the LORD of hosts,
"Nor will I accept an offering from your hands.

REPUTATION
How great is God's reputation?
Malachi 1:11

11 For from the rising of the sun, even to its going down,
My name shall be great among the Gentiles;
In every place incense shall be offered to My name,
And a pure offering;
For My name shall be great among the nations,"
Says the LORD of hosts.

12 "But you profane it,
In that you say,
'The table of the LORD[a] is defiled;
And its fruit, its food, is contemptible.' 13 You also say,
'Oh, what a weariness!'
And you sneer at it,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
"And you bring the stolen, the lame,
and the sick;
Thus you bring an offering!
Should I accept this from your hand?"
Says the LORD.
14 "But cursed be the deceiver
Who has in his flock a male,
And takes a vow,
But sacrifices to the Lord what is blemished—
For I am a great King,"
Says the LORD of hosts,
"And My name is to be feared among the nations.

CORRUPT PRIESTS

2 "And now, O priests, this commandment is for you.
2 If you will not hear,
And if you will not take it to heart,
To give glory to My name,"
Says the LORD of hosts,

Racism / Malachi 2:10

"Can't we all just get along?" Those words have become a pop culture catch phrase ever since they were uttered by a man who was attacked in the midst of high racial tension in our country. It seems like a simple question, but the answer can be complicated. Mistreatment of entire races of people has gone on all over the world, even here in America. Fortunately we've come a long way in the battle against racism. But we still have a ways to go.

We often encounter people who consider their race superior to every other race. They mistreat others in so many vile ways simply because of the color of their skin or their ethnic background. We keep asking, "Can't we all just get along?"

As Christians, we encounter a similar question in Malachi 2:10: "Have we not all one Father? Has not one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously with one another?"

Malachi was identifying a shortcoming in his culture, but it speaks to ours as well. We know that God created all of us—the human race (Gen. 1—2). Knowing that He is the Creator and the Father of us all, if we truly love God, how can we treat each other dishonestly and unjustly, especially based on something like race? That is the point Malachi is making—God created all of us and wants us to treat each other with the respect that comes from simply existing as a human being, a special creation of God.

"I will send a curse upon you,
And I will curse your blessings.
Yes, I have cursed them already,
Because you do not take it to heart.

3"Behold, I will rebuke your descendants
And spread refuse on your faces,
The refuse of your solemn feasts;
And one will take you away with it.
4Then you shall know that I have sent this commandment to you, That My covenant with Levi may continue,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
5"My covenant was with him, one of life and peace,
And I gave them to him that he might fear Me;
So he feared Me
And was reverent before My name.
6The law of truth[a] was in his mouth,
And injustice was not found on his lips.
He walked with Me in peace and equity,
And turned many away from iniquity.

7"For the lips of a priest should keep knowledge,
And people should seek the law from his mouth;
For he is the messenger of the LORD
of hosts.
8But you have departed from the way;
You have caused many to stumble at the law.
You have corrupted the covenant of Levi,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
9"Therefore I also have made you contemptible and base
Before all the people,
Because you have not kept My ways
But have shown partiality in the law."

TREACHERY OF INFIDELITY

10Have we not all one Father?
Has not one God created us?
Why do we deal treacherously with one another
By profaning the covenant of the fathers?
11Judah has dealt treacherously,
And an abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem,
For Judah has profaned
The LORD's holy institution which He loves:
He has married the daughter of a foreign god.
12May the LORD cut off from the tents of Jacob
The man who does this, being awake and aware,[a] Yet who brings an offering to the LORD
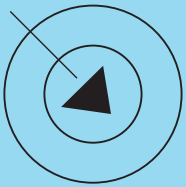
of hosts!



13And this is the second thing you do:
You cover the altar of the LORD with tears,
With weeping and crying;
So He does not regard the offering anymore,
Nor receive it with goodwill from your hands.
14Yet you say, "For what reason?"
Because the LORD has been witness Between you and the wife of your youth,
With whom you have dealt treacherously;
Yet she is your companion
And your wife by covenant.
15But did He not make them one,
Having a remnant of the Spirit?
And why one?
He seeks godly offspring.
Therefore take heed to your spirit,
And let none deal treacherously with the wife of his youth.

MARRIAGE
What does God think of divorce?
Malachi 2:16

16"For the LORD God of Israel says
That He hates divorce, For it covers one's garment with violence,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
"Therefore take heed to your spirit,
That you do not deal treacherously."

17You have wearied the LORD with your words;
Yet you say,

2:6 [a]Or true instruction 2:12 [a]Talmud and Vulgate read teacher and student.

PROMISE

God promises not to change.

"For I am the LORD, I do not change; therefore you are not consumed, O sons of Jacob. Yet from the days of your fathers you have gone away from My ordinances and have not kept them. Return to Me, and I will return to you," says the LORD of hosts (Mal. 3:6, 7a).

Athletes, even great ones, have their "off" days, days when the star basketball player can't rise above the other team and score enough points to win the game, when the best running back in the league fumbles inside the ten-yard line, when the sprinter who hasn't lost a race in seventy-six starts suddenly finds himself in second place.

You have your "off" days, too. There are days when you feel like being nice to everyone and days when you want everyone to just get out of your face. Some days it seems easy to do what God wants you to do; other days it seems hard to even care. This moodiness is part of human nature; our feelings can get in our way and keep us from doing what we know is right.

But God isn't ruled by feelings and He doesn't change. He is totally consistent. He's not kind one day and selfish the next. He is always faithful. He never does wrong. You can count on His power, His love, and His goodness, day in and day out.

SEE FOR YOURSELF// Psalm 102:27; Hebrews 1:12; 13:8

"In what way have we wearied Him?"
In that you say,
"Everyone who does evil
Is good in the sight of the LORD,
And He delights in them,"
Or, "Where is the God of justice?"

THE COMING MESSENGER

3 "Behold, I send My messenger,
And he will prepare the way before Me.
And the Lord, whom you seek,
Will suddenly come to His temple,
Even the Messenger of the covenant,
In whom you delight.
Behold, He is coming,"
Says the LORD of hosts.

2 "But who can endure the day of His coming?
And who can stand when He appears?
For He is like a refiner's fire
And like launderers' soap.
3 He will sit as a refiner and a purifier of silver;
He will purify the sons of Levi,
And purge them as gold and silver,
That they may offer to the LORD
An offering in righteousness.

4 "Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem
Will be pleasant to the LORD,
As in the days of old,
As in former years.

JUDGMENT
What does God condemn?
Malachi 3:5

5 And I will come near you for judgment;
I will be a swift witness Against sorcerers, Against adulterers,
Against perjurers,
Against those who exploit wage earners and widows and orphans,
And against those who turn away an alien—Because they do not fear Me,"
Says the LORD of hosts.

Morality / Malachi 3:6

Morality is behavior that is right or proper. To be moral is to choose to do those things that are right.

We can all agree that doing the right thing is the correct choice. But there seems to be a problem when we try to agree on exactly what that right behavior should be. The world has published books, created Internet sites, and mass-produced countless magazine articles about the right way to live. Some say there is no "right" that's always right and no absolute concept of wrong. According to this idea, right and wrong can change based on the circumstance—killing is wrong, but if you're pregnant and don't want to be, ending the unborn life is okay. This way of thinking can also affect the small things in life—cheating is wrong, but you didn't have time to study for the test, so copying your friend's answers this one time is okay.

The concept of right and wrong shouldn't be based on any person's mistaken idea of correct behavior. And morality shouldn't be changed to fit a difficult situation. Right and wrong must be based on truth, and truth never changes. That's why we should always turn to God to determine right conduct and to define "morality." God is the only One who knows every truth. He is the only completely constant thing in the universe—He never changes. He is the only One who can always make the right call when we are confused and don't know the moral direction we should take.

6"For I am the LORD, I do not change;
Therefore you are not consumed,
O sons of Jacob.
7Yet from the days of your fathers
You have gone away from My ordinances
And have not kept them.
Return to Me, and I will return to you,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
"But you said,
'In what way shall we return?'

DO NOT ROB GOD

8"Will a man rob God?
Yet you have robbed Me!
But you say,
'In what way have we robbed You?'
In tithes and offerings.
9You are cursed with a curse,
For you have robbed Me,
Even this whole nation.

Malachi 3:10

The Israelites were commanded to give ten percent (a tithe) of everything they had—including crops, livestock, and money—to God. The Israelites gave their tithes to the Levites, the people who worked in the temple. The Levites, in turn, gave ten percent of everything they received to the priests. The priests offered a sacrifice to the Lord for their tithe. The third-year tithe was given to help support the poor and needy.

10Bring all the tithes into the storehouse,
That there may be food in My house,
And try Me now in this,"
Says the LORD of hosts,
"If I will not open for you the windows of heaven
And pour out for you such blessing That there will not be room enough to receive it.

11"And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes,
So that he will not destroy the fruit of your ground,
Nor shall the vine fail to bear fruit for you in the field,"
Says the LORD of hosts;
12"And all nations will call you blessed,
For you will be a delightful land,"
Says the LORD of hosts.

THE PEOPLE COMPLAIN HARSHLY

13"Your words have been harsh against Me,"
Says the LORD,
"Yet you say,
'What have we spoken against You?'
14You have said,
'It is useless to serve God;
What profit is it that we have kept His ordinance,
And that we have walked as mourners
Before the LORD of hosts?
15So now we call the proud blessed,
For those who do wickedness are raised up;
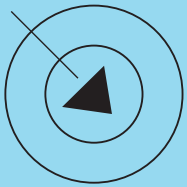
They even tempt God and go free.'"

DEVOTION

What lies ahead as we follow God?



Malachi 3:16–18

A BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

16Then those who feared the LORD spoke to one another,
And the LORD listened and heard them;
So a book of remembrance was written before Him
For those who fear the LORD
And who meditate on His name.

17"They shall be Mine," says the LORD of hosts,
"On the day that I make them My jewels.[a]
And I will spare them
As a man spares his own son who serves him."
18Then you shall again discern Between the righteous and the wicked,
Between one who serves God
And one who does not serve Him.

3:17 [a]Literally special treasure

PROMISE

God promises victory for those who honor His name.

"But to you who fear My name the Sun of Righteousness shall arise with healing in His wings; and you shall go out and grow fat like stall-fed calves" (Mal. 4:2).

Read Malachi 4:1 and look at the contrast between the people mentioned there and those described in verse 2. The difference between these two groups of people begins in their hearts. The people in verse 1 are proud. They believe in themselves more than anything else. They think they deserve the best. Of course, their attitude spills over into their actions. Since they trust themselves and not God, they do some things God doesn't like. It's a way of life for them.

But the people in verse 2 have a different attitude. They know that God is better and stronger than they could ever be. They praise His greatness and feel honored that God wants to be their friend. They want to please Him, and they work hard at doing the things that make Him happy. Their record isn't perfect, but what God sees in their hearts makes Him smile.

The Day of Judgment will not be a good day for proud, sinful people. But the people who honor the Lord "shall go out and grow fat like stall-fed calves." In other words, peace and security await those who love and fear the Lord.

THE GREAT DAY OF GOD

4 "For behold, the day is coming,
Burning like an oven,
And all the proud, yes, all who do wickedly will be stubble.
And the day which is coming shall burn them up,"
Says the LORD of hosts,
"That will leave them neither root nor branch.
2 But to you who fear My name
The Sun of Righteousness shall arise
With healing in His wings;
And you shall go out
And grow fat like stall-fed calves.
3 You shall trample the wicked,
For they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet
On the day that I do this,"
Says the LORD of hosts.

4 "Remember the Law of Moses, My servant,
Which I commanded him in Horeb for all Israel,
With the statutes and judgments.
5 Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet Before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD.
6 And he will turn
The hearts of the fathers to the children,
And the hearts of the children to their fathers,
Lest I come and strike the earth with a curse."

KEY VERSE:

Simon Peter answered and said, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God" (Matthew 16:16).

THEN /// Matthew is a great book to start the New Testament because Matthew opens by referring to the Old Testament. He uses the prophecies of the Old Testament to convince his readers of one thing: Jesus is the Messiah who was prophesied for centuries. He is the One the world has been waiting for.

Matthew's point in writing his biography of Jesus' ministry is to show the connection between the promises and prophecies of the Old Testament and the life and ministry of Jesus Christ in the New Testament. Because of this, Matthew's Gospel is full of Old Testament prophecy. He logically and painstakingly writes Jesus' story in an effort to say, "Jesus is the One we've been waiting for! Put your trust in Him."

NOW /// If you haven't already, you will eventually learn about "If-Then" statements. It might be in a math class or a logic class or a philosophy class, but they'll come up. If a=b and b=c, then a=c. It's like this: if a dog is a four-legged animal that barks and if Maggie is a four-legged animal that barks, then Maggie is probably a dog. If-then statements are the way we put together information and come to a conclusion.

The Book, or Gospel, of Matthew is an if-then kind of book. Basically Matthew's message is, "If all these prophecies that we have studied and believed are fulfilled in this one Man, then Jesus of Nazareth is the Messiah!"

REALITY CHECK /// The Pharisees were religious leaders of Jesus' day; but they were hypocrites. They had their religious ideas backward. Instead of glorifying God, they glorified themselves. Instead of leading out of humility, they led out of pride. Instead of expecting to serve people, they expected to be served. Jesus said they looked good on the outside, but inside they were dirty (Matt. 23:25). He called them whitewashed graves (23:27) and poisonous snakes (23:33). Even though the Pharisees were religious leaders, they were Jesus' worst enemies. They didn't want to admit Jesus was the Son of God because they would lose their control over the Hebrews. They missed the point entirely.

Jesus made it clear that rules won't save us. He also taught clearly that we should live our lives with humility and always consider others as more important than ourselves. True spirituality is about a relationship with God, not following rules or acting holy. Take the Sermon on the Mount for instance (chapters 5—7). In one simple talk, Jesus changed the whole definition of spirituality. He wanted everyone to understand that the rules won't save us; your faith will save you. The rules show you that you need God. Jesus made a lot of people mad by saying these things. In the process, He started a revolution called Christianity.

THE GENEALOGY OF JESUS CHRIST

1 The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the Son of David, the Son of Abraham:

2 Abraham begot Isaac, Isaac begot Jacob, and Jacob begot Judah and his brothers. 3 Judah begot Perez and Zerah by Tamar, Perez begot Hezron, and Hezron begot Ram. 4 Ram begot Amminadab, Amminadab begot Nahshon, and Nahshon begot Salmon. 5 Salmon begot Boaz by Rahab, Boaz begot Obed by Ruth, Obed begot Jesse, 6 and Jesse begot David the king.

David the king begot Solomon by her who had been the wife[a] of Uriah. 7 Solomon begot Rehoboam, Rehoboam begot Abijah, and Abijah begot Asa.[a] 8 Asa begot Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat begot Joram, and Joram begot Uzziah. 9 Uzziah begot Jotham, Jotham begot Ahaz, and Ahaz begot Hezekiah. 10 Hezekiah begot Manasseh, Manasseh begot Amon,[a] and Amon begot Josiah. 11 Josiah begot Jeconiah and his brothers about the time they were carried away to Babylon.

1:6 [a]Words in italic type have been added for clarity. They are not found in the original Greek. 1:7 [a]NU-Text reads Asaph. 1:10 [a]NU-Text reads Amos.

Matthew 1:11

More than six hundred years before Jesus was born, King Nebuchadnezzar and his Babylonian army destroyed the city of Jerusalem and carried away most of its inhabitants, forcing them to live hundreds of miles from home as prisoners in Babylon. Their captivity lasted seventy years.

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jeconiah begot Shealtiel, and Shealtiel begot Zerubbabel. 13 Zerubbabel begot Abiud, Abiud begot Eliakim, and Eliakim begot Azor. 14 Azor begot Zadok, Zadok begot Achim, and Achim begot Eliud. 15 Eliud begot Eleazar, Eleazar begot Matthan, and Matthan begot Jacob. 16 And Jacob begot Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations, from David until the captivity in Babylon are fourteen generations, and from the captivity in Babylon until the Christ are fourteen generations.

CHRIST BORN OF MARY

18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was as follows: After His mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Spirit. 19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not wanting to make her a public example, was minded to put her away secretly. 20 But while he thought about these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take to you Mary your wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit. 21 And she will bring forth a Son, and you shall call His name JESUS, for He will save His people from their sins."

22 So all this was done that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying: 23 "Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and bear a Son, and they shall call His name Immanuel,"[a] which is translated, "God with us."

24 Then Joseph, being aroused from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord commanded him and took to him his wife, 25 and did not know her till she had brought forth her firstborn Son.[a] And he called His name JESUS.

Matthew 2:1

At the time of Jesus' birth, the Roman Empire included pretty much the entire known world. Obviously, that's a lot of area to rule. To maintain control, the Roman senate selected governors to rule over various regions in the empire. Herod was selected to rule Judea in 37 B.C. Look up the word paranoid in the dictionary and you may find a picture of Herod next to it. He was so desperate to hang on to the throne that he killed anyone he suspected of even wanting to become king. That included three of his own sons.

WISE MEN FROM THE EAST

2 Now after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, 2 saying, "Where is He who has been born King of the Jews? For we have seen His star in the East and have come to worship Him."

3 When Herod the king heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. 4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he inquired of them where the Christ was to be born.

5 So they said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it is written by the prophet:

6 'But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah,
Are not the least among the rulers of Judah;
For out of you shall come a Ruler
Who will shepherd My people Israel.' "[a]

7 Then Herod, when he had secretly called the wise men, determined from them what time the star appeared. 8 And he sent them

PROFILE
MARY THE MOTHER OF JESUS

We can learn a lot about ourselves and other people by the way we act when we're surprised. The unexpected doesn't give us time to pretend or disguise our response. Fear, confidence, courage, and cowardice are frequently revealed by sudden, unexpected events. We know little about the character of Mary, the mother of Jesus, other than what we see through her responses to some huge surprises in her life. It was through her responses that she made a difference.

An angel's visit ranks high on the list of the unexpected. Mary was startled at the angel's sudden appearance, but even more so by what he said—she was to have a child. Her initial response was a single question of amazement, "How can this be, since I do not know a man?" (Luke 1:34). Mary knew how things worked. She was a child of a culture whose history was filled with women who gave birth with God's help. But husbands had always been involved. She didn't have one yet. So, how was this to come about?

Gabriel's instructions were very specific. Mary was not to do anything; God's Spirit would do it all. Again, we are not told what Mary thought or how she felt. We only know her obedient response: "Let it be to me according to your word" (Luke 1:38). As soon as God let her know she didn't have to worry about the details, Mary left things in God's hands. That's how she made a difference. She participated and cooperated in God's wonderful plan. She didn't try to take control or run in fear from a startling message from God.

+ MAKING A DIFFERENCE:

Mary can teach us a lot about faith and trust in God. And we can gauge our level of faith and trust by how we react to the unexpected. You may have to ask other people to help you see yourself. If you are responding well to the unexpected, congratulations! You are on track. You will probably find, though, that sometimes your responses will indicate an area in which you need to grow. Do you get angry, discouraged, doubtful, fearful, or completely confused by the unexpected? What do these responses tell you about your life of faith?

God wants to make a difference in and through your life. Expect God to guide you. Consider that His guidance may come in surprising or unexpected ways. Learn to respond to His guidance with the same faith and trust Mary had when she simply said, "Let it be."

WANT TO KNOW MORE?

We learn about Mary in all four Gospels (accounts of the Good News): Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. She takes center stage in Luke 1:26—2:52.

Mary's real and honest faith opened the door to the miraculous. Her faith made a difference. Yours can, too!

to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search carefully for the young Child, and when you have found Him, bring back word to me, that I may come and worship Him also."

9When they heard the king, they departed; and behold, the star which they had seen in the East went before them, till it came and stood over where the young Child was. 10When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy. 11And when they had come into the house, they saw the young Child with Mary His mother, and fell down and worshiped Him. And when they had opened their treasures, they presented gifts to Him: gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

12Then, being divinely warned in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed for their own country another way.

THE FLIGHT INTO EGYPT

13Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, "Arise, take the young Child and His mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I bring you word; for Herod will seek the young Child to destroy Him."
14When he arose, he took the young Child and His mother by night and departed for Egypt, 15and was there until the death of Herod, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, "Out of Egypt I called My Son."[a]

MASSACRE OF THE INNOCENTS

16Then Herod, when he saw that he was deceived by the wise men, was exceedingly angry; and he sent forth and put to death all the male children who were in Bethlehem and in all its districts, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had determined from the wise men.
17Then was fulfilled what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying:

18 "A voice was heard in Ramah, Lamentation, weeping, and great mourning,
Rachel weeping for her children,
Refusing to be comforted,
Because they are no more."[a]

THE HOME IN NAZARETH

19Now when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, 20saying, "Arise, take the young Child and His mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who sought the young Child's life are dead." 21Then he arose, took the young Child and His mother, and came into the land of Israel.
22But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea instead of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And being warned by God in a dream, he turned aside into the region of Galilee. 23And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, "He shall be called a Nazarene."

JOHN THE BAPTIST PREPARES THE WAY

3 In those days John the Baptist came preaching in the wilderness of Judea, 2and saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand!" 3For this is he who was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah, saying:

"The voice of one crying in the wilderness:
'Prepare the way of the LORD;
Make His paths straight.'"[a]

4Now John himself was clothed in camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist; and his food was locusts and wild honey. 5Then Jerusalem, all Judea, and all the region around the Jordan went out to him 6and were baptized by him in the Jordan, confessing their sins.

Matthew 3:7

Think of the Pharisees and Sadducees as rival gangs. Instead of fighting with guns and knives, though, these rivals fought with words and ideas. These two groups of Jewish scholars interpreted Scripture differently and argued over issues such as the resurrection of the dead and the existence of angels. Because they knew so much about Scripture, members of both groups tended to take pride in themselves and to criticize others.

7But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said to them, "Brood of vipers!
Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? 8Therefore bear fruits worthy of repentance, 9and do not think to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.'
For I say to you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones.
10And even now the ax is laid to the root of the trees. Therefore every tree which does not bear good fruit is cut down and

Baptism Baptism is an important step to take after you accept Jesus as your Savior. When you get baptized, you are following Jesus' example, as He was baptized publicly. Getting baptized tells the world about your faith in Jesus as your Savior. This lets people know that you're serious about your relationship with God, and that you're going to live for Him, with courage and excitement! Not only does God want you to profess Him by being baptized in water but He also wants you to be a witness for Him by being filled daily with His Holy Spirit. Why do we need the Holy Spirit? Because we need the power we receive from Him. Acts 1:8 says, "But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you." We don't need to depend on our own strength and ability. God makes unlimited strength and power available to us through His Holy Spirit. You need that power to make a difference for Him. Everyone does. Jesus is the Baptizer. Let Him baptize you with His power today! (See also: Matt. 28:19; Acts 2:38; 8:12; Rom. 6:3–5.)

Words to Live By

Baptized: The word translated as "baptized" in Matthew 3:16 comes from the Greek word baptizo (bap-tid'-zo). It carries the idea of being dipped, immersed, or washed. When we are baptized, it is an outward sign that shows what has happened on the inside—that we have been washed clean of all our sins by the blood of Jesus.

thrown into the fire. 11I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance, but He who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.[a] 12His winnowing fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clean out His threshing floor, and gather His wheat into the barn; but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

JOHN BAPTIZES JESUS

13Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan to be baptized by him. 14And John tried to prevent Him, saying, "I need to be baptized by You, and are You coming to me?"

15But Jesus answered and said to him, "Permit it to be so now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he allowed Him.

16When He had been baptized, Jesus came up immediately from the water; and behold, the heavens were opened to Him, and He[a] saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting upon Him. 17And suddenly a voice came from heaven, saying, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

SATAN TEMPTS JESUS

4 Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. 2And when He had fasted forty days and forty nights, afterward He was hungry. 3Now when the tempter came to Him, he said, "If You are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread."

4But He answered and said, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God.' "[a]

5Then the devil took Him up into the holy city, set Him on the pinnacle of the temple, 6and said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down. For it is written:

> 'He shall give His angels charge over you,'

and,

> 'In their hands they shall bear you up, Lest you dash your foot against a stone.' "[a]

LIFE APP

Worship / Matthew 4:8–10

One of the most common Hebrew words for worship literally means to fall face-first, flat down on the ground. In ancient times, if a person came before someone with higher status, they would fall down in front of them, much like the way that people will often bow in front of a king, to show their submission to his authority. So it makes sense that worship is about more than expressing love; it's also about bowing ourselves in submission.

In Matthew 4:8–10, we read how Jesus was tempted by Satan just before He began His earthly ministry. He had already resisted the enemy's temptations twice by quoting Scripture. Finally, Satan tempted Jesus to commit the ultimate sin—to bow down and worship him. Had Jesus done as Satan wanted, He would have submitted Himself to Satan's authority rather than to God the Father's authority, and it would have put an end to His entire mission on earth—to seek and to save the lost (Luke 19:10).

But Jesus would not worship Satan or submit to him in any way. Once again, He fought the enemy with Scripture: "For it is written, 'You shall worship the LORD your God, and Him only you shall serve'" (Luke 4:8). Jesus knew that His worship and submission belonged only to God the Father. The same is true for us.

The enemy is still in this world, and he continually tempts God's people to worship things other than God. He may try to tempt you with drugs or alcohol. You may think you are using them, only to realize later that you've submitted to their authority in your life and they are using you. He may try to tempt you to worship at the altar of popularity or fame or money. Whatever the temptation, always remember that all your worship is owed to the one true God: the God who made you, saved you, and loves you. No other person or thing is worthy of your worship. So don't be distracted or deceived. Worship the Lord your God.

Salt and Light Jesus teaches in Matthew 5:13, 14 that part of being a Christian is being salt and light to this world. Salt is used to preserve foods and to add flavor to them. As Christians, that is the same effect we should have on the world—we should lead people to new life in Christ, and our behavior should flavor (change) the world around us. When you meet someone who is different and has godly qualities, you want to know why that person is different. Have you ever met someone who was really cool, had a great attitude even when life was hard, and did nice things for no obvious reason, and you later found out that he was a Christian? That explained it. That person was being salt. He helped people and made a difference in the world, just by how he lived every day.

How about light? A light shines and gives direction. Do you know Christians who radiate Jesus? Others are drawn to them. Their lives are examples that many want to follow. People see their goodness and know it is Jesus who lives in them. Jesus says don't hide who you are. Don't put your light under a basket where others can't see it. Go boldly into the world and show them Jesus. You are bound to make a difference wherever you are when others see Jesus in you. (See also: Mark 9:50; Luke 14:34; Phil. 2:15.)

Words to Live By

Hidden: In Matthew 5:14, the word translated as "hidden" comes from the Greek word krupto (kroop'-to). It carries the meaning of something being concealed or kept secret. When we belong to Christ and are dedicated to following Him, our lives will show it. No circumstances or tricks of the enemy will be able to hide the light of Christ that is shining out from us.

7 Jesus said to him, "It is written again,
'You shall not tempt the LORD your God.'"[a] 8 Again, the devil took Him up on an exceedingly high mountain, and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. 9 And he said to Him, "All these things
I will give You if You will fall down and worship me."
10 Then Jesus said to him, "Away with you,[a] Satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship the LORD your God, and Him only you shall serve.'"[b] 11 Then the devil left Him, and behold, angels came and ministered to Him.

JESUS BEGINS HIS GALILEAN MINISTRY

12 Now when Jesus heard that John had been put in prison, He departed to Galilee.
13 And leaving Nazareth, He came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the regions of Zebulun and Naphtali, 14 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying:

Matthew 4:12, 13

Galilee, a Roman province in northern Palestine, was the setting for most of Jesus' ministry of teaching and miracles on earth. Jesus' hometown of Nazareth was located in Galilee; most of His disciples came from the region. The city of Capernaum, which became the headquarters of Jesus' ministry, was located on the shores of the Sea of Galilee.

15 *"The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali,
By the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles:*
16 The people who sat in darkness have seen a great light,

4:7 [a]Deuteronomy 6:16 4:10 [a]M-Text reads Get behind Me. [b]Deuteronomy 6:13

And upon those who sat in the region and shadow of death Light has dawned."[a]

17From that time Jesus began to preach and to say, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

FOUR FISHERMEN CALLED AS DISCIPLES

18And Jesus, walking by the Sea of Galilee, saw two brothers, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. 19Then He said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men." 20They immediately left their nets and followed Him.
21Going on from there, He saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets.
He called them, 22and immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed Him.

JESUS HEALS A GREAT MULTITUDE

23And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all kinds of sickness and all kinds of disease among the people. 24Then His fame went throughout all Syria; and they brought to Him all sick people who were afflicted with various diseases and torments, and those who were demon-possessed, epileptics, and paralytics; and He healed them. 25Great multitudes followed Him—from Galilee, and from Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and beyond the Jordan.

THE BEATITUDES

5 And seeing the multitudes, He went up on a mountain, and when He was seated His disciples came to Him.
2Then He opened His mouth and taught them, saying:

3"Blessed are the poor in spirit,
For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
4Blessed are those who mourn,
For they shall be comforted.
5Blessed are the meek,
For they shall inherit the earth.
6Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
For they shall be filled.
7Blessed are the merciful,
For they shall obtain mercy.
8Blessed are the pure in heart,
For they shall see God.
9Blessed are the peacemakers,
For they shall be called sons of God.
10Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake,
For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11"Blessed are you when they revile and persecute you, and say all kinds of evil against you falsely for My sake. 12Rejoice and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

BELIEVERS ARE SALT AND LIGHT

13"You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt loses its flavor, how shall it be seasoned? It is then good for nothing but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot by men.
14"You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden. 15Nor do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house. 16Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.

CHRIST FULFILLS THE LAW

17"Do not think that I came to destroy the Law or the Prophets. I did not come to destroy but to fulfill. 18For assuredly, I say to you, till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle will by no means pass from the law till all is fulfilled. 19Whoever therefore breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does and teaches them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. 20For
I say to you, that unless your righteousness exceeds the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven.

4:16 [a]Isaiah 9:1, 2

MURDER
What is the same as murder in God's eyes?
Matthew 5:21, 22

MURDER BEGINS IN THE HEART

21"You have heard that it was said to those of old, 'You shall not murder,[a] and whoever murders will be in danger of the judgment.'
22But I say to you that whoever is angry with his brother without a cause[a] shall be in danger of the judgment. And whoever says to his brother, 'Raca!' shall be in danger of the council. But whoever says,
'You fool!' shall be in danger of hell fire.
23Therefore if you bring your gift to the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, 24leave your gift there before the altar, and go your way.
First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. 25Agree with your adversary quickly, while you are on the way with him, lest your adversary deliver you to the judge, the judge hand you over to the officer, and you be thrown into prison. 26Assuredly, I say to you, you will by no means get out of there till you have paid the last penny.

Matthew 5:23
An altar was a platform used to hold things people offered to God. Offerings of fruit and vegetables were made by people who wanted to show their appreciation to God for a healthy herd or a good crop. Animal offerings were made as substitute payments for sin.

ADULTERY IN THE HEART

27"You have heard that it was said to those of old,[a] 'You shall not commit adultery.'[b] 28But I say to you that whoever looks at a woman to lust for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart. 29If your right eye causes you to sin, pluck it out and cast it from you; for it is more profitable for you that one of your members perish, than for your whole body to be cast into hell. 30And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and cast it from you; for it is more profitable for you that one of your members perish, than for your whole body to be cast into hell.

SEX
Where do sexual sins begin?
Matthew 5:27–30

MARRIAGE IS SACRED AND BINDING

31"Furthermore it has been said, 'Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.' 32But I say to you that whoever divorces his wife for any reason except sexual immorality[a] causes her to commit adultery; and whoever marries a woman who is divorced commits adultery.

JESUS FORBIDS OATHS

33"Again you have heard that it was said to those of old, 'You shall not swear falsely, but shall perform your oaths to the Lord.'
34But I say to you, do not swear at all: neither by heaven, for it is God's throne; 35nor by the earth, for it is His footstool; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. 36Nor shall you swear by your head, because you cannot make one hair white or black. 37But let your 'Yes' be 'Yes,' and your 'No,' 'No.' For whatever is more than these is from the evil one.

GO THE SECOND MILE

38"You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.'[a] 39But I tell you not to resist an evil person. But whoever slaps you on your right cheek, turn the other to him also. 40If anyone wants to sue you and take away your tunic, let him have your cloak also. 41And whoever compels you to go one mile, go with him two. 42Give to him who asks you, and from him who wants to borrow from you do not turn away.

LOVE
Should we really love our enemies?
Matthew 5:43, 44

LOVE YOUR ENEMIES

43"You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor[a] and hate your enemy.' 44But I say to you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you,[a] 45that you may be sons of your Father in heaven; for He makes His sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. 46For if you love those who love you, what reward have you? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? 47And if you greet your brethren[a] only, what do you do more than others? Do not even the tax collectors[b] do so? 48Therefore you shall be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect.

DO GOOD TO PLEASE GOD

6 "Take heed that you do not do your charitable deeds before men, to be seen by them. Otherwise you have no reward from your Father in heaven. 2Therefore, when you do a charitable deed, do not sound a trumpet before you as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory from men. Assuredly, I say to you, they have their reward. 3But when you do a charitable deed, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, 4that your charitable deed may be in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will Himself reward you openly.[a]

THE MODEL PRAYER

5"And when you pray, you shall not be like the hypocrites. For they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by men. Assuredly, I say to you, they have their reward. 6But you, when you pray, go into your room, and when you have shut your door, pray to your Father who is in the secret place; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly.[a] 7And when you pray, do not use vain repetitions as the heathen do. For they think that they will be heard for their many words.

PRAYER
What is the Lord's Prayer?
Matthew 6:9–13

8"Therefore do not be like them. For your Father knows the things you have need of before you ask Him. 9In this manner, therefore, pray:

Our Father in heaven,
Hallowed be Your name.
10Your kingdom come.
Your will be done
On earth as it is in heaven.
11Give us this day our daily bread.
12And forgive us our debts,
As we forgive our debtors.
13And do not lead us into temptation,
But deliver us from the evil one.
For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever.
Amen.[a]

14"For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. 15But if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

FASTING TO BE SEEN ONLY BY GOD

16"Moreover, when you fast, do not be like the hypocrites, with a sad countenance. For they disfigure their faces that they may appear to men to be fasting. Assuredly, I say to you, they have their reward. 17But you, when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, 18so that you do not appear to men to be fasting, but to your Father who is in the secret place; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly.[a]

WORLD APP

World Financial Crises / Matthew 6:19–21, 25–34

Banks need bailouts. Car companies need bailouts. An entire country needs a bailout. It seems that there is a new global financial crisis popping up every week.

It can make you a little nervous if you start thinking about all the tiny cracks that seem to be growing into gaping crevices in the world's financial system. If those who have dedicated their lives to developing and maintaining a strong financial system can't quite keep it together in this modern economy, should we be worried? Not according to Matthew 6:25–34. In this passage, Jesus tells us that our heavenly Father knows what's going on in our lives. He maintains the entire world—He can look after His children. This isn't to say that times will always be easy. We still live in a broken world, and as long as we do, there will always be struggles. But God knows what we need and wants us to trust Him to provide for us. Every moment we spend worrying is a moment we aren't seeking Him.

This doesn't mean that we should not be aware of what's going on in the world and shouldn't handle our personal finances wisely. We should do both things. But we should seek God first, and trust Him to guide us through the rest. Earlier in Matthew 6, Jesus tells us to lay up treasures in heaven that can't be destroyed rather than treasures on earth that can be destroyed (Matt. 6:19–21). If we focus on following Christ, we will be laying up treasures in heaven. We will also gain wisdom in how to deal with finances here on earth. But we will have the assurance that earthly finances are not where we find our security. Our security is held by our heavenly Father, who also holds each of us in His hand. The world's financial system may falter, but God's power never wavers.

Seek the Kingdom We all have decisions to make in life. Some seem fairly simple, like what status to post this morning or which math class to take. Some are not so easy, like what college to attend or what career to pursue. No matter what the decision, you can take your advice from Matthew 6:33 and do what Jesus said: "Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness." When trying to decide which option is best or what path to choose, ask yourself, "Which way would bring God glory?" God should be honored by any decision you make. So before you decide, continue to pray, seek the opinion of someone you trust, and then choose the option that seems best to you.

God hasn't put you on earth to make you miserable. A lot of Christians mistakenly think that God's will is always going to be the hardest, most miserable option. That's simply not true. God has given you preferences and passions on purpose. He knows you will accomplish more for the kingdom when you are working in an area you love. If bringing God glory is your first priority, then you will always make wise decisions. They may sometimes be tough, but in the end, you will have made the right choice. (See also: Luke 12:31.)

Words to Live By

Seek: The word translated as "seek" in Matthew 6:33 is the Greek word zeteo (dzay-teh'-o). It draws the picture of searching for something specific, in order to find it. When we seek the kingdom of God and His righteousness, we're not randomly looking around for a vague answer. Rather, we pray directly to God and we read His Word. We specifically want to know Him more and be more like Him. That is how we actively seek Him.

LAY UP TREASURES IN HEAVEN

19 "Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal; 20 but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal.
21 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

MONEY
What's most important in life?
Matthew 6:19, 20

THE LAMP OF THE BODY

22 "The lamp of the body is the eye. If therefore your eye is good, your whole body will be full of light. 23 But if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness.
If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is that darkness!

YOU CANNOT SERVE GOD AND RICHES

24 "No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon.

DO NOT WORRY

25 "Therefore I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink; nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing? 26 Look at the birds of the air, for they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? 27 Which of you by worrying can add one cubit to his stature?

28 "So why do you worry about clothing?
Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; 29 and yet I say to you that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. 30 Now if

God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will He not much more clothe you, O you of little faith?

31"Therefore do not worry, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?' 32For after all these things the Gentiles seek. For your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. 33But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you. 34Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about its own things. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble.

HYPOCRISY

What should we do when we're tempted to judge others?

Matthew 7:3–5

DO NOT JUDGE

7 "Judge not, that you be not judged. 2For with what judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with the measure you use, it will be measured back to you. 3And why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, but do not consider the plank in your own eye? 4Or how can you say to your brother, 'Let me remove the speck from your eye'; and look, a plank is in your own eye? 5Hypocrite! First remove the plank from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye.

6"Do not give what is holy to the dogs; nor cast your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you in pieces.

KEEP ASKING, SEEKING, KNOCKING

7"Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. 8For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened. 9Or what man is there among you who, if his son asks for bread, will give him a stone? 10Or if he asks for a fish, will he give him a serpent? 11If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask Him! 12Therefore, whatever you want men to do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets.

THE NARROW WAY

13"Enter by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it. 14Because[a] narrow is the gate and difficult is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it.

YOU WILL KNOW THEM BY THEIR FRUITS

15"Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves. 16You will know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes from thornbushes or figs from thistles? 17Even so, every good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit. 18A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a bad tree bear good fruit. 19Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. 20Therefore by their fruits you will know them.

HEAVEN

Who will enter the kingdom of heaven?

Matthew 7:21

I NEVER KNEW YOU

21"Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven. 22Many will say to Me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?' 23And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!'

MIR MAKING IT REAL // MATTHEW 7:12

The Golden Rule Matthew 7:12 is a famous verse and has been called the "Golden Rule." People the world over have recognized the straightforward wisdom in this verse. It's as valuable as gold and it'll work every time you use it. It's been quoted and misquoted for years. It goes far beyond just being nice to people because you want them to be nice to you. Consider what Jesus said leading up to this statement. Love people who are against you; pray for the person who's mean to you; if someone wants to borrow something, give him more than what he asks for and don't ask him to give it back. You wouldn't dare ask anyone to treat you that well—you'd feel like you were using them—but you'd like it if they did treat you that way, right? Jesus isn't telling you to be a doormat. He's showing you how to follow His example. His whole life was about two things: pleasing God and helping other people. He wants you to be more concerned about others than you are about yourself. Don't be afraid to look out for others and trust God to look out for you. (See also: Zech. 8:16; Luke 6:31; 2 John 5, 6; Rom. 13:9.)

Words to Live By

The Law and the Prophets: When Jesus says, "This is the Law and the Prophets," He's reminding us that what He is teaching lines up with the Old Testament (where we find the Law and the writings of the prophets). Just as the Old Testament told us to "love your neighbor as yourself" (Lev. 19:18), so Jesus is reinforcing the importance of this command.

to a wise man who built his house on the rock: 25and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it did not fall, for it was founded on the rock.

26"But everyone who hears these sayings of Mine, and does not do them, will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand: 27and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it fell. And great was its fall."

28And so it was, when Jesus had ended these sayings, that the people were astonished at His teaching, 29for He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

JESUS CLEANSES A LEPER

8 When He had come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed Him. 2And behold, a leper came and worshiped Him, saying, "Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean."

3Then Jesus put out His hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing; be cleansed." Immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4And Jesus said to him, "See that you tell no one; but go your way, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."

JESUS HEALS A CENTURION'S SERVANT

5Now when Jesus had entered Capernaum, a centurion came to Him, pleading with Him, 6saying, "Lord, my servant is lying at home paralyzed, dreadfully tormented."

7And Jesus said to him, "I will come and heal him."

8The centurion answered and said, "Lord, I am not worthy that You should come under my roof. But only speak a word, and my servant will be healed. 9For I also am a man under authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

10When Jesus heard it, He marveled, and said to those who followed, "Assuredly, I say to you, I have not found such great faith, not even in Israel! 11And I say to you that many will come from east and west,

MAKING IT REAL // MATTHEW 7:29

Word of God This passage of Scripture tells us that the crowds were surprised because Jesus taught with authority. He wasn't just an interesting teacher, He spoke with power! There is power in the words of Jesus. There is also power in every word of the Bible. Consider what Hebrews 4:12 says: "For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart." This means that when you have the Word of God in your mind and heart, when troubles come against you, you can use God's Word like a sword to defend and protect yourself.

When the devil tempted Jesus in the wilderness, what did Jesus do? He spoke the Word of God. He said, "It is written . . ." (Matt. 4:4, 6, 10). And you know what? The devil couldn't stand against the power in the Word of God. We can follow Jesus' example when we're tempted.

John 1:1 tells us, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God." Jesus is the Word, and He wants to teach you today. As you begin to study the Scriptures, you will start to gain greater understanding of what they mean. This will help you live faithfully every day and cause you to walk in victory! You'll never know the power of the Word until you grab hold and learn its power. Let Jesus teach you how to fight with the only weapon that is always victorious! (See also: Matt. 4:1–11; 2 Tim. 2:15.)

Words to Live By

Authority: The word translated as "authority" in Matthew 7:29 is exousia (ex-oo-see'-ah), and can also mean "power" or "right." As God in human form, Jesus had the absolute right to teach the Scriptures and the power to teach them in a way no one had ever heard before. The Scriptures were inspired by God Himself, so Jesus (being God's Son) had the utmost authority, power, and right to teach them in a way no one else ever could.

and sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. 12But the sons of the kingdom will be cast out into outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." 13Then Jesus said to the centurion, "Go your way; and as you have believed, so let it be done for you." And his servant was healed that same hour.

HELL
What will hell be like?
Matthew 8:12

PETER'S MOTHER-IN-LAW HEALED

14Now when Jesus had come into Peter's house, He saw his wife's mother lying sick with a fever. 15So He touched her hand, and the fever left her. And she arose and served them.[a]

MANY HEALED IN THE EVENING

16When evening had come, they brought to Him many who were demon-possessed. And He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick, 17that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying:

> "He Himself took our infirmities
> And bore our sicknesses."[a]

THE COST OF DISCIPLESHIP

18And when Jesus saw great multitudes about Him, He gave a command to depart to the other side. 19Then a certain scribe came and said to Him, "Teacher, I will follow You wherever You go."

8:15 [a]NU-Text and M-Text read Him.
8:17 [a]Isaiah 53:4

[20]And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head."

[21]Then another of His disciples said to Him, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father."

[22]But Jesus said to him, "Follow Me, and let the dead bury their own dead."

WIND AND WAVE OBEY JESUS

[23]Now when He got into a boat, His disciples followed Him. [24]And suddenly a great tempest arose on the sea, so that the boat was covered with the waves. But He was asleep. [25]Then His disciples came to Him and awoke Him, saying, "Lord, save us! We are perishing!"

[26]But He said to them, "Why are you fearful, O you of little faith?" Then He arose and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm. [27]So the men marveled, saying, "Who can this be, that even the winds and the sea obey Him?"

TWO DEMON-POSSESSED MEN HEALED

[28]When He had come to the other side, to the country of the Gergesenes,[a] there met Him two demon-possessed men, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that no one could pass that way. [29]And suddenly they cried out, saying, "What have we to do with You, Jesus, You Son of God? Have You come here to torment us before the time?"

[30]Now a good way off from them there was a herd of many swine feeding. [31]So the demons begged Him, saying, "If You cast us out, permit us to go away[a] into the herd of swine."

[32]And He said to them, "Go." So when they had come out, they went into the herd of swine. And suddenly the whole herd of swine ran violently down the steep place into the sea, and perished in the water.

[33]Then those who kept them fled; and they went away into the city and told everything, including what had happened to the demon-possessed men. [34]And behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus. And when they saw Him, they begged Him to depart from their region.

JESUS FORGIVES AND HEALS A PARALYTIC

9 So He got into a boat, crossed over, and came to His own city. [2]Then behold, they brought to Him a paralytic lying on a bed. When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralytic, "Son, be of good cheer; your sins are forgiven you."

[3]And at once some of the scribes said within themselves, "This Man blasphemes!"

[4]But Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, "Why do you think evil in your hearts? [5]For which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Arise and walk'? [6]But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins"—then He said to the paralytic, "Arise, take up your bed, and go to your house." [7]And he arose and departed to his house.

[8]Now when the multitudes saw it, they marveled[a] and glorified God, who had given such power to men.

Matthew 9:9

The Roman Empire had a tax-happy government. The Romans taxed everything from property to imported goods to fishing rights. They even collected taxes from the Jews for worshiping at the temple! The Romans claimed the money was used to pay for the upkeep of the building. Some Bible experts have estimated the average Jewish household lost as much as forty percent of their income to taxes.

MATTHEW THE TAX COLLECTOR

[9]As Jesus passed on from there, He saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax office. And He said to him, "Follow Me." So he arose and followed Him.

[10]Now it happened, as Jesus sat at the table in the house, that behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with Him and His disciples. [11]And when the Pharisees saw it, they said to His disciples, "Why does your Teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

[12]When Jesus heard that, He said to them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. 13But go and learn what this means: 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice.'[a] For I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance."[b]

JESUS IS QUESTIONED ABOUT FASTING

14Then the disciples of John came to Him, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often,[a] but Your disciples do not fast?"

15And Jesus said to them, "Can the friends of the bridegroom mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast. 16No one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; for the patch pulls away from the garment, and the tear is made worse. 17Nor do they put new wine into old wineskins, or else the wineskins break, the wine is spilled, and the wineskins are ruined. But they put new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved."

> Matthew 9:17
> What's a wineskin? Good question. A wineskin was a bag used for storing liquids in the days before bottles. It was like a canteen made of the hide (or skin) of a goat or another animal. When grape juice was stored in a new wineskin, the fermentation process (the chemical changes that causes grape juice to become wine) made the wineskin stretch and swell. The more a wineskin aged, the more stiff and brittle it became. When grape juice was poured into an old wineskin, often the container would break.

A GIRL RESTORED TO LIFE AND A WOMAN HEALED

18While He spoke these things to them, behold, a ruler came and worshiped Him, saying, "My daughter has just died, but come and lay Your hand on her and she will live." 19So Jesus arose and followed him, and so did His disciples.

20And suddenly, a woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years came from behind and touched the hem of His garment. 21For she said to herself, "If only I may touch His garment, I shall be made well." 22But Jesus turned around, and when He saw her He said, "Be of good cheer, daughter; your faith has made you well." And the woman was made well from that hour.

23When Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the flute players and the noisy crowd wailing, 24He said to them, "Make room, for the girl is not dead, but sleeping." And they ridiculed Him. 25But when the crowd was put outside, He went in and took her by the hand, and the girl arose. 26And the report of this went out into all that land.

TWO BLIND MEN HEALED

27When Jesus departed from there, two blind men followed Him, crying out and saying, "Son of David, have mercy on us!"

28And when He had come into the house, the blind men came to Him. And Jesus said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?"

They said to Him, "Yes, Lord."

29Then He touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith let it be to you." 30And their eyes were opened. And Jesus sternly warned them, saying, "See that no one knows it." 31But when they had departed, they spread the news about Him in all that country.

A MUTE MAN SPEAKS

32As they went out, behold, they brought to Him a man, mute and demon-possessed. 33And when the demon was cast out, the mute spoke. And the multitudes marveled, saying, "It was never seen like this in Israel!"

34But the Pharisees said, "He casts out demons by the ruler of the demons."

THE COMPASSION OF JESUS

35Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.[a] 36But when He saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion

LIFE APP

Trust / Matthew 10:16

Is there someone in your life you trust completely? Ask yourself why you trust them. What is it about them that causes you to feel confident in relying on them? More than likely, they have proven to you that they will always try to do what is right; they will always say what they mean and mean what they say. A trustworthy person will always try to do what Jesus said: "Let your 'Yes' be 'Yes' and your 'No,' 'No'" (Matt. 5:37). The kind of person Jesus was talking about is someone who tells the truth. Liars are not trustworthy. You never know if what they say is true.

Not only should we choose to trust only those people who are trustworthy, we should live our lives in such a way that others can depend on us. When we say yes, we should mean it; when we say no, others should be able to believe our word. If we lie, we prove that others cannot depend on us and we cannot be trusted.

But no person is perfect. None of us can always follow through on what we say—things happen and circumstances change without warning, and we end up unable to do what we say. There is only One who can always be trusted to do exactly as He says every time—God. He will never let us down. In Numbers 23:19 we are told, "God is not a man, that He should lie, nor a son of man, that He should repent. Has He said, and will He not do?" What God has told us in His Word is absolutely true and God never lies. Whatever you are facing in life, you can trust God to be there for you.

for them, because they were weary[a] and scattered, like sheep having no shepherd. 37Then He said to His disciples, "The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few. 38Therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest."

THE TWELVE APOSTLES

10 And when He had called His twelve disciples to Him, He gave them power over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all kinds of sickness and all kinds of disease. 2Now the names of the twelve apostles are these: first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; 3Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Lebbaeus, whose surname was[a] Thaddaeus; 4Simon the Cananite,[a] and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed Him.

SENDING OUT THE TWELVE

5These twelve Jesus sent out and commanded them, saying: "Do not go into the way of the Gentiles, and do not enter a city of the Samaritans. 6But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. 7And as you go, preach, saying, 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.' 8Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead,[a] cast out demons. Freely you have received, freely give. 9Provide neither gold nor silver nor copper in your money belts, 10nor bag for your journey, nor two tunics, nor sandals, nor staffs; for a worker is worthy of his food.

11"Now whatever city or town you enter, inquire who in it is worthy, and stay there till you go out. 12And when you go into a household, greet it. 13If the household is worthy, let your peace come upon it. But if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. 14And whoever will not receive you nor hear your words, when you depart from that house or city, shake off the dust from your feet. 15Assuredly, I say to you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city!

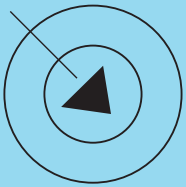
PERSECUTIONS ARE COMING

16"Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves. Therefore be wise as serpents and harmless as doves. 17But beware of men, for they will deliver you up to councils and scourge you in their synagogues. 18You will be brought before governors and kings for My sake, as a testimony to them and to the Gentiles. 19But when they deliver you up, do not worry about how or what you should speak. For it will be given to you in that hour what you should speak; 20for it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father who speaks in you.

HATRED

What happens for Christians who endure hatred from the world?

Matthew 10:22



21"Now brother will deliver up brother to death, and a father his child; and children will rise up against parents and cause them to be put to death. 22And you will be hated by all for My name's sake. But he who endures to the end will be saved. 23When they persecute you in this city, flee to another. For assuredly, I say to you, you will not have gone through the cities of Israel before the Son of Man comes.

24"A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his master. 25It is enough for a disciple that he be like his teacher, and a servant like his master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub,[a] how much more will they call those of his household! 26Therefore do not fear them. For there is nothing covered that will not be revealed, and hidden that will not be known.

JESUS TEACHES THE FEAR OF GOD

27"Whatever I tell you in the dark, speak in the light; and what you hear in the ear, preach on the housetops. 28And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. But rather fear Him who is able to

PROMISE

God promises to tell you what to say.

"For it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father who speaks in you" (Matt. 10:20).

Have you ever been in a situation where you just didn't know what to say? Maybe you were in the middle of telling someone about faith in Jesus (witnessing) and suddenly you didn't know what to say next. Or maybe someone you know really needed help with a problem and you simply had no good advice to give. Finding ourselves at a loss for words is something that happens to everyone.

After Jesus had spent quite a bit of time teaching and training His first twelve disciples, He told them it was time for them to go tell others about Him. Jesus' disciples must have worried about whether they would have the right words to say, but He assured them they should not be worried about what to say or how to say it. Why? Because the Holy Spirit was going to give them the words to say.

One of the cool parts of being a Christian is that you don't have to live on your own. Jesus is right there with you. He's never going to leave you or stand you up. He's always ready to speak to you and through you. So the next time you're sharing Jesus with a friend, or someone at school is drilling you about Christianity, remember the Holy Spirit will give you the words to say. Just calm down, and let Him do it. He always will, because He tells us so in His Word and God's Word never fails!

destroy both soul and body in hell. 29Are not two sparrows sold for a copper coin? And not one of them falls to the ground apart from your Father's will. 30But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. 31Do not fear therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows.

Matthew 10:29

Sparrows were what people offered to God when they couldn't afford a goat or sheep. They were considered a "poor man's sacrifice."

CONFESS CHRIST BEFORE MEN

32"Therefore whoever confesses Me before men, him I will also confess before My Father who is in heaven. 33But whoever denies Me before men, him I will also deny before My Father who is in heaven.

CHRIST BRINGS DIVISION

34"Do not think that I came to bring peace on earth. I did not come to bring peace but a sword. 35For I have come to 'set a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law'; 36and 'a man's enemies will be those of his own household.'[a] 37He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. 38And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. 39He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it.

A CUP OF COLD WATER

40"He who receives you receives Me, and he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me. 41He who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward. And he who receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward. 42And whoever gives one of these little ones only a cup of cold water in the name of a disciple, assuredly, I say to you, he shall by no means lose his reward."

10:36 [a]Micah 7:6

JOHN THE BAPTIST SENDS MESSENGERS TO JESUS

11 Now it came to pass, when Jesus finished commanding His twelve disciples, that He departed from there to teach and to preach in their cities.

2And when John had heard in prison about the works of Christ, he sent two of[a] his disciples 3and said to Him, "Are You the Coming One, or do we look for another?"

4Jesus answered and said to them, "Go and tell John the things which you hear and see: 5*The* blind see and the lame walk; the lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear; the dead are raised up and the poor have the gospel preached to them. 6And blessed is he who is not offended because of Me."

7As they departed, Jesus began to say to the multitudes concerning John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? 8But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft garments? Indeed, those who wear soft clothing are in kings' houses. 9But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and more than a prophet. 10For this is he of whom it is written:

'Behold, I send My messenger before
Your face,
Who will prepare Your way before
You.'[a]

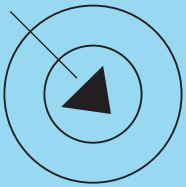
11"Assuredly, I say to you, among those born of women there has not risen one greater than John the Baptist; but he who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. 12And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force. 13For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John. 14And if you are willing to receive it, he is Elijah who is to come. 15He who has ears to hear, let him hear!

16"But to what shall I liken this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces and calling to their companions, 17and saying:

'We played the flute for you,
And you did not dance;
We mourned to you,
And you did not lament.'

18For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon.' 19The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Look, a glutton and a winebibber, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' But wisdom is justified by her children."[a]

WOE TO THE IMPENITENT CITIES



20Then He began to rebuke the cities in which most of His mighty works had been done, because they did not repent: 21"Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. 22But I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the day of judgment than for you. 23And you, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, will be[a] brought down to Hades; for if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. 24But I say to you that it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment than for you."

JESUS GIVES TRUE REST

25At that time Jesus answered and said, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes. 26Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in Your sight. 27All things have been delivered to Me by My Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father. Nor does anyone know the Father except the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him. 28Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. 29Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and

PROMISE

God promises you rest.

"Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest" (Matt. 11:28).

Have you ever been hiking in the mountains with a huge backpack strapped to your back all day long? What's the first thing you did when you finally reached your destination—the top? You unstrapped that pack, stretched out on the ground, and rested, right? Oh, what a feeling! At that very moment, there was nothing better than removing that weight, sitting down, and resting.

A lot of people carry around heavy backpacks every day of their lives. Now, they don't carry literal packs, but backpacks of sin, suitcases full of guilt, or huge loads of worry. Jesus wants to give us rest. He wants to help us. It's not worth carrying around a bunch of heavy junk when all we have to do is come to Jesus and let Him take the weight off our shoulders. He paid the price to carry it so we don't have to!

When He says that He will give you rest, He means it. If you can learn to rest in Jesus as a teenager, you'll be a step ahead of a lot of adults. The key is to really learn what Jesus has done for you—what burdens He bears for you—and then just let Him have them. When you do what you're supposed to do and let Him do what He's supposed to do, then you can rest in Him.

SEE FOR YOURSELF// Exodus 33:14; Psalm 55:22; Matthew 11:28–30 lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. 30For My yoke is easy and My burden is light."

JESUS IS LORD OF THE SABBATH

12 At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath. And His disciples were hungry, and began to pluck heads of grain and to eat. 2And when the Pharisees saw it, they said to Him, "Look, Your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath!"

3But He said to them, "Have you not read what David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him: 4how he entered the house of God and ate the showbread which was not lawful for him to eat, nor for those who were with him, but only for the priests? 5Or have you not read in the law that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath, and are blameless? 6Yet I say to you that in this place there is One greater than the temple. 7But if you had known what this means, 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice,'[a] you would not have condemned the guiltless. 8For the Son of Man is Lord even[a] of the Sabbath."

Matthew 12:9–14

God felt so strongly about honoring the Sabbath that He included it as one of the Ten Commandments. The logical question, then, is how to honor it. The Jews set aside the last day of each week for worshiping God. During the Sabbath, people were allowed to work only in cases of emergency.

HEALING ON THE SABBATH

9Now when He had departed from there, He went into their synagogue. 10And behold, there was a man who had a withered hand. And they asked Him, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"—that they might accuse Him.

11Then He said to them, "What man is there among you who has one sheep, and if it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will not lay hold of it and lift it out? 12Of how much more value then is a man than a sheep? Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath."

12:7 [a]Hosea 6:6 12:8 [a]NU-Text and M-Text omit even.

13Then He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and it was restored as whole as the other. 14Then the Pharisees went out and plotted against Him, how they might destroy Him.

BEHOLD, MY SERVANT

15But when Jesus knew it, He withdrew from there. And great multitudes[a] followed Him, and He healed them all. 16Yet He warned them not to make Him known, 17that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying:

18 "Behold! My Servant whom I have chosen,
My Beloved in whom My soul is well pleased!
I will put My Spirit upon Him,
And He will declare justice to the Gentiles.
19 He will not quarrel nor cry out,
Nor will anyone hear His voice in the streets.
20 A bruised reed He will not break,
And smoking flax He will not quench,
Till He sends forth justice to victory;
21 And in His name Gentiles will trust."[a]

A HOUSE DIVIDED CANNOT STAND

22Then one was brought to Him who was demon-possessed, blind and mute; and He healed him, so that the blind and[a] mute man both spoke and saw. 23And all the multitudes were amazed and said, "Could this be the Son of David?"

25But Jesus knew their thoughts, and said to them: "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand. 26If Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand? 27And if I cast out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they shall be your judges. 28But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, surely the kingdom of God has come upon you. 29Or how can one enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man? And then he will plunder his house. 30He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters abroad.

THE UNPARDONABLE SIN

31"Therefore I say to you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven men. 32Anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, either in this age or in the age to come.

A TREE KNOWN BY ITS FRUIT

33"Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or else make the tree bad and its fruit bad; for a tree is known by its fruit. 34Brood of vipers! How can you, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. 35A good man out of the good treasure of his heart[a] brings forth good things, and an evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth evil things. 36But I say to you that for every idle word men may speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment. 37For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."

JUDGMENT
Will God judge the words we speak?
Matthew 12:36

THE SCRIBES AND PHARISEES ASK FOR A SIGN

38Then some of the scribes and Pharisees answered, saying, "Teacher, we want to see a sign from You."

39But He answered and said to them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah.

12:15 [a]NU-Text brackets multitudes as disputed. 12:21 [a]Isaiah 42:1–4 12:22 [a]NU-Text omits blind and. 12:24 [a]NU-Text and M-Text read Beelzebul. 12:35 [a]NU-Text and M-Text omit of his heart.

40For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. 41The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and indeed a greater than Jonah is here. 42The queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and indeed a greater than Solomon is here.

AN UNCLEAN SPIRIT RETURNS

43"When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, he goes through dry places, seeking rest, and finds none. 44Then he says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' And when he comes, he finds it empty, swept, and put in order. 45Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter and dwell there; and the last state of that man is worse than the first. So shall it also be with this wicked generation."

JESUS' MOTHER AND BROTHERS SEND FOR HIM

46While He was still talking to the multitudes, behold, His mother and brothers stood outside, seeking to speak with Him. 47Then one said to Him, "Look, Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, seeking to speak with You."

48But He answered and said to the one who told Him, "Who is My mother and who are My brothers?" 49And He stretched out His hand toward His disciples and said, "Here are My mother and My brothers! 50For whoever does the will of My Father in heaven is My brother and sister and mother."

THE PARABLE OF THE SOWER

13 On the same day Jesus went out of the house and sat by the sea. 2And great multitudes were gathered together to Him, so that He got into a boat and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3Then He spoke many things to them in parables, saying: "Behold, a sower went out to sow. 4And as he sowed, some seed fell by the wayside; and the birds came and devoured them. 5Some fell on stony places, where they did not have much earth; and they immediately sprang up because they had no depth of earth. 6But when the sun was up they were scorched, and because they had no root they withered away. 7And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up and choked them. 8But others fell on good ground and yielded a crop: some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. 9He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

THE PURPOSE OF PARABLES

10And the disciples came and said to Him, "Why do You speak to them in parables?"

11He answered and said to them, "Because it has been given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given. 12For whoever has, to him more will be given, and he will have abundance; but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. 13Therefore I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand. 14And in them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, which says:

'Hearing you will hear and shall not understand,
And seeing you will see and not perceive;
15*For the hearts of this people have grown dull.*
Their ears are hard of hearing,
And their eyes they have closed,
Lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears,
Lest they should understand with their hearts and turn,
So that I should[a] heal them.'[b]

16But blessed are your eyes for they see, and your ears for they hear; 17for assuredly, I say to you that many prophets and righteous men desired to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.

13:15 [a]NU-Text and M-Text read would.
[b]Isaiah 6:9, 10

THE PARABLE OF THE SOWER EXPLAINED

18"Therefore hear the parable of the sower:
19When anyone hears the word of the kingdom, and does not understand it, then the wicked one comes and snatches away what was sown in his heart. This is he who received seed by the wayside. 20But he who received the seed on stony places, this is he who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy; 21yet he has no root in himself, but endures only for a while. For when tribulation or persecution arises because of the word, immediately he stumbles. 22Now he who received seed among the thorns is he who hears the word, and the cares of this world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful. 23But he who received seed on the good ground is he who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and produces: some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty."

THE PARABLE OF THE WHEAT AND THE TARES

24Another parable He put forth to them, saying: "The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field;
25but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat and went his way. 26But when the grain had sprouted and produced a crop, then the tares also appeared. 27So the servants of the owner came and said to him, 'Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it have tares?' 28He said to them, 'An enemy has done this.' The servants said to him, 'Do you want us then to go and gather them up?' 29But he said, 'No, lest while you gather up the tares you also uproot the wheat with them. 30Let both grow together until the harvest, and at the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, "First gather together the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into my barn."' "

THE PARABLE OF THE MUSTARD SEED

31Another parable He put forth to them, saying: "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field, 32which indeed is the least of all the seeds; but when it is grown it is greater than the herbs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches."

THE PARABLE OF THE LEAVEN

33Another parable He spoke to them: "The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures[a] of meal till it was all leavened."

PROPHECY AND THE PARABLES

34All these things Jesus spoke to the multitude in parables; and without a parable He did not speak to them, 35that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying:

> "I will open My mouth in parables;
> I will utter things kept secret from the foundation of the world."[a]

THE PARABLE OF THE TARES EXPLAINED

36Then Jesus sent the multitude away and went into the house. And His disciples came to Him, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the tares of the field."

37He answered and said to them: "He who sows the good seed is the Son of Man.
38The field is the world, the good seeds are the sons of the kingdom, but the tares are the sons of the wicked one. 39The enemy who sowed them is the devil, the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are the angels. 40Therefore as the tares are gathered and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of this age. 41The Son of Man will send out His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom all things that offend, and those who practice lawlessness, 42and will cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth. 43Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears to hear, let him hear!

THE PARABLE OF THE HIDDEN TREASURE

44"Again, the kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found

---

13:33 [a]Greek sata, approximately two pecks in all 13:35 [a]Psalm 78:2

and hid; and for joy over it he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

THE PARABLE OF THE PEARL OF GREAT PRICE

45"Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant seeking beautiful pearls, 46who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had and bought it.

THE PARABLE OF THE DRAGNET

47"Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet that was cast into the sea and gathered some of every kind, 48which, when it was full, they drew to shore; and they sat down and gathered the good into vessels, but threw the bad away. 49So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come forth, separate the wicked from among the just, 50and cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth."

51Jesus said to them,[a] "Have you understood all these things?"

They said to Him, "Yes, Lord."[b]

Matthew 13:54

Because the temple was located in Jerusalem, many Jews had to travel a long way to "officially" worship God. As a result, many of them could not visit the temple on a regular basis. Instead, they formed small, local meeting places called synagogues. At first, the synagogues were simply places people met to read God's law and pray together. Eventually, though, they became centers of community life.

JESUS REJECTED AT NAZARETH

53Now it came to pass, when Jesus had finished these parables, that He departed from there. 54When He had come to His own country, He taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished and said, "Where did this Man get this wisdom and these mighty works? 55Is this not the carpenter's son? Is not His mother called Mary? And His brothers James, Joses,[a] Simon, and Judas? 56And His sisters, are they not all with us? Where then did this Man get all these things?" 57So they were offended at Him.

But Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his own country and in his own house." 58Now He did not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

Herod the Great, the ruler of Judea, died when Jesus was very young. His kingdom was divided among his three sons. Antipas was the name of the son who inherited the region of Galilee, the place where both Jesus and John the Baptist lived most of their adult lives. Whenever "Herod" is mentioned in the Bible, it usually refers to Antipas. Not only was Antipas the one who had John the Baptist murdered, he also played a part in Jesus' trial and death.

JOHN THE BAPTIST BEHEADED

14 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard the report about Jesus 2and said to his servants, "This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead, and therefore these powers are at work in him." 3For Herod had laid hold of John and bound him, and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife. 4Because John had said to him, "It is not lawful for you to have her." 5And although he wanted to put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.

6But when Herod's birthday was celebrated, the daughter of Herodias danced before them and pleased Herod. 7Therefore he promised with an oath to give her whatever she might ask.

8So she, having been prompted by her mother, said, "Give me John the Baptist's head here on a platter."

13:51 [a]NU-Text omits Jesus said to them. [b]NU-Text omits Lord. 13:52 [a]Or for 13:55 [a]NU-Text reads Joseph.

9And the king was sorry; nevertheless, because of the oaths and because of those who sat with him, he commanded it to be given to her. 10So he sent and had John beheaded in prison. 11And his head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother. 12Then his disciples came and took away the body and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

FEEDING THE FIVE THOUSAND

13When Jesus heard it, He departed from there by boat to a deserted place by Himself. But when the multitudes heard it, they followed Him on foot from the cities. 14And when Jesus went out He saw a great multitude; and He was moved with compassion for them, and healed their sick. 15When it was evening, His disciples came to Him, saying, "This is a deserted place, and the hour is already late. Send the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages and buy themselves food."

16But Jesus said to them, "They do not need to go away. You give them something to eat."

17And they said to Him, "We have here only five loaves and two fish."

18He said, "Bring them here to Me." 19Then He commanded the multitudes to sit down on the grass. And He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He blessed and broke and gave the loaves to the disciples; and the disciples gave to the multitudes. 20So they all ate and were filled, and they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments that remained. 21Now those who had eaten were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

JESUS WALKS ON THE SEA

22Immediately Jesus made His disciples get into the boat and go before Him to the other side, while He sent the multitudes away. 23And when He had sent the multitudes away, He went up on the mountain by Himself to pray. Now when evening came, He was alone there. 24But the boat was now in the middle of the sea,[a] tossed by the waves, for the wind was contrary.

25Now in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went to them, walking on the sea. 26And when the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out for fear.

27But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, "Be of good cheer! It is I; do not be afraid."

28And Peter answered Him and said, "Lord, if it is You, command me to come to You on the water."

29So He said, "Come." And when Peter had come down out of the boat, he walked on the water to go to Jesus. 30But when he saw that the wind was boisterous,[a] he was afraid; and beginning to sink he cried out, saying, "Lord, save me!"

31And immediately Jesus stretched out His hand and caught him, and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" 32And when they got into the boat, the wind ceased.

33Then those who were in the boat came and[a] worshiped Him, saying, "Truly You are the Son of God."

MANY TOUCH HIM AND ARE MADE WELL

34When they had crossed over, they came to the land of[a] Gennesaret. 35And when the men of that place recognized Him, they sent out into all that surrounding region, brought to Him all who were sick, 36and begged Him that they might only touch the hem of His garment. And as many as touched it were made perfectly well.

DEFILEMENT COMES FROM WITHIN

15 Then the scribes and Pharisees who were from Jerusalem came to Jesus, saying, 2"Why do Your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread."

3He answered and said to them, "Why do you also transgress the commandment of God because of your tradition? 4For God commanded, saying, 'Honor your father and your mother';[a] and, 'He who curses father or mother, let him be put to death.'[b] 5But you say, 'Whoever says to his father or mother, "Whatever profit you might have received from me is a gift to God"— 6then he need not honor his father or mother.'[a] Thus you have made the commandment[b] of God of no effect by your tradition. 7Hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy about you, saying:

8 'These people draw near to Me with their mouth,
And[a] honor Me with their lips,
But their heart is far from Me.
9 And in vain they worship Me,
Teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.' "[a]

10When He had called the multitude to Himself, He said to them, "Hear and understand: 11Not what goes into the mouth defiles a man; but what comes out of the mouth, this defiles a man."

Matthew 15:11

Jewish people weren't allowed to eat things like pork or shellfish because those foods were considered unclean. The Pharisees taught that anyone who ate unclean food could not take part in religious ceremonies.

12Then His disciples came and said to Him, "Do You know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this saying?"

13But He answered and said, "Every plant which My heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted. 14Let them alone. They are blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind leads the blind, both will fall into a ditch."

15Then Peter answered and said to Him, "Explain this parable to us."

16So Jesus said, "Are you also still without understanding? 17Do you not yet understand that whatever enters the mouth goes into the stomach and is eliminated? 18But those things which proceed out of the mouth come from the heart, and they defile a man. 19For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies. 20These are the things which defile a man, but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile a man."

DISOBEDIENCE

Where does disobedience start?

Matthew 15:18–20

A GENTILE SHOWS HER FAITH

21Then Jesus went out from there and departed to the region of Tyre and Sidon. 22And behold, a woman of Canaan came from that region and cried out to Him, saying, "Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David! My daughter is severely demon-possessed."

23But He answered her not a word.

And His disciples came and urged Him, saying, "Send her away, for she cries out after us."

24But He answered and said, "I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

25Then she came and worshiped Him, saying, "Lord, help me!"

26But He answered and said, "It is not good to take the children's bread and throw it to the little dogs."

27And she said, "Yes, Lord, yet even the little dogs eat the crumbs which fall from their masters' table."

28Then Jesus answered and said to her, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be to you as you desire." And her daughter was healed from that very hour.

JESUS HEALS GREAT MULTITUDES

29Jesus departed from there, skirted the Sea of Galilee, and went up on the mountain and sat down there. 30Then great multitudes came to Him, having with them the lame, blind, mute, maimed, and many others; and they laid them down at Jesus' feet, and He healed them. 31So the multitude marveled when they saw the mute speaking, the maimed made whole, the lame walking, and the blind seeing; and they glorified the God of Israel.

FEEDING THE FOUR THOUSAND

32Now Jesus called His disciples to Himself and said, "I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now continued with Me three days and have nothing to eat. And I do not want to send them away hungry, lest they faint on the way."

15:6 [a]NU-Text omits or mother. [b]NU-Text reads word. 15:8 [a]NU-Text omits draw near to Me with their mouth, And. 15:9 [a]Isaiah 29:13

33Then His disciples said to Him, "Where could we get enough bread in the wilderness to fill such a great multitude?"

34Jesus said to them, "How many loaves do you have?"

And they said, "Seven, and a few little fish."

35So He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground. 36And He took the seven loaves and the fish and gave thanks, broke them and gave them to His disciples; and the disciples gave to the multitude. 37So they all ate and were filled, and they took up seven large baskets full of the fragments that were left. 38Now those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children. 39And He sent away the multitude, got into the boat, and came to the region of Magdala.[a]

THE PHARISEES AND SADDUCEES SEEK A SIGN

16 Then the Pharisees and Sadducees came, and testing Him asked that He would show them a sign from heaven. 2He answered and said to them, "When it is evening you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red'; 3and in the morning, 'It will be foul weather today, for the sky is red and threatening.' Hypocrites![a] You know how to discern the face of the sky, but you cannot discern the signs of the times. 4A wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and no sign shall be given to it except the sign of the prophet[a] Jonah." And He left them and departed.

THE LEAVEN OF THE PHARISEES AND SADDUCEES

5Now when His disciples had come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread. 6Then Jesus said to them, "Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the Sadducees."

7And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "It is because we have taken no bread."

8But Jesus, being aware of it, said to them, "O you of little faith, why do you reason among yourselves because you have brought no bread?[a] 9Do you not yet understand, or remember the five loaves of the five thousand and how many baskets you took up? 10Nor the seven loaves of the four thousand and how many large baskets you took up? 11How is it you do not understand that I did not speak to you concerning bread?—but to beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees." 12Then they understood that He did not tell them to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

PETER CONFESSES JESUS AS THE CHRIST

13When Jesus came into the region of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, saying, "Who do men say that I, the Son of Man, am?"

14So they said, "Some say John the Baptist, some Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets."

15He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

16Simon Peter answered and said, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

Matthew 16:16

Many Jews were waiting for God to send them a special person they called the "Messiah," (a Hebrew word meaning "anointed one." The English word Christ comes from the Greek word for Messiah.) In Old Testament times, kings, priests, and prophets were all anointed, which means they had oil poured on their heads to show they were specially chosen by God. The Jews of Jesus' day believed the Messiah would become their earthly king and free them from the control of the Roman Empire.

17Jesus answered and said to him, "Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah, for flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but My Father who is in heaven. 18And I also say to you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church, and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it. 19And I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed[a] in heaven."

20Then He commanded His disciples that they should tell no one that He was Jesus the Christ.

JESUS PREDICTS HIS DEATH AND RESURRECTION

21From that time Jesus began to show to His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem, and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised the third day.

22Then Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him, saying, "Far be it from You, Lord; this shall not happen to You!"

23But He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind Me, Satan! You are an offense to Me, for you are not mindful of the things of God, but the things of men."

TAKE UP THE CROSS AND FOLLOW HIM

24Then Jesus said to His disciples, "If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. 25For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it. 26For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul? 27For the Son of Man will come in the glory of His Father with His angels, and then He will reward each according to his works. 28"Assuredly, I say to you, there are some standing here who shall not taste death till they see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom."

JESUS TRANSFIGURED ON THE MOUNT

17 Now after six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, led them up on a high mountain by themselves; 2and He was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as the light. 3And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with Him. 4Then Peter answered and said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if You wish, let us[a] make here three tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

5While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them; and suddenly a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Hear Him!" 6And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces and were greatly afraid. 7But Jesus came and touched them and said, "Arise, and do not be afraid." 8When they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus only.

9Now as they came down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, "Tell the vision to no one until the Son of Man is risen from the dead."

10And His disciples asked Him, saying, "Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

11Jesus answered and said to them, "Indeed, Elijah is coming first[a] and will restore all things. 12But I say to you that Elijah has come already, and they did not know him but did to him whatever they wished. Likewise the Son of Man is also about to suffer at their hands." 13Then the disciples understood that He spoke to them of John the Baptist.

14And when they had come to the multitude, a man came to Him, kneeling down to Him and saying, 15"Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is an epileptic[a] and suffers severely; for he often falls into the fire and often into the water. 16So I brought him to Your disciples, but they could not cure him."

17Then Jesus answered and said, "O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him here to Me." 18And Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of him; and the child was cured from that very hour.

19Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why could we not cast it out?"

20So Jesus said to them, "Because of your

16:19 [a]Or will have been bound . . . will have been loosed 17:4 [a]NU-Text reads I will. 17:11 [a]NU-Text omits first. 17:15 [a]Literally moonstruck

unbelief;[a] for assuredly, I say to you, if you have faith as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you. 21However, this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting."[a]

JESUS AGAIN PREDICTS HIS DEATH AND RESURRECTION

22Now while they were staying[a] in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men, 23and they will kill Him, and the third day He will be raised up." And they were exceedingly sorrowful.

PETER AND HIS MASTER PAY THEIR TAXES

24When they had come to Capernaum,[a] those who received the temple tax came to Peter and said, "Does your Teacher not pay the temple tax?"

25He said, "Yes."

And when he had come into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth take customs or taxes, from their sons or from strangers?"

26Peter said to Him, "From strangers."

Jesus said to him, "Then the sons are free. 27Nevertheless, lest we offend them, go to the sea, cast in a hook, and take the fish that comes up first. And when you have opened its mouth, you will find a piece of money;[a] take that and give it to them for Me and you."

WHO IS THE GREATEST?

18 At that time the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Who then is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?"

2Then Jesus called a little child to Him, set him in the midst of them, 3and said, "Assuredly, I say to you, unless you are converted and become as little children, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven. 4Therefore whoever humbles himself as this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. 5Whoever receives one little child like this in My name receives Me.

JESUS WARNS OF OFFENSES

6"Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to sin, it would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were drowned in the depth of the sea. 7Woe to the world because of offenses! For offenses must come, but woe to that man by whom the offense comes!

8"If your hand or foot causes you to sin, cut it off and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life lame or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet, to be cast into the everlasting fire. 9And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes, to be cast into hell fire.

THE PARABLE OF THE LOST SHEEP

10"Take heed that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that in heaven their angels always see the face of My Father who is in heaven. 11For the Son of Man has come to save that which was lost.[a]

12"What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them goes astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine and go to the mountains to seek the one that is straying? 13And if he should find it, assuredly, I say to you, he rejoices more over that sheep than over the ninety-nine that did not go astray. 14Even so it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.

DEALING WITH A SINNING BROTHER

15"Moreover if your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he hears you, you have gained your brother. 16But if he will not hear, take with you one or two more, that 'by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.'[a] 17And if he refuses to hear them, tell it to the church. But if he refuses even to hear the church, let him be to you like a heathen and a tax collector.

bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.
19"Again I say[a] to you that if two of you agree on earth concerning anything that they ask, it will be done for them by My Father in heaven. 20For where two or three are gathered together in My name, I am there in the midst of them."

FORGIVENESS
How many times should I forgive someone?
Matthew 18:21–35

THE PARABLE OF THE UNFORGIVING SERVANT

21Then Peter came to Him and said, "Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? Up to seven times?" 22Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you, up to seven times, but up to seventy times seven. 23Therefore the kingdom of heaven is like a certain king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants. 24And when he had begun to settle accounts, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. 25But as he was not able to pay, his master commanded that he be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and that payment be made. 26The servant therefore fell down before him, saying, 'Master, have patience with me, and I will pay you all.' 27Then the master of that servant was moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt.
28"But that servant went out and found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii; and he laid hands on him and took him by the throat, saying,
'Pay me what you owe!' 29So his fellow servant fell down at his feet[a] and begged him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you all.'[b] 30And he would not, but went and threw him into prison till he should pay the debt. 31So when his fellow servants saw what had been done, they were very grieved, and came and told their master all that had been done. 32Then his master, after he had called him, said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you begged me. 33Should you not also have had compassion on your fellow servant, just as I had pity on you?' 34And his master was angry, and delivered him to the torturers until he should pay all that was due to him.
35"So My heavenly Father also will do to you if each of you, from his heart, does not forgive his brother his trespasses."[a]

MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE

19 Now it came to pass, when Jesus had finished these sayings, that He departed from Galilee and came to the region of Judea beyond the Jordan. 2And great multitudes followed Him, and He healed them there.
3The Pharisees also came to Him, testing Him, and saying to Him, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for just any reason?"
4And He answered and said to them,
"Have you not read that He who made[a] them at the beginning 'made them male and female,'[b] 5and said, 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh'?[a] 6So then, they are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let not man separate." 7They said to Him, "Why then did Moses command to give a certificate of divorce, and to put her away?" 8He said to them, "Moses, because of the hardness of your hearts, permitted you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so. 9And I say to you, whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality,[a] and marries another, commits adultery; and whoever marries her who is divorced commits adultery." 10His disciples said to Him, "If such is the case of the man with his wife, it is better not to marry."

JESUS TEACHES ON CELIBACY

11But He said to them, "All cannot accept this saying, but only those to whom it has been given: 12For there are eunuchs who were born thus from their mother's womb, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He who is able to accept it, let him accept it."

JESUS BLESSES LITTLE CHILDREN

13Then little children were brought to Him that He might put His hands on them and pray, but the disciples rebuked them. 14But Jesus said, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for of such is the kingdom of heaven." 15And He laid His hands on them and departed from there.

JESUS COUNSELS THE RICH YOUNG RULER

16Now behold, one came and said to Him, "Good[a] Teacher, what good thing shall I do that I may have eternal life?"

17So He said to him, "Why do you call Me good?[a] No one is good but One, that is, God.[b] But if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments."

18He said to Him, "Which ones?"

Jesus said, "'You shall not murder,' 'You shall not commit adultery,' 'You shall not steal,' 'You shall not bear false witness,' 19*'Honor your father and your mother,'*[a] and, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' "[b]

20The young man said to Him, "All these things I have kept from my youth.[a] What do I still lack?"

21Jesus said to him, "If you want to be perfect, go, sell what you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me."

22But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions.

WITH GOD ALL THINGS ARE POSSIBLE

23Then Jesus said to His disciples, "Assuredly, I say to you that it is hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven. 24And again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

25When His disciples heard it, they were greatly astonished, saying, "Who then can be saved?"

26But Jesus looked at them and said to them, "With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."

27Then Peter answered and said to Him, "See, we have left all and followed You. Therefore what shall we have?"

28So Jesus said to them, "Assuredly I say to you, that in the regeneration, when the Son of Man sits on the throne of His glory, you who have followed Me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. 29And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife[a] or children or lands, for My name's sake, shall receive a hundredfold, and inherit eternal life. 30But many who are first will be last, and the last first.

THE PARABLE OF THE WORKERS IN THE VINEYARD

20 "For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. 2Now when he had agreed with the laborers for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard. 3And he went out about the third hour and saw others standing idle in the marketplace, 4and said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give you.' So they went. 5Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did likewise. 6And about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing idle,[a] and said to them, 'Why have you been standing here idle all day?' 7They said to him, 'Because no one hired us.' He said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right you will receive.'[a]

8"So when evening had come, the owner of the vineyard said to his steward, 'Call the laborers and give them their wages, beginning with the last to the first.' 9And when those came who were hired about the eleventh hour, they each received a denarius. 10But when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more;

19:16 [a]NU-Text omits Good. 19:17 [a]NU-Text reads Why do you ask Me about what is good? [b]NU-Text reads There is One who is good. 19:19 [a]Exodus 20:12–16; Deuteronomy 5:16–20 [b]Leviticus 19:18 19:20 [a]NU-Text omits from my youth. 19:29 [a]NU-Text omits or wife. 20:6 [a]NU-Text omits idle. 20:7 [a]NU-Text omits the last clause of this verse.

11And when they had received it, they complained against the landowner, 12saying, 'These last men have worked only one hour, and you made them equal to us who have borne the burden and the heat of the day.'
13But he answered one of them and said, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong. Did you not agree with me for a denarius? 14Take what is yours and go your way. I wish to give to this last man the same as to you. 15Is it not lawful for me to do what I wish with my own things? Or is your eye evil because I am good?' 16So the last will be first, and the first last. For many are called, but few chosen."[a]

JESUS A THIRD TIME PREDICTS HIS DEATH AND RESURRECTION

17Now Jesus, going up to Jerusalem, took the twelve disciples aside on the road and said to them, 18"Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and to the scribes; and they will condemn Him to death, 19and deliver Him to the Gentiles to mock and to scourge and to crucify. And the third day He will rise again."

GREATNESS IS SERVING

20Then the mother of Zebedee's sons came to Him with her sons, kneeling down and asking something from Him.

21And He said to her, "What do you wish?"

She said to Him, "Grant that these two sons of mine may sit, one on Your right hand and the other on the left, in Your kingdom."

22But Jesus answered and said, "You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?"[a]

They said to Him, "We are able."

23So He said to them, "You will indeed drink My cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with;[a] but to sit on My right hand and on My left is not Mine to give, but it is for those for whom it is prepared by My Father."

24And when the ten heard it, they were greatly displeased with the two brothers. 25But Jesus called them to Himself and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those who are great exercise authority over them. 26Yet it shall not be so among you; but whoever desires to become great among you, let him be your servant. 27And whoever desires to be first among you, let him be your slave—28just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many."

LEADERSHIP
Do leaders have to serve others?
Matthew 20:26–28

TWO BLIND MEN RECEIVE THEIR SIGHT

29Now as they went out of Jericho, a great multitude followed Him. 30And behold, two blind men sitting by the road, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying, "Have mercy on us, O Lord, Son of David!"

31Then the multitude warned them that they should be quiet; but they cried out all the more, saying, "Have mercy on us, O Lord, Son of David!"

32So Jesus stood still and called them, and said, "What do you want Me to do for you?"

33They said to Him, "Lord, that our eyes may be opened." 34So Jesus had compassion and touched their eyes. And immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed Him.

THE TRIUMPHAL ENTRY

21 Now when they drew near Jerusalem, and came to Bethphage,[a] at the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, 2saying to them, "Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her. Loose them and bring them to Me.
3And if anyone says anything to you, you

20:16 [a]NU-Text omits the last sentence of this verse. 20:22 [a]NU-Text omits and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with. 20:23 [a]NU-Text omits and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with. 21:1 [a]M-Text reads Bethsphage.

shall say, 'The Lord has need of them,' and immediately he will send them."

4All[a] this was done that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying:

5 "Tell the daughter of Zion,
'Behold, your King is coming to you,
Lowly, and sitting on a donkey,
A colt, the foal of a donkey.'"[a]

6So the disciples went and did as Jesus commanded them. 7They brought the donkey and the colt, laid their clothes on them, and set Him[a] on them. 8And a very great multitude spread their clothes on the road; others cut down branches from the trees and spread them on the road. 9Then the multitudes who went before and those who followed cried out, saying:

"Hosanna to the Son of David!
'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!'[a] Hosanna in the highest!"

10And when He had come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, "Who is this?"

11So the multitudes said, "This is Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth of Galilee."

Matthew 21:12

Coins with pagan symbols on them could not be used in the temple. They had to be exchanged for acceptable coins. Likewise, only certain animals could be offered as sacrifices. People who were too poor to own a goat or a sheep could offer a dove as a sacrifice. Local businessmen saw these restrictions as an opportunity to make money. They set up tables in the temple courtyard and sold approved coins and doves for outrageous prices.

JESUS CLEANSES THE TEMPLE

12Then Jesus went into the temple of God[a] and drove out all those who bought and sold in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who sold doves. 13And He said to them, "It is written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer,'[a] but you have made it a 'den of thieves.'"[b]

14Then the blind and the lame came to Him in the temple, and He healed them. 15But when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that He did, and the children crying out in the temple and saying, "Hosanna to the Son of David!" they were indignant 16and said to Him, "Do You hear what these are saying?"

And Jesus said to them, "Yes. Have you never read,

'Out of the mouth of babes and nursing infants
You have perfected praise'?"[a]

17Then He left them and went out of the city to Bethany, and He lodged there.

THE FIG TREE WITHERED

18Now in the morning, as He returned to the city, He was hungry. 19And seeing a fig tree by the road, He came to it and found nothing on it but leaves, and said to it, "Let no fruit grow on you ever again." Immediately the fig tree withered away.

THE LESSON OF THE WITHERED FIG TREE

20And when the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying, "How did the fig tree wither away so soon?"

21So Jesus answered and said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you, if you have faith and do not doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, but also if you say to this mountain, 'Be removed and be cast into the sea,' it will be done. 22And whatever things you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive."

JESUS' AUTHORITY QUESTIONED

23Now when He came into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people confronted Him as He was teaching, and said, "By what authority are You doing these things? And who gave You this authority?"

21:4 [a]NU-Text omits All. 21:5 [a]Zechariah 9:9 21:7 [a]NU-Text reads and He sat.
21:9 [a]Psalm 118:26 21:12 [a]NU-Text omits of God. 21:13 [a]Isaiah 56:7 [b]Jeremiah 7:11
21:16 [a]Psalm 8:2

24But Jesus answered and said to them,
"I also will ask you one thing, which if you tell Me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things: 25The baptism of John—where was it from? From heaven or from men?"

And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him?'
26But if we say, 'From men,' we fear the multitude, for all count John as a prophet." 27So they answered Jesus and said, "We do not know."

And He said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.

THE PARABLE OF THE TWO SONS

28"But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first and said,
'Son, go, work today in my vineyard.' 29He answered and said, 'I will not,' but afterward he regretted it and went. 30Then he came to the second and said likewise. And he answered and said, 'I go, sir,' but he did not go. 31Which of the two did the will of his father?"

They said to Him, "The first."

Jesus said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you that tax collectors and harlots enter the kingdom of God before you. 32For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him; but tax collectors and harlots believed him; and when you saw it, you did not afterward relent and believe him.

THE PARABLE OF THE WICKED VINEDRESSERS

33"Hear another parable: There was a certain landowner who planted a vineyard and set a hedge around it, dug a winepress in it and built a tower. And he leased it to vinedressers and went into a far country.
34Now when vintage-time drew near, he sent his servants to the vinedressers, that they might receive its fruit. 35And the vinedressers took his servants, beat one, killed one, and stoned another. 36Again he sent other servants, more than the first, and they did likewise to them. 37Then last of all he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' 38But when the vinedressers saw the son, they said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and seize his inheritance.' 39So they took him and cast him out of the vineyard and killed him.

40"Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those vinedressers?"

41They said to Him, "He will destroy those wicked men miserably, and lease his vineyard to other vinedressers who will render to him the fruits in their seasons."

42Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the Scriptures:

> 'The stone which the builders rejected
> Has become the chief cornerstone.
> This was the LORD*'s doing,*
> And it is marvelous in our eyes'?[a]

43"Therefore I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a nation bearing the fruits of it. 44And whoever falls on this stone will be broken; but on whomever it falls, it will grind him to powder."

45Now when the chief priests and Pharisees heard His parables, they perceived that He was speaking of them. 46But when they sought to lay hands on Him, they feared the multitudes, because they took Him for a prophet.

THE PARABLE OF THE WEDDING FEAST

22 And Jesus answered and spoke to them again by parables and said: 2"The kingdom of heaven is like a certain king who arranged a marriage for his son, 3and sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding; and they were not willing to come.
4Again, he sent out other servants, saying,
'Tell those who are invited, "See, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and fatted cattle are killed, and all things are ready. Come to the wedding."' 5But they made light of it and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his business. 6And the rest seized his servants, treated them spitefully, and killed them. 7But when the king heard about it, he was furious. And he sent out his armies, destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city. 8Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy. 9Therefore go into the highways, and as many as you find, invite to the wedding.' 10So those servants went out into the highways and gathered together all whom they found, both bad and good. And the wedding hall was filled with guests.

11"But when the king came in to see the guests, he saw a man there who did not have on a wedding garment. 12So he said to him, 'Friend, how did you come in here without a wedding garment?' And he was speechless. 13Then the king said to the servants, 'Bind him hand and foot, take him away, and[a] cast him into outer darkness; there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

14"For many are called, but few are chosen."

THE PHARISEES: IS IT LAWFUL TO PAY TAXES TO CAESAR?

15Then the Pharisees went and plotted how they might entangle Him in His talk. 16And they sent to Him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that You are true, and teach the way of God in truth; nor do You care about anyone, for You do not regard the person of men. 17Tell us, therefore, what do You think? Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

18But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, "Why do you test Me, you hypocrites? 19Show Me the tax money."

So they brought Him a denarius.

20And He said to them, "Whose image and inscription is this?"

21They said to Him, "Caesar's."

And He said to them, "Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." 22When they had heard these words, they marveled, and left Him and went their way.

THE SADDUCEES: WHAT ABOUT THE RESURRECTION?

23The same day the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Him and asked Him, 24saying: "Teacher, Moses said that if a man dies, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife and raise up offspring for his brother. 25Now there were with us seven brothers. The first died after he had married, and having no offspring, left his wife to his brother. 26Likewise the second also, and the third, even to the seventh. 27Last of all the woman died also. 28Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife of the seven will she be? For they all had her."

ANGELS
Do angels get married?
Matthew 22:30

29Jesus answered and said to them, "You are mistaken, not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God. 30For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels of God[a] in heaven. 31But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was spoken to you by God, saying, 32*'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'*?[a] God is not the God of the dead, but of the living." 33And when the multitudes heard this, they were astonished at His teaching.

THE SCRIBES: WHICH IS THE FIRST COMMANDMENT OF ALL?

34But when the Pharisees heard that He had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together. 35Then one of them, a lawyer, asked Him a question, testing Him, and saying, 36"Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?"

37Jesus said to him, "'You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.'[a] 38This is the first and great commandment. 39And the second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'[a] 40On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets."

JESUS: HOW CAN DAVID CALL HIS DESCENDANT LORD?

41While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42saying, "What do you think about the Christ? Whose Son is He?"

MAKING IT REAL // MATTHEW 22:36, 37

Love God This is it. Matthew 22:36, 37 tell us the most important commandment. If you've decided to get serious about your relationship with God, then this commandment is the place to start. Every element of being Christlike is built on this principle. Learning to love the Lord with your heart, soul, and mind will be a continual process that lasts your whole life.

So what does it look like to love the Lord with every part of you? It means that you begin to love the way God loves, think the way God thinks, act the way God acts, and hate the things God hates. Don't hold back. His love for you has no limits or hesitations. You have absolutely nothing to lose and everything to gain by going for it.

Don't be disappointed if you're not an overnight sensation. Remember, this is a process—learning to spend time with Him; giving and receiving grace; working on areas of your life that don't look anything like God; forgiving and being forgiven; trusting; slowly, ever so wonderfully, looking more and more like the One you love. Imitation is the highest form of adoration. Be an imitator of God. (See also: Deut. 6:5; Mark 12:32, 33; Eph. 5:1, 2.)

Words to Live By

Heart, soul, and mind: These words describe all aspects of your being. When you are truly committed to God, there's no part of you that's left out. Everything you think or feel or desire or do should begin with loving God. It's not just about acknowledging Him intellectually or getting warm fuzzy feelings during worship on Sundays. Rather, it's about loving Him 24/7 in every part of your personality and self. Every thought, feeling, and action should filter through your love for God.

They said to Him, "The Son of David."

43He said to them, "How then does David in the Spirit call Him 'Lord,' saying:

44 'The LORD said to my Lord,
"Sit at My right hand,
Till I make Your enemies Your
footstool"'?[a]

45If David then calls Him 'Lord,' how is He his Son?" 46And no one was able to answer Him a word, nor from that day on did anyone dare question Him anymore.

WOE TO THE SCRIBES AND PHARISEES

23 Then Jesus spoke to the multitudes and to His disciples, 2saying: "The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat. 3Therefore whatever they tell you to observe,[a] that observe and do, but do not do according to their works; for they say, and do not do. 4For they bind heavy burdens, hard to bear, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers. 5But all their works they do to be seen by men. They make their phylacteries broad and enlarge the borders of their garments. 6They love the best places at feasts, the best seats in the synagogues, 7greetings in the marketplaces, and to be called by men, 'Rabbi, Rabbi.' 8But you, do not be called 'Rabbi'; for One is your Teacher, the Christ,[a] and you are all brethren. 9Do not call anyone on earth your father; for One is your Father, He who is in heaven. 10And do not be called teachers; for One is your Teacher, the Christ. 11But he who is greatest among you shall be your servant. 12And whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.

13"But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut up the kingdom of heaven against men; for you neither go in

Equality As you learn about Jesus' life on earth, one thing you notice is that He seemed to enjoy hanging around notorious sinners more than He did the Jewish religious leaders. To thieves and prostitutes He said, "Your sins are forgiven" (Luke 7:48), but He warned the Pharisees and teachers, "Woe to you" (Matt. 23:16).

The Pharisees were snobs. These religious leaders actually thought they were better than the rest of the Jewish people. Because they knew a lot about Scripture and religious customs, they figured God liked them more than He liked everyone else. Jesus could see their conceited attitudes and He hated it. Jesus told His disciples that God's kingdom is not made up of special people and regular people. The people who follow Jesus are all equal, and He loves each one exactly the same.

If you've struggled with feelings of inferiority or insecurity, know that God never sees you as inferior to anyone. If you've gotten an attitude about how cool you are, God isn't impressed. God can peer into a high school classroom and see the most popular student in school sitting beside the biggest outcast; yet He loves them both the same. No matter how you feel, God thinks you're awesome—just as awesome as the next person. Everybody's equal with Him. (See also: Job 34:19; 36:5; Acts 13:39.)

Words to Live By

Brethren: The Greek word translated as "brethren" in Matthew 23:8 is adelphos (adel-fos'), and literally means "a brother." When Jesus tells us that we are all brothers, He's reminding us that all His followers come together to form His family. Just like everyone in your family is not identical, everyone in God's family is different because we're supposed to be. Different doesn't always mean better or worse. Sometimes different is just different. Jesus reminds us in this passage that, in His family, popularity and status don't matter. We are all family. So let's appreciate each other for whatever roles we're each designed to play.

Don't Be Deceived In Matthew 24, Jesus is foretelling some of the things that are going to happen before He comes back to the earth—wars, rumors of wars, famines, earthquakes, and so on. He goes on to tell us not to worry or be afraid because these things must happen before He comes back. But before describing these events, He warns us that there will be people who come out and claim to be Christ; people who claim to be speaking in Jesus' name. He wants us to be on guard so we will not be deceived by such people. You've probably seen examples of these kinds of "false christs" (v. 24). Unfortunately, more than one newscast has shown us cults whose members all committed suicide or other sad acts because they were so misguided by their so-called leaders.

Adam and Eve were cast out of the garden because they allowed themselves to be fooled (Gen. 3). Samson lost his strength and his life because he allowed himself to be fooled (Judg. 16). You don't have to allow yourself to be fooled by some false prophet who claims to be Jesus or claims to be from God. If something doesn't line up with the Word of God, then don't believe it. Jesus is coming back. No one knows exactly when, so stay close with God and don't be fooled! (See also: Matt. 7:15; 24:11, 24; Luke 21:8; 2 Pet. 2:1; 1 John 4:1.)

Deceives: The Greek word translated as "deceives" in Matthew 24:4 is planao (plan-ah'-o). It carries the idea of being led astray, or going away from the truth. It draws a picture of traveling the right road, but being led down a wrong path toward a different destination. Jesus wants us to remain on the way of truth and not to be distracted by or led off-course by those who would try to deceive us.

the cup and dish, but inside they are full of extortion and self-indulgence.[a] 26Blind Pharisee, first cleanse the inside of the cup and dish, that the outside of them may be clean also.

27"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs which indeed appear beautiful outwardly, but inside are full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness. 28Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

PURITY
Can outward purity substitute for inner purity?
Matthew 23:25–28

29"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you build the tombs of the prophets and adorn the monuments of the righteous, 30and say, 'If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.'

31"Therefore you are witnesses against yourselves that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets. 32Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers' guilt. 33Serpents, brood of vipers! How can you escape the condemnation of hell? 34Therefore, indeed, I send you prophets, wise men, and scribes: some of them you will kill and crucify, and some of them you will scourge in your synagogues and persecute from city to city, 35that on you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah, son of Berechiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar. 36Assuredly, I say to you, all these things will come upon this generation.

JESUS LAMENTS OVER JERUSALEM

37"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the one who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing! 38See! Your house is left to you desolate; 39for I say to you, you shall see Me no more till you say, 'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!' "[a]

JESUS PREDICTS THE DESTRUCTION OF THE TEMPLE

24 Then Jesus went out and departed from the temple, and His disciples came up to show Him the buildings of the temple. 2And Jesus said to them, "Do you not see all these things? Assuredly, I say to you, not one stone shall be left here upon another, that shall not be thrown down."

THE SIGNS OF THE TIMES AND THE END OF THE AGE

3Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying,
"Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign of Your coming, and of the end of the age?"

4And Jesus answered and said to them:
"Take heed that no one deceives you. 5For many will come in My name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and will deceive many. 6And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars.
See that you are not troubled; for all[a] these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. 7For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be famines, pestilences,[a] and earthquakes in various places. 8All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9"Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and kill you, and you will be hated by all nations for My name's sake. 10And then many will be offended, will betray one another, and will hate one another. 11Then many false prophets will rise up and deceive many. 12And because lawlessness will abound, the love of many will grow cold.
13But he who endures to the end shall be saved. 14And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come.

THE GREAT TRIBULATION

15"Therefore when you see the 'abomination of desolation,'[a] spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place" (whoever reads, let him understand), 16"then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. 17Let him who is on the housetop not go down to take anything out of his house.
18And let him who is in the field not go back to get his clothes. 19But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! 20And pray that your flight may not be in winter or on the Sabbath. 21For then there will be great tribulation, such as has not been since the beginning of the world until this time, no, nor ever shall be. 22And unless those days were shortened, no flesh would be saved; but for the elect's sake those days will be shortened.

23"Then if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or 'There!' do not believe it. 24For false christs and false prophets will rise and show great signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even the elect. 25See, I have told you beforehand.

26"Therefore if they say to you, 'Look,
He is in the desert!' do not go out; or 'Look,
He is in the inner rooms!' do not believe it.
27For as the lightning comes from the east and flashes to the west, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. 28For wherever the carcass is, there the eagles will be gathered together.

THE COMING OF THE SON OF MAN

29"Immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. 30Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. 31And He will send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

WORLD APP

War / Matthew 24:6

As senseless and brutal as it seems, war is a fact of life on this earth. It has been since not long after God created the world, and according to Jesus' words in Matthew 24:6, it will continue until He returns and this world ends. You may wonder why war continues and how it can be avoided. No doubt, we would all prefer a peaceful world. But sometimes, war cannot be avoided. Fighting against those who will stop at nothing to get their own way may even be the only right course to follow.

Not too long ago, our own nation was attacked by terrorists—hijacked jets on suicide missions flew into the World Trade Center and the Pentagon. Thousands of innocent people lost their lives—men, women, children, the very young, and the elderly. They were murdered simply because they were Americans. As a result, the United States declared war on terrorism. The only other choice would have been to ignore the attack and risk the lives of yet more innocent people.

As long as sin is in the world, there will be people who are ruled by their own ideas of right and wrong. Right is whatever they desire and wrong is everything that keeps them from getting it. Wars happen when a group of people attempts to force, by any means, their opinions, values, beliefs, lifestyle, or political agenda on others. Wars are also fought over boundaries or rights to natural resources. Whatever the cause, a war is always fought to win the right to decide what's right.

However, as Christians, we know that the only One who can truly make the call on right and wrong is God. If all people in the world turned to Him for the answers, wars would no longer be fought. But that day won't come until Jesus returns and God establishes His kingdom on the earth. Until then, it is our duty to always do as God says. When we obey Him, we can always be sure we are right.

THE PARABLE OF THE FIG TREE

32"Now learn this parable from the fig tree:
When its branch has already become tender and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near. 33So you also, when you see all these things, know that it[a] is near—at the doors! 34Assuredly, I say to you, this generation will by no means pass away till all these things take place. 35Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will by no means pass away.

NO ONE KNOWS THE DAY OR HOUR

36"But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven,[a] but My Father only. 37But as the days of Noah were, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be.
38For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, 39and did not know until the flood came and took them all away, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be.
40Then two men will be in the field: one will be taken and the other left. 41Two women will be grinding at the mill: one will be taken and the other left. 42Watch therefore, for you do not know what hour[a] your Lord is coming. 43But know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched and not allowed his house to be broken into. 44Therefore you also be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

THE FAITHFUL SERVANT AND THE EVIL SERVANT

45"Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his master made ruler over his household, to give them food in due season? 46Blessed is that servant whom his master, when he comes, will find so doing.
47Assuredly, I say to you that he will make him ruler over all his goods. 48But if that evil servant says in his heart, 'My master is delaying his coming,'[a] 49and begins to beat his fellow servants, and to eat and drink with the drunkards, 50the master of that servant will come on a day when he is not looking for him and at an hour that he is not aware of, 51and will cut him in two and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

THE PARABLE OF THE WISE AND FOOLISH VIRGINS

25 "Then the kingdom of heaven shall be likened to ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. 2Now five of them were wise, and five were foolish.
3Those who were foolish took their lamps and took no oil with them, 4but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.
5But while the bridegroom was delayed,
they all slumbered and slept.

6"And at midnight a cry was heard: 'Behold, the bridegroom is coming;[a] go out to meet him!' 7Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps. 8And the foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' 9But the wise answered, saying, 'No, lest there should not be enough for us and you; but go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.' 10And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding; and the door was shut.

11"Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open to us!' 12But he answered and said, 'Assuredly, I say to you, I do not know you.'

13"Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour[a] in which the Son of Man is coming.

LIFE APP

Talent / Matthew 25:14–29

The parable Jesus told in Matthew 25:14–29 is actually about a quantity of ancient money. A talent was equal to the amount of money a person could earn in a lifetime—about one and a half million dollars! For most of us, it's hard to even imagine that huge amount of money.

Though Jesus was talking about money and responsibility in this parable, we can also find another message that's a bit more personal. If you think of the talents Jesus talked about as actual abilities and gifts we've been given, the parable still makes a lot of sense.

God gave each of us special skills—things we were born with. Maybe you're good with numbers or have an excellent singing voice. Whatever your gift, it was given to you to use, not hide. By working hard and learning well, you can turn your math ability into a lucrative career. By applying yourself and maybe taking lessons, you can use your singing ability to really bless other people. But no matter how gifted you are, if you do nothing with the talents God gave you, you're a lot like the wicked and lazy servant in Jesus' story. You will have your talent, but you will have nothing to show for it in the end.

All the gifts God has given us are meant to be used for ourselves and for others. We don't live in this world alone. And no matter how you look at it, each person's life affects the world around them. God didn't give any one person all the gifts. He shared them among all of us. If we don't use the ones He gave us, the world will suffer. Just imagine if President Lincoln hadn't shared his gifts with the world. Or even Bill Gates; what would our world look like if he hadn't found a way for everyone to use a computer easily? One life can make a huge difference to the entire world. Use your gifts and develop your abilities. You, too, have something the world needs.

them. 15And to one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one, to each according to his own ability; and immediately he went on a journey. 16Then he who had received the five talents went and traded with them, and made another five talents. 17And likewise he who had received two gained two more also. 18But he who had received one went and dug in the ground, and hid his lord's money. 19After a long time the lord of those servants came and settled accounts with them.

20"So he who had received five talents came and brought five other talents, saying, 'Lord, you delivered to me five talents; look, I have gained five more talents besides them.' 21His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant; you were faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.' 22He also who had received two talents came and said, 'Lord, you delivered to me two talents; look, I have gained two more talents besides them.' 23His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.'

24"Then he who had received the one talent came and said, 'Lord, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you have not sown, and gathering where you have not scattered seed. 25And I was afraid, and went and hid your talent in the ground. Look, there you have what is yours.'

26"But his lord answered and said to him, 'You wicked and lazy servant, you knew that I reap where I have not sown, and gather where I have not scattered seed. 27So you ought to have deposited my money with the bankers, and at my coming I would have received back my own with interest. 28Therefore take the talent from him, and give it to him who has ten talents.

29'For to everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have abundance; but from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away. 30And cast the unprofitable servant into the outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

THE SON OF MAN WILL JUDGE THE NATIONS

31"When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the holy[a] angels with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory. 32All the nations will be gathered before Him, and He will separate them one from another, as a shepherd divides his sheep from the goats. 33And He will set the sheep on His right hand, but the goats on the left. 34Then the King will say to those on His right hand, 'Come, you blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: 35for I was hungry and you gave Me food; I was thirsty and you gave Me drink; I was a stranger and you took Me in; 36I was naked and you clothed Me; I was sick and you visited Me; I was in prison and you came to Me.'

37"Then the righteous will answer Him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry and feed You, or thirsty and give You drink? 38When did we see You a stranger and take You in, or naked and clothe You? 39Or when did we see You sick, or in prison, and come to You?' 40And the King will answer and say to them, 'Assuredly, I say to you, inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these My brethren, you did it to Me.'

SICKNESS
How can believers show compassion?
Matthew 25:34–40

41"Then He will also say to those on the left hand, 'Depart from Me, you cursed, into the everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his angels: 42for I was hungry and you gave Me no food; I was thirsty and you gave Me no drink; 43I was a stranger and you did not take Me in, naked and you did not clothe Me, sick and in prison and you did not visit Me.'

44"Then they also will answer Him,[a] saying, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not minister to You?' 45Then He will answer them, saying, 'Assuredly, I say to you, inasmuch as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to Me.' 46And these will go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

THE PLOT TO KILL JESUS

26 Now it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, that He said to His disciples, 2"You know that after two days is the Passover, and the Son of Man will be delivered up to be crucified."

3Then the chief priests, the scribes,[a] and the elders of the people assembled at the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas, 4and plotted to take Jesus by trickery and kill Him. 5But they said, "Not during the feast, lest there be an uproar among the people."

THE ANOINTING AT BETHANY

6And when Jesus was in Bethany at the house of Simon the leper, 7a woman came to Him having an alabaster flask of very costly fragrant oil, and she poured it on His head as He sat at the table. 8But when His disciples saw it, they were indignant, saying, "Why this waste? 9For this fragrant oil might have been sold for much and given to the poor."

10But when Jesus was aware of it, He said to them, "Why do you trouble the woman? For she has done a good work for Me. 11For you have the poor with you always, but Me you do not have always. 12For in pouring this fragrant oil on My body, she did it for My burial. 13Assuredly, I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told as a memorial to her."

JUDAS AGREES TO BETRAY JESUS

14Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests 15and said, "What are you willing to give me if I deliver Him to you?" And they counted out to him thirty pieces of silver. 16So from that time he sought opportunity to betray Him.

JESUS CELEBRATES PASSOVER WITH HIS DISCIPLES

17Now on the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying to Him, "Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?"

18And He said, "Go into the city to a certain man, and say to him, 'The Teacher says, "My time is at hand; I will keep the Passover at your house with My disciples."' "

19So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them; and they prepared the Passover.

20When evening had come, He sat down with the twelve. 21Now as they were eating, He said, "Assuredly, I say to you, one of you will betray Me."

22And they were exceedingly sorrowful, and each of them began to say to Him, "Lord, is it I?"

23He answered and said, "He who dipped his hand with Me in the dish will betray Me. 24The Son of Man indeed goes just as it is written of Him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had not been born."

25Then Judas, who was betraying Him, answered and said, "Rabbi, is it I?"

He said to him, "You have said it."

JESUS INSTITUTES THE LORD'S SUPPER

26And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed[a] and broke it, and gave it to the disciples and said, "Take, eat; this is My body."

27Then He took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. 28For this is My blood of the new[a] covenant, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. 29But I say to you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with you in My Father's kingdom."

30And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

WORLD APP

Poverty / Matthew 26:11

Some people believe God will give them everything they want—a luxury car, a huge bank account, or any of the things the world calls "treasures." But the Bible says, "You ask and do not receive, because you ask amiss, that you may spend it on your pleasures" (James 4:3). God is not some kind of magical genie who will give you whatever you wish. He is a loving Father who provides everything His children need; but our wants are an entirely different thing.

Yet some continue to believe God will grant their wishes as long as they have enough faith to believe. They read Jesus' words in John 14:14, "If you ask anything in My name, I will do it," and think God will grant any selfish desire. But as Christians, our focus should not be on things but on God (Matt. 6:33). When we pray, we should make sure we are praying things that are what God wants, not just what we think will make us happy.

Can you even imagine what effect it has on Christians in poverty-stricken countries when they hear about other Christians who believe they can get whatever they want if they have enough faith? Do Christians who don't have enough food or water wonder if they suffer so much need because their faith is too weak?

The fact of the matter is that poverty will never disappear. Jesus said, "For you have the poor with you always" (Matt. 26:11). As long as sin is in the world, there will be those who have far too much and others who have far too little. Sin causes people to care too much about themselves and too little about anyone else.

So is there an answer to poverty? Consider what would happen if every Christian throughout the world decided to give a part of his or her money to those in need. Many sources report that there are over two billion Christians in the world; about one billion children live in poverty. What difference could all the Christians in the world make if we decided to treat others as Jesus wants us to?

'I will strike the Shepherd,
And the sheep of the flock will be scattered.'[a]

[33]Peter answered and said to Him, "Even if all are made to stumble because of You, I will never be made to stumble."

[34]Jesus said to him, "Assuredly, I say to you that this night, before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times."

[35]Peter said to Him, "Even if I have to die with You, I will not deny You!"

And so said all the disciples.

THE PRAYER IN THE GARDEN

[36]Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and said to the disciples, "Sit here while I go and pray over there." [37]And He took with Him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and He began to be sorrowful and deeply distressed. [38]Then He said to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here and watch with Me."

[39]He went a little farther and fell on His face, and prayed, saying, "O My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as You will."

[40]Then He came to the disciples and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "What! Could you not watch with Me one hour? [41]Watch and pray, lest you enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

[42]Again, a second time, He went away and prayed, saying, "O My Father, if this cup cannot pass away from Me unless[a] I drink it, Your will be done." [43]And He came and found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy.

[44]So He left them, went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words. [45]Then He came to His disciples and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners. [46]Rise, let us be going. See, My betrayer is at hand."

BETRAYAL AND ARREST IN GETHSEMANE

[47]And while He was still speaking, behold, Judas, one of the twelve, with a great multitude with swords and clubs, came from the chief priests and elders of the people.

[48]Now His betrayer had given them a sign, saying, "Whomever I kiss, He is the One; seize Him." [49]Immediately he went up to Jesus and said, "Greetings, Rabbi!" and kissed Him.

[50]But Jesus said to him, "Friend, why have you come?"

Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and took Him. [51]And suddenly, one of those who were with Jesus stretched out his hand and drew his sword, struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

[52]But Jesus said to him, "Put your sword in its place, for all who take the sword will perish[a] by the sword. [53]Or do you think that I cannot now pray to My Father, and He will provide Me with more than twelve legions of angels? [54]How then could the Scriptures be fulfilled, that it must happen thus?"

[55]In that hour Jesus said to the multitudes, "Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to take Me? I sat daily with you, teaching in the temple, and you did not seize Me. [56]But all this was done that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled."

Then all the disciples forsook Him and fled.

JESUS FACES THE SANHEDRIN

[57]And those who had laid hold of Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled. [58]But Peter followed Him at a distance to the high priest's courtyard. And he went in and sat with the servants to see the end.

[59]Now the chief priests, the elders,[a] and all the council sought false testimony against Jesus to put Him to death, [60]but found none. Even though many false witnesses came forward, they found none.[a] But at last two false witnesses[b] came forward [61]and said, "This fellow said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God and to build it in three days.'"

26:31 [a]Zechariah 13:7 26:42 [a]NU-Text reads if this may not pass away unless. 26:52 [a]M-Text reads die. 26:59 [a]NU-Text omits the elders. 26:60 [a]NU-Text puts a comma after but found none, does not capitalize Even, and omits they found none. [b]NU-Text omits false witnesses.

62And the high priest arose and said to Him, "Do You answer nothing? What is it these men testify against You?" 63But Jesus kept silent. And the high priest answered and said to Him, "I put You under oath by the living God: Tell us if You are the Christ, the Son of God!"

64Jesus said to him, "It is as you said. Nevertheless, I say to you, hereafter you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Power, and coming on the clouds of heaven."

65Then the high priest tore his clothes, saying, "He has spoken blasphemy! What further need do we have of witnesses? Look, now you have heard His blasphemy! 66What do you think?"

They answered and said, "He is deserving of death."

67Then they spat in His face and beat Him; and others struck Him with the palms of their hands, 68saying, "Prophesy to us, Christ! Who is the one who struck You?"

PETER DENIES JESUS, AND WEEPS BITTERLY

69Now Peter sat outside in the courtyard. And a servant girl came to him, saying, "You also were with Jesus of Galilee."

70But he denied it before them all, saying, "I do not know what you are saying."

71And when he had gone out to the gateway, another girl saw him and said to those who were there, "This fellow also was with Jesus of Nazareth."

72But again he denied with an oath, "I do not know the Man!"

73And a little later those who stood by came up and said to Peter, "Surely you also are one of them, for your speech betrays you."

74Then he began to curse and swear, saying, "I do not know the Man!"

Immediately a rooster crowed. 75And Peter remembered the word of Jesus who had said to him, "Before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times." So he went out and wept bitterly.

JESUS HANDED OVER TO PONTIUS PILATE

27 When morning came, all the chief priests and elders of the people plotted against Jesus to put Him to death. 2And when they had bound Him, they led Him away and delivered Him to Pontius[a] Pilate the governor.

JUDAS HANGS HIMSELF

3Then Judas, His betrayer, seeing that He had been condemned, was remorseful and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, 4saying, "I have sinned by betraying innocent blood."

And they said, "What is that to us? You see to it!"

5Then he threw down the pieces of silver in the temple and departed, and went and hanged himself.

6But the chief priests took the silver pieces and said, "It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, because they are the price of blood." 7And they consulted together and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in. 8Therefore that field has been called the Field of Blood to this day.

9Then was fulfilled what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the value of Him who was priced, whom they of the children of Israel priced, 10*and gave them for the potter's field, as the* LORD directed me."[a]

> Matthew 27:11–14
> Pontius Pilate was the Roman governor of Judea and Samaria from A.D. 26 to 36. Pilate lived in Samaria, so you may be wondering what he was doing in Jerusalem. He and his troops were in town for the Passover Feast to prevent rioting among the thousands of Jews who had traveled to the city for the annual holiday.

JESUS FACES PILATE

11Now Jesus stood before the governor. And the governor asked Him, saying, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

Jesus said to him, "It is as you say." 12And while He was being accused by the chief priests and elders, He answered nothing.

13Then Pilate said to Him, "Do You not

27:2 [a]NU-Text omits Pontius. 27:10 [a]Jeremiah 32:6–9 hear how many things they testify against You?" 14But He answered him not one word, so that the governor marveled greatly.

TAKING THE PLACE OF BARABBAS

15Now at the feast the governor was accustomed to releasing to the multitude one prisoner whom they wished. 16And at that time they had a notorious prisoner called Barabbas.[a] 17Therefore, when they had gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?" 18For he knew that they had handed Him over because of envy.

19While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, "Have nothing to do with that just Man, for I have suffered many things today in a dream because of Him."

20But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitudes that they should ask for Barabbas and destroy Jesus. 21The governor answered and said to them, "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?"

They said, "Barabbas!"

22Pilate said to them, "What then shall I do with Jesus who is called Christ?"

They all said to him, "Let Him be crucified!"

23Then the governor said, "Why, what evil has He done?"

But they cried out all the more, saying, "Let Him be crucified!"

24When Pilate saw that he could not prevail at all, but rather that a tumult was rising, he took water and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this just Person.[a] You see to it."

25And all the people answered and said, "His blood be on us and on our children."

26Then he released Barabbas to them; and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered Him to be crucified.

THE SOLDIERS MOCK JESUS

27Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the Praetorium and gathered the whole garrison around Him. 28And they stripped Him and put a scarlet robe on Him. 29When they had twisted a crown of thorns, they put it on His head, and a reed in His right hand. And they bowed the knee before Him and mocked Him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" 30Then they spat on Him, and took the reed and struck Him on the head. 31And when they had mocked Him, they took the robe off Him, put His own clothes on Him, and led Him away to be crucified.

THE KING ON A CROSS

32Now as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name. Him they compelled to bear His cross. 33And when they had come to a place called Golgotha, that is to say, Place of a Skull, 34they gave Him sour[a] wine mingled with gall to drink. But when He had tasted it, He would not drink.

35Then they crucified Him, and divided His garments, casting lots,[a] that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet:

> "They divided My garments among them,
> And for My clothing they cast lots."[b]

36Sitting down, they kept watch over Him there. 37And they put up over His head the accusation written against Him:

THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38Then two robbers were crucified with Him, one on the right and another on the left.

39And those who passed by blasphemed Him, wagging their heads 40and saying, "You who destroy the temple and build it in three days, save Yourself! If You are the Son of God, come down from the cross."

41Likewise the chief priests also, mocking with the scribes and elders,[a] said, 42"He saved others; Himself He cannot save. If He is the King of Israel,[a] let Him now come down from the cross, and we will believe Him.[b] 43He trusted in God; let Him deliver Him now if He will have Him; for He said, 'I am the Son of God.'"

44Even the robbers who were crucified with Him reviled Him with the same thing.

JESUS DIES ON THE CROSS

45Now from the sixth hour until the ninth hour there was darkness over all the land.
46And about the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" that is, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?"[a] 47Some of those who stood there, when they heard that, said, "This Man is calling for Elijah!" 48Immediately one of them ran and took a sponge, filled it with sour wine and put it on a reed, and offered it to Him to drink.
49The rest said, "Let Him alone; let us see if Elijah will come to save Him."
50And Jesus cried out again with a loud voice, and yielded up His spirit.
51Then, behold, the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom; and the earth quaked, and the rocks were split, 52and the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised; 53and coming out of the graves after His resurrection, they went into the holy city and appeared to many.
54So when the centurion and those with him, who were guarding Jesus, saw the earthquake and the things that had happened, they feared greatly, saying, "Truly this was the Son of God!"
55And many women who followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering to Him, were there looking on from afar, 56among whom were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joses,[a] and the mother of Zebedee's sons.

JESUS BURIED IN JOSEPH'S TOMB

57Now when evening had come, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who himself had also become a disciple of Jesus. 58This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be given to him. 59When Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60and laid it in his new tomb which he had hewn out of the rock; and he rolled a large stone against the door of the tomb, and departed.
61And Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the tomb.

PILATE SETS A GUARD

62On the next day, which followed the Day of Preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees gathered together to Pilate, 63saying,
"Sir, we remember, while He was still alive, how that deceiver said, 'After three days I will rise.' 64Therefore command that the tomb be made secure until the third day, lest His disciples come by night[a] and steal Him away, and say to the people, 'He has risen from the dead.' So the last deception will be worse than the first."
65Pilate said to them, "You have a guard; go your way, make it as secure as you know how." 66So they went and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone and setting the guard.

HE IS RISEN

28 Now after the Sabbath, as the first day of the week began to dawn, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb. 2And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door,[a] and sat on it. 3His countenance was like lightning, and his clothing as white as snow. 4And the guards shook for fear of him, and became like dead men.
5But the angel answered and said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. 6He is not here; for He is risen, as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. 7And go quickly and tell His disciples that He is risen from the dead, and indeed He is going before you into Galilee; there you will see Him. Behold, I have told you."
8So they went out quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring His disciples word.

THE WOMEN WORSHIP THE RISEN LORD

9And as they went to tell His disciples,[a] behold, Jesus met them, saying, "Rejoice!"
So they came and held Him by the feet and worshiped Him. 10Then Jesus said to them,
"Do not be afraid. Go and tell My brethren to go to Galilee, and there they will see Me."

Make Disciples Notice what this verse is saying. It instructs us to go and make disciples—not just converts, but disciples. We want to see people give their hearts to the Lord, but we don't want it to end there. We want the people we reach to understand that the reward of heaven is going to be amazing, but eternal life with God starts here and now. We want to help them mature and grow in Him. Aren't you glad that someone helped you? When you gave your heart to Jesus, God just didn't throw you out and say, "Okay, you're on your own now."

If people are going to grow into mature disciples, they have to be taught and guided by other (more mature) disciples. What is a disciple? A disciple is more than a follower of Christ. A disciple is someone who is continually learning. If we're continually learning about Christ and growing closer to Him, we will continually want to share His love. As we do that, we will continue to spread the Gospel and help other people become disciples as well. We want to see people get saved and stick with it. Let's help our friends develop and grow so they can help others! (See also: Mark 16:15, 16; Luke 24:46, 47; John 20:21; Acts 5:42.)

Words to Live By

Go, Baptizing, Teaching: The Greek words for "go," "baptizing," and "teaching" in Matthew 28:19, 20 all imply a continuous action. We don't just go out once and lead someone to Christ, teach them something, and then retire. The idea is ongoing action—we are to be continually reaching out to others, spreading the gospel of Christ, and teaching people how to grow in their relationships with Him. It's not a one-time mission; it is a way of life.

THE SOLDIERS ARE BRIBED

11 Now while they were going, behold, some of the guard came into the city and reported to the chief priests all the things that had happened. 12 When they had assembled with the elders and consulted together, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers, 13 saying, "Tell them, 'His disciples came at night and stole Him away while we slept.' 14 And if this comes to the governor's ears, we will appease him and make you secure." 15 So they took the money and did as they were instructed; and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

appointed for them. 17 When they saw Him,
they worshiped Him; but some doubted.

tizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 teaching manded you; and lo, I am with you always,

KEY VERSE:

When He had called the people to Himself, with His disciples also, He said to them, "Whoever desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me" (Mark 8:34).

THEN /// Mark wrote his Gospel at a time when Rome controlled most of the world—including Israel. Roman soldiers were stationed in Israel to keep an eye on everything there. Many of the Hebrews resented the Romans. They wanted them to go back to Rome and leave Israel alone.

Even though the Romans were certainly not Israel's favorite people, Mark wrote his account of Jesus' life in a way that the Romans could understand. The Romans didn't grow up reading the Old Testament and weren't familiar with Hebrew prophecies, so they wouldn't care that Jesus fulfilled those prophecies. But Mark realized they would be interested in the miracles Jesus performed and the power that flowed through His life. So, in his Gospel of action, Mark wrote mostly about what Jesus did rather than just about what He said.

NOW /// It seems we can no longer turn on the TV without seeing some kind of reality show. There are dating, singing, dancing, and entertainment contests. There are shows about managing misbehaving children, surviving in the wilderness, decorating your house—the list is practically endless. Those shows may be real for the ones whose lives are being filmed; but for the rest of us, they are purely entertainment (or not), and are far removed from our "reality."

In his Gospel, Mark wrote about the most powerful reality. He told the story of Jesus' life—all the amazing things He did when He walked the earth. Mark wanted his readers to understand that Jesus was exactly who He claimed to be, the Son of God. Mark wanted to make it clear that, through His life, Jesus showed the world what God is like. Through His death, He showed the world the reality of God's love—the ultimate show of reality.

REALITY CHECK /// Mark is famous for portraying Jesus as a servant. He highlights the fact that Jesus did not come into the world to change it through power and strength but through gentleness and love.

Jesus spent His life on earth reaching out to those who needed Him; the sick, the lonely, and the misunderstood were the very ones Jesus seemed most drawn to. He not only loved those people, He served them by meeting their needs.

As Christians, we are called to live our lives on earth as Jesus lived His—reaching out in love to those around us. We should be servants just as Jesus was. Can you imagine what would happen to the world if everyone lived lives of love and service? It truly would change the world. And that change could happen. It could start with you.

JOHN THE BAPTIST PREPARES THE WAY

1 The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. 2As it is written in the Prophets:[a]

"Behold, I send My messenger before
Your face,
Who will prepare Your way before
You."[b] 3 "The voice of one crying in the wilderness:
'Prepare the way of the LORD;
Make His paths straight.'"[a]

4John came baptizing in the wilderness and preaching a baptism of repentance for the remission of sins. 5Then all the land of Judea, and those from Jerusalem, went out to him and were all baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins.

6Now John was clothed with camel's hair and with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. 7And he preached, saying, "There comes One after me who is mightier than I, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to stoop down and loose. 8I indeed baptized you with water, but He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

MIR MAKING IT REAL // MARK 1:10, 11

Jesus' Hometown One of the first things we ask when we meet someone new is, "Where are you from?" Knowing where people are from tells us a lot about them—why they have a particular accent, what kind of climate they're used to, which sports teams they might like the most. We can ask questions about where they live and about their family. Those answers tell us a lot about a person we are trying to get to know.

The Son of God is from heaven, and there is so much we can know about Him because we know where He's from. He comes from a home outside of space and time. He has been there with God the Father and God the Holy Spirit from eternity. Heaven is God's home and the place He created for those who know Him. To live in heaven is an honor—a gift to those who accept Jesus here on earth. In heaven, the Lord is continually being praised by the angels. There is no sickness or sadness there. We know that Jesus is God's Son. We know He is perfect and worthy of our praise because His hometown is the perfect place of heaven. He once walked among us, but the way He talked and the way He lived proved He was not just a citizen of this world—He came from a place where life is lived in a whole other way. (See also: Matt. 3:16; John 1:1; Acts 10:38.)

Words to Live By

Beloved: The Greek word translated as "beloved" in Mark 1:11 is agapetos (ag-ap-ay-tos'), and means "well-loved" or "dear." Not only was Jesus willing to leave His perfect home in Heaven to come live on our imperfect earth, but God the Father was willing to let His own Son, whom He loved so well and so fully, leave the security and bliss of heaven to face suffering and persecution on the earth. They were willing to make these sacrifices to save us from our sins, and to let us know, in no uncertain terms, that we are beloved by the God who reigns from heaven.

baptized by John in the Jordan. 10And immediately, coming up from[a] the water, He saw the heavens parting and the Spirit descending upon Him like a dove. 11Then a voice came from heaven, "You are My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

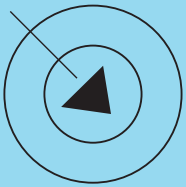
SATAN TEMPTS JESUS

12Immediately the Spirit drove Him into the wilderness. 13And He was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan, and was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered to Him.

JESUS BEGINS HIS GALILEAN MINISTRY

14Now after John was put in prison, Jesus came to Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom[a] of God, 15and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel."

FOUR FISHERMEN CALLED AS DISCIPLES



16And as He walked by the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. 17Then Jesus said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you become fishers of men." 18They immediately left their nets and followed Him.

19When He had gone a little farther from there, He saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the boat mending their nets. 20And immediately He called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went after Him.

JESUS CASTS OUT AN UNCLEAN SPIRIT

21Then they went into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbath He entered the

PROMISE

God promises to bring good news.

He said to them, "Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also, because for this purpose I have come forth" (Mark 1:38).

Not too long after Jesus started traveling around telling people about God's kingdom, He visited His hometown. On the Sabbath, He went to the local synagogue, where someone asked Him to read from the Scriptures. He read from the Book of Isaiah: "The Spirit of the LORD is upon Me, because He has anointed Me to preach the gospel to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed; to proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD" (Luke 4:16–19). When Jesus finished reading, He said, "Today this Scripture is fulfilled in your hearing" (v. 21). Jesus wanted the people to know that what seemed impossible was possible with God. When matters seemed hopeless, God was able to turn things around.

Jesus knew why He was on earth and put His whole heart into fulfilling the purpose God had given Him. That's still His purpose today. What He came to earth to do then in the flesh, His Word and His Spirit continue to do today. Be serious about reading His Word. If you want to know what Jesus said and did when He lived on earth, read Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. See what good news He has for you!

synagogue and taught. 22And they were astonished at His teaching, for He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

23Now there was a man in their synagogue with an unclean spirit. And he cried out, 24saying, "Let us alone! What have we to do with You, Jesus of Nazareth? Did You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God!"

25But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be quiet, and come out of him!" 26And when the unclean spirit had convulsed him and cried out with a loud voice, he came out of him. 27Then they were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, "What is this? What new doctrine is this? For with authority[a] He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him." 28And immediately His fame spread throughout all the region around Galilee.

PETER'S MOTHER-IN-LAW HEALED

29Now as soon as they had come out of the synagogue, they entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. 30But Simon's wife's mother lay sick with a fever, and they told Him about her at once. 31So He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up, and immediately the fever left her. And she served them.

DEMONS

Did Jesus have power over demons?

Mark 1:34

MANY HEALED AFTER SABBATH SUNSET

32At evening, when the sun had set, they brought to Him all who were sick and those who were demon-possessed. 33And the whole city was gathered together at the door. 34Then He healed many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and He did not allow the demons to speak, because they knew Him.

1:27 [a]NU-Text reads What is this? A new doctrine with authority.

PREACHING IN GALILEE

35Now in the morning, having risen a long while before daylight, He went out and departed to a solitary place; and there He prayed. 36And Simon and those who were with Him searched for Him. 37When they found Him, they said to Him, "Everyone is looking for You."

38But He said to them, "Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also, because for this purpose I have come forth."

39And He was preaching in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and casting out demons.

JESUS CLEANSES A LEPER

40Now a leper came to Him, imploring Him, kneeling down to Him and saying to Him, "If You are willing, You can make me clean."

41Then Jesus, moved with compassion, stretched out His hand and touched him, and said to him, "I am willing; be cleansed." 42As soon as He had spoken, immediately the leprosy left him, and he was cleansed. 43And He strictly warned him and sent him away at once, 44and said to him, "See that you say nothing to anyone; but go your way, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing those things which Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."

45However, he went out and began to proclaim it freely, and to spread the matter, so that Jesus could no longer openly enter the city, but was outside in deserted places; and they came to Him from every direction.

JESUS FORGIVES AND HEALS A PARALYTIC

2 And again He entered Capernaum after some days, and it was heard that He was in the house. 2Immediately[a] many gathered together, so that there was no longer room to receive them, not even near the door. And He preached the word to them. 3Then they came to Him, bringing a paralytic who was carried by four men. 4And when they could not come near Him because of the crowd, they uncovered the roof where He was. So when they had broken through, they let down the bed on which the paralytic was lying.

5When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven you."

6And some of the scribes were sitting there and reasoning in their hearts, 7"Why does this Man speak blasphemies like this? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

8But immediately, when Jesus perceived in His spirit that they reasoned thus within themselves, He said to them, "Why do you reason about these things in your hearts? 9Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Arise, take up your bed and walk'? 10But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins"—He said to the paralytic, 11"I say to you, arise, take up your bed, and go to your house." 12Immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went out in the presence of them all, so that all were amazed and glorified God, saying, "We never saw anything like this!"

MATTHEW THE TAX COLLECTOR

13Then He went out again by the sea; and all the multitude came to Him, and He taught them. 14As He passed by, He saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax office. And He said to him, "Follow Me." So he arose and followed Him.

> Mark 2:16
> You name it, and the Roman Empire probably charged a tax for it. The Jews expected to be taxed for everything they did, whether it was buying property or worshiping at the temple. To collect these outrageous taxes, the Romans hired local Jewish citizens. These collectors were known for charging their fellow Jews more money than they really owed and keeping the extra cash for themselves. Because of this, and because the collectors worked for the hated Roman government, taxmen were despised and seen as traitors to their people.

15Now it happened, as He was dining in Levi's house, that many tax collectors and sinners also sat together with Jesus and His disciples; for there were many, and they followed Him. 16And when the scribes

Sins Erased Has anyone ever done something wrong to you and tried to make up for it by doing something nice, instead of just saying they were sorry? How did that make you feel? Really, you just wanted them to be sorry for what they'd done and to promise to never do it again, right?

Well, some people treat God the same way. Instead of telling Him they're sorry for sin and deciding to never again act in such a way, they try to do things to make Him happy with them again. There are a lot of people who believe they can do enough good things to earn their way into heaven or that God will love them more if they do enough things for Him. They believe they'll be rewarded because of their good deeds. But it just doesn't work that way.

There are still others who take it to another extreme. These are the kind of people who believe they have to suffer as much as possible to earn forgiveness, so they torture themselves physically, mentally, or emotionally, thinking this will make them more worthy of God's mercy.

Both of these ways are false. Forgiveness is freely offered by God, but it can't be earned. You can't get His forgiveness from your parents or from the people you hang out with. Sure, they can (and should) forgive you when you mess up and hurt them, but only God can permanently erase sin from your record. All you have to do is confess your sins to Him and repent, and—instantly—they're gone forever. Confess your sins to the Lord today. He's the only One who can get rid of them for you! (See also: Matt. 9:6; Mark 2:10; Luke 5:20, 24; Eph. 2:8, 9.)

Words to Live By

Can forgive: The two Greek words used together in Mark 2:7, translated as "can forgive," are dunamai (doo'-nah-mi) and aphiemi (af-fee'-ay-mee). They can mean "able to send away or forgive." It's the idea of having the power or capability (dunamai) to truly forgive our sins and delete them or send them away (aphiemi) forever. Only God has the power to truly take away our sins and make it as if they never happened.

and[a] Pharisees saw Him eating with the tax collectors and sinners, they said to His disciples, "How is it that He eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners?"

17When Jesus heard it, He said to them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance."[a]

JESUS IS QUESTIONED ABOUT FASTING

18The disciples of John and of the Pharisees were fasting. Then they came and said to Him, "Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but Your disciples do not fast?"

19And Jesus said to them, "Can the friends of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them they cannot fast. 20But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast in those days. 21No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; or else the new piece pulls away from the old, and the tear is made worse. 22And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; or else the new wine bursts the wineskins, the wine is spilled, and the wineskins are ruined. But new wine must be put into new wineskins."

JESUS IS LORD OF THE SABBATH

23Now it happened that He went through the grainfields on the Sabbath; and as

MAKING IT REAL // MARK 2:17

Who Needs a Doctor? The Pharisees were the elite Jewish religious leaders of Jesus' day, and they didn't understand what Jesus was all about. For one thing, He hung out with known sinners—people they would have crossed the street to avoid. The Pharisees thought they were way too holy to rub elbows with those people. What Jesus said to them should be like music to your ears if you think you've done such horrible things that God could never love you. Jesus made it clear that He's more interested in changing sinners than in recruiting good, religious people to His cause.

But does that mean that Jesus isn't interested in you if you haven't gotten messed up in obvious sins like cheating or sex or drugs or breaking the law? Not at all. When He said He wasn't inviting "the righteous," He was talking about the attitude in people's hearts. People who consider themselves "righteous" (good), like the Pharisees, don't think they need Jesus. People who know they are sinners—whether their sins are obvious to everyone or the invisible sins of the heart that are just as bad—know they need Jesus. He welcomes all of us with open arms. (See also: Matt. 9:12, 13; Luke 5:31, 32; 19:10.)

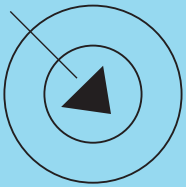
Words to Live By

Sick: The Greek word translated as "sick" in Mark 2:17 is kakos (kak-oce'), and it carries the idea of being ill or diseased. Sin is a disease that infects our entire being and keeps us from a personal relationship with God. Jesus came to heal us from the disease of sin by sacrificing Himself for us and cleansing us with His righteousness. No more do we have to live weak, sick lives. Now we can have whole, full, and healthy lives in Christ.

they went His disciples began to pluck the heads of grain. 24And the Pharisees said to Him, "Look, why do they do what is not lawful on the Sabbath?"

25But He said to them, "Have you never read what David did when he was in need and hungry, he and those with him: 26how he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and ate the showbread, which is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and also gave some to those who were with him?"

27And He said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath. 28Therefore the Son of Man is also Lord of the Sabbath."



HEALING ON THE SABBATH

3 And He entered the synagogue again, and a man was there who had a withered hand. 2So they watched Him closely, whether He would heal him on the Sabbath, so that they might accuse Him. 3And He said to the man who had the withered hand, "Step forward." 4Then He said to them, "Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save life or to kill?" But they kept silent. 5And when He had looked around at them with anger, being grieved by the hardness of their hearts, He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored as whole as the other.[a] 6Then the Pharisees went out and immediately plotted with the Herodians against Him, how they might destroy Him.

A GREAT MULTITUDE FOLLOWS JESUS

7But Jesus withdrew with His disciples to the sea. And a great multitude from Galilee followed Him, and from Judea 8and Jerusalem and Idumea and beyond the Jordan; and those from Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they heard how many things He was doing, came to Him. 9So He told His disciples that a small boat should be kept ready for Him because of the multitude, lest they should crush Him. 10For He healed many, so that as many as

3:5 [a]NU-Text omits as whole as the other.

PROMISE

God promises anything can be forgiven.

"Assuredly, I say to you, all sins will be forgiven the sons of men, and whatever blasphemies they may utter" (Mark 3:28).

Be encouraged! It doesn't matter what you've done in the past, where you've done it, or who you've done it with. God loves you and wants to forgive you. In fact, God has more grace than you can imagine. You may have blown it, big-time. It doesn't matter. Jesus is more than ready to give you a fresh start. He wants you to run to Him, not away from Him!

Remember when David blew it with Bathsheba? Then he blew it again by having her husband killed. David kept messing up trying to cover his sin. God sent the prophet Nathan to confront him. David's eyes were finally opened, and he repented. God forgave David (2 Sam. 11–12). Even with all the times David failed, in the Book of Acts he is called "a man after [God's] own heart" (Acts 13:22). God approved of David because David always admitted when he had sinned, repented, and asked God to forgive him. If God can forgive David for the horrible things he did, He can certainly forgive you. But the key is this: David repented. He didn't just apologize. He was truly sorry in his heart. To repent means to turn from sin and go the other direction. Whatever it is that you need to be forgiven from, give it to God right now. Ask for forgiveness: tell Him you're sorry, repent, and move on.

Even godly people may fall many times, but they will always go to God and trust Him to help them get back up. God will always forgive, no matter what you've done. He loves you!

had afflictions pressed about Him to touch Him. 11And the unclean spirits, whenever they saw Him, fell down before Him and cried out, saying, "You are the Son of God." 12But He sternly warned them that they should not make Him known.

THE TWELVE APOSTLES

13And He went up on the mountain and called to Him those He Himself wanted. And they came to Him. 14Then He appointed twelve,[a] that they might be with Him and that He might send them out to preach, 15and to have power to heal sicknesses and[a] to cast out demons: 16Simon,[a] to whom He gave the name Peter; 17James the son of Zebedee and John the brother of James, to whom He gave the name Boanerges, that is, "Sons of Thunder"; 18Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Canaanite; 19and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed Him. And they went into a house.

20Then the multitude came together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread. 21But when His own people heard about this, they went out to lay hold of Him, for they said, "He is out of His mind."

MAKING IT REAL // MARK 3:35

Family of God Did you know that you belong to the family of Jesus Christ? The God who created the universe and all that exists is your Father. You are a brother or sister of Jesus Himself; and, as a member of His family, you are royal and privileged. Because you are a brother or sister of Christ, you are perfectly cared for and protected. Your earthly family may sometimes disappoint you, but this family will never let you down.

Some people in this world don't know who they belong to; or they don't feel like they belong to anyone. They certainly aren't living like brothers and sisters of Christ; His true brothers and sisters don't abuse their bodies, don't abuse people, and don't abuse privileges. His true brothers and sisters treat others with respect, compassion, and love because they're not driven by selfish ambition. Maybe you've been living like the rest of the world because you didn't know about your family—a family of grace, but a family of conviction and strong character. Once you're a brother or sister in this amazing family, you are called, and have the privilege, to carry on the heritage of the family of Christ. (See also: Matt. 12:48–50; 23:8.)

Words to Live By

My brother and my sister and mother: Just before Jesus made this statement in Mark 3:35, someone had told Him that His mother and brothers were looking for Him outside. Jesus took this opportunity to teach the people about the family of God. Those who follow Christ are just as much family members to Him as those people who were in His earthly family. True family in God's kingdom is not determined by DNA or birth certificates. Rather, it is determined by the love of God and His saving grace. Once we accept our salvation, we have a family just as real (if not more so) than the one we were born into.

23So He called them to Himself and said to them in parables: "How can Satan cast out Satan? 24If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. 25And if a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand. 26And if Satan has risen up against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand, but has an end. 27No one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man. And then he will plunder his house.

THE UNPARDONABLE SIN

28"Assuredly, I say to you, all sins will be forgiven the sons of men, and whatever blasphemies they may utter; 29but he who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is subject to eternal condemnation"— 30because they said, "He has an unclean spirit."

JESUS' MOTHER AND BROTHERS SEND FOR HIM

31Then His brothers and His mother came, and standing outside they sent to Him, calling Him. 32And a multitude was sitting around Him; and they said to Him, "Look, Your mother and Your brothers[a] are outside seeking You."

33But He answered them, saying, "Who is My mother, or My brothers?" 34And He looked around in a circle at those who sat about Him, and said, "Here are My mother and My brothers! 35For whoever does the will of God is My brother and My sister and mother."

THE PARABLE OF THE SOWER

4 And again He began to teach by the sea. And a great multitude was gathered to Him, so that He got into a boat and sat in it on the sea; and the whole multitude was on the land facing the sea.

3:32 [a]NU-Text and M-Text add and Your sisters.

2Then He taught them many things by parables, and said to them in His teaching:
3"Listen! Behold, a sower went out to sow. 4And it happened, as he sowed, that some seed fell by the wayside; and the birds of the air[a] came and devoured it. 5Some fell on stony ground, where it did not have much earth; and immediately it sprang up because it had no depth of earth. 6But when the sun was up it was scorched, and because it had no root it withered away. 7And some seed fell among thorns; and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no crop. 8But other seed fell on good ground and yielded a crop that sprang up, increased and produced: some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some a hundred."
9And He said to them,[a] "He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

THE PURPOSE OF PARABLES

10But when He was alone, those around Him with the twelve asked Him about the parable. 11And He said to them, "To you it has been given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God; but to those who are outside, all things come in parables, 12so that

'Seeing they may see and not perceive,
And hearing they may hear and not understand;
Lest they should turn,
And their sins be forgiven them.' "[a]

THE PARABLE OF THE SOWER EXPLAINED

13And He said to them, "Do you not understand this parable? How then will you understand all the parables? 14The sower sows the word. 15And these are the ones by the wayside where the word is sown. When they hear, Satan comes immediately and takes away the word that was sown in their hearts. 16These likewise are the ones sown on stony ground who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with gladness; 17and they have no root in themselves, and so endure only for a time. Afterward, when tribulation or persecution arises for the word's sake, immediately they stumble. 18Now these are the ones sown among thorns; they are the ones who hear the word, 19and the cares of this world, the deceitfulness of riches, and the desires for other things entering in choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. 20But these are the ones sown on good ground, those who hear the word, accept it, and bear fruit: some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some a hundred."

LIGHT UNDER A BASKET

21Also He said to them, "Is a lamp brought to be put under a basket or under a bed? Is it not to be set on a lampstand? 22For there is nothing hidden which will not be revealed, nor has anything been kept secret but that it should come to light. 23If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear."
24Then He said to them, "Take heed what you hear. With the same measure you use, it will be measured to you; and to you who hear, more will be given. 25For whoever has, to him more will be given; but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him."

THE PARABLE OF THE GROWING SEED

26And He said, "The kingdom of God is as if a man should scatter seed on the ground, 27and should sleep by night and rise by day, and the seed should sprout and grow, he himself does not know how. 28For the earth yields crops by itself: first the blade, then the head, after that the full grain in the head. 29But when the grain ripens, immediately he puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come."

> Mark 4:31
> The mustard seed is proof of the old saying, "Big things come in small packages." One tiny mustard seed—a seed much smaller than a kernel of corn—is capable of producing a plant up to fifteen feet high.

MAKING IT REAL // MARK 4:33, 34

Parables Think back to last week's sermon at church. Maybe your mind wandered for part of the time, but what made you look up and really listen? The story. Maybe it was funny, maybe tragic, but you were definitely listening. The pastor had your attention. Everyone likes a good story. We can relate to certain characters who remind us of ourselves or people we know. Sometimes the plot of the story reminds us of similar experiences we've had ourselves. And when the moral of the story is revealed, it can really hit home because it is something that we understand and relate to. We want to know the meaning of the story because we've invested our attention, time, and maybe even our emotions in it. There's a reason we still read books and go to the movies—we all love a good story.

Jesus was a great communicator. He knew that people love to listen to stories. He told the deep and incredible truths of His kingdom in the form of stories so that the people could understand what He was really saying. People listened to His parables and then retold them to their friends. Read the stories of Jesus and hear the truth He is speaking to you. (See also: Matt. 13.)

Words to Live By

Parable: The Greek word translated as "parable" in Mark 4:33, 34 is parabole (par-ab-ol-ay'), which can mean "a likeness or comparison." A parabole is often a story about everyday life that has symbolic content that can teach a lesson. Everyone can relate to a story that deals with things that are familiar to them, and that makes the truth they learn when they compare the story with their own lives even more powerful. So it's not surprising that Jesus used such wisdom in choosing to teach with parables, knowing how they could impact people in such personal and lasting ways.

shall we picture it? 31*It is* like a mustard seed which, when it is sown on the ground, is smaller than all the seeds on earth; 32but when it is sown, it grows up and becomes greater than all herbs, and shoots out large branches, so that the birds of the air may nest under its shade."

JESUS' USE OF PARABLES

33And with many such parables He spoke the word to them as they were able to hear it. 34But without a parable He did not speak to them. And when they were alone, He explained all things to His disciples.

WIND AND WAVE OBEY JESUS

35On the same day, when evening had come, He said to them, "Let us cross over to the other side." 36Now when they had left the multitude, they took Him along in the boat as He was. And other little boats were also with Him. 37And a great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was already filling. 38But He was in the stern, asleep on a pillow. And they awoke Him and said to Him, "Teacher, do You not care that we are perishing?"

39Then He arose and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace, be still!" And the wind ceased and there was a great calm. 40But He said to them, "Why are you so fearful? How is it that you have no faith?"[a] 41And they feared exceedingly, and said to one another, "Who can this be, that even the wind and the sea obey Him!"

A DEMON-POSSESSED MAN HEALED

5 Then they came to the other side of the sea, to the country of the Gadarenes.[a] 2And when He had come out of the boat, immediately there met Him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit, 3who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no one could bind him,[a] not even with chains, 4because he had often been bound with shackles and chains. And the chains had been pulled apart by him, and the shackles broken in pieces; neither could anyone tame him. 5And always, night and day, he was in the mountains and in the tombs, crying out and cutting himself with stones.

4:40 [a]NU-Text reads Have you still no faith?
5:1 [a]NU-Text reads Gerasenes.

6When he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and worshiped Him. 7And he cried out with a loud voice and said, "What have I to do with You, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I implore You by God that You do not torment me."

8For He said to him, "Come out of the man, unclean spirit!" 9Then He asked him, "What is your name?"

And he answered, saying, "My name is Legion; for we are many." 10Also he begged Him earnestly that He would not send them out of the country.

11Now a large herd of swine was feeding there near the mountains. 12So all the demons begged Him, saying, "Send us to the swine, that we may enter them." 13And at once Jesus[a] gave them permission. Then the unclean spirits went out and entered the swine (there were about two thousand); and the herd ran violently down the steep place into the sea, and drowned in the sea.

14So those who fed the swine fled, and they told it in the city and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that had happened. 15Then they came to Jesus, and saw the one who had been demon-possessed and had the legion, sitting and clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. 16And those who saw it told them how it happened to him who had been demon-possessed, and about the swine. 17Then they began to plead with Him to depart from their region.

18And when He got into the boat, he who had been demon-possessed begged Him that he might be with Him. 19However, Jesus did not permit him, but said to him, "Go home to your friends, and tell them what great things the Lord has done for you, and how He has had compassion on you." 20And he departed and began to proclaim in Decapolis all that Jesus had done for him; and all marveled.

25Now a certain woman had a flow of blood for twelve years, 26and had suffered many things from many physicians. She had spent all that she had and was no better, but rather grew worse. 27When she heard about Jesus, she came behind Him in the crowd and touched His garment. 28For she said, "If only I may touch His clothes, I shall be made well."

29Immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of the affliction. 30And Jesus, immediately knowing in Himself that power had gone out of Him, turned around in the crowd and said, "Who touched My clothes?"

31But His disciples said to Him, "You see the multitude thronging You, and You say, 'Who touched Me?' "

32And He looked around to see her who had done this thing. 33But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth. 34And He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be healed of your affliction."

35While He was still speaking, some came from the ruler of the synagogue's house who said, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Teacher any further?"

36As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, He said to the ruler of the synagogue, "Do not be afraid; only believe." 37And He permitted no one to follow Him except Peter, James, and John the brother of James. 38Then He came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and saw a tumult

Missions / Mark 5:18–20

When we hear the word missions we often think of people who commit their lives to going into faraway and often dangerous places to spread the message of Jesus Christ. But what if you're still in school and not able to move to another part of the world to share Christ? Does that mean you can't be involved in missions? Absolutely not!

Missions happen everywhere. Consider the man whom Jesus healed from demon possession in Mark 5:1–20. After he was healed, he wanted to travel with Jesus, but instead Jesus called the man to start his mission somewhere else . . . his hometown! Jesus told him, "Go home to your friends, and tell them what great things the Lord has done for you, and how He has had compassion on you" (Mark 5:19). Rather than traveling the world right away, this man went home and shared his experience with Christ with everyone He encountered.

That's the heart of missions—sharing your life-changing experience with Christ with everyone you encounter, either at home or online or on a mission trip. One day, God may call you to go to a remote village in a third-world country. Or He may call you to reach people for Him as a nurse, a firefighter, a teacher, or whatever career you choose. But you don't have to wait for that. You can serve God through missions in your home, your neighborhood, and your school. You can share Christ now through social networking with your online friends.

Modern technology has made our world smaller than ever—with a quick look at our smartphones, we can see what's going on across the globe. We can support missionaries by following them online and giving them our prayers or financial support. As Christians, we are called to "go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature" (Mark 16:15). We can spread the message of Christ in every way we communicate with every person we meet, either in person or online. Don't wait to go on mission. Share Jesus now!

39When He came in, He said to them, "Why make this commotion and weep? The child is not dead, but sleeping."
40And they ridiculed Him. But when He had put them all outside, He took the father and the mother of the child, and those who were with Him, and entered where the child was lying. 41Then He took the child by the hand, and said to her, "Talitha, cumi," which is translated, "Little girl, I say to you, arise." 42Immediately the girl arose and walked, for she was twelve years of age. And they were overcome with great amazement. 43But He commanded them strictly that no one should know it, and said that something should be given her to eat.

JESUS REJECTED AT NAZARETH

6 Then He went out from there and came to His own country, and His disciples followed Him. 2And when the Sabbath had come, He began to teach in the synagogue. And many hearing Him were astonished, saying, "Where did this Man get these things? And what wisdom is this which is given to Him, that such mighty works are performed by His hands!
3Is this not the carpenter, the Son of Mary, and brother of James, Joses, Judas, and Simon? And are not His sisters here with us?"
So they were offended at Him.
4But Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his own country, among his own relatives, and in his own house." 5Now He could do no mighty work there, except that He laid His hands on a few sick people and healed them. 6And He marveled because of their unbelief. Then He went about the villages in a circuit, teaching.

SENDING OUT THE TWELVE

7And He called the twelve to Himself, and began to send them out two by two, and gave them power over unclean spirits. 8He commanded them to take nothing for the journey except a staff—no bag, no bread, no copper in their money belts— 9but to wear sandals, and not to put on two tunics.
10Also He said to them, "In whatever place you enter a house, stay there till you depart from that place. 11And whoever[a] will not receive you nor hear you, when you depart from there, shake off the dust under your feet as a testimony against them.[b] Assuredly, I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city!"
12So they went out and preached that people should repent. 13And they cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick, and healed them.

JOHN THE BAPTIST BEHEADED

14Now King Herod heard of Him, for His name had become well known. And he said, "John the Baptist is risen from the dead, and therefore these powers are at work in him."
15Others said, "It is Elijah."
And others said, "It is the Prophet, or[a] like one of the prophets."

Mark 6:15

The prophet Elijah prophesied more than 850 years before Jesus. Why would anyone confuse him with John the Baptist? Perhaps it was because of the way Elijah's time on earth ended. You see, Elijah didn't die; he was taken directly to heaven. Some Old Testament writers predicted that the living, breathing Elijah would return to earth one day. The Jewish people expected him to return just before the Messiah came to set them free from Rome's control.

16But when Herod heard, he said, "This is John, whom I beheaded; he has been raised from the dead!" 17For Herod himself had sent and laid hold of John, and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife; for he had married her. 18Because John had said to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife."
19Therefore Herodias held it against him and wanted to kill him, but she could not; 20for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just and holy man, and he protected him. And when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

Time Management / Mark 6:31, 32, 46

In just about three years of ministry, Jesus and His disciples were very busy. They were always traveling around as Jesus was healing, teaching, and preaching the gospel. But in the midst of all that, He still emphasized the need for some time away. In Mark 6, Jesus encouraged the disciples to take some time to go "by yourselves to a deserted place and rest awhile" (Mark 6:31). Later, in verse 46, He sent the multitudes away and went up on a mountain by Himself to pray. Jesus was in control of His time. Time was not in control of Him.

Time management is a huge issue for us. The world is electronically connected at hyperspeed. Everything is speeded up including our lives. So we need to be vigilant about being the masters of our own schedules, or our schedules will become our masters. That can get in the way of our relationship with God and also our relationships with our friends and families. If you're not purposeful about your schedule, you may end up with no time for God or the people you love. Your hectic life may end up controlling you to the point that you you can't even squeeze in an appointment with yourself!

During college years, the need to manage time starts to hit home with a lot of people. In college, you're on your own and your schedule is up to you. You are the one who must figure out how to fit everything in.

So it's good for you to learn now that you must sometimes opt out of something good, so you can fit in something better. You have to learn to prioritize your time with God and the other things that are most important. Without being decisive with your schedule, your schedule can take over and make your life way more exhausting than it has to be. Take a lesson from Jesus, don't let time rule you; take time to go away to the mountain.

No Fear Can you imagine sitting in a boat in the middle of a storm, trying desperately to row against the wind? You are doing your best to get to the other side of the lake, but you're not going anywhere. Then, all of a sudden, Jesus comes walking up toward the boat; literally walking on the water! This is exactly what happened to the disciples (Mark 6:45–52). At first, they flipped out, but Jesus said, "Be of good cheer! It is I; do not be afraid."

When you're trying to get somewhere and it seems like you're stuck in the middle of all sorts of problems and nothing is going your way, you don't have to flip out and be terrified. There is no problem or storm life can throw at you that Jesus can't overcome. He will always show you a way through your storms.

And Jesus won't just stand by and reassure you; He'll actually grab your hands if you start to sink. Instead of being like Peter and getting fearful when chaos happens, you can not only ride out the storms, you can actually walk right through them. But only if you keep your eyes on Jesus.

You or someone you know may be sitting in a boat in the middle of a storm; trouble may be tossing you around like a ship in a hurricane. But Jesus is telling you not to worry because He is there with you. When the storm is over, just like Jesus' disciples in the story, you'll end up right where you're meant to be; and Jesus will still be there. (See also: Deut. 31:6; Josh. 1:5; Ps. 37:25, 28; Heb. 13:5.)

Words to Live By

Be of good cheer: The Greek word translated as "be of good cheer" in Mark 6:50 is tharseo (thar-seh'-o), and it also means "to have courage." It's not necessarily wrong to admit when you are afraid. Courage isn't pretending you have no fear. Rather, it is acknowledging the fear and facing the challenge anyway. Once you rely on the courage you get from the presence of Jesus, you will find your fear replaced by faith and your storms replaced by the peace only Jesus can bring.

21 Then an opportune day came when Herod on his birthday gave a feast for his nobles, the high officers, and the chief men of Galilee. 22 And when Herodias' daughter herself came in and danced, and pleased Herod and those who sat with him, the king said to the girl, "Ask me whatever you want, and I will give it to you." 23 He also swore to her, "Whatever you ask me, I will give you, up to half my kingdom." 24 So she went out and said to her mother, "What shall I ask?"
And she said, "The head of John the Baptist!" 25 Immediately she came in with haste to the king and asked, saying, "I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter." 26 And the king was exceedingly sorry; yet, because of the oaths and because of those who sat with him, he did not want to refuse her. 27 Immediately the king sent an executioner and commanded his head to be brought. And he went and beheaded him in prison, 28 brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl; and the girl gave it to her mother. 29 When his disciples heard of it, they came and took away his corpse and laid it in a tomb.

FEEDING THE FIVE THOUSAND

30 Then the apostles gathered to Jesus and told Him all things, both what they had done and what they had taught. 31 And He said to them, "Come aside by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." For there were many coming and going, and they did not even have time to eat. 32 So they departed to a deserted place in the boat by themselves.

33But the multitudes[a] saw them departing, and many knew Him and ran there on foot from all the cities. They arrived before them and came together to Him. 34And Jesus, when He came out, saw a great multitude and was moved with compassion for them, because they were like sheep not having a shepherd. So He began to teach them many things. 35When the day was now far spent, His disciples came to Him and said, "This is a deserted place, and already the hour is late. 36Send them away, that they may go into the surrounding country and villages and buy themselves bread;[a] for they have nothing to eat."

37But He answered and said to them, "You give them something to eat."

And they said to Him, "Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread and give them something to eat?"

38But He said to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go and see."

And when they found out they said, "Five, and two fish."

39Then He commanded them to make them all sit down in groups on the green grass. 40So they sat down in ranks, in hundreds and in fifties. 41And when He had taken the five loaves and the two fish, He looked up to heaven, blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to His disciples to set before them; and the two fish He divided among them all. 42So they all ate and were filled. 43And they took up twelve baskets full of fragments and of the fish. 44Now those who had eaten the loaves were about[a] five thousand men.

JESUS WALKS ON THE SEA

45Immediately He made His disciples get into the boat and go before Him to the other side, to Bethsaida, while He sent the multitude away. 46And when He had sent them away, He departed to the mountain to pray. 47Now when evening came, the boat was in the middle of the sea; and He was alone on the land. 48Then He saw them straining at rowing, for the wind was against them. Now about the fourth watch of the night He came to them, walking on the sea, and would have passed them by. 49And when they saw Him walking on the sea, they supposed it was a ghost, and cried out; 50for they all saw Him and were troubled. But immediately He talked with them and said to them, "Be of good cheer! It is I; do not be afraid." 51Then He went up into the boat to them, and the wind ceased. And they were greatly amazed in themselves beyond measure, and marveled. 52For they had not understood about the loaves, because their heart was hardened.

MANY TOUCH HIM AND ARE MADE WELL

53When they had crossed over, they came to the land of Gennesaret and anchored there. 54And when they came out of the boat, immediately the people recognized Him, 55ran through that whole surrounding region, and began to carry about on beds those who were sick to wherever they heard He was. 56Wherever He entered, into villages, cities, or the country, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged Him that they might just touch the hem of His garment. And as many as touched Him were made well.

DEFILEMENT COMES FROM WITHIN

7 Then the Pharisees and some of the scribes came together to Him, having come from Jerusalem. 2Now when[a] they saw some of His disciples eat bread with defiled, that is, with unwashed hands, they found fault. 3For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash their hands in a special way, holding the tradition of the elders. 4*When they come* from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they wash. And there are many other things which they have received and hold, like the washing of cups, pitchers, copper vessels, and couches.

5Then the Pharisees and scribes asked Him, "Why do Your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands?"

6He answered and said to them, "Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written:

> 'This people honors Me with their lips,
> But their heart is far from Me.

6:33 [a]NU-Text and M-Text read they. 6:36 [a]NU-Text reads something to eat and omits the rest of this verse. 6:44 [a]NU-Text and M-Text omit about. 7:2 [a]NU-Text omits when and they found fault.

7 And in vain they worship Me,
Teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.'[a]

8For laying aside the commandment of God, you hold the tradition of men[a] —the washing of pitchers and cups, and many other such things you do."

9He said to them, "All too well you reject the commandment of God, that you may keep your tradition. 10For Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother';[a] and, 'He who curses father or mother, let him be put to death.'[b] 11But you say, 'If a man says to his father or mother, "Whatever profit you might have received from me is Corban"—' (that is, a gift to God), 12then you no longer let him do anything for his father or his mother, 13making the word of God of no effect through your tradition which you have handed down. And many such things you do."

14When He had called all the multitude to Himself, He said to them, "Hear Me, everyone, and understand: 15There is nothing that enters a man from outside which can defile him; but the things which come out of him, those are the things that defile a man. 16If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear!"[a]

17When He had entered a house away from the crowd, His disciples asked Him concerning the parable. 18So He said to them, "Are you thus without understanding also? Do you not perceive that whatever enters a man from outside cannot defile him, 19because it does not enter his heart but his stomach, and is eliminated, thus purifying all foods?"[a] 20And He said, "What comes out of a man, that defiles a man. 21For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, 22thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lewdness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness. 23All these evil things come from within and defile a man."

24From there He arose and went to the region of Tyre and Sidon.[a] And He entered a house and wanted no one to know it, but He could not be hidden. 25For a woman whose young daughter had an unclean spirit heard about Him, and she came and fell at His feet. 26The woman was a Greek, a Syro-Phoenician by birth, and she kept asking Him to cast the demon out of her daughter. 27But Jesus said to her, "Let the children be filled first, for it is not good to take the children's bread and throw it to the little dogs."

28And she answered and said to Him, "Yes, Lord, yet even the little dogs under the table eat from the children's crumbs."

29Then He said to her, "For this saying go your way; the demon has gone out of your daughter."

30And when she had come to her house, she found the demon gone out, and her daughter lying on the bed.

JESUS HEALS A DEAF-MUTE

31Again, departing from the region of Tyre and Sidon, He came through the midst of the region of Decapolis to the Sea of Galilee. 32Then they brought to Him one who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech, and they begged Him to put His hand on him. 33And He took him aside from the multitude, and put His fingers in his ears, and He spat and touched his tongue. 34Then, looking up to heaven, He sighed, and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened."

35Immediately his ears were opened, and the impediment of his tongue was loosed, and he spoke plainly. 36Then He commanded them that they should tell no one; but the more He commanded them, the more widely they proclaimed it. 37And they were astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well. He makes both the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

FEEDING THE FOUR THOUSAND

8 In those days, the multitude being very great and having nothing to eat, Jesus called His disciples to Him and said to them, 2"I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now

MAKING IT REAL // MARK 8:29

Jesus, the Christ When Jesus was born, the Jews were living under the authority of the Roman government. They hated it. They had to pay ridiculously high taxes; they had no rights because they weren't Roman citizens. Israel's prophets had said that a Messiah, God's Chosen One, would come to set the people free. Most of the Jews believed that the Messiah would appear in power and glory, maybe even raise a large army, and overthrow the Roman government that had Israel under its thumb. They believed the Messiah would establish God's kingdom—an independent Jewish nation—on earth.

Jesus didn't exactly fit the bill. He came to set them free from their sins, their sicknesses, and the oppression of their real enemy (Satan) rather than from the Romans. Jesus never spoke against the Roman government and even suggested that God wanted them to pay taxes to Caesar. But Peter recognized Jesus as the Chosen One. He may not have understood (yet) that the kingdom Jesus had come to establish was not a political regime but a kingdom of the heart and of the spirit, but Peter recognized that Jesus was the One they had waited for.

Jesus is the Messiah. He has come to set us free from the power of sin and deliver us from the fear of death. Acknowledge Him as the Chosen One, the Christ. Accept the salvation and freedom He brings as you become a citizen of the eternal kingdom of God. (See also: John 1:41; 6:69; 11:27.)

Words to Live By

Christ: The Greek word for "Christ" in Mark 8:29 is Christos (khris-tos'). It means "anointed" and is the Greek equivalent of the Hebrew Messiah. When Peter recognized Jesus as "the Christ," He was saying that Jesus was the Anointed One of God, who would bring deliverance to His people. He was God's own Son. There is no one else worthy or deserving of that title.

4Then His disciples answered Him,
"How can one satisfy these people with bread here in the wilderness?" 5He asked them, "How many loaves do you have?"
And they said, "Seven."
6So He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground. And He took the seven loaves and gave thanks, broke them and gave them to His disciples to set before them; and they set them before the multitude. 7They also had a few small fish; and having blessed them, He said to set them also before them. 8So they ate and were filled, and they took up seven large baskets of leftover fragments.
9Now those who had eaten were about four thousand. And He sent them away, disciples, and came to the region of Dal-manutha.

THE PHARISEES SEEK A SIGN

11Then the Pharisees came out and began to dispute with Him, seeking from Him a sign from heaven, testing Him. 12But He sighed deeply in His spirit, and said, "Why does this generation seek a sign? Assuredly, I say to you, no sign shall be given to this generation."

LIFE APP

Ambition / Mark 8:36

To have ambition is to want to accomplish something. Ambition is an interesting thing—in and of itself, it's not good or bad. The good or bad comes in with the direction you choose to go. You can have an ambition to do something great for God or you can have an ambition to do something that doesn't honor God.

Many people start out with ambitions to do good things. But sometimes, selfish motives pollute everything they do and they end up not accomplishing anything of lasting value. They may make a lot of money and have a lot of possessions, and maybe even power or fame. But they don't have what's most important—a life that is drenched in the love of Christ. All of their great accomplishments can't save their souls or give their lives true meaning. Only Christ can do that. Jesus said about ambition, "For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul?" (Mark 8:36). No amount of money or possessions can help you at all when your life is over. Only having eternal life through Christ will matter then. And the only accomplishments that will count will be the ones with eternal significance because you achieved them by following God faithfully.

So what are your ambitions? Search your heart and determine the motives behind your hopes for your life. Do you want to find success in order to honor God and draw others to Him; or do you want to be successful so you can be well-known, popular, or wealthy? If you need an ambition adjustment, pray and ask God to help you. Your ambitions will change throughout your life. As your hopes and aspirations change, be sure to continually check your motives and talk to God about all your dreams and desires. Determine to make His ambitions for your life your ambitions for your life.

one loaf with them in the boat. 15Then He charged them, saying, "Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod."

Mark 8:15

Have you ever seen yeast (leaven) in action? Just a tiny bit of yeast added to a loaf of bread will work wonders. As the yeast ferments, it makes the dough bubble and then rise. Before long, the entire loaf is affected. The fast-acting and wide-reaching effects of yeast may explain why the Bible uses it to symbolize sin or evil.

16And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "It is because we have no bread."

17But Jesus, being aware of it, said to them, "Why do you reason because you have no bread? Do you not yet perceive nor understand? Is your heart still[a] hardened? 18Having eyes, do you not see? And having ears, do you not hear? And do you not remember? 19When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments did you take up?"

They said to Him, "Twelve."

20"Also, when I broke the seven for the four thousand, how many large baskets full of fragments did you take up?"

And they said, "Seven."

21So He said to them, "How is it you do not understand?"

A BLIND MAN HEALED AT BETHSAIDA

22Then He came to Bethsaida; and they brought a blind man to Him, and begged Him to touch him. 23So He took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the town. And when He had spit on his eyes and put His hands on him, He asked him if he saw anything.

24And he looked up and said, "I see men like trees, walking."

25Then He put His hands on his eyes again and made him look up. And he was restored and saw everyone clearly. 26Then He sent him away to his house, saying, "Neither go into the town, nor tell anyone in the town."[a]

PETER CONFESSES JESUS AS THE CHRIST

27Now Jesus and His disciples went out to the towns of Caesarea Philippi; and on the road He asked His disciples, saying to them, "Who do men say that I am?"

28So they answered, "John the Baptist; but some say, Elijah; and others, one of the prophets."

29He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

Peter answered and said to Him, "You are the Christ."

30Then He strictly warned them that they should tell no one about Him.

JESUS PREDICTS HIS DEATH AND RESURRECTION

31And He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. 32He spoke this word openly. Then Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him. 33But when He had turned around and looked at His disciples, He rebuked Peter, saying, "Get behind Me, Satan! For you are not mindful of the things of God, but the things of men."

34When He had called the people to Himself, with His disciples also, He said to them, "Whoever desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. 35For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and the gospel's will save it. 36For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? 37Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul? 38For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him the Son of Man also will be ashamed when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels."

9 And He said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you that there are some standing here who will not taste death till

Child of God Jesus and God the Father are one. Think about that for a moment. When you see Jesus ministering to the poor, touching the brokenhearted, and healing the sick, He is fulfilling the heart of the Father. Just like earthly sons sometimes work for their dads, Jesus worked for His Father, too. He did the things on earth that His Father wanted Him to do; that included making the way for us to have a relationship with our heavenly Father (through His own perfect life, death, and resurrection).

When you received Jesus, you received life and a relationship with God the Father! Because of the price that Jesus paid for you on the cross, and because you have received Him as your Savior, you have become God's very own child. Wow! And the exciting thing is we inherit His characteristics. Have you ever noticed how often children resemble their parents? They may even have a lot of the same mannerisms. It's that way because they inherited characteristics from their fathers. When you accepted Jesus as your Savior, you inherited some of your heavenly Father's characteristics—love, joy, and peace, to name a few (Gal. 5:22, 23). It's amazing—the more we spend time with God, the more of His ways we'll pick up! God has given us a great heritage. We are His children. Remember: "Like Father, like son (or daughter)!" (See also: Luke 12:32; Rom. 8:16, 17; Gal. 3:29; 4:7.)

Words to Live By

Hear: The Greek word translated as "hear" in Mark 9:7 is akouo (ak-oo'-o). It can carry a deeper meaning of understanding or considering what you're hearing. God was not suggesting it might be a good idea to think about listening to Jesus once in a while. It was imperative that the people listen intently and consider everything Jesus said. The same goes for us. When we read the words of Jesus, we need to pay special attention and do our best to consider and understand everything He taught. As we read the Bible prayerfully, the Spirit will reveal truth and meaning to us.

they see the kingdom of God present with power."

JESUS TRANSFIGURED ON THE MOUNT

2 Now after six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John, and led them up on a high mountain apart by themselves; and He was transfigured before them. 3 His clothes became shining, exceedingly white, like snow, such as no launderer on earth can whiten them. 4 And Elijah appeared to them with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus.
5 Then Peter answered and said to Jesus,
"Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; and let us make three tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah"— 6 because he did not know what to say, for they were greatly afraid.

7 And a cloud came and overshadowed them; and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is My beloved Son. Hear Him!" 8 Suddenly, when they had looked around, they saw no one anymore, but only Jesus with themselves.

9 Now as they came down from the mountain, He commanded them that they should tell no one the things they had seen, till the Son of Man had risen from the dead.
10 So they kept this word to themselves, questioning what the rising from the dead meant.

11 And they asked Him, saying, "Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

12 Then He answered and told them, "Indeed, Elijah is coming first and restores all things. And how is it written concerning the Son of Man, that He must suffer many things and be treated with contempt?
13 But I say to you that Elijah has also come,
and they did to him whatever they wished,
as it is written of him."

A BOY IS HEALED

14And when He came to the disciples, He saw a great multitude around them, and scribes disputing with them. 15Immediately, when they saw Him, all the people were greatly amazed, and running to Him, greeted Him. 16And He asked the scribes, "What are you discussing with them?"

17Then one of the crowd answered and said, "Teacher, I brought You my son, who has a mute spirit. 18And wherever it seizes him, it throws him down; he foams at the mouth, gnashes his teeth, and becomes rigid. So I spoke to Your disciples, that they should cast it out, but they could not."

19He answered him and said, "O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him to Me." 20Then they brought him to Him. And when he saw Him, immediately the spirit convulsed him, and he fell on the ground and wallowed, foaming at the mouth.

21So He asked his father, "How long has this been happening to him?"

And he said, "From childhood. 22And often he has thrown him both into the fire and into the water to destroy him. But if You can do anything, have compassion on us and help us."

23Jesus said to him, "If you can believe,[a] all things are possible to him who believes."

24Immediately the father of the child cried out and said with tears, "Lord, I believe; help my unbelief!"

25When Jesus saw that the people came running together, He rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it: "Deaf and dumb spirit, I command you, come out of him and enter him no more!" 26Then the spirit cried out, convulsed him greatly, and came out of him. And he became as one dead, so that many said, "He is dead." 27But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose.

28And when He had come into the house, His disciples asked Him privately, "Why could we not cast it out?"

29So He said to them, "This kind can come out by nothing but prayer and fasting."[a]

JESUS AGAIN PREDICTS HIS DEATH AND RESURRECTION

30Then they departed from there and passed through Galilee, and He did not want anyone to know it. 31For He taught His disciples and said to them, "The Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of men, and they will kill Him. And after He is killed, He will rise the third day." 32But they did not understand this saying, and were afraid to ask Him.

WHO IS THE GREATEST?

33Then He came to Capernaum. And when He was in the house He asked them, "What was it you disputed among yourselves on the road?" 34But they kept silent, for on the road they had disputed among themselves who would be the greatest. 35And He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, "If anyone desires to be first, he shall be last of all and servant of all." 36Then He took a little child and set him in the midst of them. And when He had taken him in His arms, He said to them, 37"Whoever receives one of these little children in My name receives Me; and whoever receives Me, receives not Me but Him who sent Me."

JESUS FORBIDS SECTARIANISM

38Now John answered Him, saying, "Teacher, we saw someone who does not follow us casting out demons in Your name, and we forbade him because he does not follow us."

39But Jesus said, "Do not forbid him, for no one who works a miracle in My name can soon afterward speak evil of Me. 40For he who is not against us is on our[a] side. 41For whoever gives you a cup of water to drink in My name, because you belong to Christ, assuredly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward.

GIVING

What is the result of giving to others?

Mark 9:41

JESUS WARNS OF OFFENSES

42"But whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to stumble, it would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea. 43If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed, rather than having two hands, to go to hell, into the fire that shall never be quenched— 44where

9:23 [a]NU-Text reads "'If You can!' All things. . . ."

'Their worm does not die
And the fire is not quenched.'[a]

45And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life lame, rather than having two feet, to be cast into hell, into the fire that shall never be quenched— 46where

'Their worm does not die,
And the fire is not quenched.'[a]

47And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye, rather than having two eyes, to be cast into hell fire— 48where

'Their worm does not die
And the fire is not quenched.'[a]

TASTELESS SALT IS WORTHLESS

49"For everyone will be seasoned with fire,[a] and every sacrifice will be seasoned with salt. 50Salt is good, but if the salt loses its flavor, how will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace with one another."

MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE

10 Then He arose from there and came to the region of Judea by the other side of the Jordan. And multitudes gathered to Him again, and as He was accustomed, He taught them again.

2The Pharisees came and asked Him, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?" testing Him.

3And He answered and said to them, "What did Moses command you?"

4They said, "Moses permitted a man to write a certificate of divorce, and to dismiss her."

5And Jesus answered and said to them, "Because of the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept. 6But from the beginning of the creation, God 'made them male and female.'[a] 7*'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife,* 8*and the two shall become one flesh'*;[a] so then they are no longer two, but one flesh. 9Therefore what God has joined together, let not man separate."

10In the house His disciples also asked Him again about the same matter. 11So He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her. 12And if a woman divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery."

JESUS BLESSES LITTLE CHILDREN

13Then they brought little children to Him, that He might touch them; but the disciples rebuked those who brought them. 14But when Jesus saw it, He was greatly displeased and said to them, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for of such is the kingdom of God. 15Assuredly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will by no means enter it." 16And He took them up in His arms, laid His hands on them, and blessed them.

MONEY
How can the love of money get in the way of our relationship with God?
Mark 10:17–24

JESUS COUNSELS THE RICH YOUNG RULER

17Now as He was going out on the road, one came running, knelt before Him, and asked Him, "Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?"

[20]And he answered and said to Him, "Teacher, all these things I have kept from my youth."

[21]Then Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, "One thing you lack: Go your way, sell whatever you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, take up the cross, and follow Me."

[22]But he was sad at this word, and went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions.

WITH GOD ALL THINGS ARE POSSIBLE

[23]Then Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!" [24]And the disciples were astonished at His words. But Jesus answered again and said to them, "Children, how hard it is for those who trust in riches[a] to enter the kingdom of God! [25]It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

[26]And they were greatly astonished, saying among themselves, "Who then can be saved?"

[27]But Jesus looked at them and said, "With men it is impossible, but not with God; for with God all things are possible."

[28]Then Peter began to say to Him, "See, we have left all and followed You."

[29]So Jesus answered and said, "Assuredly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife[a] or children or lands, for My sake and the gospel's, [30]who shall not receive a hundredfold now in this time—houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions—and in the age to come, eternal life. [31]But many who are first will be last, and the last first."

JESUS A THIRD TIME PREDICTS HIS DEATH AND RESURRECTION

[32]Now they were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was going before them; and they were amazed. And as they followed they were afraid. Then He took the twelve aside again and began to tell them the things that would happen to Him: [33]"Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and to the scribes; and they will condemn Him to death and deliver Him to the Gentiles; [34]and they will mock Him, and scourge Him, and spit on Him, and kill Him. And the third day He will rise again."

GREATNESS IS SERVING

[35]Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Him, saying, "Teacher, we want You to do for us whatever we ask."

[36]And He said to them, "What do you want Me to do for you?"

[37]They said to Him, "Grant us that we may sit, one on Your right hand and the other on Your left, in Your glory."

[38]But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?"

So Jesus said to them, "You will indeed drink the cup that I drink, and with the baptism I am baptized with you will be baptized; [40]but to sit on My right hand and on My left is not Mine to give, but it is for those for whom it is prepared."

[41]And when the ten heard it, they began to be greatly displeased with James and John. [42]But Jesus called them to Himself and said to them, "You know that those who are considered rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. [43]Yet it shall not be so among you; but whoever desires to become great among you shall be your servant. [44]And whoever of you desires to be first shall be slave of all. [45]For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many."

JESUS HEALS BLIND BARTIMAEUS

[46]Now they came to Jericho. As He went out of Jericho with His disciples and a great multitude, blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, sat by the road begging. [47]And

MAKING IT REAL // MARK 10:27

All Things Are Possible with God Wow! What a promise! God can do anything! This Scripture should kick the limits right out of your dreams. There are plenty of things that you cannot do on your own, but with Christ all things are possible. Too many times we let our circumstances discourage us. We wear out, give up, and throw in the towel. But we don't have to let our circumstances dictate our dreams. Instead, we can grab hold of this verse and realize that Jesus is the One who can do anything!

It doesn't matter how challenging your circumstances are. Nothing is impossible for God. In fact, Romans 8:11 says that "the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you." Now that's power! The Bible teaches us not to give up when things get tough. Hold on to God. As you continue to seek Him, He can deliver you through any circumstance.

There's a story in Mark 10:46–52 about a blind man named Bartimaeus who needed a miracle. He heard that Jesus was passing by him and he began to cry out to Jesus, and the crowd told him to shut up. So he cried out even louder. Jesus stopped, turned around, and asked Bartimaeus a question that changed his life forever: "What do you want Me to do for you?" (v. 51). Bartimaeus told Jesus he wanted to see; and he got His miracle. So the next time your circumstances start to intimidate you, just stand your ground, tell Jesus what you need, and expect Him to answer. With Him, nothing is impossible! (See also: Matt. 17:20; Luke 1:37.)

Words to Live By

Impossible: The Greek word translated as "impossible" in Mark 10:27 is adunatos (ad-oo'-nat-os), which means "not having the strength." The opposite of adunatos is the word dunatos, which is translated as "possible" later in the verse. These words actually show us a picture of our strength versus God's strength. He is all powerful and has the strength and ability to do anything. Our strength and ability are severely limited. But God uses His dunatos in place of our adunatos. He uses His power to make His "possible" overtake our "impossible" in any situation.

when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

48Then many warned him to be quiet; but he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

49So Jesus stood still and commanded him to be called.

Then they called the blind man, saying to him, "Be of good cheer. Rise, He is calling you."

50And throwing aside his garment, he rose and came to Jesus.

51So Jesus answered and said to him, "What do you want Me to do for you?"

The blind man said to Him, "Rabboni, that I may receive my sight."

52Then Jesus said to him, "Go your way; your faith has made you well." And immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus on the road.

THE TRIUMPHAL ENTRY

11 Now when they drew near Jerusalem, to Bethphage[a] and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, He sent two of His disciples; 2and He said to them, "Go into the village opposite you; and as soon as you have entered it you will find a colt tied, on which no one has sat. Loose it and bring it. 3And if anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord has need of it,' and immediately he will send it here."

11:1 [a]M-Text reads Bethsphage.

4So they went their way, and found the[a] colt tied by the door outside on the street, and they loosed it. 5But some of those who stood there said to them, "What are you doing, loosing the colt?"

6And they spoke to them just as Jesus had commanded. So they let them go. 7Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their clothes on it, and He sat on it. 8And many spread their clothes on the road, and others cut down leafy branches from the trees and spread them on the road. 9Then those who went before and those who followed cried out, saying:

"Hosanna!
'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!'[a] 10Blessed is the kingdom of our father David
That comes in the name of the Lord![a] Hosanna in the highest!"

11And Jesus went into Jerusalem and into the temple. So when He had looked around at all things, as the hour was already late, He went out to Bethany with the twelve.

THE FIG TREE WITHERED

12Now the next day, when they had come out from Bethany, He was hungry. 13And seeing from afar a fig tree having leaves, He went to see if perhaps He would find something on it. When He came to it, He found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. 14In response Jesus said to it, "Let no one eat fruit from you ever again."

JESUS CLEANSES THE TEMPLE

15So they came to Jerusalem. Then Jesus went into the temple and began to drive out those who bought and sold in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who sold doves. 16And He would not allow anyone to carry wares through the temple. 17Then He taught, saying to them, "Is it not written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations'?[a] But you have made it a 'den of thieves.'"[b]

18And the scribes and chief priests heard it and sought how they might destroy Him; for they feared Him, because all the people were astonished at His teaching. 19When evening had come, He went out of the city.

THE LESSON OF THE WITHERED FIG TREE

20Now in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots. 21And Peter, remembering, said to Him, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree which You cursed has withered away."

22So Jesus answered and said to them, "Have faith in God. 23For assuredly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be removed and be cast into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that those things he says will be done, he will have whatever he says. 24Therefore I say to you, whatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you will have them.

FORGIVENESS AND PRAYER

25"And whenever you stand praying, if you have anything against anyone, forgive him, that your Father in heaven may also forgive you your trespasses. 26But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father in heaven forgive your trespasses."[a]

JESUS' AUTHORITY QUESTIONED

27Then they came again to Jerusalem. And as He was walking in the temple, the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders came to Him. 28And they said to Him, "By what authority are You doing these things? And who gave You this authority to do these things?"

29But Jesus answered and said to them, "I also will ask you one question; then answer Me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things: 30The baptism of John—was it from heaven or from men? Answer Me."

31And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say, 'Why then did you not believe him?' 32But if we say, 'From men'"—they feared the people, for all counted John to have been

MAKING IT REAL // MARK 11:25, 26

Forgive Jesus makes it pretty clear that Christians should live lives of forgiveness. But why? Mark 11:25, 26 say that we've got to forgive other people if we want God to forgive us. As in many other places in the Bible, God is calling us to be like Him.

God is ultimately forgiving and He wants to restore relationships. He wants you to be forgiving, too. A heart that's willing to forgive is like the heart of God—it is a heart that considers others more important and is ruled by love, not self-interest. No matter what your sin, God's forgiveness comes freely and wipes out whatever you've done. That doesn't mean you may not have to endure the consequences; it just means that God doesn't hold your sin against you.

When you refuse to forgive, you display an attitude that you and your feelings are more important than the other person. This attitude is directly opposite of the way God wants you to live your life. When you don't forgive others, your heart will be filled with anger and bitterness; it will eat you up on the inside. It can take over your life and even paralyze you emotionally. Forgiving frees both you and the one you forgive to get on with life.

So when a friend offends you, be quick to forgive and do all you can to forget the past. God always does the same for you. (See also: Matt. 6:14, 15; 18:21, 22; Luke 6:37; 2 Cor. 2:7.)

Words to Live By

Anything against anyone: Mark 11:25, 26 doesn't allow for conditional forgiveness. We're often very good at justifying our unforgiveness. Maybe the person we're angry with hurt our feelings and never apologized. Maybe we don't feel like the other person deserves forgiveness. But Jesus doesn't give exceptions here. Jesus says, if you have anything against anyone, forgive them, so you can also be forgiven by God.

a prophet indeed. 33So they answered and said to Jesus, "We do not know."

And Jesus answered and said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

THE PARABLE OF THE WICKED VINEDRESSERS

12 Then He began to speak to them in parables: "A man planted a vineyard and set a hedge around it, dug a place for the wine vat and built a tower. And he leased it to vinedressers and went into a far country. 2Now at vintage-time he sent a servant to the vinedressers, that he might receive some of the fruit of the vineyard from the vinedressers. 3And they took him and beat him and sent him away empty-handed. 4Again he sent them another servant, and at him they threw stones,[a] wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully treated. 5And again he sent another, and him they killed; and many others, beating some and killing some. 6Therefore still having one son, his beloved, he also sent him to them last, saying, 'They will respect my son.' 7But those vinedressers said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' 8So they took him and killed him and cast him out of the vineyard.

9"Therefore what will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the vinedressers, and give the vineyard to others. 10Have you not even read this Scripture:

'The stone which the builders rejected
Has become the chief cornerstone.
11 This was the LORD's doing,
And it is marvelous in our eyes'?"[a]

12:4 [a]NU-Text omits and at him they threw stones. 12:11 [a]Psalm 118:22, 23

12And they sought to lay hands on Him, but feared the multitude, for they knew
He had spoken the parable against them.
So they left Him and went away.

THE PHARISEES: IS IT LAWFUL TO PAY TAXES TO CAESAR?

13Then they sent to Him some of the Pharisees and the Herodians, to catch Him in His words. 14When they had come, they said to Him, "Teacher, we know that You are true, and care about no one; for You do not regard the person of men, but teach the way of God in truth. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not? 15Shall we pay, or shall we not pay?"

But He, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why do you test Me? Bring Me a denarius that I may see it." 16So they brought it.

And He said to them, "Whose image and inscription is this?" They said to Him, "Caesar's."

17And Jesus answered and said to them, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

And they marveled at Him.

THE SADDUCEES: WHAT ABOUT THE RESURRECTION?

18Then some Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Him; and they asked Him, saying: 19"Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if a man's brother dies, and leaves his wife behind, and leaves no children, his brother should take his wife and raise up offspring for his brother. 20Now there were seven brothers. The first took a wife; and dying, he left no offspring. 21And the second took her, and he died; nor did he leave any offspring. And the third likewise. 22So the seven had her and left no offspring. Last of all the woman died also. 23Therefore, in the resurrection, when they rise, whose wife will she be? For all seven had her as wife."

24Jesus answered and said to them, "Are you not therefore mistaken, because you do not know the Scriptures nor the power of God? 25For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. 26But concerning the dead, that they rise, have you not read in the book of Moses, in the burning bush passage, how God spoke to him, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'?[a] 27He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living. You are therefore greatly mistaken."

THE SCRIBES: WHICH IS THE FIRST COMMANDMENT OF ALL?

28Then one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, perceiving[a] that He had answered them well, asked Him, "Which is the first commandment of all?"

> LOVE
> What is the most important command that God has given us?
> Mark 12:29

29Jesus answered him, "The first of all the commandments is: 'Hear, O Israel, the LORD our God, the LORD is one. 30*And you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.'*[a] This is the first commandment.[b] 31And the second, like it, is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'[a] There is no other commandment greater than these."

> Mark 12:29, 30
> If Jesus' words seem familiar, it's because they come from the Old Testament Book of Deuteronomy. Jesus was quoting what's known as the Shema, which was a summary (of sorts) of the main points of the Jewish faith. The Shema is still used today to call Jewish people to worship.

32So the scribe said to Him, "Well said, Teacher. You have spoken the truth, for there is one God, and there is no other but He. 33And to love Him with all the heart, with all the understanding, with all the soul,[a] and with all the strength, and to love one's neighbor as oneself, is more than all the whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."

34Now when Jesus saw that he answered wisely, He said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God."

But after that no one dared question Him.

JESUS: HOW CAN DAVID CALL HIS DESCENDANT LORD?

35Then Jesus answered and said, while He taught in the temple, "How is it that the scribes say that the Christ is the Son of David? 36For David himself said by the Holy Spirit:

> 'The LORD said to my Lord,
> "Sit at My right hand,
> Till I make Your enemies Your
> footstool."'[a]

37Therefore David himself calls Him 'Lord'; how is He then his Son?"

And the common people heard Him gladly.

BEWARE OF THE SCRIBES

38Then He said to them in His teaching, "Beware of the scribes, who desire to go around in long robes, love greetings in the marketplaces, 39the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts, 40who devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation."

THE WIDOW'S TWO MITES

41Now Jesus sat opposite the treasury and saw how the people put money into the treasury. And many who were rich put in much. 42Then one poor widow came and threw in two mites,[a] which make a quadrans. 43So He called His disciples to Himself and said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you that this poor widow has put in more than all those who have given to the treasury; 44for they all put in out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty put in all that she had, her whole livelihood."

JESUS PREDICTS THE DESTRUCTION OF THE TEMPLE

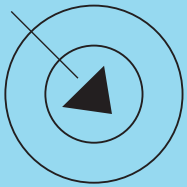
13 Then as He went out of the temple, one of His disciples said to Him, "Teacher, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!"

2And Jesus answered and said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone shall be left upon another, that shall not be thrown down."

Mark 13:1

It's no wonder this disciple was in awe of the temple. The building itself was a work of art, constructed over a thirty-year period on the orders of Herod the Great. The front columns stood forty feet high. Some of the marble stones used for the walls of the building were almost forty feet long! (Can you imagine how much they must have weighed?)

THE SIGNS OF THE TIMES AND THE END OF THE AGE



3Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked Him privately, 4"Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign when all these things will be fulfilled?"

5And Jesus, answering them, began to say: "Take heed that no one deceives you. 6For many will come in My name, saying, 'I am He,' and will deceive many. 7But when you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be troubled; for such things must happen, but the end is not yet. 8For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines and troubles.[a] These are the beginnings of sorrows.

9"But watch out for yourselves, for they will deliver you up to councils, and you will be beaten in the synagogues. You will be brought[a] before rulers and kings for My sake, for a testimony to them. 10And the gospel must first be preached to all the nations. 11But when they arrest you and

God promises that the Good News will be preached to all nations.

"And the gospel must first be preached to all the nations" (Mark 13:10).

One of these days, the world as you know it won't even exist. One glorious day, everyone on earth will hear the blast of a trumpet and see Jesus returning through the clouds; that will be the end of the world as we know it. Whoa! Can you imagine what it's going to be like when Jesus Christ comes back and we all go to live with Him in His kingdom? There won't be any more violence on the streets. There won't be any more cancer to kill the people you love. Even the deepest, most private pain in your own heart will be gone. The devil won't be able to torment you and cause devastation anywhere, because he'll be burning in a lake of fire.

But some things have to happen before Jesus returns to rule with perfect peace and justice. He says that "the gospel must first be preached to all the nations." Now that's something you can help with! You can go on a mission trip while you're a teen. That's the best time to go! Or you may discover that God wants you to reach people for Him right where you live. Your own hometown can be your mission field. Start to pray about it now. Ask God where He wants to send you. One of the conditions for Jesus' return is that the Good News must be preached in all nations. You can be a part of making that happen!

deliver you up, do not worry beforehand, or premeditate[a] what you will speak. But whatever is given you in that hour, speak that; for it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit. 12Now brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child; and children will rise up against parents and cause them to be put to death. 13And you will be hated by all for My name's sake. But he who endures to the end shall be saved.

THE GREAT TRIBULATION

14"So when you see the 'abomination of desolation,'[a] spoken of by Daniel the prophet,[b] standing where it ought not" (let the reader understand), "then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. 15Let him who is on the housetop not go down into the house, nor enter to take anything out of his house. 16And let him who is in the field not go back to get his clothes. 17But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! 18And pray that your flight may not be in winter. 19For in those days there will be tribulation, such as has not been since the beginning of the creation which God created until this time, nor ever shall be. 20And unless the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh would be saved; but for the elect's sake, whom He chose, He shortened the days.

21"Then if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or, 'Look, He is there!' do not believe it. 22For false christs and false prophets will rise and show signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even the elect. 23But take heed; see, I have told you all things beforehand.

THE COMING OF THE SON OF MAN

24"But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; 25the stars of heaven will fall, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. 26Then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great

PROMISE

God promises his words will last forever.

"Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will by no means pass away" (Mark 13:31).

The earth, the sky, the stars—they look like the strongest, most permanent things around. In fact, if there's one thing that most people will bet on, it's that—cloudy or clear—the sun will come out tomorrow. It's a lot easier to bank on the things you can see rather than on the things you can't see.

But Jesus looked at the huge blue sky above Him and the solid, dusty earth under His feet and told His disciples that the things He said would outlast the earth and sky. He wanted them to understand God's kingdom is more permanent, more sure, than anything they could see or touch.

It will be tempting for you to spend your time and your energy going after things that you can see—an education, a good job, a nice place to live, neat stuff to make your life comfortable, a family of your own eventually. There's certainly nothing wrong with those things. But Jesus is encouraging you, even warning you, to give the best and the most of your time and energy to the things that will last forever—His Word, His kingdom, and your relationship with Him.

power and glory. 27And then He will send His angels, and gather together His elect from the four winds, from the farthest part of earth to the farthest part of heaven.

THE PARABLE OF THE FIG TREE

28"Now learn this parable from the fig tree:
When its branch has already become tender, and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near. 29So you also, when you see these things happening, know that it[a] is near—at the doors! 30Assuredly, I say to you, this generation will by no means pass away till all these things take place.
31Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will by no means pass away.

NO ONE KNOWS THE DAY OR HOUR

32"But of that day and hour no one knows,
not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. 33Take heed, watch and pray; for you do not know when the time is. 34*It is* like a man going to a far country, who left his house and gave authority to his servants, and to each his work, and commanded the doorkeeper to watch. 35Watch therefore, for you do not know when the master of the house is coming—in the evening, at midnight, at the crowing of the rooster, or in the morning— 36lest, coming suddenly, he find you sleeping. 37And what I say to you, I say to all: Watch!"

THE PLOT TO KILL JESUS

14 After two days it was the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread. And the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take Him by trickery and put Him to death. 2But they said, "Not during the feast, lest there be an uproar of the people."

THE ANOINTING AT BETHANY

3And being in Bethany at the house of Simon the leper, as He sat at the table, a woman came having an alabaster flask of very costly oil of spikenard. Then she broke the flask and poured it on His head.
4But there were some who were indignant among themselves, and said, "Why was this fragrant oil wasted? 5For it might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii and given to the poor." And they criticized her sharply.

6But Jesus said, "Let her alone. Why do

13:29 [a]Or He

you trouble her? She has done a good work for Me. 7For you have the poor with you always, and whenever you wish you may do them good; but Me you do not have always. 8She has done what she could. She has come beforehand to anoint My body for burial. 9Assuredly, I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told as a memorial to her."

JUDAS AGREES TO BETRAY JESUS

10Then Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went to the chief priests to betray Him to them. 11And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. So he sought how he might conveniently betray Him.

JESUS CELEBRATES THE PASSOVER WITH HIS DISCIPLES

12Now on the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they killed the Passover lamb, His disciples said to Him, "Where do You want us to go and prepare, that You may eat the Passover?"

13And He sent out two of His disciples and said to them, "Go into the city, and a man will meet you carrying a pitcher of water; follow him. 14Wherever he goes in, say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is the guest room in which I may eat the Passover with My disciples?"' 15Then he will show you a large upper room, furnished and prepared; there make ready for us."

16So His disciples went out, and came into the city, and found it just as He had said to them; and they prepared the Passover.

17In the evening He came with the twelve. 18Now as they sat and ate, Jesus said, "Assuredly, I say to you, one of you who eats with Me will betray Me."

19And they began to be sorrowful, and to say to Him one by one, "Is it I?" And another said, "Is it I?"[a]

20He answered and said to them, "It is one of the twelve, who dips with Me in the dish. 21The Son of Man indeed goes just as it is written of Him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had never been born."

22And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them and said, "Take, eat;[a] this is My body."

23Then He took the cup, and when He had given thanks He gave it to them, and they all drank from it. 24And He said to them, "This is My blood of the new[a] covenant, which is shed for many. 25Assuredly, I say to you, I will no longer drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

26And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

JESUS PREDICTS PETER'S DENIAL

27Then Jesus said to them, "All of you will be made to stumble because of Me this night,[a] for it is written:

> 'I will strike the Shepherd,
> And the sheep will be scattered.'[b]

28"But after I have been raised, I will go before you to Galilee."

29Peter said to Him, "Even if all are made to stumble, yet I will not be."

30Jesus said to him, "Assuredly, I say to you that today, even this night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times."

31But he spoke more vehemently, "If I have to die with You, I will not deny You!"

And they all said likewise.

THE PRAYER IN THE GARDEN

32Then they came to a place which was named Gethsemane; and He said to His disciples, "Sit here while I pray." 33And He took Peter, James, and John with Him, and He began to be troubled and deeply distressed. 34Then He said to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here and watch."

35He went a little farther, and fell on the ground, and prayed that if it were possible, the hour might pass from Him. 36And He said, "Abba, Father, all things are possible for You. Take this cup away from Me; nevertheless, not what I will, but what You will."

37Then He came and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "Simon, are you sleeping? Could you not watch one hour? 38Watch and pray, lest you enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

39Again He went away and prayed, and spoke the same words. 40And when He returned, He found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy; and they did not know what to answer Him.

41Then He came the third time and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? It is enough! The hour has come; behold, the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners. 42Rise, let us be going. See, My betrayer is at hand."

BETRAYAL AND ARREST IN GETHSEMANE

43And immediately, while He was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, with a great multitude with swords and clubs, came from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders. 44Now His betrayer had given them a signal, saying, "Whomever I kiss, He is the One; seize Him and lead Him away safely."

45As soon as he had come, immediately he went up to Him and said to Him, "Rabbi, Rabbi!" and kissed Him.

46Then they laid their hands on Him and took Him. 47And one of those who stood by drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48Then Jesus answered and said to them, "Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to take Me? 49I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and you did not seize Me. But the Scriptures must be fulfilled."

50Then they all forsook Him and fled.

A YOUNG MAN FLEES NAKED

51Now a certain young man followed Him, having a linen cloth thrown around his naked body. And the young men laid hold of him, 52and he left the linen cloth and fled from them naked.

JESUS FACES THE SANHEDRIN

53And they led Jesus away to the high priest; and with him were assembled all the chief priests, the elders, and the scribes. 54But Peter followed Him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest. And he sat with the servants and warmed himself at the fire.

55Now the chief priests and all the council sought testimony against Jesus to put Him to death, but found none. 56For many bore false witness against Him, but their testimonies did not agree.

57Then some rose up and bore false witness against Him, saying, 58"We heard Him say, 'I will destroy this temple made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.'" 59But not even then did their testimony agree.

60And the high priest stood up in the midst and asked Jesus, saying, "Do You answer nothing? What is it these men testify against You?" 61But He kept silent and answered nothing.

Again the high priest asked Him, saying to Him, "Are You the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?"

> JESUS
> How will Jesus, the Messiah, come again?
> Mark 14:61, 62

62Jesus said, "I am. And you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Power, and coming with the clouds of heaven."

63Then the high priest tore his clothes and said, "What further need do we have of witnesses? 64You have heard the blasphemy! What do you think?"

And they all condemned Him to be deserving of death.

65Then some began to spit on Him, and to blindfold Him, and to beat Him, and to say to Him, "Prophesy!" And the officers struck Him with the palms of their hands.[a]

PETER DENIES JESUS, AND WEEPS

66Now as Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest came. 67And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked at him and said, "You also were with Jesus of Nazareth."

14:65 [a]NU-Text reads received Him with slaps.

68But he denied it, saying, "I neither know nor understand what you are saying." And he went out on the porch, and a rooster crowed.

69And the servant girl saw him again, and began to say to those who stood by, "This is one of them." 70But he denied it again.

And a little later those who stood by said to Peter again, "Surely you are one of them; for you are a Galilean, and your speech shows it."[a]

71Then he began to curse and swear, "I do not know this Man of whom you speak!"

72A second time the rooster crowed. Then Peter called to mind the word that Jesus had said to him, "Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times." And when he thought about it, he wept.

JESUS FACES PILATE

15 Immediately, in the morning, the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council; and they bound Jesus, led Him away, and delivered Him to Pilate. 2Then Pilate asked Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

He answered and said to him, "It is as you say."

3And the chief priests accused Him of many things, but He answered nothing. 4Then Pilate asked Him again, saying, "Do You answer nothing? See how many things they testify against You!"[a] 5But Jesus still answered nothing, so that Pilate marveled.

TAKING THE PLACE OF BARABBAS

6Now at the feast he was accustomed to releasing one prisoner to them, whomever they requested. 7And there was one named Barabbas, who was chained with his fellow rebels; they had committed murder in the rebellion. 8Then the multitude, crying aloud,[a] began to ask him to do just as he had always done for them. 9But Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?" 10For he knew that the chief priests had handed Him over because of envy.

11But the chief priests stirred up the crowd, so that he should rather release Barabbas to them. 12Pilate answered and said to them again, "What then do you want me to do with Him whom you call the King of the Jews?"

13So they cried out again, "Crucify Him!"

14Then Pilate said to them, "Why, what evil has He done?"

But they cried out all the more, "Crucify Him!"

15So Pilate, wanting to gratify the crowd, released Barabbas to them; and he delivered Jesus, after he had scourged Him, to be crucified.

THE SOLDIERS MOCK JESUS

16Then the soldiers led Him away into the hall called Praetorium, and they called together the whole garrison. 17And they clothed Him with purple; and they twisted a crown of thorns, put it on His head, 18and began to salute Him, "Hail, King of the Jews!" 19Then they struck Him on the head with a reed and spat on Him; and bowing the knee, they worshiped Him. 20And when they had mocked Him, they took the purple off Him, put His own clothes on Him, and led Him out to crucify Him.

THE KING ON A CROSS

21Then they compelled a certain man, Simon a Cyrenian, the father of Alexander and Rufus, as he was coming out of the country and passing by, to bear His cross. 22And they brought Him to the place Golgotha, which is translated, Place of a Skull. 23Then they gave Him wine mingled with myrrh to drink, but He did not take it. 24And when they crucified Him, they divided His garments, casting lots for them to determine what every man should take.

25Now it was the third hour, and they crucified Him. 26And the inscription of His accusation was written above:

THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27With Him they also crucified two robbers, one on His right and the other on His left. 28So the Scripture was fulfilled[a] which says, "And He was numbered with the transgressors."[b]

29And those who passed by blasphemed

14:70 [a]NU-Text omits and your speech shows it.
15:4 [a]NU-Text reads of which they accuse You.
15:8 [a]NU-Text reads going up. 15:28 [a]Isaiah 53:12 [b]NU-Text omits this verse.

PROFILE
MARY MAGDALENE

At least six, maybe seven, different Marys are mentioned in the New Testament. Each one made a difference in her own way. We know very little about Mary of Magdala. Mark gives us a summary of what Jesus did for her, and Luke mentions her discipleship. All four accounts of the good news mention her part in the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus.

We don't know how Mary Magdalene met Jesus, but we know she was possessed by seven demons at the time He entered her life. Since Jesus has total power over demons, the ones that possessed Mary had to vacate the premises when Jesus showed up. In their place we can only imagine the gratitude that flowed from this liberated woman. Jesus transformed her life; he changed her.

Mary's gratitude showed itself in action. She joined a group of seldom-mentioned women who apparently traveled with Jesus and the apostles. Several of them were wealthy enough to take care of the day-to-day traveling expenses. Luke briefly refers to their role in Luke 8:1–3.

Mary's consistent faithfulness put her right in the path of honor. Because of her love for Jesus, she was determined to anoint His body after His death on the cross. But when she arrived at Jesus' tomb, He was not there. Mary became the first eyewitness to the resurrection. She was the first to see the risen Christ! Did she make a difference? Her persuasive testimony helped ignite the movement of people who came to be known as Christians.

+ MAKING A DIFFERENCE:

Mary was trying to make a difference in one way: by honoring Jesus' buried body. God had something even greater in mind. She set out to do what was right. That put her right in the middle of God's plan and pathway. Obedience will always lead to being in the right place at the right time.

This is why it's important to live for God and to be present wherever God is working, like in the church. When you make yourself available to God, He will use you! You may not be the first to see truth as Mary was, but when you spend time in God's presence, you will discover powerful truths of His kingdom, and lives may be changed when you share what you have learned.

WANT TO KNOW MORE?

The clearest glimpses of Mary Magdalene can be found in Matthew 27:55—28:11; Mark 15:40—16:11; Luke 8:1–3; 23:55—24:12; and John 19:25—20:18.

Mary Magdalene learned the most awesome truth of Christianity—Jesus conquered death! She shared her knowledge of the reality of new life and changed the world around her. You can, too!

Him, wagging their heads and saying, "Aha! You who destroy the temple and build it in three days, [30]save Yourself, and come down from the cross!"

[31]Likewise the chief priests also, mocking among themselves with the scribes, said, "He saved others; Himself He cannot save. [32]Let the Christ, the King of Israel, descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe."[a]

Even those who were crucified with Him reviled Him.

15:32 [a]M-Text reads believe Him.

JESUS DIES ON THE CROSS

33Now when the sixth hour had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. 34And at the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" which is translated, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?"[a]

35Some of those who stood by, when they heard that, said, "Look, He is calling for Elijah!" 36Then someone ran and filled a sponge full of sour wine, put it on a reed, and offered it to Him to drink, saying, "Let Him alone; let us see if Elijah will come to take Him down."

37And Jesus cried out with a loud voice, and breathed His last.

38Then the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. 39So when the centurion, who stood opposite Him, saw that He cried out like this and breathed His last,[a] he said, "Truly this Man was the Son of God!"

40There were also women looking on from afar, among whom were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the Less and of Joses, and Salome, 41who also followed Him and ministered to Him when He was in Galilee, and many other women who came up with Him to Jerusalem.

> Mark 15:44
> Crucifixion was usually not a quick way to die. Unless the crucified person had been severely beaten before being crucified, he could actually survive several days on the Cross! One of the most common causes of death among those who were crucified was suffocation. Because of the outstretched position, when the person became too exhausted to raise himself up to breathe, he simply suffocated.

JESUS BURIED IN JOSEPH'S TOMB

42Now when evening had come, because it was the Preparation Day, that is, the day before the Sabbath, 43Joseph of Arimathea, a prominent council member, who was himself waiting for the kingdom of God, coming and taking courage, went in to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. 44Pilate marveled that He was already dead; and summoning the centurion, he asked him if He had been dead for some time. 45So when he found out from the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph. 46Then he bought fine linen, took Him down, and wrapped Him in the linen. And he laid Him in a tomb which had been hewn out of the rock, and rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. 47And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses observed where He was laid.

HE IS RISEN

16 Now when the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, that they might come and anoint Him. 2Very early in the morning, on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen. 3And they said among themselves, "Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?" 4But when they looked up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away—for it was very large. 5And entering the tomb, they saw a young man clothed in a long white robe sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed.

6But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed. You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He is risen! He is not here.
See the place where they laid Him. 7But go, tell His disciples—and Peter—that He is going before you into Galilee; there you will see Him, as He said to you."

8So they went out quickly[a] and fled from the tomb, for they trembled and were amazed. And they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

MARY MAGDALENE SEES THE RISEN LORD

9Now when He rose early on the first day of the week, He appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom He had cast seven demons. 10She went and told those who had been with Him, as they mourned and wept. 11And when they heard that He was alive and had been seen by her, they did not believe.

15:34 [a]Psalm 22:1 15:39 [a]NU-Text reads that He thus breathed His last. 16:8 [a]NU-Text and M-Text omit quickly.

JESUS APPEARS TO TWO DISCIPLES

12After that, He appeared in another form to two of them as they walked and went into the country. 13And they went and told it to the rest, but they did not believe them either.

THE GREAT COMMISSION

14Later He appeared to the eleven as they sat at the table; and He rebuked their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who had seen Him after He had risen. 15And He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. 16He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who does not believe will be condemned. 17And these signs will follow those who believe: In My name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new tongues; 18they[a] will take up serpents; and if they drink anything deadly, it will by no means hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover."

CHRIST ASCENDS TO GOD'S RIGHT HAND

19So then, after the Lord had spoken to them, He was received up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God. 20And they went out and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the word through the accompanying signs. Amen.[a]

16:18 [a]NU-Text reads and in their hands they will. 16:20 [a]Verses 9–20 are bracketed in NU-Text as not original. They are lacking in Codex Sinaiticus and Codex Vaticanus, although nearly all other manuscripts of Mark contain them.

KEY VERSE:

"For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost" (Luke 19:10).

THEN /// Luke was a doctor—very detailed and organized. It makes perfect sense that he wrote his version of the Gospel by reporting the facts in great detail. It was important to him that all who would read his account of Jesus' life would know exactly how things happened.

Luke's main point in writing was this: even though Jesus was God, He was also really and truly human. He was born as a baby like we all were. He grew up as a child like we all do. He was a teenager before He was an adult. He had a human body. He had human emotions. If He cut Himself, it hurt physically. If His friend let Him down, it hurt emotionally.

As a doctor, Luke had spent his life learning to understand the human body so he could help heal illness and injury. It was important to him, then, to tell us that Jesus was miraculously all God and all human. That means Jesus knows everything about how humans work. He knows how it is to face life as a baby, as a child, as a teenager, as an adult. And He knows how to fix the problems that we face.

NOW /// Growing up is one of the most difficult things we ever have to do. There is so much to learn and it can seem there are so many expectations coming at us from every direction. Even worse is the feeling we sometimes get that others just don't understand us. It can be very lonely and frustrating, especially when it seems there's no one who really gets it.

That's one of the great things about Luke's Gospel—he tells us just how well Jesus understands. Jesus was a real person with real parents. He was born as a baby and had to learn everything, just like all of us. And Jesus was a teenager and knows just how crazy those years can be.

Jesus understands everything we go through in life. He knows pain, sorrow, joy, loneliness, and betrayal. He had to face life with all the good and the bad just as we do. And the best part is that He also knows how to make it through life perfectly. All we have to do is talk with Him and He'll help us with anything life has to offer.

REALITY CHECK /// The Gospel of Luke mentions women in ministry more than any other Gospel. You might already know that, when Jesus was alive, His culture didn't value women very much. Women were treated like second-class citizens—if they were treated like citizens at all. Jesus didn't treat women like that, though. He worked side by side with women, as well as with men. There were women who supported His ministry all the way through His death, burial, and resurrection. Jesus came into the world to knock down barriers—including the barriers that say "girls aren't as good as guys." With the Lord, no one is second class—He loves us all with a perfect, unconditional love that will last forever.

DEDICATION TO THEOPHILUS

1 Inasmuch as many have taken in hand to set in order a narrative of those things which have been fulfilled[a] among us, 2just as those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word delivered them to us, 3it seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write to you an orderly account, most excellent Theophilus, 4that you may know the certainty of those things in which you were instructed.

JOHN'S BIRTH ANNOUNCED TO ZACHARIAS

5There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the division of Abijah. His wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. 6And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless. 7But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they were both well advanced in years.

1:1 [a]Or are most surely believed

8So it was, that while he was serving as priest before God in the order of his division, 9according to the custom of the priesthood, his lot fell to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord. 10And the whole multitude of the people was praying outside at the hour of incense. 11Then an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing on the right side of the altar of incense. 12And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zacharias, for your prayer is heard; and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John. 14And you will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth. 15For he will be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink. He will also be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. 16And he will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord their God. 17He will also go before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, 'to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,'[a] and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."

18And Zacharias said to the angel, "How shall I know this? For I am an old man, and my wife is well advanced in years."

19And the angel answered and said to him, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God, and was sent to speak to you and bring you these glad tidings. 20But behold, you will be mute and not able to speak until the day these things take place, because you did not believe my words which will be fulfilled in their own time."

21And the people waited for Zacharias, and marveled that he lingered so long in the temple. 22But when he came out, he could not speak to them; and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple, for he beckoned to them and remained speechless.

23So it was, as soon as the days of his service were completed, that he departed to his own house. 24Now after those days his wife Elizabeth conceived; and she hid herself five months, saying, 25"Thus the Lord has dealt with me, in the days when He looked on me, to take away my reproach among people."

CHRIST'S BIRTH ANNOUNCED TO MARY

26Now in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a city of Galilee named Nazareth, 27to a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. 28And having come in, the angel said to her, "Rejoice, highly favored one, the Lord is with you; blessed are you among women!"[a]

29But when she saw him,[a] she was troubled at his saying, and considered what manner of greeting this was. 30Then the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. 31And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bring forth a Son, and shall call His name JESUS. 32He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Highest; and the Lord God will give Him the throne of His father David. 33And He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of His kingdom there will be no end."

34Then Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, since I do not know a man?"

JESUS
What role does Jesus have in the Trinity?
Luke 1:35

35And the angel answered and said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Highest will overshadow you; therefore, also, that Holy One who is to be born will be called the Son of God. 36Now indeed, Elizabeth your relative has also conceived a son in her old age; and this is now the sixth month for her who was called barren. 37For with God nothing will be impossible."

38Then Mary said, "Behold the maidservant of the Lord! Let it be to me according to your word." And the angel departed from her.

MARY VISITS ELIZABETH

39Now Mary arose in those days and went into the hill country with haste, to a city of

1:17 [a]Malachi 4:5, 6 1:28 [a]NU-Text omits blessed are you among women. 1:29 [a]NU-Text omits when she saw him.

Judah, [40]and entered the house of Zacharias and greeted Elizabeth. [41]And it happened, when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary,
that the babe leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.
[42]Then she spoke out with a loud voice and said, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb! [43]But why is this granted to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? [44]For indeed, as soon as the voice of your greeting sounded in my ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy. [45]Blessed is she who believed, for there will be a fulfillment of those things which were told her from the Lord."

THE SONG OF MARY

[46]And Mary said:

"My soul magnifies the Lord,
[47]And my spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior.
[48]For He has regarded the lowly state of His maidservant;
For behold, henceforth all generations will call me blessed.
[49]For He who is mighty has done great things for me,
And holy is His name.
[50]And His mercy is on those who fear
Him
From generation to generation.
[51]He has shown strength with His arm;
He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
[52]He has put down the mighty from their thrones,
And exalted the lowly.
[53]He has filled the hungry with good things,
And the rich He has sent away empty.
[54]He has helped His servant Israel,
In remembrance of His mercy,
[55]As He spoke to our fathers,
To Abraham and to his seed forever."

[56]And Mary remained with her about three months, and returned to her house.

BIRTH OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

[57]Now Elizabeth's full time came for her to be delivered, and she brought forth a son.
[58]When her neighbors and relatives heard how the Lord had shown great mercy to her, they rejoiced with her.

CIRCUMCISION OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

[59]So it was, on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child; and they would have called him by the name of his father, Zacharias. [60]His mother answered and said, "No; he shall be called John."

[61]But they said to her, "There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name." [62]So they made signs to his father—what he would have him called.

[63]And he asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, saying, "His name is John." So they all marveled. [64]Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue loosed, and he spoke, praising God. [65]Then fear came on all who dwelt around them; and all these sayings were discussed throughout all the hill country of Judea. [66]And all those who heard them kept them in their hearts, saying, "What kind of child will this be?" And the hand of the Lord was with him.

ZACHARIAS' PROPHECY

[67]Now his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying:

[68]"Blessed is the Lord God of Israel, For He has visited and redeemed His people,
[69]And has raised up a horn of salvation for us
In the house of His servant David, [70]As He spoke by the mouth of His holy prophets,
Who have been since the world began, [71]That we should be saved from our enemies
And from the hand of all who hate us, [72]To perform the mercy promised to our fathers
And to remember His holy covenant, [73]The oath which He swore to our father Abraham:
[74]To grant us that we,
Being delivered from the hand of our enemies,
Might serve Him without fear,
[75]In holiness and righteousness before Him all the days of our life.

[76]"And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Highest;

For you will go before the face of the Lord to prepare His ways, 77To give knowledge of salvation to His people
By the remission of their sins,
78Through the tender mercy of our God,
With which the Dayspring from on high has visited[a] us; 79To give light to those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death,
To guide our feet into the way of peace."

80So the child grew and became strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his manifestation to Israel.

Luke 2:1

Ever heard of Julius Caesar? Augustus was not only his grand-nephew; he was also Caesar's chosen heir. When Caesar was assassinated in 44 B.C., Augustus shared the throne of the Roman Empire with another famous character from history, Mark Antony, and a man named Lepidus. By 27 B.C., Augustus was the sole ruler of Rome.

CHRIST BORN OF MARY

2 And it came to pass in those days that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be registered. 2This census first took place while Quirinius was governing Syria. 3So all went to be registered, everyone to his own city.

4Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David, 5to be registered with Mary, his betrothed wife,[a] who was with child. 6So it was, that while they were there, the days were completed for her to be delivered. 7And she brought forth her firstborn Son, and wrapped Him in swaddling cloths, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

GLORY IN THE HIGHEST

8Now there were in the same country shepherds living out in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. 9And behold,[a] an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were greatly afraid. 10Then the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which will be to all people. 11For there is born to you this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. 12And this will be the sign to you: You will find a Babe wrapped in swaddling cloths, lying in a manger."

13And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying:

14"Glory to God in the highest,
And on earth peace, goodwill toward men!"[a]

15So it was, when the angels had gone away from them into heaven, that the shepherds said to one another, "Let us now go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has come to pass, which the Lord has made known to us." 16And they came with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the Babe lying in a manger. 17Now when they had seen Him, they made widely[a] known the saying which was told them concerning this Child. 18And all those who heard it marveled at those things which were told them by the shepherds. 19But Mary kept all these things and pondered them in her heart. 20Then the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told them.

CIRCUMCISION OF JESUS

PROFILE
JESUS

People talk a lot about Jesus the baby and Jesus the man. They don't say much about Jesus the teenager. What did the Son of God do when He was your age? His birth, death, and resurrection sure made a big difference—but did Jesus make a difference when He was young?

Yes, He did! By the time He was twelve, Jesus knew God's Word. He understood that obeying God's Word was the key to life. When He was at church, He listened to adults and asked good questions. He amazed the teachers. He practiced obeying God by obeying His parents. It wasn't easy, but he learned that life wasn't just about what He wanted to do. He knew it was important to cooperate with His parents. His decision paid off. Think about this summary of Jesus' teenage years: "Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men" (Luke 2:52).

+ MAKING A DIFFERENCE:

Being different is not the easy way, but it is the only way you will ever truly discover who you are. Dare to be different. Really allow yourself to get interested in school and shock your teachers with all you can learn. It takes work to learn—but the benefits are amazing. Asking questions and looking for the truth will make a big difference in at least one life—your own! Surprise your parents by obeying them without question. They won't know what hit them!

The description of Jesus' teenage years really can be the description of your life. Give it a try. Be the person God created you to be; you are one of a kind, not some type of group clone. It won't be long before you discover that Jesus Himself will help you as you seek to live like He lived.

WANT TO KNOW MORE?

Read about Jesus and His life as a young man in Luke 2:41–52.

Jesus lived a life of obedience and respect, and He literally changed the world. He made a difference by giving His life over to God's plan. You can, too!

present Him to the Lord [23](as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every male who opens the womb shall be called holy to the LORD*"*),[a] [24]and to offer a sacrifice according to what is said in the law of the Lord, "A pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons."[a]

SIMEON SEES GOD'S SALVATION

[25]And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon, and this man was just and devout, waiting for the Consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. [26]And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ. [27]So he came by the Spirit into the temple. And when the parents brought in the Child Jesus, to do for Him according to the custom of the law, [28]he took Him up in his arms and blessed God and said:

[29]"Lord, now You are letting Your servant
depart in peace,
According to Your word;
[30]For my eyes have seen Your salvation [31]Which You have prepared before the face of all peoples,

32 A light to bring revelation to the Gentiles,
And the glory of Your people Israel."

33 And Joseph and His mother[a] marveled at those things which were spoken of Him. 34 Then Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary His mother, "Behold, this Child is destined for the fall and rising of many in Israel, and for a sign which will be spoken against 35 (yes, a sword will pierce through your own soul also), that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."

ANNA BEARS WITNESS TO THE REDEEMER

36 Now there was one, Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, and had lived with a husband seven years from her virginity; 37 and this woman was a widow of about eighty-four years,[a] who did not depart from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day. 38 And coming in that instant she gave thanks to the Lord,[a] and spoke of Him to all those who looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

THE FAMILY RETURNS TO NAZARETH

39 So when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own city, Nazareth. 40 And the Child grew and became strong in spirit,[a] filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon Him.

THE BOY JESUS AMAZES THE SCHOLARS

41 His parents went to Jerusalem every year at the Feast of the Passover. 42 And when He was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the feast. 43 When they had finished the days, as they returned, the Boy Jesus lingered behind in Jerusalem. And Joseph and His mother[a] did not know it; 44 but supposing Him to have been in the company, they went a day's journey, and sought Him among their relatives and acquaintances. 45 So when they did not find Him, they returned to Jerusalem, seeking Him. 46 Now so it was that after three days they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both listening to them and asking them questions. 47 And all who heard Him were astonished at His understanding and answers. 48 So when they saw Him, they were amazed; and His mother said to Him, "Son, why have You done this to us? Look, Your father and I have sought You anxiously."

49 And He said to them, "Why did you seek Me? Did you not know that I must be about My Father's business?" 50 But they did not understand the statement which He spoke to them.

JESUS ADVANCES IN WISDOM AND FAVOR

51 Then He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was subject to them, but His mother kept all these things in her heart. 52 And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.

JOHN THE BAPTIST PREPARES THE WAY

3 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, 2 while Annas and Caiaphas were high priests,[a] the word of God came to John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness. 3 And he went into all the region around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the remission of sins, 4 as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying:

"The voice of one crying in the wilderness:

LIFE APP

The Trinity / Luke 3:21, 22

When we refer to the Holy Trinity, we are talking about one God who exists in three persons: the Father, the Son (Jesus), and the Holy Spirit. With our limited human minds this "three-in-one" reality can be a difficult concept to grasp. One very clear picture showing the three distinct persons of the one true God is found at the baptism of Jesus.

Jesus (the Son), was being baptized by John the Baptist. After He came up out of the water, "the Holy Spirit descended in bodily form like a dove upon Him, and a voice came from heaven which said, 'You are My beloved Son; in You I am well pleased.'" At this moment, we see all three persons of God interacting in the same place at the same time. The Son has been baptized, the Holy Spirit descends from heaven as a dove, and God the Father speaks clearly from heaven (Luke 3:21, 22; Matt. 3:16, 17; Mark 1:9–11).

This fellowship between the three persons of God is beautiful. The Son is being obedient to His mission of salvation. The Spirit shows up to magnify and encourage the Son on His mission. And the Father expresses His delight in the Son. Even now, when new Christians are baptized, each member of the Trinity is involved, as Jesus calls us to "go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (Matt. 28:19).

The Book of 1 John tells us much about how each member of the Trinity works with and through the others. For instance, God gives us eternal life through Jesus Christ, His Son (1 John 5:11); Jesus (the Son) is an Advocate for us with the Father (1 John 2:1); the Spirit bears witness to the truth and to Jesus Christ (1 John 5:6). Finally, 1 John 5:7 leaves no doubt as to the Trinity: "For there are three that bear witness in heaven: the Father, the Word [Jesus, the Son], and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one."

The crooked places shall be made straight
And the rough ways smooth;
6*And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.'"*[a]

JOHN PREACHES TO THE PEOPLE

7Then he said to the multitudes that came out to be baptized by him, "Brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? 8Therefore bear fruits worthy of repentance, and do not begin to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I say to you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones. 9And even now the ax is laid to the root of the trees. Therefore every tree which does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire."

10So the people asked him, saying, "What shall we do then?"

11He answered and said to them, "He who has two tunics, let him give to him who has none; and he who has food, let him do likewise."

12Then tax collectors also came to be baptized, and said to him, "Teacher, what shall we do?"

13And he said to them, "Collect no more than what is appointed for you."

14Likewise the soldiers asked him, saying, "And what shall we do?"

So he said to them, "Do not intimidate anyone or accuse falsely, and be content with your wages."

15Now as the people were in expectation, and all reasoned in their hearts about John, whether he was the Christ or not, 16John answered, saying to all, "I indeed baptize you with water; but One mightier than I is coming, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to loose. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. 17His winnowing fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clean out His threshing floor, and gather the wheat into His barn; but the chaff He will burn with unquenchable fire."

18And with many other exhortations he preached to the people. 19But Herod the tetrarch, being rebuked by him concerning Herodias, his brother Philip's wife,[a] and for all the evils which Herod had done, 20also added this, above all, that he shut John up in prison.

JOHN BAPTIZES JESUS

21When all the people were baptized, it came to pass that Jesus also was baptized; and while He prayed, the heaven was opened. 22And the Holy Spirit descended in bodily form like a dove upon Him, and a voice came from heaven which said, "You are My beloved Son; in You I am well pleased."

MAKING IT REAL // LUKE 4:8

Resist the Enemy Jesus spent forty days in the desert, fasting and being tempted by Satan. Satan repeatedly tempted Him to take the easy way out—turn stones into bread instead of fasting; serve him (Satan) in return for glory and power; or jump off the temple, let the angels miraculously save Him, and prove to everyone He was worthy of worship. Jesus knew that the only way to accomplish His purpose of saving the souls of men and women was to suffer and go to the cross. It was the harder way, but it was the only right way. Jesus responded to Satan by quoting the truth of God's Word—a force Satan cannot oppose.

You are going to face incredible temptation in your life. You must know that Jesus has been there. He knows the battles you face. You've got the same spiritual resources that Jesus had. You have prayer and the love of your heavenly Father. The power of the Holy Spirit was with Jesus (Luke 4:1), and the Holy Spirit lives in you. Jesus quoted the Word of God to Satan, and you have the complete Word in your hands. Plus, you now have Jesus in heaven, interceding on your behalf (Rom. 8:34; Heb. 7:25).

Satan wants to bring out the worst in us, but God can put the best in us. The next time you are up against the slick devices of Satan, quote a scripture to him and get away from the temptation. Do not play around with Satan. He knows your weakest places, and that's where he'll try to get the best of you. Stay on your toes. Keep alert. Serve God and flee the devil! (See also: Deut. 10:20; James 4:7; 1 Pet. 5:8, 9.)

Words to Live By

It is written: Jesus drew strength from the Word of God. Of all the things He could have said, or all the things He could have quoted, He went directly to the Scriptures. The Scripture was written once, but is still alive and active, even today. When we encounter the enemy or any other challenges, we too can draw the strength and wisdom we need directly from the Word of God.

Enosh, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God.

SATAN TEMPTS JESUS

4 Then Jesus, being filled with the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into[a] the wilderness, 2being tempted for forty days by the devil. And in those days He ate nothing, and afterward, when they had ended, He was hungry.

3And the devil said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread."

4But Jesus answered him, saying,[a] "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.'"[b]

5Then the devil, taking Him up on a high mountain, showed Him[a] all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. 6And the devil said to Him, "All this authority I will give You, and their glory; for this has been delivered to me, and I give it to whomever I wish. 7Therefore, if You will worship before me, all will be Yours."

8And Jesus answered and said to him, "Get behind Me, Satan![a] For[b] it is written, 'You shall worship the LORD your God, and Him only you shall serve.'"[c]

9Then he brought Him to Jerusalem, set Him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down from here. 10For it is written:

4:1 [a]NU-Text reads in. 4:4 [a]Deuteronomy 8:3 [b]NU-Text omits but by every word of God. 4:5 [a]NU-Text reads And taking Him up, he showed Him. 4:8 [a]NU-Text omits Get behind Me, Satan. [b]NU-Text and M-Text omit For. [c]Deuteronomy 6:13

you,
To keep you,'

'In their hands they shall bear you up,
Lest you dash your foot against a

12 And Jesus answered and said to him, "It has been said, 'You shall not tempt the LORD your God.'"[a]

13 Now when the devil had ended every temptation, he departed from Him until an opportune time.

JESUS BEGINS HIS GALILEAN MINISTRY

14 Then Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit to Galilee, and news of Him went out through all the surrounding region. 15 And He taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.

Luke 4:17

In 1947, an ancient copy of the Book of Isaiah was found among the Dead Sea Scrolls. Experts estimate that the scroll came from the period of 150–50 B.C. It's ten inches high and twenty-four feet long when it's unrolled. Made of thin leather strips sewn together, the scroll is probably very similar to the one Jesus read from.

JESUS REJECTED AT NAZARETH

16 So He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up. And as His custom was, He went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read. 17 And He was handed the book of the prophet Isaiah. And when He had opened the book, He found the place where it was written:

18 "The Spirit of the LORD is upon Me,
Because He has anointed Me
To preach the gospel to the poor;
He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted,[a]
To proclaim liberty to the captives
And recovery of sight to the blind,
To set at liberty those who are oppressed;
19 To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD."[a]

20 Then He closed the book, and gave it back to the attendant and sat down. And the eyes of all who were in the synagogue were fixed on Him. 21 And He began to say to them, "Today this Scripture is fulfilled in your hearing." 22 So all bore witness to Him, and marveled at the gracious words which proceeded out of His mouth. And they said, "Is this not Joseph's son?"

23 He said to them, "You will surely say this proverb to Me, 'Physician, heal yourself! Whatever we have heard done in Capernaum,[a] do also here in Your country.'" 24 Then He said, "Assuredly, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own country. 25 But I tell you truly, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, and there was a great famine throughout all the land; 26 but to none of them was Elijah sent except to Zarephath,[a] in the region of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow. 27 And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, and none of them was cleansed except Naaman the Syrian."

28 So all those in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath, 29 and rose up and thrust Him out of the city; and they led Him to the brow of the hill on which their city was built, that they might throw Him down over the cliff. 30 Then passing through the midst of them, He went His way.

JESUS CASTS OUT AN UNCLEAN SPIRIT

31 Then He went down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and was teaching them on the Sabbaths. 32 And they were astonished at His teaching, for His word was with authority. 33 Now in the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon. And he cried out with a loud voice, 35But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be quiet, and come out of him!" And when the demon had thrown him in their midst, it came out of him and did not hurt him. 36Then they were all amazed and spoke among themselves, saying, "What a word this is! For with authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they come out." 37And the report about Him went out into every place in the surrounding region.

PETER'S MOTHER-IN-LAW HEALED

38Now He arose from the synagogue and entered Simon's house. But Simon's wife's mother was sick with a high fever, and they made request of Him concerning her. 39So He stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. And immediately she arose and served them.

MANY HEALED AFTER SABBATH SUNSET

40When the sun was setting, all those who had any that were sick with various diseases brought them to Him; and He laid His hands on every one of them and healed them. 41And demons also came out of many, crying out and saying, "You are the Christ,[a] the Son of God!"

And He, rebuking them, did not allow them to speak, for they knew that He was the Christ.

JESUS PREACHES IN GALILEE

42Now when it was day, He departed and went into a deserted place. And the crowd sought Him and came to Him, and tried to keep Him from leaving them; 43but He said to them, "I must preach the kingdom of God to the other cities also, because for this purpose I have been sent." 44And He was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.[a]

FOUR FISHERMEN CALLED AS DISCIPLES

5 So it was, as the multitude pressed about Him to hear the word of God, that He stood by the Lake of Gennesaret, 2and saw two boats standing by the lake; but the fishermen had gone from them and were washing their nets. 3Then He got into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. And He sat down and taught the multitudes from the boat.

4When He had stopped speaking, He said to Simon, "Launch out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch."

5But Simon answered and said to Him, "Master, we have toiled all night and caught nothing; nevertheless at Your word I will let down the net." 6And when they had done this, they caught a great number of fish, and their net was breaking. 7So they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. 8When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord!"

9For he and all who were with him were astonished at the catch of fish which they had taken; 10and so also were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid. From now on you will catch men." 11So when they had brought their boats to land, they forsook all and followed Him.

JESUS CLEANSES A LEPER

12And it happened when He was in a certain city, that behold, a man who was full of leprosy saw Jesus; and he fell on his face and implored Him, saying, "Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean."

13Then He put out His hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing; be cleansed." Immediately the leprosy left him. 14And He charged him to tell no one, "But go and show yourself to the priest, and make an offering for your cleansing, as a testimony to them, just as Moses commanded."

15However, the report went around concerning Him all the more; and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by Him of their infirmities. 16So He Himself often withdrew into the wilderness and prayed.

Luke 5:17

The Pharisees were obsessive about following the Law of Moses. They lived by a strict code of conduct, going out of their way to make sure they honored the Sabbath and maintained their purity. They had elaborate rules concerning what they could and couldn't do—rules that ultimately didn't have much to do with the Spirit of God's Word. The Pharisees also had a tendency to look down on people who seemed to be less strict in following the Law of Moses.

JESUS FORGIVES AND HEALS A PARALYTIC

17 Now it happened on a certain day, as He was teaching, that there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by, who had come out of every town of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was present to heal them.[a] 18 Then behold, men brought on a bed a man who was paralyzed, whom they sought to bring in and lay before Him. 19 And when they could not find how they might bring him in, because of the crowd, they went up on the housetop and let him down with his bed through the tiling into the midst before Jesus.

20 When He saw their faith, He said to him, "Man, your sins are forgiven you."

21 And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, "Who is this who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, He answered and said to them,
"Why are you reasoning in your hearts?
23 Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Rise up and walk'?
24 But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins"—He said to the man who was paralyzed, "I say to you, arise, take up your bed, and go to your house."

25 Immediately he rose up before them, took up what he had been lying on, and departed to his own house, glorifying God. 26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God and were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen strange things today!"

MATTHEW THE TAX COLLECTOR

27 After these things He went out and saw a tax collector named Levi, sitting at the tax office. And He said to him, "Follow Me."
28 So he left all, rose up, and followed Him.

29 Then Levi gave Him a great feast in his own house. And there were a great number of tax collectors and others who sat down with them. 30 And their scribes and the Pharisees[a] complained against His disciples, saying, "Why do You eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"

31 Jesus answered and said to them,
"Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. 32 I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance."

JESUS IS QUESTIONED ABOUT FASTING

33 Then they said to Him, "Why do[a] the disciples of John fast often and make prayers, and likewise those of the Pharisees, but Yours eat and drink?"

34 And He said to them, "Can you make the friends of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is with them? 35 But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them; then they will fast in those days."

36 Then He spoke a parable to them: "No one puts a piece from a new garment on an old one;[a] otherwise the new makes a tear, and also the piece that was taken out of the new does not match the old. 37 And no one puts new wine into old wineskins; or else the new wine will burst the wineskins and be spilled, and the wineskins will be ruined. 38 But new wine must be put into new wineskins, and both are preserved.[a] 39 And no one, having drunk old wine, immediately[a] desires new; for he says, 'The old is better.'"[b]

JESUS IS LORD OF THE SABBATH

6 Now it happened on the second Sabbath after the first[a] that He went through the grainfields. And His disciples plucked the heads of grain and ate them, rubbing them in their hands. 2And some of the Pharisees said to them, "Why are you doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath?"

3But Jesus answering them said, "Have you not even read this, what David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him: 4how he went into the house of God, took and ate the showbread, and also gave some to those with him, which is not lawful for any but the priests to eat?" 5And He said to them, "The Son of Man is also Lord of the Sabbath."

HEALING ON THE SABBATH

6Now it happened on another Sabbath, also, that He entered the synagogue and taught. And a man was there whose right hand was withered. 7So the scribes and Pharisees watched Him closely, whether He would heal on the Sabbath, that they might find an accusation against Him. 8But He knew their thoughts, and said to the man who had the withered hand, "Arise and stand here." And he arose and stood. 9Then Jesus said to them, "I will ask you one thing: Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save life or to destroy?"[a] 10And when He had looked around at them all, He said to the man,[a] "Stretch out your hand." And he did so, and his hand was restored as whole as the other.[b] 11But they were filled with rage, and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus.

12Now it came to pass in those days that He went out to the mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God. 13And when it was day, He called His disciples to Himself; and from them He chose twelve whom He also named apostles: 14Simon, whom He also named Peter, and Andrew his brother; James and John; Philip and Bartholomew; 15Matthew and Thomas; James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called the Zealot; 16Judas the son of James, and Judas Iscariot who also became a traitor.

JESUS HEALS A GREAT MULTITUDE

17And He came down with them and stood on a level place with a crowd of His disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear Him and be healed of their diseases, 18as well as those who were tormented with unclean spirits. And they were healed. 19And the whole multitude sought to touch Him, for power went out from Him and healed them all.

THE BEATITUDES

20Then He lifted up His eyes toward His disciples, and said:

"Blessed are you poor,
For yours is the kingdom of God.
21Blessed are you who hunger now,
For you shall be filled.
Blessed are you who weep now,
For you shall laugh.
22Blessed are you when men hate you,
And when they exclude you,
And revile you, and cast out your name as evil,
For the Son of Man's sake.
23Rejoice in that day and leap for joy!
For indeed your reward is great in heaven,
For in like manner their fathers did to the prophets.

JESUS PRONOUNCES WOES

24"But woe to you who are rich,
For you have received your consolation.
25Woe to you who are full,
For you shall hunger.
Woe to you who laugh now,
For you shall mourn and weep.
26Woe to you[a] when all[b] men speak well of you,
For so did their fathers to the false prophets.

LOVE YOUR ENEMIES

27"But I say to you who hear: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you,

MIR MAKING IT REAL // LUKE 6:28, 35

Bless Them Luke says that God will bless those who have been mistreated because of Him. Proverbs 25:18–22 gives us some wisdom about people who tell lies about us or treat us badly. The wise advice is to do exactly the opposite of what those people do. It's not the easy advice or even the popular advice. But it is the godly advice. Even when you're disappointed and angry, you can still be Christlike. Matthew 5:11 says, "Blessed are you when they revile and persecute you, and say all kinds of evil against you falsely" because you love Jesus. By treating your enemy with compassion, "you will heap coals of fire on his head" (Prov. 25:22). Wow—that could be pretty tough guidance to follow, being compassionate to someone who considers you their enemy. When people tell lies or spread rumors about you, your reputation gets shattered, your pride gets wounded, and your heart gets broken. And God wants you to love those people anyway—even give food to them if they are hungry and pray for them, too. By doing so you prove the strength of your character and you overcome evil with good. God promises to reward you for that. (See also: Matt. 5:44; Rom. 12:21.)

Words to Live By

Kind: The Greek word chrestos (khrase-tos') is translated as "kind" in Luke 6:35, and can also mean "useful," "good," or "gracious." This verse tells us that God is chrestos even to those who are unthankful and evil. As we become more like Christ, we will find that our kindness to others will not depend on how they treat us, because kindness will become a part of who we are and how we live.

[28]bless those who curse you, and pray for those who spitefully use you. [29]To him who strikes you on the one cheek, offer the other also. And from him who takes away your cloak, do not withhold your tunic either. [30]Give to everyone who asks of you. And from him who takes away your goods do not ask them back. [31]And just as you want men to do to you, you also do to them likewise.

CARING
How should we treat our enemies?
Luke 6:27–31

[32]"But if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. [33]And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. [34]And if you lend to those from whom you hope to receive back, what credit is that to you? For even sinners lend to sinners to receive as much back. [35]But love your enemies, do good, and lend, hoping for nothing in return; and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High. For He is kind to the unthankful and evil. [36]Therefore be merciful, just as your Father also is merciful.

DO NOT JUDGE

[37]"Judge not, and you shall not be judged. Condemn not, and you shall not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven. [38]Give, and it will be given to you: good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over will be put into your bosom. For with the same measure that you use, it will be measured back to you."

[39]And He spoke a parable to them: "Can the blind lead the blind? Will they not both fall into the ditch? [40]A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone who is perfectly trained will be like his teacher. [41]And why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the plank in your own eye? 42Or how can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me remove the speck that is in your eye,' when you yourself do not see the plank that is in your own eye? Hypocrite! First remove the plank from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck that is in your brother's eye.

A TREE IS KNOWN BY ITS FRUIT

43"For a good tree does not bear bad fruit, nor does a bad tree bear good fruit. 44For every tree is known by its own fruit. For men do not gather figs from thorns, nor do they gather grapes from a bramble bush. 45A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart[a] brings forth evil. For out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.

BUILD ON THE ROCK

46"But why do you call Me 'Lord, Lord,' and not do the things which I say? 47Whoever comes to Me, and hears My sayings and does them, I will show you whom he is like: 48He is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently against that house, and could not shake it, for it was founded on the rock.[a] 49But he who heard and did nothing is like a man who built a house on the earth without a foundation, against which the stream beat vehemently; and immediately it fell.[a] And the ruin of that house was great."

JESUS HEALS A CENTURION'S SERVANT

7 Now when He concluded all His sayings in the hearing of the people, He entered Capernaum. 2And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear to him, was sick and ready to die. 3So when he heard about Jesus, he sent elders of the Jews to Him, pleading with Him to come and heal his servant. 4And when they came to Jesus, they begged Him earnestly, saying that the one for whom He should do this was deserving, 5"for he loves our nation, and has built us a synagogue."

6Then Jesus went with them. And when He was already not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to Him, saying to Him, "Lord, do not trouble Yourself, for I am not worthy that You should enter under my roof. 7Therefore I did not even think myself worthy to come to You. But say the word, and my servant will be healed. 8For I also am a man placed under authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

9When Jesus heard these things, He marveled at him, and turned around and said to the crowd that followed Him, "I say to you, I have not found such great faith, not even in Israel!" 10And those who were sent, returning to the house, found the servant well who had been sick.[a]

JESUS RAISES THE SON OF THE WIDOW OF NAIN

11Now it happened, the day after, that He went into a city called Nain; and many of His disciples went with Him, and a large crowd. 12And when He came near the gate of the city, behold, a dead man was being carried out, the only son of his mother; and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the city was with her. 13When the Lord saw her, He had compassion on her and said to her, "Do not weep." 14Then He came and touched the open coffin, and those who carried him stood still. And He said, "Young man, I say to you, arise." 15So he who was dead sat up and began to speak. And He presented him to his mother.

16Then fear came upon all, and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has risen up among us"; and, "God has visited His people." 17And this report about Him went throughout all Judea and all the surrounding region.

JOHN THE BAPTIST SENDS MESSENGERS TO JESUS

18Then the disciples of John reported to him concerning all these things. 19And John, calling two of his disciples to him, sent them to Jesus,[a] saying, "Are You the Coming One, or do we look for another?"

6:45 [a]NU-Text omits treasure of his heart.
6:48 [a]NU-Text reads for it was well built.
6:49 [a]NU-Text reads collapsed. 7:10 [a]NU-Text omits who had been sick. 7:19 [a]NU-Text reads the Lord.

20When the men had come to Him, they said, "John the Baptist has sent us to You, saying, 'Are You the Coming One, or do we look for another?'" 21And that very hour He cured many of infirmities, afflictions, and evil spirits; and to many blind He gave sight.

22Jesus answered and said to them, "Go and tell John the things you have seen and heard: that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, the poor have the gospel preached to them. 23And blessed is he who is not offended because of Me."

24When the messengers of John had departed, He began to speak to the multitudes concerning John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? 25But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft garments? Indeed those who are gorgeously appareled and live in luxury are in kings' courts. 26But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and more than a prophet. 27This is he of whom it is written:

> 'Behold, I send My messenger before
> Your face,
> Who will prepare Your way before
> You.'[a]

28For I say to you, among those born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist;[a] but he who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he."

29And when all the people heard Him, even the tax collectors justified God, having been baptized with the baptism of John. 30But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the will of God for themselves, not having been baptized by him.

31And the Lord said,[a] "To what then shall I liken the men of this generation, and what are they like? 32They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling to one another, saying:

> 'We played the flute for you,
> And you did not dance;
> We mourned to you,
> And you did not weep.'

33For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon.' 34The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Look, a glutton and a winebibber, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' 35But wisdom is justified by all her children."

A SINFUL WOMAN FORGIVEN

36Then one of the Pharisees asked Him to eat with him. And He went to the Pharisee's house, and sat down to eat. 37And behold, a woman in the city who was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at the table in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster flask of fragrant oil, 38and stood at His feet behind Him weeping; and she began to wash His feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head; and she kissed His feet and anointed them with the fragrant oil. 39Now when the Pharisee who had invited Him saw this, he spoke to himself, saying, "This Man, if He were a prophet, would know who and what manner of woman this is who is touching Him, for she is a sinner."

40And Jesus answered and said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you."

So he said, "Teacher, say it."

41"There was a certain creditor who had two debtors. One owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. 42And when they had nothing with which to repay, he freely forgave them both. Tell Me, therefore, which of them will love him more?"

43Simon answered and said, "I suppose the one whom he forgave more."

And He said to him, "You have rightly judged." 44Then He turned to the woman and said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave Me no water for My feet, but she has washed My feet with her tears and wiped them with the hair of her head. 45You gave Me no kiss, but this woman has not ceased to kiss My feet since the time I came in. 46You did not anoint My head with oil, but this woman has anointed My feet with fragrant oil. 47Therefore I say to you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little."

48Then He said to her, "Your sins are forgiven."

7:27 [a]Malachi 3:1 7:28 [a]NU-Text reads there is none greater than John. 7:31 [a]NU-Text and M-Text omit And the Lord said.

49And those who sat at the table with Him began to say to themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?"

50Then He said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

MANY WOMEN MINISTER TO JESUS

8 Now it came to pass, afterward, that He went through every city and village, preaching and bringing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God. And the twelve were with Him, 2and certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities—Mary called Magdalene, out of whom had come seven demons, 3and Joanna the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others who provided for Him[a] from their substance.

THE PARABLE OF THE SOWER

4And when a great multitude had gathered, and they had come to Him from every city, He spoke by a parable: 5"A sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some fell by the wayside; and it was trampled down, and the birds of the air devoured it. 6Some fell on rock; and as soon as it sprang up, it withered away because it lacked moisture. 7And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up with it and choked it. 8But others fell on good ground, sprang up, and yielded a crop a hundredfold." When He had said these things He cried, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

THE PURPOSE OF PARABLES

9Then His disciples asked Him, saying, "What does this parable mean?"

10And He said, "To you it has been given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest it is given in parables, that

> 'Seeing they may not see,
> And hearing they may not > understand.'[a]

THE PARABLE OF THE SOWER EXPLAINED

11"Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. 12Those by the wayside are the ones who hear; then the devil comes and takes away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. 13But the ones on the rock are those who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, who believe for a while and in time of temptation fall away. 14Now the ones that fell among thorns are those who, when they have heard, go out and are choked with cares, riches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity. 15But the ones that fell on the good ground are those who, having heard the word with a noble and good heart, keep it and bear fruit with patience.

THE PARABLE OF THE REVEALED LIGHT

16"No one, when he has lit a lamp, covers it with a vessel or puts it under a bed, but sets it on a lampstand, that those who enter may see the light. 17For nothing is secret that will not be revealed, nor anything hidden that will not be known and come to light. 18Therefore take heed how you hear. For whoever has, to him more will be given; and whoever does not have, even what he seems to have will be taken from him."

JESUS' MOTHER AND BROTHERS COME TO HIM

19Then His mother and brothers came to Him, and could not approach Him because of the crowd. 20And it was told Him by some, who said, "Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, desiring to see You."

21But He answered and said to them, "My mother and My brothers are these who hear the word of God and do it."

WIND AND WAVE OBEY JESUS

22Now it happened, on a certain day, that He got into a boat with His disciples. And He said to them, "Let us cross over to the other side of the lake." And they launched out. 23But as they sailed He fell asleep. And a windstorm came down on the lake, and they were filling with water, and were in jeopardy. 24And they came to Him and awoke Him, saying, "Master, Master, we are perishing!"

8:3 [a]NU-Text and M-Text read them.
8:10 [a]Isaiah 6:9

Luke 8:23

The physical surroundings of the Sea of Galilee are probably responsible for its dangerous reputation. The lake is surrounded on three sides by cliffs and mountains. The winds rushing down from those mountains can kick up a storm in the wink of an eye.

Then He arose and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water. And they ceased, and there was a calm. 25But He said to them, "Where is your faith?"

And they were afraid, and marveled, saying to one another, "Who can this be? For He commands even the winds and water, and they obey Him!"

A DEMON-POSSESSED MAN HEALED

26Then they sailed to the country of the Gadarenes,[a] which is opposite Galilee. 27And when He stepped out on the land, there met Him a certain man from the city who had demons for a long time. And he wore no clothes,[a] nor did he live in a house but in the tombs. 28When he saw Jesus, he cried out, fell down before Him, and with a loud voice said, "What have I to do with You, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg You, do not torment me!" 29For He had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For it had often seized him, and he was kept under guard, bound with chains and shackles; and he broke the bonds and was driven by the demon into the wilderness.

30Jesus asked him, saying, "What is your name?"

And he said, "Legion," because many demons had entered him. 31And they begged Him that He would not command them to go out into the abyss.

32Now a herd of many swine was feeding there on the mountain. So they begged Him that He would permit them to enter them. And He permitted them. 33Then the demons went out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd ran violently down the steep place into the lake and drowned.

34When those who fed them saw what had happened, they fled and told it in the city and in the country. 35Then they went out to see what had happened, and came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. 36They also who had seen it told them by what means he who had been demon-possessed was healed. 37Then the whole multitude of the surrounding region of the Gadarenes[a] asked Him to depart from them, for they were seized with great fear. And He got into the boat and returned.

38Now the man from whom the demons had departed begged Him that he might be with Him. But Jesus sent him away, saying, 39"Return to your own house, and tell what great things God has done for you." And he went his way and proclaimed throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

A GIRL RESTORED TO LIFE AND A WOMAN HEALED

40So it was, when Jesus returned, that the multitude welcomed Him, for they were all waiting for Him. 41And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. And he fell down at Jesus' feet and begged Him to come to his house, 42for he had an only daughter about twelve years of age, and she was dying.

But as He went, the multitudes thronged Him. 43Now a woman, having a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her livelihood on physicians and could not be healed by any, 44came from behind and touched the border of His garment. And immediately her flow of blood stopped.

45And Jesus said, "Who touched Me?"

When all denied it, Peter and those with him[a] said, "Master, the multitudes throng and press You, and You say, 'Who touched Me?'"[b]

46But Jesus said, "Somebody touched Me, for I perceived power going out from Me." 47Now when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling; and falling down before Him, she declared to Him in the presence of all the people the reason she had touched Him and how she was healed immediately.

48And He said to her, "Daughter, be of good cheer;[a] your faith has made you well. Go in peace."

49While He was still speaking, someone came from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, "Your daughter is dead. Do not trouble the Teacher."[a]

50But when Jesus heard it, He answered him, saying, "Do not be afraid; only believe, and she will be made well." 51When He came into the house, He permitted no one to go in[a] except Peter, James, and John,[b] and the father and mother of the girl. 52Now all wept and mourned for her; but He said, "Do not weep; she is not dead, but sleeping." 53And they ridiculed Him, knowing that she was dead.

54But He put them all outside,[a] took her by the hand and called, saying, "Little girl, arise." 55Then her spirit returned, and she arose immediately. And He commanded that she be given something to eat. 56And her parents were astonished, but He charged them to tell no one what had happened.

SENDING OUT THE TWELVE

9 Then He called His twelve disciples together and gave them power and authority over all demons, and to cure diseases. 2He sent them to preach the kingdom of God and to heal the sick. 3And He said to them, "Take nothing for the journey, neither staffs nor bag nor bread nor money; and do not have two tunics apiece.

4"Whatever house you enter, stay there, and from there depart. 5And whoever will not receive you, when you go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet as a testimony against them."

6So they departed and went through the towns, preaching the gospel and healing everywhere.

HEROD SEEKS TO SEE JESUS

7Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by Him; and he was perplexed, because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead, 8and by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the old prophets had risen again. 9Herod said, "John I have beheaded, but who is this of whom I hear such things?" So he sought to see Him.

FEEDING THE FIVE THOUSAND

10And the apostles, when they had returned, told Him all that they had done. Then He took them and went aside privately into a deserted place belonging to the city called Bethsaida. 11But when the multitudes knew it, they followed Him; and He received them and spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and healed those who had need of healing. 12When the day began to wear away, the twelve came and said to Him, "Send the multitude away, that they may go into the surrounding towns and country, and lodge and get provisions; for we are in a deserted place here."

13But He said to them, "You give them something to eat."

And they said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we go and buy food for all these people." 14For there were about five thousand men.

Then He said to His disciples, "Make them sit down in groups of fifty." 15And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16Then He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He blessed and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the multitude. 17So they all ate and were filled, and twelve baskets of the leftover fragments were taken up by them.

PETER CONFESSES JESUS AS THE CHRIST

18And it happened, as He was alone praying, that His disciples joined Him, and He asked them, saying, "Who do the crowds say that I am?"

19So they answered and said, "John the Baptist, but some say Elijah; and others say that one of the old prophets has risen again."

20He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

Peter answered and said, "The Christ of God."

MAKING IT REAL // LUKE 9:32

God's Glory Can you imagine waking up and seeing Jesus in His glory? Wow! That would be something—to see the all-powerful and majestic One right there beside you when you wake up! The fact is, we do serve a glorious God and, though we may not be able to see Him, we have the opportunity to wake up every morning and spend time with Him. That's why it's so important to reach over, grab the Word of God, and meditate on it every morning. It gets our thinking headed in the right direction. If we aren't reminded of the glory and power of God every morning, it can be so easy to get caught up in our everyday affairs to the point that we forget that the all powerful One is right beside us!

A good way to remind yourself of just how wonderful it is to have a relationship with God is to simply praise the Lord for who He is. He is so awesome—better than anyone or anything you can imagine. Even the heavens shout about His glory. The earth is filled with His glory. In fact, His Word tells us that we are crowned with His glory (Ps. 8:5; Heb. 2:7).

Take time out right now just to praise God. He's the King of glory. He is the Alpha and Omega—the beginning and the end of everything. He's the bright and morning star. He's our safe place and our strong place. He's a tower in which we can hide from our enemy. In Him we are more than winners. He's the glorious God who is more than enough. Take time to think about the Lord's glory every day. He is the One who is glorious! (See also: Ps. 19:1; 72:19; 92:1, 2.)

Words to Live By

Glory: The word translated as "glory" in Luke 9:32 is the Greek word doxa (dox'-ah), which also carries the idea of majesty and brightness. Every day they walked with Him, the disciples saw Jesus in his fully human body. They saw Him do miracles that only God could do, but He looked exactly like them. When they saw Him with His true nature revealed—clothed in His true, godly, heavenly glory, they were speechless! The majesty and brightness must have been completely overwhelming.

JESUS PREDICTS HIS DEATH AND RESURRECTION

21 And He strictly warned and commanded them to tell this to no one, 22 saying, "The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised the third day."

TAKE UP THE CROSS AND FOLLOW HIM

23 Then He said to them all, "If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily,[a] and follow Me. 24 For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will save it. 25 For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and is himself destroyed or lost? 26 For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, of him the Son of Man will be ashamed when He comes in His own glory, and in His Father's, and of the holy angels. 27 But I tell you truly, there are some standing here who shall not taste death till they see the kingdom of God."

JESUS TRANSFIGURED ON THE MOUNT

28 Now it came to pass, about eight days after these sayings, that He took Peter, John, and James and went up on the mountain to pray. 29 As He prayed, the appearance of His face was altered, and His robe became white and glistening. 30 And behold, two men talked with Him, who were Moses and Elijah, 31 who appeared in glory and 9:23 [a] M-Text omits daily.

spoke of His decease which He was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. 32But Peter and those with him were heavy with sleep; and when they were fully awake, they saw His glory and the two men who stood with Him. 33Then it happened, as they were parting from Him, that Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here; and let us make three tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah"—not knowing what he said.

34While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were fearful as they entered the cloud. 35And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is My beloved Son.[a] Hear Him!" 36When the voice had ceased, Jesus was found alone. But they kept quiet, and told no one in those days any of the things they had seen.

A BOY IS HEALED

37Now it happened on the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, that a great multitude met Him. 38Suddenly a man from the multitude cried out, saying, "Teacher, I implore You, look on my son, for he is my only child. 39And behold, a spirit seizes him, and he suddenly cries out; it convulses him so that he foams at the mouth; and it departs from him with great difficulty, bruising him. 40So I implored Your disciples to cast it out, but they could not."

41Then Jesus answered and said, "O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here." 42And as he was still coming, the demon threw him down and convulsed him. Then Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the child, and gave him back to his father.

JESUS AGAIN PREDICTS HIS DEATH

43And they were all amazed at the majesty of God.

But while everyone marveled at all the things which Jesus did, He said to His disciples, 44"Let these words sink down into your ears, for the Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men." 45But they did not understand this saying, and it was hidden from them so that they did not perceive it; and they were afraid to ask Him about this saying.

WHO IS THE GREATEST?

46Then a dispute arose among them as to which of them would be greatest. 47And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a little child and set him by Him, 48and said to them, "Whoever receives this little child in My name receives Me; and whoever receives Me receives Him who sent Me. For he who is least among you all will be great."

JESUS FORBIDS SECTARIANISM

49Now John answered and said, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in Your name, and we forbade him because he does not follow with us."

50But Jesus said to him, "Do not forbid him, for he who is not against us[a] is on our side."[b]

Luke 9:52

To get from Judea to Galilee in New Testament times, you had to pass through Samaria or take the very long way around the place. The people of Samaria were not terribly popular with "pure-blooded" Jews. The reason? Samaritans were the descendants of mixed marriages between Jews and Gentiles. The Jews disliked the Samaritans not only for their mixed bloodlines, but also for their worship of pagan gods.

A SAMARITAN VILLAGE REJECTS THE SAVIOR

51Now it came to pass, when the time had come for Him to be received up, that He steadfastly set His face to go to Jerusalem, 52and sent messengers before His face. And as they went, they entered a village of the Samaritans, to prepare for Him. 53But they did not receive Him, because His face was set for the journey to Jerusalem. 54And when His disciples James and John saw

9:35 [a]NU-Text reads This is My Son, the Chosen One. 9:50 [a]NU-Text reads you. [b]NU-Text reads your.

this, they said, "Lord, do You want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them, just as Elijah did?"[a] 55But He turned and rebuked them,[a] and said, "You do not know what manner of spirit you are of. 56For the Son of Man did not come to destroy men's lives but to save them."[a] And they went to another village.

THE COST OF DISCIPLESHIP

57Now it happened as they journeyed on the road, that someone said to Him, "Lord, I will follow You wherever You go."

58And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head."

59Then He said to another, "Follow Me."

But he said, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father."

60Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead, but you go and preach the kingdom of God."

61And another also said, "Lord, I will follow You, but let me first go and bid them farewell who are at my house."

62But Jesus said to him, "No one, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God."

THE SEVENTY SENT OUT

10 After these things the Lord appointed seventy others also,[a] and sent them two by two before His face into every city and place where He Himself was about to go. 2Then He said to them, "The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few; therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest. 3Go your way; behold, I send you out as lambs among wolves. 4Carry neither money bag, knapsack, nor sandals; and greet no one along the road. 5But whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this house.' 6And if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest on it; if not, it will return to you. 7And remain in the same house, eating and drinking such things as they give, for the laborer is worthy of his wages. Do not go from house to house. 8Whatever city you enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you. 9And heal the sick there, and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.' 10But whatever city you enter, and they do not receive you, go out into its streets and say, 11'The very dust of your city which clings to us[a] we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that the kingdom of God has come near you.' 12But[a] I say to you that it will be more tolerable in that Day for Sodom than for that city.

WOE TO THE IMPENITENT CITIES

13"Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. 14But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you. 15And you, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, will be brought down to Hades.[a] 16He who hears you hears Me, he who rejects you rejects Me, and he who rejects Me rejects Him who sent Me."

DEMONS
Who do demons submit to?
Luke 10:17

THE SEVENTY RETURN WITH JOY

17Then the seventy[a] returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in Your name."

18And He said to them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. 19Behold, I give you the authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you. 20Nevertheless do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rather[a] rejoice because your names are written in heaven."

JESUS REJOICES IN THE SPIRIT

21In that hour Jesus rejoiced in the Spirit and said, "I thank You, Father, Lord of

LIFE APP

Community / Luke 10:25–37

A community is most often understood to be a group of people who are connected by common interests, government, or location. That type of community could be the student body of a school or the neighborhood in which you live. But true community is more than that simple understanding. True community isn't determined by location or even by shared circumstance. True community focuses on the last five letters of the word—"unity." To be in "community" is to live in unity with others; it means to realize we are all in this world together and life will be better for everyone if we work together.

In Luke 10:25–37, we read a story Jesus told when He was asked, "Who is my neighbor?" In the story a Jewish man had been beaten and left for dead on the side of the road. Many Jewish people passed by the wounded man and failed to give him any help. Finally, a Samaritan passed by and went out of his way to give the injured man the help he needed.

In Jesus' day, the Jews and the Samaritans hated each other. They were much like certain countries today who are sworn enemies. But the Samaritan in Jesus' story didn't see an enemy lying on the side of the road in pain; he saw a man in trouble. He was able to put any differences aside and just see a fellow human being in need. The Samaritan understood the true meaning of community—treating others as you would want them to treat you.

The Samaritan's thinking should seem very familiar to us. Jesus said it this way: "Whatever you want men to do to you, do also to them" (Matt. 7:12). In these few words, Jesus told us exactly how we should always treat others. We should always follow the example of the Good Samaritan and consider the needs of others before our own. Then we can live in true unity and experience the better life true community can bring.

heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and revealed them to babes. Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in Your sight. 22All[a] things have been delivered to Me by My Father, and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him."

23Then He turned to His disciples and said privately, "Blessed are the eyes which see the things you see; 24for I tell you that many prophets and kings have desired to see what you see, and have not seen it, and to hear what you hear, and have not heard it."

THE PARABLE OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN

25And behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tested Him, saying, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

26He said to him, "What is written in the law? What is your reading of it?"

27So he answered and said, " 'You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind,'[a] and 'your neighbor as yourself.'"[b]

28And He said to him, "You have answered rightly; do this and you will live."

29But he, wanting to justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

30Then Jesus answered and said: "A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, who stripped him of his clothing, wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead. 31Now by chance a certain priest came down that road. And when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. 32Likewise a Levite, when he arrived at the place, came and looked, and passed by on the other side. 33But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was. And when he saw him, he had compassion. 34So he went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine; and he set him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. 35On the next day, when he departed,[a] he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said to him, 'Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, when I come again, I will repay you.' 36So which of these three do you think was neighbor to him who fell among the thieves?"

37And he said, "He who showed mercy on him."

Then Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

MARY AND MARTHA WORSHIP AND SERVE

38Now it happened as they went that He entered a certain village; and a certain woman named Martha welcomed Him into her house. 39And she had a sister called Mary, who also sat at Jesus'[a] feet and heard His word. 40But Martha was distracted with much serving, and she approached Him and said, "Lord, do You not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Therefore tell her to help me."

41And Jesus[a] answered and said to her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and troubled about many things. 42But one thing is needed, and Mary has chosen that good part, which will not be taken away from her."

THE MODEL PRAYER

11 Now it came to pass, as He was praying in a certain place, when He ceased, that one of His disciples said to Him, "Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples."

2So He said to them, "When you pray, say:

Our Father in heaven,[a] Hallowed be Your name.
Your kingdom come.[b]
Your will be done
On earth as it is in heaven.
3Give us day by day our daily bread.
4And forgive us our sins,
For we also forgive everyone who is indebted to us.
And do not lead us into temptation,
But deliver us from the evil one."[a]

A FRIEND COMES AT MIDNIGHT

5And He said to them, "Which of you shall have a friend, and go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves; 6for a friend of mine has come to me on his journey, and I have nothing to set before him'; 7and he will answer from within and say, 'Do not trouble me; the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give to you'? 8I say to you, though he will not rise and give to him because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence he will rise and give him
as many as he needs.

KEEP ASKING, SEEKING, KNOCKING

9"So I say to you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. 10For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened. 11If a son asks for bread[a] from any father among you, will he give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will he give him a serpent instead of a fish? 12Or if he asks for an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? 13If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!"

A HOUSE DIVIDED CANNOT STAND

14And He was casting out a demon, and it was mute. So it was, when the demon had gone out, that the mute spoke; and the multitudes marveled. 15But some of them said, "He casts out demons by Beelzebub,[a] the ruler of the demons."

16Others, testing Him, sought from Him a sign from heaven. 17But He, knowing their thoughts, said to them: "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and a house divided against a house falls. 18If Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? Because you say I cast out demons by Beelzebub.
19And if I cast out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges. 20But if I cast out demons with the finger of God, surely the kingdom of God has come upon you.
21When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own palace, his goods are in peace.
22But when a stronger than he comes upon him and overcomes him, he takes from him all his armor in which he trusted, and divides his spoils. 23He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters.

AN UNCLEAN SPIRIT RETURNS

24"When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, he goes through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' 25And when he comes, he finds it swept and put in order. 26Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter and dwell there; and the last state of that man is worse than the first."

KEEPING THE WORD

27And it happened, as He spoke these things, that a certain woman from the crowd raised her voice and said to Him,
"Blessed is the womb that bore You, and the breasts which nursed You!"

OBEDIENCE
What will happen for people who obey God's word?
Luke 11:28

28But He said, "More than that, blessed are those who hear the word of God and keep it!"

SEEKING A SIGN

29And while the crowds were thickly gathered together, He began to say, "This is an evil generation. It seeks a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah the prophet.[a] 30For as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so also the Son of Man will be to this generation. 31The queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon;

11:11 [a]NU-Text omits the words from bread through for in the next sentence.

and indeed a greater than Solomon is here.
32The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and indeed a greater than Jonah is here.

THE LAMP OF THE BODY

33"No one, when he has lit a lamp, puts it in a secret place or under a basket, but on a lampstand, that those who come in may see the light. 34The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore, when your eye is good, your whole body also is full of light. But when your eye is bad, your body also is full of darkness. 35Therefore take heed that the light which is in you is not darkness. 36If then your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, the whole body will be full of light, as when the bright shining of a lamp gives you light."

WOE TO THE PHARISEES AND LAWYERS

37And as He spoke, a certain Pharisee asked Him to dine with him. So He went in and sat down to eat. 38When the Pharisee saw it, he marveled that He had not first washed before dinner.

39Then the Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees make the outside of the cup and dish clean, but your inward part is full of greed and wickedness. 40Foolish ones! Did not He who made the outside make the inside also? 41But rather give alms of such things as you have; then indeed all things are clean to you.

42"But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe the mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass by justice and the love of God. These you ought to have done, without leaving the others undone. 43Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the best seats in the synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces. 44Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites![a] For you are like graves which are not seen, and the men who walk over them are not aware of them."

45Then one of the lawyers answered and said to Him, "Teacher, by saying these things You reproach us also."

46And He said, "Woe to you also, lawyers! For you load men with burdens hard to bear, and you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers. 47Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. 48In fact, you bear witness that you approve the deeds of your fathers; for they indeed killed them, and you build their tombs. 49Therefore the wisdom of God also said, 'I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute,' 50that the blood of all the prophets which was shed from the foundation of the world may be required of this generation, 51from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah who perished between the altar and the temple. Yes, I say to you, it shall be required of this generation.

52"Woe to you lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge. You did not enter in yourselves, and those who were entering in you hindered."

53And as He said these things to them,[a] the scribes and the Pharisees began to assail Him vehemently, and to cross-examine Him about many things, 54lying in wait for Him, and seeking to catch Him in something He might say, that they might accuse Him.[a]

BEWARE OF HYPOCRISY

12 In the meantime, when an innumerable multitude of people had gathered together, so that they trampled one another, He began to say to His disciples first of all, "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. 2For there is nothing covered that will not be revealed, nor hidden that will not be known. 3Therefore whatever you have spoken in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have spoken in the ear in inner rooms will be proclaimed on the housetops.

JESUS TEACHES THE FEAR OF GOD

4"And I say to you, My friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. 5But I will show you whom you should fear: Fear Him who, after He has killed, has power to cast into hell; yes, I say to you, fear Him!

11:44 [a]NU-Text omits scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites. 11:53 [a]NU-Text reads And when He left there. 11:54 [a]NU-Text omits and seeking and that they might accuse Him.

MAKING IT REAL // LUKE 12:15–21

Temporary Things Jesus makes the point in this parable that having a lot of things isn't the point of life. Things don't give you a relationship with God. And things don't make your walk with God any deeper. The rich man in this parable thought that he would have an easy life because he had everything he could possibly ever want or need. God called him a fool, because that night when he died, his things could do nothing for him.

Where are you spending most of your time and energy? Are you worrying about the next really important "thing" you've got to have and how to get it, or are you thinking about the Lord and how to know and love Him more completely? Jesus says it's foolish to spend your time accumulating stuff that will only rust and decay in the end.

People who expect to always get what they want are commonly known in America as "spoiled brats." They are like immature children. They don't have the self-control or discipline it takes to be mature. God wants you to be mature, to learn what's really valuable and what isn't; to sacrifice for the good of another person, or yourself, or of the kingdom of God. He promises to provide all you need. But His focus is on the eternal—the souls of men and women. That's what really matters to God. (See also: Prov. 28:22; Luke 12:16–21; 1 Tim. 6:6–10; James 1:9, 10.)

Words to Live By

Covetousness: The word translated as "covetousness" in Luke 12:15 is the Greek word pleonexia (pleh-on-ex-ee'-ah). It means "greediness" and "the desire to always have more." Covetousness is never satisfied. The more you get, the more you want. That's why Jesus warns us about it. When you get caught up in a cycle of covetousness, it's extremely hard to see your way out. You can miss all the important things in life in your struggle to fill a bottomless pit of greed.

6 "Are not five sparrows sold for two copper coins?[a] And not one of them is forgotten before God. 7 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Do not fear therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows.

CONFESS CHRIST BEFORE MEN

8 "Also I say to you, whoever confesses Me before men, him the Son of Man also will confess before the angels of God. 9 But he who denies Me before men will be denied before the angels of God.

10 "And anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him; but to him who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven.

11 "Now when they bring you to the synagogues and magistrates and authorities, do not worry about how or what you should answer, or what you should say. 12 For the Holy Spirit will teach you in that very hour what you ought to say."

THE PARABLE OF THE RICH FOOL

13 Then one from the crowd said to Him,
"Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."

14 But He said to him, "Man, who made Me a judge or an arbitrator over you?"
15 And He said to them, "Take heed and beware of covetousness,[a] for one's life does not consist in the abundance of the things he possesses."

16 Then He spoke a parable to them, saying: "The ground of a certain rich man yielded plentifully. 17 And he thought within himself, saying, 'What shall I do, since I have no room to store my crops?' 18 So he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build greater, and there I will store all my crops and my goods. 19 And I will say to my soul, "Soul, you have many

12:6 [a]Greek assarion, a coin of very small value
12:15 [a]NU-Text reads all covetousness.

goods laid up for many years; take your ease; eat, drink, and be merry.'" [20]But God said to him, 'Fool! This night your soul will be required of you; then whose will those things be which you have provided?'

[21]"So is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God."

DO NOT WORRY

[22]Then He said to His disciples, "Therefore I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat; nor about the body, what you will put on. [23]Life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing. [24]Consider the ravens, for they neither sow nor reap, which have neither storehouse nor barn; and God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds? [25]And which of you by worrying can add one cubit to his stature? [26]If you then are not able to do the least, why are you anxious for the rest? [27]Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; and yet I say to you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. [28]If then God so clothes the grass, which today is in the field and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will He clothe you, O you of little faith?

[29]"And do not seek what you should eat or what you should drink, nor have an anxious mind. [30]For all these things the nations of the world seek after, and your Father knows that you need these things. [31]But seek the kingdom of God, and all these things[a] shall be added to you.

[32]"Do not fear, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. [33]Sell what you have and give alms; provide yourselves money bags which do not grow old, a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches nor moth destroys. [34]For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

THE FAITHFUL SERVANT AND THE EVIL SERVANT

[35]"Let your waist be girded and your lamps burning; [36]and you yourselves be like men who wait for their master, when he will return from the wedding, that when he comes and knocks they may open to him immediately. [37]Blessed are those servants whom the master, when he comes, will find watching. Assuredly, I say to you that he will gird himself and have them sit down to eat, and will come and serve them. [38]And if he should come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants. [39]But know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched and[a] not allowed his house to be broken into. [40]Therefore you also be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect."

[41]Then Peter said to Him, "Lord, do You speak this parable only to us, or to all people?"

[42]And the Lord said, "Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his master will make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of food in due season? [43]Blessed is that servant whom his master will find so doing when he comes. [44]Truly, I say to you that he will make him ruler over all that he has. [45]But if that servant says in his heart, 'My master is delaying his coming,' and begins to beat the male and female servants, and to eat and drink and be drunk, [46]the master of that servant will come on a day when he is not looking for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in two and appoint him his portion with the unbelievers. [47]And that servant who knew his master's will, and did not prepare himself or do according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. [48]But he who did not know, yet committed things deserving of stripes, shall be beaten with few. For everyone to whom much is given, from him much will be required; and to whom much has been committed, of him they will ask the more.

CHRIST BRINGS DIVISION

[49]"I came to send fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled! [50]But I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how distressed I am till it is accomplished! [51]Do you suppose that I came to give peace on earth? I tell you, not at all, but rather division. [52]For from now on five in one house will be divided: three against two, and two against three. [53]Father will be divided against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

FAMILY
Can a Christian's family become divided because of their faith?
Luke 12:51–53

DISCERN THE TIME

54Then He also said to the multitudes, "Whenever you see a cloud rising out of the west, immediately you say, 'A shower is coming'; and so it is. 55And when you see the south wind blow, you say, 'There will be hot weather'; and there is. 56Hypocrites! You can discern the face of the sky and of the earth, but how is it you do not discern this time?

MAKE PEACE WITH YOUR ADVERSARY

57"Yes, and why, even of yourselves, do you not judge what is right? 58When you go with your adversary to the magistrate, make every effort along the way to settle with him, lest he drag you to the judge, the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison. 59I tell you, you shall not depart from there till you have paid the very last mite."

REPENT OR PERISH

13 There were present at that season some who told Him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. 2And Jesus answered and said to them, "Do you suppose that these Galileans were worse sinners than all other Galileans, because they suffered such things? 3I tell you, no; but unless you repent you will all likewise perish. 4Or those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them, do you think that they were worse sinners than all other men who dwelt in Jerusalem? 5I tell you, no; but unless you repent you will all likewise perish."

REPENTANCE
What would happen to us if we didn't repent of our sin?
Luke 13:3–5

THE PARABLE OF THE BARREN FIG TREE

6He also spoke this parable: "A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it and found none. 7Then he said to the keeper of his vineyard, 'Look, for three years I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree and find none. Cut it down; why does it use up the ground?' 8But he answered and said to him, 'Sir, let it alone this year also, until I dig around it and fertilize it. 9And if it bears fruit, well. But if not, after that[a] you can cut it down.'"

A SPIRIT OF INFIRMITY

10Now He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath. 11And behold, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bent over and could in no way raise herself up. 12But when Jesus saw her, He called her to Him and said to her, "Woman, you are loosed from your infirmity." 13And He laid His hands on her, and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14But the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath; and he said to the crowd, "There are six days on which men ought to work; therefore come and be healed on them, and not on the Sabbath day."

15The Lord then answered him and said, "Hypocrite![a] Does not each one of you on the Sabbath loose his ox or donkey from the stall, and lead it away to water it? 16So ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has bound—think of it—for eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath?" 17And when He said these things, all His adversaries were put to shame; and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by Him.

13:9 [a]NU-Text reads And if it bears fruit after that, well. But if not, you can cut it down.
13:15 [a]NU-Text and M-Text read Hypocrites.

THE PARABLE OF THE MUSTARD SEED

18Then He said, "What is the kingdom of God like? And to what shall I compare it?
19It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and put in his garden; and it grew and became a large[a] tree, and the birds of the air nested in its branches."

THE PARABLE OF THE LEAVEN

20And again He said, "To what shall I liken the kingdom of God? 21It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures[a] of meal till it was all leavened."

THE NARROW WAY

22And He went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem. 23Then one said to Him, "Lord, are there few who are saved?"

And He said to them, 24"Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I say to you, will seek to enter and will not be able. 25When once the Master of the house has risen up and shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and knock at the door, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open for us,' and He will answer and say to you, 'I do not know you, where you are from,' 26then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in Your presence, and You taught in our streets.'
27But He will say, 'I tell you I do not know you, where you are from. Depart from Me, all you workers of iniquity.' 28There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and yourselves thrust out. 29They will come from the east and the west, from the north and the south, and sit down in the kingdom of God. 30And indeed there are last who will be first, and there are first who will be last."

31On that very day[a] some Pharisees came, saying to Him, "Get out and depart from here, for Herod wants to kill You."

32And He said to them, "Go, tell that fox, 'Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I shall be perfected.' 33Neverthe-less I must journey today, tomorrow, and the day following; for it cannot be that a prophet should perish outside of Jerusalem.

JESUS LAMENTS OVER JERUSALEM

34"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the one who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, but you were not willing! 35See! Your house is left to you desolate; and assuredly,[a] I say to you, you shall not see Me until the time comes when you say, 'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!' "[b]

A MAN WITH DROPSY HEALED ON THE SABBATH

14 Now it happened, as He went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees to eat bread on the Sabbath, that they watched Him closely. 2And behold, there was a certain man before Him who had dropsy. 3And Jesus, answering, spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"[a]

4But they kept silent. And He took him and healed him, and let him go. 5Then He answered them, saying, "Which of you, having a donkey[a] or an ox that has fallen into a pit, will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day?" 6And they could not answer Him regarding these things.

TAKE THE LOWLY PLACE

7So He told a parable to those who were invited, when He noted how they chose the best places, saying to them: 8"When you are invited by anyone to a wedding feast, do not sit down in the best place, lest one more honorable than you be invited by him; 9and he who invited you and him come and say to you, 'Give place to this man,' and then you begin with shame to take the lowest place. 10But when you are invited, go and sit down in the lowest place, so that when he who invited you comes he may say to you, 'Friend, go up higher.' Then you will have glory in the presence of those who sit at the table with you. 11For whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

12Then He also said to him who invited Him, "When you give a dinner or a supper, do not ask your friends, your brothers, your relatives, nor rich neighbors, lest they also invite you back, and you be repaid. 13But when you give a feast, invite the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind. 14And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you; for you shall be repaid at the resurrection of the just."

CARING
Should Christians care for the needy?
Luke 14:13, 14

THE PARABLE OF THE GREAT SUPPER

15Now when one of those who sat at the table with Him heard these things, he said to Him, "Blessed is he who shall eat bread[a] in the kingdom of God!"

16Then He said to him, "A certain man gave a great supper and invited many, 17and sent his servant at supper time to say to those who were invited, 'Come, for all things are now ready.' 18But they all with one accord began to make excuses. The first said to him, 'I have bought a piece of ground, and I must go and see it. I ask you to have me excused.' 19And another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to test them. I ask you to have me excused.' 20Still another said, 'I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.' 21So that servant came and reported these things to his master. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in here the poor and the maimed and the lame and the blind.' 22And the servant said, 'Master, it is done as you commanded, and still there is room.' 23Then the master said to the servant, 'Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. 24For I say to you that none of those men who were invited shall taste my supper.'"

LEAVING ALL TO FOLLOW CHRIST

25Now great multitudes went with Him. And He turned and said to them, 26"If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he cannot be My disciple. 27And whoever does not bear his cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple. 28For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not sit down first and count the cost, whether he has enough to finish it— 29lest, after he has laid the foundation, and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, 30saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to finish'? 31Or what king, going to make war against another king, does not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? 32Or else, while the other is still a great way off, he sends a delegation and asks conditions of peace. 33So likewise, whoever of you does not forsake all that he has cannot be My disciple.

TASTELESS SALT IS WORTHLESS

34"Salt is good; but if the salt has lost its flavor, how shall it be seasoned? 35It is neither fit for the land nor for the dunghill, but men throw it out. He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

THE PARABLE OF THE LOST SHEEP

15 Then all the tax collectors and the sinners drew near to Him to hear Him. 2And the Pharisees and scribes complained, saying, "This Man receives sinners and eats with them." 3So He spoke this parable to them, saying:

4"What man of you, having a hundred sheep, if he loses one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one which is lost until he finds it? 5And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing. 6And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost!' 7I say to you that likewise there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine just persons who need no repentance.

14:15 [a]M-Text reads dinner.

REPENTANCE
What happens in heaven when a sinner repents?
Luke 15:7

THE PARABLE OF THE LOST COIN

8"Or what woman, having ten silver coins,[a] if she loses one coin, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? 9And when she has found it, she calls her friends and neighbors together, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I lost!' 10Likewise, I say to you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

THE PARABLE OF THE LOST SON

11Then He said: "A certain man had two sons. 12And the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the portion of goods that falls to me.' So he divided to them his livelihood. 13And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together, journeyed to a far country, and there wasted his possessions with prodigal living. 14But when he had spent all, there arose a severe famine in that land, and he began to be in want. 15Then he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. 16And he would gladly have filled his stomach with the pods that the swine ate, and no one gave him anything.

Luke 15:15
According to the Law God gave Moses, certain animals, such as pigs and shellfish, were "unclean," unacceptable as either food or sacrifices. Not only were Jewish people not allowed to eat pork, they weren't even allowed to touch pigs.

17"But when he came to himself, he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! 18I will arise and go to my father, and will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you, 19and I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired servants."'

20"And he arose and came to his father. But when he was still a great way off, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and fell on his neck and kissed him. 21And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight, and am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

22"But the father said to his servants, 'Bring[a] out the best robe and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand and sandals on his feet. 23And bring the fatted calf here and kill it, and let us eat and be merry; 24for this my son was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.' And they began to be merry.

25"Now his older son was in the field. And as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing. 26So he called one of the servants and asked what these things meant. 27And he said to him, 'Your brother has come, and because he has received him safe and sound, your father has killed the fatted calf.'

28"But he was angry and would not go in. Therefore his father came out and pleaded with him. 29So he answered and said to his father, 'Lo, these many years I have been serving you; I never transgressed your commandment at any time; and yet you never gave me a young goat, that I might make merry with my friends. 30But as soon as this son of yours came, who has devoured your livelihood with harlots, you killed the fatted calf for him.'

31"And he said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that I have is yours. 32It was right that we should make merry and be glad, for your brother was dead and is alive again, and was lost and is found.'"

THE PARABLE OF THE UNJUST STEWARD

16 He also said to His disciples: "There was a certain rich man who had a steward, and an accusation was brought to him that this man was wasting his goods. 2So he called him and said to him, 'What is this I hear about

LIFE APP

Finances / Luke 16:10–12

Who couldn't use a few extra dollars? We can always find something else we supposedly need to buy. But is that really what money is all about: how much of it you can get and how much stuff you can buy with what you have? That is sometimes how it feels, especially if you're looking forward to a big life change, like going to college. Where will you get tuition? How about the money to buy books and get housing, not to mention a meal plan? When it all starts to add up, it can get overwhelming; especially if you haven't been particularly good with managing your money up to this point in your life.

Sometimes we think that when we're older or when we have more money, we'll learn to be smarter with it; then we'll learn how to save and how to budget. But Jesus' words in Luke 16 teach us that the time to learn wise and godly financial practices is not tomorrow or in a few years; the time is now, even if you don't have very much money. "He who is faithful in what is least is faithful also in much; and he who is unjust in what is least is unjust also in much. . . . And if you have not been faithful in what is another man's, who will give you what is your own?" (Luke 16:10, 12).

Even if the little money you do have comes mostly from an allowance from your parents, you can still be faithful and wise with how you handle it. As a matter of fact, if you're not wise with the little bit you have, how could you be wise with a large amount of money? If a few dollars burn a hole in your pocket, imagine all the things you could find to waste a large amount of money on, with no thought of the consequences! So no matter how much money you currently have, ask God to teach you how to manage it wisely and faithfully, as you honor Him with your money and your life.

you? Give an account of your stewardship, for you can no longer be steward.'

3"Then the steward said within himself, 'What shall I do? For my master is taking the stewardship away from me. I cannot dig; I am ashamed to beg. 4I have resolved what to do, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.'

5"So he called every one of his master's debtors to him, and said to the first, 'How much do you owe my master?' 6And he said, 'A hundred measures[a] of oil.' So he said to him, 'Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.' 7Then he said to another, 'And how much do you owe?' So he said, 'A hundred measures[a] of wheat.' And he said to him, 'Take your bill, and write eighty.' 8So the master commended the unjust steward because he had dealt shrewdly. For the sons of this world are more shrewd in their generation than the sons of light.

9"And I say to you, make friends for yourselves by unrighteous mammon, that when you fail,[a] they may receive you into an everlasting home. 10He who is faithful in what is least is faithful also in much; and he who is unjust in what is least is unjust also in much. 11Therefore if you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? 12And if you have not been faithful in what is another man's, who will give you what is your own?

MONEY
Can Christians serve both God and money?
Luke 16:13

13"No servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon."

THE LAW, THE PROPHETS, AND THE KINGDOM

14Now the Pharisees, who were lovers of money, also heard all these things, and they derided Him. 15And He said to them, "You are those who justify yourselves before men, but God knows your hearts. For what is highly esteemed among men is an abomination in the sight of God.

16"The law and the prophets were until John. Since that time the kingdom of God has been preached, and everyone is pressing into it. 17And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one tittle of the law to fail.

18"Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery; and whoever marries her who is divorced from her husband commits adultery.

THE RICH MAN AND LAZARUS

19"There was a certain rich man who was clothed in purple and fine linen and fared sumptuously every day. 20But there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, full of sores, who was laid at his gate, 21desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell[a] from the rich man's table. Moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. 22So it was that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels to Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died and was buried. 23And being in torments in Hades, he lifted up his eyes and saw Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

24"Then he cried and said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.' 25But Abraham said, 'Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things; but now he is comforted and you are tormented. 26And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, so that those who want to pass from here to you cannot, nor can those from there pass to us.'

27"Then he said, 'I beg you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father's house, 28for I have five brothers, that he may testify to them, lest they also come to this place of torment.' 29Abraham said to him, 'They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.' 30And he said, 'No, father Abraham; but if one goes to them from the dead, they will repent.' 31But he said to him, 'If they do not hear Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded though one rise from the dead.'"

JESUS WARNS OF OFFENSES

17 Then He said to the disciples, "It is impossible that no offenses should come, but woe to him through whom they do come! 2It would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones. 3Take heed to yourselves. If your brother sins against you,[a] rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him. 4And if he sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times in a day returns to you,[a] saying, 'I repent,' you shall forgive him."

FAITH AND DUTY

5And the apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith."

> FAITH
> How strong is even the smallest faith?
> Luke 17:6

6So the Lord said, "If you have faith as a mustard seed, you can say to this mulberry tree, 'Be pulled up by the roots and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you. 7And which of you, having a servant plowing or tending sheep, will say to him when he has come in from the field, 'Come at once and sit down to eat'? 8But will he not rather say to him, 'Prepare something for my supper, and gird yourself and serve me till I have eaten and drunk, and afterward you will eat and drink'? 9Does he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I think not.[a] 10So likewise you, when you have done all those things which you are commanded, say, 'We are unprofitable servants. We have done what was our duty to do.'"

TEN LEPERS CLEANSED

11Now it happened as He went to Jerusalem that He passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. 12Then as He entered a certain village, there met Him ten men who were lepers, who stood afar off. 13And they lifted up their voices and said, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"

14So when He saw them, He said to them, "Go, show yourselves to the priests." And so it was that as they went, they were cleansed.

15And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, returned, and with a loud voice glorified God, 16and fell down on his face at His feet, giving Him thanks. And he was a Samaritan.

17So Jesus answered and said, "Were there not ten cleansed? But where are the nine? 18Were there not any found who returned to give glory to God except this foreigner?" 19And He said to him, "Arise, go your way. Your faith has made you well."

THE COMING OF THE KINGDOM

20Now when He was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, He answered them and said, "The kingdom of God does not come with observation; 21nor will they say, 'See here!' or 'See there!'[a] For indeed, the kingdom of God is within you."

22Then He said to the disciples, "The days will come when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it. 23And they will say to you, 'Look here!' or 'Look there!'[a] Do not go after them or follow them. 24For as the lightning that flashes out of one part under heaven shines to the other part under heaven, so also the Son of Man will be in His day. 25But first He must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation. 26And as it was in the days of Noah, so it will be also in the days of the Son of Man: 27They ate, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all. 28Likewise as it was also in the days of Lot: They ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built; 29but on the day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all. 30Even so will it be in the day when the Son of Man is revealed.

31"In that day, he who is on the housetop, and his goods are in the house, let him not come down to take them away. And likewise the one who is in the field, let him not turn back. 32Remember Lot's wife. 33Whoever seeks to save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life will preserve it. 34I tell you, in that night there will be two men in one bed: the one will be taken and the other will be left. 35Two women will be grinding together: the one will be taken and the other left. 36Two men will be in the field: the one will be taken and the other left."[a]

37And they answered and said to Him, "Where, Lord?"

So He said to them, "Wherever the body is, there the eagles will be gathered together."

THE PARABLE OF THE PERSISTENT WIDOW

18 Then He spoke a parable to them, that men always ought to pray and not lose heart, 2saying: "There was in a certain city a judge who did not fear God nor regard man. 3Now there was a widow in that city; and she came to him, saying, 'Get justice for me from my adversary.' 4And he would not for a while; but afterward he said within himself, 'Though I do not fear God nor regard man, 5yet because this widow troubles me I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.'"

6Then the Lord said, "Hear what the unjust judge said. 7And shall God not avenge His own elect who cry out day and night to Him, though He bears long with them? 8I tell you that He will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will He really find faith on the earth?"

THE PARABLE OF THE PHARISEE AND THE TAX COLLECTOR

9Also He spoke this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others: 10"Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. 11The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, 'God, I thank You that I am not like other men—extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this tax collector. 12I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I possess.' 13And the tax collector, standing afar off, would not so much as raise his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me a sinner!' 14I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

Luke 18:9–14

JESUS BLESSES LITTLE CHILDREN

15Then they also brought infants to Him that He might touch them; but when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. 16But Jesus called them to Him and said, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for of such is the kingdom of God. 17Assuredly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will by no means enter it."

ASSURANCE

Where do we find assurance of eternal life?

Luke 18:18–30

JESUS COUNSELS THE RICH YOUNG RULER

18Now a certain ruler asked Him, saying, "Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

19So Jesus said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one is good but One, that is, God. 20You know the commandments: 'Do not commit adultery,' 'Do not murder,' 'Do not steal,' 'Do not bear false witness,' 'Honor your father and your mother.' "[a]

21And he said, "All these things I have kept from my youth."

22So when Jesus heard these things, He

17:36 [a]NU-Text and M-Text omit verse 36.

18:20 [a]Exodus 20:12–16; Deuteronomy 5:16–20

said to him, "You still lack one thing. Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me."

23But when he heard this, he became very sorrowful, for he was very rich.

WITH GOD ALL THINGS ARE POSSIBLE

24And when Jesus saw that he became very sorrowful, He said, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God! 25For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

26And those who heard it said, "Who then can be saved?"

27But He said, "The things which are impossible with men are possible with God."

28Then Peter said, "See, we have left all[a] and followed You."

29So He said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or parents or brothers or wife or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, 30who shall not receive many times more in this present time, and in the age to come eternal life."

JESUS A THIRD TIME PREDICTS HIS DEATH AND RESURRECTION

31Then He took the twelve aside and said to them, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of Man will be accomplished. 32For He will be delivered to the Gentiles and will be mocked and insulted and spit upon. 33They will scourge Him and kill Him. And the third day He will rise again."

34But they understood none of these things; this saying was hidden from them, and they did not know the things which were spoken.

A BLIND MAN RECEIVES HIS SIGHT

35Then it happened, as He was coming near Jericho, that a certain blind man sat by the road begging. 36And hearing a multitude passing by, he asked what it meant. 37So they told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. 38And he cried out, saying, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

39Then those who went before warned him that he should be quiet; but he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

40So Jesus stood still and commanded him to be brought to Him. And when he had come near, He asked him, 41saying, "What do you want Me to do for you?"

He said, "Lord, that I may receive my sight."

42Then Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight; your faith has made you well." 43And immediately he received his sight, and followed Him, glorifying God. And all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

JESUS COMES TO ZACCHAEUS' HOUSE

19 Then Jesus entered and passed through Jericho. 2Now behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus who was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. 3And he sought to see who Jesus was, but could not because of the crowd, for he was of short stature. 4So he ran ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Him, for He was going to pass that way. 5And when Jesus came to the place, He looked up and saw him,[a] and said to him, "Zacchaeus, make haste and come down, for today I must stay at your house." 6So he made haste and came down, and received Him joyfully. 7But when they saw it, they all complained, saying, "He has gone to be a guest with a man who is a sinner."

8Then Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord, I give half of my goods to the poor; and if I have taken anything from anyone by false accusation, I restore fourfold."

9And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham; 10for the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost."

THE PARABLE OF THE MINAS

11Now as they heard these things, He spoke another parable, because He was near Jerusalem and because they thought the kingdom of God would appear immediately. 12Therefore He said: "A certain

18:28 [a]NU-Text reads our own. 19:5 [a]NU-Text omits and saw him.

nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom and to return. 13So he called ten of his servants, delivered to them ten minas,[a] and said to them, 'Do business till I come.' 14But his citizens hated him, and sent a delegation after him, saying, 'We will not have this man to reign over us.'

15"And so it was that when he returned, having received the kingdom, he then commanded these servants, to whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading. 16Then came the first, saying, 'Master, your mina has earned ten minas.' 17And he said to him, 'Well done, good servant; because you were faithful in a very little, have authority over ten cities.' 18And the second came, saying, 'Master, your mina has earned five minas.' 19Likewise he said to him, 'You also be over five cities.'

20"Then another came, saying, 'Master, here is your mina, which I have kept put away in a handkerchief. 21For I feared you, because you are an austere man. You collect what you did not deposit, and reap what you did not sow.' 22And he said to him, 'Out of your own mouth I will judge you, you wicked servant. You knew that I was an austere man, collecting what I did not deposit and reaping what I did not sow. 23Why then did you not put my money in the bank, that at my coming I might have collected it with interest?'

24"And he said to those who stood by, 'Take the mina from him, and give it to him who has ten minas.' 25(But they said to him, 'Master, he has ten minas.') 26'For I say to you, that to everyone who has will be given; and from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. 27But bring here those enemies of mine, who did not want me to reign over them, and slay them before me.'"

THE TRIUMPHAL ENTRY

28When He had said this, He went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. 29And it came to pass, when He drew near to Bethphage[a] and Bethany, at the mountain called Olivet, that He sent two of His disciples, 30saying, "Go into the village opposite you, where as you enter you will find a colt tied, on which no one has ever sat. Loose it and bring it here. 31And if anyone asks you, 'Why are you loosing it?' thus you shall say to him, 'Because the Lord has need of it.'"

32So those who were sent went their way and found it just as He had said to them. 33But as they were loosing the colt, the owners of it said to them, "Why are you loosing the colt?"

34And they said, "The Lord has need of him." 35Then they brought him to Jesus. And they threw their own clothes on the colt, and they set Jesus on him. 36And as He went, many spread their clothes on the road.

37Then, as He was now drawing near the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works they had seen, 38saying:

"'Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the LORD!'[a] Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!"

39And some of the Pharisees called to Him from the crowd, "Teacher, rebuke Your disciples."

40But He answered and said to them, "I tell you that if these should keep silent, the stones would immediately cry out."

JESUS WEEPS OVER JERUSALEM

41Now as He drew near, He saw the city and wept over it, 42saying, "If you had known, even you, especially in this your day, the things that make for your peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes. 43For days will come upon you when your enemies will build an embankment around you, surround you and close you in on every side, 44and level you, and your children within you, to the ground; and they will not leave in you one stone upon another, because you did not know the time of your visitation."

JESUS CLEANSES THE TEMPLE

45Then He went into the temple and began to drive out those who bought and sold in it,[a] 46saying to them, "It is written, 'My

Luke 19:43

This passage predicts the total destruction of Jerusalem—the kind of destruction that occurred in A.D. 70. After the Jews tried to rebel against Rome, the empire retaliated by sending its army, led by a general named Titus, to attack Jerusalem. When the Roman army was done, the temple had been burned to the ground, its sacred furnishings had been taken back to Rome, and the city of Jerusalem had been reduced to rubble. The Jews were no longer permitted any kind of self-rule.

house is[a] a house of prayer,'[b] but you have made it a 'den of thieves.' "[c]

47And He was teaching daily in the temple. But the chief priests, the scribes, and the leaders of the people sought to destroy Him, 48and were unable to do anything; for all the people were very attentive to hear Him.

JESUS' AUTHORITY QUESTIONED

20 Now it happened on one of those days, as He taught the people in the temple and preached the gospel, that the chief priests and the scribes, together with the elders, confronted Him 2and spoke to Him, saying, "Tell us, by what authority are You doing these things? Or who is he who gave You this authority?"

3But He answered and said to them, "I also will ask you one thing, and answer Me: 4The baptism of John—was it from heaven or from men?"

5And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say, 'Why then[a] did you not believe him?' 6But if we say, 'From men,' all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that John was a prophet." 7So they answered that they did not know where it was from.

8And Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

THE PARABLE OF THE WICKED VINEDRESSERS

9Then He began to tell the people this parable: "A certain man planted a vineyard, leased it to vinedressers, and went into a far country for a long time. 10Now at vintage-time he sent a servant to the vinedressers, that they might give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. But the vinedressers beat him and sent him away empty-handed. 11Again he sent another servant; and they beat him also, treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty-handed. 12And again he sent a third; and they wounded him also and cast him out.

13"Then the owner of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. Probably they will respect him when they see him.' 14But when the vinedressers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.' 15So they cast him out of the vineyard and killed him. Therefore what will the owner of the vineyard do to them? 16He will come and destroy those vinedressers and give the vineyard to others."

And when they heard it they said, "Certainly not!"

17Then He looked at them and said, "What then is this that is written:

> 'The stone which the builders rejected
> Has become the chief cornerstone'?[a]

18Whoever falls on that stone will be broken; but on whomever it falls, it will grind him to powder."

19And the chief priests and the scribes that very hour sought to lay hands on Him, but they feared the people[a] —for they knew He had spoken this parable against them.

THE PHARISEES: IS IT LAWFUL TO PAY TAXES TO CAESAR?

20So they watched Him, and sent spies who pretended to be righteous, that they might seize on His words, in order to deliver Him to the power and the authority of the governor.

21Then they asked Him, saying, "Teacher, we know that You say and teach rightly, and You do not show personal favoritism, but teach the way of God in truth: 22Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"

23But He perceived their craftiness, and said to them, "Why do you test Me?[a] 24Show Me a denarius. Whose image and inscription does it have?"

They answered and said, "Caesar's."

25And He said to them, "Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

26But they could not catch Him in His words in the presence of the people. And they marveled at His answer and kept silent.

THE SADDUCEES: WHAT ABOUT THE RESURRECTION?

27Then some of the Sadducees, who deny that there is a resurrection, came to Him and asked Him, 28saying: "Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if a man's brother dies, having a wife, and he dies without children, his brother should take his wife and raise up offspring for his brother. 29Now there were seven brothers. And the first took a wife, and died without children. 30And the second[a] took her as wife, and he died childless. 31Then the third took her, and in like manner the seven also; and they left no children,[a] and died. 32Last of all the woman died also. 33Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife does she become? For all seven had her as wife."

ANGELS
Can angels die?
Luke 20:36

34Jesus answered and said to them, "The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage. 35But those who are counted worthy to attain that age, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry nor are given in marriage; 36nor can they die anymore, for they are equal to the angels and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. 37But even Moses showed in the burning bush passage that the dead are raised, when he called the Lord 'the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.'[a] 38For He is not the God of the dead but of the living, for all live to Him."

39Then some of the scribes answered and said, "Teacher, You have spoken well." 40But after that they dared not question Him anymore.

JESUS: HOW CAN DAVID CALL HIS DESCENDANT LORD?

41And He said to them, "How can they say that the Christ is the Son of David? 42Now David himself said in the Book of Psalms:

'The LORD said to my Lord,
"Sit at My right hand,
43*Till I make Your enemies Your*
footstool."'[a]

44Therefore David calls Him 'Lord'; how is He then his Son?"

BEWARE OF THE SCRIBES

45Then, in the hearing of all the people, He said to His disciples, 46"Beware of the scribes, who desire to go around in long robes, love greetings in the marketplaces, the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts, 47who devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation."

THE WIDOW'S TWO MITES

21 And He looked up and saw the rich putting their gifts into the treasury, 2and He saw also a certain poor widow putting in two mites. 3So He said, "Truly I say to you that this poor widow has put in more than all; 4for all these out of their abundance have put in offerings for God,[a] but she out of her poverty put in all the livelihood that she had."

JESUS PREDICTS THE DESTRUCTION OF THE TEMPLE

5Then, as some spoke of the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and donations, He said, 6"These things which you see—the days will come in which not one stone shall be left upon another that shall not be thrown down."

20:23 [a]NU-Text omits Why do you test Me?

THE SIGNS OF THE TIMES AND THE END OF THE AGE

7So they asked Him, saying, "Teacher, but when will these things be? And what sign will there be when these things are about to take place?"

8And He said: "Take heed that you not be deceived. For many will come in My name, saying, 'I am He,' and, 'The time has drawn near.' Therefore[a] do not go after them. 9But when you hear of wars and commotions, do not be terrified; for these things must come to pass first, but the end will not come immediately."

10Then He said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. 11And there will be great earthquakes in various places, and famines and pestilences; and there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven. 12But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons. You will be brought before kings and rulers for My name's sake. 13But it will turn out for you as an occasion for testimony. 14Therefore settle it in your hearts not to meditate beforehand on what you will answer; 15for I will give you a mouth and wisdom which all your adversaries will not be able to contradict or resist. 16You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death. 17And you will be hated by all for My name's sake. 18But not a hair of your head shall be lost. 19By your patience possess your souls.

THE DESTRUCTION OF JERUSALEM

20"But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation is near. 21Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, let those who are in the midst of her depart, and let not those who are in the country enter her. 22For these are the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. 23But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! For there will be great distress in the land and wrath upon this people. 24And they will fall by the edge of the sword, and be led away captive into all nations. And Jerusalem will be trampled by Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

THE COMING OF THE SON OF MAN

25"And there will be signs in the sun, in the moon, and in the stars; and on the earth distress of nations, with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring; 26men's hearts failing them from fear and the expectation of those things which are coming on the earth, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. 27Then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. 28Now when these things begin to happen, look up and lift up your heads, because your redemption draws near."

THE PARABLE OF THE FIG TREE

29Then He spoke to them a parable: "Look at the fig tree, and all the trees. 30When they are already budding, you see and know for yourselves that summer is now near. 31So you also, when you see these things happening, know that the kingdom of God is near. 32Assuredly, I say to you, this generation will by no means pass away till all things take place. 33Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will by no means pass away.

DRINKING

How can becoming drunk be unwise?

Luke 21:34

THE IMPORTANCE OF WATCHING

34"But take heed to yourselves, lest your hearts be weighed down with carousing, drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that Day come on you unexpectedly. 35For it will come as a snare on all those who dwell on the face of the whole earth. 36Watch therefore, and pray always that you may be counted worthy[a] to escape all these things that will come to pass, and to stand before the Son of Man."

37And in the daytime He was teaching in the temple, but at night He went out and stayed on the mountain called Olivet.

21:8 [a]NU-Text omits Therefore. 21:36 [a]NU-Text reads may have strength.

38Then early in the morning all the people came to Him in the temple to hear Him.

Luke 22:1

Passover was one of the most important holidays on the Jewish calendar. It was set aside as a time for recalling how God had rescued the Israelites from slavery in Egypt. To celebrate, the Jewish people ate a meal similar to the one their ancestors had eaten when they prepared to leave Egypt.

THE PLOT TO KILL JESUS

22 Now the Feast of Unleavened Bread drew near, which is called Passover. 2And the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might kill Him, for they feared the people.

3Then Satan entered Judas, surnamed Iscariot, who was numbered among the twelve. 4So he went his way and conferred with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray Him to them. 5And they were glad, and agreed to give him money.
6So he promised and sought opportunity to betray Him to them in the absence of the multitude.

JESUS AND HIS DISCIPLES PREPARE THE PASSOVER

7Then came the Day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover must be killed. 8And
He sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover for us, that we may eat."

9So they said to Him, "Where do You want us to prepare?"

10And He said to them, "Behold, when you have entered the city, a man will meet you carrying a pitcher of water; follow him into the house which he enters. 11Then you shall say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says to you, "Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?"' 12Then he will show you a large, furnished upper room; there make ready."

13So they went and found it just as He had said to them, and they prepared the Passover.

JESUS INSTITUTES THE LORD'S SUPPER

14When the hour had come, He sat down, and the twelve[a] apostles with Him. 15Then
He said to them, "With fervent desire I have desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer; 16for I say to you, I will no longer eat of it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God."

17Then He took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, "Take this and divide it among yourselves; 18for I say to you,[a] I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes."

19And He took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is My body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of Me."

20Likewise He also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood, which is shed for you.
21But behold, the hand of My betrayer is with Me on the table. 22And truly the Son of Man goes as it has been determined, but woe to that man by whom He is betrayed!"

23Then they began to question among themselves, which of them it was who would do this thing.

THE DISCIPLES ARGUE ABOUT GREATNESS

24Now there was also a dispute among them, as to which of them should be considered the greatest. 25And He said to them,
"The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them, and those who exercise authority over them are called 'benefactors.' 26But not so among you; on the contrary, he who is greatest among you, let him be as the younger, and he who governs as he who serves. 27For who is greater, he who sits at the table, or he who serves? Is it not he who sits at the table? Yet I am among you as the One who serves.

28"But you are those who have continued with Me in My trials. 29And I bestow upon you a kingdom, just as My Father bestowed one upon Me, 30that you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel."

22:14 [a]NU-Text omits twelve. 22:18 [a]NU-Text adds from now on.

JESUS PREDICTS PETER'S DENIAL

31And the Lord said,[a] "Simon, Simon! Indeed, Satan has asked for you, that he may sift you as wheat. 32But I have prayed for you, that your faith should not fail; and when you have returned to Me, strengthen your brethren."

33But he said to Him, "Lord, I am ready to go with You, both to prison and to death."

34Then He said, "I tell you, Peter, the rooster shall not crow this day before you will deny three times that you know Me."

SUPPLIES FOR THE ROAD

35And He said to them, "When I sent you without money bag, knapsack, and sandals, did you lack anything?"

So they said, "Nothing."

36Then He said to them, "But now, he who has a money bag, let him take it, and likewise a knapsack; and he who has no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one. 37For I say to you that this which is written must still be accomplished in Me: 'And He was numbered with the transgressors.'[a] For the things concerning Me have an end."

38So they said, "Lord, look, here are two swords."

And He said to them, "It is enough."

THE PRAYER IN THE GARDEN

39Coming out, He went to the Mount of Olives, as He was accustomed, and His disciples also followed Him. 40When He came to the place, He said to them, "Pray that you may not enter into temptation."

41And He was withdrawn from them about a stone's throw, and He knelt down and prayed, 42saying, "Father, if it is Your will, take this cup away from Me; nevertheless not My will, but Yours, be done." 43Then an angel appeared to Him from heaven, strengthening Him. 44And being in agony, He prayed more earnestly. Then His sweat became like great drops of blood falling down to the ground.[a]

45When He rose up from prayer, and had come to His disciples, He found them sleeping from sorrow. 46Then He said to them, "Why do you sleep? Rise and pray, lest you enter into temptation."

BETRAYAL AND ARREST IN GETHSEMANE

47And while He was still speaking, behold, a multitude; and he who was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them and drew near to Jesus to kiss Him. 48But Jesus said to him, "Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?"

49When those around Him saw what was going to happen, they said to Him, "Lord, shall we strike with the sword?" 50And one of them struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear.

51But Jesus answered and said, "Permit even this." And He touched his ear and healed him.

52Then Jesus said to the chief priests, captains of the temple, and the elders who had come to Him, "Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs? 53When I was with you daily in the temple, you did not try to seize Me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness."

PETER DENIES JESUS, AND WEEPS BITTERLY

54Having arrested Him, they led Him and brought Him into the high priest's house. But Peter followed at a distance. 55Now when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat among them. 56And a certain servant girl, seeing him as he sat by the fire, looked intently at him and said, "This man was also with Him."

57But he denied Him,[a] saying, "Woman, I do not know him."

58And after a little while another saw him and said, "You also are of them."

But Peter said, "Man, I am not!"

59Then after about an hour had passed, another confidently affirmed, saying, "Surely this fellow also was with Him, for he is a Galilean."

60But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are saying!"

Immediately, while he was still speaking, the rooster[a] crowed. 61And the Lord turned and looked at Peter. Then Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had said to him, "Before the rooster crows,[a] you will deny Me three times." 62So Peter went out and wept bitterly.

JESUS MOCKED AND BEATEN

63Now the men who held Jesus mocked Him and beat Him. 64And having blindfolded Him, they struck Him on the face and asked Him,[a] saying, "Prophesy! Who is the one who struck You?" 65And many other things they blasphemously spoke against Him.

JESUS FACES THE SANHEDRIN

66As soon as it was day, the elders of the people, both chief priests and scribes, came together and led Him into their council, saying, 67"If You are the Christ, tell us."

But He said to them, "If I tell you, you will by no means believe. 68And if I also ask you, you will by no means answer Me or let Me go.[a] 69Hereafter the Son of Man will sit on the right hand of the power of God."

70Then they all said, "Are You then the Son of God?"

So He said to them, "You rightly say that I am."

71And they said, "What further testimony do we need? For we have heard it ourselves from His own mouth."

> Luke 23:1
> Pilate, the Roman governor of Judea and Samaria, had come to Jerusalem with his troops for the Passover Feast. His purpose was to make sure the thousands of Jews who had traveled to the city for the annual holiday did not attempt to riot or revolt. As the highest authority in the land, Pilate had the power to sentence criminals to death. The Jewish council had the authority to hand down verdicts, but did not have the authority to execute a prisoner without permission from the Roman authorities.

JESUS HANDED OVER TO PONTIUS PILATE

23 Then the whole multitude of them arose and led Him to Pilate. 2And they began to accuse Him, saying, "We found this fellow perverting the[a] nation, and forbidding to pay taxes to Caesar, saying that He Himself is Christ, a King."

3Then Pilate asked Him, saying, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

He answered him and said, "It is as you say."

4So Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowd, "I find no fault in this Man."

5But they were the more fierce, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee to this place."

JESUS FACES HEROD

6When Pilate heard of Galilee,[a] he asked if the Man were a Galilean. 7And as soon as he knew that He belonged to Herod's jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time. 8Now when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceedingly glad; for he had desired for a long time to see Him, because he had heard many things about Him, and he hoped to see some miracle done by Him. 9Then he questioned Him with many words, but He answered him nothing. 10And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused Him. 11Then Herod, with his men of war, treated Him with contempt and mocked Him, arrayed Him in a gorgeous robe, and sent Him back to Pilate. 12That very day Pilate and Herod became friends with each other, for previously they had been at enmity with each other.

13Then Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests, the rulers, and the people, 14said to them, "You have brought this Man to me, as one who misleads the people. And indeed, having examined Him in your presence, I have found no fault in this Man concerning those things of which you accuse Him; 15no, neither did Herod, for I sent you back to him;[a] and indeed nothing deserving of death has been done by Him.

22:61 [a]NU-Text adds today. 22:64 [a]NU-Text reads And having blindfolded Him, they asked Him. 22:68 [a]NU-Text omits also and Me or let Me go. 23:2 [a]NU-Text reads our. 23:6 [a]NU-Text omits of Galilee. 23:15 [a]NU-Text reads for he sent Him back to us.

MAKING IT REAL // LUKE 23:33, 34

Ultimate Forgiveness Jesus says in the Sermon on the Mount that anyone can love someone who treats him or her well. But in order to be like God, we must love our enemies and pray for them. He says, "I say to you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you, that you may be sons of your Father in heaven . . . For if you love those who love you, what reward have you? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet your brethren only, what do you do more than others? Do not even the tax collectors do so? Therefore you shall be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect" (Matt. 5:44–48).

All throughout the New Testament, the writers emphasize that the goal of our faith, after salvation, is to become more Christlike—to imitate God. We are instructed to love our enemies because that's what God does. Here in Luke 23:33–35, Jesus sets the example for us. He prays for the people who are killing Him, and He asks God to forgive them.

Loving your enemies does not mean that you approve of what they do. It means that you love them in spite of it. You can pray for them, yet not participate in what they do. Sometimes you've just got to grit your teeth and determine that you will obey God. Loving when you don't feel like it, but because it's God's command—now that's love. God hates our sin, but loves all of us in spite of it. Follow His example. (See also: Mark 11:25, 26; Luke 6:27, 35.)

Words to Live By

Know: The Greek word translated as "know" in Luke 23:34 is eido (i'-do), and can also mean "to perceive or understand, especially the deeper significance or meaning of something." In the midst of His worst pain and agony, Jesus was still concerned for the people who were crucifying Him. He knew that they didn't understand the full impact of what they were doing (killing the Messiah), and begged for their forgiveness from the Father. The very sacrifice He was making at that moment is what would make that very forgiveness possible. That is the ultimate example of true blessing and love toward those who persecute you.

16 I will therefore chastise Him and release Him" 17 (for it was necessary for him to release one to them at the feast).[a]

18 And they all cried out at once, saying,
"Away with this Man, and release to us Barabbas"— 19 who had been thrown into prison for a certain rebellion made in the city, and for murder.

20 Pilate, therefore, wishing to release Jesus, again called out to them. 21 But they shouted, saying, "Crucify Him, crucify Him!"

22 Then he said to them the third time,
"Why, what evil has He done? I have found no reason for death in Him. I will therefore chastise Him and let Him go."

23 But they were insistent, demanding with loud voices that He be crucified. And the voices of these men and of the chief priests prevailed.[a] 24 So Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they requested.
25 And he released to them[a] the one they requested, who for rebellion and murder had been thrown into prison; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

THE KING ON A CROSS

26 Now as they led Him away, they laid hold of a certain man, Simon a Cyrenian, who was coming from the country, and on him they laid the cross that he might bear it after Jesus.

27And a great multitude of the people followed Him, and women who also mourned and lamented Him. 28But Jesus, turning to them, said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. 29For indeed the days are coming in which they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, wombs that never bore, and breasts which never nursed!' 30Then they will begin 'to say to the mountains, "Fall on us!" and to the hills, "Cover us!"' [a] 31For if they do these things in the green wood, what will be done in the dry?"

32There were also two others, criminals, led with Him to be put to death. 33And when they had come to the place called Calvary, there they crucified Him, and the criminals, one on the right hand and the other on the left. 34Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they do."[a]

And they divided His garments and cast lots. 35And the people stood looking on. But even the rulers with them sneered, saying, "He saved others; let Him save Himself if He is the Christ, the chosen of God."

36The soldiers also mocked Him, coming and offering Him sour wine, 37and saying, "If You are the King of the Jews, save Yourself."

38And an inscription also was written over Him in letters of Greek, Latin, and Hebrew:[a]

THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39Then one of the criminals who were hanged blasphemed Him, saying, "If You are the Christ,[a] save Yourself and us."

40But the other, answering, rebuked him, saying, "Do you not even fear God, seeing you are under the same condemnation? 41And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward of our deeds; but this Man has done nothing wrong." 42Then he said to Jesus, "Lord,[a] remember me when You come into Your kingdom."

43And Jesus said to him, "Assuredly, I say to you, today you will be with Me in Paradise."

JESUS DIES ON THE CROSS

44Now it was[a] about the sixth hour, and there was darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour. 45Then the sun was darkened,[a] and the veil of the temple was torn in two. 46And when Jesus had cried out with a loud voice, He said, "Father, 'into Your hands I commit My spirit.'"[a] Having said this, He breathed His last.

47So when the centurion saw what had happened, he glorified God, saying, "Certainly this was a righteous Man!"

48And the whole crowd who came together to that sight, seeing what had been done, beat their breasts and returned. 49But all His acquaintances, and the women who followed Him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

JESUS BURIED IN JOSEPH'S TOMB

50Now behold, there was a man named Joseph, a council member, a good and just man. 51He had not consented to their decision and deed. He was from Arimathea, a city of the Jews, who himself was also waiting[a] for the kingdom of God. 52This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. 53Then he took it down, wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a tomb that was hewn out of the rock, where no one had ever lain before. 54That day was the Preparation, and the Sabbath drew near.

Luke 23:53

Jesus' tomb was actually a small room carved into a large rock. The heavy stone that was placed in front of the tomb was not intended to keep bodies from coming out, but to keep animals from getting in.

55And the women who had come with Him from Galilee followed after, and they observed the tomb and how His body was laid. 56Then they returned and prepared spices and fragrant oils. And they rested on the Sabbath according to the commandment.

23:30 [a]Hosea 10:8 23:34 [a]NU-Text brackets the first sentence as a later addition. 23:38 [a]NU-Text omits written and in letters of Greek, Latin, and Hebrew. 23:39 [a]NU-Text reads Are You not the Christ? 23:42 [a]NU-Text reads And he said, "Jesus, remember me. 23:44 [a]NU-Text adds already. 23:45 [a]NU-Text reads obscured. 23:46 [a]Psalm 31:5 23:51 [a]NU-Text reads who was waiting.

HE IS RISEN

24 Now on the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they, and certain other women with them,[a] came to the tomb bringing the spices which they had prepared. [2]But they found the stone rolled away from the tomb. [3]Then they went in and did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. [4]And it happened, as they were greatly[a] perplexed about this, that behold, two men stood by them in shining garments. [5]Then, as they were afraid and bowed their faces to the earth, they said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead? [6]He is not here, but is risen! Remember how He spoke to you when He was still in Galilee, [7]saying, 'The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.'"

[8]And they remembered His words. [9]Then they returned from the tomb and told all these things to the eleven and to all the rest. [10]It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them, who told these things to the apostles. [11]And their words seemed to them like idle tales, and they did not believe them. [12]But Peter arose and ran to the tomb; and stooping down, he saw the linen cloths lying[a] by themselves; and he departed, marveling to himself at what had happened.

THE ROAD TO EMMAUS

[13]Now behold, two of them were traveling that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was seven miles[a] from Jerusalem. [14]And they talked together of all these things which had happened. [15]So it was, while they conversed and reasoned, that Jesus Himself drew near and went with them. [16]But their eyes were restrained, so that they did not know Him.

[17]And He said to them, "What kind of conversation is this that you have with one another as you walk and are sad?"[a]

[18]Then the one whose name was Cleopas answered and said to Him, "Are You the only stranger in Jerusalem, and have You not known the things which happened there in these days?"

[19]And He said to them, "What things?"

So they said to Him, "The things concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a Prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, [20]and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered Him to be condemned to death, and crucified Him. [21]But we were hoping that it was He who was going to redeem Israel. Indeed, besides all this, today is the third day since these things happened. [22]Yes, and certain women of our company, who arrived at the tomb early, astonished us. [23]When they did not find His body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels who said He was alive. [24]And certain of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but Him they did not see."

[25]Then He said to them, "O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken! [26]Ought not the Christ to have suffered these things and to enter into His glory?" [27]And beginning at Moses and all the Prophets, He expounded to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself.

THE DISCIPLES' EYES OPENED

[28]Then they drew near to the village where they were going, and He indicated that He would have gone farther. [29]But they constrained Him, saying, "Abide with us, for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent." And He went in to stay with them.

[30]Now it came to pass, as He sat at the table with them, that He took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. [31]Then their eyes were opened and they knew Him; and He vanished from their sight.

[32]And they said to one another, "Did not our heart burn within us while He talked with us on the road, and while He opened the Scriptures to us?" [33]So they rose up that very hour and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven and those who were with them gathered together, [34]saying, "The Lord is risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!" [35]And they told about the things that had happened on the road, and how He was known to them in the breaking of bread.

24:1 [a]NU-Text omits and certain other women with them. 24:4 [a]NU-Text omits greatly. 24:12 [a]NU-Text omits lying. 24:13 [a]Literally sixty stadia 24:17 [a]NU-Text reads as you walk? And they stood still, looking sad.

JESUS APPEARS TO HIS DISCIPLES

36Now as they said these things, Jesus Himself stood in the midst of them, and said to them, "Peace to you." 37But they were terrified and frightened, and supposed they had seen a spirit. 38And He said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do doubts arise in your hearts? 39Behold My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself. Handle Me and see, for a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see I have."

40When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His feet.[a] 41But while they still did not believe for joy, and marveled, He said to them, "Have you any food here?" 42So they gave Him a piece of a broiled fish and some honeycomb.[a] 43And He took it and ate in their presence.

THE SCRIPTURES OPENED

44Then He said to them, "These are the words which I spoke to you while I was still with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms concerning Me." 45And He opened their understanding, that they might comprehend the Scriptures.

46Then He said to them, "Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise[a] from the dead the third day, 47and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. 48And you are witnesses of these things. 49Behold, I send the Promise of My Father upon you; but tarry in the city of Jerusalem[a] until you are endued with power from on high."

THE ASCENSION

50And He led them out as far as Bethany, and He lifted up His hands and blessed them. 51Now it came to pass, while He blessed them, that He was parted from them and carried up into heaven. 52And they worshiped Him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy, 53and were continually in the temple praising and[a] blessing God. Amen.[b]

KEY VERSE:

And truly Jesus did many other signs in the presence of His disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in His name (John 20:30, 31).

THEN /// The Gospel of John was written by one of Jesus' best friends. It's an inside look by someone who worked right beside Jesus throughout His ministry. John's Gospel isn't so much the story of Jesus' life. Rather, it is more like an overview of why we should believe Jesus was the Son of God.

John wasn't as concerned that we know about what Jesus did (and in what order) as he was that we know Jesus and love Him as John did. John wanted us to believe the mystery of Jesus' deity—that while He was a Person, He was really and truly God.

The other Gospels were already written by the time John sat down to have his say. John didn't need to rewrite the same things. So instead of starting with Jesus' birth or even God's promise to Abraham, John started with the creation of the world. Since Jesus was God, Jesus was there when the world was created.

NOW /// One of the most famous verses in the world is in the third chapter of John. You've probably heard John 3:16 many times. It says that God loved the world so much that He sent His only Son, Jesus, so that we could have eternal life by believing in Him. Sound familiar?

Jesus actually said this as a part of a conversation with a man named Nicodemus. Nicodemus was a religious leader and many of his associates were giving Jesus a hard time. Maybe that's why Nicodemus came to talk to Jesus after it was dark outside. He asked Jesus to explain all this faith and salvation and "born again" stuff to him. Jesus did that; and, in the process, because of John's Gospel, He explained it to us as well.

REALITY CHECK /// John stood by the cross when Jesus was crucified. It was a gruesome sight. It must have been difficult to watch, but John was there. Jesus even talked to him from the cross. He asked John to take care of Mary, Jesus' mom. When Jesus died on the cross, it was the single most significant moment the world had ever seen. It was God giving His life for us. It was all of our sins being forgiven in one moment. And it was one best friend watching another best friend die like a criminal even though He was innocent. What do you think it would have been like to be John standing at the foot of the cross?

It is a good thing for us that one of Jesus' best friends wrote a Gospel. We need to know what it's like to be a friend of God so that we can learn to be one, too.

THE ETERNAL WORD

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2He was in the beginning with God. 3All things were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made. 4In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend[a] it.

JOHN'S WITNESS: THE TRUE LIGHT

6There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. 7This man came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all through him might believe. 8He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light. 9That was the true Light which gives light to every man coming into the world.[a]

10He was in the world, and the world was made through Him, and the world did not know Him. 11He came to His own,[a] and His own[b] did not receive Him. 12But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, to those who believe in His name: 13who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

PROFILE
JOHN THE BAPTIST

People who make a difference are themselves often different. They don't fit. They don't just go along with everyone else. They stand up and stand out. Some accomplish great good; others create chaos. They are remembered both for what they did and for who they were. John the Baptist was a "different" person who made a difference in the best way.

God called this John into a life as a messenger, the one who announced the arrival of the Savior Jesus Christ. John understood who he was and he was single-minded in pursuing his calling. He removed himself from distractions by living in the wilderness. He wore camel skins and ate desert food. The only trend he started was a trend of conviction (sorrow for sins). He pointed out people's sinfulness. He fearlessly called people—the poor, the soldiers, a king—to repentance. He told them to get ready because Jesus had arrived on the scene. He prepared the way for the Lord.

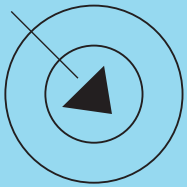
What difference did John the Baptist make? Did Jesus get the welcome he deserved? No. But there were some who were prepared for Christ. We know John made a difference because Jesus said so: "Assuredly, I say to you, among those born of women there has not risen one greater than John the Baptist; but he who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he" (Matt. 11:11).

+ MAKING A DIFFERENCE:

John made a difference because he followed what God told him to do, not because he acted and looked different. John was definitely not afraid of being different, but his focus was on God, not himself. Most people focus on how they look and act; they try to be just like everyone else and they often travel in groups. Being different takes more courage. Obeying God's instructions and daring to be different takes courage and determination. It's those like John, who set out to be what God has called them to be, who end up making a difference. Have you asked God to make His calling clear to you?

? WANT TO KNOW MORE?

Read about John, this unique difference-maker, in all four Gospels. He is also mentioned several times in Acts.



John the Baptist was one of a kind. He knew who he was and didn't care what anyone else thought. He was about as real as it gets. John loved Jesus and told the world about Him in a way only John could. John had the courage to be different. You can, too!

THE WORD BECOMES FLESH

14 And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.
15 John bore witness of Him and cried out, saying, "This was He of whom I said, me, for He was before me.'"

ceived, and grace for grace. 17 For the law

PROMISE

God promises you blessing.

Of His fullness we have all received, and grace for grace (John 1:16).

Check out what this verse is saying. God has given us "of His fullness . . . and grace for grace." This means He's given us one blessing after another. He is the One who blesses. Notice that the verse doesn't say He takes from us.

A lot of people have the idea that God is out to take everything away from them, but that's not true. In fact, His Word says that He has come that we might have abundant life (John 10:10). Abundant means plentiful. God isn't a taker. He's a giver, and He wants to give you the desires of your heart (Psalm 37:4). Make the choice to let God be the joy and the delight of your life—and really mean it—and He will bring to pass your heart's desires.

God's Word also says that if we will put Him first and do what He wants, God will also add other things to us. What kind of things? Whatever we need. Romans 8:32 sums up all of this: "He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?" Don't forget it: He is the One who blesses time after time after time!

SEE FOR YOURSELF// Psalms 35:27; 37:4, 5; Matthew 6:33; James 1:17

truth came through Jesus Christ. 18No one has seen God at any time. The only begotten Son,[a] who is in the bosom of the Father, He has declared Him.

A VOICE IN THE WILDERNESS

19Now this is the testimony of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?"

20He confessed, and did not deny, but confessed, "I am not the Christ."

21And they asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?"

He said, "I am not."

"Are you the Prophet?"

And he answered, "No."

22Then they said to him, "Who are you, that we may give an answer to those who sent us? What do you say about yourself?"

23He said: "I am

'The voice of one crying in the wilderness:
"Make straight the way of the LORD*,"'*[a] as the prophet Isaiah said."

24Now those who were sent were from the Pharisees. 25And they asked him, saying, "Why then do you baptize if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?"

26John answered them, saying, "I baptize with water, but there stands One among you whom you do not know. 27It is He who, coming after me, is preferred before me, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to loose."

28These things were done in Bethabara[a] beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

THE LAMB OF GOD

29The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him, and said, "Behold! The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! 30This is He of whom I said, 'After me comes a Man who is preferred before me, for He was before me.' 31I did not know Him; but that He should be revealed to Israel, therefore I came baptizing with water."

32And John bore witness, saying, "I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and He remained upon Him. 33I did not know Him, but He who sent me to baptize with water said to me, 'Upon whom you see the Spirit descending, and remaining on Him, this is He who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.' 34And I have seen and testified that this is the Son of God."

THE FIRST DISCIPLES

35Again, the next day, John stood with two of his disciples. 36And looking at Jesus as He walked, he said, "Behold the Lamb of God!"

37The two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus. 38Then Jesus turned, and seeing them following, said to them, "What do you seek?"

They said to Him, "Rabbi" (which is to say, when translated, Teacher), "where are You staying?"

39He said to them, "Come and see." They came and saw where He was staying, and remained with Him that day (now it was about the tenth hour).

40One of the two who heard John speak, and followed Him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. 41He first found his own brother Simon, and said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is translated, the Christ). 42And he brought him to Jesus.

Now when Jesus looked at him, He said, "You are Simon the son of Jonah.[a] You shall be called Cephas" (which is translated, A Stone).

PHILIP AND NATHANAEL

43The following day Jesus wanted to go to Galilee, and He found Philip and said to him, "Follow Me." 44Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. 45Philip found Nathanael and said to him, "We have found Him of whom Moses in the law, and also the prophets, wrote—Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph."

46And Nathanael said to him, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?"

Philip said to him, "Come and see."

47Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward Him, and said of him, "Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no deceit!"

48Nathanael said to Him, "How do You know me?"

Jesus answered and said to him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."

49Nathanael answered and said to Him, "Rabbi, You are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!"

50Jesus answered and said to him, "Because I said to you, 'I saw you under the fig tree,' do you believe? You will see greater things than these." 51And He said to him, "Most assuredly, I say to you, hereafter[a] you shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man."

WATER TURNED TO WINE

2 On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. 2Now both Jesus and His disciples were invited to the wedding. 3And when they ran out of wine, the mother of Jesus said to Him, "They have no wine."

4Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does your concern have to do with Me? My hour has not yet come."

5His mother said to the servants, "Whatever He says to you, do it."

6Now there were set there six waterpots of stone, according to the manner of purification of the Jews, containing twenty or thirty gallons apiece. 7Jesus said to them, "Fill the waterpots with water." And they filled them up to the brim. 8And He said to them, "Draw some out now, and take it to the master of the feast." And they took it. 9When the master of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and did not know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom. 10And he said to him, "Every man at the beginning sets out the good wine, and when the guests have well drunk, then the inferior. You have kept the good wine until now!"

11This beginning of signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and manifested His glory; and His disciples believed in Him.

12After this He went down to Capernaum, He, His mother, His brothers, and His disciples; and they did not stay there many days.

JESUS CLEANSES THE TEMPLE

13Now the Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 14And He found in the temple those who sold oxen

MIR MAKING IT REAL // JOHN 2:24

Jesus Knows Our Hearts To be omniscient is to be all-knowing, and God is omniscient. In other words, He knows all things! Nobody "taught" God anything. Being omniscient goes along with being God. There is nothing you can hide from Him. Just like in this verse, Jesus knew people's hearts and knew their thoughts. This is a quality that belongs only to God.

A lot of people con themselves into believing that they are fooling God. You can fool your friends, your family, your youth pastor, and even your BFF, but you'll never fool God. The good news is that no matter how crummy a day, week, month, or year you're having, God already knows. He knows exactly what you're going through. It doesn't matter if nobody on this earth understands the pain you feel, or even understands you. God does and He's on your side. Going through the tough times is a whole lot easier when you realize that He fully knows and understands what's happening and is right there with you to help. He also knows how everything is going to turn out in the end! When you get to the hard or lonely places in your life, remember—He knows and He cares! (See also: Ps. 147:5; Is. 40:28; Rom. 11:33.)

Words to Live By

Knew: The Greek word translated as "knew" in John 2:24 is ginosko (ghin-oce'-ko). It shows us that Jesus is totally aware of everything that goes on in the hearts of people. Even things we think we've hidden deep inside, Jesus still knows and understands. It does no good to try to hide motives or thoughts or feelings from Jesus—He already knows what's going on inside your heart.

and sheep and doves, and the money changers doing business. 15When He had made a whip of cords, He drove them all out of the temple, with the sheep and the oxen, and poured out the changers' money and overturned the tables. 16And He said to those who sold doves, "Take these things away! Do not make My Father's house a house of merchandise!" 17Then His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for Your house has eaten[a] Me up."[b]

ANGER
How did Jesus feel and express righteous anger?
John 2:13–17

18So the Jews answered and said to Him, "What sign do You show to us, since You do these things?"

19Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."

John 2:20

It wasn't generosity that prompted Herod the Great to renovate the temple in Jerusalem for his Jewish subjects. He wanted to keep the Jews happy with the Roman Empire so that they wouldn't get any ideas about rebelling. Specially trained priests served as advisors for the construction to make sure that the building plans matched the original floor plans God gave to Moses. Though construction had been going on for decades, the temple was not finished in Jesus' lifetime.

20Then the Jews said, "It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and will You raise it up in three days?"

21But He was speaking of the temple of His body. 22Therefore, when He had risen

2:17 [a]NU-Text and M-Text read will eat. [b]Psalm 69:9

from the dead, His disciples remembered that He had said this to them;[a] and they believed the Scripture and the word which Jesus had said.

THE DISCERNER OF HEARTS

23Now when He was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the feast, many believed in His name when they saw the signs which He did. 24But Jesus did not commit Himself to them, because He knew all men, 25and had no need that anyone should testify of man, for He knew what was in man.

THE NEW BIRTH

3 There was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. 2This man came to Jesus by night and said to Him, "Rabbi, we know that You are a teacher come from God; for no one can do these signs that You do unless God is with him."

3Jesus answered and said to him, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

4Nicodemus said to Him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born?"

5Jesus answered, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. 6That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. 7Do not marvel that I said to you, 'You must be born again.' 8The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell where it comes from and where it goes. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit."

9Nicodemus answered and said to Him, "How can these things be?"

10Jesus answered and said to him, "Are you the teacher of Israel, and do not know these things? 11Most assuredly, I say to you, We speak what We know and testify what We have seen, and you do not receive Our witness. 12If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things? 13No one has ascended to heaven but He who came down from heaven, that is, the Son of Man who is in heaven.[a] 14And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up, 15that whoever believes in Him should not perish but[a] have eternal life. 16For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. 17For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.

ETERNAL LIFE
How do we gain eternal life?
John 3:15, 16

18"He who believes in Him is not condemned; but he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. 19And this is the condemnation, that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. 20For everyone practicing evil hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. 21But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his deeds may be clearly seen, that they have been done in God."

JOHN THE BAPTIST EXALTS CHRIST

22After these things Jesus and His disciples came into the land of Judea, and there He remained with them and baptized. 23Now John also was baptizing in Aenon near Salim, because there was much water there. And they came and were baptized. 24For John had not yet been thrown into prison.

25Then there arose a dispute between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purification. 26And they came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, He who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you have testified—behold, He is baptizing, and all are coming to Him!"

27John answered and said, "A man can receive nothing unless it has been given to him from heaven. 28You yourselves bear me witness, that I said, 'I am not the Christ,' but, 'I have been sent before Him.' 29He who has the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. Therefore this joy of mine is fulfilled. 30He must increase, but I must decrease. 31He who comes from above is above all; he who is of the earth is earthly and speaks of the earth. He who comes from heaven is above all. 32And what He has seen and heard, that He testifies; and no one receives His testimony. 33He who has received His testimony has certified that God is true. 34For He whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God does not give the Spirit by measure. 35The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into His hand. 36He who believes in the Son has everlasting life; and he who does not believe the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abides on him."

A SAMARITAN WOMAN MEETS HER MESSIAH

4 Therefore, when the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John 2(though Jesus Himself did not baptize, but His disciples), 3He left Judea and departed again to Galilee. 4But He needed to go through Samaria.

> John 4:4
> Samaria was located in what had once been the nation of Israel. When the Assyrians conquered the northern kingdom of Israel in 722 B.C., they took many Israelites away as captives and brought in many foreigners to live in Canaan. It wasn't long before the Israelites who were left behind started getting involved with the foreigners who had moved in. Not only did the Israelites begin marrying and having kids with the foreigners, they also adopted their idol worship. This mingling continued generation after generation until the distinction between the Israelites and the foreigners disappeared altogether. The descendants of these mixed marriages were known as Samaritans.

5So He came to a city of Samaria which is called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. 6Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied from His journey, sat thus by the well. It was about the sixth hour.

7A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give Me a drink." 8For His disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.

9Then the woman of Samaria said to Him, "How is it that You, being a Jew, ask a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?" For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.

10Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water."

11The woman said to Him, "Sir, You have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. Where then do You get that living water? 12Are You greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank from it himself, as well as his sons and his livestock?"

13Jesus answered and said to her, "Whoever drinks of this water will thirst again, 14but whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst. But the water that I shall give him will become in him a fountain of water springing up into everlasting life."

15The woman said to Him, "Sir, give me this water, that I may not thirst, nor come here to draw."

16Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here."

17The woman answered and said, "I have no husband."

Jesus said to her, "You have well said, 'I have no husband,' 18for you have had five husbands, and the one whom you now have is not your husband; in that you spoke truly."

19The woman said to Him, "Sir, I perceive that You are a prophet. 20Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, and you Jews say that in Jerusalem is the place where one ought to worship."

21Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe Me, the hour is coming when you will neither on this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, worship the Father. 22You worship what you do not know; we know what we worship, for salvation is of the Jews. 23But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for the Father is seeking such to worship Him. 24God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth."

25The woman said to Him, "I know that Messiah is coming" (who is called Christ). "When He comes, He will tell us all things."

26Jesus said to her, "I who speak to you am He."

JESUS
Is Jesus the Messiah?
John 4:21–26

THE WHITENED HARVEST

27And at this point His disciples came, and they marveled that He talked with a woman; yet no one said, "What do You seek?" or, "Why are You talking with her?"

28The woman then left her waterpot, went her way into the city, and said to the men, 29"Come, see a Man who told me all things that I ever did. Could this be the Christ?" 30Then they went out of the city and came to Him.

31In the meantime His disciples urged Him, saying, "Rabbi, eat."

32But He said to them, "I have food to eat of which you do not know."

33Therefore the disciples said to one another, "Has anyone brought Him anything to eat?"

34Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me, and to finish His work. 35Do you not say, 'There are still four months and then comes the harvest'? Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, for they are already white for harvest! 36And he who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit for eternal life, that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together. 37For in this the saying is true: 'One sows and another reaps.' 38I sent you to reap that for which you have not labored; others have labored, and you have entered into their labors."

THE SAVIOR OF THE WORLD

39And many of the Samaritans of that city believed in Him because of the word of the woman who testified, "He told me all that I ever did." 40So when the Samaritans had come to Him, they urged Him to stay with them; and He stayed there two days. 41And many more believed because of His own word.

42Then they said to the woman, "Now we believe, not because of what you said, for we ourselves have heard Him and we know that this is indeed the Christ,[a] the Savior of the world."

WELCOME AT GALILEE

43Now after the two days He departed from there and went to Galilee. 44For Jesus Himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country. 45So when He came to Galilee, the Galileans received Him, having seen all the things He did in Jerusalem at the feast; for they also had gone to the feast.

A NOBLEMAN'S SON HEALED

46So Jesus came again to Cana of Galilee where He had made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman whose son was sick at Capernaum. 47When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to Him and implored Him to come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death. 48Then Jesus said to him, "Unless you people see signs and wonders, you will by no means believe."

49The nobleman said to Him, "Sir, come down before my child dies!"

50Jesus said to him, "Go your way; your son lives." So the man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he went his way. 51And as he was now going down, his servants met him and told him, saying, "Your son lives!"

52Then he inquired of them the hour when he got better. And they said to him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him." 53So the father knew that it was at the same hour in which Jesus said to him, "Your son lives." And he himself believed, and his whole household.

54This again is the second sign Jesus did when He had come out of Judea into Galilee.

4:42 [a]NU-Text omits the Christ.

A MAN HEALED AT THE POOL OF BETHESDA

5 After this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 2Now there is in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate a pool, which is called in Hebrew, Bethesda,[a] having five porches. 3In these lay a great multitude of sick people, blind, lame, paralyzed, waiting for the moving of the water. 4For an angel went down at a certain time into the pool and stirred up the water; then whoever stepped in first, after the stirring of the water, was made well of whatever disease he had.[a] 5Now a certain man was there who had an infirmity thirty-eight years. 6When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he already had been in that condition a long time, He said to him, "Do you want to be made well?"

7The sick man answered Him, "Sir, I have no man to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up; but while I am coming, another steps down before me."

8Jesus said to him, "Rise, take up your bed and walk." 9And immediately the man was made well, took up his bed, and walked.

And that day was the Sabbath. 10The Jews therefore said to him who was cured, "It is the Sabbath; it is not lawful for you to carry your bed."

11He answered them, "He who made me well said to me, 'Take up your bed and walk.'"

12Then they asked him, "Who is the Man who said to you, 'Take up your bed and walk'?" 13But the one who was healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, a multitude being in that place. 14Afterward Jesus found him in the temple, and said to him, "See, you have been made well. Sin no more, lest a worse thing come upon you."

15The man departed and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.

HONOR THE FATHER AND THE SON

16For this reason the Jews persecuted Jesus, and sought to kill Him,[a] because He had done these things on the Sabbath. 17But Jesus answered them, "My Father has been working until now, and I have been working."

18Therefore the Jews sought all the more to kill Him, because He not only broke the Sabbath, but also said that God was His Father, making Himself equal with God. 19Then Jesus answered and said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of Himself, but what He sees the Father do; for whatever He does, the Son also does in like manner. 20For the Father loves the Son, and shows Him all things that He Himself does; and He will show Him greater works than these, that you may marvel. 21For as the Father raises the dead and gives life to them, even so the Son gives life to whom He will. 22For the Father judges no one, but has committed all judgment to the Son, 23that all should honor the Son just as they honor the Father. He who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him.

ASSURANCE

What are Christians assured of?

John 5:24

LIFE AND JUDGMENT ARE THROUGH THE SON

24"Most assuredly, I say to you, he who hears My word and believes in Him who sent Me has everlasting life, and shall not come into judgment, but has passed from death into life. 25Most assuredly, I say to you, the hour is coming, and now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God; and those who hear will live. 26For as the Father has life in Himself, so He has granted the Son to have life in Himself, 27and has given Him authority to execute judgment also, because He is the Son of Man. 28Do not marvel at this; for the hour is coming in which all who are in the graves will hear His voice 29and come forth—those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of condemnation. 30I can of Myself do nothing. As I hear, I judge; and My judgment is righteous, because I do not seek My own will but the will of the Father who sent Me.

5:2 [a]NU-Text reads Bethzatha. 5:4 [a]NU-Text omits waiting for the moving of the water at the end of verse 3, and all of verse 4. 5:16 [a]NU-Text omits and sought to kill Him.

ETERNAL LIFE
Who receives eternal condemnation?
John 5:28, 29

THE FOURFOLD WITNESS

31"If I bear witness of Myself, My witness is not true. 32There is another who bears witness of Me, and I know that the witness which He witnesses of Me is true.
33You have sent to John, and he has borne witness to the truth. 34Yet I do not receive testimony from man, but I say these things that you may be saved. 35He was the burning and shining lamp, and you were willing for a time to rejoice in his light. 36But I have a greater witness than John's; for the works which the Father has given Me to finish—the very works that I do—bear witness of Me, that the Father has sent Me. 37And the Father Himself, who sent Me, has testified of Me. You have neither heard His voice at any time, nor seen His form. 38But you do not have His word abiding in you, because whom He sent, Him you do not believe.
39You search the Scriptures, for in them you think you have eternal life; and these are they which testify of Me. 40But you are not willing to come to Me that you may have life.

41"I do not receive honor from men.
42But I know you, that you do not have the love of God in you. 43I have come in My Father's name, and you do not receive Me; if another comes in his own name, him you will receive. 44How can you believe, who receive honor from one another, and do not seek the honor that comes from the only God? 45Do not think that I shall accuse you to the Father; there is one who accuses you—Moses, in whom you trust.
46For if you believed Moses, you would believe Me; for he wrote about Me. 47But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe My words?"

FEEDING THE FIVE THOUSAND

6 After these things Jesus went over the Sea of Galilee, which is the Sea of Tiberias. 2Then a great multitude followed Him, because they saw His signs which He performed on those who were diseased. 3And Jesus went up on the mountain, and there He sat with His disciples.

4Now the Passover, a feast of the Jews, was near. 5Then Jesus lifted up His eyes, and seeing a great multitude coming toward Him, He said to Philip, "Where shall we buy bread, that these may eat?" 6But this He said to test him, for He Himself knew what He would do.

7Philip answered Him, "Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may have a little."

8One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to Him, 9"There is a lad here who has five barley loaves and two small fish, but what are they among so many?"

10Then Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. 11And Jesus took the loaves, and when He had given thanks He distributed them to the disciples, and the disciples[a] to those sitting down; and likewise of the fish, as much as they wanted.
12So when they were filled, He said to His disciples, "Gather up the fragments that remain, so that nothing is lost." 13Therefore they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves which were left over by those who had eaten. 14Then those men, when they had seen the sign that Jesus did, said,
"This is truly the Prophet who is to come into the world."

JESUS WALKS ON THE SEA

15Therefore when Jesus perceived that they were about to come and take Him by force to make Him king, He departed again to the mountain by Himself alone.

16Now when evening came, His disciples went down to the sea, 17got into the boat, and went over the sea toward Capernaum.
And it was already dark, and Jesus had not come to them. 18Then the sea arose because a great wind was blowing. 19So when they had rowed about three or four miles,[a] they saw Jesus walking on the sea and drawing

PROFILE
A BOY WITH A LUNCH

One boy in the Bible lived by a motto that turned out to make quite a difference: Lunch—don't leave home without it. His story has been told for thousands of years, but we don't even know his name.

That nameless boy was among a crowd of thousands who followed Jesus around the Sea of Galilee to hear Him teach. Not knowing how long he would be gone, the boy had brought a simple meal: five loaves and two fish. That was probably enough food to feed a young boy several meals. But, when it turned out to be the only food around, it looked pretty insignificant to feed a crowd of thousands.

Then the boy's little lunch was turned over to Jesus. Jesus prayed and multiplied the contents of the meal so that it served every one of the five thousand . . . and there were leftovers! The boy himself gave up his meal, but got at least as much in return, not to mention the thrill of Jesus' miracle. The boy's small act of generosity was a big enough deal to be mentioned by all four writers of the Good News.

Jesus' apostles saw an impossible situation: there were thousands of hungry people and they only had five loaves and two fish. They momentarily overlooked the obvious fact that they also had Jesus. He made the difference. Even a little boy's lunch gift was more than enough in Jesus' hands.

+ MAKING A DIFFERENCE:

You may be convinced that you have little to offer Christ. Measured against the needs of the world around you, you may well be right. None of us can change the world around us any more easily than the nameless little boy could feed everyone with his pitiful little lunch. The only way we can truly make a difference is by placing who we are and what we have into God's hands and expecting Him to use us. Jesus can and will multiply all that we have and make us more than we could ever be on our own.

WANT TO KNOW MORE?

You can find this story in Matthew 14:13–21; Mark 6:30–44; Luke 9:10–17; and John 6:1–14.

A little boy with a lunch became a channel to bless thousands. His willingness made a real difference. Yours can, too!

near the boat; and they were afraid. 20But He said to them, "It is I; do not be afraid." 21Then they willingly received Him into the boat, and immediately the boat was at the land where they were going.

THE BREAD FROM HEAVEN

22On the following day, when the people who were standing on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except that one which His disciples had entered,[a] and that Jesus had not entered the boat with His disciples, but His disciples had gone away alone— 23however, other boats came from Tiberias, near the place where they ate bread after the Lord had given thanks— 24when the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, nor His disciples, they also got into boats and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus. 25And when they found Him on the other side of

MAKING IT REAL // JOHN 6:35

Bread of Life "Get a life." Ever heard those words? Ever said those words? Most of the time, when people say that, they mean, "Go find something to do." The life that we get from Jesus is more than just stuff to do. It's a life beyond a beating heart and a set of breathing lungs. It's something extraordinary that happens in your spirit when Jesus lives inside of you.

Jesus came that we might live. We're talking about really living—not just breathing and walking around, not living in a fantasyland, not living with your head in the clouds. We're talking about living to the fullest—having life not just on this earth but forever, in the presence of God.

Jesus is the bread of life. Just like God sent the Israelites manna (life-giving bread) in the wilderness, so He sent Jesus to us as the bread of abundant, eternal life! We don't have to live each day trying to find something to satisfy us. We don't have to wonder what it's going to take to keep us happy from week to week. We don't have to depend on our circumstances to determine our mood. We have the bread of life that always sustains us.

Don't settle for second best. Live life to the fullest! That's what the Lord wants for you. That's what Jesus offers you! (See also: John 6:48–58; 10:10.)

Words to Live By

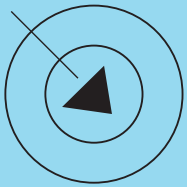
Hunger: The Greek word peinao (pi-nah'-o) is translated as "hunger" in John 6:35, and can also mean "to crave or be in need." Many people crave fulfillment in life and try to meet that craving by seeking popularity, money, power, or what the world calls "success." But nothing will ever stop that craving or meet that need for fulfillment outside of Jesus Christ. He is the bread of life.

the sea, they said to Him, "Rabbi, when did You come here?"

26 Jesus answered them and said, "Most assuredly, I say to you, you seek Me, not because you saw the signs, but because you ate of the loaves and were filled. 27 Do not labor for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to everlasting life, which the Son of Man will give you, because God the Father has set His seal on Him."

28 Then they said to Him, "What shall we do, that we may work the works of God?"

29 Jesus answered and said to them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in Him whom He sent."



30 Therefore they said to Him, "What sign will You perform then, that we may see it and believe You? What work will You do? 31 Our fathers ate the manna in the desert; as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.' "[a]

32 Then Jesus said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread from heaven, but My Father gives you the true bread from heaven. 33 For the bread of God is He who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

34 Then they said to Him, "Lord, give us this bread always."

35 And Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to Me shall never hunger, and he who believes in Me shall never thirst. 36 But I said to you that you have seen Me and yet do not believe. 37 All that the Father gives Me will come to Me, and the one who comes to Me I will by no means cast out. 38 For I have come down from heaven, not to do My own will, but the will of Him who sent Me. 39 This is the will of the Father who sent Me, that of all He has given Me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up at the last day. 40 And this is the will of Him who sent Me, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him may have everlasting life; and I will raise him up at the last day."

PROMISE

God promises to never turn you away.

"All that the Father gives Me will come to Me, and the one who comes to Me I will by no means cast out" (John 6:37).

Some people think they have to have their lives totally together before they turn to God. They think they need to make themselves worthy of Jesus' friendship. This is a lie that suits Satan's purposes pretty well. The problem is that no one can ever be worthy of what God offers. That's a part of God's truth that can be hard to swallow. In this world, we have to earn good things, and Satan tries to make us believe God's way is the same. If Satan can keep people believing they have to somehow earn God's favor—that it's even possible—he can keep them from taking the first step toward God's kingdom.

The truth is that God doesn't ask anyone to be worthy of Him. If you come to Him—without excuses, without trying to justify yourself, just putting your complete trust in Him (like putting all of your weight in a chair)—then Jesus promises not to turn you away. He accepts you because He loves you, not because you've earned His friendship.

RESURRECTION

Who did Jesus promise to raise up at the last day?

John 6:38–40

REJECTED BY HIS OWN

41The Jews then complained about Him, because He said, "I am the bread which came down from heaven." 42And they said,
"Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How is it then that He says, 'I have come down from heaven'?"

43Jesus therefore answered and said to them, "Do not murmur among yourselves.
44No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws him; and I will raise him up at the last day. 45It is written in the prophets, 'And they shall all be taught by God.'[a] Therefore everyone who has heard and learned[b] from the Father comes to Me.
46Not that anyone has seen the Father, except He who is from God; He has seen the Father. 47Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes in Me[a] has everlasting life.
48I am the bread of life. 49Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and are dead.
50This is the bread which comes down from heaven, that one may eat of it and not die.
51I am the living bread which came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and the bread that I shall give is My flesh, which I shall give for the life of the world."

52The Jews therefore quarreled among themselves, saying, "How can this Man give us His flesh to eat?"

53Then Jesus said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in you. 54Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. 55For My flesh is food indeed,[a] and My blood is drink indeed. 56He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him.
57As the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, so he who feeds on Me will live because of Me. 58This is the bread which came down from heaven—not as your fathers ate the manna, and are dead.
He who eats this bread will live forever."

59These things He said in the synagogue as He taught in Capernaum.

MANY DISCIPLES TURN AWAY

60Therefore many of His disciples, when they heard this, said, "This is a hard saying;
who can understand it?"

61When Jesus knew in Himself that His disciples complained about this, He said to them, "Does this offend you? 62*What* then if you should see the Son of Man ascend where He was before? 63It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you are spirit, and they are life. 64But there are some of you who do not believe." For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and who would betray Him. 65And
He said, "Therefore I have said to you that no one can come to Me unless it has been granted to him by My Father."

66From that time many of His disciples went back and walked with Him no more.
67Then Jesus said to the twelve, "Do you also want to go away?"

68But Simon Peter answered Him, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. 69Also we have come to believe and know that You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."[a] 70Jesus answered them, "Did I not choose you, the twelve, and one of you is a devil?" 71He spoke of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon, for it was he who would betray Him, being one of the twelve.

John 7:2

The Feast of Tabernacles, one of the major Jewish holidays, was like a national campout. Each year at harvest time, people made temporary shelters out of tree branches and stayed in those shelters for the entire eight-day holiday. Why, you ask? To remind them of the years their ancestors spent wandering in the desert and living in tents, from the time they left Egypt to the time they entered the Promised Land.

JESUS' BROTHERS DISBELIEVE

7 After these things Jesus walked in Galilee; for He did not want to walk in Judea, because the Jews[a] sought to kill Him. 2Now the Jews' Feast of Tabernacles was at hand. 3His brothers therefore said to Him, "Depart from here and go into Judea, that Your disciples also may see the works that You are doing. 4For no one does anything in secret while he himself seeks to be known openly. If You do these things, show Yourself to the world."
5For even His brothers did not believe in Him.

6Then Jesus said to them, "My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready.
7The world cannot hate you, but it hates Me because I testify of it that its works are evil. 8You go up to this feast. I am not yet[a] going up to this feast, for My time has not yet fully come." 9When He had said these things to them, He remained in Galilee.

THE HEAVENLY SCHOLAR

10But when His brothers had gone up, then He also went up to the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret. 11Then the Jews sought Him at the feast, and said, "Where is He?"
12And there was much complaining among the people concerning Him. Some said, "He is good"; others said, "No, on the contrary,
He deceives the people." 13However, no one spoke openly of Him for fear of the Jews.

14Now about the middle of the feast Jesus went up into the temple and taught.
15And the Jews marveled, saying, "How does this Man know letters, having never studied?"

16Jesus[a] answered them and said, "My doctrine is not Mine, but His who sent Me. 17If anyone wills to do His will, he shall know concerning the doctrine, whether it is from God or whether I speak on My own authority. 18He who speaks from himself seeks his own glory; but He who seeks the glory of the One who sent Him is true, and no unrighteousness is in Him. 19Did not Moses give you the law, yet none of you keeps the law? Why do you seek to kill Me?"

20The people answered and said, "You have a demon. Who is seeking to kill You?"

21Jesus answered and said to them, "I did one work, and you all marvel. 22Moses therefore gave you circumcision (not that it is from Moses, but from the fathers), and

PROMISE

God promises you living water.

"He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his heart will flow rivers of living water" (John 7:38).

Have you ever been really thirsty—like "walking-across-the-desert-in-search-of-water" thirsty? Then you know that when you get that thirsty, there's nothing better than a nice long, cool glass of refreshing water! Water renews us; it cleanses us on the inside and without it, we will die. When you gave your heart to Jesus, you received refreshing, eternal water. It cleanses you and assures you of eternal life. The question is, what are you going to do with that water? Jesus said it should flow from you, not just to you!

We've all seen television programs in which a person in need of water, crawling across the desert spots an imaginary pond in the middle of all the sand. But their hope comes to nothing when the cool water disappears before their eyes. What seemed to be an oasis is really a mirage. Nothing!

That's the question: Are you going to be a mirage or an oasis of life? Will you allow your faith to be a cool, refreshing pool of life to others, or will you actually have nothing to offer but dry, lifeless sand? Jesus will fill you with the living water this world is searching for and cause it to flow from you in streams of hope to others. Don't just talk a good game; really live your faith and watch as those around you also find the power of "living water."

SEE FOR YOURSELF// John 4:1–26; Revelation 21:6; 22:17

you circumcise a man on the Sabbath. [23]If a man receives circumcision on the Sabbath, so that the law of Moses should not be broken, are you angry with Me because I made a man completely well on the Sabbath? [24]Do not judge according to appearance, but judge with righteous judgment."

JUDGMENT

Should we judge by outward appearances?

John 7:24

COULD THIS BE THE CHRIST?

[25]Now some of them from Jerusalem said, "Is this not He whom they seek to kill? [26]But look! He speaks boldly, and they say nothing to Him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is truly[a] the Christ? [27]However, we know where this Man is from; but when the Christ comes, no one knows where He is from."

[28]Then Jesus cried out, as He taught in the temple, saying, "You both know Me, and you know where I am from; and I have not come of Myself, but He who sent Me is true, whom you do not know. [29]But[a] I know Him, for I am from Him, and He sent Me."

[30]Therefore they sought to take Him; but no one laid a hand on Him, because His hour had not yet come. [31]And many of the people believed in Him, and said, "When the Christ comes, will He do more signs than these which this Man has done?"

JESUS AND THE RELIGIOUS LEADERS

[32]The Pharisees heard the crowd murmuring these things concerning Him, and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take Him. [33]Then Jesus said to them,[a] "I shall be with you a little while longer, and then I go to Him who sent Me. [34]You will seek Me and not find Me, and where I am you cannot come."

[35]Then the Jews said among themselves, "Where does He intend to go that we shall not find Him? Does He intend to go to the Dispersion among the Greeks and teach the Greeks? 36What is this thing that He said, 'You will seek Me and not find Me, and where I am you cannot come'?"

THE PROMISE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

37On the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink. 38He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his heart will flow rivers of living water." 39But this He spoke concerning the Spirit, whom those believing[a] in Him would receive; for the Holy[b] Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

WHO IS HE?

40Therefore many[a] from the crowd, when they heard this saying, said, "Truly this is the Prophet." 41Others said, "This is the Christ."

But some said, "Will the Christ come out of Galilee? 42Has not the Scripture said that the Christ comes from the seed of David and from the town of Bethlehem, where David was?" 43So there was a division among the people because of Him. 44Now some of them wanted to take Him, but no one laid hands on Him.

REJECTED BY THE AUTHORITIES

45Then the officers came to the chief priests and Pharisees, who said to them, "Why have you not brought Him?"

46The officers answered, "No man ever spoke like this Man!"

> John 7:47, 48
> Even though the Romans ultimately controlled the land of Israel, they gave the Jews some say in the way things were run. The Jewish council was a group of seventy-one community leaders who served as a type of "supreme court." They made decisions and rulings on legal matters and other special concerns. The council could not impose the death penalty, and its rulings could always be overturned by the Roman rulers.

47Then the Pharisees answered them, "Are you also deceived? 48Have any of the rulers or the Pharisees believed in Him? 49But this crowd that does not know the law is accursed."

50Nicodemus (he who came to Jesus by night,[a] being one of them) said to them, 51"Does our law judge a man before it hears him and knows what he is doing?"

52They answered and said to him, "Are you also from Galilee? Search and look, for no prophet has arisen[a] out of Galilee."

AN ADULTERESS FACES THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD

53And everyone went to his own house.[a]

8 But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.

2Now early[a] in the morning He came again into the temple, and all the people came to Him; and He sat down and taught them. 3Then the scribes and Pharisees brought to Him a woman caught in adultery. And when they had set her in the midst, 4they said to Him, "Teacher, this woman was caught[a] in adultery, in the very act. 5Now Moses, in the law, commanded[a] us that such should be stoned.[b] But what do You say?"[c] 6This they said, testing Him, that they might have something of which to accuse Him. But Jesus stooped down and wrote on the ground with His finger, as though He did not hear.[a]

7So when they continued asking Him, He raised Himself up[a] and said to them, "He who is without sin among you, let him throw a stone at her first." 8And again He stooped down and wrote on the ground. 9Then those who heard it, being convicted by their conscience,[a] went out one by one, beginning with the oldest even to the last. And Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst. 10When Jesus had

The Truth Will Make You Free Satan is the father of lies, a master deceiver, and he wants you to believe anything other than the teachings of Jesus. Satan will deceive you whenever he can—whispering things that are not true over and over in your ear. He hopes you'll believe his tricks and get confused. But remember that confusion is not from God (1 Cor. 14:33). If Satan can make you believe his lies, he'll have you all wrapped up in doubt and bound up with fear. You'll be like a prisoner, caged up in Satan's lies.

Jesus not only emphasizes the importance of truth, He is the source of truth. The truth is that believing in Jesus saves you from your sin, and gives you eternal life. In this verse Jesus says that the truth will set you free because Jesus frees you from your bondage to sin. When you feel confused or overwhelmed, return to Scripture and read the truth of the words of God. From Him you will find direction and clear guidance. Meditate on those words. Let His truth come alive in your mind and in your heart. The Bible teaches much about truth because lies will lead you astray. Stay focused on the truth of God's Word. Know the truth, follow the truth, and tell the truth. It "shall make you free"! (See also: Ps. 33:4; John 1:17; 17:17; Eph. 4:20, 21.)

Words to Live By

Make you free: The Greek word translated as "make you free" in John 8:32 is eleutheroo (el-yoo-ther-o'-o). It carries a meaning of "to liberate" or "to deliver." Believing the truth about Jesus Christ can lead you to trust in Him, and He will liberate you from the power of sin and death. Following His truth can lead you to deliverance from Satan's temptations and deceptions.

raised Himself up and saw no one but the woman, He said to her,[a] "Woman, where are those accusers of yours?[b] Has no one condemned you?"

[11]She said, "No one, Lord."

And Jesus said to her, "Neither do I condemn you; go and[a] sin no more."

[12]Then Jesus spoke to them again, saying, "I am the light of the world. He who follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but have the light of life."

JESUS DEFENDS HIS SELF-WITNESS

[13]The Pharisees therefore said to Him, "You bear witness of Yourself; Your witness is not true."

[14]Jesus answered and said to them, "Even if I bear witness of Myself, My witness is true, for I know where I came from and where I am going; but you do not know where I come from and where I am going. [15]You judge according to the flesh; I judge no one. [16]And yet if I do judge, My judgment is true; for I am not alone, but I am with the Father who sent Me. [17]It is also written in your law that the testimony of two men is true. [18]I am One who bears witness of Myself, and the Father who sent Me bears witness of Me."

[19]Then they said to Him, "Where is Your Father?"

Jesus answered, "You know neither Me nor My Father. If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also."

[20]These words Jesus spoke in the treasury, as He taught in the temple; and no one laid hands on Him, for His hour had not yet come.

JESUS PREDICTS HIS DEPARTURE

[21]Then Jesus said to them again, "I am going away, and you will seek Me, and will die in your sin. Where I go you cannot come."

[22]So the Jews said, "Will He kill Himself, because He says, 'Where I go you cannot come'?"

8:10 [a]NU-Text omits and saw no one but the woman; M-Text reads He saw her and said. [b]NU-Text and M-Text omit of yours.
8:11 [a]NU-Text and M-Text add from now on.

John 8:20

The treasury was a room in the temple set aside specifically for collecting and storing the taxes and tithes collected by the people of Jerusalem. Herod the Great had built the temple for the Jewish people, but he expected them to kick in some money every year to help with the cost of maintenance.

23And He said to them, "You are from beneath; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world. 24Therefore I said to you that you will die in your sins; for if you do not believe that I am He, you will die in your sins."

25Then they said to Him, "Who are You?"

And Jesus said to them, "Just what I have been saying to you from the beginning. 26I have many things to say and to judge concerning you, but He who sent Me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I heard from Him."

27They did not understand that He spoke to them of the Father.

28Then Jesus said to them, "When you lift up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am He, and that I do nothing of Myself; but as My Father taught Me, I speak these things. 29And He who sent Me is with Me. The Father has not left Me alone, for I always do those things that please Him." 30As He spoke these words, many believed in Him.

THE TRUTH SHALL MAKE YOU FREE

31Then Jesus said to those Jews who believed Him, "If you abide in My word, you are My disciples indeed. 32And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

TRUTH
What does the truth do for us?
John 8:31, 32

33They answered Him, "We are Abraham's descendants, and have never been in bondage to anyone. How can You say, 'You will be made free'?"

34Jesus answered them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, whoever commits sin is a slave of sin. 35And a slave does not abide in the house forever, but a son abides forever. 36Therefore if the Son makes you free, you shall be free indeed.

ABRAHAM'S SEED AND SATAN'S

37"I know that you are Abraham's descendants, but you seek to kill Me, because My word has no place in you. 38I speak what I have seen with My Father, and you do what you have seen with[a] your father."

39They answered and said to Him, "Abraham is our father."

Jesus said to them, "If you were Abraham's children, you would do the works of Abraham. 40But now you seek to kill Me, a Man who has told you the truth which I heard from God. Abraham did not do this. 41You do the deeds of your father."

Then they said to Him, "We were not born of fornication; we have one Father—God."

42Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love Me, for I proceeded forth and came from God; nor have I come of Myself, but He sent Me. 43Why do you not understand My speech? Because you are not able to listen to My word. 44You are of your father the devil, and the desires of your father you want to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a liar and the father of it. 45But because I tell the truth, you do not believe Me. 46Which of you convicts Me of sin? And if I tell the truth, why do you not believe Me? 47He who is of God hears God's words; therefore you do not hear, because you are not of God."

SATAN
Is Satan completely evil?
John 8:44

BEFORE ABRAHAM WAS, I AM

48Then the Jews answered and said to Him, "Do we not say rightly that You are a Samaritan and have a demon?"

8:38 [a]NU-Text reads heard from.

49Jesus answered, "I do not have a demon; but I honor My Father, and you dishonor Me. 50And I do not seek My own glory; there is One who seeks and judges. 51Most assuredly, I say to you, if anyone keeps My word he shall never see death."

52Then the Jews said to Him, "Now we know that You have a demon! Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and You say, 'If anyone keeps My word he shall never taste death.' 53Are You greater than our father Abraham, who is dead? And the prophets are dead. Who do You make Yourself out to be?"

54Jesus answered, "If I honor Myself, My honor is nothing. It is My Father who honors Me, of whom you say that He is your[a] God. 55Yet you have not known Him, but I know Him. And if I say, 'I do not know Him,' I shall be a liar like you; but I do know Him and keep His word. 56Your father Abraham rejoiced to see My day, and he saw it and was glad."

57Then the Jews said to Him, "You are not yet fifty years old, and have You seen Abraham?"

58Jesus said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, before Abraham was, I AM."

59Then they took up stones to throw at Him; but Jesus hid Himself and went out of the temple,[a] going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

A MAN BORN BLIND RECEIVES SIGHT

9 Now as Jesus passed by, He saw a man who was blind from birth. 2And His disciples asked Him, saying, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"

3Jesus answered, "Neither this man nor his parents sinned, but that the works of God should be revealed in him. 4I[a] must work the works of Him who sent Me while it is day; the night is coming when no one can work. 5As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world."

6When He had said these things, He spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva; and He anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay. 7And He said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which is translated, Sent). So he went and washed, and came back seeing.

8Therefore the neighbors and those who previously had seen that he was blind[a] said, "Is not this he who sat and begged?"

9Some said, "This is he." Others said, "He is like him."[a]

He said, "I am he."

10Therefore they said to him, "How were your eyes opened?"

11He answered and said, "A Man called Jesus made clay and anointed my eyes and said to me, 'Go to the pool of[a] Siloam and wash.' So I went and washed, and I received sight."

12Then they said to him, "Where is He?"

He said, "I do not know."

THE PHARISEES EXCOMMUNICATE THE HEALED MAN

13They brought him who formerly was blind to the Pharisees. 14Now it was a Sabbath when Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes. 15Then the Pharisees also asked him again how he had received his sight. He said to them, "He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and I see."

16Therefore some of the Pharisees said, "This Man is not from God, because He does not keep the Sabbath."

Others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?" And there was a division among them.

17They said to the blind man again, "What do you say about Him because He opened your eyes?"

He said, "He is a prophet."

18But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind and received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight. 19And they asked them, saying, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?"

20His parents answered them and said, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; 21but by what means he now sees we do not know, or who opened his eyes we do not know. He is of age; ask him. He will speak for himself." 22His parents said these things because they feared the Jews, for the Jews had agreed already

24So they again called the man who was blind, and said to him, "Give God the glory! We know that this Man is a sinner."

25He answered and said, "Whether He is a sinner or not I do not know. One thing I know: that though I was blind, now I see."

26Then they said to him again, "What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?"

27He answered them, "I told you already, and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become His disciples?"

28Then they reviled him and said, "You are His disciple, but we are Moses' disciples. 29We know that God spoke to Moses; as for this fellow, we do not know where He is from."

30The man answered and said to them, "Why, this is a marvelous thing, that you do not know where He is from; yet He has opened my eyes! 31Now we know that God does not hear sinners; but if anyone is a worshiper of God and does His will, He hears him. 32Since the world began it has been unheard of that anyone opened the eyes of one who was born blind. 33If this Man were not from God, He could do nothing."

34They answered and said to him, "You were completely born in sins, and are you teaching us?" And they cast him out.

TRUE VISION AND TRUE BLINDNESS

35Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when He had found him, He said to him, "Do you believe in the Son of God?"[a]

36He answered and said, "Who is He, Lord, that I may believe in Him?"

37And Jesus said to him, "You have both seen Him and it is He who is talking with you."

38Then he said, "Lord, I believe!" And he worshiped Him.

39And Jesus said, "For judgment I have come into this world, that those who do not see may see, and that those who see may be made blind."

40Then some of the Pharisees who were with Him heard these words, and said to Him, "Are we blind also?"

41Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no sin; but now you say, 'We see.' Therefore your sin remains.

JESUS THE TRUE SHEPHERD

10 "Most assuredly, I say to you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. 2But he who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. 3To him the doorkeeper opens, and the sheep hear his voice; and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. 4And when he brings out his own sheep, he goes before them; and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. 5Yet they will by no means follow a stranger, but will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers." 6Jesus used this illustration, but they did not understand the things which He spoke to them.

JESUS THE GOOD SHEPHERD

7Then Jesus said to them again, "Most assuredly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. 8All who ever came before Me[a] are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not hear them. 9I am the door. If anyone enters by Me, he will be saved, and will go in and out and find pasture. 10The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly.

What did Jesus come to give?
John 10:10

11"I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd gives His life for the sheep. 12But a hireling, he who is not the shepherd, one who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and flees; and the wolf catches the sheep and scatters them. 13The hireling flees because he is a hireling and does not care about the sheep. 14I am the good shepherd; and I know My sheep, and am known by My own. 15As the Father knows Me, even so I know

LIFE APP

Bullying / John 10:10

At one time, the most common bully was the big, mean kid who stole your lunch money or pushed you around in gym class. Today, bullies come in all shapes and sizes. And they don't just hassle people at school; now they can practice their cruelty 24/7 through the invisible waves of cyberspace. Regardless of how or where bullies choose to attack others, they all have one thing in common—they seem to enjoy making themselves feel powerful by making others feel weak.

You may wonder what could cause someone to become a bully. The answer is really a simple one: we have an enemy and his name is Satan. He is our enemy because he hates anything that God loves. Satan's entire purpose is "to steal, and to kill, and to destroy" (John 10:10). And he does his job well. Paul said, "We do not wrestle against flesh and blood" (Eph. 6:12). Paul reminds us that it is Satan and his demons who lie and deceive in order to cause people to act in hateful, aggressive ways toward others.

You will most likely experience the hateful effects of a bully at some point in your life. When someone sets out to hurt you, it can seem your world has become a threatening, ugly place. But when you are the victim of a bully, you need to remember who is really at fault for the sinful behavior. You should pray for the bullies in your life that they learn about God and His love for them. You should pray that God will protect you from their evil schemes. But you also need to protect yourself from the pain they try to inflict. If you run into a bully who is making your life miserable, report them to the authorities. Someone who enjoys hurting others is most likely hurting themselves and they need help. By reporting their sinful actions, you may be the one God uses to get them the help they need.

the Father; and I lay down My life for the sheep. 16And other sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they will hear My voice; and there will be one flock and one shepherd.

17"Therefore My Father loves Me, because I lay down My life that I may take it again. 18No one takes it from Me, but I lay it down of Myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This command I have received from My Father."

19Therefore there was a division again among the Jews because of these sayings. 20And many of them said, "He has a demon and is mad. Why do you listen to Him?"

21Others said, "These are not the words of one who has a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?"

John 10:22

To fully understand Hanukkah, the "Feast of Dedication" mentioned in this verse, you have to know the story of a Syrian king named Antiochus Epiphanes. After the Medes and Persians conquered Babylon, Antiochus Epiphanes took control of the temple in Jerusalem. In a disgusting act of blasphemy, he built an altar to the Greek god Zeus directly over what had been the Jewish altar of burnt offering. As if that weren't bad enough, he then sacrificed a pig on the altar. (Remember, God had declared pigs to be unclean animals.) The one good thing to come from Antiochus Epiphanes' outrageous actions was that the Jews became so enraged they revolted and overthrew the Syrian leaders. In 165 B.C., a group of Jews led by Judas Maccabeus cleansed the temple of its desecration. The eight-day celebration of Hanukkah celebrated that cleansing.

THE SHEPHERD KNOWS HIS SHEEP

22Now it was the Feast of Dedication in Jerusalem, and it was winter. 23And Jesus walked in the temple, in Solomon's porch. 24Then the Jews surrounded Him and said to Him, "How long do You keep us in doubt? If You are the Christ, tell us plainly."

25Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in My Father's name, they bear witness of Me. 26But you do not believe, because you are not of My sheep, as I said to you.[a] 27My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me. 28And I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand. 29My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of My Father's hand. 30I and My Father are one."

RENEWED EFFORTS TO STONE JESUS

31Then the Jews took up stones again to stone Him. 32Jesus answered them, "Many good works I have shown you from My Father. For which of those works do you stone Me?"

34Jesus answered them, "Is it not written in your law, 'I said, "You are gods"'?[a] 35If He called them gods, to whom the word of God came (and the Scripture cannot be broken), 36do you say of Him whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, 'You are blaspheming,' because I said, 'I am the Son of God'? 37If I do not do the works of My Father, do not believe Me; 38but if I do, though you do not believe Me, believe the works, that you may know and believe[a] that the Father is in Me, and I in Him." 39Therefore they sought again to seize Him, but He escaped out of their hand.

THE BELIEVERS BEYOND JORDAN

40And He went away again beyond the Jordan to the place where John was baptizing at first, and there He stayed. 41Then many came to Him and said, "John performed no sign, but all the things that John spoke about this Man were true." 42And many believed in Him there.

THE DEATH OF LAZARUS

11 Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha. 2It was that Mary who anointed the Lord with fragrant oil and wiped His feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick. 3Therefore the sisters sent to Him, saying, "Lord, behold, he whom You love is sick."

4When Jesus heard that, He said, "This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it."

5Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. 6So, when He heard that he was sick, He stayed two more days in the place where He was. 7Then after this He said to the disciples, "Let us go to Judea again."

8*The* disciples said to Him, "Rabbi, lately the Jews sought to stone You, and are You going there again?"

John 11:9

In New Testament Israel, you could work eleven hours and still not qualify for overtime. The Jewish work day lasted twelve hours, from sunrise to sunset.

9Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world. 10But if one walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him." 11These things He said, and after that He said to them, "Our friend Lazarus sleeps, but I go that I may wake him up."

12Then His disciples said, "Lord, if he sleeps he will get well." 13However, Jesus spoke of his death, but they thought that He was speaking about taking rest in sleep.

14Then Jesus said to them plainly, "Lazarus is dead. 15And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, that you may believe. Nevertheless let us go to him."

16Then Thomas, who is called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with Him."

I AM THE RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE

17So when Jesus came, He found that he had already been in the tomb four days. 18Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two miles[a] away. 19And many of the Jews had joined the women around Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20Now Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met Him, but Mary was sitting in the house. 21Now Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died. 22But even now I know that whatever You ask of God, God will give You."

23Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."

24Martha said to Him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day."

ETERNAL LIFE
What kind of life does Jesus give?
John 11:25

25Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me, though he may die, he shall live. 26And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die. Do you believe this?"

27She said to Him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that You are the Christ, the Son of God, who is to come into the world."

JESUS AND DEATH, THE LAST ENEMY

28And when she had said these things, she went her way and secretly called Mary her sister, saying, "The Teacher has come and is calling for you." 29As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly and came to Him. 30Now Jesus had not yet come into the town, but was[a] in the place where Martha met Him. 31Then the Jews who were with her in the house, and comforting her, when they saw that Mary rose up quickly and went out, followed her, saying, "She is going to the tomb to weep there."[a]

32Then, when Mary came where Jesus was, and saw Him, she fell down at His feet, saying to Him, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died."

11:18 [a]Literally fifteen stadia 11:30 [a]NU-Text adds still. 11:31 [a]NU-Text reads supposing that she was going to the tomb to weep there.

PROFILE
MARY AND MARTHA

Mary and Martha were sisters, but they were very different from one another. Each had a unique personality that worked well with the other—most of the time. For instance, if they had company over, Mary focused on the guest. She was the conversationalist of the two. Martha busied herself with the details of entertaining. She focused on the guest's needs. Together, they formed a hospitality team.

Jesus was a close friend of the sisters and their brother, Lazarus, and was often a guest at their home. During one of Jesus' visits, a conflict arose. Martha was upset because Mary spent her time listening to Jesus, leaving Martha on her own to bustle about getting a meal ready for more than a dozen men. Martha became flustered and frustrated. She finally asked Jesus to order her sister to help. Jesus' answer was an amazing example of tough and tender love: "Martha, Martha, you are worried and troubled about many things. But one thing is needed, and Mary has chosen that good part, which will not be taken away from her" (Luke 10:41, 42). Jesus' point wasn't necessarily that Martha shouldn't have been busy. Rather, his point was that Martha had allowed her busyness to make her forget the reason she was busy. Her attention shifted from her guests to herself, which led to resentment toward her sister.

Jesus helped Mary and Martha each recognize and accept their own strengths. The last time the sisters are mentioned in Scripture (John 12:1–3) there was quite a change in their approach. Martha continued to serve (she couldn't help it), but she no longer resented her role. Mary continued to be focused on Jesus, but, by washing Jesus' feet with costly perfume, she proved she understood the meaning of being a servant.

+ MAKING A DIFFERENCE:

In any situation, you bring something very special to offer—yourself. God's intention in your design is to call you into special service. Your ultimate purpose isn't to meet the expectations of anyone other than your Creator. The difference you make in life will really be determined by God. Like Mary, you will accomplish that purpose more effectively if your attention is focused on God rather than on yourself. And like Martha, you will succeed when you decide to serve.

WANT TO KNOW MORE?

Get to know the sisters better as you read Luke 10:38–42 and John 11:1–45; 12:1–3.

Mary and Martha learned to accept themselves as God created them. When they did, they were free to make a real difference by loving and serving others. You can, too!

[33]Therefore, when Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her weeping, He groaned in the spirit and was troubled. [34]And He said, "Where have you laid him?"

They said to Him, "Lord, come and see."

[35]Jesus wept. [36]Then the Jews said, "See how He loved him!"

[37]And some of them said, "Could not this Man, who opened the eyes of the blind, also have kept this man from dying?"

LAZARUS RAISED FROM THE DEAD

[38]Then Jesus, again groaning in Himself, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay against it. [39]Jesus said, "Take away the stone."

Martha, the sister of him who was dead, said to Him, "Lord, by this time there is a stench, for he has been dead four days."

[40]Jesus said to her, "Did I not say to you that if you would believe you would see the glory of God?" [41]Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead man was lying.[a] And Jesus lifted up His eyes and said, "Father, I thank You that You have heard Me. [42]And I know that You always hear Me, but because of the people who are standing by I said this, that they may believe that You sent Me." [43]Now when He had said these things, He cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come forth!" [44]And he who had died came out bound hand and foot with graveclothes, and his face was wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Loose him, and let him go."

THE PLOT TO KILL JESUS

[45]Then many of the Jews who had come to Mary, and had seen the things Jesus did, believed in Him. [46]But some of them went away to the Pharisees and told them the things Jesus did. [47]Then the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered a council and said, "What shall we do? For this Man works many signs. [48]If we let Him alone like this, everyone will believe in Him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and nation."

[49]And one of them, Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all, [50]nor do you consider that it is expedient for us[a] that one man should die for the people, and not that the whole nation should perish." [51]Now this he did not say on his own authority; but being high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus would die for the nation, [52]and not for that nation only, but also that He would gather together in one the children of God who were scattered abroad.

[53]Then, from that day on, they plotted to put Him to death. [54]Therefore Jesus no longer walked openly among the Jews, but went from there into the country near the wilderness, to a city called Ephraim, and there remained with His disciples.

[55]And the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went from the country up to Jerusalem before the Passover, to purify themselves. [56]Then they sought Jesus, and spoke among themselves as they stood in the temple, "What do you think—that He will not come to the feast?" [57]Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a command, that if anyone knew where He was, he should report it, that they might seize Him.

THE ANOINTING AT BETHANY

12 Then, six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was who had been dead,[a] whom He had raised from the dead. [2]There they made Him a supper; and Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with Him. [3]Then Mary took a pound of very costly oil of spikenard, anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped His feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the oil.

[4]But one of His disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, who would betray Him, said, [5]"Why was this fragrant oil not sold for three hundred denarii[a] and given to the poor?" [6]This he said, not that he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and had the money box; and he used to take what was put in it.

[7]But Jesus said, "Let her alone; she has kept[a] this for the day of My burial. [8]For the poor you have with you always, but Me you do not have always."

THE PLOT TO KILL LAZARUS

[9]Now a great many of the Jews knew that He was there; and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might also see Lazarus, whom He had raised from the dead. [10]But the chief priests plotted to put Lazarus to death also, [11]because on account of him many of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus.

THE TRIUMPHAL ENTRY

12 The next day a great multitude that had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 took branches of palm trees and went out to meet Him, and cried out:

"Hosanna!
'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!'[a]
The King of Israel!"

14 Then Jesus, when He had found a young donkey, sat on it; as it is written:

15 "Fear not, daughter of Zion;
Behold, your King is coming,
Sitting on a donkey's colt."[a]

16 His disciples did not understand these things at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about Him and that they had done these things to Him.

17 Therefore the people, who were with Him when He called Lazarus out of his tomb and raised him from the dead, bore witness. 18 For this reason the people also met Him, because they heard that He had done this sign. 19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, "You see that you are accomplishing nothing. Look, the world has gone after Him!"

THE FRUITFUL GRAIN OF WHEAT

20 Now there were certain Greeks among those who came up to worship at the feast.
21 Then they came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus."

22 Philip came and told Andrew, and in turn Andrew and Philip told Jesus.

23 But Jesus answered them, saying,
"The hour has come that the Son of Man should be glorified. 24 Most assuredly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it produces much grain. 25 He who loves his life will lose it, and he who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. 26 If anyone serves Me, let him follow Me; and where I am, there My servant will be also. If anyone serves Me, him My Father will honor.

JESUS PREDICTS HIS DEATH ON THE CROSS

27 "Now My soul is troubled, and what shall I say? 'Father, save Me from this hour'? But for this purpose I came to this hour. 28 Father, glorify Your name."

Then a voice came from heaven, saying,
"I have both glorified it and will glorify it again."

29 Therefore the people who stood by and heard it said that it had thundered.
Others said, "An angel has spoken to Him."

30 Jesus answered and said, "This voice did not come because of Me, but for your sake. 31 Now is the judgment of this world;
now the ruler of this world will be cast out.
32 And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all peoples to Myself." 33 This He said, signifying by what death He would die.

34 The people answered Him, "We have heard from the law that the Christ remains forever; and how can You say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up'? Who is this Son of Man?"

35 Then Jesus said to them, "A little while longer the light is with you. Walk while you have the light, lest darkness overtake you;
he who walks in darkness does not know where he is going. 36 While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light." These things Jesus spoke, and departed, and was hidden from them.

WHO HAS BELIEVED OUR REPORT?

37 But although He had done so many signs before them, they did not believe in Him, 38 that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke:

"Lord, who has believed our report?
And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?"[a]

39 Therefore they could not believe, because Isaiah said again:

40 "He has blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts,

MIR MAKING IT REAL // JOHN 12:46

Jesus Is the Light Have you ever watched a movie that showed places where evil took place as dark and gloomy? Have you ever heard something bad described as "dark"? That's because darkness hides things and is a place evil prefers because it can't be seen.

Think about what it's like to be in a room that is pitch black—no light, no windows, totally dark. In total darkness, you can't see what's right in front of you. That blindness is exactly like the effect sin has on us—we can't see truth even when it's right before our eyes.

What happens when you turn on a flashlight or strike a match in a dark room? The entire room lights up. It's hard to believe the power of one small light source.

We live in a world darkened by sin and death. But the good news is that Jesus is the light of the world, and because you belong to Him, you are the light! You can have the same kind of effect as a flashlight in a dark room when you allow your light to shine wherever you go. Every day you come across the paths of people who desperately need the light of Jesus. Don't hide the light. Use it to impact someone's life forever! Don't let your batteries run out, and you'd better check your bulb. Know God's Word and stay connected to the Holy Spirit within. You'll have all you need to remain "light"—the light that Christians give because of Jesus is the only light this world has. (See also: Matt. 5:14; John 9:5.)

Words to Live By

Darkness: The people in this world who are living in darkness do not know the truth of God's Word. They may not even realize they're living in darkness because they've never really seen what the light is like. Jesus is the light, and because He came into our world, life in eternal light rather than continual darkness is possible for everyone—even for those who are currently lost in the deepest darkness.

Lest they should see with their eyes,
Lest they should understand with their hearts and turn,
So that I should heal them."[a]

[41]These things Isaiah said when[a] he saw His glory and spoke of Him.

WALK IN THE LIGHT

[42]Nevertheless even among the rulers many believed in Him, but because of the Pharisees they did not confess Him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue; [43]for they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

[44]Then Jesus cried out and said, "He who believes in Me, believes not in Me but in Him who sent Me. [45]And he who sees Me sees Him who sent Me. [46]I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in Me should not abide in darkness. [47]And if anyone hears My words and does not believe,[a] I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. [48]He who rejects Me, and does not receive My words, has that which judges him—the word that I have spoken will judge him in the last day. [49]For I have not spoken on My own authority; but the Father who sent Me gave Me a command, what I should say and what I should speak. [50]And I know that His command is everlasting life. Therefore, whatever I speak, just as the Father has told Me, so I speak."

JESUS WASHES THE DISCIPLES' FEET

13 Now before the Feast of the Passover, when Jesus knew that His hour had come that He should depart from this world to the

MIR MAKING IT REAL // JOHN 13:13–15

Humility In Jesus' day, people traveled on foot and when they arrived at their destination, their feet were filthy. It was customary for a visitor's feet to be washed the moment he arrived. The task was considered demeaning and disgusting, so servants were normally required to wash the grime from guest's dirty, smelly feet.

Jesus gave His disciples a lesson in humility when He washed their feet (John 13:1–17). He told them to follow His example. He meant they were to be voluntary servants and provide whatever they could for the good of others. He wanted them to be humble and not too prideful to meet the needs around them, even if it meant doing the most demeaning of tasks.

Meeting the needs of other people (even if it sometimes means making a personal sacrifice) is the example of Jesus, and we are to be like Him. Did you know that when you feel sorry for yourself, one of the best things to help you feel better is to do something good for someone else? And if you are acting like Jesus, it may cost you something—some time, some energy, some money, maybe even your pride. Sometimes we can serve others secretly, and God gets all of the glory.

Jesus willingly humbled Himself by being a servant to others; being Christlike means that we are willing to do the same. It's the whole point of our time here on earth—following His example, looking more and more like Jesus every day. (See also: Matt. 16:24–26; John 12:26.)

Words to Live By

Example: The word translated as "example" in John 13:15 is the Greek word hupodeigma (hoop-od'-igue-mah). It conveys the picture of something that is to be imitated, like a pattern or a copy. Jesus' example is not a suggestion for us to consider following. Rather, it is the definitive pattern set out for us to copy. We don't have to wonder how God wants us to live or what He wants us to do. He's given us a clear example. And the more we imitate His example, the more we will become like Him.

Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end.

2And supper being ended,[a] the devil having already put it into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray Him, 3Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He had come from God and was going to God, 4rose from supper and laid aside His garments, took a towel and girded Himself. 5After that, He poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel with which He was girded. 6Then He came to Simon Peter. And Peter said to Him, "Lord, are You washing my feet?"

7Jesus answered and said to him, "What I am doing you do not understand now, but you will know after this."

8Peter said to Him, "You shall never wash my feet!"

Jesus answered him, "If I do not wash you, you have no part with Me."

9Simon Peter said to Him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head!"

John 13:5

In New Testament times, people wore sandals or open shoes, and walked on dirt roads. You can imagine what their feet looked (and smelled) like after a long journey. A polite host would provide water so his guests could wash their feet. A wealthy host might have a slave wash the feet of guests. It was unheard of for a host to wash a guest's filthy feet.

13:2 [a]NU-Text reads And during supper.

10Jesus said to him, "He who is bathed needs only to wash his feet, but is completely clean; and you are clean, but not all of you." 11For He knew who would betray Him; therefore He said, "You are not all clean."

12So when He had washed their feet, taken His garments, and sat down again,
He said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? 13You call Me Teacher and Lord, and you say well, for so I am.
14If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. 15For I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done to you. 16Most assuredly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master; nor is he who is sent greater than he who sent him. 17If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them.

JESUS IDENTIFIES HIS BETRAYER

18"I do not speak concerning all of you. I know whom I have chosen; but that the Scripture may be fulfilled, 'He who eats bread with Me[a] has lifted up his heel against Me.'[b] 19Now I tell you before it comes, that when it does come to pass, you may believe that I am He. 20Most assuredly, I say to you, he who receives whomever I send receives Me; and he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me."

21When Jesus had said these things, He was troubled in spirit, and testified and said, "Most assuredly, I say to you, one of you will betray Me." 22Then the disciples looked at one another, perplexed about whom He spoke.

23Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of His disciples, whom Jesus loved. 24Simon Peter therefore motioned to him to ask who it was of whom He spoke.

25Then, leaning back[a] on Jesus' breast, he said to Him, "Lord, who is it?"

26Jesus answered, "It is he to whom I shall give a piece of bread when I have dipped it." And having dipped the bread,
He gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. 27Now after the piece of bread, Satan entered him. Then Jesus said to him,
"What you do, do quickly." 28But no one at the table knew for what reason He said this to him. 29For some thought, because Judas had the money box, that Jesus had said to him, "Buy those things we need for the feast," or that he should give something to the poor.

30Having received the piece of bread, he then went out immediately. And it was night.

THE NEW COMMANDMENT

31So, when he had gone out, Jesus said,
"Now the Son of Man is glorified, and God is glorified in Him. 32If God is glorified in Him, God will also glorify Him in Himself, and glorify Him immediately. 33Little children, I shall be with you a little while longer. You will seek Me; and as I said to the Jews, 'Where I am going, you cannot come,' so now I say to you. 34A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another. 35By this all will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another."

JESUS PREDICTS PETER'S DENIAL

36Simon Peter said to Him, "Lord, where are You going?"

Jesus answered him, "Where I am going you cannot follow Me now, but you shall follow Me afterward."

37Peter said to Him, "Lord, why can I not follow You now? I will lay down my life for Your sake."

38Jesus answered him, "Will you lay down your life for My sake? Most assuredly, I say to you, the rooster shall not crow till you have denied Me three times.

PROMISE

God promises you a home with Him.

"In My Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also. And where I go you know, and the way you know" (John 14:2–4).

This is one of the most awesome promises in all of Scripture. Jesus has gone to heaven to prepare our home—our forever home. A room in our Father's house waits for each one of us. And then, when it is time, Jesus will return to take us there. It's the home your heart has been longing for since the day you were born. It's the place where all your wounds will be healed; all your hopes will be fulfilled; your joy will be complete and unending; laughter will bounce off the walls; tears will be banned; worry won't even be a word we understand. It will be a perfect home—everything you've ever thought a home should be, and more than you ever dreamed it could be. Not a day too early, but just in time, Jesus will take us home. This is one of the greatest promises and the greatest hopes of all who belong to the Lord.

many mansions;[a] if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.[b] 3And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also. 4And where I go you know, and the way you know."

5Thomas said to Him, "Lord, we do not know where You are going, and how can we know the way?"

ETERNAL LIFE

Where can we find eternal life?

John 14:6

6Jesus said to him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me.

THE FATHER REVEALED

7"If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also; and from now on you know Him and have seen Him."

8Philip said to Him, "Lord, show us the Father, and it is sufficient for us."

9Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you so long, and yet you have not known Me, Philip? He who has seen Me has seen the Father; so how can you say, 'Show us the Father'? 10Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father in Me? The words that I speak to you I do not speak on My own authority; but the Father who dwells in Me does the works. 11Believe Me that I am in the Father and the Father in Me, or else believe Me for the sake of the works themselves.

THE ANSWERED PRAYER

12"Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do, because I go to My Father. 13And whatever you ask in My name, that I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. 14If you ask[a] anything in My name, I will do it.

14:2 [a]Literally dwellings [b]NU-Text adds a word which would cause the text to read either if it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? or if it were not so I would have told you; for I go to prepare a place for you. 14:14 [a]NU-Text adds Me.

MIR MAKING IT REAL // JOHN 14:6

The Way If you check the life stories of Mohammed or Buddha or any other so-called god, you will find that those stories all have one thing in common: those men all died. And they remain dead to this day. It is true that Jesus was crucified on a cross, died, and His body placed in a tomb. But Jesus did not stay in the tomb. He came back to life! Death could not hold Him.

Mohammed and Buddha cannot bring eternal life to anyone because they didn't have power over death. Jesus is the only one who defeated death and He is the only way to get to God. He is the only way to get to heaven, the only way to have eternal life, and the only way to have real life on this earth.

A lot of people are out there lost in the world trying to work their way into heaven. There are also those who think they can buy their way into heaven. Others simply believe that as long as you try to be a good person, you'll end up in heaven. And finally there are some people who just don't believe anyone goes to hell. They believe everyone goes to heaven.

Here's good news and some bad news. There really is a heaven and there really is a hell. It doesn't matter how good you may think you are, how much money you have, or how many times you've been to church. Without Jesus, none of it matters. He is the only way. He is the only truth. He is the only life. (See also: Matt. 7: 13, 14; 10:28; 11:27; Acts 4:12; Rom. 10:13.)

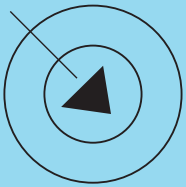
Words to Live By

Way: The word translated as "way" in John 14:6 is the Greek word hodos (hod-os'). It carries the idea of a road or journey, or a means of travelling somewhere. We are all traveling through life on our way to a destination—either heaven or hell. There are many roads, or ways, leading to hell. There is only one way by which we can journey to heaven—Jesus Christ is that way.

JESUS PROMISES ANOTHER HELPER

15 "If you love Me, keep[a] My commandments. 16 And I will pray the Father, and He will give you another Helper, that He may abide with you forever— 17 the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees Him nor knows Him; but you know Him, for He dwells with you and will be in you. 18 I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you.

INDWELLING OF THE FATHER AND THE SON



19 "A little while longer and the world will see Me no more, but you will see Me. Because I live, you will live also. 20 At that day you will know that I am in My Father, and you in Me, and I in you. 21 He who has My commandments and keeps them, it is he who loves Me. And he who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and manifest Myself to him."

DEATH
Who has power over death?
John 14:19

22 Judas (not Iscariot) said to Him, "Lord, how is it that You will manifest Yourself to us, and not to the world?"

23 Jesus answered and said to him, "If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word; and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our home with him. 24 He who does not love Me does not keep My words; and the word which you

14:15 [a]NU-Text reads you will keep.

PROMISE

God promises to help you by His spirit.

"And I will pray the Father, and He will give you another Helper [the Holy Spirit], that He may abide with you forever" (John 14:16).

Have you ever needed help? Of course you have. You may need help right now. All of us need help at some time or another. None of us is immune from the storms of life, but the good news is God sent the Holy Spirit to go with us through anything life may hold. Not only did He come to fill us with power, but He was also sent to help us with every trial, every temptation, and every circumstance.

You may be going through something at this very moment, but you know what? The Holy Spirit is with you right now. He is ready and willing to help, even as you read this. In fact, if you will become aware of God's presence in you, there isn't anything that the devil can throw at you that you can't handle. Jesus, the greater One, lives inside of you and empowers you through His Holy Spirit! Nothing can stop you now! He'll always help you arrive at victory!

THE GIFT OF HIS PEACE

25"These things I have spoken to you while being present with you. 26But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all things that I said to you. 27Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. 28You have heard Me say to you, 'I am going away and coming back to you.' If you loved Me, you would rejoice because I said,[a] 'I am going to the Father,' for My Father is greater than I.

29"And now I have told you before it comes, that when it does come to pass, you may believe. 30I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming, and he has nothing in Me. 31But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father gave Me commandment, so I do. Arise, let us go from here.

THE TRUE VINE

15 "I am the true vine, and My Father is the vinedresser. 2Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit He takes away;[a] and every branch that bears fruit He prunes, that it may bear more fruit. 3You are already clean because of the word which I have spoken to you. 4Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in Me.

5"I am the vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me you can do nothing. 6If anyone does not abide in Me, he is cast out as a branch and is withered; and they gather them and throw them into the fire, and they are burned. 7If you abide in Me, and My words abide in you, you will[a] ask what you desire, and it shall be done for you. 8By this My Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit; so you will be My disciples.

LOVE AND JOY PERFECTED

9"As the Father loved Me, I also have loved you; abide in My love. 10If you keep My commandments, you will abide in My love, just as I have kept My Father's commandments and abide in His love.

11"These things I have spoken to you,

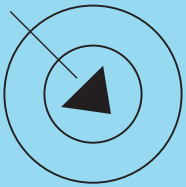
LIFE APP



Joy / John 15:11

Most people think happiness and joy are the same thing. They are similar, but the difference between them is actually huge. Seeking one will allow you to live your life successfully; seeking the other will allow your life to live you.

Happiness is our reaction to things we like: good grades, a date for prom, lots of friends, a car, money in your pocket—these make us happy. But what happens when our grades drop, or friends desert us, or our car gets totaled, or when we're broke. That's right . . . no more happiness. Life gets hard and happiness ends. Instead of you choosing how you will feel, life has made the choice for you—your life is living you.

Think about how you feel when you're really enjoying yourself. It's like every part of you is ultra-alive. You smile so much your face actually hurts. You feel so peaceful and glad to be alive. Wouldn't you like to have that feeling all the time, regardless of what life throws at you?

You can have joy no matter what's going on in your life. It may sound crazy, but you can be full of joy even when your world falls apart. That's because joy is a gift, not a reaction. Happiness comes when life brings you what you want; joy comes when God gives you what you need. That doesn't mean the stuff God might allow you to have, it means the important, lasting things that will allow you live a successful life: love, joy, peace, patience (longsuffering), kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control (Gal. 5:22, 23). Joy comes from God. It will fill up your heart and allow you to enjoy the adventure of life. It will allow you to live your life to the fullest. Happiness will come and go, but with the joy of God in your heart, life will never get the best of you. So ask God to fill you with His joy and stop letting life call the shots. You live it, don't let it live you.

PROMISE

God promises to be your friend.

"You are My friends if you do whatever I command you. No longer do I call you servants, for a servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all things that I heard from My Father I have made known to you" (John 15:14, 15).

Jesus called the disciples His friends. That word applies to everyone who would ever become His disciple. In verse 15, Jesus says, "No longer do I call you servants . . . I have called you friends."

You've probably heard a lot about being Jesus' servant. He's done so much for you! Because of Him you're loved more than you can imagine. Because of Him you can be strong and confident. Because of Him you'll spend eternity with God. So a good response to Him is, "Jesus, what can I do for You?" Of course, Jesus wants you to do your best to be a servant who pleases Him. But more than that, He wants you to treat Him like your friend. Jesus is a Person, and like any person, He wants a friend who loves Him more than anyone or anything else. What counts is not wearing yourself out with good deeds, but turning yourself toward Him and loving Him with your whole heart.

Be careful not to take His friendship for granted. He isn't like your friends at school, just as imperfect as you are. He is God. While you're learning to love Him as your best friend, don't ever lose sight of how awesome He is and of all the incredible gifts He gives you. Start to think of yourself as a friend of Jesus.

SEE FOR YOURSELF// John 14:15, 21; James 2:23

that My joy may remain in you, and that your joy may be full. 12This is My commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. 13Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends. 14You are My friends if you do whatever I command you. 15No longer do I call you servants, for a servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all things that I heard from My Father I have made known to you. 16You did not choose Me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain, that whatever you ask the Father in My name He may give you. 17These things I command you, that you love one another.

FRIENDSHIP

How strong is the love of a true friend?

John 15:13–15

THE WORLD'S HATRED

18"If the world hates you, you know that it hated Me before it hated you. 19If you were of the world, the world would love its own. Yet because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. 20Remember the word that I said to you, 'A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. If they kept My word, they will keep yours also. 21But all these things they will do to you for My name's sake, because they do not know Him who sent Me. 22If I had not come and spoken to them, they would have no sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin. 23He who hates Me hates My Father also. 24If I had not done among them the works which no one else did, they would have no sin; but now they have seen and also hated both Me and My Father. 25But this happened that the word might be fulfilled which is written in their law, 'They hated Me without a cause.'[a]

15:25 [a]Psalm 69:4

THE COMING REJECTION

26"But when the Helper comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, He will testify of Me. 27And you also will bear witness, because you have been with Me from the beginning.

16 "These things I have spoken to you, that you should not be made to stumble. 2They will put you out of the synagogues; yes, the time is coming that whoever kills you will think that he offers God service. 3And these things they will do to you[a] because they have not known the Father nor Me. 4But these things I have told you, that when the[a] time comes, you may remember that I told you of them.

And these things I did not say to you at the beginning, because I was with you.

THE WORK OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

5"But now I go away to Him who sent Me, and none of you asks Me, 'Where are You going?' 6But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your heart.
7Nevertheless I tell you the truth. It is to your advantage that I go away; for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you; but if I depart, I will send Him to you.
8And when He has come, He will convict the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: 9of sin, because they do not believe in Me; 10of righteousness, because I go to My Father and you see Me no more; 11of judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged.

12"I still have many things to say to you,
but you cannot bear them now. 13However, when He, the Spirit of truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come. 14He will glorify Me, for He will take of what is Mine and declare it to you. 15All things that the Father has are Mine. Therefore I said that He will take of Mine and declare it to you.[a]

SORROW WILL TURN TO JOY

16"A little while, and you will not see Me;
and again a little while, and you will see Me, because I go to the Father."

17Then some of His disciples said among themselves, "What is this that He says to us, 'A little while, and you will not see Me;
and again a little while, and you will see Me'; and, 'because I go to the Father'?"
18They said therefore, "What is this that He says, 'A little while'? We do not know what He is saying."

19Now Jesus knew that they desired to ask Him, and He said to them, "Are you inquiring among yourselves about what I said, 'A little while, and you will not see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me'? 20Most assuredly, I say to you that you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice; and you will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into joy. 21A woman, when she is in labor, has sorrow because her hour has come; but as soon as she has given birth to the child, she no longer remembers the anguish, for joy that a human being has been born into the world. 22Therefore you now have sorrow;
but I will see you again and your heart will rejoice, and your joy no one will take from you.

PRAYER
In whose name should we pray?
John 16:23, 24

23"And in that day you will ask Me nothing. Most assuredly, I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in My name He will give

My name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full.

JESUS CHRIST HAS OVERCOME THE WORLD

25"These things I have spoken to you in figurative language; but the time is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figurative language, but I will tell you plainly about the Father. 26In that day you will ask ther Himself loves you, because you have

PROMISE

God promises to show you what is true.

"However, when He, the Spirit of truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come" (John 16:13).

Have you ever had a tough time making a decision? Well, the Holy Spirit has been sent to speak to you at those very moments. This verse assures you that He will tell you only what God says. In other words, when the Holy Spirit speaks to your heart, you can take what He says to the bank. You'd better go with it! He will speak to you and He's going to show you what is true. That's His job. So make sure you're listening and not ignoring Him.

So how do you listen to the Holy Spirit? How do you hear His voice? Begin learning to hear Him by learning the Bible—not just reading words but really getting into the Word of God. Start out by just reviewing a few verses in your mind—over and over. Begin putting the Word of God inside you by memorizing a verse or two. Read Psalm 119:1–24. Notice how the psalmist felt about God's Word. (Whenever you read the words law, statutes, testimonies, commandments, or God's Word, you can think of them as meaning the Bible.) As you begin to "feed" yourself the Word of God, you'll begin to notice that you are hearing God speak to you in ways and about things you've never heard before. Start making it a point to read the Bible and let the Holy Spirit lead you "into all truth"!

You are speaking plainly, and using no figure of speech! [30]Now we are sure that You know all things, and have no need that anyone should question You. By this we believe

And yet I am not alone, because the Father is with Me. [33]These things I have spoken to you, that in Me you may have peace. In the world you will[a] have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world."

JESUS PRAYS FOR HIMSELF

17 Jesus spoke these words, lifted up His eyes to heaven, and said:
"Father, the hour has come. Glorify Your Son, that Your Son also may glorify You, [2]as You have given Him authority over all flesh, that He should[a] give eternal life to as many as You have given Him. [3]And this is eternal life, that they may know You,
the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom You have sent. [4]I have glorified You on the earth. I have finished the work which You have given Me to do. [5]And now, O Father,

JESUS PRAYS FOR HIS DISCIPLES

6"I have manifested Your name to the men whom You have given Me out of the world. They were Yours, You gave them to Me, and they have kept Your word. 7Now they have known that all things which You have given Me are from You. 8For I have given to them the words which You have given Me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came forth from You; and they have believed that You sent Me.

9"I pray for them. I do not pray for the world but for those whom You have given Me, for they are Yours. 10And all Mine are Yours, and Yours are Mine, and I am glorified in them. 11Now I am no longer in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to You. Holy Father, keep through Your name those whom You have given Me,[a] that they may be one as We are. 12While I was with them in the world,[a] I kept them in Your name. Those whom You gave Me I have kept;[b] and none of them is lost except the son of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled. 13But now I come to You, and these things I speak in the world, that they may have My joy fulfilled in themselves. 14I have given them Your word; and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. 15I do not pray that You should take them out of the world, but that You should keep them from the evil one. 16They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. 17Sanctify them by Your truth. Your word is truth. 18As You sent Me into the world, I also have sent them into the world. 19And for their sakes I sanctify Myself, that they also may be sanctified by the truth.

John 17:17

JESUS PRAYS FOR ALL BELIEVERS

20"I do not pray for these alone, but also for those who will[a] believe in Me through their word; 21that they all may be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You; that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me. 22And the glory which You gave Me I have given them, that they may be one just as We are one: 23I in them, and You in Me; that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that You have sent Me, and have loved them as You have loved Me.

24"Father, I desire that they also whom You gave Me may be with Me where I am, that they may behold My glory which You have given Me; for You loved Me before the foundation of the world. 25O righteous Father! The world has not known You, but I have known You; and these have known that You sent Me. 26And I have declared to them Your name, and will declare it, that the love with which You loved Me may be in them, and I in them."

BETRAYAL AND ARREST IN GETHSEMANE

18 When Jesus had spoken these words, He went out with His disciples over the Brook Kidron, where there was a garden, which He and His disciples entered. 2And Judas, who betrayed Him, also knew the place; for Jesus often met there with His disciples. 3Then Judas, having received a detachment of troops, and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons. 4Jesus therefore, knowing all things that would come upon Him, went forward and said to them, "Whom are you seeking?"

5They answered Him, "Jesus of Nazareth."

Jesus said to them, "I am He." And Judas, who betrayed Him, also stood with them. 6Now when He said to them, "I am He," they drew back and fell to the ground.

7Then He asked them again, "Whom are you seeking?"

And they said, "Jesus of Nazareth."

8Jesus answered, "I have told you that I am He. Therefore, if you seek Me, let these go their way," 9that the saying might be fulfilled which He spoke, "Of those whom You gave Me I have lost none."

10Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

11So Jesus said to Peter, "Put your sword into the sheath. Shall I not drink the cup which My Father has given Me?"

BEFORE THE HIGH PRIEST

12Then the detachment of troops and the captain and the officers of the Jews arrested Jesus and bound Him. 13And they led Him away to Annas first, for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas who was high priest that year. 14Now it was Caiaphas who advised the Jews that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

PETER DENIES JESUS

15And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another[a] disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and went with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest. 16But Peter stood at the door outside. Then the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought Peter in. 17Then the servant girl who kept the door said to Peter, "You are not also one of this Man's disciples, are you?"

He said, "I am not."

18Now the servants and officers who had made a fire of coals stood there, for it was cold, and they warmed themselves. And Peter stood with them and warmed himself.

JESUS QUESTIONED BY THE HIGH PRIEST

19The high priest then asked Jesus about His disciples and His doctrine.

20Jesus answered him, "I spoke openly to the world. I always taught in synagogues and in the temple, where the Jews always meet,[a] and in secret I have said nothing. 21Why do you ask Me? Ask those who have heard Me what I said to them. Indeed they know what I said."

22And when He had said these things, one of the officers who stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, "Do You answer the high priest like that?"

23Jesus answered him, "If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil; but if well, why do you strike Me?"

24Then Annas sent Him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.

PETER DENIES TWICE MORE

25Now Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. Therefore they said to him, "You are not also one of His disciples, are you?"

He denied it and said, "I am not!"

26One of the servants of the high priest, a relative of him whose ear Peter cut off, said, "Did I not see you in the garden with Him?" 27Peter then denied again; and immediately a rooster crowed.

John 18:28

Why did the Jewish leaders go to Pilate with their accusations against Jesus? Because they wanted Jesus dead, but didn't have the authority to order His execution. They needed Pilate, the Roman governor, to rule against Jesus on behalf of Rome in order to guarantee Jesus' crucifixion.

IN PILATE'S COURT

28Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the Praetorium, and it was early morning. But they themselves did not go into the Praetorium, lest they should be defiled, but that they might eat the Passover. 29Pilate then went out to them and said, "What accusation do you bring against this Man?"

30They answered and said to him, "If He were not an evildoer, we would not have delivered Him up to you."

31Then Pilate said to them, "You take Him and judge Him according to your law."

Therefore the Jews said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death," 32that the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled which He spoke, signifying by what death He would die.

33Then Pilate entered the Praetorium again, called Jesus, and said to Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

34Jesus answered him, "Are you speaking

18:15 [a]M-Text reads the other. 18:20 [a]NU-Text reads where all the Jews meet.

for yourself about this, or did others tell you this concerning Me?"

35Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests have delivered You to me. What have You done?"

36Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My servants would fight, so that I should not be delivered to the Jews; but now My kingdom is not from here."

37Pilate therefore said to Him, "Are You a king then?"

Jesus answered, "You say rightly that I am a king. For this cause I was born, and for this cause I have come into the world, that I should bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice."

38Pilate said to Him, "What is truth?" And when he had said this, he went out again to the Jews, and said to them, "I find no fault in Him at all.

TAKING THE PLACE OF BARABBAS

39"But you have a custom that I should release someone to you at the Passover. Do you therefore want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"

40Then they all cried again, saying, "Not this Man, but Barabbas!" Now Barabbas was a robber.

> John 19:2
> In ancient times, the color purple was a symbol of royalty. Purple dye, which came from a special type of shellfish in the Mediterranean Sea, was extremely expensive. Only royalty and other wealthy and important people could afford it.

THE SOLDIERS MOCK JESUS

19 So then Pilate took Jesus and scourged Him. 2And the soldiers twisted a crown of thorns and put it on His head, and they put on Him a purple robe. 3Then they said,[a] "Hail, King of the Jews!" And they struck Him with their hands.

4Pilate then went out again, and said to them, "Behold, I am bringing Him out to you, that you may know that I find no fault in Him."

PILATE'S DECISION

5Then Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And Pilate said to them, "Behold the Man!"

6Therefore, when the chief priests and officers saw Him, they cried out, saying, "Crucify Him, crucify Him!"

Pilate said to them, "You take Him and crucify Him, for I find no fault in Him."

7The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and according to our[a] law He ought to die, because He made Himself the Son of God."

8Therefore, when Pilate heard that saying, he was the more afraid, 9and went again into the Praetorium, and said to Jesus, "Where are You from?" But Jesus gave him no answer.

10Then Pilate said to Him, "Are You not speaking to me? Do You not know that I have power to crucify You, and power to release You?"

11Jesus answered, "You could have no power at all against Me unless it had been given you from above. Therefore the one who delivered Me to you has the greater sin."

12From then on Pilate sought to release Him, but the Jews cried out, saying, "If you let this Man go, you are not Caesar's friend. Whoever makes himself a king speaks against Caesar."

13When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus out and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called The Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha. 14Now it was the Preparation Day of the Passover, and about the sixth hour. And he said to the Jews, "Behold your King!"

15But they cried out, "Away with Him, away with Him! Crucify Him!"

Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?"

The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar!"

16Then he delivered Him to them to be crucified. So they took Jesus and led Him away.[a]

THE KING ON A CROSS

17And He, bearing His cross, went out to a place called the Place of a Skull, which is

---

19:3 [a]NU-Text reads And they came up to Him and said. 19:7 [a]NU-Text reads the law.

called in Hebrew, Golgotha, 18where they crucified Him, and two others with Him, one on either side, and Jesus in the center. 19Now Pilate wrote a title and put it on the cross. And the writing was:

JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20Then many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, Greek, and Latin.

21Therefore the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but, 'He said, "I am the King of the Jews."'"

22Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."

23Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took His garments and made four parts, to each soldier a part, and also the tunic. Now the tunic was without seam, woven from the top in one piece. 24They said therefore among themselves, "Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be," that the Scripture might be fulfilled which says:

"They divided My garments among them,
And for My clothing they cast lots."[a]

Therefore the soldiers did these things.

BEHOLD YOUR MOTHER

25Now there stood by the cross of Jesus His mother, and His mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. 26When Jesus therefore saw His mother, and the disciple whom He loved standing by, He said to His mother, "Woman, behold your son!" 27Then He said to the disciple, "Behold your mother!" And from that hour that disciple took her to his own home.

IT IS FINISHED

28After this, Jesus, knowing[a] that all things were now accomplished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said, "I thirst!" 29Now a vessel full of sour wine was sitting there; and they filled a sponge with sour wine, put it on hyssop, and put it to His mouth. 30So when Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, "It is finished!" And bowing His head, He gave up His spirit.

JESUS' SIDE IS PIERCED

31Therefore, because it was the Preparation Day, that the bodies should not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a high day), the Jews asked Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. 32Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and of the other who was crucified with Him. 33But when they came to Jesus and saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs. 34But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. 35And he who has seen has testified, and his testimony is true; and he knows that he is telling the truth, so that you may believe. 36For these things were done that the Scripture should be fulfilled, "Not one of His bones shall be broken."[a] 37And again another Scripture says, "They shall look on Him whom they pierced."[a]

John 19:42

According to the law God gave Moses, touching a dead body made a person unclean, which meant he was considered unfit to take part in any religious ceremonies. Uncleanness wasn't a permanent condition, though. A person was considered clean again after a certain amount of time had passed and certain cleansing rituals had been performed. The Jewish leaders wanted to finish the burial so that they could complete the necessary cleansing rituals before the Sabbath day began.

JESUS BURIED IN JOSEPH'S TOMB

38After this, Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly, for fear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus; and Pilate gave him permission. So he came and took the body of Jesus. 39And Nicodemus, who at first came to Jesus by night, also came, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds. 40Then they took the body of Jesus, and bound it in strips of linen with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury. 41Now in the place where He was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one had yet been laid. 42So there they laid Jesus, because of the Jews' Preparation Day, for the tomb was nearby.

THE EMPTY TOMB

20 Now on the first day of the week Mary Magdalene went to the tomb early, while it was still dark, and saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb. 2Then she ran and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him."

3Peter therefore went out, and the other disciple, and were going to the tomb. 4So they both ran together, and the other disciple outran Peter and came to the tomb first. 5And he, stooping down and looking in, saw the linen cloths lying there; yet he did not go in. 6Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb; and he saw the linen cloths lying there, 7and the handkerchief that had been around His head, not lying with the linen cloths, but folded together in a place by itself. 8Then the other disciple, who came to the tomb first, went in also; and he saw and believed. 9For as yet they did not know the Scripture, that He must rise again from the dead. 10Then the disciples went away again to their own homes.

MARY MAGDALENE SEES THE RISEN LORD

11But Mary stood outside by the tomb weeping, and as she wept she stooped down and looked into the tomb. 12And she saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. 13Then they said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?"

She said to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid Him."

14Now when she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, and did not know that it was Jesus. 15Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?"

She, supposing Him to be the gardener, said to Him, "Sir, if You have carried Him away, tell me where You have laid Him, and I will take Him away."

16Jesus said to her, "Mary!"

She turned and said to Him,[a] "Rabboni!" (which is to say, Teacher).

17Jesus said to her, "Do not cling to Me, for I have not yet ascended to My Father; but go to My brethren and say to them, 'I am ascending to My Father and your Father, and to My God and your God.'"

18Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord,[a] and that He had spoken these things to her.

THE APOSTLES COMMISSIONED

19Then, the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled,[a] for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said to them, "Peace be with you." 20When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord.

21So Jesus said to them again, "Peace to you! As the Father has sent Me, I also send you." 22And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. 23If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

SEEING AND BELIEVING

24Now Thomas, called the Twin, one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. 25The other disciples therefore said to him, "We have seen the Lord."

So he said to them, "Unless I see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe."

26And after eight days His disciples were again inside, and Thomas with them. Jesus came, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, "Peace to you!" 27Then He said to Thomas, "Reach your finger here, and look at My hands; and reach your hand here, and put it into My side. Do not be unbelieving, but believing."

28And Thomas answered and said to Him, "My Lord and my God!"

29Jesus said to him, "Thomas,[a] because you have seen Me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed."

THAT YOU MAY BELIEVE

30And truly Jesus did many other signs in the presence of His disciples, which are not written in this book; 31but these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in His name.

BREAKFAST BY THE SEA

21 After these things Jesus showed Himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias, and in this way He showed Himself: 2Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of His disciples were together. 3Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing."

They said to him, "We are going with you also." They went out and immediately[a] got into the boat, and that night they caught nothing. 4But when the morning had now come, Jesus stood on the shore; yet the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. 5Then Jesus said to them, "Children, have you any food?"

They answered Him, "No."

6And He said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast, and now they were not able to draw it in because of the multitude of fish.

7Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his outer garment (for he had removed it), and plunged into the sea. 8But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from land, but about two hundred cubits), dragging the net with fish. 9Then, as soon as they had come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and bread. 10Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have just caught."

11Simon Peter went up and dragged the net to land, full of large fish, one hundred and fifty-three; and although there were so many, the net was not broken. 12Jesus said to them, "Come and eat breakfast." Yet none of the disciples dared ask Him, "Who are You?"—knowing that it was the Lord. 13Jesus then came and took the bread and gave it to them, and likewise the fish.

14This is now the third time Jesus showed Himself to His disciples after He was raised from the dead.

JESUS RESTORES PETER

15So when they had eaten breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of Jonah,[a] do you love Me more than these?"

He said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You."

He said to him, "Feed My lambs."

16He said to him again a second time, "Simon, son of Jonah,[a] do you love Me?"

He said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You."

He said to him, "Tend My sheep."

17He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of Jonah,[a] do you love Me?" Peter was grieved because He said to him the third time, "Do you love Me?"

And he said to Him, "Lord, You know all things; You know that I love You."

Jesus said to him, "Feed My sheep. 18Most assuredly, I say to you, when you were younger, you girded yourself and walked where you wished; but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will gird you and carry you where you do not wish." 19This He spoke, signifying by what death he would glorify God. And when He had spoken this, He said to him, "Follow Me."

THE BELOVED DISCIPLE AND HIS BOOK

20Then Peter, turning around, saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following, who also had leaned on His breast at the supper, and said, "Lord, who is the one who betrays You?" 21Peter, seeing him, said to Jesus, "But Lord, what about this man?"

20:29 [a]NU-Text and M-Text omit Thomas. 21:3 [a]NU-Text omits immediately. 21:15 [a]NU-Text reads John. 21:16 [a]NU-Text reads John. 21:17 [a]NU-Text reads John.

22 Jesus said to him, "If I will that he remain till I come, what is that to you? You follow Me."

23 Then this saying went out among the brethren that this disciple would not die. Yet Jesus did not say to him that he would not die, but, "If I will that he remain till I come, what is that to you?"

24 This is the disciple who testifies of these things, and wrote these things; and we know that his testimony is true.

25 And there are also many other things that Jesus did, which if they were written one by one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that would be written. Amen.

THEN ///

Have you ever watched one of those shows in which an actress is supposed to be having a baby? Remember all the pain and the yelling and the not-pushing and then the pushing? Then, there the baby is; and everybody in the room is all smiles and happy tears. That process is called labor and delivery. It's a lot of work for everyone involved.

Reading the Book of Acts is like watching a baby being born. The baby, though, is the church. Before Jesus came and revolutionized the world's thinking, people went to churches called temples. There they learned, worshiped, gave offerings, and offered sacrifices. After Christ's death and resurrection, though, church meant something different. Church was no longer just a place to go to meet with God. Instead, it was the group of people who made up the family of God and the body of Christ.

When Christ was here on earth, He was God in a human body. Then He left; and now we, the church, are the body of Christ on earth. Making that transition was and is a lot of work for everyone involved: apostles, disciples, church members, missionaries, pastors, and so on. The Book of Acts shows us how it all began.

NOW ///

The early church wasn't exactly a commune. They didn't live in the same building or anything like that. But they did function as a serious community. The people who had money shared with those who didn't. The Bible says there was no poverty in the early church because they took care of each other.

Think of what it was like to walk in their shoes. Jesus had just turned their world upside down. With their very own eyes, they had watched Him go back into heaven. They knew for real that this world was not their home—that heaven was—so they didn't feel ownership over things and money and houses. They shared everything. How do you think that would work for the church today?

REALITY CHECK ///

Paul was one of the most famous people in the New Testament church. Our first glimpse of him is in Acts. At first his name was Saul, and he was searching out and killing Christians. One day, while he was traveling to a place called Damascus to find and persecute Christians there, he was confronted by Jesus, who had already ascended into heaven. "Why are you doing this to Me?" Jesus asked. (The church is considered the body of Christ, so when Saul/Paul destroyed the church, he was destroying Christ's body all over again.) Within a few days, Saul became Paul; and he focused his energy in an entirely different direction. Instead of destroying the church, he became a missionary and started churches in every place he could. That's how it works when you face Jesus. You can't stay the same.

PROLOGUE

1 The former account I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach, 2until the day in which He was taken up, after He through the Holy Spirit had given commandments to the apostles whom He had chosen, 3to whom He also presented Himself alive after His suffering by many infallible proofs, being seen by them during forty days and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God.

THE HOLY SPIRIT PROMISED

4And being assembled together with them,
He commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the Promise of the Father, "which," He said, "you have heard from Me; 5for John truly baptized with water, but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now."
6Therefore, when they had come together, they asked Him, saying, "Lord, will You at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?" 7And He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or seasons which the Father has put in His own authority. 8But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me[a] in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth."

1:8 [a]NU-Text reads My witnesses.

Acts 1:6
Jesus' followers had expected Him to wrestle control of Israel from the Roman Empire, which had been in charge of the land since 63 B.C.

What are Christians called to do?
Acts 1:8

JESUS ASCENDS TO HEAVEN

9Now when He had spoken these things, while they watched, He was taken up, and a cloud received Him out of their sight.
10And while they looked steadfastly toward heaven as He went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel, 11who also said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will so come in like manner as you saw Him go into heaven."

THE UPPER ROOM PRAYER MEETING

12Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey. 13And when they had entered, they went up into the upper room where they were staying:
Peter, James, John, and Andrew; Philip and Thomas; Bartholomew and Matthew; James the son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot; and Judas the son of James. 14These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication,[a] with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with His brothers.

MATTHIAS CHOSEN

15And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples[a] (altogether the number of names was about a hundred and twenty), and said, 16"Men and brethren, this Scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spoke before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who became a guide to those who arrested Jesus; 17for he was numbered with us and obtained a part in this ministry."

18(Now this man purchased a field with the wages of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst open in the middle and all his entrails gushed out. 19And it became known to all those dwelling in Jerusalem; so that field is called in their own language, Akel Dama, that is, Field of Blood.)

20"For it is written in the Book of Psalms:

'Let his dwelling place be desolate,
And let no one live in it';[a]

and,

'Let[b] another take his office.'[c]

21"Therefore, of these men who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, 22beginning from the baptism of John to that day when He was taken up from us, one of these must become a witness with us of His resurrection."

23And they proposed two: Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. 24And they prayed and said, "You,
O Lord, who know the hearts of all, show which of these two You have chosen 25to take part in this ministry and apostleship

COMING OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

come, they were all with one accord[a] in one place. 2And suddenly there

PROMISE

God promises to save you.

"And it shall come to pass that whoever calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved" (Acts 2:21).

Salvation, as it is meant in this verse, is a one-time thing. You make the decision to become a Christian one time. You make decisions to live like a Christian daily—sometimes even moment by moment. Sometimes people are insecure about their salvation. They keep wondering if they "did it right" the first time. So they wind up raising their hand to accept Christ every time the offer is made.

Jesus promises that when you call out to Him and ask Him to save you, He does. It's that simple. You give your heart to Him, ask Him to forgive your sins, and make Him the Lord and Savior of your life. You are saved from that moment until forever. So nail it down. If you've accepted Jesus Christ as your Savior, then you are saved. It's time to move on and grow up in Christ. If you are still unsure, then turn to Romans 10:9–13 and find out what you need to do in order to be saved. Salvation isn't a tricky thing. The Lord sees your heart and knows your sincerity. The right attitude is more important than the right words. Jesus' promise is strong and sure—call out to Him, and you will be saved.

house where they were sitting. 3Then there appeared to them divided tongues, as of fire, and one sat upon each of them. 4And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

THE CROWD'S RESPONSE

5And there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation under heaven. 6And when this sound occurred, the multitude came together, and were confused, because everyone heard them speak in his own language. 7Then they were all amazed and marveled, saying to one another, "Look, are not all these who speak Galileans? 8And how is it that we hear, each in our own language in which we were born? 9Parthians and Medes and Elamites, those dwelling in Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, 10Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya adjoining Cyrene, visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, 11Cretans and Arabs—we hear them speaking in our own tongues the wonderful works of God." 12So they were all amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "Whatever could this mean?"

13Others mocking said, "They are full of new wine."

PETER'S SERMON

14But Peter, standing up with the eleven, raised his voice and said to them, "Men of Judea and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and heed my words. 15For these are not drunk, as you suppose, since it is only the third hour of the day. 16But this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:

17 'And it shall come to pass in the last days, says God,
That I will pour out of My Spirit on all flesh;
Your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
Your young men shall see visions,
Your old men shall dream dreams.
18 And on My menservants and on My maidservants
I will pour out My Spirit in those days;
And they shall prophesy.
19 I will show wonders in heaven above
And signs in the earth beneath:
Blood and fire and vapor of smoke.
20 The sun shall be turned into darkness,

And the moon into blood,
Before the coming of the great and awesome day of the LORD.
21 And it shall come to pass
That whoever calls on the name of the LORD
Shall be saved.'[a]

22"Men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a Man attested by God to you by miracles, wonders, and signs which God did through Him in your midst, as you yourselves also know— 23Him, being delivered by the determined purpose and foreknowledge of God, you have taken[a] by lawless hands, have crucified, and put to death; 24whom God raised up, having loosed the pains of death, because it was not possible that He should be held by it. 25For David says concerning Him:

'I foresaw the LORD always before my face,
For He is at my right hand, that I may not be shaken.
26 Therefore my heart rejoiced, and my tongue was glad;
Moreover my flesh also will rest in hope.
27 For You will not leave my soul in Hades, Nor will You allow Your Holy One to see corruption.
28 You have made known to me the ways
of life;
You will make me full of joy in Your presence.'[a]

29"Men and brethren, let me speak freely to you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. 30Therefore, being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that of the fruit of his body, according to the flesh, He would raise up the Christ to sit on his throne,[a] 31he, foreseeing this, spoke concerning the resurrection of the Christ, that His soul was not left in Hades, nor did His flesh see corruption. 32This Jesus God has raised up, of which we are all witnesses. 33Therefore being exalted to the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, He poured out this which you now see and hear.

34"For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he says himself:

'The LORD said to my Lord,
"Sit at My right hand,
35 Till I make Your enemies Your
footstool."'[a]

36"Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly that God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ."

SALVATION
What must we do when we receive salvation?
Acts 2:37, 38

37Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Men and brethren, what shall we do?"

38Then Peter said to them, "Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39For the promise is to you and to your children, and to all who are afar off, as many as the Lord our God will call."

this perverse generation." 41Then those who gladly[a] received his word were baptized; and that day about three thousand souls were added to them. 42And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in prayers. 43Then fear came upon every soul, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. 44Now all who believed were together, and had all things in common, 45and sold their possessions and goods, and divided them among all, as anyone had need.

46So continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they ate their food with gladness and simplicity of heart, 47praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to the church[a] daily those who were being saved.

A LAME MAN HEALED

3 Now Peter and John went up together to the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour. 2And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms from those who entered the temple; 3who, seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked for alms. 4And fixing his eyes on him, with John, Peter said, "Look at us." 5So he gave them his attention, expecting to receive something from them. 6Then Peter said, "Silver and gold I do not have, but what I do have I give you: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk." 7And he took him by the right hand and lifted him up, and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength. 8So he, leaping up, stood and walked and entered the temple with them—walking, leaping, and praising God. 9And all the people saw him walking and praising God. 10Then they knew that it was he who sat begging alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

PREACHING IN SOLOMON'S PORTICO

11Now as the lame man who was healed held on to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch which is called Solomon's, greatly amazed. 12So when Peter saw it, he responded to the people: "Men of Israel, why do you marvel at this? Or why look so intently at us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made this man walk? 13The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers, glorified His Servant Jesus, whom you delivered up and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let Him go. 14But you denied the Holy One and the Just, and asked for a murderer to be granted to you, 15and killed the Prince of life, whom God raised from the dead, of which we are witnesses. 16And His name, through faith in His name, has made this man strong, whom you see and know. Yes, the faith which comes through Him has given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

JESUS
Of what is Jesus the Prince?
Acts 3:15

17"Yet now, brethren, I know that you did it in ignorance, as did also your rulers. 18But those things which God foretold by the mouth of all His prophets, that the Christ would suffer, He has thus fulfilled. 19Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, 20and that He may send Jesus Christ, who was preached to you before,[a] 21whom heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things, which God has spoken by the mouth of all His holy prophets since the world began. 22For Moses truly said to the fathers, 'The LORD your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from your brethren. Him you shall hear in all things, whatever He says to you. 23*And it shall be that every soul who will not hear that Prophet shall be utterly destroyed from among the people.'*[a] 24Yes, and all the prophets, from Samuel and those who follow, as many as have spoken, have also foretold[a] these days. 25You are sons of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, 'And in your seed all the families of the earth shall be blessed.'[a] 26To you first, God, having raised up His Servant Jesus, sent Him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from your iniquities."

PETER AND JOHN ARRESTED

4 Now as they spoke to the people, the priests, the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees came upon them, 2being greatly disturbed that they taught the people and preached in Jesus the resurrection from the dead. 3And they laid hands on them, and put them in custody until the next day, for it was already evening. 4However, many of those who heard the word believed; and the number of the men came to be about five thousand.

ADDRESSING THE SANHEDRIN

5And it came to pass, on the next day, that their rulers, elders, and scribes, 6as well as Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the family of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem. 7And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, "By what power or by what name have you done this?"

Acts 4:6

The Sanhedrin, a council made up of seventy men plus the high priest, was the highest Jewish court in the land. The council met regularly to settle disputes among the Jewish people. Caiaphas had been selected by the Romans to replace his father-in-law, Annas, as high priest. Annas, though, was considered to be high priest emeritus and was the highest-ranking member of the Sanhedrin.

8Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders of Israel: 9If we this day are judged for a good deed done to a helpless man, by what means he has been made well, 10let it be known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, by Him this man stands here before you whole. 11This is the 'stone which was rejected by you builders, which has become the chief cornerstone.'[a] 12Nor is there salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved."

THE NAME OF JESUS FORBIDDEN

13Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were uneducated and untrained men, they marveled. And they realized that they had been with Jesus. 14And seeing the man who had been healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. 15But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, 16saying, "What shall we do to these men? For, indeed, that a notable miracle has been done through them is evident to all who dwell in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it. 17But so that it spreads no further among the people, let us severely threaten them, that from now on they speak to no man in this name."

18So they called them and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus. 19But Peter and John answered and said to them, "Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you more than to God, you judge. 20For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard." 21So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way of punishing them, because of the people, since they all glorified God for what had been done. 22For the man was over forty years old on whom this miracle of healing had been performed.

23And being let go, they went to their own companions and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them. 24So when they heard that, they raised their voice to God with one accord and said: "Lord, You are God, who made heaven and earth and the sea, and all that is in them,

27 "For truly against Your holy Servant Jesus, whom You anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, were gathered together 28 to do whatever Your hand and Your purpose determined before to be done. 29 Now, Lord, look on their threats, and grant to Your servants that with all boldness they may speak Your word, 30 by stretching out Your hand to heal, and that signs and wonders may be done through the name of Your holy Servant Jesus."

Acts 4:27

Let's introduce two of the judges in Jesus' trial. Herod was the ruler of the Jewish people in Galilee and Perea. Pilate was the Roman governor of Judea and Samaria. Because Jesus was from Galilee and the charges against Him were made in Jerusalem, His trial fell under the jurisdiction of both men. It's interesting to note that neither man found Jesus guilty, yet both allowed Him to be crucified.

31 And when they had prayed, the place where they were assembled together was shaken; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness.

SHARING IN ALL THINGS

32 Now the multitude of those who believed were of one heart and one soul; neither did anyone say that any of the things he possessed was his own, but they had all things in common. 33 And with great power the apostles gave witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. And great grace was upon them all. 34 Nor was there anyone among them who lacked; for all who were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of the things that were sold, 35 and laid them at the apostles' feet; and they distributed to each as anyone had need.

36 And Joses,[a] who was also named Barnabas by the apostles (which is translated Son of Encouragement), a Levite of the country of Cyprus, 37 having land, sold it, and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet.

LYING TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

5 But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession. 2 And he kept back part of the proceeds, his wife also being aware of it, and brought a certain part and laid it at the apostles' feet. 3 But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and keep back part of the price of the land for yourself? 4 While it remained, was it not your own? And after it was sold, was it not in your own control? Why have you conceived this thing in your heart? You have not lied to men but to God."

5 Then Ananias, hearing these words, fell down and breathed his last. So great fear came upon all those who heard these things. 6 And the young men arose and wrapped him up, carried him out, and buried him.

7 Now it was about three hours later when his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. 8 And Peter answered her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much?"

She said, "Yes, for so much."

9 Then Peter said to her, "How is it that you have agreed together to test the Spirit of the Lord? Look, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out." 10 Then immediately she fell down at his feet and breathed her last. And the young men came in and found her dead, and carrying her out, buried her by her husband. 11 So great fear came upon all the church and upon all who heard these things.

CONTINUING POWER IN THE CHURCH

12 And through the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were done among

4:25 [a]NU-Text reads who through the Holy Spirit, by the mouth of our father, Your servant David.

the people. And they were all with one accord in Solomon's Porch. 13Yet none of the rest dared join them, but the people esteemed them highly. 14And believers were increasingly added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and women, 15so that they brought the sick out into the streets and laid them on beds and couches, that at least the shadow of Peter passing by might fall on some of them. 16Also a multitude gathered from the surrounding cities to Jerusalem, bringing sick people and those who were tormented by unclean spirits, and they were all healed.

IMPRISONED APOSTLES FREED

17Then the high priest rose up, and all those who were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with indignation, 18and laid their hands on the apostles and put them in the common prison. 19But at night an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors and brought them out, and said, 20"Go, stand in the temple and speak to the people all the words of this life."

21And when they heard that, they entered the temple early in the morning and taught. But the high priest and those with him came and called the council together, with all the elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

APOSTLES ON TRIAL AGAIN

22But when the officers came and did not find them in the prison, they returned and reported, 23saying, "Indeed we found the prison shut securely, and the guards standing outside[a] before the doors; but when we opened them, we found no one inside!" 24Now when the high priest,[a] the captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these things, they wondered what the outcome would be. 25So one came and told them, saying,[a] "Look, the men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people!"

26Then the captain went with the officers and brought them without violence, for they feared the people, lest they should be stoned. 27And when they had brought them, they set them before the council. And the high priest asked them, 28saying, "Did we not strictly command you not to teach in this name? And look, you have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this Man's blood on us!"

29But Peter and the other apostles answered and said: "We ought to obey God rather than men. 30The God of our fathers raised up Jesus whom you murdered by hanging on a tree. 31Him God has exalted to His right hand to be Prince and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. 32And we are His witnesses to these things, and so also is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey Him."

> Acts 5:34
> Though Gamaliel was a highly respected member of the Jewish council and an extremely well educated Pharisee, he is perhaps best known as the teacher of the apostle Paul.

GAMALIEL'S ADVICE

33When they heard this, they were furious and plotted to kill them. 34Then one in the council stood up, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law held in respect by all the people, and commanded them to put the apostles outside for a little while. 35And he said to them: "Men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what you intend to do regarding these men. 36For some time ago Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody. A number of men, about four hundred, joined him. He was slain, and all who obeyed him were scattered and came to nothing. 37After this man, Judas of Galilee rose up in the days of the census, and drew away many people after him. He also perished, and all who obeyed him were dispersed. 38And now I say to you, keep away from these men and let them alone; for if this plan or this work is of men, it will come to nothing; 39but if it is of God, you cannot overthrow it—lest you even be found to fight against God."

40And they agreed with him, and when they had called for the apostles and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. 41So they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for His[a] name. 42And daily in the temple, and in every house, they did not cease teaching and preaching Jesus as the Christ.

SEVEN CHOSEN TO SERVE

6 Now in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, there arose a complaint against the Hebrews by the Hellenists,[a] because their widows were neglected in the daily distribution. 2Then the twelve summoned the multitude of the disciples and said, "It is not desirable that we should leave the word of God and serve tables. 3Therefore, brethren, seek out from among you seven men of good reputation, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business; 4but we will give ourselves continually to prayer and to the ministry of the word."

5And the saying pleased the whole multitude. And they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and the Holy Spirit, and Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas, a proselyte from Antioch, 6whom they set before the apostles; and when they had prayed, they laid hands on them.

7Then the word of God spread, and the number of the disciples multiplied greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many of the priests were obedient to the faith.

STEPHEN ACCUSED OF BLASPHEMY

8And Stephen, full of faith[a] and power, did great wonders and signs among the people. 9Then there arose some from what is called the Synagogue of the Freedmen (Cyrenians, Alexandrians, and those from Cilicia and Asia), disputing with Stephen. 10And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke. 11Then they secretly induced men to say, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God." 12And they stirred up the people, the elders, and the scribes; and they came upon him, seized him, and brought him to the council. 13They also set up false witnesses who said, "This man does not cease to speak blasphemous[a] words against this holy place and the law; 14for we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place and change the customs which Moses delivered to us." 15And all who sat in the council, looking steadfastly at him, saw his face as the face of an angel.

STEPHEN'S ADDRESS: THE CALL OF ABRAHAM

7 Then the high priest said, "Are these things so?"

2And he said, "Brethren and fathers, listen: The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Haran, 3and said to him, 'Get out of your country and from your relatives, and come to a land that I will show you.'[a] 4Then he came out of the land of the Chaldeans and dwelt in Haran. And from there, when his father was dead, He moved him to this land in which you now dwell. 5And God gave him no inheritance in it, not even enough to set his foot on. But even when Abraham had no child, He promised to give it to him for a possession, and to his descendants after him. 6But God spoke in this way: that his descendants would dwell in a foreign land, and that they would bring them into bondage and oppress them four hundred years. 7*'And the nation to whom they will be in bondage I will judge,'*[a] said God, 'and after that they shall come out and serve Me in this place.'[b] 8Then He gave him the covenant of circumcision; and so Abraham begot Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day; and Isaac begot Jacob, and Jacob begot the twelve patriarchs.

THE PATRIARCHS IN EGYPT

9"And the patriarchs, becoming envious, sold Joseph into Egypt. But God was with him 10and delivered him out of all his troubles, and gave him favor and wisdom in the presence of Pharaoh, king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house. 11Now a famine and great trouble came over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and our fathers found no sustenance. 12But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first. 13And the second time Joseph was made known to his brothers, and Joseph's family became known to the Pharaoh. 14Then Joseph sent and called his father Jacob and all his relatives to him, seventy-five[a] people. 15So Jacob went down to Egypt; and he died, he and our fathers. 16And they were carried back to Shechem and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a sum of money from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem.

GOD DELIVERS ISRAEL BY MOSES

17"But when the time of the promise drew near which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt
18till another king arose who did not know Joseph. 19This man dealt treacherously with our people, and oppressed our forefathers, making them expose their babies, so that they might not live. 20At this time
Moses was born, and was well pleasing to God; and he was brought up in his father's house for three months. 21But when he was set out, Pharaoh's daughter took him away and brought him up as her own son. 22And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and deeds.

23"Now when he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren, the children of Israel. 24And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended and avenged him who was oppressed, and struck down the Egyptian. 25For he supposed that his brethren would have understood that God would deliver them by his hand, but they did not understand. 26And the next day he appeared to two of them as they were fighting, and tried to reconcile them, saying,
'Men, you are brethren; why do you wrong
one another?' 27But he who did his neighbor wrong pushed him away, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge over us? 28Do you want to kill me as you did the Egyptian yesterday?'[a] 29Then, at this saying, Moses fled and became a dweller in the land of Midian, where he had two sons.

30"And when forty years had passed, an Angel of the Lord[a] appeared to him in a flame of fire in a bush, in the wilderness of Mount Sinai. 31When Moses saw it, he marveled at the sight; and as he drew near to observe, the voice of the Lord came to him, 32*saying, 'I am the God of your fathers—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.'*[a] And Moses trembled and dared not look. 33 *'Then the LORD said to him, "Take your sandals off your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground.
34I have surely seen the oppression of My people who are in Egypt; I have heard their groaning and have come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send you to Egypt."'*[a]

35"This Moses whom they rejected, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge?'[a] is the one God sent to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the Angel who appeared to him in the bush. 36He brought them out, after he had shown wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red Sea, and in the wilderness forty years.

ISRAEL REBELS AGAINST GOD

37"This is that Moses who said to the children of Israel,[a] 'The LORD your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from your brethren. Him you shall hear.'[b]

38"This is he who was in the congregation in the wilderness with the Angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers, the one who received the living oracles to give to us, 39whom our fathers would not obey, but rejected. And in their hearts they turned back to Egypt, 40saying to Aaron, 'Make us gods to go before us; as for this Moses who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.'[a] 41And they made a calf in those days, offered sacrifices to the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands. 42Then God turned and gave them up to worship the host of heaven, as it is written in the book of the Prophets:

'Did you offer Me slaughtered animals and sacrifices during forty years in the wilderness,
O house of Israel?
43 You also took up the tabernacle of Moloch,
And the star of your god Remphan,
Images which you made to worship;
And I will carry you away beyond Babylon.'[a]

GOD'S TRUE TABERNACLE

44"Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as He appointed, instructing Moses to make it according to the pattern that he had seen, 45which our fathers, having received it in turn, also brought with Joshua into the land possessed by the Gentiles, whom God drove out before the face of our fathers until the days of David, 46who found favor before God and asked to find a dwelling for the God of Jacob. 47But Solomon built Him a house.

48"However, the Most High does not dwell in temples made with hands, as the prophet says:

49 'Heaven is My throne,
And earth is My footstool.
What house will you build for Me?
says the LORD,
Or what is the place of My rest?
50 Has My hand not made all these things?'[a]

ISRAEL RESISTS THE HOLY SPIRIT

51"You stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears! You always resist the Holy Spirit; as your fathers did, so do you. 52Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? And they killed those who foretold the coming of the Just One, of whom you now have become the betrayers and murderers, 53who have received the law by the direction of angels and have not kept it."

STEPHEN THE MARTYR

54When they heard these things they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed at him with their teeth. 55But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God, 56and said, "Look! I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!"

57Then they cried out with a loud voice, stopped their ears, and ran at him with one accord; 58and they cast him out of the city and stoned him. And the witnesses laid down their clothes at the feet of a young man named Saul. 59And they stoned Stephen as he was calling on God and saying, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." 60Then he knelt down and cried out with a loud voice, "Lord, do not charge them with this sin." And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

SAUL PERSECUTES THE CHURCH

8 Now Saul was consenting to his death.

At that time a great persecution arose against the church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles. 2And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him.

3As for Saul, he made havoc of the church, entering every house, and dragging off men and women, committing them to prison.

CHRIST IS PREACHED IN SAMARIA

4Therefore those who were scattered went everywhere preaching the word. 5Then Philip went down to the[a] city of Samaria and preached Christ to them. 6And the multitudes with one accord heeded the things spoken by Philip, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did. 7For unclean spirits, crying with a loud voice, came out of many who were possessed; and many who were paralyzed and lame were healed. 8And there was great joy in that city.

THE SORCERER'S PROFESSION OF FAITH

9But there was a certain man called Simon, who previously practiced sorcery in the city and astonished the people of Samaria, claiming that he was someone great, 10to whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, "This man is the great power of God." 11And they heeded him because he had astonished them with his sorceries for a long time. 12But when they believed Philip as he preached the things concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, both men and women were baptized. 13Then Simon himself also believed; and when he was baptized he continued with Philip, and was amazed, seeing the miracles and signs which were done.

THE SORCERER'S SIN

14Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them, 15who, when they had come down, prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit. 16For as yet He had fallen upon none of them. They had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. 17Then they laid hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

18And when Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money, 19saying, "Give me this power also, that anyone on whom I lay hands may receive the Holy Spirit."

20But Peter said to him, "Your money perish with you, because you thought that the gift of God could be purchased with money! 21You have neither part nor portion in this matter, for your heart is not right in the sight of God. 22Repent therefore of this your wickedness, and pray God if perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven
you. 23For I see that you are poisoned by bitterness and bound by iniquity."

24Then Simon answered and said, "Pray to the Lord for me, that none of the things which you have spoken may come upon me."

25So when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem, preaching the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

CHRIST IS PREACHED TO AN ETHIOPIAN

26Now an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, "Arise and go toward the south along the road which goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." This is desert. 27So he arose and went. And behold, a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace the queen of the Ethiopians, who had charge of all her treasury, and had come to Jerusalem to worship, 28was returning.
And sitting in his chariot, he was reading Isaiah the prophet. 29Then the Spirit said to Philip, "Go near and overtake this chariot."

30So Philip ran to him, and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

31And he said, "How can I, unless someone guides me?" And he asked Philip to come up and sit with him. 32The place in the Scripture which he read was this:

> "He was led as a sheep to the slaughter;
> And as a lamb before its shearer is > silent,
> So He opened not His mouth.
> 33*In His humiliation His justice was* > taken away,
> And who will declare His generation?
> For His life is taken from the earth."[a] 34So the eunuch answered Philip and said, "I ask you, of whom does the prophet say this, of himself or of some other man?" 35Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning at this Scripture, preached Jesus to him. 36Now as they went down the road, they came to some water. And the eunuch said, "See, here is water. What hinders me from being baptized?"

37Then Philip said, "If you believe with all your heart, you may."

And he answered and said, "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God."[a]

38So he commanded the chariot to stand still. And both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and he baptized him.
39Now when they came up out of the water,
the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, so that the eunuch saw him no more; and he went on his way rejoicing. 40But Philip was found at Azotus. And passing through, he preached in all the cities till he came to Caesarea.

THE DAMASCUS ROAD: SAUL CONVERTED

9 Then Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest 2and asked letters from him to the synagogues of Damascus, so that if he found any who were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.

Acts 9:2

Today the city of Damascus is the capital of Syria. In New Testament times, Damascus was a refuge for Jewish Christians. When the persecution of the early church began in Jerusalem, many Christians headed the one hundred fifty miles northwest to Damascus to escape danger.

3As he journeyed he came near Damascus, and suddenly a light shone around him from heaven. 4Then he fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?"

5And he said, "Who are You, Lord?"

Then the Lord said, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.[a] It is hard for you to kick against the goads."

6So he, trembling and astonished, said, "Lord, what do You want me to do?"

Then the Lord said to him, "Arise and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do."

7And the men who journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice but seeing no one. 8Then Saul arose from the ground, and when his eyes were opened he saw no one. But they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. 9And he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

ANANIAS BAPTIZES SAUL

10Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus named Ananias; and to him the Lord said in a vision, "Ananias."

And he said, "Here I am, Lord."

11So the Lord said to him, "Arise and go to the street called Straight, and inquire at the house of Judas for one called Saul of Tarsus, for behold, he is praying. 12And in a vision he has seen a man named Ananias coming in and putting his hand on him, so that he might receive his sight."

13Then Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much harm he has done to Your saints in Jerusalem. 14And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on Your name."

15But the Lord said to him, "Go, for he is a chosen vessel of Mine to bear My name before Gentiles, kings, and the children of Israel. 16For I will show him how many things he must suffer for My name's sake."

17And Ananias went his way and entered the house; and laying his hands on him he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus,[a] who appeared to you on the road as you came, has sent me that you may receive your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit." 18Immediately there fell from his eyes something like scales, and he received his sight at once; and he arose and was baptized.

19So when he had received food, he was strengthened. Then Saul spent some days with the disciples at Damascus.

SAUL PREACHES CHRIST

20Immediately he preached the Christ[a] in the synagogues, that He is the Son of God.

21Then all who heard were amazed, and said, "Is this not he who destroyed those who called on this name in Jerusalem, and has come here for that purpose, so that he might bring them bound to the chief priests?"

22But Saul increased all the more in strength, and confounded the Jews who dwelt in Damascus, proving that this Jesus is the Christ.

SAUL ESCAPES DEATH

23Now after many days were past, the Jews plotted to kill him. 24But their plot became known to Saul. And they watched the gates day and night, to kill him. 25Then

9:5 [a]NU-Text and M-Text omit the last sentence of verse 5 and begin verse 6 with But arise and go. 9:17 [a]M-Text omits Jesus. 9:20 [a]NU-Text reads Jesus.

the disciples took him by night and let him down through the wall in a large basket.

SAUL AT JERUSALEM

[26]And when Saul had come to Jerusalem, he tried to join the disciples; but they were all afraid of him, and did not believe that he was a disciple. [27]But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles. And he declared to them how he had seen the Lord on the road, and that He had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus. [28]So he was with them at Jerusalem, coming in and going out. [29]And he spoke boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus and disputed against the Hellenists, but they attempted to kill him. [30]When the brethren found out, they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him out to Tarsus.

THE CHURCH PROSPERS

[31]Then the churches[a] throughout all Judea, Galilee, and Samaria had peace and were edified. And walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, they were multiplied.

ENCOURAGEMENT
Who is our source of encouragement?
Acts 9:31

AENEAS HEALED

[32]Now it came to pass, as Peter went through all parts of the country, that he also came down to the saints who dwelt in Lydda. [33]There he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden eight years and was paralyzed. [34]And Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus the Christ heals you. Arise and make your bed." Then he arose immediately. [35]So all who dwelt at Lydda and Sharon saw him and turned to the Lord.

DORCAS RESTORED TO LIFE

[36]At Joppa there was a certain disciple named Tabitha, which is translated Dorcas. This woman was full of good works and charitable deeds which she did. [37]But it happened in those days that she became sick and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in an upper room. [38]And since Lydda was near Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent two men to him, imploring him not to delay in coming to them. [39]Then Peter arose and went with them. When he had come, they brought him to the upper room. And all the widows stood by him weeping, showing the tunics and garments which Dorcas had made while she was with them. [40]But Peter put them all out, and knelt down and prayed. And turning to the body he said, "Tabitha, arise." And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter she sat up. [41]Then he gave her his hand and lifted her up; and when he had called the saints and widows, he presented her alive. [42]And it became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed on the Lord. [43]So it was that he stayed many days in Joppa with Simon, a tanner.

Here are the basics you need to know about the divisions of the Roman army. A legion was made up of six thousand soldiers. Each legion was divided into ten cohorts of six hundred men each. Each cohort was commanded by a tribune. Six centurions (captains) served under each tribune, and each captain was in charge of one hundred soldiers.

CORNELIUS SENDS A DELEGATION

10 There was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of what was called the Italian Regiment, [2]a devout man and one who feared God with all his household, who gave alms generously to the people, and prayed to God always. [3]About the ninth hour of the day he saw clearly in a vision an angel of God coming in and saying to him, "Cornelius!"

[4]And when he observed him, he was afraid, and said, "What is it, lord?"

So he said to him, "Your prayers and your alms have come up for a memorial 9:31 [a]NU-Text reads church . . . was edified.

before God. 5Now send men to Joppa, and send for Simon whose surname is Peter. 6He is lodging with Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea.[a] He will tell you what you must do." 7And when the angel who spoke to him had departed, Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier from among those who waited on him continually. 8So when he had explained all these things to them, he sent them to Joppa.

PETER'S VISION

9The next day, as they went on their journey and drew near the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray, about the sixth hour. 10Then he became very hungry and wanted to eat; but while they made ready, he fell into a trance 11and saw heaven opened and an object like a great sheet bound at the four corners, descending to him and let down to the earth. 12In it were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, creeping things, and birds of the air. 13And a voice came to him, "Rise, Peter; kill and eat."

14But Peter said, "Not so, Lord! For I have never eaten anything common or unclean."

15And a voice spoke to him again the second time, "What God has cleansed you must not call common." 16This was done three times. And the object was taken up into heaven again.

SUMMONED TO CAESAREA

17Now while Peter wondered within himself what this vision which he had seen meant, behold, the men who had been sent from Cornelius had made inquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate. 18And they called and asked whether Simon, whose surname was Peter, was lodging there.

19While Peter thought about the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Behold, three men are seeking you. 20Arise therefore, go down and go with them, doubting nothing; for I have sent them."

21Then Peter went down to the men who had been sent to him from Cornelius,[a] and said, "Yes, I am he whom you seek. For what reason have you come?"

22And they said, "Cornelius the centurion, a just man, one who fears God and has a good reputation among all the nation of the Jews, was divinely instructed by a holy angel to summon you to his house, and to hear words from you." 23Then he invited them in and lodged them.

On the next day Peter went away with them, and some brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

PETER MEETS CORNELIUS

24And the following day they entered Caesarea. Now Cornelius was waiting for them, and had called together his relatives and close friends. 25As Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him and fell down at his feet and worshiped him. 26But Peter lifted him up, saying, "Stand up; I myself am also a man." 27And as he talked with him, he went in and found many who had come together. 28Then he said to them, "You know how unlawful it is for a Jewish man to keep company with or go to one of another nation. But God has shown me that I should not call any man common or unclean. 29Therefore I came without objection as soon as I was sent for. I ask, then, for what reason have you sent for me?"

30So Cornelius said, "Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour[a] I prayed in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31and said, 'Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your alms are remembered in the sight of God. 32Send therefore to Joppa and call Simon here, whose surname is Peter. He is lodging in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the sea.[a] When he comes, he will speak to you.' 33So I sent to you immediately, and you have done well to come. Now therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things commanded you by God."

PREACHING TO CORNELIUS' HOUSEHOLD

34Then Peter opened his mouth and said: "In truth I perceive that God shows no partiality. 35But in every nation whoever fears

Him and works righteousness is accepted by Him. 36The word which God sent to the children of Israel, preaching peace through Jesus Christ—He is Lord of all— 37that word you know, which was proclaimed throughout all Judea, and began from Galilee after the baptism which John preached: 38how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with Him. 39And we are witnesses of all things which He did both in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem, whom they[a] killed by hanging on a tree. 40Him God raised up on the third day, and showed Him openly, 41not to all the people, but to witnesses chosen before by God, even to us who ate and drank with Him after He arose from the dead. 42And He commanded us to preach to the people, and to testify that it is He who was ordained by God to be Judge of the living and the dead. 43To Him all the prophets witness that, through His name, whoever believes in Him will receive remission of sins."

THE HOLY SPIRIT FALLS ON THE GENTILES

44While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell upon all those who heard the word. 45And those of the circumcision who believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out on the Gentiles also. 46For they heard them speak with tongues and magnify God.

Then Peter answered, 47"Can anyone forbid water, that these should not be baptized who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?" 48And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then they asked him to stay a few days.

PETER DEFENDS GOD'S GRACE

11 Now the apostles and brethren who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God. 2And when Peter came up to Jerusalem, those of the circumcision contended with him, 3saying, "You went in to uncircumcised men and ate with them!"

4But Peter explained it to them in order from the beginning, saying: 5"I was in the city of Joppa praying; and in a trance I saw a vision, an object descending like a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came to me. 6When I observed it intently and considered, I saw four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, creeping things, and birds of the air. 7And I heard a voice saying to me, 'Rise, Peter; kill and eat.' 8But I said, 'Not so, Lord! For nothing common or unclean has at any time entered my mouth.' 9But the voice answered me again from heaven, 'What God has cleansed you must not call common.' 10Now this was done three times, and all were drawn up again into heaven. 11At that very moment, three men stood before the house where I was, having been sent to me from Caesarea. 12Then the Spirit told me to go with them, doubting nothing. Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered the man's house. 13And he told us how he had seen an angel standing in his house, who said to him, 'Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter, 14who will tell you words by which you and all your household will be saved.' 15And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them, as upon us at the beginning. 16Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how He said, 'John indeed baptized with water, but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit.' 17If therefore God gave them the same gift as He gave us when we believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could withstand God?"

18When they heard these things they became silent; and they glorified God, saying, "Then God has also granted to the Gentiles repentance to life."

BARNABAS AND SAUL AT ANTIOCH

19Now those who were scattered after the persecution that arose over Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to no one but the Jews only. 20But some of them were men from Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Hellenists, preaching the Lord Jesus. 21And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and turned to the Lord.

MIR MAKING IT REAL // ACTS 11:26

Christians After Jesus returned to heaven, the disciples and other followers became known as Christians. They "belonged to the party of Jesus." At a restaurant, you may wait with a group until the host calls, "Table for the Smith party." Everyone who is with your group gets up to be seated. Each one of you is different, but you all belong together. You are recognized as a distinct group. Your party is separate from all the other people in the restaurant. In Antioch, the followers of Christ had become recognized as a separate group of people who belonged together.

Followers today are still called Christians, meaning that we belong with all the others who believe in Christ. It is a high privilege to carry the banner of Christ along with those who have gone before us.

The question to ask yourself is whether or not your life makes you look like you belong to "the party of Jesus." Are your choices different from your non-Christian friends? If someone is not aware you are a Christian, will they wonder what's different about you; or do you just blend in with every other group? Our lives are like stories the world reads; when they read yours, do they read about Jesus? (See also: Acts 26:28; 1 Cor. 12:12; 1 Pet. 4:16.)

Words to Live By

Christians: The Greek word translated as "Christians" in Acts 11:26 is Christianos (khris-tee-an-os'). It simply means "a follower of Christ." We are so closely identified with our Savior that His title (Christ) identifies us. The world should be able to recognize us as Christians, because as we follow Christ we should look more and more like Him, which will set us apart from the world.

22 Then news of these things came to the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent out Barnabas to go as far as Antioch.
23 When he came and had seen the grace of God, he was glad, and encouraged them all that with purpose of heart they should continue with the Lord. 24 For he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And a great many people were added to the Lord.

25 Then Barnabas departed for Tarsus to seek Saul. 26 And when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. So it was that for a whole year they assembled with the church and taught a great many people.
And the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.

RELIEF TO JUDEA

27 And in these days prophets came from Jerusalem to Antioch. 28 Then one of them, named Agabus, stood up and showed by the Spirit that there was going to be a great famine throughout all the world, which also happened in the days of Claudius Caesar. 29 Then the disciples, each according to his ability, determined to send relief to the brethren dwelling in Judea. 30 This they also did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

HEROD'S VIOLENCE TO THE CHURCH

12 Now about that time Herod the king stretched out his hand to harass some from the church.
2 Then he killed James the brother of John with the sword. 3 And because he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to seize Peter also. Now it was during the Days of Unleavened Bread. 4 So when he had arrested him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four squads of soldiers to keep him, intending to bring him before the people after Passover.

PROFILE
RHODA

People don't usually realize the incredible power of prayer until one of God's answers comes knocking at the door!

Rhoda was a young believer caught up in the exciting days that followed Jesus' resurrection. At first, it seemed that everyone would turn to the risen Christ. Then came the backlash. Ugly confrontations, imprisonment, and even death were used to resist the wildfire of the good news. No one was safe.

Rhoda participated in a fervent prayer meeting, asking God for the safe release of Peter, who had been imprisoned. While they were praying, God was working. An angel broke Peter out of his confinement. Once the angel left him on the street, Peter made his way to the house where Rhoda and the others were still in prayer. He knocked on the outer door, and Rhoda went to answer. She recognized Peter's voice and got so excited that she rushed back into the house to tell the news. During the next confusing minutes, Peter was left standing out in the street.

At first, the others in the house didn't believe Rhoda's report. But someone finally decided that the best way to check her story was to open the door. To their surprise and delight, they found that God had answered their prayers. Rhoda had the right attitude; she just forgot the evidence that would have easily persuaded others—Peter himself.

+ MAKING A DIFFERENCE:

We may chuckle over Rhoda's oversight, but it reminds us how easily we fall into the error of praying but not really expecting God to provide. Then, when the answer is right before our eyes, we may refuse to accept it because we really didn't expect it in the first place. God answers prayers; that's a fact. But sometimes His answers look entirely different than we expect or come at times we least anticipate.

When we pray, we put ourselves in a place where we can see and expect God to act. When we pray for rain, we ought to carry our umbrellas with us. When God's answers come knocking, we need to open the door.

PETER FREED FROM PRISON

5 Peter was therefore kept in prison, but constant[a] prayer was offered to God for him by the church. 6 And when Herod was about to bring him out, that night Peter was sleeping, bound with two chains between two soldiers; and the guards before the door were keeping the prison. 7 Now behold, an angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shone in the prison; and he struck Peter on the side and raised him up, saying, "Arise quickly!" And his chains fell off his hands. 8 Then the angel said to him,
"Gird yourself and tie on your sandals"; and so he did. And he said to him, "Put on your garment and follow me." 9 So he went out and followed him, and did not know that what was done by the angel was real, but thought he was seeing a vision. 10 When 12:5 [a]NU-Text reads constantly (or earnestly).

they were past the first and the second guard posts, they came to the iron gate that leads to the city, which opened to them of its own accord; and they went out and went down one street, and immediately the angel departed from him.

11And when Peter had come to himself, he said, "Now I know for certain that the Lord has sent His angel, and has delivered me from the hand of Herod and from all the expectation of the Jewish people."

12So, when he had considered this, he came to the house of Mary, the mother of John whose surname was Mark, where many were gathered together praying. 13And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a girl named Rhoda came to answer. 14When she recognized Peter's voice, because of her gladness she did not open the gate, but ran in and announced that Peter stood before the gate. 15But they said to her, "You are beside yourself!" Yet she kept insisting that it was so. So they said, "It is his angel."

16Now Peter continued knocking; and when they opened the door and saw him, they were astonished. 17But motioning to them with his hand to keep silent, he declared to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, "Go, tell these things to James and to the brethren." And he departed and went to another place.

18Then, as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers about what had become of Peter. 19But when Herod had searched for him and not found him, he examined the guards and commanded that they should be put to death.

And he went down from Judea to Caesarea, and stayed there.

HEROD'S VIOLENT DEATH

20Now Herod had been very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon; but they came to him with one accord, and having made Blastus the king's personal aide their friend, they asked for peace, because their country was supplied with food by the king's country.

21So on a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat on his throne and gave an oration to them. 22And the people kept shouting, "The voice of a god and not of a man!" 23Then immediately an angel of the Lord struck him, because he did not give glory to God. And he was eaten by worms and died.

24But the word of God grew and multiplied.

BARNABAS AND SAUL APPOINTED

25And Barnabas and Saul returned from[a] Jerusalem when they had fulfilled their ministry, and they also took with them John whose surname was Mark.

13 Now in the church that was at Antioch there were certain prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. 2As they ministered to the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, "Now separate to Me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." 3Then, having fasted and prayed, and laid hands on them, they sent them away.

PREACHING IN CYPRUS

4So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia, and from there they sailed to Cyprus. 5And when they arrived in Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. They also had John as their assistant.

Acts 13:9

If you're confused about Paul's two names, remember this: Saul was his Jewish name, and Paul was the Greek translation of it. When he was in his Jewish surroundings, he used the name Saul. When he was ministering to the Gentiles, he used the name Paul. Using the Greek version of his name would have helped Paul identify with the people he was teaching about Jesus.

6Now when they had gone through the island[a] to Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew whose name was Bar-Jesus, 7who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. This man called for Barnabas and Saul and

God Speaks In the Book of Acts, we see the disciples looking to the Lord for instruction and guidance. They needed direction about how to spread the message of Christ. In this passage, the Holy Spirit speaks to them about sending out Barnabas and Saul.

The Lord still gives clear instruction and direction to believers. The Holy Spirit still guides us through the will of God. The church in Acts worshiped, fasted, and waited for God to give instruction. They actively sought the Lord about what to do. They wanted their entire lives to revolve around God and His plans.

What does your life revolve around? Do you actively seek the Lord about the direction of your life and activities? Or are your own desires and the opinions of others your motivation? As disciples of Christ, we must follow the example set in Acts and pursue God continually. We can hear from God when we listen for Him to speak. If you want God to speak to you, then spend time with Him, worshiping, fasting, and praying. Designate a specific part of your day to focus all of your attention on Him. He still speaks. Will you be faithful to listen? (See also: Job 37:4, 5; Ezek. 1:25–28; Matt. 10:20; John 10:27; Rev. 3:20.)

Words to Live By

Ministered to the Lord: We often hear of ministering for the Lord, but what does ministering to the Lord mean? The Greek word translated as "ministered to" in Acts 13:2 is leitourgeo (li-toorg-eh'-o). The word in this context conveys the idea of service to God, including, for example, worship, prayer, and obedience. Serving God is how we minister to Him.

sought to hear the word of God. 8But Elymas the sorcerer (for so his name is translated) withstood them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith. 9Then Saul, who also is called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked intently at him 10and said, "O full of all deceit and all fraud, you son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease perverting the straight ways of the Lord? 11And now, indeed, the hand of the Lord is upon you, and you shall be blind, not seeing the sun for a time."

And immediately a dark mist fell on him, and he went around seeking someone to lead him by the hand. 12Then the proconsul believed, when he saw what had been done, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

AT ANTIOCH IN PISIDIA

13Now when Paul and his party set sail from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia; and John, departing from them, returned to Jerusalem. 14But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day and sat down. 15And after the reading of the Law and the Prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, "Men and brethren, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, say on."

16Then Paul stood up, and motioning with his hand said, "Men of Israel, and you who fear God, listen: 17The God of this people Israel[a] chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an uplifted arm He brought them out of it. 18Now for a time of about forty years He put up with their ways in the wilderness. 19And when He had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, He distributed their land to them by allotment.

20"After that He gave them judges for about four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet. 21And afterward they asked for a king; so God gave them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years. 22And when He had removed him, He raised up for them David as king, to whom also He gave testimony and said, 'I have found David[a] the son of Jesse, a man after My own heart, who will do all My will.'[b] 23From this man's seed, according to the promise, God raised up for Israel a Savior—Jesus—[a] 24after John had first preached, before His coming, the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. 25And as John was finishing his course, he said, 'Who do you think I am? I am not He. But behold, there comes One after me, the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to loose.'

26"Men and brethren, sons of the family of Abraham, and those among you who fear God, to you the word of this salvation has been sent. 27For those who dwell in Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they did not know Him, nor even the voices of the Prophets which are read every Sabbath, have fulfilled them in condemning Him. 28And though they found no cause for death in Him, they asked Pilate that He should be put to death. 29Now when they had fulfilled all that was written concerning Him, they took Him down from the tree and laid Him in a tomb. 30But God raised Him from the dead. 31He was seen for many days by those who came up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are His witnesses to the people. 32And we declare to you glad tidings—that promise which was made to the fathers. 33God has fulfilled this for us their children, in that He has raised up Jesus. As it is also written in the second Psalm:

'You are My Son,
Today I have begotten You.'[a]

34And that He raised Him from the dead, no more to return to corruption, He has spoken thus:

'I will give you the sure mercies of David.'[a] 35Therefore He also says in another Psalm:

'You will not allow Your Holy One to see corruption.'[a] 36"For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell asleep, was buried with his fathers, and saw corruption; 37but He whom God raised up saw no corruption. 38Therefore let it be known to you, brethren, that through this Man is preached to you the forgiveness of sins; 39and by Him everyone who believes is justified from all things from which you could not be justified by the law of Moses. 40Beware therefore, lest what has been spoken in the prophets come upon you:

FORGIVENESS
Who can receive forgiveness?
Acts 13:38, 39

41 'Behold, you despisers,
Marvel and perish!
For I work a work in your days,
A work which you will by no means believe,
Though one were to declare it to you.' "[a]

BLESSING AND CONFLICT AT ANTIOCH

42So when the Jews went out of the synagogue,[a] the Gentiles begged that these words might be preached to them the next Sabbath. 43Now when the congregation had broken up, many of the Jews and devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.

44On the next Sabbath almost the whole city came together to hear the word of God. 45But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy; and contradicting and blaspheming, they opposed the things spoken by Paul. 46Then Paul and Barnabas grew bold and said, "It was necessary that the word of God should be spoken to you first; but since you reject it, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, behold, we turn to the Gentiles. 47For so the Lord has commanded us:

13:22 [a]Psalm 89:20 [b]1 Samuel 13:14
13:23 [a]M-Text reads for Israel salvation.
13:33 [a]Psalm 2:7 13:34 [a]Isaiah 55:3
13:35 [a]Psalm 16:10 13:41 [a]Habakkuk 1:5
13:42 [a]Or And when they went out of the synagogue of the Jews; NU-Text reads And when they went out of the synagogue, they begged.

'I have set you as a light to the Gentiles,
That you should be for salvation to the ends of the earth.' "[a]

[48]Now when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and glorified the word of the Lord. And as many as had been appointed to eternal life believed.

[49]And the word of the Lord was being spread throughout all the region. [50]But the Jews stirred up the devout and prominent women and the chief men of the city, raised up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their region. [51]But they shook off the dust from their feet against them, and came to Iconium. [52]And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

AT ICONIUM

14 Now it happened in Iconium that they went together to the synagogue of the Jews, and so spoke that a great multitude both of the Jews and of the Greeks believed. [2]But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brethren. [3]Therefore they stayed there a long time, speaking boldly in the Lord, who was bearing witness to the word of His grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

[4]But the multitude of the city was divided: part sided with the Jews, and part with the apostles. [5]And when a violent attempt was made by both the Gentiles and Jews, with their rulers, to abuse and stone them, [6]they became aware of it and fled to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and to the surrounding region. [7]And they were preaching the gospel there.

IDOLATRY AT LYSTRA

[8]And in Lystra a certain man without strength in his feet was sitting, a cripple from his mother's womb, who had never walked. [9]This man heard Paul speaking. Paul, observing him intently and seeing that he had faith to be healed, [10]said with a loud voice, "Stand up straight on your feet!" And he leaped and walked. [11]Now when the people saw what Paul had done, they raised their voices, saying in the Lycaonian language, "The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!" [12]And Barnabas they called Zeus, and Paul, Hermes, because he was the chief speaker. [13]Then the priest of Zeus, whose temple was in front of their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, intending to sacrifice with the multitudes.

[14]But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard this, they tore their clothes and ran in among the multitude, crying out [15]and saying, "Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men with the same nature as you, and preach to you that you should turn from these useless things to the living God, who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and all things that are in them, [16]who in bygone generations allowed all nations to walk in their own ways. [17]Nevertheless He did not leave Himself without witness, in that He did good, gave us rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness." [18]And with these sayings they could scarcely restrain the multitudes from sacrificing to them.

STONING, ESCAPE TO DERBE

[19]Then Jews from Antioch and Iconium came there; and having persuaded the multitudes, they stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, supposing him to be dead. [20]However, when the disciples gathered around him, he rose up and went into the city. And the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

STRENGTHENING THE CONVERTS

[21]And when they had preached the gospel to that city and made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch, [22]strengthening the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and saying, "We must through many tribulations enter the kingdom of God." [23]So when they had appointed elders in every church, and prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord in whom they had believed. [24]And after they had passed through Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia. [25]Now when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia. [26]From there they sailed

PROFILE
JOHN MARK

We know John Mark best by his second name, which identifies the account of the Good News he probably wrote, using Peter as one of his sources. In his account, John Mark (or Mark) gives a subtle glimpse of his own uncertain discipleship on the night Jesus was betrayed. He mentions a young follower who fled in such fear that he ran right out of his clothes (Mark 14:51, 52).

Later, when Paul and Barnabas were setting out on their first missionary journey, they chose John Mark as their traveling assistant. He quit during the adventure. On the next mission, Barnabas wanted to give Mark another try, but Paul refused. As a result of this disagreement, the two leaders split and went their separate ways. Barnabas helped Mark grow up in the faith. Later, Paul realized that Mark had become a real asset to the cause of Christ. It took a while, but Mark made a difference.

Can someone still make a difference after they have made a big mistake? John Mark may have failed twice before he finally realized what discipleship in Jesus Christ is all about. Actually, that record is probably better than average. John Mark gives us a good example of the fact that people fail and sometimes fall flat on their faces; but when, by God's grace, they refuse to stay down, God is glorified and the world can be changed.

+ MAKING A DIFFERENCE:

Everyone makes mistakes, and all mistakes have consequences—some bad, some good. If and when you decide to follow Jesus, you will find you still make mistakes and sometimes you will be met with failure. But it's important that you grow through your mistakes and failures. The journey to maturity—the way to making a difference—will most likely be filled with wrong choices and less than perfect attempts. You may find yourself falling far more often than you ever thought. But remember John Mark; keep getting up by God's grace! There's nothing to be gained by giving up and everything to be gained by pushing on.

WANT TO KNOW MORE?

Follow the ups and downs of Mark's journey in these passages: Acts 12:25—13:13; 15:36–40; Colossians 4:10, 11; 2 Timothy 4:11; Philemon 23, 24; and 1 Peter 5:13.

John Mark was determined to follow the Lord and make a difference. And he did. If you are just as determined, you can, too!

to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work which they had completed.

27 Now when they had come and gathered the church together, they reported all that God had done with them, and that He had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles. 28 So they stayed there a long time with the disciples.

CONFLICT OVER CIRCUMCISION

15 And certain men came down from Judea and taught the brethren, "Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved." 2 Therefore, when Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and dispute with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas and certain others of them should go up to Jerusalem, to the apostles and elders, about this question.

3So, being sent on their way by the church, they passed through Phoenicia and Samaria, describing the conversion of the Gentiles; and they caused great joy to all the brethren. 4And when they had come to Jerusalem, they were received by the church and the apostles and the elders; and they reported all things that God had done with them. 5But some of the sect of the Pharisees who believed rose up, saying, "It is necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses."

Acts 15:5

Circumcision was an important ritual in Jewish tradition. The removal of the foreskin from the male penis was a physical sign that the Jews belonged to God. Any male who desired to convert to Judaism had to be circumcised.

THE JERUSALEM COUNCIL

6Now the apostles and elders came together to consider this matter. 7And when there had been much dispute, Peter rose up and said to them: "Men and brethren, you know that a good while ago God chose among us, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel and believe. 8So God, who knows the heart, acknowledged them by giving them the Holy Spirit, just as He did to us, 9and made no distinction between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith. 10Now therefore, why do you test God by putting a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? 11But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ[a] we shall be saved in the same manner as they."

12Then all the multitude kept silent and listened to Barnabas and Paul declaring how many miracles and wonders God had worked through them among the Gentiles. 13And after they had become silent, James answered, saying, "Men and brethren, listen to me: 14Simon has declared how God at the first visited the Gentiles to take out of them a people for His name. 15And with this the words of the prophets agree, just as it is written:

16 'After this I will return
And will rebuild the tabernacle of David, which has fallen down;
I will rebuild its ruins,
And I will set it up;
17 So that the rest of mankind may seek the LORD,
Even all the Gentiles who are called by My name,
Says the LORD who does all these things.'[a]

18"Known to God from eternity are all His works.[a] 19Therefore I judge that we should not trouble those from among the Gentiles who are turning to God, 20but that we write to them to abstain from things polluted by idols, from sexual immorality,[a] from things strangled, and from blood. 21For Moses has had throughout many generations those who preach him in every city, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath."

THE JERUSALEM DECREE

22Then it pleased the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas, namely, Judas who was also named Barsabas,[a] and Silas, leading men among the brethren.

23They wrote this letter by them:

The apostles, the elders, and the brethren,

To the brethren who are of the Gentiles in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia:

Greetings.

24Since we have heard that some who went out from us have troubled you with words, unsettling your souls, saying, "You must be circumcised and keep the law"[a] —to whom we gave no such commandment— 25it seemed good to us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, 26men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 27We have therefore sent Judas and Silas, who will also report the same things by word of mouth. 28For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things: 29that you abstain from things offered to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from sexual immorality.[a] If you keep yourselves from these, you will do well.

Farewell.

CONTINUING MINISTRY IN SYRIA

30So when they were sent off, they came to Antioch; and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the letter. 31When they had read it, they rejoiced over its encouragement. 32Now Judas and Silas, themselves being prophets also, exhorted and strengthened the brethren with many words. 33And after they had stayed there for a time, they were sent back with greetings from the brethren to the apostles.[a]

34However, it seemed good to Silas to remain there.[a] 35Paul and Barnabas also remained in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

DIVISION OVER JOHN MARK

36Then after some days Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us now go back and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they are doing." 37Now Barnabas was determined to take with them John called Mark. 38But Paul insisted that they should not take with them the one who had departed from them in Pamphylia, and had not gone with them to the work. 39Then the contention became so sharp that they parted from one another. And so Barnabas took Mark and sailed to Cyprus; 40but Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended by the brethren to the grace of God. 41And he went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

TIMOTHY JOINS PAUL AND SILAS

16 Then he came to Derbe and Lystra. And behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a certain Jewish woman who believed, but his father was Greek. 2He was well spoken of by the brethren who were at Lystra and Iconium. 3Paul wanted to have him go on with him. And he took him and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in that region, for they all knew that his father was Greek. 4And as they went through the cities, they delivered to them the decrees to keep, which were determined by the apostles and elders at Jerusalem. 5So the churches were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number daily.

THE MACEDONIAN CALL

6Now when they had gone through Phrygia and the region of Galatia, they were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to preach the word in Asia. 7After they had come to Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit[a] did not permit them. 8So passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas. 9And a vision appeared to Paul in the night. A man of Macedonia stood and pleaded with him, saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." 10Now after he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go to Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to preach the gospel to them.

LYDIA BAPTIZED AT PHILIPPI

11Therefore, sailing from Troas, we ran a straight course to Samothrace, and the next day came to Neapolis, 12and from there to Philippi, which is the foremost city of that part of Macedonia, a colony. And we were staying in that city for some days. 13And on the Sabbath day we went out of the city to the riverside, where prayer was customarily made; and we sat down and spoke to the women who met there. 14Now a certain woman named Lydia heard us. She was a seller of purple from the city of Thyatira, who worshiped God. The Lord opened her heart to heed the things spoken by Paul. 15And when she and her household were baptized, she begged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come to my house and stay." So she persuaded us.

15:29 [a]Or fornication 15:33 [a]NU-Text reads to those who had sent them. 15:34 [a]NU-Text and M-Text omit this verse. 16:7 [a]NU-Text adds of Jesus.

DEMONS
In whose name are demons cast out?
Acts 16:16–18

PAUL AND SILAS IMPRISONED

16Now it happened, as we went to prayer, that a certain slave girl possessed with a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much profit by fortune-telling. 17This girl followed Paul and us, and cried out, saying, "These men are the servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to us the way of salvation." 18And this she did for many days.

But Paul, greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And he came out that very hour. 19But when her masters saw that their hope of profit was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace to the authorities.

20And they brought them to the magistrates, and said, "These men, being Jews, exceedingly trouble our city; 21and they teach customs which are not lawful for us, being Romans, to receive or observe." 22Then the multitude rose up together against them; and the magistrates tore off their clothes and commanded them to be beaten with rods. 23And when they had laid many stripes on them, they threw them into prison, commanding the jailer to keep them securely. 24Having received such a charge, he put them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.

THE PHILIPPIAN JAILER SAVED

25But at midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. 26Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone's chains were loosed. 27And the keeper of the prison, awaking from sleep and seeing the prison doors open, supposing the prisoners had fled, drew his sword and was about to kill himself. 28But Paul called with a loud voice, saying, "Do yourself no harm, for we are all here."

29Then he called for a light, ran in, and fell down trembling before Paul and Silas. 30And he brought them out and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

31So they said, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household." 32Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. 33And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their stripes. And immediately he and all his family were baptized. 34Now when he had brought them into his house, he set food before them; and he rejoiced, having believed in God with all his household.

PAUL REFUSES TO DEPART SECRETLY

35And when it was day, the magistrates sent the officers, saying, "Let those men go."

36So the keeper of the prison reported these words to Paul, saying, "The magistrates have sent to let you go. Now therefore depart, and go in peace."

37But Paul said to them, "They have beaten us openly, uncondemned Romans, and have thrown us into prison. And now do they put us out secretly? No indeed! Let them come themselves and get us out."

38And the officers told these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Romans. 39Then they came and pleaded with them and brought them out, and asked them to depart from the city. 40So they went out of the prison and entered the house of Lydia; and when they had seen the brethren, they encouraged them and departed.

PREACHING CHRIST AT THESSALONICA

17 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews. 2Then Paul, as his custom was, went in to them, and for three Sabbaths reasoned with them from the Scriptures, 3explaining and demonstrating that the Christ had to suffer and rise again from the dead, and saying, "This Jesus whom I preach to you is the Christ." 4And some of them were persuaded; and a great multitude of the devout Greeks, and not a few of the leading women, joined Paul and Silas.

ASSAULT ON JASON'S HOUSE

5But the Jews who were not persuaded, becoming envious,[a] took some of the evil men from the marketplace, and gathering a mob, set all the city in an uproar and attacked the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people. 6But when they did not find them, they dragged Jason and some brethren to the rulers of the city, crying out, "These who have turned the world upside down have come here too. 7Jason has harbored them, and these are all acting contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying there is another king—Jesus." 8And they troubled the crowd and the rulers of the city when they heard these things. 9So when they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go.

MINISTERING AT BEREA

10Then the brethren immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Berea. When they arrived, they went into the synagogue of the Jews. 11These were more fair-minded than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness, and searched the Scriptures daily to find out whether these things were so. 12Therefore many of them believed, and also not a few of the Greeks, prominent women as well as men. 13But when the Jews from Thessalonica learned that the word of God was preached by Paul at Berea, they came there also and stirred up the crowds. 14Then immediately the brethren sent Paul away, to go to the sea; but both Silas and Timothy remained there. 15So those who conducted Paul brought him to Athens; and receiving a command for Silas and Timothy to come to him with all speed, they departed.

THE PHILOSOPHERS AT ATHENS

16Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him when he saw that the city was given over to idols. 17Therefore he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and with the Gentile worshipers, and in the marketplace daily with those who happened to be there. 18Then[a] certain Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some said, "What does this babbler want to say?"

> Acts 17:16
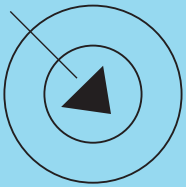
> In New Testament times, the city of Athens was known as a center of philosophy and intellectual thought. As Paul discovered, the intellectuals in the city were pretty rough on people who could not express their ideas eloquently.

Others said, "He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign gods," because he preached to them Jesus and the resurrection.

19And they took him and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new doctrine is of which you speak? 20For you are bringing some strange things to our ears. Therefore we want to know what these things mean." 21For all the Athenians and the foreigners who were there spent their time in nothing else but either to tell or to hear some new thing.



ADDRESSING THE AREOPAGUS

22Then Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus and said, "Men of Athens, I perceive that in all things you are very religious; 23for as I was passing through and considering the objects of your worship, I even found an altar with this inscription:

TO THE UNKNOWN GOD.

Therefore, the One whom you worship without knowing, Him I proclaim to you: 24"God, who made the world and everything in it, since He is Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands. 25Nor is He worshiped with men's hands, as though He needed anything, since He gives to all life, breath, and all things. 26And He has made from one

PROMISE

God promises to help you be exactly the person He created you to be.

"In Him we live and move and have our being" (Acts 17:28a).

Ever feel like you're expected to be somebody you're not? Straight-A student? Club president? Perfect little angel? Sure, there are times when you need to venture out of your comfort zone and expect more of yourself than what comes easily for you. And God has given you natural abilities that (as you begin to spot them) will shape the person you are. When He created you, He didn't just bundle up a bunch of leftovers and throw them in your direction. He knew what He wanted to do in you, what He wanted you to accomplish, the skills and potential He wanted you to have. And He knew exactly what you'd need in order to pull it off.

He's placed spiritual gifts in you, unique and powerful tools that shape the way you serve Him and relate to others—as a peacemaker, an encourager, a leader.

You're not God's afterthought, and you're certainly no mistake. You are a complete package of Christlike potential, waiting to be discovered and put into practice. And you can start living out God's purposes for you today, right where you are, with the people God has put in your life. Discover the person God created you to be. You'll be miserable being anybody else.

blood[a] every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, and has determined their preappointed times and the boundaries of their dwellings, 27so that they should seek the Lord, in the hope that they might grope for Him and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us; 28for in Him we live and move and have our being, as also some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also His offspring.' 29Therefore, since we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold or silver or stone, something shaped by art and man's devising. 30Truly, these times of ignorance God overlooked, but now commands all men everywhere to repent, 31because He has appointed a day on which He will judge the world in righteousness by the Man whom He has ordained. He has given assurance of this to all by raising Him from the dead."

32And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked, while others said, "We will hear you again on this matter." 33So Paul departed from among them. 34However, some men joined him and believed, among them Dionysius the Areopagite, a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Athens was known for its beautiful buildings and schools. Alexandria was known for its library and museum. Corinth, on the other hand, was known for its . . . immorality. Located in southern Greece, about fifty miles from Athens, Corinth was the site of a temple for Aphrodite, the goddess of love. The temple housed one thousand "priestesses," who also worked as prostitutes.

MINISTERING AT CORINTH

18 After these things Paul departed from Athens and went to Corinth. 2And he found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla (because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome); and he came to them. 3So, because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them and worked; for by occupation they were tentmakers. 4And he reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, and persuaded both Jews and Greeks.

5When Silas and Timothy had come from Macedonia, Paul was compelled by the Spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus is the Christ. 6But when they opposed him and blasphemed, he shook his garments and said to them, "Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean. From now on I will go to the Gentiles." 7And he departed from there and entered the house of a certain man named Justus,[a] one who worshiped God, whose house was next door to the synagogue. 8Then Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his household. And many of the Corinthians, hearing, believed and were baptized.

9Now the Lord spoke to Paul in the night by a vision, "Do not be afraid, but speak, and do not keep silent; 10for I am with you, and no one will attack you to hurt you; for I have many people in this city." 11And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12When Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him to the judgment seat, 13saying, "This fellow persuades men to worship God contrary to the law."

14And when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If it were a matter of wrongdoing or wicked crimes, O Jews, there would be reason why I should bear with you. 15But if it is a question of words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves; for I do not want to be a judge of such matters." 16And he drove them from the judgment seat. 17Then all the Greeks[a] took Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. But Gallio took no notice of these things.

PAUL RETURNS TO ANTIOCH

18So Paul still remained a good while. Then he took leave of the brethren and sailed for Syria, and Priscilla and Aquila were with him. He had his hair cut off at Cenchrea, for he had taken a vow. 19And he came to Ephesus, and left them there; but he himself entered the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews. 20When they asked him to stay a longer time with them, he did not consent, 21but took leave of them, saying, "I must by all means keep this coming feast in Jerusalem;[a] but I will return again to you, God willing." And he sailed from Ephesus.

22And when he had landed at Caesarea, and gone up and greeted the church, he went down to Antioch. 23After he had spent some time there, he departed and went over the region of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples.

MINISTRY OF APOLLOS

24Now a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man and mighty in the Scriptures, came to Ephesus. 25This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things of the Lord, though he knew only the baptism of John. 26So he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. When Aquila and Priscilla heard him, they took him aside and explained to him the way of God more accurately. 27And when he desired to cross to Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him; and when he arrived, he greatly helped those who had believed through grace; 28for he vigorously refuted the Jews publicly, showing from the Scriptures that Jesus is the Christ.

PAUL AT EPHESUS

19 And it happened, while Apollos was at Corinth, that Paul, having passed through the upper regions, came to Ephesus. And finding some disciples 2he said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?"

So they said to him, "We have not so much as heard whether there is a Holy Spirit."

18:7 [a]NU-Text reads Titius Justus.
18:17 [a]NU-Text reads they all. 18:21 [a]NU-Text omits I must through Jerusalem.

3And he said to them, "Into what then were you baptized?"

So they said, "Into John's baptism."

4Then Paul said, "John indeed baptized with a baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe on Him who would come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus."

5When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. 6And when Paul had laid hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they spoke with tongues and prophesied. 7Now the men were about twelve in all.

8And he went into the synagogue and spoke boldly for three months, reasoning and persuading concerning the things of the kingdom of God. 9But when some were hardened and did not believe, but spoke evil of the Way before the multitude, he departed from them and withdrew the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus. 10And this continued for two years, so that all who dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

MIRACLES GLORIFY CHRIST

11Now God worked unusual miracles by the hands of Paul, 12so that even handkerchiefs or aprons were brought from his body to the sick, and the diseases left them and the evil spirits went out of them. 13Then some of the itinerant Jewish exorcists took it upon themselves to call the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, "We[a] exorcise you by the Jesus whom Paul preaches." 14Also there were seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, who did so.

15And the evil spirit answered and said, "Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are you?"

DEMONS
Do demons have power?
Acts 19:16

16Then the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, overpowered[a] them, and prevailed against them,[b] so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. 17This became known both to all Jews and Greeks dwelling in Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. 18And many who had believed came confessing and telling their deeds. 19Also, many of those who had practiced magic brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all. And they counted up the value of them, and it totaled fifty thousand pieces of silver. 20So the word of the Lord grew mightily and prevailed.

THE RIOT AT EPHESUS

21When these things were accomplished, Paul purposed in the Spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome." 22So he sent into Macedonia two of those who ministered to him, Timothy and Erastus, but he himself stayed in Asia for a time.

23And about that time there arose a great commotion about the Way. 24For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of Diana,[a] brought no small profit to the craftsmen. 25He called them together with the workers of similar occupation, and said: "Men, you know that we have our prosperity by this trade. 26Moreover you see and hear that not only at Ephesus, but throughout almost all Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that they are not gods which are made with hands. 27So not only is this trade of ours in danger of falling into disrepute, but also the temple of the great goddess Diana may be despised and her magnificence destroyed,[a] whom all Asia and the world worship."

28Now when they heard this, they were full of wrath and cried out, saying, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians!" 29So the whole city was filled with confusion, and rushed into the theater with one accord, having seized Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians, Paul's travel companions. 30And when Paul wanted to go in to the people, the disciples would not allow him. 31Then some of the officials of Asia, who were his friends, sent to him pleading that he would not venture into the theater. 32Some therefore cried one thing and some another, for the assembly was confused, and most of them did not know why they had come together. 33And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander motioned with his hand, and wanted to make his defense to the people. 34But when they found out that he was a Jew, all with one voice cried out for about two hours, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians!"

Acts 19:35

The Greek goddess Artemis had a different Roman name—Diana. The temple built in her honor in Ephesus was one of the seven wonders of the ancient world. The temple boasted more than one hundred columns, each five stories tall. Inside the temple was an image of Artemis/Diana, carved into a stone that many scholars believe was a meteorite. Worshipers of the goddess claimed that the stone had been sent from heaven by Zeus, the god of gods.

35And when the city clerk had quieted the crowd, he said: "Men of Ephesus, what man is there who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is temple guardian of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Zeus? 36Therefore, since these things cannot be denied, you ought to be quiet and do nothing rashly. 37For you have brought these men here who are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of your[a] goddess. 38Therefore, if Demetrius and his fellow craftsmen have a case against anyone, the courts are open and there are proconsuls. Let them bring charges against one another. 39But if you have any other inquiry to make, it shall be determined in the lawful assembly. 40For we are in danger of being called in question for today's uproar, there being no reason which we may give to account for this disorderly gathering." 41And when he had said these things, he dismissed the assembly.

JOURNEYS IN GREECE

20 After the uproar had ceased, Paul called the disciples to himself, embraced them, and departed to go to Macedonia. 2Now when he had gone over that region and encouraged them with many words, he came to Greece 3and stayed three months. And when the Jews plotted against him as he was about to sail to Syria, he decided to return through Macedonia. 4And Sopater of Berea accompanied him to Asia—also Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy, and Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia. 5These men, going ahead, waited for us at Troas. 6But we sailed away from Philippi after the Days of Unleavened Bread, and in five days joined them at Troas, where we stayed seven days.

The Feast of Unleavened Bread was part of the annual Passover celebration. In case you're wondering, unleavened bread does not have yeast in it. Why would people make bread without yeast, the ingredient that makes it rise? When Moses and the Israelites left Egypt, they were in a hurry. There was no time for them to prepare food or to wait for bread to rise. Today unleavened bread is called matzo.

MINISTERING AT TROAS

7Now on the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul, ready to depart the next day, spoke to them and continued his message until midnight. 8There were many lamps in the upper room where they[a] were gathered together. 9And in a window sat a certain young man named Eutychus, who was sinking into a deep sleep. He was overcome by sleep; and as Paul continued speaking, he fell down from the third story and was taken up dead. 10But Paul went down, fell on him, and embracing him said, "Do not trouble yourselves, for his life is in him." 11Now when he had come up, had broken bread and eaten, and talked a long while, even till daybreak, he departed. 12And they brought the young

EUTYCHUS

Eutychus left a mark not so much because of what he did as because of what happened to him. He fell asleep in a church meeting in which Paul was speaking. That in itself wasn't that unusual—the meeting was held late at night and it seemed to go on and on. The unusual part of the story turned out to be the place Eutychus chose to sit. He was perched on a windowsill in a third-floor room and the window was open. While Eutychus listened, he got drowsy, he drifted off, and he fell out of the window! (This might be a good time to point out that Eutychus' name means "lucky.")

There was a doctor in the house—Luke—and he pronounced the young man dead at the scene. But the apostle Paul heard those words as a call to action. He held the dead boy and prayed, and Eutychus was brought back to life! It's not hard to imagine how this miracle affected everyone. As Luke said, "They were not a little comforted" (Acts 20:12).

+ MAKING A DIFFERENCE:

Obviously, falling asleep in church is not the best idea, even if you don't risk falling to your death. But we can still learn from Eutychus' story. Rather than focus on an ill-fated nap, maybe we should focus on the effect changes in a young person's life can have on others.

Unfortunately, some adults tend to have a stereotypical view of youth—teenagers in particular. Sometimes they forget that age is really not a factor in whether someone can positively affect their world. Maybe it's time you helped to remind them.

Don't be afraid to speak up about what God is doing in your life. If God has gotten hold of you, that is no less a miracle than Eutychus being revived on the lawn. Find out how many people know about Eutychus. Tell them the story. Tell them what it means to you. Tell them about how the Lord has worked in your own life: you were taken from death to life through faith in Jesus. Is there a greater miracle?

man in alive, and they were not a little comforted.

FROM TROAS TO MILETUS

13Then we went ahead to the ship and sailed to Assos, there intending to take Paul on board; for so he had given orders, intending himself to go on foot. 14And when he met us at Assos, we took him on board and came to Mitylene. 15We sailed from there, and the next day came opposite Chios. The following day we arrived at Samos and stayed at Trogyllium. The next day we came to Miletus. 16For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, so that he would not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hurrying to be at Jerusalem, if possible, on the Day of Pentecost.

THE EPHESIAN ELDERS EXHORTED

17From Miletus he sent to Ephesus and called for the elders of the church. 18And when they had come to him, he said to them: "You know, from the first day that I came to Asia, in what manner I always lived among you, 19serving the Lord with all humility, with many tears and trials which happened to me by the plotting of the Jews; 20how I kept back nothing that was helpful, but proclaimed it to you, and taught you publicly and from house to house, 21testifying to Jews, and also to Greeks, repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. 22And see, now I go bound in the spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing the things that will happen to me there, 23except that the Holy Spirit testifies in every city, saying that chains and tribulations await me. 24But none of these things move me; nor do I count my life dear to myself,[a] so that I may finish my race with joy, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God.

25"And indeed, now I know that you all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, will see my face no more. 26Therefore I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all men. 27For I have not shunned to declare to you the whole counsel of God. 28Therefore take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, among which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of God[a] which He purchased with His own blood. 29For I know this, that after my departure savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock. 30Also from among yourselves men will rise up, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after themselves. 31Therefore watch, and remember that for three years I did not cease to warn everyone night and day with tears.

32"So now, brethren, I commend you to God and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up and give you an inheritance among all those who are sanctified. 33I have coveted no one's silver or gold or apparel. 34Yes,[a] you yourselves know that these hands have provided for my necessities, and for those who were with me. 35I have shown you in every way, by laboring like this, that you must support the weak. And remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that He said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

GIVING
What's better than getting gifts?
Acts 20:35

36And when he had said these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all. 37Then they all wept freely, and fell on Paul's neck and kissed him, 38sorrowing most of all for the words which he spoke, that they would see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

WARNINGS ON THE JOURNEY TO JERUSALEM

21 Now it came to pass, that when we had departed from them and set sail, running a straight course we came to Cos, the following day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. 2And finding a ship sailing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard and set sail. 3When we had sighted Cyprus, we passed it on the left, sailed to Syria, and landed at Tyre; for there the ship was to unload her cargo. 4And finding disciples,[a] we stayed there seven days. They told Paul through the Spirit not to go up to Jerusalem. 5When we had come to the end of those days, we departed and went on our way; and they all accompanied us, with wives and children, till we were out of the city. And we knelt down on the shore and prayed. 6When we had taken our leave of one another, we boarded the ship, and they returned home.

7And when we had finished our voyage from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, greeted the brethren, and stayed with them one day. 8On the next day we who were Paul's companions[a] departed and came to Caesarea, and entered the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with him. 9Now this man had four virgin daughters who prophesied. 10And as we stayed many days, a certain prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. 11When he had come to us, he took Paul's belt, bound his own hands and feet, and said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit, 'So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man who owns this belt, and deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.'"

12Now when we heard these things, both

20:24 [a]NU-Text reads But I do not count my life of any value or dear to myself. 20:28 [a]M-Text reads of the Lord and God. 20:34 [a]NU-Text and M-Text omit Yes. 21:4 [a]NU-Text reads the disciples. 21:8 [a]NU-Text omits who were Paul's companions.

we and those from that place pleaded with him not to go up to Jerusalem. 13Then Paul answered, "What do you mean by weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."

14So when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, "The will of the Lord be done."

PAUL URGED TO MAKE PEACE

15And after those days we packed and went up to Jerusalem. 16Also some of the disciples from Caesarea went with us and brought with them a certain Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we were to lodge.

17And when we had come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly. 18On the following day Paul went in with us to James, and all the elders were present. 19When he had greeted them, he told in detail those things which God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry. 20And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord. And they said to him, "You see, brother, how many myriads of Jews there are who have believed, and they are all zealous for the law; 21but they have been informed about you that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children nor to walk according to the customs. 22What then? The assembly must certainly meet, for they will[a] hear that you have come. 23Therefore do what we tell you: We have four men who have taken a vow. 24Take them and be purified with them, and pay their expenses so that they may shave their heads, and that all may know that those things of which they were informed concerning you are nothing, but that you yourself also walk orderly and keep the law. 25But concerning the Gentiles who believe, we have written and decided that they should observe no such thing, except[a] that they should keep themselves from things offered to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from sexual immorality."

ARRESTED IN THE TEMPLE

26Then Paul took the men, and the next day, having been purified with them, entered the temple to announce the expiration of the days of purification, at which time an offering should be made for each one of them.

27Now when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews from Asia, seeing him in the temple, stirred up the whole crowd and laid hands on him, 28crying out, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against the people, the law, and this place; and furthermore he also brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place." 29(For they had previously[a] seen Trophimus the Ephesian with him in the city, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30And all the city was disturbed; and the people ran together, seized Paul, and dragged him out of the temple; and immediately the doors were shut. 31Now as they were seeking to kill him, news came to the commander of the garrison that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. 32He immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them. And when they saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul. 33Then the commander came near and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and he asked who he was and what he had done. 34And some among the multitude cried one thing and some another.

So when he could not ascertain the truth because of the tumult, he commanded him to be taken into the barracks. 35When he reached the stairs, he had to be carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the mob. 36For the multitude of the people followed after, crying out, "Away with him!"

ADDRESSING THE JERUSALEM MOB

37Then as Paul was about to be led into the barracks, he said to the commander, "May I speak to you?"

He replied, "Can you speak Greek? 38Are you not the Egyptian who some time ago stirred up a rebellion and led the four thousand assassins out into the wilderness?"

39But Paul said, "I am a Jew from Tarsus,

21:22 [a]NU-Text reads What then is to be done? They will certainly. 21:25 [a]NU-Text omits that they should observe no such thing, except. 21:29 [a]M-Text omits previously.

in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city; and I implore you, permit me to speak to the people."

40So when he had given him permission, Paul stood on the stairs and motioned with his hand to the people. And when there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, saying,

22 "Brethren and fathers, hear my defense before you now." 2And when they heard that he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, they kept all the more silent.

Then he said: 3"I am indeed a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, taught according to the strictness of our fathers' law, and was zealous toward God as you all are today. 4I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women, 5as also the high priest bears me witness, and all the council of the elders, from whom I also received letters to the brethren, and went to Damascus to bring in chains even those who were there to Jerusalem to be punished.

6"Now it happened, as I journeyed and came near Damascus at about noon, suddenly a great light from heaven shone around me. 7And I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?' 8So I answered, 'Who are You, Lord?' And He said to me, 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting.'

9"And those who were with me indeed saw the light and were afraid,[a] but they did not hear the voice of Him who spoke to me. 10So I said, 'What shall I do, Lord?' And the Lord said to me, 'Arise and go into Damascus, and there you will be told all things which are appointed for you to do.' 11And since I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came into Damascus.

12"Then a certain Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good testimony with all the Jews who dwelt there, 13came to me; and he stood and said to me, 'Brother Saul, receive your sight.' And at that same hour I looked up at him. 14Then he said, 'The God of our fathers has chosen you that you should know His will, and see the Just One, and hear the voice of His mouth. 15For you will be His witness to all men of what you have seen and heard. 16And now why are you waiting? Arise and be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord.'

17"Now it happened, when I returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the temple, that I was in a trance 18and saw Him saying to me, 'Make haste and get out of Jerusalem quickly, for they will not receive your testimony concerning Me.' 19So I said, 'Lord, they know that in every synagogue I imprisoned and beat those who believe on You. 20And when the blood of Your martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by consenting to his death,[a] and guarding the clothes of those who were killing him.' 21Then He said to me, 'Depart, for I will send you far from here to the Gentiles.'"

PAUL'S ROMAN CITIZENSHIP

22And they listened to him until this word, and then they raised their voices and said, "Away with such a fellow from the earth, for he is not fit to live!" 23Then, as they cried out and tore off their clothes and threw dust into the air, 24the commander ordered him to be brought into the barracks, and said that he should be examined under scourging, so that he might know why they shouted so against him. 25And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said to the centurion who stood by, "Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman, and uncondemned?"

26When the centurion heard that, he went and told the commander, saying, "Take care what you do, for this man is a Roman."

27Then the commander came and said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?"

He said, "Yes."

28The commander answered, "With a large sum I obtained this citizenship."

And Paul said, "But I was born a citizen."

29Then immediately those who were about to examine him withdrew from him; and the commander was also afraid after he found out that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

THE SANHEDRIN DIVIDED

30The next day, because he wanted to know for certain why he was accused by 22:9 [a]NU-Text omits and were afraid.

22:20 [a]NU-Text omits to his death.

the Jews, he released him from his bonds, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down and set him before them.

23 Then Paul, looking earnestly at the council, said, "Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day." 2And the high priest Ananias commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth. 3Then Paul said to him, "God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! For you sit to judge me according to the law, and do you command me to be struck contrary to the law?"

4And those who stood by said, "Do you revile God's high priest?"

5Then Paul said, "I did not know, brethren, that he was the high priest; for it is written, 'You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.' "[a]

6But when Paul perceived that one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, "Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee; concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am being judged!"

7And when he had said this, a dissension arose between the Pharisees and the Sadducees; and the assembly was divided. 8For Sadducees say that there is no resurrection—and no angel or spirit; but the Pharisees confess both. 9Then there arose a loud outcry. And the scribes of the Pharisees' party arose and protested, saying, "We find no evil in this man; but if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him, let us not fight against God."[a]

10Now when there arose a great dissension, the commander, fearing lest Paul might be pulled to pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into the barracks.

THE PLOT AGAINST PAUL

11But the following night the Lord stood by him and said, "Be of good cheer, Paul; for as you have testified for Me in Jerusalem, so you must also bear witness at Rome."

12And when it was day, some of the Jews banded together and bound themselves under an oath, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. 13Now there were more than forty who had formed this conspiracy. 14They came to the chief priests and elders, and said, "We have bound ourselves under a great oath that we will eat nothing until we have killed Paul. 15Now you, therefore, together with the council, suggest to the commander that he be brought down to you tomorrow,[a] as though you were going to make further inquiries concerning him; but we are ready to kill him before he comes near."

16So when Paul's sister's son heard of their ambush, he went and entered the barracks and told Paul. 17Then Paul called one of the centurions to him and said, "Take this young man to the commander, for he has something to tell him." 18So he took him and brought him to the commander and said, "Paul the prisoner called me to him and asked me to bring this young man to you. He has something to say to you."

19Then the commander took him by the hand, went aside, and asked privately, "What is it that you have to tell me?"

20And he said, "The Jews have agreed to ask that you bring Paul down to the council tomorrow, as though they were going to inquire more fully about him. 21But do not yield to them, for more than forty of them lie in wait for him, men who have bound themselves by an oath that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him; and now they are ready, waiting for the promise from you."

22So the commander let the young man depart, and commanded him, "Tell no one that you have revealed these things to me."

SENT TO FELIX

23And he called for two centurions, saying, "Prepare two hundred soldiers, seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen to go to Caesarea at the third hour of the night; 24and provide mounts to set Paul on, and bring him safely to Felix the governor." 25He wrote a letter in the following manner:

23:5 [a]Exodus 22:28 23:9 [a]NU-Text omits last clause and reads what if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him? 23:15 [a]NU-Text omits tomorrow.

[26]Claudius Lysias,

To the most excellent governor Felix:

Greetings.

[27]This man was seized by the Jews and was about to be killed by them.
Coming with the troops I rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman.
[28]And when I wanted to know the reason they accused him, I brought him before their council. [29]I found out that he was accused concerning questions of their law, but had nothing charged against him deserving of death or chains. [30]And when it was told me that the Jews lay in wait for the man,[a] I sent him immediately to you, and also commanded his accusers to state before you the charges against him.

Farewell.

[31]Then the soldiers, as they were commanded, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris. [32]The next day they left the horsemen to go on with him, and returned to the barracks. [33]When they came to Caesarea and had delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him. [34]And when the governor had read it, he asked what province he was from. And when he understood that he was from Cilicia, [35]he said, "I will hear you when your accusers also have come." And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's Praetorium.

ACCUSED OF SEDITION

24 Now after five days Ananias the high priest came down with the elders and a certain orator named Tertullus. These gave evidence to the governor against Paul.

[2]And when he was called upon, Tertullus began his accusation, saying: "Seeing that through you we enjoy great peace, and prosperity is being brought to this nation by your foresight, [3]we accept it always and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness. [4]Nevertheless, not to be tedious to you any further, I beg you to hear, by your courtesy, a few words from us. [5]For we have found this man a plague, a creator of dissension among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes. [6]He even tried to profane the temple, and we seized him,[a] and wanted to judge him according to our law. [7]But the commander Lysias came by and with great violence took him out of our hands, [8]commanding his accusers to come to you. By examining him yourself you may ascertain all these things of which we accuse him." [9]And the Jews also assented,[a] maintaining that these things were so.

THE DEFENSE BEFORE FELIX

[10]Then Paul, after the governor had nodded to him to speak, answered: "Inasmuch as I know that you have been for many years a judge of this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself, [11]because you may ascertain that it is no more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to worship. [12]And they neither found me in the temple disputing with anyone nor inciting the crowd, either in the synagogues or in the city. [13]Nor can they prove the things of which they now accuse me. [14]But this I confess to you, that according to the Way which they call a sect, so I worship the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the Law and in the Prophets. [15]I have hope in God, which they themselves also accept, that there will be a resurrection of the dead,[a] both of the just and the unjust. [16]This being so, I myself always strive to have a conscience without offense toward God and men.

[17]"Now after many years I came to bring alms and offerings to my nation, [18]in the midst of which some Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with a mob nor with tumult. [19]They ought to have been here before you to object if they had anything against me. [20]Or else let those who are here themselves say if they found any wrongdoing[a] in me while I stood before the council, [21]unless it is for this one statement which I cried out, standing among them, 'Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am being judged by you this day.'"

23:30 [a]NU-Text reads there would be a plot against the man. 24:6 [a]NU-Text ends the sentence here and omits the rest of verse 6, all of verse 7, and the first clause of verse 8. 24:9 [a]NU-Text and M-Text read joined the attack. 24:15 [a]NU-Text omits of the dead. 24:20 [a]NU-Text and M-Text read say what wrongdoing they found.

FELIX PROCRASTINATES

[22]But when Felix heard these things, having more accurate knowledge of the Way, he adjourned the proceedings and said, "When Lysias the commander comes down, I will make a decision on your case." [23]So he commanded the centurion to keep Paul and to let him have liberty, and told him not to forbid any of his friends to provide for or visit him.

[24]And after some days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish, he sent for Paul and heard him concerning the faith in Christ. [25]Now as he reasoned about righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix was afraid and answered, "Go away for now; when I have a convenient time I will call for you." [26]Meanwhile he also hoped that money would be given him by Paul, that he might release him.[a] Therefore he sent for him more often and conversed with him.

[27]But after two years Porcius Festus succeeded Felix; and Felix, wanting to do the Jews a favor, left Paul bound.

PAUL APPEALS TO CAESAR

25 Now when Festus had come to the province, after three days he went up from Caesarea to Jerusalem. [2]Then the high priest[a] and the chief men of the Jews informed him against Paul; and they petitioned him, [3]asking a favor against him, that he would summon him to Jerusalem—while they lay in ambush along the road to kill him. [4]But Festus answered that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself was going there shortly. [5]"Therefore," he said, "let those who have authority among you go down with me and accuse this man, to see if there is any fault in him."

[6]And when he had remained among them more than ten days, he went down to Caesarea. And the next day, sitting on the judgment seat, he commanded Paul to be brought. [7]When he had come, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood about and laid many serious complaints against Paul, which they could not prove, [8]while he answered for himself, "Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar have I offended in anything at all."

[9]But Festus, wanting to do the Jews a favor, answered Paul and said, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and there be judged before me concerning these things?"

[10]So Paul said, "I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged. To the Jews I have done no wrong, as you very well know. [11]For if I am an offender, or have committed anything deserving of death, I do not object to dying; but if there is nothing in these things of which these men accuse me, no one can deliver me to them. I appeal to Caesar."

> Acts 25:11
> Because he was a Roman citizen by birth, Paul had the right to appeal his case all the way to the Roman emperor Nero, if he so desired.

[12]Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, "You have appealed to Caesar? To Caesar you shall go!"

PAUL BEFORE AGRIPPA

[13]And after some days King Agrippa and Bernice came to Caesarea to greet Festus. [14]When they had been there many days, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying: "There is a certain man left a prisoner by Felix, [15]about whom the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, when I was in Jerusalem, asking for a judgment against him. [16]To them I answered, 'It is not the custom of the Romans to deliver any man to destruction[a] before the accused meets the accusers face to face, and has opportunity to answer for himself concerning the charge against him.' [17]Therefore when they had come together, without any delay, the next day I sat on the judgment seat and commanded the man to be brought in. [18]When the accusers stood up, they brought no accusation against him of such things as I supposed, 19but had some questions against him about their own religion and about a certain Jesus, who had died, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. 20And because I was uncertain of such questions, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and there be judged concerning these matters. 21But when Paul appealed to be reserved for the decision of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I could send him to Caesar."

22Then Agrippa said to Festus, "I also would like to hear the man myself."

"Tomorrow," he said, "you shall hear him."

23So the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp, and had entered the auditorium with the commanders and the prominent men of the city, at Festus' command Paul was brought in. 24And Festus said: "King Agrippa and all the men who are here present with us, you see this man about whom the whole assembly of the Jews petitioned me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying out that he was not fit to live any longer. 25But when I found that he had committed nothing deserving of death, and that he himself had appealed to Augustus, I decided to send him. 26I have nothing certain to write to my lord concerning him. Therefore I have brought him out before you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after the examination has taken place I may have something to write. 27For it seems to me unreasonable to send a prisoner and not to specify the charges against him."

PAUL'S EARLY LIFE

26 Then Agrippa said to Paul, "You are permitted to speak for yourself."

So Paul stretched out his hand and answered for himself: 2"I think myself happy, King Agrippa, because today I shall answer for myself before you concerning all the things of which I am accused by the Jews, 3especially because you are expert in all customs and questions which have to do with the Jews. Therefore I beg you to hear me patiently.

4"My manner of life from my youth, which was spent from the beginning among my own nation at Jerusalem, all the Jews know. 5They knew me from the first, if they were willing to testify, that according to the strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. 6And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers. 7To this promise our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God night and day, hope to attain. For this hope's sake, King Agrippa, I am accused by the Jews. 8Why should it be thought incredible by you that God raises the dead?

9"Indeed, I myself thought I must do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. 10This I also did in Jerusalem, and many of the saints I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I cast my vote against them. 11And I punished them often in every synagogue and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

PAUL RECOUNTS HIS CONVERSION

12"While thus occupied, as I journeyed to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, 13at midday, O king, along the road I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those who journeyed with me. 14And when we all had fallen to the ground, I heard a voice speaking to me and saying in the Hebrew language, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.' 15So I said, 'Who are You, Lord?' And He said, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. 16But rise and stand on your feet; for I have appeared to you for this purpose, to make you a minister and a witness both of the things which you have seen and of the things which I will yet reveal to you. 17I will deliver you from the Jewish people, as well as from the Gentiles, to whom I now[a] send you, 18to open their eyes, in order to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith in Me.'

PAUL'S POST-CONVERSION LIFE

19"Therefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, 20but

26:17 [a]NU-Text and M-Text omit now.

declared first to those in Damascus and in Jerusalem, and throughout all the region of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent, turn to God, and do works befitting repentance. 21For these reasons the Jews seized me in the temple and tried to kill me. 22Therefore, having obtained help from God, to this day I stand, witnessing both to small and great, saying no other things than those which the prophets and Moses said would come— 23that the Christ would suffer, that He would be the first to rise from the dead, and would proclaim light to the Jewish people and to the Gentiles."

AGRIPPA PARRIES PAUL'S CHALLENGE

24Now as he thus made his defense, Festus said with a loud voice, "Paul, you are beside yourself! Much learning is driving you mad!"

25But he said, "I am not mad, most noble Festus, but speak the words of truth and reason. 26For the king, before whom I also speak freely, knows these things; for I am convinced that none of these things escapes his attention, since this thing was not done in a corner. 27King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you do believe."

28Then Agrippa said to Paul, "You almost persuade me to become a Christian."

29And Paul said, "I would to God that not only you, but also all who hear me today, might become both almost and altogether such as I am, except for these chains."

30When he had said these things, the king stood up, as well as the governor and Bernice and those who sat with them; 31and when they had gone aside, they talked among themselves, saying, "This man is doing nothing deserving of death or chains."

32Then Agrippa said to Festus, "This man might have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar."

THE VOYAGE TO ROME BEGINS

27 And when it was decided that we should sail to Italy, they delivered Paul and some other prisoners to one named Julius, a centurion of the Augustan Regiment. 2So, entering a ship of Adramyttium, we put to sea, meaning to sail along the coasts of Asia. Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, was with us. 3And the next day we landed at Sidon. And Julius treated Paul kindly and gave him liberty to go to his friends and receive care. 4When we had put to sea from there, we sailed under the shelter of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. 5And when we had sailed over the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. 6There the centurion found an Alexandrian ship sailing to Italy, and he put us on board.

7When we had sailed slowly many days, and arrived with difficulty off Cnidus, the wind not permitting us to proceed, we sailed under the shelter of Crete off Salmone. 8Passing it with difficulty, we came to a place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.

PAUL'S WARNING IGNORED

9Now when much time had been spent, and sailing was now dangerous because the Fast was already over, Paul advised them, 10saying, "Men, I perceive that this voyage will end with disaster and much loss, not only of the cargo and ship, but also our lives." 11Nevertheless the centurion was more persuaded by the helmsman and the owner of the ship than by the things spoken by Paul. 12And because the harbor was not suitable to winter in, the majority advised to set sail from there also, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, a harbor of Crete opening toward the southwest and northwest, and winter there.

IN THE TEMPEST

13When the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their desire, putting out to sea, they sailed close by Crete. 14But not long after, a tempestuous head wind arose, called Euroclydon.[a] 15So when the ship was caught, and could not head into the wind, we let her drive. 16And running under the shelter of an island called Clauda,[a] we secured the skiff with difficulty. 17When they had taken it on board, they used cables to undergird the ship; and fearing lest they should run

27:14 [a]NU-Text reads Euraquilon.

aground on the Syrtis[a] Sands, they struck sail and so were driven. [18]And because we were exceedingly tempest-tossed, the next day they lightened the ship. [19]On the third day we threw the ship's tackle overboard with our own hands. [20]Now when neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small tempest beat on us, all hope that we would be saved was finally given up.

[21]But after long abstinence from food, then Paul stood in the midst of them and said, "Men, you should have listened to me, and not have sailed from Crete and incurred this disaster and loss. [22]And now I urge you to take heart, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. [23]For there stood by me this night an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve, [24]saying, 'Do not be afraid, Paul; you must be brought before Caesar; and indeed God has granted you all those who sail with you.' [25]Therefore take heart, men, for I believe God that it will be just as it was told me. [26]However, we must run aground on a certain island."

[27]Now when the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven up and down in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors sensed that they were drawing near some land. [28]And they took soundings and found it to be twenty fathoms; and when they had gone a little farther, they took soundings again and found it to be fifteen fathoms. [29]Then, fearing lest we should run aground on the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern, and prayed for day to come. [30]And as the sailors were seeking to escape from the ship, when they had let down the skiff into the sea, under pretense of putting out anchors from the prow, [31]Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these men stay in the ship, you cannot be saved." [32]Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the skiff and let it fall off.

THANKFULNESS
Who should we thank for providing for our needs?
Acts 27:35

[33]And as day was about to dawn, Paul implored them all to take food, saying, "Today is the fourteenth day you have waited and continued without food, and eaten nothing. [34]Therefore I urge you to take nourishment, for this is for your survival, since not a hair will fall from the head of any of you." [35]And when he had said these things, he took bread and gave thanks to God in the presence of them all; and when he had broken it he began to eat. [36]Then they were all encouraged, and also took food themselves. [37]And in all we were two hundred and seventy-six persons on the ship. [38]So when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship and threw out the wheat into the sea.

SHIPWRECKED ON MALTA

[39]When it was day, they did not recognize the land; but they observed a bay with a beach, onto which they planned to run the ship if possible. [40]And they let go the anchors and left them in the sea, meanwhile loosing the rudder ropes; and they hoisted the mainsail to the wind and made for shore. [41]But striking a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the prow stuck fast and remained immovable, but the stern was being broken up by the violence of the waves.

[42]And the soldiers' plan was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim away and escape. [43]But the centurion, wanting to save Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commanded that those who could swim should jump overboard first and get to land, [44]and the rest, some on boards and some on parts of the ship. And so it was that they all escaped safely to land.

PAUL'S MINISTRY ON MALTA

28 Now when they had escaped, they then found out that the island was called Malta. [2]And the natives showed us unusual kindness; for they kindled a fire and made us all welcome, because of the rain that was falling and because of the cold. [3]But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat, and fastened on his hand. [4]So when the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to one another, "No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he has escaped the sea, yet justice does not

27:17 [a]M-Text reads Syrtes.

LIFE APP

Kindness / Acts 28:2

In Acts 28, we catch up with the apostle Paul when he is a prisoner of the Roman Empire. His guards were taking him to Rome by ship when a large storm came and shipwrecked them on an island called Malta. It was raining and cold and there were natives living on that island, so it may have seemed a dangerous situation. Would the natives attack them? Would they take them all prisoner? Things could have gone very wrong. But they didn't. Instead, "the natives showed us unusual kindness, for they kindled a fire and made us all welcome, because of the rain that was falling and because of the cold" (Acts 28:2).

Rather than approach the shipwrecked strangers confrontationally, the natives chose to show them kindness. They welcomed them and helped them get warm and dry. In such horrible circumstances, this act of kindness made a huge difference—and was even recorded in the Bible to be read about generation after generation.

When was the last time someone did something kind for you? Were you surprised by their kindness? In our world, we see plenty of selfishness and greed and deceit and scheming. Sometimes it's hard to see through all those things to identify the acts of kindness that are also happening. But don't be misled—kindness still exists in this world, mostly because God's people are still in this world. And we are called to live lives of kindness.

If you look around, opportunities for kindness are everywhere. Maybe the older lady who lives next door needs help taking her trash to the street on pick-up day. Maybe that kid at school who gets picked on all the time could use some friendly company on his walk to his next class. Maybe your mother needs to hear how much you appreciate her. Acts of kindness can take many shapes and forms, but they should be a part of our everyday lives. God can use even the smallest act of kindness to change someone's life forever. Who wouldn't want to be a part of that?

allow to live." 5But he shook off the creature into the fire and suffered no harm. 6However, they were expecting that he would swell up or suddenly fall down dead. But after they had looked for a long time and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds and said that he was a god.

7In that region there was an estate of the leading citizen of the island, whose name was Publius, who received us and entertained us courteously for three days. 8And it happened that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and dysentery. Paul went in to him and prayed, and he laid his hands on him and healed him. 9So when this was done, the rest of those on the island who had diseases also came and were healed. 10They also honored us in many ways; and when we departed, they provided such things as were necessary.

ARRIVAL AT ROME

11After three months we sailed in an Alexandrian ship whose figurehead was the Twin Brothers, which had wintered at the island. 12And landing at Syracuse, we stayed three days. 13From there we circled round and reached Rhegium. And after one day the south wind blew; and the next day we came to Puteoli, 14where we found brethren, and were invited to stay with them seven days. And so we went toward Rome. 15And from there, when the brethren heard about us, they came to meet us as far as Appii Forum and Three Inns. When Paul saw them, he thanked God and took courage.

16Now when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard; but Paul was permitted to dwell by himself with the soldier who guarded him.

PAUL'S MINISTRY AT ROME

17And it came to pass after three days that Paul called the leaders of the Jews together. So when they had come together, he said to them: "Men and brethren, though I have done nothing against our people or the customs of our fathers, yet I was delivered as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans, 18who, when they had examined me, wanted to let me go, because there was no cause for putting me to death. 19But when the Jews[a] spoke against it, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar, not that I had anything of which to accuse my nation. 20For this reason therefore I have called for you, to see you and speak with you, because for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain."

21Then they said to him, "We neither received letters from Judea concerning you, nor have any of the brethren who came reported or spoken any evil of you. 22But we desire to hear from you what you think; for concerning this sect, we know that it is spoken against everywhere."

23So when they had appointed him a day, many came to him at his lodging, to whom he explained and solemnly testified of the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus from both the Law of Moses and the Prophets, from morning till evening. 24And some were persuaded by the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved. 25So when they did not agree among themselves, they departed after Paul had said one word: "The Holy Spirit spoke rightly through Isaiah the prophet to our[a] fathers, 26saying,

'Go to this people and say:
"Hearing you will hear, and shall not understand;
And seeing you will see, and not perceive;
27 For the hearts of this people have grown dull.
Their ears are hard of hearing,
And their eyes they have closed,
Lest they should see with their eyes
and hear with their ears, Lest they should understand with their
hearts and turn,
So that I should heal them."'[a]

28"Therefore let it be known to you that the salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles, and they will hear it!" 29And when he had said these words, the Jews departed and had a great dispute among themselves.[a]

30Then Paul dwelt two whole years in his own rented house, and received all who came to him, 31preaching the kingdom of God and teaching the things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ with all confidence, no one forbidding him.

KEY VERSE:

For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes, for the Jew first and also for the Greek (Romans 1:16).

THEN /// We are used to talking about faith. It doesn't seem like a difficult concept. We hear songs about it on the radio. We hear the word at least three times every time we go to church. Why did it seem to be such a new thought to the early Christians?

Before Christ's life and death, God was worshiped through sacrifices and rituals. People had to have faith, but it was faith that one day God would send a Savior. They depended on their sacrifices to keep them right with God. Once Jesus came, He made the one true sacrifice. The people didn't have to do all those rituals anymore to keep themselves right with God. They just had to have faith in Jesus' sacrifice for their sins. In that way, faith was a very new concept.

NOW /// Do you know what a primer is? It is the most basic handbook you can find. When you learned to read, you probably used a primer of some kind. It is a book that explains a big concept in simple, small pieces. It is an Outline of the fundamentals.

The Book of Romans is a kind of primer. It is a primer to the Christian life. Paul wrote it to the Romans so that they would have an introduction to him and to his beliefs before he came to visit them. He wanted to make the most of his trip there, so the more he could explain to them ahead of time, the better. He could answer their questions when he arrived.

The basic message of Romans is this: you are saved by God's grace through faith, not by the good things you do. None of us deserves salvation. It is God's gift through Jesus. Life gets complicated sometimes—trying to figure out what to do and what not to do. Romans takes us back to the basics so that we can find our way to God and then figure out life in light of His love.

REALITY CHECK /// In Paul's letter to the Romans, he makes one bold statement in several different ways: before we come to believe in Christ and His sacrifice, we are dead in our sins. We are spiritual corpses. Our bodies might be carrying on, but our spirits have no breath in them. We don't function. We can't do the things that we were created to do like spill over with joy and kindness and patience and abundant life. But when we accept Christ's sacrifice for our sins and put our faith in His goodness rather than our own, then we come to life. The Holy Spirit breathes His life into us, and our spirits come alive and dance and sing in the light of God's love.

GREETING

1 Paul, a bondservant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated to the gospel of God 2 which He promised before through His prophets in the Holy Scriptures, 3 concerning His Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who was born of the seed of David according to the flesh, 4 and declared to be the Son of God with power according to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead. 5 Through Him we have received grace and apostleship for obedience to the faith among all nations for His name, 6 among whom you also are the called of Jesus Christ;

7 To all who are in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

DESIRE TO VISIT ROME

8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. 9 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of His Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers, 10 making request if, by some means, now at last I may find a way in the will of God to come to you. 11 For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, so that you may be established— 12 that is, that I may be encouraged together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me.

PROMISE

God promises everyone who has faith will live.

For in it [the gospel of Christ] the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, "The just shall live by faith" (Rom. 1:17).

Most people want to do something so that God will like them. They think that if they're really good, if they do everything—or most things—right, then God will accept them. It makes people feel really good to think there's something so neat about them that they can earn a spot in heaven.

The truth is that no one can be that good. There's something special about every single person on earth, but there's some junk in everyone, too. God doesn't accept anyone's goodness as good enough to get into heaven.

But that's not the end of the story. "The righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith." In other words, God accepts those who come to Him in faith. Now that's good news. It's not being good that gets God to accept you; it's having faith in His Son. You don't have to settle for some lukewarm, lip-service faith. You can have a faith so strong, so alive, that you can't wait to commit your whole life to Jesus. Then, as Romans 1:17 says, you will live—not just physically but with strength and power because you're living in Him.

Keep renewing your mind with God's Word. That's how you build faith. Do your best to live the way God wants you to just because you love Him and you want to please Him. Faith sets you free from the vicious cycle of constantly trying to work your way into God's good graces.

SEE FOR YOURSELF// Habakkuk 2:4; Romans 5:18, 19; Galatians 3:9, 26; Hebrews 1 [13]Now I do not want you to be unaware, brethren, that I often planned to come to you (but was hindered until now), that I might have some fruit among you also, just as among the other Gentiles. [14]I am a debtor both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to wise and to unwise. [15]So, as much as is in me, I am ready to preach the gospel to you who are in Rome also.

WORLD APP

Alternative Lifestyles / Romans 1:26–32

In Genesis 1 and 2, we can read about how God made the world and all the creatures in it. Part of God's creation was nature—the system of how everything should function. When sin was introduced into the world through Adam and Eve, natural things became corruptible.

We see evidences of this corruption every day: crime, greed, lust, deception. The list seems endless. People continually choose to live lifestyles contrary to the natural way God intended. When we use the term "alternative lifestyles," we are typically referring to the way of life described in Romans 1:26, 27: "For this reason God gave them up to the vile passions. For even their women exchanged the natural use for what is against nature. Likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust for one another, men with men committing what is shameful, and receiving in themselves the penalty of their error which was due."

God designed men and women as the perfect partners for each other (Gen. 2). When people choose to defy this natural design and live lifestyles based on their own opposing thoughts or desires, it goes against nature as God intended. These alternative lifestyles do not honor God or result in a blessed life.

But homosexual lifestyles are not the only lifestyles that are contrary to God's design. Lives filled with disobedience, such as envy, strife, lying, gossip, or pride, go against God's intentions as well (Rom. 1:28–32). As Christians, we should live according to the Word of God and our desire to be like Jesus. Living life based on the characteristics of the world (Rom. 1:28–32) will only draw us away from God. Living life based on the characteristics of the Spirit of God (Gal. 5:22, 23) will bring us closer to our Creator.

When we do encounter those who purposefully choose to live lifestyles opposed to God's will, we can consider that maybe no one ever told them about God's love or His plan for the world. We can share the truth with them in the spirit of love (Eph. 4:15).

the creation of the world His invisible attributes are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead, so that they are without excuse, 21because, although they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God, nor were thankful, but became futile in their thoughts, and their foolish hearts were darkened. 22Professing to be wise, they became fools, 23and changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like corruptible man—and birds and four-footed animals and creeping things.

24Therefore God also gave them up to uncleanness, in the lusts of their hearts, to dishonor their bodies among themselves, 25who exchanged the truth of God for the lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.

26For this reason God gave them up to vile passions. For even their women exchanged the natural use for what is against nature. 27Likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust for one another, men with men committing what is shameful, and receiving in themselves the penalty of their error which was due.

28And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a debased mind, to do those things which are not fitting; 29being filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality,[a] wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil-mindedness; they are whisperers, 30backbiters, haters of God, violent, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, 31undiscerning, untrustworthy, unloving, unforgiving,[a] unmerciful; 32who, knowing the righteous judgment of God, that those who practice such things are deserving of death, not only do the same but also approve of those who practice them.

GOD'S RIGHTEOUS JUDGMENT

2 Therefore you are inexcusable, O man, whoever you are who judge, for in whatever you judge another you condemn yourself; for you who judge practice the same things. 2But we know that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who practice such things. 3And do you think this, O man, you who judge those practicing such things, and doing the same, that you will escape the judgment of God? 4Or do you despise the riches of His goodness, forbearance, and longsuffering, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance? 5But in accordance with your hardness and your impenitent heart you are treasuring up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God, 6who "will render to each one according to his deeds":[a] 7eternal life to those who by patient continuance in doing good seek for glory, honor, and immortality; 8but to those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness—indignation and wrath, 9tribulation and anguish, on every soul of man who does evil, of the Jew first and also of the Greek; 10but glory, honor, and peace to everyone who works what is good, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. 11For there is no partiality with God.

12For as many as have sinned without law will also perish without law, and as many as have sinned in the law will be judged by the law 13(for not the hearers of the law are just in the sight of God, but the doers of the law will be justified; 14for when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do the things in the law, these, although not having the law, are a law to themselves, 15who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and between themselves their thoughts accusing or else excusing them) 16in the day when God will judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ, according to my gospel.

THE JEWS GUILTY AS THE GENTILES

17Indeed[a] you are called a Jew, and rest on the law, and make your boast in God, 18and know His will, and approve the things that are excellent, being instructed out of the law, 19and are confident that you yourself are a guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness, 20an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, having the form of knowledge and truth in the law. 21You, therefore, who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who preach that a man should not steal, do you steal? 22You who say, "Do not commit adultery," do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples? 23You who make your boast in the law, do you dishonor God through breaking the law? 24For "the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you,"[a] as it is written.

CIRCUMCISION OF NO AVAIL

25For circumcision is indeed profitable if you keep the law; but if you are a breaker of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. 26Therefore, if an uncircumcised man keeps the righteous requirements of the law, will not his uncircumcision be counted as circumcision? 27And will not the physically uncircumcised, if he fulfills the law, judge you who, even with your written code and circumcision, are a transgressor of the law? 28For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly, nor is circumcision that which is outward in the flesh; 29but he is a Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the Spirit, not in the letter; whose praise is not from men but from God.

GOD'S JUDGMENT DEFENDED

3 What advantage then has the Jew, or what is the profit of circumcision? 2Much in every way! Chiefly because to them were committed the oracles of God. 3For what if some did not believe? Will their unbelief make the faithfulness of God without effect? 4Certainly not! Indeed, let God be true but every man a liar. As it is written:

"That You may be justified in Your words,
And may overcome when You are judged."[a]

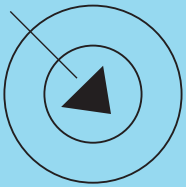
5But if our unrighteousness demonstrates the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unjust who inflicts wrath? (I speak as a man.) 6Certainly not! For then how will God judge the world?

7For if the truth of God has increased through my lie to His glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner? 8And why not say, "Let us do evil that good may come"?—as we are slanderously reported and as some affirm that we say. Their condemnation is just.

SIN
Are all people guilty of sin?
Romans 3:9–12, 23

ALL HAVE SINNED

9What then? Are we better than they? Not at all. For we have previously charged both Jews and Greeks that they are all under sin.
10As it is written:



"There is none righteous, no, not one;
11 There is none who understands;
There is none who seeks after God.
12 They have all turned aside;
They have together become unprofitable;
There is none who does good, no, not one."[a] 13" Their throat is an open tomb;
With their tongues they have practiced deceit";[a]
"The poison of asps is under their lips";[b]
14 "Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness."[a] 15 "Their feet are swift to shed blood;
16 Destruction and misery are in their ways;
17 And the way of peace they have not known."[a]
18 "There is no fear of God before their eyes."[a]

19Now we know that whatever the law says, it says to those who are under the law, that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.
20Therefore by the deeds of the law no flesh will be justified in His sight, for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS THROUGH FAITH

21But now the righteousness of God apart from the law is revealed, being witnessed

PROMISE

God promises to treat you better than you deserve.

Being justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus (Rom. 3:24).

Hate to break it to you this way. You're a pretty good kid and all. But unfortunately, your situation leaves no other choice. You've been found guilty and your file is being turned over to the justice department. Sin has been discovered within you and you have been sentenced to death.

Those could be frightening words if they were real, right? Well, they are. You are guilty and you did receive a death sentence—we all did. We are all guilty of sin and deserve to die. But Jesus came to earth as a man to die in your place. Even though He never sinned—He was guilty of absolutely nothing—He allowed Himself to be crucified and voluntarily gave up His life to pay the penalty of sin. Now we have a choice. We can face our own death sentence, or we can accept Jesus' death as our own.

It goes something like this: First, deliver an honest confession to God that you are guilty. Then ask Him to forgive you for your sin and help you leave it behind you. Tell God you understand what Jesus did for you and that you accept His death on your behalf. Then believe that God will do exactly as He said; He will pardon your sin because of His Son.

Are you ready to make that choice? Go for it!

SEE FOR YOURSELF// Isaiah 53; John 3:16; Romans 5:6–19; 8:31–39; Titus 3:4–7

by the Law and the Prophets, [22]even the righteousness of God, through faith in Jesus Christ, to all and on all[a] who believe. For there is no difference; [23]for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, [24]being justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, [25]whom God set forth as a propitiation by His blood, through faith, to demonstrate His righteousness, because in His forbearance God had passed over the sins that were previously committed, [26]to demonstrate at the present time His righteousness, that He might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus.

Romans 3:25, 26

Under the law God gave to Moses, whenever a person sinned, an animal had to be sacrificed—meaning, killed on an altar. Usually it was a sheep whose blood was offered as payment for the sin. Jesus put an end to that old system of sacrifice when He became the ultimate sacrifice. Jesus' death paid for the sins of the entire world, once and for all. God accepted His blood as the only offering that would ever again need to be made.

BOASTING EXCLUDED

[27]Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? Of works? No, but by the law of faith. [28]Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith apart from the deeds of the law. [29]Or is He the God of the Jews only? Is He not also the God of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also, [30]since there is one God who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. [31]Do we then make void the law through faith? Certainly not! On the contrary, we establish the law.

3:22 [a]NU-Text omits and on all.

ABRAHAM JUSTIFIED BY FAITH

4 What then shall we say that Abraham our father has found according to the flesh?[a] 2For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God. 3For what does the Scripture say? "Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness."[a] 4Now to him who works, the wages are not counted as grace but as debt.

DAVID CELEBRATES THE SAME TRUTH

5But to him who does not work but believes on Him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is accounted for righteousness, 6just as David also describes the blessedness of the man to whom God imputes righteousness apart from works:

7 "Blessed are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven,
And whose sins are covered;
8*Blessed is the man to whom the* LORD shall not impute sin."[a]

ABRAHAM JUSTIFIED BEFORE CIRCUMCISION

9*Does* this blessedness then come upon the circumcised only, or upon the uncircumcised also? For we say that faith was accounted to Abraham for righteousness. 10How then was it accounted? While he was circumcised, or uncircumcised? Not while circumcised, but while uncircumcised. 11And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while still uncircumcised, that he might be the father of all those who believe, though they are uncircumcised, that righteousness might be imputed to them also, 12and the father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of the faith which our father Abraham had while still uncircumcised.

THE PROMISE GRANTED THROUGH FAITH

13For the promise that he would be the heir of the world was not to Abraham or to his seed through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. 14For if those who are of the law are heirs, faith is made void and the promise made of no effect, 15because the law brings about wrath; for where there is no law there is no transgression.

> Romans 4:17
> The history of the Jewish people begins with God's promise to Abraham. God appeared to Abraham in Mesopotamia, the land between the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers. The Lord promised Abraham that he would be the father of many nations.

16Therefore it is of faith that it might be according to grace, so that the promise might be sure to all the seed, not only to those who are of the law, but also to those who are of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all 17(as it is written, "I have made you a father of many nations"[a]) in the presence of Him whom he believed—God, who gives life to the dead and calls those things which do not exist as though they did; 18who, contrary to hope, in hope believed, so that he became the father of many nations, according to what was spoken, "So shall your descendants be."[a] 19And not being weak in faith, he did not consider his own body, already dead (since he was about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah's womb. 20He did not waver at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strengthened in faith, giving glory to God, 21and being fully convinced that what He had promised He was also able to perform. 22And therefore "it was accounted to him for righteousness."[a]

23Now it was not written for his sake alone that it was imputed to him, 24but also for us. It shall be imputed to us who believe in Him who raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead, 25who was delivered up because of our offenses, and was raised because of our justification.

MIR MAKING IT REAL // ROMANS 5:1

True Peace Now that you are a believer, the battle for your spirit is over. You chose the path of victory when you chose Jesus. When you trusted Him, God gave you peace. Are you enjoying the peace you have, or are you trying to fight a battle that's already been won? Christians don't live trouble-free lives. We still face challenges and trials. But we don't have to be filled with anxiety and fear because we know Jesus holds all the answers and He'll help us through the hard times.

God wants to calm you. He wants you to trust Him to work everything out. He's in control, so you can relax, keep doing what's right, and leave the outcome up to Him. He wants you to let Him be the light that shatters any darkness you encounter.

Many people give their hearts to Jesus and then keep on fighting the same old way they used to. With the peace of God, you can let go of some of your anxiety about grades, college, finances, family, or whatever is stressing you out. Do everything you know to do and trust God. You don't have to manipulate situations and worry about things you can't see. You don't have to go through life by yourself anymore. Rest in the peace God brings. Open your eyes. His love for you casts out all fear. Stop wringing your hands in worry. He loves you. He wants you to experience the peace He's made available to you. (See also: John 14:27; Col. 3:15; 2 Thess. 3:16.)

Words to Live By

Justified: The word translated as "justified" in Romans 5:1 is the Greek word dikaioo (dik-ah-yo-o). This word means "to make someone just or righteous" or "to declare someone innocent." There is not one thing any of us could do to make our own selves righteous or good enough to stand before our holy God, much less have peace with Him. But when we accept Christ as our Savior, He justifies us—He makes us righteous through His own blood. Only because of Him can we be declared innocent before God and live at peace with Him.

FAITH TRIUMPHS IN TROUBLE

5 Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have[a] peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, 2through whom also we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. 3And not only that, but we also glory in tribulations, knowing that tribulation produces perseverance; 4and perseverance, character; and character, hope. 5Now hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who was given to us.

CHRIST IN OUR PLACE

6For when we were still without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. 7For scarcely for a righteous man will one die; yet perhaps for a good man someone would even dare to die. 8But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. 9Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from wrath through Him. 10For if when we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved by His life. 11And not only that, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.

DEATH IN ADAM, LIFE IN CHRIST

12Therefore, just as through one man sin entered the world, and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men, because all sinned— 13(For until the law sin was in the world, but sin is not imputed

5:1 [a]Another ancient reading is, let us have peace.

Romans 5:12

After God created Adam, He placed him in the Garden of Eden. The place was paradise—literally. The law of the land was pretty simple, too: he could eat from any tree in the garden except the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. That's it. That's the only rule Adam had to remember and obey. Guess what? Adam chose to disobey God and eat the fruit from the forbidden tree. Because Adam represented the entire human race, his sin affected all of his descendants.

when there is no law. 14Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who had not sinned according to the likeness of the transgression of Adam, who is a type of Him who was to come. 15But the free gift is not like the offense. For if by the one man's offense many died, much more the grace of God and the gift by the grace of the one Man, Jesus Christ, abounded to many. 16And the gift is not like that which came through the one who sinned. For the judgment which came from one offense resulted in condemnation, but the free gift which came from many offenses resulted in justification. 17For if by the one man's offense death reigned through the one, much more those who receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness will reign in life through the One, Jesus Christ.)

18Therefore, as through one man's offense judgment came to all men, resulting in condemnation, even so through one Man's righteous act the free gift came to all men, resulting in justification of life. 19For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so also by one Man's obedience many will be made righteous.

20Moreover the law entered that the offense might abound. But where sin abounded, grace abounded much more, 21so that as sin reigned in death, even so grace might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

DEAD TO SIN, ALIVE TO GOD

6 What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin that grace may abound? 2Certainly not! How shall we who died to sin live any longer in it? 3Or do you not know that as many of us as were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into His death? 4Therefore we were buried with Him through baptism into death, that just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

5For if we have been united together in the likeness of His death, certainly we also shall be in the likeness of His resurrection, 6knowing this, that our old man was crucified with Him, that the body of sin might be done away with, that we should no longer be slaves of sin. 7For he who has died has been freed from sin. 8Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him, 9knowing that Christ, having been raised from the dead, dies no more. Death no longer has dominion over Him. 10For the death that He died, He died to sin once for all; but the life that He lives, He lives to God. 11Likewise you also, reckon yourselves to be dead indeed to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

12Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts. 13And do not present your members as instruments of unrighteousness to sin, but present yourselves to God as being alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God. 14For sin shall not have dominion over you, for you are not under law but under grace.

FROM SLAVES OF SIN TO SLAVES OF GOD

15What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law but under grace? Certainly not! 16Do you not know that to whom you present yourselves slaves to obey, you are that one's slaves whom you obey, whether of sin leading to death, or of obedience leading to righteousness? 17But God be thanked that though you were slaves of sin, yet you obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine to which you were delivered. 18And having been set free from sin, you became slaves of righteousness. 19I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you presented your members as slaves of uncleanness, and of lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves of righteousness for holiness.

Dead to Sin Paul taught that we, as humans, can't do anything to earn God's friendship. When he told people that the only way they could know God and go to heaven one day was by having faith and trusting in God's kindness and grace, he probably knew that some people were going to say, "Cool. Then we can do anything we want because it doesn't matter, right?" Likely anticipating that the question would come up, Paul included something incredible in this letter to the Romans: "We . . . died to sin." That doesn't sound right. How can Paul say that you're dead to sin when you know that you mess up and sin all the time? Well, Paul wasn't just making that up. He explains it this way: "Therefore we were buried with Him through baptism into death, that just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life" (Rom. 6:4).

Paul was explaining that because you've put your trust in Jesus, sin only has power over you when you let it. You can make a decision to "walk in newness of life." You can choose to keep living in the old sinful ways, or decide to act in ways that please God. No one is perfect, and no one will always make the right choices. But, day by day, as you read the Bible, you will be transformed by God's Word. As you make the daily effort to walk in love, forgiveness, and purity before the Lord, your character will begin to change. Bit by bit, you will be changed and "newness of life" will become a way of life. Just try it and see. (See also: Rom. 6; Eph. 2:1–9; Col. 2:11–14.)

Words to Live By

Continue: The word translated as "continue" in Romans 6:1 is the Greek word epimeno (ep-ee-men'-o). It means "to remain" or "to persevere." We may still sin even though we're following Christ. We're human. But we won't continue to live in a sinful lifestyle, remaining all messed up in unconfessed and unforgiven sins. Instead, we will keep trying to live a lifestyle that pleases God; repenting, confessing, and receiving forgiveness for the sins we do commit.

Romans 6:19

The comparison between sin and slavery probably hit home to many of the people who read Paul's letter. In New Testament times, an estimated one out of every four people in the Roman Empire was a slave. People captured in battle, whether they were soldiers or civilians, usually became slaves. People who could not afford to pay their debts also became slaves as a way to work off what they owed.

20For when you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. 21What fruit did you have then in the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death. 22But now having been set free from sin, and having become slaves of God, you have your fruit to holiness, and the end, everlasting life. 23For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

DEATH
What does sin earn us?
Romans 6:23

FREED FROM THE LAW

7 Or do you not know, brethren (for I speak to those who know the law), that the law has dominion over a man as long as he lives? 2For the woman who has a husband is bound by the law to her husband as long as he lives. But if the husband dies, she is released from the law of her husband. 3So then if, while her husband lives, she marries another man, she will be called an adulteress; but if her husband dies, she is free from that law, so that she is no adulteress, though she has married another man. 4Therefore, my brethren, you also have become dead to the law through the body of Christ, that you may be married to another—to Him who was raised from the dead, that we should bear fruit to God. 5For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions which were aroused by the law were at work in our members to bear fruit to death. 6But now we have been delivered from the law, having died to what we were held by, so that we should serve in the newness of the Spirit and not in the oldness of the letter.

SIN'S ADVANTAGE IN THE LAW

7What shall we say then? Is the law sin? Certainly not! On the contrary, I would not have known sin except through the law. For I would not have known covetousness unless the law had said, "You shall not covet."[a] 8But sin, taking opportunity by the commandment, produced in me all manner of evil desire. For apart from the law sin was dead. 9I was alive once without the law, but when the commandment came, sin revived and I died. 10And the commandment, which was to bring life, I found to bring death. 11For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it killed me. 12Therefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy and just and good.

LAW CANNOT SAVE FROM SIN

13Has then what is good become death to me? Certainly not! But sin, that it might appear sin, was producing death in me through what is good, so that sin through the commandment might become exceedingly sinful. 14For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am carnal, sold under sin. 15For what I am doing, I do not understand. For what I will to do, that I do not practice; but what I hate, that I do. 16If, then, I do what I will not to do, I agree with the law that it is good. 17But now, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells in me. 18For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. 19For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice. 20Now if I do what I will not to do, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells in me.

21I find then a law, that evil is present with me, the one who wills to do good. 22For I delight in the law of God according to the inward man. 23But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. 24O wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? 25I thank God—through Jesus Christ our Lord!

So then, with the mind I myself serve the law of God, but with the flesh the law of sin.

FREE FROM INDWELLING SIN

8 There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus,[a] who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. 2For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death. 3For what the law could not do in that it was weak through the flesh, God did by sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, on account of sin: He condemned sin in the flesh, 4that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. 5For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. 6For to be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. 7Because the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, nor indeed can be. 8So then, those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

9But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwells in you. Now if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he is not His. 10And if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. 11But if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, He who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to

Led by the Spirit When you put your faith in God's Son, His Spirit became part of your life. God knew that you would need His Spirit to help you live the way He wants you to live. People who haven't trusted Jesus don't have God's Spirit. They live life to please themselves or to get on the good side of other people. But you don't have to live that way. You can let God's Spirit choose the road you're going to take. Living that way pleases God. And it has a fringe benefit for you, too. "To be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace" (Rom. 8:6). If your goal in life is to satisfy all your selfish desires or to always please other people, you will never have peace. However, if you are led by the Spirit of God, you can have peace even in the most chaotic situations.

In order for your mind to be ruled by His Spirit, you've got to remain close to God. Spend time in prayer, in worship, and in His Word. Really work these things into your life—so much that they become a part of you. Then you'll know when the Spirit is leading you, and you'll be able to follow. (See also: Is. 63:11–14; 2 Cor. 2:14; Gal. 5:16.)

Words to Live By

Led: The word translated as "led" in Romans 8:14 is the Greek word ago (ag'-o). It can also mean "to bring." When God's Spirit is leading us, He's not just giving us instructions and setting us out on our own. Instead, He is right there with us, bringing us to the places we need to go. So we will never be stranded in a situation wondering what to do. The Spirit will be right there with us, bringing us along with Him throughout our journey to our ultimate destination.

your mortal bodies through His Spirit who dwells in you.

SONSHIP THROUGH THE SPIRIT

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors—not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. 13 For if you live according to the flesh you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. 14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God. 15 For you did not receive the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption by whom we cry out, "Abba, Father." 16 The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, 17 and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if indeed we suffer with Him, that we may also be glorified together.

FROM SUFFERING TO GLORY

18 For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. 19 For the earnest expectation of the creation eagerly waits for the revealing of the sons of God. 20 For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of Him who subjected it in hope; 21 because the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. 22 For we know that the whole creation groans and labors with birth pangs together until now. 23 Not only that, but we also who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, eagerly waiting for the adoption, the redemption of our body. 24 For we were saved in this hope, but hope that is seen is not hope; for why does one still hope for what he sees? 25 But if we hope for what we do not see, we eagerly wait for it with perseverance.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helps in our weaknesses. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit Himself makes intercession for us[a] with groanings which cannot be uttered. 27 Now He who searches the hearts knows what

Family / Romans 8:29

When God decided people should live together in families, He had a plan in mind. Parents are to teach and train, children are to grow and become. Older siblings should protect the younger ones and help them learn. God wants to use our families as a part of His plan for us—to help us grow into the people He created us to be.

While families hold an important role in teaching us to become the people we are meant to be, families have an even more important reason for being: they help us understand God's kingdom.

We know God is our heavenly Father. By looking at earthly fathers who love and care for their families, we can learn more about our heavenly Father. A father should do all he can to provide the things his family needs; he should correct his children and discipline them so they can grow into strong adults; most importantly, a father should love his children and their mother as much as he possibly can.

Jesus is the Son of God and He made a way for us to be a part of God's family. When we accept Jesus as our Savior, we are born into God's kingdom—we become children of God and Jesus is our Big Brother!

No person on this earth can live a perfect life, because we all struggle with sin and we all make wrong choices. So no earthly father is perfect and no earthly brothers or sisters can live sinless lives. But by looking at earthly families, we can begin to get an idea of just how close and real our relationship with God and His Son can be. God, our Father, provides for us, teaches us, and loves us completely. And Jesus, our Big Brother, watches out for us and teaches us all we need to know to become the mature Christians God wants us to be.

God Gives God is a giver. That's true. A lot of people are under the impression that God is a taker—always wanting something from them—but this is not true. Check out John 10:10: "The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly." God wants to give you a full life. Satan is the thief who comes to steal everything you've got. Not only does God want to meet all of your needs, He also wants to give you the desires of your heart. Psalm 37:4 states, "Delight yourself also in the LORD, and He shall give you the desires of your heart." Does that mean that you can dream up any selfish thing, consider it your heart's desire, and expect God to let you have it? No! It means that when you're going after Him with everything you've got, He'll begin to put His desires in your heart. As you begin to understand how good and how right His desires for you are, they'll become your desires, too.

Let the Lord help you identify His desires for you. Let Him help you figure out how your current desires fit into His plan. Or be willing to let Him take any selfish desires away. God knows the perfect future for you. He knows what will make you happiest in life and everything you need to get there. He's ready, willing, and able to give you what you need. Just ask Him today. (See also: John 14:13–15; 1 Cor. 2:12.)

Freely give: The word translated as "freely give" in Romans 8:32 is the Greek word charizomai (khar-id'-zo-mi). It conveys the idea of doing a favor or being kind. God does not give to us grudgingly or out of simple duty; He doesn't have to give anyone anything. God wants to give good things to His people because He loves them and it gives Him joy to bless them.

the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

TRIALS
Can we still trust God when things go wrong?
Romans 8:28

28 And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose. 29 For whom He foreknew, He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the firstborn among many brethren. 30 Moreover whom He predestined, these He also called; whom He called, these He also justified; and whom He justified, these He also glorified.

GOD'S EVERLASTING LOVE

31 What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? 32 He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things? 33 Who shall bring a charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. 34 Who is he who condemns? It is Christ who died, and furthermore is also risen, who is even at the right hand of God, who also makes intercession for us. 35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? 36 As it is written:

> "For Your sake we are killed all day long;
> We are accounted as sheep for the slaughter."[a]

No Separation Feelings and truth don't always have a lot in common. Feelings are just emotions and they can change faster than a status on your profile page. And sometimes, they are just as silly. Even what you ate for lunch can affect the way you feel. An off-hand comment from someone in the hall can totally change your mood for the rest of the day. Allowing feelings to determine what you think is just messed up.

No matter how you feel, the truth is you are completely loved by God and nothing can ever separate you from His love. Sometimes you may be tempted to compare God's love to the love you know here on earth. The love you know here can be conditional, based on your performance as a friend, a student, or even a son or daughter. But God's love has no conditions, and nothing you could ever do can remove His constant devotion to you. There is nothing you can do to make God stop loving you. You can't run away from His love. You can't hide from His love. You can only decide to accept or reject it. You are loved perfectly and completely by the Creator of everything. You have His Word on that. (See also: Ps. 136:1; 139:13, 14; Eph. 3:14–19.)

Nothing can separate us: Paul gives an amazing list of the things that can never separate us from the love of Christ. You may think there is something in your life that is so overwhelming or so bad that even Christ's love couldn't get through it. But look at the list in Romans 8:35! If you ever feel what you're facing is too big for God, read this verse again. No matter how intimidating trouble may seem, there is absolutely nothing that can separate you from the love of Christ—accept it!

37 Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us.
38 For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, 39 nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

ISRAEL'S REJECTION OF CHRIST

9 I tell the truth in Christ, I am not lying, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Spirit, 2 that I have great sorrow and continual grief in my heart. 3 For I could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my countrymen[a] according to the flesh, 4 who are Israelites, to whom pertain the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the service of God, and the promises; 5 of whom are the fathers and from whom, according to the flesh, Christ came, who is over all, the eternally blessed God. Amen.

ISRAEL'S REJECTION AND GOD'S PURPOSE

6 But it is not that the word of God has taken no effect. For they are not all Israel who are of Israel, 7 nor are they all children because they are the seed of Abraham; but, "In Isaac your seed shall be called."[a] 8 That is, those who are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God; but the children of the promise are counted as the seed. 9 For this is the word of promise: "At this time I will come and Sarah shall have a son."[a]

10 And not only this, but when Rebecca also had conceived by one man, even by our father Isaac 11 (for the children not yet being born, nor having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works but of Him who calls), 12 it was said to her, "The older shall serve the younger."[a] 13 As it is written,
"Jacob I have loved, but Esau I have hated."[a]

More than Conquerors Your team just won the state championship. What a season! You worked hard and it really paid off. The whole city is celebrating. It's so exciting. The great feeling seems like it'll carry you forever. Every time you think about that win, you grin from ear to ear. Your team is the best! That feeling does stay with you for a while, maybe for the rest of the year, and even on into the next season. But eventually, someone else wins. Your glory fades a little. Every year the light grows a little dimmer. Your trophy gets pushed aside in the display case to make room for newer awards and prizes. Your sweet victory becomes a sweet memory. It doesn't sustain you anymore. It doesn't inspire you to push harder.

Winning a game is great, but it's certainly not all there is to life. Paul says there's much more. He says that belonging to Christ makes you more than a winner. Believers get to share in Christ's victory for eternity. The celebration never ends. His glory never grows dim. The reward He brings will never be replaced by one greater—nothing is greater than an eternity in heaven with God. Because of Jesus, you can be more than a conqueror every day of your life. And in the end you will be ultimately victorious with a prize that lasts forever. (See also: 1 Cor. 15:57; 2 Cor. 2:14.)

Words to Live By

We are more than conquerors: The word translated as "we are more than conquerors" in Romans 8:37 is the Greek word hupernikao (hoop-er-nik-ah'-o). It means "to get a decisive victory; to not just win, but win huge—to more than conquer." When Jesus conquered the power of sin and death, it wasn't a close fight—He totally vanquished and demolished whatever power they held. And we get to share in His victory—we get to "more than conquer" as well! Even when situations seem their most hopeless, we can look forward to our ultimate victory that surpasses any win we can imagine!

Romans 9:10–13

In ancient times, the oldest male child in a family received a larger inheritance than the other children. Jacob was a famous exception to that rule. Jacob and his brother Esau were twins, but Esau was born first. God, however, chose to bless Jacob, whom He called Israel. (Sound familiar?) The twelve tribes of Israel were descendants of Jacob's twelve sons.

ISRAEL'S REJECTION AND GOD'S JUSTICE

14What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? Certainly not! 15For He says to Moses, "I will have mercy on whomever I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whomever I will have compassion."[a] 16So then it is not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of God who shows mercy. 17For the Scripture says to the Pharaoh, "For this very purpose I have raised you up, that I may show My power in you, and that My name may be declared in all the earth."[a] 18Therefore He has mercy on whom He wills, and whom He wills He hardens.

19You will say to me then, "Why does He still find fault? For who has resisted His will?" 20But indeed, O man, who are you to reply against God? Will the thing formed say to him who formed it, "Why have you made me like this?" 21Does not the potter have power over the clay, from the same lump to make one vessel for honor and another for dishonor?

22*What* if God, wanting to show His wrath and to make His power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath prepared for destruction, 23and

9:15 [a]Exodus 33:19 9:17 [a]Exodus 9:16

that He might make known the riches of His glory on the vessels of mercy, which He had prepared beforehand for glory, 24even us whom He called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?

25As He says also in Hosea:

"I will call them My people, who were not My people,
And her beloved, who was not beloved."[a] 26 "And it shall come to pass in the place where it was said to them,
'You are not My people,'
There they shall be called sons of the living God."[a]

27Isaiah also cries out concerning Israel:[a]

"Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea,
The remnant will be saved.
28 For He will finish the work and cut it short in righteousness,
Because the LORD will make a short work upon the earth."[a] 29And as Isaiah said before:

"Unless the LORD of Sabaoth[a] had left us a seed,
We would have become like Sodom,
And we would have been made like Gomorrah."[b]

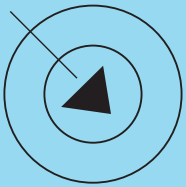
PRESENT CONDITION OF ISRAEL

30What shall we say then? That Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness of faith; 31but Israel, pursuing the law of righteousness, has not attained to the law of righteousness.[a] 32Why? Because they did not seek it by faith, but as it were, by the works of the law.[a] For they stumbled at that stumbling stone. 33As it is written:

"Behold, I lay in Zion a stumbling stone and rock of offense,
And whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame."[a]

ISRAEL NEEDS THE GOSPEL

10 Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel[a] is that they may be saved. 2For I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. 3For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted to the righteousness of God. 4For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes.



5For Moses writes about the righteousness which is of the law, "The man who does those things shall live by them."[a] 6But the righteousness of faith speaks in this way, "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'"[a] (that is, to bring Christ down from above) 7or, "'Who will descend into the abyss?'"[a] (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). 8But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart"[a] (that is, the word of faith which we preach): 9that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. 10For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. 11For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame."[a] 12For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord over all is rich to all who call upon Him. 13For "whoever calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved."[a]

PROMISE

God promises that anyone can be saved.

If you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord over all is rich to all who call upon Him. For "whoever calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved" (Rom. 10:9–13).

Do you know any people who consider themselves too sinful, too far gone, for Jesus to save them? Maybe they think their sins are too big or their lives too ugly. They think God couldn't possibly save them. They probably think God's angry, that He's given up on them by now, or that He's too holy to want them around.

Well, this passage is for those people. It gives hope to the hopeless. God delights in saving the unlovable and the lost and the ones who think they could never be saved. To think that God couldn't save you because you're too far gone is to say, "I'm bigger than God. I can do something so evil that He can't forgive me. I have more power than God." The truth is that everyone is hopelessly lost without Him and every sin is repulsive to Him. To God, all sins are big and ugly; one is not worse than another. But Jesus died for everyone—no exceptions—no matter how big and ugly their sins are. Anyone who calls out to Jesus will be saved.

SEE FOR YOURSELF// Matthew 9:10–13; John 3:16–18; Romans 1:16, 17 they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher? 15And how shall they preach unless they are sent? As it is written:

"How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace,[a] Who bring glad tidings of good things!"[b]

16But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, "LORD, who has believed our report?"[a] 17So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18But I say, have they not heard? Yes indeed:

"Their sound has gone out to all the earth,
And their words to the ends of the world."[a]

19But I say, did Israel not know? First Moses says:

"I will provoke you to jealousy by those who are not a nation,
I will move you to anger by a foolish nation."[a]

20But Isaiah is very bold and says:

"I was found by those who did not seek Me;
I was made manifest to those who did not ask for Me."[a]

21But to Israel he says:

"All day long I have stretched out My hands
To a disobedient and contrary people."[a]

ISRAEL'S REJECTION NOT TOTAL

11 I say then, has God cast away His people? Certainly not! For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. 2God

10:15 [a]NU-Text omits preach the gospel of peace, Who. [b]Isaiah 52:7; Nahum 1:15 10:16 [a]Isaiah 53:1 10:18 [a]Psalm 19:4 10:19 [a]Deuteronomy 32:21 10:20 [a]Isaiah 65:1 10:21 [a]Isaiah 65:2

has not cast away His people whom He foreknew. Or do you not know what the Scripture says of Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel, saying, 3*"LORD, they have killed Your prophets and torn down Your altars, and I alone am left, and they seek my life"*?[a] 4But what does the divine response say to him? "I have reserved for Myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal."[a] 5Even so then, at this present time there is a remnant according to the election of grace. 6And if by grace, then it is no longer of works; otherwise grace is no longer grace.[a] But if it is of works, it is no longer grace; otherwise work is no longer work.

Romans 11:2–4

In this passage, Paul is referring to an incident in the life of Elijah, the Old Testament prophet. It seems Ahab, the king of Israel, built a special temple and encouraged the people of his kingdom to worship there. No problem, right? Wrong. The temple Ahab built was for Baal, a pagan god. Ahab discouraged the Israelites from worshiping the true God! As prophet, it was Elijah's responsibility to confront the king about his wickedness. When he did, the king's evil wife, Jezebel, threatened to kill the prophet.

7What then? Israel has not obtained what it seeks; but the elect have obtained it, and the rest were blinded. 8Just as it is written:

"God has given them a spirit of stupor,
Eyes that they should not see
And ears that they should not hear,
To this very day."[a]

9And David says:

"Let their table become a snare and a trap,
A stumbling block and a recompense to them.
10*Let their eyes be darkened, so that they do not see,*
And bow down their back always."[a]

ISRAEL'S REJECTION NOT FINAL

11I say then, have they stumbled that they should fall? Certainly not! But through their fall, to provoke them to jealousy, salvation has come to the Gentiles. 12Now if their fall is riches for the world, and their failure riches for the Gentiles, how much more their fullness!

13For I speak to you Gentiles; inasmuch as I am an apostle to the Gentiles, I magnify my ministry, 14if by any means I may provoke to jealousy those who are my flesh and save some of them. 15For if their being cast away is the reconciling of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?

16For if the firstfruit is holy, the lump is also holy; and if the root is holy, so are the branches. 17And if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive tree, were grafted in among them, and with them became a partaker of the root and fatness of the olive tree, 18do not boast against the branches. But if you do boast, remember that you do not support the root, but the root supports you.

19You will say then, "Branches were broken off that I might be grafted in." 20Well said. Because of unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by faith. Do not be haughty, but fear. 21For if God did not spare the natural branches, He may not spare you either. 22Therefore consider the goodness and severity of God: on those who fell, severity; but toward you, goodness,[a] if you continue in His goodness. Otherwise you also will be cut off. 23And they also, if they do not continue in unbelief, will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again. 24For if you were cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and were grafted contrary to nature into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these, who are natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

25For I do not desire, brethren, that you should be ignorant of this mystery, lest you should be wise in your own opinion, that blindness in part has happened to Israel

MAKING IT REAL // ROMANS 12:1

Living Sacrifices Under the old agreement that God had made with the Jewish people, there were two kinds of sacrifices. One sacrifice was for people's sins; the other sacrifice was an offering of worship. Both sacrifices involved killing an animal, usually a goat or a lamb that didn't have any flaws. Jesus' death on the cross made a new agreement between God and anyone who has faith in Him. Under that new agreement, Jesus is the once-for-all sacrifice for sin. People don't have to offer lambs or goats to make up for sin. But what do you do about the sacrifice of worship?

Just as God chose to make Jesus the sacrifice for sin, you choose to make the sacrifice of worship. Instead of offering an animal, you offer your own life to God. You dedicate your life to doing what He wants. That why it's called a living sacrifice. Paul says that living a life that's pure and pleasing to God is the best way to serve Him—to worship Him. In other words, living the way God wants you to live is your way of saying to Him, "You're awesome and I want everything about me to worship You!" (See also: 1 Pet. 2:5.)

Words to Live By

Acceptable: The word translated as "acceptable" in Romans 12:1 is the Greek word euarestos (yoo-ar'-es-tos). In addition to "acceptable," it carries the meaning of "well-pleasing." When we make our lives living sacrifices to the Lord, it is pleasing to Him. He's not just accepting our sacrifices like homework assignments we're turning in. Rather, He is well pleased and delighted when we worship Him with our lives.

until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in. 26And so all Israel will be saved,[a] as it is written:

"The Deliverer will come out of Zion,
And He will turn away ungodliness from Jacob;
27 For this is My covenant with them,
When I take away their sins."[a]

28Concerning the gospel they are enemies for your sake, but concerning the election they are beloved for the sake of the fathers. 29For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable. 30For as you were once disobedient to God, yet have now obtained mercy through their disobedience, 31even so these also have now been disobedient, that through the mercy shown you they also may obtain mercy. 32For God has committed them all to disobedience, that He might have mercy on all.

33Oh, the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments and His ways past finding out!

34 "For who has known the mind of the LORD?
Or who has become His counselor?"[a] 35 "Or who has first given to Him
And it shall be repaid to him?"[a]

36For of Him and through Him and to Him are all things, to whom be glory forever. Amen.

LIVING SACRIFICES TO GOD

12 I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. 2And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

MIR MAKING IT REAL // ROMANS 12:4, 5

One but Many You have a destiny that God has designed just for you. He wants you to live in a way that honors Him, to be part of His plan to bring other people to know Him, and eventually to have the same character traits that Jesus has. But part of God's plan is that you wouldn't be able to accomplish any of this by yourself. Of course, you need His Spirit, and He's given you that. But you also need other people.

God wants His people to care about each other and to be able to depend on each other. Your strengths and weaknesses are different from another person's. That person may be able to help you with an area of your life that is especially challenging for you. Or you may be able to help someone else see clearly in a situation that is really confusing to him. Everyone has to trust Jesus as an individual. But once you become a Christian, your life and your relationship with God is connected to other people. You have a new family—the family of Christ. God meant for it to be this way. You need other Christians! And they need you. (See also: Rom. 12:4–8; 1 Cor. 12:12; Col. 1:18.)

Words to Live By

Members: The word translated as "members" in Romans 12:45 is the Greek word melos (mel'-os). It literally means "a part of the body." Every part of the body has its own specific function. A body wouldn't function properly if the arm was trying to be a leg, or if an ear was trying to be the nose. But when every part of the body is functioning as it should in conjunction with the others, the body is healthy. As individual parts of the body of Christ, we can keep His body healthy by each doing our part while working together.

THOUGHTS
Should a Christian think like the world?
Romans 12:2

HATRED
What should Christians hate?
Romans 12:9

SERVE GOD WITH SPIRITUAL GIFTS

3For I say, through the grace given to me, to everyone who is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think soberly, as God has dealt to each one a measure of faith. 4For as we have many members in one body, but all the members do not have the same function, 5so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and individually members of one another. 6Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, let us prophesy in proportion to our faith; 7or ministry, let us use it in our ministering; he who teaches, in teaching; 8he who exhorts, in exhortation; he who gives, with liberality;
he who leads, with diligence; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness.

BEHAVE LIKE A CHRISTIAN

9*Let* love be without hypocrisy. Abhor what is evil. Cling to what is good. 10*Be* kindly affectionate to one another with brotherly love, in honor giving preference to one another; 11not lagging in diligence, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord; 12re-joicing in hope, patient in tribulation, continuing steadfastly in prayer; 13distributing to the needs of the saints, given to hospitality.

14Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse. 15Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep.
16Be of the same mind toward one another.
Do not set your mind on high things, but associate with the humble. Do not be wise in your own opinion.

Who Gets Even? If your iPod was stolen from your locker at the gym, you would immediately inform the authorities of the theft. The right move after that could be kind of challenging for you—even if you think you might know who took it, you have to stop yourself from trying to get even. Jesus says in Matthew 5:39, "But I tell you not to resist an evil person. But whoever slaps you on your right cheek, turn the other to him also." And Paul says in this passage, "Beloved, do not avenge yourselves, but rather give place to wrath; for it is written, 'Vengeance is Mine, I will repay,' says the Lord. . . . 'Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good'" (Rom. 12:19–21).

The desire to get even is normal. Not following through on that desire is the test of your character. Many times Jesus teaches us to do the opposite of what the world would do. In this instance, the godly thing to do is to commit this act to the Lord, trusting that one day He will set all things in order. Don't act like your enemies, but defeat them with the strength of your character. Replace their evil with your good. (See also: Matt. 5:38–40; Luke 6:27–31; Heb. 10:32–34.)

Words to Live By

Wrath: The Greek word orge (or-gay') is translated as "wrath" in Romans 12:19. This word can mean "anger" or "indignation." This anger can lead us to try to punish those who have angered us. Anger is a natural emotion; sometimes it's the appropriate emotion in a certain situation. The point is how we handle our anger. We can choose to let our anger take us over, which can result in bitterness and the pursuit of revenge or punishment. Or we can choose to control our anger instead of letting it control us. This results in a healthier, godly, more joy-filled life.

ENEMIES

How should we respond to those who treat us badly?

Romans 12:14

[17]Repay no one evil for evil. Have regard for good things in the sight of all men. [18]If it is possible, as much as depends on you, live peaceably with all men. [19]Beloved, do not avenge yourselves, but rather give place to wrath; for it is written, "Vengeance is Mine, I will repay,"[a] says the Lord. [20]Therefore

"If your enemy is hungry, feed him;
If he is thirsty, give him a drink;
For in so doing you will heap coals of fire on his head."[a] [21]Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

AUTHORITY

From whom do those in authority receive their right to rule?

Romans 13:1, 2

SUBMIT TO GOVERNMENT

13 Let every soul be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and the authorities that exist are appointed by God. [2]Therefore whoever resists the authority resists the ordinance of God, and those who resist will bring judgment on themselves. [3]For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to evil. Do you want to be unafraid of the authority? Do what is good, and you will have praise

WORLD APP

Government / Romans 13:1–7

Imagine a world with no rules or limits on behaviors, and no authority to maintain order. That might not sound so bad until you really start to think about what it would mean. If there are no laws, what is there to protect you from crime? With no rules, people could lie, steal, hurt, or even kill other people with nothing to hold them back or discourage them, and with no repercussions for their evil actions. It would be a fearful, dangerous world. Fortunately, even though our world can be dangerous, we do have a government that is there to enforce our laws and promote the well-being of each citizen. God has ordained governments on this earth, and we are called to respect their authority (Rom. 13:1–7).

Earthly governments are not always perfect. Even in a democracy such as ours, there will always be disagreements and discussions about the best ways to rule and govern. We may not always agree with every decision our leaders make, but we are still called to respect their position and obey the laws they set before us. Romans 13:2 tells us that if we resist the authority that exists, we are actually resisting the "ordinance of God."

The only overriding factor to this obedience is if the government commands you to do something that expressly goes against the teachings in the Word of God. God's Word takes the number one spot of obedience in our lives. As Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego respectfully refused to follow a governmental command that required them to worship something other than God (Dan. 3), we can respectfully refuse to follow a command that contradicts Scripture.

You are a citizen of this country, but first and foremost you are a citizen of the kingdom of heaven. In that sense, this earth is your temporary home. Peter refers to us as "sojourners" and "pilgrims" (1 Pet. 2:11); travelers passing through this territory of earth. Our ultimate allegiance is to God and His Word. But while we're here, we do have the responsibility to respect the authorities that are in place.

WORLD APP

Drugs / Romans 13:13

What comes to mind when you think of drugs and alcohol? Not exactly a pretty picture, right? Of all the accident-related fatalities in the United States every day, nearly 40 percent of them involve drunk drivers. Nearly half of all high school seniors have tried some type of illegal drug. Those are some frightening statistics!

Simple reason will tell you a lifestyle of abusing drugs and alcohol is a very poor excuse for living. Alcohol and drug abuse can destroy families, end careers, cause permanent physical damage to users, and, far too often, lead to death. These are all things you've heard before. But have you really listened? Or do you think those consequences only apply to others, not to you?

Even though you may know well what parents and other adults in your life have to say about drugs and alcohol, you may not realize how strongly God is against them. In Romans 13:13, drunkenness (the state of being intoxicated by a substance) is called "revelry." That word actually means "wild partying" or "crazy, out-of-control behavior." In Galatians 5:20, 21, drunkenness is included in the same list of sins as murder, hatred, and sorcery. It also goes on to say, "Those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God."

Although you may think your behavior won't change and your life won't be damaged if you just experiment with drugs or alcohol, that's not really something you can know for sure. Some people are easily addicted to substances or lifestyles and there's simply no way to know whether you are one of those whose lives will end up controlled by an intoxicating substance.

On that note, the reason drugs and alcohol are called "intoxicating" is because they are toxic—they introduce a poison into your system and the feeling of being "high" is actually your brain's reaction to the poison. Gee, that sounds like fun, right?

from the same. 4For he is God's minister to you for good. But if you do evil, be afraid; for he does not bear the sword in vain; for he is God's minister, an avenger to execute wrath on him who practices evil. 5Therefore you must be subject, not only because of wrath but also for conscience' sake. 6For because of this you also pay taxes, for they are God's ministers attending continually to this very thing. 7Render therefore to all their due: taxes to whom taxes are due, customs to whom customs, fear to whom fear, honor to whom honor.

LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR

8Owe no one anything except to love one another, for he who loves another has fulfilled the law. 9For the commandments, "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You shall not bear false witness,"[a] "You shall not covet,"[b] and if there is any other commandment, are all summed up in this saying, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."[c] 10Love does no harm to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfillment of the law.

DRINKING
Is getting drunk appropriate for a Christian?
Romans 13:11–14

PUT ON CHRIST

11And do this, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep; for now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed. 12The night is far spent, the day is at hand. Therefore let us cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light. 13Let us walk properly, as in the day, not in revelry and drunkenness, not in lewdness and lust, not in strife and envy. 14But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to fulfill its lusts.

THE LAW OF LIBERTY

14 Receive one who is weak in the faith, but not to disputes over doubtful things. 2For one believes he may eat all things, but he who is weak eats only vegetables. 3Let not him who eats despise him who does not eat, and let not him who does not eat judge him who eats; for God has received him. 4Who are you to judge another's servant? To his own master he stands or falls. Indeed, he will be made to stand, for God is able to make him stand.

5One person esteems one day above another; another esteems every day alike. Let each be fully convinced in his own mind. 6He who observes the day, observes it to the Lord;[a] and he who does not observe the day, to the Lord he does not observe it. He who eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives God thanks; and he who does not eat, to the Lord he does not eat, and gives God thanks. 7For none of us lives to himself, and no one dies to himself. 8For if we live, we live to the Lord; and if we die, we die to the Lord. Therefore, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's. 9For to this end Christ died and rose[a] and lived again, that He might be Lord of both the dead and the living. 10But why do you judge your brother? Or why do you show contempt for your brother? For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.[a] 11For it is written:

> "As I live, says the LORD,
> Every knee shall bow to Me,
> And every tongue shall confess to God."[a]

12So then each of us shall give account of himself to God. 13Therefore let us not judge one another anymore, but rather resolve this, not to put a stumbling block or a cause to fall in our brother's way.

THE LAW OF LOVE

14I know and am convinced by the Lord Jesus that there is nothing unclean of itself; but to him who considers anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. 15Yet if your brother is grieved because of your food, you are no longer walking in love. Do not

MAKING IT REAL // ROMANS 15:5

The God of Patience and Comfort Galatians 5:22, 23 lists the fruit or qualities of God's Spirit: love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Do you ever look at that list and think, No way! Or maybe you think, Well, three out of nine isn't too bad. Trying to measure up to this list can be kind of intimidating, not to mention exhausting.

But Paul gives you some good news here: "May the God of patience and comfort grant you to be like-minded toward one another." You're not on your own. God is patient and can comfort you as He helps you live the way He wants you to live and treat others the way He wants you to treat them. He will see you through.

The key to seeing God work in your life is to commit yourself to being open to the changes He wants to make in your heart. Prove your commitment by seriously studying God's Word and putting it into practice. Pray and meditate on Bible verses, especially verses that are relevant to areas in which you're weak. The God of patience and comfort will honor your efforts as He works in and through your life. (See also: Gal. 5:22, 23; Col. 1:9–12; 2 Thess. 3:5.)

Words to Live By

Patience: The word translated as "patience" in Romans 15:5 is the Greek word hupomone (hoop-om-on-ay'). It carries the idea of endurance or constancy. God knows that you're not perfect, and He has the patience it takes to help you become more like Him. He is constant. He won't decide that you've messed up one too many times and suddenly give up on you. He will endure as He helps you become the amazing person He has designed you to be.

destroy with your food the one for whom Christ died. 16Therefore do not let your good be spoken of as evil; 17for the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. 18For he who serves Christ in these things[a] is acceptable to God and approved by men.

19Therefore let us pursue the things which make for peace and the things by which one may edify another. 20Do not destroy the work of God for the sake of food. All things indeed are pure, but it is evil for the man who eats with offense. 21*It is* good neither to eat meat nor drink wine nor do anything by which your brother stumbles or is offended or is made weak.[a] 22Do you have faith?[a] Have it to yourself before God. Happy is he who does not condemn himself in what he approves. 23But he who doubts is condemned if he eats, because he does not eat from faith; for whatever is not from faith is sin.[a]

BEARING OTHERS' BURDENS

15 We then who are strong ought to bear with the scruples of the weak, and not to please ourselves. 2Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, leading to edification. 3For even Christ did not please Himself; but as it is written, "The reproaches of those who reproached You fell on Me."[a] 4For whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that we through the patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. 5Now may the God of patience and comfort grant you to be like-minded toward one another, according to Christ Jesus, 6that you may with one mind and one mouth

Hope / Romans 15:13

How many times have you heard the words, "This is hopeless"? How many times have you said them yourself? Hopeless is a word that is used far too often; people, especially Christians, would use it far less if we really understood what it means.

Romans 15:13 tells us that God is the "God of hope." This means that wherever God is, hope follows. If you find yourself in a position in life that you consider hopeless, you should take another look at the circumstances. You may just find you have left God totally out of the situation.

A really good definition of hope is "the anticipation of a God event on your behalf." It is looking forward to watching God bring about a positive change in your circumstances. More than just wishing, hope is the certainty that God will work on your behalf. Before you can do that, you have to trust Him. Before you can trust Him, you have to know Him. And you come to know Him by spending time with Him—reading His Word and talking to Him.

If we don't really know God, it's far too easy to allow ourselves to feel hopeless or begin to think a situation is impossible. If we haven't really spent time with Him or learned what the Bible tells us about Him, we easily fall for the lie that God is just not there for us. Instead of watching with expectant eyes for what God is going to do, we allow bad circumstances to rob all the joy from our lives.

When you find yourself going through hard times and it seems there is no answer to be found, remember that you serve a God of hope. The Bible says God will bring beauty from ashes and replace sorrow with joy (Is. 61:3). You can be sure whenever something looks hopeless to your eyes, it's just an opportunity for God to prove His love for you. Trust Him; He has a plan. Just watch and see what He will do.

glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

GLORIFY GOD TOGETHER

7Therefore receive one another, just as Christ also received us,[a] to the glory of God. 8Now I say that Jesus Christ has become a servant to the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made to the fathers, 9and that the Gentiles might glorify God for His mercy, as it is written:

"For this reason I will confess to You among the Gentiles,
And sing to Your name."[a]

10And again he says:

"Rejoice, O Gentiles, with His people!"[a]

11And again:

"Praise the LORD, all you Gentiles!
Laud Him, all you peoples!"[a] 12And again, Isaiah says:

"There shall be a root of Jesse;
And He who shall rise to reign over the Gentiles,
In Him the Gentiles shall hope."[a]

13Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

FROM JERUSALEM TO ILLYRICUM

14Now I myself am confident concerning you, my brethren, that you also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.[a] 15Nevertheless, brethren, I have written more boldly to you on some points, as reminding you, because of the grace given to me by God, 16that I might be a minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering of the Gentiles might be acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit. 17Therefore I have reason to glory in Christ Jesus in the things which pertain to God. 18For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ has not accomplished through me, in word and deed, to make the Gentiles obedient— 19in mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God, so that from Jerusalem and round about to Illyricum I have fully preached the gospel of Christ. 20And so I have made it my aim to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build on another man's foundation, 21but as it is written:

"To whom He was not announced, they shall see;
And those who have not heard shall understand."[a]

PLAN TO VISIT ROME

22For this reason I also have been much hindered from coming to you. 23But now no longer having a place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come to you, 24whenever I journey to Spain, I shall come to you.[a] For I hope to see you on my journey, and to be helped on my way there by you, if first I may enjoy your company for a while. 25But now I am going to Jerusalem to minister to the saints. 26For it pleased those from Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the saints who are in Jerusalem. 27It pleased them indeed, and they are their debtors. For if the Gentiles have been partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister to them in material things. 28Therefore, when I have performed this and have sealed to them this fruit, I shall go by way of you to Spain. 29But I know that when I come to you, I shall come in the fullness of the blessing of the gospel[a] of Christ.

30Now I beg you, brethren, through the Lord Jesus Christ, and through the love of the Spirit, that you strive together with me in prayers to God for me, 31that I may be delivered from those in Judea who do not believe, and that my service for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints, 32that I may come to you with joy by the will of God, and may be refreshed together with you. 33Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

SISTER PHOEBE COMMENDED

16 I commend to you Phoebe our sister, who is a servant of the church in Cenchrea, [2]that you may receive her in the Lord in a manner worthy of the saints, and assist her in whatever business she has need of you; for indeed she has been a helper of many and of myself also.

Romans 16:3

Priscilla and Aquila were originally from Rome. When the Emperor Claudius decided he wanted all of the Jews out of Rome, the couple moved to Corinth, a city in Greece, and worked with Paul there. Before they eventually moved back to Rome, they also helped Paul in Ephesus, a city across the Aegean Sea from Corinth.

GREETING ROMAN SAINTS

[3]Greet Priscilla and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus, [4]who risked their own necks for my life, to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles. [5]Likewise greet the church that is in their house.

Greet my beloved Epaenetus, who is the firstfruits of Achaia[a] to Christ. [6]Greet Mary, who labored much for us. [7]Greet Andronicus and Junia, my countrymen and my fellow prisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me.

[8]Greet Amplias, my beloved in the Lord. [9]Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Christ, and Stachys, my beloved. [10]Greet Apelles, approved in Christ. Greet those who are of the household of Aristobulus. [11]Greet Herodion, my countryman.[a] Greet those who are of the household of Narcissus who are in the Lord.

[12]Greet Tryphena and Tryphosa, who have labored in the Lord. Greet the beloved Persis, who labored much in the Lord. [13]Greet Rufus, chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine. [14]Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren who are with them. [15]Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them.

[16]Greet one another with a holy kiss. The[a] churches of Christ greet you.

AVOID DIVISIVE PERSONS

[17]Now I urge you, brethren, note those who cause divisions and offenses, contrary to the doctrine which you learned, and avoid them. [18]For those who are such do not serve our Lord Jesus[a] Christ, but their own belly, and by smooth words and flattering speech deceive the hearts of the simple. [19]For your obedience has become known to all. Therefore I am glad on your behalf; but I want you to be wise in what is good, and simple concerning evil. [20]And the God of peace will crush Satan under your feet shortly.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

GREETINGS FROM PAUL'S FRIENDS

[21]Timothy, my fellow worker, and Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, my countrymen, greet you.

[22]I, Tertius, who wrote this epistle, greet you in the Lord.

[23]Gaius, my host and the host of the whole church, greets you. Erastus, the treasurer of the city, greets you, and Quartus, a brother. [24]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.[a]

BENEDICTION

[25]Now to Him who is able to establish you according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery kept secret since the world began [26]but now made manifest, and by the prophetic Scriptures made known to all nations, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, for obedience to the faith— [27]to God, alone wise, be glory through Jesus Christ forever. Amen.[a]

KEY VERSE:

For you were bought at a price; therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's (1 Corinthians 6:20).

THEN /// Paul helped start the church in Corinth. He loved the people there, and he believed in them. But when he got a letter from one of the church members telling him that everyone was picking on and fighting with each other, he got a little ticked. In fact, when he wrote them the letter we call 1 Corinthians, he said he was writing with tears in his eyes. He was disappointed, and he was angry.

But you have to give the Corinthians some credit. They could have read this letter and ignored Paul's advice. After all, he wasn't even there to check up on them, and who was the tattletale anyway?

That's not what they did, though. Instead, they took Paul's words to heart. They changed from nit-picking church members to generous partners in ministry.

NOW /// Corinth was one of the wickedest and wildest cities of its day. Idol worship, prostitution, drunkenness, violence—it was all there. If you wanted to do something morally wrong, Corinth was certainly the place to go.

There are parts of our own world today that seem a lot like Corinth must have been—places where people just don't care what God says or whether they follow His commands. And many of us face some of the same challenges the Corinthians faced. How are we supposed to stay true to God's commands in a place where no one even pretends to care what He has to say? How can we be faithful to God when the world seems to think some sins are not even wrong?

Paul's first letter to the Corinthians taught them a great deal about how to live in ways that please God in a world that had turned away from Him. And reading it can help us learn how to live lives of faith in our world today.

REALITY CHECK /// One of the things Paul wrote about to the Corinthians was their gifts—the special abilities given to them by God. He told them that the church is like a body. Everybody has their own job to do. When everyone does their job the body works well. The feet carry it places. The mouth talks on the phone. The arms reach out to give a hug. Paul tells the Corinthians to find their roles and then to be happy in those roles instead of wishing they were doing something else.

Paul's words teach us about the church today. We each have a gift to use at church and throughout our lives. When we all work together our gifts make us into a complete community, working together to build the kingdom of God. When everyone is operating with the gifts they've been given, we become a powerful force in the world—the body of Christ.

GREETING

1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother,

2 To the church of God which is at Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all who in every place call on the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours:

3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

SPIRITUAL GIFTS AT CORINTH

4 I thank my God always concerning you for the grace of God which was given to you by Christ Jesus, 5 that you were enriched in everything by Him in all utterance and all knowledge, 6 even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you, 7 so that you come short in no gift, eagerly waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ, 8 who will also confirm you to the end, that you may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 God is faithful, by whom you were called into the fellowship of His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

SECTARIANISM IS SIN

10 Now I plead with you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you

MAKING IT REAL // 1 CORINTHIANS 1:9

Partners Paul says that God chose you to be in fellowship with Jesus. In a way, that makes you Jesus' partner. Being His partner is an honor you don't deserve, but neither does anyone else. But God, because of His kindness and love, chose you for the job even though you aren't qualified for it.

What does it mean to be Jesus' partner? Partners work together toward a common goal. Think about what that goal might be for you and Jesus. Don't just think about your own life—Jesus isn't your genie-in-a-bottle helping you get the things you want. Instead, think about other people. Ask yourself, what does Jesus want to do in my sister's life or my dad's life? What does He want to do for my friends? Ask Jesus those questions, too, and ask Him what you can do to make those things happen. He'll answer you. It's an awesome privilege to be chosen as Jesus' partner, to work with Him to change the lives of people you care about—and maybe even some people you haven't even met yet. Make up your mind to be the kind of partner Jesus can be proud of. (See also: Rom. 8:16, 17; Eph. 2:4–6; Col. 3:1.)

Words to Live By

Faithful: The Greek word pistos (pis-tos') is translated as "faithful" in 1 Corinthians 1:9. This word carries the idea of being trustworthy, sure, or true. Whenever you feel like you're not up to the task of being Jesus' partner or doing what God has called you to do, just remember that you can trust God to give you what you need to do. He is the One who called you. You can be sure He is always there, and you can trust He will never leave you on your own.

all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. 11For it has been declared to me concerning you, my brethren, by those of Chloe's household, that there are contentions among you. 12Now I say this, that each of you says, "I am of Paul," or "I am of Apollos," or "I am of Cephas," or "I am of Christ." 13Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul?

1 Corinthians 1:12

Apollos was an important leader in the early Christian church. A former follower of John the Baptist, Apollos was a gifted public speaker and an expert on Old Testament writings. He lived in Alexandria, Egypt.

14I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, 15lest anyone should say that I had baptized in my own name. 16Yes, I also baptized the household of Stephanas. Besides, I do not know whether I baptized any other. 17For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel, not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of no effect.

CHRIST THE POWER AND WISDOM OF GOD

18For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. 19For it is written:

> "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,
> And bring to nothing the > understanding of the prudent."[a] 20Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the disputer of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of Politics / 1 Corinthians 1:12

In 1 Corinthians 1:12, Paul is talking to a group of people who have chosen sides. They are saying either "I'm for Paul" or "I'm for Apollos." That sounds a lot like the things you might hear before an election—people choose sides, decide which candidate they will vote for, and try to convince everyone else to vote the same way.

The political scene in the United States can be a study in bad sportsmanship. One candidate insults another and most everyone is seemingly willing to do anything to win, even cheat. In 1 John 2:16, three things are listed that cause that kind of behavior: "The lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life." Those who are not listening closely to God's direction can end up totally taken over by the quest for power, the rich lifestyle, and the elevated status that come to those who hold a political office. Those are the very people who should never be placed in positions of power.

Throughout the Bible, leaders are given very strong direction from the Lord. He expects them to be godly people who turn to Him for guidance. He holds them accountable for their decisions and the effect their leadership has on others. They will one day answer to Him for all they have done in their positions as leaders.

You may have thought about entering the political world one day. Consider your decision carefully. Ask the Lord if that is the direction He wants for your life. If He leads you in that way, go for it! Our country is in desperate need of leaders who will turn to God and follow where He leads.

this world? 21For since, in the wisdom of God, the world through wisdom did not know God, it pleased God through the foolishness of the message preached to save those who believe. 22For Jews request a sign, and Greeks seek after wisdom; 23but we preach Christ crucified, to the Jews a stumbling block and to the Greeks[a] foolishness, 24but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. 25Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

GLORY ONLY IN THE LORD

26For you see your calling, brethren, that not many wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called. 27But God has chosen the foolish things of the world to put to shame the wise, and God has chosen the weak things of the world to put to shame the things which are mighty; 28and the base things of the world and the things which are despised God has chosen, and the things which are not, to bring to nothing the things that are, 29that no flesh should glory in His presence. 30But of Him you are in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God—and righteousness and sanctification and redemption— 31that, as it is written, "He who glories, let him glory in the LORD."[a]

WISDOM
How is God's wisdom different from human wisdom?
1 Corinthians 2:1–16

CHRIST CRUCIFIED

2 And I, brethren, when I came to you, did not come with excellence of speech or of wisdom declaring to you the testimony[a] of God. 2For I determined not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ and Him crucified. 3I was with you in weakness, in fear, and in much trembling. 4And my speech and my preaching were not with persuasive words of human[a] wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, 5that your faith should not be in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.

SPIRITUAL WISDOM

6However, we speak wisdom among those who are mature, yet not the wisdom of this age, nor of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing. 7But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, the hidden wisdom which God ordained before the ages for our glory, 8which none of the rulers of this age knew; for had they known, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

9But as it is written:

> "Eye has not seen, nor ear heard,
> Nor have entered into the heart of man
> The things which God has prepared for > those who love Him."[a]

10But God has revealed them to us through His Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God. 11For what man knows the things of a man except the spirit of the man which is in him? Even so no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God. 12Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might know the things that have been freely given to us by God.

13These things we also speak, not in words which man's wisdom teaches but which the Holy[a] Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual. 14But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; nor can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. 15But he who is spiritual judges all things, yet he himself is rightly judged by no one. 16For "who has known the mind of the LORD that he may instruct Him?"[a] But we have the mind of Christ.

SECTARIANISM IS CARNAL

3 And I, brethren, could not speak to you as to spiritual people but as to carnal, as to babes in Christ. 2I fed you with milk and not with solid food; for

MAKING IT REAL // 1 CORINTHIANS 3:1–3

Immature Christians Little kids argue and fight over just about anything. They don't fight because they're mean; they are just immature—just babies. They think the world revolves around them and consider their own happiness before anything else. We can't hold it against them because they just don't know any better yet.

Some little kids grow up, become Christians, lay down their toys, and find other things to fight about. On the outside they look like adults, but on the inside they're still immature babies who believe their ideas count more than others' ideas and their pleasure matters most. In 1 Corinthians 3:1–3, Paul says immature Christians act just like the rest of the world. You can hardly blame the world when they act selfish, because without God, they've only got themselves. But Christians should know better.

Self-centered Christians who argue with others and think too much of themselves are still babies in their faith. They don't understand the teachings of Christ or they would act differently. Being a Christian is about more than just getting to heaven; it's about what happens in your heart when Jesus comes to live there. Your attitudes and actions should begin to be transformed so when the world looks at you, they will see Jesus. When the world looks at an immature Christian, they see only a reflection of themselves—they see the same inconsiderate, selfish behavior. Being a mature Christian means looking more like Jesus and less like the world. (See also: Rom. 12:2; Gal. 5:16–18; Heb. 5:12, 13.)

Words to Live By

Carnal: The word translated as "carnal" in 1 Corinthians 3:1–3 is the Greek word sarkikos (sar-kee-kos'). To be carnal is to be ruled by the corrupt desires that result from a sinful nature. Rather than being ruled by God's Spirit, someone who is carnal is ruled by their own sinful desires.

until now you were not able to receive it, and even now you are still not able; 3for you are still carnal. For where there are envy, strife, and divisions among you, are you not carnal and behaving like mere men?
4For when one says, "I am of Paul," and another, "I am of Apollos," are you not carnal?

WATERING, WORKING, WARNING

5Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers through whom you believed, as the Lord gave to each one? 6I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase. 7So then neither he who plants is anything, nor he who waters, but God who gives the increase. 8Now he who plants and he who waters are one, and each one will receive his own reward according to his own labor.
9For we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, you are God's building.
10According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise master builder I have laid the foundation, and another builds on it. But let each one take heed how he builds on it. 11For no other foundation can anyone lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. 12Now if anyone builds on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, 13each one's work will become clear; for the Day will declare it, because it will be revealed by fire; and the fire will test each one's work, of what sort it is. 14If anyone's work which he has built on it endures, he will receive a reward.
15If anyone's work is burned, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, yet so as through fire.

16Do you not know that you are the temple of God and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? 17If anyone defiles the temple of God, God will destroy him. For the temple of God is holy, which temple you are.

AVOID WORLDLY WISDOM

18Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you seems to be wise in this age,

let him become a fool that he may become wise. 19For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, "He catches the wise in their own craftiness";[a] 20and again, "The LORD knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are futile."[a] 21Therefore let no one boast in men. For all things are yours: 22whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas, or the world or life or death, or things present or things to come—all are yours. 23And you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

STEWARDS OF THE MYSTERIES OF GOD

4 Let a man so consider us, as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. 2Moreover it is required in stewards that one be found faithful. 3But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by a human court.[a] In fact, I do not even judge myself. 4For I know of nothing against myself, yet I am not justified by this; but He who judges me is the Lord. 5Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the counsels of the hearts. Then each one's praise will come from God.

FOOLS FOR CHRIST'S SAKE

6Now these things, brethren, I have figuratively transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes, that you may learn in us not to think beyond what is written, that none of you may be puffed up on behalf of one against the other. 7For who makes you differ from another? And what do you have that you did not receive? Now if you did indeed receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it?

8You are already full! You are already rich! You have reigned as kings without us—and indeed I could wish you did reign, that we also might reign with you! 9For I think that God has displayed us, the apostles, last, as men condemned to death; for we have been made a spectacle to the world, both to angels and to men. 10We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ! We are weak, but you are strong! You are distinguished, but we are dishonored! 11To the present hour we both hunger and thirst, and we are poorly clothed, and beaten, and homeless. 12And we labor, working with our own hands. Being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we endure; 13being defamed, we entreat. We have been made as the filth of the world, the offscouring of all things until now.

PAUL'S PATERNAL CARE

14I do not write these things to shame you, but as my beloved children I warn you. 15For though you might have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet you do not have many fathers; for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel. 16Therefore I urge you, imitate me. 17For this reason I have sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved and faithful son in the Lord, who will remind you of my ways in Christ, as I teach everywhere in every church.

18Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you. 19But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord wills, and I will know, not the word of those who are puffed up, but the power. 20For the kingdom of God is not in word but in power. 21What do you want? Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

IMMORALITY DEFILES THE CHURCH

5 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and such sexual immorality as is not even named[a] among the Gentiles—that a man has his father's wife! 2And you are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he who has done this deed might be taken away from among you. 3For I indeed, as absent in body but present in spirit, have already judged (as though I were present) him who has so done this deed. 4In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when you are gathered together, along with my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, 5deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.[a]

6Your glorying is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump? 7Therefore purge out the old leaven, that you may be a new lump, since you truly are unleavened. For indeed Christ, our Passover, was sacrificed for us.[a] [8]Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

IMMORALITY MUST BE JUDGED

[9]I wrote to you in my epistle not to keep company with sexually immoral people. [10]Yet I certainly did not mean with the sexually immoral people of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out of the world. [11]But now I have written to you not to keep company with anyone named a brother, who is sexually immoral, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner—not even to eat with such a person.

[12]For what have I to do with judging those also who are outside? Do you not judge those who are inside? [13]But those who are outside God judges. Therefore "put away from yourselves the evil person."[a]

DO NOT SUE THE BRETHREN

6 Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unrighteous, and not before the saints? [2]Do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world will be judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters? [3]Do you not know that we shall judge angels? How much more, things that pertain to this life? [4]If then you have judgments concerning things pertaining to this life, do you appoint those who are least esteemed by the church to judge? [5]I say this to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you, not even one, who will be able to judge between his brethren? [6]But brother goes to law against brother, and that before unbelievers!

ANGELS
Who will judge the angels?
1 Corinthians 6:3

[7]Now therefore, it is already an utter failure for you that you go to law against one another. Why do you not rather accept wrong? Why do you not rather let yourselves be cheated? [8]No, you yourselves do wrong and cheat, and you do these things to your brethren! [9]Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived. Neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor homosexuals,[a] nor sodomites, [10]nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners will inherit the kingdom of God. [11]And such were some of you. But you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus and by the Spirit of our God.

GLORIFY GOD IN BODY AND SPIRIT

[12]All things are lawful for me, but all things are not helpful. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any. [13]Foods for the stomach and the stomach for foods, but God will destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for sexual immorality but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. [14]And God both raised up the Lord and will also raise us up by His power.

SEX
Why is sex outside marriage wrong?
1 Corinthians 6:13–20

[15]Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and make them members of a harlot? Certainly not! [16]Or do you not know that he who is joined to a harlot is one body with her? For "the two," He says, "shall become one flesh."[a] [17]But he who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with Him.

[18]Flee sexual immorality. Every sin that a man does is outside the body, but he who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body. [19]Or do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and you

MIR MAKING IT REAL // 1 CORINTHIANS 6:19

You Are God's Temple In the Old Testament, the temple was the place where God's presence lived. Today, it is the place where He is worshiped. God says that your body is a temple for Him. Think about what you do to your body. If you could see God dwelling inside you, would you treat your body the same? When you make choices that harm your body, not only are you tearing down the place God lives, you're making a mockery of His home and His creation. Would you go to an actual temple and mess it all up? Of course not! And it should be just as wrong in your eyes to trash your own temple by doing drugs or having premarital sex.

The God who loves you deserves only the best for His temple. He wants to glorify Himself in you. Drugs are stupid—they destroy lives and often cause death. Sex before marriage steals something precious from your future. And it can cause real problems for you today if you get an STD or end up with a pregnancy to cope with. You already know those things. But did you know Satan uses sex and drugs to destroy as many temples as possible? His whole purpose is to kill, steal, and destroy (John 10:10). Don't let him ruin your life. Don't do drugs. Keep yourself pure for your future spouse. Practice self-control and keep your temple whole and holy. Ask God to help you live a pure and holy life, and commit to being a good temple for Him. (See also: Rom. 6:12; 1 Cor. 3:16; 2 Cor. 6:16, 17.)

Words to Live By

Temple: The word translated as "temple" in 1 Corinthians 6:19 is the Greek word naos (nah-os'). It means "a place of worship." In the Old Testament, we read about the temple of God. During those times, the presence of God actually lived within the temple. Today, God does not live in churches, He lives in us. In John 17, we read Jesus' last prayer before He was crucified. In it He says, "The love with which You (God) loved Me (Jesus) may be in them, and I in them" (v. 26). Jesus Himself lives within those who belong to Him.

are not your own? 20For you were bought at a price; therefore glorify God in your body[a] and in your spirit, which are God's.

PRINCIPLES OF MARRIAGE

7 Now concerning the things of which you wrote to me:

It is good for a man not to touch a woman. 2Nevertheless, because of sexual immorality, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband. 3Let the husband render to his wife the affection due her, and likewise also the wife to her husband. 4The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does. And likewise the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does. 5Do not deprive one another except with consent for a time, that you may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again so that Satan does not tempt you because of your lack of self-control. 6But I say this as a concession, not as a commandment. 7For I wish that all men were even as I myself. But each one has his own gift from God, one in this manner and another in that.

8But I say to the unmarried and to the widows: It is good for them if they remain even as I am; 9but if they cannot exercise self-control, let them marry. For it is better to marry than to burn with passion.

KEEP YOUR MARRIAGE VOWS

10Now to the married I command, yet not I but the Lord: A wife is not to depart from her husband. 11But even if she does depart, let her remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband. And a husband is not to divorce his wife.

6:20 [a]NU-Text ends the verse at body.

12But to the rest I, not the Lord, say: If any brother has a wife who does not believe, and she is willing to live with him, let him not divorce her. 13And a woman who has a husband who does not believe, if he is willing to live with her, let her not divorce him. 14For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband; otherwise your children would be unclean, but now they are holy. 15But if the unbe-liever departs, let him depart; a brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases.
But God has called us to peace. 16For how do you know, O wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, O husband, whether you will save your wife?

LIVE AS YOU ARE CALLED

17But as God has distributed to each one,
as the Lord has called each one, so let him walk. And so I ordain in all the churches.
18Was anyone called while circumcised?
Let him not become uncircumcised. Was anyone called while uncircumcised? Let him not be circumcised. 19Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing, but keeping the commandments of God is what matters. 20Let each one remain in the same calling in which he was called.
21Were you called while a slave? Do not be concerned about it; but if you can be made free, rather use it. 22For he who is called in the Lord while a slave is the Lord's freedman. Likewise he who is called while free is Christ's slave. 23You were bought at a price;
do not become slaves of men. 24Brethren, let each one remain with God in that state
in which he was called.

TO THE UNMARRIED AND WIDOWS

25Now concerning virgins: I have no commandment from the Lord; yet I give judgment as one whom the Lord in His mercy has made trustworthy. 26I suppose therefore that this is good because of the present distress—that it is good for a man to remain as he is: 27Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be loosed. Are you loosed from a wife? Do not seek a wife.
28But even if you do marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Nevertheless such will have trouble in the flesh, but I would spare you.

1 Corinthians 7:26

First-century Rome was a dangerous place for Christians. In fact, people throughout the entire Roman Empire turned against Christians. The emperor Claudius kicked all Jews and Christians out of the city of Rome.
Other believers were tortured and killed for their faith in the Lord. Paul knew firsthand about the persecution of Christians. Before he was called to be an apostle of Jesus, Paul was a notorious Christian hunter.

29But this I say, brethren, the time is short, so that from now on even those who have wives should be as though they had none, 30those who weep as though they did not weep, those who rejoice as though they did not rejoice, those who buy as though they did not possess, 31and those who use this world as not misusing it. For the form of this world is passing away.

32But I want you to be without care. He who is unmarried cares for the things of the Lord—how he may please the Lord.
33But he who is married cares about the things of the world—how he may please his wife. 34There is[a] a difference between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman cares about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But she who is married cares about the things of the world—how she may please her husband. 35And this I say for your own profit, not that I may put a leash on you, but for what is proper, and that you may serve the Lord without distraction.

36But if any man thinks he is behaving improperly toward his virgin, if she is past the flower of youth, and thus it must be, let him do what he wishes. He does not sin; let them marry. 37Nevertheless he who stands steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but has power over his own will, and has so determined in his heart that he will keep his virgin,[a] does well. 38So then he who gives her[a] in marriage does well, but he who does not give her in marriage does better.

7:34 [a]M-Text adds also. 7:37 [a]Or virgin daughter 7:38 [a]NU-Text reads his own virgin.

39A wife is bound by law as long as her husband lives; but if her husband dies, she is at liberty to be married to whom she wishes, only in the Lord. 40But she is happier if she remains as she is, according to my judgment—and I think I also have the Spirit of God.

BE SENSITIVE TO CONSCIENCE

8 Now concerning things offered to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love edifies. 2And if anyone thinks that he knows anything, he knows nothing yet as he ought to know. 3But if anyone loves God, this one is known by Him.

4Therefore concerning the eating of things offered to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no other God but one. 5For even if there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth (as there are many gods and many lords), 6yet for us there is one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we for Him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and through whom we live.

7However, there is not in everyone that knowledge; for some, with consciousness of the idol, until now eat it as a thing offered to an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. 8But food does not commend us to God; for neither if we eat are we the better, nor if we do not eat are we the worse.

9But beware lest somehow this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to those who are weak. 10For if anyone sees you who have knowledge eating in an idol's temple, will not the conscience of him who is weak be emboldened to eat those things offered to idols? 11And because of your knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died? 12But when you thus sin against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Christ. 13Therefore, if food makes my brother stumble, I will never again eat meat, lest I make my brother stumble.

A PATTERN OF SELF-DENIAL

9 Am I not an apostle? Am I not free? Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord? 2If I am not an apostle to others, yet doubtless I am to you. For you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

8Do I say these things as a mere man? Or does not the law say the same also? 9For it is written in the law of Moses, "You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain."[a] Is it oxen God is concerned about? 10Or does He say it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written, that he who plows should plow in hope, and he who threshes in hope should be partaker of his hope. 11If we have sown spiritual things for you, is it a great thing if we reap your material things? 12If others are partakers of this right over you, are we not even more?

Nevertheless we have not used this right, but endure all things lest we hinder the gospel of Christ. 13Do you not know that those who minister the holy things eat of the things of the temple, and those who serve at the altar partake of the offerings of the altar? 14Even so the Lord has commanded that those who preach the gospel should live from the gospel.

15But I have used none of these things, nor have I written these things that it should be done so to me; for it would be better for me to die than that anyone should make my boasting void. 16For if I preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast of, for necessity is laid upon me; yes, woe is me if I do not preach the gospel! 17For if I do this willingly, I have a reward; but if against my will, I have been entrusted with a stewardship. 18What is my reward then? That when I preach the gospel, I may present the gospel of Christ[a] without charge, that I may not abuse my authority in the gospel.

SERVING ALL MEN

19For though I am free from all men, I have made myself a servant to all, that I

LIFE APP

Perseverance / 1 Corinthians 9:24

There's an old story about a rabbit and a turtle. They get into a race, and the rabbit is so sure he will win that he doesn't even try. He stops constantly to check out things and talk to people. But the turtle just keeps crawling along. In the end, the turtle wins the race because the rabbit was so sure of himself that he didn't do what he was supposed to do—keep getting closer to the finish line. The turtle was slow, but he had something the rabbit didn't—he had perseverance.

Obviously, life isn't a lot like the race between the turtle and the rabbit. Or is it? Take a look around you. Which people do you see who are like the rabbit—so sure of themselves (or so unconcerned with life) that they just don't try? Which people are like the turtle? Turtles may not be the fastest or the most beautiful, but they keep working their way toward their goals—one step at a time.

It may be tempting to look at the rabbits around you and wish you could be like them. They are fun and cute and full of energy. And the turtles who just keep trying their best may seem boring and dull. But who is really making the most of life? In the end, it's the turtles who get to their goals and win the race.

Paul said that it's important to live our lives (run the race) in a way that will take us to our goal (1 Cor. 9:24). Where faith is concerned, that goal is to become a bit more like Jesus every day. Though Christians can and should set goals for their future careers and achievements, their life goal should be the same. If we become more like Jesus every day, our lives will resemble both the rabbit and the turtle. We will be filled with energy and excitement for life and have the determination and patience to arrive at our most important goal—when others look at us, they will be able to see the abundant life that only Jesus can bring.

MAKING IT REAL // 1 CORINTHIANS 9:24–27

Run the Race In 1 Corinthians 9:24–27, Paul compares life to a race. If life is a race, it is a marathon, not a sprint. A marathon runner prepares his body for the long distance because he knows it will be grueling at times. And just like that well-trained runner, a believer has to be well prepared to live life as God intends.

The "race" began for you the day you were born into God's kingdom. So it's time to get serious about how you run it—how you live your life. Every day of your life counts and, if you are a Christian, every day should be spent doing your best to follow God's commands.

None of us can be sure how long our race (our life) will be. And none of us can know what's ahead. We may face obstacles. We may find ourselves running up hill. So it's important that we listen closely to God. He will let us know exactly what we need to run the best possible race.

Even if you haven't been running very well up until now, you can decide to get up and get moving, pace yourself, and finish well. Or you can blow it off and decide you've got plenty of time to catch up. If you choose to wait until later, you can be assured that you will deeply regret all the days you sat and watched everyone else pass you by. God's got a lot for you right now. Don't live another minute without getting serious about Him.

(See also: Acts 20:24; 2 Tim. 4:7, 8; Heb. 12:1, 2.)

Words to Live By

Subjection: The word translated as "subjection" in 1 Corinthians 9:27 is the Greek word doulagogeo (doo-lag-ague-eh'-o). It means "to take complete control," almost like a warden has complete control of a prisoner. You should never allow your body to tell your mind what to do. That would be like allowing life to live you (give you commands and make your choices), instead of you living life (making the best decisions based on what God wants). Take control and live your life in ways that please God.

might win the more; [20]and to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might win Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the law,[a] that I might win those who are under the law; [21]to those who are without law, as without law (not being without law toward God,[a] but under law toward Christ[b]), that I might win those who are without law; [22]to the weak I became as[a] weak, that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all men, that I might by all means save some. [23]Now this I do for the gospel's sake, that I may be partaker of it with you.

STRIVING FOR A CROWN

[24]Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may obtain it. [25]And everyone who competes for the prize is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a perishable crown, but we for an imperishable crown. [26]Therefore I run thus: not with uncertainty. Thus I fight: not as one who beats the air. [27]But I discipline my body and bring it into subjection, lest,

1 Corinthians 9:24–26

Paul's reference to running and boxing would have had special significance to the people of Corinth. Every two years, their city hosted the Isthmian Games, an ancient predecessor to our Summer Olympics. Fans traveled for miles to watch athletic contests of strength and skill.

9:20 [a]NU-Text adds though not being myself under the law. 9:21 [a]NU-Text reads God's law. [b]NU-Text reads Christ's law. 9:22 [a]NU-Text omits as.

when I have preached to others, I myself should become disqualified.

OLD TESTAMENT EXAMPLES

10 Moreover, brethren, I do not want you to be unaware that all our fathers were under the cloud, all passed through the sea, 2all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, 3all ate the same spiritual food, 4and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them, and that Rock was Christ. 5But with most of them God was not well pleased, for their bodies were scattered in the wilderness.

6Now these things became our examples, to the intent that we should not lust after evil things as they also lusted. 7And do not become idolaters as were some of them. As it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play."[a] 8Nor let us commit sexual immorality, as some of them did, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell; 9nor let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed by serpents; 10nor complain, as some of them also complained, and were destroyed by the destroyer. 11Now all[a] these things happened to them as examples, and they were written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages have come.

12Therefore let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall. 13No temptation has overtaken you except such as is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will also make the way of escape, that you may be able to bear it.

FLEE FROM IDOLATRY

14Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. 15I speak as to wise men; judge for yourselves what I say. 16The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? 17For we, though many, are one bread and one body; for we all partake of that one bread.

18Observe Israel after the flesh: Are not those who eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar? 19What am I saying then? That an idol is anything, or what is offered to idols is anything? 20Rather, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice they sacrifice to demons and not to God, and I do not want you to have fellowship with demons. 21You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons; you cannot partake of the Lord's table and of the table of demons. 22Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than He?

ALL TO THE GLORY OF GOD

23All things are lawful for me,[a] but not all things are helpful; all things are lawful for me,[b] but not all things edify. 24Let no one seek his own, but each one the other's well-being.

25Eat whatever is sold in the meat market, asking no questions for conscience' sake; 26for "the earth is the LORD's, and all its fullness."[a]

27If any of those who do not believe invites you to dinner, and you desire to go, eat whatever is set before you, asking no question for conscience' sake. 28But if anyone says to you, "This was offered to idols," do not eat it for the sake of the one who told you, and for conscience' sake;[a] for "the earth is the LORD's, and all its fullness."[b] 29"Conscience," I say, not your own, but that of the other. For why is my liberty judged by another man's conscience? 30But if I partake with thanks, why am I evil spoken of for the food over which I give thanks?

10:7 [a]Exodus 32:6 10:11 [a]NU-Text omits all. 10:23 [a]NU-Text omits for me. [b]NU-Text omits for me. 10:26 [a]Psalm 24:1 10:28 [a]NU-Text omits the rest of this verse. [b]Psalm 24:1

1 Corinthians 10:16

Not only was Jesus' final meal with His disciples His "last supper" on earth, it was also a ceremony He wanted His followers to repeat on a regular basis. This ceremony, called the Lord's Supper or Communion, involves eating a piece of bread and drinking wine or grape juice. The bread symbolizes Jesus' body, and the wine or juice symbolizes His blood. Jesus wanted His followers to remember His death on the Cross—His sacrifice for them.

PROMISE

God promises not to let you be tempted more than you can handle.

Therefore let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall. No temptation has overtaken you except such as is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will also make the way of escape, that you may be able to bear it (1 Cor. 10:12, 13).

Whenever we're tempted, there is a way out, a way to get away from the urge to do what we know is wrong. Temptations can sometimes get too hard for us to handle on our own, but only because we've passed up a long line of escape routes along the way—places where God was warning us to turn back, to trust Him, to get off the path before temptation turned to regret.

Giving in to temptation is a lot like falling off a cliff. God will always warn you over and over again, far in advance of the forty-foot drop-off. He will continually give you a way to avoid the fall, if you'll listen. But, once you've given in and taken that first step, the only way to go is down. Even if you're standing on the very edge, or hanging on by your fingernails—if you'll call on Him to help you stop trying to fight the battle in your own strength, He'll be right there to put you back on solid ground.

SEE FOR YOURSELF// Matthew 6:13; Hebrews 2:18; 2 Peter 2:9

[31]Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. [32]Give no offense, either to the Jews or to the Greeks or to the church of God, [33]just as I also please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

11 Imitate me, just as I also imitate Christ.

HEAD COVERINGS

[2]Now I praise you, brethren, that you remember me in all things and keep the traditions just as I delivered them to you. [3]But I want you to know that the head of every man is Christ, the head of woman is man, and the head of Christ is God. [4]Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonors his head. [5]But every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head, for that is one and the same as if her head were shaved. [6]For if a woman is not covered, let her also be shorn. But if it is shameful for a woman to be shorn or shaved, let her be covered. [7]For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, since he is the image and glory of God; but woman is the glory of man. [8]For man is not from woman, but woman from man. [9]Nor was man created for the woman, but woman for the man. [10]For this reason the woman ought to have a symbol of authority on her head, because of the angels. [11]Nevertheless, neither is man independent of woman, nor woman independent of man, in the Lord. [12]For as woman came from man, even so man also comes through woman; but all things are from God.

[13]Judge among yourselves. Is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered? [14]Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him? [15]But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her; for her hair is given to her[a] for a covering. [16]But if anyone seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, nor do the churches of God.

CONDUCT AT THE LORD'S SUPPER

[17]Now in giving these instructions I do not praise you, since you come together not for the better but for the worse. [18]For first of all, when you come together as a church, 11:15 [a]M-Text omits to her.

Physical Health / 1 Corinthians 10:31

There seems to be a bit of confusion in our culture. On one hand, we see constant images of people in lifestyles using alcohol, drugs, cigarettes, or other unhealthy things as if that is a picture of life at its best. On the other hand, there is also a huge health craze going on in our society. If we go by many commercials and television shows, we should all eat lots of fiber, no carbs, and exercise for two hours, five days a week. So which is it: a party life without thought for consequences or a super-health-nut life with a strict diet and exercise regimen? Our culture is a little confused, but we don't have to be.

We know that we belong to Christ—we are not our own. Christ lives within us and we live our lives for Him. So our entire lifestyle should revolve around actions, words, and decisions that glorify God and follow His plan for our lives. Everything we do should be based on our relationship with Him. Just as Paul says, "whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God" (1 Cor. 10:31). Paul was teaching specifically about decisions we make that might encourage or discourage other people. But the truth of his words still speaks to us on another level as well.

What you put into your body, what you eat and drink, should be things that are good for the body because your body belongs to Christ (1 Cor. 6:19, 20). The way you exercise should be based on taking good care of your body to glorify God, not on an obsession to look a certain way at any cost. See your physical health as part of your entire lifestyle; as another way to honor God with everything you have, everything you are, and everything you do.

I hear that there are divisions among you, and in part I believe it. 19For there must also be factions among you, that those who are approved may be recognized among you. 20Therefore when you come together in one place, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper. 21For in eating, each one takes his own supper ahead of others; and one is hungry and another is drunk. 22What! Do you not have houses to eat and drink in? Or do you despise the church of God and shame those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you in this? I do not praise you.

INSTITUTION OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

23For I received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you: that the Lord Jesus on the same night in which He was betrayed took bread; 24and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "Take, eat;[a] this is My body which is broken[b] for you; do this in remembrance of Me." 25In the same manner He also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me."

26For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death till He comes.

EXAMINE YOURSELF

27Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks this cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and blood[a] of the Lord. 28But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup. 29For he who eats and drinks in an unworthy manner[a] eats and drinks judgment to himself, not discerning the Lord's[b] body. 30For this reason many are weak and sick among you, and many sleep. 31For if we would judge ourselves, we would not be judged. 32But when we are judged, we are chastened by the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world.

33Therefore, my brethren, when you come together to eat, wait for one another. 34But if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, lest you come together for judgment. And the rest I will set in order when I come.

SPIRITUAL GIFTS: UNITY IN DIVERSITY

12 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I do not want you to be ignorant: 2You know that[a] you were Gentiles, carried away to these dumb idols, however you were led. 3Therefore I make known to you that no one speaking by the Spirit of God calls Jesus accursed, and no one can say that Jesus is Lord except by the Holy Spirit.

4There are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. 5There are differences of ministries, but the same Lord. 6And there are diversities of activities, but it is the same God who works all in all. 7But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to each one for the profit of all: 8for to one is given the word of wisdom through the Spirit, to another the word of knowledge through the same Spirit, 9to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healings by the same[a] Spirit, 10to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another discerning of spirits, to another different kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. 11But one and the same Spirit works all these things, distributing to each one individually as He wills.

TALENTS

Why should we never envy the abilities of another?

1 Corinthians 12:12–27

UNITY AND DIVERSITY IN ONE BODY

12For as the body is one and has many members, but all the members of that one body, being many, are one body, so also is Christ. 13For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free—and have all been made to drink into[a] one Spirit. 14For in fact the body is not one member but many.

MIR MAKING IT REAL // 1 CORINTHIANS 13:4–7

What Is Love? Dating sites on the Internet; movies about romance; articles in nearly all the magazines; tweets and posts and nearly everyone you know—it seems everywhere you turn, someone is talking about love. We all dream we'll find it and we spend countless hours wondering about that one special person who will make all our dreams come true.

The stories about love we see portrayed in movies can be misleading. They can make us think love is some kind of warm, fuzzy feeling that just hits us out of the blue. But real love—the kind that lasts forever—is not a feeling. Does that surprise you?

Real, lasting, forever-after love doesn't just zap you, it comes from you. It's not a feeling, because feelings change constantly and most people have no real control over them. Real love is a decision—a conscious choice to act lovingly toward another person.

Read through the description of love in 1 Corinthians 13:4–7 and ask yourself if any of the aspects of love can be lived out without a decision on your part. Then choose to act lovingly toward everyone in your life. One day, your dream partner will appear and you will have learned how to love them with the kind of love that can last forever. (See also: Eph. 5:2; Col. 3:8–14; 1 John 3:16–23; 4:7–11.)

Words to Live By

Love: The word translated as "love" in 1 Corinthians 13:4 is the Greek word agape (ag-ah'-pay). Agape is the kind of love God has for His people. It is a love that is not changed by circumstance and is not ruled by feelings. It is a decision to act toward others in ways that help them and build them up. When we give others agape love, it has nothing to do with how we feel and everything to do with choosing to obey God.

15 If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I am not of the body," is it therefore not of the body? 16 And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I am not of the body," is it therefore not of the body? 17 If the whole body were an eye, where would be the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where would be the smelling? 18 But now God has set the members, each one of them, in the body just as He pleased. 19 And if they were all one member, where would the body be?

20 But now indeed there are many members, yet one body. 21 And the eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you";
nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." 22 No, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary. 23 And those mem- bers of the body which we think to be less honorable, on these we bestow greater honor; and our unpresentable parts have greater modesty, 24 but our presentable parts have no need. But God composed the body, having given greater honor to that part which lacks it, 25 that there should be no schism in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another. 26 And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; or if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now you are the body of Christ, and members individually. 28 And God has appointed these in the church: first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, administrations, varieties of tongues. 29 Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all workers of miracles? 30 Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret? 31 But earnestly desire the best[a] gifts. And yet I show you a more excellent way.

12:31 [a]NU-Text reads greater.

THE GREATEST GIFT

13 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal.
2And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. 3And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned,[a] but have not love, it profits me nothing.

LOVE
What does real love look like?
1 Corinthians 13:4–8

4Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up; 5does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil; 6does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth; 7bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

8Love never fails. But whether there are prophecies, they will fail; whether there are tongues, they will cease; whether there is knowledge, it will vanish away. 9For we know in part and we prophesy in part. 10But when that which is perfect has come, then that which is in part will be done away.

11When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things. 12For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known.

13And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

PROPHECY AND TONGUES

14 Pursue love, and desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy. 2For he who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God, for no one understands him; however, in the spirit he speaks mysteries. 3But he who prophesies speaks edification and exhortation and comfort to men. 4He who speaks in a tongue edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the church. 5I wish you all spoke with tongues, but even more that you prophesied; for[a] he who prophesies is greater than he who speaks with tongues, unless indeed he interprets, that the church may receive edification.

TONGUES MUST BE INTERPRETED

6But now, brethren, if I come to you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you unless I speak to you either by revelation, by knowledge, by prophesying, or by teaching? 7Even things without life, whether flute or harp, when they make a sound, unless they make a distinction in the sounds, how will it be known what is piped or played? 8For if the trumpet makes an uncertain sound, who will prepare for battle? 9So likewise you, unless you utter by the tongue words easy to understand, how will it be known what is spoken? For you will be speaking into the air. 10There are, it may be, so many kinds of languages in the world, and none of them is without significance. 11Therefore, if I do not know the meaning of the language, I shall be a foreigner to him who speaks, and he who speaks will be a foreigner to me. 12Even so you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, let it be for the edification of the church that you seek to excel.

13Therefore let him who speaks in a tongue pray that he may interpret. 14For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful. 15What is the conclusion then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will also pray with the understanding. I will sing with the spirit, and I will also sing with the understanding. 16Otherwise, if you bless with the spirit, how will he who occupies the place of the uninformed say "Amen" at your giving of thanks, since he does not understand what you say? 17For you indeed give thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18I thank my God I speak with tongues more than you all; 19yet in the church I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I may teach others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

13:3 [a]NU-Text reads so I may boast.
14:5 [a]NU-Text reads and.

LIFE APP

Texting / 1 Corinthians 13:5

An epidemic addiction has hit our world—it seems nearly everyone you see has a little electronic gadget glued to their hand. Conversation has been replaced by one-line messages typed in a strange, abbreviated language. Wherever a group of people gathers, the sounds of little beeps, buzzes, and chimes fill the air as messages race through space at lightning speed.

Texting has become the most common way for some people to communicate. Cell phones are rarely used to place phone calls; it seems they are often just texting gadgets that happen to have phone call capability.

Parents and other adults may place limitations on where and when you can text. It may even seem to you they get carried away. After all, you're just sending quick messages, right?

What you may not realize is the effect texting has on the people around you. Think of it this way: if you were trying to talk to a teacher and she kept turning away from you to talk to someone else, you'd probably begin to think she really didn't want to talk with you. If you tried to discuss something with your parents and they constantly ignored you while they talked to each other, you'd probably get a bit fed up pretty quickly. That type of behavior is just plain rude—it would send you the message that you just aren't important enough to deserve their complete attention. When you allow texting to continually interrupt a conversation or discussion with others, you tell the ones around you that they are not as important to you as the words that have popped up on your screen.

Allowing a stream of texts to be more important than the people you're with is seriously rude. Take a look at Jesus' life. When He spent time with people, they always had His undivided attention. We are called to follow Jesus' example in the way we live our lives. We are to always treat others with love and respect. A simple rule to follow when you're spending time with other people: talk, don't text.

TONGUES A SIGN TO UNBELIEVERS

20Brethren, do not be children in understanding; however, in malice be babes, but in understanding be mature.

21In the law it is written:

"With men of other tongues and other lips
I will speak to this people;
And yet, for all that, they will not hear Me,"[a]

says the Lord.

22Therefore tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe but to unbelievers; but prophesying is not for unbelievers but for those who believe. 23Therefore if the whole church comes together in one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those who are uninformed or unbelievers, will they not say that you are out of your mind? 24But if all prophesy, and an unbeliever or an uninformed person comes in, he is convinced by all, he is convicted by all. 25And thus[a] the secrets of his heart are revealed; and so, falling down on his face, he will worship God and report that God is truly among you.

ORDER IN CHURCH MEETINGS

26How is it then, brethren? Whenever you come together, each of you has a psalm, has a teaching, has a tongue, has a revelation, has an interpretation. Let all things be done for edification. 27If anyone speaks in a tongue, let there be two or at the most three, each in turn, and let one interpret. 28But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in church, and let him speak to himself and to God. 29Let two or three prophets speak, and let the others judge. 30But if anything is revealed to another who sits by, let the first keep silent. 31For you can all prophesy one by one, that all may learn and all may be encouraged. 32And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets. 33For God is not the author of confusion but of peace, as in all the churches of the saints.

34Let your[a] women keep silent in the churches, for they are not permitted to speak; but they are to be submissive, as the law also says. 35And if they want to learn something, let them ask their own husbands at home; for it is shameful for women to speak in church.

36Or did the word of God come originally from you? Or was it you only that it reached? 37If anyone thinks himself to be a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things which I write to you are the commandments of the Lord. 38But if anyone is ignorant, let him be ignorant.[a] 39Therefore, brethren, desire earnestly to prophesy, and do not forbid to speak with tongues. 40Let all things be done decently and in order.

THE RISEN CHRIST, FAITH'S REALITY

15 Moreover, brethren, I declare to you the gospel which I preached to you, which also you received and in which you stand, 2by which also you are saved, if you hold fast that word which I preached to you—unless you believed in vain.

3For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, 4and that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day according to the Scriptures, 5and that He was seen by Cephas, then by the twelve. 6After that He was seen by over five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain to the present, but some have fallen asleep. 7After that He was seen by James, then by all the apostles. 8Then last of all He was seen by me also, as by one born out of due time.

9For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. 10But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me was not in vain; but I labored more abundantly than they all, yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 11Therefore, whether it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

THE RISEN CHRIST, OUR HOPE

12Now if Christ is preached that He has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection

MAKING IT REAL // 1 CORINTHIANS 15:47–49

The Gift of Life After He created the world, God took a handful of dirt and made a man—the human race was born. That's a very humble beginning for people who often think so highly of themselves. Have you felt jealous of anyone lately? Do you think you deserve more than you have? Are you mad at God because your family doesn't have some of the comforts other families do? Maybe it's time to remember where you came from—dust. Yep, you (and all the people you're jealous of) are just a pile of dust that God decided to give life and love.

Your life is a gift. It's a blessing just to be on earth and to be able to enjoy life. But God made you for a reason. He wants to make something special of your life. Your body, mind, and personality are specially crafted by God for His purpose. God wants you to use the time you've got on earth and the gifts you've been given to glorify Him. Your reward comes later. Hebrews 11:6 tells us that God "is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him." So stop whining about the things you don't have, get yourself up, and get going. You have a lot to do between now and the time you get to heaven. God has great things in store for you! (See also: Gen. 2:7; 3:19; Ps. 103:14.)

Words to Live By

Image: The word translated as "image" in 1 Corinthians 15:49 is the Greek word eikon (i-kone'). To understand it's meaning, think of the word icon. We know an icon on a computer program can be clicked to enable a desired action. It's almost like the icon is the same thing as the action; it represents a specific thing. In much the same way, we are to have the "image" of Christ. People should know exactly what we stand for and who we represent.

of the dead? 13But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ is not risen. 14And if Christ is not risen, then our preaching is empty and your faith is also empty. 15Yes, and we are found false witnesses of God, because we have testified of God that He raised up Christ, whom He did not raise up—if in fact the dead do not rise. 16For if the dead do not rise, then Christ is not risen. 17And if Christ is not risen, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins! 18Then also those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. 19If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men the most pitiable.

THE LAST ENEMY DESTROYED

20But now Christ is risen from the dead, and has become the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. 21For since by man came death, by Man also came the resurrection of the dead. 22For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ all shall be made alive. 23But each one in his own order:

RESURRECTION

What is a Christian's greatest hope?

1 Corinthians 15:12–21

Christ the firstfruits, afterward those who are Christ's at His coming. 24Then comes the end, when He delivers the kingdom to God the Father, when He puts an end to all rule and all authority and power. 25For
He must reign till He has put all enemies under His feet. 26The last enemy that will be destroyed is death. 27For "He has put all things under His feet."[a] But when He says "all things are put under Him," it is evident that He who put all things under Him is excepted. 28Now when all things are made subject to Him, then the Son Himself will also be subject to Him who put all things under Him, that God may be all in all.

15:27 [a]Psalm 8:6

EFFECTS OF DENYING THE RESURRECTION

29Otherwise, what will they do who are baptized for the dead, if the dead do not rise at all? Why then are they baptized for the dead? 30And why do we stand in jeopardy every hour? 31I affirm, by the boasting in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. 32If, in the manner of men, I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantage is it to me? If the dead do not rise, "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!"[a] 33Do not be deceived: "Evil company corrupts good habits." 34Awake to righteousness, and do not sin; for some do not have the knowledge of God. I speak this to your shame.

A GLORIOUS BODY

35But someone will say, "How are the dead raised up? And with what body do they come?" 36Foolish one, what you sow is not made alive unless it dies. 37And what you sow, you do not sow that body that shall be, but mere grain—perhaps wheat or some other grain. 38But God gives it a body as He pleases, and to each seed its own body.

39All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one kind of flesh[a] of men, another flesh of animals, another of fish, and another of birds.

40*There are* also celestial bodies and terrestrial bodies; but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. 41*There is* one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory.

42So also is the resurrection of the dead.
The body is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption. 43It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power. 44It is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.
45And so it is written, "The first man Adam became a living being."[a] The last Adam became a life-giving spirit.

46However, the spiritual is not first, but the natural, and afterward the spiritual.
47The first man was of the earth, made of dust; the second Man is the Lord[a] from heaven. 48As was the man of dust, so also are those who are made of dust; and as is the heavenly Man, so also are those who are heavenly. 49And as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we shall also bear[a] the image of the heavenly Man.

OUR FINAL VICTORY

50Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God;
nor does corruption inherit incorruption.
51Behold, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed— 52in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible,
and we shall be changed. 53For this cor-ruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. 54So when this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: "Death is swallowed up in victory."[a]

55 "O Death, where is your sting?[a] O Hades, where is your victory?"[b]

56The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law. 57But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

1 Corinthians 16:1

Galatia was a Roman province located in what is now Turkey. Paul was familiar with the area because he and Barnabas started several churches in that region, in cities such as: Iconium, Lystra, Derbe, and Pisidian Antioch.

COLLECTION FOR THE SAINTS

16 Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given orders to the churches of Galatia, so you must do also: 2On the first day of 15:32 [a]Isaiah 22:13 15:39 [a]NU-Text and M-Text omit of flesh. 15:45 [a]Genesis 2:7

15:47 [a]NU-Text omits the Lord. 15:49 [a]M-Text reads let us also bear. 15:54 [a]Isaiah 25:8
15:55 [a]Hosea 13:14 [b]NU-Text reads O Death, where is your victory? O Death, where is your sting?

the week let each one of you lay something aside, storing up as he may prosper, that there be no collections when I come. 3And when I come, whomever you approve by your letters I will send to bear your gift to Jerusalem. 4But if it is fitting that I go also, they will go with me.

PERSONAL PLANS

5Now I will come to you when I pass through Macedonia (for I am passing through Macedonia). 6And it may be that I will remain, or even spend the winter with you, that you may send me on my journey, wherever I go. 7For I do not wish to see you now on the way; but I hope to stay a while with you, if the Lord permits.

8But I will tarry in Ephesus until Pentecost. 9For a great and effective door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries.

10And if Timothy comes, see that he may be with you without fear; for he does the work of the Lord, as I also do. 11Therefore let no one despise him. But send him on his journey in peace, that he may come to me; for I am waiting for him with the brethren.

12Now concerning our brother Apollos, I strongly urged him to come to you with the brethren, but he was quite unwilling to come at this time; however, he will come when he has a convenient time.

FINAL EXHORTATIONS

13Watch, stand fast in the faith, be brave, be strong. 14Let all that you do be done with love.

15I urge you, brethren—you know the household of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have devoted themselves to the ministry of the saints—16that you also submit to such, and to everyone who works and labors with us.

17I am glad about the coming of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus, for what was lacking on your part they supplied. 18For they refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore acknowledge such men.

GREETINGS AND A SOLEMN FAREWELL

19The churches of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priscilla greet you heartily in the Lord, with the church that is in their house. 20All the brethren greet you.

Greet one another with a holy kiss.

21The salutation with my own hand—Paul's.

22If anyone does not love the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be accursed.[a] O Lord, come![b]

23The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. 24My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

KEY VERSE:

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new (2 Corinthians 5:17).

THEN /// You can't really understand how amazing 2 Corinthians is without knowing why Paul wrote 1 Corinthians. When Paul wrote his first letter to the church in Corinth, he was telling them off a little bit. He was setting them straight. He was letting them have it.

It's difficult enough to do the right thing. It's even harder when you get defensive and hardheaded. That is exactly how the Corinthian church could have responded to Paul's correction—but they didn't. In fact, by the time Paul wrote them the letter that we know as 2 Corinthians he was bragging about how giving and generous they were. He was complimenting them. He was commending them.

As bad as it feels sometimes to be confronted about stuff we do wrong, we are better people if we'll stop and listen. Second Corinthians reminds us of that.

NOW /// Have you ever heard someone say, "That's my thorn in the flesh"? If you have, you are hearing a reference to Paul's letters to the Corinthians. We don't know what Paul's "thorn in the flesh" was, but we know from these letters that there was something about Paul that he wanted to change. This thing provided a constant challenge for him. It made his life harder, and he thought it made him less effective for Christ.

While we don't know exactly what the thorn was that Paul was talking about, we all know what it is to wish we could change something about ourselves. It's okay to ask God to change that thing. Paul asked God more than once to remove his thorn. But he also didn't let it hold him back from doing what God wanted.

REALITY CHECK /// We have a lot to learn from the Corinthians about hearing the truth and responding to it. It's so easy to want to be right, whether we really are right or not. It's often a matter of pride. When someone tells us something that shows us we are wrong, we want to defend ourselves at all costs.

It's often at church or when we read the Bible that God confronts us about the sin in our lives. When He does, we have to make the choice that the Corinthians had to make with Paul. We can get mad and defensive, or we can listen and let God make us into better people. It's not worth trying to be right instead of just being humble and letting God make us right.

GREETING

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

To the church of God which is at Corinth,
with all the saints who are in all Achaia:

2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

COMFORT IN SUFFERING

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, 4 who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. 5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also abounds through Christ.
6 Now if we are afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effective for enduring the same sufferings which we also suffer. Or if we are comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation. 7 And our hope for you is steadfast, because we know that as you are partakers of the sufferings, so also you will partake of the consolation.

COMFORT

What is God's response when we are hurting?

2 Corinthians 1:3–5

PROMISE

God promises to comfort you.

Blessed be the God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God (2 Cor. 1:3, 4).

Trouble can come in all sizes. There's the kind you get yourself into, like staying out too late or tossing water balloons at passing cars. There's the kind that other people cause for you, like when someone lies about you. And there's also the kind that just sort of hits you out of the blue, like when your best friend gets hurt in a car wreck or your grandmother dies on an operating table.

But God's comfort comes in sizes to match every problem. It fits every hole left behind by someone you love. It soothes every wound opened by the daggers of jealousy and anger. It covers every sin with the hope that Christ's blood can forgive completely—and His discipline can keep you from ever visiting this awful place of despair again.

God's comfort—so real, so refreshing—can appear in a Bible verse, a loving arm around your shoulder, a friend to cry with you, or in the peace that comes when you turn to God in prayer. Comfort is always available to you. All you have to do is watch and listen expectantly, knowing that whenever you need Him, God will reach out to you with His unending mercy and His limitless love.

SEE FOR YOURSELF// Psalm 23; Isaiah 49:13; 2 Thessalonians 2:16, 17

DELIVERED FROM SUFFERING

[8]For we do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, of our trouble which came to us in Asia: that we were burdened beyond measure, above strength, so that we despaired even of life. [9]Yes, we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves but in God who raises the dead, [10]who delivered us from so great a death, and does[a] deliver us; in whom we trust that He will still deliver us, [11]you also helping together in prayer for us, that thanks may be given by many persons on our[a] behalf for the gift granted to us through many.

PAUL'S SINCERITY

[12]For our boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience that we conducted ourselves in the world in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom but by the grace of God, and more abundantly toward you. [13]For we are not writing any other things to you than what you read or understand. Now I trust you will understand, even to the end [14](as also you have understood us in part), that we are your boast as you also are ours, in the day of the Lord Jesus.

SPARING THE CHURCH

[15]And in this confidence I intended to come to you before, that you might have a second benefit— [16]to pass by way of you to Macedonia, to come again from Macedonia to you, and be helped by you on my way to Judea. [17]Therefore, when I was planning this, did I do it lightly? Or the things I plan, do I plan according to the flesh, that with me there should be Yes, Yes, and No, No? [18]But as God is faithful, our word to you was not Yes and No. [19]For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us—by me, Silvanus, and Timothy—was not Yes and No, but in Him was Yes. [20]For all the promises of God in Him are Yes, and in Him Amen, to the glory of God through us. [21]Now He who establishes us with you in Christ and has anointed us is God, [22]who also has

Fragrance of Faith When you do what God wants instead of acting like all the people around you, Paul says that you are, figuratively speaking, a perfume. For some people that perfume smells wonderful. These people are inspired by your relationship with Jesus. If they haven't met Him, they see the peace you have, the way it really makes you happy to follow Him, and they want what you have. If they do know Jesus, your example encourages them to keep getting closer to Him.

Unfortunately, there are others who think your life really stinks. The fact that you do things they wouldn't do—refuse to drink or do drugs, treat everyone well, obey the rules—that bugs them a lot. They can make things pretty unpleasant for you, but they're hurting themselves more than they hurt you and they don't even realize it. By giving you a hard time, they're pushing away Jesus—and knowing Him is the whole reason they were born!

So keep being perfume—a sweet smell that everyone around you can experience. That's what you're called to do. You just never know when someone who considers your life strange may start to appreciate the fragrance of your faith. Instead of hassling you, they may just join you! (See also: Matt. 5:13, 14; 28:19, 20.)

Words to Live By

Saved: The word translated as "saved" in 2 Corinthians 2:15 is the Greek word sozo (sode'-zo). It means "deliver, protect, preserve, and make whole." Through His life, death, and resurrection, Jesus has delivered us from the power of sin. He protects us as His own, He preserves our lives for eternity, and He promises to make us whole and complete—lacking nothing. Because of Jesus, we are saved from all the penalties of sin.

sealed us and given us the Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee.

23Moreover I call God as witness against my soul, that to spare you I came no more to Corinth. 24Not that we have dominion over your faith, but are fellow workers for your joy; for by faith you stand.

2 But I determined this within myself, that I would not come again to you in sorrow. 2For if I make you sorrowful, then who is he who makes me glad but the one who is made sorrowful by me?

FORGIVE THE OFFENDER

3And I wrote this very thing to you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow over those from whom I ought to have joy, having confidence in you all that my joy is the joy of you all. 4For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you, with many tears, not that you should be grieved, but that you might know the love which I have so abundantly for you.

5But if anyone has caused grief, he has not grieved me, but all of you to some extent—not to be too severe. 6This punishment which was inflicted by the majority is sufficient for such a man, 7so that, on the contrary, you ought rather to forgive and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one be swallowed up with too much sorrow. 8Therefore I urge you to reaffirm your love to him. 9For to this end I also wrote, that I might put you to the test, whether you are obedient in all things. 10Now whom you forgive anything, I also forgive. For if indeed I have forgiven anything, I have forgiven that one[a] for your sakes in the presence of Christ, 11lest Satan should take advantage of us; for we are not ignorant of his devices.

TRIUMPH IN CHRIST

12Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened to me by the Lord, 13I had no rest

2:10 [a]NU-Text reads For indeed, what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, I did it.

LIFE APP

Internet / 2 Corinthians 3:18

If you are reading this, you most likely can't imagine a world without the Internet. You probably rarely, if ever, go to a library. You most likely have never done a research paper without surfing the Net to find the info you need.

Any information you could possibly want is available as quickly as you can feed a search into your browser. It's immediately available—it pops up for you in an instant.

Instant. The word in and of itself isn't particularly good or bad. It just means something that happens without delay or any particular effort. In this world, we are used to pushing a button, flicking a remote, or clicking an icon to get the results we want. When pushing, flicking, or clicking doesn't work instantaneously, we get frustrated by the delay.

But living in a world where "instant" describes so much of life can be very damaging to your life of faith. It can create a mind-set that considers any delay in getting what you want as being wrong—it means something's not working as it should. But life in God's kingdom is not an instant life. A life of faith requires patience and effort.

When we are born into God's kingdom, He begins teaching us and changing us into what we were meant to be. Becoming what God has in mind for us is not something that will happen quickly, certainly not instantly. And it's not something that requires no effort on our part. God will never force us to change. He will give us all we need, but He will always leave the choice up to us. According to the Bible, we are being changed "from glory to glory" (2 Cor. 3:18). Bit-by-bit, God is changing us to look more and more like Jesus. It is a process that will continue throughout your entire life. Just remember, anything worth having is worth waiting for.

in my spirit, because I did not find Titus my brother; but taking my leave of them, I departed for Macedonia.

14Now thanks be to God who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and through us diffuses the fragrance of His knowledge in every place. 15For we are to God the fragrance of Christ among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing. 16To the one we are the aroma of death leading to death, and to the other the aroma of life leading to life. And who is sufficient for these things? 17For we are not, as so many,[a] peddling the word of God; but as of sincerity, but as from God, we speak in the sight of God in Christ.

CHRIST'S EPISTLE

3 Do we begin again to commend ourselves? Or do we need, as some others, epistles of commendation to you or letters of commendation from you? 2You are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read by all men; 3clearly you are an epistle of Christ, ministered by us, written not with ink but by the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of flesh, that is, of the heart.

THE SPIRIT, NOT THE LETTER

4And we have such trust through Christ toward God. 5Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think of anything as being from ourselves, but our sufficiency is from God, 6who also made us sufficient as ministers of the new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit;[a] for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

GLORY OF THE NEW COVENANT

7But if the ministry of death, written and engraved on stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not look steadily at the face of Moses because of the glory of his countenance, which glory was passing away, 8how will the ministry of the Spirit not be more glorious? 9For if the ministry of condemnation had glory, the ministry of righteousness exceeds much more in glory. 10For even what was made glorious had no glory in this respect, because of the glory that excels. 11For if what is passing away was glorious, what remains is much more glorious.

12Therefore, since we have such hope, we use great boldness of speech— 13unlike Moses, who put a veil over his face so that the children of Israel could not look steadily at the end of what was passing away. 14But their minds were blinded. For until this day the same veil remains unlifted in the reading of the Old Testament, because the veil is taken away in Christ. 15But even to this day, when Moses is read, a veil lies on their heart. 16Nevertheless when one turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. 17Now the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. 18But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord.

THE LIGHT OF CHRIST'S GOSPEL

4 Therefore, since we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we do not lose heart. 2But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness nor handling the word of God deceitfully, but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 3But even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing, 4whose minds the god of this age has blinded, who

How much do you know about ancient pottery? Maybe it's time you learned a thing or two. "Earthen vessels" is another name for clay jars that were used to hold oil and grain. Before the clay could be shaped by a potter, stones and other large objects had to be removed from it. After the clay was shaped, the potter had two options for drying it: let the sun do it or stick it in a kiln. A sun-dried jar could hold grain, but it would collapse if it were filled with liquid. A jar heated in a kiln—at temperatures above 900 degrees Fahrenheit—became hard and strong and could be used to store oil and other liquids.

Treasure Although 2 Corinthians 4:7 is actually speaking of the treasure of knowing God through Jesus, it can also teach us something about ourselves.

Another "treasure" that is within you is the special qualities God has given you. You are filled with unique talents and abilities. It doesn't matter if your teachers don't see your abilities, it doesn't even matter what your family or friends think. Before you were ever born God chose you and formed you and placed His gifts and treasures inside you!

You are special in God's eyes and He is going to use the treasure He placed inside you. He has great plans for you; He wants to bless you with a future filled with hope—a future of success, not suffering! (Check out Jeremiah 29:11.) Remember, you are already filled with God's treasure and with His power! They go beyond your own ability and strength. They come from God. God wants you to realize all He's given you; He wants to see you grow into the amazing person He created you to be. (See also: Ps. 139:13–16; Jer. 1:5; Eph. 2:10.)

Words to Live By

Power: The word translated "power" in 2 Corinthians 4:7 is the Greek word dunamis (doo'-nam-is). It means "energy, might, great force, great ability, and strength." To understand what kind of power dunanmis is, think of the word dynamite.

do not believe, lest the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine on them. 5For we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and ourselves your bondservants for Jesus' sake. 6For it is the God who commanded light to shine out of darkness, who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

CAST DOWN BUT UNCONQUERED

7But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellence of the power may be of God and not of us. 8*We are* hard-pressed on every side, yet not crushed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; 9persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed— 10always carrying about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our body. 11For we who live are always delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh. 12So then death is working in us, but life in you.

13And since we have the same spirit of faith, according to what is written, "I believed and therefore I spoke,"[a] we also believe and therefore speak, 14knowing that He who raised up the Lord Jesus will also raise us up with Jesus, and will present us with you. 15For all things are for your sakes, that grace, having spread through the many, may cause thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God.

SEEING THE INVISIBLE

16Therefore we do not lose heart. Even though our outward man is perishing, yet the inward man is being renewed day by day. 17For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory, 18while we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporary, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

WORRY
Why should we refuse to worry?
2 Corinthians 4:8–12

4:13 [a]Psalm 116:10

ASSURANCE OF THE RESURRECTION

5 For we know that if our earthly house, this tent, is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. [2]For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed with our habitation which is from heaven, [3]if indeed, having been clothed, we shall not be found naked. [4]For we who are in this tent groan, being burdened, not because we want to be unclothed, but further clothed, that mortality may be swallowed up by life. [5]Now He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who also has given us the Spirit as a guarantee.

DEATH
Should a Christian be afraid of death?
2 Corinthians 5:6–8

[6]So we are always confident, knowing that while we are at home in the body we are absent from the Lord. [7]For we walk by faith, not by sight. [8]We are confident, yes, well pleased rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord.

JUDGMENT
Will Christians be judged for their actions?
2 Corinthians 5:10

THE JUDGMENT SEAT OF CHRIST

[9]Therefore we make it our aim, whether present or absent, to be well pleasing to Him. [10]For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad. [11]Knowing, therefore, the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are well known to God, and I also trust are well known in your consciences.

BE RECONCILED TO GOD

[12]For we do not commend ourselves again to you, but give you opportunity to boast on our behalf, that you may have an answer for those who boast in appearance and not in heart. [13]For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; or if we are of sound mind, it is for you. [14]For the love of Christ compels us, because we judge thus: that if One died for all, then all died; [15]and He died for all, that those who live should live no longer for themselves, but for Him who died for them and rose again.

[16]Therefore, from now on, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we have known Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know Him thus no longer. [17]Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new. [18]Now all things are of God, who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation, [19]that is, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not imputing their trespasses to them, and has committed to us the word of reconciliation.

[20]Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were pleading through us: we implore you on Christ's behalf, be reconciled to God. [21]For He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.

WITNESSING
What has God entrusted us with?
2 Corinthians 5:18–21

MARKS OF THE MINISTRY

6 We then, as workers together with Him also plead with you not to receive the grace of God in vain. [2]For He says:

> "In an acceptable time I have heard you,
> And in the day of salvation I have helped you."[a]

Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.

[3]We give no offense in anything, that

MAKING IT REAL // 2 CORINTHIANS 5:17

New Life The Bible talks a lot about God's power. There are lots of stories about how He wiped out armies, cured diseases, and brought dead people back to life. Here, Paul is talking about one of God's most spectacular miracles. It's an invisible thing, but it's very real. When you accept salvation through Jesus, He makes you a totally new creation—a new being that never before existed. What happens is this: Your spirit—the real you—comes to life in a new way. Your mind is enabled to understand truth and your body becomes a temple—the place where God lives.

And other miracles happen when you're born again. When you ask God to forgive you for your sin and accept Jesus as your Savior, God totally forgets every sin you've ever committed. As if that weren't enough, God also frees you from the chains of hurt and pain caused by bad experiences in your past. When you give your life to the Lord, you don't have to define yourself by your past; instead, you can define yourself by what God says about you—you are "fearfully and wonderfully made" (Ps. 139:14). (See also: Ezek. 36:26; Eph. 4:20–24.)

Words to Live By

New Creation: The words translated in 2 Corinthians 5:17 as "new creation" are the Greek words kainos (kahee-nos'), meaning "totally new and different," and ktisis (ktis'-is), meaning "the act of creation." When you put these two words together, the meaning you get is more than just being renewed. When Paul says we are a "new creation," he means the ones who belong to the Lord have been transformed into a new type of being, and that transformation continues until it is completed. When we are born again, we are made new by an ongoing act of God.

our ministry may not be blamed. 4But in all things we commend ourselves as ministers of God: in much patience, in tribulations, in needs, in distresses, 5in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in sleeplessness, in fastings; 6by purity, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by sincere love, 7by the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, 8by honor and dishonor, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true; 9as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold we live; as chastened, and yet not killed; 10as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

BE HOLY

11O Corinthians! We have spoken openly to you, our heart is wide open. 12You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted by your own affections. 13Now in return for the same (I speak as to children), you also be open.

14Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers. For what fellowship has righteousness with lawlessness? And what communion has light with darkness? 15And what accord has Christ with Belial? Or what part has a believer with an unbeliever? 16And what agreement has the temple of God with idols? For you[a] are the temple of the living God. As God has said:

"I will dwell in them
And walk among them.
I will be their God,
And they shall be My people."[b]

17Therefore

"Come out from among them
And be separate, says the Lord.

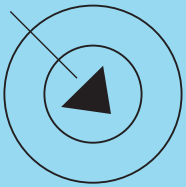
LIFE APP

Dating / 2 Corinthians 6:14



There are some words in the Bible that can be difficult to understand because we don't use them much anymore. One of those words is yoked.

When farmers used animals to plow fields it usually required the strength of more than one animal to pull the heavy plow through the dry, hard dirt. So that the animals worked together and didn't try to go off in different directions, the farmer would fashion a wooden bar that fit around the necks of both animals. The yoke or harness would keep the animals working in unison—in the same direction, at the same speed, each pulling their share of the load.

When Paul told the people in Corinth that they should "not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers" (2 Cor. 6:14), he most likely had that farmer's harness in mind; but he was talking about forming close relationships with people who don't share our faith.

As Christians, we obey God and try to live our lives as He directs. Unbelievers live their lives based on what the world considers important instead of living to please God. The things they value and their beliefs about the world aren't based on the truth of God's Word, so the life directions they choose aren't ruled by the Lord. When a believer and an unbeliever are in a close relationship, it's like they are joined together but each one is trying to go in a different direction. When that happens, neither one can really get anywhere in life; they spend all their time struggling against each other.

But when two believers are "yoked" together, they are stronger and able to accomplish so much more than they could on their own. Because both are following where the Lord leads, they can help each other through the hard times and encourage each other to always do as the Lord directs. Being "yoked" to a believer makes life easier and following the Lord more fun.

PROMISE

God promises to comfort people in need.

Nevertheless God, who comforts the downcast, comforted us by the coming of Titus (2 Cor. 7:6).

Paul is extremely honest. He wasn't always standing on a spiritual mountaintop, and he doesn't mind admitting it. He spends time in 2 Corinthians talking about his suffering, worry, tears, and broken heart. He doesn't try to pretend that just because he loves Jesus, nothing hard ever happens. He admits to his struggles and hardships. He talks about the troubles he's faced. He is real and vulnerable.

Somehow over time, Christians have lost sight of Paul's example. We've replaced honesty with pretending. Too many Christians pretend that their lives are happy while they suffer in total silence. They won't admit to their own needs and weaknesses, yet they wonder why God doesn't do something to help them.

God can bring comfort, peace, and hope to those who are depressed, hurting, or discouraged. Do you need God to comfort you? Then talk to Him. Be honest with Him. Then talk with fellow believers who are close to you. Be brave enough to say, "I love God, but life is tough right now." Whether the Holy Spirit comforts us directly, or speaks to us through others, or uses the Word of God, He will bring comfort to people in need.

SEE FOR YOURSELF// Psalms 23:4; 119:50; 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4

Do not touch what is unclean,
And I will receive you."[a]

2 Corinthians 6:17

Paul was not talking about getting physically dirty in this verse. "Unclean" refers to anything that would make a person unfit to worship or have fellowship with God.

18 "I will be a Father to you,
And you shall be My sons and daughters,
Says the LORD Almighty."[a]

7 Therefore, having these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

THE CORINTHIANS' REPENTANCE

2 Open your hearts to us. We have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have cheated no one. 3 I do not say this to condemn; for I have said before that you are in our hearts, to die together and to live together. 4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my boasting on your behalf. I am filled with comfort. I am exceedingly joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For indeed, when we came to Macedonia, our bodies had no rest, but we were troubled on every side. Outside were conflicts, inside were fears. 6 Nevertheless God, who comforts the downcast, comforted us by the coming of Titus, 7 and not only by his coming, but also by the consolation with which he was comforted in you, when he told us of your earnest desire, your mourning, your zeal for me, so that I rejoiced even more.

8 For even if I made you sorry with my letter, I do not regret it; though I did regret it. For I perceive that the same epistle made you sorry, though only for a while. 9 Now I rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that your sorrow led to repentance. For you were made sorry in a godly manner, that you might suffer loss from us in nothing. 10 For godly sorrow produces repentance leading to salvation, not to be regretted; but the sorrow of the world produces death.

6:17 [a] Isaiah 52:11; Ezekiel 20:34, 41
6:18 [a] 2 Samuel 7:14

11For observe this very thing, that you sorrowed in a godly manner: What diligence it produced in you, what clearing of yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what vehement desire, what zeal, what vindication! In all things you proved yourselves to be clear in this matter. 12Therefore, although I wrote to you, I did not do it for the sake of him who had done the wrong, nor for the sake of him who suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear to you.

THE JOY OF TITUS

13Therefore we have been comforted in your comfort. And we rejoiced exceedingly more for the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all. 14For if in anything I have boasted to him about you, I am not ashamed. But as we spoke all things to you in truth, even so our boasting to Titus was found true. 15And his affections are greater for you as he remembers the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling you received him. 16Therefore I rejoice that I have confidence in you in everything.

EXCEL IN GIVING

8 Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia: 2that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded in the riches of their liberality. 3For I bear witness that according to their ability, yes, and beyond their ability, they were freely willing, 4imploring us with much urgency that we would receive[a] the gift and the fellowship of the ministering to the saints. 5And not only as we had hoped, but they first gave themselves to the Lord, and then to us by the will of God. 6So we urged Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also complete this grace in you as well. 7But as you abound in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all diligence, and in your love for us—see that you abound in this grace also.

CHRIST OUR PATTERN

8I speak not by commandment, but I am testing the sincerity of your love by the diligence of others. 9For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that you through His poverty might become rich.

> 2 Corinthians 8:10, 11
> The Christians in Jerusalem were experiencing some tough times. They had endured two earthquakes and a severe famine. Christian churches in other cities offered to give their own money to help their brothers and sisters in Christ. Paul and Barnabas were collecting the money and taking it to Jerusalem.

10And in this I give advice: It is to your advantage not only to be doing what you began and were desiring to do a year ago; 11but now you also must complete the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to desire it, so there also may be a completion out of what you have. 12For if there is first a willing mind, it is accepted according to what one has, and not according to what he does not have.

13For I do not mean that others should be eased and you burdened; 14but by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may supply their lack, that their abundance also may supply your lack—that there may be equality. 15As it is written, "He who gathered much had nothing left over, and he who gathered little had no lack."[a]

COLLECTION FOR THE JUDEAN SAINTS

16But thanks be to God who puts[a] the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus. 17For he not only accepted the exhortation, but being more diligent, he went to you of his own accord. 18And we have sent with him the brother whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches, 19and not only that, but who was also chosen by the churches to travel with us with this gift, which is administered by us to the glory of the Lord Himself and to show your ready mind,

MAKING IT REAL // 2 CORINTHIANS 8:9

Riches Jesus had it all. He lived in a place of absolute perfection and was loved unconditionally and completely by all the inhabitants of heaven. He ruled the whole universe and walked on streets of gold—comfortable, adored, worshiped. Then, one day, it all changed. God loved His people so much that He couldn't stand to watch them suffer and wander around as lost souls. His people needed someone they could relate to, someone like them, to explain God's plan and purpose. So Jesus decided to come to earth as a human baby. He poured His glorious self into a frail, helpless, human body and gave up all the magnificence of heaven just to help us learn how to live and be right with God. He became poor so that we could know the riches of God's kingdom—joy that can't be destroyed by a busted world, love that never ends, peace when chaos is all around; the blessings of God's kingdom are endless. Jesus said that His riches have become ours by our faith in Him. That's great news—you're rich! (See also: Rom. 8:16, 17; 1 Tim. 6:17–19; James 2:5.)

Words to Live By

Grace: The word translated as "grace" in 2 Corinthians 8:9 is the Greek word charis (khar'-ece). It means "favor or preference that is not earned or deserved." God's grace is freely given to His people.

20 avoiding this: that anyone should blame us in this lavish gift which is administered by us— 21 providing honorable things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother whom we have often proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, because of the great confidence which we have in you. 23 If anyone inquires about Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker concerning you. Or if our brethren are inquired about, they are messengers of the churches, the glory of Christ.
24 Therefore show to them, and[a] before the churches, the proof of your love and of our boasting on your behalf.

ADMINISTERING THE GIFT

9 Now concerning the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you; 2 for I know your willingness, about which I boast of you to the Macedonians, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal has stirred up the majority. 3 Yet I have sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this respect, that, as I said, you may be ready; 4 lest if some Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we (not to mention you!) should be ashamed of this confident boasting.[a] 5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren to go to you ahead of time, and prepare your generous gift beforehand, which you had previously promised, that it may be ready as a matter of generosity and not as a grudging obligation.

GIVING
Why should Christians give to others?
2 Corinthians 9:6, 7

THE CHEERFUL GIVER

6 But this I say: He who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. 7 So let each one give as he purposes in his heart, not grudgingly or of necessity; for God loves a cheerful giver. 8 And God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may have an abundance for every good work. 9As it is written:

> "He has dispersed abroad,
> He has given to the poor;
> His righteousness endures forever."[a]

10Now may[a] He who supplies seed to the sower, and bread for food, supply and multiply the seed you have sown and increase the fruits of your righteousness, 11while you are enriched in everything for all liberality, which causes thanksgiving through us to God. 12For the administration of this service not only supplies the needs of the saints, but also is abounding through many thanksgivings to God, 13while, through the proof of this ministry, they glorify God for the obedience of your confession to the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal sharing with them and all men, 14and by their prayer for you, who long for you because of the exceeding grace of God in you. 15Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift!

THE SPIRITUAL WAR

10 Now I, Paul, myself am pleading with you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ—who in presence am lowly among you, but being absent am bold toward you. 2But I beg you that when I am present I may not be bold with that confidence by which I intend to be bold against some, who think of us as if we walked according to the flesh. 3For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh. 4For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, 5casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ, 6and being ready to punish all disobedience when your obedience is fulfilled.

REALITY OF PAUL'S AUTHORITY

7Do you look at things according to the outward appearance? If anyone is convinced in himself that he is Christ's, let him again consider this in himself, that just as he is Christ's, even so we are Christ's.[a] 8For even if I should boast somewhat more about our authority, which the Lord gave us[a] for edification and not for your destruction, I shall not be ashamed— 9lest I seem to terrify you by letters. 10"For his letters," they say, "are weighty and powerful, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible." 11Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such we will also be in deed when we are present.

LIMITS OF PAUL'S AUTHORITY

12For we dare not class ourselves or compare ourselves with those who commend themselves. But they, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise. 13We, however, will not boast beyond measure, but within the limits of the sphere which God appointed us—a sphere which especially includes you. 14For we are not overextending ourselves (as though our authority did not extend to you), for it was to you that we came with the gospel of Christ; 15not boasting of things beyond measure, that is, in other men's labors, but having hope, that as your faith is increased, we shall be greatly enlarged by you in our sphere, 16to preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's sphere of accomplishment.

17But "he who glories, let him glory in the LORD*."*[a] 18For not he who commends himself is approved, but whom the Lord commends.

CONCERN FOR THEIR FAITHFULNESS

11 Oh, that you would bear with me in a little folly—and indeed you do bear with me. 2For I am jealous for you with godly jealousy. For I have betrothed you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. 3But I fear, lest somehow, as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, so your minds may be corrupted from the simplicity[a] that is in Christ. 4For if he who comes preaches another Jesus whom we have not

LIFE APP

Obedience / 2 Corinthians 10:5

In 2 Corinthians 10:5 the apostle Paul talks about "bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ." Often, when we think of obedience to God, we think of our actions. If we don't lie or cheat or steal or hurt someone, we may think we're doing okay. But obedience goes further than just our actions. Obedience begins in our minds and in our hearts.

Whether you realize it or not, you are in the middle of a war—this spiritual war is about your heart and mind. The enemy (Satan) wants to distract you from following Christ faithfully. He can throw up all kinds of interference: lustful thoughts about your crush, temptations to gossip or scheme to become more popular at someone else's expense, or obsession with texting and social networking. It's important to realize that all these distractions are strategies of the enemy in the war for your mind and heart.

So what should our strategy in this war be? We would do well to follow Paul's advice to capture every thought for obedience to Christ. Your actions start with your thoughts, so don't wait until your thoughts translate into actions before you deal with them. Go on the offensive. When a thought comes into your mind, immediately decide how you are going to handle it. Is it a positive thought that will lead you to godly actions? Or is it a negative or sinful thought that you need to capture? Once you've made the decision, act swiftly and surely.

You're not on our own in this war. God will give you the strength, courage and wisdom you need to effectively navigate each skirmish with the enemy. Obedience starts in your mind and heart. If you stay faithful to your strategy of capturing thoughts instead of waiting for actions, you will see many more victories.

preached, or if you receive a different spirit which you have not received, or a different gospel which you have not accepted—you may well put up with it!

PAUL AND FALSE APOSTLES

5For I consider that I am not at all inferior to the most eminent apostles. 6Even though I am untrained in speech, yet I am not in knowledge. But we have been thoroughly manifested[a] among you in all things.

7Did I commit sin in humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I preached the gospel of God to you free of charge? 8I robbed other churches, taking wages from them to minister to you. 9And when I was present with you, and in need, I was a burden to no one, for what I lacked the brethren who came from Macedonia supplied. And in everything I kept myself from being burdensome to you, and so I will keep myself. 10As the truth of Christ is in me, no one shall stop me from this boasting in the regions of Achaia. 11Why? Because I do not love you? God knows!

SATAN
How does Satan convince people to follow him?
2 Corinthians 11:14

12But what I do, I will also continue to do, that I may cut off the opportunity from those who desire an opportunity to be regarded just as we are in the things of which they boast. 13For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ. 14And no wonder! For Satan himself transforms himself into an angel of light. 15Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also transform themselves into ministers of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.

RELUCTANT BOASTING

16I say again, let no one think me a fool. If otherwise, at least receive me as a fool, that I also may boast a little. 17What I speak, I speak not according to the Lord, but as it were, foolishly, in this confidence of boasting. 18Seeing that many boast according to the flesh, I also will boast. 19For you put up with fools gladly, since you yourselves are wise! 20For you put up with it if one brings you into bondage, if one devours you, if one takes from you, if one exalts himself, if one strikes you on the face. 21To our shame I say that we were too weak for that! But in whatever anyone is bold—I speak foolishly—I am bold also.

SUFFERING FOR CHRIST

22Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? So am I. 23Are they ministers of Christ?—I speak as a fool—I am more: in labors more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequently, in deaths often. 24From the Jews five times I received forty stripes minus one. 25Three times I was beaten with rods; once I was stoned; three times I was shipwrecked; a night and a day I have been in the deep; 26*in* journeys often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils of my own countrymen, in perils of the Gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; 27in weariness and toil, in sleeplessness often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness— 28besides the other things, what comes upon me daily: my deep concern for all the churches. 29Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to stumble, and I do not burn with indignation?

30If I must boast, I will boast in the things which concern my infirmity. 31The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is blessed forever, knows that I am not lying. 32In Damascus the governor, under Aretas the king, was guarding the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desiring to arrest me; 33but I was let down in a basket through a window in the wall, and escaped from his hands.

THE VISION OF PARADISE

12 It is doubtless[a] not profitable for me to boast. I will come to visions and revelations of the 11:6 [a]NU-Text omits been. 12:1 [a]NU-Text reads necessary, though not profitable, to boast.

Lord: [2]I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago—whether in the body I do not know, or whether out of the body I do not know, God knows—such a one was caught up to the third heaven. [3]And I know such a man—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows— [4]how he was caught up into Paradise and heard inexpressible words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. [5]Of such a one I will boast; yet of myself I will not boast, except in my infirmities. [6]For though I might desire to boast, I will not be a fool; for I will speak the truth. But I refrain, lest anyone should think of me above what he sees me to be or hears from me.

PRAYER
Does God always answer prayer in the way we hope?
2 Corinthians 12:7–10

THE THORN IN THE FLESH

[7]And lest I should be exalted above measure by the abundance of the revelations, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, a messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I be exalted above measure. [8]Concerning this thing I pleaded with the Lord three times that it might depart from me. [9]And He said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness." Therefore most gladly I will rather boast in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. [10]Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in needs, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

SIGNS OF AN APOSTLE

[11]I have become a fool in boasting;[a] you have compelled me. For I ought to have been commended by you; for in nothing was I behind the most eminent apostles, though I am nothing. [12]Truly the signs of an apostle were accomplished among you with all perseverance, in signs and wonders and mighty deeds. [13]For what is it in which you were inferior to other churches, except that I myself was not burdensome to you? Forgive me this wrong!

LOVE FOR THE CHURCH

[14]Now for the third time I am ready to come to you. And I will not be burdensome to you; for I do not seek yours, but you. For the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children. [15]And I will very gladly spend and be spent for your souls; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I am loved.

[16]But be that as it may, I did not burden you. Nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you by cunning! [17]Did I take advantage of you by any of those whom I sent to you? [18]I urged Titus, and sent our brother with him. Did Titus take advantage of you? Did we not walk in the same spirit? Did we not walk in the same steps?

[19]Again, do you think[a] that we excuse ourselves to you? We speak before God in Christ. But we do all things, beloved, for your edification. [20]For I fear lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I wish, and that I shall be found by you such as you do not wish; lest there be contentions, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, backbitings, whisperings, conceits, tumults; [21]lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and I shall mourn for many who have sinned before and have not repented of the uncleanness, fornication, and lewdness which they have practiced.

COMING WITH AUTHORITY

13 This will be the third time I am coming to you. "By the mouth of two or three witnesses every word shall be established."[a] [2]I have told you before, and foretell as if I were present the second time, and now being absent I write[a] to those who have sinned before, and to all the rest, that if I come again I will not spare— [3]since you seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, who is not weak toward you, but mighty in you. [4]For though He was crucified in weakness, yet He lives by the power of God. For we also are weak in Him, but we shall live with Him by the power of God toward you.

[5]Examine yourselves as to whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Do you not know yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you?—unless indeed you are disqualified. 6But I trust that you will know that we are not disqualified.

12:11 [a]NU-Text omits in boasting.

PAUL PREFERS GENTLENESS

7Now I[a] pray to God that you do no evil, not that we should appear approved, but that you should do what is honorable, though we may seem disqualified. 8For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. 9For we are glad when we are weak and you are strong. And this also we pray, that you may be made complete. 10Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the authority which the Lord has given me for edification and not for destruction.

GREETINGS AND BENEDICTION

11Finally, brethren, farewell. Become complete. Be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you.

12Greet one another with a holy kiss.

13All the saints greet you.

14The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all. Amen.

KEY VERSE:

"I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me" (Galatians 2:20).

THEN /// Have you ever tried to explain something to someone over and over and over; then, just when you think they're about to get it you realize they don't even know what you're talking about? That's how Paul felt about the Galatians.

Paul had spent time with the churches in Galatia teaching them the basics of Christianity. He thought they had finally gotten the fact that Christ's sacrifice on the cross changed everything. Righteousness was no longer a by-product of rules and regulations followed like robots. Righteousness now came from faith in Christ's one-time sacrifice of Himself. Compared to the kind of life people had faced under Jewish law, this new understanding of righteousness was pure freedom.

Paul was exasperated with the Galatians because, even though he had taught them this new way of thinking, they had reverted back to trying to earn their righteousness by obeying the Jewish law. Paul was irritated. So he sat down and wrote them a letter to get them back on the right track. Because of all this, some people call the Book of Galatians the spiritual Declaration of Independence.

NOW /// There was a group of people called "Judaizers" who came to Galatia and began to influence the church there. The Judaizers believed that anyone who wanted to be a Christian should obey the Jewish customs, including circumcision. Now the Jewish customs were a product of years of traditions passed down from family to family from generation to generation. It would have been a lot for anyone to take, not to mention that Christ had freed the people from those customs. The Judaizers ignored the grace that God offered through Christ. This is why Paul could not ignore their influence.

It's important to understand that Paul did not tell the Galatians that it didn't matter what they did—right is still right and wrong is still wrong; sin will always be sin. But he wanted them to understand that we can't earn our way into heaven by being good or by following certain customs or rituals. When you believe you can be righteous before God by obeying religious laws and following religious customs, it's called legalism.

REALITY CHECK /// One of the famous passages in Galatians says we should bear fruit. In fact, there are several places in the Bible where Christians are compared to growing things like grapevines and fruit-bearing trees. Do you think being a Christian is like being a tree? In some ways it is. The purpose of an apple tree is to bear apples. The way you know whether that tree is doing what it is supposed to do is when you pick an apple and take a bite. That's how we are as Christians. The test of whether we are growing spiritually is the fruit we produce. Galatians says our fruit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control (5:22, 23).What kind of fruit do people pick off your branches?

GREETING

1 Paul, an apostle (not from men nor through man, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father who raised Him from the dead), 2and all the brethren who are with me,

To the churches of Galatia:

3Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, 4who gave Himself for our sins, that He might deliver us from this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, 5to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

ONLY ONE GOSPEL

6I marvel that you are turning away so soon from Him who called you in the grace of Christ, to a different gospel, 7which is not another; but there are some who trouble you and want to pervert the gospel of Christ. 8But even if we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel to you than what we have preached to you, let him be accursed. 9As we have said before,

so now I say again, if anyone preaches any other gospel to you than what you have received, let him be accursed.

10For do I now persuade men, or God? Or do I seek to please men? For if I still pleased men, I would not be a bondservant of Christ.

CALL TO APOSTLESHIP

11But I make known to you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached by me is not according to man. 12For I neither received it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came through the revelation of Jesus Christ.

13For you have heard of my former conduct in Judaism, how I persecuted the church of God beyond measure and tried to destroy it. 14And I advanced in Judaism beyond many of my contemporaries in my own nation, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers.

15But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb and called me through His grace, 16to reveal His Son in me, that I might preach Him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately confer with flesh and blood, 17nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me; but I went to Arabia, and returned again to Damascus.

CONTACTS AT JERUSALEM

18Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter,[a] and remained with him fifteen days. 19But I saw none of the other apostles except James, the Lord's brother. 20(Now concerning the things which I write to you, indeed, before God, I do not lie.)

21Afterward I went into the regions of Syria and Cilicia. 22And I was unknown by face to the churches of Judea which were in Christ. 23But they were hearing only, "He who formerly persecuted us now preaches the faith which he once tried to destroy." 24And they glorified God in me.

DEFENDING THE GOSPEL

2 Then after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and also took Titus with me. 2And I went up by revelation, and communicated to them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to those who were of reputation, lest by any means I might run, or had run, in vain. 3Yet not even Titus who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised. 4And this occurred because of false brethren secretly brought in (who came in by stealth to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage), 5to whom we did not yield submission even for an hour, that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

GOD
Does God love some people more than others?
Galatians 2:6

6But from those who seemed to be something—whatever they were, it makes no difference to me; God shows personal favoritism to no man—for those who seemed to be something added nothing to me. 7But on the contrary, when they saw that the gospel for the uncircumcised had been committed to me, as the gospel for the circumcised was to Peter 8(for He who worked effectively in Peter for the apostleship to the circumcised also worked effectively in me toward the Gentiles), 9and when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that had been given to me, they gave me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, that we should go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised. 10*They desired* only that we should remember the poor, the very thing which I also was eager to do.

Galatians 2:8

One of the best ways to determine whether a person is a Gentile or not is to ask this question: "Are you Jewish?" If the person says no, he or she is a Gentile. Jewish people in Paul's day set themselves apart from Gentiles by following the customs and rules of the Old Testament, particularly the law God gave to Moses.

NO RETURN TO THE LAW

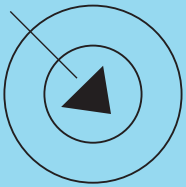
MIR MAKING IT REAL // GALATIANS 2:20

Live by Faith Obviously, you're still breathing and your heart's still beating. If you're reading this, you are alive. And Paul was certainly still alive when he wrote his letter to the Galatians. So what did he mean when he said, "I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me"? Like he did so many times, Paul was describing something that was not physically true but spiritually true. When you put your faith in Jesus, something changes inside you. The old you—the old spirit—dies, and a new spirit is born in you. You become Christ-centered instead of self-centered. You have a new life in Christ and it's totally different from your old life without Him. You've got a new reason to live. Before you gave your heart to Jesus, you were on your own. Now you've got the King of Kings with you all the time—loving you, forgiving you, guiding you, inspiring you. When your old self dies and Christ lives fully in you, you are free to become the best version of yourself. (See also: Rom. 6:4–11; 2 Cor. 5:21.)

Words to Live By

Crucified: We all know that Jesus died on a cross—He was crucified. There are movies in which an actor portrays Jesus being beaten and nailed to a cross, so the physical cruelty is something we know all too well. But Jesus didn't just suffer physical pain. When Jesus hung on the cross, He took into Himself all the sin that would ever be committed by people—past, present, and future. The Bible actually says He became sin (2 Cor. 5:21). When we feel the guilt of only one sin, it can make us deeply unhappy. It's beyond imagining how Jesus must have felt when He carried the weight of every sin within Himself.



was to be blamed; 12for before certain men came from James, he would eat with the Gentiles; but when they came, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing those who were of the circumcision. 13And the rest of the Jews also played the hypocrite with him, so that even Barnabas was carried away with their hypocrisy.

14But when I saw that they were not straightforward about the truth of the gospel, I said to Peter before them all, "If you, being a Jew, live in the manner of Gentiles and not as the Jews, why do you[a] compel Gentiles to live as Jews?[b] 15We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles, 16knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but by faith in Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not by the works of the law; for by the works of the law no flesh shall be justified.

17"But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is Christ therefore a minister of sin? Certainly not! 18For if I build again those things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor. 19For I through the law died to the law that I might live to God. 20I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me. 21I do not set aside the grace of God; for if righteousness comes through the law, then Christ died in vain."

FAITH
Why should Christians be able to live faithful lives?
Galatians 2:20

2:14 [a]NU-Text reads how can you. [b]Some interpreters stop the quotation here.

PROMISE

God promises that you are His child by faith.

For you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus (Gal. 3:26).

If you have accepted Christ, you are God's child, and He is your Father. Through faith in Jesus Christ, you were able to join the family of God. But what exactly is faith?

Hebrews 11:1 says, "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." Faith is not just wishful thinking; it is our solid belief and trust in what we know to be true, even when we can't see it. Although you've never seen God with your physical eyes, you can still know He exists and He loves you, and you can put your faith in Him. He is more than worthy of that faith.

God cares for you in much the same way a loving and loyal earthly father cares for his children, only more so. God is concerned with every detail of your life. He wants to give you good things. He wants to see you grow and learn and be everything He's designed you to be. He really wants you to know Him—deeply and powerfully. How can you get to know your Father better? Spend time with Him in prayer and study His Word.

You're God's child. You're a prince or a princess in His kingdom because the King is your Dad! He loves you so much that He's adopted you as His very own. By faith, take your place as a child of God.

JUSTIFICATION BY FAITH

3 O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you that you should not obey the truth,[a] before whose eyes Jesus Christ was clearly portrayed among you[b] as crucified? 2This only I want to learn from you: Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? 3Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now being made perfect by the flesh? 4Have you suffered so many things in vain—if indeed it was in vain?

5Therefore He who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you, does He do it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?— 6just as Abraham "believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness."[a] 7Therefore know that only those who are of faith are sons of Abraham. 8And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel to Abraham beforehand, saying, "In you all the nations shall be blessed."[a] 9So then those who are of faith are blessed with believing Abraham.

THE LAW BRINGS A CURSE

10For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse; for it is written, "Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things which are written in the book of the law, to do them."[a] 11But that no one is justified by the law in the sight of God is evident, for "the just shall live by faith."[a] 12Yet the law is not of faith, but "the man who does them shall live by them."[a]

13Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us (for it is written, "Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree"[a]),14that the blessing of Abraham might come upon the Gentiles in Christ Jesus, that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

WORLD APP

Equality / Galatians 3:28

Our world is full of all kinds of people: male, female, tall, short, dark-complexioned, fair-skinned, funny, serious, brainy, athletic, and so on. No two people are exactly alike. With so many diverse people in the world, you might think we would all be fascinated and excited when we meet someone new, who is not similar to us.

But that is often not the case. Many times when we encounter someone different from us, we become suspicious, guarded, intimidated, conceited, or confrontational. It's easy to fall for the lie that just because someone doesn't look like you or act like you, they are not quite as important as you. We make these kind of judgments based on skin color, gender, or other aspects of physical appearance. We also make these kinds of judgments based on ethnicity or family history. Whatever our reasons for deeming some people more valuable than others, it is wrong to do so. God makes no such distinctions and neither should we.

As a matter of fact, in Galatians 3:28, Paul (the writer of Galatians) gives us some examples to show that we are all equal in the sight of God: "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus."

Jesus constantly teaches us to reach out to everyone; every single person is important. He gave Himself as a sacrifice to provide eternal life to "whoever believes in Him" (John 3:16). Not any specific race who believes in Him; not only the tall, dark, and handsome men who believe in Him; not only those who speak a certain language who believe in Him; not only the wealthy who believe in Him. He said, "Whoever believes in Him."

We need to recognize the God-given value in ourselves and every person we meet. Remember that different doesn't have to mean better or worse. Different can just mean different. We are all equal in Christ Jesus.

THE CHANGELESS PROMISE

15Brethren, I speak in the manner of men:
Though it is only a man's covenant, yet if it is confirmed, no one annuls or adds to it.
16Now to Abraham and his Seed were the promises made. He does not say, "And to seeds," as of many, but as of one, "And to your Seed,"[a] who is Christ. 17And this I say, that the law, which was four hundred and thirty years later, cannot annul the covenant that was confirmed before by God in Christ,[a] that it should make the promise of no effect. 18For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no longer of promise; but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

PURPOSE OF THE LAW

19What purpose then does the law serve?
It was added because of transgressions, till the Seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was appointed through angels by the hand of a mediator.
20Now a mediator does not mediate for one only, but God is one.

21*Is* the law then against the promises of God? Certainly not! For if there had been a law given which could have given life, truly righteousness would have been by the law.
22But the Scripture has confined all under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. 23But before faith came, we were kept under guard by the law, kept for the faith which would afterward be revealed. 24Therefore
the law was our tutor to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith. 25But after faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor.

DISCRIMINATION
Are all people equal in the eyes of God?
Galatians 3:26–28

SONS AND HEIRS

26For you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus. 27For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. 28There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus. 29And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Galatians 4:1, 2

Slaves may have been considered second-class citizens in New Testament times, but that didn't stop their masters from entrusting their kids to the slaves' care. Slaves regularly supervised the education of their master's children. According to the custom of the day, most girls received their education at home. Boys, on the other hand, attended school, where they learned to read and write.

4 Now I say that the heir, as long as he is a child, does not differ at all from a slave, though he is master of all, 2but is under guardians and stewards until the time appointed by the father. 3Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world. 4But when the fullness of the time had come,
God sent forth His Son, born[a] of a woman, born under the law, 5to redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption as sons.

6And because you are sons, God has sent forth the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying out, "Abba, Father!" 7Therefore you are no longer a slave but a son, and if a son, then an heir of[a] God through Christ.

FEARS FOR THE CHURCH

8But then, indeed, when you did not know God, you served those which by nature are not gods. 9But now after you have known God, or rather are known by God, how is it that you turn again to the weak and beg-garly elements, to which you desire again to be in bondage? 10You observe days and months and seasons and years. 11I am afraid for you, lest I have labored for you in vain.

12Brethren, I urge you to become like me, for I became like you. You have not injured me at all. 13You know that because of physical infirmity I preached the gospel to you at the first. 14And my trial which was in my flesh you did not despise or reject, but you received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus. 15What[a] then was the blessing you enjoyed? For I bear you witness that, if possible, you would have plucked out your own eyes and given them to me. 16Have I therefore become your enemy because I tell you the truth?

17They zealously court you, but for no good; yes, they want to exclude you, that you may be zealous for them. 18But it is good to be zealous in a good thing always, and not only when I am present with you. 19My little children, for whom I labor in birth again until Christ is formed in you, 20I would like to be present with you now and to change my tone; for I have doubts about you.

Galatians 4:23

Sarah and Hagar both gave birth to a son of Abraham. But Sarah was Abraham's wife and Hagar was Sarah's slave. Before you get the wrong idea about Abraham, you should know his encounter with Hagar was Sarah's idea. God had promised Abraham and Sarah they would have a son. Sarah realized she was too old to have a child, so she thought the next best thing would be for her servant to have Abraham's son. And that's what happened. Hagar gave birth to a son named Ishmael. God, however, made it clear that Ishmael was not the son He had promised. Despite the fact that she was ninety years old, Sarah herself became pregnant and gave birth to a son named Isaac—the one God had promised.

TWO COVENANTS

21Tell me, you who desire to be under the law, do you not hear the law? 22For it is written that Abraham had two sons: the one by a bondwoman, the other by a freewoman. 23But he who was of the bondwoman was born according to the flesh, and he of the freewoman through promise, 24which things are symbolic. For these are the[a] two covenants: the one from Mount Sinai which gives birth to bondage, which is Hagar— 25for this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and corresponds to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children— 26but the Jerusalem above is free, which is the mother of us all. 27For it is written:

"Rejoice, O barren,
You who do not bear!
Break forth and shout,
You who are not in labor!
For the desolate has many more children Than she who has a husband."[a]

28Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are children of promise. 29But, as he who was born according to the flesh then persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, even so it is now. 30Nevertheless what does the Scripture say? "Cast out the bondwoman and her son, for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman."[a] 31So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman but of the free.

CHRISTIAN LIBERTY

5 Stand fast therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free,[a] and do not be entangled again with a yoke of bondage. 2Indeed I, Paul, say to you that if you become circumcised, Christ will profit you nothing. 3And I testify again to every man who becomes circumcised that he is a debtor to keep the whole law. 4You have become estranged from Christ, you who attempt to be justified by law; you have fallen from grace. 5For we through the Spirit eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. 6For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision avails anything, but faith working through love.

LOVE FULFILLS THE LAW

7You ran well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? 8This persuasion does not come from Him who calls you. 9A little leaven leavens the whole lump. 10I have

WORLD APP

Ethics / Galatians 5:22, 23

To have ethics means to respect the rules and to have personal integrity (be faithful to operate with honesty and honor). Ethical people can be trusted. They not only follow the law, they try to always be truthful and reliable in all that they do.

Christians should be ethical people—they should always obey the law, have integrity, and never fail to follow through on a commitment. But a Christian's conduct should not just be ruled by laws and a sense of responsibility. A Christian's choices and behavior should be ruled by the Holy Spirit.

In Galatians 5:22, 23, Paul lists nine qualities the Holy Spirit brings into the life of a believer: love, joy, peace, long-suffering (patience), kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. As much as we may try to work up the ability to live out those qualities and be ethical people of integrity, we will always fall short. However, Jesus sent us the Holy Spirit when we chose to accept Him as our Savior. The Holy Spirit places within us the ability to live our lives based on characteristics that please God, not just man.

But the Holy Spirit will not force you to operate with the qualities He brings into your heart. The choice is still yours. Think of it this way: When you're hungry you may see a tree full of juicy fruit, just waiting to be picked. But if you don't pull off some fruit and eat it, you'll still be hungry. It's much the same with the "fruit" of the Holy Spirit; it's there for you whenever you need it, but you have to make the choice to "pick" it and make it part of your life.

MIR MAKING IT REAL // GALATIANS 5:22–25

A Fruitful Life The Spirit of God lives in each believer. He changes us from the inside out and makes us more like Jesus. He brings power into our lives that we would otherwise be without—power to live as God wants. The Holy Spirit will always let us know the right thing to do and the best way to behave. People who have the Spirit of God inside are able to choose godly actions and reactions; they are not ruled by their feelings, but by the Holy Spirit. But God's Spirit will never force a believer to do anything. It's always a choice, a decision to do the right thing.

Scripture tells us that the Spirit will bring us love, joy, peace, longsuffering (patience), kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control (the ability to tell yourself "No"). Each of those traits is available to us, because they are given to us by the Holy Spirit. But just like you will never know the taste of a fresh-picked apple unless you take it off the tree and eat it, you will never know all the wonderful "fruit" that can be in your life unless you decide to give it a try. Like the Bible says, "Taste and see that the LORD is good" (Ps. 34:8). (See also: Prov. 3:5, 6; 13:10; Matt. 6:33.)

Words to Live By

Holy Spirit: The God Christians worship is actually the "Holy Trinity"—God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit—together they are one God. Although it is impossible to understand how God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit can be one being, we know it's true. The Holy Spirit is the One who teaches us and helps us live our lives as God wants. He is God and should be worshiped and praised.

confidence in you, in the Lord, that you will have no other mind; but he who troubles you shall bear his judgment, whoever he is.

11 And I, brethren, if I still preach circumcision, why do I still suffer persecution? Then the offense of the cross has ceased. 12 I could wish that those who trouble you would even cut themselves off!

13 For you, brethren, have been called to liberty; only do not use liberty as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. 14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."[a] 15 But if you bite and devour one another, beware lest you be consumed by one another!

WALKING IN THE SPIRIT

16 I say then: Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh. 17 For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another, so that you do not do the things that you wish. 18 But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

19 Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are: adultery,[a] fornication, uncleanness, lewdness, 20 idolatry, sorcery, hatred, contentions, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, dissensions, heresies, 21 envy, murders,[a] drunkenness, revelries, and the like; of which I tell you beforehand, just as I also told you in time past, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

LUST
How can we avoid being ruled by lustful living?
Galatians 5:16–22

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, 23 gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law. 24 And those who are Christ's have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. 25 If we live

LIFE APP

Meaning / Galatians 6:14

Everyone is looking for meaning to life. We want our lives to have value and purpose—to mean something. Many sincere people look for this meaning by winning the praise of others. They think their life will have significance and value if enough people respect or admire them. Some relationships suffer because the people involved try to fill their need for purpose in life through the other person; and that will never be successful. Others may look for meaning through serving others; they may even travel the world helping people in need. And while that's wonderful, there may still be a lack of meaning in their lives that no amount of good-intentioned service can give them. The only place to truly find the meaning of life is in Christ Jesus. Next to Christ, nothing else on earth even comes close to providing the sense of value and purpose we all crave.

We see this clearly in Paul's life, especially when he says, "But God forbid that I should boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world has been crucified to me and I to the world" (Gal. 6:14). He also says in Philippians that all the things on earth that had previously been "gain" to him (things in which he had tried to find life's meaning), "these I have counted loss for Christ. Yet indeed I also count all things loss for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them as rubbish, that I may gain Christ and be found in Him" (Phil. 3:7–9a).

Paul found the only true and lasting meaning of life—Jesus Christ. All those things on earth that he thought might give him meaning paled in comparison to knowing and serving Christ. It wasn't even a difficult choice for Paul; he gave up everything—he considered himself crucified to the world—just to have Christ. This is the same Christ who gives true meaning to our lives. We were made to love, worship, serve, and enjoy our relationship with God and the eternal life provided through Christ Jesus. In that, we find true meaning in life.

in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.
26Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, envying one another.

BEAR AND SHARE THE BURDENS

6 Brethren, if a man is overtaken in any trespass, you who are spiritual restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness, considering yourself lest you also be tempted. 2Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. 3For if anyone thinks himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself. 4But let each one examine his own work, and then he will have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another. 5For each one shall bear his own load.

BE GENEROUS AND DO GOOD

6Let him who is taught the word share in all good things with him who teaches.

7Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap. 8For he who sows to his flesh will of the flesh reap corruption, but he who sows to the Spirit will of the Spirit reap everlasting life. 9And let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap if we do not lose heart. 10Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all, especially to those who are of the household of faith.

GLORY ONLY IN THE CROSS

11See with what large letters I have written to you with my own hand! 12As many as desire to make a good showing in the flesh, these would compel you to be circumcised, only that they may not suffer persecution for the cross of Christ. 13For not even those who are circumcised keep the law, but they desire to have you circumcised that they may boast in your flesh. 14But God forbid that I should boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom[a] the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. 15For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision avails anything, but a new creation.

BLESSING AND A PLEA

16And as many as walk according to this rule, peace and mercy be upon them, and upon the Israel of God.

17From now on let no one trouble me, for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

6:14 [a]Or by which (the cross)

Galatians 6:11

Many people in New Testament times used secretaries to write letters for them. Some Bible experts believe that Paul needed a secretary because he had very poor eyesight. Apparently, Paul had dictated this letter to a secretary, but then wrote the last paragraph in his own handwriting, so the churches in Galatia would know it really came from him.

Ephesians

DATE OF WRITING: A.D. 60
AUTHOR: PAUL
THEME: THE CHURCH IS GLORIOUS
PURPOSE: CHRISTIANS ARE TO LOVE AND SERVE ONE ANOTHER.

OUTLINE

1:1, 2.....Greetings
1:3—3:21.....Christ Gives Spiritual Blessings
4:1—6:20.....A New Life in Unity with Christ
6:21–24.....Final Greetings

KEY VERSE:

For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, not of works, lest anyone should boast (Ephesians 2:8, 9).

THEN /// The Book of Ephesians is a letter of encouragement that Paul wrote from jail. Yes that's right, Paul was a prisoner under house arrest and wrote letters to churches telling them to be strong and keep the faith. That's commitment, huh? So what does someone write about from such a prison? What Paul wrote about was God's unending love. Almost half of his letter to the Ephesians is about how much God loves them.

The last half of Paul's letter is about loving each other whether we are family members or church members or work associates. Paul explains that we should live with God's love in us pouring out to those around us. There's a lot of good advice in Paul's letter to the Ephesians, advice about being patient and loving and forgiving and being honest. It's amazing, isn't it, that a prisoner could write a letter to a church in the first century that has so much to do with the lives we are living today?

NOW /// If you're going to play football for a team, you suit up. You wear protective gear on every joint and a helmet for your head. If you are going to go scuba-diving, you suit up as well. You carry tanks and you wear flippers. For almost anything we do, there is a uniform and some gear attached. It's no different for the Christian walk. In Ephesians Paul describes how we suit up spiritually and what kind of gear we need to carry. Among other things, he describes our shield of faith and our helmet of salvation (6:11–17). It makes sense, doesn't it, that we would be able to equip ourselves for something so important as the ultimate battle between good and evil?

REALITY CHECK /// Do you realize that God has gifted you? Do you realize that He has given you a certain set of skills that allow you to minister to other people? Ephesians 4 gives one of several lists of gifts in the New Testament. Some people feel like they don't have any gifts at all, but they're wrong. Everyone has a gift from God. Sometimes we get so used to our own gifts that we don't even notice them. Most often, we tend to notice the gifts that are different from our own. If you don't know what your gifts are, start noticing what comes easy to you and what you enjoy the most. Those might be your best clues.

GREETING

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God,

To the saints who are in Ephesus, and faithful in Christ Jesus:

2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

REDEMPTION IN CHRIST

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ, 4 just as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before Him in love, 5 having predestined us to adoption as sons by Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the good pleasure of His will, 6 to the praise of the glory of His grace, by which He made us accepted in the Beloved.

7 In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace 8 which He made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence, 9 having made known to us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure which He purposed in Himself, 10 that in the dispensation of the fullness of the times He might gather together in one all things in Christ, both[a] which are in heaven and which are on earth—in Him. 11 In Him also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestined according to the purpose of Him who works all things according to the counsel of His will, 12 that we who first trusted in Christ should be to the praise of His glory.

13 In Him you also trusted, after you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation; in whom also, having believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise,

MAKING IT REAL // EPHESIANS 1:11–14

Heirs of the Promise When someone dies, they may leave their valuable possessions as a gift to someone they appreciated—someone who meant a lot to them while they lived. That gift is called an inheritance. Sometimes an inheritance is big—a house or a car or lots of cash—sometimes it can be something small, like a watch or a piece of jewelry. Regardless of the size of the inheritance, if you receive one, it means someone really cared about you.

When Jesus died, He left an inheritance for all the people who believe in Him. But He did not leave us money that would just get spent or things that would one day come to an end; Jesus left us a gift that is eternal—life forever with God.

Since that gift isn't something we can have until the day we go to be with Jesus in God's kingdom, He left us a guarantee (a promise) that we would one day receive our inheritance. That guarantee is the Holy Spirit. When the Holy Spirit lives within us, we can be sure that we will one day live with Jesus in God's perfect kingdom. (See also: 2 Cor. 1:21, 22; Eph. 1:3; Col. 1:12; 3:23, 24; 1 Pet. 1:3–9.)

Guarantee: The word translated as "guarantee" in Ephesians 1:14 is the Greek word arrhabon (ar-hrab-ohn'). An arrhabon is a pledge or a promise that an agreement will be fulfilled. The Holy Spirit is God's divine pledge that He will do all He has promised.

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL WISDOM

15 Therefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints, 16 do not cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers:
17 that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation
in the knowledge of Him, 18 the eyes of your understanding[a] being enlightened;
that you may know what is the hope of His calling,
what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, 19 and what is the exceeding greatness of His power toward us who believe, according to the working of His mighty power 20 which He worked in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly places, 21 far above all principality and power and might and dominion, and every name that is named,
not only in this age but also in that which is to come.
22 And He put all things under His feet, and gave Him to be head over all things to the church, 23 which is His body, the fullness of Him who fills all in all.

BY GRACE THROUGH FAITH

2 And you He made alive, who were dead in trespasses and sins,
2 in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air,
the spirit who now works in the sons of disobedience, 3 among whom also we all once conducted ourselves in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, just as the others.

Pornography / Ephesians 2:1–7

Pornography is not a new thing. As a matter of fact, artifacts from the early Roman Empire prove it was very much a part of ancient life. Regardless of how long it's been around, it is a harmful and degrading aspect of any society.

Though some may argue that pornography hurts no one, the facts tell a different story. What about the women who are photographed; are they not degraded and used? What about the child who accidentally picks up a porn magazine? What about the fact that so many serial killers blame explicit pornography for their desire to sexually assault and kill? By choosing to allow pornography into our lives, we are condoning the industry that tries to replace a wholesome, godly view of sex (read Song of Solomon if you want proof) with a perverted, ugly, degrading, and sometimes even dangerous substitute.

The Bible does not specifically mention pornography (the word itself has its roots in the Greek word pornographia, which means to write about a prostitute or sexual immorality). But Scripture makes it clear that immoral actions are sinful. As far as the world is concerned, immorality is anything that goes against accepted, socially correct behavior. As Christians, we don't look to society to define correct behavior; we look to God and His Word. And God's Word calls immorality a sin (Gal. 5:19).

There is a debate carried on often and loudly between politicians and porn producers and publishers. They continually try to find a definition of pornography. So how do you know what is pornographic and what is not? Where exactly is that line? A good way to judge what you should and should not allow into your eyes and ears is to ask yourself if God would be pleased by your choice. If the answer is no, then steer clear. God didn't make up a bunch of rules just because He could. All of the directions we receive from God are because He knows what is good for us and for the rest of the world. Listen closely. He'll never steer you wrong.

MIR MAKING IT REAL // EPHESIANS 2:4–10

Child of the King A prince is tragically separated from his parents at birth. The child grows up alone, totally unaware of his royal home and family. For years the parents search for their son, sending out soldiers to every region to look for the one who belongs to them. Finally, the boy is found, living in poverty, robbing for food, and acting like a savage. A soldier tells the boy about his father—the king of the entire land. In an instant, the beggar child realizes the person he was meant to be. He is suddenly aware he is the son of a king—a prince of the kingdom. Immediately, the boy is given a new life, new power, and a new home. He even has a place to sit beside his father's throne.

You, too, are the child of a King. God has been merciful. He knew you were dead in your sins, ruled by selfish desires, and destined for eternal punishment. He loved you and graciously gave you new life. With your new life has come new power and a new home with Christ in heaven. (See also: John 14:1–4; 2 Cor. 5:1, 2; Phil. 3:20.)

Words to Live By

Workmanship: The word translated in Ephesians 2:10 as "workmanship" is the Greek word poiema (poy'-ay-mah). This word means "crafted by an artist." God is the Master Artist. The universe is His creation (Rom. 1:20), and those who believe in Jesus are His greatest work of art.

[5]even when we were dead in trespasses, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved), [6]and raised us up together, and made us sit together in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, [7]that in the ages to come He might show the exceeding riches of His grace in His kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. [8]For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, [9]not of works, lest anyone should boast. [10]For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them.

BROUGHT NEAR BY HIS BLOOD

[11]Therefore remember that you, once Gentiles in the flesh—who are called Uncircumcision by what is called the Circumcision made in the flesh by hands—[12]that at that time you were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. [13]But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

CHRIST OUR PEACE

[14]For He Himself is our peace, who has made both one, and has broken down the middle wall of separation, [15]having abolished in His flesh the enmity, that is, the law of commandments contained in ordinances, so as to create in Himself one new man from the two, thus making peace, [16]and that He might reconcile them both to God in one body through the cross, thereby putting to death the enmity. [17]And He came and preached peace to you who were afar off and to those who were near. [18]For through Him we both have access by one Spirit to the Father.

MAKING IT REAL // EPHESIANS 2:8

A Matter of Faith Being saved means receiving the forgiveness of sins that God offers you because of Jesus' death and resurrection. It is being spiritually born again into God's eternal kingdom. The only way to receive the gift of salvation (being saved) is through faith. That doesn't mean you just hope God's promises are true, or that you think Jesus probably died for you. Faith knows those things are real.

Hebrews 11:1 says, "Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." That means faith is more than believing, it is realizing the absolute truth of God's Word and expecting Him to do all He says. It is that kind of faith that allows us to receive the new life God has for us. In fact, faith is the only way we can receive anything from God.

It's human nature to try to get on God's good side by doing good things, but all the good deeds in the world will not impress Him. The only thing that pleases God is faith. (See also: Rom. 10:9; Gal. 3:7, 29.)

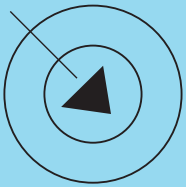
Believe: The word "believe" can be a bit misleading because, in today's world, we use it to mean "wish," or "hope," or "think." In the New Testament, this word is translated from the Greek word pisteuo (pist-yoo'-oh). To have faith in God means to completely trust Him to do as He says and to be totally convinced of the absolute truth of His Word.

the saints and members of the household of God, 20having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone, 21in whom the whole building, being fitted together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord, 22in whom you also are being built together for a dwelling place of God in the Spirit.



THE MYSTERY REVEALED

3 For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus for you Gentiles—
2if indeed you have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which was given to me for you, 3how that by revelation He made known to me the mystery (as I have briefly written already, 4by which, when you read, you may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ), 5which in other ages was not made known to the sons of men, as it has now been revealed by the Spirit to His holy apostles and prophets: 6that the Gentiles should be fellow heirs, of the same body, and partakers of His promise in Christ through the gospel, 7of which I became a minister according to the gift of the grace of God given to me by the effective working of His power.

PURPOSE OF THE MYSTERY

8To me, who am less than the least of all the saints, this grace was given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, 9and to make all see what is the fellowship[a] of the mystery, which from the beginning of the ages has been hidden in God who created all things through Jesus Christ;[b] 10to the intent that now the manifold wisdom of God might be made known by the church to the principalities and powers in the heavenly places, 11according to the eternal purpose which He accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord, 12in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through faith in Him. 13Therefore I ask that you do

PROMISE

God promises to have a plan for you.

For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them (Eph. 2:10).

Sometimes life can begin to seem a little bit stale or boring. You may feel like you're just doing the same old thing, day after day. Same song, different verse: wake up, go to school, go to practice, come home, hang out, and go to bed, just so you can get up tomorrow and do it all over again. That doesn't seem like much of a plan, does it?

Maybe not. But God does have an exciting plan for your life—a plan that will give you purpose and fulfillment beyond your wildest dreams. Following God's plan takes commitment from you. You don't just accidentally fulfill what He's planned for you to do. Seek God and ask Him to reveal His plan to you and to give you understanding about how you can fulfill it. Then, determine to make every day count for Him and for His plan.

Pay attention to every decision you face—even the ones that seem insignificant. Take seriously every person you meet—even the ones you don't necessarily like very much. Embrace every situation you find yourself in—even the ones that seem to make no sense at all. They're shaping you, molding you, preparing you for the next decision, the next person, or the next situation.

Lose yourself in doing what God wants in every aspect of your life. Live your everyday life in light of His plan!

SEE FOR YOURSELF// Psalm 100:3; Jeremiah 29:11;

APPRECIATION OF THE MYSTERY

14For this reason I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,[a] 15from whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, 16that He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might through His Spirit in the inner man, 17that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; that you, being rooted and grounded in love, 18may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the width and length and depth and height— 19to know the love of Christ which passes knowledge; that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

20Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, 21to Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

WALK IN UNITY

4 I, therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you to walk worthy of the calling with which you were called, 2with all lowliness and gentleness, with longsuffering, bearing with one another in love, 3endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

PROMISE

God promises you boldness and confidence.

[Christ Jesus our Lord], in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through faith in Him (Eph. 3:12).

Because of the saving work of Jesus Christ, all believers are given the confidence and boldness to come to God. Before you knew Jesus, you were like a stranger to the family of God. You may have even been afraid to try to talk to God or be in His holy presence.

Through Christ, you have now become a member of God's family. In this family, you can run to your Father at any time. You don't have to beg for His attention, or be afraid of His presence. He loves you. He knows you. You are His child. Don't be scared to run to your heavenly Father. He wants and expects you to come to Him all the time, even when you have doubts or questions, or when you need comfort. There's no need to be timid; You belong to Him, and you can boldly turn to Him with every need.

[17]This I say, therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you should no longer walk as the rest of[a] the Gentiles walk, in the futility of their mind, [18]having their understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart; [19]who, being past feeling, have given themselves over to lewdness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

[20]But you have not so learned Christ, [21]if indeed you have heard Him and have been taught by Him, as the truth is in Jesus: [22]that you put off, concerning your former conduct, the old man which grows corrupt according to the deceitful lusts, [23]and be renewed in the spirit of your mind, [24]and that you put on the new man which was created according to God, in true righteousness and holiness.

Anger / Ephesians 4:26, 27

What makes you angry? What really makes your blood boil? It's different things for different people, but there is no one on earth who doesn't get ticked off sometimes. We all get angry. And, sometimes, we can get the message that anger is wrong, maybe even a sin. But is it always sinful?

There are a lot of places where the Bible tells us stories of people who got angry (like Moses in Exodus 32) yet they didn't sin. Jesus Himself got angry when the money changers tried to steal from people right in the church (John 2:13–17) and we know He never sinned. So obviously, anger itself is not wrong.

Anger is an emotional reaction to some situation in life that you don't like. Anger is just like any other emotion, it just happens. And emotions aren't good or bad, they're just feelings. It's what we choose to do with them that can be sinful. That's why Ephesians 4:26 says, "Be angry, and do not sin." As long as people are people, we're going to get angry about something at sometime. But we must choose what to do with that anger. It's that choice that can lead us to commit sinful acts. If you choose to react to your anger by hitting, yelling, seeking revenge, or just holding bitter feelings in your heart, you have chosen to sin.

So when you find yourself getting upset with someone or some situation, choose carefully what you do about it. You can let your anger control you and lead you to make sinful choices. Or you can control your anger and respond to the situation in a way that pleases God. One will just bring more trouble; the other will make a bad situation better. Remember: either you control your anger or it will control you.

MIR MAKING IT REAL // EPHESIANS 4:29–32

The Power of the Tongue It seems nearly impossible to go anywhere without hearing filthy words. But even worse are the things people talk about: the Internet is filled with horrifying stories of murder and violence; social media pages are used to bully and threaten others; magazine articles reveal far too much about the lives of celebrities; nude pictures and sexting fly through cyberspace for anyone to see.

Proverbs 18:21 says, "Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and those who love it will eat its fruit." It may surprise you to realize that words can bring death or life. When you speak (either verbally or in writing), you send words out that can be very destructive. You may have heard the saying: "Sticks and stones may break my bones, but words will never hurt me!" While words can't cause physical damage, they can severely wound other people. And when others are hurt, they most often go on the defense and tear into the one who's hurt them. That's how enemies are made.

We need to learn to put a guard over our mouths. Our mouths can get us in trouble more than almost anything else. We've all had an opportunity to get upset and "go off" on someone. When we do, we end up saying things we wish we hadn't. The worst thing is, once words are spoken, we can't take them back. It's like trying to put toothpaste back in the tube—impossible. (See also: Prov. 12:18; 15:1, 2, 4; James 3:1–12.)

Edification: The word translated as "edification" in Ephesians 4:29 is the Greek word oikodome (oy-kod-om-ay'). It is a compound word meaning "a house or dwelling" and "housetop from where proclamations are made." The idea is that when we speak positive words to someone, we raise them up (lift their spirits) and help them be more stable and secure in life.

[29]Let no corrupt word proceed out of your mouth, but what is good for necessary edification, that it may impart grace to the hearers. [30]And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. [31]Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, clamor, and evil speaking be put away from you, with all malice. Identity Theft / Ephesians 5:8–11

You've most likely heard about cybercrimes; one of the most severe and dreadful is identity theft. Using highly developed computer programming skills and engineering ability, people with no consideration for the law or for other people steal personal information about others from Internet records. Then they use this information for illegal activity: fraud, theft, crimes against the government; the list is endless of the ways cybercriminals can abuse others by using what they have stolen. These people can commit crimes without anyone knowing who's behind the illegal activity. Their crimes are secret—done without anyone's knowledge until the disastrous effects start showing up in their victims' lives.

Identity theft is not a new concept. It existed long before computers were even a dream, let alone a reality. The first identity theft happened when Satan's lies caused Adam and Eve to sin. After that disastrous choice, instead of living in perfect harmony with each other and with God—totally connected to Him as family—their sin caused them to lose that perfect connection. One they sinned, they gave Satan a foothold in their lives. The evil enemy of mankind stole their identity as the perfect, sinless children of God.

Now, people who don't know the Lord don't realize they are victims of the most widespread identity theft the world has ever known. Satan continually schemes to destroy lives, and too many people are unaware of his evil activity. Many people don't even know what their identity was meant to be. They don't know God wants them to be His children. So they are totally unaware that Satan continues to steal from them by keeping them in the dark.

The next time you hear someone talk about identity theft, tell them about the scheme Satan has plotted against them. Let them know their rightful identity as a child of almighty God.

MAKING IT REAL // EPHESIANS 5:23

Jesus Rules Your brain controls everything your body does. If you want to walk across the room, your brain tells your feet to go and they go. If your shoulder itches, your brain tells your fingers to scratch, and they do it. If your foot moves when your brain doesn't tell it to, you call that a spasm. If your brain tells your hand to make a fist and your hand lies still, you know you've got a problem—something isn't right. The brain is the boss.

In his letter to the Ephesians, Paul talked a lot about the church—Christians—being the body of Christ. Everyone plays a different part, has a different function. Jesus is the Head—the brain. That means that everything you do—as a part of His body—needs to be directed by Jesus. If you do something without Him, it's spastic and useless. And if He tells you to do something and you don't or can't, you know that something is wrong—something in your relationship needs attention. Realize Jesus is the only One who can direct you successfully through life and keep you operating as a productive part of His body. (See also: 1 Cor. 12:12–31; Eph. 1:22, 23; Col. 1:18.)

Words to Live By

Savior: The word translated as "Savior" in Ephesians 5:23 is the Greek word soter (so-tare'). At its root, this word means "to save." It designates a deliverer, preserver, or rescuer. Jesus is the One who rescues us from the effects of sin and gives us eternal salvation.

giving of thanks. 5For this you know,[a] that no fornicator, unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. 6Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. 7Therefore do not be partakers with them.

Ephesians 5:5

Few things are as offensive to God as idol worship. Throughout the Bible, God warned His people not to worship pagan deities. Unfortunately, His people rarely heeded His warnings. The Israelites were always quick to adopt the gods and idols of their pagan neighbors. In Paul's day, however, the word idol took on a broader meaning. It came to refer not only to statues and pagan gods, but to anything that was more important than God in a believer's life.

WALK IN LIGHT

8For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light 9(for the fruit of the Spirit[a] is in all goodness, righteousness, and truth), 10finding out what is acceptable to the Lord. 11And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather expose them. 12For it is shameful even to speak of those things which are done by them in secret. 13But all things that are exposed are made manifest by the light, for whatever makes manifest is light. 14Therefore He says:

"Awake, you who sleep,
Arise from the dead,
And Christ will give you light."

WALK IN WISDOM

MARRIAGE—CHRIST AND THE CHURCH

22Wives, submit to your own husbands, as to the Lord. 23For the husband is head of the wife, as also Christ is head of the church; and He is the Savior of the body. 24Therefore, just as the church is subject to Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in everything.

25Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ also loved the church and gave Himself for her, 26that He might sanctify and cleanse her with the washing of water by the word, 27that He might present her to Himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing, but that she should be holy and without blemish. 28So husbands ought to love their own wives as their own bodies; he who loves his wife loves himself. 29For no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as the Lord does the church. 30For we are members of His body,[a] of His flesh and of His bones. 31 "For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh."[a] 32This is a great mystery, but I speak concerning Christ and the church. 33Nevertheless let each one of you in particular so love his own wife as himself, and let the wife see that she respects her husband.

CHILDREN AND PARENTS

6 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. 2 "Honor your father and mother," which is the first commandment with promise: 3 "that it may be well with you and you may live long on the earth."[a]

OBEDIENCE
What promise does God give those who obey their parents?
Ephesians 6:1–3

4And you, fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord.

BONDSERVANTS AND MASTERS

5Bondservants, be obedient to those who are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in sincerity of heart, as to Christ; 6not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers, but as bondservants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, 7with goodwill doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men, 8knowing that whatever good anyone does, he will receive the same from the Lord, whether he is a slave or free.

9And you, masters, do the same things to them, giving up threatening, knowing that your own Master also[a] is in heaven, and there is no partiality with Him.

Ephesians 6:11

Paul spent a lot of time chained to soldiers while under arrest; he had excellent opportunities to examine their battle dress. Roman foot soldiers wore armor and carried shields for protection. The armor was made of thick leather or metal. Helmets came in all shapes and sizes. Some covered the entire head with metal and provided a protective screen for the face.

THE WHOLE ARMOR OF GOD

10Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. 11Put on the

MAKING IT REAL // EPHESIANS 6:1–3

Obedience Versus Rebellion God gave you to your parents so that they could raise you. He chose them especially to care for you. The promise in Ephesians 6:3 says that if you obey your father and your mother, "it may be well with you and you may live long on the earth." Also, when you honor the authority that God has put over you, you get His blessing. Kids who choose to rebel and disobey miss out. God uses the people in authority over us to teach us how to live successfully. When you ignore or fight against the instructions God gives you through leaders and parents, life can get pretty messy and be much more difficult than it needs to be.

Can you imagine any adult ever saying, "I rebelled against my parents as a child. I disobeyed their every word and worried them sick. It was the right thing to do. My life is so much better because I always broke their rules." That's just not going to happen. Those who lived their childhood and teen years in rebellion are much more likely to live in guilt and regret because they were so ugly to their parents and had to suffer the consequences of their determination to do things their own way.

God is the Master Designer and this is His design: obedience leads to right choices and a good life, but rebellion is sin and leads to guilt and regret. (See also: Prov. 15:31, 32; Col. 3:20.)

Words to Live By

Honor: The word translated as "honor" in Ephesians 6:2 is the Greek word timao (tim-ah'-oh). To honor means "to consider someone extremely valuable and worthy of respect." "Honor your mother and your father" is one of God's Ten Commandments (Ex. 20:12). It isn't a choice; it's a command from God.

whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. 12For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age,[a] against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places. 13Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

14Stand therefore, having girded your waist with truth, having put on the breastplate of righteousness, 15and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace; 16above all, taking the shield of faith with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked one. 17And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God; 18praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, being watchful to this end with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints— 19and for me, that utterance may be given to me, that I may open my mouth boldly to make known the mystery of the gospel, 20for which I am an ambassador in chains; that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

A GRACIOUS GREETING

21But that you also may know my affairs and how I am doing, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, will make all things known to you; 22whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, that you may know our affairs, and that he may comfort your hearts.

23Peace to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 24Grace be with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain (Philippians 1:21).

THEN ///

Philippians is one of the books Paul wrote while he was under house arrest in Rome. In fact, Paul spent a lot of time under arrest and behind bars. Paul was in and out of jail because he believed that obeying Jesus was the most important thing he could do. That scared the extremely non-Christian government of his time. They didn't want Jesus' message to be spread; they wanted the people to listen only to them. They wanted to keep the people living in fear and oppression. If Paul told everyone about Jesus, the government would lose its power to dominate. So the government officials tried to silence Paul. Of course, he kept preaching and they kept taking him into custody. Since Paul was really focused on spreading the gospel, jail seemed like as good a place as any to do this.

NOW ///

Have you ever written a thank-you note? When someone gives you a gift or does something nice for you, it's right and proper to sit down and write a short note saying "thank you." Then you mail it. It should not be a text, not an e-mail, but an actual piece of snail mail with an envelope and a stamp.

Part of the reason Paul wrote his letter to the Philippians was to thank them for supporting his ministry and for their love and friendship. He wrote this letter while under lock and key. But even from behind that locked door, Paul knew real joy—the joy that can be known only through Jesus. And he wanted to share that joy with his friends in Philippi.

Being joyful is not at all about circumstances. It doesn't come from outside, it comes from deep within; and it is available even when life is filled with trouble. Paul understood this. Even when he had chains on his hands and feet, nothing could control his heart and mind. Paul realized that life is more than the difficult moments; it's a journey to be walked in joy with the Lord leading the way.

So if you need a pick-me-up, Philippians is the book to read. Maybe we should subtitle it "Philippians: looking up when everything looks down."

REALITY CHECK ///

There's a big difference between joy and happiness. Happiness is what you feel when circumstances in your life go right. If you make good grades and get what you want for your birthday—those kinds of things make you happy. Because happiness is related to circumstances, it comes and goes with the good times in life. Joy, on the other hand, is more than an emotion. It is a perspective, a way of looking at life. We have joy when we feel secure inside that, no matter how our circumstances might change, God is still in control. That's why Paul could write a letter about gratitude and joy from a depressing circumstance like house arrest. He might not have been happy, but in the end he knew that God was in control of his life.

PROMISE

God promises to complete a good work in you.

Being confident of this very thing, that He who has begun a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ (Phil. 1:6).

Jesus is coming back again. It may be difficult to fully grasp that reality in the midst of your day-to-day life. But one day, in unmistakable power and glory, He will physically make His return trip to this Earth. When He does, no one in the world will have to wonder what's happening. Upon His return, He will finish some important business. One of those little unfinished matters is you.

Don't worry, though. If you're one of His children, He's coming back not to pull the curtain down on you but to raise the blinds and allow you to see what He's been doing in your life. And one day—one great, big, glorious day—you will see what's been going on behind the scenes this whole time. What now seem to be random strings of unrelated events or experiences will then look like a beautiful tapestry sewn by God, with every loose end connected.

God finishes what He starts. Let Him get started with you.

abound still more and more in knowledge and all discernment, [10]that you may approve the things that are excellent, that you may be sincere and without offense till the day of Christ, [11]being filled with the fruits of righteousness which are by Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

CHRIST IS PREACHED

[12]But I want you to know, brethren, that the things which happened to me have actually turned out for the furtherance of the gospel, [13]so that it has become evident to the whole palace guard, and to all the rest, that my chains are in Christ; [14]and most of the brethren in the Lord, having become confident by my chains, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

[15]Some indeed preach Christ even from envy and strife, and some also from goodwill: [16]The former[a] preach Christ from selfish ambition, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my chains; [17]but the latter out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the gospel. [18]What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is preached; and in this I rejoice, yes, and will rejoice.

TO LIVE IS CHRIST

[19]For I know that this will turn out for my deliverance through your prayer and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, [20]according to my earnest expectation and hope that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death. [21]For to me,

Philippians 1:7

Talk about a slow judicial system! Paul lived under house arrest in Rome for two years while he waited for Caesar to hear his case. Since electronic monitoring devices weren't available in Paul's day, he had soldiers guarding him day and night. The guards worked four-hour shifts, with at least one person handcuffed to Paul at all times. Even though he was officially a prisoner, Paul was allowed to receive visitors. That gave him an opportunity to share the message of Christ not only with the people who came to see him, but with the soldiers as well.

1:16 [a]NU-Text reverses the contents of verses 16 and 17.

to live is Christ, and to die is gain. 22But if I live on in the flesh, this will mean fruit from my labor; yet what I shall choose I cannot tell. 23For[a] I am hard-pressed between the two, having a desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better. 24Nevertheless to remain in the flesh is more needful for you. 25And being confident of this, I know that I shall remain and continue with you all for your progress and joy of faith, 26that your rejoicing for me may be more abundant in Jesus Christ by my coming to you again.

STRIVING AND SUFFERING FOR CHRIST

27Only let your conduct be worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of your affairs, that you stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel, 28and not in any way terrified by your adversaries, which is to them a proof of perdition, but to you of salvation,[a] and that from God. 29For to you it has been granted on behalf of Christ, not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer for His sake, 30having the same conflict which you saw in me and now hear is in me.

HUMILITY
How do we live out true humility?
Philippians 2:1–4

UNITY THROUGH HUMILITY

2 Therefore if there is any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any affection and mercy, 2fulfill my joy by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. 3*Let* nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself. 4Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others.

THE HUMBLED AND EXALTED CHRIST

5Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus, 6who, being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, 7but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant, and coming in the likeness of men. 8And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross. 9Therefore God also has highly exalted Him and given Him the name which is above every name, 10that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth, 11and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

LIGHT BEARERS

12Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; 13for it is God who works in you both to will and to do for His good pleasure.

ATTITUDE
How can God's people make a difference in the world?
Philippians 2:14, 15

14Do all things without complaining and disputing, 15that you may become blameless and harmless, children of God without fault in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, 16holding fast the word of life, so that I may rejoice in the day of Christ that I have not run in vain or labored in vain.

17Yes, and if I am being poured out as a drink offering on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with you all. 18For the same reason you also be glad and rejoice with me.

TIMOTHY COMMENDED

19But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you shortly, that I also may be encouraged when I know your state. 20For I have no one like-minded, who will sincerely care for your state. 21For all seek their own, not the things which are of

MAKING IT REAL // PHILIPPIANS 2:8

Humility For a great story about how humble Jesus was, look at John 13:1–17. It's a fascinating story about humility. Can you imagine sitting in the same room as Jesus only to have Him come up to you and wash your feet? Your feet . . . the ugliest and smelliest part of your body! Wow! Jesus displayed the ultimate act of humility in this illustration. And we are to follow His example.

But, what does it really mean to be humble? It means that you aren't impressed by yourself and are willing to put your desires aside to love and serve other people. It means you recognize that anything good about you comes directly from God; you can't be or do anything worthwhile on your own.

If you know anything about the life and ministry of Jesus, then you know that He was a humble servant. He even said that He didn't come to be served but to serve (Matt. 20:28). If that was Jesus' attitude, how much more should it be ours? If we are willing to be humble servants to those around us, we are imitating Christ; and that's what our Christian walk is all about. (See also: Prov. 11:2; Matt. 23:12.)

Words to Live By

Obedient: The word translated in Philippians 2:8 as "obedient" is the Greek word hupekoos (hoop-ay'-ko-os). It means "to willingly listen to and submit to those in authority." Anyone in authority over us was given that place of honor by God. It's important to obey them; it's most important to be obedient to God.

Christ Jesus. 22But you know his proven character, that as a son with his father he served with me in the gospel. 23Therefore I hope to send him at once, as soon as I see how it goes with me. 24But I trust in the Lord that I myself shall also come shortly.

EPAPHRODITUS PRAISED

25Yet I considered it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker, and fellow soldier, but your messenger and the one who ministered to my need; 26since he was longing for you all, and was distressed because you had heard that he was sick. 27For indeed he was sick almost unto death; but God had mercy on him, and not only on him but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow. 28Therefore I sent him the more eagerly, that when you see him again you may rejoice, and I may be less sorrowful. 29Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness, and hold such men in esteem; 30because for the work of Christ he came close to death, not regarding his life, to supply what was lacking in your service toward me.

ALL FOR CHRIST

3 Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. For me to write the same things to you is not tedious, but for you it is safe.

Philippians 3:2

Paul wasn't talking about loyal household pets in this verse. He was talking about packs of wild, vicious canines that roamed the Near East, eating anything they could find—including garbage—and attacking people. "Dog" was popular among Jews as an insulting name for a Gentile. Paul turned the insult around in this verse. The people he called dogs were those who insisted that circumcision was necessary for Christians.

2Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the mutilation! 3For we are

Reputation / Philippians 2:25–30

Epaphroditus represented well. Paul made a point to endorse his stellar reputation in this letter to the Philippians. Epaphroditus got a shout-out in the Bible! That's quite the reputation builder. You may think that he must have preached powerfully all over the world, or done some other great act with global impact.

Actually, Epaphroditus was a Christian from Philippi who was sent by the church to minister to Paul in Rome. Epaphroditus wasn't immediately successful. On his journey, he became so sick he almost died. But he remained faithful and eventually received healing. In this letter, Paul is sending him back to Philippi so the people there can see for themselves that he is okay. And Paul is sending him back with a high recommendation: "Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness, and hold such men in esteem; because for the work of Christ he came close to death, not regarding his life, to supply what was lacking in your service toward me" (Phil. 2:29, 30).

In one way of thinking, Epaphroditus' mission could be seen as not so successful. He went to help Paul, ended up almost dying, and then had to go back home. However, Paul made it clear that Epaphroditus' mission was a resounding success simply because he was faithful. He didn't take on an attitude of complaining or self-pity, even though he almost died. He even showed concern for his fellow Christians back home because he knew they were worried about him.

Epaphroditus' sterling reputation was earned by being faithful in his mission and godly in his actions and attitudes. You can do the same. You don't have to get deathly sick to earn a godly reputation. But you can learn from Epaphroditus and determine to do whatever God calls you to do to the best of your ability. And you can choose to honor God in your reactions and attitudes. God's opinion of us is way more important than anyone else's. But a positive reputation can draw other people to God. That's representing well.

LIFE APP

Gentleness / Philippians 4:5

"Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is at hand" (Phil. 4:5). The apostle Paul wrote these words to the church in Philippi. Just a few verses earlier he begged two church members to make up from a disagreement between them that was affecting the whole church. He went on to encourage the entire church to show the spirit that allows for the solving of disagreements and the restoring of fellowship: gentleness.

Biblical gentleness is not being weak and mousy, inviting others to take advantage of or wound you. Instead, it is a spirit of fairness and calmness. Think about it, if you're having a disagreement, are you more likely to be brought to forgiveness and restoration by someone who is shouting in anger or by someone who is speaking with calm confidence, seeking to be fair to everyone?

As we continually follow Christ, we can develop this characteristic of gentleness. Even when our whole world is going crazy, we can be calm, cool, and collected, trusting that God will give us the wisdom and patience we need to persevere and conquer any obstacle. We don't have to let fear drive us to attack others or throw fits of rage. Instead of being like a leaf blown around in a storm, we can be a strong rock that comes through the storm with our strength intact. And others will be drawn to this powerful gentleness. We can help restore unity within the body of Christ by dealing fairly and peacefully with everyone. We can draw unbelievers to the Lord by letting them see the supernatural strength of our unwavering gentleness through all of our actions and interactions. This is how Paul tells the church to live, letting everyone see their gentleness—the persevering gentleness that the world cannot produce or understand, but that only comes from God.

MAKING IT REAL // PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Think About It Have your parents ever gotten on your case about the music you listen to? More than likely, they aren't so concerned with how it sounds as they are about what it says. It just might be a good idea to put your music collection through the Philippians 4:8 test. Do the lyrics talk about true things, noble things, justice, purity—things that are good in the eyes of God? If what you are listening to makes you think about things that are impure, wrong, or immoral, it fails the test.

It may seem harmless to listen to music that doesn't pass the test, but it could be more dangerous than you can imagine. What goes into your ears becomes a part of you. It sits in your brain and becomes something you know. And people act on what they know. Without realizing it, the lyrics of the songs you hear can change the way you think, and eventually, the way you live. Garbage in, garbage out.

So instead of arguing with your parents over music (or anything else that is feeding your mind the garbage thinking of the world), really pay attention to what they're saying. And the next time you buy a CD or download a song, give it the "4:8" test and ask yourself if God would be pleased. (See also: Prov. 4:24; 23:7; Matt. 12:34–37; Col. 3:1, 2.)

Words to Live By

Meditate: The word translated in Philippians 4:8 as "meditate" is the Greek word logizomai (log-id'-zom-ahee). It means "to think deeply, to reason, or to attempt to understand or grasp." Logizomai should not be confused with the type of meditation promoted by some Eastern religions that suggest you should try to empty your mind of thought and just "be." Logizomai is reigning in your thoughts and forcing them into good and holy places.

the circumcision, who worship God in the Spirit,[a] rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh, 4though I also might have confidence in the flesh. If anyone else thinks he may have confidence in the flesh, I more so: 5circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of the Hebrews; concerning the law, a Pharisee; 6concerning zeal, persecuting the church; concerning the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

Philippians 3:5

The Pharisees were a political and religious group within the Jewish community. They studied the Scriptures constantly and insisted on strict obedience to God's Old Testament laws. Most Jewish people respected the Pharisees' dedication and knowledge. In turn, the Pharisees tended to look down on anyone who didn't meet their standards.

7But what things were gain to me, these I have counted loss for Christ. 8Yet indeed I also count all things loss for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them as rubbish, that I may gain Christ 9and be found in Him, not having my own righteousness, which is from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith; 10that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death, 11if, by any means, I may attain to the resurrection from the dead.

PRESSING TOWARD THE GOAL

12Not that I have already attained, or am already perfected; but I press on, that I may lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has also laid hold of me. 13Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, 14I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

15Therefore let us, as many as are mature, have this mind; and if in anything you think otherwise, God will reveal even this to you. 16Nevertheless, to the degree that we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule,[a] let us be of the same mind.

OUR CITIZENSHIP IN HEAVEN

17Brethren, join in following my example, and note those who so walk, as you have us for a pattern. 18For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: 19whose end is destruction, whose god is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame—who set their mind on earthly things. 20For our citizenship is in heaven, from which we also eagerly wait for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, 21who will transform our lowly body that it may be conformed to His glorious body, according to the working by which He is able even to subdue all things to Himself.

4 Therefore, my beloved and longed-for brethren, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, beloved.

BE UNITED, JOYFUL, AND IN PRAYER

2I implore Euodia and I implore Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. 3And[a] I urge you also, true companion, help these women who labored with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the Book of Life.

How can Christians fight against worry?
Philippians 4:4–9

4Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice!

5Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is at hand.

6Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; 7and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

THOUGHTS
Can we direct our thoughts in positive ways?
Philippians 4:8

MEDITATE ON THESE THINGS

8Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things. 9The things which you learned and received and heard and saw in me, these do, and the God of peace will be with you.

PHILIPPIAN GENEROSITY

10But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at last your care for me has flourished again; though you surely did care, but you lacked opportunity. 11Not that I speak in regard to need, for I have learned in whatever state I am, to be content: 12I know how to be abased, and I know how to abound. Everywhere and in all things I have learned both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. 13I can do all things through Christ[a] who strengthens me.

14Nevertheless you have done well that you shared in my distress. 15Now you Philippians know also that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church shared with me concerning giving and receiving but you only. 16For even in Thessalonica you sent aid once and again for my necessities. 17Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the fruit that

MIR MAKING IT REAL // PHILIPPIANS 4:13

Strength If you've ever read about the apostle Paul, you know he often had a rough time. He was thrown in jail, beaten up, and had rocks thrown at him more than once. He was robbed, lived through a shipwreck, and often went hungry. At times he barely had enough clothes to keep him warm. So Paul wasn't just spitting hot air when he told the Philippians, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." He knew for sure that God would enable him to make it through any situation.

It doesn't matter if you can't relate to Paul's life. It doesn't matter if you aren't an apostle or a missionary living in the jungle. It doesn't matter if you think you'll never have to go through any of the stuff Paul faced. What does matter is that Paul was strong because Jesus lived inside of him, and the same Jesus lives in you. Because of Jesus, just like Paul, you can face anything. You can face a really tough exam. You can face your parents when you've messed up big-time. You can face your friends when they think you're lame for doing what God wants. You can face the future even when it's frightening. Just don't try to do it by yourself. The strength to face all those things comes only from Jesus. He'll make you strong. (See also: Ps. 68:35; Hab. 3:19.)

Words to Live By

All: We all know what this word means, right? All means "all." So when we read in Philippians 4:13 that we can "do all things through Christ," that's just what it means—there is nothing beyond us when Jesus is on our side. We just have to remember we can't do anything of value on our own. Only Jesus has the power to strengthen us and the wisdom to lead us through the difficult things in life.

abounds to your account. 18Indeed I have all and abound. I am full, having received from Epaphroditus the things sent from you, a sweet-smelling aroma, an acceptable sacrifice, well pleasing to God. 19And my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus. 20Now to our God and Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.

GREETING AND BLESSING

21Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren who are with me greet you. 22All the saints greet you, but especially those who are of Caesar's household.

23The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.[a] Amen.

KEY VERSE:

If then you were raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ is, sitting at the right hand of God. Set your mind on things above, not on things on the earth (Colossians 3:1, 2).

THEN /// Paul wrote to the church at Colosse because they had fallen prey to some heretics (false teachers). There were people in the Colossian church who were teaching that Christianity was just too easy. Righteousness couldn't be as easy to obtain as simply having faith in Christ. There had to be more to it than that.

Paul wrote to say, "Let's go over it again. There's no more to it. If you add more to it, then you are wrong. Faith in Christ is all there is." Because of this, Colossians is a good book to read to review the basics of Christianity. At the bottom of it all, the message of Christ is simple and clear. Humans needed to be righteous in order to relate to God. Christ gave His life to provide that righteousness for us. When we put our faith in Christ's sacrifice God sees us through Christ's righteousness. There is nothing we can do to add to that. If we think we can add to it, then we need to read the Book of Colossians and let Paul set us straight.

NOW /// Several of Paul's letters were written to correct some heresy (wrong teaching or belief) that had slipped into the church. Do you know when something is heresy and when it is not? Here are some tests:

1. Does this way of thinking honor Christ as the one true God?
2. Does this way of thinking require anything more than faith to be righteous?
3. Does this way of thinking help me to be more obedient to God or less?

Be wise and ask questions about what you are taught. Don't let someone fool you into believing a lie.

REALITY CHECK /// Paul was so important to the early church. He set church members straight when they drifted from the truth. He encouraged them when they were overwhelmed. He was like a big brother and a teacher rolled into one.

We all should have someone in our lives who can and will keep it real with us when it comes to our walk of faith. If you don't, look around you. Find someone who trusts God and has lived the Christian life for a long time. Find someone you can trust to help you decide what to believe and what to stand against. Find someone who will tell you the truth even when it hurts or even when it makes you angry. We all need a Paul in our lives.

Colossians 1:7

Epaphras was a Gentile (non-Jew) who became a Christian, probably as a result of Paul's teaching. Epaphras returned to his native city of Colosse to tell others about Jesus and to start a church. During the two years Paul was under house arrest, Epaphras visited him, cheering up the apostle with stories about the good things that were happening in the church at Colosse.

MAKING IT REAL // COLOSSIANS 1:10, 11

Enduring Trouble Remember the story in Luke 8:43–48 about the woman who had been bleeding for twelve years? Talk about enduring. This woman had patiently endured illness for nearly as long as some of us have been alive. Luke reports that she had spent all of her money on doctors. They helped her as much as they could, but she still didn't get well; she just continued to get worse. Finally, she heard that Jesus was passing by. She knew if she could just touch Him she would be healed. So she fought her way through a huge mob, found Jesus, and pushed her way to His side. She reached out her hand and touched His clothes. And she was healed! Do you think she was happy? You bet she was!

In Colossians 1:10 and 11, the apostle Paul assures you that you have been given the power to endure anything. Anything! It doesn't matter how hopeless your circumstances seem; if you will just push past all your fear and confusion, tap into the power of God, and trust Him to work things out for your good, He will give you the strength to endure until your answer arrives.

Once you know that God will always give you the strength to endure trouble and will send you help at just the right time, it makes difficult times a bit easier. You can be patient as you wait for God to touch your life because you know He always comes through for you. (See also: Rom. 5:3, 4; Phil. 4:13.)

Words to Live By

Might: The word translated in Colossians 1:11 as "might" is the Greek word dunamis (doo'-nam-is). It means "energy, great force, ability, and strength." In 2 Corinthians 4:7, it is translated as "power." The strength God gives us to make it through difficult times is not just enough to get by; we can walk right through trouble with patience and joy because God gives us power from His own supply.

Christ on your behalf, [8]who also declared to us your love in the Spirit.

PREEMINENCE OF CHRIST

[9]For this reason we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to ask that you may be filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; [10]that you may walk worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing Him, being fruitful in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God; [11]strengthened with all might, according to His glorious power, for all patience and longsuffering with joy; [12]giving thanks to the Father who has qualified us to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in the light. [13]He has delivered us from the power of darkness and conveyed us into the kingdom of the Son of His love, [14]in whom we have redemption through His blood,[a] the forgiveness of sins.

[15]He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. [16]For by Him all things were created that are in heaven and that are on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers. All things were created through Him and for Him. [17]And He is before all things, and in Him all things consist. [18]And He is the head of the body, the church, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things He may have the preeminence.

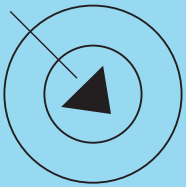
WORLD APP



Global Warming / Colossians 1:16–18

The debate rages—is the world headed for disastrous climate changes or is global warming just a hoax? While many scientists are convinced that our world is headed for a catastrophic natural disaster, others seem just as sure the natural cycle of the earth's orbit and its angle toward the sun account for the higher water and air temperatures of recent decades. Which one is right?

Most likely the debate will continue. The truth is we just don't know enough to be able to predict the fate of our world. Scientists can only use the information they have gathered about the earth's climate in the past century or so. Before that, the ability to collect such data just didn't exist. The climate of our world may have gone through changes exactly like we're seeing now many times, or global warming may be an absolute reality.

Rather than allow predictions of catastrophe and doom to cause you to fear tomorrow, it is important to remember that God is the One in control. He made the earth and everything on it. We should always take care of the earth; that's what God expects. He trusts us to do whatever we can to keep our presence on His world from ruining the beauty He created. But nothing happens to God's creation without His knowledge, and mankind is not capable of doing anything to this earth that God does not allow. According to Colossians 1:17, "In [Jesus] all things consist." This means that Jesus actually holds every created thing together. He is the One who sustains the universe.

Don't fear the fate of the world. It belongs to God, and nothing will happen without His knowledge. Men may debate over climates and causes, but we know from the Book of Revelation that this world will come to an end. How and when that happens is totally up to God. Until that day, we can be sure Jesus will take care of us and our world.

PROMISE

God promises to present you above reproach in His sight.

And you, who once were alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now He has reconciled in the body of His flesh through death, to present you holy, and blameless, and above reproach in His sight—if indeed you continue in the faith, grounded and steadfast, and are not moved away from the hope of the gospel which you heard, which was preached to every creature under heaven, of which I, Paul, became a minister (Col. 1:21–23).

It seems like people are always dividing up: teams, clubs, cliques, or groups. With everyone taking sides, there are a lot of ways you can be left out. Your grades might keep you from the Honor Society or your first-choice college. Lack of skill could keep you off the basketball team. A forgotten invitation may keep you from a friend's party.

To not be included in a group can be hurtful and disappointing. Though the world may leave you standing alone wishing you could be a part, you will never be left out of the love of Jesus. You don't have to be good enough or popular enough or smart enough for Him to choose you. He loves and accepts you just as you are. All that is required to be a part of Jesus' group—His family—is accepting Him as your Savior and Lord. Then you can know the joy of always belonging. Jesus promises that, one day in heaven, He will call your name, and you will never be left out again. Because of Christ, you will be made perfect enough to stand with Him—holy, sinless, and free from the guilt of your sin. You'll be loved, accepted, and forever included with Jesus and all the saints of heaven.

RECONCILED IN CHRIST

19For it pleased the Father that in Him all the fullness should dwell, 20and by Him to reconcile all things to Himself, by Him, whether things on earth or things in heaven, having made peace through the blood of His cross.

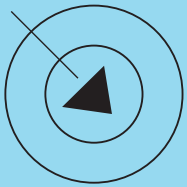
21And you, who once were alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now He has reconciled 22in the body of His flesh through death, to present you holy, and blameless, and above reproach in His sight— 23if indeed you continue in the faith, grounded and steadfast, and are not moved away from the hope of the gospel which you heard, which was preached to every creature under heaven, of which I,
Paul, became a minister.



SACRIFICIAL SERVICE FOR CHRIST

24I now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up in my flesh what is lacking in the afflictions of Christ, for the sake of His body, which is the church, 25of which I became a minister according to the stewardship from God which was given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God, 26the mystery which has been hidden from ages and from generations, but now has been revealed to His saints. 27To them God willed to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles: which[a] is Christ in you, the hope of glory. 28Him we preach, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus. 29To this end I also labor, striving according to His working which works in me mightily.

NOT PHILOSOPHY BUT CHRIST

2 For I want you to know what a great conflict I have for you and those in Laodicea, and for as many as have

1:27 [a]M-Text reads who.

PROMISE

God promises to wipe out the record against you.

And you . . . He has made alive together with Him, having forgiven you all trespasses, having wiped out the handwriting of requirements that was against us, which was contrary to us (Col. 2:13, 14a).

We live in a culture that seems addicted to so-called "reality" shows on television. These programs are heavy on the show and light on the actual reality, most of the time. But one type of reality show gives us a clear, and sometimes shocking, view of our justice system: a televised visit to the court room. We can now watch the real-life drama as lawyers argue, judges overrule, and witnesses tell their story; the defendants try to prove their innocence and the prosecutors try to prove them guilty; all the while, the deepest, darkest details of people's lives are reported and broadcast in high-definition reality for the world to see.

Imagine that in one of these gripping cases, the only piece of evidence against the defendant is a video recording. The prosecution claims the recording actually shows the defendant committing the crime—it's absolute proof of the defendant's guilt. With arrogant confidence, the prosecutor prepares to play the video and win the case. But when he presses the button on the player, nothing happens. There's no picture, no sound, no evidence. Everything has been erased, as if it never happened.

On Judgment Day (the day Jesus returns from heaven), everyone in the world will stand before God and be judged. How terrifying and hopeless that could be if we were left to face it on our own! All the evidence of our sins would be against us. We are all sinners (Rom. 3:23) and none of us could plead "not guilty" against all that evidence.

But if you've asked Christ into your heart, all that evidence will have been erased, as if it never happened . . . deleted from memory by a nail-scarred hand. Because of Jesus' sacrifice on our behalf, we can plead "not guilty." He's already taken our "guilty" verdict and our punishment. Our sins are not only forgiven but wiped out and forgotten. We will be seen as clean and holy—innocent of all sin through Christ Jesus our Lord.

SEE FOR YOURSELF// Psalm 103:12; Isaiah 43:25; Romans 3:24

not seen my face in the flesh, 2that their hearts may be encouraged, being knit together in love, and attaining to all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the knowledge of the mystery of God, both of the Father and[a] of Christ, 3in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

4Now this I say lest anyone should deceive you with persuasive words. 5For though I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see your good order and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ.

6As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, 7rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it[a] with thanksgiving.

Colossians 2:1

Built on the banks of the Lycus River in what is now known as Turkey, Laodicea was known for its wealth in New Testament times. Other passages in the Bible seem to suggest that the Christians in Laodicea had lost their enthusiasm for and commitment to the things of God.

2:2 [a]NU-Text omits both of the Father and.
2:7 [a]NU-Text omits in it.

[8]Beware lest anyone cheat you through philosophy and empty deceit, according to the tradition of men, according to the basic principles of the world, and not according to Christ. [9]For in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily; [10]and you are complete in Him, who is the head of all principality and power.

BAPTISM
Why are Christians baptized?
Colossians 2:11–13

NOT LEGALISM BUT CHRIST

[11]In Him you were also circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the sins[a] of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, [12]buried with Him in baptism, in which you also were raised with Him through faith in the working of God, who raised Him from the dead. [13]And you, being dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He has made alive together with Him, having forgiven you all trespasses, [14]having wiped out the handwriting of requirements that was against us, which was contrary to us. And He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the cross. [15]Having disarmed principalities and powers, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them in it.

Colossians 2:15

In the days of the Roman Empire, when a Roman general returned home after a successful military campaign, he was honored with a special ceremony called a triumph. A parade was thrown in his honor, with the general leading the way in his chariot and prisoners of war following along behind. Those prisoners were then divided into two groups: those who would be executed and those who would become slaves of the Roman Empire.

[16]So let no one judge you in food or in drink, or regarding a festival or a new moon or sabbaths, [17]which are a shadow of things to come, but the substance is of Christ. [18]Let no one cheat you of your reward, taking delight in false humility and worship of angels, intruding into those things which he has not[a] seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, [19]and not holding fast to the Head, from whom all the body, nourished and knit together by joints and ligaments, grows with the increase that is from God.

[20]Therefore,[a] if you died with Christ from the basic principles of the world, why, as though living in the world, do you subject yourselves to regulations—[21]"Do not touch, do not taste, do not handle," [22]which all concern things which perish with the using—according to the commandments and doctrines of men? [23]These things indeed have an appearance of wisdom in self-imposed religion, false humility, and neglect of the body, but are of no value against the indulgence of the flesh.

NOT CARNALITY BUT CHRIST

3 If then you were raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ is, sitting at the right hand of God. [2]Set your mind on things above, not on things on the earth. [3]For you died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. [4]When Christ who is our life appears, then you also will appear with Him in glory.

[5]Therefore put to death your members which are on the earth: fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. [6]Because of these things the wrath of God is coming upon the sons of disobedience, [7]in which you yourselves once walked when you lived in them.

[8]But now you yourselves are to put off all these: anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy language out of your mouth. [9]Do not lie to one another, since you have put off the old man with his deeds, [10]and have put on the new man who is renewed in knowledge according to the image of Him who created him, [11]where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcised nor uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave nor free, but Christ is all and in all.

MIR MAKING IT REAL // COLOSSIANS 3:1

Eternal Perspective Paul says that because you have a new life in Christ, you are to set your heart and mind on the things that really matter—the eternal things. He isn't saying that you should lose your sense of reality because your head is always somewhere else. What he means is that life in this world will be better if you live it with the power and perspective that comes from God. You will handle success, failure, and disappointment with maturity and poise when you see things from God's point of view.

God sees everything that happens on this earth with eyes that easily recognize the things that really make a difference—the things that will last. He has an eternal perspective. That means He sees all the events of today in light of eternity. To begin to have that perspective in your own life, you can ask yourself questions that will help direct your understanding: Does today's "crisis" have any bearing on eternity? Will it matter when I get to heaven? Will it even matter in one hundred years? Is it worth all the anxiety, worry, and pain?

An eternal perspective lets you give others a lot of grace. You will be able to treat people in your life with more understanding and compassion. You'll be more patient with people and events when you realize that, because of Christ, some things are just not a big deal. Since you have been raised to life with Christ, think about things with a heavenly mind-set. Let the truth of eternity guide your decisions and reactions about the world. (See also: Gal. 2:20.)

Words to Live By

Raised: The word translated as "raised" in Colossians 3:1 is the Greek word sunegeiro (soon-eg-i'-ro). It means "to rise together from death." Jesus didn't just die for us, He also rose for us. Now we are no longer bound by the spiritual death caused by sin; we can join with Jesus in His resurrection and rise to new life; a spiritual life that never ends.

FORGIVENESS
Whose example must we follow in forgiving others?
Colossians 3:12, 13

CHARACTER OF THE NEW MAN

12 Therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, put on tender mercies, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering; 13 bearing with one another, and forgiving one another, if anyone has a complaint against another; even as Christ forgave you, so you also must do. 14 But above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfection. 15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful. 16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.
17 And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

Longsuffering / Colossians 3:12, 13

"Longsuffering" is not a word we use much these days. It can sound old-fashioned or even slightly depressing; it can bring to our minds images of endless suffering and sorrow. But in reality, it's a strong and encouraging word. It means patience or endurance. It actually refers to perseverance and consistency—having the strength to keep trying, to hold on and not give up. This is an important word for Christians; it's a character trait we'll develop as we become more like Christ; it is a fruit of the Spirit (Gal. 5:22).

Longsuffering doesn't mean that you should have some strange fascination with suffering. It doesn't mean you shouldn't stand up for yourself or that you should suffer in order to be more worthy of the things of God. Longsuffering means having the strength to be faithful even when circumstances are challenging. It is about having patience with others, even when their words or actions may get on your last nerve. It is about having the faith to believe that God is always in control, so even when you are discouraged, you can keep going and not give up.

The apostle Paul recognized the importance of longsuffering in the Christian life. He encouraged the Colossian church to "put on" character traits such as kindness, humility, and longsuffering (Col. 3:12). This included "bearing with one another, and forgiving one another, if anyone has a complaint against another; even as Christ forgave you, so you also must do" (Col. 3:13). In order to treat others with kindness and to bear with (support and accept) them, you have to exercise longsuffering. Let's be honest, sometimes people are difficult to deal with, even Christians. But it's important to find a way to get along and maintain unity, even when someone makes it tough to do. Developing an attitude of longsuffering will allow you to show compassion and mercy to others, which will honor God and attract other people to Him.

MIR MAKING IT REAL // COLOSSIANS 4:2

Prayer What is prayer? Prayer is simply communication with God—just talking and listening to Him. You see, prayer moves the hand of God, and the hand of God moves the world! He wants us to come to Him in prayer.

There's not a right or wrong way to pray. All you have to do is talk to God like you would with your best friend. A lot of people have the idea that prayer is only talking to God. That's only half of it. You really can't communicate with someone without another important activity—listening. Prayer is a two-way street. Not only does God want you to talk to Him; He also wants to talk to you. He will talk to you through His Word and also by reminding you, with a gentle voice inside, of the truth you already know.

We can go to God when we're in a mess and need help; but don't get in the habit of praying only when you need help. God wants you to "continue" in prayer—pray and then keep praying. You do that by talking to God throughout the day, just like you would with a close friend. If you were to only talk to a close friend once in a while, what would happen? Your friendship wouldn't be that close. If we expect our relationship with Christ to be strong, we must never stop praying. Take some time to talk to God right now and see what He has to say. (See also: Matt. 21:22; 26:41; John 15:7; Rom. 12:12; 1 Thess. 5:17.)

Words to Live By

Thanksgiving: The word translated as "thanksgiving" in Colossians 4:2 is the Greek word eucharistia (yoo-khar-is-tee'-ah). It is an act of worship toward God that expresses your gratitude for all the blessings God has given you.

19 Husbands, love your wives and do not be bitter toward them.
20 Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is well pleasing to the Lord.
21 Fathers, do not provoke your children, lest they become discouraged.
22 Bondservants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh, not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers, but in sincerity of heart, fearing God. 23 And whatever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord and not to men, 24 knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance; for[a] you serve the Lord Christ. 25 But he who does wrong will be repaid for what he has done, and there is no partiality.

4 Masters, give your bondservants what is just and fair, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.

CHRISTIAN GRACES

2 Continue earnestly in prayer, being vigilant in it with thanksgiving; 3 meanwhile praying also for us, that God would open to us a door for the word, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in chains, 4 that I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.
5 Walk in wisdom toward those who are outside, redeeming the time. 6 Let your speech always be with grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how you ought to answer each one.

E-mail / Colossians 4:6

Communication is an important part of all relationships: romantic, business, friendships, family. We communicate in all kinds of ways, such as face-to-face talks, telephone conversations, body language, and maybe even an old-fashioned, handwritten letter sent by snail mail. Another way we communicate in almost all relationships is email. Most people use email at work to send files or talk about a project. But we use emails in our personal lives as well. Rather than taking the time to write out a whole letter, buy a stamp, and go to a mailbox, it's so much easier to just type your thoughts out quickly and push send. As convenient as email is, it does have its drawbacks.

When you're reading an email, you can't hear the tone of the writer's voice. You can't pick up clues from their body language. All you have are words on a screen that can be easily misinterpreted. On the flipside, it's easy to write in an email, things you would never say in person. When you're upset or angry, email can seem like a great friend just waiting for you to pour out all your emotions—complete freedom to express yourself with no filter. The problem comes when you send those unfiltered emotions on to the recipient; you can't take those words back. They may have been easy to type when you were all worked up, but you will have to see that person again. And when you do, awkward would be an understatement.

The Colossians didn't have email, but Paul's advice to them can work for us as well: "Let your speech always be with grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how you ought to answer each one" (Col. 4:6). As a Christian, you are representing Christ in all of your actions and words. Never write anything in an email that you would be ashamed to say out loud, in public. Remember that all your speech, whether talking or typing, should be full of grace, reflecting the love of Christ to others.

of you. They will make known to you all things which are happening here.

10Aristarchus my fellow prisoner greets you, with Mark the cousin of Barnabas (about whom you received instructions: if he comes to you, welcome him), 11and Jesus who is called Justus. These are my only fellow workers for the kingdom of God who are of the circumcision; they have proved to be a comfort to me.

12Epaphras, who is one of you, a bondservant of Christ, greets you, always laboring fervently for you in prayers, that you may stand perfect and complete[a] in all the will of God. 13For I bear him witness that he has a great zeal[a] for you, and those who are in Laodicea, and those in Hierapolis. 14Luke the beloved physician and Demas greet you. 15Greet the brethren who are in Laodicea, and Nymphas and the church that is in his[a] house.

CLOSING EXHORTATIONS AND BLESSING

16Now when this epistle is read among you, see that it is read also in the church of the Laodiceans, and that you likewise read the epistle from Laodicea. 17And say to Archippus, "Take heed to the ministry which you have received in the Lord, that you may fulfill it."

4:1–12 .....Abound in Christ
4:13—5:11 .....What to Expect When the Lord Returns

KEY VERSE:

And may the Lord make you increase and abound in love to one another and to all, just as we do to you, so that He may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His saints (1 Thessalonians 3:12, 13).

THEN /// If there's one thing you can say about the church at Thessalonica, it's that they had a lot of questions about Jesus' second coming. For one thing, they wanted to know what would happen when Christ returns to the people who had already died. Paul wrote 1 Thessalonians, in part, to answer this specific question.

Because the people of Thessalonica had so many questions, we know more about what will happen when Christ returns. Did you know He'll return in the sky? Did you know that the people who have already died will meet Him first? Did you know that there will be a shout and a trumpet?

Some of the most famous verses about Christ's second coming are in 1 Thessalonians. It's a message of hope, particularly if you've lost someone you love due to death. This book tells us, "Don't worry, death isn't the end of everything. You'll see them again."

NOW /// People have been looking forward to Jesus' coming to earth since the beginning of time. Even in the Garden of Eden God promised Someone would come eventually and take care of that evil snake that got Adam and Eve in huge trouble. In Old Testament times, people were waiting for Christ's first trip to earth. Since Jesus came to earth, died, and then went to heaven, though, we have been waiting for His next trip to earth. In the first trip, He came as a Servant to die for our sins. When He comes back, He'll come as a triumphant King who will change life as we know it. We are not so different from people back in Bible days. We are still waiting for God's promise to be revealed. Jesus is coming!

REALITY CHECK /// Jesus really could come back during your lifetime. Many of the prophecies of the Old and New Testaments have come true just in the last century. Whether He does or doesn't return while you are alive, live your life so that you are ready to go to heaven at any moment. It's okay to think that maybe you would like to grow up first or achieve some goal in your life. God gave us this life to enjoy. The point is that we should keep our lives as clear of sin as possible and continue to grow in our relationship with God. If we do that, then when Christ returns, we will be ready.

GREETING

1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.[a]

THEIR GOOD EXAMPLE

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers,
3 remembering without ceasing your work of faith, labor of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ in the sight of our God and Father,
4 knowing, beloved brethren, your election by God.
5 For our gospel did not come to you in word only,
but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit and in much assurance, as you know what kind of men we were among you for your sake.
6 And you became followers of us and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction,
with joy of the Holy Spirit,
7 so that you became examples to all in Macedonia and Achaia who believe.
8 For from you the word of the Lord has sounded forth, not only in Macedonia and Achaia,
but also in every place.
Your faith toward God has gone out,
so that we do not need to say anything.
9 For they themselves declare concerning us what manner of entry we had to you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, 10 and to wait for His Son from heaven, whom He raised from the dead, even Jesus who delivers us from the wrath to come.

1:1 [a]NU-Text omits from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

PAUL'S CONDUCT

2 For you yourselves know, brethren, that our coming to you was not in vain. 2But even[a] after we had suffered before and were spitefully treated at Philippi, as you know, we were bold in our God to speak to you the gospel of God in much conflict. 3For our exhortation did not come from error or uncleanness, nor was it in deceit.

4But as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, even so we speak, not as pleasing men, but God who tests our hearts. 5For neither at any time did we use flattering words, as you know, nor a cloak for covetousness—God is witness. 6Nor did we seek glory from men, either from you or from others, when we might have made demands as apostles of Christ. 7But we were gentle among you, just as a nursing mother cherishes her own children. 8So, affectionately longing for you, we were well pleased to impart to you not only the gospel of God, but also our own lives, because you had become dear to us. 9For you remember, brethren, our labor and toil; for laboring night and day, that we might not be a burden to any of you, we preached to you the gospel of God.

1 Thessalonians 2:9

Church leaders in New Testament times often took second jobs to support themselves and their families. Paul's second job was making tents, a skill he may have learned as a lad in Cilicia. After all, Cilicia was known for exporting a special kind of cloth made from goat's hair—a cloth that was used to make tents.

10You are witnesses, and God also, how devoutly and justly and blamelessly we behaved ourselves among you who believe; 11as you know how we exhorted, and comforted, and charged[a] every one of you, as a father does his own children, 12that you would walk worthy of God who calls you into His own kingdom and glory.

THEIR CONVERSION

13For this reason we also thank God without ceasing, because when you received the word of God which you heard from us, you welcomed it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which also effectively works in you who believe. 14For you, brethren, became imitators of the churches of God which are in Judea in Christ Jesus. For you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, just as they did from the Judeans, 15who killed both the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they do not please God and are contrary to all men, 16forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved, so as always to fill up the measure of their sins; but wrath has come upon them to the uttermost.

LONGING TO SEE THEM

17But we, brethren, having been taken away from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavored more eagerly to see your face with great desire. 18Therefore we wanted to come to you—even I, Paul, time and again—but Satan hindered us. 19For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Is it not even you in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at His coming? 20For you are our glory and joy.

1 Thessalonians 3:1, 2

The trip from Athens to Thessalonica was about three hundred miles. You might say Athens is still an important city in Greece today. It's the nation's capital.

CONCERN FOR THEIR FAITH

3 Therefore, when we could no longer endure it, we thought it good to be left in Athens alone, 2and sent Timothy, our brother and minister of God, and our fellow laborer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you and encourage you concerning your faith, 3that no one should be shaken by these afflictions; for you yourselves know that we are appointed to this. 4For, in fact, we told you before when we were with you that we would suffer tribulation, just as it happened, and you know. 5For this reason, when I could no longer

Determination / 1 Thessalonians 2:12

You may have heard it said that "when the going gets tough, the tough get going." People have been saying that for years, but is there truth to that statement? What is it that makes a person tough enough to keep going when things are difficult? Where can we get the godly determination we need?

As Christians, we get everything we need from God. As we walk through all the challenges in this world, we can always remember Paul's advice to "walk worthy of God who calls you into His own kingdom and glory" (1 Thess. 2:12). So the question becomes, how do we walk worthy of God during the most difficult parts of our journey?

Paul gives us some good advice in the Book of Philippians; it's an example from his own life. He talks about the fact that he continued to press on through the difficult times of his life in order to become a more mature follower of Christ. How did he go about this? He said, ". . . but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those which are ahead, I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus" (Phil. 3:13, 14). Paul kept his focus in life on knowing and following Christ. He was determined to not give up anywhere along the way. He didn't let the past hold him back; but he kept walking forward, no matter what, because of Christ.

Just like Paul, you can keep walking forward and walking worthy of God through every tough time in life. You don't have to let guilt from past mistakes and sins hold you back. You don't have to let self-doubt left over from past failures paralyze you. With godly determination, you can keep walking forward. Being determined doesn't mean just making a decision and stubbornly standing by it. Godly determination means keeping Christ as your focus and deciding that you will not give up, whether in good times or tough times, because He is the source of your strength.

MAKING IT REAL // 1 THESSALONIANS 4:4, 5

Sex According to the Bible, the requirement for sex is marriage, not just love. God gave sex to marriage as a gift. When two people make a permanent commitment to each other, God gives them the privilege and gift of sex. When married people engage in a sexual relationship, it is a physical expression of the miraculous bond God created between them—the two have become one. We don't really know all that means; some of the things of God are just beyond our understanding. We do know God is offended and hurt when we allow physical lust to destroy the beauty that should be reserved for marriage.

Sex outside of marriage can have so many horrible consequences. You know what they are—diseases that can kill you, babies you aren't ready to have, stress like you've never known, horrible guilt or shame. The list goes on. The best way to avoid all the drama of premarital sex is to avoid situations where you might be tempted.

In God's Word, premarital sex is called "fornication." It is a sin God hates because it steals something precious from His people. God says sex outside marriage is wrong and harmful. So do what pleases God and wait. Waiting might be really hard right now, but one day when you find the person God created just for you, you'll be so glad you did. (See also: 1 Cor. 6:18; 1 Thess. 4:3.)

Words to Live By

Sanctification: The word translated as "sanctification" in 1 Thessalonians 4:4 is the Greek word hagiasmos (hag-ee-as-mos'). It means "the process of making something holy or totally dedicated to God." It can also be translated as "holiness" or "purity." God is in the process of changing us from the inside out and making us pure and holy before Him.

endure it, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter had tempted you, and our labor might be in vain.

ENCOURAGED BY TIMOTHY

6But now that Timothy has come to us from you, and brought us good news of your faith and love, and that you always have good remembrance of us, greatly desiring to see us, as we also to see you—
7therefore, brethren, in all our affliction and distress we were comforted concerning you by your faith. 8For now we live, if you stand fast in the Lord.

9For what thanks can we render to God for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sake before our God, 10night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face and perfect what is lacking in your faith?

PRAYER FOR THE CHURCH

11Now may our God and Father Himself, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way to you. 12And may the Lord make you increase and abound in love to one another and to all, just as we do to you, 13so that He may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His saints.

PLEA FOR PURITY

4 Finally then, brethren, we urge and exhort in the Lord Jesus that you should abound more and more, just as you received from us how you ought to walk and to please God; 2for you know what commandments we gave you through the Lord Jesus.

3For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you should abstain from sexual immorality; 4that each of you should know how to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honor, 5not in passion of lust, like the Gentiles who do not know God; 6that no one should take advantage of and defraud his brother in this matter, because

MIR MAKING IT REAL // 1 THESSALONIANS 5:5

Light Versus Dark Are you more concerned about someone stealing your car or breaking into your house during the day or at night? Crime and violence can happen anytime, but we are more likely to be on the lookout for it at night. Criminals are more likely to break the law at night because the darkness hides their actions.

In John 3, Jesus told Nicodemus that some people don't like the light because they don't want their evil deeds exposed (v. 20). But Paul says because you're a Christian, you can have a different attitude and live a different way. You belong to the light because the Bible says God is light (1 John 1:5). You should live your life in such a way that it doesn't matter if people know all about you, because you have nothing to hide. Your life should be an open book in which everyone can learn about Jesus. Even your mistakes and failures don't have to embarrass you, because you know that Jesus has taken care of all that. You can be a walking, talking picture of God's grace and mercy. When you belong to Jesus, your entire life can be filled with His light. Instead of stumbling around in the darkness of sin, God's light will shine out before you and lead you around any obstacle in your path. Belonging to the light gives you incredible freedom! (See also: Matt. 5:14–16; John 3:19; 12:36; Eph. 5:8–11.)

Words to Live By

Light: 1 Thessalonians 5:5 calls Christians "sons of light." That's because God is light (1 John 1:5) and we are His children. We should be like our Father and be light for the world. Light helps people see, so we should live our lives so people can see the truth of God's Word; light helps things grow, so we should help one another grow up in the Lord; and light keeps us healthy, so we should tell everyone about our Lord who heals.

the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also forewarned you and testified. 7For God did not call us to uncleanness, but in holiness. 8Therefore he who rejects this does not reject man, but God, who has also given[a] us His Holy Spirit.

LUST
Is sexual purity God's will for His people?
1 Thessalonians 4:3–5

A BROTHERLY AND ORDERLY LIFE

9But concerning brotherly love you have no need that I should write to you, for you yourselves are taught by God to love one another; 10and indeed you do so toward all the brethren who are in all Macedonia. But we urge you, brethren, that you increase more and more; 11that you also aspire to lead a quiet life, to mind your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you, 12that you may walk properly toward those who are outside, and that you may lack nothing.

DEATH
How should Christians view the death of a believer?
1 Thessalonians 4:13–18

THE COMFORT OF CHRIST'S COMING

13But I do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning those who have fallen asleep, lest you sorrow as others who have no hope. 14For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him those who sleep in Jesus.[a]

4:8 [a]NU-Text reads who also gives. 4:14 [a]Or those who through Jesus sleep

LIFE APP

Prayer / 1 Thessalonians 5:17

The word prayer can sometimes sound intimidating. You may think that in order to pray you have to know a lot of fancy words and all the acceptable "Christian" phrases. You may wonder if you have to pray out loud in a holy-sounding voice for everyone to hear. But the truth is that no fancy words or pious voice will make a difference when you pray.

Prayer is a conversation with God. It's coming to Him with a humble and thankful heart and talking to Him. When you pray, you can praise God for His majesty and holiness. You can thank Him for all His blessings, and ask Him for your needs. You can talk to Him about what's going on in your life and in the world, and ask Him how He wants to use you to make a difference in your world. A conversation with God doesn't need to happen on any kind of schedule. You don't have to make an appointment with God. You can have an ongoing conversation with Him throughout the day. Paul encourages everyone to do this in his first letter to the Thessalonians: "Pray without ceasing, in everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you" (1 Thess. 5:17, 18).

What an amazing privilege—to have the invitation to talk with the Creator and Master of the universe anytime we will call on His name! Through talking to God in prayer, we not only learn more about Him and grow closer to Him, but He has also chosen to allow our prayers to make a real difference; not only for ourselves, but for others. "The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much" (James 5:16).

Prayer will help us mature in our faith and become more like Christ. The results are felt within our hearts and seen in how we live our lives.

15For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will by no means precede those who are asleep.
16For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first.
17Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord.
18Therefore comfort one another with these words.

THE DAY OF THE LORD

5 But concerning the times and the seasons, brethren, you have no need that I should write to you. 2For you yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night.
3For when they say, "Peace and safety!" then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labor pains upon a pregnant woman. And they shall not escape. 4But you, brethren, are not in darkness, so that this Day should overtake you as a thief. 5You are all sons of light and sons of the day. We are not of the night nor of darkness. 6Therefore let us not sleep, as others do, but let us watch and be sober. 7For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk are drunk at night. 8But let us who are of the day be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and as a helmet the hope of salvation.
9For God did not appoint us to wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, 10who died for us, that whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with Him.

11Therefore comfort each other and edify one another, just as you also are doing.

VARIOUS EXHORTATIONS

12And we urge you, brethren, to recognize those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord and admonish you, 13and to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. Be at peace among yourselves.

14Now we exhort you, brethren, warn those who are unruly, comfort the faint-hearted, uphold the weak, be patient with all. 15See that no one renders evil for evil to anyone, but always pursue what is good both for yourselves and for all.

PRAYER
How often should we pray?
1 Thessalonians 5:16–18

16Rejoice always, 17pray without ceasing, 18in everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

19Do not quench the Spirit. 20Do not despise prophecies. 21Test all things; hold fast what is good. 22Abstain from every form of evil.

BLESSING AND ADMONITION

23Now may the God of peace Himself sanc-tify you completely; and may your whole spirit, soul, and body be preserved blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
24He who calls you is faithful, who also will do it.

25Brethren, pray for us.

26Greet all the brethren with a holy kiss.

27I charge you by the Lord that this epistle be read to all the holy[a] brethren.

28The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

2 Thessalonians

DATE OF WRITING: A.D. 51
AUTHOR: PAUL
THEME: HOW TO LIVE AND WHAT TO WATCH FOR AS WE AWAIT THE RETURN OF THE LORD
PURPOSE: UNTIL JESUS DOES RETURN, LIVE DISCIPLINED, GODLY LIVES.

OUTLINE

1:1, 2.....Greetings
1:3–12.....The Lord's Return Will Bring Justice
2:1–12.....The Lord Has Not Returned Yet
2:13–17.....Stand Fast
3:1–15.....Pray and Work
3:16–18.....A Final Prayer

KEY VERSE:

Now may the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God and into the patience of Christ. But we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw from every brother who walks disorderly and not according to the tradition which he received from us (2 Thessalonians 3:5, 6).

THEN /// The church at Thessalonica took what Paul said to heart. In fact, some of them maybe took it too much to heart. In Paul's first letter to this church, he had written that they needed to live their lives in anticipation of Christ's return. Later, he found out that some of them had responded to this by quitting their jobs and literally just hanging out waiting for Christ to come back. These people who were hanging out began to do what anyone does when they hang out too much: they got bored, which led to gossiping, which led to nit-picking, which led to arguing, which led to some big problems in the church.

Paul wrote his second letter to this church to remind them that waiting for Christ's return is a way of living. It is not standing in the yard all day and looking at the sky. It is living holy lives and connecting with God every day.

NOW /// Gossip can seem very harmless when you're sitting with a friend, laughing and talking about someone else. At first, it doesn't seem like it will hurt anyone. Of course, there's always the chance that the person you're gossiping about will hear you or hear about what you said; but if you're careful, that won't happen, will it? Maybe not, but that's not really the point. When we gossip about each other we disrespect each other. We forget that we are all a part of the body of Christ. When we disrespect someone, we become like a cancer destroying the very body that we are a part of. It may seem harmless, but it is a big deal. That's why Paul made a big deal about it.

REALITY CHECK /// Have you ever heard that expression about being too heavenly minded to be any earthly good? When someone says that, they are usually talking about someone who has faith, but not a practical faith that makes a difference in the everyday details of life. That's also sort of what Paul was writing about in his second letter to the church at Thessalonica.

The people in Thessalonica were doing something that sounded good. They were looking for Christ's return. But they forgot that, while Christ's return is important, waiting for Him isn't the only thing God told us to do. He also told us to do good deeds in this life and to be kind to other people. He told us to make a living and to spend time with family.

Be careful whenever you find yourself being like the Thessalonians—obeying part of God's Word without considering the rest. If you pay close attention to the way you live and follow the Lord in all you do, He will return to find you doing the very things He asked of you. How sad if He were to return and find you just sitting around waiting for Him to take you home. Christianity is about real life lived with real faith, not a life put on hold while you wait to go to a better place.

GREETING

1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy,

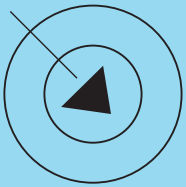
To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:



2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

GOD'S FINAL JUDGMENT AND GLORY

3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is fitting, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of

2 Thessalonians 1:1

Paul was in the middle of a very busy missionary journey when he wrote this second letter to the church in Thessalonica. Apparently, Paul was writing from Corinth, where he was staying after preaching in Athens, Berea, and Thessalonica. Silvanus (better known as Silas) and Timothy are mentioned because they were with Paul when he started the church in Thessalonica.

PROMISE

God promises to give you rest from your troubles.

Since it is a righteous thing with God to repay with tribulation those who trouble you, and to give you who are troubled rest with us when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with His mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on those who do not know God, and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ (2 Thess. 1:6–8).

Have you been laughed at lately? Have you taken any verbal jabs for being a Christian? Have you been made fun of because you did the right thing? Maybe you have been deeply moved by stories of Christians across the world who endure countless hardships, and even torture, for their faith. Sometimes the ridicule, schemes, anger, or even persecution from those who oppose Christ can seem devastating and discouraging.

But take heart, because relief is on its way. When Jesus comes, He promises to give His children rest from their troubles. We won't have to fight anymore. Jesus will take over with His powerful angels and a flaming fire. He will take care of our enemies and all who would persecute us. Sometimes the battle is bigger than we are and the trouble seems overwhelming. Remember that you do not stand alone. The Lord will not only fight on your behalf, but He will also give you rest—the kind of rest that is full of the peace and comfort that only comes from God Himself.

SEE FOR YOURSELF// Psalm 37:7–9; Jeremiah 31:13; Hebrews 4:9

every one of you all abounds toward each other, 4so that we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that you endure, 5*which is* manifest evidence of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you also suffer; 6since it is a righteous thing with God to repay with tribulation those who trouble you, 7and to give you who are troubled rest with us when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with His mighty angels, 8in flaming fire taking vengeance on those who do not know God, and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9These shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power, 10when He comes, in that Day, to be glorified in His saints and to be admired among all those who believe,[a] because our testimony among you was believed.

11Therefore we also pray always for you that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfill all the good pleasure of His goodness and the work of faith with power, 12that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and you in Him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

THE GREAT APOSTASY

2 Now, brethren, concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering together to Him, we ask you, 2not to be soon shaken in mind or troubled, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as if from us, as though the day of Christ[a] had come. 3Let no one deceive you by any means; for that Day will not come unless the falling away comes first, and the man of sin[a] is revealed, the son of perdition, 4who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God or that is worshiped, so that he sits as God[a] in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.

5Do you not remember that when I was still with you I told you these things? 6And now you know what is restraining, that he

1:10 [a]NU-Text and M-Text read have believed. 2:2 [a]NU-Text reads the Lord. 2:3 [a]NU-Text reads lawlessness. 2:4 [a]NU-Text omits as God.

2 Thessalonians 2:3, 4

You may know the "man of sin" better as the Antichrist. Led by Satan, this false prophet will claim to be God and will make himself an enemy of all Christians. Exactly who will this man be? We don't know. One of the few things we do know about him is that he will become a world leader.

may be revealed in his own time. 7For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only He[a] who now restrains will do so until He[b] is taken out of the way. 8And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the breath of His mouth and destroy with the brightness of His coming. 9The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders, 10and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 11And for this reason God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie, 12that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

STAND FAST

13But we are bound to give thanks to God always for you, brethren beloved by the Lord, because God from the beginning chose you for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth, 14to which He called you by our gospel, for the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 15Therefore, brethren, stand fast and hold the traditions which you were taught, whether by word or our epistle.

16Now may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself, and our God and Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting consolation and good hope by grace, 17comfort your hearts and establish you in every good word and work.

PRAY FOR US

3 Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may run swiftly and be glorified, just as it is with you, 2and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men; for not all have faith.

3But the Lord is faithful, who will establish you and guard you from the evil one. 4And we have confidence in the Lord concerning you, both that you do and will do the things we command you.

5Now may the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God and into the patience of Christ.

WARNING AGAINST IDLENESS

6But we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw from every brother who walks disorderly and not according to the tradition which he[a] received from us. 7For you yourselves know how you ought to follow us, for we were not disorderly among you; 8nor did we eat anyone's bread free of charge, but worked with labor and toil night and day, that we might not be a burden to any of you, 9not because we do not have authority, but to make ourselves an example of how you should follow us.

LAZINESS

Is laziness something the Lord will tolerate in His people?

2 Thessalonians 3:10–12

2 Thessalonians 3:17

Apparently, some impostors had been sending out letters full of false teachings and then signing Paul's name to them. To make sure the people in Thessalonica knew this was a genuine letter, Paul signed his name to it. You may be wondering why Paul only signed it, as opposed to writing the letter himself. Some Bible experts believe Paul suffered from an eye disease that made it necessary for him to dictate his letters to a secretary.

10For even when we were with you, we commanded you this: If anyone will not

2:7 [a]Or he [b]Or he 3:6 [a]NU-Text and M-Text read they.

work, neither shall he eat. 11For we hear that there are some who walk among you in a disorderly manner, not working at all, but are busybodies. 12Now those who are such we command and exhort through our Lord Jesus Christ that they work in quietness and eat their own bread.

13But as for you, brethren, do not grow weary in doing good. 14And if anyone does not obey our word in this epistle, note that person and do not keep company with him, that he may be ashamed. 15Yet do not count him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

BENEDICTION

16Now may the Lord of peace Himself give you peace always in every way. The Lord be with you all.

17The salutation of Paul with my own hand, which is a sign in every epistle; so I write.

18The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

DATE OF WRITING: FALL A.D. 62
AUTHOR: PAUL
THEME: REMOVAL OF FALSE DOCTRINE, PRESERVATION OF PUBLIC WORSHIP, AND PROPER LEADERSHIP ARE NEEDED IN THE CHURCH PURPOSE: YOUNG ADULTS HAVE A SIGNIFICANT ROLE TO PLAY IN CHRIST'S CHURCH.

OUTLINE

1:1, 2.....Greetings
1:3—3:13.....Instructions for Church Life
3:14—4:11.....Be Faithful to Your Calling
4:12—6:21.....Paul's Advice to Timothy

KEY VERSE:

Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, to which you were also called and have confessed the good confession in the presence of many witnesses (1 Timothy 6:12).

THEN /// Have you ever gotten a letter or an e-mail from someone older who is really important to you? How do you read it? Do you skip over parts or maybe not even finish? Probably not. You most likely read every word and maybe even read some of them twice.

That might have been how it was for Timothy when he got letters from Paul. Timothy was like a son to Paul. Paul loved him and took him on trips and talked to him about things that mattered. Paul really invested in Timothy's life. Timothy had much to learn. Paul had plenty to teach. We get to read a lot of truth because of the close relationship these two men enjoyed. God used their relationship to teach us about following Christ and how to live as His church.

NOW /// Paul wrote to Timothy about the kind of people who should be leading the church. His words are just as true today as they were then. Church leaders aren't better than anyone else in the church, but they have huge responsibilities. Because of all they are responsible for, they must be the kind of people who can be trusted. Paul said the leaders of the church should have self-control and wisdom. He also said they should be good family members and family leaders. Above all, the leaders of a church are servants to the Lord and His people.

It's important to realize church leaders are to be respected. They willingly accept all the responsibility for a large group of people. They spend their days seeking the Lord and trying to lead the people in their church in right and godly ways.

How do you respond to the leaders in your church? Do they have your respect? Are you thankful for all they do to lead you into a closer relationship with the Lord? Why not tell them? It just may make their day!

REALITY CHECK /// One of the neat things about Paul's letter to Timothy was that Paul was writing to a young person. When you read about the people God used in the Bible, many times they were older people. Some of them were having babies even when they were too old to have babies. Some of them spent years teaching and preaching. But Timothy was a young guy, just starting out in ministry. Paul's letters to Timothy remind us that God uses people of all ages. He can use us no matter how old or young we are, as long as we are willing to have faith and love others.

GREETING

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the commandment of God our Savior
and the Lord Jesus Christ, our hope,

2 To Timothy, a true son in the faith:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

NO OTHER DOCTRINE

3 As I urged you when I went into Macedonia—remain in Ephesus that you may charge some that they teach no other doctrine, 4 nor give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which cause disputes rather than godly edification which is in faith. 5 Now the purpose of the commandment is love from a pure heart, from a good conscience, and from sincere faith, 6 from which some, having strayed, have turned aside to idle talk, 7 desiring to be teachers of the law, understanding neither what they say nor the things which they affirm.

1 Timothy 1:4

How much do you know about your family tree? Do you know the name of your great-grandfather? How about your great-great-grandfather? Do you have any famous ancestors? The Jewish leaders of New Testament times could have answered these questions with no problem. Apparently, they took great pride in being able to trace their ancestors all the way back to Abraham. We're talking about genealogies that stretched back over two thousand years!

8But we know that the law is good if one uses it lawfully, 9knowing this: that the law is not made for a righteous person, but for the lawless and insubordinate, for the ungodly and for sinners, for the unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, 10for fornicators, for sodomites, for kidnappers, for liars, for perjurers, and if there is any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine, 11according to the glorious gospel of the blessed God which was committed to my trust.

GLORY TO GOD FOR HIS GRACE

12And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord who has enabled me, because He counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry, 13although I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and an insolent man; but I obtained mercy because I did it igno-rantly in unbelief. 14And the grace of our Lord was exceedingly abundant, with faith and love which are in Christ Jesus.
15This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief. 16However, for this reason I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might show all longsuffering, as a pattern to those who are going to believe on Him for everlasting life. 17Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, to God who alone is wise,[a] be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

WISDOM
Who is the source of all wisdom?
1 Timothy 1:17

FIGHT THE GOOD FIGHT

18This charge I commit to you, son Timothy, according to the prophecies previously made concerning you, that by them you may wage the good warfare, 19having faith and a good conscience, which some having rejected, concerning the faith have suffered shipwreck, 20of whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I delivered to Satan that they may learn not to blaspheme.

PRAY FOR ALL MEN

2 Therefore I exhort first of all that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men, 2for kings and all who are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and reverence. 3For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, 4who desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. 5For there is one God and one Mediator between God and men, the Man Christ Jesus, 6who gave Himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time, 7for which I was appointed a preacher and an apostle—I am speaking the truth in Christ[a] and not lying—a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

SALVATION
Who does God desire to save?
1 Timothy 2:3, 4

MEN AND WOMEN IN THE CHURCH

8I desire therefore that the men pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting; 9in like manner also, that the women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with propriety and moderation, not with braided hair or gold or pearls or costly clothing, 10but, which is proper for women professing godliness, with good works. 11Let a woman learn in silence with

1 Timothy 2:9

It would probably be safe to describe the women of ancient, pagan cultures as "high-maintenance." They often spent hours creating elaborate hair arrangements for themselves. They wore fancy clothing and expensive jewelry to attract attention. However, most of the women who fit these descriptions were prostitutes. In Ephesus, the place where Timothy was working, these women could be found at the pagan temple of Diana.

1:17 [a]NU-Text reads to the only God.
2:7 [a]NU-Text omits in Christ.

all submission. 12And I do not permit a woman to teach or to have authority over a man, but to be in silence. 13For Adam was formed first, then Eve. 14And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived, fell into transgression. 15Nevertheless she will be saved in childbearing if they continue in faith, love, and holiness, with self-control.

QUALIFICATIONS OF OVERSEERS

3 This is a faithful saying: If a man desires the position of a bishop,[a] he desires a good work. 2A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, temperate, sober-minded, of good behavior, hospitable, able to teach; 3not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for money,[a] but gentle, not quarrelsome, not covetous; 4one who rules his own house well, having his children in submission with all reverence 5(for if a man does not know how to rule his own house, how will he take care of the church of God?); 6not a novice, lest being puffed up with pride he fall into the same condemnation as the devil. 7Moreover he must have a good testimony among those who are outside, lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

QUALIFICATIONS OF DEACONS

8Likewise deacons must be reverent, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy for money, 9holding the mystery of the faith with a pure conscience. 10But let these also first be tested; then let them serve as deacons, being found blameless. 11Likewise, their wives must be reverent, not slanderers, temperate, faithful in all things. 12Let deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. 13For those who have served well as deacons obtain for themselves a good standing and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

THE GREAT MYSTERY

14These things I write to you, though I hope to come to you shortly; 15but if I am delayed, I write so that you may know how you ought to conduct yourself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. 16And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness:

> God[a] was manifested in the flesh,
> Justified in the Spirit,
> Seen by angels,
> Preached among the Gentiles,
> Believed on in the world,
> Received up in glory.

THE GREAT APOSTASY

4 Now the Spirit expressly says that in latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to deceiving spirits and doctrines of demons, 2speaking lies in hypocrisy, having their own conscience seared with a hot iron, 3forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. 4For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be refused if it is received with thanksgiving; 5for it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

A GOOD SERVANT OF JESUS CHRIST

6If you instruct the brethren in these things, you will be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished in the words of faith and of the good doctrine which you have carefully followed. 7But reject profane and old wives' fables, and exercise yourself toward godliness. 8For bodily exercise profits a little, but godliness is profitable for all things, having promise of the life that now is and of that which is to come. 9This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance. 10For to this end we both labor and suffer reproach,[a] because we trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe. 11These things command and teach.

TAKE HEED TO YOUR MINISTRY

12Let no one despise your youth, but be an example to the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit,[a] in faith, in purity. 13Till I come, give attention to reading, to

MAKING IT REAL // 1 TIMOTHY 4:12

Be Trustworthy If you've never given your parents reason to distrust you, they probably trust you more than you know. It's everyone else they worry about. But, if you've broken your parents' trust and want to restore it, read Proverbs 23:22–25. Look at the things that make parents proud: truth, wisdom, listening to instruction, and trying to understand. Not only will these qualities help you in your relationship with your parents, they will help you with all the relationships in your life.

Begin trying to make these characteristics a part of you. It may take time if you've lost your parent's trust, but once they see you've made the choice to change, you can watch your parents' attitude toward you change. You don't have to transform overnight, just work on one thing at a time. For instance, if you say you'll be home at midnight, be there. Showing up late with a lame excuse doesn't prove you're trustworthy. After you get the "on-time thing" down, start working on something else. Before long, they'll realize you mean what you say and say what you mean. What a great way to live! (See also: Prov. 23:22–25.)

Words to Live By

Example: The word translated as "example" in 1 Timothy 4:12 is the Greek word tupos (too'-pos). It means "a pattern or an imitation." It carries the meaning of having an impact on something by providing a pattern to follow, like a metal gear is formed by liquefied metal being poured into a die or a preformed pattern. We can help others become like Christ by being an example to them—by providing them a pattern to follow.

exhortation, to doctrine. 14Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy with the laying on of the hands of the eldership. 15Meditate on these things; give yourself entirely to them, that your progress may be evident to all. 16Take heed to yourself and to the doctrine. Continue in them, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

TREATMENT OF CHURCH MEMBERS

5 Do not rebuke an older man, but exhort him as a father, younger men as brothers, 2older women as mothers, younger women as sisters, with all purity.

HONOR TRUE WIDOWS

3Honor widows who are really widows. 4But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them first learn to show piety at home and to repay their parents; for this is good and[a] acceptable before God. 5Now she who is really a widow, and left alone, trusts in God and continues in supplications and prayers night and day. 6But she who lives in pleasure is dead while she lives. 7And these things command, that they may be blameless. 8But if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

1 Timothy 5:3

If you think it was Paul's idea for Christians to help widows, orphans, and others in need, think again. He was merely repeating the law that God had given to Moses centuries earlier. A widow usually lived with her husband's family or with one of her children. However, if she had no family to live with, the church was responsible for taking care of her.

9Do not let a widow under sixty years old be taken into the number, and not unless she has been the wife of one man, 10well

5:4 [a]NU-Text and M-Text omit good and.

MAKING IT REAL // 1 TIMOTHY 5:4

Grandparents The most wonderful thing you can give your grandparents is your time. Spending time with them shows them that they are important to you. A grandparent's love is like no other person's; they love you just because you are you. They would love to get to know you better, to be seen with you, to be listened to by you. Making time for your grandparents lets them know that you appreciate all they've done for you and all the love they have shown.

One of the best ways you can honor them is to ask questions and learn from them. They have lived long lives and have probably seen more interesting things than you would imagine. You may be amused or fascinated by some of the experiences they've had. They can also share with you what they've learned about the Lord along their life's journey. Senior adults complain that one of the hardest things about growing older is not feeling useful anymore. Believe it or not, inside where it really counts, your grandparents don't feel like old people. They feel much the same on the inside as they did when they were much younger—they want to know they have a place in this world and something worthwhile to give to others. Let your grandparents know that they are still needed, they are valuable, and they are greatly loved. You hold such a tender place in their hearts—your grandparents will consider their time with you a treasure. (See also: Lev. 19:32; Prov. 17:6.)

Words to Live By

Piety: The word translated in 1 Timothy 5:4 as "piety" is the Greek word eusebeo (yoo-seb-eh'-o). It means "respect expressed in practical, meaningful ways." To say you respect your family means nothing if your actions say otherwise. Put your words into actions and treat your family with eusebeo. You'll be amazed at the result.

reported for good works: if she has brought up children, if she has lodged strangers, if she has washed the saints' feet, if she has relieved the afflicted, if she has diligently followed every good work.

11But refuse the younger widows; for when they have begun to grow wanton against Christ, they desire to marry, 12having condemnation because they have cast off their first faith. 13And besides they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house, and not only idle but also gossips and busybodies, saying things which they ought not. 14Therefore
I desire that the younger widows marry, bear children, manage the house, give no opportunity to the adversary to speak reproachfully. 15For some have already turned aside after Satan. 16If any believing man or[a] woman has widows, let them relieve them, and do not let the church be burdened, that it may relieve those who are really widows.

HONOR THE ELDERS

17Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and doctrine. 18For the Scripture says, "You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain,"[a] and,
"The laborer is worthy of his wages."[b] 19Do not receive an accusation against an elder except from two or three witnesses.
20Those who are sinning rebuke in the presence of all, that the rest also may fear.

21I charge you before God and the Lord Jesus Christ and the elect angels that you observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing with partiality. 22Do not lay hands on anyone hastily, nor share in other people's sins; keep yourself pure.

23No longer drink only water, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your frequent infirmities.

5:16 [a]NU-Text omits man or.
5:18 [a]Deuteronomy 25:4 [b]Luke 10:7

MIR MAKING IT REAL // 1 TIMOTHY 6:6

It's All About Him Becoming a Christian doesn't mean you have to be poor for the rest of your life. Nor does it mean that the bright red sports car you've been dreaming of will appear in your driveway if you give all your money to the church. Christianity does make you rich, Paul says, by teaching you to look at things in a new way. The reason that a relationship with Jesus makes you content with what you have is that the more you get to know Him, the less your stuff matters. It's fine to enjoy driving a sports car or wearing nice clothes, but what makes you truly, deeply happy is really knowing Jesus and being a part of what He is doing in the world around you. Get preoccupied with His plan for you.

If your life up until now has been all about stuff and not at all about God, don't give up. Repent. Go after God with everything you've got. Tell Him, "I'm sorry I settled for the stuff of this world and for superficial happiness." Determine to make His work your passion. Use your energy building His kingdom and you won't even notice what kind of stuff you have or don't have, because it simply won't matter. What does a lot of junk mean when compared to a holy God? (See also: Phil. 4:11; Heb. 13:5.)

Words to Live By

Gain: The word translated in 1 Timothy 6:6 as "gain" is the Greek word porismos (por-is-mos'). It means "to be provided for" or "to acquire." The meaning of this word can best be understood through another passage of Scripture, Matthew 6:25–33, specifically verse 33: "But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you." Don't worry about stuff. Just seek God and He'll make sure you always have exactly what you need.

[24]Some men's sins are clearly evident, preceding them to judgment, but those of some men follow later. [25]Likewise, the good works of some are clearly evident, and those that are otherwise cannot be hidden.

HONOR MASTERS

6 Let as many bondservants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, so that the name of God and His doctrine may not be blasphemed. [2]And those who have believing masters, let them not despise them because they are brethren, but rather serve them because those who are benefited are believers and beloved. Teach and exhort these things.

ERROR AND GREED

[3]If anyone teaches otherwise and does not consent to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which accords with godliness, [4]he is proud, knowing nothing, but is obsessed with disputes and arguments over words, from which come envy, strife, reviling, evil suspicions, [5]useless wranglings[a] of men of corrupt minds and destitute of the truth, who suppose that godliness is a means of gain. From such withdraw yourself.[b]

MONEY
What are the dangers of greed?
1 Timothy 6:9, 10

[6]Now godliness with contentment is great gain. [7]For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain[a] we can carry nothing out. [8]And having food and clothing, with these we shall be content. [9]But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish

LIFE APP

Spiritual Health / 1 Timothy 6:11, 12

We know how important physical fitness is for a healthy lifestyle. To be healthy, we try to eat balanced meals with not too much fat or sugar while we make sure to exercise consistently. Many of us even keep hand sanitizer and sanitizing air sprays available at a moment's notice to protect us from unseen germs. It's right and good to take our physical health seriously. But there's another kind of health that's even more important: spiritual health.

Eventually, no matter how physically healthy we are, our bodies will wear down and physical death will come for us all. But we are spiritual beings and our spiritual life will continue through eternity. Being spiritually healthy matters from this day forward—forever. But how do we stay spiritually healthy in a challenging world full of temptation? Timothy encourages us to "pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, gentleness" (1 Tim. 6:11).

To stay spiritually healthy, you need to be intentional. You need to know what's going on in the world, yet not be influenced by the ways of the world. You must try to see everything that happens through the lens of your faith in Christ—like spiritual glasses that allow you to see the things in life that really matter. And let that faith strengthen you as you stand strong against temptations and evil. Let the power of Christ rise up in your life so you have the strength and perseverance you need to actively pursue the things of God.

Spiritual health requires that you stay close to God. Read His Word often and talk to Him through prayer throughout your days. Make Him the focus of your life. And as you are growing closer to Him and becoming more like Him, His love will flow into and out through your life. You will find that you have more patience for yourself and others. You will be able to reach out in gentleness and service to help those around you. This is spiritual health—staying ever close to Christ and letting His life live through you.

and harmful lusts which drown men in destruction and perdition. 10For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, for which some have strayed from the faith in their greediness, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

THE GOOD CONFESSION

11But you, O man of God, flee these things and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, gentleness. 12Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, to which you were also called and have confessed the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. 13I urge you in the sight of God who gives life to all things, and before Christ Jesus who witnessed the good confession before Pontius Pilate, 14that you keep this commandment without spot, blameless until our Lord Jesus Christ's appearing, 15which He will manifest in His own time, He who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings and Lord of lords, 16who alone has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light, whom no man has seen or can see, to whom be honor and everlasting power. Amen.

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE RICH

17Command those who are rich in this present age not to be haughty, nor to trust in uncertain riches but in the living God, who gives us richly all things to enjoy. 18*Let them* do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to give, willing to share, 19storing up for themselves a good foundation for the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

GUARD THE FAITH

20O Timothy! Guard what was committed to your trust, avoiding the profane and idle babblings and contradictions of what is falsely called knowledge— 21by professing it some have strayed concerning the faith.

Grace be with you. Amen.

1 Timothy 6:13

Pontius Pilate was the governor of Judea, the site of Jesus' trial. As the highest authority in the land, Pilate had the power to sentence criminals to death. After questioning Jesus, though, Pilate declared Him innocent of all charges. That didn't sit well with the crowd that had gathered outside. Fearing the Jewish leaders would incite a revolt, Pilate went along with their plan and allowed Jesus to be executed.

KEY VERSE:

You therefore must endure hardship as a good soldier of Jesus Christ (2 Timothy 2:3).

THEN /// Even as important as Paul was to Timothy on a regular day, this last letter must have been particularly important. Paul was in jail when he wrote this letter to Timothy, and it was the last thing Paul wrote before he died. Wow. It's pretty amazing that we can read Paul's final words to somebody he loved so much. Timothy probably hung on every word when he read this letter the first time. He took the message to heart and became a great leader. Timothy put into practice all the things Paul and his mom and his grandma had taught him. When he did that, he not only pleased God; he also honored the people who taught him about God.

NOW /// When you read 2 Timothy, remember to hang on every word, just like Timothy did. Even more so, don't just read, but also understand. Remember to ask yourself, "How should this affect my life?" And then live it.

You can learn from 2 Timothy how important it is to use your spiritual gifts and to remain loyal to Christ no matter what the circumstances. This letter can also give you insight into how to handle the Word of God—faithfully and accurately. Paul strongly encouraged Timothy to always be ready to share the message of Christ, at any time. You cannot know for sure everything you will encounter in life, but you can determine to follow this teaching from Paul. By being faithful to Christ throughout all circumstances, and by being diligent in studying and applying His Word, you can do your best to always be ready, no matter what life holds.

REALITY CHECK /// Timothy had three important influences in his life (that we know of). One was his grandmother. Her name was Lois. Another was his mom, Eunice. The third was Paul. All these people taught Timothy about life and faith; they helped him to grow—they were his mentors.

As you grow up, you will become more and more independent and find your own way in the world. But no matter how old you get, it will always be important to listen to those who are older and wiser than you. Life can be really difficult sometimes and we all keep learning and growing every day. Why try to live your life totally on your own when others have already learned things that could make your own life go more smoothly? Who do you know who can mentor you? Visit with them. Ask them questions. Trust them to help you make good decisions. Be somebody's Timothy and let somebody be your Paul.

GREETING

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ[a] by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,

2 To Timothy, a beloved son:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

TIMOTHY'S FAITH AND HERITAGE

3 I thank God, whom I serve with a pure conscience, as my forefathers did, as without ceasing I remember you in my prayers night and day, 4 greatly desiring to see you, being mindful of your tears, that I may be filled with joy, 5 when I call to remembrance the genuine faith that is in you, which dwelt first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and I am persuaded is in you also. 6 Therefore I remind you to stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands. 7 For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind.

NOT ASHAMED OF THE GOSPEL

8 Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me His prisoner, but share with me in the sufferings for the gospel according to the power of God, 9 who has saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace which was given to us in Christ Jesus before time began, 10 but has now been revealed by the appearing of our Savior Jesus Christ,

MIR MAKING IT REAL // 2 TIMOTHY 1:7

No Fear The Spirit of God lives in believers. He gives you strength so you never have to be afraid. But that doesn't mean you should just ignore it if you are threatened or bullied. If anyone ever tries to force you to behave in ways you know are wrong, uses social media or any other forum to bully or frighten you, or makes inappropriate advances toward you, tell an authority. There are sick people in this world who choose to mistreat others; sin can so completely take over a life that it perverts and controls the person who has chosen to submit to evil, dangerous temptations. Evil like this must be revealed where you find it or else it will just grow stronger, hurting you and maybe even others. Also, those who suffer from an inability to control dangerous and destructive behavior need to receive whatever help is necessary to keep them from continuing in their sinful ways. When you report them, they may just get the help they need.

Though there are some things in this world that are truly frightening, the Spirit of God lives inside of you. He doesn't want you living your life in fear. So, trust Him and don't be afraid of life. Do the right thing and be confident that God will protect you and go before you. (See also: Ps. 56; Is. 35:4; Phil. 4:13.)

Words to Live By

Spirit: The word translated as "spirit" in 2 Timothy 1:7 is the Greek word pneuma (pnyoo'-mah). Pneuma is the rational, aware part of a person that allows them to respond to God. It should not be confused with the Holy Spirit, and it certainly isn't another word for ghost. It's the part of you that makes you who you are.

who has abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel, 11to which I was appointed a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.[a] 12For this reason I also suffer these things;
nevertheless I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to keep what I have committed to Him until that Day.

In whom do Christians trust and believe?
2 Timothy 1:8–12

BE LOYAL TO THE FAITH

13Hold fast the pattern of sound words which you have heard from me, in faith and love which are in Christ Jesus. 14That good thing which was committed to you, keep by the Holy Spirit who dwells in us.

15This you know, that all those in Asia have turned away from me, among whom

2 Timothy 1:15

Paul wasn't referring to the ancient Chinese or Japanese when he said the people of Asia had rejected him. Asia was the name of a Roman province located in what is now Turkey. At the time Paul wrote this letter, Nero, the Roman emperor, was stepping up his persecution of Christians throughout the empire.

are Phygellus and Hermogenes. 16The Lord grant mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain; 17but when he arrived in Rome, he sought me out very zealously and found me. 18The Lord grant to him that he may find mercy from the Lord in that Day—and you know very well how many ways he ministered to me[a] at Ephesus.

LIFE APP

Expectations / 2 Timothy 1:9

Expectations are everywhere. You're expected to make the grade, to make the shot, or to hit the note. You may even expect yourself to be the very best at whatever you try. It seems almost everything we do is somehow based on expectations.

So it's very tempting for us to apply that same logic to our relationship with God. We may think that God has a list of expectations for us to meet before He will love us. We may think our relationship with Him depends on how well we avoid the spiritual "don't" list and how much we get accomplished on the spiritual "do" list. But that's not how it works with God.

God loves you and has extended His grace to you based on the sacrifice of Jesus. We live for God because He loves us and has saved us, not to earn His love and salvation. Paul tells us that God "has saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace which was given to us in Christ Jesus before time began" (2 Tim. 1:9).

The expectations of Christians come as we respond to God's love. We want to live lives that please Him—lives that show the fruit of the Spirit (Gal. 5:22, 23). We are not obligated to live up to everyone's expectations. The expectations that matter are those that come in the pursuit of a life that glorifies God. God will accomplish His will in our lives. We are to follow Him faithfully, going where He calls us to go and doing what He calls us to do. That is our expectation to live by. Along our journey, we will mess up. But one expectation we know is secure is that God will forgive us because "if we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness" (1 John 1:9).

BE STRONG IN GRACE

2 You therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.
2And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also. 3You therefore must endure[a] hardship as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. 4No one engaged in warfare entangles himself with the affairs of this life, that he may please him who enlisted him as a soldier. 5And also if anyone competes in athletics, he is not crowned unless he competes according to the rules.
6The hardworking farmer must be first to partake of the crops. 7Consider what I say, and may[a] the Lord give you understanding in all things.

8Remember that Jesus Christ, of the seed of David, was raised from the dead according to my gospel, 9for which I suffer trouble as an evildoer, even to the point of chains; but the word of God is not chained.
10Therefore I endure all things for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

11*This is* a faithful saying:

For if we died with Him,
We shall also live with Him.
12If we endure,
We shall also reign with Him.
If we deny Him,
He also will deny us.
13If we are faithless,
He remains faithful;
He cannot deny Himself.

APPROVED AND DISAPPROVED WORKERS

14Remind them of these things, charging them before the Lord not to strive about words to no profit, to the ruin of the hearers. 15Be diligent to present yourself approved to God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. 16But shun profane and idle babblings, for they will increase to more ungodliness. 17And their message will spread like cancer. Hymenaeus and Philetus are of this sort, 18who have strayed concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection is already past; and they overthrow the faith of some. 19Neverthe-less the solid foundation of God stands, having this seal: "The Lord knows those who are His," and, "Let everyone who names the name of Christ[a] depart from iniquity."

TEMPTATION
What should we do when faced with temptation?
2 Timothy 2:22

20But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay, some for honor and some for dishonor. 21Therefore if anyone cleanses himself from the latter, he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified and useful for the Master, prepared for every good work.
22Flee also youthful lusts; but pursue righteousness, faith, love, peace with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart.
23But avoid foolish and ignorant disputes, knowing that they generate strife. 24And a servant of the Lord must not quarrel but be gentle to all, able to teach, patient, 25in humility correcting those who are in opposition, if God perhaps will grant them repentance, so that they may know the truth, 26and that they may come to their senses and escape the snare of the devil, having been taken captive by him to do his will.

WITNESSING
Why should God's people share the good news with others?
2 Timothy 2:24–26

PERILOUS TIMES AND PERILOUS MEN

3 But know this, that in the last days perilous times will come: 2For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful,

2:3 [a]NU-Text reads You must share.

LIFE APP

Purity / 2 Timothy 2:22

Purity is not a virtue that is often encouraged in the world around us. Many movies, television shows, and even people in your school make fun of purity as an old-fashioned concept that is unrealistic for young people today. But it's not the opinion of others that should concern us; it's God's opinion that matters. God teaches us in His Word that our bodies are His temple, so we should take care of them and treat them respectfully, as they belong to Him (1 Cor. 6:19, 20); we should glorify God in everything we do.

We can go ahead and admit that purity is not easy. It's difficult to even go one day without being bombarded by sexual images or themes. Whether it's a song when you turn on the radio, a commercial using sex to sell something, or even someone at school who seems to be dressing in a way that shows off as much of his or her body as possible, sex is everywhere. So even when you want to be faithful in keeping yourself pure, how do you stay strong in the midst of such constant temptations? Let's take some advice from Paul: "Flee also youthful lusts; but pursue righteousness, faith, love, peace with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart" (2 Tim. 2:22).

Instead of focusing on the things you can't do and remain pure, concentrate on the things you can do. When you see something that is tempting you to lust, look away—flee! And actively seek righteousness by spending time with God and in His Word. Determine to live a life of love and peace, being faithful to God and serving others with a gracious heart. And seek out other believers who are also dedicated to keeping themselves pure to honor God. Surround yourself with God's goodness so that wherever you are, you can focus on things that will help you run away from lustful temptations and run toward God and His love for you.

MAKING IT REAL // 2 TIMOTHY 3:15–17

The Bible The Bible is an awesome book. It's full of answers and advice and wisdom. It's full of stories about war and deceit and natural disasters and family feuds. It tells you how to live and be successful, and it tells you what to look out for. It's the richest, best piece of literature ever written and it's the number one best seller of all time.

But beyond all of that, the Bible is the Word of God. Although God used the minds and hands of people to accomplish the writing of the Bible, He is the One who determined what it would say. The Bible is God's instruction book; in it, He reveals His love and His plan for you.

When Jesus lived on earth, He prayed: "Sanctify them by Your truth. Your word is truth" (John 17:17). (If you are a follower of Jesus, this prayer was for you!) Jesus says that God's Word is truth. And what does truth do for you? It makes you free (John 8:32). God's Word sets you free to live the life God planned for you. The truths of the Bible are like keys that can open up a whole new life; keys that will "unlock" problems and give you answers for anything you face in life: relationships, school, depression, confusion, guilt, stress, frustration, bad self-image, loneliness, lack of direction, apathy, boredom, you name it. The truth of God's Word can unlock a life filled with God's unlimited blessings. (See also: Ps. 119:11, 105; Prov. 30:5; Is. 40:8; John 1:1–18; 8:31, 32; 17:17; Heb. 4:12; 1 John 1:1–4.)

Words to Live By

Inspiration: The word translated in 2 Timothy 3:16 as "inspired" is the Greek word theopneustos (theh-op'-nyoo-stos). It is a compound word formed by combining the Greek words theos (God) and pneo (breathe). The Bible was not written through the intellect or inspiration of man; it was "God-breathed." God infused the Bible with the very breath of His life. We can trust every word in Scripture because it came directly from God.

unholy, 3unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, 4traitors, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, 5having a form of godliness but denying its power. And from such people turn away! 6For of this sort are those who creep into households and make captives of gullible women loaded down with sins, led away by various lusts, 7always learning and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. 8Now as Jannes and Jambres resisted Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, disapproved concerning the faith; 9but they will progress no further, for their folly will be manifest to all, as theirs also was.

THE MAN OF GOD AND THE WORD OF GOD

10But you have carefully followed my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, love, perseverance, 11persecutions, afflictions, which happened to me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra—what persecutions I endured. And out of them all the Lord delivered me. 12Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. 13But evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. 14But you must continue in the things which you have learned and been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them, 15and that from childhood you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

16All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, 17that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work.

2 Timothy 3:8

If you don't recognize the names of Jannes and Jambres, don't be surprised. They're not mentioned in the Old Testament. According to Jewish tradition, Jannes and Jambres were the names of the Pharaoh's court magicians. When Moses was trying to persuade Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, to let the Israelites go, he performed a series of miracles to demonstrate God's power. Believe it or not, Jannes and Jambres were actually able to copy some of the miracles. However, when the time came to reverse them, God's power enabled Moses, but Jannes and Jambres were powerless.

2 Timothy 3:11

If you'd like to visit the modern equivalents of Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra, head for Turkey. As far as city authorities were concerned, Paul overstayed his welcome in each city he visited. When people began responding to the message Paul preached in Antioch, city officials ran him out of town. His next stop was Iconium. When the people there started converting to Christianity, Paul was forced to leave out of fear for his life. His next stop was Lystra, Timothy's hometown.

BIBLE

Why did God give us the Bible?

2 Timothy 3:16, 17

PREACH THE WORD

4 I charge you therefore before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who will judge the living and the dead at[a] His appearing and His kingdom: 2Preach the word! Be ready in season and out of season. Convince, rebuke, exhort, with all longsuffering and teaching. 3For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but according to their own desires, because they have itching ears, they will heap up for themselves teachers; 4and they will turn their ears away from the truth, and be turned aside to fables. 5But you be watchful in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.

PAUL'S VALEDICTORY

6For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure is at hand. 7I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. 8Finally, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that Day, and not to me only but also to all who have loved His appearing.

THE ABANDONED APOSTLE

9Be diligent to come to me quickly; 10for Demas has forsaken me, having loved this present world, and has departed for Thessalonica—Crescens for Galatia, Titus for Dalmatia. 11Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful to me for ministry. 12And Tychicus I have sent to Ephesus. 13Bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas when you come—and the books, especially the parchments.

2 Timothy 4:13

New Testament documents were not written in book form; they were written on long pieces of paper or leather called scrolls. Since scrolls could be twenty-five feet long or more, people discovered that the best way to store them was to roll them around a wooden rod.

14Alexander the coppersmith did me much harm. May the Lord repay him according to his works. 15You also must beware of him, for he has greatly resisted our words.

16At my first defense no one stood with me, but all forsook me. May it not be charged against them.

THE LORD IS FAITHFUL

17But the Lord stood with me and strengthened me, so that the message might be

PROFILE
TIMOTHY

Timothy was raised in a racially mixed family. His mother, who was Jewish, had taught him the Old Testament Scriptures. Because his father was a Greek, Timothy enjoyed a social position that allowed him to move freely in the Roman world. So, Timothy was well educated in the things of the world as well as the things of God.

When Paul came to Timothy's hometown, Lystra, he used the same approach that had proven effective elsewhere: he preached to those who already knew God's Word but did not know about Jesus. He challenged them to compare the claims of Jesus against the prophecies and promises of the Old Testament. Timothy took Paul up on the challenge and became convinced Jesus was Lord and Savior. Paul eventually recruited Timothy as a member of his traveling gospel team.

Timothy served Paul in various capacities: companion, scribe (or record keeper/secretary), and messenger. Although he was young and had a lot to learn, Timothy was an important part of Paul's life and a very loyal companion. For nearly two thousand years, the letters Paul wrote to Timothy have had a huge influence on our understanding of the kingdom of God.

+ MAKING A DIFFERENCE:

Paul was a powerful model and mentor in Timothy's life. Paul may have even been somewhat intimidating to Timothy because he was much older and, seemingly, much more outspoken. But Paul helped Timothy become a powerful leader in the church.

Some people love the spotlight; others can't stand to be the center of attention. Although Timothy represented Paul in places like Thessalonica, Corinth, and Ephesus, he was apparently never comfortable when all eyes (and ears) were on him. Paul constantly encouraged Timothy to rely on God for boldness.

You may never be called on to travel to distant places to tell others about Jesus, but all of us should be willing to share our faith with those who don't know the Lord. God gave Timothy the nerve to face the spotlight and not be afraid. He will also give you all you need to tell others about God's love. All you have to do is ask.

WANT TO KNOW MORE?

Timothy enters the Bible in Acts 16. Several of Paul's letters mention him, and two were addressed to him (1 and 2 Timothy).

Timothy trusted God to help him share the truth of Jesus and make a real difference in his world. If you ask God to give you the courage to speak out, you can, too!

preached fully through me, and that all the Gentiles might hear. Also I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. 18And the Lord will deliver me from every evil work and preserve me for His heavenly kingdom. To Him be glory forever and ever. Amen!

COME BEFORE WINTER

19Greet Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus. 20Erastus stayed in Corinth, but Trophimus I have left in Miletus sick.

21Do your utmost to come before winter.

Eubulus greets you, as well as Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brethren.

FAREWELL

22The Lord Jesus Christ[a] be with your spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

OUTLINE

1:1–4 .....Greetings and a Prayer for Titus
1:5–16 .....Instructions for Church Officials
2:1—3:11 .....Instructions for Church People
3:12–15.....Personal Advice and Final Greetings

KEY VERSE:

For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in the present age (Titus 2:11, 12).

THEN ///

Do you know what a "stereotype" is? It is an assumption that is made when people in a certain group get a reputation for being a certain way. If you meet someone who is really smart, you might assume he or she will be boring or strange. Or, if you meet a girl who is a cheerleader, you might assume she'll be really energetic and a lot of fun. Those things may or may not be true, but you have fallen for a stereotype.

Titus was the young pastor of the churches on the island of Crete (south of Greece). People from Crete definitely were stereotyped. They were stereotyped as thugs and troublemakers. When most people thought about Crete, they thought of gangs and crime. If ever there was a pastor who needed and deserved a letter of instruction from the apostle Paul, it was Titus.

Titus had been one of Paul's traveling companions. On several occasions he had proven himself to be a good problem solver. Maybe that's why he was given a pastor's job in this particular place. Understandably, Paul had a lot to say to Titus about the kinds of leaders he should choose for his churches. He also wrote about civil obedience (obeying the law). Paul knew that Titus had quite a challenge before him, but he was the right man for the job.

NOW ///

Although we may not live in a place as crazy or dangerous as Crete was in Titus' day, we can still learn a lot from Paul's instructions. Just as false teachers posed problems in Titus' world, they still do today. In his letter to Titus, Paul shows us the importance of good teaching and sound doctrine to combat false teaching.

He reminds us that salvation is not based on our works, but comes from God's work of kindness and love toward us (Titus 3:4). This salvation that we gain through Christ is what frees us up to do good works we just couldn't do on our own. The Holy Spirit gives us the power to accomplish these things.

While teaching about these good works, Paul also gave Titus plenty of practical advice. He encouraged Titus to keep urging the people toward purity, service, and kindness. How would it look if those were the qualities we showed the world every day?

REALITY CHECK ///

Personal trainers are everywhere today. They're not only for celebrities anymore. As physical fitness has become more important to more people, personal trainers have become more in demand.

Paul's letter to Titus teaches us about another kind of personal training—a training in which we are all both trainers and trainees. Christians should step up to mentor and teach younger Christians. But this is not training in word only; they have to live out the things they are teaching, or their words will fall on deaf and disappointed ears. Younger Christians need to realize that they do have a lot to learn, and their mentors have a lot to teach. They should listen with open minds and eager hearts to recognize strong teaching and to decide how to apply it in their lives.

As a Christian, you will find yourself in the role of trainee and also in the role of trainer. Whichever role you're in, seek to do it with all your heart and to the best of your ability.

GREETING

1 Paul, a bondservant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect and the acknowledgment of the truth which accords with godliness, 2in hope of eternal life which God, who cannot lie, promised before time began, 3but has in due time manifested His word through preaching, which was committed to me according to the commandment of God our Savior;

4To Titus, a true son in our common faith:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ[a] our Savior.

1:4 [a]NU-Text reads and Christ Jesus.

Titus 1:5

Crete is an island in the Mediterranean Sea, southeast of Greece. Paul left Titus behind in Crete to organize the new church that Paul had started on his final missionary journey.

QUALIFIED ELDERS

5For this reason I left you in Crete, that you should set in order the things that are lacking, and appoint elders in every city as I commanded you— 6if a man is blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of dissipation or insubordination. 7For a bishop[a] must be blameless, as a steward of God, not self-willed, not quick-tempered, not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for money, 8but hospitable, a lover of what is good,
sober-minded, just, holy, self-controlled, 9holding fast the faithful word as he has been taught, that he may be able, by sound doctrine, both to exhort and convict those who contradict.

LEADERSHIP

What are the qualities of a good leader?

Titus 1:7–9

THE ELDERS' TASK

10For there are many insubordinate, both idle talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision, 11whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole households, teaching things which they ought not, for the sake of dishonest gain. 12One of them, a prophet of their own, said,
"Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons." 13This testimony is true. Therefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, 14not giving heed to Jewish fables and commandments of men who turn from the truth. 15To the pure all things are pure, but to those who are defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure; but even their mind and conscience are defiled. 16They profess to know God, but in works they deny Him, being abominable, disobedient, and disqualified for every good work.

QUALITIES OF A SOUND CHURCH

2 But as for you, speak the things which are proper for sound doctrine:
2that the older men be sober, reverent, temperate, sound in faith, in love, in patience; 3the older women likewise, that they be reverent in behavior, not slanderers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things— 4that they admonish the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, 5*to be* discreet, chaste, homemakers, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God may not be blasphemed.

6Likewise, exhort the young men to be sober-minded, 7in all things showing yourself to be a pattern of good works;
in doctrine showing integrity, reverence, incorruptibility,[a] 8sound speech that cannot be condemned, that one who is an opponent may be ashamed, having nothing evil to say of you.[a]

9*Exhort* bondservants to be obedient to their own masters, to be well pleasing in all things, not answering back, 10not pilfering, but showing all good fidelity, that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior in all things.

TITUS

For one who made such a difference, Titus is, in large part, a mystery to us. He was a Greek believer in Jesus who joined Paul's traveling band of gospel messengers. His effectiveness as a representative of Paul is evident from the way the apostle trusted Titus with difficult and important tasks. Titus served as Paul's example of what God could do in the life of a non-Jewish person. When the Jerusalem church debated whether Gentiles (non-Jews) could be called true followers of Jesus without first becoming Jewish converts, Paul presented Titus as proof of Gentile believers.

Titus' faith in Jesus was undeniable. His character paved the way for other Gentiles to enter the church. The gospel was emphasized as a universal invitation based partly on people like Titus in the early church.

Like Timothy, Titus served Paul in official capacities. He was involved in his most difficult assignment, on the island of Crete, when Paul wrote him the letter that bears his name.

Titus reminds us that the gospel and the work of the church must be intentionally passed from one generation to another. The process isn't automatic. It is both spiritual and relational. Those who are further along must take responsibility for those who are just beginning. Titus received the torch of the gospel and passed it on faithfully.

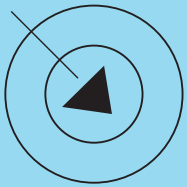
+ MAKING A DIFFERENCE:

Few believers are too young to begin thinking of those who are younger. Teen believers can have a powerful influence on their peers and on younger children. Kids will often listen more attentively to a teenager share his or her faith than they will to an adult. Those who are younger offer you opportunities right now to make a difference for Christ. Have you helped with or led a children's Sunday School class? Explore other possibilities with your pastor.

WANT TO KNOW MORE?

Outside the letter that bears his name, Titus is mentioned in the following places: 2 Corinthians 2:13; 7:6–16; 8:6, 16–24; 12:18; Galatians 2:1–5; and 2 Timothy 4:10.

Others came to the Lord because Titus lived what he believed. His faith made a difference in his world. Yours can, too!



also once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful and hating one another. 4But when the kindness and the love of God our Savior toward man appeared, 5not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit, 6whom He poured out on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior, 7that having been justified by His grace we should become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

8This is a faithful saying, and these things I want you to affirm constantly, that those who have believed in God should

Titus 3:7

PROMISE

God promises to purify you.

[Jesus Christ] gave Himself for us, that He might redeem us from every lawless deed and purify for Himself His own special people, zealous for good works (Titus 2:14).

Sometimes people think God's grace is nothing more than the forgiveness of sins. It would be enough if that was all there was to it—just the forgiveness of every sin in your whole life, even the ones you won't commit for another twenty or thirty years.

But God knows you need more than just a clean slate to become all He wants you to be. You also need a heart that's tender toward Him, a mind that can be molded to think like His, and a soul that yields its will to the wishes of His Spirit.

This verse tells you that Jesus "gave Himself for us, that He might redeem us . . . and purify for Himself His own special people." You're one of His people and special in His sight. And He wants to help you become all you can be. He wants you to learn all it means to be a part of His kingdom and how to live a life that pleases God. To do that, He will allow you to learn to make choices that are good in God's sight—He will give you chances to stand up against temptation and choose to do the right thing. But He doesn't expect you to stand all alone. Jesus will always be with you and His Holy Spirit will always guide you to make right choices if you will listen. Read your Bible, pray for God's help, and when temptation comes, you'll be ready to see it for what it is and turn away.

SEE FOR YOURSELF// Psalm 51:10; Matthew 5:8; Hebrews 9:14; 1 Peter 1:22

be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men.

Titus 3:9

Paul's reference to genealogies has to do with the obsession of some Jewish leaders with being able to trace their family tree all the way back to Abraham. Knowing the name of one's great-great-great-great-great-great-great-great-great-grandfather was very important to some people in New Testament times.

AVOID DISSENSION

9But avoid foolish disputes, genealogies, contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and useless. 10Reject a divisive man after the first and second admonition, 11knowing that such a person is warped and sinning, being self-condemned.

FINAL MESSAGES

12When I send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there. 13Send Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey with haste, that they may lack nothing. 14And let our people also learn to maintain good works, to meet urgent needs, that they may not be unfruitful.

FAREWELL

15All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in the faith.

Grace be with you all. Amen.

KEY VERSE:

No longer as a slave but more than a slave—a beloved brother, especially to me but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord. If then you count me as a partner, receive him as you would me (Philemon 16, 17).

THEN ///

If you haven't had to ask for a reference letter yet, you probably will one day. A reference letter is a formal note from someone who knows you that tells others your good qualities and characteristics. You might use a reference letter to get a job, to get into a school, or to enter an extracurricular program. But somewhere along the way you're going to have to ask someone to give you a good reference so others can know what kind of person you are.

Philemon is a reference letter written by Paul for a slave named Onesimus (o-NES-i-muss). In those days, people who were broke or bankrupt had the option of "selling" themselves as servants or slaves; they made a bargain with a creditor to work off their debt. That way they could get work experience and pay the person they owed. Usually, at some point in time, they could then choose either to remain servants or move on as free persons.

Onesimus was a slave, but he had run away and so had not kept up his end of the bargain. But after he ran off, Onesimus met Paul and became a Christian. He knew he needed to go back and finish paying his debt. In order to pave the way for him, Paul wrote this letter asking Philemon (the owner) to forgive Onesimus and to accept him back into Philemon's home.

NOW ///

How would you feel if you were Philemon and got this letter from Paul?

From Philemon's perspective he had the right to be angry. His servant had run off and had taken money, too. When Paul wrote this letter asking Philemon to forgive, he wasn't just asking Philemon to do what Philemon already knew he should do. Paul was asking Philemon to do something that was totally unexpected. That's hard to take sometimes. When people wrong us or let us down, we want them to pay the price for what they did. And sometimes, people should be held accountable and suffer the consequences of their wrong choices. But sometimes God calls us to lay down our rights, to give the person who wronged us a very undeserved break. Is it so amazing God would ask this of us? After all, He only asks that we do for others what He has done for us—forgive and let it go.

REALITY CHECK ///

We've considered things from Philemon's perspective, but how hard do you think it was for Onesimus to return to the scene of his crime? How hard do you think it was for him to face the man he had robbed and abandoned? How much courage do you think it took for him to travel back to the captivity he had known? It probably took a lot out of him, but he did it because his life had changed. He had put his faith in God. He had accepted God's forgiveness. That meant he couldn't live the same as he had before. Things had to change. The first change was facing up to some consequences. Sometimes we have done things that are wrong, maybe we've even hurt someone. When that happens, we must also return to the "scene of our crime." We must go to those we have hurt or wronged and ask them to forgive us. It's difficult and it can even be frightening; but we must be willing to face our failures and, just like Onesimus, do everything we can to make them right.

PROFILE
ONESIMUS

God often makes a difference through unexpected people. Onesimus was a runaway slave. He and the apostle Paul found each other in Rome. Perhaps they had met previously in the house of Philemon in Colosse when Paul had visited. But this time, Onesimus himself became a believer in Jesus.

Eventually Paul and Onesimus decided the slave must return to his master. Paul's letter to Philemon included the apostle's effort to reintroduce the former runaway to his master as a fellow believer. In an almost humorous way, Paul was certain that Philemon would give Onesimus a good welcome.

Through Onesimus' experience, we are reminded that we cannot run away from God. Onesimus' experience also reminds us that when we run away from problems, God often works things out so that we have to return to the scene of our departure as part of our training. So Onesimus went home. It is possible that Onesimus eventually became a leader of the church in Colosse. But he didn't make a difference by running away. It wasn't until he met Christ and then returned home that he was in a position to be truly "useful," which is what his name means.

+ MAKING A DIFFERENCE:

If one of your problem-solving approaches is to run away, you can learn a lot from Onesimus. His escape was only temporary. In the meantime, God did reach and change him. God can certainly make that kind of difference in your life.

Perhaps you can think of places and people from which you have run. Are there broken relationships and situations in your life that still need to be resolved? God wants to help. Other believers can help, too. Ask God to lead you to a Paul who can give you wisdom and who can run interference during your return.

? WANT TO KNOW MORE?

Onesimus is mentioned briefly in Colossians 4:9 and several times in Philemon.

Though Onesimus made some mistakes in his life, he allowed the Lord to change him and give him a new start. His decision to stop running and stand strong with the Lord made a difference in his life and in the lives of others. If you follow his example, you can make a difference, too!

Philemon 2

Home Bible studies are nothing new. In fact, people met together in their houses to read Scripture and pray long before there were any churches. Church buildings as we know them today—places set aside specifically for Christian worship and Bible study—were not common until the third century. So when you see the word church in the Bible, it's referring to a group of Christ's followers in a certain area.

Philemon 10

Onesimus was living dangerously when he ran away from Philemon, his master. In the Roman Empire, slaves were considered to be nothing more than property. They were bought, sold, and used as their masters saw fit. The punishment for a runaway slave was a severe beating or, in some cases, crucifixion.

your behalf he might minister to me in my chains for the gospel. 14But without your consent I wanted to do nothing, that your good deed might not be by compulsion, as it were, but voluntary.

15For perhaps he departed for a while for this purpose, that you might receive him forever, 16no longer as a slave but more than a slave—a beloved brother, especially to me but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

PHILEMON'S OBEDIENCE ENCOURAGED

17If then you count me as a partner, receive him as you would me. 18But if he has wronged you or owes anything, put that on my account. 19I, Paul, am writing with my own hand. I will repay—not to mention to you that you owe me even your own self besides. 20Yes, brother, let me have joy from you in the Lord; refresh my heart in the Lord.

21Having confidence in your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say. 22But, meanwhile, also prepare a guest room for me, for I trust that through your prayers I shall be granted to you.

FAREWELL

23Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you, 24*as do* Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, Luke, my fellow laborers.

25The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

THEN ///

Have you ever read Cliffs Notes? They are small paperback books that tell you, in shortened form, the story of famous classics (like Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet). They help you understand the highlights of the plot and the significance of the different story lines. Cliffs Notes were not meant to be substituted for reading the classic; they are meant to supplement it. Hebrews is like Cliffs Notes for the whole Bible. The writer of Hebrews walked back through the whole history of the Hebrews starting with their earliest and most famous ancestors, Abraham and Moses.

The Hebrews were a people with a strong, strong sense of tradition. To say that they thought highly of their ancestors is putting it mildly. The whole point of walking back through this history in the Book of Hebrews was to point out that Jesus was greater than any of their ancestors. Now if you were to say to a Hebrew that someone was greater than Moses, you would be making a bold statement—a statement worth fighting over—so you'd better be sure. The writer of Hebrews was sure. He was trying to convince his Hebrew readers that Jesus was, indeed, the Messiah who all their ancestors had pointed them toward.

NOW ///

The Hebrews, being so strong in tradition, relied heavily on the law they had received. Then Jesus came—the Messiah who fulfilled everything their ancestors had foretold. Jesus told people they needed to love God with everything they had and to love each other. Period. Life wasn't about every minute detail of the law anymore. This didn't feel good to the Hebrews. How would they know if they were living a good life if they didn't have the specifics of the law to show them when they messed up? They had put their faith in the law to make them righteous. Now they needed to put their faith in Jesus and He would make them righteous.

This is still true for us. Living good lives is not something we do in an attempt to earn our salvation. Rather, we live righteously out of love, in response and obedience to Jesus Christ because of His great love and sacrifice for us.

REALITY CHECK ///

The writer of Hebrews talks a lot about the law the Hebrews had lived by. Let's look at it a little more closely.

As humans will do, the Hebrews had analyzed the laws until they had expanded them to include every possible scenario. For instance, if the law said that you weren't supposed to work on the Sabbath, the Hebrews wrote laws explaining what "work" actually was and when the "Sabbath" actually was; they actually went so far as to decide how many steps you could take before it was considered "work." You can imagine that things got a little confusing.

We can confuse ourselves sometimes, too, by getting caught up in a list of things we shouldn't do. We can also get all tied up trying to live out a list of things we should do. It's right that there are things we should not do and other things we should, but doing or not doing can't earn us salvation. Jesus is the only way to salvation. Just like the Christians who received the letter to the Hebrews, we need to understand that we should live righteously not to earn salvation but because Jesus has already provided it for us.

GOD'S SUPREME REVELATION

1 God, who at various times and in various ways spoke in time past to the fathers by the prophets, 2has in these last days spoken to us by His Son, whom He has appointed heir of all things,
through whom also He made the worlds;
3who being the brightness of His glory and the express image of His person, and upholding all things by the word of His power, when He had by Himself[a] purged our[b] sins, sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, 4having become so much better than the angels, as He has by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

1:3 [a]NU-Text omits by Himself. [b]NU-Text omits our.

THE SON EXALTED ABOVE ANGELS

5For to which of the angels did He ever say:

"You are My Son,
Today I have begotten You"?[a]

And again:

"I will be to Him a Father,
And He shall be to Me a Son"?[b]

6But when He again brings the firstborn into the world, He says:

"Let all the angels of God worship Him."[a] 7And of the angels He says:

"Who makes His angels spirits
And His ministers a flame of fire."[a]

8But to the Son He says:

"Your throne, O God, is forever and ever;
A scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Your kingdom.
9 You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness;
Therefore God, Your God, has anointed You
With the oil of gladness more than Your companions."[a] 10And:

"You, LORD, in the beginning laid the foundation of the earth,
And the heavens are the work of Your hands.
11 They will perish, but You remain;
And they will all grow old like a garment;
12 Like a cloak You will fold them up,
And they will be changed.
But You are the same,
And Your years will not fail."[a]

13But to which of the angels has He ever said:

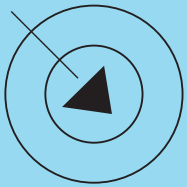
"Sit at My right hand,
Till I make Your enemies Your footstool"?[a]

14Are they not all ministering spirits sent forth to minister for those who will inherit salvation?

ANGELS
How do angels help Christians?
Hebrews 1:14

DO NOT NEGLECT SALVATION

2 Therefore we must give the more earnest heed to the things we have heard, lest we drift away. 2For if the word spoken through angels proved steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just reward, 3how shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation, which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed to us by those who heard Him, 4God also bearing witness both with signs and wonders, with various miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to His own will?



THE SON MADE LOWER THAN ANGELS

5For He has not put the world to come, of which we speak, in subjection to angels. 6But one testified in a certain place, saying:

"What is man that You are mindful of him,
Or the son of man that You take care of him?
7 You have made him a little lower than the angels;
You have crowned him with glory and honor,[a]
And set him over the works of Your hands.
8 You have put all things in subjection under his feet."[a]

For in that He put all in subjection under him, He left nothing that is not put under him. But now we do not yet see all things

PROMISE

God promises to aid you when you are tempted.

For in that He Himself has suffered, being tempted, He is able to aid those who are tempted (Heb. 2:18).

It's not unusual to hear someone excuse personal faults by saying, "Well, that's just the way I am"—as if it would be unfair to expect anything better out of him or her. It's true that everyone has flaws and is susceptible to certain temptations. Some people have a hard time being nice when things aren't going well for them; some people are tempted to cheat because they're so driven to make a good grade; some people try to escape their problems through the abuse of alcohol or drugs. That's just the way they are.

But Jesus never said that it was okay to do wrong because you have a weakness. He taught that you should do the right thing anyway. He wasn't being heartless. He wasn't looking down from some ivory tower shouting, "You must resist temptation!" When He lived on the earth as a man, Jesus was flesh and blood, just like you. He knows what it is like to be tempted. He isn't leaving you to overcome your weaknesses all by yourself. He's right there with you, giving you the courage to make the right choice. He's saying, "You can do it!" He's God. He's given you the strength to overcome any weakness or temptation, and He knows you can!

SEE FOR YOURSELF// Romans 8:37; 1 Corinthians 10:13; Hebrews 4:15, 16

put under him. 9But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels, for the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor, that He, by the grace of God, might taste death for everyone.

BRINGING MANY SONS TO GLORY

10For it was fitting for Him, for whom are all things and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings. 11For both He who sanctifies and those who are being sanctified are all of one, for which reason He is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12saying:

> "I will declare Your name to My brethren;
> In the midst of the assembly I will sing praise to You."[a]

13And again:

> "I will put My trust in Him."[a]

And again:

> "Here am I and the children whom God has given Me."[b]

14Inasmuch then as the children have partaken of flesh and blood, He Himself likewise shared in the same, that through death He might destroy him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, 15and release those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. 16For indeed He does not give aid to angels, but He does give aid to the seed of Abraham. 17Therefore, in all things He had to be made like His brethren, that He might be a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. 18For in that He Himself

Hebrews 2:17

The blood of the sacrifice was the payment necessary for all of the sins the people had committed in the previous year.

has suffered, being tempted, He is able to aid those who are tempted.

THE SON WAS FAITHFUL

3 Therefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, Christ Jesus, 2who was faithful to Him who appointed Him, as Moses also was faithful in all His house. 3For this One has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as He who built the house has more honor than the house. 4For every house is built by someone, but He who built all things is God. 5And Moses indeed was faithful in all His house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which would be spoken afterward, 6but Christ as a Son over His own house, whose house we are if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm to the end.[a]

BE FAITHFUL

7Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says:

"Today, if you will hear His voice,
8 Do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion,
In the day of trial in the wilderness,
9 Where your fathers tested Me, tried Me,
And saw My works forty years.
10 Therefore I was angry with that generation,
And said, 'They always go astray in their heart,
And they have not known My ways.'
11 So I swore in My wrath,
'They shall not enter My rest.'"[a]

12Beware, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief in departing from the living God; 13but exhort one another daily, while it is called "Today," lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. 14For we have become partakers of Christ if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast to the end, 15while it is said:

"Today, if you will hear His voice,
Do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion."[a]

Hebrews 3:14

Though there is no address on the letter, the Book of Hebrews was apparently written to Jewish Christians who were being persecuted by the Roman Empire for their beliefs. Here's the problem they faced. As Jews, they had been safe, since Judaism was recognized by the empire as a legitimate religion and was therefore protected under the law. When those Jews became Christians, however, they put themselves in danger. Christianity was not a recognized religion. As a result, new Christians faced harassment not only from Rome, but also from other Jews who were upset with them for leaving the Jewish faith. Apparently, some Jewish Christians were frightened enough to consider leaving their Christian faith and returning to Judaism.

FAILURE OF THE WILDERNESS WANDERERS

16For who, having heard, rebelled? Indeed, was it not all who came out of Egypt, led by Moses? 17Now with whom was He angry forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose corpses fell in the wilderness? 18And to whom did He swear that they would not enter His rest, but to those who did not obey? 19So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

THE PROMISE OF REST

4 Therefore, since a promise remains of entering His rest, let us fear lest any of you seem to have come short of it. 2For indeed the gospel was preached to us as well as to them; but the word which they heard did not profit them,[a] not being mixed with faith in those who heard it. 3For we who have believed do enter that rest, as He has said:

3:6 [a]NU-Text omits firm to the end. 3:11 [a]Psalm 95:7–11 3:15 [a]Psalm 95:7, 8 4:2 [a]NU-Text and M-Text read profit them, since they were not united by faith with those who heeded it.

"So I swore in My wrath,
'They shall not enter My rest,'"[a]

although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. [4]For He has spoken in a certain place of the seventh day in this way: "And God rested on the seventh day from all His works";[a] [5]and again in this place: "They shall not enter My rest."[a]

[6]Since therefore it remains that some must enter it, and those to whom it was first preached did not enter because of disobedience, [7]again He designates a certain day, saying in David, "Today," after such a long time, as it has been said:

"Today, if you will hear His voice,
Do not harden your hearts."[a]

[8]For if Joshua had given them rest, then He would not afterward have spoken of another day. [9]There remains therefore a rest for the people of God. [10]For he who has entered His rest has himself also ceased from his works as God did from His.

Hebrews 4:8

When Moses died, he left some pretty big sandals to fill. After all, he had led the Israelites out of Egypt and through the wilderness for almost forty years. Joshua was the man God chose to succeed Moses. As Israel's spiritual and military leader, Joshua marched the people into the land God had promised them and directed them in the wars they fought against the enemies of God. The Israelites spent years in battle with various tribes throughout their Promised Land.

THE WORD DISCOVERS OUR CONDITION

[11]Let us therefore be diligent to enter that rest, lest anyone fall according to the same example of disobedience. [12]For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. [13]And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

OUR COMPASSIONATE HIGH PRIEST

[14]Seeing then that we have a great High Priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. [15]For we do not have a High Priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but was in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin. [16]Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

JESUS
Has Jesus ever sinned?
Hebrews 4:15

QUALIFICATIONS FOR HIGH PRIESTHOOD

5 For every high priest taken from among men is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. [2]He can have compassion on those who are ignorant and going astray, since he himself is also subject to weakness. [3]Because of this he is required as for the people, so also for himself, to offer sacrifices for sins. [4]And no man takes this honor to himself, but he who is called by God, just as Aaron was.

A PRIEST FOREVER

[5]So also Christ did not glorify Himself to become High Priest, but it was He who said to Him:

"You are My Son,
Today I have begotten You."[a]

[6]As He also says in another place:

"You are a priest forever
According to the order of Melchizedek";[a]

[7]who, in the days of His flesh, when He had offered up prayers and supplications,

4:3 [a]Psalm 95:11 4:4 [a]Genesis 2:2 4:5 [a]Psalm 95:11 4:7 [a]Psalm 95:7, 8 5:5 [a]Psalm 2:7 5:6 [a]Psalm 110:4

with vehement cries and tears to Him who was able to save Him from death, and was heard because of His godly fear, 8though He was a Son, yet He learned obedience by the things which He suffered. 9And having been perfected, He became the author of eternal salvation to all who obey Him, 10called by God as High Priest "according to the order of Melchizedek," 11of whom we have much to say, and hard to explain, since you have become dull of hearing.

SPIRITUAL IMMATURITY

12For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you again the first principles of the oracles of God; and you have come to need milk and not solid food. 13For everyone who partakes only of milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness, for he is a babe. 14But solid food belongs to those who are of full age, that is, those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

THE PERIL OF NOT PROGRESSING

6 Therefore, leaving the discussion of the elementary principles of Christ, let us go on to perfection, not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God, 2of the doctrine of baptisms, of laying on of hands, of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. 3And this we will[a] do if God permits.

4For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted the heavenly gift, and have become partakers of the Holy Spirit, 5and have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the age to come, 6if they fall away,[a] to renew them again to repentance, since they crucify again for themselves the Son of God, and put Him to an open shame.

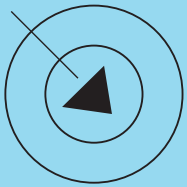
7For the earth which drinks in the rain that often comes upon it, and bears herbs useful for those by whom it is cultivated, receives blessing from God; 8but if it bears thorns and briers, it is rejected and near to being cursed, whose end is to be burned.

A BETTER ESTIMATE

9But, beloved, we are confident of better things concerning you, yes, things that accompany salvation, though we speak in this manner. 10For God is not unjust to forget your work and labor of[a] love which you have shown toward His name, in that you have ministered to the saints, and do minister. 11And we desire that each one of you show the same diligence to the full assurance of hope until the end, 12that you do not become sluggish, but imitate those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.



GOD'S INFALLIBLE PURPOSE IN CHRIST

13For when God made a promise to Abraham, because He could swear by no one greater, He swore by Himself, 14saying, "Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you."[a] 15And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise. 16For men indeed swear by the greater, and an oath for confirmation is for them an end of all dispute. 17Thus God, determining to show more abundantly to the heirs of promise the immutability of His

Hebrews 6:18

In ancient times, six towns in Israel were set aside as "cities of refuge." In order to understand the purpose of cities of refuge, you have to understand the law of the land in Old Testament times. "An eye for an eye" was the rule of the day. If a person killed someone else—even accidentally—legally, he himself could be killed in retaliation. That's why cities of refuge were important. If a person accidentally killed another person, he could run to the nearest city of refuge to escape vengeance-seeking family members of the person he killed. Once a person reached a city of refuge, safety was assured until a fair trial could be conducted. If the killing was found to be accidental, the person on trial was allowed to live in the city of refuge with full protection from those who wanted to kill him.

6:3 [a]M-Text reads let us do. 6:6 [a]Or and have fallen away 6:10 [a]NU-Text omits labor of. 6:14 [a]Genesis 22:17

PROMISE

God promises to tell the truth.

Thus God, determining to show more abundantly to the heirs of promise the immutability of His counsel, confirmed it by an oath, that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we might have strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold of the hope set before us (Heb. 6:17, 18).

Do you ever doubt God? Maybe you don't doubt that He exists, but do you suspect that He's not really going to show up when you need Him the most? Is it a challenge to have hope when you think of the obstacles you're facing?

Hebrews says that the hope of Christ is right in front of you—"the hope set before us." You are holding a record of the promises God has made to you—the Bible. God always tells the truth and He always keeps His promises. His vows have never changed and they never will. You can trust God because He never lies. You don't have to worry about Him not showing up; He said He would always be with you (Matt. 28:20).

Make up your mind to believe God and trust His Word. Until you've made that commitment, you'll constantly struggle with doubt, never sure what you believe and always wondering if God will do what He said. The truth of God's Word can replace your doubt. John 8:32 says, "The truth shall make you free." So immerse yourself in these pages. Commit to do more than just slide your eyes over the words. Really concentrate and study the Bible prayerfully. Read about how God has kept His promises. Read about the incredibly deep and powerful love He has for you. Read about His longing to know you and to be with you forever. Get these words into your heart and into your mind. Be freed from your doubt and let it be replaced with the certainty of God and of His truth.

counsel, confirmed it by an oath, 18that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we might[a] have strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold of the hope set before us.

19This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which enters the Presence behind the veil, 20where the forerunner has entered for us, even Jesus, having become High Priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

THE KING OF RIGHTEOUSNESS

7 For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the Most High God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, 2to whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all, first being translated "king of righteousness," and then also king of Salem, meaning "king of peace," 3without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God, remains a priest continually.

4Now consider how great this man was, to whom even the patriarch Abraham gave a tenth of the spoils. 5And indeed those who are of the sons of Levi, who receive the priesthood, have a commandment to receive tithes from the people according to the law, that is, from their brethren, though they have come from the loins of Abraham; 6but he whose genealogy is not derived from them received tithes from Abraham and blessed him who had the promises. 7Now beyond all contradiction the lesser is blessed by the better. 8Here mortal men receive tithes, but there he receives them, of whom it is witnessed that he lives. 9Even Levi, who receives tithes, paid tithes through Abraham, so to speak, 10for

MAKING IT REAL // HEBREWS 7:26

Jesus, Our High Priest Jesus, the most honored Person in heaven. He is honored because of His perfect life, suffering, death, and resurrection. He is honored because He became the sacrifice that saves us forever. He is holy and innocent.

In a time when people are worshiping and honoring angels, the earth, and all kinds of spirits, it's important to remember that Jesus is honored above everything else. All the heavenly beings are praising and worshiping God, thanking Him for His Son, Jesus. Only Jesus offers salvation. Only Jesus made it possible for people to know God and His salvation. That's why He's honored above heavenly beings.

Yet, with all the honor and glory that Jesus deserves, He does not spend His time in heaven just enjoying the worship of the heavenly beings. The Bible tells us that Jesus is sitting next to God telling Him about the difficulties and weaknesses we need His help to handle (Rom. 8:34). Jesus, the King of heaven, actually prays for us! He feels our hurts and pain and knows our needs. He talks to God for us. Right now, at this very moment, Jesus is talking to God about you!

Does Jesus have a place of honor in your life? Give Him the glory He deserves. Thank Him for the unending mercy and compassion He gives you day after day. Thank Him for giving His life for you. Worship Him with your day. Honor Him with your life. (See also: John 3:31; Eph. 1:19–23; Heb. 1.)

Words to Live By

High Priest: In Old Testament times, the only way to God was to follow the rules God gave His people. But sin kept people from being able to do everything the way God commands. So, once a year, the High Priest (the spiritual leader of the people) offered a sacrifice to God—an animal was killed to signify that the sins of the people were forgiven for a period of one year. When Jesus gave His life on the cross, He became the eternal sacrifice and, through accepting His death on our behalf, we can be cleansed of our sin forever. Jesus is the eternal High Priest of His people. (See Making It Real at Heb. 10:19, 20.)

he was still in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met him.

NEED FOR A NEW PRIESTHOOD

11 Therefore, if perfection were through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need was there that another priest should rise according to the order of Melchizedek, and not be called according to the order of Aaron? 12 For the priesthood being changed, of necessity there is also a change of the law. 13 For He of whom these things are spoken belongs to another tribe, from which no man has officiated at the altar.

14 For it is evident that our Lord arose from Judah, of which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood.[a] 15 And it is yet far more evident if, in the likeness of Melchizedek, there arises another priest 16 who has come, not according to the law of a fleshly commandment, but according to the power of an endless life. 17 For He testifies:[a]

> "You are a priest forever
> According to the order of > Melchizedek."[b]

18 For on the one hand there is an annulling of the former commandment because of its weakness and unprofitableness, 19 for the law made nothing perfect; on the other hand, there is the bringing in of a better hope, through which we draw near to God.

7:14 [a]NU-Text reads priests. 7:17 [a]NU-Text reads it is testified. [b]Psalm 110:4

GREATNESS OF THE NEW PRIEST

20And inasmuch as He was not made priest without an oath 21(for they have become priests without an oath, but He with an oath by Him who said to Him:

> "The LORD has sworn
> And will not relent,
> 'You are a priest forever[a]
> According to the order of > Melchizedek'"),[b]

22by so much more Jesus has become a surety of a better covenant.

23Also there were many priests, because they were prevented by death from continuing. 24But He, because He continues forever, has an unchangeable priesthood.
25Therefore He is also able to save to the uttermost those who come to God through Him, since He always lives to make intercession for them.

26For such a High Priest was fitting for us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and has become higher than the heavens; 27who does not need daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifices, first for His own sins and then for the people's, for this He did once for all when He offered up Himself. 28For the law appoints as high priests men who have weakness, but the word of the oath, which came after the law, appoints the Son who has been perfected forever.

THE NEW PRIESTLY SERVICE

8 Now this is the main point of the things we are saying: We have such a High Priest, who is seated at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, 2a Minister of the sanctuary and of the true tabernacle which the Lord erected, and not man.

3For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices. Therefore it is necessary that this One also have something to offer. 4For if He were on earth,
He would not be a priest, since there are priests who offer the gifts according to the law; 5who serve the copy and shadow of the heavenly things, as Moses was divinely instructed when he was about to make the tabernacle. For He said, "See that you make all things according to the pattern shown you on the mountain."[a] 6But now
He has obtained a more excellent ministry, inasmuch as He is also Mediator of a better covenant, which was established on better promises.

A NEW COVENANT

7For if that first covenant had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for a second. 8Because finding fault with them, He says: "Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah— 9not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they did not continue in My covenant, and I disregarded them, says the LORD. 10For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put My laws in their mind and write them on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people. 11None of them shall teach his neighbor, and none his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD,' for all shall know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them. 12For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their lawless deeds[a] I will remember no more."[b]

13In that He says, "A new covenant," He has made the first obsolete. Now what is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to vanish away.

THE EARTHLY SANCTUARY

9 Then indeed, even the first covenant had ordinances of divine service and the earthly sanctuary. 2For a tabernacle was prepared: the first part, in which was the lampstand, the table, and the showbread, which is called the sanctuary; 3and behind the second veil, the part of the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of All, 4which had the golden censer and the ark of the covenant overlaid on all sides with gold, in which were the golden pot that had the manna, Aaron's rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant; 5and

7:21 [a]NU-Text ends the quotation here. [b]Psalm 110:4 8:5 [a]Exodus 25:40 8:12 [a]NU-Text omits and their lawless deeds. [b]Jeremiah 31:31–34

PROMISE

God promises you better things.

But now He has obtained a more excellent ministry, inasmuch as He is also Mediator of a better covenant, which was established on better promises (Heb. 8:6).

Before Jesus came to Earth, God's people were bound to Him through a covenant, or a binding promise. Because of their sin, they could not directly approach their most holy God. They had to make animal sacrifices for their sins through a priest (a mediator between the people and God), so that they could worship Him.

Because of Jesus, we live under a new covenant. Thanks to His once-for-all sacrifice for our sins, we can now have a personal relationship with God. The old covenant looked forward to this new and better covenant, which includes the promise that, through the Messiah (Jesus Christ), we will belong to the Lord forever and He will belong to us as our God (Jer. 31:31–34).

The new covenant also promises forgiveness for the sins of those who trust in Christ. Not only was Jesus the sacrifice in this new covenant, He is also our new High Priest. Only through Him can we approach God the father directly. Because of Christ, we can pray and fellowship personally with the Lord. We can ask for the forgiveness of our sins. We can sense His leading and compassion in our lives because the Holy Spirit now lives inside of us.

God has promised us better things. He's given us the best gift—a personal relationship with Him—through the work of Jesus and the Holy Spirit.

SEE FOR YOURSELF// Jeremiah 31:31–34; Hebrews 7:22

above it were the cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat. Of these things we cannot now speak in detail.

LIMITATIONS OF THE EARTHLY SERVICE

6 Now when these things had been thus prepared, the priests always went into the first part of the tabernacle, performing the services. 7 But into the second part the high priest went alone once a year, not without blood, which he offered for himself and for the people's sins committed in ignorance; 8 the Holy Spirit indicating this, that the way into the Holiest of All was not yet made manifest while the first tabernacle was still standing. 9 It was symbolic for the present time in which both gifts and sacrifices are offered which cannot make him who performed the service perfect in regard to the conscience— 10 concerned only with foods and drinks, various washings, and fleshly ordinances imposed until the time of reformation.

THE HEAVENLY SANCTUARY

11 But Christ came as High Priest of the good things to come,[a] with the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made with hands, that is, not of this creation. 12 Not with the blood of goats and calves, but with His own blood He entered the Most Holy Place once for all, having obtained eternal redemption. 13 For if the blood of bulls and goats and the ashes of a heifer, sprinkling the unclean, sanctifies for the purifying of the flesh, 14 how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without spot to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?
15 And for this reason He is the Mediator of the new covenant, by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions under the first covenant, that those who are called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance.

9:11 [a]NU-Text reads that have come.

THE MEDIATOR'S DEATH NECESSARY

16For where there is a testament, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator. 17For a testament is in force after men are dead, since it has no power at all while the testator lives. 18Therefore not even the first covenant was dedicated without blood. 19For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and goats, with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people, 20saying,
"This is the blood of the covenant which God has commanded you."[a] 21Then likewise he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry. 22And according to the law almost all things are purified with blood, and without shedding of blood there is no remission.

GREATNESS OF CHRIST'S SACRIFICE

23Therefore it was necessary that the copies of the things in the heavens should be purified with these, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. 24For Christ has not entered the holy places made with hands, which are copies of the true, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us; 25not that He should offer Himself often, as the high priest enters the Most Holy Place every year with blood of another— 26He then would have had to suffer often since the foundation of the world; but now, once at the end of the ages, He has appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself. 27And as it is appointed for men to die once, but after this the judgment, 28so Christ was offered once to bear the sins of many. To those who eagerly wait for Him He will appear a second time, apart from sin, for salvation.

DEATH
Why should Christians not fear death?
Hebrews 9:27, 28

ANIMAL SACRIFICES INSUFFICIENT

10 For the law, having a shadow of the good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with these same sacrifices, which they offer continually year by year, make those who approach perfect.
2For then would they not have ceased to be offered? For the worshipers, once purified, would have had no more consciousness of sins. 3But in those sacrifices there is a reminder of sins every year. 4For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and goats could take away sins.

CHRIST'S DEATH FULFILLS GOD'S WILL

5Therefore, when He came into the world,
He said:

*"Sacrifice and offering You did not desire,
But a body You have prepared for Me.*
6*In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin
You had no pleasure.*
7*Then I said, 'Behold, I have come—In the volume of the book it is written of Me—
To do Your will, O God.'"*[a] 8Previously saying, "Sacrifice and offering, burnt offerings, and offerings for sin You did not desire, nor had pleasure in them" (which are offered according to the law),

9then He said, "Behold, I have come to do Your will, O God."[a] He takes away the first that He may establish the second. 10By that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

CHRIST'S DEATH PERFECTS THE SANCTIFIED

11And every priest stands ministering daily and offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. 12But this Man, after He had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down at the right hand of God, 13from that time waiting till His enemies are made His footstool. 14For by

MAKING IT REAL // HEBREWS 10:19, 20

In the Presence of God The place of worship the Israelites built had a special room called the Most Holy Place (or the Holiest of All, Heb. 9:8). The door of this room was covered by a thick, heavy curtain because God's presence lived in the room. Because the presence of the Lord is so awesome, the people had to be separated from it. They were sinful and sin cannot stand in the presence of God's love and holiness. Only the high priest could go through the curtain, and he could do it only once a year. At that time, the high priest sacrificed an animal for the sins of the whole nation. The blood of the sacrifice took away the people's sins for the next year (Leviticus 16).

At the moment Jesus died on the cross, the curtain in front of the Most Holy Place was torn from top to bottom (Matt. 27:51). God's presence is no longer hidden from us! It's like God had been sitting behind a locked door for years and years; and only the high priest had the key. Then Jesus came along and unlocked that door for everyone. His blood takes away the sins of everyone who trusts in Him. Now He's the High Priest.

Because of Jesus' death—because the curtain is torn—you can go into the place where God is. You don't need another person as a go-between. You don't have to go to a temple. And you don't have to make another sacrifice next year. Jesus made it possible for you to go into God's presence—personally, freely, as often as you want. (See also: 2 Cor. 3:4; Col. 1:21–23; Heb. 6:19.)

Words to Live By

Boldness: The word translated as "boldness" in Hebrews 10:19 is the Greek word parrhesia (par-rhay-see'-ah). It means "freedom to speak honestly and openly." It also means "to be free from fear and filled with confidence." Because of Jesus, we are always welcome in God's presence, and He wants us to share our deepest thoughts and feelings with Him.

one offering He has perfected forever those who are being sanctified.

15 But the Holy Spirit also witnesses to us;
for after He had said before,

16 "This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the LORD:
I will put My laws into their hearts, and in their minds I will write them,"[a] 17 then He adds, "Their sins and their lawless deeds
I will remember no more."[a]
18 Now where there is remission of these, there is no longer an offering for sin.

Hebrews 10:19, 20

The "Holiest" in the tabernacle, the place only the high priest was allowed to enter, was separated from the rest of the tabernacle by an embroidered curtain or veil.

HOLD FAST YOUR CONFESSION

19 Therefore, brethren, having boldness to enter the Holiest by the blood of Jesus, 20 by a new and living way which He consecrated for us, through the veil, that is, His flesh, 21 and having a High Priest over the house of God, 22 let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.
23 Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful. 24 And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, 25 not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching.

LIFE APP

Church / Hebrews 10:24, 25

Have you ever heard someone claim Christians are hypocrites? They look at our lives and see us still making wrong choices and don't understand what makes us different. They mistakenly think we simply consider ourselves better than others.

In reality, Christians aren't any better than anyone else. We still do things that displease God and hurt others. The only difference between us and non-Christians is that we know Jesus and were born into God's kingdom when we accepted Him as our Savior. We realize that, because of Him and His sacrifice on our behalf, we can receive God's forgiveness when we sin. Christians aren't perfect, we just know the One who is and we rely on Him to teach us and correct us.

When you become a Christian, you begin a process of being changed. It's as though you start out as a baby Christian and you have to be trained to know how to live your new life. Just like a baby needs to learn to walk and talk, you need to learn how to live your life in ways that please God—how to walk out your faith and speak words of life and truth to others. Babies have to learn to feed themselves; as a new Christian, you have to learn the importance of reading the Bible and feeding yourself the truth of God's Word.

Just like babies need to be cared for by someone older and wiser, Christians also need people in their lives who know more about the Lord and a life of faith. No matter how long you have been a Christian, there are people who have known the Lord longer and have learned more about how to serve Him.

The purpose of the church is to provide a place where Christians can meet together and help each other grow. It's not a gathering of perfect people; it's a meeting of forgiven people who desire to learn to live a life of love and service toward each other and the Lord.

THE JUST LIVE BY FAITH

[26]For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, [27]but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and fiery indignation which will devour the adversaries. [28]Anyone who has rejected Moses' law dies without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses. [29]Of how much worse punishment, do you suppose, will he be thought worthy who has trampled the Son of God underfoot, counted the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified a common thing, and insulted the Spirit of grace? [30]For we know Him who said, "Vengeance is Mine, I will repay,"[a] says the Lord.[b] And again, "The LORD will judge His people."[c] [31]It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

[32]But recall the former days in which, after you were illuminated, you endured a great struggle with sufferings: [33]partly while you were made a spectacle both by reproaches and tribulations, and partly while you became companions of those who were so treated; [34]for you had compassion on me[a] in my chains, and joyfully accepted the plundering of your goods, knowing that you have a better and an enduring possession for yourselves in heaven.[b] [35]Therefore do not cast away your confidence, which has great reward. [36]For you have need of endurance, so that after you have done the will of God, you may receive the promise:

[37] "For yet a little while,
And He[a] who is coming will come and will not tarry.
[38] Now the[a] just shall live by faith;
But if anyone draws back,
My soul has no pleasure in him."[b]

[39]But we are not of those who draw back to perdition, but of those who believe to the saving of the soul.

FAITH
What is the definition of faith?
Hebrews 11:1

BY FAITH WE UNDERSTAND

11 Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. [2]For by it the elders obtained a good testimony.

[3]By faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that the things which are seen were not made of things which are visible.

FAITH AT THE DAWN OF HISTORY

[4]By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts; and through it he being dead still speaks.

[5]By faith Enoch was taken away so that he did not see death, "and was not found, because God had taken him";[a] for before he was taken he had this testimony, that he pleased God. [6]But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.

[7]By faith Noah, being divinely warned of things not yet seen, moved with godly fear, prepared an ark for the saving of his household, by which he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith.

FAITHFUL ABRAHAM

[8]By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to the place which he would receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going. [9]By faith he dwelt in the land of promise as in a foreign country, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise; [10]for he waited for the city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

[11]By faith Sarah herself also received strength to conceive seed, and she bore a child[a] when she was past the age, because she judged Him faithful who had promised.

PROFILE
CAIN

Every decision we make in life is an opportunity to make a positive difference or a negative one. It all depends on our attitude and willingness to obey God.

The Bible includes stories of many people who made a negative difference. There are two reasons for this: (1) we can learn from others' mistakes; and (2) we are more likely to recognize ourselves making negative differences than positive ones. Cain is one of those biblical characters who made a difference in the wrong way, but we can learn much from his disastrous choice.

Abel and Cain both chose to worship God, but they each had something different in mind. Though both their sacrifices came from their lives, the Bible indicates a significant difference in their attitudes. Abel brought the best he had, considering God worthy of only the highest form of sacrifice; Cain brought something easily attained and easily replaced. Cain's was a careless attitude that he compounded by getting angry and jealous at his younger brother. Until this point, the sin had been solely between Cain and God. God warned Cain that he was quickly approaching a point of no return. God graciously granted Cain a second chance to get it right.

Attitudes like jealousy and anger can be confronted and corrected. Murder cannot be undone. Cain chose to follow the guidance of his anger rather than to follow God. He killed his brother Abel and then offered God an arrogant denial—"Am I my brother's keeper?" (Gen. 4:9). Cain became a vivid example of the mess we can create when our anger runs out of control.

+ MAKING A DIFFERENCE:

Everyone experiences anger. What you do with that anger will affect your life and the lives of those around you in many ways. It can make a positive difference or an extremely negative one. It's like a huge billboard in your path which warns: what you do next matters!

Anger is simply a reaction, an emotion looking for a way to express itself. Anger left unchecked can cause untold hurt and destruction. It's like anger has no ability to think, it simply reacts and, if you don't master it, it can end up mastering you.

To guard against being controlled by your own anger, you have to purposefully engage your mind—consider carefully what anger may urge you to do. Allow the Lord to guide you and channel your anger in positive ways. If you think before you act and listen to the Lord's guidance, anger can be a very powerful force for good. It can be a forceful response to wrong that can bring about positive change.

If you have a problem with anger, listen carefully to God's warning to Cain. Letting God master your anger will make a positive difference for you and others.

WANT TO KNOW MORE?

Read about Cain's sin and the lessons we can learn from his story in Genesis 4:1–17; Hebrews 11:4; 1 John 3:12; Jude 11.

Cain chose to allow his anger to rule him. But Abel chose a better way; his life still teaches and makes a difference. Yours can, too!

Faith / Hebrews 11:6

To have faith in someone means to be completely confident of their reliability and trustworthiness; it is to trust them completely and without question. But faith in God is really so much more.

In Hebrews 11:1 we are told that faith is the "substance of things hoped for" and "the evidence of things not seen." This means that not only do we trust God to do as He has promised, we know without doubt He will always live up to His Word. True faith is more than simple belief—it is an absolute assurance that God will always do as He says no matter what we see with our eyes. Faith doesn't focus on what our eyes can see, but on what God has said.

You may tend to think that doubt is the opposite of faith, but that's not quite right. The opposite of faith is fear. When fear takes over, it causes questions in your mind and you start wondering "what if"—what if the worst happens? What then? What if God doesn't show up this time? Fear can cause you to question whether God will do what He claims. But when you truly know God, you will realize He can always be trusted to do exactly as He has promised. Fear cannot exist in the heart of someone who truly believes that God is exactly who He says and will do exactly as He says He will do.

God said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you" (Heb. 13:5). God is worthy of your complete trust. He will be there for you no matter what happens in your life. He will be there to help you through any trouble or pain you face (Heb. 13:6). God is infinitely reliable and trustworthy. You can be absolutely certain that God will never let you down.

MIR MAKING IT REAL // HEBREWS 11:6

Faith The Bible talks a lot about having faith and about people who had faith. When you have faith, you're sure of "the substance of things hoped for" (Heb. 11:1), and you believe in what you can't see. Faith doesn't just think God will keep His promises, faith is absolutely sure He will.

Faith isn't something you can work up in your own heart. The Bible tells us in Hebrews 12:2 that Jesus is the "author and finisher" of our faith. He is the One who places faith in our hearts and teaches us how to live completely in that faith. But that doesn't mean you just sit around and wait for faith to rise up within you. Faith is like a muscle—for it to grow and become strong you must exercise it by reading the Bible and getting God's Word into your heart. Then when you need answers, you can remember what God's Word says and keep believing until you see His promise alive in your life.

Believing God will do exactly as He says is crucial. But you also have to decide to believe God's Word and not your eyes. That's how you exercise the faith you have. Over time, you will see it grow larger and stronger. Decide to operate in faith and determine not to be shaken. Life will become an exciting adventure as you watch for and expect God to bring His promises to reality. (See also: Hab. 2:4; Matt. 9:22; Mark 11:22; Luke 7:50; Rom. 4:9; 12:3; 1 Cor. 16:13; 2 Cor. 5:7; 2 Thess. 1:3; 1 Tim. 6:12; Heb. 11.)

Words to Live By

Diligently seek: The phrase in Hebrews 11:6 translated as "diligently seek" is from the Greek word ekzeteo (ek-say-the'-o). It doesn't just mean to look for something, or even to look long and hard for it. Ekzeteo means "to absolutely crave something and put all the effort and energy you have into finding it." Living a life of faith and giving it all you've got is not easy, but God Himself promises to reward you when you go all out in seeking Him. The greatest reward is having a personal relationship with the One who created all things and loves you more than you can imagine.

12 Therefore from one man, and him as good as dead, were born as many as the stars of the sky in multitude—innumerable as the sand which is by the seashore.

THE HEAVENLY HOPE

13 These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off were assured of them,[a] embraced them and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. 14 For those who say such things declare plainly that they seek a homeland. 15 And truly if they had called to mind that country from which they had come out, they would have had opportunity to return. 16 But now they desire a better, that is, a heavenly country.
Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them.

THE FAITH OF THE PATRIARCHS

17 By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises offered up his only begotten son, 18 of whom it was said, "In Isaac your seed shall be called,"[a] 19 concluding that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead, from which he also received him in a figurative sense.

20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and worshiped, leaning on the top of his staff.

22 By faith Joseph, when he was dying, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel, and gave instructions concerning his bones.

11:13 [a]NU-Text and M-Text omit were assured of them. 11:18 [a]Genesis 21:12

THE FAITH OF MOSES

23By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden three months by his parents, because they saw he was a beautiful child; and they were not afraid of the king's command.

24By faith Moses, when he became of age, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, 25choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin, 26esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in[a] Egypt; for he looked to the reward.

27By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured as seeing Him who is invisible. 28By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, lest he who destroyed the firstborn should touch them.

29By faith they passed through the Red Sea as by dry land, whereas the Egyptians, attempting to do so, were drowned.

BY FAITH THEY OVERCAME

30By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after they were encircled for seven days. 31By faith the harlot Rahab did not perish with those who did not believe, when she had received the spies with peace.

32And what more shall I say? For the time would fail me to tell of Gideon and Barak and Samson and Jephthah, also of David and Samuel and the prophets: 33who through faith subdued kingdoms, worked righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, 34quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, became valiant in battle, turned to flight the armies of the aliens. 35Women received their dead raised to life again.

Others were tortured, not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection. 36Still others had trial of mockings and scourgings, yes, and of chains and imprisonment. 37They were stoned, they were sawn in two, were tempted,[a] were slain with the sword. They wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented— 38of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, in dens and caves of the earth.

39And all these, having obtained a good testimony through faith, did not receive the promise, 40God having provided something better for us, that they should not be made perfect apart from us.

THE RACE OF FAITH

12 Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, 2looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

FAITH
Where does faith come from?
Hebrews 12:2

THE DISCIPLINE OF GOD

3For consider Him who endured such hostility from sinners against Himself, lest you become weary and discouraged in your souls. 4You have not yet resisted to bloodshed, striving against sin. 5And you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as to sons:

> "My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD,
> Nor be discouraged when you are rebuked by Him;
> 6*For whom the LORD loves He chastens,*
> And scourges every son whom He receives."[a]

7If[a] you endure chastening, God deals with you as with sons; for what son is there whom a father does not chasten? 8But if you are without chastening, of which all have become partakers, then you are illegitimate and not sons. 9Furthermore, we have had human fathers who corrected us, and we paid them

MAKING IT REAL // HEBREWS 12:11

Discipline God has given every parent the difficult task of disciplining and training their children (Proverbs 22:6). It may seem like your parents are too strict, especially when it comes to monitoring where and when you go out, or being extra cautious about the personal information you post on a social site. The truth is that the world just isn't as safe as it once was. Parents have a good reason to be concerned for your safety. They're not being jerks; they're looking out for you. Maybe you think your parents are a lot tougher on you than your friends' parents are on them. Don't be so sure. You don't really know what it's like to live in another family. And in some homes, kids have to raise themselves; it's obvious by looking at the world that many of them aren't doing a very good job.

While being disciplined and trained by your parents may be frustrating and hard at times, be thankful that you have parents who love you and want to do what God has called them to do. Believe it or not, when you look back on these years, you will thank your parents for caring so much about you. Try to learn from their correction and understand the reasons for their rules. Begin to apply the lessons your parents are teaching you. More freedom is always given to those who prove they have learned their lessons well. (See also: Prov. 3:12; 22:6; 23:13, 14; Eph. 6:4; Col. 3:21.)

Words to Live By

Chastening: The word translated as "chastening" in Hebrews 12:11 is the Greek word paideuo (pahee-dyoo'-o). It means "to train a child through education and correction." The entire process of parenting is for the sole purpose of teaching children how to live successful, productive adult lives. One day, you will make all your own choices in life. Doesn't it make sense to learn while you're still young how to make the right ones?

respect. Shall we not much more readily be in subjection to the Father of spirits and live? 10For they indeed for a few days chastened us as seemed best to them, but He for our profit, that we may be partakers of His holiness. 11Now no chastening seems to be joyful for the present, but painful; nevertheless, afterward it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

RENEW YOUR SPIRITUAL VITALITY

12Therefore strengthen the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees, 13and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be dislocated, but rather be healed.

14Pursue peace with all people, and holiness, without which no one will see the Lord: 15looking carefully lest anyone fall short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up cause trouble, and by this many become defiled; 16lest there be any fornicator or profane person like Esau, who for one morsel of food sold his birthright. 17For you know that afterward, when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no place for repentance, though he sought it diligently with tears.

THE GLORIOUS COMPANY

18For you have not come to the mountain that[a] may be touched and that burned with fire, and to blackness and darkness[b] and tempest, 19and the sound of a trumpet and the voice of words, so that those who heard it begged that the word should not be spoken to them anymore. 20(For they could not endure what was commanded: "And if so much as a beast touches the mountain, it shall be stoned[a] or shot with an arrow."[b] 21And so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, "I am exceedingly afraid and trembling."[a])

12:18 [a]NU-Text reads to that which. [b]NU-Text reads gloom. 12:20 [a]NU-Text and M-Text omit the rest of this verse. [b]Exodus 19:12, 13
12:21 [a]Deuteronomy 9:19

22But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, to an innumerable company of angels, 23to the general assembly and church of the firstborn who are registered in heaven, to God the Judge of all, to the spirits of just men made perfect, 24to Jesus the Mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaks better things than that of Abel.

HEAR THE HEAVENLY VOICE

25See that you do not refuse Him who speaks. For if they did not escape who refused Him who spoke on earth, much more shall we not escape if we turn away from Him who speaks from heaven, 26whose voice then shook the earth; but now He has promised, saying, "Yet once more I shake[a] not only the earth, but also heaven."[b] 27Now this, "Yet once more," indicates the removal of those things that are being shaken, as of things that are made, that the things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us have grace, by which we may[a] serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear.
29For our God is a consuming fire.

CONCLUDING MORAL DIRECTIONS

13 Let brotherly love continue. 2Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by so doing some have unwittingly entertained angels. 3Remem-ber the prisoners as if chained with them—those who are mistreated—since you yourselves are in the body also.

4Marriage is honorable among all, and the bed undefiled; but fornicators and adulterers God will judge.

SEX
When is sex honorable and pure?
Hebrews 13:4

5*Let your* conduct be without covetousness; be content with such things as you have. For He Himself has said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you."[a] 6So we may boldly say:

"The LORD is my helper;
I will not fear.
What can man do to me?"[a]

HELP
Why should we be able to live without fear?
Hebrews 13:5, 6

CONCLUDING RELIGIOUS DIRECTIONS

7Remember those who rule over you, who have spoken the word of God to you, whose faith follow, considering the outcome of their conduct. 8Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. 9Do not be carried about[a] with various and strange doctrines. For it is good that the heart be established by grace, not with foods which have not profited those who have been occupied with them.

10We have an altar from which those who serve the tabernacle have no right to eat. 11For the bodies of those animals, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned outside the camp. 12Therefore Jesus also, that He might sanctify the people with His own blood, suffered outside the gate.
13Therefore let us go forth to Him, outside the camp, bearing His reproach. 14For here we have no continuing city, but we seek the one to come. 15Therefore by Him let us continually offer the sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to His name. 16But do not forget to do good and to share, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

17Obey those who rule over you, and be submissive, for they watch out for your souls, as those who must give account. Let

Sacrifice / Hebrews 13:15, 16

In the Old Testament, God's people made sacrifices to Him to atone for their sins or to give Him praise. A priest would make the sacrifice on behalf of a worshipper. And sacrifices were costly. They either had to be animal (stipulated by the law) or a grain offering. Whatever sacrifice they were making, the point was to bring their best. For animal sacrifices, they had to bring an animal with absolutely no flaws—the very best one they had. For grain offerings, they had to bring their firstfruits—the very best of their crops. Sacrifice meant bringing your very best to God, even though it was costly.

All of the Old Testament sacrifices foreshadow the ultimate sacrifice that would come through Christ Jesus. He gave Himself as the once-for-all sacrifice for our sins. So now, through Christ, we can have access to God, and a personal relationship with Him.

But that doesn't mean we don't have sacrifices of our own to offer God. "Therefore by Him let us continually offer the sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to His name. But do not forget to do good and to share, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased" (Heb. 13:15, 16).

These spiritual sacrifices are still costly to us. It may be painful to offer a sacrifice of praise when you are going through a difficult time. When you've had your heart broken, it may be challenging to give thanks to God. When evil has been done to you, doing good may not be the easiest thing. When you barely have enough for yourself, it may seem impossible to share. Offer these sacrifices anyway, and God will be well pleased with them. When you sacrifice this way with your whole life, you will find yourself fulfilling Paul's command in Romans 12:1: "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service."

them do so with joy and not with grief, for that would be unprofitable for you.

PRAYER REQUESTED

18 Pray for us; for we are confident that we have a good conscience, in all things desiring to live honorably. 19 But I especially urge you to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

BENEDICTION, FINAL EXHORTATION, FAREWELL

20 Now may the God of peace who brought up our Lord Jesus from the dead, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, 21 make you complete in every good work to do His will, working in you[a] what is well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

22 And I appeal to you, brethren, bear with the word of exhortation, for I have written to you in few words. 23 Know that our brother Timothy has been set free, with whom I shall see you if he comes shortly.

24 Greet all those who rule over you, and all the saints. Those from Italy greet you.

25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

KEY VERSE:

So then, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath; for the wrath of man does not produce the righteousness of God (James 1:19, 20).

THEN /// The Book of James is about making the faith that you confess with your words match the way you act. James even goes so far as to say that if your actions don't match your faith, then your faith is worthless. Whew. That's a little harsh, don't you think? It's the truth, though. What good is it to God, our families, ourselves, or to a world that needs to see real Christians, if we say a lot of good stuff but actually live another way?

James is one of those where-the-rubber-meets-the-road kinds of books. It reminds us that we make ourselves accountable to God and man when we say we believe. It reminds us that, when we say we believe, we are making a promise that will change everything we do.

NOW /// Have you ever known anyone who said they wanted to be your friend, but then they didn't act like a friend? Maybe they talked about you behind your back. Maybe they found another friend and left you behind. Whatever they did, their actions didn't match their words.

The message of James is just as relevant for us today as it was for James' readers. The world is still a place where actions speak louder than words. If we say one thing and do another, people will "hear" what we do louder than they hear what we say. So be honest with yourself as you read James and see if there are places in your life where you need to make your actions match your words.

James is famous for giving us a warning about one of the most dangerous forces known to man. It has the violent nature of a forest fire and a power greater than a wild animal. Know what it is? The force that James warns about is the human tongue. It's not that the tongue itself has so much power. It's that we use our tongues to speak. When we speak, we use words. When we use words, we hold the power to hurt or to heal, and we are stuck with the outcome. Words are difficult, almost impossible, to take back.

So when James warns us to learn to control our tongues, he's really saying that we should control our wills and our brains and our mouths and all the words that we say. This will benefit us as well as everyone around us.

GREETING TO THE TWELVE TRIBES

1 James, a bondservant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ,

To the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad:

Greetings.

PROFITING FROM TRIALS

2 My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials, 3 knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience. 4 But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing. 5 If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and it will be given to him.
6 But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea driven and tossed by the wind. 7 For let not that man suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; 8 he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

THE PERSPECTIVE OF RICH AND POOR

9 Let the lowly brother glory in his exaltation, 10 but the rich in his humiliation, because as a flower of the field he will pass away. 11 For no sooner has the sun risen with a burning heat than it withers the grass; its flower falls, and its beautiful appearance perishes. So the rich man also will fade away in his pursuits.

LOVING GOD UNDER TRIALS

12 Blessed is the man who endures temptation; for when he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love

PROFILE
JAMES, JESUS' LITTLE BROTHER

James must have felt that having Jesus as a big brother was a mixed blessing. Did James ever hear his mother say, "Why can't you be more like your big brother?" Now there is an intimidating comparison! James probably had some good reasons to consider his big brother unique and amazing, but the Bible tells us he had a hard time accepting his big brother as his Savior. It took a while. In fact, it took Jesus' death and resurrection to finally convince James that Jesus was much more than his brother. Paul tells us that Jesus paid His little brother a personal visit after His resurrection (1 Cor. 15:7). That must have been quite a reunion!

James had always watched Jesus. How can you ignore a famous brother? When he finally realized the identity of his brother, James's faith took a great leap forward. Everything he had heard his brother say and had seen his brother do suddenly made sense. James became a leader in the church almost overnight.

Even though it took James quite a while to realize Jesus' identity, once James was convinced, God used him in several crucial ways. James provided key wisdom in the early days of the church. He also wrote the Book of James, probably the most down-to earth, practical, how-to manual for the Christian life.

+ MAKING A DIFFERENCE:

Fortunately, you can respond in faith to Jesus at any point in your life. You may have heard about the Lord all your life, or you may have only recently been introduced. It makes no difference when you realized exactly who He is, it only matters that you know Jesus is the Savior and He died for you.

Once you know the Lord as your Savior, you begin learning how to live your life as a Christian. The Book of James is a great resource to begin discovering how to live this new life. The lessons it teaches are practical and down-to-earth. In fact, one way to think about the Book of James is to describe it as a how-to book written for believers who really want to make a difference for Christ through their lives.

WANT TO KNOW MORE?

Can you even imagine what it must have been like to be Jesus' little brother and have the opportunity to see and hear all that Jesus did? You can learn a bit more about James in John 7:1–5; Acts 15:1–29; 1 Corinthians 15:7; and in his own letter, the Book of James.

James became a strong man of faith and really made a difference with his life. When you choose to believe that Jesus is exactly who He claimed and that a whole new life is available to you through him, you can make a difference in your world, too!

Him. 13Let no one say when he is tempted,
"I am tempted by God";
for God cannot be tempted by evil,
nor does He Himself tempt anyone.
14But each one is tempted when he is drawn away by his own desires and enticed.
15Then, when desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin;
and sin, when it is full-grown,
brings forth death.

16Do not be deceived, my beloved brethren.
17Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above,
and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning.
18Of His own will He brought us forth by the word of truth, that we might be a kind of firstfruits of His creatures.

QUALITIES NEEDED IN TRIALS

19So then,[a] my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath; 20for the wrath of man does not produce the righteousness of God.

DOERS—NOT HEARERS ONLY

21Therefore lay aside all filthiness and overflow of wickedness, and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls.

22But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. 23For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man observing his natural face in a mirror; 24for he observes himself, goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was. 25But he who looks into the perfect law of liberty and continues in it, and is not a forgetful hearer but a doer of the work, this one will be blessed in what he does.

BLESSING
What brings us blessing?
James 1:25

26If anyone among you[a] thinks he is religious, and does not bridle his tongue but deceives his own heart, this one's religion is useless. 27Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their trouble, and to keep oneself unspotted from the world.

BEWARE OF PERSONAL FAVORITISM

2 My brethren, do not hold the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with partiality. 2For if there should come into your assembly a man with gold rings, in fine apparel, and there should also come in a poor man in filthy clothes, 3and you pay attention to the one wearing the fine clothes and say to him,
"You sit here in a good place," and say to the poor man, "You stand there," or, "Sit here at my footstool," 4have you not shown partiality among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts?

5Listen, my beloved brethren: Has God not chosen the poor of this world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom which He promised to those who love Him? 6But you have dishonored the poor man. Do not the rich oppress you and drag you into the courts? 7Do they not blaspheme that noble name by which you are called?

8If you really fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself,"[a] you do well; 9but if you show partiality, you commit sin, and are convicted by the law as transgressors.
10For whoever shall keep the whole law, and yet stumble in one point, he is guilty of all. 11For He who said, "Do not commit adultery,"[a] also said, "Do not murder."[b] Now if you do not commit adultery, but you do murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. 12So speak and so do as those who will be judged by the law of liberty. 13For judgment is without mercy to the one who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

FAITH WITHOUT WORKS IS DEAD

14What does it profit, my brethren, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can faith save him? 15If a brother or sister is naked and destitute of daily food, 16and one of you says to them, "Depart in

James 2:21

It's said that couples who have children later in life appreciate the parenting experience more than young parents do. If that's true, Abraham and Sarah may have been the most appreciative parents in history. When their son Isaac was born, Abraham was one hundred years old and Sarah was ninety. Years later, God tested Abraham's appreciation—and his faith—by asking him to kill Isaac as a sacrifice. Even after waiting so long for the son God had promised him, Abraham didn't hesitate to obey. Just when Abraham was ready to kill Isaac, the Lord stopped him and sent a ram to sacrifice instead.

PROMISE

God promises that you will inherit His kingdom.

Listen, my beloved brethren: Has God not chosen the poor of this world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom which He promised to those who love Him? (James 2:5).

Many people spend all of their lives attempting to build a kingdom of their own. They may spend year after year just trying to acquire more—more money, more fame, more respect, more stuff. But what will be the end of all their work? They will reach the end of their lives and other people will then take over their so-called "kingdoms." The Book of Ecclesiastes tells us this is all vanity, all meaningless (Eccl. 2:17–23). None of those kingdoms will last, and none will ever provide meaning or purpose.

There is only one kingdom that can provide those things; and if we're followers of Christ, we're already heirs to this kingdom—the eternal kingdom of God—the one that doesn't rot, or fade away, or go broke. It's the kingdom in which we find eternal life, ultimate purpose, and unconditional love. How are you spending your time, building a kingdom on earth, or seeking the kingdom of heaven?

Think for a moment. Do you know your grandmother's name? Easy? How about your great-grandmother's name? Harder, but okay. Now, what's your great-great-grandmother's name? Stumped? It's a sad truth: in about three or four generations, maybe no one will remember your name either. Oh, it'll be written down somewhere, but you'll be long gone. Your earthly kingdom won't matter anymore. What will matter is the legacy you leave of seeking God's kingdom. If you're a Christian, you'll be with Jesus, sharing in the kingdom He has for you. There, you'll matter forever.

SEE FOR YOURSELF// Ecclesiastes 2:17–23; Luke 6:20; Hebrews 12:28

peace, be warmed and filled," but you do not give them the things which are needed for the body, what does it profit? 17Thus also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

18But someone will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without your[a] works, and I will show you my faith by my[b] works. 19You believe that there is one God. You do well. Even the demons believe—and tremble! 20But do you want to know, O foolish man, that faith without works is dead?[a] 21Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered Isaac his son on the altar? 22Do you see that faith was working together with his works, and by works faith was made perfect? 23And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness."[a] And he was called the friend of God. 24You see then that a man is justified by works, and not by faith only.

25Likewise, was not Rahab the harlot also justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out another way?

James 2:25

When the Israelites sent spies into Jericho to scope out the place, Rahab, a prostitute in Jericho, helped them get the information they needed; she even saved their lives by hiding them from the king's men. Later, when the Israelites returned to conquer Jericho, they destroyed the homes of everyone in the city—except that of Rahab and her family. Rahab had proven herself to be a friend of God's people.

LIFE APP

Volunteering / James 2:14–20

If someone asked you the difference between Christians and other people, what would you say? Of course you would tell them about Jesus and His sacrifice on the cross; you would tell them about salvation by receiving Jesus as Savior. But what would you point to that can been seen and touched to show them your faith?

The apostle James realized faith has to be more than just words and warm, faithful feelings. Real faith changes people from the inside out and it shows up in the things they do (James 2:18). James even says that believing is not enough because even demons believe in God, but they don't worship Him or serve Him. If someone truly loves God, it will show up in the way they choose to live their life.

Take a look at your own life. What can you point to that will show others that you are a Christian? Going to church on Sunday and being part of a youth group are great things to do, but they don't make you a Christian and certainly don't prove to the world that you love God. It's the way you treat others and the things you do to help those in need that truly show the world that you belong to Jesus and that He is alive and well within you.

You don't need to go to a far-off land and live in a grass hut to serve God. You can serve Him right where you are. You can help friends, relatives, and neighbors in small ways everyday: helping with homework, mowing lawns, cleaning the house, or carrying groceries. You can volunteer to help with an after-school program for kids or work in a soup kitchen once a week. Just take a look around. You won't need to look very far to find someone who could use your help. Then volunteer to serve and find out why James said, "By works faith was made perfect" (James 2:22).

WORLD APP

Hunger / James 2:15, 16

We are blessed to live in a country where we can walk down the aisles of any large grocery store and choose what foods we'd like to buy. For people in many other countries, the thought of that simple walk down a grocery store aisle is nothing but dream—something hardly even imaginable.

But even in America, there are people who go to sleep hungry at night and wake up hungry in the morning. World hunger is a problem that has existed for thousands of years and seems determined to exist for many years more.

In the face of global poverty and starvation, it's easy to want to help but not know where to start. Here are some suggestions. First of all, you can pray for those who are hungry and ask God how He might use you to help people who are in need. Then take some advice from the Book of James: "If a brother or sister is naked and destitute of daily food, and one of you says to them, 'Depart in peace, be warmed and filled,' but you do not give them the things which are needed for the body, what does it profit?" (James 2:15, 16).

We should pray for those in need and also speak words of encouragement to them. But those words of encouragement will fall on deaf ears if we don't also do what we can to help them. It may be as simple as going with your church to a homeless shelter and serving food. You may start a food drive at your church or school for those who are hungry. You can support a ministry that builds wells or teaches farming techniques in a foreign country.

Hunger isn't going away on its own. But if we all work together, serving Christ and serving others, we can make a difference one hungry person at a time.

MAKING IT REAL // JAMES 3:17, 18

Wisdom God has promised to give wisdom to those who ask (James 1:5). But, what is wisdom? We hear a lot about elderly people being wise. But is wisdom something you learn by living a lot of years? We hear a lot about wise decisions or unwise behavior. Should we understand wisdom to be an action or a choice?

The Bible says that "the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom" (Ps. 111:10). That doesn't mean we are afraid of God, it means we understand that He is all-powerful, knows everything (is omniscient), and is always right. When we are completely convinced that God is in total control, we know we can always trust Him to make everything work out right. That's where wisdom starts.

Sometimes we can be confused and think wisdom and knowledge are the same thing. But real wisdom isn't just knowing something; it's understanding how to put your knowledge into action. Think of it this way: a person may know smoking cigarettes is dangerous to their health, but they smoke them anyway. Wisdom is acting on the knowledge that cigarettes ruin your health, and NOT smoking.

God doesn't just teach us truth and leave us on our own. He gives us the wisdom to know how to put truth into practice in our lives. (See also: Prov. 4:5–9; Rom. 11:33; 1 Cor. 12:8; Col. 2:3.)

Words to Live By

Yield: The word translated in James 3:17 as "yield" is the Greek word eupeithes (yoo-pi-thace'). It means "being open to discussion, not opinionated and stubborn." When God teaches us through His Word or other people (like parents), we should be willing to listen and accept what they tell us. If you are wise, you will realize you don't know everything about life and others know more than you. Wisdom is knowing when to pay attention and act on what you hear.

26For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

THE UNTAMABLE TONGUE

3 My brethren, let not many of you become teachers, knowing that we shall receive a stricter judgment.
2For we all stumble in many things. If anyone does not stumble in word, he is a perfect man, able also to bridle the whole body. 3Indeed,[a] we put bits in horses' mouths that they may obey us, and we turn their whole body. 4Look also at ships:
although they are so large and are driven by fierce winds, they are turned by a very small rudder wherever the pilot desires.
5Even so the tongue is a little member and boasts great things.

See how great a forest a little fire kindles!
6And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity.
The tongue is so set among our members that it defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire by hell. 7For every kind of beast and bird, of reptile and creature of the sea, is tamed and has been tamed by mankind.
8But no man can tame the tongue. It is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison. 9With it

James 3:6

You've heard of "hell on earth"? The Hinnom Valley, a deep ravine located south of Jerusalem, was the real thing. The Greek word translated "hell" literally means "Hinnom Valley." The ravine was actually an ancient garbage dump. All kinds of waste material and dead animals were taken to Hinnom Valley to be burned. Eventually, the place came to be used as a symbol of judgment and sorrow.

3:3 [a]NU-Text reads Now if.

we bless our God and Father, and with it we curse men, who have been made in the similitude of God. 10Out of the same mouth proceed blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not to be so. 11Does a spring send forth fresh water and bitter from the same opening? 12Can a fig tree, my brethren, bear olives, or a grapevine bear figs? Thus no spring yields both salt water and fresh.[a]

HEAVENLY VERSUS DEMONIC WISDOM

13Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show by good conduct that his works are done in the meekness of wisdom. 14But if you have bitter envy and self-seeking in your hearts, do not boast and lie against the truth. 15This wisdom does not descend from above, but is earthly, sensual, demonic. 16For where envy and self-seeking exist, confusion and every evil thing are there. 17But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy. 18Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

PRIDE PROMOTES STRIFE

4 Where do wars and fights come from among you? Do they not come from your desires for pleasure that war in your members? 2You lust and do not have. You murder and covet and cannot obtain. You fight and war. Yet[a] you do not have because you do not ask. 3You ask and do not receive, because you ask amiss, that you may spend it on your pleasures. 4Adulterers and[a] adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. 5Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, "The Spirit who dwells in us yearns jealously"?

6But He gives more grace. Therefore He says:

> "God resists the proud,
> But gives grace to the humble."[a]

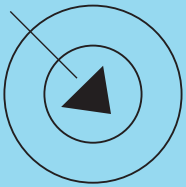
HUMILITY CURES WORLDLINESS

7Therefore submit to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you. 8Draw near to God and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded. 9Lament and mourn and weep! Let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy to gloom. 10Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He will lift you up.

HUMILITY
When can we be close to God?
James 4:8–10

DO NOT JUDGE A BROTHER

11Do not speak evil of one another, brethren. He who speaks evil of a brother and judges his brother, speaks evil of the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge. 12There is one Lawgiver,[a] who is able to save and to destroy. Who[b] are you to judge another?[c]



DO NOT BOAST ABOUT TOMORROW

13Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will[a] go to such and such a city, spend a year there, buy and sell, and make a profit"; 14whereas you do not know what will happen tomorrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapor that appears for a little time and then vanishes away. 15Instead you ought to say, "If the Lord wills, we shall live and do this or that." 16But now you boast in your arrogance. All such boasting is evil.

SIN
Is sin always an action?
James 4:17

17Therefore, to him who knows to do good and does not do it, to him it is sin.

3:12 [a]NU-Text reads Neither can a salty spring produce fresh water. 4:2 [a]NU-Text and M-Text omit Yet. 4:4 [a]NU-Text omits Adulterers and. 4:6 [a]Proverbs 3:34 4:12 [a]NU-Text adds and Judge. [b]NU-Text and M-Text read But who. PROMISE

God promises to honor humble people.

But He gives more grace. Therefore He says: "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble." . . . Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He will lift you up (James 4:6, 10).

God is looking for young men and women who are genuinely humble. He doesn't want a fake humility that outwardly says, "I'm really a nothing," but is conceited and arrogant on the inside. Some people think that humility means really believing that you are a nothing, with no potential to be or do anything. But that is not accurate, either. True humility is knowing and recognizing who God is and who you are. God says that, through Christ, you can do all things (Phil. 4:13). He rejoices and sings because of you (Zeph. 3:17). You are not a nothing, because He created you!

Being humble does not mean acting like a doormat. It means that you know for certain that you are strong through Jesus Christ. It means that you are secure enough to serve others and not care what people think. You're strong enough to be seen with people who aren't popular. You're secure enough to really care about someone who often gets left out—and you show it.

Pride and arrogance have no place with God. Jesus measures strength not by how cool you act but by your humility. Read John 13:3–17. You'll see a great picture of Jesus' humility. Working on humility in your life will help you be more like Him. And that's what it's all about.

SEE FOR YOURSELF// Psalm 149:4; Proverbs 3:34; Daniel 10:12; Matthew 23:12; John 13:3–17; Philippians 2:8

RICH OPPRESSORS WILL BE JUDGED

5 Come now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming upon you! 2Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten. 3Your gold and silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be a witness against you and will eat your flesh like fire.
You have heaped up treasure in the last days. 4Indeed the wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, cry out; and the cries of the reapers have reached the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth.[a] 5You have lived on the earth in pleasure and luxury; you have fattened your hearts as[a] in a day of slaughter. 6You have condemned, you have murdered the just; he does not resist you.

James 5:2

Moths are mentioned several times in the Bible as symbols of destruction and the foolishness of putting one's hope in material things. Here's how the little critters are able to do so much damage. Female moths often lay their eggs in clothing. When the eggs hatch, the newborn larvae eat the fibers of the material. Because the larvae chew quietly, the owner of the clothing may not know that damage is being done until it's too late.

BE PATIENT AND PERSEVERING

7Therefore be patient, brethren, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, waiting patiently for it until it receives the early and latter rain. 8You also be patient.
Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand.

9Do not grumble against one another, brethren, lest you be condemned.[a] Behold,

5:4 [a]Literally, in Hebrew, Hosts 5:5 [a]NU-Text omits as. 5:9 [a]NU-Text and M-Text read judged.

the Judge is standing at the door! [10]My brethren, take the prophets, who spoke in the name of the Lord, as an example of suffering and patience. [11]Indeed we count them blessed who endure. You have heard of the perseverance of Job and seen the end intended by the Lord—that the Lord is very compassionate and merciful.

[12]But above all, my brethren, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or with any other oath. But let your "Yes" be "Yes," and your "No," "No," lest you fall into judgment.[a]

MEETING SPECIFIC NEEDS

[13]Is anyone among you suffering? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing psalms. [14]Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. [15]And the prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise him up. And if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. [16]Confess your trespasses[a] to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much. [17]Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it would not rain; and it did not rain on the land for three years and six months. [18]And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth produced its fruit.

BRING BACK THE ERRING ONE

[19]Brethren, if anyone among you wanders from the truth, and someone turns him back, [20]let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way will save a soul[a] from death and cover a multitude of sins.

5:12 [a]M-Text reads hypocrisy. 5:16 [a]NU-Text reads Therefore confess your sins.

KEY VERSE:

Beloved, do not think it strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened to you; but rejoice to the extent that you partake of Christ's sufferings, that when His glory is revealed, you may also be glad with exceeding joy (4:12, 13).

THEN /// The letters Peter wrote to the early church were like survival manuals. These young churches faced danger every day—Nero was actually throwing Christians into pits of hungry lions. To admit belief in Jesus was a dangerous thing. So Peter wrote these letters to help people survive both physically and spiritually.

In Peter's first letter, he wrote to the Christians who were being persecuted by people outside of the church. These Christians faced torture and death because of what they believed. Peter wrote to help them gain some perspective in the midst of the struggle to survive. He encouraged their faith even if it endangered their lives. He knew that if their faith stayed strong, they might be in physical danger but their souls would be safe.

In Peter's second letter, he warned the Christians to watch out for traitors inside the church. These persecutors took the form of false teachers who taught doctrines that would weaken faith rather than build it up. Peter knew that, for these Christians, even though their bodies weren't in physical danger, their souls were in a risky position.

NOW /// History has taught us that persecution does not deter Christianity. In fact, Christianity has often grown in countries that threatened death to people who declared faith in God. Why do you think that is true?

Part of the reason is because real faith is true, no matter what. If God is God and if He is active in your life, then that is true, no matter how much people might harass you or intimidate you. Whatever form the persecution takes, whether physical or spiritual, knowing that God is truly your God is enough to see you through each and every trial and challenge. These aren't just pretty words; they speak a powerful truth experienced in real life by real Christians for thousands of years. And truth does not change—it is just as true today as it was thousands of years ago and as it will be in the future.

REALITY CHECK /// Peter warned against false teachers inside the church. The question is, at what point do you stop saying people have different opinions and start saying they are teaching heresy (wrong beliefs about Jesus and His kingdom)?

Just about everyone you ask will give you a different answer for that question. We care about our faith, and we work hard to understand it. When someone disagrees with us, it's sometimes hard to feel okay about it. That doesn't mean that every difference of opinion should result in a disagreement or that if someone does not agree with us, they are guilty of heresy.

Real heresy happens when the identity or character of God the Father, God the Son (Jesus), or God the Holy Spirit is questioned or attacked. If someone tells you Jesus is not really God in the flesh, then you have encountered heresy. When you find yourself listening to wrong teachings, you don't have to get angry or shout them down. But it is your duty to stand up for the truth. Stand strong, have courage to speak truth, but always make sure you do it with love and grace.

GREETING TO THE ELECT PILGRIMS

1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ,

To the pilgrims of the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, 2 elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, for obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ:

Grace to you and peace be multiplied.

A HEAVENLY INHERITANCE

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His abundant mercy has begotten us again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, 4 to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that does not fade away, reserved in heaven for you, 5 who are kept by the power of God through faith for salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

6In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if need be, you have been grieved by various trials, 7that the genuineness of your faith, being much more precious than gold that perishes, though it is tested by fire, may be found to praise, honor, and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ, 8whom having not seen[a] you love. Though now you do not see Him, yet believing, you rejoice with joy inexpressible and full of glory, 9receiving the end of your faith—the salvation of your souls.

1 Peter 1:7

Gold is rarely found by itself. Usually it's mined with many other rocks and substances. So how did ancient miners separate the valuable from the worthless? They put everything into a large container and then set the container over a very hot flame. As the rocks heated, the impurities melted and separated from the gold. As the substance cooled, the impurities formed a crust on top that could be scraped off. The purifying process resulted in pure and costly gold.

10Of this salvation the prophets have inquired and searched carefully, who prophesied of the grace that would come to you, 11searching what, or what manner of time, the Spirit of Christ who was in them was indicating when He testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ and the glories that would follow. 12To them it was revealed that, not to themselves, but to us[a] they were ministering the things which now have been reported to you through those who have preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven—things which angels desire to look into.

LIVING BEFORE GOD OUR FATHER

13Therefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and rest your hope fully upon the grace that is to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ; 14as obedient children, not conforming yourselves to the former lusts, as in your ignorance; 15but as He who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, 16because it is written,
"Be holy, for I am holy."[a]

SALVATION
How was our salvation obtained?
1 Peter 1:18, 19

17And if you call on the Father, who without partiality judges according to each one's work, conduct yourselves throughout the time of your stay here in fear; 18knowing that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, like silver or gold, from your aimless conduct received by tradition from your fathers, 19but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. 20He indeed was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you 21who through Him believe in God, who raised Him from the dead and gave Him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

THE ENDURING WORD

22Since you have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit[a] in sincere love of the brethren, love one another fervently with a pure heart, 23having been born again, not of corruptible seed but incorruptible, through the word of God which lives and abides forever,[a] 24because

"All flesh is as grass,
And all the glory of man[a] as the flower
of the grass.
The grass withers,
And its flower falls away,
25*But the word of the* LORD endures forever."[a]

Now this is the word which by the gospel was preached to you.

2 Therefore, laying aside all malice, all deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and all evil speaking, 2as newborn babes, desire the pure milk of the word, that you may grow thereby,[a] 3if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is gracious.

THE CHOSEN STONE AND HIS CHOSEN PEOPLE

4Coming to Him as to a living stone, rejected indeed by men, but chosen by God and precious, 5you also, as living stones, are being built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. 6Therefore it is also contained in the Scripture,

> "Behold, I lay in Zion
> A chief cornerstone, elect, precious,
> And he who believes on Him will by no means be put to shame."[a]

7Therefore, to you who believe, He is precious; but to those who are disobedient,[a]

> "The stone which the builders rejected
> Has become the chief cornerstone,"[b]

8and

> "A stone of stumbling
> And a rock of offense."[a]

They stumble, being disobedient to the word, to which they also were appointed.

9But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, His own special people, that you may proclaim the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light; 10who once were not a people but are now the people of God, who had not obtained mercy but now have obtained mercy.

LIVING BEFORE THE WORLD

11Beloved, I beg you as sojourners and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts which war against the soul, 12having your conduct honorable among the Gentiles, that when they speak against you as evildoers, they may, by your good works which they observe, glorify God in the day of visitation.

SUBMISSION TO GOVERNMENT

13Therefore submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake, whether to the king as supreme, 14or to governors, as to those who are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers and for the praise of those who do good. 15For this is the will of God, that by doing good you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men— 16as free, yet not using liberty as a cloak for vice, but as bondservants of God. 17Honor all people. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king.

JESUS
What was Jesus' example to us of how to rightly endure injustice?
1 Peter 2:21–23

SUBMISSION TO MASTERS

18Servants, be submissive to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the harsh. 19For this is commendable, if because of conscience toward God one endures grief, suffering wrongfully. 20For what credit is it if, when you are beaten for your faults, you take it patiently? But when you do good and suffer, if you take it patiently, this is commendable before God. 21For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us,[a] leaving us[b] an example, that you should follow His steps:

> 22 "Who committed no sin,
> Nor was deceit found in His mouth";[a]

23who, when He was reviled, did not revile in return; when He suffered, He did not threaten, but committed Himself to Him who judges righteously; 24who Himself bore our sins in His own body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live for righteousness—by whose stripes you were healed. 25For you were like sheep going astray, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer[a] of your souls.

MAKING IT REAL // 1 PETER 2:11

Homeward Bound Sometimes you can feel like a pilgrim or even an alien on this earth (or in your world) because you love Jesus. In 1 Peter 2:11, Peter calls Christians "sojourners and pilgrims." And that's just what we are; we are people who are here for a time, but we are only passing through on our way to a better place. We learn in Ephesians 4 that we are no longer like the rest of the world; we live here, but we are totally different because we have a new, eternal life in Christ.

Do you pray before your meals in public? If you do, then you know that almost no one else does. Do you tell your friends "no thanks" when they invite you to an out-of-control party? Maybe you don't even get invited anymore because they know it's not your scene. Have you been dumped by someone because you chose not to have sex before marriage? You made the right choice, but it may have made you feel like an alien.

Peter says that a part of being Christlike is continually holding yourself back from the "fleshly lusts"—the sinful pulls of the world. When you hold back or stand apart, then you've become the sojourner or pilgrim. You may feel like no one understands; it may even seem the world considers you really weird. But you have a home in heaven that is so far beyond the beauty and comfort of this world. You'll never feel like a stranger there. You'll be known and loved and respected for exactly who you are—no insults, no impossible expectations, no giggles and whispers behind your back. You'll be totally accepted forever in the eternal home prepared for you in heaven. (See also: 1 Cor. 2:12; Phil. 3:20; Heb. 11:13.)

Words to Live By

Abstain: The word translated as "abstain" in 1 Peter 2:11 is the Greek word apechomai (ap-ekh'-om-ahee). This word means "to keep oneself away from something; to decide to stay away." It is a verb, so action is required. You can't just decide to live as God wants, you have to be willing and able to tell yourself "No!" and then stay away when you're tempted to live like the sinful world around you.

SUBMISSION TO HUSBANDS

3 Wives, likewise, be submissive to your own husbands, that even if some do not obey the word, they, without a word, may be won by the conduct of their wives, 2when they observe your chaste conduct accompanied by fear. 3Do not let your adornment be merely outward—arranging the hair, wearing gold, or putting on fine apparel— 4rather let it be the hidden person of the heart, with the incorruptible beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is very precious in the sight of God. 5For in this manner, in former times, the holy women who trusted in God also adorned themselves, being submissive to their own husbands, 6as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord, whose daughters you are if you do good and are not afraid with any terror.

A WORD TO HUSBANDS

7Husbands, likewise, dwell with them with understanding, giving honor to the wife, as to the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life, that your prayers may not be hindered.

CALLED TO BLESSING

8Finally, all of you be of one mind, having compassion for one another; love as brothers, be tenderhearted, be courteous;[a] 9not returning evil for evil or reviling for reviling, but on the contrary blessing, knowing that you were called to this, that you may inherit a blessing. 10For

Current Events / 1 Peter 2:15–17

Sometimes, watching the evening news can seem like viewing an R-rated movie. Murder, rape, catastrophic natural disasters, private lives made public, greedy people destroying the lives of others—any horrible thing you can dream up may end up being reported as fact on tomorrow's Internet news page.

As Christians in this sin-sick world, we can be tempted to just hide away from such disgusting and frightening events. But that's not what God wants from His people. Jesus called us the "light of the world" (Matt. 5:14). We are to live our lives in such a way that others will see the reality of God and His love at work in us. We should be so different in the way we think and treat others that everyone will wonder what makes us so unique and unlike them.

This world is where we live. We have no choice but to be here, but our presence should make a difference. We should be examples to the world of what it means to live godly lives. Everyone should be able to learn more about our faith and our God by watching us interact with our world. When disaster strikes, we should be among the first to volunteer our time or help provide funds for those in need. When those around us have been victimized by crime, we should be ready and willing to reach out to them in love and compassion. Christians should always be examples of loyal, obedient citizens and follow all rules set by government unless they conflict with the commands of God.

Christians are to be the hands and feet of Jesus and express His love to the world. The Bible says we are His body on earth (1 Cor. 12:27). As His representatives, we must live our lives as He lived His—loving and honoring all people.

PROMISE

God promises to listen to you.

"For the eyes of the LORD are on the righteous, and His ears are open to their prayers; but the face of the LORD is against those who do evil" (1 Pet. 3:12).

Maybe you've picked up your Bible today hoping it'll make a little sense out of what you're going through, or give you a reason to believe God cares what happens to you.

Maybe you've tried praying, but really wonder if it does any good. You may feel like prayer is just launching words into dead air and hoping they'll somehow make a difference; it may seem like your prayers bounce off the ceiling and fall back to the ground. Maybe you sometimes question why you should talk to God when it feels like no one's listening?

The people originally reading Peter's letter may have asked this same question. They were facing persecution on every side because of their faith. Seeing their family and friends being tortured and even killed, while living under the constant threat of the same punishment, may have made them wonder if their prayers were really being heard. In his letter, Peter is assuring them that they are not alone in their trials. It was an extremely dark time, but their faith was shining bright—and God saw every moment. He heard their prayers and was with them through every tribulation.

Your world may seem dark and silent; you may not feel like your prayers are being heard. But God is with you. He is watching. And listening. And waiting. And working. And one day, you may wonder why you ever thought He wasn't.

SEE FOR YOURSELF// Psalm 5:3; John 11:42

Let him refrain his tongue from evil,
And his lips from speaking deceit.
11 Let him turn away from evil and do good;
Let him seek peace and pursue it.
12 For the eyes of the LORD are on the righteous,
And His ears are open to their prayers;
But the face of the LORD is against those who do evil."[a]

SUFFERING FOR RIGHT AND WRONG

13 And who is he who will harm you if you become followers of what is good? 14 But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you are blessed. "And do not be afraid of their threats, nor be troubled."[a] 15 But sanctify the Lord God[a] in your hearts, and always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear; 16 having a good conscience, that when they defame you as evildoers, those who revile your good conduct in Christ may be ashamed. 17 For it is better, if it is the will of God, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil.

CHRIST'S SUFFERING AND OURS

18 For Christ also suffered once for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us[a] to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive by the Spirit, 19 by whom also He went and preached to the spirits in prison, 20 who formerly were disobedient, when once the Divine longsuffering waited[a] in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water. 21 There is also an antitype which now saves us—baptism (not the removal of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God), through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, 22who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, angels and authorities and powers having been made subject to Him.

4 Therefore, since Christ suffered for us[a] in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same mind, for he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, 2that he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh for the lusts of men, but for the will of God. 3For we have spent enough of our past lifetime[a] in doing the will of the Gentiles—when we walked in lewdness, lusts, drunkenness, revelries, drinking parties, and abominable idolatries. 4In regard to these, they think it strange that you do not run with them in the same flood of dissipation, speaking evil of you. 5They will give an account to Him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. 6For this reason the gospel was preached also to those who are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

1 Peter 4:9

Hospitality was a way of life in biblical times. Throughout the Bible, God's people are commanded to show kindness to visitors. In the early days of Christianity, people were constantly traveling from town to town to share the message about Jesus and to encourage fellow believers. The apostles and preachers of that time depended on the kindness of strangers for food, housing, and even protection from angry mobs who didn't want them teaching about Jesus.

SERVING FOR GOD'S GLORY

7But the end of all things is at hand; therefore be serious and watchful in your prayers. 8And above all things have fervent love for one another, for "love will cover a multitude of sins."[a] 9*Be* hospitable to one another without grumbling. 10As each one has received a gift, minister it to one another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. 11If anyone speaks, let him speak as the oracles of God. If anyone ministers, let him do it as with the ability which God supplies, that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belong the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

SUFFERING FOR GOD'S GLORY

12Beloved, do not think it strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened to you; 13but rejoice to the extent that you partake of Christ's sufferings, that when His glory is revealed, you may also be glad with exceeding joy. 14If you are reproached for the name of Christ, blessed are you, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you.[a] On their part He is blasphemed, but on your part He is glorified. 15But let none of you suffer as a murderer, a thief, an evildoer, or as a busybody in other people's matters. 16Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in this matter.[a]

17For the time has come for judgment to begin at the house of God; and if it begins with us first, what will be the end of those who do not obey the gospel of God? 18Now

> "If the righteous one is scarcely saved,
> Where will the ungodly and the sinner > appear?"[a]

19Therefore let those who suffer according to the will of God commit their souls to Him in doing good, as to a faithful Creator.

SHEPHERD THE FLOCK

5 The elders who are among you I exhort, I who am a fellow elder and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that will be revealed: 2Shepherd the flock of God which is among you, serving as overseers, not by compulsion but willingly,[a] not for dishonest gain but eagerly; 3nor as being lords over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock; 4and when the

SUBMIT TO GOD, RESIST THE DEVIL

5Likewise you younger people, submit yourselves to your elders. Yes, all of you be submissive to one another, and be clothed with humility, for

> "God resists the proud,
> But gives grace to the humble."[a]

6Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time, 7casting all your care upon Him, for He cares for you.

SATAN
What is Satan's desire for those who love the Lord?
1 Peter 5:8

8Be sober, be vigilant; because[a] your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. 9Resist him, steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same sufferings are experienced by your brotherhood in the world. 10But may[a] the God of all grace, who called us[b] to His eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a while, perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you. 11To Him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

FAREWELL AND PEACE

12By Silvanus, our faithful brother as I consider him, I have written to you briefly, exhorting and testifying that this is the true grace of God in which you stand.

13She who is in Babylon, elect together with you, greets you; and so does Mark my son. 14Greet one another with a kiss of love.

Peace to you all who are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

KEY VERSE:

Knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture is of any private interpretation, for prophecy never came by the will of man, but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit (2 Peter 1:20, 21).

MAKING IT REAL // 2 PETER 1:5–8

Morality First Peter 1:5–8 tells you how to grow in your walk of faith. When you practice the qualities listed in these verses, you're developing character. You develop character one step at a time, one day at a time, one decision at a time. It's like building a house by putting one brick on top of another.

A lot of Christians are running themselves ragged doing things for God, but they may not be doing anything in their walk with God. They may not be growing into the mature person of faith they are meant to be. They just keep doing what they've always done—going to church, reading a devotion, praying before meals.

Peter challenges us to add some things to our faith—things that develop godly character. Having God's salvation through Jesus is great; but God doesn't just want you saved, He wants you to grow from a baby into a strong, joyful, mature Christian. Part of growing up in the Lord is finding ways to express your faith. You can do that with virtue, knowledge, self-control, perseverance, godliness, brotherly kindness, and love. You won't master these overnight, but you can commit to working on them. Character will develop in you and your faith will grow. You'll have substance and credibility in your life. You'll begin to look more and more like Jesus. (See also: Gal. 5:22, 23; Eph. 4:15, 16; 2 Pet. 1:2; 3:18.)

Words to Live By

Virtue: The word translated as "virtue" in 2 Peter 1:5 is the Greek word arete (ar-et-ay). It means "moral excellence." The world's morality changes constantly; one day it is illegal to kill an unborn child and the next day abortion is considered a legal right. But true moral behavior is determined by God; with God, right is always right, and wrong is always wrong. The only way to live a truly virtuous (moral) life is to follow the truths of God's Word. We should allow no one but God to tell us what is right and good and holy. He's the only One who truly knows.

GREETING THE FAITHFUL

1 Simon Peter, a bondservant and apostle of Jesus Christ,

To those who have obtained like precious faith with us by the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, 3 as His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us by glory and virtue, 4 by which have been given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, that through these you may be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

FRUITFUL GROWTH IN THE FAITH

5 But also for this very reason, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue, to virtue knowledge, 6 to knowledge self-control, to self-control perseverance, to perseverance godliness, 7 to godliness brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness love. 8 For if these things are yours and abound, you will be neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 For he who lacks these things is shortsighted, even to blindness, and has forgotten that he was cleansed from his old sins.

10 Therefore, brethren, be even more diligent to make your call and election sure, for if you do these things you will never stumble; 11 for so an entrance will be supplied to you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

PETER'S APPROACHING DEATH

12 For this reason I will not be negligent to remind you always of these things, though you know and are established in the present truth. 13 Yes, I think it is right, as long as

Self-Control / 2 Peter 1:6

Have you ever known anyone who was controlled by their emotions? Maybe you were never sure which version of that person you would see each day. A person ruled by emotions may be bouncing off the walls with excitement and happiness one day and be filled with depression and barely speaking to you the next. People like this make choices based on how they feel at the moment, regardless of the consequences. Emotion-ruled people never seem stable because they are ruled by whatever emotion strikes them and emotions are not dependable. That person has absolutely no self-control.

According to Peter, being ruled by emotions is not a way to improve your faith or grow in Christ. Instead, one of the key ingredients to a strong, healthy faith is self-control. When you have self-control you master your emotions rather than letting them control you. And perseverance will naturally follow self-control; because when you have self-control, you are less likely to give in to discouragement or other feelings that would encourage you to give up. That's not to say that you will never feel discouragement. It just means the discouragement you feel does not define you or determine your actions. Instead, you feel the discouragement but have enough self-control to choose to walk through it. You decide to believe that God is with you and will give you the strength you need, even when your emotions make you feel otherwise.

Self-control is also used in the Bible to speak about controlling your sexual desires (1 Cor. 7:9). While it is extremely important to control our sexual desires and guard our purity, that's not the only area of life where we need to exercise self-control. We shouldn't allow our emotions to lead any of our decisions. Building self-control will help us grow more like Christ, have more stable lives, and be the best witnesses possible for the gospel.

I am in this tent, to stir you up by reminding you, 14knowing that shortly I must put off my tent, just as our Lord Jesus Christ showed me. 15Moreover I will be careful to ensure that you always have a reminder of these things after my decease.

THE TRUSTWORTHY PROPHETIC WORD

16For we did not follow cunningly devised fables when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of His majesty. 17For He received from God the Father honor and glory when such a voice came to Him from the Excellent Glory: "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." 18And we heard this voice which came from heaven when we were with Him on the holy mountain.

19And so we have the prophetic word confirmed,[a] which you do well to heed as a light that shines in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts; 20knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture is of any private interpretation,[a] 21for prophecy never came by the will of man, but holy men of God[a] spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit.

DESTRUCTIVE DOCTRINES

2 But there were also false prophets among the people, even as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Lord who bought them, and bring on themselves swift destruction. 2And many will follow their destructive ways, because of whom the way of truth will be blasphemed. 3By covetousness they will exploit you with deceptive words; for a long time their judgment has not been idle, and their destruction does[a] not slumber.

DEMONS
What are demons?
2 Peter 2:4

DOOM OF FALSE TEACHERS

4For if God did not spare the angels who sinned, but cast them down to hell and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved for judgment; 5and did not spare the ancient world, but saved Noah, one of eight people, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood on the world of the ungodly; 6and turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them to destruction, making them an example to those who afterward would live ungodly; 7and delivered righteous Lot, who was oppressed by the filthy conduct of the wicked 8(for that righteous man, dwelling among them, tormented his righteous soul from day to day by seeing and hearing their lawless deeds)— 9*then* the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations and to reserve the unjust under punishment for the day of judgment, 10and especially those who walk according to the flesh in the lust of uncleanness and despise authority. They are presumptuous, self-willed. They are not afraid to speak evil of dignitaries, 11whereas angels, who are greater in power and might, do not bring a reviling accusation against them before the Lord.

DEPRAVITY OF FALSE TEACHERS

12But these, like natural brute beasts made to be caught and destroyed, speak evil of the things they do not understand, and will utterly perish in their own corruption, 13*and* will receive the wages of unrighteousness, as those who count it pleasure to carouse in the daytime. They are spots and blemishes, carousing in their own deceptions while they feast with you, 14having eyes full of adultery and that cannot cease from sin, enticing unstable souls. They have a heart trained in covetous practices, and are accursed children. 15They have forsaken the right way and gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness; 16but he was rebuked for his iniquity: a dumb donkey speaking with a man's voice restrained the madness of the prophet.

17These are wells without water, clouds[a] carried by a tempest, for whom is reserved the blackness of darkness forever.[b]

2 Peter 2:17

You can't imagine how important water was to the people of the ancient Near East. Their entire economy depended on successful crops, which, in turn, depended on sufficient rainfall. During the summer months, rain was virtually nonexistent. People had to rely on well water to nourish their crops. Drought wasn't the only problem ancient farmers faced in the summer, though. Windstorms that produced violent and destructive whirlwinds were also an occupational hazard.

DECEPTIONS OF FALSE TEACHERS

18For when they speak great swelling words of emptiness, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through lewdness, the ones who have actually escaped[a] from those who live in error. 19While they promise them liberty, they themselves are slaves of corruption;
for by whom a person is overcome, by him also he is brought into bondage. 20For if, after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the latter end is worse for them than the beginning.
21For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than having known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them.
22But it has happened to them according to the true proverb: "A dog returns to his own vomit,"[a] and, "a sow, having washed, to her wallowing in the mire."

GOD'S PROMISE IS NOT SLACK

3 Beloved, I now write to you this second epistle (in both of which I stir up your pure minds by way of reminder), 2that you may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us,[a] the apostles of the Lord and Savior, 3knowing this first: that scoffers will come in the last days, walking according to their own lusts, 4and saying, "Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of creation." 5For this they willfully forget: that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of water and in the water, 6by which the world that then existed perished, being flooded with water. 7But the heavens and the earth which are now preserved by the same word, are reserved for fire until the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8But, beloved, do not forget this one thing, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. 9The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us,[a] not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance.

THE DAY OF THE LORD

10But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat; both the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up.[a] 11Therefore, since all these things will be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness, 12looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be dissolved, being on fire, and the elements will melt with fervent heat? 13Nevertheless we, according to His promise, look for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells.

LIFE APP

Maturity / 2 Peter 3:18

"Why can't you be more mature?" "When are you going to grow up and mature?" "Please act a little more maturely." "Mature" is a word you've most likely heard in some form or fashion; probably more often as you've gotten older. But what does mature mean? Do you have to be serious and uptight all the time if you want to be mature? Do you have to keep your animated laughter or goofy sense of humor to yourself as you mature? Or could it be that maturity doesn't mean suppressing a natural part of your personality?

Real maturity is shaping all aspects of your personality into their full, God-given potential. God designed you just as you are, with your particular set of skills and traits. So when you mature, you become more and more the complete and amazing person you were created to be. With maturity comes understanding and discernment and discipline.

As you get older and life happens—the good and the bad—it's possible that confusion or bitterness may try to take root in your heart. But as you grow in understanding of the Lord and in closeness to Him, you can combat the confusion or bitterness with trust and faith. That's why it's so important to stay connected to God through reading His Word and praying—being in constant conversation with Him.

Peter advises us to "grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ" (2 Pet. 3:18). With every experience you have in life, you will have the opportunity to grow in positive ways or have your maturity colored by negative events. You will see pride, envy, gossip, and greed played out right before your very eyes. But you don't have to let those harmful ways influence you. As Peter said, you can grow in the grace and knowledge of Christ rather than picking up the hateful habits of the world. As you follow Christ faithfully, you will become more like Him as you also become the mature and amazing person He created you to be.

our Lord is salvation—as also our beloved brother Paul, according to the wisdom given to him, has written to you, 16as also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things, in which are some things hard to understand, which untaught and unstable people twist to their own destruction, as they do also the rest of the Scriptures.

17You therefore, beloved, since you know this beforehand, beware lest you also fall from your own steadfastness, being led away with the error of the wicked; 18but grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

To Him be the glory both now and forever. Amen.

AUTHOR: THE APOSTLE JOHN
THEME: JESUS IS THE SON OF GOD; THOSE WHO FOLLOW HIM MUST LIVE RIGHTEOUSLY PURPOSE: WE MUST LIVE IN FELLOWSHIP WITH GOD, OBEY HIS WORD, AND LOVE HIS CHILDREN.

OUTLINE

1:1–4 .....The Word of Life
1:5—2:6 .....God Is Light and Christ Is Our Example
2:7–17 .....The Old/New Commandment
2:18—3:10.....The Enemies of Christ and God's Children
3:11—4:21.....God's Love and Our Love
5:1–21 .....Jesus Overcomes the World

KEY VERSE:

That which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ (1 John 1:3).

THEN /// You know how sometimes you struggle to learn something, like a math problem or a foreign language? Then, something will "click" and you'll "get it"? It often takes getting one big concept and then we are on our way to a whole new level of understanding. For the disciple John (who once was called a "Son of Thunder"), that eye-opening concept was love.

Many believe that, in his Gospel, John defined himself by the fact that Jesus loved him. It's no surprise that when he wrote to the church, the body of Christ, he most often wrote about love. We can't really categorize John's letters as "love letters" because when we think of a "love letter" we think of a mushy kind of thing. John's letters weren't mushy. In fact, they were so strong that parts of them have become some of the most famous verses in the Bible.

In John's first letter he explores the doctrine of love. He basically expands on John 3:16 (possibly the most famous verse in the Bible). In his second letter he encourages the church. In his third letter he encourages a friend. John understood that when Christ came He showed us a whole new way to love God and to love each other. Understanding this kind of love turned John's life inside out. It can do the same for us.

NOW /// The lesson John teaches is something we really should know anyway. If someone says they love you but they treat you like dirt, you don't really believe they love you, do you? What if they say they love you, but they constantly do things to hurt or betray you? Do you really believe they love you?

John teaches us that we show our love for God by our obedience to Him. If we say we love God but we treat Him like He doesn't matter or constantly do things that upset Him, do we really love Him? That's why obedience matters in our love toward God.

In a world where we are bombarded by messages and images of selfishness and revenge, John's letters are a startling contrast. The strong, true love and encouragement we learn from John aren't the easy way to live in our world, but they are the right and the best way.

REALITY CHECK /// John doesn't just tell us to love people. He tells us why we should. He doesn't tell us to love people because they are always lovable. They aren't. He doesn't tell us to love people because they love us. Sometimes they don't. What he tells us to do is to love people because God loved us. He even tells us to love people the way God loves us. The message God sent through John is simple: obeying God means loving people—they go hand in hand.

WHAT WAS HEARD, SEEN, AND TOUCHED

That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, concerning the Word of life— 2the life was manifested, and we have seen, and bear witness, and declare to you that eternal life which was with the Father and was manifested to us— 3that which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ. 4And these things we write to you that your[a] joy may be full.

FELLOWSHIP WITH HIM AND ONE ANOTHER

5This is the message which we have heard from Him and declare to you, that God is light and in Him is no darkness at all. 6If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice

SIN
Is there anyone who never sins?
1 John 1:8

PROMISE

God promises to be your advocate.

My little children, these things I write to you, so that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous (1 John 2:1).

There's a certain sick feeling that comes after you've done something you shouldn't have done. Maybe its dread or anger or guilt or shame or all of the above—and more—rolled into one big downer of depressing disgust.

All you want to do is hide from God, to wait until the feeling passes, to go listen to some music or watch some TV and let your mind just go to mush. That's too bad, because Jesus is just waiting for you to call for help. He's waiting to pick you up with one nail-scarred hand and hold the other one out before His Father—to show that the price has been paid, the debt has been canceled, and the way of forgiveness has been paved with cleansing blood.

That's what an Advocate does. He's our Counsel for the defense. Call to Him. He's ready and waiting right now.

SEE FOR YOURSELF// Romans 8:34; Hebrews 4:16; 7:25

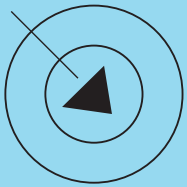
the truth. 7But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin.

8If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us.

2 My little children, these things I write to you, so that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. 2And He Himself is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the whole world.

THE TEST OF KNOWING HIM

3Now by this we know that we know Him, if we keep His commandments. 4He who says, "I know Him," and does not keep His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. 5But whoever keeps His word, truly the love of God is perfected in him. By this we know that we are in Him. 6He who says he abides in Him ought himself also to walk just as He walked.



7Brethren,[a] I write no new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you have had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you heard from the beginning.[b] 8Again, a new commandment I write to you, which thing is true in Him and in you, because the darkness is passing away, and the true light is already shining.

9He who says he is in the light, and hates his brother, is in darkness until now. 10He who loves his brother abides in the light, and there is no cause for stumbling in him. 11But he who hates his brother is in darkness and walks in darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

THEIR SPIRITUAL STATE

12I write to you, little children,
Because your sins are forgiven you for His name's sake.
13I write to you, fathers,
Because you have known Him who is from the beginning.
I write to you, young men,
Because you have overcome the wicked one.
I write to you, little children,
Because you have known the Father.
14I have written to you, fathers,
Because you have known Him who is from the beginning.

2:7 [a]NU-Text reads Beloved. [b]NU-Text omits from the beginning.

PROMISE

God promises that you will have eternal life.

And this is the promise that He has promised us—eternal life (1 John 2:25).

This is one of the most awesome promises in all of Scripture: Jesus Christ has promised us eternal life. Could anyone else keep that promise besides the Lord God Himself? Would you believe anyone else if they promised you the same thing? The magnificent truth is that no one else, living or dead, can offer you eternal life. Some other religions claim multiple lives or reincarnation for their followers, but where are their resurrected ones? There are none.

The resurrection of Christ is proof that He holds the power over death. The resurrection is the basis of our faith and the proof that this promise is real. Only Jesus Christ gives eternal life. Your faith in Him will be rewarded. The reward is all the fellowship, love, and joy of the kingdom of heaven. Commit your heart and life to Christ. Decide that you're going to stick with Him—no matter what. Don't miss out on the best that God has for you. He'll change your life, your heart, your circumstances; but best of all, He'll change you forever.

SEE FOR YOURSELF// John 3:16; Titus 1:2; 1 John 5:20

I have written to you, young men, Because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you,
And you have overcome the wicked one.

DO NOT LOVE THE WORLD

15 Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 16 For all that is in the world—the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—is not of the Father but is of the world. 17 And the world is passing away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides forever.

DECEPTIONS OF THE LAST HOUR

18 Little children, it is the last hour; and as you have heard that the[a] Antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have come,
by which we know that it is the last hour.
19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but they went out that they might be made manifest, that none of them were of us.

20 But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you know all things.[a] 21 I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist who denies the Father and the Son. 23 Whoever denies the Son does not have the Father either; he who acknowledges the Son has the Father also.

LET TRUTH ABIDE IN YOU

24 Therefore let that abide in you which you heard from the beginning. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, you also will abide in the Son and in the Father. 25 And this is the promise that He has promised us—eternal life.

26 These things I have written to you concerning those who try to deceive you.
27 But the anointing which you have received from Him abides in you, and you do not need that anyone teach you; but as the same anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you will[a] abide in Him.

2:18 [a]NU-Text omits the. 2:20 [a]NU-Text reads you all know. 2:27 [a]NU-Text reads you abide.

THE CHILDREN OF GOD

28And now, little children, abide in Him, that when[a] He appears, we may have confidence and not be ashamed before Him at His coming. 29If you know that He is righteous, you know that everyone who practices righteousness is born of Him.

3 Behold what manner of love the Father has bestowed on us, that we should be called children of God![a] Therefore the world does not know us,[b] because it did not know Him. 2Beloved, now we are children of God; and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be, but we know that when He is revealed, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is. 3And everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure.

SIN AND THE CHILD OF GOD

4Whoever commits sin also commits lawlessness, and sin is lawlessness. 5And you know that He was manifested to take away our sins, and in Him there is no sin. 6Whoever abides in Him does not sin. Whoever sins has neither seen Him nor known Him.

SATAN
With whom did sin begin?
1 John 3:7, 8

7Little children, let no one deceive you. He who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous. 8He who sins is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil. 9Whoever has been born of God does not sin, for His seed remains in him; and he cannot sin, because he has been born of God.

THE IMPERATIVE OF LOVE

10In this the children of God and the children of the devil are manifest: Whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is he who does not love his brother. 11For this is the message that you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another, 12not as Cain who was of the wicked one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his works were evil and his brother's righteous.

13Do not marvel, my brethren, if the world hates you. 14We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love his brother[a] abides in death. 15Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.

THE OUTWORKING OF LOVE

16By this we know love, because He laid down His life for us. And we also ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. 17But whoever has this world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and shuts up his heart from him, how does the love of God abide in him?

18My little children, let us not love in word or in tongue, but in deed and in truth. 19And by this we know[a] that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before Him. 20For if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things. 21Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence toward God. 22And whatever we ask we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments and do those things that are pleasing in His sight. 23And this is His commandment: that we should believe on the name of His Son Jesus Christ and love one another, as He gave us[a] commandment.

THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH AND THE SPIRIT OF ERROR

24Now he who keeps His commandments abides in Him, and He in him. And by this we know that He abides in us, by the Spirit whom He has given us.

4 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world. 2By this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, 3and every spirit that does not confess that[a] Jesus Christ has come

Love Without Limits If you say you love your friend, but spread rumors behind her back, then everyone else knows that you didn't really love her. Love is loyal. A friend may claim to always have your back, but when your life falls apart around you, they find better things to do than walk through the hard times with you. Love doesn't run when the going gets hard. Anyone can claim to love you, but if it doesn't show up in the way they treat you, then it really isn't love.

God is love. God doesn't just give love or have love; He is love. Love is a part of Him as surely as your thoughts are a part of you. When you have God, you have love because He is love. His love will flow through you as you grow in Him. You will love others freely. You will forgive with grace. You'll be kind and gentle and merciful.

So go for it—love the world as God loves you. There is nothing to lose and everything to gain. Relax and let Him love you. Others will trust in Christ and come to know Him because they have seen His love through you. (See also: 1 Cor. 13; Gal. 5:22, 23; Eph. 2:4–7; 1 John 4:7.)

Words to Live By

Know: The word translated as "know" in 1 John 4:8 is the Greek word ginosko (ghin-oce'-ko). It means "to know completely or have a full understanding." It signifies a strong relationship. Scripture tells us we can know God because Jesus and the Holy Spirit reveal Him to us (Matt. 11:27; Luke 10:22).

in the flesh is not of God. And this is the spirit of the Antichrist, which you have heard was coming, and is now already in the world.

4 You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. 5 They are of the world. Therefore they speak as of the world, and the world hears them. 6 We are of God. He who knows God hears us; he who is not of God does not hear us. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

KNOWING GOD THROUGH LOVE

7 Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God; and everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. 8 He who does not love does not know God, for God is love. 9 In this the love of God was manifested toward us, that God has sent His only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through Him. 10 In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins. 11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

SEEING GOD THROUGH LOVE

12 No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God abides in us, and His love has been perfected in us. 13 By this we know that we abide in Him, and He in us, because He has given us of His Spirit. 14 And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son as Savior of the world. 15 Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. 16 And we have known and believed the love that God has for us. God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God in him.

LOVE
What destroys fear?
1 John 4:18

THE CONSUMMATION OF LOVE

17 Love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness in the day of judgment; because as He is, so are we in this world. 18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear

LIFE APP

Love / 1 John 4:10, 11

All we need is love . . . that's what the world keeps telling us. But that word, love, can be so confusing! It means everything from the way we feel about our parents to the way we feel about our favorite food. Movies tell us it's a warm and fuzzy feeling that can end as quickly as it began. We hear songs about how love hurts, how it makes the world go round, and how it can build bridges. We can read definitions of love, but is it a feeling? Is it something that just strikes us out of the blue—something out of our control?

It's unfortunate but true that love is something our world seems to keep looking for, but rarely finding. Relationships begin and end with lightning speed because love seems to appear and disappear without warning. Somehow we know this is just not right. But how do we change the sad facts? What exactly is love anyway?

To understand love, it's important to go to the source and get the real definition. The Bible tells us that "God is love" (1 John 4:8). So to get a handle on what love is, we have to see what God has to say about it. He says love is patient, kind, and gentle; it is not conceited, rude, or selfish. And He also says, "Love never fails" (1 Cor. 13:8). Obviously, what we call love in this crazy, self-centered world is not at all what God has in mind.

If you want to see what real love is, take a look at God's love for you. Even when you didn't know God, let alone love Him, He sent His Son to die for you. You never earned God's love and you never can. God loves you because He chooses to—He made a conscious choice to love you. He doesn't just have a warm, fuzzy feeling toward you that could end tomorrow. God decided to love you and will never change His mind.

So, what is love? It is the choice to express God's caring and compassion through your own life. It's choosing to put the wants and needs of another ahead of your own. Love is giving your best even if you get nothing in return.

MAKING IT REAL // 1 JOHN 4:19–21

Family Obviously, 1 John 4:19–21 isn't just talking about siblings; it's talking about all Christians and those who will become Christians. But to understand these verses better, let's take a look at the people you live with.

Most of you have brothers and sisters; they can really test your ability to love. They know you so well. They know what makes you cringe and what makes you cry. They can understand you (sometimes) better than anyone else. They can irritate you to no end, but God says that if you love Him you have to love them. He says that if you don't, you're a liar. If you don't love the people you can see (the ones who share your bathroom, eat the last of your favorite snacks, and go through your things), then God says you can't possibly love Him, the One you haven't seen. Getting along with your brothers and sisters means you'll get lots of practice at forgiveness. The best thing that could happen is that you'll become really good friends with the people God put right in your home. He can do anything. So love your family and watch as God does a miracle right in your own house! And you can take what you learn from loving your earthy family and treat your brothers and sisters in Christ with the same love. Words to Live By Hates: The word translated as "hates" in 1 John 4:20 is the Greek word miseo (mis-eh'-o). It means "to detest or consider of no importance." Miseo is a hateful feeling toward someone; it is not caring about them or their wants or needs. If the love of God lives within you, you cannot detest others, because God is love and He tells us that we must love others (Matt. 25:31–46).

involves torment. But he who fears has not been made perfect in love. 19We love Him[a] because He first loved us.

LOVE

What must be present in someone who claims to love God?

1 John 4:20, 21

OBEDIENCE BY FAITH

20If someone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can[a] he love God whom he has not seen? 21And this commandment we have from Him: that he who loves God must love his brother also.

5 Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and everyone who loves Him who begot also loves him who is begotten of Him. 2By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep His

1 John 5:1

Christ is not Jesus' last name. It's from the Greek translation of the Hebrew word for "Messiah" or "Anointed One." In Old Testament times, kings, priests, and prophets were all anointed, which means they had olive oil poured on their heads to show that they were specially chosen by God. The Jews of Jesus' day believed that the Messiah would become their king and free them from the control of the Roman Empire. Jesus, however, came as a spiritual leader who freed the world from the effects of sin.

LIFE APP

Gaming / 1 John 5:21

Gaming is fun. You can enter a whole, new world and do things you may never do in real life. In this virtual gaming world, you can walk into the life of an unbelievably strong soldier, an unrealistically fast driver, a fictional character, or a mythological creature. You can even play games online, with people from all over the world, testing your skills and reflexes against the best gamers everywhere.

Gaming in and of itself isn't good or bad. It's an activity that can be fun and challenging; it can even help you develop your skills in many areas, such as decision making and hand-eye coordination. But there is also a hidden danger in gaming. It can be addictive. One game can lead to another, which leads to another and, before you know it, you've spent hours playing one game. This may happen once and not be a big deal. But when it begins to happen continually, gaming can start to become an idol in your life, something that takes away the focus and worship that should go only to God.

When gaming begins to become an addiction, everything in your life will revolve around playing the game; all that will matter is being home so you can play that game. You won't have time to read your Bible; you may barely remember to whisper a sleepy prayer before you nod off; you won't be able to make it to church or youth group; and you won't have the time or the desire to get out and try to make a difference in the real world.

The Bible repeatedly warns us about idolatry. First John 5:21 says, "Little children, keep yourselves from idols." John wasn't talking to a Sunday school class. "Little children" included everyone in the church. We would be wise to take John's advice and apply it to gaming. When gaming becomes an addiction, it threatens to become an idol in your life. If that happens, confess it to God and ask Him to free you from the hold of gaming. Then you can, once again, realize the true freedom that comes from serving and worshipping Him in the real world.

commandments. 3For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments. And His commandments are not burdensome. 4For whatever is born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our[a] faith. 5Who is he who overcomes the world, but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

THE CERTAINTY OF GOD'S WITNESS

6This is He who came by water and blood—Jesus Christ; not only by water, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit who bears witness, because the Spirit is truth. 7For there are three that bear witness in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one. 8And there are three that bear witness on earth:[a] the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree as one.

9If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater; for this is the witness of God which[a] He has testified of His Son. 10He who believes in the Son of God has the witness in himself; he who does not believe God has made Him a liar, because he has not believed the testimony that God has given of His Son. 11And this is the testimony: that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. 12He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life. 13These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life,[a] and that you may continue to believe in the name of the Son of God.

CONFIDENCE AND COMPASSION IN PRAYER

14Now this is the confidence that we have in Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. 15And if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we have asked of Him.

16If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin which does not lead to death, he will ask, and He will give him life for those who commit sin not leading to death. There is sin leading to death. I do not say that he should pray about that. 17All unrighteousness is sin, and there is sin not leading to death.

KNOWING THE TRUE—REJECTING THE FALSE

18We know that whoever is born of God does not sin; but he who has been born of God keeps himself,[a] and the wicked one does not touch him.

19We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies under the sway of the wicked one.

20And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us an understanding, that we may know Him who is true; and we are in Him who is true, in His Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life.

21Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

GREETING THE ELECT LADY

The Elder,

To the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth, and not only I, but also all those who have known the truth, 2because of the truth which abides in us and will be with us forever:

3Grace, mercy, and peace will be with you[a] from God the Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

WALK IN CHRIST'S COMMANDMENTS

4I rejoiced greatly that I have found some of your children walking in truth, as we received commandment from the Father.
5And now I plead with you, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment to you, but that which we have had from the beginning: that we love one another.
6This is love, that we walk according to His commandments. This is the commandment, that as you have heard from the beginning, you should walk in it.

2 John 7

The deceivers that John warned about may have been gnostics, a group of false teachers who plagued the early Christian church. The gnostics believed that all physical matter was evil, so they refused to accept the fact that Jesus was God in human form.

BEWARE OF ANTICHRIST DECEIVERS

7For many deceivers have gone out into the world who do not confess Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist. 8Look to yourselves, that we[a]

PROFILE
JOHN THE APOSTLE

John was probably the youngest of Jesus' original twelve disciples. He was just a fisherman one day and was called by Jesus to become a fisher of men the next. He walked with and watched Jesus for three years. John was the only one of the disciples who stood at the cross as Jesus died. He was among the first to see the risen Christ. We owe him for five New Testament books: John, 1 John, 2 John, 3 John, and Revelation. And John outlived all the other apostles.

God chose John to write about the greatest theme of all: God's love. John tells us God is love. He knew God's love firsthand. And the goal of John's writing was to convince readers about Jesus and help them to experience, through Him, God's love. He said, "Behold what manner of love the Father has bestowed on us, that we should be called children of God!" (1 John 3:1).

The love he experienced in Jesus Christ transformed John. It made such a difference in his life that he made a difference in countless others. Think for a moment about how many lives have been changed by these simple words of Jesus first penned by John: "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life" (John 3:16).

+ MAKING A DIFFERENCE:

If John could speak to you right now, he would undoubtedly ask if you have ever personalized that verse you just read. Have you ever realized how far God's love went in sending Jesus? Have you believed that gift was for you? Have you accepted forgiveness and eternal life from Him? If you have, the biggest possible difference has begun in your life. It will last beyond time.

Make sure you offer that difference-making message to others.

? WANT TO KNOW MORE?

Read about John and the Jesus he loved in the Gospel of John as well as in the other Gospels (Matthew, Mark, and Luke) and in the other books John wrote.

The apostle John knew Jesus as a personal friend and Savior. Because he knew Jesus so well, he was able to tell others about Him and the new life available through Him. John's love of Jesus has made a life-changing difference in countless lives. If you know Jesus and have experienced salvation in Him, your life can make a difference, too!

do not lose those things we worked for, but that we[b] may receive a full reward.

9 Whoever transgresses[a] and does not abide in the doctrine of Christ does not have God. He who abides in the doctrine of Christ has both the Father and the Son. 10 If anyone comes to you and does not bring this doctrine, do not receive him into your house nor greet him; 11 for he who greets him shares in his evil deeds.

JOHN'S FAREWELL GREETING

12 Having many things to write to you, I did not wish to do so with paper and ink; but I hope to come to you and speak face to face, that our joy may be full.

13 The children of your elect sister greet you. Amen.

GREETING TO GAIUS

The Elder,

To the beloved Gaius, whom I love in truth:

> 3 John 6
> The church John describes in this verse is not the same kind of church you're used to. Church buildings as we know them today—places set aside specifically for Christian worship and Bible study—were not common until the third century. Before then, people met together in their homes to study Scripture and pray. Traveling teachers and missionaries moved from city to city, relying on the kindness of local Christians for food, housing, and other necessities. When you see the word church in the Bible, it's referring to a group of Christ's followers in a certain area.

[2]Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in health, just as your soul prospers. [3]For I rejoiced greatly when brethren came and testified of the truth that is in you, just as you walk in the truth. [4]I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.[a]

GAIUS COMMENDED FOR GENEROSITY

[5]Beloved, you do faithfully whatever you do for the brethren and[a] for strangers, [6]who have borne witness of your love before the church. If you send them forward on their journey in a manner worthy of God, you will do well, [7]because they went forth for His name's sake, taking nothing from the Gentiles. [8]We therefore ought to receive[a] such, that we may become fellow workers for the truth.

DIOTREPHES AND DEMETRIUS

9I wrote to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to have the preeminence among them, does not receive us. 10Therefore, if I come, I will call to mind his deeds which he does, prating against us with malicious words. And not content with that, he himself does not receive the brethren, and forbids those who wish to, putting them out of the church.

11Beloved, do not imitate what is evil, but what is good. He who does good is of God, but[a] he who does evil has not seen God.

12Demetrius has a good testimony from all, and from the truth itself. And we also bear witness, and you know that our testimony is true.

FAREWELL GREETING

13I had many things to write, but I do not wish to write to you with pen and ink; 14but I hope to see you shortly, and we shall speak face to face.

Peace to you. Our friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

Jude

DATE OF WRITING: EARLY A.D. 60S
AUTHOR: JUDE
THEME: BELIEVERS SHOULD STAND STRONG IN THEIR FAITH
PURPOSE: INSULATE YOURSELVES FROM FALSE TEACHING BY GROWING IN THE FAITH.

OUTLINE

1, 2 .....Greetings
3–23 .....Defending the Faith Against False Teachers
24, 25.....Final Prayer

KEY VERSE:

Beloved, while I was very diligent to write to you concerning our common salvation, I found it necessary to write to you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints (Jude 3).

THEN ///

Have you ever read a "letter to the editor" in the newspaper? Sometimes regular, everyday people (not reporters) will write letters to the newspaper. They usually do this when they feel strongly about an issue and they want everyone to know how they feel. The Book of Jude is like one of those letters.

Jude was a man with a mission. Even though Christianity hadn't been around a long time (and maybe because of that), there were lots of people twisting and turning the truth of the gospel to mean something totally different. Some were saying that Christianity was too simple, that there must be more to the gospel than Jesus' life, death, and resurrection. Others were saying that Christianity was too hard, that with God's grace we don't really have to worry at all anymore about obeying God's commands. Neither of these groups got it—both were really wrong. There were so many false stories circulating it was difficult to know who was telling the truth. Jude had no patience for confusion and lying. He wrote his letter to the church to put an end to those deceptions and to remind everyone that what we do matters to God.

NOW ///

Just like Jude's readers, we will encounter false teachers as we continue to grow in our faith. Even though Jude gives us vivid images of the false teachers his readers had encountered, their characters and specific errors are not the focus of his book. The focus of this book is the believers' faith in God, which allows them to recognize false teachers and refuse their false beliefs.

Jude does not call us, as believers, to go on hunts to find and confront people who teach wrong things. Rather, he acknowledges the reality and the threat of the false teachers, as well as the fact that they are under the condemnation of God. He encourages us to protect ourselves from them, know the truth, stand strong in our faith, and grow daily in grace.

REALITY CHECK ///

Even if you're not facing any false teaching right now, you will at some point. Many people today learn just enough Bible verses to twist the meanings for their own purposes. Modern false teachers may also use slick words and other manipulations to take advantage of the honest spiritual hunger of someone else by confusing them with clever theories.

How can you prepare to stand against these false teachings when you encounter them? Jude has some great suggestions. "But you, beloved, building yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life" (Jude 20, 21).

Focus on your faith in Jesus; keep praying, keep loving God and others, read God's Word, and keep the truth of your salvation continually on your mind. If your relationship with God is strong, you will be much more able to recognize false teaching and stand strongly against it.

GREETING TO THE CALLED

Jude, a bondservant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James,

To those who are called, sanctified[a] by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ:

2 Mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to you.

CONTEND FOR THE FAITH

3 Beloved, while I was very diligent to write to you concerning our common salvation, I found it necessary to write to you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints. 4 For certain men have crept in unnoticed, who long ago were marked out for this condemnation, ungodly men, who turn the grace of our God into lewdness and deny the only Lord God[a] and our Lord Jesus Christ.

OLD AND NEW APOSTATES

5 But I want to remind you, though you once knew this, that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. 6And the angels who did not keep their proper domain, but left their own abode, He has reserved in everlasting chains under darkness for the judgment of the great day; 7as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them in a similar manner to these, having given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after strange flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

1 [a]NU-Text reads beloved. 4 [a]NU-Text omits God.

8Likewise also these dreamers defile the flesh, reject authority, and speak evil of dignitaries. 9Yet Michael the archangel, in contending with the devil, when he disputed about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him a reviling accusation, but said,
"The Lord rebuke you!" 10But these speak evil of whatever they do not know; and whatever they know naturally, like brute beasts, in these things they corrupt themselves. 11Woe to them! For they have gone in the way of Cain, have run greedily in the error of Balaam for profit, and perished in the rebellion of Korah.

Jude 11

What did a person have to do to make this biblical "Hall of Shame"? Cain chose to worship God in his own way, rather than follow the Lord's instructions. When his brother, Abel, received God's approval for his worship, Cain got jealous and killed Abel. Balaam had tried to curse Israel, God's chosen people. Korah led a rebellion against Moses, God's chosen leader of the Israelites.

APOSTATES DEPRAVED AND DOOMED

12These are spots in your love feasts, while they feast with you without fear, serving only themselves. They are clouds without water, carried about[a] by the winds; late autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, pulled up by the roots; 13raging waves of the sea, foaming up their own shame; wandering stars for whom is reserved the blackness of darkness forever.

14Now Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied about these men also, saying,
"Behold, the Lord comes with ten thousands of His saints, 15to execute judgment on all, to convict all who are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have committed in an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things which un-godly sinners have spoken against Him."

APOSTATES PREDICTED

16These are grumblers, complainers, walking according to their own lusts; and they mouth great swelling words, flattering people to gain advantage. 17But you, beloved, remember the words which were spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ: 18how they told you that there would be mockers in the last time who would walk according to their own un-godly lusts. 19These are sensual persons, who cause divisions, not having the Spirit.

MAINTAIN YOUR LIFE WITH GOD

20But you, beloved, building yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, 21keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

22And on some have compassion, making a distinction;[a] 23but others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire,[a] hating even the garment defiled by the flesh.

GLORY TO GOD

24Now to Him who is able to keep you[a]
from stumbling,
And to present you faultless Before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy,
25To God our Savior,[a]
Who alone is wise,[b]
Be glory and majesty,
Dominion and power,[c]
Both now and forever.
Amen.

"Write the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will take place after this" (Revelation 1:19).

THEN ///

If we could see the Book of Revelation instead of read it, it would be a special effects extravaganza. Revelation is a book by John, the disciple, recording a vision he was given of the end of the world. He describes heavenly things in earthly terms. Sometimes it gets pretty bizarre trying to imagine what a whole other dimension of life will look like.

Some of the images in Revelation are a mystery to this day. We won't recognize them until we see them for ourselves in the New Heaven and New Earth. But we do recognize enough of Revelation's message to know this: for now, Satan and human evil have some leeway in this world. There will come a day, though, when God will say, "Enough," and we all will be judged according to our faith and our works.

Revelation also teaches us that in the end, those who have their faith in Christ's righteousness will be invited into God's presence forever and Satan will be banished from the kingdom. It's a real and true happily-ever-after kind of story. Though the thought of the end of the world can be a frightening one, Revelation is actually a book of encouragement. No matter what catastrophes or challenges we face today, we know how the whole thing ends: God wins!

NOW ///

There are details in this true story that can seem a little confusing. For instance, the Bible teaches us that, at some point during the last years of the earth, Christ will return and we will be caught up with Him into the heavens. Most people call this the "rapture" even though most Bibles don't use that word. We don't know exactly how the rapture will happen. Will our clothes be left in a pile on the floor? Will our bodies disappear? Will it be so quick that no one will notice? There is so much we don't know and even the things we do know lead us to more questions. We have to remember, though, that the details aren't the most important things, because God will take care of us. When it all happens, it will seem just right to us because God will be handling things.

REALITY CHECK ///

These days, we hear so much about the end of the world that you may be asking yourself, "Should I try to guess when Jesus will return?"

You should be anticipating Christ's return. That means you should live your life so that you are ready to face Him at any moment. But the Bible clearly tells us that there is no way to figure out when Jesus will come back to earth. We may enjoy paying close attention to the prophecies of the Bible and the news headlines to see if we can spot when a biblical prophecy is fulfilled. That's okay as long as we realize that some new information may come along that will force us to rethink the prophecy's meaning and fulfillment. So we should anticipate Christ's return with joy and expectation, but not with fear or obsession. Jesus said no one but God knows when the world as we know it will end, but we don't need to be concerned because Jesus also said, "I am with you always, even to the end of the age" (Matt. 28:20).

INTRODUCTION AND BENEDICTION

1 The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave Him to show His servants—things which must shortly take place.
And He sent and signified it by His angel to His servant John, 2who bore witness to the word of God, and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, to all things that he saw. 3Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written in it; for the time is near.

GREETING THE SEVEN CHURCHES

4John, to the seven churches which are in Asia:

Grace to you and peace from Him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven Spirits who are before His throne, 5and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler over the kings of the earth.

To Him who loved us and washed[a] us from our sins in His own blood, 6and has made us kings[a] and priests to His God and Father, to Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

7Behold, He is coming with clouds, and every eye will see Him, even they who pierced Him. And all the tribes of the earth will mourn because of Him. Even so, Amen.

8"I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End,"[a] says the Lord,[b] "who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty."

VISION OF THE SON OF MAN

9I, John, both[a] your brother and companion in the tribulation and kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was on the island that is called Patmos for the word of God and for the testimony of Jesus Christ. 10I was in the Spirit on the Lord's Day, and I heard behind me a loud voice, as of a trumpet, 11saying, "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last," and,[a] "What you see, write in a book and send it to the seven churches which are in Asia:[b] to Ephesus, to Smyrna, to Pergamos, to Thyatira, to Sardis, to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea."

12Then I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. And having turned I saw seven golden lampstands, 13and in the midst of the seven lampstands One like the Son of Man, clothed with a garment down to the feet and girded about the chest with a golden band. 14His head and hair were white like wool, as white as snow, and His eyes like a flame of fire; 15His feet were like fine brass, as if refined in a furnace, and His voice as the sound of many waters; 16He had in His right hand seven stars, out of His mouth went a sharp two-edged sword, and His countenance was like the sun shining in its strength. 17And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as dead. But He laid His right hand on me, saying to me,[a] "Do not be afraid; I am the First and the Last. 18I am He who lives, and was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore. Amen. And I have the keys of Hades and of Death. 19Write[a] the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will take place after this. 20The mystery of the seven stars which you saw in My right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches,

Revelation 1:9

The Roman emperor Domitian wasn't exactly what you would call a friend of Christianity. As far as he was concerned, Christianity was an illegal religion; and those who practiced it were asking for persecution. Tradition has it, the apostle John was sentenced to live on the island of Patmos for eighteen months because he refused to stop preaching about Jesus. Don't assume that island life on Patmos was easy, either. People sentenced to the small, rocky island (about thirty-five miles off the coast of what is now Turkey) were forced to work in mines and quarries.

MAKING IT REAL // REVELATION 2:3, 4

Faithfulness You may know people who are much like the ones Jesus spoke to in Revelation 2:3, 4. They go to church all the time, wear Christian T-shirts, and scream "Jesus!" really loud at concerts. But somehow, their wholehearted love for Jesus has grown a bit dull. Their lives have become about Him, but are not lived with Him at the center.

The Lord wants you to be known as a person who loves Him. He'd rather you be known as a gentle, humble lover of God than as the most eloquent preacher on earth—someone who knows all the right words, but doesn't love Jesus more than anything else.

Many things will tempt you to love them more than you love Jesus, but don't give in. Hold on tight to your love for Him. Other people should recognize at least one thing about you—that you have a passionate, fervent, fiery love for God that will not quit. It really makes no difference if they know all the great things you've done for God. You want them to know that you love Him, that you're connected to Him, that He is number one in your life.

If you've gotten caught up in doing a bunch of stuff in the name of the Lord, slam on the brakes. Run into His presence. Pray and worship Him. Start listening to Him and hearing His voice. Let Him fill your heart again with love for God and man. (See also: Deut. 6:4–6, 14, 15; Josh. 23:11; Matt. 22:36, 37.)

Words to Live By

Patience: The word translated as "patience" in Revelation 2:3 is the Greek word hupomone (hoop-om-on-ay'). It means "cheerful or hopeful endurance." When life is hard, we don't have to be filled with worry or get depressed. We can just hang on (persevere and have patience) because we know Jesus is on our side. We can be sure that sooner or later all things will "work together for good" on our behalf because we love the Lord (Rom. 8:28).

Revelation 2:1

Any list of the major cities of the ancient world would have to include Ephesus. This bustling seaport city boasted a population of two hundred fifty thousand, a thriving business community, and an active religious culture—not to mention one of the seven wonders of the ancient world. The temple dedicated to the Roman goddess, Diana, was truly an architectural marvel. It also symbolized the pagan worship that went on in the city. The apostle Paul had started a church in Ephesus, and the apostle John had worked in the city for almost thirty years before being shipped off to Patmos.

and the seven lampstands which you saw[a] are the seven churches.

THE LOVELESS CHURCH

2 "To the angel of the church of Ephesus write,

'These things says He who holds the seven stars in His right hand, who walks in the midst of the seven golden lampstands: [2]"I know your works, your labor, your patience, and that you cannot bear those who are evil. And you have tested those who say they are apostles and are not, and have found them liars; [3]and you have persevered and have patience, and have labored for My name's sake and have not become weary. [4]Nevertheless I have this against you, that you have left your first love. 5Remember therefore from where you have fallen; repent and do the first works, or else I will come to you quickly and remove your lampstand from its place—unless you repent. 6But this you have, that you hate the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

7"He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes I will give to eat from the tree of life, which is in the midst of the Paradise of God."'

Revelation 2:8

Would you believe some citizens of the Roman Empire thought so much of their emperor that they actually worshiped him? Smyrna, a large harbor city about forty miles north of Ephesus, was the home of a temple built to honor the emperor Tiberius. The city became a center of emperor worship. Christians who chose not to join the pagan worship were severely persecuted. Today the city, which is located in Turkey, is known as Izmir.

THE PERSECUTED CHURCH

8"And to the angel of the church in Smyrna write,

'These things says the First and the Last, who was dead, and came to life: 9"I know your works, tribulation, and poverty (but you are rich); and I know the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. 10Do not fear any of those things which you are about to suffer. Indeed, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and you will have tribulation ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life.

11"He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes shall not be hurt by the second death."'

THE COMPROMISING CHURCH

12"And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write,

'These things says He who has the sharp two-edged sword: 13"I know your works,

Revelation 2:12

Pergamos was the capital of Asia—not the continent of Asia, but the Roman province of the same name. The city, located about fifty miles north of Smyrna, was known for its cultural and scientific communities. Pergamos boasted a library of about two hundred thousand volumes and a famous medical center. The city also offered a wide variety of pagan worship opportunities. In addition to its three temples dedicated to the Roman emperors, Pergamos was home to temples for the pagan goddess, Athena, and the god, Zeus.

and where you dwell, where Satan's throne is. And you hold fast to My name, and did not deny My faith even in the days in which Antipas was My faithful martyr, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells. 14But I have a few things against you, because you have there those who hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balak to put a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit sexual immorality. 15Thus you also have those who hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.[a] 16Repent, or else I will come to you quickly and will fight against them with the sword of My mouth.

17"He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes I will give some of the hidden manna to eat. And I will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written which no one knows except him who receives it."'

THE CORRUPT CHURCH

18"And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write,

'These things says the Son of God, who has eyes like a flame of fire, and His feet like fine brass: 19"I know your works, love, service, faith,[a] and your patience; and as for your works, the last are more than the first.

2:15 [a]NU-Text and M-Text read likewise for which thing I hate. 2:19 [a]NU-Text and M-Text read faith, service.

Revelation 2:18

Purple was the color of choice for the citizens of Thyatira. The city, located about twenty miles southeast of Pergamos, was famous for the purple dye and cloth that was produced there. Because of Thyatira's focus on business and manufacturing, a number of trade unions were located there.

20 Nevertheless I have a few things against you, because you allow[a] that woman[b] Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess, to teach and seduce[c] My servants to commit sexual immorality and eat things sacrificed to idols. 21 And I gave her time to repent of her sexual immorality, and she did not repent.[a] 22 Indeed I will cast her into a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation, unless they repent of their[a] deeds. 23 I will kill her children with death, and all the churches shall know that I am He who searches the minds and hearts. And I will give to each one of you according to your works.

24 "Now to you I say, and[a] to the rest in Thyatira, as many as do not have this doctrine, who have not known the depths of Satan, as they say, I will[b] put on you no other burden. 25 But hold fast what you have till I come. 26 And he who overcomes, and keeps My works until the end, to him I will give power over the nations—

27 'He shall rule them with a rod of iron;
They shall be dashed to pieces like the potter's vessels'[a]—

as I also have received from My Father;
28 and I will give him the morning star.

29 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."'

THE DEAD CHURCH

3 "And to the angel of the church in Sardis write,

'These things says He who has the seven Spirits of God and the seven stars: "I know your works, that you have a name that you are alive, but you are dead.
2 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die, for I have not found your works perfect before God.[a] 3 Remember therefore how you have received and heard; hold fast and repent.
Therefore if you will not watch, I will come upon you as a thief, and you will not know what hour I will come upon you. 4 You[a] have a few names even in Sardis who have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with Me in white, for they are worthy. 5 He who overcomes shall be clothed in white garments, and I will not blot out his name from the Book of Life; but I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels.

Revelation 3:1

Sardis was what you might call a recovering city. Located about fifty miles east of Smyrna, the city of Sardis was destroyed by an earthquake in A.D. 17. The Roman emperor Tiberius helped rebuild the city. The citizens were so grateful they built temples in his honor and made Sardis one of the centers for emperor worship in the Near East.

6 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."'

THE FAITHFUL CHURCH

7 "And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write,

'These things says He who is holy, He who is true, "He who has the key of David,
He who opens and no one shuts, and shuts and no one opens":[a] 8 "I know your works.
See, I have set before you an open door, and no one can shut it;[a] for you have a little denied My name. 9 Indeed I will make those

Philadelphia—no, not that Philadelphia—was located about seventy-five miles east of Ephesus. Like Sardis, Philadelphia was damaged by an earthquake in A.D. 17. Today, the city is known as Allahshehr, "the city of God." The ruins of many ancient Christian churches have been found there.

of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews and are not, but lie—indeed I will make them come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you. 10Because you have kept My command to persevere, I also will keep you from the hour of trial which shall come upon the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth. 11Behold,[a] I am coming quickly! Hold fast what you have, that no one may take your crown. 12He who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God, and he shall go out no more. I will write on him the name of My God and the name of the city of My God, the New Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from My God. And I will write on him My new name.

13"He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."'

Revelation 3:14

If purple was Thyatira's color, black was Laodicea's color. Located on the banks of the Lycus River, about fifty miles southeast of Philadelphia, Laodicea was known for selling clothing made of the black wool produced by the sheep of the region. The city survived until the Middle Ages, when it was destroyed by Muslims during the Crusades.

THE LUKEWARM CHURCH

14"And to the angel of the church of the Laodiceans[a] write,

'These things says the Amen, the Faithful and True Witness, the Beginning of the creation of God: 15"I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I could wish you were cold or hot. 16So then, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot,[a] I will vomit you out of My mouth. 17Because you say, 'I am rich, have become wealthy, and have need of nothing'—and do not know that you are wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked— 18I counsel you to buy from Me gold refined in the fire, that you may be rich; and white garments, that you may be clothed, that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and anoint your eyes with eye salve, that you may see. 19As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Therefore be zealous and repent. 20Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him, and he with Me. 21To him who overcomes I will grant to sit with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne.

22"He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."'"

THE THRONE ROOM OF HEAVEN

4 After these things I looked, and behold, a door standing open in heaven. And the first voice which I heard was like a trumpet speaking with me, saying, "Come up here, and I will show you things which must take place after this."

GOD
What does God look like?
Revelation 4:3–5

2Immediately I was in the Spirit; and behold, a throne set in heaven, and One sat on the throne. 3And He who sat there was[a] like a jasper and a sardius stone in appearance; and there was a rainbow around the throne, in appearance like an emerald. 4Around the throne were twenty-four thrones, and on the thrones I saw twenty-four elders sitting, clothed in white robes; and they had crowns[a] of gold on their heads. 5And from the throne proceeded lightnings, thunderings, and voices.[a] Seven lamps of fire were burning before the throne, which are the[b] seven Spirits of God.

Revelation 4:7

This isn't the first time these four bizarre creatures are mentioned in the Bible. The Old Testament prophet Ezekiel saw a very similar vision. Notice that each of the four looks like one of the most powerful creatures on earth—a man, a lion, a bull, and an eagle. Think about it. Human beings rule over every creature on earth. The lion is the king of the jungle. Bulls are the strongest tame animals. Eagles are the fastest, strongest birds.

6 Before the throne there was[a] a sea of glass, like crystal. And in the midst of the throne, and around the throne, were four living creatures full of eyes in front and in back. 7 The first living creature was like a lion, the second living creature like a calf, the third living creature had a face like a man, and the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle. 8 The four living creatures, each having six wings, were full of eyes around and within. And they do not rest day or night, saying:

"Holy, holy, holy,[a]
Lord God Almighty,
Who was and is and is to come!"

9 Whenever the living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to Him who sits on the throne, who lives forever and ever, 10 the twenty-four elders fall down before Him who sits on the throne and worship Him who lives forever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying:

11 "You are worthy, O Lord,[a]
To receive glory and honor and power;
For You created all things,
And by Your will they exist[b] and were created."

THE LAMB TAKES THE SCROLL

5 And I saw in the right hand of Him who sat on the throne a scroll written inside and on the back, sealed with seven seals. 2 Then I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the scroll and to loose its seals?" 3 And no one in heaven or on the earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll, or to look at it.

4 So I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open and read[a] the scroll, or to look at it. 5 But one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep. Behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has prevailed to open the scroll and to loose[a] its seven seals."

6 And I looked, and behold,[a] in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as though it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent out into all the earth. 7 Then He came and took the scroll out of the right hand of Him who sat on the throne.

WORTHY IS THE LAMB

8 Now when He had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each having a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.
9 And they sang a new song, saying:

"You are worthy to take the scroll,
And to open its seals;
For You were slain,
And have redeemed us to God by Your blood
Out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation,
10 And have made us[a] kings[b] and priests to our God;
And we[c] shall reign on the earth."

11 Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne, the living creatures, and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands, 12saying with a loud voice:

"Worthy is the Lamb who was slain
To receive power and riches and wisdom,
And strength and honor and glory and blessing!"

13And every creature which is in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, I heard saying:

"Blessing and honor and glory and power
Be to Him who sits on the throne,
And to the Lamb, forever and ever!"[a]

14Then the four living creatures said, "Amen!" And the twenty-four[a] elders fell down and worshiped Him who lives forever and ever.[b]

FIRST SEAL: THE CONQUEROR

6 Now I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals;[a] and I heard one of the four living creatures saying with a voice like thunder, "Come and see." 2And I looked, and behold, a white horse. He who sat on it had a bow; and a crown was given to him, and he went out conquering and to conquer.

SECOND SEAL: CONFLICT ON EARTH

3When He opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, "Come and see."[a] 4Another horse, fiery red, went out. And it was granted to the one who sat on it to take peace from the earth, and that people should kill one another; and there was given to him a great sword.

THIRD SEAL: SCARCITY ON EARTH

5When He opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, "Come and see." So I looked, and behold, a black horse, and he who sat on it had a pair of scales in his hand. 6And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, "A quart[a] of wheat for a denarius,[b] and three quarts of barley for a denarius; and do not harm the oil and the wine."

> Revelation 6:6
> Because bread was served at almost every Jewish meal, wheat was considered a necessity of life. Usually only slaves and poor people ate barley, which was normally used as feed for livestock.

FOURTH SEAL: WIDESPREAD DEATH ON EARTH

7When He opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, "Come and see." 8So I looked, and behold, a pale horse. And the name of him who sat on it was Death, and Hades followed with him. And power was given to them over a fourth of the earth, to kill with sword, with hunger, with death, and by the beasts of the earth.

FIFTH SEAL: THE CRY OF THE MARTYRS

9When He opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God and for the testimony which they held. 10And they cried with a loud voice, saying, "How long, O Lord, holy and true, until You judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?" 11Then a white robe was given to each of them; and it was said to them that they should rest a little while longer, until both the number of their fellow servants and their brethren, who would be killed as they were, was completed.

SIXTH SEAL: COSMIC DISTURBANCES

12I looked when He opened the sixth seal, and behold,[a] there was a great earthquake;

5:13 [a]M-Text adds Amen. 5:14 [a]NU-Text and M-Text omit twenty-four. [b]NU-Text and M-Text omit Him who lives forever and ever. 6:1 [a]NU-Text and M-Text read seven seals. 6:3 [a]NU-Text and M-Text omit and see. 6:6 [a]Greek choinix; that is, approximately one quart [b]This was approximately one day's wage for a worker. 6:12 [a]NU-Text and M-Text omit behold.

and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon[b] became like blood. 13And the stars of heaven fell to the earth, as a fig tree drops its late figs when it is shaken by a mighty wind. 14Then the sky receded as a scroll when it is rolled up, and every mountain and island was moved out of its place. 15And the kings of the earth, the great men, the rich men, the commanders,[a] the mighty men, every slave and every free man, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains, 16and said to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb! 17For the great day of His wrath has come, and who is able to stand?"

THE SEALED OF ISRAEL

7 After these things I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, on the sea, or on any tree. 2Then I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God. And he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea, 3saying, "Do not harm the earth, the sea, or the trees till we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads." 4And I heard the number of those who were sealed. One hundred and forty-four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel were sealed:

5of the tribe of Judah twelve thousand were sealed;[a] of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand were sealed;
of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand were sealed;
6of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand were sealed;
of the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand were sealed;
of the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand were sealed; 7of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand were sealed;
of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand were sealed;
of the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand were sealed;
8of the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand were sealed;
of the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand were sealed;
of the tribe of Benjamin twelve thousand were sealed.

A MULTITUDE FROM THE GREAT TRIBULATION

9After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude which no one could number, of all nations, tribes, peoples, and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, with palm branches in their hands, 10and crying out with a loud voice, saying, "Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!" 11All the angels stood around the throne and the elders and the four living creatures, and fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, 12saying:

"Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom,
Thanksgiving and honor and power and might,
Be to our God forever and ever.
Amen."

13Then one of the elders answered, saying to me, "Who are these arrayed in white robes, and where did they come from?"

14And I said to him, "Sir,[a] you know."

So he said to me, "These are the ones who come out of the great tribulation, and washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. 15Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His temple. And He who sits on the throne will dwell among them. 16They shall neither hunger anymore nor thirst anymore; the sun shall not strike them, nor any heat; 17for the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to living fountains of waters.[a] And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

HEAVEN
What will it be like in heaven?
Revelation 7:15–17

SEVENTH SEAL: PRELUDE TO THE SEVEN TRUMPETS

8 When He opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. 2And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and to them were given seven trumpets. 3Then another angel, having a golden censer, came and stood at the altar. He was given much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all the saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne. 4And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, ascended before God from the angel's hand. 5Then the angel took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar, and threw it to the earth. And there were noises, thunderings, lightnings, and an earthquake.

6So the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

FIRST TRUMPET: VEGETATION STRUCK

7The first angel sounded: And hail and fire followed, mingled with blood, and they were thrown to the earth.[a] And a third of the trees were burned up, and all green grass was burned up.

SECOND TRUMPET: THE SEAS STRUCK

8Then the second angel sounded: And something like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea, and a third of the sea became blood. 9And a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

THIRD TRUMPET: THE WATERS STRUCK

10Then the third angel sounded: And a great star fell from heaven, burning like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water. 11The name of the star is Wormwood. A third of the waters became wormwood, and many men died from the water, because it was made bitter.

FOURTH TRUMPET: THE HEAVENS STRUCK

12Then the fourth angel sounded: And a third of the sun was struck, a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of them were darkened. A third of the day did not shine, and likewise the night.

13And I looked, and I heard an angel[a] flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, "Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the remaining blasts of the trumpet of the three angels who are about to sound!"

Revelation 9:3

At first glance, the locust seems like a pretty unlikely creature of destruction. It looks like a large grasshopper with two sets of wings and a brown-colored body two to three inches long. Nothing to be worried about, right? Wrong. Locusts travel in swarms large enough to blot out the sun in the sky! An average-size swarm of locusts, numbering in the millions, can strip a field completely bare—down to its last leaf—within minutes.

FIFTH TRUMPET: THE LOCUSTS FROM THE BOTTOMLESS PIT

9 Then the fifth angel sounded: And I saw a star fallen from heaven to the earth. To him was given the key to the bottomless pit. 2And he opened the bottomless pit, and smoke arose out of the pit like the smoke of a great furnace. So the sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke of the pit. 3Then out of the smoke locusts came upon the earth. And to them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power. 4They were commanded not to harm the grass of the earth, or any green thing, or any tree, but only those men who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads. 5And they were not given authority to kill them, but to torment them for five months. Their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it strikes a man. 6In those days men will seek death and will not find it; they will desire to die, and death will flee from them.

7The shape of the locusts was like horses prepared for battle. On their heads were crowns of something like gold, and their faces were like the faces of men. 8They had hair like women's hair, and their teeth were like lions' teeth. 9And they had breastplates like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots with many horses running into battle. 10They had tails like scorpions, and there were stings in their tails. Their power was to hurt men five months. 11And they had as king over them the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, but in Greek he has the name Apollyon.

12One woe is past. Behold, still two more woes are coming after these things.

SIXTH TRUMPET: THE ANGELS FROM THE EUPHRATES

13Then the sixth angel sounded: And I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, 14saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates." 15So the four angels, who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, were released to kill a third of mankind. 16Now the number of the army of the horsemen was two hundred million; I heard the number of them. 17And thus I saw the horses in the vision: those who sat on them had breastplates of fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow; and the heads of the horses were like the heads of lions; and out of their mouths came fire, smoke, and brimstone. 18By these three plagues a third of mankind was killed—by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone which came out of their mouths. 19For their power[a] is in their mouth and in their tails; for their tails are like serpents, having heads; and with them they do harm.

20But the rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and idols of gold, silver, brass, stone, and wood, which can neither see nor hear nor walk. 21And they did not repent of their murders or their sorceries[a] or their sexual immorality or their thefts.

THE MIGHTY ANGEL WITH THE LITTLE BOOK

10 I saw still another mighty angel coming down from heaven, clothed with a cloud. And a rainbow was on his head, his face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire. 2He had a little book open in his hand. And he set his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land, 3and cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roars. When he cried out, seven thunders uttered their voices. 4Now when the seven thunders uttered their voices,[a] I was about to write; but I heard a voice from heaven saying to me,[b] "Seal up the things which the seven thunders uttered, and do not write them."

5The angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised up his hand[a] to heaven 6and swore by Him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, that there should be delay no longer, 7but in the days of the sounding of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, the mystery of God would be finished, as He declared to His servants the prophets.

JOHN EATS THE LITTLE BOOK

8Then the voice which I heard from heaven spoke to me again and said, "Go, take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the earth."

9So I went to the angel and said to him, "Give me the little book."

And he said to me, "Take and eat it; and it will make your stomach bitter, but it will be as sweet as honey in your mouth."

10Then I took the little book out of the angel's hand and ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth. But when I had eaten it, my stomach became bitter. 11And he[a] said to me, "You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, tongues, and kings."

THE TWO WITNESSES

11 Then I was given a reed like a measuring rod. And the angel stood,[a] saying, "Rise and measure the temple of God, the altar, and those who worship there. 2But leave out the court which is outside the temple, and do not measure it, for it has been given to the Gentiles. And they will tread the holy city underfoot for forty-two months. 3And I will give power to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy one thousand two hundred and sixty days, clothed in sackcloth."

> Revelation 11:3
> People in ancient times wore sackcloth only in times of great sorrow or distress. If you've ever felt sackcloth, you know why they didn't wear it more often. The cloth was a dark, scratchy material made of goat's hair. The tradition of wearing dark clothing to funerals came from the custom of wearing sackcloth in times of sorrow.

4These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands standing before the God[a] of the earth. 5And if anyone wants to harm them, fire proceeds from their mouth and devours their enemies. And if anyone wants to harm them, he must be killed in this manner. 6These have power to shut heaven, so that no rain falls in the days of their prophecy; and they have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to strike the earth with all plagues, as often as they desire.

THE WITNESSES KILLED

7When they finish their testimony, the beast that ascends out of the bottomless pit will make war against them, overcome them, and kill them. 8And their dead bodies will lie in the street of the great city which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our[a] Lord was crucified. 9Then those from the peoples, tribes, tongues, and nations will see their dead bodies three-and-a-half days, and not allow[a] their dead bodies to be put into graves. 10And those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them, make merry, and send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth.

THE WITNESSES RESURRECTED

11Now after the three-and-a-half days the breath of life from God entered them, and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell on those who saw them. 12And they[a] heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here." And they ascended to heaven in a cloud, and their enemies saw them. 13In the same hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell. In the earthquake seven thousand people were killed, and the rest were afraid and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14The second woe is past. Behold, the third woe is coming quickly.

SEVENTH TRUMPET: THE KINGDOM PROCLAIMED

15Then the seventh angel sounded: And there were loud voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdoms[a] of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever!" 16And the twenty-four elders who sat before God on their thrones fell on their faces and worshiped God, 17saying:

"We give You thanks, O Lord God Almighty,
The One who is and who was and who is to come,[a]
Because You have taken Your great power and reigned.
18The nations were angry, and Your wrath has come,
And the time of the dead, that they should be judged,
And that You should reward Your servants the prophets and the saints, 19Then the temple of God was opened in heaven, and the ark of His covenant[a] was seen in His temple. And there were lightnings, noises, thunderings, an earthquake, and great hail.

THE WOMAN, THE CHILD, AND THE DRAGON

12 Now a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a garland of twelve stars. 2Then being with child, she cried out in labor and in pain to give birth.

3And another sign appeared in heaven: behold, a great, fiery red dragon having seven heads and ten horns, and seven diadems on his heads. 4His tail drew a third of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was ready to give birth, to devour her Child as soon as it was born. 5She bore a male Child who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron. And her Child was caught up to God and His throne. 6Then the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that they should feed her there one thousand two hundred and sixty days.

SATAN THROWN OUT OF HEAVEN

7And war broke out in heaven: Michael and his angels fought with the dragon; and the dragon and his angels fought, 8but they did not prevail, nor was a place found for them[a] in heaven any longer. 9So the great dragon was cast out, that serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was cast to the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10Then I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, "Now salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren, who accused them before our God day and night, has been cast down. 11And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death. 12Therefore rejoice, O heavens, and you who dwell in them! Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and the sea! For the devil has come down to you, having great wrath, because he knows that he has a short time."

THE WOMAN PERSECUTED

13Now when the dragon saw that he had been cast to the earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the male Child. 14But the woman was given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness to her place, where she is nourished for a time and times and half a time, from the presence of the serpent. 15So the serpent spewed water out of his mouth like a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away by the flood. 16But the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the flood which the dragon had spewed out of his mouth. 17And the dragon was enraged with the woman, and he went to make war with the rest of her offspring, who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.[a]

THE BEAST FROM THE SEA

13 Then I[a] stood on the sand of the sea. And I saw a beast rising up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns,[b] and on his horns ten crowns, and on his heads a blasphemous name. 2Now the beast which I saw was like a leopard, his feet were like the feet of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. The dragon gave him his power, his throne, and great authority. 3And I saw one of his heads as if it had been mortally wounded, and his deadly wound was healed. And all the world marveled and followed the beast. 4So they worshiped the dragon who gave authority to the beast; and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?"

5And he was given a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, and he was given authority to continue[a] for forty-two months. 6Then he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme His name, His tabernacle, and those who dwell in heaven. 7It was granted to him to make war with the saints and to overcome them. And authority was given him over every tribe,[a] tongue, and nation. 8All who dwell on the earth will worship him, whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.

9If anyone has an ear, let him hear. 10He who leads into captivity shall go into captivity; he who kills with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

THE BEAST FROM THE EARTH

11Then I saw another beast coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb and spoke like a dragon. 12And he exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence, and causes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.
13He performs great signs, so that he even makes fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men. 14And he deceives those[a] who dwell on the earth by those signs which he was granted to do in the sight of the beast, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image to the beast who was wounded by the sword and lived. 15He was granted power to give breath to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak and cause as many as would not worship the image of the beast to be killed. 16He causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hand or on their foreheads, 17and that no one may buy or sell except one who has the mark or[a] the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

18Here is wisdom. Let him who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man: His number is 666.

THE LAMB AND THE 144,000

14 Then I looked, and behold, a[a] Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with Him one hundred and forty-four thousand, having[b] His Father's name written on their foreheads. 2And I heard a voice from heaven, like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of loud thunder. And I heard the sound of harpists playing their harps. 3They sang as it were a new song before the throne, before the four living creatures, and the elders; and no one could learn that song except the hundred and forty-four thousand who were redeemed from the earth. 4These are the ones who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever He goes. These were redeemed[a] from among men, being firstfruits to God and to the Lamb. 5And in their mouth was found no deceit,[a] for they are without fault before the throne of God.[b]

THE PROCLAMATIONS OF THREE ANGELS

6Then I saw another angel flying in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach to those who dwell on the earth—to every nation, tribe, tongue, and people— 7saying with a loud voice, "Fear God and give glory to Him, for the hour of His judgment has come; and worship Him who made heaven and earth, the sea and springs of water."

8And another angel followed, saying,
"Babylon[a] is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she has made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication."

> Revelation 14:10
> Brimstone is another name for sulfur, a fast-burning, disgusting-smelling rock. Ancient armies sometimes used burning sulfur as ammunition in their catapults, launching it over city walls to set fire to the buildings inside.

9Then a third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, "If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives his mark on his forehead or on his hand, 10he himself shall also drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out full strength into the cup of His indignation. He shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb. 11And the smoke of their torment ascends forever and ever; and they have no rest day or night, who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name."

12Here is the patience of the saints; here are those[a] who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus.

13Then I heard a voice from heaven saying to me,[a] "Write: 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.'"

"Yes," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors, and their works follow them."

REAPING THE EARTH'S HARVEST

14Then I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and on the cloud sat One like the Son of Man, having on His head a golden crown, and in His hand a sharp sickle. 15And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to Him who sat on the cloud, "Thrust in Your sickle and reap, for the time has come for You[a] to reap, for the harvest of the earth is ripe." 16So He who sat on the cloud thrust in His sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

REAPING THE GRAPES OF WRATH

17Then another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18And another angel came out from the altar, who had power over fire, and he cried with a loud cry to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, "Thrust in your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe." 19So the angel thrust his sickle into the earth and gathered the vine of the earth, and threw it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. 20And the winepress was trampled outside the city, and blood came out of the winepress, up to the horses' bridles, for one thousand six hundred furlongs.

PRELUDE TO THE BOWL JUDGMENTS

15 Then I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvelous: seven angels having the seven last plagues, for in them the wrath of God is complete.

2And I saw something like a sea of glass mingled with fire, and those who have the victory over the beast, over his image and over his mark[a] and over the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, having harps of God. 3They sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying:

"Great and marvelous are Your works,
Lord God Almighty!
Just and true are Your ways,
O King of the saints![a] 4Who shall not fear You, O Lord, and glorify Your name?
For You alone are holy.
For all nations shall come and worship before You,
For Your judgments have been manifested."

5After these things I looked, and behold,[a] the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened. 6And out of the temple came the seven angels having the seven plagues, clothed in pure bright linen, and having their chests girded with golden bands. 7Then one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God who lives forever and ever. 8The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from His power, and no one was able to enter the temple till the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

16 Then I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, "Go and pour out the bowls[a] of the wrath of God on the earth."

FIRST BOWL: LOATHSOME SORES

2So the first went and poured out his bowl upon the earth, and a foul and loathsome sore came upon the men who had the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image.

SECOND BOWL: THE SEA TURNS TO BLOOD

3Then the second angel poured out his bowl on the sea, and it became blood as of a dead man; and every living creature in the sea died.

THIRD BOWL: THE WATERS TURN TO BLOOD

4Then the third angel poured out his bowl on the rivers and springs of water, and they became blood. 5And I heard the angel of the waters saying:

"You are righteous, O Lord,[a]
The One who is and who was and who is to be,[b]
Because You have judged these things.
6For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets,
And You have given them blood to drink.
For[a] it is their just due."

7And I heard another from[a] the altar saying, "Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are Your judgments."

FOURTH BOWL: MEN ARE SCORCHED

8Then the fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and power was given to him to scorch men with fire. 9And men were scorched with great heat, and they blas-phemed the name of God who has power over these plagues; and they did not repent and give Him glory.

FIFTH BOWL: DARKNESS AND PAIN

10Then the fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom became full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues because of the pain.
11They blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and did not repent of their deeds.

SIXTH BOWL: EUPHRATES DRIED UP

12Then the sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up, so that the way of the kings from the east might be prepared. 13And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs coming out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. 14For they are spirits of demons, performing signs, which go out to the kings of the earth and[a] of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

15"Behold, I am coming as a thief.
Blessed is he who watches, and keeps his garments, lest he walk naked and they see his shame."

Revelation 16:16

The word Armageddon means "hill of Megiddo." In Old Testament times, Megiddo, which was located in the Carmel Mountain range, was a popular spot for military battles.

16And they gathered them together to the place called in Hebrew, Armageddon.[a]

SEVENTH BOWL: THE EARTH UTTERLY SHAKEN

17Then the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air, and a loud voice came out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, "It is done!" 18And there were noises and thunderings and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such a mighty and great earthquake as had not occurred since men were on the earth. 19Now the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. And great Babylon was remembered before God, to give her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of His wrath. 20Then every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. 21And great hail from heaven fell upon men, each hailstone about the weight of a talent. Men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, since that plague was exceedingly great.

THE SCARLET WOMAN AND THE SCARLET BEAST

17 Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and talked with me, saying to me,[a] "Come, I will show you the judgment of the great harlot who sits on many waters, 2with whom the kings of the earth committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth were made drunk with the wine of her fornication."

3So he carried me away in the Spirit into the wilderness. And I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast which was full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. 4The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the filthiness of her fornication.[a] 5And on her forehead a name was written:

MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT,
THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS
AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6I saw the woman, drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I marveled with great amazement.

THE MEANING OF THE WOMAN AND THE BEAST

7But the angel said to me, "Why did you marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns. 8The beast that you saw was, and is not, and will ascend out of the bottomless pit and go to perdition. And those who dwell on the earth will marvel, whose names are not written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world, when they see the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.[a]

9"Here is the mind which has wisdom: The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits. 10There are also seven kings. Five have fallen, one is, and the other has not yet come. And when he comes, he must continue a short time. 11The beast that was, and is not, is himself also the eighth, and is of the seven, and is going to perdition.

12"The ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have received no kingdom as yet, but they receive authority for one hour as kings with the beast. 13These are of one mind, and they will give their power and authority to the beast. 14These will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, for He is Lord of lords and King of kings; and those who are with Him are called, chosen, and faithful."

15Then he said to me, "The waters which you saw, where the harlot sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and tongues. 16And the ten horns which you saw on[a] the beast, these will hate the harlot, make her desolate and naked, eat her flesh and burn her with fire. 17For God has put it into their hearts to fulfill His purpose, to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God are fulfilled. 18And the woman whom you saw is that great city which reigns over the kings of the earth."

THE FALL OF BABYLON THE GREAT

18 After these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illuminated with his glory. 2And he cried mightily[a] with a loud voice, saying, "Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and has become a dwelling place of demons, a prison for every foul spirit, and a cage for every unclean and hated bird! 3For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the abundance of her luxury."

4And I heard another voice from heaven saying, "Come out of her, my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues. 5For her sins have reached[a] to heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities. 6Render to her just as she rendered to you,[a] and repay her double according to her works; in the cup which she has mixed, mix double for her. 7In the measure that she glorified herself and lived luxuriously, in the same measure give her torment and sorrow; for she says in her heart, 'I sit as queen, and am no widow, and will not see sorrow.' 8Therefore her plagues will come in one day—death and mourning and famine. And she will be utterly burned with fire, for strong is the Lord God who judges[a] her.

THE WORLD MOURNS BABYLON'S FALL

9"The kings of the earth who committed fornication and lived luxuriously with her will weep and lament for her, when they see the smoke of her burning, 10standing at a distance for fear of her torment, saying, 'Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! For in one hour your judgment has come.'

11"And the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their merchandise anymore: 12merchandise of gold and silver, precious stones and pearls, fine linen and purple, silk and scarlet, every kind of citron wood, every kind of object of ivory, every kind of object of most precious wood, bronze, iron, and marble; 13and cinnamon and incense, fragrant oil and frankincense, wine and oil, fine flour and wheat, cattle and sheep, horses and chariots, and bodies and souls of men. 14The fruit that your soul longed for has gone from you, and all the things which are rich and splendid have gone from you,[a] and you shall find them no more at all. 15The merchants of these things, who became rich by her, will stand at a distance for fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, 16and saying, 'Alas, alas, that great city that was clothed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls! 17For in one hour such great riches came to nothing.' Every shipmaster, all who travel by ship, sailors, and as many as trade on the sea, stood at a distance 18and cried out when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What is like this great city?'

19"'They threw dust on their heads and cried out, weeping and wailing, and saying, 'Alas, alas, that great city, in which all who had ships on the sea became rich by her wealth! For in one hour she is made desolate.'

20"'Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you holy apostles[a] and prophets, for God has avenged you on her!"

FINALITY OF BABYLON'S FALL

21Then a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying, "Thus with violence the great city Babylon shall be thrown down, and shall not be found anymore. 22The sound of harpists, musicians, flutists, and trumpeters shall not be heard in you anymore. No craftsman of any craft shall be found in you anymore, and the sound of a millstone shall not be heard in you anymore. 23The light of a lamp shall not shine in you anymore, and the voice of bridegroom and bride shall not be heard in you anymore. For your merchants were the great men of the earth, for by your sorcery all the nations were deceived. 24And in her was found the blood of prophets and saints, and of all who were slain on the earth."

HEAVEN EXULTS OVER BABYLON

19 After these things I heard[a] a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, "Alleluia! Salvation and glory and honor and power belong to the Lord[b] our God! 2For true and righteous are His judgments, because He has judged the great harlot who corrupted the earth with her fornication; and He has avenged on her the blood of His servants shed by her." 3Again they said, "Alleluia! Her smoke rises up forever and ever!" 4And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who

MAKING IT REAL // REVELATION 19:16

King of Kings and Lord of Lords If you haven't read it yet, read Revelation 19. Wow! When Jesus returns at the end of time, He won't be the tiny, helpless baby He was when He was born into this world. He'll be more awesome that words could possibly describe.

Can you imagine seeing Jesus? Can you imagine really, finally coming face-to-face with the One you've been in love with all your life? What would you think when you saw His robe and read the words "KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS"? A lot of Christians have been tossing around that description of Jesus for ages. But do you really get what that title means?

There are kings and lords all over the earth—have been for hundreds of years. You've heard about them in the Bible and in history class. Kings and lords are known primarily for their power, their wealth, their military might, and their positions as rulers over groups of people. Jesus Christ puts them all to shame. Earthly kings may have some power, but Christ's power can raise the dead. Earthly lords may have wealth, but God created all that is—everything belongs to Him. No earthly army can equal the army that Jesus is raising up to defeat the evil forces of Satan. And Jesus doesn't just rule over a nation, He rules the universe and beyond.

Philippians 2:10 says that "every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth" at just the mention of Jesus' name. He is the King of all the kings who have ever ruled and the Lord of every lord. Go ahead. Enthrone Him in your heart. You'll never find a more loving, merciful, gracious King. (See also: 1 Tim. 6:15; Rev. 17:14.)

Words to Live By

Lord: The word translated as "Lord" in Revelation 19:16 is the Greek word kurios (koo'-ree-os). It means "the one with supreme authority—an authority greater than any other." When Jesus returns, everyone will realize just how mighty He is. Those who know Him will be filled with joy when He appears. Those who don't will be filled with fear as they look upon the mightiest of the mighty and the most powerful of all—Jesus Christ, the King of all kings and the Lord of all lords.

sat on the throne, saying, "Amen! Alleluia!"
5Then a voice came from the throne, saying, "Praise our God, all you His servants and those who fear Him, both[a] small and great!"

6And I heard, as it were, the voice of a great multitude, as the sound of many waters and as the sound of mighty thunderings, saying, "Alleluia! For the[a] Lord God Omnipotent reigns! 7Let us be glad and rejoice and give Him glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready." 8And to her it was granted to be arrayed in fine linen, clean and bright, for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints.

9Then he said to me, "Write: 'Blessed

Revelation 19:8

Linen, which was hand-woven from the fibers of the hemp plant, was considered to be the highest quality fabric in the ancient world. For the most part, only people of great wealth or power wore linen. Priests and those who served in the temple were the exception. They, too, wore linen. Throughout the Bible, white linen symbolizes purity.

are those who are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb!'" And he said to me, "These are the true sayings of God." 10And I fell at his feet to worship him. But he said to me, "See that you do not do that! I am your fellow servant, and of your brethren who have the testimony of Jesus. Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

CHRIST ON A WHITE HORSE

11Now I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse. And He who sat on him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and makes war. 12His eyes were like a flame of fire, and on His head were many crowns. He had[a] a name written that no one knew except Himself. 13He was clothed with a robe dipped in blood, and His name is called The Word of God. 14And the armies in heaven, clothed in fine linen, white and clean,[a] followed Him on white horses. 15Now out of His mouth goes a sharp[a] sword, that with it He should strike the nations. And He Himself will rule them with a rod of iron. He Himself treads the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. 16And He has on His robe and on His thigh a name written:

KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

THE BEAST AND HIS ARMIES DEFEATED

17Then I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the midst of heaven, "Come and gather together for the supper of the great God,[a] 18that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all people, free[a] and slave, both small and great."

19And I saw the beast, the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against Him who sat on the horse and against His army. 20Then the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who worked signs in his presence, by which he deceived those who received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image. These two were cast alive into the lake of fire burning with brimstone. 21And the rest were killed with the sword which proceeded from the mouth of Him who sat on the horse. And all the birds were filled with their flesh.

SATAN BOUND 1,000 YEARS

20 Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven, having the key to the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. 2He laid hold of the dragon, that serpent of old, who is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years; 3and he cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal on him, so that he should deceive the nations no more till the thousand years were finished. But after these things he must be released for a little while.

THE SAINTS REIGN WITH CHRIST 1,000 YEARS

4And I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was committed to them. Then I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their witness to Jesus and for the word of God, who had not worshiped the beast or his image, and had not received his mark on their foreheads or on their hands. And they lived and reigned with Christ for a[a] thousand years. 5But the rest of the dead did not live again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. 6Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over such the second death has no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years.

SATANIC REBELLION CRUSHED

7Now when the thousand years have expired, Satan will be released from his prison 8and will go out to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle, whose number is as the sand of the sea. 9They went up on the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city. And fire came down from God out of heaven and devoured them. 10The devil, who deceived them, was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone where[a] the beast and the false prophet are. And they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

THE GREAT WHITE THRONE JUDGMENT

11Then I saw a great white throne and Him who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away. And there was found no place for them. 12And I saw the dead, small and great, standing before God,[a] and books were opened. And another book was opened, which is the Book of Life. And the dead were judged according to their works, by the things which were written in the books. 13The sea gave up the dead who were in it, and Death and Hades delivered up the dead who were in them. And they were judged, each one according to his works. 14Then Death and Hades were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.[a] 15And anyone not found written in the Book of Life was cast into the lake of fire.

ALL THINGS MADE NEW

21 Now I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away. Also there was no more sea. 2Then I, John,[a] saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. 3And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying, "Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people. God Himself will be with them and be their God. 4And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away."

HEAVEN
Will there be sadness in heaven?
Revelation 21:4

5Then He who sat on the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new." And He said to me,[a] "Write, for these words are true and faithful."

Revelation 21:6

Alpha and Omega represent the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet. The Greeks learned to use the alphabet from the Phoenicians, a group of sea traders who lived in what is now Lebanon. In turn, the Greeks passed on their alphabet knowledge to the Romans.

6And He said to me, "It is done![a] I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give of the fountain of the water of life freely to him who thirsts. 7He who overcomes shall inherit all things,[a] and I will be his God and he shall be My son. 8But the cowardly, unbelieving,[a] abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death."

THE NEW JERUSALEM

9Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls filled with the seven last plagues came to me[a] and talked with me, saying, "Come, I will show you the bride, the Lamb's wife."[b] 10And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the great city, the holy[a] Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, 11having the glory of God. Her light was like a most precious stone, like a jasper stone, clear as crystal. 12Also she had a great and high wall with twelve gates, and twelve angels at the gates, and names written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

13three gates on the east, three gates on the north, three gates on the south, and three gates on the west.
14Now the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the names[a] of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. 15And he who talked with me had a gold reed to measure the city, its gates, and its wall.
16The city is laid out as a square; its length is as great as its breadth. And he measured the city with the reed: twelve thousand furlongs. Its length, breadth, and height are equal. 17Then he measured its wall: one hundred and forty-four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of an angel.
18The construction of its wall was of jasper;
and the city was pure gold, like clear glass.
19The foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with all kinds of precious stones:
the first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald, 20the fifth sardonyx, the sixth sardius, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, and the twelfth amethyst.
21The twelve gates were twelve pearls: each individual gate was of one pearl. And the street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass.

THE GLORY OF THE NEW JERUSALEM

22But I saw no temple in it, for the Lord
God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple.
23The city had no need of the sun or of the moon to shine in it,[a] for the glory[b] of God illuminated it. The Lamb is its light. 24And the nations of those who are saved[a] shall walk in its light, and the kings of the earth bring their glory and honor into it.[b] 25Its gates shall not be shut at all by day (there shall be no night there). 26And they shall bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it.[a] 27But there shall by no means enter it anything that defiles, or causes[a] an abomination or a lie, but only those who are written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

THE RIVER OF LIFE

22 And he showed me a pure[a] river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding from the throne of God and of the Lamb. 2In the middle of its street, and on either side of the river, was the tree of life, which bore twelve fruits, each tree yielding its fruit every month.
The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. 3And there shall be no more curse, but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it, and His servants shall serve Him. 4They shall see His face, and His name shall be on their foreheads.
5There shall be no night there: They need no lamp nor light of the sun, for the Lord God gives them light. And they shall reign forever and ever.

THE TIME IS NEAR

6Then he said to me, "These words are faithful and true." And the Lord God of the holy[a] prophets sent His angel to show His servants the things which must shortly take place.
7"Behold, I am coming quickly! Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."
8Now I, John, saw and heard[a] these things. And when I heard and saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who showed me these things.
9Then he said to me, "See that you do not do that. For[a] I am your fellow servant, and of your brethren the prophets, and of those who keep the words of this book.
Worship God." 10And he said to me, "Do not seal the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is at hand. 11He who is unjust, let him be unjust still; he who is filthy, let him be filthy still; he who is righteous, let him be righteous[a] still; he who is holy, let him be holy still."

PROMISE

God promises to come soon.

He who testifies to these things says, "Surely I am coming quickly." Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus! (Rev. 22:20).

God chose to end His Book with a thought that thrills some people and terrifies others. The end of the story is this: Jesus is coming back. And He could come back at any time. Christians should be the ones who are thrilled by this knowledge. It gives us so much hope! It gives us courage to live in the challenging days we're facing right now. It gives us powerful motivation to be serious about answering God's call for our lives.

You want to be ready. You want to have your life right with God when the last trumpet sounds. You can't know the exact moment when He will arrive; you just know it could be very soon.

Make your prayer the words of Revelation 22:20, "Even so, come Lord Jesus!" Do your part to be ready—be excited about His return. Get your heart tender and right before Him. Share the news with those who don't know. It'll be the most awesome, most glorious moment the world has ever seen.

14Blessed are those who do His commandments,[a] that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter through the gates into the city. 15But[a] outside are dogs and sorcerers and sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters, and whoever loves and practices a lie.

16"I, Jesus, have sent My angel to testify to you these things in the churches. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, the Bright and Morning Star."

17And the Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let him who hears say, "Come!" And let him who thirsts come. Whoever desires, let him take the water of life freely.

A WARNING

18For[a] I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: If anyone adds to these things, God will add[b] to him the plagues that are written in this book; 19and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away[a] his part from the Book[b] of Life, from the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

I AM COMING QUICKLY

20He who testifies to these things says, "Surely I am coming quickly."

Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

21The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.[a] Amen.

Reading Plans

Okay, so you think that reading the Bible is a good idea—but where should you start? The Bible is a BIG book—make that a library—of sixty-six books. Should you just start on page 1 and read every page? Sure you could; that's a great way. But there are other ways, too. You might pick a book of the Bible and read it (many people like to start with the Gospel of John). But if you're looking for other options, here are a few ideas for you.

❑ 30 Days with Jesus

Ever ask yourself, I wonder what Jesus would do? Here's how you can find out. Take a month and read the story of Jesus.

❑ 60 Days with Paul

You've probably heard of the apostle Paul. He's the guy who wrote most of the New Testament. After you read Jesus' story, this is a good place to learn what it means to be a disciple of Jesus.

❑ 90–Day Overview of the Bible

This plan takes you through the major events of the Bible without your reading the entire book.

❑ 365 Days Through the Whole Bible

Ready for the biggest challenge of all? Why not read through the entire Bible in a year? This plan will take you through every verse of the Bible in one year.

No matter how you decide to read, stick with it. It's normal to skip a day here and there. Don't get discouraged. Just pick up where you left off and read this amazing Book.
